W. T. Gunstenson burned his eyes Thursday night when he looked at an electric welding arc.

About 90 4-H boys and girls and their parents attended the county-wide party Friday night at the CCC buildings across the Santa Fe tracks in South Hereford.

Hereford Riders Slate Two July Engagements

Two July engagements were approved by the Hereford Riders at their regular meeting held Thursday night at 8 p.m. in city hall.

The group voted to go to Levelland July 19 for the Levelland parade and rodeo. The Riders will take part in the parade at 4:30 and will ride in the grand entry at the rodeo at 8 o'clock.

In addition to the Levelland trip the club accepted the invitation to lead the Vega parade July 21. Immediately following the parade the Hereford Riders square dance team on horseback will give an exhibition.

Three new members were voted into the club. They were: Mrs. Elizabeth Brumley and Mr. and Mrs. Garden Newsom.

Cannery Opens With Good Year in Sight

The Hereford Canning company made its first full day's run on Friday. Manager Worth Ware said Saturday morning.

Thirty-five employees of the cannery are just preparing for their biggest run of vegetables, whole potatoes.

Although a full day's run was made Friday, it was considered only a "test run" by Ware until the machinery is adjusted for full production.

Green beans would have been the next vegetable for canning, but that was halted out. Efforts will be made to have farmers re-plant, and anyone interested in green bean or black-eyed pea acreage are asked to contact the cannery within the next two weeks.

Those farmers who have replanted will have a crop ready within a few weeks. Black-eyed peas, lima beans, and possibly tomatoes will be processed by the Hereford Canning company this summer also.

Tomatoes were packed for Boys Ranch last year and Ware said the cannery would pack for anyone donating tomatoes or any other vegetable for Boys Ranch or any similar organization.

A packing of sweet potatoes and carrots may be made, according to the local manager.

but no contracts will be made by the cannery for acreage.

Chances for a government meat-packing contract brightened considerably as Ware reported the possibility of getting sufficient utility grade or better boneless beef from a new packing plant in Amarillo.

If beef is obtained, a government contract which will operate the cannery into the fall is assured.

Ware said he could pack a million pounds a month and at current market prices, that would involve a pack of better than a million dollars a month.

BLOOD TYPING TOTAL REACHES 500 PERSONS

The goal is 600 persons. Deadline for typing is July 15.

A total of 100 persons responded to the appeals for typing Friday night, bringing the total to the 500 mark.

Odd Requests are Part of Librarian's Daily Routine

"Do you have something that tells how to figure the diameter of a circle?" "What about a book on how to keep aged people happy?" "Could you find a piece of poetry for me if I know only the last line?" "Do you have a book which has criticisms of 'The Scarlet Letter' and 'Moby Dick' in it?"

This is just a sample of the questions that Mrs. J. J. Boydston, county librarian, is asked every day. And with surprisingly few exceptions, she is able to fill these strange requests.

Mrs. Boydston and her assistant, Mrs. Corrine Jennings, don't spend all their time answering unusual questions, however. They also have their regular duties of checking out and shelving books and getting new books ready to put on the shelf.

The library has many special services to offer such as choosing books for shut-ins, gathering information for club programs and having the books ready for members when they call for them, putting books on reserve for teachers, checking out as many books as the teachers want for an indefinite period of time, and furnishing the Boy Scouts with pamphlets which aid them in passing their tests.

The most popular books at the library are mysteries and westerns with historical novels running a close third. Most people read the mysteries for "escape" reading or for the pleasure of figuring out "who did it."

The Texas shelf, which is one of the most complete in this part of the country, is very popular with everyone, but especially so with the old timers.

There are occasional fads among the younger readers, one of the most current being the Tarzan series for the boys and the Nancy Drew mysteries for girls.

Always popular among the boys and girls are dog and horse stories, career stories, war histories, and sports.

Mrs. Boydston said that the eighth and ninth graders are reading more and more books on good manners and personality.

Housing Lack Hit By Vegetable Men

Future development of the vegetable industry in this area and the problems to be overcome to obtain that development—a steady labor supply in particular—was the main topic of a dinner meeting held Friday night at Hotel Jim Hill by farmers, and businessmen of this area and a representative of the Arena company of New York and Los Angeles.

The lack of housing facilities for laborers here was cited by the men at the meeting as the greatest drawback in this area for establishing a vegetable industry.

Following the meeting, Tom McFarland, secretary-manager of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, said, "A study is being made to see if it would be possible to change the labor camp to a municipal and county organization."

Reports of the meeting indicated that those present concurred in the belief that the thinking of the community should be changed in regard to the handling of vegetable labor.

It was also mentioned by two or three of the farmers with money invested in the labor camp that the camp should be made a county project and administered some way where there would be no discrimination between cotton, vegetable, and sugar-beet growers.

The possibility of obtaining federal aid for emergency housing under the proposed labor camp setup was also mentioned because the vegetable industry would be essential in the present war emergency.

Hereford and the surrounding area could be the second largest vegetable-producing area in the United States—second only to the Salinas Valley of California—it was pointed out at the meeting, if only adequate housing could be obtained for the labor needed to harvest the crops.

Mexican labor is hesitant, the conferees agreed, to turn to Hereford because of the housing facilities.

Three distinct advantages for the Hereford area becoming a vegetable producing center were mentioned. They are:

Vegetables grown in this country are rated among the highest sold in the U. S. by the produce industry; the fact that Hereford is hours nearer the eastern markets; and that Hereford is located on the main line of the Santa Fe.

Representatives of the Arena company visiting with local businessmen and farmers were impressed, they said, with the cleanliness of the farms the general appearance of the farm area and the soil.

Tom Pendergraft New Manager of Hotel Jim Hill

Tom Pendergraft of Lubbock replaced Paul Holland as manager of Hotel Jim Hill Friday. Pendergraft, who has been in the hotel business for 22 years, has been with Associated Federal hotels off and on for several years.

His first job was in the kitchen of the Buccaneer hotel in Galveston. He later moved to the accounting department of the same hotel. In 1930, he became the manager of the New Yorker in New York City, where he remained for three years before returning to Galveston to manage Hotel Jean LaFitte.

Moving to Lubbock in 1940, he operated a group of small hotels until he came to Hereford to take over Hotel Jim Hill.

Teacher Situation "Not Too Bright"

"The teacher outlook for Hereford is not too bright, especially in the lower elementary grades," Superintendent George Graham told The Brand this week.

At the present time, five vacancies exist in the Hereford Rural School district. Two of these vacancies were created since the end of the school term when faculty members accepted higher-paying positions outside the teaching profession.

Hereford is still looking for a home economics teacher, an instructor in the commercial department, two instructors in the upper elementary grades, and an assistant coach for the "B" athletic teams—one who will handle the junior high teams.

Rex Lee and Douglas Groom are two instructors in the school system who have resigned to accept offers in other fields, Graham said.

Applications for the existing vacancies are now on hand, but the trustees and school officials want to be sure they are filling the vacancies that now exist with the most competent personnel available.

Call Meeting August 9 To Rule on Water Board

A delegation from the Deaf Smith County Water User's association will attend an all-important meeting scheduled for August 9 at Plainview.

At the meeting, called by the State Board of Water Engineers, the board will decide on evidence presented whether to create the water conservation district, which would be the first and largest of its kind in the state.

The public meeting is to be called at 10 a.m. Thursday, August 9 in the municipal auditorium.

Underground water users from the 21-county area designated by the board as the proposed High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 may testify at the meeting.

Creation of the district will have to be approved by the voters following the action by the board.

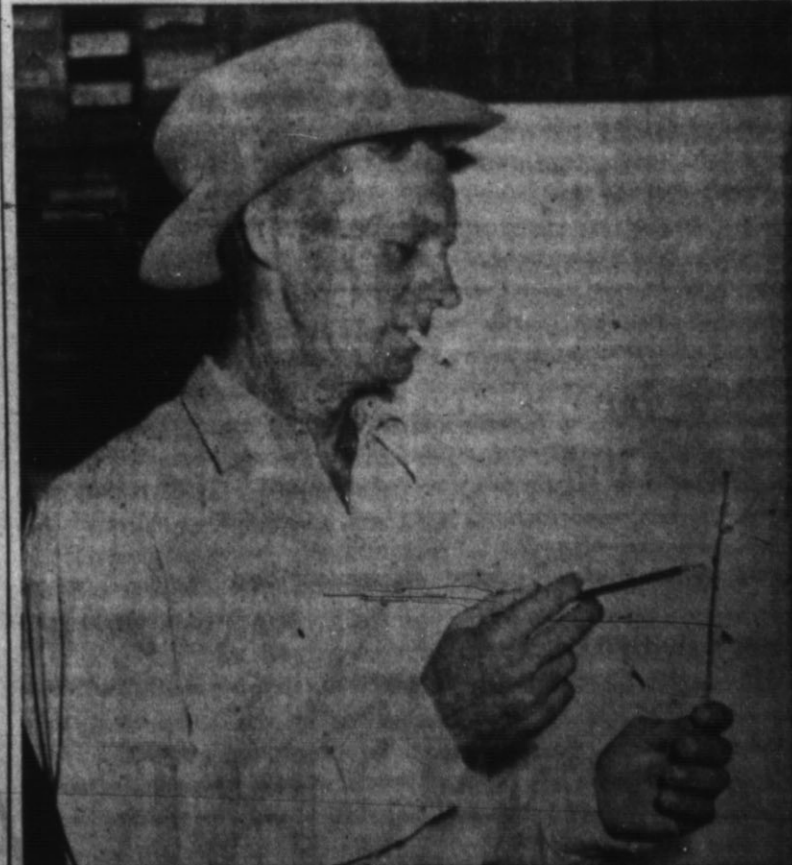

The proposed water district embraces about 13,000,000 acres of farm land which lies over a huge underground water reservoir. It covers all of Lubbock, Hale, Farmer, and Swisher counties and parts of Armstrong, Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Deaf Smith, Dickens, Floyd, Garza, Hockley, Lamb, Lynn, Oldham, Potter, Randall, Terry, and Cochran counties.

If created, the district would act through an elective five-man board of directors to promote conservation of the area's underground water resources. This would be done through regulation of the spacing of irrigation wells, preventing pollution, conducting educational programs of water conservation and conducting experiments on the recharging of the reservoir, according to the High Plains Water Conservation and User's association.

School Levy Set, 1950-51 Taxes 96.19 Per Cent Paid

The tax levy for the Hereford Independent School district for the 1951-52 school year was set at $1.50 per $100 evaluation—the legal maximum—by the school trustees Thursday night.

The levy for local maintenance is $1.25 per $100 and 25 cents per $100 for retirement of bonded indebtedness. This is the same rate that has been levied for the past four years.

This $1.50 rate brought a tax assessment of $309,024.55 on a total property evaluation of $13,934,970, for the 1950-51 school year, according to Tax Collector Fred W. Baird.

Tax collections on the current rolls, which closed on June 30, were 96.19% complete, Baird stated. Last year, the collections were 96.10% complete and the year before that were 97.04% complete.

The total property evaluation for the 1951-52 school year has not been determined as yet. This work will be completed by the first week in August for the tax equalization board.

Members of last year's tax equalization board—T. W. Alderson, Jack Kirksey, and J. R. Allison—were re-appointed by the trustees Thursday night. A date for the board's meeting will be announced as soon as the new evaluations are completed.

Discovery of the break-in was discovered by Wayne Edwards Thursday morning when he opened the pharmacy. No money was out in the open, and although the thief opened all the small drawers in the rear of the building, he didn't find anything to make off with.

No fingerprints were found on the rear door or the drawers the thief ransacked, Reese said.

Texas, but also an income of more than $2,000,000 yearly to landowners for hunting and fishing leases, while the pelts taken by hunters and trappers of furbearers amounts to several millions more. The wildlife population of the land is perhaps more thoroughly safeguarded and more widely distributed today than at any time in recent years. In 1950, for example, 996 deer, 180 antelope and 557 other wild species were shifted for restocking game preserves in other adapted areas. Inland fish resources stem from about 150,000 ponds on farms, 1,049 lakes of five acres or larger with a combined water area of 362,000 acres, and 2,000 miles of fresh water streams. Preservation and propagation of species of animal and bird life in Texas is attributable in substantial measure to the demonstrations in conservation which the A. & M. College Extension Service has sponsored in cooperation with land owners for the past decade and a half. The Extension program is headed by R. E. Callender, wildlife conservation specialist, working as an assistant-at-large to Extension Agents who deal directly with the people. In this capacity Callender prepares subject matter for use in the field and assists Extension district agents with plans for demonstrations in their districts. In addition, he cooperates with Federal, State and local organizations concerned directly, or in association with phases of wildlife. Selections from achievements in 1950 reported by county agricultural agents reveal substantial to excellent wildlife programs in 212 counties; 15,500 persons cooperated in 2,089 demonstration areas representing 14,631,000 acres, and 37,000 protective signs or markers were posted on property of cooperating land owners. The Extension specialist estimates that since the Extension program was commenced 14 years ago, more than 125,000 such markers have been erected at a cost of about $73,000 to cooperators. Other, but related, activities included 9,761 farmers assisted with specific improvements for wildlife; 18,407 farm ponds constructed by cooperators; 6,233 farm ponds stocked with fish; and more than 38,000 predatory species trapped or destroyed by other means during the year. A wildlife conservation demonstration program for members of 4-H clubs, with 11,034 enrolled, was conducted by the Extension specialist in association with county agricultural agents parallel with that for adults. In the course of this work 13 county wide 4-H club conservation camps were held and 298 communities were represented at county, district, or state camps. A total of 3,800 4-H members received training in marksmanship and they youths accounted for 6,594 predators by different means in 1950. In the same period, 1,022 club members produced 28,657 rabbits for meat or breeding, while over the state 124 community cooperative game management associations were active. The variety of Texas' wildlife is diverse and several species are plentiful. The Extension specialist lists 32 game and fur bearing animals extant, and 11 species of native and migratory fowls and birds. But some animals have dwindled to mere traces. Bighorn sheep, for example, are found sparingly in two Texas counties; black bears in three, and ocelot in a like number. The specialist emphasizes that while protection is needed at all times, it is not self-sufficient. Wildlife population is largely dependent upon available food and shelter and closed seasons mean little where food and cover are lacking. The harvesting of game as a crop is encouraged and such is preferable to long-term closed seasons except when seed stock is at stake or a species is approaching extinction.

A 1951 Chevrolet driven by Aubrey Rogers of Hereford was hit from the rear by a 1940 Plymouth driven by Bill Blanton of Ft. Worth. Damage to the Chevrolet was estimated at $30. Damage to the Plymouth was about $1000, Dumas said. Rogers was backing up on the highway, Dumas said, when the Blanton auto hit his car. Rogers was charged with impeding traffic and Blanton was charged with defective brakes on his vehicle and driving without a driver's license.

worry—but I'd rather worry than to work, anytime.

V. O. Hennen, former Chamber of Commerce Secretary and former manager of the local REA, is in town visiting his son, Virgil Hennen and his daughter, Mrs. H. V. Stanton, and their families. He says he never saw anything like the way this community has grown. He says it is "the finest place in the world to live." Mr. Hennen did a lot back from '37 through '40 to help lay this foundation. He dreamed of REA someday on its present scale. Today, he is truly happy in having seen that dream realized. This is something few pioneers ever achieve—and it is possible in this instance, due only to rapid growth and expansion.

Did you ever stop to think how we people of 1951 are enjoying luxuries and comforts, thanks to dreams of generations past? Many of our pioneers died in the belief they had failed. I was mighty nappy to see Mr. Hennen again, and to see his eyes sparkle with delight as he talked about difficulties and tribulations of those early days when you could count the irrigation wells of this territory on your fingers—and the yellow glow of kerosene lamps dotted the landscape at night. I guess it's screwy, but it is one of those little things that keep a newspaper man going. I guess you'd call it understanding. Anyway, I talked with him less than three minutes—and I felt good all afternoon.

A contract for repairing and repainting the Hereford high school auditorium was let to the Powell Construction company of Hereford at the regular monthly business meeting of the board of trustees.

Approximate cost of the work will be $2,200.

Included in the work will be repainting, replacing the plaster ceiling with acoustical tile, and putting acoustical tile on the upper tier of windows.

Work on the auditorium started Friday.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the deeds of kindness and comfort given us by our friends and neighbors following the loss of our loved one, May God's richest blessings be upon you every one.

he goes to mark his ballot next fall will be the provision which allows him to vote for his candidate by simply putting an "X" in the small box by his name.

Or if he is old-fashioned and wants to scratch out all but one name, as Texans have previously done, his vote still counts.

To prevent fraud the new law allows the attorney general to investigate doubtful elections which concern more than one county.

You probably read about the gas company petitioning the Rail and Commission (and the City of Hereford) for a rate increase. In the course of making the application for the increase, the gas company had a 40-page booklet printed. This booklet contains statistics which, no doubt, indicate true pictures concerning the gas situation over the territory. Summarized, here is what granting of the measure would mean to you:

the fact that it was practical to pipe our gas to Chicago and sell it at a reasonable figure—and we still pay as much as we do in the Panhandle, Amarillo, on the other hand, boasts unusually low gas rates; much lower, I understand, than Hereford or surrounding towns. Does anyone have these figures? How do they compare with the proposed rate figures sought by West Texas Gas Co.?

Of some interest to friends of Rev. R. H. Cagle will be the fact that his brother, Dr. A. P. (Denn) Cagle, head of the political science department of Baylor University, Waco, was author of the new Texas election laws which will go into effect on January 1, 1952. Dr. Cagle and his political science department was hired to do the job and for 11 months he worked with the commission sorting out new ideas and adding some of his own.

More than 100 changes were made in the old election laws of Texas, mostly aimed toward simplification; obsolete parts were removed and other points were added, all aimed toward more equitable voting and prevention of fraud. The whole thing started back when Coke Stevenson and Lyndon Johnson ran such a close race for U. S. Senate. The bill has already been signed by Gov. Allen Shivers. Here are some points in which the average voter might be interested:

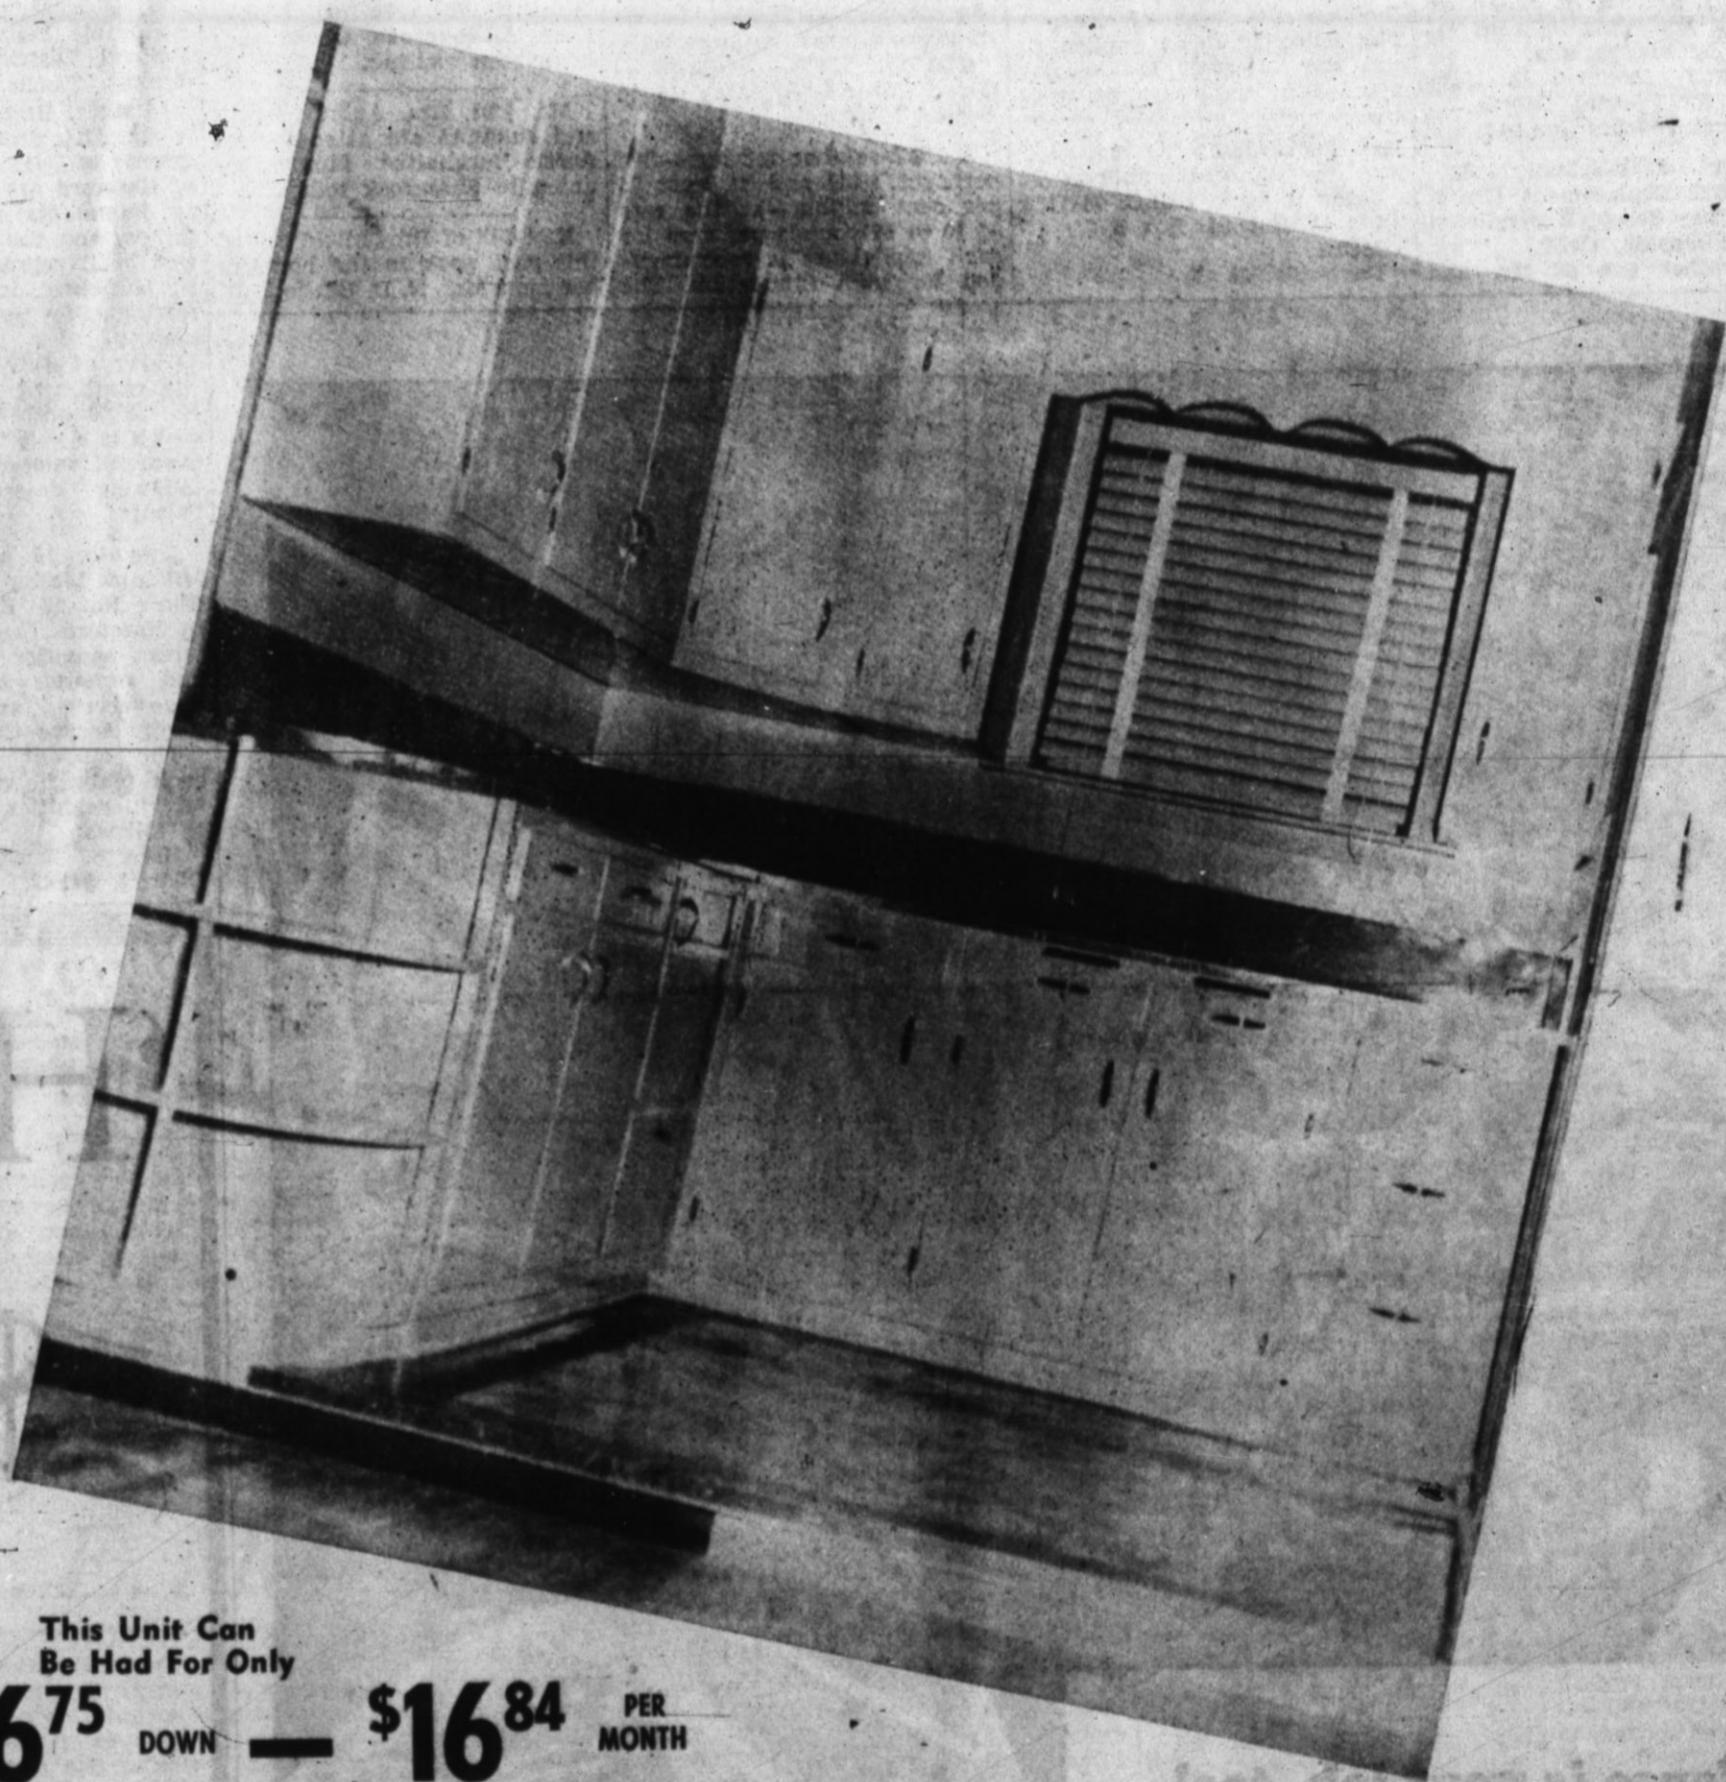

Until this law takes effect next January, a candidate for a political office is limited by statute as to the amount of money he can spend on his election campaign. Next year he can spend as much as he wishes, but he must give the public an accurate account of his expenses.

If an election were held today, I doubt if Sen. Tom Connally would have a look-in for re-election. I have talked to quite a few dyed-in-the-wool Connally men—and they think his time is past. He should have quit before. The feeling is not exclusively local, either, lots of people are beginning to feel that a change is needed. I am predicting Allen Shivers or Martin Dies. I rather think it will be Shivers. Martin Dies is a fire-eater type orator, but he failed to gain cooperation while in Congress. Something about his personality creates jealousy among his constituents. He would be an improvement over Connally, though.

Henry Sears says I am plain nuts—and he is going to prove it. He might do it, too. It is all because I said a million dollar potato crop created more jobs and left more money in trade channels of the community than would a five million dollar wheat crop. Maybe I was off the beam, and I will be glad to print his figures. He wants to know where I got my information, which came 100 percent from observation. No actual facts. However, if Henry will get the actual labor expense per acre on sowing and harvesting an acre of wheat—in the average size tract—I will get the actual labor expense of planting and harvesting an acre of potatoes, also in the average size tract. Let's find out. If I am wrong, I'll admit and if Henry is wrong, I'll say, "I told you so."

Don't misunderstand me. If I were fortunate enough to have a farm, I would plant wheat—at least a good tract. Chiefly because it wouldn't require much work, all of which is the very point I am trying to make. I know it means lots of

Warning on Corn, Cotton Insects Given Farmers

Deaf Smith county farmers were warned this week by County Agent Hug Clearman about the danger of plant lice on corn and also of cotton insects.

Clearman said he has had some complaints of plant lice and warned farmers to check their fields. Checks on cotton should be started now, also, Clearman said, for cotton flea-hopper, thrip, and cotton boll worm.

Regular checks should be made and investigation should be made for control measures. Clearman has made several checks on the crop. The cotton, when checked by Clearman last week, showed no signs of infestation.

The following control measures were passed on for farmers by Clearman: COTTON BOLLWORM — (for the current stage of season) The following dusts applied at five day intervals are recommended in the order of their effectiveness: A. A DDT-sulphur mixture—10% DDT and at least 75 percent sulphur—at the rate of 10 pounds (for low infestations) to 15 pounds (for high infestations) per acre.

B. Lead arsenate or cryolite at the rate of 8 to 10 pounds per acre.

C. Calcium arsenate at 12 to 15 pounds per acre. The use of calcium arsenate in mid-season for boll weevil control often destroys large numbers of beneficial insects which results in increased numbers of aphids and bollworms. This condition makes bollworm control more difficult. The tips of plants should be watched for small worms. Apply dust immediately after worms appear, because small worms are more easily killed than large ones. Control is much more effective when the poison is applied before the worms enter the large bolls.

COTTON FLEA - HOPPER — Control Stage "A", May 15 to August 15—

A DDT-sulphur mixture—five per cent DDT and at least 75 per cent sulphur—at the rate of 10 to 15 pounds per acre for each application is recommended for high infestation. The high percentage of sulphur helps prevent damage by aphids (plant lice) and red spiders.

For low to medium infestations apply 12 to 18 pounds of sulphur per acre.

When 25 fleahoppers are found per 100 terminal (plant tips) or when it is evident that small squares are blasted away before they "set", apply the dust at weekly intervals until a crop is set.

THRIPS—Any one of the following three insecticides may be used in the given quantities per acre:

Toxaphene, .75 to 1.5 pounds per acre; Aldrin, .125 to .25 pounds technical per acre; or Dieldrin, .1 to 2 pounds technical per acre.

Prepare English Peas as French Cooks Like Them

Now that Emily Post has published "The Emily Post Cook Book", she will be able to tell you how to cook peas as well as what to use to tackle them and where to place that piece of silver after you find out.

Out of the 580 delectable recipes contained in the book, a good many show the French influence in modern cookery, and, even though American cooks are said to be the best in the world, the added French touch can produce some really delightful dishes.

Mrs. Max Wood of Portland, Oregon who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. G. A. F. Parker who is ill, gives us the French way of cooking English peas. If you want to serve something really different—and good—try preparing peas by this method.

French Cooked-English Peas

Bring the usual amount of water to a rolling boil and add fresh or frozen peas. Add one or two slices of onion (depending on size of onion) and two or three pieces of lettuce. Cook all together until peas are soft on the outside. Pour off the water, remove the lettuce and onion and throw away. (they are for flavor only). Add a heaping tablespoon butter to the drained peas and allow to simmer a minute or two. Serve in the usual manner—they are wonderful on patty shells.

Shower Compliments Bride-Elect Sunday

A miscellaneous shower complimented Miss Geraldine Knabe, bride-elect of Charles Schlabs, Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Carl Luke. Other hostesses were Mesdames Felix Urbanczyk, Jim Clements, Marvin Diller, George Hund and Misses Marcella Diller, Mary Hund, and Blanche Stengel.

Ben Janecek, Josephine Huckert, Henry Fangman, Mike Betzen, A. G. Schlabs, Fred Pittner, Airhart, J. H. Reinart, Gene Loerwald, Clarence Beizen, M. H. Koelzer, Bill Craig, M. J. Koelzer, Cyril Diller, Frank Knabe, Misses; Romona Frerich, Faye Kerschen, Coletta Diller, Linda Betzen, Theresa Koelzer, Teresa Fangman, Katherine Bromman, Adeline Koelzer, Leona Gable, Joan Knabe, Dorothy Hund, Mary Frances Pittner, the honoree and members of the house party.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hicks and children of Austin are guests in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Jackson. Mrs. Hicks is the former Miss Edith Jackson.

Daisies and other midsummer flowers carried out a blue and white decorative theme for the party with the names and date of the wedding—"Pat and Gerry-July 10" inscribed on ribbon streamers against a mirrored background. Blue and white candles completed the setting.

During the afternoon Dorothy Hund, pianist, played selections from "The Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin and "My Happiness". Marcella Diller entertained with appropriate readings. Miss Mary Hund was at the guest register.

Those attending the pre-nuptial affair were Mesdames; J. E. Frerich, Wm. Betzen, J. E. Stengel, F. J. Walterscheid, Bud Stengel, Werner Koelzer, Tony Hoffman, Ed Jesko, H. L. Hershey, W. J. Lueb, John Henderson, J. D. E. Jones, Bill Stengel.

Bridge Party Compliments Dallas Guest

Miss Fern Carlyle of Dallas, a former teacher in the Hereford high school, was entertained informally last week while visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perrin.

On Saturday evening, Miss Carlyle was guest of honor at a small dinner party given by Mrs. Wayne Evans with other guests including Mr. and Mrs. Perrin, Mrs. L. B. Barnett, and Mrs. Elizabeth Womble.

Bridge Party Is Given On Monday afternoon, Mrs. Perrin was hostess at a bridge party honoring Miss Carlyle in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kirby.

High score awards went to Mrs. Wayne Evans, high; Mrs. J. T. Gilbreath Jr. low; and Mrs. Richard Barnard won the traveling prize.

Those making up the three tables of players were: Mesdames L. B. Barnett, T. E. Seiler Jr., Wayne Evans, J. T. Gilbreath Jr., Elizabeth Womble, Henry Benson, J. E. Kirby, Frances Houston, D. C. McWhorter, Richard Barnard, Paul Coneway, and the honoree. Mrs. J. E. Allison and Mrs. Jack Gilliland were tea guests.

(Ed. Note: This is another in a series of articles being written about the presidents of various clubs of the city).

The French have an old maxim—"A leader is a persuader"—but Mrs. W. J. Jones, president of the L.A.E. Club, (La Affiliatus Estudio) isn't expecting to depend upon persuasion in rounding out a successful term of leadership.

"Every member of the club is an enthusiastic member and ready to do her part. They consider the work beneficial and enjoy it. That's why it is effective. And I like the type of work and the informality of the meetings," Mrs. Jones says.

In their former home of Snyder, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Jones both were leaders in the Order of Eastern Star and intend to continue their active participation in the work here. Both are native Texans, but were married in Oklahoma. They moved to Texas in 1938, locating on a farm near Hereford on Harrison highway where they lived seven years. Since 1946, when she moved into town, Mrs. Jones has become associated with varied groups and organizations of the city.

As a child she learned to like making things grow and she follows the interesting hobby of cultivating both a vegetable and flower garden. Flowers of almost every kind flourish in her garden, but her pride and joy is her rose garden, which she gives special attention. She always had growing flowers, even when she had to carry water to them in a bucket. Homemaking is her main interest and she wouldn't exchange her place in the home with any talented artist. Having no children, she gathers young people and children about her during the time she has to spare. She has been on the advisory board of the Order of Rainbow for Girls for the past three years and has given much of the instruction in the secret work. She has served the Hereford chapter of the Order of Eastern Star as treasurer, Electa, Esther, and is conductress this year. She is also a member of the O.E.S. Study club.

Her warm friendly attitude makes her a favorite with young people and she is never without a Sunday school class

Miss Geraldine Knabe Becomes Bride of Charles Schlabs Tuesday

St. Anthony's Catholic church was the setting at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning July 10, for the marriage of Miss Geraldine Knabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Knabe, and Charles Schlabs, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Schlabs of Summerfield. The church was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli on the main altar with clusters of daisies adorning the side altars. White candles gave illumination at the altar. Preceding the wedding, Mrs.

Robert Kerschen played a medley of wedding music by Rosini and Miss Adeline Koelzer sang Rosewig's "Ave Maria". "On This Day", and "O Perfect Love". Reverend Nathaniel Madden S. A. officiated for the ceremony with double-ring vows.

Sister is Maid of Honor Joan Knabe, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mary Hund served as bridesmaid. They wore identical hooped gowns of pastel blue nylon lace net and marquisette over taffeta. The brides featured a Peter Pan collar and cumberbund of taffeta that formed a soft bustle in the back with ribbon streamers falling to the hemline. The full-tiered skirts were of marousette. They wore bands of braided net and satin ribbon attached to tiered scalloped veils that covered their hair in the back. Each carried a colonial arrangement of pink asters with wide pink satin streamers.

Raymond Schlabs served his brother as best man and Edmund Schlabs was groomsman. Ushers were Frank Bezner and Harold Hershey. The bride, who entered with her father, wore a wedding gown of white Chantilly lace, made over matching satin, destined in the romantic tradition. The fitted bodice which met the skirt in large bound scallops, buttoned on the back with tiny satin-covered buttons, and featured a deep nylon tulle yoke edged in a fluted ruffle and caught up in scallops with hand-made satin rosebuds, centered with hearts. The full lace skirt fell over a deep nylon tulle dust ruffle headed with a bias satin fold and terminated in a Cathedral train.

Her triple-tiered finger length veil was of white imported French illusion, scalloped around the edges and attached to a net bonnet with fluted ruffle etched in simulated pearls. Her only ornament was a triple-strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a prayer book handed to her mother, also the gift of the bridegroom. The wedding honorette was of white feathered carnations and stephanotis arranged with tufts of white satin ribbon and showered with narrow satin streamers knotted with stephanotis. The bride's mother chose a cocoa brown cotton lace dress and the bridegroom's mother wore an aqua lace dress. Both wore pink carnation corsages. The wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents immediately after the wedding for members of the bridal party and parents. At high noon, a luncheon was held in the home of the bride's parents, honoring the couple and relatives.

Reception is Held A reception for over 100 guests was held in St. Anthony's hall at 5 p.m. White gladioli were used in decorations and a three tiered wedding cake was featured with the bride and bridegroom cutting the first piece.

For the wedding trip, the bride chose a pink linen dress worn with navy accessories and small navy hat.

The bride is a graduate of Hereford high school and Mr. Schlabs attended Friona schools. He is engaged in farming with his father at Summerfield. The couple will make their home at 405 Ross St.

Parties During Past Week for Mrs. Barnett

Included in a series of parties being given to honor Mrs. L. B. Barnett who is leaving soon for Dallas where Dr. Barnett is doing special study, were three parties given Thursday and Friday as informal farewell courtesies.

"Coke" Party Mrs. Wayne Evans and Mrs. Henry Benson were hostesses at an attractively arranged coke party given at the Evans home Thursday morning. Cokes and other refreshments were served from a table laid with a red checked cloth centered with a ruddy-toned trim in a wooden bowl flanked by brass hurricane lamps holding red candles. Ivy leaves gave a cool accent to the setting and decorated lazy susans which held sandwiches and other delectables. Cokes were served from a wooden bucket by Mrs. Benson. Red and yellow glads were used about the house.

Those attending were: the honor guest and Mesdames; Roy Grubbs, Jack Bradley, J. E. Kirby, J. R. Allison, Urlin Streu, Robert Veigel, Lola Owens, and the hostesses. Mrs. Barnett was presented with a personal gift.

Dinner-Bridge Mrs. Henry Benson and Mrs. Roy Crutchfield entertained for Mrs. Barnett with a dinner-bridge at the Crutchfield home Thursday night. The table from which the dinner was served was laid in pink linen to present a lovely background for daisies, delphinium and baby's breath used in decor.

After the dinner two tables of players made up the games with Mrs. J. W. Barnett and Mrs. Troy Moore winning high and low score awards respectively. A going away gift was presented to the honoree.

Those present were Mesdames; Jack Bradley, Troy Moore, Sylvester Slagle, Wayne Evans, J. W. Barnett, Roy Grubbs, Harry Bennett and the honoree.

Morning Party Mrs. Jack Bradley and Mrs. Roy Grubbs used pastel colored daisies for table decorations when they feted Mrs. Barnett at a morning courtesy Friday. A blue cloth laid the table and the pastel theme was repeated in decorations throughout the house.

Conversation made up the entertainment and best wishes for the journey were extended. Guests included Mesdames; W. L. Davis, Jr., Wayne Evans, Worth Ware, Harry Bennett, Sylvester Slagle, Troy Moore, Henry Benson, T. E. Seigler Jr., Roy Crutchfield and the honoree.

Requests for Information From Game Commission Keep Coming

A recent request by an Englishman for conservation education material indicates the range of data prepared and distributed by the Texas Game, Fish & Oyster Commission.

The man, writing from London, said he had seen a commission pamphlet, complimented the author, and asked for more such information.

The director of publications for the commission, who has built up the resource-use education program, said the international phase was further pointed up recently when Ira Gabrielson, former chief of the Federal Wildlife Service, got 20 packets for distribution abroad.

The emphasis at home, on this revival of interest in basic subjects dealing with the soil and wildlife, is centered this summer on some 30 workshops being conducted on the college level. These projects prepare teachers to carry back to the school rooms the urgent message of conservation.

In addition, churches, clubs and assorted groups are joining the Texas conservation movement, according to the publications director. The Methodist church in Texas was first to use the educational data in its summer camps. Other denominations now are using these materials.

The director of publications said the material is not being restricted to science classes but is being used in studies of art and English and the like. It also is part of the curriculum in veterans school. Scouts are using it and so are groups such as Future Farmers.

Teachers of speech classes find the nature phases stimulate children to talk. The same quality has impressed University of Texas Extension staffers striving to aid Latin-Americans to learn the language of their adopted country.

Modern women know, too, that economy, efficiency, dependability—plus all the completely automatic cooking features—will be found in an electric range.

Electric cooking is cool because all the heat goes into the pan and into the food. None of it goes up the sides of the pan, none of it is wasted heating the room.

Electric cooking is convenient. Convenient because it's automatic. Convenient because it's dependable heat is constant. You can cook complete meals without being in your kitchen either when they start to cook or when they stop cooking—thanks to automatic timers. You can leave your kitchen, too, even when you plan to stay at home, and not worry about the heat remaining constant. When you set the predetermined heat on your electric range, it stays at that setting—there's no flickering, no variation of heat.

Communist Infiltration Efforts Will Never Stop

Press reports tell us almost daily of instances where Communism gains a foothold in still another sphere of influence on the American scene.

On the surface, these disclosures may not cause much of a stir, because most of us feel a person who would follow the cause of world Communism is the type of disgruntled individual who would follow any "ism" that sounded as though it would give him more than his present form of government. That is not the case, however. The power behind this drive to popularize Communism is what we must watch out for.

Russia and her sympathizers in this country will stoop to any depths to foist their ideological quackery on unsuspecting persons.

The Communists are brash enough to attempt to corrupt all walks of life for their purpose. For every economic level, they have a "line"—"Let's get the other fellow." That plan is successful too many times.

We read in the paper the other day of a Virginia housewife revealing that Communists formed cells at some of our eastern universities and in war plants in the east.

We immediately thought of one thing—"If they do it there, what's stopping them from doing the same thing all over the country?"

They probably are.

This is one instance where the movement was revealed by a courageous American citizen while serving her country. But what about the remaining potential of hundreds, even thousands, of cells which have not yet been exposed?

That is what we must think about and be wary of. Communists are not coming out in the open and advocating their shaky doctrines.

Communism will spread like a cancer wherever its seeds fall on fertile soil. No walk of life is free from the constant threat of Communist infiltration.

Russia would rather cause the overthrow of the American system by decay and upheaval from within than by committing her armies to outright combat with the forces of freedom. That is her express purpose in undermining America with Communist cells in every walk of life.

Industrial plants, where many laborers feel they are merely pawns of "Big Business" instead of an integral part of America's economic wonder—free enterprise—give Communists fertile soil for their doctrine of hate.

Communists seek to warp the minds of workers in these plants, where many of the un-educated, foreign-born "followers" working in un-skilled occupations, can be whipped into a frenzy by radical labor leaders. They seek to plant their seeds of doubt, mistrust, and dissatisfaction.

Do not confuse what we have been talking about with dissatisfaction with any particular political party or personality.

You are not a Communist just because you vote Republican or Democrat. You are not a Communist because you don't think this man or that man is a good political administrator.

You can't call a man a Communist because he doesn't see eye-to-eye with you on policy. Too many people are making that mistake today.

Disagreement on administrative policies is a democratic privilege.

We do, however, class a man as a Communist when he feels that a system of free enterprise should be abolished for a system of communal living and sharing the wealth.

When a person advocates the removal of a system whereby a man can accumulate a fortune through his own personal labors or skills without injuring the Constitutional rights of another citizen, then we can call this advocate a Communist. He certainly is no advocate of free enterprise.

Where will the Communists begin their underhanded campaign to sell democracy down the river? With the segment of our population that thinks it isn't getting a "square deal."

Those who realize that a system whereby a man profits directly in proportion to his labors is better than any artificial distribution program can never fall into the whirlpool of Communism.

Democracy has its shortcomings, but all is not rosy in Russia, either.

Communist sympathizers won't relax their efforts just because we fail to take the bait the first time around. We must be constantly on the alert for their nefarious schemes. —W. W. K.

All Elections Are Important

It will be interesting to watch the outcome of the tax re-allocation election scheduled for Deaf Smith county residents on July 17.

Interesting, yes, not because any issue of world-wide importance is involved, but just because it gives voters of this county another chance to exercise their wishes through the ballot box.

It will be easy to pass off this election as "unimportant" because it involves no extra taxes, but rather a re-adjustment of taxes but rather a re-adjustment of taxes levied for certain funds under the overall legal limit.

The crux of the matter is whether or not our right to say what we please in the ballot box is "unimportant." If we pass up two or three "unimportant" elections, how soon would it be before ALL ELECTIONS were "unimportant."

It's not a big issue, but the principle of the thing is as important as democracy itself. You have the legal right—in fact it is an OBLIGATION—to tell your county commissioners that they can or cannot re-adjust the money flowing into certain funds by re-allocation of taxes.

Your county officers are prepared to obey your wishes. You must express your views. VOTE! Vote on July 17 just for the sake of having taken advantage of your right if for no other reason.—W. W. K.

The way to get rid of a friend who wants to borrow some money is to lend him the money; you won't see him again for a long, long time.

Democracy is not improved by the careless and indiscriminate criticism of officials whether they serve local, state or federal governments.

Apropos of China, we are puzzled to know what Chiang Kai-shek can do on Formosa that he could not do when he was on the Chinese mainland.

If somebody would accuse you of being a Communist sympathizer, how would you prove the allegation untrue?

If you fail the first time, and make no correction for mistakes, there is no reason why you should not fail the second time.

WHICH STRING IS NEXT, JOE?

'Tater Peelin's

By Roberta Campbell

Where does all our moisture get away to so fast? Just a few weeks ago as we drove east on highway 60 we were thinkin' that farmers in the Joel Switch area ought to grow rice since it has to be sprouted under water but now all at once everthing seems to need a drink.

We got the surprise of our life when we took over the steering wheel of our old tractor to help plow wheat stubble and found the ground so packed and dry that the lugs gave us a wild ride almost equal to a rodeo bronc.

If the Hereford Riders would schedule their rodeo right away maybe we would get another big rain.

Suggestion to the Safety Council for recommendation of a traffic light at the intersection of highways 51 and 60 in the west part of town. We don't know that anyone has lost life or limb there but no doubt plenty of people have lost their temper waitin' for a right of way.

Mrs. Bradley's interestin' article in Thursday's Brand tells us the types of blood are O, A, B, and AB but since we haven't been able to rustle up the price of a beef steak in so long we would expect ours to test about 75% bologna and the rest blackeyed pea soup.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his farm near Bootleg is unnecessarily worried, his letter this week reveals. Dear editor:

I noticed in a copy of the Ambrillo News which one of our neighbors sent my wife some vegetables in, ain't nothin' better than a neighbor with a good garden and a subscription to a newspaper, that the experts have been studyin' the census figures and have come up with the information that half of the people in Texas now live in big cities.

Accordin' to the figures, for example, 800,000 people live in the Houston metropolitan area, which Houston defines as an area containin' 1,747 square miles. As I figure it, 1,747 square miles is a place at least 40 miles square, and if it's oblong it could be 20 miles wide and 85 miles long, and I'm here to tell you if I was 40 miles or 85 miles from the Houston post office I'd have a hard time describin' myself as livin' in Houston. Believe I could find a post office a heap closer than that in some nearby town.

The same thing is true of Dallas, San Antonio, Fort Worth, etc. Why Laredo even claims 3,295 square miles, which is a spot over 50 miles in one direction and 60 miles in another, and if you left the city hall in Laredo and drove 50 miles I don't know where you'd be but you wouldn't be in Laredo and if you went one direction you wouldn't even be in the United States. In fact, all these cities claim such a big metropolitan area it ain't no trick at all to make a city man out of a country man by an act of the city council, on the theory that if you can't get the man out of the county you can throw some city limits around him and bring him and his farm in too.

Now I don't suppose there's any move on to take me inside any city limits, I know it's the duty of every town to grow, why I ain't never figured out, you can see what a mess the country'd be in if every farmer had as his aim to expand a few miles in every direction, but if there is I would like to go on record as sayin' it won't work. Not by any stretch of the imagination can I visualize this farm as a city, it won't even support me, not to mention fifty other families livin' fifteen feet apart.

I'll admit a lot of people have turned up in cities in recent years, but most of em got there just by sittin' still and gettin' taken in. Any city can grow, just like any woman can get married, if they can find some land or some man to slip up on. The census figures may look like Texas has become classed, but as far as I can tell the country boys are still mighty numerous.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Attack on Marshall

SENATE Democratic leaders called an emergency off-the-record huddle the other day to decide how to meet Senator McCarthy's 80,000-word attack on Secretary of Defense Marshall.

Minnesota's fiery Sen. Hubert Humphrey suggested a mass walk-out when McCarthy got up to speak. Pointing out how Hitler started his rise to power by tearing down the heroes of the German republic, Humphrey snorted his disgust at McCarthy's tactics.

"There are many ways to destroy people—sometimes by outright murder, sometimes through the process of attrition," declared Humphrey. "I mean character assassination, misrepresentation and quoting out of context. This is the most inhumane way."

The senator from Minnesota suggested that the Democrats had only two alternatives—"either stand up and fight back which is almost impossible to do when McCarthy controls the floor, or remove ourselves from the scene of the unsavory conduct."

However, Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas favored sending in a conservative southern Democrat to hit back at McCarthy. Anyone else who tried it would be branded as a Communist by McCarthy, Johnson observed. He suggested George of Georgia or Byrd of Virginia, since Marshall lives in Virginia and Byrd made the original motion in favor of Marshall's nomination.

However, McMahon of Connecticut warned that it was an "impossibility trying to debate with McCarthy, because you never can pin him to the facts of the issue."

He added that Marshall had stature enough to withstand the McCarthy blast and suggested that the McCarthyites had lost the MacArthur fight, and McCarthy's attack on Marshall was "a deliberate attempt to gain the offensive agin'."

Serving Two Masters

The next government agency to get in hot water with congress may be the securities and exchange commission, which polices Wall Street and the big corporations.

The SEC is the only agency which has failed to answer a questionnaire sent out by alert Pennsylvania Congressman Francis Walter, asking for the names of employees who had given up their government jobs to work for the same companies which they once regulated when they were government officials.

The manner in which some officials have used their government positions to do favors for private companies, then have gone to work for the same companies at higher salaries, is a national scandal.

Probable reason why the SEC is keeping silent is that the answers would be embarrassing. For example, SEC would have to tell how it reversed a recommendation to dissolve the United Corporation, after several former SEC employees were hired by United.

Organized by J. P. Morgan, United Corporation is a giant holding company which gives Wall Street bankers control over several power and electric companies. In 1942 the SEC staff recommended dissolving this parent corporation under the holding company act and on the grounds that it served no useful purpose except to perpetuate banker control.

However, the bankers turned around and hired several SEC officials, including some who had worked on the very recommendation to dissolve the United Corporation. First to move over to United was William M. Hickey.

Panhandle Paragraphs

RATHER BE DEAD

The Moore County News tells of a group of sailors with a serviceman's desire to twit other branches of the service who found an aid in a cocker spaniel. The dog would roll over as if dead every time he heard the word "dead." The sailors walked up to a group of Marines and asked the dog if it would rather be a Marine or be dead. Naturally, the dog rolled over as if dead.

DIDN'T TEAR DOWN THE PLAYHOUSE

At Levelland, the fire department was called out to put out a fire about midnight one night. The fire turned out to be in a discarded studio couch in a playhouse. The couch was completely destroyed but no one had to "tear down the playhouse."

IT'S ABOUT TIME

The eternal argument in the front office and back shop of the State Line Tribune has been stopped. The editor, evidently tired of hearing the staff argue about the amount of rainfall, came to work one morning with a rain gauge under his arm. The staff thought it was about time.

REWARD FOR GOOD BEHAVIOR

The Hockley County Herald tells of a little girl who has a sparrow for a pet. The sparrow, who lives in a small house in the girl's bedroom, has a diet of birdseed and dog food but occasionally has a meal of its favorite sweets—suckers and cool aole.

IMAGINATION

According to the Briscoe County News, there is such a thing as a rare combination psychologist and mess sergeant. A certain mess sergeant in Korea can't always have fresh scrambled eggs for breakfast, but he solves the problem of the Marines griping about dehydrated eggs by saving the shells from the fresh eggs when they have them and sprinkling them on the garbage dump. Sometimes to make sure that they don't doubt the fact that the eggs are fresh, he sprinkles ground shells in the dehydrated-eggs before he scrambles them.

TOUGH TEXANS

A Texas sergeant, Walter T. McCarty, has signed statements from five people to verify the fact that Texans are tough. While standing up giving orders to his platoon during a Communist attack, a mortar shell landed on his head and exploded. His helmet shattered but the tough sergeant was just dazed, the Dalhart Texan reports.

PLANES ONLY SO BIG

Pfc. S. A. Ferris has feet big enough to earn him a vacation. Ferris, who wears size 14EEE's, wore out the shoes that he brought from the states and for some reason the supply sergeant has nothing that will fit him. "Your shoes will probably come in one at a time," said a doctor, "our airplanes are only so big you know."

UNDERGROUND DEGREE

According to the Claude News, Lt. Charles Hunter hopes that no one asks him to dig up his diploma. After he finished his college work, and received his commission, he was sent to Korea. After landing in Korea he received his diploma. He was dug in along the Han river and since he could only carry a certain amount, he buried his leather-bound diploma by the river. As he moved on he noted the position. He is in Japan now, but his diploma is still underground in Korea.

OLD ENOUGH TO KNOW WHAT THEY ARE DOING

A couple who ought to be old enough to know what they are doing were married in Fort Worth. According to the Dalhart Texan the groom is 80 and the bride is 77.

SUNDAY'S CURRENT QUESTION

Difference of Opinion Regarding "Dispersal" of Defense Plants

The House of Representatives this week turned down a plan that would allow the President to scatter new defense plants to avoid losing our heavy industry in the event of an atom bomb attack. They called the plan "socialistic" and said it was "regimentation of industry." Do you agree with them? Why?

MRS. KENT SNARE—Yes. In the first place I think that the people should be allowed to decide where the plants should be placed. I think they should be placed in strategic areas for the best concern of all.

PAUL HOLLAND—I think that they should be scattered out for more than one reason. First, so that all areas of the country would get the money that is being released, and second, in case of an atomic attack, they would have to bomb more than one place.

BEN F. MALONE—No. I think when the national security is at stake they should be scattered. They should be scattered to the extent wherever there is labor supply available. It should depend, too, on the availability of raw materials.

HOWARD GAULT—Yes. Almost anything that Truman likes I don't and I would rather place my trust in the combined opinion of all of Congress than I would in him.

MRS. BOB WEAR—No. On the face of it, it seems to be a good idea to scatter the plants over the country. However, I'm not well enough read on the subject to really say.

F. H. OBERTHIER—I agree with them because they didn't turn down the plan because they didn't like it, but because they thought that they couldn't afford to have such heavy expenditures at this time, with war on and all.

MRS. CAWTHON BRYANT—I agree that the plants should be scattered out over the entire country. Now they are all in two or three places and the enemies' plants are scattered. I think that it would be plain common sense to scatter ours out.

K of C, Hereford Hdwe. Winners Thursday Night

The Knights of Columbus and Hereford Hardware both won their softball tilts in league play at Veterans Memorial park Thursday night.

Hereford Hardware strengthened its hold on first place by walloping Summerfield in an abbreviated five-inning affair, 15-0. The Knights of Columbus took their first league win from C & R-Jiggs by a lopsided 12-2 count in five innings.

The KC's scored in every inning of their wild and woolly win over C & R-Jiggs. They picked up two in the first, four the second, then two, three, and two more in that order. Hereford Hardware lowered the boom early in the game on Summerfield, pounding across nine runs in the initial stanza. Fourteen HH batters waltzed to the plate in this booming inning.

Summerfield held the league leaders in check for the next two innings, but the victors added three in the fourth and three in the fifth to clinch the victory.

Dub Hair, winning pitcher, limited the Summerfield bats to four singles. Hereford Hardware banged out 15 hits in the shortened attack.

Ten errors made things worse for Summerfield. The winners were guilty of only one mis-play.

The Knights of Columbus, going into the first game of the twin bill Thursday with no league victory under their belts unloaded but good on C & R-Jiggs.

The KC's picked up 12 runs on their eight hits while the losers banged out five safeties. C & R-Jiggs was plagued with 11 miscues afield.

WESTWAY NEWS

Willing Workers Missionary Met Thursday With Mrs. R. L. Wilson

By Mrs. Elmer Combs
The Willing Workers Missionary met Thursday in the home of Mrs. Roy Lee Wilson. The study for the program was "The Way to Blessedness." Mrs. Robert Boyd presided over the meeting and Mrs. Johnny Townsend was program leader. Mesdames Joe Landers, Clarence Morrison, Merlin Kaul, and Ralph Durstine of Friona were present at noon for a coverish luncheon. Others present in the afternoon were: Mesdames Robert Boyd, Joe Waggoner, Glen Williams, Della Rhodes, Kenneth Ladd, Johnny Townsend, and the hostess. The Methodist revival began Sunday morning and has continued through the week. Rev. Carrol Jones of Muleshoe is conducting the services. There were 54 present at Sunday school Sunday morning. Mrs. Robert Boyd gave her birthday offering.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Combs and Eugene and Billy Don accompanied Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Combs of Plainview to points in Colorado last Friday. The group took camping equipment and made the trip an outing. As they returned they visited with Elmer's cousin, L. D. Combs in Branson, Colo. and with his aunt, Mrs. Hugh Stevenson at Clayton, N. M. They got home Monday afternoon. Mrs. Joe Landers assisted Cliff at the store while Elmer was away.

R. M. Gunn, Nelda Guy, and Melba Gay Lawrence of Hereford were supper guests Saturday night in the W. B. Nunley home. Congratulations are in store to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rudd on the birth of their daughter, Teresa Carol. The baby was born Saturday night and weighed 6-pounds, 4-ounces.

The Sadie Lee Oliver 4-H Club girls met Thursday in the home of their leader, Mrs. Clarence Saulcy. Patsy Townsend presided over the meeting and Miss Mahaffey gave the demonstration on yeast breads. Prince Valiant

IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
by Harold R. Foster

Synopsis: SO DESPONDENT IS ARF OVER HIS SHATTERED DREAM THAT PRINCE VALIANT HAS TO TELL HIM THAT HE NEVER WOULD HAVE BECOME A GREAT WARRIOR. THEN TWO PASSENGERS BOARD THE SHIP.....

..... AND VAL MAKES HASTE TO INTRODUCE HIMSELF, FOR HERE IS SOMEONE WHO COULD EASILY MAKE A YOUNG MAN FORGET HIS TROUBLES.

"WE HAVE A LONG JOURNEY AHEAD OF US ACROSS WINTRY SEAS. PERHAPS MY YOUNG SQUIRE CAN HELP YOU WHILE AWAY THE LONELY HOURS."

ARF IS PRESENTED TO FAIR ADELE AND IMMEDIATELY BECOMES TONGUE-TIED. HE REMEMBERS THAT HIS HAIR IS UNCOMBED, HIS TUNIC RUMPLED.

VAL HAS COMMANDED THAT HE ENTERTAIN THE GIRL, SO, IN THE COURSE OF DUTY, HE READS TO HER THE ACCOUNT OF THEIR TRAVELS FROM THULE TO ROME.
"SPLENDID!" SHE CRIES, "SO ROMANTIC! IT IS LIKE AN EPIC POEM! WHO WROTE IT?"
"OH, IT'S JUST SOMETHING I DASHED OFF FOR THE KING OF THULE," HE ANSWERS MODESTLY.

IN THE DAYS HE ASPIRED TO BE A GREAT WARRIOR ARF HAD DISDAINED MUSIC. BUT NOW (STILL IN THE COURSE OF DUTY) HE FINDS IT A PLEASANT WAY TO ENTERTAIN.

HIS EVENINGS ARE SPENT COMPOSING BALLADS (ISN'T THIS CARRYING DUTY TOO FAR?) AND WRITING SONNETS FOR THE AMUSEMENT OF ONE SMALL GIRL.

THE MAGICIAN

BY LEE FALK & PHIL DAVIS

IN ALL MY YEARS ON THE BENCH, I'VE NEVER HEARD SUCH AN ABSURD ALIBI. THERE'S NO EVIDENCE. IT'S TOMMYROT!

YOU ARE THE ASTRONOMER AT THE STATE OBSERVATORY. YOU HAVE EVIDENCE TO SUPPORT HER STORY?

YES. I SAW THE SPACE SHIP THROUGH THE TELESCOPE! I PHOTOGRAPHED IT IN THE SKY.

GIRL CLAIMS MISSING COMPANIONS KIDNAPPED BY ALIEN SPACE SHIP...

1 PROMINENT MAGICIAN AND COMPANION VANISH AND CHARGES MURDER

THIS SKY PHOTO MAY MEAN SOMETHING TO AN ASTRONOMER--NOT TO ME! I SEE NOTHING BUT SPECKS!

IT WON'T MEAN ANYTHING TO A JURY, EITHER. WHAT A HOAX!

DAYS HAVE PASSED--AND MILLIONS OF MILES OUT IN COLD, BLACK SPACE--

ME GLAD US GOT WEIGHT BACK. AH --HERE COME FOOD AND WATER AGAIN--

THEY MUST HAVE TURNED ON SOME KIND OF ARTIFICIAL GRAVITY. THAT FOOD IS STRANGE, BUT GOOD. I WONDER WHERE WE'RE GOING--AND IF WE'LL EVER GET THERE?

LOTHAR--WE ARE GETTING SOMEWHERE! WE'RE APPROACHING THAT! IF I REMEMBER MY ASTRONOMY, IT LOOKS LIKE--

5 THEN, A FEATURELESS DISC IN THE SKY GROWS BIGGER AND BIGGER--IT BECOMES A MIST-SHROUDED BALL...
