SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

Darrell Blanton is scheduled to return by plane tonight from Austin where he attended a Butane management school Monday through Thursday.

W. J. Reeves and Dale Tinnin, accompanied by Earl Tinnin of Ralls, spent Thursday through Sunday fishing at Possum Kingdom.

St. Anthony's P-TA will sponsor a bake sale Saturday, April 28 at the Piggy Wiggy store. Home-made bread and dressed hens will also be sold.

Members of the North Hereford Home Demonstration club will have a bake sale at the Cashway Grocery store next Saturday, April 28.

Francis Hardwick has presented another new idea—the organization of a Hereford Theatre Courtesy Patrol, beginning Saturday morning, April 28. Fourteen courtesy patrolmen, seven girls and seven boys, will be selected for the first three weeks. During his patrol period, each patrolman is admitted free to any show. Each child registered with the patrol will be issued a good conduct card each month that he has a good conduct record, which will entitle him to a pass to one of any Wednesday-Thursday shows the following month, and a bag of pop corn the day he uses his pass.

Mrs. Argen Draper, county home demonstration agent, announced yesterday that the meeting to hear reports from the delegates to the district home demonstration meeting will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in the county court room. The meeting was originally scheduled for April 30, but was changed to April 28 because of conflicts.

Official delegates to the district meeting at Dalhart Thursday were Mrs. Frank Wilde of the North Hereford club, county THDA chairman, Mrs. C. A. Saulcy of the Westway club, and Mrs. George Epting of the Ford club.

Tom McFarland and John Alkin were notified this week by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce that they were named to membership on the group's water reservoir committee. McFarland and Alkin are president and vice-president, respectively of the Deaf Smith County Water Users' association and they will be able to get much more information about water as members of this committee.

Farmers of the entire area are invited to the safflower meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the district court room at the courthouse when Albert M. Lane, president of the Western Solvents Company of Longmot, Colo., will be here to explain the planting, growing, harvesting and marketing of safflower—a new oilseed crop from which edible vegetable oil and high protein feed are obtained. Lane will show colored slides of various phases of growth. Safflower oil (Continued on page 3)

A MAN CAN'T EVEN transact business in peace anymore, must be the thought of Tom McFarland, Chamber of Commerce secretary-manager. Tom was in the Brand office when he was confronted by the bearded men who relieved him of his clothes so he could make a trip to the ducking tank. Helping McFarland are from left: Jiggs Hartman, McFarland, J. T. Clay, Otis Hall, Blue Turpin, and Bill Howard.

Two District Court Cases Are Dismissed

A dismissal of the case against Leo Nichols, who was indicted by the grand jury on February 8, 1949 for assault with intent to murder with malice aforethought, was approved on April 23 by District Judge Harry B. Schulz.

In the motion for dismissal, Judge Schulz listed the following reason: the defendant was tried and convicted in a murder case in another court and upon such conviction, the state agreed to move for dismissal of cause for reason that he there received a life sentence in the penitentiary.

The offense covered by the indictment occurred on May 23, 1948.

An indictment against Pollard Prater for forgery, passing a forged instrument, and swindling by worthless check, was also dismissed on April 23 by Judge Schulz.

Dismissal was granted because the defendant was tried and convicted in a companion case in this court, and upon such conviction, the state agreed to move for dismissal of this case, the petition for dismissal stated.

The case against Prater was filed in May 1949.

OLD-TIME PHOTOS WANTED FOR SPECIAL EDITION

The Brand wants old-time photographs of Hereford to be used in the special Pioneer edition of The Brand to be issued shortly before the Mid-Plains Pioneer Day celebration, May 18 and 19.

Anyone having old photographs suitable for publication should bring them to The Brand office. If the negatives are available, they should be brought at the same time.

All photographs will be filed and kept for the owners.

May Draft Call Only Half Original Order

The May induction call for the local Selective Service board, originally set for 16 men and then cancelled, was cut in half, Mrs. A. Petersen, clerk, reported. The May call is for eight men only, and there is no call for physical examinations in the month of May.

Over the state as a whole the May induction call was reduced 57 percent—from 3,112 men to 1,332. The call for the nation was reduced 33 percent, but Texas got a bigger reduction because the state was given credit for national guard contribution to the armed forces in federal service, plus other credits for volunteer enlistment, according to Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state selective service director.

"Because of the reduced demands upon Texas for the months of April and May, it will not be necessary to have any men examined during the month of May," Wakefield commented. "We have a pool of examined and acceptable registrants which ought to last for several months."

Junior Hi and Elementary Bands Rate High at Clinic

The Hereford Junior High school band won a first division or superior rating and the Hereford Elementary school band won a second division or an excellent rating, Saturday at the Interscholastic League band clinic for junior and elementary schools in Plainview.

Purris Williams, band director, explained that "in music we are not in competition—there is no elimination process. The bands are measured by certain standards, not one against the other." Five divisions are set up by interscholastic league, the two named; third division, described as good or average; fourth division, a fair rating; and fifth division, called a poor rating.

Ted Moore was given a first division rating as clarinet soloist. He was accompanied at the piano by Ramon Childers Jr. Barbara Winget, vocal soloist, was rated second division or excellent, and Wanda Kirksey, vocal soloist, was rated first division. Both girls were accompanied by Dixie Young.

Two Forgery Charges Against Powell Dropped

Two charges of forgery against S. L. Powell Jr. were dismissed on April 20 by the district court by agreement of the state and the defendant's attorney.

Prior to the dismissals, four grand jury indictments were pending against Powell.

Mrs. Elizabeth Boneso of Stinnett spent the first part of the week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ireland.

Schaefer Pleads Guilty Monday To DWI Charge

William Schaefer of Hereford pled guilty in county court on Monday morning to driving while intoxicated.

He was fined $150 plus $29.30 costs, which he paid. Schaefer was apprehended by city police on Highway 60 in Hereford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Forrest spent Sunday visiting his parents at Big Springs on their way home from Austin where he attended to business. On the trip to Austin they stopped in Abilene and had lunch with their daughter, Cherry Anne, a student at McMurray college.

Beef Shortage Looms As Meat Packer Shuts Doors

Hereford meat markets are faced with almost complete termination of their supply of beef in their showcases for the immediate future, a survey conducted by The Brand Wednesday reveals.

The situation has been prompted by an Office of Price Stabilization directive entitled "Distribution Order No. 1 -- Fair Distribution of Livestock and Meat" and has been aggravated locally by the announced closing of the Deaf Smith County Meat company on April 30.

Cecil Jones, manager of the company, and Homer Brumley, owner, said the closing is necessitated by an "impossible situation" created by restrictions contained in the directive.

The Deaf Smith County Meat company has supplied virtually all the markets in Hereford with beef. Closing the doors of the firm means that their quota, which normally supplied beef requirements here, will not be taken up immediately and there will be no beef forthcoming for local consumption until and if local merchants can secure a connection with other major packers who have been supplying them with other meat products.

By way of explanation, the OPS directive—effective April 1 for wholesale packing and May 1 for custom slaughtering -- placed slaughtering quotas on Class I and Class II (the local firm, Cecil Jones, manager of the company, and Homer Brumley, owner, said the closing is necessitated by an "impossible situation" created by restrictions contained in the directive.

The Deaf Smith County Meat company, during April and May of last year, was operating under Homer Brumley, on a reduced status. When five employees of the company took over operation of the firm from Brumley on June 1, 1950, they increased their production for the last 10 months of the fiscal year.

Cecil Jones, who has been managing the company for the employee group, said the firm was closing down because of the restrictions placed on their activities for April and May and because they could not buy beef on the hoof at the present market, butcher it, and sell it at a profit under today's ceilings.

Effective May 1, the OPS regulation also puts custom slaughtering under quotas identically matching last year's activity, thus shutting off the firm's chances for expanding or marking more revenue from that type of work. Jones said that custom slaughtering in the past has been one of the greatest sources of revenue for his operation.

The slaughtering quota for the month of April (as determined by last year's period of curtailed activity for the same month) is 15 head of beef and no pork. The May quota for the firm—under the OPS regulation limiting to May, 1950 activity—is no beef and no pork.

Normal estimated usage of beef in Hereford is 20 to 25 carcasses EACH WEEK. The top capacity of the local processing plant is 200 head of cattle per month and 200 head of hogs per month.

The May 29-June 30 quota for the company is 81,903 pounds of beef and 24,990 pounds of pork, Jones said. The figures for the July 1-July 31 period are 127,392 pounds of beef and 29,235 pounds of pork. These are based on 1950 production figures and reflect the increased activity after the employees began operation of the business on June 1, 1950.

About 60% of the Deaf Smith company's production went to Hereford markets and 40% of their production to other routes, Jones said.

Employees at the plant said this is the fourth small packer in the area who was forced to quit due to the regulations imposed by the directive.

Homer Brumley, who leased the plant to his employees, said he has no plans to continue operation after May 1. He probably will lease the building out for storage, he said.

The firm has operated here since June 1, 1946.

Whether or not the Deaf Smith firm's quota will be taken up by another packer—if that is possible—would be problematical under present market and price ceiling restrictions, packers would not be able to fulfill any additional quotas profitably, Jones believes.

Hereford market owners agreed on the gravity of the situation for the immediate future at least. Some felt they would be able to secure beef later on, some were not sure, but they agreed that under the present situation, they would be taking the parts of a packer's quota that may remain after his regular accounts were stocked.

One market owner who bought 50% of his beef locally and 50% out of town said his allotment from out-of-town supplier this week was cut in half. This merchant sees no relief unless the price set-up is changed. He said his supplier has beef on the feedlot but he is not buying on today's market.

"You can't buy on the hoof and sell wholesale at today's prices," he said. He indicated that the situation could get worse under present ceilings. This store owner also said the shortage would be felt here most during the next week. His out-of-town supplier could promise him no beef relief.

A second merchant contacted said he has been getting his supply of beef from out-of-town sources and anticipates no immediate hardship in receiving meat. One of his suppliers, however, told him he had no beef at all this week and "wouldn't know about next week until it comes."

A third merchant told The Brand that 100% of his supply would be cut due to the closing of the local plant.

"You can't buy on the hoof today on the present speculation market," he reported. Out of five salesmen who call at his store, only one of them had any beef, he reported. This store had enough on hand to last through the month of April, but was not sure of his supply after that.

The store owner called the present regulations more of an encouragement for black markets than anything ever tried before. He reported that you can call the district OPS office for information on the regulations and "get no satisfaction whatsoever."

Another owner contacted said he had no beef but will know within a few days whether or not he will be able to connect up with a major packer. He also got all his meat from the Deaf Smith County Meat company in the past.

The owner of a fifth large market contacted said he has no beef and termed the situation "critical." It was doubtful, (Continued on page 3)

Summerfield Pioneer, J. A. Noland, Dies Suddenly

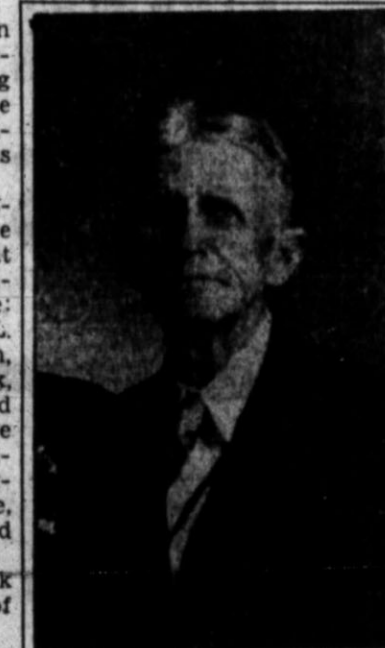

J. A. Noland, 67, a leader in community affairs at Summerfield, died Monday evening shortly before 6 o'clock at the Deaf Smith county hospital only a few minutes after he was stricken with a heart attack.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at the Summerfield Baptist church at 3 o'clock with Rev. A. A. Simons in charge. Pallbearers were: A. N. McRight, Mac Pitman, L. H. Lookingbill Sr., Jack Streun, Perry McMinn and Britt Clark.

Honorary pallbearers included Bob Higgins, John Hacker, Lee Curry, L. L. Cannon, C. R. Walser, Bill Harris, W. R. Scheihagen, L. S. Walser, Ky Lawrence, Joe Kendall, Ray Johnson, and E. Thornton.

Interment was at West Park Cemetery under the direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

Noland had spent the day Monday playing with his grand children and visiting with old friends, the occasion being a birthday celebration in honor of his wife's 71st birthday given by their daughters and daughters-in-law at the home of a daughter, Mrs. L. B. Look-

Prizes for Pioneer Day Events Will Total $2100

Prize money totaling $2100 will be offered during the two day Mid-Plains Pioneer Day celebration May 18 and 19. It was revealed this week. Rodeo prizes will amount to $1800 while the remaining money will go to winners in the many contests including horseshoe pitching, flour scramble, old fiddlers, best dressed cowboy, best dressed cowgirl, whiskers, greased pig, greased pole, square dance, and perhaps others.

In addition to these prizes, the oldest pioneer of the Mid-Plains area will receive some special award.

One of the attractions of the celebration will be the Light Crust Doughboys who will be here to perform during both days. All pioneers of the area will be registered at Jim Hill Hotel, headquarters for the pioneer organization to be formed during the celebration.

Six big events will be featured in the rodeo, sponsored on May 18, 19, and 20, by the Hereford Riders. Present plans for performances include night shows on May 18 and 19 and the final show on Sunday afternoon. One of the highlights of the rodeo will be the crowning of the rodeo queen to be chosen from entries from towns and communities all over the area.

Jeff Roberson, a director of the Hereford Riders, said the $1800 in prize money will be split six ways with $300 in prizes being given in each event. The events include saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, calf roping, team tying, bull riding, and bulldogging. In addition there will be a girl sponsor event with the $5 entry fee for this event being used as prize money—winner take all.

Roberson said top rodeo stock has been obtained for the show, the stock belonging to Goat Mayo of Petrolia.

Rodeo entries may be made at the rodeo headquarters, the Phillips Service Station, corner of Main and Highway 60, phone 88. An entry fee of $5 will be charged for each entry.

DICK LUCAS, president of the Jaycees, paid the supreme price Tuesday for carelessly shaving off his whiskers while on a vacation in Kansas recently. Members of the non-shavers sect preparing for Pioneer Day dunked Dick in the tank on Main street and for a while the Jaycees prey kept the two captive goldfish in the tank company. The actual scene can be seen above with Lucas relaxing in the 2-0-1-d water. Those who helped Dick with his bath are, from left: Jim Terry, Bill Howard (hidden) and Harold Loerwald (behind Terry and Howard), Jiggs Hartman, T. J. Clay, Ed Skypala, and Blue Turpin.

Summerfield Pioneer, J. A. Noland 67, Dies Suddenly Monday Evening

ingbill in Summerfield.

When Noland became ill, he was on Main Street in Hereford. He made his way with difficulty to Gilliland Funeral Home and was taken to the hospital where he died about 30 minutes later.

A native Texan, Mr. Noland was born on December 14, 1883, in McClellan county. The family lived in Floyd county for some time before moving to Summerfield in 1917 to participate in general farming with wheat and cattle being the principle interests. About six or seven years ago Mr. Noland returned to Hereford, where he was married to Miss Nancy Greenville Nance at Crawford, Texas.

Mr. Noland, who loved singing and music, took part for many years in community singings. He enjoyed pranks and he enjoyed playing with his 23 grandchildren—some of whom he had romped with the day of his death.

Surviving Mr. Noland are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Joe Story of Hereford and Mrs. L. B. Lookingbill of Summerfield; five sons, Mack, J. B., Charlie, and Otho, all of Summerfield, and Jim Noland of Amarillo; two brothers, John Noland of Crawford and T. M. Noland of Floydada; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Hughes of Erick, Okla., and Mrs. Laura Dalton of Oglesby.

Discussing pleasant events at Summerfield in the past 34 years, Mr. Noland had taken part in the activities of—the birthday celebration when special guests included Mrs. B. C. Roberson, Mrs. Lee Kendall, Mrs. W. D. Johnson, Mrs. J. L. Lookingbill, and Mrs. J. D. Story, all of whom had been friends and neighbors of the Nolands for more than 30 years.

As evidence of the hard work the Nolands had put forth to make their life at Summerfield a success, one of the ladies told about Mr. and Mrs. Noland one time papering a bedroom while they rested from their more strenuous work. But the conversation did not stress hard work —it seems the work was forgotten for more delightful things such as community plays, box suppers, ice cream suppers, the literary society, and the school.

Mr. Noland recalled as one of the most unusual events of their life at Summerfield—the big snow which fell on Dec. 8, 1918. For the three-month period the ground was covered with a layer of snow, 20 to 24 inches deep, and the farmers pulled slides with their mules to feed the cattle.

Another highlight for the Nolands and their neighbors was about 18 years ago when Summerfield had her first and only graduating class at the time the school, which was founded in 1901, had grown to include five teachers. A banquet honoring the occasion was held in the

J. A. Noland home at which time Mrs. Noland's three brothers, one sister and their families happened to come for a visit. The family sat in the bedroom and visited while the affair was conducted.

The oldtimers gathered at the Noland home Monday for the celebration have worked for years to make Summerfield a prosperous little community. Many of them have retired from active farming—and their children and grandchildren are now taking a lead in farming activities and in carrying on the spirit of the community.

Texas has 2,317 community home demonstration clubs with a total of 41,282 members who meet 12 to 24 times yearly for practical demonstrations of homemaking and discussion of current topics.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ireland spent the week end at Sweetwater visiting in the home of their son, Edgar Ireland.

Lovely Pat Ware, Dallas, was the first entry in the Miss Splash Day bathing beauty contest to be held in Galveston on Splash Day, May 6, the official opening of the beach season. She poses (above) in an F-86 jet fighter plane which was on exhibit on the isle's Pleasure Pier. (AP Photo)

Beef...

he said, if he could get any beef from the packers who have been supplying him with pork because they have their other customers to consider.

This man also bought 100% of his beef from the local firm. He stated definitely that he would have no part of any black markets. "If I can't get beef in my showcase honestly, I won't have it! I don't think my customers will feel hard towards me for not supporting a black market operation."

The last large market contacted said the situation was already "rough". Although he has about a three or four week supply on hand before he is in a "critical" supply situation, this butcher bought 85% of his meat here. He, too, said he didn't think he would be able to buy beef from any packer in this vicinity until the old customers of the packers were supplied with what they needed.

The much discussed DO-1 regulates slaughtering for six different classes of slaughterers (including farm slaughterers) so as to keep the distribution of meat in its normal channels.

Class I (federally-inspected) slaughterers are on a quota set up on an OPS formula; Class II (non-federally-inspected) slaughterers are set up on a quota depending upon the amount of activity during the same calendar month the previous year; Class IA and 2A (custom slaughtering by either of the above); and Class 3, (farm slaughterers who transferred up to 6,000 pounds of meat during the calendar year year, 1950).

Prohibitions against slaughtering include killing for your own use unless certain conditions are met, including past slaughtering history. A statement authorizing your right to slaughter must accompany animals you take for custom slaughtering. Invoices with detailed information regarding the animal and ownership, and slaughtering conditions must be kept for OPS inspection.

CARD OF THANKS
We thank every friend for their many kind acts, heartfelt handshakes, and words of comfort, for the beautiful floral offerings, food prepared and served during our time of sorrow. Life is uncertain, however real. Donald Conklin served his country and fellow man, as well as his Heavenly Father. Many of our boys are serving and dying for our country. Are we doing the things we should to prove our selves worthy of their sacrifices? Let us search our lives and let Christ into our hearts to bless and guide us on that we may soon meet the loved ones who have gone on.
May God's richest blessings rest on each of you.

Texas Agriculture Reflects New Techniques in Farm Operations

COLLEGE STATION - Texas agriculture moved into the second half of the 20th Century in the trail of clearly defined trends according to Extension Director G. G. Gibson, mechanization on farms and adoption of labor saving equipment mounted to a level which materially reduced the need for manual labor in preparing the soil, cultivating staple crops and harvesting small grains in 1950. An estimated 250,000 tractors turned 80 per cent of the soils on Texas farms, while more than 10,000 of these power units equipped with rotary hoeing equipment reduced the cost of hand labor in cotton fields by about 65 percent. At the same time, the engineering specialists of the A & M college Extension Service conducted field schools in maintenance as a long step toward economizing time and expense through teaching owners of this vast pool of machinery methods of home upkeep. Meanwhile, unbuilding of the soil expanded while other practices designed to improve the economic social welfare of rural families went forward during the year.

The progressive decline in the number of individual farms was an important factor in formulating visible trends. Texas farms counted in the 1950 Federal census numbered 331,494 compared with 418,002 enumerated in 1940. This does not indicate less land in agriculture but rather a steady movement toward combining small farms into larger ones and a steady decline in tenant farming. Larger farms do not necessarily mean better farms, but the 1950 achievements in perspective suggest that they are sounder economic units and their operators receptive to advanced practices in agricultural production. Although climatic and related conditions were unfavorable to statewide high crop yields, Gibson points out that acreage production of cotton, grain, sorghums, rice, corn and peanuts were higher in each case than the 10-year average. This result is attributable in very large measure to adherence to demonstrational teaching in preparation and cultural methods by headquarters and field personnel of the A & M College Extension Service. Cotton was an outstanding example of cooperation between grower and Extension. In a season of unfavorable weather which increased insect infestation and made control difficult, the yield averaged 205 pounds of lint an acre, or 35 pounds more than the previous 10-year average. This result was obtained through systematic promotion of the national Seven-Step Cotton Program by Extension county agricultural agents and the cotton work specialists together with application of a record amount of insecticide to fly- and a quarter million acres of growing cotton. Insect and parasite control, directed by the Extension Service saved Texas farmers and ranchmen an estimated $10,000,000 in 1950.

Trends create changes, but around the farm home there is a basic routine which occupies the hands and affects household expenditures. Since there is a hard and an easy way to do housework, the Extension headquarters home economic specialists and county home demonstration agents trained approximately 2,500 adult women and girls as leaders in demonstrating methods of work simplification. In turn these leaders trained more than 29,000 club women in simpler ways of making a bed, washing dishes, laundering, ironing and other home duties. Meanwhile, home economic specialists trained other groups in sewing arts, and aided still others in home landscaping and producing home gardens. As a consequence of this help rural women made thousands of adult dresses and children's garments, representing a money saving of more than $16,000 over retail costs. In summarizing Gibson says life for Texas rural families was more complete in 1950 than in any preceding year. Since more than 80 percent of the occupied farms now have central station electric service, families have the benefits of conveniences have equipment which were very distant a decade ago.

Sunshine Club Meets in Scott Home To Plan Cemetery Work Day

Bellview Sunshine club met in an all-day meeting Tuesday with Mrs. F. B. Scott in Clovis. During the business session at which Mrs. Harvey McInturff presided, the club voted to have a work day at the cemetery on Wednesday. Mrs. Lillie Mae Daugherty, home demonstration agent, gave a talk on insect control. In answer to roll call each member named a garden or household pest she has learned to control. Present were Mesdames Pat Ridley, C. L. Hutchens, Ralph Burnett, Ralph Northcutt, J. A. Smith, Clinton Burnett, Curtis Scott and Harvey McInturff.

Visit Caverns
Mr. and Mrs. Pat Ridley took a group of young boys to Carlsbad Friday for a trip through the caverns. They returned home Saturday. Making the trip were Michael Trower, Grady Box, David Bailey, Jimmie Lowe, Kennie Hopkins, Windall Armstrong, Arnold Cross and Charlie and Dwayne Ridley.

Cowboys Win Second
The Rosedale cowboys won second place in the Curry county track meet at Clovis with 53 1/6 points while Texico won the meet with 72 points. The Rosedale cowgirls won the county volleyball tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lacey have gone to Ruidosa for a few days. They plan to visit their daughter in Artesia before returning home. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hutchens visited Mrs. Hutchens' parents in Fort Sumner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. George Messenger visited their daughter, Mrs. Albert Magerous and family in Clovis Sunday.

An FBI man from Albuquerque was in Bellview Tuesday getting information about the car that was stolen from Hereford and run off the caprock.

Kiwanis First Birthday Event Thursday Night

The first birthday party of the Hereford Kiwanis club will be held at Hotel Jim Hill tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 p.m., according to President John Pool.

The event will be observed with a "Ladies Night" celebration. Main speaker for the evening will be T. W. Gilstrap, general manager of the Southwestern Public Service at Amarillo.

Other entertainment features for the evening will include the appearance of the Amarillo High school boys' quartet, a review of the year's activities by Bob Wear, and dinner music presented by Pat Walton, Hereford high school student. A buffet supper will be served. Pat Sullivan will act as toastmaster. H. V. Stanton will give the invocation. Lowell Sharp will introduce the guests.

staff. At least, quite a few butchers are plenty worried. However, the bureaucrats slipped up. They forgot to put a quota on horse meat and mutton. No kidding, folks, this is a serious situation. Read all about it on the front page this week. It's too involved to try to explain it twice.

Old timers over the area will recall Rufus Sewell, former Hereford business man. Rufus is in the hospital at Raton, N. M., and was today reported as critically ill. The Sewells were at the ranch near Palsom, when he suffered a heart attack and was carried to Raton. In addition to having operated the Ford place here, Mrs. Sewell also operated the Conoco station at Main and Highway 60. He left here about 1940 and has since been engaged in ranching activities in New Mexico.

Better luck next time Wilburn. Elmer Patterson.

Understand Hereford may go into a meatless regime within a few days, due to government red tape, quotas and a bunch of

In the year of our Lord 1951, businessmen are beset with many problems and great among these worries will be found the term "donations". The cause, usually worthy, is beside the point. The number of worthy causes and the total of dollars contributed is the big thing with most people and I believe I could safely say that Main Street donations in Hereford count up to more than $200,000 a year. This subject is, of course, often discussed when business men gather and, as you can guess, is the wrong subject to bring up when you are in a hurry to get away.

All of which is by way of emphasizing a point, chiefly being the fact that I encountered a business man this week who is actually asking to make an additional donation. "I would gladly contribute $5 to the garden club which sponsors the tour of Hereford homes—if they will only quit," he declared. "Last year my wife went on the tour and we had to repaint all the woodwork and re-paper the house. This year she went on the tour again and is now talking about remodeling the whole place. Could I save money with a good size donation every year?"

He was joking, of course, but maybe he also had a good point involved. The annual home tour serves the purpose of getting people out of a rut and at the same time allows inspection of the new homes without too much fuss and bother. This year, as in the past, the tour attracted general interest and brought praise for the various homes included. All in all, it is a good deal for the community.

Mrs. Hardy Benson from out Ford way writes the nicest post cards of any person I know. She read my column in Wes Izzard's spot last week and wrote the following: "It was really good and so right; you and Gen. MacArthur and his son on the front page." Boy, I like that, but I am afraid Mrs. Benson is getting me in the wrong league. I still think that MacArthur made one of the nation's greatest speeches, backed with plain-old horse sense. I do appreciate Mrs. Benson's kindness, and I know she means well but the MacArthur speech only makes me feel humble. MacArthur is a capable General who tried to tell the people honest facts as he saw them.

J. M. Posey sure took a kidding about his whiskers the other day. He is growing one of those round-the-face affairs and, like a lot of old boys who are not so young as they once were, Jim's whiskers are definitely white. Our two kids saw him and Bus, the five-year-old, whispered, "Oh, Boy, there's Santa Claus." Sara, age seven, took a good look and decided Buz was right. They made a Loeline for Jim and started telling him what they wanted for Christmas. Jim looked sort of startled, then started stringing

Church Notes

Several men from the local First Christian church will probably spend several days at the Ceta Glen Encampment assisting with the work period, which the board of directors has set for April 30 to May 12. Two major projects, building of a new road into camp and tearing down of the present tabernacle and constructing a new one, will be undertaken.

Sunday services at the local First Christian church where Roy Ford is minister include church school, 9:45; morning worship, 10:50; youth groups, 6:30; and evening worship at 7:30.

Regular services at the Church of the Nazarene, Fourth and Jackson, include: Sunday school, 10 o'clock; morning worship, 11 o'clock; Sunday evening service, 8 o'clock. Mid-week services are held each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Roy Bickford, pastor.

Sunday services at the First Presbyterian church, 7th and Lee, include church school, 9:45; morning worship, 11 o'clock; evening worship, 7:30. Rev. Russell Wingert is pastor.

Rev. S. E. Eldridge made the following regular announcement for the Assembly of God church, Sunday: two radio programs over KPAN, 7:45 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.; Sunday school, 9:45; morning worship, 11:00; youth people's meeting, 6:45; evangelistic service, 7:45; mid-week services, 7:45 Wednesday evening; Women's Missionary Council, 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Christian Science services are held in the Star Theatre. All who are interested are invited.

Life everlasting, without beginning or end, is discussed in the Lesson-Sermon titled "Probation after Death" to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 29. The Golden Text is taken from Proverbs, and reads, "The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead."

He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour. From the King James Version of the Bible will be read this citation: "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life" (Proverbs 4:23). Also included in the Lesson-Sermon will be this statement from the Christian Science text book, "Progress is born of experience. It is the ripening of mortal man, through which the mortal is dropped for the immortal."

The daily radio program of the Church of Christ with Bob Wear, minister, as speaker is at 9:30 each morning except Sunday when the program time is 9:15.

Regular services of the church include: Sunday school, 10 o'clock; morning worship, 11 o'clock; young people's meeting, 6:45; evening worship, 7:30. The ladies of the church and their friends meet for Bible study Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and mid-week services of the church are held on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Plans are being made at the First Baptist Church for the vacation Bible school to be held in a few weeks.

Members of the local congregation will participate in the Tierra Blanca Association meeting today at Happy. Theme for the program will be "Spiritual Growth."

Sunday services of the church include Sunday school, 9:45; morning worship, 10:55; training union, 7:15; evening worship, 8:30. On Wednesday evening the superintendents meet at 7:30; teachers and officers, 7:45; prayer service, 8:30; and choir practice at 9:15. The junior choir rehearses each Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Rev. H. V. Fields extends welcome to guests at the Avenue Baptist church where services include: Sunday School, 9:45; morning worship, 11:00; training union, 7:00; worship service, 8:00. Mid-week prayer service is Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Hereford Student at Student Social Work Round-up at Houston

DENTON, TEX. (SPL) April—Norma McCullough of Hereford was one of 13 North Texas State college students who recently attended the Social Work Student Round-up in Houston.

Accompanied by George Finck of the NTSC sociology department, the students observed the functioning of social agencies, organizations, and workers. In addition to hearing a lecture on "Training and Opportunities of Social Workers" the students toured the new Jewish community center, a veteran's hospital, and the DePelchian Faith Home. Miss McCullough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCullough of Hereford, is a senior student majoring in psychology at NTSC. She is a member of the Psi Chi, a national honor society in psychology.

Guest Speaker Dr. Arch McMillan, a faculty member at Wayland College, Plainview, was a guest Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Thompson. He came to Hereford to preach at the Baptist Spanish Mission in the absence of Villalena Salvador, who with his wife and baby is attending the national convention in Mexico City.

DIGGIN' DIVOTS By Jim Terry

The Texas PGA tournament, scheduled for May 28-June 3, is causing all sorts of excitement among expected entries. It is reported that summer rules will be played for the first time in this part of the country. As you know, summer rules do not allow you to improve your lie anywhere on the golf course. You would not be allowed to touch the ball until you poked it up before holing out your putt.

This is a very severe rule to impose upon any golfer in this part of the country where the grass is sparse and as a bad lie can be had in the fairway as you would ordinarily find in the rough. It looks as though the lucky man would be the winner.

Byron Nelson will put on a free instruction clinic and there will be playing events for the amateur. There will be no gallery fee and you can see some mighty good golf shot at the tourney.

The Ladies Golf Association will have "Ladies Day" every Thursday again this year. Let's all of you ladies turn out today for lots of low scores or ex-

Lindelys Entertain Friends Last Week; Group Attends Convention

By Mrs. Owen Andrews

The Lindelys entertained several friends during last week. Supper guests one night the first of the week were Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Browning, friends from Dumas. On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Maddox and children arrived to visit until Friday with the H. E. and Sam Lindley families. Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown and children of Muleshoe were supper guests at the H. E. Lindley home when the Sam Lindleys and Mrs. Jack Shirley and children were also present. Jack and Sam Lindley were friends when in the service together.

Attending the state Baptist convention at Amarillo last week from this community were Mr. and Mrs. D. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dobbs, Miss Lamerlas Berryman, and Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Shannon.

Guests at the Friona church Sunday morning were Mayor and Mrs. Harvey Hooten of Dumas, friends of Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Shannon since the days when Rev. Shannon was a student at Wayland college and pastor of the Kaffir Baptist church near Tulla where the Hotten family lived.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dowdy, who now live near Tulla, are parents of a daughter, Charlotte Anne, born Friday, April 21.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cole and children of Duncan, Okla., visited his parents, the Earl Coles, and his brothers from Thursday until Saturday.

Herb Schmidt suffered an infected eye this week and is confined to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Andrews and Miss Alma Andrews returned Sunday from a nine-day trip to Truth or Consequences, N. M., where Alma Andrews was taking medical treatment. On Friday Clark Andrews went to Truth or Consequences and returned with his grandparents and aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Parris are helping the Olin Parris family with the interior decorating in their new home. Sunday Mrs. Olin Parris and her father-in-law went to Lubbock where Mrs. Parris expected to receive medical treatment.

To Sail From Japan Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jones report their son, J. P., was to sail April 16 from Yokohama, Japan, and was expected to arrive in San Francisco about May 10. He will then be entitled to a short leave at home. He has been away about six months.

The Floyd Coles took Sunday dinner with the Mobleys.

Attending the Associational Brotherhood meeting at Dimmitt Tuesday night from Frio were Henry Dobbs, James and Clark Dobbs, Leonard Irwin, Tommy Irwin, Olin Parris, Hill, Bob Hartman, W. H. Thompson, J. B. Thompson, D. O. Benson, W. H. Andrews, D. Johnson, Owen Andrews, Clark and Glen Andrews, E. B. Berryman, J. E. Andrews, Earl Cole, Henry Andrews, R. L. Shannon, Leonard Schmidt, and H. Goff.

Attend District Meeting Rev. and Mrs. S. E. Eldridge are spending the week in Big Springs attending the district meeting of the Assembly of God Church. Mrs. Eldridge will serve as church delegate. Rev. Eldridge holds the office of district secretary-treasurer.

exercise—whichever you play for. Have you had a "hot" round of golf yet this year? If not, ask the following Sweepstakes winners how they did it:
Frank Latimer — 76-13-63 net.
John A. Pitman — 74-9-65 net.
Earl Stagner — 78-10-68 net.
Frank Cogdell — 74-6-68 net.
Let's all remember to get in the Ball Sweepstakes. It is the initiative you need to shoot that low score.

Have you ever noticed the improvements at the club this year? Number 6 green has been top-dressed to make it more uniform with the others; a definite rough-fairway boundary—incidentally, the ditch is played as fairway; the new fence on number 3 to save that topped ball from getting waterlogged. It is still a creek penalty if you hit the fence.

Another new innovation is new furniture at the "19th hole" to rest up after a hard round. Saw "Follow the Sun" the other night. It is the life story of Ben Hogan—champ of champions. Don't miss this one—it is top entertainment, a real story. Golfingly yours, Jim T.

Lutheran Ladies Have Luncheon

A covered-dish luncheon was held Wednesday of last week at the regular monthly meeting of the Lutheran Ladies Aid Society at the church.

After lunch, a business meeting was held with the president, Mrs. Earl Springer, in charge. The morning was spent sewing. The next meeting will be on May 16.

Mrs. Troy Womble will return the latter part of this week from Dallas where she has been in the Hoxey Clinic several days.

"I Like the Farmer" -- World's Last Pool of Free-Thinkers

By Curtis Traweck

I like farmers. They are the base of the politician, the housewife's chief enemy, the banker's despair, and the lawyer's headache. But they are basic and very essential. The farmer is a producer, and perhaps he is the world's only producer who never sets his price or knows what he is to receive for any given commodity. Within the farmer's weakness lies his greatest strength. Never in history either here or elsewhere has it been possible to organize the farmer. The New Deal Democrats have come as close as anyone with its largess in the form of subsidy payments and other agriculture services. Today the farmer is the world's last pool of free thinking and acting men; he is truly independent and beholden to no man.

Of all groups of people, you could exist least long were the farmer to suddenly disappear. Compared with farmers, all other peoples, all professionals are parasites, for it is from the soil and the soil alone that comes all of the economic wealth known to man. All other wealth is supplementary and rests upon the blessing of agriculture. It is thru the efforts of the farmer that all material progress is possible. Thru him others may pursue knowledge, make engines, be politicians, invent, or make war because he fills the ever-empty belly of the world.

With the coming of the farmer, a civilization begins and with his departure a culture is erased. From the pages of existence, upon his shoulders rests the sculptor's statue, the artist's picture, the lawyer's court, the doctor's scalpel. Armies march on the fruits of his labor; nations rise and fall with his productivity.

The farmer is religious. He is not necessarily religious in a formal way, but of all people does he know and realize the divine power that lies beyond man. In his daily tussle with the forces of nature, he has come to know of the terrible havoc of that force and also he has learned of its benign benevolence. It is both fitting and proper that to the tillers of the soil was the birth of that great Personality first revealed, and it was they who first recognized His Divinity by becoming His followers. But prior to the Christian era and even today among the primitive peoples, all religions are closely allied with, and in many ceremonies actually based on, the husbandry of the soil.

It was the merchant, the lawyer, the politician, and the diplomat who arranged the wordage and affixed the signatures to that document we know as the Declaration of Independence, but it was the embattled farmers that stood and fired the shot heard 'round the world." It was a farmer who led those armies and it was that same farmer who guided this nation thru its first uncertain and perilous years. And the westward tide of empire flowed on the surging soil falling from the farmer's plow. He nourished the flexing sinews of a young nation, and he made them strong.

I like farmers. From their loins have sprung some of the men who control our very destinies: Caesar, Blackstone, Pasteur, Washington, Lincoln, Edison, Ford. And now in these times of ours and whether you like or not, the hope of the

County Will Relocate Road North Of Hereford to By-Pass Lake

The relocation of a road to by-pass a lake 10 miles northwest of Hereford was approved by the commissioner's court at its meeting Monday, April 23.

Location of the site is a lake on the W. O. Miles farm in the northwest quarter of section 80, block K-4. No travel has been possible over the road recently because the rain has filled in the lake.

The road will be relocated for 1/4 mile around the lake. To accomplish the relocation, the county purchased 1 1/4 acre of the Miles land at $100 per acre. The road will be 60 feet wide and 1/4 mile long to connect with the east-west road on either side of the lake.

Relocation of the road will be made at the county expense as soon as the road-building equipment can be brought there.

W. E. Hicks and Charles Donald, two of Deaf Smith County's cattle barons, have sold approximately $115,000 worth of steers to Missouri feeders. Mr. Hicks sold 1267 head of yearlings for range steers since the war time at an average of $46.70 per head. This is believed to be the highest price that has been paid for prices. Chas. Donald sold 1300 head at $43.50 each.

Cotton will receive a thorough test in the Hereford country during 1926, and those who are interested in this industry are inclined to be very optimistic over the outlook.

45 Years Ago

A trip through the wheat belt this week thoroughly convinced us that it pays in many-fold ratio to prepare the land well, it matters not what is going to be planted.

Of the registered Hereford cattle which L. R. Brady exhibited at the Amarillo convention last week, he sold one two-year-old bull to Col. R. A. Campbell of Kansas City to head a bunch of registered Herefords, the price paid being $250.

Prof. W. B. Quigley of Amarillo, who was recently elected conductor of the Summer Normal which will be held in Hereford during June and July, was in the city looking after details at this end of the line. Prof. Quigley tells us that he expects from 80 to 100 teachers to be in attendance.

Work is expected to start within the next thirty days on the huge paving for Hereford. Around forty blocks will be paved in the residence and business sections of the city.

Hereford produce concerns paid $1197.00 to the farmers of Deaf Smith county last Saturday for eggs alone, and fully half that amount for cream. The fact that Deaf Smith county farmers received nearly $2000 for cream and eggs last Saturday to say nothing of the poultry that was marketed here on that date, proves that the laying hen and the Jersey cow are helping to build a bank account for the farmers.

Mrs. J. W. Luck brought in a goose egg Saturday measuring nine by eleven and a quarter inches, and weighing ten ounces.

Stork specials: Born to Mr. and Mrs. Louie Olson, April 26, boy.

The lumber yards in this city were the scene of much activity the first part of the week. While many wagons were being loaded, others were waiting their turn. The indications are that there will be a good deal of building here this year.

O. F. Smith this week sold his drug business in this city to H. O. Park of Waxahachie.

A move is now under headway to build a public tabernacle on some centrally located block in Hereford. While the structure would be used primarily for protracted and camp meetings for all denominations, it could also be made to serve a good purpose as a place for all kinds of public gatherings.

During 1950, 52,559 Texas families were helped in phases of family growth and relations by a progressive program of Family Life Education conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Seams and Proper Lines Stressed In Cultural Club Meeting Friday

By Mrs. R. C. Childers
The Cultural Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. Grady Parsons Friday at 12 noon for a luncheon.

Following the luncheon Mrs. Tom Draper supervised the fitting of dresses that are being made in the club. Alterations were made where necessary. Mrs. Draper showed how the grain line should be over the hips, shoulders and bust. She stressed straight seams, using a plum line to tell whether seams were straight or not. Great emphasis was placed on the sleeves which were only pinned in so that the proper grainline could be obtained. The dresses are now ready for completion except for hems and the clothing demonstrators will give a demonstration on hems in June. After the demonstration a regular business session was held in which it was reported that strawberries for home demonstration club women would be in about May 5.

Roll call was answered by 14 members, Mesdames R. N. Cooke, Art Lewis, J. T. Richardson, Louie Olson, A. C. Hershey, Fred Wolfington, R. C. Childers, Paul Corbett, Ella Mae Childers, Earl DeHart, C. S. Barclay, Wayne Johnson, Tom Draper and the hostess.

Following the business session several of the women made the tour of homes. They were Mesdames Grady Parsons, Earl DeHart, J. T. Richardson, R. C. Childers, R. N. Cooke, Pat Robinson, and Hulon Richardson. Sue Cooke accompanied Mrs. Lynn Kester and her daughter on the tour.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Witherspoon and Mrs. Leo Hennington accompanied Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Childers, Raymon and Patricia to the open house of the new dairy barn on the M. L. Simpson farm in the Jumbo Community Sunday. While here the group visited in the home of Mrs. Bill Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Martin and Mrs. Gladys Dixon and family of Canyon and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hershey were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Cooke Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wolfington of Plainview were visitors in the Fred Wolfington home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl DeHart were visitors in the home of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Roberson of Claude Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Robinson, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hulon Richardson and family went to Panhandle Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Vance Robinson, parents of Mr. Robinson. The Hulon Richardsons are here on a visit from San Antonio where he is stationed with the Air Force. Jim Suttle is home on a 10-day furlough visiting friends and relatives in and around Hereford. He is stationed at Greenville, S. C.

Mrs. Winterrowd Dies at Lubbock

Mrs. E. A. Winterrowd, a pioneer of Hereford died Sunday morning about 7 o'clock at Lubbock. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at Southland.

The Winterrowds moved away from Hereford about 20 years ago. Mr. Winterrowd died two or three years ago. Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Rev. Onstead of Lubbock; two sons, Clarence Winterrowd of Lubbock and Jess Winterrowd of Southland, and several grand children.

Will Open Road Northeast of City Limits

A road running east and west will be opened up at the north east edge of the city limits between sections 50 and 59, according to information approved by the commissioner's court Monday.

Part of the mile road has been partially opened before, but never to the extent that it was maintained by the county.

Opening of the road will be done at the property owners' expense but the county will furnish the post-hole digger for relocating the fences. Those owning property affected by the opening of the 60-foot wide road are:

Harry Cayler, M. E. Morrison, W. L. Braly, Allie Curtsinger, Joe Ballinger, and H. W. Engle.

Mrs. Florence Robertson of Denver, Colo., is spending three weeks here in the home of her sister, Mrs. R. T. Adams.

Mrs. R. T. Adams, her grandson, and her father, E. R. Williamson, accompanied by Mrs. Florence Robertson of Denver, Colo., plan to leave today for Borger to spend the week end visiting Mrs. Adams' daughters.

Edd Jesko, and son Johnnie, John Albracht and son, John, Jr., attended the Knights of Columbus initiation in Amarillo on Sunday.

Final Elimination Is Held in County Spelling Competition

The student to represent the Hereford Elementary schools in the Globe-News spelling Bee on May 5 was selected yesterday afternoon with Louis Drerup winning in finals conducted at Junior High school.

A set of Junior Encyclopedia Britannica will go to the county winner, and the school the winner represents will be entitled to use the Encyclopedia Britannica films for one year.

Competing yesterday afternoon in the finals were the two winners from each school, Marline Gilliland and Marline Allred of Hereford Junior High; Peggy Graham and Sue Kirby of Shirley school; George Davis and Ted Moore of Central school, and Louis Drerup and Clea Betzen of St. Anthony's school.

Sister Dies
Mrs. Nellie Helen Harmon, sister of Ed Sevier of Hereford, died Monday afternoon at her home in Clarendon where she had lived six years. She was 90 years of age.

Mrs. George Benson, Miss Elizabeth Benson, Mrs. Jim Robinson and Mrs. Phil Radovich left Monday for a vacation trip to Colorado Springs and Denver.

Mrs. David McGee of Leveland spent the week end here visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Suduth.

St. Anthony's Softball Team Plays Friday

St. Anthony's school softball team will play their old rival, Umberger, Friday afternoon at 2 p.m. on the new St. Anthony field.

The local boys dropped their first game of the season on Sunday to a Mexican Youth team in Amarillo. The Amarillo boys were smart and fast. They made no errors, had high class, fast pitching, and took advantage of the lack of punch shown by the Hereford boys.

The final score was 13-3. The remaining games on St. Anthony's schedule are against junior high school teams and against the same team from Amarillo that handed them their first defeat.

Legislature Nearing End of Its Work For Current Session

The 52nd Legislature is reaching its final time limit for the current general session. On May 9, the constitutional-time limit of 120 days will have been reached. The progress of major legislation is another indication that the session will not continue much longer.

The conference committee, which is working on the general appropriations bill, lacks only a consideration of the appropriations for the institutions of higher learning before its work will have been completed. By the end of the week of April 23, our report will have been submitted to the senate and house for approval.

A major tax bill of the session raising an estimated $46,000,000 revenue for the ensuing two years has been passed by the house of representatives and is being considered in the senate committee on state affairs. Once this task is completed, the tax problem will be largely solved. The state auditor estimates that another $15,000,000 will be all that is required to finance all of the state services during the next two years.

House Bill 638, authorizing the railroad commission of Texas to set a minimum price on natural gas at the well, has been approved by the house committee on oil, gas, and mining. This legislation is of direct benefit to all gas royalty owners in the extensive Panhandle gasfields. It is of general interest to the state of Texas in that it did result in the raising of approximately $5,000,000 more in revenue for the general fund.

BASEBALL

SCHOLASTIC - SEMI and PRO HITS THE AREA WITH A BANG!

Criswell Seeking Backs For Whiteface Eleven

As spring football practice for the Hereford Whitefaces ends its second week, Coach Dalton Criswell is still working on new combinations to fill in for his 1950 backfield which will be lost via the graduation route.

During the first two weeks of practice, emphasis was placed on basic fundamentals, blocking and tackling. Scrimmage sessions will be held twice a week, and will be held from now until the end of practice on May 10.

Criswell said he probably will have some sort of intra-squad or junior-senior game to end up the practice sessions.

The Herd is losing its complete backfield through graduation this year. Five 1950 backs—Walker, Stanton, Slagle, Walterscheid, and England—will graduate this spring.

Three-year-lettermen Bill Kelly is the only returning regular back from last year's squad. To breach the gap, Criswell has no experienced replacements. During spring drills, Sophomore Gene White has been running the team from quarterback as has Randy Thomas, center from the 1950 squad. Thomas has also been working out at halfback. Speed is the crying need in the backfield, Criswell said, but Bill Kelly, who is not working out at the present due to his track work, is being counted on to provide some of that in the backfield. Dement is also being tried at fullback. The sophomore, who was shifted from tackle into the backfield, is looking fair in his new spot. Other backfield material for Criswell includes some reserve backs from last year and some totally inexperienced men. They

Walberg Ousted; Hickson Wins Over Johnson

Krestling fans saw two different types of matches Saturday night at the Bull barn—the scientific, clean type and the knock-down, drag-out, rascal match complete with flaring tempers.

The first match of the evening was the thriller with Whitey Walberg throwing all he had at the Russian from Rostov, Ivan, Kalmikoff. Even Referee Al Getz got into the fighting thanks to Walberg.

The first match, a two-out-of-three fall, one hour limit affair, saw Kalmikoff take the first fall with a leg strangle in 12 minutes. Walberg retaliated with the second fall in eight minutes, pinning the Russian with a full-Nelson.

Walberg was disqualified for roughness after he had pounded the Russian into a bloody mess and turned his attack on Referee Getz. After the disqualification, Walberg asked for a return tag-team match with Kalmikoff and Getz.

In the second event, Billy Hickson and Gust Johnson fought one of the finest battles ever witnessed in the local ring. The match was unique in the fact that it saw no illegal holds used by either of the two fighters.

Hickson took the first fall

Intra-Squad Test Friday For Hereford's Ball Team

An intra-squad practice baseball game is scheduled for 7:30 Friday night at the Veterans Memorial stadium for the VFW sponsored Hereford nine. Manager Earl Stagner said today.

The game is the first scrimmage scheduled prior to the Vega-Hereford opener on the local diamond May 1.

Last week's bad weather limited practice sessions somewhat, Stagner said, but from the looks of his early workouts, the Hereford manager expects power at the plate comparable to that of last year.

Defensively, the local nine will stack up about the same but the powerful double-play spark provided by Barrett and Lueb will be missing. Stagner said he has been working on several players as successors to Raymond Lueb, stellar infielder of the 1950 team.

Stagner has tried several combinations using Barrett as short and Billy Massie and George Loerwald in addition to others on the Keystone sack. Second base is still open, Stagner said.

Power at the plate will be provided by Wendell Burdine and Ross, neither of whom are long ball hitters. The long-ball hitters Stagner will have this year include: Bud Stengel, Conrad Clark, Barrett, and Bill Stengel.

On the mound, the locals will have four men returning from the 1950 hurling corps. They are: John Winkler, Glen Anderson, and Stan Barrett, who will play shortstop when not taking his turn on the hill.

Johnny Rinner of Friona, pitcher and utility fielder for the last two seasons, is also returning this year.

Burdine is the only outfielder with his berth secure, Stagner said. Burdine will return to centerfield for Hereford the same as last.

Behind the plate will be Bud Stengel and Ray Hardy. The

Twelve Hereford Trackmen Letter

Twelve members of the Hereford high school track squad will receive letters for work done during the season just completed, Coach Dalton Criswell said this week.

Five seniors, two juniors with their last year of eligibility, three juniors with a year of work left, and one sophomore were among those lettering, Criswell said.

Seniors who have just completed their last year of competition are:

Ted Houston, Jack Stanton, Leonard Walterscheid, Orlin Teed, Stanley Slagle, Tommy

Getz, Kalmikoff Square Off With Walberg, Hickson

Saturday night's Lions club wrestling card at the Bull barn is an Australian tag team match with all aspects of a grudge battle.

Whitey Walberg, who was disqualified in his bout last Saturday night with Ivan Kalmikoff asked for, and got, a return match with Kalmikoff and his mate opposing Walberg and his partner.

Kalmikoff's partner for the four-way melee will be Al Getz, referee involved in the free-swinging encounter between Walberg and the bearded Russian. Walberg will count on Billy Hickson in the affair.

Hickson, in addition to his solo appearances here, was the partner of Bill Sledge in an Australian tag team match earlier this month.

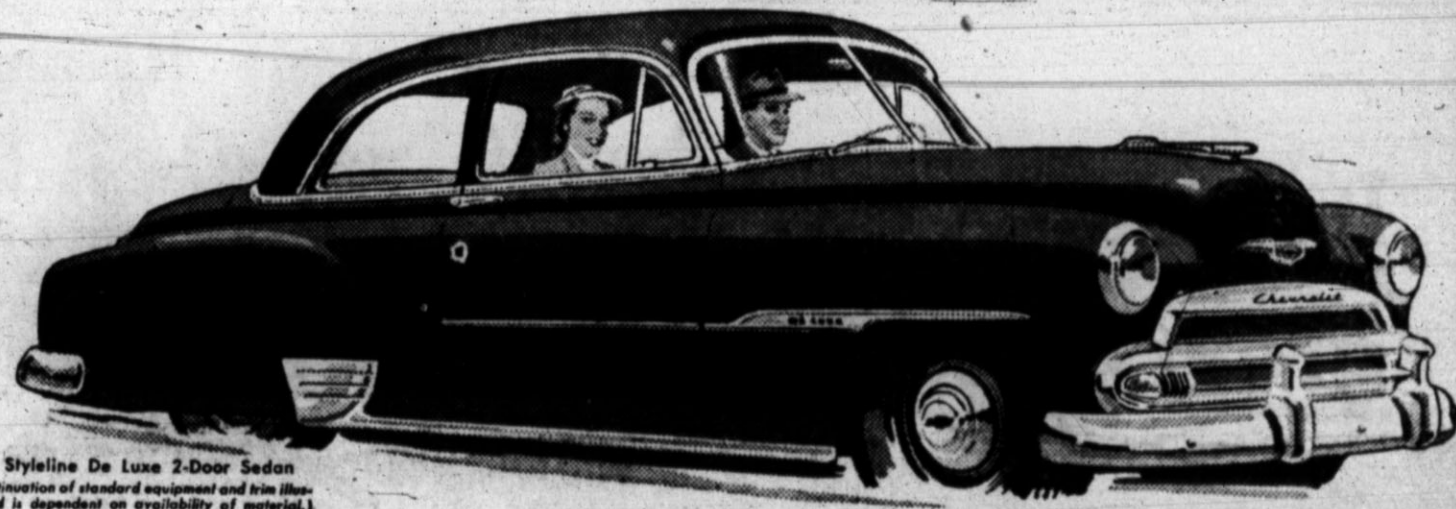

So that's the lineup—Al Getz and Ivan Kalmikoff against Whitey Walberg and Billy Hickson. The bout will be a best two-out-of-three falls, one-hour time limit.

The tag team match will be preceded by two one-fall 20-minute limit bouts between the four grapplers.

The wrestling cards get underway at 9 p.m. instead of at 8:30 p.m. as previously.

Kelly Qualifies For State and Sandie Meets

Bill Kelly, Hereford's ace hurdler, will represent the Herd in the state tournament at Austin the first week end in May. Kelly won a berth as a contender by virtue of his second-place performance in the 200 low hurdles regional track meet at Lubbock last week end.

The Whiteface thinned lost out on the last two hurdles in the meet Saturday. He lost out to Smith of Andrew, who took first place with 22.9 seconds. Kelly's time was 23.2 seconds.

Kelly will also go to Amarillo this Saturday evening for the Sandie night meet for all those qualifying for state competition. This annual event will be held at the Sandie Stadium.

...of the lineup, as it looks now, will be:
Pitcher, Ross, 3b; Stan Barrett, 2b; second base open with three contenders; Conrad Clark, Donald Roberson, and Albracht, first base with Clark starting at the initial sack.
With Burdine the only one left of his spot in the outer garden, the following are contenders for the other posts: Bill Clark, Ruben Knox, Onis Carroll, and others who have been working out for a few sessions.

Stagner said he is looking forward to a strong team again this year if he finds a double-play combination comparable to that of last year.
Games will be scheduled with several teams who have already requested night games here. The season will not swing into full bloom here until about the middle of May, according to Stagner.
Even if the weather has been too bad for actual practice, the grounds and seating facilities have been given a good working over. New backstop fence has been put up and a new scoreboard has been installed in centerfield.
Stagner said there is also a strong possibility of getting a public address system to introduce the players during the games.

As far as weight is concerned, the Whiteface mentor says the backfield will hit the average mark. Criswell will have a heavy line with average speed.
The spring workouts end May 10 and the amount of actual scrimmage the boys will be able to undergo will be determined by their progress in learning the fundamentals, Criswell stated.
He plans to keep working with different combinations to find the best combination to compensate for his graduation loss in the backfield.

It makes your dollars talk great good sense!

When you look at the times we live in; and then take a look at this new Chrysler Windsor... you might almost think we'd had advance information and special-built this car just to fit these times!
Certainly it treats your hard-earned and tight-stretched dollars with a respect that's hard to find in a good many things you buy.
To begin with, the Windsor line is the least-priced of the three lines of cars we build at Chrysler. To buy one gets you all the basic goodness Chrysler engineering means, at the very lowest cost. That's good sense in itself.
In powerplant, your Windsor brings you Chrysler Spitfire... one of the truly great engines in the whole bright history of America's motor cars. Time-proved and owner-beloved, it would be hard to put your money on a sounder friend than this to live and travel with you through the months ahead!
As to comfort, Windsor brings you the amazing travel bonus all Chrysler owners get this year... the revolutionary new Oriflow shock absorber. With more than twice the shock-absorbing power of any other in the world, this amazing new device keeps wheels steady on the road, and riders steady in their seats.
As you can see, it is no idle claim that this car makes very special sense in these unusual times. But why not get the whole good story at first-hand? Why not go see your Chrysler Dealer, very soon?

when PROTECTION counts

Sometimes people see the need for protection only when it's too late. Locking the barn door after the horse has been stolen is an age-old fable of futility.
All of us guard against dangers that appear imminent. Threat of flood drives us to building levees, piling sandbags. But too often the inevitable dangers that threaten our families' security are disregarded or forgotten.
For most of us the only real guarantee of the future security of our families is life insurance. Why not examine your own situation? Are your wife and children protected—or are you taking the risk of waiting until it's too late?

Bruce Beene is Teacher "Who's Who" Subject

Mr. Bruce Beene, who has attended McMurray college and West Texas State, is the subject of this article today. Hereford is the only school he has taught in. The subjects he teaches are biology, general science, and chemistry. Not only does he teach but he sponsors the boys' Hi-Y club. When asked his opinion of HHS, he said, "When I graduated from HHS I thought it was the best to be found, and I still do."

A lot of his time is spent with his wife and his daughter, Deborah Ann, but some of it is saved for tennis and reading, his hobbies. He likes good books, good music, and sincere people but he dislikes insincere and inconsiderate people. As for pet pees or favorite foods, he has none. Everyone has a secret ambition, and so has Mr. Beene, but he intends for it to stay secret because, he said, "If I told it, it wouldn't be a secret any longer."

Senior's Who's Who

The senior boy who dislikes spinach and unfriendly people but likes football and all other sports and friendly people is none other than Leonard Walterscheid. His hobby is sports. The offices that have been bestowed upon Leonard are vice-president of the senior class and third vice-president of FFA.

Leonard began his life on May 14, 1932, in Muenster, Texas. Like most kids, he attended school and finally made it to high school which happened to be HHS which he thinks is the best. As for his presence at college, he doesn't plan to attend but instead he wants to begin to work toward his ambition which is to be a famous rancher or farmer.

His pet peeve is giggling girls. But the giggling might be excused if she can fry chicken because fried chicken is his favorite food.

Anyone who saw the football games last season saw Jack Stanton, who has grown several inches since February 3, 1951. But if you don't know him as captain of the football team you may know him as president of the student council. He is like a lot of other seniors, he dislikes graduating from HHS, which he says is "just a bunch of wonderful people and a grand old way it looks as if he has a good start. His opinion of HHS is "Wonderful."

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walker were presented with a son by the name of Gene on the 23rd day of July in 1932. Gene likes any kind of music, friendly people and good books. His pet peeve is people who think they are better than practically everyone else and he has not one single dislike—that's what the paper says! Gene belongs to Hi-Y, FTA, dramatics, and De Melay; he holds the office of President of Dramatics. His opinion of HHS is that it is a pretty good school. When asked what his favorite food was, Gene replied, "No favorite food, I just like to eat!" Gene's hobbies are skating, dancing, bowling, and in the future he hopes to be a lawyer.

"IT'S DODGE FOR DEPENDABILITY"

MORE MILEAGE LONGER CAR LIFE DODGE OWNERS TESTIFY

"NOW DRIVING MY FIFTH DODGE!" "My big 1951 Dodge is more than living up to the Dodge reputation for dependability, ruggedness and low cost of maintenance. It's the fifth dependable Dodge I've owned." —says Geo. A. Hughes, Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan

"I'VE PUT THE EQUIV. ALERT OF FOUR YEARS' DRIVING ON MY '50 DODGE!" "As a salesman, my 1950 Dodge is always on the go. I figure equivalent of four years' average driving on it—without spending any appreciable amount of money for repairs." —says Harry H. Hurst, Houston, Texas

You could pay up to $1,000 more and still not get all the extra room, riding comfort and rugged dependability of Dodge

TAKE THE WORD OF OWNERS WHO know Dodge value and dependability from actual experience. "No major repairs in four years' driving less than a year. I'm back with Dodge again..." "Driven my Dodge 150,000 miles and it's still going strong." These are not unusual comments in letters we receive from Dodge owners coast-to-coast. Dodge dependability starts with a heavy, rugged frame, a "Get-Away" engine "speed-proofed" to resist wear, designed to be a miser on gas.

There's a safe, rigid, all-steel body, rubber-mounted to eliminate rattle and squeak.

New Safer, Smoother Ride Dodge Griflow Shock Absorbers "ROAR" you over roads that stop other cars, cushion vital chassis parts against road shocks... make them last years longer. Take 5 minutes to check Dodge dependability in long life, extra comfort and safety, low cost maintenance and gas economy. Come in today for the complete Dodge story.

Zellner --- we know that we are late, but with lessons and everything we just got behind with the news.

"MONEY, MONEY, MONEY!" is the cry of the seniors... Here is a rough idea of why they need money so badly: Stationery, rings, necklaces, invitations, diplomas, caps and gowns, beanies, class dues, pictures, annuals, student directories, calling cards --- etc., etc., etc.

Last week was evaluation week. Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday were packed with everyone studying, and an assembly. Just imagine, for once we caught someone studying.

There are just five (5) more weeks left of school. It won't be long now till we can have a much needed vacation. That includes everyone, even the teachers.

Some of the senior English students took vocational tests --- can you imagine Nora Jo McAllen as a Farmer??? Here are a few things that some of the kids may be: Farmers, Foresters, naturalists, automobile repairmen, watchmakers, drill press operators, engineers, bookkeepers, accountants, bank tellers, actors, and actresses, radio repairmen, aviators, dieticians, nurses, doctors, chemists, politicians, radio announcers, ministers, salesmen and women, store clerks, painters, interior decorators, teachers, news reporters, novelists, historian, editor, drama critic, book reviewers, singers and just loads and loads of others.

"Oh, Billy Don, YES!" --- we wonder who made that statement, when and where???
The baseball craze has struck Hereford --- but please, boys, when you throw the balls --- be very, very careful --- you might break a window.
Bye, kids. See you next week.

CONG. ROGERS SAYS

Calls For Placing MacArthur on Post With Chiefs of Staff

General of The Army Douglas MacArthur came into Washington early this morning amid tremendous ovations. I was at the Statler hotel just about two hours before his arrival, and a huge crowd was gathering. His arrival was scheduled for 12:30 a.m. You can see that the crowds gathered in the middle of the night as well as the middle of the day. His appearance before the joint meeting of Congress today was certainly a grand occasion. The Chamber of the House of Representatives was glancing under the lights of the television cameras and every available space in the Chamber was packed. Mrs. MacArthur entered the chamber first and was seated in the President's box, which is located to the left of the Speaker. She entered amid rousing cheers and applause and was most gracious in her acceptance thereof. Many of the top officials of the Army were present and among them was the familiar face of General Jonathan M. (Skinny) Wainwright. The Speaker named a committee of the House and the Vice-President named a committee of the Senate to escort the General into the chamber. When the doorkeeper announced the approach of General MacArthur, it was so still that you could almost hear a pin drop. When the General came into view, the applause and the cheers were deafening. His military bearing was perfect as he approached the Speaker's desk and was greeted by the Speaker and the Vice-President. He was introduced by the Speaker of the House and the applause was again thunderous. The effectiveness of his speech was testified to by the rapid attention of all present, the only movement being on the part of the newspaper men, the newsreel and television cameramen, and the official reporters who were taking this speech in relays. His speech was outstanding, as was his delivery. His pictures do not actually portray the full dignity of his bearing nor his excellent physical condition. He is truly a man among men and his appearance today left no doubt in anyone's mind as to the genius of his ability.

He approached his subject in a clear voice and in concise and well worded statements. He treated his subject fully and outlined the predicate upon which he based his suggestion as to foreign policy, the foreign policy that he does suggest, and his opinion as to the results that would be forthcoming should these suggestions be adopted. He also gave substantial factual information upon which he was basing his theories and suggestions. He definitely did not have the time to go into a full explanation of these factual matters, but obviously wanted to. I hope that he will go before the Congressional Committees, both Senate and House, and outline in complete detail the entire Far Eastern situation. The people and the Congress are entitled to know the background and all of the facts concerning the Far Eastern situation, and to date we have not been given them. MacArthur is entirely too valuable a man to be shelved in this era of crisis. His complete knowledge and understanding of the Asiatic theater is of inconceivable value, not only to this country, but to the world.

If he is not returned to the Far East, certainly he should be placed in a position of authority among the Joint Chiefs of Staff for the purpose of helping to mold our future actions in the Asiatic theatre. This entire transaction, as deplorable as it has been, and as uncalled for as has certainly done one thing, it has gotten this country nearer to a concrete foreign policy than we have been in several years. It has brought out into the open a lot of the fumbling and stumbling and is definitely going to put England on the spot for a complete showdown on what we can expect from them.

There were many highlights in General MacArthur's speech that were most impressive, but there was one statement he made which I wish he would enlarge upon because I think it is the most important matter to be considered. He stated in effect that war between this country and Red China would not mean that Russia would follow suit in Europe. Those are not his exact words but convey the general idea that I got from his statement and his voice inflections. He said that Russia was not depending upon what Red China did; but would take her own steps toward war when she considered it most expedient from her own standpoint. If there is factual information concerning this statement, whether it be from intelligence reports, or otherwise I think that the Congress is entitled to know the facts about it, because it is the one thing that could be the answer to many problems facing this country today. I have the utmost respect and confidence in General MacArthur's ability and his integrity, and I do hope that there can be a complete understanding on this question: "If all-out war should break out between Red China and the UN would Russia strike immediately in Europe, Turkey, Iran, and Iraq?"

VISITORS: We had a number of visitors this last week among them Mr. and Mrs. Ott Eshewmaker and their four fine children, of Pampa, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Simmons, also of Pampa. We were not in from Amarillo just in time to get caught in the MacArthur crowd. He is attending a convention of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. Mr. Edward M. Merick, of Amarillo, and Mrs. Joe Berg, of Panhandle were also in to see us. Other recent visitors were Lt. and Mrs. Dan Ethridge, of Friona; Jim E. Anthony, of Amarillo, who is attending Yale University; and Lt. Louis C. Braffitt, of Amarillo, who presently is stationed in the Washington area.

Reunion of Hanna Children Held Sunday at John W. Vines Home

A reunion of the children of Mrs. Alice Hanna was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Vines, 207 Avenue A. Forty-eight persons were present to honor Mrs. Hanna. Each family brought a covered dish and a buffet supper was served to those present.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilsch A. Vine, Borger; Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Poirch, Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. Welch Hanna, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hanna, Memphis; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hanna, Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Macon Hanna, Turkey; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Hanna, Skellytown; Mr. and

Rotary Hoe Reduces Labor Costs: A & M

COLLEGE STATION --- Many Texas cotton growers are cutting their production costs by using rotary hoe attachments on their tractors.

Chester Huddleston of Croyston says, "By using rotary hoes on 300 acres of cotton in 1949, I saved 75 percent of my chopping bill."

In 97 Texas counties, there were 10,004 rotary hoe-equipped tractors in 1950, says F. C. Elliott, Texas A&M college extension cotton specialists.

Elliott emphasizes that the rotary hoe equipped tractor must be operated at high speeds --- at least four and one-half miles an hour. Five or six miles an hour is better. He cautions against setting the rotary hoe too deep. While the depth of setting will depend on soil and plant conditions, the spoke points should not be run more than two inches deep.

Use of the rotary hoe allows earlier planting in areas where a crop of weeds is usually killed before planting. Elliott points out that the rotary hoe can also be used to cultivate peanuts and corn.

He suggests that farmers who are not familiar with this piece of equipment ask their local farm machinery dealers for a demonstration.

Ford H. D. Club Sees Fitting Demonstrations

Ford Home Demonstration club members were given a demonstration on correct ways of fitting dresses and adjusting patterns at the meeting held with Mrs. Herman Both last week with her daughter, Miss Hilda Both, serving as co-hostess.

Mrs. Tom Draper, CHDA, gave the demonstration with seven members serving as models. They were Mesdames Henry Browning, Hardy Benson, Geo. Epting, Cecil Cayton, Jackie Bishop, Herman Both, and Miss Hilda Both.

Mrs. Hardy Benson gave a lesson on parliamentary law and told how to amend a motion. During the business meeting announcement was made that three members of the club are taking the first aid courses in Hereford. Reports were heard and plans were made for a farm safety program to be held on the night of May 2 at the Ford School. Bill Patten will be the speaker.

Mrs. Maxey Down, a member of the club, also attended the meeting.

Sims Divisional Heads Appointed

Divisional heads for the rural neighborhood center which the Sims community is entertaining were appointed Friday night at the meeting in the community center.

Hugh Clearman, county agent, showed two films, "4-H Headlines" and a comedy, "The Screwdriver".

Divisional heads appointed include pasture and range improvement, R. L. Pinnell; livestock and poultry, Glenn Heizer; home food supply, Mrs. Blankenship; farmstead improvements, Mrs. Pinnell; landscaping the farm and home grounds, M. C. W. Edwards; health, Mrs. M. C. H. Brock; recreation, Mrs. M. C. H. Brock; and extension service, Mrs. C. W. E. Edwards. School and educational activities, M. W. Blankenship; development of organization and leadership, Cord Hammock; other neighborhood activities, 4-H clubs, and publicity, Mrs. Clarence Perrin.
Thirty-two people attended the meeting.

Correct Posture Week May 1-7

With the aim of correcting postural defects and thus diminishing the chances of illness later, Deaf Smith chiropractors have designated the period of May 1 to 7 as Correct Posture Week.

Observance of the week statewide is being sponsored by the Chiropractic Public Health Committee of Texas and chiropractors of this county are cooperating in the move to make people aware of the relationship between good posture and good health.

The doctor's of the local committee said today it is fully as important for people to check their body posture periodically as it is to have their teeth checked.

"Nerves, muscles, vital organs all may suffer impairment of functions as a result of incorrect posture," he said.

Nationwide surveys show, he said, that a majority of the adults and children of the country have incorrect posture habits.

"If a postural fault is neglected, it may be very difficult to correct later in life and may be the cause that results in illness," doctors added.

During Correct Posture Week, the county committee hopes to educate the people to correct their postural faults so as to give a greater assurance of good general health later in life.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Downey and children spent the week end at Plainview visiting Saturday night with friends and Sunday in the home of Mrs. Downey's parents.
