Wedding Service Read Here For Miss Morris, Lieut. James Frank

Couple Takes Wedding Trip To California

Ann Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Morris of New York, and Lieut. James B. Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Frank of Beverly Hills, Calif., were married at 9 p. m. Wednesday at the First Christian church with the pastor, the Rev. J. E. McCoy reading the ceremony.

The bride wore a white ensemble with a white turban and her sorsage was an orchid. She carried a white prayer book topped with daisies.

Her attendant was Marie Dunham, who wore a black eyelid dress and had a corsage of white gardenias. The bridegroom's attendants were Lieut. George W. Billis of Havre de Grace, Md., and Lieut. C. D. Adams of New York.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dunham.

The bride attended Southwest high school in Kansas City and also studied drama at Francis Robinson Duff school in New York. She was a model for Harry Canavar in New York for two years.

Lieut. Frank received his B.A. degree at Columbia University, New York.

The couple will take a honeymoon trip to Beverly Hills, Calif., and will return here to make their home. Lieut. Frank is stationed at the Big Spring Bombardier school.

Mrs. Herman Whiteside of Fort Worth is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cranshaw for several days while Auxiliary first class Odessa Cranshaw of Nacogdoches is visiting here.

Notes

MARY WHALEY

If we ever get in a jam of any serious nature, we are going to hire a movie magazine writer to explain to the public how it all happened. No matter what sort of smears the stars' private lives receive, after reading "Nobody Understands Me" by Goldie Goldflight, the reader comes to the conclusion that it is pure persisection, nothing more, and that the movie star is just a simple child at heart.

If she is a woman, it is all explained that she loves nothing better than to potter about in the kitchen fixing meals for the children of her assorted husbands. Instead of stinky gowns like the mean old press agents make her wear for publicity pictures, she personally prefers either a last year's cotton $4.95 number or just a pair of slacks.

The reason she divorced her husbands, Numbers One, Two and Three, is because they tried to make her over from the country girl at heart that she really is. They preferred the bright lights of night life whereas she would rather stay home and read a good book.

Those ugly stories of her being mixed up in a knifing brawl or found under a table at Ye Hot Spots were just excess spirits of a little girl full of life and play.

Yes indeed, if we ever commit mayhem or worse, we are going to hire these movie magazine writers to do their stuff.

Club Member Is Honored Guest At Game Party

Cadets' wives honored Mrs. Winifred Henaley with a pink and blue shower in the Cadet club at the Settles Hotel Wednesday afternoon.

Bridge and rummy were entertainment for the afternoon and refreshments were served. The honored guest was presented with gifts from members of the club.

Those attending were Mrs. Helen Ebbert, Mrs. Thelma Lott, Mrs. Dell Lurray, Mrs. Martha McCoy, Mrs. Marie Perolat, Mrs. Peggy Farrack, Mrs. Bernice Nason, Mrs. Virginia Orlopp, Mrs. Helen Gibson, Mrs. Mildred Frutell, Mrs. Laverne Frugner, Mrs. Ann Lincoln and Mrs. Conchita Piel. Friday evening the club will entertain with a game party at the cadet club from 7 to 9 o'clock. All cadets' wives are invited to attend.

JUNE MARSHALL ATTENDING WAR TIME SCHOOL

DENTON, July 1.—Enrolled in the second wartime summer school at North Texas State Teachers College is Miss June Marshall of Big Spring, teacher at the Meadowbrook Junior High School, Fort Worth, last year.

In learning the special wartime skills and modern methods of education in the summer courses at the Denton college, Miss Marshall and other teachers from all parts of the state are supplementing their own skills in teaching and in community service.

Miss Marshall, a graduate student at the college, is majoring in physical education. She is the daughter of D. A. Marshall of Big Spring.

Larger Crowd At Class For Food Handlers

Gratifying to the Midland-Ector-Howard county health unit personnel and the state department of public health representatives was the turnout Wednesday afternoon for the second course in the Food Handler's school being conducted here at the city auditorium. Enrollment for the second lesson amounted to 140 waiters and waitresses along with managers and owners of cafes.

The third lesson in the short course will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. and other meetings will be Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday of next week at the same time.

Graham Smoot, consultant, bureau of public health education, expressed his appreciation for cafe owners and managers who agreed to close their kitchens from 2:20 to 4 p. m. during the school in order that all employees and themselves might attend the session. Subjects to be discussed Friday afternoon will be "The Customer's Competitor and Big Spring's Biggest Food Thief," along with the film, "The Housewife" and "No Good on Earth." Enthusiasm for the course from those attending was noted by K. E. McFarland, health unit supervisor, and V. A. Cross, Howard county sanitarian.

Lions Club Officers Installed At Dinner

Dances To Be Held At Post

Enlisted men of the Big Spring Bombardier school, their wives and dates are invited to attend an informal dance in the post recreational building at the school Saturday evening. The entertainment is being sponsored by the post, climaxing field day activities which will be held in observance of Independence Day.

The post orchestra will furnish music for the entertainment and special services section will present a floor show under the direction of Elouise Haley, post hostess.

Cadets of class 42-13 are invited to attend a dance which will be held in the post gymnasium Friday evening as a get-acquainted entertainment.

All cadets of the class are urged to attend and girls from local social clubs are being invited.

Bible School Students Have Picnic At Park

A picnic was held at the city park at noon today honoring students who are attending the vacation Bible school at the First Methodist church.

According to announcement today by Mrs. H. N. Robinson, superintendent of the daily school, closing exercises will be held Friday evening 8 o'clock in the church auditorium, with around 85 students receiving certificates for perfect attendance and outstanding work during the two weeks course.

All In Confusion

WARSAW, Mo.—This Osark community just can't help its current bewilderment. Earl Bradshaw is taking his first vacation in 10 years.

Bradshaw, 39, is janitor of one church and two stores; custodian of the community building; caretaker, collector and score-keeper at the softball park; public-address operator for community programs; mail carrier on a 33-mile route; post office messenger; deliveryman for two grocers; real estate and livestock dealer, and carpenter.

He said he'd spend his vacation operating a street car in Kansas City.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 million of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or steady passages with starting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and see your doctor. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pain, leg pain, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 million of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Club Members Invited To A Picnic Friday

All members of the Howard county home demonstration club, their families and guests are invited to attend a picnic which will be held at the city park Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

The entertainment is being sponsored by the council and the Howard county commissioners court will be guests.

Miss Rheba Boyles, home demonstration agent for Howard county, today urged people of Big Spring and surrounding communities to attend the bake sale which the council is sponsoring at the home demonstration office Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Pies, cakes, cookies and other pastries will be sold.

Funds realized from the sale will be used for sending delegates to the state convention soon.

THE WAR TODAY: We Hold Initiative In South Pacific

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

While Washington is silent regarding the scope of the new offensive in the Pacific, the important fact remains that we retain the initiative and are on the move.

Secretary of the Navy Knox summed the thing up succinctly in his speech in Los Angeles yesterday when he said that power to decide where the next blow will be struck in the Pacific "now rests with our side, and it will continue to rest with us for the duration."

We shall do well not to rush to the immediate conclusion that the operations already carried out represent the beginning of a wholesale offensive. However, it already appears to be more than a minor operation. It looks as though we intended to do a hop-skip-and-jump westward through the islands.

Two logical objectives, among numerous points which might be occupied, are the big Japanese bases in New Britain and north-east New Guinea.

The prospects are fascinating, and if things go well the drive might well result in a very big operation.

Meanwhile, British Premier Churchill's statement that it is probable there "will be heavy fighting in the Mediterranean and elsewhere before the leaves of autumn fall" invites us to the pleasurable anticipation that the already fast-moving Allied war machine may hit high-gear in the European theater soon.

Mr. Churchill purposely leaves considerable to the imagination. However, if his declaration that there will be heavy fighting not only in the Mediterranean but "elsewhere" means elsewhere in Europe, then he may be talking about a general onslaught on Hitler, that is, invasions from several directions.

Should this mean invasion of western Europe it certainly would be a happy answer for Russian Generalissimo Stalin, who is pleading for that second front right now, at what he regards as the opportune blow at the boche in conjunction with a major Anglo-American onslaught.

Of course the time element is a big factor. If a general offensive against the all highest could be got under way well before winter arrives to hamper fighting with bad weather, there's no telling how far

Southern Melodies Mean 'Home' To Boys In Africa

At least you know what one soldier's opinion about the war on the home front is when you read a recent letter to Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cook from their son, Jack, a ferry pilot in the Army.

He wrote his parents "while I was in Africa I heard an Army band concert. In this little French town the band was stationed in the center of town and played while the British Union Jack, the French tri-color, and "Old Glory" were raised... about that time the band played "Swanee River" and "Dixie."

"While the band was playing 'Dixie' I heard three or four rebel yells and later met one of the soldiers, who was from Abilene, Texas. All of the boys present had tears in their eyes and it was easy to tell that they wanted to hurry and get this fighting over with... and it is pretty disgusting to the boys over there to hear about our strikes and the zoot suiters.

"I am helping to deliver our big ships to the front and you need not worry in the least as we have the best training of any soldiers in the world. It is up to us to get the job done and every man in the armed forces is ready and not afraid to tackle the job that is assigned to him."

US Move Backs Up Knox Predictions

HOLLYWOOD, July 1 (AP)—Latest American successes in the South Pacific constituted timely action to fit the words of Navy Secretary Frank Knox.

"The war lords of Tokyo know not where or when the next blow will fall," he told a war bond rally here last night.

"Tojo found that out this morning. Just before I took the rostrum I was informed that other enemy-held islands have just been occupied by the Navy and Marines."

(Word had just been flashed that the Trobriand, Woodlark, Rendova and New Georgia island groups had been invaded by forces under Gen. Douglas MacArthur.)

Secretary Knox then told his audience of 20,000, that this nation's progress in 18 months of global war has been miraculous.

Penney Stores Launch July Bond Drive

July 1st marks the opening of a nation-wide War Bond and Stamp sales drive in 1,610 J. C. Penney company department stores throughout the country. As a send-off to the campaign, Secretary of the Treasury Henry J. Morgenthau, Jr., prepared a message drive in 1,610 J. C. Penney wishes addressed to every Penney employee.

This is the second time the Penney company has been recognized in this way. At the conclusion of Penney's $8,422,553.85 July bond drive last year Secretary Morgenthau once before accorded the Penney company personal congratulations.

Penney employees, determined that the treasury department will again find their July sales of war bonds and stamps worthy of attention, start off this July with sales of at least $10,000,000 as their goal.

The Penney company's bond drive this July, like that last year, takes the form of a sales contest in which all employees and all stores of the chain compete for state and national awards.

In every Penney store, war bonds are promoted as "July's Best Buy!" This week, Penney store windows from coast to coast stress the fighting ships that war bonds buy.

Fresh Fruits Are Ration-Free

FRESH FRUITS—3-30
By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE
AF Food Editor

Summer's fresh fruits now take a prominent place in the Victory food parade on America's home front.

Homemakers, increasingly nutrition-conscious, find that fresh fruits, berries and melons provide an easy, point-saving method of adding body-strengthening vitamins to daily diets.

Fruits are versatile—they go into refreshing appetizers, salads and attractive garnishes for main dishes. In shortcakes, pies, cobblers, frozen and gelatin desserts they are unexcelled.

FRESH STRAWBERRIES or raspberries, followed by blueberries around their season rolls around, surrounded by a ring of cherries, seeded or on their stems, are berry suggestions that flavor or color loss with these superb beauties then. Cream is passed or not, depending upon personal tastes.

If you want a cake case, bake sponge, angel food or layer cake in a shallow pan, remove center crumbs to form a case. The crumbs will come in handy for a later dessert. Pile up the berries in the cake and top with vanilla ice cream or milk sherbet. Or you may be able to whip cream that comes off milk a day old; I can, by adding a few drops of lemon juice and having cream, beating bowl and beater icy cold. Of course, the whipping cream is not as thick as the pre-war variety, but it blends well with berries and peaches.

For a BERRY ROLL, omit the orange juice, spread the rest of the ingredients blended, on pastry. Roll up quickly and fit into a glass baking dish. Sprinkle top with 2 tablespoons orange juice blended with 1 tablespoon sugar and bake 35 minutes in moderate oven. Cherries or raspberries can be used as well as the berries.

It always seems too bad to crush pungent firm strawberries and cook them, when they look so attractive and taste so good served fresh, in pastry mixes. So I use this method for a STRAWBERRY PIE: Bake rich pie crust in shallow pans or in one large crust. When cool, carefully slip the crust from baking pan onto a serving dish. When dessert time comes, heap up the crust with fresh berries, lightly sweetened, and carry at once to the table. No will make summer hits. The berries may need a few sprinklings of sugar or some honey or corn syrup for extra sweetening. And of course some folks will call for cream. A few drops of lemon juice and a dash of salt will bring out better flavor in the blueberries.

When MELONS are ripe, select small ones and fill them with strawberry shortcake

2 cups sifted flour,
3 teaspoons baking powder,
1-2 teaspoon salt,
2 tablespoons sugar,
3 tablespoons shortening,
1 egg well beaten,
1-2 cup milk,
1 tablespoon soft butter,
6 almonds, blanched and shredded (optional),
1 quart strawberries, sliced and sweetened,
Ice Cream (for garnish),
Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together; cut shortening into mixture with two knives or pastry blender until mixture is consistency of corn meal. Combine egg and milk; add to dry ingredients, mixing quickly to form a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board, sprinkle a small amount of flour over dough and roll 1/4 inch thick. Cut 12 rounds. Spread 6 with a little soft butter or margarine and place other six on top. Press a few shredded almonds into top if you care to. Set in greased 9-inch crinkle-edge glass pie plate and bake in hot oven (400), for 12 minutes. Separate hot short cakes and put strawberries in between and on top. Garnish with ice cream and serve in the pie plate.

fruits and berries available in the market. Cubed melons and raspberries, seeded red cherries, sliced peaches, served icy-cold, are grand for the last course of a summer meal.

Many persons feel that DEEP DISH RASPBERRY COBBLER has no equal. Here is a recipe, influenced by wartime rationing and food shortages, that still bears many of the earmarks of the original version: To serve 4 to 5, mix together 2 cups raspberries (black or red or some of each), 2 tablespoons flour, 1-3 cup sugar, 1-3 cup corn syrup, 1-4 teaspoon each of cinnamon, mace, grated lemon rind and salt, 2 tablespoons margarine, melted and 1-4 cup orange juice. Pour into a shallow, buttered baking dish. Cover with rich pastry cut into diamond or ring shapes. Bake 35 minutes in moderate oven. Five minutes before removing cobbler from the oven sprinkle 4 tablespoons sugar over the top.

Americans are eating more during the last two years than they ever did before in their lives. This was revealed by Chester C. Davis in a recent speech. He accounted for this great feat by noting that the civilian purchaser, with national income at an all-time peak, has more dollars to spend and fewer autos and other such things to spend them for.

Last year the American civilian ate more than 85 per cent of our record-breaking production. The rest went to our armed forces and our fighting allies.

One fundamental remains constant in the food picture, which otherwise must by its nature change from week to week regardless of efforts made to solve its problems: This, Mr. Davis said, is that no matter how much food our resourceful farmers produce, no matter how good the weather, or how much farm labor and machinery are available, or how high our mountains of reserves are piled, or how soon the war is over—we won't have enough food to satisfy all the claimants for all the kinds of food they want.

Citizens will be better-equipped to man their battle stations on the food front, Davis believes, when they understand the total food program and realize the increase that could be made in the effective food supply if waste could be eliminated.

"An informed citizenry must not only be sufficiently aware of the importance of food in the war effort but of the everlasting importance of individual action," Davis declared. "Right there is where we will succeed or fail."

Menus For Your Approval

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE

Extending Veal (Point-Rationed Items Are Starred)
Dinner For Four
Veal and Rice Cakes with Creamed Asparagus
Enriched Bread
Jellied Vegetable Salad
Fresh Berries
Oatmeal Raisin Slices (Hot or Iced)

Veal and Rice Cakes
1/2 pound chopped economy cut veal
3 tablespoons bacon fat
2 tablespoons chopped onions
2 tablespoons chopped green peppers
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1/2 cup dried bread crumbs
1/2 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon pepper
1 egg or 2 yolks
1 cup cooked rice
4 tablespoons flour
2 cups creamed fresh asparagus or peas
Brown veal for 5 minutes in fat, heated in frying pan, add onions and peppers. Simmer 5 minutes. Stir frequently with fork. Add seasonings, egg and rice.
Cook several minutes. Cool and shape into cakes about 1/2 inch thick. Sprinkle with flour and brown, on both sides in more fat (about 2 tablespoons). Cover and cook slowly 5 minutes. Serve on heated platter and cover with creamed asparagus.

Jellied Vegetable Salad
1 package lemon or cherry gelatin
1 cup boiling water
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons corn sirup
1-4 cup orange juice
1 cup chopped cabbage
1/2 cup grated raw carrots
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1-3 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon pepper
Dissolve gelatin in water. Cool and add vinegar, sirup and juice. Chill until a little thick. Add rest of ingredients and pour into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on lettuce and top with boiled dressing or mayonnaise.

Oatmeal Raisin Slices
1/2 cup shortening
2-3 cup sugar
1/2 cup corn sirup or honey
1-3 cup hot cream
1 cup oatmeal flakes (breakfast cereal)
2-3 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1-4 teaspoon cloves
1 cup raisins or chopped prunes (uncooked, washed)
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs, beaten
Cream shortening and sugar. Add sirup and beat well. Pour creamed blend after 10 minutes. Lightly add rest of ingredients. Shape into roll about 2 inches thick. Wrap in waxed paper and chill over night or longer. Cut into thin slices and bake 10 minutes in moderate oven. This dough will keep two weeks, stored in refrigerator.

Summer Treats For Dinner (Point-Rationed Items Starred)
Four For Dinner
Tomato Salads, Special
Hot Buttered Kale
Whole Wheat Bread
Cherrybark Butter
Gooseberry Cobbler Hot Tea

Tomato Salads, Special
4 firm ripe tomatoes, peeled,
2-3 cup cooked fresh peas,
1-2 cup sliced celery,
1 tablespoon chopped onions,
3 tablespoons French dressing,
1-2 cup cottage cheese,
3 tablespoons mayonnaise.
Scoop out tomatoes and stuff with peas, celery, onions and French dressing. Spread tops with cheese and mayonnaise, blended. Sprinkle lightly with salt and paprika. Serve on lettuce.
Cherrybark Butter
4 cups seeded red cherries,
4 cups diced peeled rhubarb,
1-4 cup orange juice,
1 tablespoon lemon juice,
4 cups sugar,
2-3 cup corn sirup.
Simmer, covered, the cherries, rhubarb and juice for 15 minutes. Boil 2 minutes. Add rest of ingredients and boil gently 10 minutes. Stir frequently. Pour into sterilized jars and seal when cool or if the mixture is not very thick pour into hot sterilized jars fitted with sterilized rubbers and seal at once.
Make extra pie dough when baking a summer berry or fruit pie. Use the extra dough for filling shallow tart pans which when baked make excellent containers for fresh fruits or berries or fruit sauce to be served for desserts. Fill the tart cases just before serving to prevent a soggy crust.

The Home War Patrol Fruit Crop To Be Smaller This Year, Though Citrus May Gain

(Official news of rationing, nutrition and other war programs affecting the home and kitchen, prepared by the Regional Office of War Information.)

If peaches are your favorite fruit, prepare for a blow. The Bureau of Agricultural Economics reports that the prospective peach crop is the smallest since 1932.

June 1 conditions indicate that the entire deciduous fruit crop, which includes everything except citrus varieties, may be 10 per cent below last year. Fear production appears to be about 21 per cent below last year, and cherry prospects are about 15 per cent under 1942. Condition of commercial apples is about 6 points below that on June 1 last year.

For a bright note, BAE predicts that if present favorable conditions continue for citrus fruits, the total 1943-44 tonnage probably will be five per cent less than marketings in 1942-43.

Spiced milk: Season chilled evaporated milk with nutmeg and cinnamon to taste, dilute with equal volume of iced water. Sweeten to taste.

Honey or molasses milk: Add one tablespoon honey or molasses to 1-2 cup evaporated milk and 1-2 cup water, both thoroughly chilled. Add 2 tablespoons orange juice and serve cold.

Poultry Popular These Days
The staggering total of 1,069,773,000 chicks emerged from their shells during the first five months of this year, commercial hatchery operators report. This is a 16 per cent increase over the same period last year. Popular demand for fowls can be measured by the fact that the number of chicks booked on June 1 for later delivery was 306 per cent above that on June 1, 1942.

Coffee Again
There'll be better coffee brewed in many a kitchen again for the coming six weeks as you may now have a pound per person to last only three weeks. Stamp No. 21 became valid for one pound on July 1; expires at midnight July 21, Stamp No. 22 will become valid July 22, expire midnight August 11.

Daily Must
If you don't sip a nice-sized treat of orange or grapefruit juice every morning, you'll need about three medium-sized tomatoes per day to give you that Vitamin C you need. There's no storing it up from day to day, so don't skip and get behind on your health. If you use tomato juice, instead, don't store it uncovered. C has wings.

Mostly raw is one answer. Cook together is another that cuts down on dishes to wash and range-burners to light and heat up the kitchen.

See if you've tried all these vegetables raw: carrots, in sticks, curls, or grated for salad; beets, grated; cauliflower, in tiny sections; tomatoes and cucumbers of course; cabbage, in slaw or other type salad; vegetable greens, with French dressing; turnips, in narrow strips; onions.

Any two or all of these can go into the same saucepan for cooking: Irish potatoes, onions, carrots, peas, string beans. And if you want to hard-cook an egg for a future salad, it can go right in with the corn you're boiling or potatoes with the jackets on.

Milk for Everybody
A milk drink is good any time of the day or night. Here are some that should please young and older.

Cocoa egg-nog: Beat one egg-white until stiff and add gradually one teaspoon sugar, one teaspoon cocoa. To half of this mixture, add 3-4 cup cold milk. Pour in glass and pile remaining mixture on top.

Don't Cut Down Too Sharply On Needed Vegetables

It's hotter everywhere, this month — and that includes the kitchen. It's only human to trim down effort and cooking, and maybe serve just one vegetable. Be careful; food to meet your daily requirements is just as necessary in summer as winter. But you can be smart about it and save yourself hot work.

British Subs Get More Enemy Ships
LONDON, July 1 (AP)—The admiralty announced today that British submarines had destroyed four Axis ships and probably had sunk a fifth in Italian waters, bringing to more than a score the number of enemy vessels sunk or damaged by Allied undersea craft in the Mediterranean during the last week.

Their prey ranged from an armed merchant cruiser and two large transports to small supply ships. A fast modern transport was one of the four most recently sunk. The three others were supply boats.

Record Spring Pig Crop Is Being Fattened In Texas

AUSTIN, July 1 (AP)—The largest spring pig crop of record is being fattened on Texas farms, the department of agriculture announced today.

Farmers saved 2,148,000 head, 33 per cent more than in 1942 and nearly twice as many as the 1932-41 average.

Reporting on crop conditions in general, the USDA noted that for the week ended June 27, the cotton crop made fair to excellent progress...

Labor for full harvest operations in the wheat fields was mostly sufficient, with transient workers coming in from other states.

The week was mostly favorable for cotton to make the best progress. Farmers were enabled to spend the entire week in the field, and to make excellent progress in cleaning grassy fields.

Progress of grain and sweet sorghum crops was generally good except in parts of the high plains.

Cantaloupe and watermelon crops continued to make good progress.

Tomato seed beds for all-crop planting in South Texas were in good condition.

Range grass continued to supply fair to good feed, but was drying and curing over a wide area.

It was estimated that 264,000 sows were farrowed on Texas farms, which was somewhat above intentions indicated last fall.

If fall intentions are carried out, 328,000 sows will be farrowed on Texas farms during the fall season (June 1-December 1).

Lightning - escorted Mitchell's heavily bombed Seacoo air field. Bursts covered the field. Direct hits were scored on a building and on an anti-aircraft gun position.

When one Mitchell flight started homework five or six enemy planes attacked, but Lightnings beat them off and destroyed two.

While one Fortress formation blasted Palermo another raided the Boca Di Falco airdrome, southwest of Palermo, and scored hits on barracks, the administration buildings and the field.

The fourth Sicilian air field attacked was at Borizzo, where Marauders caused one large explosion and covered the field with bursts.

A long time resident of Coahoma and pioneer rancher, Jesse Robinson, 72 years old, succumbed at 11:30 a. m. Wednesday in a local hospital where he had been ill for several days.

Funeral services were set for 3 p. m. Friday with Ebbagey funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Robinson, who was born January 15, 1871, had resided in the county for the past 42 years. He is survived by his widow and other relatives.

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—A record over-subscription of the treasury's latest offerings of securities was reported today by Secretary Morgenthau, who said between 19 and 20 billion dollars had been subscribed in response to an offering of only $2,500,000,000.

The secretary said in response to a question that the treasury is not concerned at the number of war bonds being turned in for cash and added that thus far there is no indication that inception of pay-as-you-go will interfere with bond sales.

CORPUS CHRISTI, July 1 (AP)—The State Federation of Labor convention closes today with election of officers and consideration of resolutions.

President Andrew S. McBride will be opposed by B. A. Gritta, Galveston labor leader. Wallace Reilly of Dallas will oppose Harry W. Acreman, executive secretary.

Lake Fishing Ends Monday

Fishermen have only the holiday weekend left to take some catches from Moss Creek lake, since the reservoir will be closed after Monday.

This decision came from city commissioners after a meeting Wednesday night. They said that only smaller fish are left in the lake, and these should be left to thrive, in the interest of future fishing.

Anglers may cast their lines through Monday, but effective July 6, until further notice, there'll be no more fishing.

The commission also voted to reduce swimming ticket rates at the city pool for enlisted men and cadets, from 25 cents to 15 cents. The army in return is to furnish transportation for soldiers to the pool.

Officers Sent To Carlsbad School

Drug Salesman Is Killed In Mishap

Word has been received here of the death of A. B. Chambers, Sweetwater resident, who was killed in an automobile accident near Seymour Wednesday night.

Funeral services will be held in Sweetwater Saturday.

The Howard county ration board's office will be closed Monday, like most other stores and offices, in observance of Independence Day, but to prevent too long a skip in service will be open all day Saturday.

The office has been closing at noon on Saturday, but Chairman B. F. Robbins said clerks will remain on the job until 5 p. m. this Saturday to take care of weekend emergencies.

A long time resident of Coahoma and pioneer rancher, Jesse Robinson, 72 years old, succumbed at 11:30 a. m. Wednesday in a local hospital where he had been ill for several days.

Funeral services were set for 3 p. m. Friday with Ebbagey funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Robinson, who was born January 15, 1871, had resided in the county for the past 42 years. He is survived by his widow and other relatives.

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—A record over-subscription of the treasury's latest offerings of securities was reported today by Secretary Morgenthau, who said between 19 and 20 billion dollars had been subscribed in response to an offering of only $2,500,000,000.

The secretary said in response to a question that the treasury is not concerned at the number of war bonds being turned in for cash and added that thus far there is no indication that inception of pay-as-you-go will interfere with bond sales.

CORPUS CHRISTI, July 1 (AP)—The State Federation of Labor convention closes today with election of officers and consideration of resolutions.

President Andrew S. McBride will be opposed by B. A. Gritta, Galveston labor leader. Wallace Reilly of Dallas will oppose Harry W. Acreman, executive secretary.

McBride and Acreman are serving their eighth consecutive year in office.

COASTAL ATTACKS LONDON, July 1 (AP)—Enemy targets along the French coastal area were reported under attack by Allied planes last night as Britain itself passed the seventh consecutive night without a raid.

Summers To MC Program At Park

Master of ceremonies for the USO-sponsored Variety program to be presented at 8:45 p. m. Monday at the amphitheatre will be Burke Summers, state legislative representative from this district.

Main speaker for the event, which is a climax to Independence Day observances, will be Martelle McDonald, district attorney, who will give a patriotic speech.

Transportation to the amphitheatre will be furnished military men from the USO center at 8:30 p. m. There is no admission charge.

Under direction of USO officials, a variety program of songs, dances, and musical numbers is also to be presented by soldiers from the Bomber school and civilian entertainers.

Wall Street

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Soaring commodities, again apparently responding to a revival of inflation psychology, hogged the limelight in today's financial markets.

Grain futures shot up 1 to more than 2 cents a bushel, with oats at a 23-year peak, before attracting sufficient offerings to stem the rise.

Under inflationary thinking, resulting partly from the congressional defeat of the administration's roll-back subsidies program, securities were bulwarkeed by generally pleasing war news which, especially, benefitted issues with favorable peace-time prospects.

Clyde Angel Named Assistant Cashier

Election of Clyde Angel as an assistant cashier of the First National bank, was announced Thursday, following a meeting of directors.

Angel is an addition to the bank's staff of officers. He has been associated with First National for 14 years.

Nazi Installations Destroyed By Red Scouting Party

LONDON, July 1 (AP)—A strong Red army scouting party, storming across a river into German trenches after laying a barrage on the positions, blew up two German blockhouses and other enemy installations in a sector of the western front, the Soviet noon communique announced today.

More than 100 Germans were killed in the fray and German guns in the area were put out of commission. It was recorded by Henry W. Crain of Casper, Tex.

TEKAM MISSING

LONDON, July 1 (AP)—Sergeant Henry Maurice Crain was reported missing by the eighth U. S. army air force today. His father is Henry W. Crain of Casper, Tex.

Postal Receipts Running 36 Percent Over Year Ago

A whopping 36 percent increase over the same period of 1942 is recorded for Big Spring postal receipts during the first half of the year. It was shown in figures released Thursday by Postmaster Nat Shick.

Total for the past six months reached a record sum of $54,880.03, an increase of $14,497 over the $40,383 aggregate for the first half of 1942.

The month of June set another record, with the figure aggregating $8,472.63. This was up slightly over May, and $1,745.61 better than June a year ago, when the total was $6,727.02, a previous peak. The gain for the month was better than 28 percent over 1942.

The figures represent only cash business done at the postoffice, and do not account for the large volume of free mail handled because of military services here.

City building permits went along nicely in June, also thanks to a large number of sizeable projects under the government's lease conversion program. The aggregate was $25,280, as against only $7,128 a year ago.

Building totals for the first half of the year are $64,527, as against $49,220 for the first six months of 1942. This was considered an appreciable gain in the face of wartime building restrictions.

Restrictions still had their way with new registrations, too. The total for June was 4, the same number that has been recorded for each of the past three months.

Some types of implements, however, will be limited to lesser quantities, down to 45 per cent for certain types of cultivators. The overall allowance will be about 80 per cent of the 1940-41 production and purchases.

Cotton pickers, and soybean, beet and green pea harvesters drew the highest increase, 50 per cent above normal.

On other equipment, these allotments were reported: wagon and truck boxes, 77 per cent of normal; buggies and spring wagons, 55 per cent; horizontal type power pumps, 55 per cent; hand and windmill pumps, 85 per cent; levelers and scrapers, 45 per cent; milking machines, 60 per cent; horse shoes, 107 per cent; tractors, 41 to 83 per cent, depending on horsepower.

While more than double the 1943 allotment, the 1944 tractor quota of 148,729 of all types was described as being 24,729 below estimated minimum requirements of county boards and 133,000 below 1940-41 production and sales.

Quotas for the current crop year were about 40 per cent of normal and only part of the allotment was available when the planting season started. Farm spokesmen in congress claim actual needs for this year and next are 129 per cent of the 1940-41 base.

44 Machinery Quotas Due To Be Increased

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Congressional farm leaders said today that new agricultural machinery quotas for 1944, soon to be announced by the War Production Board, would range up to 150 per cent of peacetime normal.

Some types of implements, however, will be limited to lesser quantities, down to 45 per cent for certain types of cultivators. The overall allowance will be about 80 per cent of the 1940-41 production and purchases.

Cotton pickers, and soybean, beet and green pea harvesters drew the highest increase, 50 per cent above normal.

Midwest Is Facing Tighter Gas Curb

WASHINGTON, July 1. (AP)—Secretary Ickes said today the Midwest was closer to tighter gasoline consumption curbs than ever and declared the Pacific coast probably would be restricted more severely, too, before the end of the year.

Ickes told a press conference that opening of the big inch pipeline's eastward extension within the next two weeks would bring the Midwest still nearer to sharper restrictions without easing the drastic curbs now on eastern motorists.

He added that declining crude oil production in California, plus heavy military demands on that state's output, will almost certainly lead to a deficiency of oil on the west coast before the end of the year that "could, and probably would, mean more severe rationing there."

Pay Day Goes With No Major Trouble

Law enforcement officers had a quiet "pay day" Wednesday with only five cases recorded on both city and county dockets and only a small number of military personnel picked up for return to the post.

City police booked one assault charge and one affray which was later dismissed while county justice court handled only one hot check, one disturbance charge and one speeding case.

Deputy Authorized For County Clerk

County commissioners were in session Wednesday for a month end clearing up of approving and paying bills and handling other routine business.

The body granted permission to County Clerk Lee Porter to hire a deputy clerk, Emma Rose Weir, at a salary of $80 a month.

Big Bend Park Is Accepted By Ickes

FORT WORTH, July 1. (AP)—Big Bend National park has been accepted from the State of Texas by Secretary of the Interior Ickes and set aside as a public park for the benefit and enjoyment of the people. Amon Carter, president of the Big Bend Park Association and Frank D. Quinn of Austin, executive secretary of the Texas state parks board, have been notified.

Secretary Ickes' acceptance of the tract came a few days after the eighth anniversary of the congressional act of June 20, 1935, authorizing establishment of Big Bend National park.

Mrs. J. D. Leach and daughter, Gayle of Houston, are here for a ten day visit with Mrs. Leach's aunt, Mrs. L. A. Eubanks.

Billie Bob McDonald left Thursday night for Rice Institute at Houston where he will enroll in the college under the Navy V-12 program.

16th Dividend Is Distributed By Savings-Loan Assn.

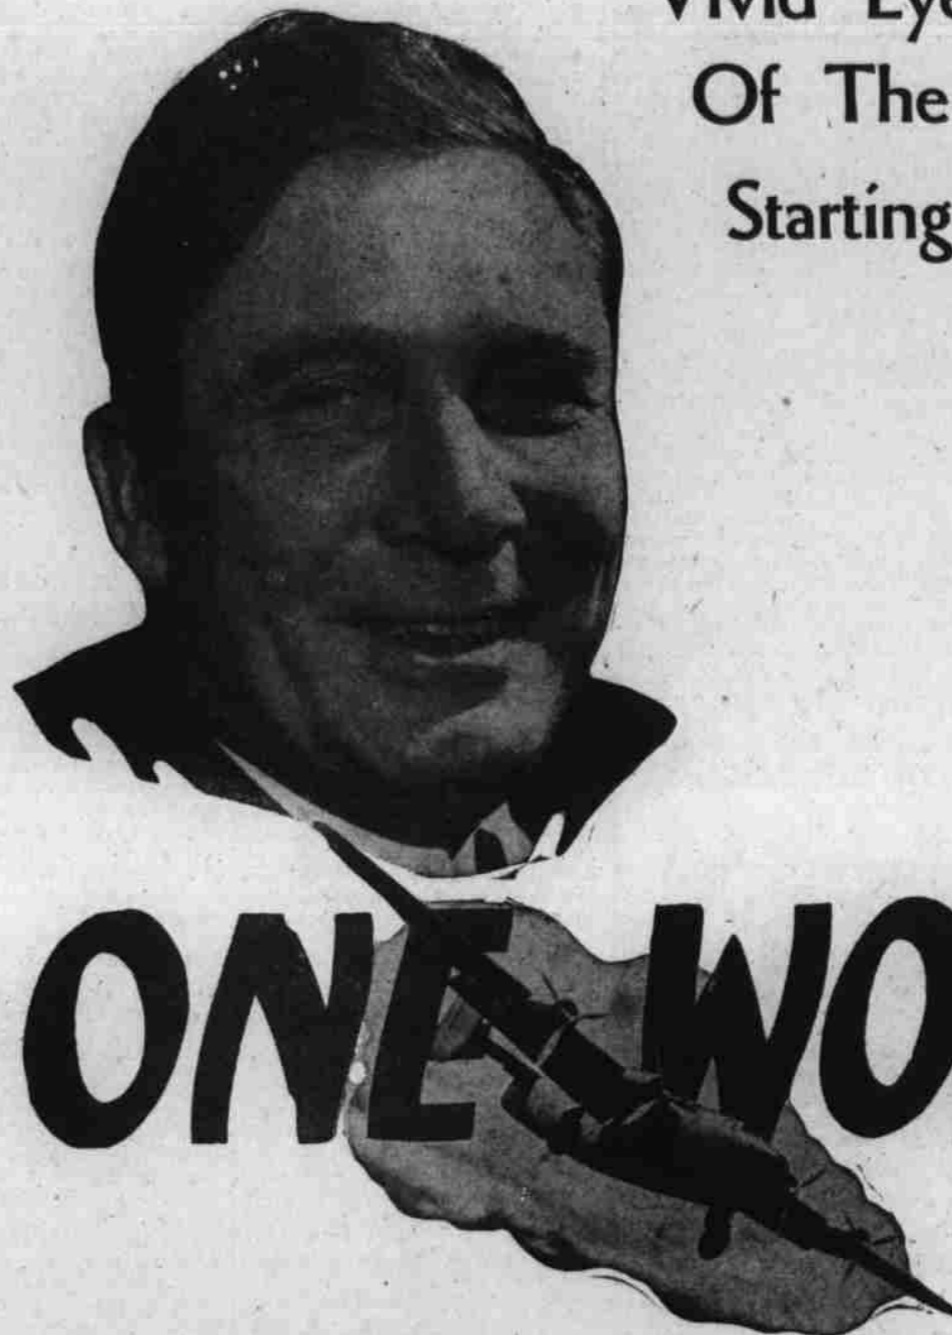

Sixteenth consecutive semi-annual dividend has been declared by the First Federal Savings and Loan association of Big Spring, and checks are going out from the office of Secretary Merle H. Stewart.

The dividend rate has been reduced to 3 per cent per annum, from 4 per cent. Stewart said directors voted the reduction with the aim of increasing reserves and felt that the 3 per cent rate still would be in line with the average payments over the country. Cash on hand for the Savings-Loan has increased due to a slackening in demand for loans, the secretary reported.

Checks have gone to all investment share account holders, and savings share account holders are being credited.

Jimmy Lochhead of Phoenix, Ariz., returned home Wednesday after a visit here with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George White.

Plainview Man Shoots Golf Score Under Age; Well, He's Only 80

AMARILLO, July 1. (AP)—Elmer Winn is one of the few golfers who can post a score lower than his age.

In fact, in a certain 18-hole match he craves to play with the great Ben Hogan, he knows darned well he wouldn't lose; more than likely he would win.

Here's his proposition to Ben: "If you shoot under your age, you win; if I shoot under my age, I win."

Elmer, you see, is 80 and it's not uncommon for the Plainview, Texas, golfer to card under that figure. Hogan is in his thirties.

Winn is participating in the ninth annual tri-state senior tournament here. This event was started because the "older boys"—they don't like to be called fossils—decided the youngsters had too much vinegar for them. So they organized their own tournament, placing the minimum age at 50.

They hold the affair in the hot season and in the middle of the week so as to "enjoy resting in the shade" and to escape the weekend parties.

Winn has been in eight of the nine tournaments. He wasn't feeling up to it last year but says he's stored up some vinegar for the present tourney.

A break in health in 1927 caused Winn, a retired business man, to turn to golf. "I started hitting a few balls—then looking for them," he grinned. "The activity improved my health and eyesight. Now I play every day, never stopping under 18 holes."

Due to the caddy shortage this year, Winn carried his own bag. "But toting your clubs is just part of the exercise one can obtain from a good game of golf," he said.

H. E. Winter of Marshalltown, Iowa, visiting his daughter here, entered the tournament. He carried Winn for age trophy, boasting 79. Seven others are over 70 they will get special prizes regardless of their cards. Four score and ten is enough for recognition.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—Just to start something, what was the fastest nine-inning baseball game ever played? . . . The major league record stands at 51 minutes by the Giants and Phillies in 1919, but we've just come across a game played by Mobile and Atlanta on Sept. 19, 1910, which was finished in exactly 32 minutes. . . . Summary of Columbia football prospects by Athletic Director Ralph Furry: "We still have our schedule; we still have our coach; we still have our field—and we hope next fall we will have some players to go with them."

RECLASSIFIED

During the Pirates' batting practice the other day, a grounder took a bad hop and smacked First Baseman Elbie Fletcher on the left ear. . . . Manager Frank Frisch hurried down to first asking: "Are you all right, Elbie?" "I'm still 3-A," replied Fletcher as he carefully rubbed his ear, "but for a minute I thought I was 4-F."

SCRAP COLLECTION

It took Frank Kelleher, Syracuse outfielder, a full year to hit a single in the Buffalo ball park. During his 1942 appearances and until June 24, 1943 he socked nothing but doubles and homers there. . . . Did you know that Monday will be the ninth anniversary of Joe Louis' debut as a pro fighter? . . . Lieut. Comdr. George Elias of the Bears and Charles Bidwill of the Cardinals were the ones who kept Don Ameche from getting a national football league franchise. . . . And no cracks about Halas' bad actors or Bidwill's hams.

Whirlway reversed the decision in the Jockey club gold cup race Oct. 3 and Alsb took the odd one in the New York handicap a week later. . . . And in case you're still disposed to argue, the turf expert Sid Feder claims the only truly run race of the three was the only one Whirlway took.

BERLIN ADMITS A SETBACK IN U-BOAT WAR

By The Associated Press

The Berlin radio testified today to a marked reduction in the efficacy of German submarine warfare last month, broadcasting a DNB dispatch which listed the U-boat toll of Allied shipping in June at 20 ships totalling 107,000 tons, but implied this was only a temporary setback.

The broadcast was recorded by the Associated Press. The enemy claim represented less than one-seventh of the reported sinkings in March—149 ships.

It was presented 24 hours after Prime Minister Churchill told the house of commons that, as a result of the massacre of U-boats in May, "we have had in June the best month we have ever known in the whole 46 months of the war."

Dodgers Whip Cincy Twice To Take Lead

By JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

The major leagues scored 100 per cent for entertainment on the first of their two War Relief days yesterday, but they failed to get more than a bare passing grade at the box office.

An assortment of doubleheaders, twilight and night games in eight cities drew 184,578 fans who paid $147,551 into the treasury of National War Relief, Inc., and this might seem like a lot of people and a lot of money except that games for Army and Navy relief in the same cities last year netted $289,412, or approximately twice as much.

Under last year's arrangement, when clubs were permitted to pick their own rivals and choose their own dates, the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants played each other and wrote out checks for $60,000 in Brooklyn and $73,000 in the Polo Grounds.

This year's plan of having all clubs meet on the same day had its good points, but it resulted in a gate of $32,000 at Brooklyn and $17,000 at New York.

Nevertheless, the major leagues still have another crack at matching last year's total war relief contribution of $26,530 from sixteen major league benefit games. The clubs which were on the road today will stage shows of their own on July 28.

There was nothing wrong with the artistic aspects of yesterday's program. It was surrounded with all kinds of trimmings, field events, exhibition games, music and mimicry and as far as the regular championship contests were concerned, produced plenty of competition—four extra-inning affairs, two of them tie games, and good pitching and potent hitting.

At Brooklyn, before a crowd of 26,893 that was mesmerized by the tenor solos of Dixie Walker, the Dodgers handuffed the Cincinnati Reds twice 5-0 and 11-5. In the first game Curt Davis pitched a four-hitter and never let a runner past first. In the second Walker—who did not play the first game because a left-hander, John Vander Meer, was pitching for the Reds—made three hits, including a homer, and drove in three runs. Paul Waner did the same and Bobo Newsom earned his eighth victory.

This boosted Brooklyn half a game ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National league standings, although the Cards retained a slender percentage advantage, of dividing a doubleheader with the New York Giants. Mort Cooper, appearing in relief, was beaten in the tenth inning of the first game 4-3, but Lefty Howie Pellet pitched a six-hit 5-0 shutout in the second session with his teammates hitting four home runs, two of them by Lou Klein.

The Chicago Cubs captured two games at Boston 5-2 and 5-2. Two homers were hit by each team in the nightcap.

The New York Yankees reinforced their hold on the American league with a 3-1 triumph in ten innings at Cleveland in a night game as Nick Etten made three of the Yanks' five hits off Jim Bagby. Etten homered in the second and drove in New York's other two runs with a double in the tenth.

Orval Grove, rejected by the Army yesterday, achieved his fifth victory without defeat for the Chicago White Sox last night 7-1 by holding Washington to five hits before the biggest of the relief turnouts, 29.495.

John Niggeljing pitched a three-hitter as the St. Louis Browns beat Philadelphia 3-1 and dumped the Athletics into the cellar.

Ninth inning homers by Bobby Doerr and Finky Elgins caused the Detroit Tigers and Boston Red Sox to finish in a 3-3 twelve inning tie in a twilight game.

Pittsburgh and the Phillies also played to a 3-3 deadlock which was halted by the midnight curfew after 11 innings of their night game.

Yanx, Indians Dominate AL Star Lineup

CHICAGO, July 1. (AP)—An American league all-star team heavily laden with New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians was created today from nominations submitted by the eight managers for the 10th annual game with the National league stars July 13 in Philadelphia's Shibe park.

The Yankees and Indians each placed six players on the 25-man squad, which will be directed by Manager Joe McCarthy of New York, leaving 13 spots for men from the six other clubs.

Those were taken by four Washington Senators, three Boston Red Sox, two St. Louis Browns and two Detroit Tigers, and one each from the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox.

Thirteen members of the American league team which beat the Nationals last year in the New York Polo Grounds, 3 to 1, placed again, including New York catcher Bill Dickey, nominated for the tenth straight time—he's been named for all of them—and Yankee second baseman Joe Gordon, for the fifth time. Dickey did not play last year because of injuries.

These were the manager's selections for 1943:

Pitchers—Spurgeon Chandler and Ernie Bonham, New York; Tex Hughson and Oscar Judd, Boston; Emil Leonard, Washington; Harold Newhouse, Detroit; James Bagby and Al Smith, Cleveland.

Catchers—Bill Dickey, New York; Buddy Rosar, Cleveland, and Jake Early, Washington.

Infielders—Ken Keltner and Lou Boudreau, Cleveland; Rudy York, Detroit; Joe Gordon, New York; Vernon Stephens, St. Louis; Dick Siebert, Philadelphia; Luke Appling, Chicago, and Bobby Doerr, Boston.

Outfielders—Charley Keller and John Lindell, New York; Chet Laabs, St. Louis; George Case and Bob Johnson, Washington; and Jeff Heath, Cleveland.

Coaches will be Lena Blackburne of Philadelphia and Art Fletcher of New York. Dave Keefe of Philadelphia was selected as pitcher and John Schulte of New York as catcher for batting practice. Eddie Froelich of the Yankees was designated as trainer.

Charles Trippi To Be On Star Team

CHICAGO, July 1. (AP)—Charles Trippi, star of Georgia's Rose Bowl football triumph last New Year's Day, was added to the roster of the college all-stars today for their game with the Washington Redskins, professional champions. The game will be played on the night of August 25 in Dwyer Stadium.

Keeling, Freeman To Battle For Post Badminton Crown

Maj. Gerald F. Keeling and Lt. J. B. Freeman will battle it out for the title of badminton champion of the Big Spring Bombarrier school.

Lt. Freeman worked his way to the finals Wednesday with a hard-earned win over Lt. J. E. Smith, winning 15-13 and 15-9. Major Keeling previously had advanced to the finals with a victory over Col. Robert W. Warren.

The singles finals probably will be played this week. Doubles tourney for officers is expected to get under way next week.

14th Air Force, Ace Fighting Unit In China, Completes First Year

FOURTEENTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, June 28 (Delayed) (AP)—The United States Army 14th air force, the world's smallest air force operating in the largest territory, will wind up its first year July 4—a year of thrilling achievements which have surprised everyone, especially the Japanese in China, Burma and Indo-China.

The birthday will be the occasion for a celebration throughout the theater of operations—by Chinese as well as Americans.

An address by the 14th's colorful commander, Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault and fireworks are on the July 4 program.

Under Chennault's brilliant guidance, the 14th not only succeeded in fulfilling its first year's mission of keeping the Japanese at bay until reinforcements arrived, but lashed out offensively in close cooperation with Chinese ground forces.

The most dramatic demonstration of an offensive turn came recently when American bomber-fighters attacked the Japanese in the Ichang area, enabling the Chinese to recapture important positions. As important as the effect of the Americans' bombs and bullets was the effect on Chinese morale.

For years the Chinese saw nothing but Japanese planes overhead. When the American planes came, the Chinese cheered and smashed forward.

The 14th's exploits have equalled—in some respects surpassed—those of the much publicized American Volunteer Group which preceded it. Chennault also headed that outfit.

When the United States took over the AVG, the new organization was named the China air task force of the 10th air force, and then became the 14th last March. Chennault now has P-40s, Mitchells and Liberators in his flying artillery.

During the last year the P-40s rolled up 2,889 missions, comprising 5,325 sorties—a sortie being one plane on one mission. According to official figures they destroyed 206 Japanese planes in the air and 22 on the ground, and probably destroyed 95 more.

Their losses are listed as 15 planes lost in combat, 15 lost by anti-aircraft fire, and eight on the ground. Eight American pilots were killed in combat and one by anti-aircraft fire. Three are missing.

Over $147,000 For War Relief From Baseball Games

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—Baseball games played in the major leagues yesterday for war relief attracted 184,578 fans who paid more than $147,000.

All the proceeds will be turned over to the National War Fund, Inc., which helps support 16 war charities.

Mess Company, Maintenance Teams Win

The mess company broke into the win column for the first time, while the North Maintenance team added its fifth win of the second half, in games played Wednesday in the AAFBS enlisted men's softball league.

The mess company took the 2052nd ordnance outfit into camp, 7-3, thanks to a big third inning when six runs were tallied, on three hits, four walks and an error. For good measure, Maduco got a homer for the winners in the fifth frame. Halder, on the mound for the 2052nd, whiffed nine men, but he was wild at times, walking eight. Pastura, opposing him, had two strikeouts and gave up four walks.

The line score:

Mess	006	010	0-7	4	0
2052	000	000	0-2	5	2

Pastura and McCormick; Halder and Walled.

Kostick's double in the fifth frame, driving in two runs, gave the North Maintenance crew a 5-3 victory over the 1047th guard squadron. The game had been deadlocked, 3-3 until then. Marsh for the winners was a big gun at bat, getting three hits for three times up, while Hamilton of the guardsmen got two hits out of three.

Bredemeyer, the Maintenance twirler, fanned four men and didn't walk a one. The line score:

1047	011	000	0-3	7	3
No. Maint.	002	120	2-5	5	1

Harrell and Johnson; Bredemeyer and Nelson.

Nashville Clinches First-Half Title In Southern

ATLANTA, July 1. (AP)—The Nashville Vols, winners of the Southern Association playoffs and the Dixie series in 1942, have clinched the first-half title in the Southern this season.

The Vols, who triumphed in the Shaughnessy playoffs last year and went on to defeat Shreveport, La., of the Texas league in the Dixie series, sewed up the mid-season championship last night when second-place Little Rock split a double-header with Birmingham after Nashville had taken a twin bill from Knoxville.

No second chance...no other choice

FOR THOSE who fall and freeze on the lime-covered floors of the cattle cars that carry them to German labor camps—there is no other choice.

For the little children of Tepelini and Saloika and Athens who wait with swollen stomachs for the food ship that never arrives, there is nothing else to do—but wait.

For the Russian peasant with no choice but to burn his home before the Nazis reached it; for the Chinese of Nanking who suffered the terrorism of the Japs; for all of those in nameless graves and numberless cells—for all of them—there was no second chance, no other choice.

But for you—a choice still remains. For you—among all the peoples of the world, the road to freedom is still clear.

Never before have we been able to measure the price of freedom for ourselves and our children in such tangible terms. Will you help to keep the road to freedom open? Will you invest—all you can—in War Bonds?

It's not so much to ask. Many of us are making more money than we have for years. The things we'd like to buy with that money are scarce—or unavailable. So, we're asked to loan money at good interest—4 for every $5 when the Bonds mature. Money to help pay for the war—keep prices down—provide peacetime jobs and peacetime goods and a generally decent world for all of us when the war is won.

Chances are you're already in the Payroll Savings Plan—buying War Bonds—doing your bit. But don't stop there. Raise your sights. Do your best!

"Build for Tomorrow with your purchase of War Bonds today." Farmers are taking extra good care of their farm implements. They can't buy them today. But with War Bond savings they'll be able to buy new farm equipment when the peace comes.

Farmers are helping in the war effort by the production of food. But increased income should go into War Bonds and Savings, not scarce, high-priced consumer goods. Buy more and more War Bonds with your increased profits today. You've Done Your Bit. Now Do Your Best.

Washington Daybook—FDR Skips Cabinet In Fixing Wartime Powers

By JACK STIMPSON WASHINGTON—When is a cabinet not a cabinet? The answer is when this country is at war and the President is Mr. Roosevelt.

With the Office of War Mobilization now functioning, it is becoming more apparent daily that President Roosevelt has bypassed most of his cabinet in delegating wartime powers.

Only three of the ten members of the cabinet by right of office, have real authority at the council table, and one of these—Secretary of State Hull—retains his importance by personal influence with the President, rather than by cooperative effort in the circle that now is running this war in all fields but that of military strategy.

Oddly enough the only two cabinet members who still are powerful are Republican Secretaries—Stimson of War, and Knox of the Navy. That is because both have done excellent jobs as spokesmen for the armed forces and because in their three-year tenures, the greatest Army and Navy the United States ever conceived has risen to such strength and efficiency.

Harold I. Ickes' star has risen again since we got into the war but that is because of his activities as Solid Fuels and Petroleum administrator rather than as Secretary of Interior.

Henry Morgenthau, Jr., still speaks with authority on tax matters but it is considered a certainty here that it will be Economic Stabilizer Fred M. Vinson who will carry the tax bill for OWM from now on—not the Secretary of the Treasury.

Frances Perkins, as Secretary of Labor, has lost much authority on labor matters since the war started and the recent strengthening of the powers of the War Labor Board. Claude R. Wickard has seen much of his vital powers as Secretary of Agriculture, in so far as they apply to wartime food supply and distribution, pass to Food Administrator Chester Davis.

ed and the recent strengthening of the powers of the War Labor Board. Claude R. Wickard has seen much of his vital powers as Secretary of Agriculture, in so far as they apply to wartime food supply and distribution, pass to Food Administrator Chester Davis.

Davis, however, is just one of the "czars," and some thing that the general food policies—like the general policies of all the "czars" (prices, fuel, manpower, labor, transportation, and rubber)—will be made in the east wing of the White House when James F. Byrnes calls his five OWM colleagues in for conferences.

On OWM, too, particularly on Vinson and Byrnes, will fall the job of refereeing conflicts that arise out of the maze of overlapping authorities in the already existent war agencies. They can't

Capital Comment—Sam Rayburn Keeping His Head

By GEORGE STIMPSON Herald Washington Correspondent

The sign, "LEARN TO DANCE," in an upstairs window in a store building fronting on Pennsylvania Avenue, reminds me of something the proprietor of a Washington dancing school told me recently; she said the average age of her pupils is 47; most of them are middle-aged men, lonely and learning to dance as a means of making social contacts.

Had a bite to eat and a good visit in his office today with Sam Rayburn; according to my way of thinking the Speaker is one of the really great men now occupying high federal positions in Washington; Sam appears to be in better health even than usual and is keeping his head in a difficult job during a trying time; the House over which he presides had just passed, without a dissenting vote, a bill appropriating for the War Department nearly $72,000,000, the largest appropriation ever made by a legislative body in the history of the world; this confirms what Sam has been saying, that despite a lot of talk about domestic policies, Congress is doing its part in the war program by giving every bit of authority necessary and making all appropriations required.

Among Congressmen Dick Kieberg's callers was Lee Akin, Corpus Christi contractor, who is interested in the new pipeline to bring additional water into Corpus; the city, like many others, has a serious water situation and is almost compelled to ration water in the hotels; here in Washington we have not heard anything about a water shortage lately, although the great increase in population has put our system to the utmost test we get our water from the Potomac river.

I doubt whether even many Texans who live away from the coast realize the importance of water transportation to the state; there are 13 deep-water seaports on the Texas coast; Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Port Isabel, Beaumont, Houston, Galveston, Freeport, Port Aransas, Port Arthur, Sabine Pass, Orange, Ingleside, and Texas City; Burt C. Blanton, Jesse Jones's commerce department regional business consultant at Dallas says: "There are approximately 600 miles of navigable inland waterways, exclusive of channels to Texas ports. They consist chiefly of the intra-coastal canal between Sabine Lake and Corpus Christi traversing the Gulf Coast. This canal is being extended approximately 150 miles to a southern terminus at Brownsville, and possibly will later be extended along the Mexican gulf coast to the ports of Tampico and Vera Cruz, about 475 miles, as proposed by the Mexican government. This landlocked waterway gives the entire seaboard of Texas barge line connections with the Mississippi river system."

It's about 110 degrees here in my office today, but I've made a resolution not to mention Washington weather anymore. Notwithstanding the gasoline drought and the ban on all pleasure driving, some 5,000 persons manage to visit the Washington Monument every week; this is about 25 percent of the pre-war normal; any time of the day you can see a long line of visitors waiting in the blazing sun for their turn to take the elevator ride to the top of the 555-foot shaft; many of the visitors are men in uniform seeing the sights of the national capital for the first time.

WPB, upon recommendation of Ickes, approved construction of 383-mile, 16-inch pipeline from Slaughter pool near Sundown in Hockley county, Texas to Drumright, Oklahoma; cost $7,000,000; requires 44,600 tons of steel, materials for pipeline, built and operated by Stanolind Pipeline company, made available from Petroleum Administration for War's controlled materials allotment; start building early in October and finished early next year maybe if oil for pipeline will be taken from Permian Basin region of West Texas, one of the last substantial crude oil reserves with production capacity in excess of present pipeline outlets yet developed in Southwest; only one pumping station needed to boost to over 100,000 barrels daily; at Drumright oil will be pumped into working tanks, bulk of which then delivered to Whiting, Indiana, refinery through existing pipeline system; remainder made available to other pipelines systems running through Drumright.

While we were at the Capitol luncheon given for Gov. Coke Stevenson by Jesse Jones, Congressman Lindley Beckworth, of Gladewater, brought in and introduced a famous constituent of his, Capt. Vincent E. Evans, of Henderson, bombardier of the battle-scared Flying Fortress Memphis Belle, just back from 25 bombing raids over Nazi-land. Capt. Evans is an attractive, modest clean-cut soldier and was given a good hand.

V-Mail Ballot For Soldiers Proposed WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Service men outside the United States would vote by "V" mail under a bill introduced by Rep. Worley (D-Tex). The secretaries of war and navy would be authorized to use V-mail ballots for servicemen "and to do everything necessary to guarantee that the ballots have all necessary and proper priorities" for prompt return from overseas outposts.

They Call It Pacific

by CLARK LEE

Chapter 23 We learned soon after our arrival in Brisbane that the United States was fighting the Pacific war with only one hand, and that the day of the final destruction of Japan's power was still far off.

I spent a month in Australia, inspecting our defenses and waiting for the Japs' next move. American troops and planes were being piled up in the country, but the number was small—perhaps 10,000 men for MacArthur to be able to defend Australia, let alone start an offensive against the Japs.

Finally, toward the end of the month, the Japs made their move. They started down into the Coral Sea with a huge armada. It looked like they were headed for New Caledonia, so I flew over to New Zealand, then up to Fiji and to New Caledonia. From stories of American navy fliers I got the details of the Coral Sea battle—the first in history between aircraft carriers and Japan's first decisive defeat.

As a result of the battle, the pressure was off New Caledonia. It looked as if the initiative was passing to the United States. But there were no more land fronts in the Pacific, and if any fighting was to be done, it was up to our Navy to do it.

I flew on up to Pearl Harbor to get accredited to the fleet. It seemed as if the plan would never reach Honolulu. For four hours I set in the bombardier's place in the nose of the B-24, watching for the Hawaiian Islands until my eyes ached. When we finally sighted Oahu I didn't recognize it until we swung over Maui beach, bounced over the Marine airfield at Ewa and settled down on the waters of Pearl Harbor. It had taken me seven months to make the trip from Shanghai to Honolulu.

I telephoned my wife and apologized for being a little late getting back and would she excuse it please? She would.

many men. That showed that the Japanese had excellent espionage. But as great as the debacle at Pearl Harbor had been, as staggering the loss of life, I soon became convinced that the Japanese had lost their great chance to win the war in those three flaming, terrible hours on December 7. The mistake that they had made was almost conceivable.

Far more than our own admirals had realized the significance of air power. Their primary targets on December 7 were undoubtedly our aircraft carriers. Through sheer good fortune our aircraft carriers were not in Pearl Harbor at the time of the attack. If, instead of hitting the battleships, the Japs had aimed their bombs and torpedoes at the docks, shops, oil tanks and shore installations in Pearl Harbor, the entire course of the war would have been changed. They could easily have knocked out Pearl Harbor as a base, forcing our Navy back to the Pacific Coast.

The men that we lost at Pearl Harbor were martyrs to unpreparedness. The battleships that we lost there were ever hit by a Japanese bomb. They were too slow for modern war. The battleship had had its day. No battleship that escaped damage at Pearl Harbor, no battleship that was damaged there and later repaired, played any part in the Battles of the Coral Sea and Midway. No battleship fired a shot in the early days of the Solomons action. Later, we reported that battleships had participated in a fight off the Solomons—at night.

Since battleships did not play any part in the fighting in the Pacific in the first eleven months of war, the question arises of why

Ramsay Ames lived in Jackson Heights, New York, with her well-to-do family. She went to a swank private school which boasted swimming pools, tennis courts, a telephone in every room and other intriguing conveniences to make education painless. But when she was 15, Ramsay decided she would like to work. She got a job as a Powers model, and pretty soon was doing a fashion show at the New York World's Fair.

Her evolution from model to dancer was the result of watching a conga troupe swaying to tropical rhythms. She thought she'd like it, and she joined. What she didn't know about dancing, which was plenty, she picked up by watching the others. Then she got a partner for an act, and branched out as a ballroom performer in clubs and theaters. That was how she lost her first man. He had come into the country on a six-month visa, and stayed four years. The immigration people snatched him.

"After that," she says, "I tried dancing by myself, using our old routines. But how can you dance solo what was planned for two? I gave it up, and took up singing." So she was happy enough, singing at the Stork Club, until Gus Matel suddenly presented her with an orchestra. That's when she really started losing men. The way it happened was that Gus was leaving for Las Vegas and starting a new band, so he just left his old one with Ramsay. "Gus gave me his musical arrangements and said 'Here.' So I started in, and I found out how hard it is to keep a band together. We'd rehearse one day, and next day I'd come in to find somebody missing. The draft. We'd have to get a new man, and get him rehearsed. Then one of the other boys would be called. We'd have our Navy took so long to get into action against the Japanese. Our Navy was just as strong on the afternoon of December 7 when the battleships were still exploding and sinking in Pearl Harbor as it was five months later in our first fight in the Coral Sea. Why, then, couldn't our Navy save Wake Island, only two thousand miles from Pearl Harbor? A few weeks before the war the United States had been told that its Navy was the greatest fighting force in the world, supreme in the Pacific. That made it difficult to understand why a tremendous American task force was ordered to turn back when within one hundred and fifty miles of Wake Island. The fighting raged and fire aboard those ships, and many of the officers, cursed and wept when they received those orders. Later, as some of them told me, they were hopping mad when they learned that our ships had been called back because of the reported presence of Jap ships near Wake and were even more angry when they learned the Jap "force" consisted of only four destroyers going in to shell our hard-pressed Marines, fighting desperately for their lives, waiting minutes by minute for help, and wrenching back to Pearl Harbor. "Get off your fat backsides and send us more ammunition and more Japs."

The answer, apparently, is that the Pearl Harbor attack was a psychological blow to many of our admirals. They had put their faith in those "elephants," the battleships. Stripped of their battleships they were as lost as a man suddenly deprived of his trousers in the middle of Fifth Avenue. Their instinct was to cover up, to assume the defensive rather than to seek out the enemy for a finish fight. Nearly everyone who saw the Pearl Harbor attack told me that if the Japs had followed up and landed troops they could have taken Honolulu easily. Our aerial defenses had been smashed and there was a great deal of confusion and disorganization.

I was interested in the reactions of persons who had seen the Pearl Harbor attack. Almost none of them could believe their eyes. Even officers who stood on the decks of nearby ships at Pearl Harbor and watched the Japanese dive bombers and torpedo planes blow up the Arizona, thought that there must be some mistake. Even while they were shooting at the planes they couldn't believe it. One officer who was on duty in the engine room of an undamaged ship came up on deck an hour after the attack and remarked: "Hey, these maneuvers are getting pretty rough!" Arthur G. Hodgins, a doctor who lives at Pearl City, adjacent to the harbor, drove into Honolulu past the flaming wreckage. He told a

Mid-Year Business Review War Production Squeezes Consumer Market

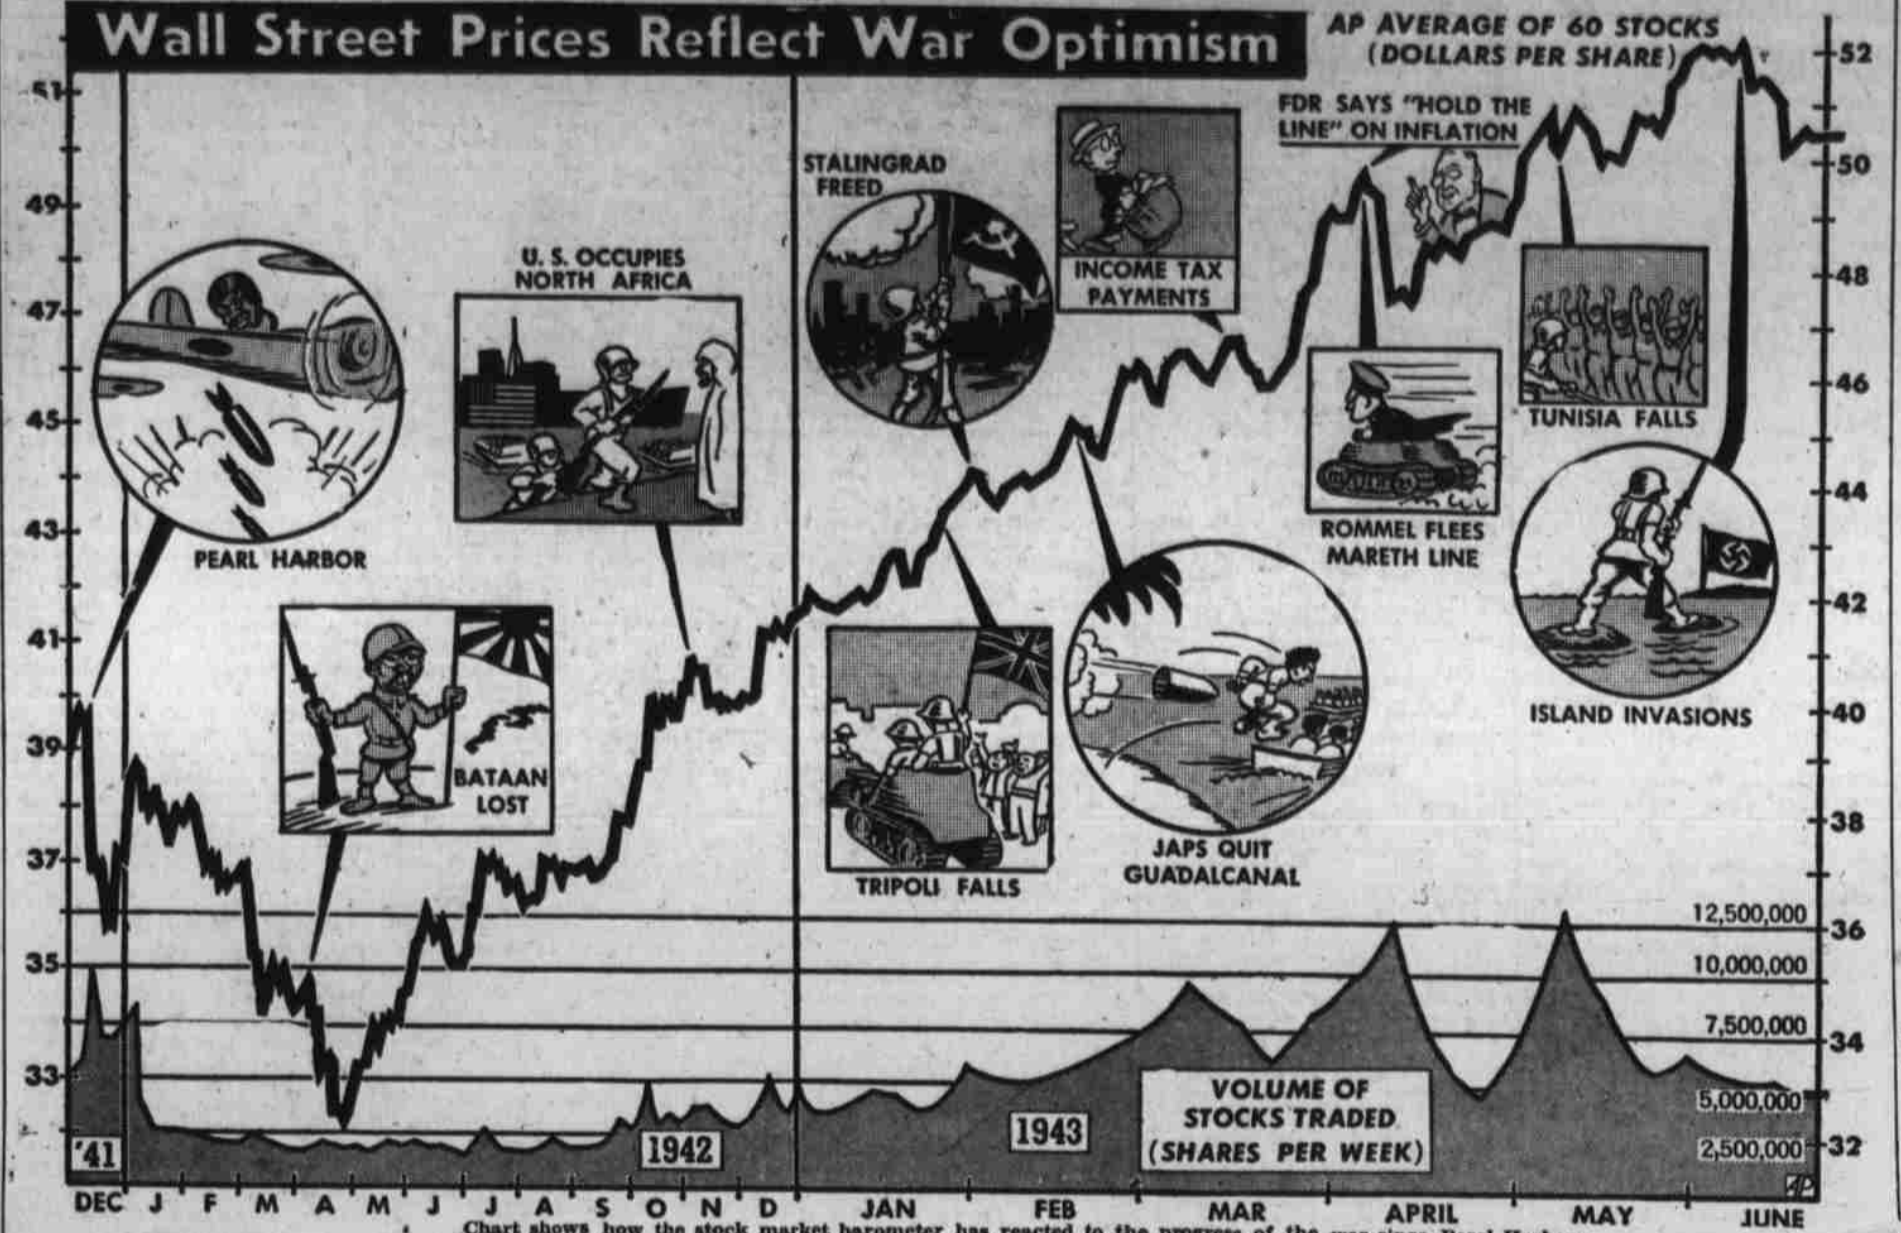

Chart shows how the stock market barometer has reacted to the progress of the war since Pearl Harbor.

By VICTOR HACKLER, Associated Press General Financial Editor
NEW YORK—Roaring production, full employment and civilian economy heavily restricted by the insatiable demands of war—that was the picture of American industry and business at the half-way mark of 1943.
Production stepped up to a rate undreamed of a few years ago. Yet so much of that output was war material that the civilian got less and less, and much of that was rationed.
The goal for war production in 1943 was lifted to $106,000,000,000 and we were already producing war materials at a rate nearly six times as great as before Pearl Harbor. The 1943 goal is 80 percent greater than 1942's total of $59,000,000,000. It includes munitions, war construction, and the paying, feeding and equipping of the armed forces.
In 1942, American plants turned out 47,694 planes. The emphasis now is on heavier planes of all types, and still the expectation is at a level higher than many of us dared hope for.

1. An unparalleled tax program was enacted. The federal tax bill alone was raised to $33,000,000,000. This was $10,000,000,000 more than the previous year, and included a 20 percent withholding tax on incomes.
2. A vigorous campaign was waged to get the people to buy bonds and "let your dollars fight." In addition to a steady drive aimed at payroll deductions of at least 10 percent for bond purchases, two special campaigns were held. The first brought in $12,900,000,000 in bond purchases, the second $18,500,000,000. This compares with $7,000,000,000 in the most successful Liberty Loan drive of World War I.
The old problems of idle factories and men out of work all but disappeared. Estimates of total employment reached a record high of 60,000,000 and the most frequently heard phrase in any discussion of employment was "manpower shortage." So serious did it become that elaborate regulations were issued to stop pirating of workers, to institute longer work weeks, and to get man and woman-power into the industries most vitally concerned with the war effort.

3. Reflecting business improvement generally, the New York stock market stretched its advance into a 15-month bull market. The Associated Press average of 60 issues hit $41.73 a share on Jan. 2, and that point, higher than the best of 1942, has remained the lowest of this year.
Steadily advancing prices pushed the AP average to a peak for more than three years at $52.20 a share by early June, with only brief reactions marking the upward trend.
Stock trading increases. With the higher prices came better times for brokers in the form of increased public participation in the stock market. Compared with the 200,000 and 300,000 share days of a year ago, the volume of trading in 1943 was good indeed. On many days more than 2,000,000 shares changed hands and the average this year has been better than 1,000,000 shares a day.
Post-war planning became the subject of much discussion and heated debate. All were agreed that we must try to prevent such a depression as usually has followed wars, and the sudden shift from a wartime to a peacetime economy. And everybody also wanted to keep employment to the highest possible level. But from there on, it was every man for himself—and every organization too, there being some 150 of them already set up to study just such problems.
Most of the controversy in post-war planning centered on the roles to be taken by private enterprise and the government. You could start a good fight almost anywhere and get some fine theories tossed at you by asking such questions as these:
What should the government do about the many plants it owns and now leases to manufacturers? About the equipment it owns in private plants?
How quickly should price ceilings and rationing restrictions be removed, and the economic system returned to the old supply and demand basis?
Can industry handle the employment problem during the reconversion period, or must government step in and help?
Can the public debt continue to rise without toppling the nation's financial structure and if so, how far?
Is there international salvation or international chaos in a controlled currency plan such as those proposed by Keynes and White?

National Income Boosted
In a report to the President, Donald M. Nelson, War Production Board Chairman, said: "Today, we are turning out nearly as much material for war, measured in dollar value, as we ever produced for our peacetime needs—and we have enough industrial power left over to keep civilian standards of living at a level higher than many of us dared hope for."
All this production boosted the national income to an estimated $125,000,000,000 a year. And this at a time when there was less and less available in consumer goods. That provided the elements for a dangerous inflation, and the problem of preventing a runaway rise in the price level achieved importance second only to that of winning the war.
The steps taken to prevent or control inflation were many, and each became the subject of bitter controversy. More and more items were rationed. Wages and salaries were ordered stabilized and frozen to a formula based on the cost of living. And strenuous efforts were exerted to keep the cost of living where it was—or nearly there. It had already risen 28 per cent since the war started in 1939. "Roll-back" subsidies were attempted to keep food prices particularly from getting out of hand.
Steps Against Inflation
The public had more money, and there was less on which to spend that money. In an effort to get the excess (and potentially inflationary) dollars out of the hands of the buying public, two major steps were taken:
meeting of fellow doctors that he had broken loose. They laughed at him and went on with their business—until a call suddenly came in for all doctors to rush to Tripler General Hospital. The civilians said to one another, incredulously, "The Japs can't do this to us." But the Japs could—and did—and got away with the loss of only a few planes.
The day that I landed at Pearl Harbor was nearly six months after the attack. When I got out of the plane at Ford Island, Lieutenant Tom Quinn greeted me. He was an old friend.
"The Japs have attacked the Aleutian Islands," he said. "A flash just came in."
He went on, "And something big seems to be about to happen in this area." Tom wasn't exaggerating. What happened was the Battle of Midway.

Many Miners Stay Away From Jobs

PITTSBURGH, July 1 (AP)—Secretary Ickes' appeal to coal miners not to stay away from their jobs "on the eve of the greatest military campaign in history" went unheeded today by approximately 130,000 men.
The return of scattered United Mine Workers locals was offset by a drive to close all mines in the upper Monongahela river valley, heart of the steel industry's metallurgical coal fields, and the refusal of 5,300 Pennsylvania miners to work last night despite the solid fuel administration's warning that "the complaints of no man or group of men" could be placed above the nation's military goal.
(UMW) District Presidents John P. Busarello of Pittsburgh and John Hynes of Uniontown said, however, they believed the situation was "well in hand" and predicted an end by next Tuesday of this third in the two-month series of work stoppages which, the trade publication Iron Age estimated, have cost the war effort 170,000 tons of steel.
Busarello and Hynes were two of approximately a dozen UMW leaders interviewed who said they did not hear the broadcast last night in which Ickes said the miners' wage grievance was only one of numerous complaints—"many of them justified"—received in Washington and that "each of these special groups tends to overlook the major issue, the winning of the war, to the immediate interest of the particular group."
NEGROES INTO ARMY
The Howard county draft board will ship a number of negroes Thursday on the July colored quota, Margaret McDonald, chief clerk, said. Names of those accepted at Lubbock will be released at a later date.

FINED FOR ASSAULT
David Mendoza was fined $25 and costs on a plea of guilty to charges of aggravated assault before Judge James T. Brooks in county court Wednesday.
