SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

The Brand telephone was ringing Saturday night after residents noticed the color of the sun and the red clouds drifting in from the west. The best answer we have been able to arrive at is the explanation of Joe Green, who said the phenomena reminded him of the way smoke off a prairie fire used to color the sky.

Five buyers from Hereford previewed the latest 1951 fall and back-to-school fashions this week in Dallas. Over 5,000 fashion merchants from 17 states and several foreign countries packed all Dallas hotels to capacity for the American Fashion Association's advance apparel market. Attending from Hereford: Lillian Beavers, Earle Twiner, Ertle Mathis, and Bess B. Moore of The Vogue and Mrs. Arthur Thompson of the Little Fashion Shop.

The Liberty, Texas Vindicator made good use of a recent Hereford Brand editorial on the "Fable of a Little Town in Texas" on their editorial page, quoting it fully with the following introduction: "Liberty Chamber of Commerce directors who voted not to employ a full-time manager for the civic organization are invited to read the following excerpt from last week's Hereford Brand."

Lightning struck a high line wire on the J. B. Sowell Jr. place at about 8:45 Thursday night, going down the line, discharging the lightning arrester and hitting the transformer bank. Damage was about $25.

Twelve persons from Hereford have been driving back and forth to Amarillo to attend night school at the Amarillo Center this spring semester which closed May 25. They are: Bessie Barratt, Wm. L. Brady, Ellen S. Bryant, Milan R. Fortenberry, Alice H. Garner, J. D. Groom, Veda Hicks, Leta S. Kaul, Delle C. Martin, Donald C. Martin, Lucile M. Smith, Sophie K. Snare.

"You never know where you will find The Hereford Brand," says Tom McFarland, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce. Tom, his wife, their two children, and Tom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McFarland of Littlefield, returned home Thursday night from a fishing trip to Antonio, Colo.

One morning recently Tom was industriously cleaning their tourist cabin when his wife caught him letting some of his dirt slide under the linoleum. When Tom decided he had better do a good job of his work, he raised the linoleum and found two 1946 or '47 copies of The Brand.

But that really isn't the best of his fishing stories. The McFarland's son, Jim, age 4, was the first of their party to catch his limit.

Irving Alexander of the Popular Store was another Hereford buyer previewing the latest 1951 fall and back-to-school fashions last week in Dallas.

At the Rotary club meeting Friday Berry Jacobsen, program chairman, called on a number of members to describe their experience in visiting Rotary clubs all over the United States. Included on the impromptu program were George Heard, who told of a club meeting in Fort Worth; Morris Thompson, Gymnas, Old Mexico; Earl Phillips, Indianapolis; Leo Forrest, Washington, D.C.; Henry Sears, Galveston; Earl Hendricks, Norman, Okla., and George Linke of Spur, a Brooklyn club.

Ben Sheppard says he had extraordinary luck on his recent fishing trip to Palo Duro—he just caught one, but it must have been nearly four inches long.

A TOTAL OF 146 PERSONS—101 youngsters and 36 adults—helped inaugurate the 1951 swimming season in Hereford by patronizing the pool on opening day Friday, June 1, according to Kenneth Vaughn, manager. The pool opened at 1:30 p.m. and closed at 6:30 when the only remaining patrons were the students who had spent the entire day there. Cool weather Saturday cut the crowd at the pool, Vaughn said. Sunday hours at the pool are from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. Part of the opening day crowd is shown in the above photo. Brand Staff Photo.

Seek To Return Harry McGuire For Trial Here

Extradition proceedings are underway to return Harry McGuire from the penitentiary at McAlester, Okla., to Hereford where he is faced with a grand jury indictment on felony forgery.

Sheriff J. C. Reese received a telegram today from Oklahoma officials asking payment for extradition papers. He said McGuire will probably be returned to Hereford this week, if things develop the way they are now.

The Governor of Texas requested of the Governor of Oklahoma that the extradition be accomplished. McGuire is charged with passing two worthless checks in Hereford in February, 1950. He was indicted by the grand jury on June 10, 1950 and will be tried in district court if returned here.

County Has 16 More Notaries For This Term

Deaf Smith county has 16 more notaries public for the present two-year appointment term beginning June 1 than she did from June 1, 1949 to June 1, 1951, according to County Clerk Robert L. Thompson.

A total of 152 applications have been accepted for the current term as compared with 136 for the two years just completed.

Thompson's staff has been busy accepting notarial bonds and administering the oath of office for the new notaries.

Applicants have until June 10 to qualify for the new two-year term, Thompson said.

See Record Cotton Crop Here Despite Rain Loss

If weather conditions continue favorable, a bumper cotton crop can result this season from the 12,000 acres planted in the Hereford trade territory, predicts John McCleskey, manager of the Hereford Gin Company.

The recent rains have changed the picture considerably, McCleskey pointed out. Many farmers did not replant the seed they lost from the heavy rain, but a large number of

Here is Another Monthly Hereford Brand Regional Roundup

Once each month, The Hereford Brand will prepare a roundup of news and pictures of people and events of this entire area. All those wishing to have society news or announcements, local items, or pictures appear in this monthly regional roundup are urged to send their material to The Hereford Brand. Wedding, engagement, and news pictures are welcome and will be published in this monthly roundup. Persons interested in supplying news from their particular community for this big edition are asked to contact The Brand office.

Good Cooperation In Health Efforts

Hereford merchants and private citizens are making a sincere effort to cooperate in every way possible with sanitation enforcement in the city, according to City Sanitarian Hollis Rainey.

Rainey has just completed his first month's duties in the new capacity and has written a detailed report on what he has found and how merchants have dealt with his recommendations on sanitation.

"Most of the merchants want to know what is wrong and what they can do to correct the situation," Rainey told The Brand this week.

"The eating establishments in Hereford are up to par with those anywhere," he said after completing his first month of inspections. Of course, there were situations which needed correcting in the interests of better sanitation, but these were made readily, Rainey said.

The city sanitarian will make informal visits of Hereford's 20 food and grocery-dispensing establishments twice a month. Once a month, he will compile a written report for his office records. Before making another inspection tour, he will check the previous report and evaluate the improvements in each establishment.

Cooperation of merchants in Hereford has been good also because "it's for their own good, too," Rainey commented. He said the owner of any eating establishment should not hire a person until or unless he has a health certificate. The city ordinance reads that way and that provision will be enforced, he stated.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wither- spoon, Mrs. Nina Jones and Mrs. W. E. Dameron are in Pueblo, Colo., this week end to attend the marriage of their nephew, Bob Lester, who recently returned from Army duty in Korea.

Castor Bean Planting To Be Completed Soon

Planting of 1400 acres of castor beans in Deaf Smith county will be completed just as soon as the weather permits, states Tom McFarland, secretary-manager of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, who says the castor beans already planted, have not been damaged by recent rains.

Forty-two farmers in the county are planting the crop this year, the first season that castor beans have been grown here.

Castor bean acreage over the United States has jumped this year because of the big demand for castor oil, which has 183 uses, chief of which is its use in hydraulic fluid.

Some of the farmers report difficulty in planting the crop, McFarland said, as the ordinary type planter used with corn and cotton will crack the castor bean, causing the oil to seep out and clog the machine. Many have successfully used Spanish peanut planters while others are using special planting boxes equipped with brush or wire knockers instead of metal knockers.

The Commodity Credit Corporation has informed the local Castor Bean Association, formed by farmers to share the expense of harvesting the crop, that the association will be able to obtain combines on a lease basis. It was previously believed the association would have to buy the machinery. A portable type huller will be bought by the association and moved from field to field; thus the farmers will have advantage of the castor bean hulls, which are high in nitrogen, for use as fertilizer.

First Weekly OPS Price Clinic Set

First of a series of regular weekly price clinics will be held here Tuesday afternoon, June 5, according to Tom McFarland, secretary-manager of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce.

C. M. Erickson of the Office of Price Stabilization, Lubbock, will be at Hotel Jim Hill ballroom all afternoon Tuesday to consult with anyone having questions in regard to OPS regulations. Erickson is a consumer goods specialist, but he will be able to give general information also.

McFarland said a specialist in a different phase of price control will be here each week. Notice will be given of the time and place of each OPS conference.

Local Highway 60 Unit Is Planned

Plans for the organization of a local unit of the Highway 60 association are now being considered by the local Chamber of Commerce, according to A. J. Schroeter who returned this week from Riverside, Calif., where he and Mrs. Schroeter attended the meeting of the Highway 60 association.

Schroeter said the association adopted a constitution at its recent meeting providing for the organization of a local association in each city with each city being allowed a maximum of five votes—one for every $50 contributed to the association with the limit of five votes.

Local residents have manifested their interest in the association by the fact 25 or 30 persons have been contributing to the organization. Sessions of the meeting were held at the historical Mission Inn in Riverside where one of the main attractions is a collection of 77 bells, each of which has a historical background. One of the bells was the one rung while Paul Revere was making his famous ride.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCullough and son Pat have gone to Denton to attend North Texas State college commencement exercises. Their daughter, Norma, will be among the candidates for degrees Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Melotte of Albuquerque are spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hall Beavers. While here they plan to make a trip to the Carlsbad Caverns with the Beavers.

County-Wide Rat War Set

A county-wide war on rats will be held in Deaf Smith county during the week of June 11, City Sanitarian Hollis Rainey said Saturday.

The City of Hereford, the county home demonstration agent, the county agent, and the Hereford Chamber of Commerce will all cooperate with the division of predator and rodent control of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service during the week to eliminate rats by instructing in and supervising the laying of a ready-mixed warfare rat poison.

Under Rainey's supervision, the city will cooperate in the program by laying the poison on all city-owned property including the city dump. The county home demonstration agent will arrange for a representative of each home demonstration club in the county to be on hand for special instruction on the rat-killing work by T. J. Sparks of Lubbock, field foreman for the division.

Hugh Clearman, County Agent, will also aid in the supervision and instruction work. All members of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce will be instructed on the project through the news bulletin issued by that organization.

Tentative plans call for Sparks to set up his headquarters at the courthouse and co-operators may come there for individual instructions and to buy their poison, which will sell at cost to the government—25 cents per pound.

Approximately 400 pounds of poison will be needed to cover the county, Rainey was informed.

The services of the government fieldman will be available to the county free of charge for one week. The program must be carried on for at least three weeks to a month, the Lubbock office says, to be effective. Warfarin must be exposed from five to 10 days before any results can be expected.

Warfarin is not harmful to pets, poultry, or livestock.

This program and the services of Mr. Sparks are offered free of charge to any resident of Deaf Smith county. Further information on the dates and times of instruction periods will be carried in future issues of The Brand.

Rainey said Sparks will have a program set up and will adapt it to the local situation upon his arrival here.

Further detailed information on this program may be obtained by calling Rainey at 222.

Organize Six-Team Softball Loop Friday

A six team Hereford Softball league, with a twice-a-week playing schedule running until August 23, was organized Friday night by members of the softball teams represented in the newly-formed loop.

The season will officially begin Monday night at 7:30 p.m. with C & R Cleaners playing Hereford Hardware. The Knights of Columbus and Summerfield will meet in the nightcap. The games will be played at Memorial Park.

Doubleheaders will be played on Mondays and Thursdays under the schedule drawn up Friday night. Thursday's contests will be between Magnolia and Dawn in the opener and C & R Cleaners meeting Summerfield in the wind-up.

A complete schedule for the season will be published in the sports section of The Brand Thursday, June 14.

A four-team playoff will be held at the end of the season and a permanent trophy will be presented the sponsor of the winning team. Individual players on the top team will be awarded miniature softballs with their names inscribed.

A governing board comprised of four men will be selected to handle league funds and to oversee the play during the season.

Ground rules and by-laws were drawn up for the season at Friday's meeting. Plans at the present time call for setting an admission charge with (Continued on page 2)

Dale Winget To Attend Junior Red Cross Camp

Dale Winget, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Winget, Hereford, was selected by a faculty committee to attend the Junior Red Cross training camp Morrilton, Ark., according to Mrs. Dyalitha Bradley, executive secretary of the local Red Cross chapter.

Leaving by train from Amarillo on June 9, Dale will attend the camp for 10 days. Upon his return, he will serve as a councilman for the local chapter.

Among the classes offered the training center are recreation, swimming and first aid. Classified as a junior Hereford High school, Dale was chosen particularly for leadership ability.

 Even though he moved to a ranch in Colorado, Bill Edelman knows that Hereford is the place to buy his household furnishings. A two-man carpeting crew from E. B. Black and Co. will go to the Edelman ranch, 25 miles northwest of Walsenburg, to completely carpet the Edelman home.

American Legion Auxiliary reports good results on their recent Poppy sales. Mrs. Wilbur Davis, chairman of the sales committee, announces a net of $393 as a result of the campaign. The funds are to be used to support the child welfare and the rehabilitation programs, and the Veterans' Memorial Hospital in Amarillo.

The American Legion is still looking for a sponsor for a junior baseball team—anyone interested should contact them. The next Legion meeting will be held Tuesday night, June 5.

Mrs. W. H. May and her seven-year-old son, W. M., of Friona will go to Austin June 6 to attend a school for mother's of deaf children. Norman Whisenand, local state welfare worker, said the school is primarily for mothers to help them learn to train their deaf children. During the school, nurses are provided for the children while the mothers attend classes.

"Going Places" To Play June 7 and 8

"Going Places", a community variety show using a large cast of local talent, will open a two-night stand June 7 at the Hereford high school.

Sponsors of the show will be the Hereford Jaycees-ettes. Proceeds of the show will go to the resuscitator fund to help reduce the indebtedness on that piece of the fire department's emergency equipment.

The variety show concerns itself with a lead character, Uncle Billy Watson, portrayed by Alex Thompson. Uncle Billy is a kindly old man blessed with a Will Rogers sense of humor and a down-to-earth philosophy.

As a station-master in "Home-town, U.S.A.," retiring after 50 years on the job, he brings out his scrap book of clippings showing the famous people he has met and the interesting experiences he has had just watching people "Going Places." As he reminisces, the characters and scenes come to life and act out his story.

Appearing in the show will be Al Jolson (Charles Whitehead); Bob Hope (Jerry Drennan); Professor Quiz (Dr. R. R.

members on its roster. No player may leave one roster and play for another team.

Specialty numbers include musical numbers by Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Walker of Amarillo and a children's group of dancers.

Another big scene in the show and one that is unique, is billed as the "Kitchen Queens' band." In this number, Mrs. H. E. Miller, acting as Major Domo of the aggregation will lead the housewives onto the stage and direct them while they play several musical favorites on instruments fashioned from pots, pans, tubs, washboards, curtain rods, funnels, and other kitchen gadgets. The members of the Kitchen Queens' Band are: Messers. Alex Thompson, Alvin Thompson, W. S. Fluit, A. G. Bell, W. H. Russell, Charles Williams, W. I. Valentine, and Mrs. Edd Cox.

A high spot of the show is where Miss Mary Margaret (Mrs. Evelyn Ford) tells the story of Cinderella and a cast of children enact their favorite Fairy Tale, all wearing satin costumes and colonial wigs.

Other outstanding scenes in the show include "The Ching a Ling Ling" number; "The Everybody's Going Places" ensemble; "Round the Clock With Little Miss Up-To-Date," (a complete "round the clock" fashion show featuring 16 models wearing garments furnished by Mrs. Bess Moore of the Vogue), "The Sultan's Sweeties" and a bang up finale entitled "Home-town U.S.A."

Rehearsals are being held each day and evening by Miss Beryl Taylor, who is here working with the Jaycees-ettes.

Hereford Drops Friday Tilt to Amarillo, 5-1

Hereford lost a well-pitched battle Friday night to the Amarillo Sports by a 5-1 count at Veterans Memorial Park.

The locals out-hit the visitors 8-4 but were unable to bunch their blows as did the Sports and take advantage of their safeties in the run column.

Johnny Winkler pitched hang-up ball, keeping the Sports from hitting until the top of the fifth. The big fifth and sixth was when the visitors did their damage.

Batteries for Hereford were battery-mates were Basden hur-Winkler on the hill and Hardy ling and Brown was the receiver behind the plate. For Amarillo, er.

Safflower Planting To Be Completed by June 15

Planting of between 3000 and 4000 acres of safflower in this area will be complete by about June 15, Alton Fraser, who obtained the seed here, estimated yesterday. Safflower, an oilseed crop, is being planted in this immediate area for the first time this year.

Many farmers have already completed their planting; however, some have lost their seed which they planted just before the heavy rainfall, but everyone who wanted seed was able to obtain it for replanting, Fraser said.

Approximately 50 per cent of the acreage will be on dry land farms; thus the farmers will have an opportunity to learn possibilities of the crop here in future years.

Farmers raising the crop are successfully planting it with equipment on hand. Some are planting with wheat drills while others are using regular row crop planters, Fraser said.

Safflower should be coming up from seven to nine days after planting, depending on the temperature, according to authorities. First cultivation of the crop should come when the plant is four or five inches high. About two cultivations and two irrigations are adequate in ordinary conditions, they report.

Fraser said the crop can be planted as late as grain sorghums.

Marriage License Sale Here Unusual

Cupid may shoot his arrow in Deaf Smith county, but when it comes to taking out a wedding license, today's matrimonial-minded prefer to do their shopping in New Mexico.

The three-day waiting period imposed with the sale of marriage licenses in Texas is the main reason for couples to seek the New Mexico license with the no-waiting period.

The waiting period has hit hard with the domestic sale of licenses, as can be evidenced by a quick glance at the local clerk of court's records.

March, with five issues, was the most active month of the young year. Five licenses were issued during March. April and May showed only one sale. June's first license was sold Friday, June 1.

It's an unusual occurrence when this office sells a marriage license," County Clerk Robert Thompson commented when he closed the books after his first sale of the month.

Scouts, Leaders Return From Reese Encampment

Nine local Explorer Scouts and two leaders returned last week from a two-day Explorer Scout Encampment held at Reese Air Base, Lubbock, May 25 and 26.

Those attending the two-day event were Explorer Scouts Arol Acton, Lynn Bybee, Lee Drake, Buddy Godfrey, Robert Hitks, Robert Miller, Nelson Pierce, Lanny Wilkins, and Tom Woodford.

Post Advisor Bill Phillips and Ralph Stivers transported the youths in their autos. While at Reese, the youths had a schedule filled with actual flying. Link trainer time, Air Force training films, demonstrations on various subjects by Air Force instructors, and aircraft displays.

Post Advisor Phillips said the youths had a good time and reported the Air Force personnel at Reese were "completely sold" on the Explorer program and went out of their way to be helpful to the local youths and leaders.

The 11 local participants were among about 87 there from Hereford, Canyon, Amarillo, and Claude. The encampment was a Llano Estacado district project.

Bicycle Safety Clubs To Meet Friday, June 8

The Bicycle Safety Club of Hereford will meet Friday, June 8, at 10 A.M. in the county court room. The purpose of the meeting is to show a bicycle safety film titled "You And Your Bicycle". This is a sound motion picture showing the value of keeping the bike safe. A portion of the film shows what will happen if unsafe practices are followed. It covers all phases of bicycle safety.

The Safety Council will also furnish refreshments for all who come to the meeting. The Central and Shirley Bicycle clubs will be present and the meeting is also open to all other boys and girls of Hereford. County Sheriff J. C. Reese will be in charge of the meeting. The film and the refreshments will be provided by the Hereford Safety Council.

Employment Office Has Vacancies For Tractor Drivers, Farm Hands

Although vacancies are not numerous, Tom Bourland, head of the local office of the Texas Employment Commission, reports there are openings for tractor drivers, married couples, and some laborers.

Bourland said the farmers are a little short on tractor drivers at this particular time as many are running their tractors almost constantly planting crops and preparing land.

These are positions available for married couples with small families to work as year-round farm hands. Bourland indicated the office can also place some construction laborers at Adrian.

At this particular time everyone wanting to work is being able to find a job, he reported.

Minor Injuries To Two in Auto Mishap Friday

Charges of failure to yield the right of way and operating a motor vehicle without an operator's license were filed against Bud McIntosh following an accident at the corner of First street and Roosevelt Friday night.

Two persons were given emergency first aid treatment in the Deaf Smith county hospital following the accident. They were Mrs. Joe Hastings and Mrs. Maylin Word, both of Dimmitt. They and Mrs. Betty Jean Boothe, also of Dimmitt, were riding in a 1951 Ford sedan which was struck by a pick-up driven east on Highway 60 by McIntosh when he attempted to make a left turn at the Green Hedge cafe. Mrs. Boothe was driving west

Bridge-Luncheon Honors Mrs. Rush

Three hostesses honored Mrs. Clyde Rush who is moving from Hereford soon, at a bridge luncheon given in the home of Mrs. L. B. Barnett Friday. Other hostesses were Mrs. Roy Grubbs and Mrs. Worth Ware. Roses predominated in floral decorations for the party with places laid at small tables for sixteen.

Following the luncheon bridge and canasta games provided entertainment. Mrs. Rush, who was presented with a going-away gift, played high in bridge for the award. Mrs. W. L. Davis Jr. won the traveling prize and Mrs. Ralph Hastings won the low. Mrs. Roy Smith was high score player in canasta games.

Those making up the four tables of players were Mesdames Clyde Rush, Nell Humes of Honolulu, Roy Smith, R. R. Willis, Roy Ford, Golden, Roy Crutchfield, Jack Bradley, Louis Woodford, W. L. Davis Jr., Ralph Hastings, Sylvester Slagle, Troy Moore, Wayne Evans and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Conklin and daughter Caren returned Thursday from Riverside, California where they visited their son, Capt. Merlin Conklin and his family.

on Highway 60 at the time McIntosh's pick-up hit the left front end of her car. About $300 in damage was done to the Boothe auto and about $200 to the McIntosh vehicle.

Two passengers riding with McIntosh were not identified by Highway Patrolman J. A. Dumas, who investigated the wreck.

County 4-H'ers Attend Annual District Camp

Eight 4-H club members and adult workers returned Thursday from West Texas State college at Canyon after participating in the annual district 4-H camp May 28-31.

Those attending from Deaf Smith county included: Miss Doris Mahaffey, assistant home demonstration agent; Mrs. Clarence Sauley, local leader of the Westway girls' 4-H club; Coleen Cook, member of the Westway 4-H club; Barbara Pinnell, member of the Sms 4-H club; and Patricia Townsend, member of the Westway 4-H club.

Also attending were County Agent Hugh Clearman and Ralph Morrison and Larry Kaul, members of the Westway boys' 4-H club.

The first day of the camp, Tuesday, was spent visiting Palo Duro canyon for hiking, nature study, and photography. On Wednesday, they had a rifle shoot, handicrafts, and a tour of the college including the museum.

There was swimming during the day and play parties in the WT gym at night.

Approximately 137 persons from clubs all over the Panhandle were present for the annual event.

4-H Poultry Judging Team Will Participate in State Round-Up

Miss Doris Mahaffey, assistant home demonstration agent, this week announced members of a county poultry judging team which will participate in the state poultry judging contest on June 25 at the 4-H State Round-Up at Texas A & M campus, College Station.

Members of the team are Sue Cooke of the Workers club, Thelma Joyce Epting, Jolly Girls; Gracie Fotheringham, Happy Homes, and Wilma June Wilcox, County Wide.

In order to compete, each girl must be at least 14 years of age and must have been in 4-H club work three years. These four were selected on the basis of their accomplishments in poultry work, each of them being a winner at the annual Junior Livestock Show here, according to Miss Doris Mahaffey, assistant home demonstration agent, who will accompany the group to College Station.

Betty Lou McGaughey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Mc-

Gaughey of Fairview, will enter the state dress revue where she will model a navy blue butcher linen two-piece dress.

Mrs. Tom Draper, county home demonstration agent, and Mrs. N. D. Bartlett Jr., 4-H club leader, will also attend the state round-up.

The entire group will stay through June 25 and 26 in order to attend the general sessions.

Interest Good In Red Cross Home Nursing

Interest is good this week in the organization of Red Cross Home Nursing classes, being instructed by the four Deaf Smith County women who took the Red Cross training course in Carlsbad, N. M., recently.

Two of the classes are being held at official summer Home Nursing headquarters at the Junior High school building, while the other two are being conducted at the Ford Community building.

Tuesday afternoon the first class opened at Ford with Mrs. George Epting as instructor and 14 students enrolling for the course. Tuesday night Miss Ethel Browning's class at Ford had 11 students for the opening class.

Thursday afternoon 10 enrolled in Mrs. Ed Cox's class at the summer headquarters, and

IN THE SERVICE

Jerom A. Erdman, above, arrived in Hereford May 25 to spend a 20-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Erdman. Upon completion of his leave, Erdman expects to be sent overseas.

He has been stationed at a destroyer base in San Diego. He joined the navy August 24, 1950 and completed his boot training in November. He has been stationed at the destroyer base since that time.

His address is: Jerom A. Erdman, S.A. R/S Nav. Sta. R. Div. San Diego, Calif.

13 were present Thursday night for the first session of the home nursing class under the direction of Mrs. P. B. Sowell.

Weather conditions prohibited some who had indicated interest from attending the opening sessions of some of the classes. Fifteen members in each class is the desired number in teaching and demonstrations.

Two Hereford People Earn Degrees Despite Obstacles

Dr. Roy G. Boger, director of the Amarillo Center says, "If the Hereford Brand has hitherto mentioned that Alice Hill Garner and William L. Brady respectively won the Master of Education and the Bachelor of Science degrees from West Texas State College this spring, the best part of their story I am sure wasn't told.

"To earn those degrees," he continued, "Alice Hill Garner has been driving from Hereford to the Amarillo Center to sit in a classroom for three hours and then drive back to Hereford, for three semesters. This on two or more nights each week each semester, and after teaching history in the Hereford Junior High school all day. After a full day's work for the Casl Lumber company William L. Bradley has been doing likewise for two semesters. "Think of that in terms of miles and hours that two tired people have driven and studied, and you'll have a new respect for Alice Hill Garner and William L. Brady of Hereford, who have won the goals they were trying for.

"Many other students of the Amarillo Center have made and are making the same sacrifices to earn degrees, but when one of them graduates I'm not satisfied to let the mere statement to that effect suffice. I want everybody to know about those long drives through nights of sleet and snow and rain, that he has made to earn his degree. Especially do I want the folks in his own home town to know about them.

Boy Scout Clothing Collection Nets 4000 Lbs; Shipped This Week

An estimated 4,000 pounds of clothing was collected in Hereford by the Boy Scouts on May 26, according to S. O. Wilson, chairman of the one-day drive.

The clothing was assembled from collection points this week and sent to Amarillo. From Amarillo, the donated clothing will be trucked to San Francisco for overseas shipment.

Mr. Wilson expressed his thanks to the residents of Hereford for their contributions and to KPAN and The Brand for their publicity given the drive.

Wilson said Mrs. J. F. Ward has sent 1000 pounds of clothing overseas on her own, paying transportation costs. She will continue to do so, and any person whose donations were not collected for the Boy Scout drive may contact Mrs. Ward and she will be glad to ship them.

MR. AND MRS. PETE BUSKE of Friona, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Friday with open house for their friends at their home in Friona.—Alex Thompson Photo.

By JIMMIE GILLETTE

Lowell Sharp is considerably bothered about the weed situation. He figures, and justly so, that the weed crop will be a bumper this year due to the heavy rains. Furthermore, he has a solution for the situation. Lowell says why not get someone to spray weeds around over town. He figures that spraying would eliminate the alley weeds—and says he will pay for spraying the vacant lot next to his home. This, Lowell calculates, will be cheaper and more permanent than mowing them from time to time.

Maybe he has something. Anyway, it sounds reasonable and the City Council is always looking for good ideas that will work. Does anyone else have a better idea, or maybe, an objection.

Frank Cogdell says that I am plain nuts. He says they always had twisters here on the Panhandle Plains. He says they are no more numerous than 10 years back; that there are just more people and, therefore, the twisters are seen and reported more often. Maybe he is right. Anyway, I am in no position to argue with him—but he hasn't convinced me yet.

Roy Smith figures I am right, though. He says there are more twisters now a days simply because the wind doesn't blow as hard as it did back 10 years ago. He says when we had those hard, straight winds that they were strong enough to blow the twisters out of this country and into Oklahoma or Kansas.

Joe Rehnart says watch out for cockleburs with four leaves. They will kill cattle. Joe says he lost 11 head. He swears the kind with only two leaves are OK, but that the four-leaf variety is poison. Maybe he knows. Anyway, I feel sorry for anyone who loses 11 head of cattle these days, price of beef and all considered considered.

These young lawyers are sure getting sharp. It seems like old times for interest in court cases to run paramount. I think they are about to run Judge Leonard Foster crazy over the DWI trial of Karl Lee Lovelady, a Muleshoe attorney. John Aiken and Wayne Thomas are on the defense council and County Attorney Gibb Howard represents the State. They have had some heated arguments, a lot of "wherefores" and "therefores" and technicalities—and beneath it all rings a lot of genuine sincerity on part of all three legal representatives. This is a good sign. It marks the return of interest in a phase of American life which has rapidly been vanishing. Like politics, people need to take more interest in court proceedings.

It is sometimes difficult for home-folks to recognize the merits of a young man who have known since childhood. But Wayne Evans has long been the exception to this rule around Hereford. A few years back he was selected "Man of the Year" and he has filled many important places in the community. Now outsiders are catching up. Wayne's friends are indeed proud of the honors he has received from Hardin-Simmons University. A man so young as Wayne is seldom accorded a place on the Board of Trustees of such a large institution; being elected president of the Ex-Student Association is like-wise a signal honor—but we are proudest of the fact that he was chosen as the student who has done the most for the university during the past year. Congratulations, Wayne, on these accomplishments—and even more important on being the kind of man who can achieve success and still remain the same forthright friend, loyal citizen and good neighbor.

There is a small forest of trees in the center of the speedway. Two cars cost $50,000 each—and neither finished the race. Earl says practically all of the cars are four cylinders jobs with special made motors, but the two $50,000 jobs had V-8 type engines. I thought they started these racing jobs by pushing them, but Earl says they have a huge battery (around four feet square) which is wheeled out for starting.

Earl Phillips is back from quite a trip, including Indianapolis. He couldn't get in to see the annual Speedway Classic, but he watched the trial runs—and he has more information about automobile racing than you could believe. He says cars were lined up blocks long on Saturday prior to the annual race on Tuesday; he says the people lived in the cars all this time, just to get into the center of the field to watch the big race. Tickets sell from $3.50 to $35.00. Earl says, but you couldn't get one at all, due to the advance sales. He says more than 100,000 people watched the trial runs each day and 500,000 saw the big 500-mile classic. He says they have five mechanics for each racer; that they can change all four wheels, re-fuel and oil a racing car in approximately a minute and a half.

He also says there is quite an art in coming into the pits. If a driver over-shoots his particular pit, Earl says he is penalized a lap, or else has to go around and come in next time, no backing up on the tracks. He says only a few yards of the old brick speedway are left.

I didn't realize how little I knew about racing until I talked with Earl. I still don't see how the guy absorbed so much information in a brief visit. You can hardly think of a question about racing he cannot answer—and he sounds like he knows what he is talking about.

Music Study Club Leader Looks Forward to Club Associations

(This is the first in a series of articles being written about the presidents of various clubs in the city.)—Ed. Note.

While the tornado was doing its worst in Higgins Mrs. J. D. Neill thought if she got out alive she would never again live in a tornado country. She had visions of living in Hereford again where the winds blew hard but straight. Now she isn't so sure about being safe from twisters even in Hereford.

Mrs. Neill moved to Hereford when she was three and after being away at intervals she and her husband returned to Hereford in 1947 and right now she is spending much of her time planting flowers and shrubs at their new home in the Progressive Community.

After graduating from Hereford high school, Mrs. Neill attended Baylor university two years and received her degree at West Texas State college at Canyon. She began the study of music as a child and continued throughout her college career. After graduation from West Texas, she taught music and English in the public school at Van Horn. It was there she met Mr. Neill and they were married in 1930. They moved to Higgins and she taught music and high school English there during the war.

She still keeps up her study of music and readily gives the impression of a warm hearted interest in people, which perhaps accounts for her great interest in books. She prefers historical books and detective fiction. She is a member of varied groups and organizations in Hereford and just recently was elected president of the Music Study Club. She is a past president of the Bud-To Blossom Club and has served in many capacities in the work of the Presbyterian Church, especially the Women's organization and choir.

One of the first duties of her office as president of the Music Study Club when the fall season is opened will be planning for the Seventh District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs convention which will be held in Hereford in October.

In discussing the work of organization Mrs. Neill says that the year book committee is now working on programs for the coming year. Each year the programs for club consideration are planned to give attention to special interests of individual members as well as those outlined by the federation.

As president of the Music Study Club Mrs. Neill will be called upon to give more than her talent as an accomplished musician, but she is looking forward to the associations for she says; "There is so much talent in the club and the members are so cooperative."

Miss Mary Ellen Henslee - Lt. Mager Wedding Here June 17

MISS HENSLEE

Announcement of the engagement and forthcoming marriage of Miss Mary Ellen Henslee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Henslee, and Lt. George L. Mager, son of Mrs. George Mager of Amarillo, was made at an informal coffee given on Thursday morning by the bride elect's mother.

A blue and white color scheme was carried out in floral decorations to accent the bride-elect's chosen colors, and the wedding news was revealed in flame tipped candles that topped individual cake squares. When the simulated flame was released from the candle guests read "Mary and Buddy"—June 17". Mrs. Donald Henslee presided at the table which was laid with a white embroidered cloth and appointed in silver.

The couple will be married here in St. Anthony's Catholic church with Father Kenney officiating.

Miss Henslee is a graduate of Hereford High school and of West Texas State college. She has been a member of the Santa Fe, New Mexico high school faculty the past year. Lt. Mager is stationed with the Air Force at Goodfellow Air Base, San Angelo.

Those attending the announcement affair were Mesdames Urlin Streu, Lyle Blanton, Darrell Blanton, E. S. Ireland, J. O. Newell, John Winkler, L. H. Lookingbill, Cecil Wilkins, Warren Hitchins, Wayne Thomas, Charles Hill, Henry Hastings, A. Petersen and members of the house party.

The wedding took place in the First Baptist church of Floyd with the pastor officiating, on Sunday, May 27.

Cleta Faye Dow served the bride as maid of honor, wearing a white printed organdy dress with white hat. Clifford Galley of Dawn served the bridegroom as best man. The bride wore a white organdy street length frock made with high neckline and full skirt. She wore a white hat with navy veil with navy accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with pink feathered carnations tied with satin streamers.

Nita Nell Laborr and Della Ruth Dow lighted the candles. The reception following the ceremony was held in the home of the bride's parents.

Shower Honors Recent Bride

Mrs. Jimmie Whitaker, a recent bride, was honored at a postnuptial courtesy in the form of a miscellaneous shower given in the home of Mrs. Frank Wilde Monday evening. Hostesses were Mesdames Charles Lalg, Calvin Goodin, Frank Wilde, Bill Craig, Miss Frances Walker and Miss Velma Harper.

Aqua and white chrysanthemums formed an attractive centerpiece for the table which was laid with an Oriental white cloth. A tiny net umbrella rising from the center of the flowers suggested the theme of the party. Mrs. Calvin Goodin presided. Miss Velma Hodges had charge of the bride's register.

The receiving line was made up of the honoree, her mother, Mrs. J. J. Goodin, and Mrs. Boone Whitaker, the bridegroom's mother.

"The Real Hawaii" Like Writers, Artists Portray It, Says Visitor

An interesting visitor in Hereford is Mrs. Nell Humes who has been a guest in the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Rush, this month.

There are books filled with the lure of beauty in flowers, trees and narrow beaches of Hawaii, the sort of narratives on which to build a dream, but seldom do we find such happy endings to dreams as has Mrs. Humes, for the lure has not lessened its appeal through the years. She loves Hawaii and expects to spend many more years there. All they say in books is true and she thinks perhaps much more could be added without exaggeration.

Mrs. Humes went to Honolulu in 1921. Her first husband,

W. E. Trogdon, was in the service and they soon learned to like the country and the people. So much so, that after his death she decided to make Hawaii her home. Later she was married to Louis O. Humes, now retired. At first the Oriental way of life was confusing and when she would find herself where there were only Japanese she would wonder about her safety, but in no time at all she grew to like every thing and every body. She is a very friendly person and anyone conversing with her would get the impression that she is able to make the best of any given situation.

She says she really lives a normal American life in Honolulu, which is an easy thing to do since the Island has become completely modernized. Collecting Oriental pieces of Chinese art, especially teak wood, and cooking more exotic dishes seem to bring her personal pleasure. She has even learned to like poi, the national dish, and says sometimes she enjoys an all-Hawaiian meal. She has high esteem for the Hawaiian women, most of whom she says are really beautiful.

She recalls the first trip she made to the Islands which took seven days on the Manoa, a small steamer, and compared it

"The Real Hawaii" Like Writers, Artists Portray It, Says Visitor

An interesting visitor in Hereford is Mrs. Nell Humes who has been a guest in the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Rush, this month.

There are books filled with the lure of beauty in flowers, trees and narrow beaches of Hawaii, the sort of narratives on which to build a dream, but seldom do we find such happy endings to dreams as has Mrs. Humes, for the lure has not lessened its appeal through the years. She loves Hawaii and expects to spend many more years there. All they say in books is true and she thinks perhaps much more could be added without exaggeration.

Mrs. Humes went to Honolulu in 1921. Her first husband,

W. E. Trogdon, was in the service and they soon learned to like the country and the people. So much so, that after his death she decided to make Hawaii her home. Later she was married to Louis O. Humes, now retired. At first the Oriental way of life was confusing and when she would find herself where there were only Japanese she would wonder about her safety, but in no time at all she grew to like every thing and every body. She is a very friendly person and anyone conversing with her would get the impression that she is able to make the best of any given situation.

She says she really lives a normal American life in Honolulu, which is an easy thing to do since the Island has become completely modernized. Collecting Oriental pieces of chinese art, especially teak wood, and cooking more exotic dishes seem to bring her personal pleasure. She has even learned to like poi, the national dish, and says sometimes she enjoys an all-Hawaiian meal. She has high esteem for the Hawaiian women, most of whom she says are really beautiful.

She recalls the first trip she made to the Islands which took seven days on the Manoa, a small steamer, and compared it

Blue Birds Hold Complete Summer Camp-in Hereford

BLUE BIRDS at the end of their first day of summer camp—this group was relaxing on the lawn in front of the hut where the camp was held Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Girls from the four local Blue Bird groups participated in hiking, handcraft, story telling, and other events of a regular camp.

A complete summer camp for Blue Birds, girls ages 7 to 10, was held here Tuesday and Wednesday with nearly all activities of camps everywhere and without the girls having to go out of town for the occasion.

Representing four Blue Bird groups, the Jolly, Joyful, Happy, and a new group not yet named, 41 girls met at the Camp Fire hut at 9 o'clock each day of the camp.

Handcraft, sing-songs, new games, story telling, and hikes were tops on the lists for the girls.

Each girl brought her own dishes which she washed and dried after each meal by use of tubs just outside the hut. Lunch and supper were served, with the assistance of mothers and leaders, on Tuesday and lunch and refreshments of home made ice cream on Wednesday.

One of the highlights of the camp, according to the chairman, Mrs. Louis Woodford, was a "penny hike" Tuesday which took the girls in a zig zag fashion around town. The route of the hike was determined by flipping a penny at the end of each block—heads, turn right, tails, turn left. Sometime the penny takes the group in circles, sometimes straight.

Each Blue Bird brought her own blanket for use at nap time, and 30 of the 41 took one hour naps, Mrs. Woodford said. Everything during the camp was carried out in an organized manner, the chairman said, with each girl doing everything asked by the leaders.

Mrs. Jack Walker served as chairman of the food committee; Mrs. J. R. Fowkes, crafts chairman; and Mrs. Jimmie Gillentine, story teller.

Members of the Horizon club helped with games and supervision during the two days.

Joyce Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rose, will enroll Monday for the summer term at Texas Tech, Lubbock, after spending the week end at home. Joyce will be classified as a sophomore this summer.

to the nine hour plane trip to the states the fifth of May. This is her first trip to the Panhandle and she says she isn't surprised that her daughter seems so well satisfied here. She will not visit her home town of Vincennes, Indiana this trip but will go to El Paso for a brief stay with relatives there before boarding the plane for home on June 10. She is secretary to the general manager of Libby-McNeill and Libby, growing and canning pineapple concern.

Honored at Coffee

Mrs. Humes was honored on Tuesday afternoon at a coffee given by her daughter. Guests were served from an attractive table centered with a large fresh pineapple blossoming with cubed fruit arranged for guests to serve themselves. Mrs. Worth Ware and Mrs. Roy Smith assisted the hostess.

Besides the honoree and Dr. Rush's mother, Mrs. Clyde C. Rush, who has made her home

Cheeses Plentiful, Make Good Substitutes for Meal

Thrifty housewives are including cheese often in their meal planning now. The very good reason for this is high meat prices. This is the time, too, when cows give more milk and in most years the price of cheese is lower.

Cheese is rich in protein and in food energy and can be presented often as a main dish. In a recent government bulletin put out by the United States Department of Agriculture, one-half of a pound of Cheddar cheese rates as much protein as a good three-fourths pound of beef. One-half pound of cheese supplies the recommended protein in a main dish for four people.

Cheese recipes that demonstrate the varied ways in which this food may be used are in demand. Here are two tested in her own kitchen by Mrs. R. E. Lingenfelter, which easily become favorites.

Cheese - Corn Casserole

1 number 2 can whole kernel corn
1 small package elbow spaghetti

Drain the can of corn and cook spaghetti by directions on box and set aside to drain.

Sauce
6 tablespoons butter or margarine
4 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
2 cups sweet milk
dash of pepper
dash of paprika
1 1/2 cups Cheddar Cheese (grated)

Melt the butter and blend in the flour. Add milk gradually with salt, pepper, sugar and paprika. Place on slow fire, stirring constantly, until it begins to thicken, add the grated cheese and allow to cook slowly, stirring constantly, until thick and creamy.

Place a layer of spaghetti in a buttered casserole and add a layer of corn. Pour over the cheese sauce and repeat the layers of spaghetti and corn, topping with the remainder of the cheese sauce.

Place in 425-F degree oven until brown. About 20 minutes. Serve hot Mrs. Lingenfelter adds pimientos when she wants a more festive dish.

Asparagus With Cheese

Here is another way she uses the cheese sauce. She alternates one number 2 can of asparagus tips (drained) with six hard boiled eggs sliced and adds the sauce as in above recipe. Then she puts it all in the oven (425) to brown. This is delicious.

Many requests have come to this department for a cheese cake recipe or perhaps more properly called Cheese Torte. At long last we are able to include one in this column. Its one of those super-delicious recipes that never fail. Its fine with coffee or with roast and vegetables.

Cheese Cake

2 cups crushed zwieback
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup melted butter
4 eggs
1 cup sugar
1/2 lemon—juice and rind
1 cup coffee cream
3 8-oz. pkgs. Philadelphia Cream Cheese
1/2 cup flour
1/2 cup chopped nut meats

Roll zwieback fine and mix with 1/2 cup sugar, cinnamon, and melted butter. Set aside 1/4 cup of this mixture to sprinkle over top and spread the rest over the bottom and sides of a buttered casserole. Press the mixture firmly with hands.

Beat the eggs with the one cup of sugar until light, add lemon and salt and stir in the cream gradually. Then add the cheese and flour which have been blended together. Mix all well and pour into a casserole lined with crumb mixture. Cover with the 1/4 cup zwieback mixture that has been set aside and top with the chopped nuts. Bake in a 300-F degree oven for one hour or until firm. Let stand until cool and its ready to eat.

This may be cooked in a spring mold (variety store type) but works fine either way.

MRS. KIRKPATRICK of Dimmitt considers the master bedroom, shown above, as the most attractive room in her spacious home, which is one of Dimmitt's finest. The word "master" really personifies the Kirkpatrick bedroom and its rich appointments. From the rich draperies on the wall and the built-in bookshelves to the console radio (to the right of the scene shown in the picture), the Kirkpatrick bedroom was decorated with but one thought in mind—comfort and convenience. Brand Staff Photo.

THE FIRE-GUTTED interior of the Friona high school is slowly showing signs of clearing as clean-up operations get underway. No plans have been announced as yet by the school officials for rebuilding the structure, which burned the morning of May 16 with a resulting loss of over $100,000. This picture shows the destruction looking up the north hall of the Friona school. Brand Staff Photo.

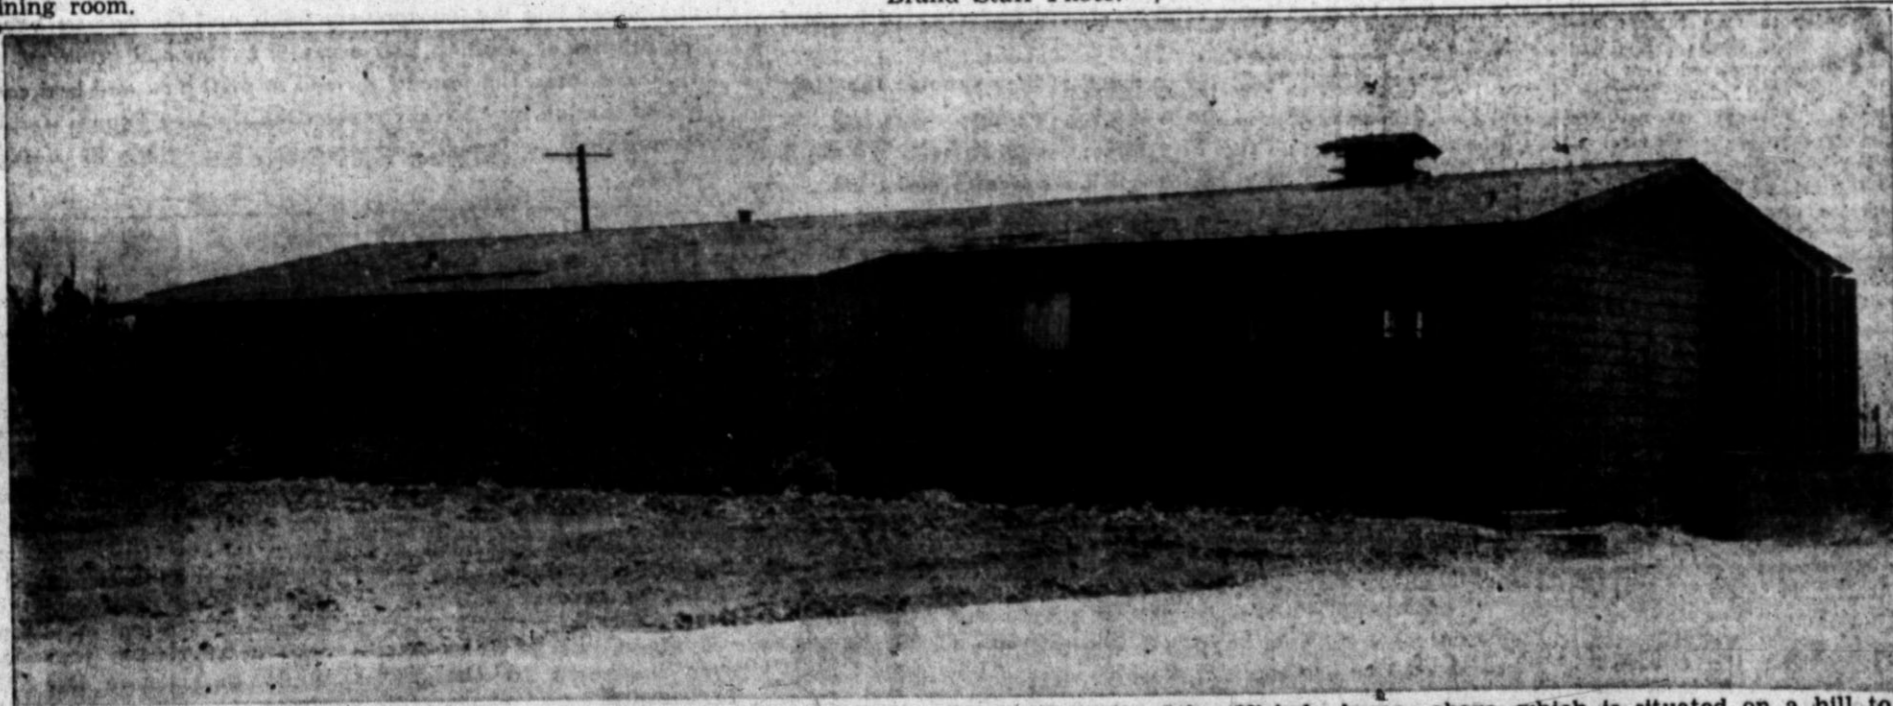

THE RAMBLING design of the ranch-type home of Mrs. F. N. Welch of Friona typifies the trend in new homes being built in that Parmer county town. Located on the corner of Ninth and North Prospect, the home combines the ever-popular slate siding with building stone used in the middle section of the home. Landscaping of the huge yards in front and back add to the vastness of the home of Mrs. Welch and her 20-year-old daughter, Murna. The home was built in the fall of 1948. Brand Staff Photo.

More Friona, Dimmitt News In This Edition

A COMMANDING VIEW of the western route into Dimmitt is held by the modernistic John Nichols home, above, which is situated on a hill to the right of Highway 86 as you enter Dimmitt. The brick and redwood home represents the very latest in modernistic, functional design. Brand Staff Photo.

TYPICALLY FEMININE is the bedroom in the Mrs. F. N. Welch home belonging to Mrs. Welch's 20-year-old daughter, Murna, who is a junior at Texas Tech, majoring in home economics. The two designs of paper used in the room, the orchid taffeta tie-back curtains, and the shell-shaped Hollywood head board all give the room the distinctive "her room" look. Brand Staff Photo.

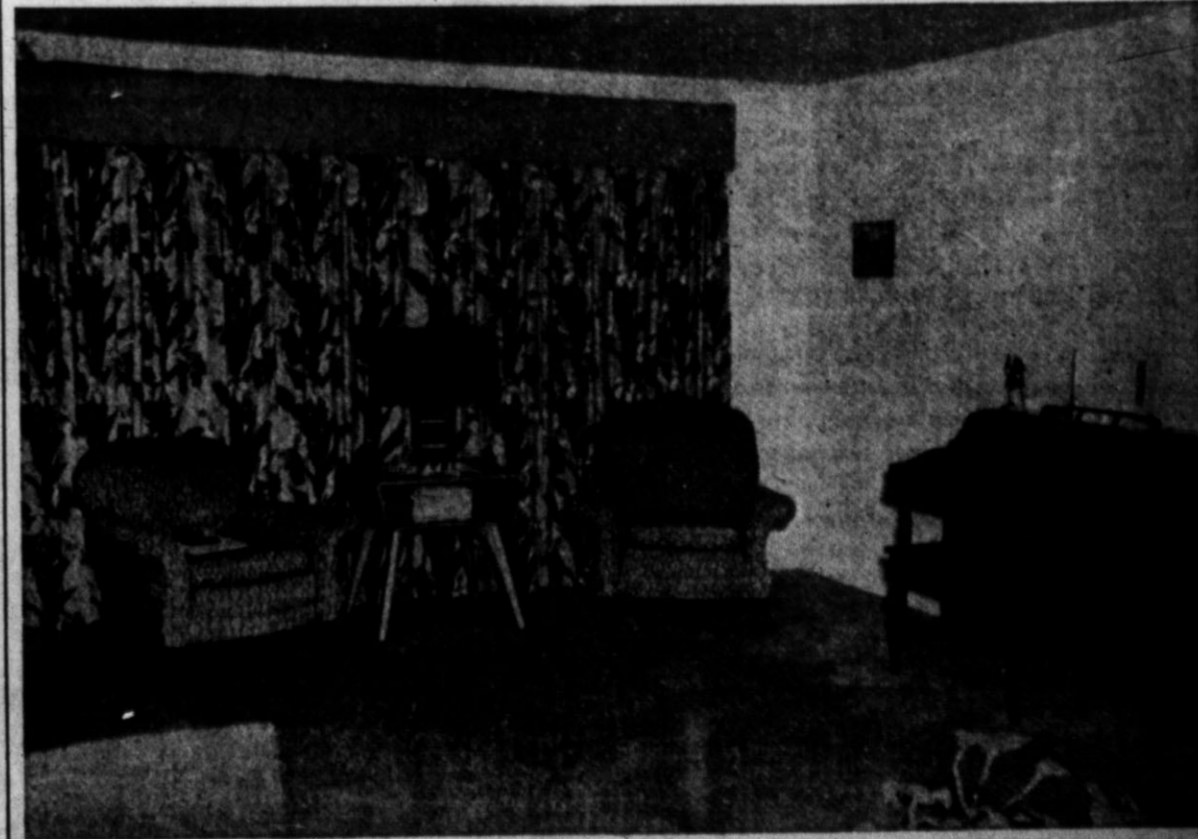

ONE OF FRIONA'S finer small homes is the W. E. Dickson residence, above, at 903 North Prospect. The combination siding with the base of brick veneer and the upper half of lumber siding gives a pleasant effect even for a smaller type of home. This combination serves to increase the size of the house to the eye. Pleasing landscaping adds to the attractiveness of the Dickson home. Brand Staff Photo.

Friona Club Has Study of Comic Books Wednesday

Friona (Special)—The final spring meeting of the Friona Women's Club was held Wednesday in the form of a 1 o'clock luncheon at the club house where Mrs. Zona Bass discussed comic books, stressing the type children should be allowed to read.

Mrs. Spencer reported on the seventh district convention held in Amarillo, and sidelights of the convention were given by Mrs. F. W. Reeves and Mrs. Roy Slagle.

Hostesses for the occasion Mesdames F. L. Lillard, Jake Lamb, Wesley Hardesty, and Lin Miller.

COMFORT IS the keynote in the Welch living room as is evidenced by the above scene. Two upholstered lounge chairs and a solid oak table before the huge picture window form the basic group for the Welch living room. Gaily-colored floral traverse drapes, when closed as above, lend themselves to complete the informal grouping. Brand Staff Photo.

Hereford Needs Summer Recreation Program

Now that summer vacation is here, many Hereford children will be facing the same problem—What'll we do?

And the ensuing months will serve to strengthen the conviction in many minds that we should inaugurate some type of organized recreation program in Hereford.

In spite of the fact there are several ways youngsters can occupy themselves in restricted groups or as individuals, we have no overall city-wide program which will benefit all our children and provide genuine mass appeal.

Of course we have a first-rate swimming pool with competent supervisory personnel. Our children can go there and become proficient in swimming and life-saving.

But what about those who are not interested in swimming? They can go to the Terra Blanca and fish, but that, too, is a sport of strictly limited appeal.

And so it goes all along the line. There is serious consideration being given to the problem of recreation for children by many of Hereford's leading citizens. Their ideas need popular support before they can see the light of day.

Maybe—in the not-too-distant future—a recreation fund, kept alive through individual donations and support of our civic groups, can be set up in Hereford so a summer recreation program can be conducted under the supervision of qualified personnel.

The possibilities are unlimited. Under an organized sports program, our children can spend their summer leisure hours engaged in wholesome sports activities of their choice. Such games as baseball, softball, golf, volleyball, basketball, archery, soccer, swimming, tennis, badminton, and many, many other activities could all be incorporated into the program if interest warranted.

We could even go so far as to give special instruction in arts and crafts. Story-telling periods and game periods for the little tots could be included in the program, too.

There would be little trouble finding young people interested in youth and teaching to aid in this work.

A program beneficial to ALL children in the community could be carried on for a good deal less than $2000 for several weeks. It's being done in several communities across the nation at the present time.

The benefits to our children from a city-wide program would be inestimable.

We in Hereford are blessed with a wonderful park system, and it's still growing. Our city considers recreation an important enough phase of our community life to set aside funds for improving still more park areas.

Remember—one or two persons alone cannot carry the load and start the ball rolling. If a recreation program is worth having, it's worth standing up and "beating the drums" for.

Talk to your neighbors and friends about the idea. See how they like the thought of having their children spending their play time in company with other children their age in constructive, healthful diversion.

Such a plan would take money, but it's for the benefit of Hereford's richest asset—our children. We know from experience that spending for the welfare of our youth is the world's best investment.

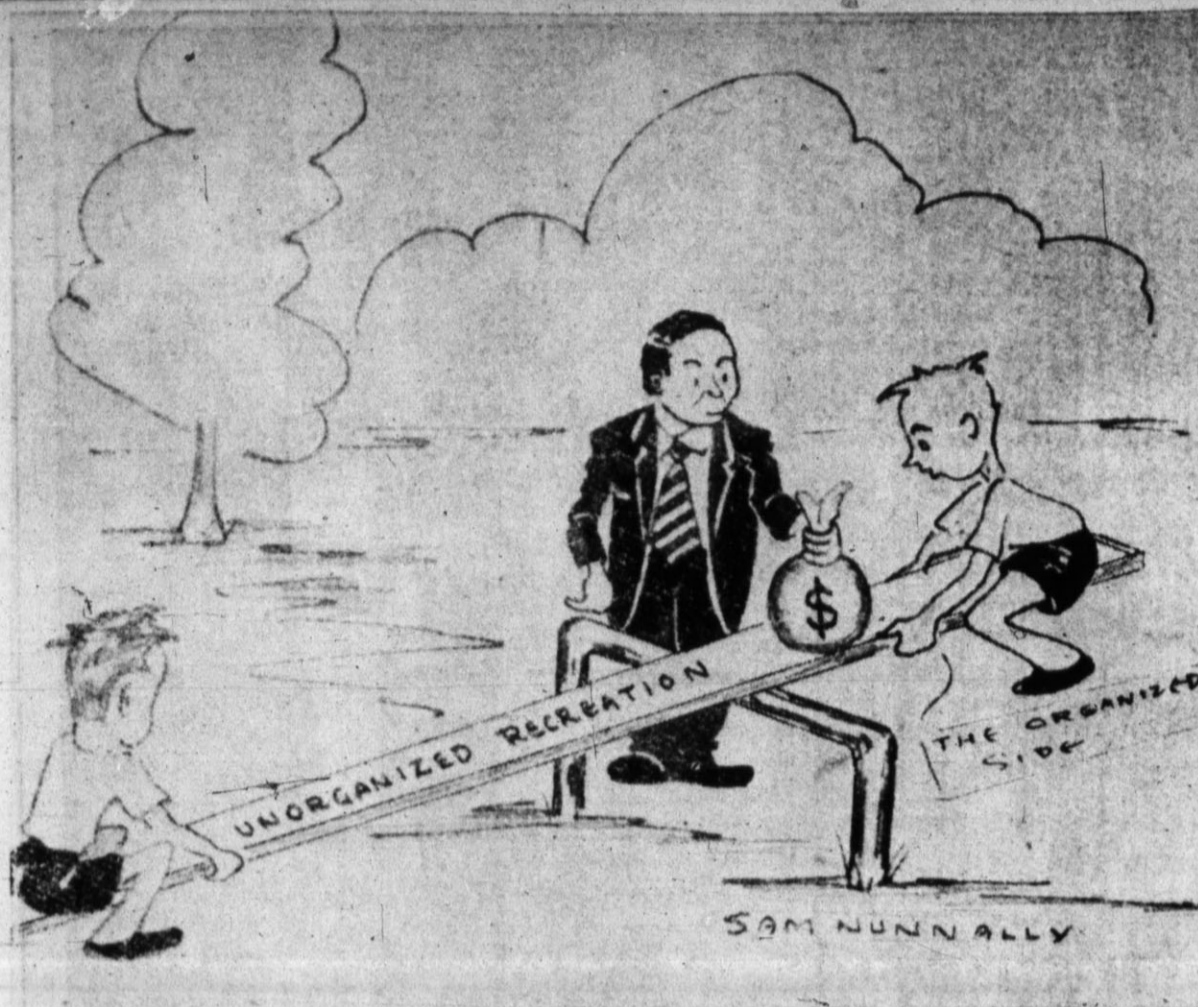

Leaders of civic organizations should compare notes on how they can best lend their services in such a city-wide plan for recreation. This would dovetail perfectly with the youth program they all include in their aims and objectives.

Essentially, a summer program would have to be conducted so it would not interfere with any summer activities scheduled by Hereford's religious organizations. It can be done that way.

If nothing can be started this summer on a recreation program, efforts should be made to inaugurate a city-wide plan for the following summer.

The cost will be low if we all help. The benefits will come back hundred-fold.

Debate Arms Boycott

MOST IMPORTANT diplomatic debate of the Korean war has been going on backstage at the United Nations—namely, an arms boycott of Red China.

So far our U.N. allies haven't got around to voting to ban arms, let alone an economic embargo. However, it remains a fact that this is one of the most important steps to be taken against any aggressor. Furthermore there is a long history of diplomatic pussyfooting regarding this by our supposedly good friends—pussyfooting that eventually has landed them in war. Here is some case history:

Pussyfoot No. 1 was when the British undercut us in 1931 when Japan first invaded Manchuria. Issues almost identical to the Korean aggression were involved in Manchuria, and the late Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson saw them clearly. He saw that Japan was sowing the first wild oats of aggression, just as Russia is today, and that if she got away with one aggressive bite there would be more.

But Stimson never could get the British, who had more at stake than we, to cooperate. When U.S. Ambassador Cameron Forbes would deliver a note of protest, the British ambassador did likewise — then dropped round to the Japanese foreign office an hour or two later to explain that Britain's note was merely to please the Americans and not to be taken seriously.

Pussyfoot No. 2 was when President Roosevelt tried to organize an economic blockade of Japan in 1938 in order to stop further aggression against China. By this time the British realized their 1931 mistake and went along with us. But Roosevelt could not get the support of other European powers. Hitler and Mussolini were too strong by that time, and he also faced the private opposition of Cordell Hull.

Pussyfoot No. 3 came when Mussolini invaded helpless Ethiopia. This was one of the cruelest cases of aggression the modern world has seen, and the tottering League of Nations conscientiously tried to act. But although an economic blockade was voted for the first time in history, two things made it unsuccessful.

One was the exclusion of oil. The big American and British oil companies pulled backstage wires, managed to scare British and American diplomats into permitting the continued shipments of oil to Mussolini. Without oil, his fleet would have been paralyzed and his trucks could not have moved. But we pussyfooted.

Pussyfoot No. 4 is taking place right now in regard to Red China, an obvious, wanton aggressor in Korea. While the British are the worst pussyfooters, we in the U.S., including General MacArthur himself, have pulled our punches.

MacArthur, for instance, has permitted a steady dribble of strategic materials to flow into Red China from Japan. From July to October, 1950, he permitted $8,105,000 in metals, machinery and textiles to leave Japan for China. From October to January, Jap exports to the Communists increased to $11,100,000. Since MacArthur controlled all Jap exports, this could have been stopped.

However, the flow of British goods entering China through Hong Kong is the most shocking scandal of the entire Korean war. While American lives are being snuffed out, British millions are being made overnight.

'Tater Peelin's

By Roberta Campbell

Looks like we scooped the daily papers as it was last Tuesday before the Amarillo Globe carried a front page story on vaccination and polio.

Right now scientists are workin' n the theory that it could be roaches which spread the polio virus.

They happen to be one of the few household pests and pets that we don't have so here's hopin'.

It is always so refreshing to meet a woman who is gracious, unaffected and sincere. Such is our impression of Mrs. Don Davidson.

Whenever we see a baby kitten too small to make its way wanderin' along the highway or smashed on the pavement we feel like who ever put it out there should be tarred and feathered. Little puppies are even more dependent on human-bein's for food and water.

Well from the looks of the blooms on Otto Olson's spuds a mile south of us it won't be too long until tater diggin' time and new potatoes sorter put me in the same mood as our hungry nine year old who maneuvered us into Haile Drug and announced quietly that "his mouth was nearly cryin' for a hamburger."

SUNDAY'S CURRENT QUESTION

Many Favor Continued Ceilings on Prices; Others Want Controls Off

Price ceilings are due to die June 30 unless Congress renews them. Do you think price ceilings should be extended beyond that date?

MRS. SANK RAMEY—Seems to me that they should. The main thing I am for is getting the cost of living down. It is just too high for our income. I feel like price ceilings do help. We don't know what would have happened if we hadn't had them.

EUGENE COLLIER—I believe price ceilings are a good thing. I believe if we don't have price ceilings, prices will just go up beyond reason. If that happens, it isn't going to be good for anyone concerned.

MRS. TROY WOMBLE—I certainly think they should be extended. Prices are just as high as we can stand, and I don't believe they should be allowed to rise. I think the ordinary worker doesn't get enough wages to live and pay all these high prices as they are now—especially groceries. I find that the highest thing, and we have to have groceries. They are trying to get grocery prices down, but I don't know whether they are going to do any good or not.

BOB ANDERSON—Yes, I think we should wait a little longer and see what is to happen in world affairs before we discontinue price ceilings.

MRS. ORA J. REMLING—No, I think we would be better off without price ceilings. If they would take controls off, I think prices would work themselves out. I think people would refuse to buy the things that are too high.

HOMER LEE OWENS—No, I don't. In a way we would be better off without them. I don't think we should have price ceilings. If we left controls off, prices might adjust themselves.

Mitchell Returns After Serving In Korean Waters Aboard LST

William N. Mitchell, seaman, son of Mrs. R. L. Calloun, of 420 Schley St., Hereford, arrived in San Diego, Calif., on May 26 aboard the Pacific Fleet Amphibious Force tank landing ship USS LST 914, after serving more than ten months in Korean waters. His ship sailed to Japan last year to train elements of the Eighth Army in amphibious landings. Shortly after arriving there, the Korean conflict

DOUBLE DROWNING

Eddie Harris, age 22, and his nine-year-old nephew, Bill McCarter, both of whom have close relatives in Canyon and the area, drowned in a surface lake near Forrest, N. M. last week. Harris lost his life in an effort to save his nephew who had fallen from a raft into the 7-foot water, reports The Canyon News.

COTTON INSECTS

Cotton insect control and a program to control it is the No. one emergency facing the farm owners of Lamb county in this very wet, rainy year of 1951, according to the Lamb County Leeder. Plans are already being formulated in many areas to meet the insects which increased by countless thousands and millions as the rains fell.

SUDDEN CHANGE

After virtually writing off a wheat crop for this year, comments picked up early this week indicate Parmer County may yet have a fairly good wheat yield this summer, predicts The Stateline Tribune. The sudden change in the outlook resulted from last week's heavy rains that dumped from four to six inches of desperately needed moisture all over the county. However, it is estimated that the wheat acreage in the county is only about 15 to 20 per cent normal.

EARLY SANTA LETTER

Elizabeth Manning Wiley should get her 1951 Christmas request. The Wheeler Times last week received a letter from Elizabeth addressed to Santa Claus, c/o The Times, requesting a black cowgirl outfit with a green cowboy hat and telling Santa it is summer here now.

WHICH CHANGES MOST?

In his column J. Milsap in the Olton Enterprise says, "Just which does change hands more often, the Enterprise or SEOUL?" New publisher of the Enterprise is Royce Vernon. Milsap continues, "Have you ever eaten some delicious food that seemed to go all the faster for it's being so good? Wonder if our school children think of the fast fading school days in that manner?"

SEE EROSION FROM AIR

Down at Happy, according to the Happy Herald, 21 planes made 57 flights during one morning to take 150 persons on an aerial tour. They saw outstanding examples of the advantages of soil conservation practices, as water erosion was in progress on some of the unprotected soil during the tour.

NOT FADING AWAY

Before the rains, Dr. O. H. Loyd of Vega predicted we would have 10 inches of moisture between May 1 and September 1. He said if we did not get it, we would "just fade away." This week he reports in The Vega Enterprise, "We are not fading." We have to date had at the Vega Station a plump 10.74 inches of rain. He concludes, "It might be possible that the infernal A Bomb might wreck our averages, but otherwise expect a wet year, beyond which I know not."

TRUE TEXAS FASHION

In true Texas fashion, neighbors, 15 or 20 of them, drove their tractors up the road to the small, white farm home, near Whitharrel of D. H. Montgomery, who was ill in a hospital with pneumonia. While Mrs. Montgomery looked on, the tractors turned into the Montgomery fields and the farmers began the process of planting 150 acres of cotton and grain on the 177 acre farm. The farmers arrived at 6:20 a.m. and had completed the job by 10 a.m., reports the Hackley County Herald. Montgomery, a farmer and preacher, has been ill several weeks.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his farm near Hereford is confused, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor: I would like to know whatever happened to the Texas Legislature?

As I recall, it was in session and tryin' to get some California gambler to come to Austin and I guess explain how to improve the game and still keep it on a friendly basis when President Truman fired General MacArthur, and since then I haven't heard a word out of it.

I suppose it's still in session, but the MacArthur fuss has dominated the news so much everybody forgot about Austin and as far as I know they may be just sittin' around listenin' to the radio themselves.

If you ask me, the Legislature missed a big opportunity. Right when the people's minds were all on Washington was the ideal time to go ahead and balance the state budget in a statesmanlike way, vote whatever new taxes was needed, pass any laws they could think of, and adjourn and go home. Wouldn't a person have heard about it till months later. Why right now I couldn't tell

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Need For Non-Partisan Foreign Policy Debate

The eyes of the world are on America during this world crisis and particularly so since our people are now engaged in one of the greatest debates in history.

Our leaders in Washington have a great load on their shoulders at the present time as they attempt to sift the facts from the propaganda in the present foreign policy clash.

It is imperative that the people and their duly-elected representatives satisfy themselves as to the wisdom of any foreign policy commitments made by our government to be secured with the strength and skill of our young sons and brothers on the battlefield.

We want to know if we are pursuing the right course or the wrong one towards world peace. If we are headed the wrong way, we want to know who is responsible for the blunder.

We cannot personally be present at the hearings to weigh the arguments given in support of each side's convictions. We must rely on the integrity of our representatives—not only from Texas but from the other 47 states—to serve the best interests of the American people.

Never before has their responsibility been so great. The future peace of the world may well rest upon their shoulders. If they yield to petty temptation to play partisan politics, they can weaken the structure of America from within far more than any enemy can weaken us from without.

Unfortunately, neither party is totally immune to this weakness to boost themselves politically in any way possible. There are always a few who will yield to temptation. It is a challenge to the great Americans in both parties to hold their camps in line during this momentous debate.

Any attempt to satisfy individual political aspirations at the expense of a great people engaged in honest debate should be dealt with as harshly as would similar betrayals of the best interests of the American people.—W. W. K.

Now that the MacArthur furore is a few weeks old the newspapers are putting the Korean war into the big headlines.

Former Hereford Girl Leads Class at Harlingen, Texas

A former Hereford student, Joyce Harlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harlow, earned the top grade average of her graduating Harlingen high school class, friends here learned this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harlow were former residents of Hereford.

Joyce was not eligible for valedictorian honors at Harlingen high school because she had only been a student there for one year. Her grade average for that year was 95.14.

Among the Hereford residents attending graduation exercises at Hardin-Simmons University Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Welch, who took their daughter, Jane, to Abilene to sing in the choir for commencement, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tucker and grandson who went to Abilene for the graduation of their son-in-law, Doyle Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lumm moved this week to El Paso where he has been transferred to the soil conservation office.

Mrs. Alice Casebolt of Clovis spent two or three days this week in the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Boydston.

The Ed Russell family moved to Albuquerque, N. M., this week to operate a tourist court.

Deaf Smith 4-H Clubs Will Be Represented at State 4-H Parley

Complete plans have not been arranged yet for Deaf Smith 4-H competition in the annual State 4-H Roundup to be held at Texas A. & M. college on June 25, 26, 27, according to Hugh Clearman, county agent.

Texas 4-H Club boys and girls will participate in three new states elimination programs at College Station this year—in addition to 13 other judging and team demonstration contests conducted in the past.

These contests will be held at Texas A. & M. College on Monday, June 25, in connection with the State 4-H Roundup on the A. & M. campus Sunday, June 24. A religious program, with 4-H members in charge, is planned for Sunday evening.

This program, called "Even-song," is something of a vesper service. It originated at the 1950 Round-Up. This year's program will consist of a "Let's Get Acquainted" session, a torch bearing ceremony and an address, "Is World Understanding Necessary?" by Dr. Harry V. Rankin, minister of Bryan.

Small Retail Stores To Be Given Options on Price Regulations

Hundreds of small retail stores in the Far West Texas district of the Office of Price Stabilization will be given the option of continuing to price under the general ceiling price regulation, rather than under the retail regulation. CPR 7, the Lubbock office announced.

The office said many small retail stores with limited book-keeping facilities and clerical help would get this option under the amendment which was scheduled for issue early this week.

The Office of Price Stabilization, in announcing that the amendment was forthcoming, reminded that all other retailers selling items controlled by CPR 7 and its amendments must file their pricing charts by May 31, if they want to continue to sell legally after that date. There will be no extension of that deadline, OPS emphasized.

The retailer who elects to remain under the GCPR does not have to notify OPS. The retailer who makes the election simply lets that deadline go by without filing a chart. In the event OPS asks for information, however, the retailer must be prepared to show that he was entitled to make the choice. Meanwhile, the district OPS officials called attention to the new Ceiling Price Regulation covering service trades. It is estimated that several thousand establishments in the Lubbock district, which includes Deaf Smith county, have been removed from the GCPR and placed under the regulation (CPR 34.) It became effective May 16.

The new order will benefit the public by making prices clearly visible in every retail service place. The establishment must post their ceiling prices in a prominent position by June 16. The regulation also requires that ceiling prices must be filed with the district office by that date, too, with adequate descriptions of each service. The mailing address is Office of Price Stabilization, Broadway Building, 1202 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas.

A partial list of some of the everyday services and services trades concerned: barbers and beauticians, auto, radio and household appliance repairs; laundry and dry cleaning and tailor shops; shoe repairs; parking lots; filling stations, checking accounts, bowling alleys, skating rinks, and golf fees; admissions to amusement parks, and some other amusement and recreational facilities.

Work will begin about July 5 on the paving project at Friona, according to Roy Wilson. The project is scheduled to be completed in about three months.

Family Gatherings Highlight Activity at Frio This Week

By Mrs. Owen Andrews
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Springer attended a get-together and dinner of the Summer family at Dimmitt last Sunday. The occasion was held in honor of Mrs. Harley Dodd, a daughter of the Summers, and her children of Tulsa, Okla. The dinner was held in the home of another daughter, Mrs. Jack Gladman.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Sparkman Sr. were at Childers Sunday and Monday attending high school graduation exercises for a nephew, Joe Sparkman.

Spending Sunday in the home of Mrs. H. M. Mobley were the Mobley children, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson of Seminole, the Raymond Mobleys, the Floyd Coles, Miss LaNelle Mobley, Austin and Don Mobley. In the afternoon they all went to the McMahon home at Dimmitt where they enjoyed making ice cream and visiting.

Mrs. Henry Dobbs underwent surgery at the Deaf, Smith County hospital Monday morning. She was reported doing fine Tuesday. Her sister, Mrs. Ella Mae Bain, and small son, Stevie, are here to be with her.

Several from the community attended eighth grade graduation exercises at Hereford on Thursday night when Veradelle Andrews and Charles Ralph Springer were members of the class.

Several also attended high school graduation exercises on Friday night.

Visiting the W. H. Thompsons Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Odom and family of Dimmitt, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson and baby of Hereford, and Mrs. Godman of Bushland.

Lee Roy Shannon visited his family, the R. L. Shannons this week before returning to Lubbock for summer school.

Visiting in the A. T. Jones home Sunday and taking dinner were Miss Emma Lee McNeese of Hereford, her brother, Don McNeese, who is on leave from the Navy, and Bob Alexander of Wichita Falls air base.

Gives Home Permanent

Mrs. Joe Davenport, a former beauty operator, gave Mrs. E. H. Little a permanent at the Frio Homemakers club meeting in Mrs. Davenport's home Wednesday to demonstrate the giving of home permanents.

While demonstrating, she gave pointers on giving home permanents and talked about hair texture and health. She stressed rolling curls evenly and tightly and wetting each curl with the waving solution, using a crosswise motion to insure thorough covering.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames C. N. McClure, Henry Andrews, T. L. Sparkman Jr., Floyd Cole, J. E. Warrick, Gene Noel, W. A. Springer, Owen Andrews, Glenn Gripp, Henry Dobbs, E. H. Little, and the hostess.

The next meeting will be on June 13 at the home of Mrs. Floyd Cole when the program will be on labels with Mrs. Shearhart giving the main discussion.

The June 27th meeting, which had been planned for the home of Mrs. H. F. Benson, will be at the REA kitchen. The change was made for the convenience of the demonstrator, who will be giving a frozen food demonstration. The Easter club has accepted an invitation to be guests at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Warrick and J. E. Warrick Jr. visited relatives at Wellington last week end.

The E. B. Berryman family also spent the week end at Wellington visiting relatives.

Wholesale Planting

Farmers are taking advantage of the fair weather, and planting is being done on a wholesale scale. Some cotton, which was planted before the rains, is being replanted now. Many acres of cotton, as well as grain sorghums will be put into the ground this week.

Everyone is accustomed to hoping for rain, but now they are hoping "maybe this one will go around" for a couple of weeks until planting is completed. To hasten the process, tractors are running all day and part of the nights.

Twin Accidents

Very similar accidents occurred this week in the Floyd Cole and H. F. Benson homes. On Tuesday an oven explosion caused damage at the Cole home when accumulated gas in the oven caught fire, burning curtains and scorching woodwork, which damage was considered minor in the light of what could have happened.

The accident in the Benson home resulted from similar causes. Miss Sherry Benson, who was near the stove, escaped without injury.

The revival meeting at Frio, with Rev. A. C. Hardin, evangelist, and Wade Thompson, song leader, will begin today. Everyone is invited to attend.

HAVE YOU FIGURED OUT YET HOW TO TELL IF A FELLA'S GOING TO BE FAMOUS ENOUGH TO BE YOUR HUSBAND?

WELL, ALL THE BIOGRAPHIES OF FAMOUS MEN SHOW ONE THING IN COMMON YOU CAN TELL BY—THEY'RE 'SPESH-ILY GOOD AT CONCENTRATIN'.

—THERE'S HILARY, NOW... I'M SURE HE'S GOING TO BE A FAMOUS SCIENTIST THE WAY HE CONCENTRATES ON THOSE TEST TUBES.

—AND THEN THERE'S MARVIN... HE JUST LIVES IN THE LIBRARY. HE'S CONCENTRATING SO HARD ON THOSE BOOKS, HE JUST HAS TO BE A FAMOUS WRITER SOME DAY.

PHILBERT'S ANOTHER ONE... HE'S PRESIDENT OF SIX DIFFERENT ORGANIZATIONS RIGHT NOW... IF HE CONTINUES TO CONCENTRATE ON POLITICS THE WAY HE HAS, HE'S BOUND TO END UP IN THE WHITE HOUSE!

SO WHO YOU GOING OUT WITH TO-NIGHT?

WHY HIM?!? WHAT ON EARTH IS HE CONCENTRATING ON?!?!

Prince Valiant

IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
by Harold R. Foster

Synopsis: ARF HAS SURVIVED THE LOSS OF ONE OF HIS FROZEN FEET, BUT IT SEEMS AS IF HE WILL NOT OUTLIVE HIS SHATTERED DREAM. HE HAS NO WILL TO LIVE NOW THAT HE CANNOT BECOME A GREAT WARRIOR, A KNIGHT CHAMPION. "WHO EVER HEARD OF A ONE-LEGGED KNIGHT?" HE ASKS BITTERLY.

THEN HE LOOKS UP IN SURPRISE AT PRINCE VALIANT. NEVER HAD HIS WARM-HEARTED CHIEF SPOKEN SO SHARPLY. "I HAVE!" HE REPEATS. "THE YOUTH WHO IS ARROW-MAKER TO KING ARTHUR HAS BUT ONE LEG. GUNDER HARL, THE GREAT NORSE SHIP-BUILDER, HAS ONLY ONE LEG AND..... ONE ARM!"

VAL TURNS AWAY THAT HE MAY NOT SEE THE HURT IN THE BOY'S EYES. "WE STILL HAVE MUCH WORK TO DO ERE WE RETURN HOME."

"WATCH HIM CLOSELY, DOCTOR, AND REPORT ANY CHANGE IN HIS CONDITION."

THE HOURS DRAG BY BUT FINALLY THE DOCTOR RETURNS, HIS FACE BEAMING: "HE CRIED LIKE A TIRED CHILD UNTIL HE SLEPT. WHEN HE AWOKE A CHANGE HAD TAKEN PLACE, FOR HE SAID: 'TELL MY CHIEF I AM READY TO DO WHAT I MAY.'"

ARF LOOKS UP AS HIS CHIEF ENTERS. VAL GRINS. "YOU HAVE BEEN QUITE A RESPONSIBILITY," HE BEGINS, "BUT NOW YOU CAN BE OF GREAT HELP. LADY ALETA AND I HAVE TAUGHT YOU TO READ AND WRITE, SO TAKE THESE NOTES I HAVE KEPT AND WRITE A FULL REPORT OF OUR MISSION FOR THE KING. GET BUSY, SECRETARY!"

THEN HE RUMPLES UP THE LAD'S HAIR AND IS GONE. THERE IS A LONG SILENCE WHILE HOD- BEATS FADE INTO THE DISTANCE. "BRING ME PARCHMENT, INKHORN AND QUILLS!" SHOUTS ARF. "I'VE GOT WORK TO DO!"
