The City Commission authorized putting up a five-wire fence around the entire property at the city sewage disposal plant. The Commission held its regular meeting May 9.

No additional reports of storm damage to the area have been reported this week. However, Corinne Jennings told The Brand that on Saturday she visited her brother, who farms the Henry Sears place northwest of Hereford, and saw — in addition to the sheep killed on the John Hutchinson place, other animals killed by the heavy hail. Some of the posts had the bark stripped off on the side the storm came from. She said they were as slick as if they had been peeled with a knife. The trees looked like they would in the dead of winter. They had leaved out, but all the leaves had been beaten off. At 5 a. m. Saturday morning, there was still two inches of hail on the ground.

Six wrestlers will hit it off in the Bull barn ring Saturday night in a "Rassel Royal." Included in the event will be Sesse Oyama, Cowboy Carlson, Geo. EVERYTHING'S O.K.!! IT'S A BOY!

What price good news? So often it's the price of a telephone call . . . and that means just a few pennies.

Worth more? Of course. Many telephone calls are practically priceless in their value to you.

And yet the average cost of each local call, including tax, is only about 2 1/2¢.

warming the bench

By Wally Knief

Since this bit of mish-mash appeared seven days ago, no one has taken a pot-shot at me, so that's half the battle in screwing up enough courage to try again this Thursday.

GAME AND FISH—

The May copy of Texas Game and Fish just slid across my desk this morning. Just thumbing through it, noticed some very enlightening articles and features. Among them some mighty nice pictures of big catches from some of Texas' other lakes. Maybe we'd better show them what has been pulled out of Buffalo.

Good article, too, on the Blackland Prairie. Bass fishermen will get a kick out of the story on bass hatching.

Something, too, which a lot of dads should read is "Get Acquainted With That Boy," taking the stump for more dad-son fishing and camping expeditions.

Remember how YOU looked forward to that when you were a kid?

Q AND A—
In answer to one reader, Hill Gail won the Kentucky Derby. Eddie Arera was up. Owner of the winner is off-winning Warren Wright stables.

GOOD NEIGHBOR—
Know a good neighbor? Some sportsman in this area might be the lucky winner of The Brand's "Good Neighbor" contest and get a free week's vacation at Drowsy Water Ranch in Granby, Colo. June 15-21. It would be an angler's paradise, what with all the trout fishing. The whole family would get a kick out of the week which will include cook-outs, riding and any other outdoor sport of person's heart could desire.

PLUS all that trout fishing!
Just nominate a family in Deaf Smith, Castro, Parmer or Oldham counties for The Brand's "Good Neighbor." Nominations close on June 1. Better Hurry! It'll be a million dollar award for some sportsman.

About that trout fishing, it's strictly a science of its own. Talk about skill! This scribe came from one of Iowa's two best trout fishing areas and the boys really went to great pains in their trout fishing. Kids old enough to walk started learning the tricky road to catching them.

Having gone into the area at a ripe old age only four years ago, I hardly assimilated all the skills necessary to cut down the grocery bill, but even us worm-dunkers had fun trying.

WRESTLING—
Fog the wrestling fans, a bit of good news. Exhaust fans are going to be installed at the Bull Barn in the near future with an eye toward making the arena cooler during the summer.

Guy Lawrence says the gals are coming back sometime soon for a local stand. Patrons who thrilled at the female gruntes and groaners last time out are anxiously awaiting their re-appearance.

This Masked Marvel who appeared here Saturday night is a colorful soul. He's only lost one go in seven years of professional wrestling. That was to Lou Theis, world champion heavyweight. The Marvel remained masked after that defeat as stipulated in his particular contract for the bout.

His pacts, locally, however, call for unmasking when beaten by falls.

John Pavich, wiry wrestler of Hungarian descent who has been gracing the local ring for some time, was calmed by Sesue Oyama's Japanese Sleeper Saturday.

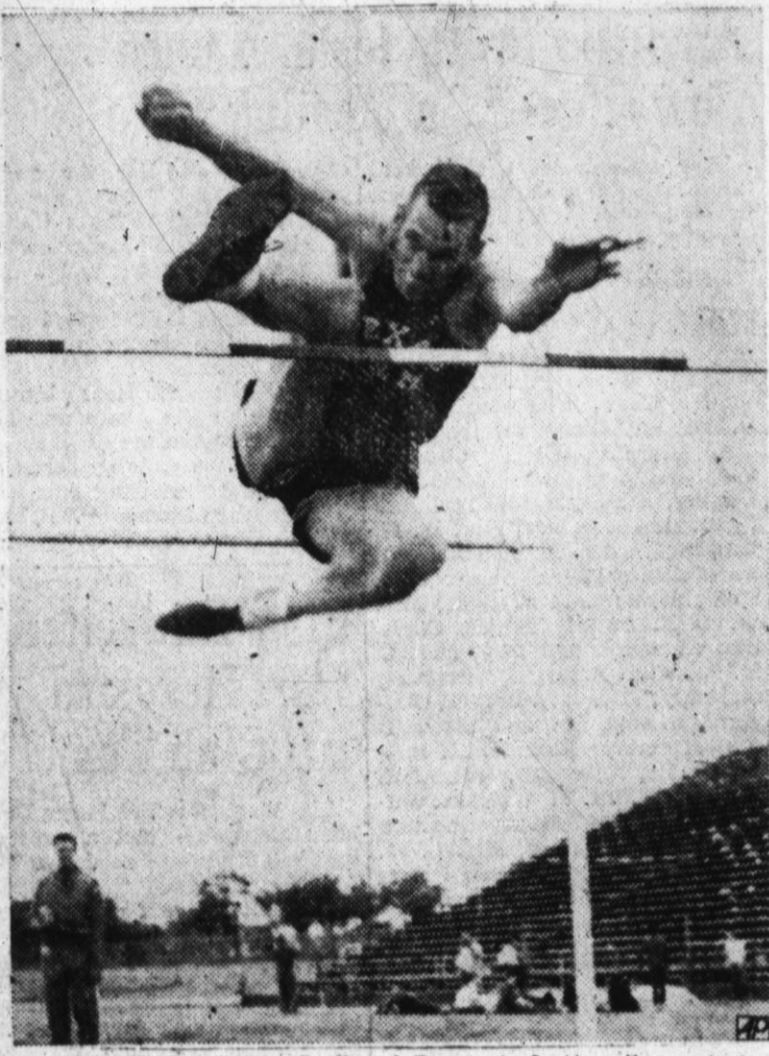

Crafty, with good knowledge of his leverages, Pavich can handle himself with his dukes, too. He is well-versed in the Greek and Roman type of wrestling (from the waist up).

SOFTBALL—
Back to our first love, we had our first chance to observe Hereford Softball action Monday night. Were well pleased with what we saw.

This corner thinks the fans this year will be treated to a better brand of softball than last year. From the look of things, there will be six strong teams this year.

We had the opportunity to see two-thirds of the league work, missing Rocky's Service and Dawn.

Lesly - Vaughn Motors has real-

BIG JUMP. Walter Davis of Texas A. & M. college starts over a high jump bar at Dallas, Tex. He cleared the bar to set a new Southwest Conference record. The bar was measured of six feet, 11 and one-half inches which would have beaten the world record of six feet, 11 inches set by Les Steers of Oregon in 1941. Official measurement, however, showed that Davis' highest point of takeoff made the height of the bar six feet and 10, one-half inches. Even so it was the highest recorded jump since Steers record leap. (AP Photo) ly got something with these high school boys. Monday night was their first workout together and even then they didn't look bad at all.

Pitching is going to be fine for them. Quattlebaum is a good hurler and later in the season is going to be rougher to handle yet. White looked good, too.

T. J. Clay put 11 men in the game to test them out. His stratagems in the cellar. They had a fine outfit, but couldn't seem to get started.

They're different this year, lots of spark and they make every break count. We doff our sombrero.

ing — which will come with his practice — will help. The outfield, as we see it, is the weakest point to date.

As we said, the season is young and we are looking for Lesly-Vaughn to come up with a swell ball club.

Just watch out for those kids! On the other side of the field we had the Knights of Columbus. Last year, they were wallowing around in the cellar. They had a fine outfit, but couldn't seem to get started.

They're different this year, lots of spark and they make every break count. We doff our sombrero.

HH Defeats Summerfield, KCs Down Lesley-Vaughn

Summerfield fell out of the ranks of the undefeated in Hereford Softball league play at Vets park Monday night, losing a fine game, 5-1, to Hereford Hardware.

The battle between the two previously-undefeated nines was the nightcap of the twin bill.

In the first contest, Lesly-Vaughn Motors and the Knights of Columbus service notice that the major leagues are not the only clubs that can profit by a "youth movement."

The KCs downed Lesly-Vaughn in seven innings by a 13-2 count, but the score actually was an unfair measure of the two teams.

For Lesly - Vaughn fielded a team of high school athletes who played together for the first time Monday.

The young softballers served notice that they will be a power to be reckoned with in league play later in the season.

The Knights of Columbus, also, are heavily laden with younger baseballers, most of whom went together for their first season of play last year.

T. J. Clay, manager of Lesly-Vaughn's entry, had to experiment with his untried players Monday night, but started with his strongest combination.

The starting lineup held the KCs to a 3-0 edge until a juggled lineup in the sixth allowed five and five more in the final frame.

For the winning Knights of Columbus, it was 13 runs on 11 hits and three errors. Lesly-Vaughn's "youth movement" got their pair of tallies on five hits. They were torpedooed by eight bobbles afield.

Seventeen players worked in to the box score for the Lesly-Vaughns in this, their first test against opposition.

The KCs were safe all the way behind the steady hurling of Kenneth Walterscheid. Quattlebaum and White, both capable pitchers, handled the chores on the mound for the losers.

Lesly - Vaughn was hurt in the sixth inning by three hits and three errors, two of them in the outfield. That accounted for five of the KC's 13 tallies. Again in the seventh, four KC hits and four errors proved disastrous for the Lesly - Vaughn charges. The losers had their biggest offensive inning in the sixth when they pushed across their pair on two hits, a walk and four passed balls.

In the nightcap, the goody-sized crowd was treated to a tight game between two well-balanced teams. The winning Hereford Hardware garnered their five runs on 11 hits. They committed three bobbles afield.

Summerfield's lone run came on one hit and they were guilty of five miscues.

Star Barrett slow-balled the Summerfields to death and his mound opponent, Jack Clark, yielded 11 safeties with his fast assortment that he had difficulty in controlling.

effectively by Mr. Who? detoured any such inclinations Mr. Lopez might have possessed earlier in the night.

Lopez captured the first fall in 11 minutes using a top body press after banging the Masked Marvel's noggin into the wall of the Bull Barn ring.

Evidently banging his head against the wall enraged the MM to such an extent that he chased Lopez for 15 minutes before he could use his brute force backbreaker.

Not only once, but three times, did the MM bring Lopez's back down to his knee in the spine-crippling hold.

Needless to say, Mr. Lopez had a hard time of it for awhile. He laid out the five minute rest period and wasn't able to answer the bell, so the Masked Marvel remains masked — and, as far as being beaten, remains a marvel also.

A Dimmit chiropractor was called out of the crowd to administer to the stricken Lopez. He worked on him 20 minutes before George was able to navigate home.

Bill Sledge was the third man in the ring Saturday. Attempts are being made to have the Masked Marvel reappear on the local mat card, according to Matchmaker Guy Lawrence.

George Lopez of Tampico, Mexico, provided an opponent for the Masked Marvel out of Minneapolis in an hour-long, best two-out-of-three fall go-round.

In the first one, McFarland and Abbot wrangled to a draw in their allotted 20 minutes. Things got a little rough and fiery during the short space, but neither grappler could gain the advantage.

Things came a little closer to the boiling point in the second event of the evening as Oyama, the Judo expert, and Pavich, who lists his birthplace as Budapest, Hungary, tangled and generated a few sparks.

Pavich used a Hungarian Swivel to flatten Tokyo's contribution to the American ring in 11 minutes.

After coming back following a five-minute rest period, Oyama — after nine exciting minutes — applied the Japanese Sleeper on the Hungarian. Oyama wouldn't wake Pavich up and he slept peacefully for about 10 minutes.

When Referee Bill Sledge awarded the bout to Oyama, he brought Pavich out of it.

In addition to Judo, the two canvas artists used fists to bring their "best" out before the near-capacity crowd.

An aura of mystery, which helped increase the tension of the big finale, attended the working of the first time on the local mat of the Masked Marvel, an unidentified bone-crusher from Minneapolis who has lost but one bout in seven years inside the rings.

The Masked Marvel has a contract, of course, which makes it mandatory for him to unmask if he is ever defeated ON FALLS. Lopez tried his best to wheel the MM into an unmasking position, but the back-breaker used so Fielding gem of the Lesly-Vaughn and Knights of Columbus tussle was the running foul-line catch of D. Albracht's fly in the third inning by left fielder Garner.

In the nightcap, outstanding plays were brought up by: Floyd Ross, Hereford Hardware, third baseman who fell to his right to rob Harper of a sure hit in the fourth inning. Ross got up off the ground to throw Harper out at first. Hereford Hardware shortstop Raymond Lueb also made a nice leaping catch of a line drive by Harper in the sixth.

D. Baize, Summerfield catcher, kept the opposing basemen in a dither with his accurate throwing arm.

ro to Hub Homer for doing a fine job in handling the comparatively young club.

They, too, are going to toughen up as the season progresses. Kenny Walterscheid on the mound makes a fine looking pitcher.

Into the last game of the card Monday, we saw the two "Old Pro" teams — Hereford Hardware and Summerfield.

In our opinion, these two can be the TOUGHEST we've seen to date. Summerfield has a top-notch infield and so has Hereford Hardware.

Summerfield's Baize is no doubt the sharpest catcher in the league. The rest of the infield made some brilliant plays in Monday's tilt against the HH line.

The left side of the Hereford Hardware team — infield and outfield is strong. Ruebino Knox shines in left field. The rest of the HH outfield is good.

Hereford Hardware is no doubt the hardest-hitting ball club in the league that we've seen. Ross, Lueb and Barrett are the "Murderer's Row" of the league. They bang 'em out with consistency. This trio got seven out of the 11 hits for Hereford Hardware Monday night.

We expect to see some excellent softball through the season out at Vets park with all the good potential. Somebody's got to lose, however, so look for hard-fought battles.

Softball is BETTER this year than last — definitely.

A few other softbalitems we'd like to add right now: With the excellent support given thus far, the league has been able to salt away a LITTLE money. Expenses nightly are: lights and field, $18; gate-keeper, $2; umpire, $5 (by the way, the umpiring by Homer Logan is EXCELLENT). That adds up to $25 per night.

Season tickets are going on sale and can be bought at the gate for a little less than the regular $4 price for the season. The All - Star game on June 26 will pit the first, fourth and sixth place teams against the second, third and fifth in a nine-inning fray.

A pitcher and catcher from each team, plus three players from each team, will play for three innings apiece. Either the managers or fans will pick the best players.

The June 26 game splits the season. After that date, no one will be allowed to alter their roster.

IT'S TRUE. Nash Rambler owners are amazed at the sensational mileage they get. This is the car that holds the all-time record in the Mobilgas Economy Run with 31.05 miles per gallon! This is a real "red-hot" performer with so much room inside! This is such a smart and beautifully equipped car—the only car that comes to you with its many custom accessories at no extra cost! TEXAS HYBRID CORN

The history of corn is as old as the history of mankind.

From the earliest records that ancient man left around his campfires down through medieval and modern history, civilizations have achieved greatness or have crumbled according to the supply of corn. "Corn," in this sense, applies to all cereal grains—those abundant streams of golden and white kernels which are literally the lifeblood of healthy, vigorous nations.

Ancient Egypt's strength was derived from its corn crop. The annual inundation of the land by the Nile River provided fertile soil to produce grain for thousands of slaves who built huge temples and monuments that are still wonders of the modern world. The energy which produced these architectural marvels came from products of the soil.

One of the first incidents concerning the founding of our nation is woven around this grain. When the Pilgrims landed on the rocky eastern shore, they were met by friendly Indians who helped them prepare for the hard winter ahead. Perhaps one of the most valuable acts of friendship by the Redman was to teach the newcomers how to cultivate a corn crop. The fruits of this act were served at the First Thanksgiving meal.

We have come a long way in the development of corn since those early days. The Pilgrims merely dug a hole in the ground and dropped in a kernel of corn fertilized with a small sliver of fish. Today, through a process of scientific research, improved fertilization, and careful certification, we are developing better strains of corn which will assure the farmer of maximum yields.

Your State Department of Agriculture each year studies results of extensive tests conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in principal corn production areas. These tests prove the superiority of one strain of corn over another. Yield and stalk lodging, shelling qualities, disease resistancy, and good shulk coverage are factors in rating merits of the strain. These merits determine the certification number which the Department of Agriculture requires on every bag of grain sold in Texas. As newer and better strains are developed, certification is extended to include the improvements and the old strains are dropped.

Friday's Wind, Hail Damaged Onion Acreage In Community

The damage to the onion crops in this vicinity was heavy Friday evening. Wind and hail flattened the 80 - acre tract on the Texas Certified Hybrid Seed Corn producers are expanding production of the newer hybrids in 1952 and sufficient quantities of the better strains should be available for farmers next year.

Onion authorities say that the crop will make but will not be ready for the early market. One half an inch of moisture fell during the storm Friday evening and night.

No other property damage has been reported in this vicinity other than that already reported in The Sunday Brand of Jack Renfro and Francis Hill.

Alfalfa will be ready to cut in the next week or so on several farms in this vicinity. The potato crops are looking good and most of the wheat is already headed out. Prospects for a good harvest are more promising every day. Even the dry land wheat looks good. The only trouble with the wheat crop is that the acreage is small.

School Board To Sell Old Buses

Members of the school board voted at their meeting Thursday night to sell three used school buses. Major Schroeter and Robert Wagoner were appointed to sell the buses — a 1946 Ford, a 1944 Ford and a 1938 Chevrolet.

Because of the excellent condition of the other buses there will be no need of buying extra units to replace the ones being sold.

The board also approved going ahead and removing the old sidewalk in front of the high school and laying a new sidewalk as part of this year's construction program. They also decided to go ahead and have the chemistry and physics labs remodeled so that the labs could be used as classrooms part of the time.

The school and city are combining to take an inventory of the buildings built and completed during 1951 in the Hereford city limits. This should raise the as-essed value of real property within the city limits from $100,000 to $200,000.

The board also made application to the state for a teacher of exceptional students. It had not been decided if there were enough exceptional students in this area to qualify the area for the teacher.

The group discussed plans for additional school facilities but nothing definite was decided.

Whitewash

Whitewash is easily mixed. Use ten pounds of quicklime to two gallons of water. Place the quicklime in a pail and pour the water over it. Cover with a cloth, and let stand for an hour or more. It is important to measure the quicklime and water correctly, as the proportion of these makes the whitewash a success or a failure.

Hard Water

Soften hard water by adding to a boiler 2/3-full of water soda the size of a large egg. This will not injure the clothes, will whiten, and save rubbing.

Cleaning Felt

To clean pastel felt hats rub lightly with steel wool, rubbing the wrong direction of the material. Fine wool should be used.

Artificial Flowers

If artificial flowers are crumpled, hold them over the steam of a kettle for a few minutes. Pull into shape and shake or fan them until dry. Velvet flowers, particularly, will respond favorably to this treatment.

Half a Lemon

If it is necessary to use only half a lemon in a recipe, don't discard the other half. Place it in a dish, cut side down, and put into the refrigerator. It will keep until you find a use for it.

Scorch Stains

Some scorch stains can be removed by rubbing at once with dry starch and sponging off. If necessary, repeat the process.

Metal Polish

To make a polish for metals use 1 cup of cigar ashes mixed with 2 tablespoons of bicarbonate of soda, brought to a smooth paste with water. Use on a clean cloth, rubbing vigorously.

Carpets

Brighten carpets by wiping over them entirely with a solution of ammonia and water. Wring out the cloth frequently and get a fresh supply of the solution.

Delicious Gravy

A tablespoon of cream added to the roast beef or lamb gravy makes it a delicious brown.

Leather

To freshen leather furniture and prevent cracking put into a bottle one cup of vinegar and two cups of boiled linseed oil. Cork securely and shake until creamy. Apply sparingly and rub into the leather with a soft rag and polish. Never use gasoline to clean leather as it will crack it.

CONG. ROGERS SAYS

Rogers Sees Congress Beating Presidential Tidelands Veto

THE EFFECT OF THE TIDELANDS ISSUE ON DECENTRALIZING GOVERNMENT: On May 7th the Senate - House conference committee agreed to a tidelands bill. Both the House and Senate groups made concessions in reaching the agreement. The result was a bill designed primarily to quitclaim to the respective states the off-shore lands. This quitclaim will involve three miles in most instances, 10 1/2 miles in Texas and parts of Florida. It is neither the Senate bill nor the House bill, but a combination of the two. The important thing is that the agreed bill gives back to the states that which has always belonged to the states and settles definitely the question of ownership. The tidelands fighting Congress has meant much more than the return of the lands to the various states. It was this fight that actually brought out into the open the dangers and pitfalls incident to over-centralization of government. It was this fight that opened the eyes of people all over this nation, in both coastal and inland states. It spotlighted the Jeffersonian principles of states' rights that are indispensable to the strength and unity that this nation must maintain if our form of government is to survive. Few times in our history have the Congress and the people been so fully conscious of the rights and the authorities of the several states. This trend is evidenced daily by the remarks and speeches of congressmen from all sections of this country, and is one of the healthiest signs that we could hope for.

I sincerely hope that the President will sign this bill so that this issue can be settled, and settled right, once and for all. Should he fail to sign the bill, I firmly believe that the Congress will override the veto. There is little, if any, doubt that the House of Representatives will override the veto by a sizable majority. The vote in the Senate on the Senate bills was much closer than the House vote, but it is the consensus of opinion in legislative circles here that the Senate will also override the veto. The enactment of this bill into law will mean that the people in all sections of this country, under the great leadership of Texas, Louisiana and California, have won a resounding victory against the forces bent on centralizing this government.

MORE ABOUT FOREIGN AID:

The proposed 7.9 billion - dollar foreign aid bill is still one of the major topics of conversation in the Capitol. The committees in both the House and the Senate are recommending a cut of approximately one billion dollars. It is my opinion that this bill will be cut substantially more than one billion dollars before its final passage. Many of those who support and advocate the full 7.9 billion - dollar appropriations are military men. Their arguments are most convincing when they tell you that these countries need every dime of the proposed appropriation.

However, there are two sides to the question, the other being, "How much can the American taxpayers afford?" There is no doubt but that every dime that is appropriated will be spent; I have never heard of any of this money being returned to the public treasury. Most military men seem to forget that this country is making great contributions to the economies of the foreign countries involved by various methods.
For instance, the testimony before the Merchant Marine Committee would indicate that many of these countries by virtue of ECA funds have been able to build up their merchant marine and have become strong competitors of the shipping companies of this country. In addition to this, the United States has followed a policy of shipping a substantial amount of our products in foreign bottoms, that is, foreign bottoms made possible by ECA funds. This means that the taxpayers of this country are called upon to subsidize American shipping interests.

It all adds up to this: The American taxpayer has made possible to many of these foreign countries the construction of merchant fleets; the American taxpayer has then paid a freight bill for the use of the merchant fleets that they made possible in the first place. Then because the American taxpayer made possible the foreign merchant fleets and then made use of the foreign merchant fleets for shipping purposes, the shipping business of our own merchant fleets was so curtailed that the American taxpayer is being called upon for subsidies to keep the American merchant fleet afloat. It all adds up to the one answer, no matter how you view it, the American taxpayer ends up paying the entire bill. Remember that this situation is only one of the many aids going to foreign countries over and above the proposed 3 billion-dollar foreign aid program.

I still ask the question: "How much can the American taxpayers stand?" My answer is "Not that much by a long shot."

POLITICS: There is a scandalous plan afoot to try to ruin Senator Russell of Georgia by branding him as strictly a sectional candidate. Nothing could be further from the truth. His record as a public servant proves beyond any question that he is an American from stem to stern whose public record has been based upon Jeffersonian principles and who knows and understands the essentials of government of the people, by the people

Reese AFB Plans Armed Forces Day Open House

Tentative plans for a mammoth "open house" observance May 17 on Armed Forces Day were announced recently by officials of Reese Air Force Base.

The observance will be keyed to this year's Armed Forces Day theme: Unity - Strength - Freedom.

Army, Navy and Air Force exhibits of special equipment, jet and conventional aircraft, models of Russian aircraft and all types of heavy vehicles will be on display at the Reese flight line.

Main gates will be opened to the general public at 11 a. m., Lt. Col. Albert H. Schneider, project officer, has announced.

South Plains residents will be invited to examine the twin-engine training school where today's Air Force pilots are taught modern flight techniques. The 3500th Pilot Training Group, commanded by Col. Cecil C. McFarland, will display its flight planning problem room, its link trainer section, its equipment laboratory, and a full-size mock-up of the famous TB-25 "Billy Mitchell" bomber.

A concert by RAFB 514th Air Force Band at noon will be followed by a drill exhibition featuring the Sam Houston Rifles, crack drill team of the Texas Tech ROTC unit.

Model airplane fans will be entertained with a contest and exhibition of the midjet craft sponsored jointly by Lubbock veterans' organizations.

The model meet will be followed by a fire and crash equipment demonstration conducted by Reese crash and fire crews.

Tentatively scheduled is an artillery demonstration by Army personnel from Fort Sill, Okla. The troops and their "big guns" provided spectators with many thrills during their appearance here on last year's Armed Forces Day program.

U. S. Naval Air Force jet and conventional aircraft are expected to be included in the display of air power. Visitors will have a chance to get a close-up view of training, transport and combat aircraft, guns and equipment.

In the air, several flying demonstrations are planned, including formation fly-overs of TB-25s and T-6 "Texan" single-engine trainers. Loudspeakers on the flight line will be connected with radio receivers in the aircraft so that spectators may hear actual radio procedure between aircraft and RAFB control tower.

Aircraft will fly over several South Plains cities before returning to the base. The schedule will be announced later, officials said.

Assisting Reese in the open house observance are Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, Texas Tech ROTC units, Naval Research Public Relation Unit, 132nd Field Artillery Bn. of the National Guard, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Lubbock Army and Air Force Recruiting Station, and South Plains Armed Forces Advisory Committee.

A contract for the first 50 miles of the Panhandle Short Line railroad was let this week to Miller and Jefferson. In the election held in Parmcounty Tuesday, Parmerton was chosen as the county seat. Parmerton was chosen over Friona, Bevina and Farwell. The new station six miles east of Hereford has been named Con-joel Switch. The switch will soon be moved from Dawn to Conjoel. Efforts are being made to secure a post office and school house and other improvements. The land was purchased by Conner Jowell from the state of Texas and the present owners wish to honor this gentleman by giving it the name Conjoel. There are 200 new opera seats being installed at the College chapel this week.

Use Range For Growing Pullets

COLLEGE STATION—A good range for growing pullets will help reduce their feed bill and at the same time permit the poultryman to raise a replacement flock of clean, healthy birds. Pullets on the range, says W. J. Moore, poultry husbandman for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, can be separated from the older birds on the farm and this is very important from the standpoint of disease and parasite control.

Older birds, says the specialist, are often carriers of diseases and parasites and unless the replacement flock is kept segregated from them, they may be affected. The ideal range is one that provides plenty of good green grass and shade for the birds. Chickens don't like to be out in the hot sun any more than is necessary. If shade trees are not available, other types of shade should be provided. The range shelter, says Moore, is the answer. Such shelters are easy and economical to build and in addition to shade, they provide safe housing.

The developing pullets on the range should receive a good growing mash, oyster shell and plenty of good water. The care given the pullets on the range may determine whether or not they develop into profitable layers. To show the importance of water, Moore points out that 100 pullets actually need a minimum of 10 gallons of water per day. Unless plenty of water is provided, the birds will not eat the feed they should have to make the proper growth and development. Moore says it is a good rule to provide at least two five-foot feeders and one barrel-type water fountain for each 100 birds. The barrel-type fountain is recommended because its use insures a plentiful supply of water at all times and is a labor and time saver.

The shelters, feeders and waterers should be moved frequently in order to keep the birds on clean ground. The shelters should be built on runners to make the moving job easier. Frequent moves will aid in keeping down parasites and diseases that might be picked up by the birds if allowed to range on contaminated soil.

When the pullets are moved to the range, they should be culled and vaccinated for fowl pox, says Moore. Experience and observations, according to the specialist, indicate that pullets should be moved to the range when they are 8 to 12 weeks of age and should remain there until they reach about 20 per cent production. There are indications, he adds, that laying house mortality will be less if the pullets are fully developed on the range. One acre of well-sodded range will take care of from 250 to 500 pullets and when possible Moore likes to see the range on ground that has a slight slope. This makes for better drainage and sanitation.

Moore adds that blueprints and plans for range shelters, waterers and feeders are available for the asking at all county agent's offices and suggests that interested poultrymen visit the local agent. The agent has available many other bulletins which contain information that should prove valuable even to the experienced poultry or turkey producer. His experience with poultry demonstrators is also a valuable source of information, says Moore.

Beef Producers Warned To Watch For Screwworms

COLLEGE STATION — Surveys made in Texas by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, in cooperation with other state agencies, show that the mild winter has permitted the screwworm to overwinter as far north as Crockett, Schleicher, Menard and Lampasas Counties. However, the number of reported cases is not numerous, says A. C. Gunter, entomologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

He points out that there is danger ahead for the livestock producers unless they treat infected animals at once and avoid using practices that may leave wounds on the animals. Recent rains over much of the state have produced favorable conditions for the pest and stockmen are warned to be on the alert. The destruction of the worms before they mature will not only stop further injury to the animals but will help reduce further infestations.

To prevent and cure infection caused by the screwworm, Gunter recommends the use of EQ-335, a medicine which was developed through BEPQ research. EQ-335 is applied to the wound as a smear. It contains lindane, a chemical insecticide, which has a lasting effect as a screwworm killer. One application per week, except in severe cases, is sufficient. This is a time saver because other medicines must be applied twice per week. Another big advantage for EQ-335, says Gunter, and it stems from lindane's residual killing power—is its ability to kill female screwworm flies that attempt to feed or lay eggs in the wound.

Livestock producers are urged to carefully examine all animals before shipment and again when they are unloaded. This is very important since many cattle are now being shipped from Texas to pastures in other states. All scratches, sores or wounds of any type that might possibly be infected by the worms should be treated for screwworm eggs might be present and thus would be shipped with the livestock to the new areas.

Screwworms can increase very rapidly in number if allowed to do so, says Gunter. As weather conditions become favorable, the pest will move northward at the rate of 25 to 35 miles a week.

Stopping the worms before they get started will head off lots of trouble later, says the entomologist and at the same time the use of prompt control and preventive measures will increase the market value of animals and add tons of meat to the nation's meat supply.

Good Farming Practices Will Aid In 1952 Farm Production Increase

COLLEGE STATION — Weather conditions over most of the state so far this year have not been favorable for heavy crop production. Despite the weather handicaps, says M. K. Thornton, chemist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, farmers can by using a combination of good farming practices increase the output of their farms.

He points out that raising the per acre yield amounts to the same thing as increasing the size of a farm. The big difference is that the expansion is made vertically instead of horizontally. Generally, he adds, the net profit from this type of expansion is much greater per acre than when the farm is expanded in size. The higher production output is often made with little or no more equipment and too, labor requirement need not necessarily be greatly increased.

For vertically increasing farm production, he first suggests using a balanced cropping system that fits the farm. He points out that row crops are more expensive to produce for usually more labor and machinery are needed; therefore, excessive use of such crops should be avoided. The cropping and livestock programs for the farm unit should also be balanced so as to more fully utilize labor and equipment the year-round. The cropping system should include the planting of some deep rooted legumes and the acreage should be sufficient to furnish forage for the farm's livestock. He recommends the use of fertilizers under the legumes to insure a successful crop yield.

In most areas of the state, the specialist recommends the use of fertilizers for boosting crop yields. He believes soils should be tested and that if the recommendations, based on the tests, are followed benefits will be derived from the use of the fertilizers. The lack of organic matter in many of the soils of the state is also a limiting factor in raising crop yields and this may be corrected by the application of organic fertilizers or by including legumes and grasses in the rotation system for the farm.

Thornton says if these suggestions are followed, production on most farms can be increased from 25 to 40 per cent without too much difficulty. The greater per acre yields will result in more net income, the maintenance of soil fertility, soil and water conservation and the crops needed to meet the demand from a rapidly increasing population of animals and people.

It all adds up, says Thornton, to better rural living and more prosperous rural communities.

Pat Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gallagher, spent the week end at home. He is a student at Price college in Amarillo.

You can swing it if you try

HAVE you, by any chance, been casting eyes at a Buick, and promising yourself that someday you will take the Big Step and have one all your own?

Let us whisper something to you. The "big step" isn't big at all.

We know that's true, because such a high percentage of present Buick owners traded in a car tagged as belonging in "the low-priced field."

So why not set your sights on this star performer?

Why not enjoy big-car comfort—big-car power—big-car prestige for your money?

There's one of these lively lovelies waiting for you to come in and try it.

Get the feel of its mighty Fireball 8 Engine, that's a gas-saving high-compression valve-in-head. You could pay $300 to $400 more for a car that doesn't match its horsepower.

Get the feel of Dynaflo Drive*, that lets you ride relaxed—feeds a silken flow of power—and at the same time cuts down on upkeep costs, by protecting the engine, the rear end, and even the tires, from driving strains.

Get the feel of a ride that cost a million dollars and more for controls of end-sway and side-roll and vertical "throw"—for X-bracing the frame and V-bracing the torque-tube keel—for a total of 15 ride-engineering features.

One thing you'll know for sure when you've tried it. This car wasn't "built to a price." It's a Buick through and through.

But the fact remains that—when you check the price of a Buick SPECIAL against the price tags on so-called "low-priced cars"—you'll find out you can swing it if you really want to.

And brother, will that make your family happy!

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. †Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster only.

ONLY BUICK PROVIDES THEM ALL

DYNAFLOW DRIVE*—great boon to easier driving, proved on more than a million Buicks

FIREBALL 8 ENGINE—of valve-in-head design, makes high compression count for more

NEW WIDE-BAND BRAKES—for smoother, more positive control

MILLION DOLLAR RIDE—with 4-wheel coil springing and road-steady torque-tube

TOP-CAPACITY TRUNKS—more luggage room than ever in most models

NEW TWO-TONE INTERIORS—in most models, grace Buick's Body by Fisher

SWEEPSPEAR STYLING—adds gleaming smoothness to all models

Plus These, Too, On ROADMASTER

AIRPOWER CARBURETION—with highest horsepower in Buick history. MORE MILES PER GALLON

POWER STEERING†—greatly eases parking and turning, without losing that firm feel... SILENCE—so complete you can speak in whispers under way.

Attend the Church of Your Choice This Week

This Week's Calendar at Your Hereford Churches

PICTURED here are various types of churches, ranging in cost from a few hundred dollars to over a million. The imposing structure in center is one of the most beautiful in America. Its physical equipment consists of almost everything possible for man to build into "HIS Temple of Worship."

Elsewhere on this page are pictured other types of churches in different cost brackets. You'll find in every community in America a church suited to the likes of those it serves.

A community without a church would be a poor place to live indeed. In city or hamlet throughout this land you'll find the rich and the poor flocking to the church of their choice on Sunday with a common faith and a common purpose.

The church points the way to a fuller and more useful life. Resolve to attend your church every Sunday.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.

Bovina Student Writes Of Tour Around Hereford

(Ed. Note—This article was written by a Bovina grade school student telling of the recent trip around Hereford under the sponsorship of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.)

From the time we reached Hereford until we left on our way home we had the most wonderful time our hearts could desire.

We went to the Hereford Bakery where we munched on a delicious cookie given to us by the bakery while we looked. We saw the large ovens, the baker rolling out dough and doughnuts being packaged ready to be sold.

Our tour next led us to the Womble - Campbell Manufacturing company. Here we saw them demonstrate their machines in making women's and children's lingerie. The speed of these machines is amazing, even during demonstration. Many of the machines used four spools of thread at the same time. They also had a cutter machine for cutting out as many as 24 garments at once. As a souvenir they gave each of us a miniature rayon garment.

From the manufacturing plant we went to the Ice company. When we arrived we went into a large building with ice under the floor. A few tanks were uncovered. One was taken out by a large pulley basket. The tank of ice was dumped onto a tract that moved it out of the building. We saw it crushed for packing vegetables.

From the Ice company we went to the courthouse. Here we visited the county library. In the library we saw a small room where there were books for children and a reading table. Then we went into a larger room where we talked to the librarian. She told us that there were from 18,000 to 20,000 books in the library. There were about 3,000 readers—about half of them were children. The lady had a handy way to check out books that was automatic. You had a card with a small piece of steel attached to one end which was your number. Another card came out of the book. You let one card slide down a small shoot. Then as quick as a wing the number, the date the book was checked out and the date the book was due was on the card to be put in the book checked out. Each day it was overdue the fee was two cents.

Next we went up a flight of stairs in the courthouse where we sat down and had our pictures taken. Most of us were looking sour so the man said for us to say "cheese." Try saying it correctly bringing out the e. See if you can keep from smiling.

Then we went into a room where we saw winding stairs. We went up and down them. This was very exciting and thrilling. The highlight of the trip for the girls was the Nationality Dolls. I think most of them enjoyed them very much—at least I did.

The lady that owned them estimated 80 dolls in her collection. There were copies of the German Bisque Kids and four Santas. One Santa was three feet high. There were three Arabian wisemen on camels and 18 Old English carolers.

Quite a few dolls had hair which was real. Character dolls were made on wire frames, with painted nylon faces. The dolls were very interesting and educational.

Our stay at Shirley school was enjoyed by everyone as we were served lunch free.

We then visited the Jim Hill Hotel to see a picture show made by J. B. Elliston. The first part of the picture was about Palo Duro canyon. We then realized that our teeth would not rot out or decay nor would we starve to death if we drink Hereford water or eat Hereford vegetables.

For the Jim Hill Hotel we went to the Packard Milling company. We saw some baby geese. Then we entered a large room filled with flour and cornmeal. We continued walking into another room. In this room were many large machines. They were filling sacks and sewing them. Then up a flight of stairs into a room where machines were cleaning wheat and sifting the husk from the flour. We went to the basement where we saw a low grade of flour used for feeding pigs. This was very interesting.

Next we toured the Hereford creamery where we were served ice cream to eat. We saw milk bottles being washed, sterilized, filled and recapped.

From the creamery we visited our last place, the radio station where we saw a teletype. In another room a man showed us a song record with five numbers on it. This took 15 minutes and an ordinary record took three minutes. We heard a hearing aid program which was very strange and interesting.

We enjoyed our trip every minute. All of us have high praise for Hereford Chamber of Commerce. We wish to thank you for your hospitality.
