Reserved seats at Whiteface field go on sale Monday, Aug. 20, Hereford High School Principal Don Martin said today. Cost of the reserved seats for the six home games is 2.50. Best seats in the house will go to those who reserve them for the season, Martin said. Anyone interested in tickets is asked to contact Martin at the high school.

S. L. Draper, partner with Aubrey Smith in the firm known as D and S Variety store, has purchased the interest of Mr. Smith and will operate the business under the name of "Draper's Variety". Draper comes to Hereford from Shamrock. He has been travelling for the Washington Mfg. company for the past 20 years. He will retire from the road now and make his home in Hereford. Draper also owns Draper's Jewelry, located in Shamrock. Smith has left Hereford to take up a new position with the Coronet stores in California.

The Hereford high school band is one of 48 high school and college bands from Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma that have been invited to appear at the Tri-State fair in Amarillo from September 24 to 29.

Murle Francis Ferris, John Orocco and Zamarippo Reyes or anyone knowing their whereabouts are asked to get in touch with Mrs. A. Peterson at the local draft board. The draft board is located at 321 Sampson Street or you may call 839.

New Features

Two new features—a weekly crossword puzzle and a column for the ladies entitled, "Beauty at Home"—appear for the first time in this issue of The Sunday Brand.

Two more special features—"How Can I?", a question and answer feature on timely household hints, and "Household Scrapbook", another household time-saver, will appear each week in the Thursday Brand, beginning August 23.

These four features have been added in line with our policy of giving readers of The Hereford Brand the best reading—both informative and entertaining possible.

Comments from readers on the four new features will be appreciated by The Brand. Your letters or cards is the only way we have of knowing whether or not these features fill our readers' demands.

Watch for the weekly crossword and "Beauty at Home" in Sunday's Brand and for "Home-maker's Scrapbook" and "How Can I?" in each weekly issue of The Hereford Brand.

Telephone Co-Op Loan is Approved

The REA in Washington this week approved the $454,000 loan application of the West Texas Rural Telephone cooperative.

Claude R. Wickard, REA administrator, confirmed the approval of the local co-op's application in a telegram this week to E. C. Reinauer, president of the local telephone cooperative's board of directors.

The telegram said a letter outlining the conditions of the approval would follow. No notice of receipt of this letter has been given as yet by the cooperative.

Next step in securing rural phone service for the tri-county area to be served by the WTRTC is the signing of the note and mortgage papers by the board of directors. Following that, the engineers will finish their detailed plans and specifications and ask for bids on materials for the system.

Bids will probably be called for within 60 days, according to cooperative officers.

Delivery of materials will be the biggest hurdle in bringing rural telephone service to members in the three-county area.

A CMP will be required for everything for the contractor on the telephone end of the construction. The project will be given a priority rating for material under existing legislation controlling new construction.

Further information on the construction and on the details and conditions surrounding the granting of the $454,000 loan to the local cooperative will be released in subsequent issues of The Brand.

Hole-in-One Sunk By Stan Barrett

Stan Barrett, one of Hereford's better new golfers joined linkedom's exclusive "hole-in-one" club while playing at the Hereford Golf club Thursday afternoon. Barrett made the "dream shot" on the 145-yard sixth hole with an eight-iron.

BARRETT AND BALL

This is the third hole-in-one made on the local course in 2½ years the club has been opened, according to Pro Jim Terry. All three have been made on the sixth hole.

Barrett accomplished the 10,000-to-1 feat while playing in a foursome with W. W. Gilbreath, Joe Butler, and J. A. Pitman. Barrett, who began golfing in 1950, carded a 34 for the nine.

Besides the glory of making the rare shot, Stan will also have a few prizes to remember the great day. The Dunlop Tire and Rubber company will mount the hole-in-one ball in a black mahogany trophy case. And, Pro Jim Terry says, Stan will receive about 10 different prizes from various sporting goods companies.

Bill Miller of Hereford made the first hole-in-one on the local course. The last hole-in-one previous to Barrett's on Thursday was sunk last summer by an Amarillo golfer.

Local Baseball Team Will Meet Muleshoe Tues.

Hereford's baseball team will take to the field after a month's layoff when they meet Muleshoe on the local diamond at 8:15 Tuesday night.

The local nine has not had a game since the middle of July, but several of the players have been keeping in condition by playing with other teams in the vicinity and getting their conditioning in the softball games, according to Manager Earl Stagner.

Loss Near Quarter-Million From Hail Storm Thursday

A staggering blow was dealt crops in an area about 30 miles square north and east of Hereford Thursday night as a 20-minute battering hailstorm inflicted damage estimated at more than $250,000 on grain sorghums, cotton, corn, lettuce, and grasses. Rains ranging from 3 inches to five inches in places and extremely heavy winds accompanied the scattered hailstorm, which hit shortly after 7 p.m.

The hail was spotty and so was the damage it inflicted. Several reported complete losses from the storm while others suffered only spotted losses and expressed the hope that some of the beaten crops will come back and produce partial yields.

This is the third straight year some of the farmers in that area have lost feed crops in similar hail storms.

Robert Veigel, who lost about 900 acres of feed on his four sections of land north of Hereford, suffered his third consecutive loss to hail on his feed crops. His 425 acres of watered maize and 475 acres of dry-land maize are almost a "total loss."

Veigel told The Brand that half his acreage was so badly beaten that stubble four inches high is all that is left.

The belt of damage followed an erratic pattern from its northern limit 10 miles north of Hereford to about six miles east of Highway 51. Most farmers who reported damage have borne out the belief that the destruction was caused by two thunder clouds as sketched in the accompanying picture.

Farmers suffering losses of either grain sorghums, cotton, corn, lettuce, or grasses, according to latest available reports, include:

Jim Loving, Luther Leslie,

Robert Veigel, Dale Kelly, Buck Parsons, Jim Neil, Red Coffin, Ira Ricketts, Dave McDonald, Irving Burdine, Horace Hershey, Tandy Legg, Ernest McGee, Rogers, Horace Vaughn, Frank Wilde, Cliff Potter, Jay Fortenberry, Sonny Brooks, Floyd McGee, W. W. Hill, Taft McGee, Walter Galley, W. M. Marnell, and Lyle Woodford.

Reported damage was also suffered on the G. D. Milner, Bob McQuinn, F. J. Walterscheid, and Frank Cullum and Burgess farms also, but no confirmation of that has been received at The Brand office.

The western limits of the hail storm seemed to be at Highway 51 or one mile west and extend east to the Lyle Woodford farm, some five miles east of Highway 51.

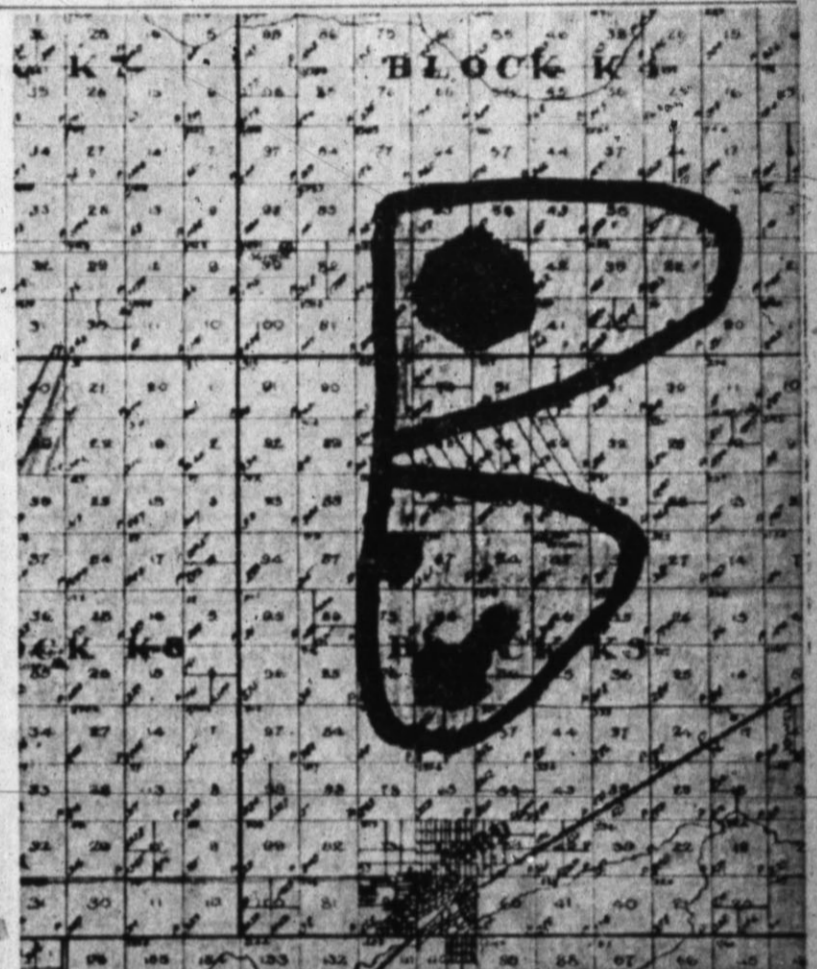

According to reports of damage, the clouds seemed to form a large "B" in their destructive path across the farmlands north of Hereford.

Some damage was reported to the extreme west of Hereford and some scattered damage also to the south, near the Castro county line.

Hail in some places in the storm area piled up as high as six and seven inches. The stones were slightly smaller than golf balls. On the Veigel place, the pasture was still a "crust of ice" as late as 9 a.m. Friday morning, according to Veigel.

Veigel also said he had about five inches of rain on his place

THIS MAP SHOWS the approximate damage areas in Thursday's hail storm, which caused an estimated quarter-million dollars in damage to Deaf Smith county crops. The dark areas are the approximate centers of heaviest damage. The scored area between the two loops of the "B" was the scene of light rain and moderate hail damage.

Father of Pat Robinson Dies In Panhandle

J. V. Robinson, Carson county farmer and elevator operator, died at 5:45 a.m. Thursday morning at his home in Panhandle. He was 63 years old.

Robinson is the father of Pat Robinson of Hereford.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the First Baptist church in Panhandle with Rev. L. F. Goodwin officiating. He was assisted by Rev. Bill Thorne, Baptist minister.

Burial was in the Panhandle cemetery under the direction of the Poston Funeral home.

Robinson was in good health on Wednesday. His death was attributed to a heart attack.

He was born March 9, 1888 in Kauffman county and attended school at Harrold. He had lived in Carson county since 1912 and until three months ago, when he moved to Panhandle, had made his home at Lark.

He was a farmer and owner of the Panhandle Grain company in Panhandle. He was connected with Pat Robinson and J. V. Robinson Jr. in farming operations at Vega at the time of his death. Robinson was married to the former Pearl Kuykendall on March 23, 1913.

Surviving besides his widow are five children: Mrs. O. D. Claude and P. H. Robinson of Mesa, Ariz.; and four sisters: Mrs. Mamie Vaughn, Waurika, Okla.; Mrs. W. A. Moresu, Olustee, Okla.; and Mrs. D. F. Luce and Mrs. Elsie Smith of Wichita Falls. (Continued on page 8)

Make Plans for 50 4-H Girls at Camp

About 50 Deaf Smith county 4-H girls are expected at an overnight camp which will be held at the clubhouse in Veterans park Friday night, Aug. 24.

The recreation committee of the 4-H Leaders council, comprised of Mrs. R. N. Cooke, Mrs. Roscoe Pinnell, and Mrs. Ira Ott, had charge of the planning of the camp.

Following the registration at 1 o'clock, Mrs. R. C. Childers will instruct the girls in textile painting. Doris Mahaffey will be in charge of outdoor games and Mrs. T. J. Parsons will have charge of the camp fire ceremony which will be planned and presented by the girls.

After a picnic supper the girls will enjoy a wildlife movie, "Realm of the Wildlife" and a 4-H movie, "Hands Across the Border". Also on the evening entertainment is an hour when the girls will play party games.

Saturday morning a flag-raising ceremony will be held before the camp disbands immediately after breakfast.

All girls and mothers who plan to attend the camp are asked to turn their names in at the Home Demonstration office before Wednesday, Aug. 22.

This camp takes the place of the educational tour of Amarillo business places, which has been held in previous years.

Walcott District's New School is Ready To Open

The Walcott school district's new four-room, $85,000 brick schoolhouse will be ready for use when the fall term opens Tuesday, Sept. 4.

Tentative plans for holding an "open house" for the new 107 x 86-foot structure, which was recently completed, have not been completed as yet.

Another problem which will have to be discussed will be the number grades to handle. As of the spring, 1951 school census, there are 50 school students in all grade levels living in the district. One of these is a seventh grade student and one is an eighth grade student.

Plans at the present time indicate quite strongly that grades one through six will be taught at Walcott with the other students in the district going to Hereford or to Rosedale, N. M.

At the present time, a total of $77,159.53 of the $85,355.19 received from the sale of the $85,000 bond issue has been spent on the building construction and purchasing some furniture. The sum of $9,195.66 remains to finish furnishing the building.

S. T. West of Memphis was awarded the general contract for the construction on July 15, 1950. His bid was $59,420. The plumbing and heating contract went to

Sampson and Company of Lubbock for $10,406. Fletcher's Electric shop of Memphis submitted

ANOTHER STEP in the farmer's never-ending bug-control battle, is shown in the above picture. Here ladybugs are being turned loose on feed on the Marlin on Ira Scott's farm five miles southeast of town. Scott and Wilbur Axe have done quite a bit of bug-control work with ladybugs, Scott having used about 10 gallons and Axe about 15 gallons of the bugs. The Axe place is three miles southeast of Hereford. Axe had used the bugs earlier in the season, turning them loose in his cotton. They "really cleaned up the cotton," according to reports. The bugs come from Phoenix where they were kept in cold storage. They are packed in pine cones, as shown in the above picture.—Ruby Carmichael Photo.

"No High Adobe" Gay, Charming Book About Spanish-Americans

Review by Corinne Jennings

Gay and charming is the book, "No High Adobe", by Dorothy L. Pillsbury, who will have no high adobe walls around her place, as advised by her friends, for fear that she might miss some of the color and pageantry of Santa Fe.

"I glory in other people's adobe walls when the snow lies along their tops, or when apple blossoms tap along their sides, or when Carmencitas and Manuelitos sit on their top most bricks and sing on the moonlight-summer nights. But I will have no walls, however charming, around my wedge of adobe soil. After all, what is privacy? Compared to the pageantry that passes through my yard, it might be a kind of a vacuum," she writes.

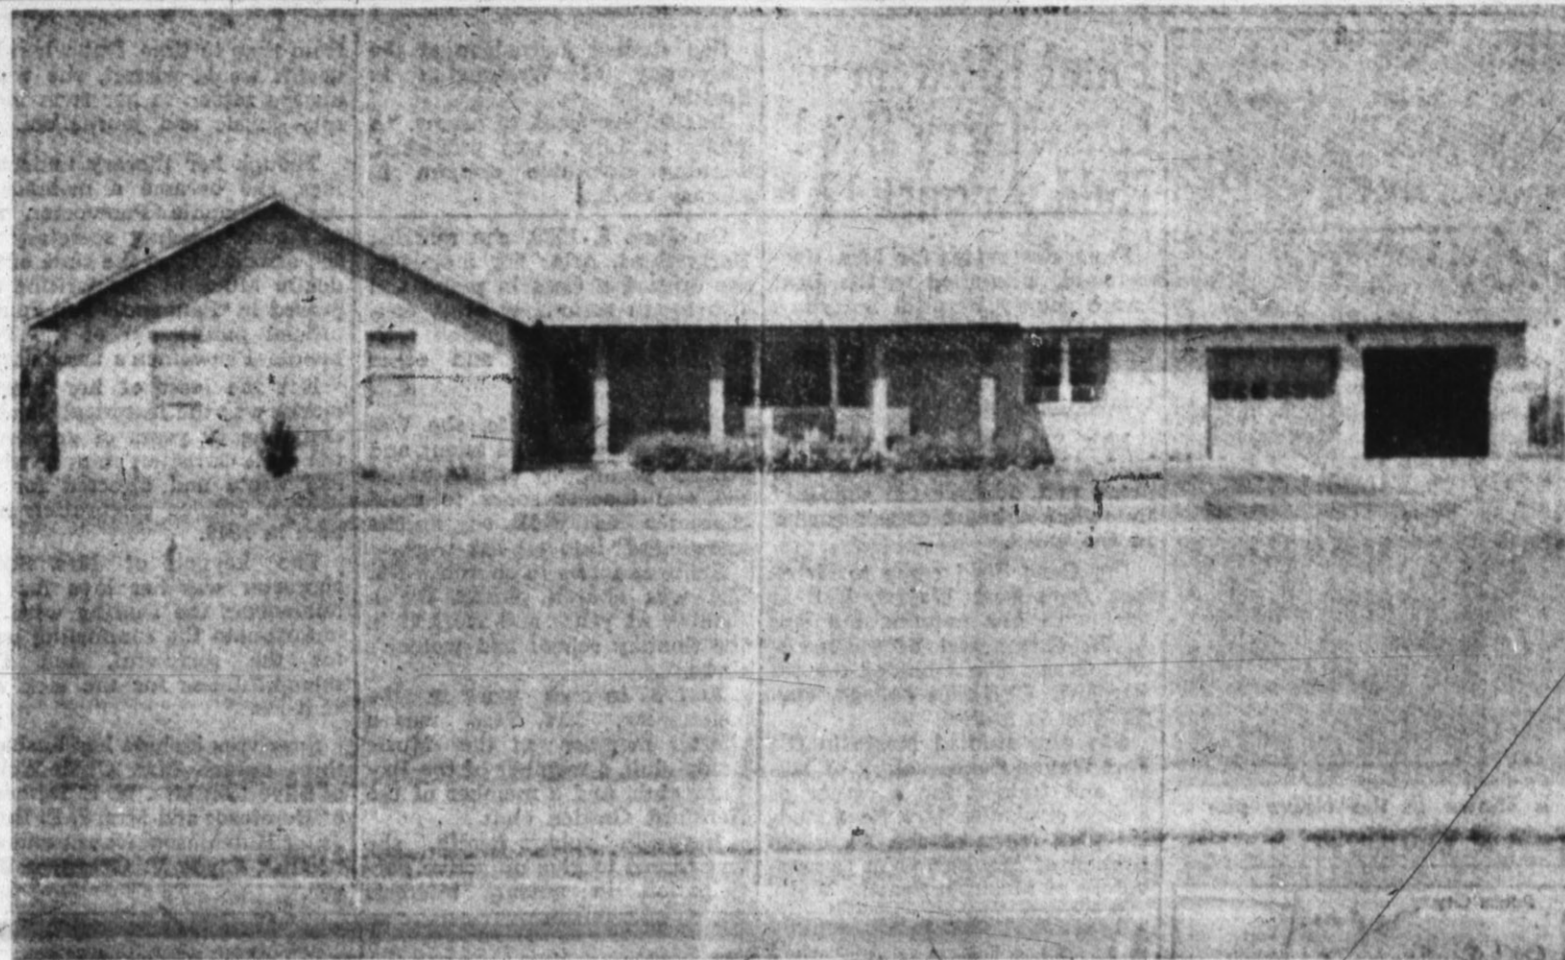

Her neighbors are Spanish-American who are, "rich in time, that almost unrealized Anglo commodity. They go about their lives at an unhurried pace. There is time for simple courtesy, for flower tending, and for baby admiring."

Their love of color and beauty is innate. Once the author met her neighbor, Mrs. Apodaca, with her apron under her arm standing in the middle of the road where she could see the sunset-daubed mountains with colors turning from rose, to deep blue then mulberry saying to all who passed, "Pretty tonight."

In their philosophy, there is no rainy day. They meet each occasion as it rises and consider such things as geraniums, sunsets, cherry-colored sweaters, pinon wood and blue-corn tortillas as "dones de Dios" - gifts of God.

Children were almost constantly skimming through her yard and it was not unusual to look up and find one at the open door or even at times looking in the window, as she found Tomaso one snowy night.

Opening the door she asked him what he wanted and he answered "Nada" - "nothing". And then he said, "I was only looking. It's so pretty - the fire and the cat and the flowers". He came in and visited and at midnight they had hot chocolate.

Mexican-style, with a dash of cinnamon. He drank three cups and ate half a dozen sandwiches and then lingered to hear her records of Spanish music.

Many little stories of her neighbors, their families, and friends, enchant the reader. Typical of them are Mrs. Apodaca's trip to Los Angeles to visit her son. Upon returning, she tells them not of the ocean, the movies, of eating in the big cafeterias, as her family had hoped she would, but she had spent all her time at Olvera street, "the street which Los Angeles has kept Spanish".

Then there is Young Abeyta, the paper-boy and finally cowboy; Cousin Canuto and his beautiful fountain from which no water came; "that Carmencita" first a sales-lady and then a follower of contests, which made it necessary for her to own a mail box; at home and then later down town to outdo her neighbors in the mail box idea.

Tenorio Flat, the site of all this, was constantly buzzing with

Naval Recruiter To Interview Officer Candidates Aug. 21

Chief Mashburn of the Navy recruiting station announces that applications for naval officers commissions, reserve and regular, will be taken August 21 at the recruiting station in the post office building.

Lt. U. E. Schaffner of the Albuquerque Navy recruiting station will be available from 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. on that date. He will interview and advise all interested persons of the various phases of commissioned service and opportunities for active duty, officer candidate schooling, etc.

Basic qualifications for appointment to a commissioned grade is possession of a college degree except: men with two years of college work are eligible for the Naval air cadet program.

Mrs. Irving Lawson of San Antonio is in Hereford to be with her sister, Mrs. Glenn Weir, who underwent surgery at Deaf Smith County hospital Monday.

Biggers Fractures Leg In Accident South of Town

A. G. Biggers of Hereford is in the Deaf Smith County Hospital with a compound fracture of his right leg following an accident Tuesday afternoon one mile south of Hereford on Highway 51.

Biggers, leg was fractured when the jeep in which he was riding was overturned after being hit by a truck which overturned the vehicle.

According to Deputy Sheriff S. B. Berry, who investigated the accident, Biggers' son, Louis, who was driving north toward town at the time, had stopped on the highway to let his father drive. A 1951 Chevrolet truck pulling a four-wheeled trailer hit the right rear end of the Jeep in pulling off the highway to the right in an attempt to miss the Biggers vehicle.

Paul Warren Johnson of Crowley was driver of the truck, which was loaded with a tractor. The four-wheeled trailer was loaded with a disc plow.

Damage to the Biggers auto was estimated by Berry at $160-$200 and at about $75 to the truck.

Biggers was the only one injured in the wreck.

Final Rites for Mrs. Harry Seed Held August 12

Funeral services for Mrs. Harry Seed, who died in the Deaf Smith county hospital Saturday, Aug. 11, were held in the First Christian church on Sunday, Aug. 12 at 4 p.m. with Roy Ford conducting the rites.

Mrs. Seed had been suffering with a heart ailment for several years and death came suddenly following a heart attack earlier in the week.

Ina Greg Seed came to Hereford from Fort Wayne, Ind. in 1907 with her parents, the late A. W. Gregg and Effie Cromwell Gregg. She attended the old Hereford Christian college, specializing in music.

She also studied music in the Fort Wayne Conservatory of Music and trained for a career as a concert pianist. Mrs. Seed studied pipe organ at the American Branch of the European Conservatory of Music in Seattle, Wash.

She studied journalism at the University of Washington in Seattle.

In 1923, her book of poems, "A Whiff of Life", was published, winning favorable acclaim in literary circles.

On June 5, 1929, she married Harry Seed. After her marriage, she opened a class in piano and also began serious writing, confining herself to magazine articles, short stories, and other prose.

Throughout her life, she was an artist of recognized talent, and put her philosophy of life, "That the real teacher seeks to mold character as well as impart knowledge" into all her work.

She was active in church work. She was church pianist for a number of years and worked in the Sunday school and women's division.

Active in club work in the community, Mrs. Seed was a charter member of the Music Study club, a member of the Bay View club, and a member of the Hereford Garden club.

Never in robust health, she was forced to give up active participation in outside interests from time to time. But when her health would permit, she would always return to her twin interests—music and journalism.

Though her literary undertakings, she became a member of the Panhandle Penwomen and was corresponding secretary for the association at the time of her death. Much of her writing appeared in "Panhandle Pen Points" official publication of the Panhandle Penwomen's association.

Not the least of her literary works was the historical pageant depicting 50 years of growth in the local Christian church, which she wrote and directed for the Golden Jubilee celebration held here in 1949.

The keynote of Mrs. Seed's character was her love for her fellowmen, the sharing with the unfortunate the comforting word for the sorrowful, and the thoughtfulness for the sick and shut-ins.

Survivors include her husband, three sisters—Mrs. Clyde Wright of Silverton; Mrs. W. E. Dameron of Hereford; and Mrs. J. E. Beyer Jr. of Hutchinson, Kans.; and one brother, Clyde V. Gregg of Borger.

Pallbearers at the final rites Sunday were A. M. Thompson, Earl Phillips, Will Harris, Ellis Combes, Glenn Blue, and A. Peterson.

Wa Ki Ta Girls Met Tuesday

The Wa Ki Ta Camp Fire girls met Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Camp Fire Hut. After a short business meeting the group went to the swimming pool for a swimming party.

Those present were: Lynell Best, Jane Bookout, JoAnn Cupbell, Linda Hair, Carolyn Harper, Virginia Isbell, Melba Gay

Lawrence, Mary Lynn Morrison, Linda Kay Noland, Betty Paetzold, Dolly Paetzold, Nona Marie Strange, Donna Witherspoon, and two guests, Margaret Boomer and Linda Russell.

The next meeting will be at the Camp Fire hut Tuesday, Aug. 21 at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. S. L. Easley spent Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in Henrietta visiting old friends. She met her sister, Mrs. Sidney Bennett, Germaine Bennett of Jesup, Ga. there and they came home with her to spend some time.

Mrs. Norman Whisenand made a business trip to Canyon Wednesday.

DROUGHT CONDITIONS equalling any previously experienced threaten Texas, U. S. Geological Survey says in its monthly Water Resources Review. The Guadalupe river at Spring Branch dropped 4.7 cubic feet per second in July compared with a record low of 2.2 cubic feet per second in 1939; at New Braunfels the river was the lowest since the station was established in 1928. The Nueces river below Uvalde was dry most of July, and the North Concho river in West Texas was practically dry all of July. There was insufficient runoff in the lower Brazos river for irrigation. Irrigation was curtailed on the lower Nueces river. Ground-water levels continued to decline heavily in the heavily pumped Houston and El Paso areas and in the water-table and water bearing strata of Travis county. A new July low was observed in the key artesian well near Buna. (AP Map)

Mrs. Clarence Strange Fetes Two Daughters

Mrs. Clarence Strange honored her daughters, Nona Marie, and Rosa Lee, with a birthday party at their home Thursday afternoon.

After playing outdoor games the group was served cake and soda-pop.

Those attending were: Linda and Connie Renfro, Alice June and Charles Neal Callaway, Gail, Ginger, Freddie, and Gerald Long, Virginia and Linda Witherspoon, Billy and Judy Edelman, Jeanette Rayburn, Verna Dean Brown, Betty Hagar, Jane and Johnny Pool, Edith Ann Hager, Gay and Agatha Malone. Mrs. Claude Edelman, Mrs. J. News in the Texas Panhandle.

M. Edelman, Mrs. Nettie Megert, Mary Ruth, James, Virgil, and Robert Earl Strange.

Former Vega Publisher To West Virginia

Karl Broadley, editor of The Portales Tribune since January 1 of this year, is leaving today for Huntington, West Virginia, where he will serve as announcer and newscaster at WHTA, 53,000-watt FM radio station.

Previous to his arrival in Portales, Broadley was business manager of the American-Leader at Tucumcari. Three years previous he had been publisher of the Vega Enterprise and Higgins News in the Texas Panhandle.

Mrs. DeShazo, Father Meet for First Time During Visit Here

Mrs. Earl DeShazo of Hereford met her father for the first time in her 30 years Thursday of this week.

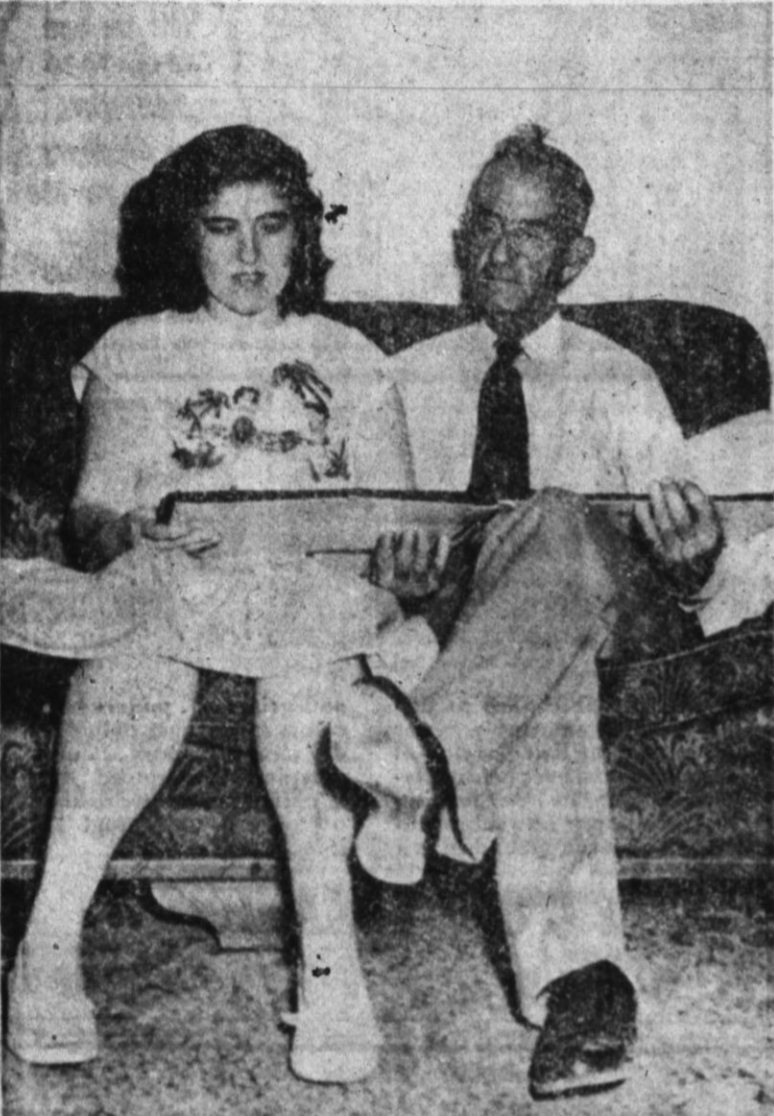

Her father, W. S. Boatman, came to Hereford in answer to a letter she wrote him about two weeks ago.

The two had never been in contact with each other, but Mrs. DeShazo knew her father lived in the vicinity of Sluanna, Texas, so she addressed a letter to him there. A son received the letter and he took it to Boatman, who lives in nearby Lermott, Texas.

Mrs. DeShazo's mother and father separated before she was born and she had never seen her father.

Boatman visited his daughter and her family Thursday evening, Friday, and left Saturday morning.

MRS. EARL DESHAZO and her father, W. S. Boatman, met for the first time in Hereford Thursday when Boatman came to visit his daughter. They are shown here looking through a family photograph album.—Brand Staff Photo.

Hereford Girls Play Amarillo, Lose by Four

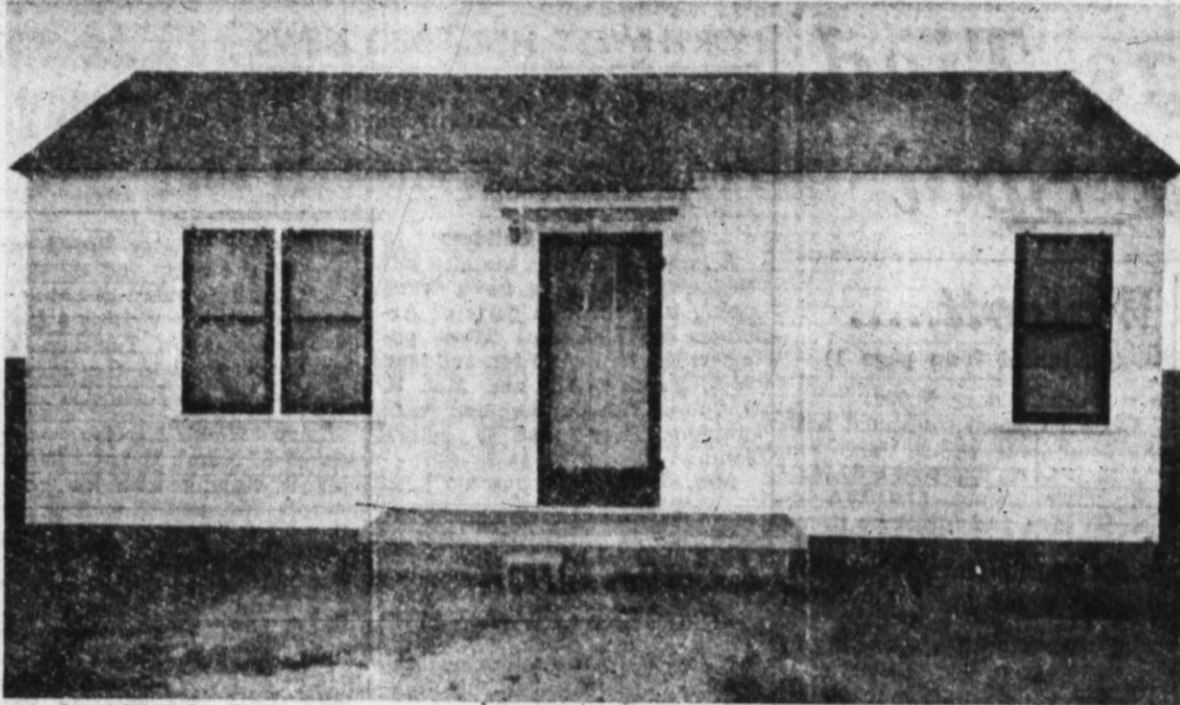

The Hereford Ramblers girls' softball team lost to the General Office Supply nine of Amarillo Thursday at Thompson park in Amarillo by a 10-6 count.

Hereford was held down to a one run game until the fag end of the seventh when they boomed across five more tallies.

Amarillo started off their half of the first with a three-run barrage and added five more in the fourth. They salted away the victory with a single run in the fifth and a loner in the seventh.

Betty Holland went the route for the local girls' nine, Doris Witherspoon handled the back-stopping chores.

Amarillo sent Nesbitt to the hill with Bradford behind the plate.

WALCOTT'S NEW teacherage is shown above. The four-room house, which cost approximately $4000, will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harvey.—Brand Staff Photo.

West Texas Cotton Farmers To Discuss Mutual Labor Problems

ABILENE—With dry condition steadily worsening West Texas cotton farmers' labor problem is going to become even more acute, George Logan, agriculture and livestock director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce said today as plans progressed for conducting three farm labor conferences in that region.

How to obtain Mexican nationals for gathering the cotton crop as well as how to keep them will be discussed by officials of several agencies figuring in the labor supply picture, Logan said.

Conferences will be held at the Kemp hotel, Wichita Falls, Tuesday, Aug. 28; at the Settles hotel, Big Spring, Thursday, Aug. 30; and at the Lubbock hotel, Lubbock, Friday, Aug. 31.

Sponsors of the conferences are the chambers of commerce of the three cities, the Texas Cotton Ginners' association, and the WTCC.

Logan said West Texas is liable to be faced with the same situation reported from South Texas. Migratory farm labor crews are stopping in South Texas very briefly and moving on to central and northwest Texas where the cotton crop is not so retarded by drought. Dry conditions that continue to lessen probable cotton production in West Texas may create this same problem in that region, he pointed out.

Mrs. Matt McCall, manager of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce, will relate in these conferences how Dawson county got off the Mexican government's "blacklist" with cooperation of that government itself. Measures that were taken to satisfy the Mexican officials where there would be no discrimination against its nationals will be described by her.

The farm placement department of the Texas Employment Commission will be represented by a speaker in each city, Harry LeBlanc, chairman of that division, has informed Logan, who is acting as coordinator.

Efrain G. Dominguez of San Antonio, acting consul general of Mexico, notified the WTCC that he was requesting the Mexican foreign office to have its Dallas consul represent that nation.

W. B. McFarland of Dallas, regional farm placement representative of the U.S. Department of Labor, has accepted an invitation to discuss wage scales applicable to farm laborers.

P. S. Riley, supervisor of the Fort Worth field office of the wage and hour and public contracts division of the Department of Labor, will discuss employment of children in agriculture while school is in session.

S. N. Reed of O'Brien, vice-president of the Texas Cotton

Ginners Association, Robert M. Fielder, of Abilene, chairman of the WTCC agriculture committee, and Frank H. Kelly of Colorado City, chairman of the WTCC taxation and legislation committee, will act as presiding officers for the meetings.

A. C. Johnson Fined On Hot Check Charge

A. C. Johnson pled guilty in county court on August 15 to a charge of swindling with a worthless check, which was filed against him on August 15.

County Judge L. H. Foster fined Johnson $25 plus costs of $28.30. Johnson was charged with passing a worthless check for $8 on April 2.

Jerry Don Lance Returns Home On Saturday

Jerry Don Lance, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lance Sr. of Summerfield was transferred from Baylor hospital in Dallas to the Deaf Smith county hospital Saturday.

Lyle Blanton and a nurse from Deaf Smith county hospital flew to Dallas for him Friday and made the return trip Saturday morning.

Jerry Don, who suffered a serious brain injury when he fell from a tree at the family home July 17, regained consciousness last week. Since that time he has shown definite improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Lance, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Waiser, and Mrs. C. R. Waiser who have been in Dallas with him since July 17 returned to Hereford by car Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Joe Kendall returned Friday afternoon in order to make arrangements for the transfer Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Schioco and children of Spearman visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stubing over the Aug. 12 weekend.

Shown is HONEYBUN, jewel neck pullover topped with the perstest jerkin... each in sizes 32-40 and each $8.95. Knitted Skirt, sizes 10-18, $11.95. Sox, pure spun Nylon, 9-11, $1.15 pr.

The Gehl Row-Crop Attachment is a single unit... power driven. Has patented spiral gatherers (instead of chains). Really gets tangled and lodged corn. No annoying break-downs, and less tendency to knock off ears. All gears enclosed and running in oil.

Engine Drive or Power Take - Off Drive
The Main Unit consists of the cutter, feed rollers, wheels and draw bar. On this can be mounted any of the necessary attachments and either a power take-off or motor. The Engine Drive. The guard has been removed here to show the VEE-BELT DRIVE. The single heavy vee-belt avoids the trouble with uneven stretch sometimes encountered with multiple vee-belt drives. There is a throw-out lever for the clutch and a speed reducer to bring the drive pulley speed down to the correct rate and to change the direction of rotation. You can see the trailer-hitch projecting at the rear. The Power Take-off Drive is mounted on the platform which would otherwise receive the engine. It runs in ball bearings, has a telescoping section for adjustment of length. An over-running or free-wheeling clutch allows the flywheel to run off its momentum when the power stops. It has high grade universal joints and is equipped with 1 3/8" spline connection which fits most tractors. For other size tractor connections use an adapter. The size of the tractor, when using the power take-off, should be one capable of pulling a two 12"-bottom plow, providing the wagon is driven alongside. A larger two-plow tractor will pull it with the wagon trailing. However in both of these cases, the tractor limits the capacity of the machine. For full capacity we recommend a three-plow tractor.

Dawn, C & R-Jiggs Tied For Loop's Second Spot

Hereford Hardware dumped Dawn into a tie for second place with C & R-Jiggs in the Hereford softball league by downing Dawn Friday night, 8-4.

Magnolia knocked the KC's out by a home run in the curtain-raiser Friday night, 9-8. Both games were replays from the rained-out schedule on Thursday night.

In the first game, Magnolia got nine runs on 12 hits and committed no bobbles. Malicoat and Towns formed the battery for the victors.

The Knight of Columbus, in dropping their 12 of the season, picked up eight runs on 14 hits. They were guilty of a lone miscue. Kenny Walterscheid and Noggle were battery-mates for the KC's.

Hereford Hardware picked up nine hits for their eight runs. They committed three errors. Dawn banged seven hits off Dub Hair and they committed seven miscues afield.

Hair and Howard went the route for Hereford Hardware and W. Lemon and McBroom shared Dawn mound chores with E. Lemon behind the plate throughout the game.

Other expenses connected with the bond issue include: architect (O. R. Walker, Lubbock), $4,189.56; miscellaneous, $1,270.87, legal, $1872.50 and furniture (some desks purchased from the Hereford schools), $100.

Supplies are being purchased from day-to-day and have not been contracted for, according to County Judge, L. H. Foster.

There are four class rooms in the building, each approximately 30x22-feet, a long corridor adjoins the rooms and leads to the cafeteria, which is slightly more than 28x39-feet.

The kitchen is on the west side of the building. There is a 13x8-foot stage at the east end of the cafeteria.

Steam heat is furnished for the building, which faces east on the newly-constructed Bootleg farm-to-market road.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harvey are the teachers at Walcott. They have been furnished with a four-room house on the school property.

Cost of the house was approximately $4,000.

The bond issue was approved by voters in the Walcott district last year. Purchasers of the bonds were Furr Southwest company of Dallas and William N. Edwards and company of Fort Worth, County Judge Foster said.

Group of Residents Left Wednesday For Arkansas, Missouri Tour

By Mrs. R. C. Childers

A group from this vicinity left Wednesday morning for a sight-seeing tour through parts of Arkansas and Missouri. Those going on the trip were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Cooke, Jim Barclay, and R. C. Childers. They plan to return Sunday.

Mrs. R. N. Cooke was too busy to read her Sunday Brand as it came on the route and she didn't get it until Monday morning, so she read it while visiting a friend in Ft. Worth on Tuesday. The Brand was read in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Finley.

Larry Curtis Barclay, young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Barclay is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Barclay, while his parents are away.

Mrs. A. H. Inman of Plainview is spending the week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Johnson. Lula Mae Harris, from the Tipton Orphan home, is visiting in the R. C. Childers home this week. Lula Mae visits in Hereford each summer. She is supported by the Hereford Church of Christ.

Mrs. R. N. Cooke, Sue and Carolyn and Mrs. R. C. Childers and Patsy returned from a trip to Houston Tuesday, where Mrs. Cooke took Carolyn for an examination, August 9. The group combined business and pleasure, and visited many pleasure resorts, including the San Jacinto battlegrounds and the San Jacinto monument. They also went through the tunnel that has just recently been completed under the San Jacinto river. On the trip to Houston, the group visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Finley in Ft. Worth. The Finleys are former residents of this community.

The group returned by way of Wichita Falls Tex. where Mrs. Childers visited her aunt, Mrs. Pete West, and by way of Hobart Okla., where they visited a friend of the Cookes, Mrs. Loyd Watson. Mrs. Watson entertained with a Canasta party.

While in Houston Mrs. Childers and Patsy visited her husband's relatives in Baytown and Mont Belvieu. Mrs. Cooke, Sue, and Carolyn also visited relatives at Stowell and Beaumont.

The report from the doctors in the Anderson Clinic reported Carolyn's condition good and she does not have to report back until January of next year.

Mrs. Jack Renfro's mother from Sherman is visiting in the Renfro home this week.

Mrs. Dora Smith is visiting in the S. J. Barclay home this week. She is Mrs. Barclay's mother, and has recently been visiting a son in Sayer, Okla.

Looking Ahead to College Days

A gay round of excitement fills the college-bound girl's days as wardrobes are checked, new clothes are being planned, and final preparations are being made for departure to schools of their choice. The Brand photographer caught a group of girls, who are going away to school for the first time, in a modeling mood. All are 1951 graduates of Hereford high school.

HELEN MARKHAM, above, has chosen a gray wool jersey for one of her first college functions. Permanent pleats mark both the waist and full skirt. She plans to vary accessories, green or black, or maybe with red. She is trying on a jaunty little hat for size. Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Markham and is employed at The Hereford Brand. She will major in primary education at West Texas State college, Canyon. Brand Staff Photo.

GERRY PATTERSON, right, wears a beige tailored suit with brown accessories. Her gloves, purse, and shoes match her brown velvet hat. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Patterson. She will attend Abilene Christian college this year and plans to major in speech. —Brand Staff Photo.

PATSY WILSHIRE is shown above in campus sport clothes. She is wearing a purple skirt and weskit with a purple and lime plaid blouse. Black and white saddle oxfords complete her costume. Patsy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Wiltshire, was valedictorian of her class and won highest honors, having her name placed on the Hereford high school permanent honor scroll. She will enroll at Texas Technological college, Lubbock, for the fall and winter term in September, majoring in home economics. —Brand Staff Photo.

E. W. Hobsons Observe 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hobson celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at a dinner given for eight at Hotel Jim Hill Saturday evening.

The table was centered with a low silver bowl filled with pink carnations and fern, from which extended silver-toned ribbon attached to place cards at each guest's place. The silver anniversary theme was repeated in other appointments.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gault, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Minshall, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Dickey, and the hosts.

Come to Hereford in 1948 Mr. and Mrs. Hobson were married at Buhl, Idaho in August 1926. She was teaching in the public schools there and he was engaged in the automobile business. In 1927 they moved to Boise, where he owned and operated a business until moving to Hereford in 1948. Last fall they purchased a farm near Summerfield and are improving and operating the farm.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hobson are active in the work of the Methodist church. She is a member of the Lone Star Study club and a past president of the Garden Beautiful club.

After the dinner at the hotel Saturday evening, the group was entertained informally at the host home when the celebrants were presented with a piece of silver to match their pattern.

Two Hereford Students Among H-SU Graduates

Two Hereford students, Mrs. Virgil Young and L. B. Russell, are among the 249 summer graduates of Hardin-Simmons university.

Mrs. Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louie LeGrand, will receive her bachelor of arts degree and Russell, son of Mrs. W. H. Russell, will receive his master of education.

Both students are graduates of Hereford high school and Russell received his bachelor of science degree from Hardin-Simmons in 1940.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wagoner and children returned this week from Kansas City, Mo. and Nebraska where they visited relatives. While in Kansas City they saw many sights of the flooded area although none of their relatives were in the flooded area.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tinnin and Dalene visited in Falls last week with Mrs. O. M. Tinnin, Mrs. Emmett Lynch, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tinnin. Dalene remained for a short visit.

Hereford Garden Club Preparing Plans for Season's Activities

Plans for the opening of the coming season of the Hereford Garden Club are well under way, Mrs. Ralph McCullough, president, said this week.

First business meeting with new officials in charge, was held Monday morning with Mrs. McCullough as hostess. Committee appointments have been completed and a schedule worked out for regular meetings during the club season and assignments have been made.

Plans were advanced to the decision stage Monday as projects for the coming year were discussed. Members of the club voted to participate in the proposed building of a club house and at such time as the building is completed, to assist in landscaping the grounds.

Decision was reached on an extension program whereby the club will provide informed speakers and qualified judges for both local clubs and those in this district, upon request.

A new feature of the club, which undoubtedly will meet with approval by civic leaders, will be sponsored this fall. Members of the club voted to present weekly arrangements of flowers to Deaf Smith County hospital. The mayor's office and offices of the Chamber of Commerce.

The annual Flower Show, scheduled for May, will be streamlined for better showing of exhibits with uniform containers. Until this year, containers were arranged by exhibitors in conformance to the arrangement which practice will be kept in mind the coming year but the uniformity in containers will play up the flowers and play down the container to give the arrangement itself more individuality.

An expanded study of plants will be featured in the 1951-52 season. The group voted Monday for a specialized study of unusual plants program with each member developing some unusual plant suited to this area.

New books are ready for distribution at the first fall meeting scheduled for September Seventh.

Judy McGee Is Nine Years Old

Judy McGee was honored Wednesday afternoon at a birthday party given by her mother, Mrs. Taft McGee. Games on the lawn were enjoyed and refreshments were served to: Martha Sue Wiltshire, Judy Kay Wiltshire, Shelia Williams, Charlotte Williams, Helen Edwards, Nancy Edwards, Jan Susan Reese, Sonya McGee, Karne, Randel, Sylvia and Dwight McGee, Lois Chrisman, Sara Ann Hudspeth, Twila Springer, and the honoree.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Morgan are announcing the arrival of a new granddaughter, Martha Anne. The new arrival is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Morgan of Snyder, Okla.

Real Happiness May Be Found in Work, Mrs. Merlin Kaul Believes

(Ed. Note: This is one of several articles being written about the presidents of various clubs of the city.)

Mrs. Merlin Kaul believes people can find happiness in any task that will benefit others, provided that whole-hearted devotion to its interests is given. And she is successful in carrying out her philosophy, for she has taken the leadership in both community and church interests—even to filling the pulpit at times in the Westway community where the Kauls make their home.

While she was growing up in Fairfax, Mo., and later in Sabetha, Kansas, she wanted to be a missionary. But plans failed to materialize so she decided to fit herself for a teacher. She attended the University of Southern California, Kansas university and Emporia Teachers college. She married Merlin Kaul in 1934 and came as a bride to Hereford that same year. They harvested the crop that summer and returned to Kansas for the winter.

After harvesting the next summer's crop here, they went to Winter Park, Colo. and it was there she resumed her teaching profession. She had taught eleven years in Kansas. Her great interest in people has kept her at some constructive activity where ever she has lived. She taught one year at Westway and for the past five years she has been a member of Central school faculty in Hereford.

Elected president of the Child Study club last spring, Mrs. Kaul will begin her term of office when the club re-assembles in September.

When asked how she would meet the many demands on her time she said, "I suppose teaching is my calling. It's the nearest thing to being a missionary. I like to work with people and I would be lost without some definite interest in people aside from the school room."

"It takes a good deal of praying to be a good leader. I found that out when I began working with the Westway church. I've studied the Bible all my life and they needed Bible students and people who could lead in prayer, and the harder we prayed the more help we seemed to get. I am not sure but that the same kind of prayer isn't needed for the teacher and the club leader."

Actually the key to Mrs. Kaul's success in accomplishing impossible jobs is that she has what it takes—she knows how to like people and how to make them like her.

At Westway, she has been pianist for the Methodist church and Sunday school, for revivals, whether in the Methodist or Baptist church, has taught a class continuously with the exception of one year when her son was a baby, and has helped with plans in all phases of community life. Showers for brides, singings, recreational activities, she was never too busy to assist, and in 1939 she directed a play staged by the community. Now she is compiling a history of the community and its growth.

Soon after she came to Hereford, she began teaching music and has kept up with her study. She also began writing the Westway news for The Hereford Brand. Lately, she has mastered the art of photography and has been taking her own pictures for her stories.

During her first years in the Panhandle she served as assistant in the Home Demonstration club office and she took the farm census in 1945. She has served as chairman of the Home Demonstration Club Council and president of the Westway H. D. club. She also served as president of the Child Study club one previous year.

Recently she was director for the Westway Vacation Bible school which turned out to be one of the largest in the vicinity with 90 youngsters enrolled.

Collecting handkerchiefs from foreign countries and from different states seems to bring her personal pleasure and her latest hobby is collecting different varieties of geraniums.

She is an efficient homemaker and never fails to devote sufficient time to her husband and two sons. She is ambitious for the boys and remarked, "I'll admit that for a long time I thought I would like to go back to Sabetha. All our people live there and some years have been pretty bleak here, but there have been many changes here and we have put down so many roots, I wouldn't want to go back now."

"With the modernity of farm life today and with the possibilities for crops on our 320-acre irrigated farm, I'll choose to stay there, for the boys love it too." Most people would agree that all these activities would leave little or no time for completing her studies toward a degree. But not so for Mrs. Kaul. For the past three years, she has attended summer sessions at West Texas State college, Canyon, and has attended Amarillo Center night sessions in the winter. She has also completed a correspondence course at W. T.

On August 24 she will receive her B. S. degree at W. T. with several hours to spare on her masters. She expects to keep on teaching and will continue studying. She has served as chairman of the primary division in the Panhandle Teachers Association Meet on several occasions.

Child Study Club The Child Study club was organized in 1937 for the study and betterment of parents and children. During the intervening years, the club programs have dealt with the family life at

Variations in Preparation Of Summer Vegetables

Fashion may change from season to season, but where cookery is concerned a certain changelessness becomes pleasing. Each summer we eat with happy appetites the same hot-weather foods, the variation in preparation making the same old foods seen attractive.

The time is right, in view of the bounty of vegetables from summer gardens, to get the most in vitamins. A single well-chosen food will give you a lavish daily supply of Vitamin A, and nutrition experts have stressed the fact that yellow color in fruits and vegetables is a good indication of Vitamin A—the deeper the yellow the richer in the A Vitamin.

You can't go wrong with summer squash but sometimes it requires a bit of ingenuity to get the family to eat it. A recipe Mrs. Mont Baker has been using this summer calls for soaking the squash in sweet milk for an hour or more. Whether that turns the trick or not—the finished product is unusual and delicious. Here is her recipe:

French-Fried Squash

Select fresh yellow squash, wash well and scrape off all hard or rough places. Slice crosswise, cover with cold milk and allow to stand for an hour or more. Remove from milk, season with salt and pepper, roll in flour and fry in deep fat. Drain on brown paper and serve hot.

Stuffed Summer Squash

Most housewives like to stuff peppers for they are favored by the whole family, but this excellent method of preparing vegetables may be applied to many vegetables—such as carrots, egg plant, onions, cabbage and others even the turnip. These dishes are good for lunch and if enough meat is added, they are sufficiently substantial for dinner. Try stuffing some summer squash while the home-grown variety is available.

4 or 5 small or medium squash
1 small crushed onion
½ lb. ground beef, sausage, or left over meat (ground)
2 cups cornbread crumbs
½ cup milk
1 large or 2 small tomatoes (chopped)
½ cup fresh corn or whole kernel corn
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup grated cheese
1 tablespoon flour.

Boil squash in water until almost tender and drain. Cut a slice from top of each and remove pulp. Chop pulp and top slice.

Cook the meat and the onion in melted butter until browned, stirring often. Remove from skillet pouring off all but 2 tablespoons of fat from frying pan. Blend the tablespoon of flour with fat, stirring until slightly brown, and add milk allowing to cook until thickened. Mix all the ingredients together including squash pulp. Mix with this sauce and add salt and pepper to taste.

Fill squash cases with this mixture, top with bacon drippings or butter and bake in moderate oven until brown.

Beauty at Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. What are some good, practical hints for encouraging eye beauty?

A. Wash the eyes morning and night with an eye lotion. Use two eye cups. Place these over your eyes, throw your head back and open your eyes, and roll them. This cleanses them wonderfully. For tired eyes, use eye pads steeped in warm milk or water, lie down, and relax.

Q. How should rouge be applied to the long, slender type of face?

A. Widen the face under the eyes by blending your rouge out towards the ears. Deepen the rouge just about even with the ear lobes. This gives an illusion of width where it is needed.

Q. Is it really harmful to cut the cuticle on the fingernails?

A. Yes, this causes the cuticle to become ragged and rough, and encourages hangnails. The cuticle should be pushed back with an orange stick, and the excess removed with cuticle remover.

Q. What can be done for skin that hangs loosely after a weight loss?

A. Bathe it frequently with a sponge dipped in cold water, or wrap the parts with cold compresses. Or, apply this astringent cream every morning and night: Glycerine, 5 ounces; mutton tallow, one pound; tincture of benzoin, 2 drams; spirits of camphor, 1 dram; powdered alum, 1/2 dram orange flower water, 2 ounces; Russian isinglass, 1 dram.

Q. What is good for whitening and softening the hands?

A. A mixture of one ounce glycerine, three ounces bayrum, and 1/2 dram bergamot. Rubbing with alcohol is good, too.

Q. How is the square type of face best made up?

A. Taper the eyebrows off toward the ends, and place the rouge high on the cheekbones and blend it into the lower circles of the eyes. Dress the hair back and away from the temples, close to the sides of the head.

Q. What is an effective treatment for painful sunburn?

A. Mix two parts lime water with one part linseed oil. Beat to the consistency of cream and apply at regular intervals.

Q. What is a good way, after the shampoo, to determine whether the hair is entirely free of soap?

A. Grasp a lock of hair between thumb and forefinger and pull on it. If a tiny squeaking sound results, the hair is clean and free of soap.

Q. How can whiteheads be removed from the skin?

A. Try applying a thick paste of fuller's earth and witch hazel. Wrap some gauze over the face home and abroad. Problems of the pre-school age child, the teen-ager have been studied as well as some of the parent's responsibilities—and what to do about them. The upbuilding of the community has also been given special attention in the club program.

In 1946 the club sponsored the organization of the El Nino Study club—a child study club for young mothers.

This year the club will continue the study of child psychology but will follow a different form of program. Using an authorized program service, monthly programs will be received for individual members to present. These programs have been worked out by educators and will deal with different ages and phases of child life. The usual programs dealing with social and welfare activities will be included, also films and some book reviews.

Wyche Community Annual Picnic Held Thursday

The annual get-together celebration of the Wyche Community was held at the Nollie Elliston farm Thursday night with about 150 present. The crowd was smaller on account of showers just before meeting time.

The program consisted of a sumptuous supper with everything that the country affords and moving pictures of game wild life shown by Henry Herten of Amarillo.

Curtis Traweek welcomed the visitors and introduced Mr. Herten. Mrs. Troyce Carmichael announced the supper and invited all to partake. Mrs. Scarth presided at the guest register.

Distinguished guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Nixon from Derby, England who are here visiting their daughter, Mrs. L. C. Hewett.

Class Entertained

Mary Elizabeth class of the First Baptist church held its regular business and social meeting for the month in the home of Mrs. Abe Martin Thursday morning. Mrs. W. E. Landrum was co-hostess.

Mrs. Ralph McCullough, vice-president, presided and gave the closing prayer.

Mrs. Willard Scarth gave the scripture lesson and members discussed favorite recreation activities of their families. Refreshments were served to Mesdames Willard Scarth, Ralph McCullough, O. H. Herring, Elwyn Hutchinson, W. E. Landrum and Abe Martin.

Dolores Gilliland of Santa Barbara, Calif. is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Gilliland.

Who's Back

Of Public Service ?

... 15,000 men and women from all occupations and all parts of the nation are back of Public Service. These 15,000 stockholder-owners are a typical cross section of America, for they represent all kinds of incomes, all kinds of people.

Besides these 15,000 direct owners, this company has many, many thousands of indirect owners, folks whose bank or insurance savings have been reinvested in our securities, thus earning interest or dividends on those savings.

And the story of who's back of YOUR Public Service Company is the same for every one of the nation's business-managed, tax-paying electric light and power companies. These companies have over 100,000,000 direct and indirect owners. These companies, owned by the people, work FOR the people.

No socialistic system for providing electric service can equal the dependability of business-managed, tax-paying light and power companies, nor match their record for providing a safe means for earning interest and dividends on the savings of 100,000,000 Americans.

Hereford Welcomes VFW Members, Auxiliary

Welcome, Veterans of Foreign Wars encampment delegates!

The Brand takes this opportunity to welcome each and every VFW member and VFW Auxiliary member as they prepare to open another annual District 13 Encampment at Hotel Jim Hill.

The people of this fine community extend a cordial welcome to the men and women from 14 towns over the Panhandle as they meet here to lay plans for another year's activities of their organization.

It is our privilege to be hosts to you veterans who are helping through your organized efforts—to forward those ideals which you helped preserve on the battlefields across the face of the globe.

We are watching veterans' organizations such as yours. Not only here, but throughout the entire nation. For, from your midst has come—and will come even more in the future—this nation's leaders in our various seats of government.

We know it is young men with a purpose—the type that form the backbone of the VFW—who will keep America conscious of her role as leader of a world struggling against Communism.

You men are among the many who know the futility of war, who know the needs of the world, who know the value of a world-wide "good neighbor" policy first-hand.

Your encampment in Hereford is not a detached gathering seeking to set the policies of your district of Texas. It is the voice of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of America from the grass roots.

What you do here is as important as any decisions made at a national convention, for your actions reflect the sincerity of the thousands of war veterans banded together under The Cross of Malta.

Again, Hereford welcomes you during your short stay here. We are pleased to be chosen as the site for your 1951 District Encampment, and hope you return individually and as a group very soon.

SUNDAY'S CURRENT QUESTION Mixed Reaction on Question of British Trade With Russians

The British government has told the American government that it is impossible for her to cease trade relations with the Soviets from an economic standpoint. In your opinion, should we honor Britain's decision or seek other ways to make her break off trade relations with the Russians?

JERRY ALBRACHT—Personally, I think that Britain is right. I think that the United States should honor Britain's decision.

TROY DANIELS—I think that if Britain isn't smart enough to break off trade relations with the Russians that we should do something about it. Since we are indirectly at war with the Russians, we should find some way to make Britain break off trade with them.

T. E. SEIGLER JR.—I think that we ought to find a way to make her break the relations since we are going to keep her up financially anyway.

H. E. MILLER—Britain needs the trade pretty bad so I hardly know what to say. In fact I think we are still trading with Russia in a round-about way. We should, I believe, use our influence on Britain to keep her from trading with Russia as little as possible and still not break down our own economy. We should use all the pressure we can, but nations have got to trade with each other.

DR. B. M. WILTSHIRE—I think that we should seek other ways to make her break off trade with Russia, so we can attain our goal of limiting the Soviet empire from its destruction of the world.

CARL KROPPF—I don't know. The thing that gets me on a deal like that is you can't force someone to quit trading with a friend because you don't like them. The only way we can do is offer them a better deal.

Shoppin' for groceries the other day flanked on one side by our 10-year-old known as Buddy Bob to his teacher, his Sunday school teacher and his red headed girl but just Buster to most everybody else and on the other side by Bill Kannopell his cousin visitin' from Fort Worth, Walter Dunlap and Lem Carlyle agreed with us that any way you figure it two boys are still TWO boys.

One blue-eyed and a little on the shy side while the other was brown-eyed and definitely the aggressor, yet when the total is added up one can throw a pillow about as far as the other or hold as many hamburgers and scrub out the knees of as many levis.

Now that we've reviewed our financial status we know for sure that we could learn a lot from the Scotchman who opened his purse in December and a June bug flew out.

On the typewriter of life another ribbon has run out and we sense a great loss.

Oregon Showdown

OREGON MAY be the show down state where General Eisenhower finally makes up his mind whether "to run or not to run"—and on what ticket.

The situation in Oregon was outlined by the political chief-of-staff, Sen. Jim Duff of Pennsylvania, the other day by Robert Letts Jones, publisher of the Salem, Ore., Capital Journal. Jones pointed out that Oregon has a primary ruling whereby any person can be entered in the race by a petition of 1,000 signatures—whether the candidate wants his name entered or not.

Thus Eisenhower's name could be entered in the Oregon presidential primary by 1,000 of his friends, entirely without his consent, and as a means of testing out his political strength.

The Oregon primary has another interesting angle, Jones explained to Senator Duff. The state attorney general has ruled that no candidate can run unless his party affiliation is known, thus Eisenhower would be forced, at that time, to be stamped either as a Republican or a Democrat.

Since the Oregon primary is May 18 and since all names have to be filed ninety days in advance, the showdown for Eisenhower would be sometime in February.

Note—It's a good bet that Ike's friends—and he has a lot in the northwest—will toss his hat into the ring through the Oregon primary.

Dressy General

When this column told how Gen. Emil C. Kiel, commander of the air force in the Caribbean, had sent his plane all the way from Ecuador to Panama to get his dinner jacket for a dinner given him by the Ecuadorian defense minister, the U. S. air force queried Kiel, wanting to know if the "Pearson story" was accurate.

Gen. Kiel replied that he had sent a plane back from Ecuador to Panama, but that he had not sent it to bring back his dinner jacket.

However, officials of the defense department pressed him further, finally got an admission that though the plane had not brought back the general's dinner jacket, it had brought back his "full dress uniform."

Propaganda Hurts

Reports from behind the Iron curtain indicate that one reason for the failure of AP correspondent William Oatis by Czechoslovakia was that American propaganda through the Voice of America and Radio Free Europe is hurting.

When the Communies want to get something out of the U.S.A., their crudest but most successful technique is to seize an American citizen, and hold him as a hostage until we come across with the ransom money.

The reported ransom money in Czechoslovakia is to curtail the Voice of America and Radio Free Europe, both really hurting the Communist government. In fact, the Voice of America has had the Czech government in a state of jitter.

Before Foreign Minister Cizmatis was purged, the voice made a categorical prediction that he and eight other top Czechs would be arrested. For weeks, the voice pounded home this prediction, giving the exact names of the prospective victims. The Czechs listened but were skeptical.

Then suddenly Clementis was arrested. With him were arrested four of the eight others the Voice of America had named. All Czechoslovakia seethed at the news. The accuracy of the Voice of America was commented on everywhere, and its listening audience has doubled. More than ever, Czechs are tuning in on the voice to see who will be purged next.

Note—Despite the state department's remarkable propaganda job, the budget of the Voice of America and other propaganda projects has been slashed to ribbons. Congressmen who have been going the slanting have been invited to come to the state department briefing room and get the story—much of it confidential—of what the department is doing. However, only two or three have bothered to get acquainted with the activities of the agency whose work they pass upon.

MacArthur Report

President Truman is pressing Democratic senators to write a report on the MacArthur investigation. They had planned to forget about a report, because they feared a majority would not agree to blasting MacArthur. However, the President believes Chairman Dick Russell of Georgia is honest enough to accept the evidence, which most observers consider to have been clearly and overwhelmingly against MacArthur.

Panhandle Paragraphs

"HOT" MONEY

About the only case on record of a bank closing even temporarily because of "hot" money came last week, according to the Friona Star. When the bank's air conditioning system quit working the tellers were hot, the customers were hot and the money was so hot the bankers called it a day until repairmen could fix the air conditioning.

WHY TRAVEL?

The Stephenville Empire tells of a woman who bought her children some souvenirs while she was on a vacation to California. Upon examining the souvenirs the woman discovered that they had been made about 25 miles from the town where she lived.

KNIGHT AND DAY

It may sound crazy but Knight is day and Day is night, according to the Stephenville Empire-Tribune. There is a very good explanation for this unusual situation, however. Ellie Day works nights at the airlines offices and Frank Knight is employed days at the same office.

"BLOOPER" DELUXE

Every newspaper man, one time or another, has shared the embarrassment of a "bloop" in his news columns. So we can sympathize with the Lubbock paper which announced a wedding. According to the announcement it was a sad affair when Miss Lois Marian Wingerd of Brownfield got set to marry Glenn Lewis Woodruff of Matador. It was so sad that the writer, in the second paragraph of his story penned the following: "The funeral announcement will be made at a tea to be held this afternoon in the Wingerd home."

JUST DOESN'T PAY

One-armed driving doesn't pay sometimes even when you've been married for 10 years, according to the Colorado City Record. A couple drove through the village where they spent their honeymoon some 10 years before and as they passed the cottage where they had stayed the man sentimentally slipped his arm around his wife. A village policeman stopped them and fined the man $10 for one-armed driving.

BAD AIM

The Dalhart Texan tells of an unidentified resident who apparently had just about all he could take of the sizzling summer temperatures. He fired a shotgun at the thermometer hanging in the east window of the Cedar Bayou postoffice. However, the results weren't too good—he missed the thermometer and hit the window.

MENTAL TELEPATHY NOW BEING TRIED

Friends of Sonny Arnold of Gilmer are trying mental telepathy now that modern radio has failed. Sonny left one day for Mexico and the next day a letter arrived from a former classmate who now lives in Mexico City asking that Sonny visit him. Unless the mental telepathy works, Sonny will not receive the message until he returns home, then it will be too late to do any good.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: For this hot weather, the Bootleg Philosopher on his farm near Bootleg is writing pretty seriously. It's the heat, no doubt.

Dear editor: I was out here yesterday sittin' around in the shade waitin' for cooler weather, some people want to do something about the weather but I find waitin' is the best plan, seems like it's been hotter this summer than it's ever been before, but I felt the same way about last summer and the summer before and will feel the same about next summer, and a little whirlwind not stirrin' up more air than the fourteenth candidate on a ticket for governor passed by and dropped a lot of trash near me, includin' a copy of The Brand and since I needed something to fan with I picked it up and after I got through fannin', after decidin' the amount of breeze I generated wasn't worth the effort it took, glanced over it and noticed an article sayin' the United States is in for a period of austerity.

That is, with more and more money being spent for defense, with more and more money going for taxes to pay for it, with more controls loamin', etc., the American people may not be able to keep up prosperity indefinitely and harder times may arrive, the experts contend, addin' that with all this soft livin' we been havin' there's some doubt whether we could stand up to austerity.

Personally, I ain't worried. It's true this country has more comforts than any country on earth, but it's also true at one time we had the fewest, and neither condition has gotten the best of us. I know a few people right now who ain't got no bad roses, and I know a lot who can remember nickel cotton and two-bit corn. There's one thing about Americans, they can stand hard times as well as prosperity, or prosperity as well as hard times, and I know now who started out pretty prosperous but have wound up broke, but they seem to be gettin' along about as well as anybody else, and I know some prosperous people now who, if the bottom should fall out, will fall out with it, carryin' a few creditors along, but people who say Americans have been ruined by soft livin' just don't know Americans.

Why, I been takin' things easy out here for years and I got just as much strength of character as I started out with and about the same amount of money and, like the rest of the country, a few more debts.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Government Crop Insurance Deficit Operation Blasted

A recent article in the Cravens, Dorgan and Company "Review," a monthly insurance publication, contained a blast by a local businessman at government insurance programs.

The Brand publishes this article in the form of a "guest editorial" not because the views expressed therein necessarily conform with those of this paper, but rather to make sure that BOTH SIDES of controversial questions are given ample publicity.

We reprint it to underscore our contention that if both sides are allowed to present their case before the reading public, that public is endowed with enough intelligence to make its own decisions.

The Brand would welcome any comment from any quarter on this article. All views, pro and con, will be given an airing.

Here is the article as it appeared in the "Review."

"Sam Nunnally, of the Lone Star Insurance agency in Hereford, Texas, picked up a copy of The Hereford Brand the other day and saw a five-column by 17-inch ad, headed, "Crop Insurance, Our Next Great Forward Step"; anxious to see just whose "Next Great Forward Step" crop insurance was, he glanced to the bottom of the page and saw that the ad had been placed by the Deaf Smith County PMA office. PMA (Production and Marketing Administration) is a government agency, an integral part of the administration's system of subsidizing agriculture.

"Mr. Nunnally wrote his congressman, Walter Rogers, of the 18th District of Texas, and asked a few questions, listed here with Mr. Rogers' answers:

"Question—Is this government insurance profitable to the government on a premium-loss basis?"

"Answer—No, it was set up for profit, but with the thought in mind of breaking even.

"Question—What did the total annual premiums amount to last year?"

"Answer—$14,370,000.

"Question—What did the total losses amount to last year?"

"Answer—Estimated $13,241,000. (Processed to April 30, 1951—$12,234,000).

"Question—What were the total expenses, administrative and otherwise?"

"Answer—For ten months' period to April 30, $5,110,000 (At the rate of $6,000,000 a year).

"Question—What was the net gain or loss to the government?"

"Answer—According to these figures, it appears that the deficit for 12 months is approximately $5,000,000. The PMA office in Washington, however, says that they do not count the administrative expenses as part of the cost. How they justify such a policy is beyond me, as the $5,000,000 deficit must be paid from some source and admittedly comes out of the taxpayer's pockets.

"Congressman Rogers asked Mr. Nunnally to find out who had placed the ad in the Hereford paper, and where the funds had been obtained.

Mr. Nunnally found that the local PMA office had paid for the ad, and that the check had been signed by the head of the office there. These funds, and those for all expenses, are apparently allotted and dispersed by the Government Crop Insurance Corporation with the Texas headquarters in College Station, Texas.

"We don't intend to censure the administration for selling crop insurance. However, we think it very unfair for any governmental agency to sell insurance on such a basis that the deficits (in this case about $5,000,000) are paid by the taxpayers."

The half-truth is more dangerous than the big lie.

Every man's business is "big" to him and his family.

An "open letter" to a public official is not always an open letter.

A phobia is a belief by somebody else that what you like will hurt you.

Do You Want Bluebonnets Next Spring?

COLLEGE STATION—Take a tip from Mother Nature and plant bluebonnet seed before September 15. They can be planted later but they may not bloom well. Bluebonnet seeds are small but tough, so it's a good idea to soak them for 24 hours before planting, says Sadie Hatfield, extension specialist in Homestead Improvement of Texas A. & M. college. Planted early, they normally come up in October. They grow all through the winter except during extreme temperatures.

The state flower thrives in many soils, but does best on light sandy soil. One of the beauty spots of Texas is Old Indianola or Matagorda Bay near Port Lavaca where the variety adopted as our state flower grows. The soil at Indianola is coarse white sand with an abundance of shell fragments. In rich well fertilized soil, bluebonnet stalks will grow tall with many large leaves but few blooms. Acid soils of East Texas could grow bluebonnets nicely if sweetened with alkali. Adding one pound of lime or ashes to each ten square feet of soil will counter-act acid, adds Miss Hatfield.

Bluebonnets should have plenty of sunshine and good drainage. They can be transplanted in late winter but will do better if planted where they can be left to bloom. In the coldest areas of the state, it will be necessary to start bluebonnets in greenhouses or small flower garden pots. The bluebonnet has few insect and disease enemies.

Bluebonnets are soil building legumes. They seem to be of little or no value for grazing.

The well known Texas botanist, H. B. Parks, has described four blue bonnets — the Chisos Mountain or tall bluebonnet of West Texas, sand land or Texas bluebonnet, the rock or purple bluebonnet of Central and West Texas and a "pink" bluebonnet. The pink bluebonnet is a perennial in the Western and Big Bend areas.

SECOND LT. RICHARD A. PETERSEN

2nd Lt. Richard Peterson Will Get MA Degree

Second Lt. Richard A. Petersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Petersen of Hereford, will receive his B. S. degree on August 24 in Marketing and Salesmanship from the division of Business Administration of Texas Technological college, Lubbock.

Lt. Petersen, a 1942 graduate of Hereford high school, was president of his senior class and was president of the student council in his junior year. After completing high school, he attended Texas A & M prior to his three-year enlistment in the Army Air Force during World War II.

Following the war, Lt. Petersen attended Texas Tech for three years. In 1949, just prior to completing his training at Texas Tech, he accepted a position with General Motors Acceptance Corporation. In his 19 months of employment with the corporation, he made two advancements to the position of district representative. He then resigned his work there to farm in Hereford.

Lt. Petersen, who holds two aeronautical ratings, was called back to active military duty as a pilot in the Air Force on May 1, 1951. While on active duty, he was given the opportunity to complete his work at Texas Tech. He is now assigned to the 3500th Pilot Training Group as Aviation Cadet Tactical Officer at Reese Air Force base, Lubbock.

Preacher Is Speaker

Ninety workers joined in the launching of a church wide campaign in a building program sponsored by the First Methodist church here at a kick-off dinner held at the church Wednesday night. Workers will push the campaign to a close by Friday, Aug. 24, when a victory banquet will be held with the Rev. Marvin Boyd of Plainview, district superintendent, and former Hereford pastor, will give the victory address.

Whether the ultimate goal has been reached or not, no funds will be raised at the banquet, Rev. Don Davidson, pastor, has announced.

Speaker for the kick-off dinner was Rev. Dallas Denison, pastor of the Brownfield Methodist church, who gave his inspirational experiences in conducting a $250,000 campaign in his own church recently.

Special music was provided by a trio of singers including Eleanor Jo Avon, Norma Grace Gray and Barbara Winget with Doneta Davidson at the piano.

An outline of the plans for the week's campaign was presented by Rev. Davidson.

Doyce Lynch of Rails accompanied Dalene Tinnin home for a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Hill left Monday for a combined business and pleasure trip which will take them to points in Kansas, Missouri and Colorado before returning home.

Miss Norma McCullough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCullough, returned home from Houston Saturday. She completed a scholarship training course in social service there.

Our Slogan: "More People—More Farms"

BUZ SAWYER by ROY CRANE

GRUDGE GAME: ROARING GAP LUMBER CAMP VERSUS CATFISH CREEK.

BIG JOHN BOUNCES A DOUBLE OFF THE FENCE.

AGAIN IN THE 3RD, 5TH, 6TH AND 7TH INNINGS LUCILLE STANDS MEEKLY AT THE PLATE WHILE STRIKES ARE CALLED.

AND EACH TIME BIG JOHN TAKES OVER AND RAPS OUT A SINGLE.

WHEN IN THE 8TH INNING WITH TWO OUTS, THE BASES LOADED... AND ROARING GAP BEHIND 20 TO 24—

SUDDENLY, LUCILLE CAN'T RESIST.

THE BEST GIRL BASEBALL PLAYER IN AMERICA, AND STILL ROARING GAP DOESN'T CATCH ON.

ROYAL MOUNTED

by ZANE GREY

IF, BY CHANCE, THE ROCKS HAVEN'T CRUSHED THOSE TWO, THIS CANTEEN OF POISONED WATER WILL BE HANDY FOR THEIR RESCUERS TO FINISH THE JOB!

AS KING IS ABOUT TO OVERTAKE ROXANA IN THE NARROW MOUNTAIN DEFILE, THE RUTHLESS "EXECUTIONER" SENDS TONS OF ROCKS INTO THE PASS!

BURGOMASTER, FIND ROXY... SHE IS IN TERRIBLE D-DANGER... I-I...

SHHH, JOHN! LISTEN! A ROCKSLIDE!

ERIC, DID YOU HEAR THAT SLIDE? COME! HURRY!

IT WAS IN THE PASS, SIRE!

MERCIFUL GOODNESS! WHAT SORT OF FIEND HAS INVADDED OUR LOVELY VALLEY?

LOOK, SIRE! ROXANA... AND THE MOUNTIE!

THANK HEAVENS THEY ARE STILL BREATHING!

KING MUST'VE HAD A CANTEEN. HERE, SIRE, IS WATER!

MANDRAKE

THE MAGICIAN

BY LEE FALK & PHIL DAVIS

ON VENUS: MANDRAKE AND LOTHAR SPEED THROUGH THE POISONOUS VENUSIAN AIR ON THEIR STRANGE DRAGON-FLY-LIKE MOUNTS, TOWARD A GLITTERING DOME.

THEY LAND ATOP THE PEAK--

I MEDIATE! FLYING ON VENUS, ON GIANT BUGS! WHAT AN ADVENTURE!

ADVENTURE, HUH! ME WANT TO GO HOME!

ME HUNGRY, SLEEPY. NEVER NIGHT HERE?

ONE VENUS DAY IS AS LONG AS OUR MONTH! SINCE A VENUS YEAR IS SHORTER THAN OURS, THEY ONLY HAVE SIX OR SEVEN DAYS A YEAR.

THEY ENTER THE DOME, PASSING WEIRD, ALIEN APPARATUS--

HELLO. I HOPE YOU HAVEN'T BEEN MADE TOO UNCOMFORTABLE ON OUR PLANET.

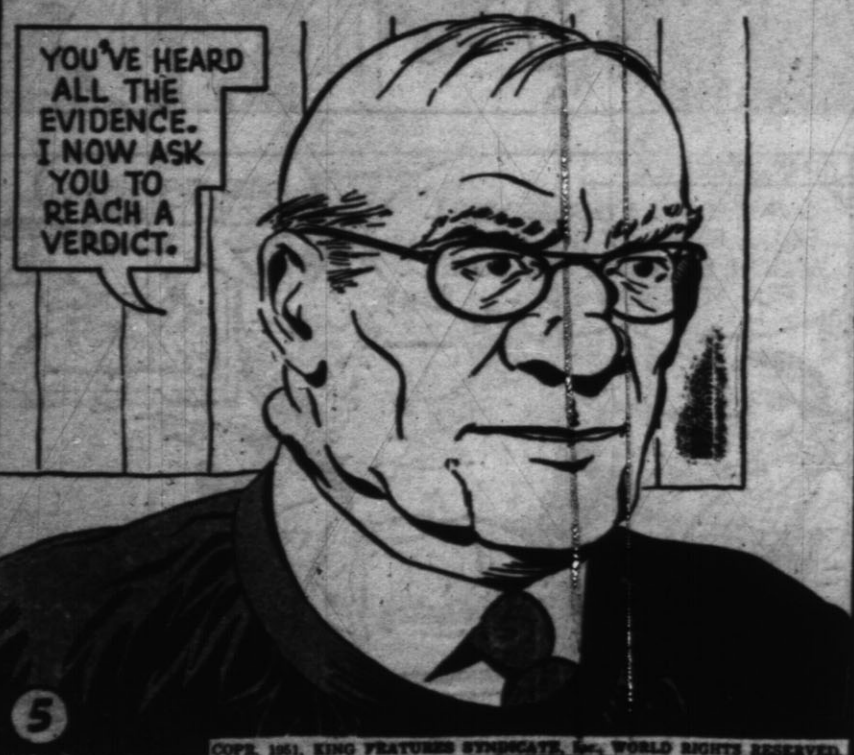

Uh--HE SPEAKS-- ENGLISH!

THEN, A LARGE ROOM, WHERE A PLANT MAN AWAITS THEM--

BACK ON EARTH, WHERE NARDA IS ON TRIAL FOR THE MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF MANDRAKE AND LOTHAR--

YOU'VE HEARD ALL THE EVIDENCE. I NOW ASK YOU TO REACH A VERDICT.

--NARDA WATCHES THE JURORS FILE OUT--

--IF THEY FIND ME GUILTY-- WHAT WILL HAPPEN?

THE PROSECUTION IS ASKING THE DEATH PENALTY, NARDA. BUT LET'S BE OPTIMISTIC.

OZARK IKE by RAY GOTTO

EIGHT SCORELESS INNINGS HAVE PASSED WITH EACH TEAM COLLECTING JUST THREE SCATTERED HITS! THE GLAMAZONS COME TO BAT WITH THEIR LAST CHANCE TO WIN!

ON YOUR TOES, BOYS! IT'S THE LAST INNING, SO LET'S KEEP THESE GIRLS SCORELESS!

RIGHT, HANDSOME! IMAGINE TH' RIBBIN' WE'LL GET IF WE'RE BEATEN BY A BUNCH OF PRETTY WOMEN!

THE NEXT BATTER POPS UP...

DINAH OPENS WITH A SINGLE...

THEN A DOUBLE PLAY THREE UP, THREE DOWN...

HEY, PIGTAILS! I HEAR YOU HAIL FROM TEXAS! HOW COME A NICE GIRL LIKE YOU COMES FROM TEXAS?

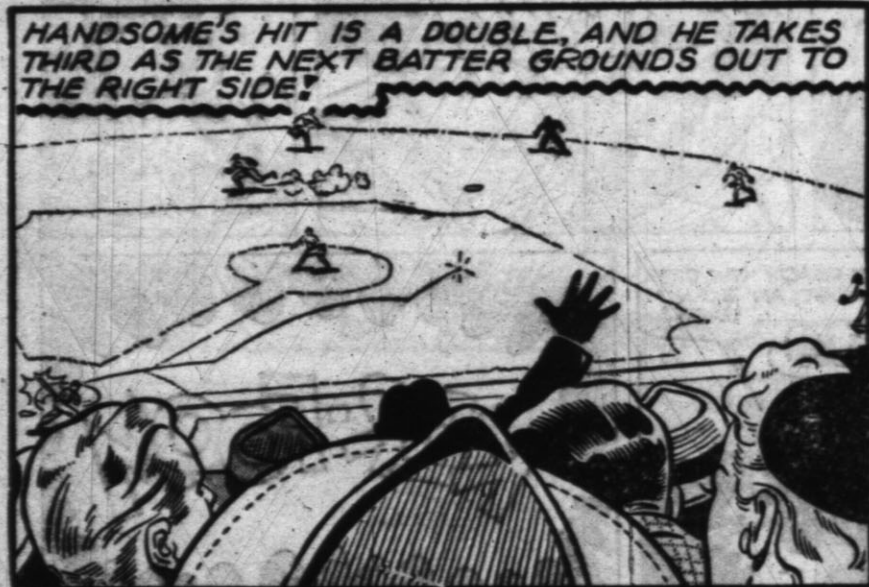

LISTEN, MISTUH! YOU CAN PICK ON ME AND KID ME ABOUT ANYTHING... BUT NOT TEXAS!

SAL FIRES THE NEXT PITCH WITHOUT THINKING!

HA! THAT MADE HER FORGET I LIKE 'EM LOW AN' INSIDE!

HANDSOME'S HIT IS A DOUBLE, AND HE TAKES THIRD AS THE NEXT BATTER GROUNDS OUT TO THE RIGHT SIDE!

THEN A FLY TO DEEP CENTER FIELD...

AND HARRY TAGS UP AS THE THROW COMES TO THE PLATE!

SAFE!

THAT WAS TOUGH, PITCHIN' A FOUR-HITTER AND LOSIN' 'O, SAL! WE WERE JUST LUCKY, BECAUSE YOU GALS HAVE BEEN THE BEST TEAM WE'VE PLAYED ALL SEASON!

THANK YOU, HANDSOME HARRY, BUT MAYBE THE NEXT TIME WE MEET LUCK WILL BE ON OUR SIDE!

DAGWOOD, WHEN YOU FILLED YOUR PIPE YOU SPILLED TOBACCO ALL OVER THE CARPET AGAIN

AND LOOK HOW YOU MUSSED UP THE LIVING ROOM-- AND LYING ON THE SOFA WITH YOUR SHOES ON!

I WISH I HAD A LITTLE DEN OF MY OWN THAT I COULD MUSS UP AS MUCH AS I PLEASED

WHY DON'T YOU BUILD ONE IN YOUR CELLAR?

A ROOM ALL MY VERY OWN

HA-HA--I UNLOADED ALL THAT JUNK LUMBER ON HIM FOR FIVE DOLLARS

I'LL CONVERT THIS LITTLE SPARE CORNER OF THE CELLAR INTO A LITTLE CASTLE WHERE I'LL BE KING

THIS IS GOING TO BE A DREAM OF A LIFETIME COME TRUE--NOBODY ALLOWED IN IT BUT ME

DAGWOOD CAN HAVE MY OLD MONAIR SOFA

AND I BROUGHT HIM THIS STUFFED OWL FROM OUR ATTIC FOR HIS NEW DEN

I CAN DECORATE IT WITH MY FAVORITE COLORS--PURPLE AND YELLOW

BEHOLD--MY HIDEAWAY IS FINISHED AND IT'S MINE--ALL MINE!

LET'S SEE NOW--I'LL BRING DOWN MY TOBACCO HUMIDOR AND MAGAZINES AND BOOKS AND SLIPPERS AND IT'S COMPLETE

IT'S THE COOLEST ROOM IN THE HOUSE

IT'S SWELL FOR MY GYMNASIUM

I'LL KEEP MY TOYS DOWN HERE

WELL ANYWAY, I'VE GOT THE REST OF THE HOUSE TO MYSELF

JOHNNY HAZARD by FRANK ROSS

HIGH OVER THE STAGE OF THE CONCERT HALL, JOHNNY AND BRANDY ARE PERCHED ON A CATWALK TRYING TO SPOT THE MYSTERIOUS MR. MAJOR IN THE AUDIENCE! JUST THEN THE HOUSE LIGHTS DIM AND THE CONCERT IS ABOUT TO BEGIN...

STILL HAVEN'T BEEN ABLE TO SPOT HIM, JOHNNY... AND I'VE SCANNED THE ENTIRE HALL! CONCERT'S STARTING... WE DON'T HAVE MUCH TIME!

CHECK, BRANDY... THEY'VE PROBABLY DISCOVERED THE STAGE-HAND I CHILLED AND ARE FINE-COMBING THE HALL FOR US RIGHT NOW...

JUST THEN THE GREAT CONCERT VIOLINIST, JACQUES JACQUES, UNAWARE THAT HIS LIFE IS IN GRAVE DANGER, MAKES HIS ENTRANCE TO A GREAT BURST OF APPLAUSE...

JOHNNY! LISTEN TO WHAT HE'S PLAYING!

LOOK, HONEY, I DON'T WANT TO SEEM BOORISH, BUT RIGHT NOW I'M NOT PARTICULARLY INTERESTED IN CULTURE!

NO, NO... YOU DON'T UNDERSTAND! I KNOW THIS PIECE... DIDN'T COVER CONCERTS FOR YEARS FOR NOTHING! IT'S FAMOUS FOR ITS SOCK ENDING! FILLED WITH BOOMING TYMPANY AND CYMBAL CRASHES!

SO... I DON'T GET IT!

A PERFECT MUSICAL SCREEN FOR MURDER! NO ONE WOULD HEAR A SHOT ABOVE THAT FORTISSIMO!

RELAX, HONEY, YOU'RE NOT FILLING A GOS STORY ASSIGNMENT! JUST KEEP A WEATHER EYE PEELED FOR OUR FRIEND MAJOR!

SPEAKING OF CONCERTS... WE BETTER SPOT MAJOR FORE WE END UP SOLO IN A MINOR FINALE!

WE KNOW THEY ARE IN THE THEATRE... WE MUST FIND THEM! MR. JACQUES' LIFE IS IN DANGER!

ALSO HIS CONCERT! SO PLEASE, GENTLEMEN... FIND THEM... BUT QUIETLY... IF YOU PLEASE!

WELL... HOW WE DOING, BRANDY? SEE HIM YET?...

JOHNNY! I'VE SPOTTED HIM... HE'S JUST COME INTO A BOX!

HMM... GO THAT'S OUR MYSTERIOUS MR. MAJOR! FUNNY DUCK! COMES TO A CONCERT TO READ A MAGAZINE!

THAT'S NO MAG, JOHNNY... MR. MAJOR IS FOLLOWING THE MUSIC SCORE... AND VERY CAREFULLY!

GUFFERIN' SUGIE! YOU MEAN... YOUR HUNCH ABOUT THE CRASHING FINALE?

ONE ~~~

AND ONE POOR LITTLE CHILD WHO NEEDS A TALL, DARK, HANDSOME
DOCTOR. TO SAVE HER EYES SO
SHE CAN CONTINUE TO SEE THE LOVELY FLOWERS THAT BLOOM
IN GREEN
MEADOW~

ARE YOU SURE
THE DOCTOR
WILL COME?

SURE I'M SURE~ DOCTORS ARE
AN' THEY NEVER FAIL YOU~

I WISH MY EYES WERE BETTER~ I CAN'T SEE ANY CAR~

I CAN'T SEE ANY CAR, EITHER~ BUT ZERO'S TAIL IS WAGGIN'~ HE KIN SEE
FARTHER WITH HIS NOSE THAN ~~~ HERE COMES THE DOCTOR!!

I JUST KNEW YOU'D SURELY COME~ BUT I WAS SCARED
MAYBE YOU
WOULDN'T~

WELCOME, DOCTOR,
WELCOME~ I HOPE YOU'RE HUNGRY~

LATER I CAN'T FIND WORDS
TO THANK YOU~
AS YOU SEE, I AM NOT RICH, BUT I'LL PAY IF IT TAKES THE ~~~

NONSENSE~ THE BILL IS PAID
