Interesting these RIVAL

Dresses Favored by Fashion

These new Dresses are beautiful creations, embodying every feature that is new for fall. This year's style trend incorporates many radical departures, with the new details of high waistline, uneven hem, and silhouette styling.

These exquisite new dresses are shown in velvets, silk crepes, satins, and jaunty travel tweeds. Shades are adaptations of those seen in fall verdure. Five popular new browns are shown with middy blue and roof green proving good.

You will find in each dress remarkable qualities of wear, making every one an exceptional bargain.

In Other Departments

In every department the shadow of an approaching Autumn is cast. Charming little velvet berets and turbans, swank new shoes, and hosiery in the fashionable darker shades, are displayed.

Smart Fall Coats Are Presented

New lines characterize coats to be worn in the Fall and Winter of 1930. Fabrics are rich and colorful, with black popular is usual, and with several attractive shades of brown-pecan, coffee, salvador-proving very popular. Greens and blues in dark shades are also good.

Big semi-cape collars, high waistline, figure-modeling bodies and flare skirts are details of the new mode. These coats subtly express a charming femininity.

The coats are lavishly trimmed in fur of harmonizing color. Represented are furs of Manchurian Wolf, Hudson Bay Seal, Mink, Badger, Skunk and Belgian Hare.

American adventurer, is rescued from some Mexican insurgents by Dagger Marley. youthful niece of a Texas rancher, and she falls in love with him. Howard already is unhappily married, and cannot return Dagger's affection. A few months later Dagger is heartbroken when he is reported missing and probably dead on the Western front in France. While visiting an aunt in San Antonio, she meets Captain John Vancering, flying ace, who helps her learn to fly and falls in love with her. He is suddenly ordered back to France and they are married. Dagger's uncle, who has brought her up on his ranch, dislikes Vancering. The captain is a heavy dranker, but promises to stop to please Dagger. When they reach New York, Vaneering's home, his mother is icily disapproving of Pagger, but his father and sister Kity like her at once. Van-

THIS YOUNG WOMAN Knows Exactly Where She Is Going

There are certain things for the home and for herself that she buys from force of habit at certain stores. But for the most part, she reads the advertising in The Herald before starting out on her day's shopping. She knows exactly where she is going for the items she needs, because she has first shopped at home from the columns of her newspaper. She is no different from o the r housewives: quite naturally they like to shop where selection is wide. This they find in the advertising of The Herald, where Big Spring's leading merchants regularly describe their merchandise. Besides wide representation from the Big Spring stores, there is column after column of fashion notes, recipes, women's features, household hints, short cuts to better home management, and many other valuable household helps. Are you following this convenient, satisfactory habit of reading regularly the advertisements in The Herald?

Neff Charged With Failure To Answer Charge

FORT WORTH, Aug. 13-4PIpeaking here last night, W. Gregory Hatcher, candidate for railord commissioner, charged that Pat M. Neff. his opponent, in failing to answer four of the five charges which Hatcher had made asserting that Neff should be held esponsible for the transfer of fourfifths of all the bus lines to four of the tailroad companies and one o Stone and Webster company, had admitted the four charges and failed to deny the fifth, but only plend hat he was not present in the meetng at which the transfer was made. Neff was quoted on August 9th s saving that "if Hatcher can show that I either officially or unofficially, directly or indirectly voted for counseled or had any connecion with any kind of a transacfon between the Southern Pacific and the Greyhound company, I will withdraw from the race."

Hatcher said last night Neff is in charge of the records of the railroad commission, and that he knows what did transpire and intead of making the answer he did. he should have stated the facts if facts were different from those which Hatcher had stated.

Hatcher asserted that soon after the transfer was made, some time during March, there appeared in the daily press, a statement that the Southern Pacific railway had taken over the Greybound Bus line. Neff was charged with the duty of
