County Agent Asks Farmers To Check On Corn Earworm

County corn growers were warned again this week to be on the lookout for corn earworm and also the corn silk borer by County Agent Hugh Clearman.

Clearman said they were out to check again if there is any doubt, and if they find the worms, talk to farmers who have had the best results in getting rid of them.

Fred Pitzer, southwest of town, Mr. Clark who lives seven miles west and Mr. Moore who lives just north of Clover airport, have had the best results so far as is known, the county agent said.

He added that they all used a mixture of two parts 40 per cent Toxaphene and one part of 20 or 25 per cent DDT with at least one quart of the acre and as much water as is necessary.

ing into the cocoon stage within the next few weeks, but they can still do a lot of damage, he said. The borers will be prevalent more. Usually they lay eggs in clusters on the underside of leaves up toward the top of the stalk.

In order to control the corn-silk borer it is necessary to locate the egg masses and apply the necessary insecticides before the newly hatched larvae can bore into the stalk, Clearman said.

He said after the small worms have entered the stalks they can no longer be poisoned and will continue to feed to maturity. The main damage done by the borer is in the heart of the stalk and is not usually seen by the casual observer.

Rain Slows Potato Harvest Until Fields Dry Out Again

Rain quieted down the local potato picture somewhat over the holidays, but no damage was reported. The market is expected to strengthen somewhat during the next few days, according to local potato men.

Notes along the Potato scene are: Barrett's have a small tent city next to their packing shed to solve the housing problem for their crew.

H. J. (Jimmy) Morrison, representing J. Lerner & Son of Chicago, is in west Texas for the potato deal, making his headquarters in Hereford.

The Hereford Potato Growers Association of which Henry Benson is general manager will pack its usual heavy tonnage under their outstanding "Hereford" and "Cow" brands.

Jack Westro, grower and shipper of west Texas potatoes, has loading points at Monroe, Kress, Dawn and Hereford, as usual will be one of the principal factors in this season's shipping deal.

Walter Galloway, one of the principals of the Shippers Pre-cooling Service of Brownsville, arrived in Hereford from North Carolina early this week to supervise the pre-cooling of cars of potatoes for a number of local shippers.

W. D. (Dave) Lurry has taken on a two-fold job this season in that he is acting as sales agent for the Hereford Potato Growers Association and for Jones & Peters, representing a combined total of from 500 to 600 cars. All cars will be pre-cooled and federal-state inspected.

The Associated Growers of Hereford, of which N. E. Moore is general manager and George H. Carmody is sales manager, loaded the first car of west Texas potatoes. It was billed to A. Hulzinga & Sons, Chicago. The Associated Growers will have their usual heavy tonnage again this season, shipping under the well-known "Top-of-Texas" and "Big B" brands.

Howard Gault, head of the firm bearing his name, estimates that he will ship around 250 cars and carlot equivalents by rail and truck over west Texas potatoes from his Hereford plant this season, as well as several cars of white and yellow Grano and yellow Sweet Spanish onions.

Assisting him with sales will be Otis Dickey, Mr. Gault ships under his well-known "Hi-Plains" and "Pan-Tex" brands.

Jones & Peters, a partnership composed of George T. Jones and Joe T. Peters, is a new firm in name only in the west Texas potato deal this year. Mr. Jones was formerly manager of the Hereford Potato Growers Association and Mr. Peters was formerly a principal of the firm of Neff & Peters. Both partners have had many years experience in handling potatoes. The firm will pack and ship their supplies under "Vita-Spud" and "Mingro" brands.

Finlan & Digby, a partnership growing and shipping firm composed of D. W. Finlan and Charles Dieby, one of the largest onion firms in Hereford, this week started harvesting Crystal White Wax and Yellow Bermuda onions. Their white and yellow Granos will be ready about July 10, followed by Sweet Spanish about July 20. Onions will be shed graded and packed under the firm's "Finlan & Digby" brand.

J. K. Baker, grower and packer of west Texas potatoes, opened his packing plant at Hereford this week. He estimates his firm will handle in the neighborhood of 100 cars and carlot equivalents via rail and truck this season. Sales will be handled by himself and Kathleen Baker.

Leon Coffin, head of Leon Coffin & Sons, a growing and shipping partnership firm composed of himself, and his two sons, Bert and Leon, Jr., estimates there are approximately 70 acres devoted to onions in the Hereford area.

Home Building Exceeds Previous Records In First Half Of This Year

Residential building through the first six months of 1950 reached over the $400,000 mark in Hereford, surpassing the total for the entire year of 1949 in just half as much time.

Fifty-four permits were released by the City to residential builders, and other homes may have been built without permits, at residential building hit an all-time high.

March ranked as the big month in dollar when permits for nine homes totaled $85,000. An additional $5,300 in permits for three residential additions was issued that month.

February and April exceeded March in number of homes, however. Eleven permits were issued in both months, with one permit going to a duplex in April. February led the two with $62,300.

So far this year permits equal $445,000, including duplexes. At the end of 1949, the figure only totaled $382,850.

Although building permits for business purposes and churches in particular are way off this year from a year ago, a few buildings, such as the $112,000 Shirley School addition, have helped to bring up the 1950 total.

Business building amounts to $45,700, including the addition to Hereford Clinic and the new Gooker Clinic.

By month's residential building started off the year with five permits totaling $36,600 in January; eleven permits totaled $62,300 in February; March went on up to $85,000 for nine homes; April had 10 residences at $53,600 and a $4,000 duplex; ten residences in May amounted to $82,550. June finished out the first half of the year with eight residences at $69,500 and one duplex, $5,500.

The entire building picture, which is incomplete because of failure in many instances to get permits, totals about $450,000 so far in 1950, compared with $432,500 in the first six months of 1949.

However, the year 1949 included $265,000 worth of church building, $180,000 in grain elevators, $58,000 at the hospital and Ehlig School $475,000.

It had to come out sooner or later, so Dick Cuilpepper just decided it might as well be now: Tuesday, Independence Day, 1950 at Buffalo Lake, Dick and E. W. Young ran into a school of channel cat so thick they were bumping the boat, and believe it or not, one jumped in. They don't care whether you believe the story or not, because they doubt if they would believe you if you told them one like it. But it actually happened.

Besides the pound and half cat that jumped in with them they caught eight more in rapid order.

Lumber Output Stepped Up; Other Materials Adequate

Despite continued shortages of construction lumber, fears of sharply rising home prices are being alleviated as production of other essential building materials continues in step with demand.

Another cheering fact for prospective home-owners is that even lumber supplies are beginning to show signs of becoming adequate for the mammoth need. Until late in May, lumber production had been lagging behind orders by nearly 20 percent for most of this year. But in the last full week of May, output exceeded orders by 10 1/2 percent, as reported by the National Lumber Manufacturers Association.

Northwest, biggest lumber producing section of the United States, where severe snowstorms slowed operations in January and February.

Typical of the production pace of other building materials is the capacity rate at which asphalt roofing plants are being operated. Asphalt roofing manufacturers, the volume producers in the roofing business, are turning out enough of their colorful, fire-resistant product to meet more than 80 percent of the nation's requirements.

Normally, about two-thirds of all asphalt roofing is used for re-roofing. Now it is estimated that more than half is going for new construction.

Long Time Ago

25 Years Ago
The semi-annual meeting of the Hereford Golf Club was held at the Fox Mercantile store with a good attendance and interest. Seven new members were accepted and the financial report showed the club to be growing and in solvent and easy circumstances. The membership of the organization was then well over 40 and it appeared as though the maximum of 50 would soon be reached. Plans for the last six months of the year were made and Dew Mercer, Greens chairman, outlined his schedule of improvements in a characteristically earnest and emphatic burst of oratory.

Hereford was expecting to send a big delegation to Plainview in the near future, when representatives from many Panhandle towns would gather to attend the hearings of the Interstate Commerce Commission and State Railroad Commission on proposed rail routes across the western and Panhandle sections of the state.

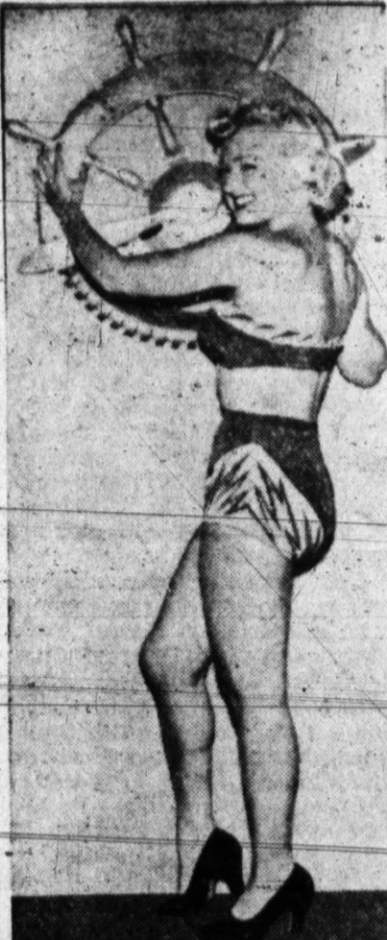

A big baseball game between Hereford and Amarillo was scheduled for the next Sunday afternoon at the West Park in Hereford. Amarillo was to send down a "strong aggregation," but the locals were confident of beating them as the mighty Tate, invincible local hurler, was to be on the mound for Hereford.

"The world is coming to an end" was the prediction of a White Leghorn hen owned by Miss Minnie Grant, a farm-girl near Hereford. This message was written on an egg that was brought to the Purcell and Cox Grocery Store, but the inscription failed to show the date. The freak egg was on display for a few days at the Brand office, and caused a great deal of comment.

The seating equipment for Hereford's new $125,000 high school building was purchased from the Texas School Equipment Company at a meeting of the board. The equipment would include desks and chairs for the study hall and seats for the big auditorium. The Domestic Science and other laboratory equipment was to be supplied by the Wichita School Supply Company of Wichita Falls. The entire equipment for the high school was to cost approximately $8,500. Seven companies which placed bids for the supplies were represented at the meeting. The new building was to be ready by December 15, 1950.

A meeting in the Armory Hall of everyone interested in building up a first class band for Hereford was called by Ralph Smith, local musician. It was decided that Hereford should have a band to represent it at the fall fair where Deaf Smith County exhibits would be shown. With a number of trained musicians on hand and with a number of new ones who were eager to learn, the prospects for a local band were exceedingly bright.

Three Pointers Will Help Avoid Food Poisoning

AUSTIN—Food poisoning and the spread of food-borne diseases can be "things of the past," State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox asserted here today.

"People need only remember three things to bring about the end of the food poisoning disease classification," Dr. Cox declared. "Buy food from safe sources, prepare it in a sanitary fashion, and serve and store it correctly."

He said state laws covered the sale of contaminated food to the housewife, but "only the housewife can see that food is properly stored and cleanly prepared for serving to the family."

There is a difference between food infection and food intoxication, he pointed out.

Food infection comes from eating or drinking a product contaminated by a germ. Dysentery, typhoid fever, para-typhoid fever and tuberculosis are examples. Animal parasites can also gain entry to the body in this way. That, the doctor said, is how people get trichinosis and tapeworm.

The growth and multiplication of certain toxin forming bacteria in unrefrigerated foods bring on food intoxication, according to the explanation. That is the source of staphylococcus infection and the deadly botulism. Some kinds of mushrooms and certain shellfish are also poisonous.

Some poisonous substances may be accidentally introduced into food, Dr. Cox said. "For instance, rodent and insect poisons, spray residues on fruit and vegetables, and poisons from metal containers."

To point up the deadliness of some food poisons, he related the story of the housewife who suspected some home-canned green beans she had just opened were tainted.

"She barely tasted one of them, but it killed her in a matter of hours. Some instances are rare but do occur."

Pre-Nuptial Party Compliments Jo Ann Witherspoon Friday

A pre-nuptial courtesy complimented Miss Jo Ann Witherspoon, bride-elect, of Leo Hennington, at the home of Mrs. N. D. Bartlett, Jr. Friday afternoon. Sharing as hostesses for the party were Mesdames: Maurice Tannahill, Liston Wilson, Earl Springer, W. H. Knox, J. C. Reese, Burl France, John Jacobsen, Jr., R. C. Childers, H. H. Caraway, George Heard, Deward Roberson and Roger Corbett.

A musical program was presented during the calling hours by Joan and Barbara McGee, Mrs. J. H. Hinds and Faye Knox, Audrey Hood and Coline Brown who gave a trio version of appropriate songs. Mrs. H. H. Caraway gave readings suited to the occasion.

Those present were Mesdames: Liburn Hamilton, E. Ramey, C. C. Neu, Beryl Witherspoon of Amarillo, Marcus Houser, Orville Houser, Elmer Reynolds, Glenn Witherspoon, A. C. Hershey, W. L. Jones, Colby Conkright, Hugh Witherspoon, Henry Hastings, Taft McGee, Elmer Harrison, Raymond Palmer, Floyd West, Claude Witherspoon, Jiggs Hartman, Lisle Woodford, A. W. Hembree, J. B. Sowell, Jr., F. M. Campbell, H. V. Stanton, S. J. Barclay, Merlin Kaul, members of the house party and the honoree. Many sent gifts who were unable to attend the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Herbst of San Antonio, formerly of Hereford, have returned to their home after spending several days with Mrs. Seth B. Holman.

Mrs. Deward Roberson and Mrs. J. C. Reese presided at the guest register and Mrs. Liston Wilson and Mrs. Maurice Tannahill presided at the refreshment table which carried out the bride's chosen colors in a rainbow of pastel shades. The punch bowl rested in a background of delphinium and phlox and extending crosswise over the table was a wide blue satin ribbon bearing the names Jo Ann and Leo lettered in gold. Floral arrangements about the house were of pink glads and white daisies arranged with accents of blue delphinium.

Grade crossing slip: Figure the legs before you cross.

FAIRWAY FASHION—American golfers might be a bit startled to see a caddy dressed like this, but Parisian designers have conspired to splash a bit of color on the golf course by attiring the ball-hawks in beige "plus fours" topped by a brown jacket, scarlet cap and brown calf shoes with flaps and squared toes. Pigskin gloves and a scarlet and blue umbrella complete the outfit.

Birthday Honoree
Mrs. J. B. Harlin was named honoree at a dinner given by her sister, Mrs. Jack Roberson, Friday evening celebrating her birthday. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Harlin, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Manjeot, Mrs. Reber Howton and the hostess.

O. P. Cowart and family are vacationing at Eagle Nest this week.

VFW Nips Umbarger The Hereford Brand Take On Vega Sun.

Hereford VFW blasted out a 13-0 victory over a hapless Umbarger nine Sunday afternoon in the final tune-up for the "show-down" game of the season here Sunday afternoon.

League leading Vega will play here on Veterans Park diamond, with Manager Glenn Anderson taking the mound against the invaders Sunday.

Hereford jumped off to a four run lead in the first, and followed up with a big six run fifth to ice it away. Wendell Burdine opened the first with a walk followed by Buddy Anderson who also walked. Conrad Clark singled and Stan Barrett fled out to centerfield. Raymond Lueb and Johnny Renner were both safe on infield errors. L. J. Clark hit a fly to left field and Bobby Patterson singled to end the scoring for the inning. Corbett fled out to center.

Burdine scored again in the second after getting on with an error. Anderson and Clark both hit safely behind him.

Clark hit a homerun in the fourth with nobody on. Barrett followed with a triple but died on base.

Renner opened the fifth with a double and Lueb got the only other hit as the hometown put six markers across.

Clark hit three for four and Patterson two for four to lead in the stickwork Sunday.

Renner let the visitors down with just seven hits. He got into a little trouble in the third when he gave up a single and then hit Friemel, the second batter. He struck out the third man, B. Hartman, and after Brand was safe on an error he struck out Henscheid with the sacks full and threw Arlio out a first for the third out.

Umbarger went down 1-23 from here to the eighth when a couple of infield errors and two singles scored a run.

Umbarger loaded the bases again in the ninth but Renner again struck out two batters and the third went out on an assist. Lee to Carroll, short to second.

The Vets lost to Vega early in May, 7-9, although they outhit their arch rivals, 12-7.

"LOOK MA! NO HANDS!"—Playing "heads up" baseball against the Philadelphia A's, Cleveland rookie Luke Easter slid into home plate. He was called safe when the throw from Cleveland Stadium's outfield bounced out of Philly catcher Fernain Guerra's glove and sped past Easter's face. In his moment of triumph, however, Luke looked more like a promising juggler than a highly-touted hitter.

Second Guessing

By Jerry Stoltz

Sunday's results point out the fact that a lot of matches are decided on the second nine in 18 hole matches. Ray Graham takes the prize for extra hole matches though. He went to the tenth before losing both times. Streu knocked in the best putt on an extra hole. (I know, I saw it) for a birdie on the tenth. One-fifth or eight of the 40 matches were decided in extra holes.

McWhorter and Loewald went the farthest, to the 13th, to decide their match. And Bill Davis and Tommy L. MeJohn went to the 12th. Three of the eight third flight matches went to extra holes. Looks like they were fairly evenly matched doesn't it? Don Martin was all that stopped an all-Tulla finals in the first flight. Don beat Littlejohn and Ike Holman was already in by beating Bill Howard.

A lot of interest was created over the short tournament and the tournament committee deserves real praise for running it off so smoothly.

John Pasco and Punk Gilbert ran into the toughest luck of all Sunday. John evaded up his match with Homer Lee Owens after being down with three holes left, only to lose the first extra hole when his ball hit a bag. Punk was instrumental in getting Bobby Martin to come up for the tournament, and then had to play him the first round. Martin fired a 34 and then later Punk faced another 34 in his consolation round. He said he "didn't want to play in that championship flight anyhow."

By the way Martin is a member of the Tech golf team.

Hunting Costs Start Here

If you think trapping and transplaning deer for the benefit of hunters doesn't run into the money, guess again. The State Fish and Game Commission says: "The average cost of trapping Texas deer for transplaning was $29.79 for the last year. The total cost of trapping 885 white-tailed deer on one South Texas ranch was $21,848.87 or $25.56 per head. At the same place, trapping 135 turkeys cost $5,534.73 or $4.88 per head. Posey Beats Martin, 1 Up In Golf Tourney Finals

Veteran J. M. Posey won the Fourth of July Golf tournament Tuesday afternoon, one up, from Bobby Martin, 1-year-old Texas Tech sculler from Dimmitt.

Posey took the first hole and managed to stay either one or two holes ahead or even most of the afternoon. He took his final lead on the sixteenth with a birdie three and then halved 17 and 18 to win the invitational tournament.

Martin came within two inches of tying the match and sending it into extra holes on 18 after making a sensational recovery shot. He had pulled his drive up on the east end of the putting green. From there he pitched to within eight feet of the cup and then barely missed the birdie putt after Posey got down in regulation figures.

Flight Winners—Ike Holman of Tulla won the

Three Tie Thursday For Ladies Low Net

Clarice McCaslin, Irene Conaway and Rhea Barrett tied with even par 36's on Ladies Day Thursday for the low net traveling bracelet prize.

In other types of competition Cora Jane Benson and Irene Conaway tied for guessing the score they would shoot and coming the closest to it. They guessed, not knowing which holes were to be counted, and both were exactly right. Cora Jane guessed a 28 and Irene a 26 for the four holes used.

On the low score on four par holes, Irma Terry had 17 strokes to win the prize. Rhea Barrett and Irene Conaway were close behind with 18 each.

Barbara Burney had a net 33 Wednesday, but wasn't eligible for the low net prize since that score must be shot on ladies' day.

Other final net scores were Marie Cogdell 40, Zona Evans 44, Lucille Posey 39, Pauline Howard 39, Cora Jane Benson 42, and Irma Terry 38.

First flight three and one over Don Martin of Hereford.

Frank Leimer of Dimmitt won a four and two victory over Wendell Burdine in the second flight finals.

Joe Butler of Dimmitt beat Homer Lee Owens in the finals of the third flight three and two. R. Hardy and J. A. McWhorter played the fourth flight finals in consolation finals Jerry Stoltz downed Ted Young three and two in the Championship flight. French Edelman beat Earl Grady, 1-0 and one in the first flight. Bob Goodwin defeated Paul Conaway three and two in the second flight and Bert Shackelford came out one up on Earl Hendricks in the third flight. J. W. Robinson, Jr. got a default from Pat Kerr in the fourth flight.

Third place play-offs between losers in the semi-finals found Bill Howard winning in the first flight, Oscar Lange defeated Buck Cleavenger two and one in the second. Gerald Wilson downed John Patton nine and eight and Sam Nelson was a four and three victor over Nolan Grady.

Posey reached the championship finals by beating Ted Young one up and Urlin Streu four and two. Streu knocked Jerry Stoltz into consolation play, winning one up on the tenth. Martin walked through the bottom bracket on his way to the finals with a five and three victory over W. W. Gilbreath and a two and one win over Ernie Dowell who had defeated Dr. Lingenfelter two up in the first round.

Young beat Lingenfelter one up to make the consolation finals and Stoltz downed Gilbreath four and three.

Holman and Martin reached the first flight finals without undue stress. Holman won his first match from Wayne Phillips four and three and then beat Bill Howard by the same margin. Howard but Preach Edelman into the consolation, winning two and one. Martin defeated Earl Stagner four and three and Tommy Littlejohn of Tulla four and two. Littlejohn had beaten Bill Davis on the 12th hole, one up.

Edelman beat Phillips one up and Stagner lost to Davis one up on the 10th in the consolation round.

Wendell Burdine upset Stan Barrett one up and went on to win another one up victory over Buck Cleavenger to reach the second flight finals. He beat John D. Puma and Oscar Lange.

In consolation play Bob Goodwin who had lost to Cleavenger one down, beat Barrett two and one. Conaway beat Pitman one up.

Third flight finalists Owens and Butler got there as follows: Homer Lee defeated Ray Graham one up on the 10th and John Patton one up on the 10th. Butler beat Earl Hendricks four and three. Wilson had defeated Ed Young four and three and Patton beat Bert Shackelford four and three.

Earl Shackelford defeated Ray Graham one up on the 10th and Earl Hendricks downed Ed Young four and two.

J. A. McWhorter and Harold Loerwald played the longest match of the day before McWhorter won one up on the 13th in the fourth flight. McWhorter went ahead to defeat Nolan Grady one up and reach the finals against Ray Hardy who beat Pat Kerr three and two and Sam Nelson one up on the 10th.

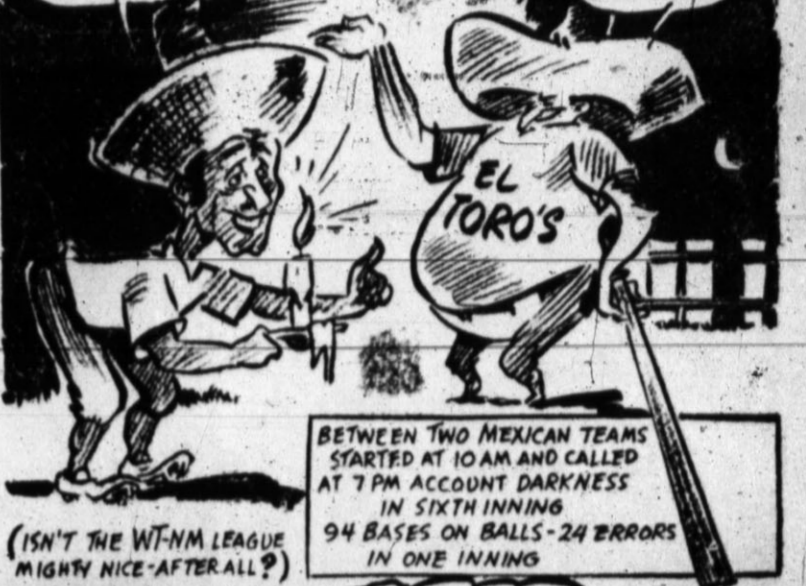

Nelson advanced on a bye and Grady defeated J. W. Robinson, Jr., four and two. Robinson beat Loerwald one up on the 13th hole.

your glance recognition? Would not knowledge of both be added insurance for your safety?

From the shape and color of the sign, it is possible for you to tell whether it is a REGULATORY sign intended to inform you of a law or regulation enacted to promote safety and convenience upon the streets and highways, whether it is a WARNING sign erected to tell you of a hazardous condition either on or beside the road, or whether it is a GUIDE or DIRECTIONAL sign to lead you to your destination.

This is the third in a series of four articles designed to make Mr. and Mrs. Average Driver more familiar with traffic control signs, which when properly understood and obeyed, make our highways a safer place to be. This is the story of the GUIDE sign.

Although GUIDE signs are not as important to the motorist from the standpoint of safety as the REGULATORY and WARNING signs, they are certainly invaluable in guiding him to his destination on roads he has never traveled before. They also serve other functions for the motorist such as: (1) informing him of intersecting routes; (2) identifying rivers, streams, parks, forests, and historical sites; and (3) giving him such information as will help him along his way in the most simple, direct method possible.

GUIDE signs are divided into three major groups: (1) Route Markers, (2) Destination and Distance signs, and (3) Information signs. All three groups have black letters and borders on a white background, and they are always reflectorized to improve their visibility at night.

Route Markers are either U. S. or State. U. S. Route Markers are used only on the U. S. numbered highway system or the approaches thereto, and they can be identified easily by their shield shape. State Route Markers are used only on State numbered routes and their approaches. There are instances in which a State route follows a U. S. route, and State Route Markers are mounted on the same post under the U. S. Route Marker. Each State picks the shape of its own State Route Markers, and Texas has selected the square shaped marker for the reason that it gives the greatest space for large numbers and letters.

Route Markers are erected: (1) in advance of intersections where the marked route is intersected or joined by another marked route, (2) as confirmation markers just beyond any intersection where there is any possibility that the motorist might lose his route, and (3) as reassurance markers at intervals of two miles in rural areas and at whatever intervals are necessary to properly guide the motorist in urban areas. In rural areas the Route Junction marker is usually erected 300 to 500 feet in advance of the intersection, while in urban areas the Route Junction Marker is erected midway of the block preceding the intersection.

Destination signs carry the name of a city, town or other objective and a directional arrow. It is usually located at the intersection to which it applies.

Distance signs are located a short distance outside each city or town, and they show the distance to the center of the business district of the next town and the next county seat or town over 2,500 population. Where the next town is the county seat, the distance to the following county seat or important town on the route is shown on the lower line. When the name of a town is once placed on a Destination sign, it appears on all subsequent Destination signs until the town is reached.

Information signs show such things as the names of rivers, state lines, parks, city limits, and other things of interest to the motorist. These signs are usually located at the point to which the sign message applies.

Remember that U. S. Route Markers are always the shape of a shield; Texas Route Markers are square; and Destination, Distance, and Information signs are rectangles with the long dimension horizontal. The stan-

A speed violation is a contributing factor in one out of every three fatal traffic accidents, according to the National Safety Council. Here's a good vacation tip—the faster you go the harder you hit.

A thought for Farm Safety Week July 23-29: Cultivate safety and harvest happiness.

Standard colors for all these GUIDE signs are black letters and borders on a white background.

BASEBALL
WASHINGTON, D. C. — The All-Star game is now the subject of the day all over the country. It's the same story every year about this time. The American League versus the National, the teams picked by the fans! What could be more democratic? But there is one improvement to be made yet. And that concerns the length of the gala contest.

In this column, it is proposed once a year, All-Star time, to change the length of the contest. Instead of one nine-inning game, three five-inning games would be substituted. Whereas only the top players in a close game, see action in the nine-inning affair, in the three-game set, different teams would be used.

Each manager would have to start a new lineup for each of the three games in the new system. And although there would be three games, fans would sit through less than at a double-header. The league to win two out of three, or all three, would take All-Star honors. More good players would get into the games because there would be three starting lineups.

There would also be three starting pitchers (per league) and three cleanup hitters, etc., etc. The fans would like to see a three-game series, too. It would be more baseball for the money, and more participants for the money.

Another advantage of the proposal is that a couple of extra pitchers would be needed by each side. The fans would get a chance to see some of the hurlers they would miss in the present system. So there are a lot of advantages. No one has ever mentioned a disadvantage of the proposal, and if there are any, they are probably minor ones. It might be worth a try.

Swisher County Farmers Ask For Water District

Swisher county farmers will petition the Board of Water Engineers to designate a reservoir underlying a proposed ground-water conservation district, the High Plains Water Conservation and Users Association reports.

Lubbock county farmers will meet this week to discuss a similar action, and Hale farmers may take the first step toward forming a district at a meeting July 10.

Action of the Swisher County group followed a meeting of about 200 farmers in the courthouse at Tulla June 29 under auspices of the Swisher County Water Conservation Association. W. O. Fortenberry of Monroe, president of the High Plains Water Conservation and Users Association, of which the Swisher, Hale and Lubbock County groups are associate members, addressed the Tulla meeting. He explained legislation enabling formation of the proposed district.

Led by Nolan Williamson, agent for Lubbock County, 26 county extension agents attending an irrigation school at Texas Tech College went to Tulla by bus to hear the discussion.

Lubbock County farmers are scheduled to meet at 8 p. m. Thursday, July 6, in the Lubbock courthouse. Two lawyers, E. A. Howard of Lubbock and Arthur P. Dugan, Jr. of Littlefield, will be the main speakers.

The Hale County meeting is set for 8 p. m. Monday, July 10, in the courthouse at Plainview.

The Golden Text is: "Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting" (Psalms 139: 23, 24).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson - Sermon is the following from the Bible: "He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation" (Psalms 24:5).

The Lesson - Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "It is the living Christ, the practical Truth, which makes Jesus 'the resurrection and the life' to all who follow him in deed" (page 31).

Each Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, Christian Science Services are held in the Star Theatre. All who are interested are cordially invited.

of the FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH has a guest speaker. Speakers of the last two Sundays were Wayne Evaris who spoke on "Religion in Business" and Ray Cowser who spoke on "Religion in Law." The guest speaker for this next Sunday night will be

Rev. Don Davidson, pastor of the Methodist Church.

Championship at Stake
Revenge is the slogan Sunday according to Manager Andy Anderson who swears Vega won't take another Hereford scalp home this season. The Central Plains league title is also at stake. A loss will virtually assure Vega their second straight pennant, while a VFW win will tie up the race and force a play-off if both teams go on through the remaining four games unscathed. The local squad is in better shape than they have been all year, except for the fact that competition has been so poor lately that they are inclined to loaf as soon as they get a lead.

Still no news on the Junior American Legion front. Joe Smith says he thinks they will let them know when the game is to be played in time to get here, or at least he hopes so.

Law And You

By Bob Kirk

DO YOU KNOW what "absentee voting" is?

Absentee voting is a means whereby one who is not going to be at his regular voting place on election day, so that he can vote in person, may vote prior to election day.

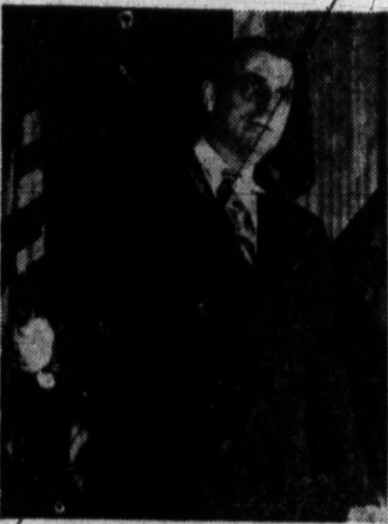

Absentee voting may be done during the period of not more than twenty (20) days or less than three (3) days prior to the date of an election.

One who is in the county of his residence during the above period may go to the office of the County Clerk, and there he will be furnished the necessary supplies for absentee voting. After he has voted, his ballot is sealed, and at the proper time be counted with the other votes.

They report: exceptionally dry weather from Clovis to Melrose, with only some very small feed growth, and that is planted with very shallow moisture. Some farms are not yet planted.

40,000 Families Affected By Disasters in 16 States, 6-Month Survey Shows—Floods, Tornadoes Cause Greatest Loss

Floods, tornadoes, storms, fires, and other disasters this year have struck an estimated 40,000 families in 16 of the states comprising the American Red Cross Midwest Area, shown by the above map. Red Cross officials in charge of aiding disaster victims in the area report a number of disaster operations continuing into the second half of 1950. Largest continuing operations are in the North Dakota-Western Minnesota flood area, where Red Cross has provided continuous assistance since the end of March, with operations complicated by recurring floods and blizzards.

Sparkman's, Jr., was ill last week, and took penicillin shots. She was better Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson at their home near Amarillo. The young people enjoyed a volleyball game, on Friday night, at Frio. They will have another one next Friday night, at Frio. They will then have them again and probably will have them regularly on Friday nights unless something else interferes. All young people in the community are welcomed to come and play. They almost always report a good time, with usually as many as 15 persons and often more than that present. Frio has more young people now than have lived here in a long time. The choir usually has about 20 young people and the Young People's Sunday School class about an average attendance of 16 to 20, with about an equal number of boys and girls. Occasionally, as many as 25 attend the class. This group is the very life of the community, and is one of which Frio can be justly proud.

Federal regulations. Game breeders who raise them are required to have a permit from the United States Department of the Interior, Fish and Wildlife Service, Washington, D. C. as well as the regular $2 state license.

The law stipulates: "Such a license does NOT entitle the holder to capture any of the wild game birds or wild animals of

Licenses Required To Sell Wild Game

AUSTIN — More than 500 Texans have taken out game breeders' licenses this year, the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission reported. The 531 figure for 1950 is almost double the 284 total for 1949.

The licenses cost $2 and are required for all persons desiring to sell wild game. The game fee is necessary for persons obtaining a permit to keep wild game. The permits have to be renewed by August 31 of this year.

The Chief Clerk estimated that about 90 per cent of the residents obtaining the game breeding licenses raise pheasants. This is the only species which may be sold as food.

Enclosures for "wild squirrels, wild prairie chickens, wild quail, wild chachalacas or wild pheasants shall not contain more than forty acres. For deer, antelope, turkey or any wild migratory bird, the enclosure shall not exceed three hundred twenty acres."

JOHN McLEAN

This Question:

I just read in a back issue of the Saturday Evening Post that there are in one year - 33,500 fatal home accidents compared with 28,600 fatal auto accidents and 16,000 fatal industrial accidents. There are also five times as many non-fatal accidents in the home as in the car. Can I get insurance to protect me from statistics like these?

You don't let your home become run down...

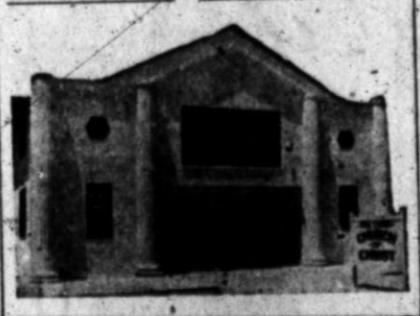

... but how often do you visit your physician?

It's just good sense to visit your physician regularly. Frequent check-ups are "good for the soul." More important, they enable your doctor to discover and prescribe for possible symptoms which, if neglected, could lead to serious illness.

KILL WEEDS

In growing crops with

AGRICULTURAL WEED-NO-MORE

A Proved Ester Formulation of 2,4-D

The new miracle chemical 2,4-D in Agricultural Weed-No-More, brings you the practical, low-cost way to kill weeds in growing small grains.

Spraying Agricultural Weed-No-More on young corn is faster than cultivating, kills weeds right up to the corn plants, makes row-planting practical.

On pastures, fence rows, ditch banks, and grassed waterways, Agricultural Weed-No-More kills many weeds, roots and all.

Agricultural Weed-No-More goes on fast—covers 7 to 15 acres per hour. It goes far, too—14 pint to 3 pints in only 5 gallons of water treats 1 acre! Apply it by the new low-gallonage method developed and proved by Sherwin-Williams Research. Use a simple, low-cost rig that you or any local shop can quickly assemble.

Costs less per acre because it controls weeds more effectively! Agricultural authorities have found that the ester forms of 2,4-D used in Agricultural Weed-No-More penetrate weed leaves within 5 minutes, do not wash off, mix easily with water, won't clog or corrode spray equipment, and are harmless to stock. Agricultural Weed-No-More has been proved on more than 500,000 acres.

FREE BULLETINS: Before you buy any 2,4-D weed killer, let us give you all the facts on Weed-No-More performance on farms like yours. Ask us for new free bulletins... today!
