Oil bath lubrication assures smoother performance; light, easy-to-pull action that requires less power. Both your tractor and the No. "6" are protected by quick-acting safety releases. Easy hook-ups save a lot of time even before you get in the field. See us today... get the full details on the No. "6."

Spring Check Up And Repair Time

High on the list of things to be done around the farmstead during the spring season should be the annual spring check up for the home and other farm buildings. Now in a good time, says W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer-buildings of Texas A&M College, to inspect and make needed repairs before they become big expense items. Foundations should be checked for masonry cracks and also for crumbling mortar and cracks where masonry steps and porches join the foundation. Fill the small cracks with asphaltic cement and chip out the larger ones to a width of half-inch or more and fill with cement mortar, says Allen.

On masonry or stucco walls, look for blisters and loose pieces of stucco. Check for cracks in brick or stone walls and for warped, split or loose siding or shingles in wooden walls. Repair masonry as was recommended for foundations; remove loose mortar from between bricks or stone and replace with cement mortar. Badly warped boards and damaged shingles should be replaced, but retailing should be sufficient in lots of cases points out Allen.

He says clap board joints should be sealed with paint to keep moisture from entering and if the house needs a new coat of paint, spring or early summer is a mighty good time to do the job.

Wooden cornices and window frames and trim should be checked for leaks and for loose nails, cracks, rot or warping, he says. When retailing, set and putty each nail. Rotted wood should be replaced and all cracks filled with putty or caulking compound.

Don't forget to check the roof and gutters, he adds. Shingles should be checked for looseness, course by course for misplaced shingles of any kind cause leaks. Renail split or badly warped wood shingles. They should lay perfectly flat. Seal doubtful joints in a composition or asbestos roof with pitch or caulking compound and reset any shingles that are out of position and tighten saddle boards on the ridge. All metal flashing on dormers and chimneys should be checked for looseness, erosion, dust, and lack of paint, he says.

All broken joints on gutters and downspouts should be resoldered and the inside of the gutters repainted with metallic paint; and he continues, 1 nails and straps holding gutters and downspouts should be replaced.

By following these maintenance rules, Allen says, you should enjoy more comfortable living and lower maintenance costs on the home and other farm buildings.

Cultural Club Studies Canning Methods Used

Cultural Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. R. C. Childers Friday afternoon with the Home Demonstration agent, Mrs. Tom Draper, giving a demonstration on canning green beans and pineapple. Complete instructions were given for cold packing, steaming and processing. Mrs. Draper stated that geared gauges on pressure cookers were best because they are easily repaired. "All pressure cooker gauges should be tested once a year," she said.

Recreation program was directed by Patsy Childers, 4-H Club girl, and Mrs. Francis Hill won the prize.

Roll call, dealing with canning problems, was answered by Mesdames: Earl DeHart, Grady Parsons, Raymon Palmer, Francis Hill, J. I. Findley, Paul Corbett, R. N. Cooke, Tom Draper, and the hostess, Mrs. Chas. Hill was a guest.

Mrs. Louie Olson will be hostess for the next meeting on June 3, at 2 o'clock, and a tour of Lushness houses will be conducted.

The Hereford Brand, Hereford, Texas, Thursday, June 1, 1950

Hereford Bull
By JIMMIE GILBERTINE

Memorial Day, 1950, will be long remembered in Hereford for it was the occasion of this week end that the community lost three valuable citizens: W. E. Neal, pioneer; O. E. Sherman, humanitarian, and David Phillips, a young man who was fast becoming an outstanding citizen. All three were of different generations, but each had contributed much to the community—and each of them will be sorely missed.

It was near fantastic, the manner in which the trails of Otto Sherman and David Phillips crossed immediately prior to their accidental deaths. Dubbs Reeves said that Mr. Sherman and David Phillips visited in his store for several minutes as he was locking up Saturday night. David also happened to be at the hospital Sunday morning following Mr. Sherman's accident, and went on the ambulance call, helping to rush Mr. Sherman to the hospital. A few hours later, David lost his own life in a tragic automobile accident.

Recording the loss of such valuable citizens is indeed one of the saddest and most trying tasks which a newspaperman must face.

Saw a lady last Tuesday who was really burned up. She was scheduled to catch the bus out of Hereford for Albuquerque Tuesday. She very carefully went down to the bus station Monday night and finding the station closed, she checked the schedule which they have pasted on the window. The schedule called for an Albuquerque bus at 2:35 a. m. and one at 2:10 p. m. Because she had to change at Moriarity to board the Santa Fe bus, she decided to take the 2:35 a. m. bus in order to get into Santa Fe Tuesday during the day. She carefully set her alarm clock for 2:00 a. m., got out of bed and drug down to the bus station. She waited and waited. Finally, around 4:00 o'clock, she decided to call the Amarillo bus station to find out how late the schedule was running.

"There is no 2:35 bus," she was told over the telephone. "The bus goes through Hereford at 5:50 a. m., and it is sitting right here in Amarillo now."

The lady told me frankly—and in none too lady-like terms—what she thought about Hereford, Texas, and more especially about the Texas-New Mexico Transportation Company. Furthermore, I was inclined to agree with her. This is terrible. Our bus service has been bad for a long, long time. It is bad enough to stay closed most of the time, but it looks like as big an outfit as Greyhound and TNMTC could run a reasonably dependable bus service. These outfits realize monopolistic situations through special permits. They use the public roads for private gain. It seems to me that the City of Hereford and the Chamber of Commerce should get on the ball and file some protests. I told the lady to see her lawyer about filing a suit.

The people out at Summerfield never did get their Brands, shipped via bus, Sunday, May 21, and some pictures we shipped via bus to the engraving company in Amarillo last Thursday arrived in Amarillo the following Monday. Someone needs to tell these boys the war is over. How long can they get by with this stuff?

The Hereford swimming pool is officially open. I personally guarantee this fact. Furthermore, it may not be the biggest in the Panhandle, but it sure was the coldest last Saturday afternoon. I came very near backing out on the first official 1950 dive, but Joe Easley was standing there, just wishing I would lose my nerve. I sure wish Homer Fox had been there. One little kid kept on whispering, "Gee, he looks just like a professional wrestler." Mayor Dameron and S. O. Wilson were there, but I noticed that they forgot to bring their bathing suits. They are also raising quite a stink about the fact that I swam the short way of the pool rather than the long way.

I apologize to everybody who was crazy enough to be out on such a cold day—and this includes all city officials—but I just didn't have the intestinal fortitude to try. Besides, the goose pimples were so big that they slowed me down. It sure is a long way, too. I admit that had a lot to do with it, but if it hadn't been so extremely cold I would have tried. Really and truly, I still believe I could have made it under normal conditions. I really do, and I will still race with Don Zimmerman—and spot him a pair of water wings or an innertube.

Mayor Dameron and Mr. Wilson are also threatening to sue me. They say that they still look at the waitresses in restaurants. I even talked with several waitresses and they back up the statement, so I guess I am wrong again. I am sorry. However, they said you never get old not to see the waitress, and I was mighty glad to have this information. It makes the future look a lot brighter.

Here's a letter which just came in. It is from Mrs. C. R. Smith. She probably saw me shivering out there last Saturday. Anyway, she is really on the beam. She says:

Dear Sir: "I think the swimming pool should have a roof over it for winter use and the water warmed with hot water pipes laid in the deepest part of the pool on the bottom, so everyone would not touch them but they would warm the water. Everyone I have mentioned it to thinks it should be done. I believe the people would pay for it being done without a bond issue. I think season tickets could be sold to pay for it and some would donate for having it done. "This might be a good question of the week, and you know what my answer is. Sincerely, Mrs. C. R. Smith."

Thank you, Mrs. Smith. Put me down for the first ticket. I know exactly what you are talking about. Also, I agree on the bond issue deal. We have a lot of things more urgent and which include more people. I think your judgment is sound.

Story going the rounds: "Do you know what the devil said when Hitler arrived?" The answer is, "If I knew you were a'coming, I'da baked a Kike."

Here's another from a trade magazine: A negro man, whom we will call Jones, was up for running a red light. "Jones" said the judge, "you're charged with running a red light. Is that right?" "Yessir, that's what the charge is," replied Jones. "Well, did you run the light?" asked the judge. "Yessir, I run the light," answered Jones. "Well, why did you run a red light? Don't you know it is against the law?" continued the judge. "It was this way, Sir," Jones explained, "I sat there on the green light and all the white folks went through. Then, when it turned red, I thought it was for us colored folks."

CANDIDATE — James Hill Lettis of Houston (above), has announced his candidacy for judge of the court of criminal appeals. The incumbent, Judge F. L. Hawkins, is retiring. (AP Photo)

When the judge could bring the court to order he said: "Well, you're the dumbest negro I've ever had in this court. Or, you're the smartest. I haven't got time to try and find out. Case dismissed."

Funk Wins Rough Match Saturday

Hereford wrestling fans got their money's worth Saturday night as George Overhuls and Ruffy Silverstein and then Dory Funk and Benny Trudel locked horns in two action-packed events.

In the first event Overhuls took the first fall from the Chicagoan in 14 minutes with a full Nelson. Silverstein applied a back breaker at the eight minute mark to win the second fall and at the same time he put Overhuls out of commission for the night, winning the match when Overhuls had to leave the ring.

Dory Funk and Trudel picked up about where they left off the last time they were matched here, and the near capacity crowd saw some mighty fine wrestling. Dory won the first fall with his spinning toe-hold in 11 minutes.

Trudel came back to win the second fall in 12 minutes with a single leg backbreaker. Funk ended the match seven minutes later with the third fall. He applied a body smother as the finisher.

The match was rough all the way and Funk was supposed to have been in bed after suffering a jury on Thursday night, according to Guy Lawrence, Lions Club wrestling commissioner. However, "he came to get revenge and got it," Lawrence added.

Wrestling matches will start at 9 o'clock starting Saturday night, Lawrence announced.

Private Bobby Hamilton stopped in Hereford Saturday for a short visit enroute to Lowery Field, Colo., where he will enter an Air Force advanced training course. He is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Link and will leave for Denver Friday.

Handicap Tourney Narrows To 16 Men In Each Flight

Sixteen golfers emerged from the scramble Sunday and went into the quarterfinal round in each of two flights of the First Hereford Handicap golf tournament on grass greens.

J. M. Posey blasted Jerry Stoltz out 6 and 5 and will meet Frank Cogdell who knocked out Dr. Lingenfelter 1 up.

Stan Barrett eased Tom Howard to the sidelines with a 2 and 1 victory while Joe Kerr shot spectacular golf in defeating Ted Young 5 and 4.

Dr. Channer will meet Bill Howard by virtue of his 3 and 2 win over Earl Stagner and Howard's 1 up defeat of J. A. Pittman.

Lloyd Neil and Frank Latimer meet to finish out Flight "A" in the tourney. Neil swamped John McCleskey 6 and 5 and Latimer got by Wayne Phillips 4 and 2.

FRED WALL is high man bowler for the week with 210 and LOUELLA DOOL rolled 191 to lead all feminine keggers. High for the season is BILL ENGMAN'S 255 and Louella Dool also heads the women in this department with a 203. FRANK COGDELL believes in playing them close, he won both of his matches by a slim 1 up margin in the handicap tournament.

ED YOUNG and BILL DAMERON had to go around twice before they could get a decision out of their match, and DARRELL BLANTON and BEN BOYCE went 21 holes in their match. ANDY ANDERSON thought he was going to have to play J. W. ROBINSON, JR., even with a sprained back Sunday at Tulia. But another ball player drove up just in time. J. W. can't throw so they were going to put him in center field and let the other fielders come over to make his throws for him. Mr. and Mrs. JAMES CRAIG and J. B. and ROY McCULLOUGH are Carroll Whiteside vs. Martin Pavletich. Whiteside beat Gerald Wilson 6 and 4 and Pavletich advanced over Harold Close 2 and 1.

Joe Butler and Bruce Woodgell play each other, and both advanced with forfeits.

John Estes ousted Wendell Burdine 4 and 3 and will play John Patten who beat T. J. Clay on the final hole, 2 up.

Edward Young won a very close match from Bill Dameron on their second 18, 5 and 4. Duane Balize will play Young after receiving a forfeit.

Consolation matches in the "A" flight are Owen Jacks vs. Paul Conaway; Don Martin vs. Alvin Shirley; Darrell Blanton vs. Preach Edelman; John McCleskey vs. Wayne Phillips.

"B" flight consolation matches are: Erb Jordan vs. Bill Miller; Mutt Wheeler vs. Dale Tinnin; Jack Ramey vs. T. J. Clay; Bill Dameron vs. Pat Corbett.

Only four consolation matches were played, the rest of them received byes or forfeits. Jordan beat M. J. Layman 6 and 4; Jacks beat W. W. Gilbreath 3 and 1; Darrell Blanton beat Ben Boyce 1 up and Bill Miller beat Jack Clark 2 and 1.

JIM TERRY plans to open the new number one tee for play Monday. They will look back on that day for years, as the day all slicers were saved. The ladies have set up their golf ladder—they are placed as follows: LUCILLE POSEY, WILLA ELLIOTT of Happy, IRMA TERRY, MRS. DEWARD ROBERSON, GENEVIVE EBERLE, EVELYN GRAHAM, PAULINE HOWARD, MARIE COGDELL, MRS. JOHN McCLESKEY, IRFNE CONEWAY, JEAN STREU, CORA JANE BENSON, CLARICE McCASLIN and EULA LEE CAVE.

VFW Wins 2-1 Over Tulia Play Hart Here Sunday

Hereford VFW climbed into sole possession of second place Sunday by virtue of a 2-1 win at Tulia while Canyon lost to league leading Vega.

Buddy Anderson, first man up in the first, scored the first Hereford run after getting a walk to first. Dick Ross and Conrad Clark both hit singles to bring him around after Wendell Burdine and Raymond Lueb popped out. Onias Carroll ended the inning with a fly to the pitcher.

Clark scored the second and winning run in the sixth after singling to get on first. Ross again singled behind him and he scored on Bob Patterson's grounder in a close play at the plate. Ross went to third and Patterson to first on the fielder's choice but neither Winkler nor manager Glen Anderson could hit safely to bring them in.

Hereford pitcher Glen Anderson set the Tulia batters down with two hits in eight innings. He also struck out eight in that stretch and the ball club backed him up with good fielding, only making two errors.

Johnny Winkler traded positions with Anderson after the eighth and struck out three, gave up two hits, a walk and a run in the ninth.

Clark and Ross wielded the big sticks for VFW Sunday, each hitting three times. Ross had a perfect day with three for three and two walks.

Lueb hit twice and Buddy Anderson and Burdine each knocked out singles to total 10 hits for the Hereford cause.

VFW will play Hart on the home diamond Sunday afternoon.

Vega Beats Canyon While Nazareth Whips Umbarger

Vega 6, Canyon 5

Vega pulled another game out of the fire Sunday afternoon to defeat Canyon 6-5 and stay in undisputed lead of the Central Plains league. Vega was out hit 10-8 during the afternoon.

Vega actually scored the winning run on a miscue by the Canyon third baseman, Carver, who played a runner between second and third, and failed to make the out before a runner from third scored.

Carver made up for this play with a perfect day at bat. He hit four for four, with a homer and double included.

Bill Brown hit two for four for Vega, Ralph Ridgeway and Roger Morris each hit two for three. Hammond was the winning pitcher for Vega. Each team had two errors. Ford pitched hitless ball for five innings before Vega scratched. His teammates scored one in the first and one in the third during that time.

Nazareth 6, Umbarger 4

A 10th inning home run with one on gave Nazareth their first league victory of the season at Umbarger Sunday afternoon and pulled Umbarger out of third place at the same time.

Leonard Schulte slammed the winning hit down the third base line and the left fielder failed to field the ball.

Junior Hockstein of Nazareth and Dennis Brandt of Umbarger pitched all the way and were tied 4-4 at the end of nine innings.

What makes a racing car driver?

"You not it or you ain't got it," says Bill Schlinder of Freeport, Long Island.

"I've been driving for nearly twenty years. It's something you can do or you can't do. You got it or you ain't got it."

Schlinder is one of the small group of drivers who criss-cross the country, driving on dirt tracks, at county fairs, week in and week out.

"There's a big boom on in automobile racing," the balding veteran said at Arlington, Tex., recently—just before the start of a program at the old race horse track.

"It's a lot bigger than it was before the war." Schlinder is better known as a red-hot midget car racer than he is as a big car driver. But he's spending more and more time driving the big jobs, even though he's just finished building a brand new, souped up little midget of his own.

"Most drivers today come out of the midget cars," he says. "And most of the midget drivers come from kids who're crazy about cars—some of them graduate from the 'hot rods' to the midgets."

Schlinder's dad has a garage and that's where he got interested in cars. Pretty soon he was hanging around a track and the next thing he was driving.

It's not as easy as all that, for there are pretty stiff requirements for a big car driver.

Like most of the drivers, Schlinder has never won the Indianapolis classic, but he finished in the money enough at the dirt track races and the midget events to make the life very worth while.

Schlinder is like many drivers in that he doesn't own the big cars he races. It costs thousands to maintain a team of racing cars.

Like others of his kind, accidents and death are talked of in casual acceptance of the risks of their trade.

"Isn't that the kind of car Rex Mays was killed in," we asked, noting the name on the red job Schlinder was to drive in the Arlington races.

"It's the same car," said Schlinder.

"It didn't get banged up much. It's a good automobile, too. I fired it up the other day."

"Haven't you driven it before this race?"

"Nope, I'll be driving it for the first time when I go in the trials."

"Aren't you superstitious?"

"Nah. No time."

Comments On Sports

By ED SIMS

WASHINGTON—Television isn't standing still. The latest innovation to thrill Mr. Baseball Fan is the split picture transmission, with two cameras televising two different pictures at the same time, and the two appearing on the screen—in your home. This little rinkydink allows the fans to watch two plays at the same time.

No longer do Major League baseball fans have to wonder what the runner on first is doing while watching the pitcher wind up. If he's out to steal, with the new technique, you see it. You actually see him leave first and head for second while the pitcher completes his wind up and delivers the ball.

In Washington the televisers of the local team's games split the screen on a diagonal line, left top to right bottom. The pitcher is centered in the lower half of the screen and the runner on first is shown in the upper half.

The fan who hasn't watched baseball on television might ask why one camera doesn't get the whole field. The answer to this question is that one camera can do just that, but in so doing the area covered becomes so large, in proportion to the size of the picture on your television screen, details and players become unrecognizable. To get a decent picture the television camera must focus on a small area, comparatively. Thus the only way the viewer can see two plays at once is to have two close-ups transmitted at once. This the industry now offers us.

About the only thing lacking in television's presentation of baseball games is the possibility of recovering fouls. No one, sitting in his living room watching a baseball game, has ever recovered a foul ball yet. Some male fan was seriously injured recently when he insisted on watching a ball game when his spouse wanted to see a play. That's another of the disadvantages of the game. But the impossibility of catching flies and home runs is the worst disadvantage. Some fans have spent long hours waiting for a ball to pop out of the screen. But none has recovered such a ball.

Maybe the aerial cable is too small.

Fixed-Time 'Stop And Go' Highway Traffic Signals

What do you know about highway traffic signals? If your knowledge is limited to the fact that you go when the signal shows green and stop when it shows red, you can make the problem of traffic control an easier one for your public officials by knowing more about traffic signals.

You can help bring about uniformity of traffic signals by learning to identify the standard traffic signals and then encouraging your officials to use only standard types when they install new signals or replace existing non-standard signals. Wouldn't it be much easier for you to understand the indications given by traffic signals if they were all of the same design in every town and state? In fact, standardization of traffic control signals is considered so desirable and important that the fifteenth Texas Legislature specified that all highway traffic signals installed in Texas after 1947 shall conform to National standards.

The sketch will help you identify the most common type of a standard fixed-time (stop and go) signal for suspension over the center of the highway. To be standard each face must have at least three lenses, with red at the top, yellow below the red, and green below the yellow. Additional lenses, showing arrows and walk-wait, may be added at complicated intersections to provide for special movements of traffic. The standard position of the lenses is not only helpful to every motorist, but it is especially helpful to the color blind who can tell whether to stop or go by the difference in brightness of the lenses when they cannot distinguish colors.

The yellow signal, which follows green only, plays a very important role. It warns traffic in motion that the signal indication will change; it provides a clearance time for traffic already in the intersection and for traffic approaching so closely that to stop would be hazardous; and it permits operation of yellow as a flashing caution signal when the signal is not being operated as a stop and go signal.

There are a large number of traffic signals in use today that were installed before the present standards were adopted, and they do not conform to present standards. Unfortunately there are some local units of government who still buy non-standard signals without the yellow lenses. Some of these two-section signals show both red and green at the time they are changing color, which is not only confusing but also hazardous. You can also help with the problem of traffic control by understanding the functions of traffic signals and their limitations.

A well designed and operated traffic signal installed on the basis of factual studies of the number of vehicles and pedestrians, accidents, speeds, delays, and physical conditions of the location can render invaluable service in the smooth and safe flow of traffic. On the other hand, an unjustified, ill designed, ineffectively placed, improperly operated, poorly maintained signal is not only a waste of public funds, but it causes unnecessary delays to traffic, disobedience of signal indications, use of alternate routes, and often, an increase in accidents.

After years of study and experience, National authorities have set out the conditions that will justify the installations of a traffic signal. Unfortunately, too many traffic signals have been installed on the basis of opinion rather than facts, and upon the mistaken idea that they are a cure-all for all traffic problems. The result has been a hindrance to traffic rather than a help. How many times have you, as a law abiding citizen, been Hereford Chamber of Commerce went on record as 100 per cent to back the Santa Fe railroad and to give that company all of the freight and express to and from Hereford if the company would assure daily package service. It was voted at a luncheon at Hereford Hotel on what was designated as Santa Fe Day. W. E. Goodloe, division freight and passenger agent, and F. J. Mackie, division superintendent, spoke to the chamber. Short talks were made by E. B. Black, D. L. McDonald, Walter Dunlap and J. E. Beyer.

An alfalfa mill was to be installed by Dr. G. W. Heard, one of the most prominent dentists of the Panhandle. It was to be on his irrigation farm, two and a half miles from Hereford.

Curtsinger was moving Kidd Caskey's household goods and the horse which was pulling the wagon which held the goods bolted when someone of the wagon could not resist the temptation to beat the bass drum being carried. Caskey was a musician and owned, among other things, this drum. After a volunteer wrecking crew gathered under the drum and other scattered articles, it was found that nothing was missing. But the harness was in bad shape. Hereford golfers poured it on the Amarillo club.

W. T. Smith, who had been very ill in the home of his son-in-law, John Renfro, was much improved.

G. W. Brumley was considered to be one of the biggest hog buyers in West Texas. He, at one time, shipped out nine cars of hogs to California markets while two loads were shipped to Ft. Worth. The brand said, "In 1923, nearly a million dollars worth of hogs were purchased by Brumley."

Two cars, driven by Mrs. Basil Jennings and George Jowell, collided on a Tuesday night on the Harrison Highway three miles west of Hereford. Occupants were severely bruised and cut, but no bones were broken. Both cars were wrecked. The cars were meeting each other and lights blinded the drivers. Following the wreck, Mrs. Basil Jennings

Swisher County Joins In Forming Water District

Swisher County is joining Lamb, Hockley and Dallam counties in efforts to form underground water conservation districts under provisions of House Bill 162, according to a report by the High Plains Water Conservation and Users Association.

The announcement came following a meeting in Tulla Thursday, May 25, held under auspices of the Swisher County Farm Bureau. Speakers included Clyde Bradford of Happy, president of the Swisher County Water Users Association; Perry H. Bowser of Kress, member of the executive committee of the High Plains Water Conservation and Users Association; and Miss Salla Rodman of Littlefield, information director of the High Plains group.

Starting in mid-June, the Swisher County Water Users Association will hold a series of meetings through which they hope to reach every water user and submit the proposal for a district.

Fifteen farmers attended the Farm Bureau meeting and round table forum. They were unanimous in expressing the opinion that a district should be formed as soon as possible.

Both Bradford and Bowser attacked the idea of state control of underground water use. They led a fight carried on by High Plains farmers in which two state-control bills were defeated in the Texas Legislature, and of passage last year of the farm-sponsored "local option" bill. Recently, they reported, the Texas Water Code Committee has heard attacks on the present law and suggestions that a state agency similar to the Railroad Commission be set up to control drilling and pumping of underground water.

Proponents of the state control bills argue that House Bill 162, which provides for the creation of locally-controlled independent water districts, is unwieldy, Bowser said. He declared that organization of one or more water districts would prove this charge to be untrue.

Both Bradford and Bowser agreed that some sort of regulation is desirable, to insure proper spacing of new wells, to prevent waste and to carry out a re-charge program. Water districts, they pointed out, have authority under the present law to carry out such a program.

Miss Rodman told of progress in Dallam, Hockley and Lamb Counties toward organizing districts, and explained provisions of the present law in regard to creating districts.

The Law-You

DO YOU KNOW what the "common law" is? The "common law" is the unwritten usages and customs which were accepted as the law in England at the time the colonists came to America from England. This body of law has been adopted by the constitutions of and recognized by the Courts in many of the States of the United States.

By Statute in Texas the common law of England, so far as it is not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State, shall together with such Constitution and laws, be the rule of decision, and shall continue in force until altered or repealed by the Legislature. Thus in case of conflicts between the "common law" and the statutory law, the statutory law will prevail. This law is evidenced by the decisions of our appellate courts, which declare what the common law is, and how it shall be applied to particular situations. For further information on this subject, see your local attorney.

Because of high cooking temperatures, a type of oxide coating forms on the aluminum burner heads of your gas range. Just shine them up with ordinary aluminum cleaner.

The smoky type of cheese lends piquant taste to broccoli or artichokes. Melt cheese in double boiler, pour over the vegetable.

If there's a slight odor when feather pillows are drying in your gas dryer, don't worry about it. Feathers are animal fibers and the odor is caused by the high temperature needed to get the pillows thoroughly dry.

Protein in fish are what makes it so nourishing a food and which can be retained by cooking over a low gentle flame, never over high heat.

LIFE OF TRANSFUSION—These lovable, laughing children must have blood transfusions every few weeks for the rest of their lives, or they will die. Three-year-old Vicki Lau, (right) and her baby brother, Vaughn Charles, 10-months-old, are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Erier of Dallas. Both have Mediterranean anemia, a blood disease so rare in America it took medical experts months to identify it. Doctors say, if they get their transfusion on time, they will grow up and live out a normal life span. (AP Photo)

It's just good sense to visit your physician regularly. Frequent check-ups are "good for the soul." More important, they enable your doctor to discover and prescribe for possible symptoms which, if neglected, could lead to serious illness.
