

HEREFORD'S SWIMMING pool had an enforced shutdown over the Fourth of July holiday and Saturday as the water was cleaned and the pool walls and bottom scrubbed. Rain during the past week and pollen from nearby trees made the water undesirable for swimming. Pool Manager Medford Hammon is shown using a wicked brush on the pool wall as the pump empties the 200,000 gallon pool. It took 24 hours to empty the pool and fill it again. Staff Photo.

Rained Out Twice, Softball's All-Star Game Scheduled Friday

A third try for getting the 1952 Hereford Softball league All-Star game into the record books will be made on Friday night at Vets park, according to Wendell Burdine, league president.

Game time will be 8:30 p.m. The tilt was scheduled to be played originally June 26, but was washed out. A second date for the contest was set for Tuesday night, but water ruined that one, also.

So remember the night -- Friday, July 11 at 8:30 p.m.

Player Selection

Playing on one side Friday night will be players from Rocky's, Summerfield and the Knights of Columbus. The other team will be made up of Hereford Hardware, Dawn and Lesly-Vaughn Motor squad members.

John Winkler will be manager of the former team and Rueben Knox will mastermind the latter-mentioned squad.

Three sets of batteries will compete in the nine-inning tussle, with David Miles and Jim Combs, Kenneth and Vincent Walterscheid and Jack Clark and Duane Baize all sharing the pitching and catching duties respectively for three innings each for the Winkler line.

Knox's battery will be: Kenny Brock and Pat Corbett, Walt and Edd Lemons, and Jim Russell and Bill Howard in that order.

Tentative line-ups for the game (still unchanged from the first postponement) are:

Dawn Outlasts Rocky's In League Battle Thurs., 12-9

Dawn was the victor in a slam-bang 12-9 tussle with Rocky's Service station at Vets park on Thursday night.

The winning Dawn nine got their 12 runs on 11 hits and were guilty of one error. Rocky's had nine runs on nine hits and eight errors.

Summerfield took the second contest of the evening from Lesly-Vaughn Motors, 7-0 on a forfeit. L-V Motors failed to round up the required eight ball players by game time so a practice contest between the two nines was played.

Disastrous First
Back to the regular league contest between Dawn and Rocky's on Thursday, it was the errors -- that torpedoed Rocky's and took the wind out of their sails, putting them in a hole from which they never emerged.

Dawn bounced out ahead by six big runs in the top of the first on four hits and five Rocky errors which put starter Dave

Miles way behind the eight ball.

Here's the way the first inning for Dawn bounced around:

Duane Stewart started off living on an error when First Baseman Davis dropped a ball being relayed on a ground play. Austell Burrus lived on an error on Shortstop Cummings to put two on. Edd Lemons came up and slapped a single to center with Burdine drawing an error after the single.

Six Scores

H. Roberson followed with a single, scoring Stewart, and Austell Burrus was thrown out, left field (Sparks) to third base (Winkler). McBroom drove in another with a single, Burrus skied to short. Two more errors out first base way, topped by a single by Ray Stewart, capped off the six run lead the Dawners assumed right under the gun.

D. Stewart ended the threat by lining out to Burdine in center.

It was the second inning before Rocky's could come back with two runs on an error, walk, outfield fly and single. They added one more in the third while Dawn picked up a loner in that frame.

Dawn added three more in the fourth and two in the seventh to stretch their total to 12. Rocky's added three in the fifth and fell short in the seventh with a fighting three-run rally that still fell short of knotting the ball game.

Big blows of the evening for Rocky's was a homerun by manager Johnnie Winkler and a triple by Bub Sparks.

H. Roberson unloaded a triple into right center for Dawn in the second for his team's longest blow.

I am sorry to have to rest this column for a couple of months, but it seems that is the way it will have to be. Those of you who read it will be relieved however, and those of you who don't won't be missing anything anyway. I do enjoy bringing things to you that other people are doing and hope that some of the tips that you pick up from these people can be employed by others and put to work for you. Although the column is to be discontinued for a short time, I do want to tell you that our services here at Howard Gault Co. are not discontinued, and that we have a complete line of field seeds, fertilizers and chemicals and will continue to stock the highest quality of grass and legume seed.

I have one more request to make of the editor and then I'll stop this dribble. I have noticed on several occasions that at the end of the GRASS ROOTS column there has been another advertisement that kind of gets under my skin when it appears in the position that I have mentioned. There is a picture of a truck, and a man and the wording of the advertisement BULL HAULING.

Prospects Good For Cotton Crop

The rain and warm weather has been fine on the cotton in the county, according to John McClesky.

The cotton was beginning to look wilted from the hot winds by the time it rained last week. The moist, hot air has snapped the cotton out of the slump and prospects are bright for a good cotton crop this year, McClesky said.

There is about twice as much cotton planted in the county this year as there was last year. Estimated acreage this time is 10,000 acres. Harvest should start about the middle of October over the county.

Going Vacationing? West Texas Has Just THE Spot For Enjoyment

There is really no place like home for West Texas vacationers. Within the 18 state parks of West Texas one may find things to do and see that match attractions of those far-away places you've thought about visiting.

For a long or short week-end or the whole vacation period, accommodations and attractions of many types are available in these parks the state has provided.

There are more than 22,000 acres in the 18 parks, ranging from small tracts to the 18,000 acres in Palo Duro state park east of Canyon.

For variety, consider these attractions:

Palo Duro

Palo Duro canyon, one of the greatest natural phenomena on the North American continent. The great canyon, extending across three large counties, drops so suddenly from the level prairie to depths of more than 1,500 feet that it is accessible only by Indian trails and a road constructed at great expense from the rim. Most distinctive are what cowboys called the "Spanish skirts", great vividly colored, rainbow-like formations that cover the side cliffs of the whole canyon. Brick-red, rose, violet, gold, pink and white spread out in vast lengths. Each band represents several centuries of time.

In Palo Duro canyon state park, horses are available at the park entrance for exploration of the many scenic areas. The entrance is 12 miles east of Canyon on Texas Highway 217, in the upper Panhandle. There are cabins and refreshments at Coronado Lodge at the canyon rim and more primitive cow camp cabins in the canyon.

The east side park is reached from Graham and Mineral Wells by a park road off Texas Highways 16 and 254. The west side park is 31 miles northeast of Breckenridge. It is reached by turning from U. S. Highway 180 at Caddo onto a park road to the park entrance.

36th Division

Thirty-sixth Division state park at Lake Brownwood is equipped with rock cabins, cafe and dining room, and has excellent fishing, boating and swimming facilities. The club house and dance terrace are swept by cool breezes off the lake. The cabins have excellent cooking facilities. There are also large lodges to accommodate as many as 50 persons. This park is reached on Texas highway 279. It is 24 miles northwest of Brownwood.

Here are brief pictures of West Texas' other state parks: The third largest known cavern is in Longhorn Cavern State Park, 11 miles southwest of Burnet.

Balmorhea State Park

The world's largest walled swimming pool is in Balmorhea state park, at the awe-inspiring entrance to the Davis mountains on U. S. Highway 290. The swimming pool is fed daily by 26,000,000 gallons of clear, cool water from San Solomon Springs. Buildings are of Spanish architecture with Aztec furniture. There is a concession building with bath house, terrace for dancing, a dining room and eighteen cabins in the 50-acre area of immense grandeur.

Far to the east is Meridian state park, on Highway 22, three miles south of Meridian. The fishing lake, fed from Bee Creek, is praised by anglers from all parts of the state. In the 469-acre recreation area there are overnight cabins, a swimming pool, good playground equipment, a dancing terrace and other attractions. Way back again into "western" West Texas is Davis Mountains

State Park at mile-high altitude. Indian Lodge is a remarkable place in which modern conveniences have been housed in an adobe structure reminiscent of the cave dwellers. It is constructed at different levels so that most of the 16 rooms and apartments have different views of the mountain range. The 1541-acre park and its lodge are five miles west of historic Fort Davis, on the same scenic drive that leads to McDonald Observatory.

Possum Kingdom
Possum Kingdom state park, on the huge lake in Young, Palo Pinto and Stephens counties, is one of the southwest's most popular fishing resorts. The park occupies such a large and divergent part of the lake boundaries that it is operated in east and west sections. Cabins, fishing, camping and picnicking facilities are maintained at both and many commercial craft make available trips to Hells Gate and other scenic spots along the lake.

ABILENE state park, near historic Buffalo Gap, 20 miles southwest of Abilene; picnic areas in a grove of 4,000 native pecan trees, club house, dance terrace, playgrounds, cooking pits, riding academy and swimming pool.

ACTON state park, near Granbury, Hood county; site of the grave of Elizabeth Crockett, wife of the famed Davy Crockett, and of several of his sons and daughters. An Italian marble monument marks the burying ground.

BIG SPRING state park, on U. S. Highways 87 and 80 at the south limits of the city of Big Spring; a high mesa at the top of the 2,800-foot scenic mountain, from which one of the most remarkable views in the southwest is afforded; picnic areas, pavilion and dance terrace.

BLANCO state park at the edge of the town of Blanco where U. S. Highway 281 crosses the swift-running Blanco river; two dams form lakes that are popular with fishermen, camping, picnicking, playgrounds, exhibition and rodeo areas.

CLEBURNE state park, 471 acres of valley land and rolling hills in a timbered area 12 miles south of Cleburne on Texas Highway 174; numerous well-shaded picnic areas; fishing for bream, carp and crappie in a 116-acre lake, concession and bathhouse building, outdoor terrace, swimming, camping, playground areas, overnight accommodations in a group camp.

FORT GRIFFIN state park, on U. S. Highway 283 ten miles north of Albany; 503 acres where a small herd of typical Longhorn cattle graze; picnicking and camping areas, fishing in the Brazos river; picturesque ruins of the frontier military post for which the park is named.

INKS LAKE state park, ten miles west of Burnet on Texas Highway 29; on the control dam of the lower Colorado River Authority, in one of the greatest fishing spots of the Highland Lakes area, on the east shore of Inks lake below Buchanan dam -- the largest multiple arch dam in the world.

KERRVILLE state park, on Texas Highway 16 three miles southeast of Kerrville; 500 acres along the beautiful Guadalupe river in the enchanting hill country; horseback riding, fishing, picnicking, camping, and a number of deer that wander into the picnic area.

LONGHORN CAVERN state park, 11 miles southwest on Burnet on a scenic park road that links it with Inks Lake state park and with U. S. Highway 281; 500 acres that include Longhorn Cavern, which may be visited under care of trained guides.

MACKENZIE state park, 550 acres partially within the city of Lubbock, on U. S. Highways 62, 82, and 87; spreads across Yellowhouse canyon where the double Mountain and Yellowhouse forks of the Brazos river meet; go swimming terrace dancing, nipping, carnival rides, a populated Prairie Dog town, a squirrel colony.

MINERAL WELLS state 56 acres at the north edge of Mineral Wells on U. S. Highway picnicking and play equipment.

MOTHER NEFF state Texas' first state park, 253 on the Leon river eight southwest of McGregor; stone villa and auditorium, refreshment accommodations; caves inhabited by the Indians, an Indian wash hole and other interesting mementos.

GRASS ROOTS

A few weeks ago all of my favorite radio programs went off the air for the summer so that the stars, and what have you, could relax from their toils and troubles for awhile. It is now my sad duty to report that my favorite columnist is going to have to take a few days holiday from his journalistic masterpieces, but for a different reason than that stated above. I am speaking of course of myself and the holiday I am taking from GRASS ROOTS is prompted by the potato season and the fact that I am going to be up to my ears in spuds and railroad cars for awhile.

R. L. Simpson gave me one for the books the other day. R. L. had a patch of wheat that he grazed until the seventh of April and states that at the time he took the cattle off there was no wheat visible. This is understandable considering that in addition to cattle he grazed sheep on the wheat. After taking the cattle off he planted the land to Madrid and Hubam Clover and put on 200 lbs. of 16-20-0 fertilizer per acre. When he cut his wheat it averaged over 40 bushels per acre. I was a little hesitant to tell that story, but R. L. is an honest, sincere man, and even I couldn't have dreamed a story like that. In addition to this tale of fertilizer, I had a report about one field of wheat that was divided into two patches and two different fertilizers used. The field where Anhydrous Ammonia was used produced 61 bushels per acre and where 16-20-0 was used made 70 bushels per acre. Pretty good wheat HUHHH!

We are always worrying about the condition of the world, politics, bills, taxes, and a couple of thousand other things, but I can give you a hint on how to relieve yourself of these in about ten minutes. Anyone who is going slowly mad and wants to rid the world of his presence is invited to come visit with Dr. Hap Connors or myself in our front yard for about ten minutes. The system is this. Hap and I live on F street, which is known in our neighborhood as the "Indianapolis Speedway" of Hereford, and one's life is not worth a nickel if one shuts one's eyes, and drifts out into the street. If this sounds like a bitter resident who fears for his life and limbs, it is!! I fear for the sanity of the world. I eat every noon at the Western Wheel and am always pleased to be able to speak to my very good friend, Henry Sears, Taft McGee and others who drift into their web and get stuck for the meals. But to get back to the story. This table where these two always sit is situated where the air conditioner affords them the maximum of comfort and they wind up every time outside in the hot sun, sitting on the gravel finishing up the conversation they started inside where all was solid comfort.

I am sorry to have to rest this column for a couple of months, but it seems that is the way it will have to be. Those of you who read it will be relieved however, and those of you who don't won't be missing anything anyway. I do enjoy bringing things to you that other people are doing and hope that some of the tips that you pick up from these people can be employed by others and put to work for you. ## Former Hereford Girl Married To Airman In Dell City Rites

Miss Delores Anne McConnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McConnell, former Hereford residents now living in Dell City, became the bride of Sgt. Jarruth Marlan Young Jr., of the U. S. Air Force.

The vows were exchanged in a p.m. ceremony last Sunday in Dell City.

Young is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Young of Avon Park, Fla.

Setting for the double-ring ceremony was the McConnell ranch home. The couple repeated vows before the large fireplace, where urns containing white gladioli and asters made an improvised altar. White candles burned on candelabra at the sides.

Harold Rhodes, pianist, played wedding music and the soloist was Mrs. H. C. Drake.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a ballerina length dress of white net, fashioned with lace overskirt and odie, long pointed sleeves, and sweetheart neckline. She wore pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white roses placed on a white Bible.

Miss Betty McConnell attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a gown of orchid net. Bridesmaids were Miss Rosemary Young, in pink, and Miss Annie Young in pale green. Their dresses, styled alike, were of ballerina length with stoles covering their shoulders. They carried rosebays with ribbon streamers matching their dresses.

For the ceremony, Mrs. McConnell chose a dress of toast silk hanting with corsage of white ardenias.

Charles O'Bannon served as best man and ushers were H. C. Drake and Paul Fertz.

Immediately afterward, a reception was held in the home.

The newlyweds left on a trip, after which they will make their home at Guadalupe Bombing Range, where the bridegroom is stationed.

School Science Rooms Being Remodeled

Remodeling of two of the science rooms at the high school is the main item of summer repair work in the Hereford schools this year, according to Don T. Martin, high school principal.

The laboratory tables which are in the middle of the rooms are being replaced by wall cabinets around the entire room. This will enable desks to be put in the middle of the rooms so that they may be used for classrooms as well as labs.

A new floor is being laid in one of the science rooms to replace the old one which has several holes in it.

At the other schools the routine summer repair work is being carried on with the desks being repaired, the floors painted and varnished and minor repairs being made.

Business Session For Officers Of Methodist Group

The officers of the senior department of the Methodist church had a supper and business meeting at the home of Cecil Billingslea Thursday night.

Those present were: E. W. Solomon, Lu Durham, Norma Grace Gray, Elna Bishop, Bobbie Drury, Jimmie and Mike Cramer, Earleen Blank, Mary Jo Billingslea, Buddy Godfrey, Barbara Burnes, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Billingslea.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Wilson and children of Vega were guests of his sister, Mrs. Jeff Glibreath, and other relatives on July 4.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Will you please publish these few comments from a passer-by.

The following day after I got into Hereford I heard a song over the radio entitled "What We Need is a Good Old Fashioned Talk With The Lord." Reviewing the world situation I was very much impressed.

When all Americans without regard to color or creed get ready to celebrate our Independence Day and thinking of all the wars we have fought together for the preservation of our American ideals and freedoms, here comes a sour note from a selfish self-centered individual destroying all hopes and clashing one race against another.

Very much to my amazement yesterday when I took my children for a haircut at the City Barbershop we were given a recommendation to Mr. Salomon's Barber shop. Still more to my surprise the barber tells me that that other place was being operated for "you".

Since we have traveled from coast to coast not having been refused service anywhere and being that I am an educator myself I have endeavored to teach my children and pupils the freedoms enjoyed in our Democracy. My children were taken aback and very much frustrated to say the least.

A citizen of that calibre may hurt the city without a toothache and may cause a lot of heartaches.

Shall we celebrate our Independence Day in a segregated fashion?

The boys in Korea may not think so. The Communists however, would be very happy to see us divided.

Cordially yours,

Just An American Passerby

Farm, Ranch Homes Improved

COLLEGE STATION - Extension workers and local leaders help 40,586 rural families improve their home in 1952, according to the statistical annual report of Bernice Claytor, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. These activities ranged from new houses built or remodeled to major repairs and the addition of furnishings and equipment.

Since World War II adds the specialist, there has been great interest in buying new and re-vamping old furniture. Last year 20,700 major pieces were added to homes and 28,579 pieces re-finished, re-seated and upholstered. Mrs. Claytor says the high price of furniture gave the incentive to the women and girls to repair and refinish the furniture they already had.

Kitchen improvement was an important phase of the home management program. The 7,042 women and girls assisted added 18,028 pieces of major equipment such as ranges, refrigerators, home freezers and washing machines and 6,200 added built-in cabinets or permanent storage.

Improvements were also made in 10,817 living rooms; 12,671 bedrooms and 5,528 bathrooms. Sanitation was improved by the building of 890 sanitary toilets and 1,172 sewage disposal systems. Along with these improvements 21,168 families were assisted in removing fire and accident hazards.

Hope To Open Pool Sunday

Rains of the past week caused a shutdown of the Hereford municipal swimming pool temporarily this week-end. Plans are being made to re-open the pool, however, Sunday noon, according to Medford Hammon, manager.

Hammon said the rains caused the water in the pool to become dirty and pollen from nearby trees fell into the water, also making it unsanitary. Lightning knocked out the electric water purifier also, so the water pouring through them was not being purified.

Workers were busy Friday emptying the pool and scrubbing the walls and bottom of the pool.

Deaf Smith County Prisoner Rate For 10 Years 3.29 Per Thousand

HUNTSVILLE — Deaf Smith county in the past ten years has committed 30 prisoners to the Texas Prison System.

This was revealed recently in a study conducted inside the prison by graduate students, at Sam Houston State Teachers College, under the supervision of Dr. Rupert C. Koeninger, head of the college's sociology department.

In number of commitments per thousand population, the County ranked 51st in the state with 3.29 persons per 1000 committed, the study further showed.

Ten counties during the period, 1942 to 1951, representing 41.73 per cent of the total population based on the 1950 census, committed 50.27 per cent of the prisoners.

In the order of the number of commitments they were Harris, Dallas, Bexar, El Paso, Tarrant, Hidalgo, Jefferson, Travis, Cameron and Wichita. These counties committed 11, 424 of the 22,705 total commitments.

Highest among them in percentage of population in commitments was El Paso County, which sent 5.77 men per thousand and ranks ninth in the State in percentage of commitments. Next was Hidalgo, which committed 4.51 per thousand, nineteenth in the State. Others and the number per thousand committed were Harris, 4.07, Wichita, 3.76, Dallas, 3.58, Cameron, 3.13, Jefferson, 3.18, Bexar, 2.87, Travis, 2.74 and Tarrant, 2.66.

In 1951, the order of number of commitments ran according to the ten year average, except that Nueces county was eighth. Over the ten years, Nueces county, which ranks seventh in population, is twelfth in number of commitments.

Two counties -- Kennedy and Loving -- have not committed anyone to the prison in the ten years.

More persons were committed to the prison in 1951 than in any other year during the study. There were 3,056. The lowest year was 1943 when 1,579 were committed. The number has increased each year since, except in 1948 when the number fell below the 1947 mark.

The percentage of increase in number of commitments in 1951, however, fell below that of the previous four years. There were only two per cent more in 1951, as compared with a 13.7 increase in 1950.

Earl Brown, Adrian Roper, Takes $2000 Matched Roping Jackpot Sun.

Two 10-second penalties — one for breaking the barrier on his sixth calf and the other for not tying his 10th calf securely — cost James Kenney of Carlsbad the $2,000 pot in his matched roping meet with Earl Brown of Adrian in Hereford last Sunday.

Brown won the event with a total of 195.8 seconds for the 10 calves. Kenney had a total time of 207.7 seconds, to lose to the Adrian roper by 11.9 seconds.

In the other roping events, Don Davidson of Dimmitt, a member of the Figure 2 Roping Club of Hereford, won a three-calf matched roping event over Bronco Curry of Hereford with a total time of 64.6 seconds.

Curry, who finished with 71.8 seconds, broke the barrier and was assessed a 10-second penalty. He had the match won until he committed the foul.

Bill Bomar of Clovis, announcer for the matches, had 23 different ropers lined up for the event, which was sponsored by the Figure 2 Roping club.

Bronco Curry won the $10 jackpot for 40% first prize with a time of 11 seconds on his one calf. Earl Brown took 30% money for second-placing with 15.5 seconds. Ray Brown won 20% of the pot for third place on 15.8 seconds and Roger Gurbkley took fourth place money, 10%, with 15.9 seconds.

Tornado Safety Rules Given By Commerce Dept.

The U. S. Commerce Department's Weather Bureau has issued a bulletin giving tornado safety rules.

It contains such pointers as: If you're in open country, move at right angles to the tornado's path. Given no time to escape, lie flat in a ditch or ravine. If in a city or town, seek shelter, preferably in a steel reinforced building. Stay away from windows. In homes, the south-west corner of the lowest floor or in the basement offers greatest safety. Windows on the north and east sides of the house, may be opened to help reduce damage. The publication points out that the big storms are most apt to appear between 3 and 7 p.m., but "don't depend on it!" How to recognize a tornado by its cloud formations is also explained. Says Ernest Tutt, Commerce Department director for four states: "Better stop in at your nearest Commerce office and get a free copy of this tornado information before the next big blow."

Littlefield Won Hereford Match By Wide Margin

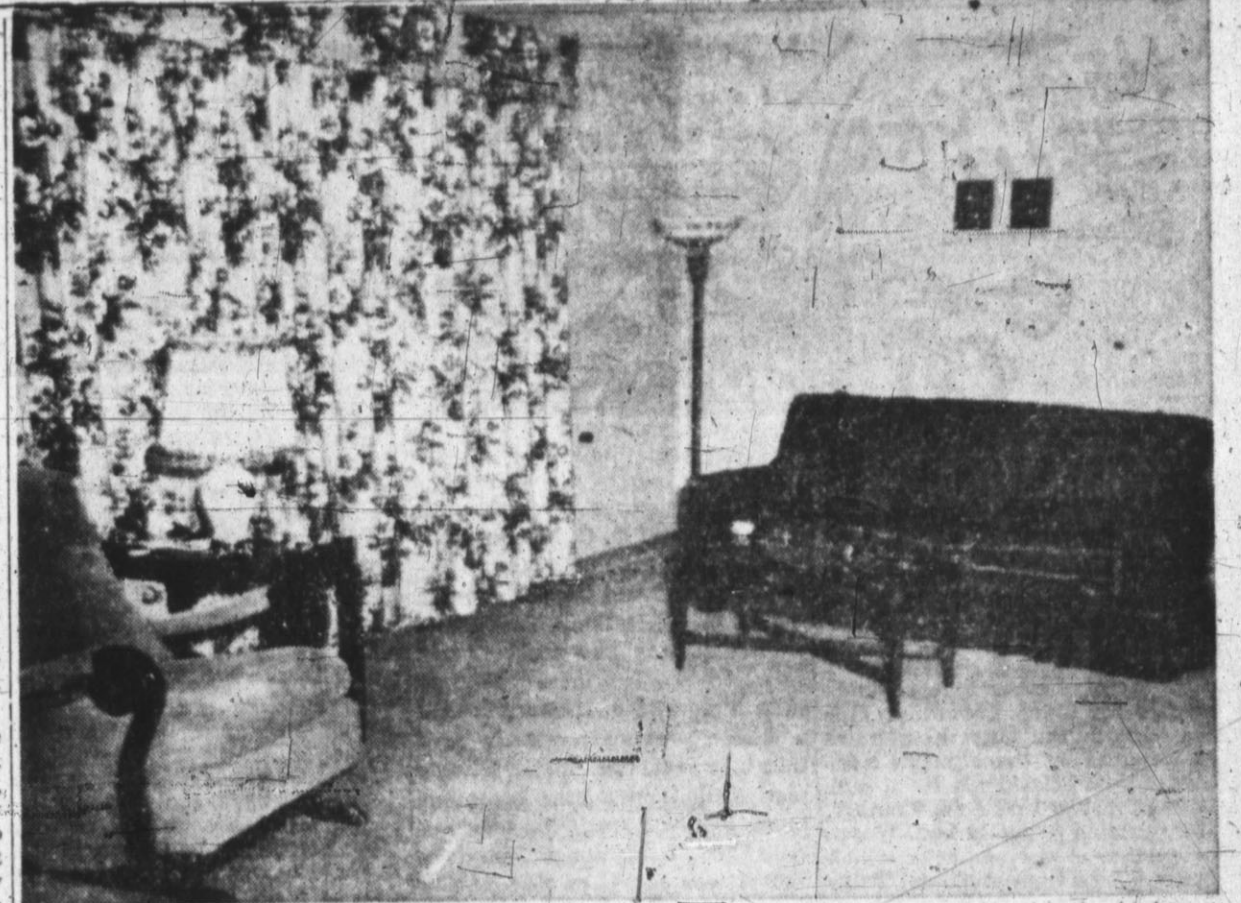

The extent to which Hereford's golfers were beaten by Littlefield on Sunday, June 29, was not known until late this week, because nobody on the Hereford squad kept score.

No wonder! Littlefield buried the locals 116½ to 41½ in the inter-city team match play! Hereford, however, will have a chance to avenge the trouncing when they meet Littlefield on the local course next Sunday, July 13.

Scoring was based on three points for each individual match and three points on the foursome. Seventy-six golfers from the two towns made up 19 different foursomes.

Several good score cards were turned in for the afternoon play. Hereford's Bob Tilson shot 77, and Hereford pro Clyde Posey turned in a 79. Littlefield also had some low scores. Mel Best shot 70, Dr. Still had 73, Harvey Lee had 78, and pro Kenneth Wright had 68.

By JIMMIE GILLETTE

The prospects of trying to write a column on the Fourth of July are about as promising as the future of a woodpecker in West Texas. If you are smart, you'll probably stop right here.

A lot of husbands ate sandwiches for lunch Thursday. This was due to the large number of housewives on the citizen's committee who turned out for a tour of the Hereford schools. Frankly, the situation is pretty bad. Worst of course, is the barracks which house junior high students. These barracks were erected shortly after the war as a temporary relief measure, not more than three years -- and they are still in use. The high school is in fair shape as far as its goes. Lighting facilities are very bad, but might be improved by new wiring methods on the ceilings and walls, following the pattern used in Central school and in the courthouse. Dressing rooms, toilets, cafeteria facilities, band quarters, study halls, and storage space are inadequate, obsolete and in some instances deplorable. Two small crannies, not more than 30 square feet, are the only dressing and prop rooms serving the stage in the high school auditorium.

The trip certainly raised my esteem of these magicians who perform at intervals in the auditorium. After seeing those little rooms with no outside entrance, I am at absolute loss to know where they keep all of their rabbits, flags, birds and other paraphernalia.

Shirley school was a direct contrast. It will be a long time before this building becomes a problem. Central school, however, was the property which amazed the group of citizens. This building was in the best state of repair I have seen in down through the years. Several of us tried to praise D. C. Martin, Central school principal, but he insisted on giving credit to the board of education. The floors were gleaming and the cafeteria situation seemed more adequate than high school. Heating is still a problem, but Mr. Martin says that it is not "too bad". He has just opened up a new basement room for next term to house a class for exceptional children and it was cut from part of the cafeteria. This school is unquestionably loaded to capacity, D. C. was not complaining. His only feeble protest was lack of playground facilities. Certainly no future expansion in or concerning Central should be contemplated, due to lack of playground space. Despite his modesty, however, I personally think D. C. Martin is a wheelhorse when it comes to handling schools. Central, a sore spot in recent years, is now an example of efficiency. He is a good man.

Another Mr. Martin, Don, the high school principal, handled the tour in absence of George Gram, who was vacationing at the time. We ran out of time and didn't get to see the field house which, Don says, is also inadequate.

Unquestionably, something has to be done about our schools. Just what is best and how to do it are the big questions. The citizen's committee members are beginning to realize the scope of the job which the school board wished off on them. However, they're still turning out in numbers for the meetings and they all seem to be carefully considering the problems. Next meeting is Thursday night, July 10.

Fan Mail

Mr. Gillentine:
I love your column, but last Sunday's was taboo. Get on the ball, boy!

--A Reader.

Since there wasn't any column I can't figure this out. Maybe he's talking about the Eisenhower column last Thursday. Is he a disgruntled Taft man, or is it sarcasm about not having a column?

Dear Mr. Gillentine:
Your column is the only thing "good and readable" in your paper.

I really don't see how you won all those "two-bit" awards! Your paper is like the Star Theatre -- a big build-up to boredom!

--An Ex-Reader

Boy, that's laying it on the line. Honestly, I sometimes wonder about these things myself. Maybe the other papers were just worse. However, it's all running true to form. The thing our readers liked, the Bull Column, was definitely classed as second rate by the judges and the things he does not like took first places. Maybe he's out of tune.

Roy Ford dropped in while ago to point out that only five flags rippled in the Hereford breeze on the occasion of American Independence Day. In humiliation, I waited until he left, rushed out and made it six.

This Amarillo water situation is bad. Very bad. They are moving in and taking Deaf Smith County ground water to supply the City of Amarillo. There seems little hope of stopping them. We all know it isn't right, but what can you do? Amarillo should stop and think twice. Is it more important to water lawns in Amarillo than to grow wheat, potatoes, sugar beets, lettuce and other crops in Deaf Smith County? Lawn watering, they admit, is the item which runs their water down. Spasmodic periodical bans on watering have proved this. It is something like the old story about the man who killed the goose that laid the golden egg. If the Amarillo people draw off millions of gallons of water to keep their lawns green and beautiful, sooner or later irrigation farmers will have no water, no crops and no money to spend with Amarillo wholesale or retail firms. A few more years and people will begin leaving this area. Business will drop off in Amarillo as a result and folks will also begin to leave Amarillo. Then the lawns will go unkept, unmowed and "unwatered".

There is but one answer. Deaf Smith County, in self defense, is going to have to get busy and get that Canadian River Dam for Amarillo. It's the only way to keep them off our necks.

Ronald, age three, and Ricky, age two, sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Nunley, were playing with a lady bug the other day. They also found a blister bug and brought it to the house to show their mother. She told them to throw it away and that they mustn't play with bugs. Ronald looked up at his mother and asked "Not even woman-bugs, Mommy?"

Extensionist Urges Home Grown Feeds For Dairy Cattle

COLLEGE STATION -- Home grown feeds, especially pastures and other forages, are the cheapest and best feeds for dairy cattle. Such feeds, says R. E. Burleson, dairy husbandman for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, can provide the essential nutrients needed by dairy cows to produce liberal amounts of milk.

The specialist urges dairymen to plan for ample acreages of long season grazing crops, abundant supplies of high quality forage and enough grain to supplement the roughages and balance the dairy ration.

Here are some suggestions from Burleson that should help dairymen reach the objective of growing at home the forages and grains needed to take care of the dairy herd. He says determine the capabilities of the land on the farm and a soil analysis will help do this. Then follow good land-use practices and grow crops that are suited to the soil and climatic conditions prevailing in the area.

Goldston - Pinkston Vows Repeated Here Tuesday

Miss Florence Elizabeth Goldston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Goldston, became the bride of Gerald Wayne Pinkston, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pinkston, of Levelland, in a ceremony read Tuesday evening at 6:30 p.m. in the First Baptist church.

Rev. R. H. Cagle, pastor, was the officiant for the double-ring ceremony.

A pink and aqua color theme was emphasized in the decorations of the church with tall baskets of pink and white gladioli and lighted tapers forming the altar background.

Mrs. Cliff Estes, pianist, Mrs. Bob Lawrence, organist, and David and Doris Goldston provided the music for the wedding. Mrs. Estes accompanied David Goldston who sang "Because" preceding the ceremony, and she also accompanied Doris Goldston who sang "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us" following the ceremony. Mrs. Lawrence played "Side by Side", the bride's sorority song, preceding the traditional wedding march and played "I Love You Truly" as the vows were spoken.

The bride's attendants included her sister, Miss Doris Goldston of Dallas as maid of honor, and Mrs. Carroll Cooper, Dallas, and Miss Mary Nell Morrison, Lamesa, as bridesmaids. They wore matching dresses of pink net over taffeta fashioned with strapless bodice and full gathered skirt. They wore picture hats of pink net over taffeta. The honor maid carried pink Esther Reed daisies against aqua ribbon and the bridesmaids bouquets were of aqua daisies with pink ribbon.

Candlelighters were Dora Fern and Frances Goldston. They wore pink nylon dresses with white sashes and scalloped hemline and they wore pink rosebud wrist corsages.

Dianne Witson and Sande Winkler, wearing aqua nylon and carrying nylon baskets of pink petals, served as flower girls.

Salvador Villaseñor, Plainview was best man and Sam Choy, Plainview and Glenn Pinkston of Levelland were groomsmen. Ushers were Bill Goldston of Pampa and Danny McLallen.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a formal white satin wedding gown fashioned with fitted bodice coming to points in front and back just below the waistline. The Peter Pan collar and pointed cuffs were of Chantilly lace and the full skirt terminated in a short train. Her veil of illusion was held by a band of lace trimmed in seed pearls.

The bridal bouquet was of white yosebuds and stephanotis with a pink rosebud going to the bride in the center.

The bride's mother wore a blue gown with white sash and the bridegroom's mother wore a brown lace dress with a corsage of yellow carnations.

Reception is Held

Following the wedding a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wilson, 130 Star street. Assisting at the refreshment table which featured a three-tiered wedding cake, were Mrs. Bob Hess, Mrs. Benny Womble and Miss Nora McLallen.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Ruidoso and other points in New Mexico the bride was wearing a brown tissueingham with brown and white accessories. After July 3, the couple will be at home in Haskell.

Mrs. Pinkston is a graduate of Hereford high school, Wayland college, Plainview; and Mary-Hardin Baylor college, Belton. At Mary-Hardin Baylor college, she was house chairman of her dormitory and member of the Historical-Literary society. She was head of the home economics department in the Dalhart high school the past year.

Mr. Pinkston is a graduate of Levelland high school and Wayland college. He has also attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

At the time of his marriage he was serving as associate pastor of the First Baptist church in Haskell.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Goldston and twin sons of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Goldston and daughter, Wichita, Kansas; Mrs. Steve Goldston, Amarillo; Mrs. E. B. ### LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Potatoes, Now Back In Stores, Make Ideal Summertime Dishes

Now that potatoes are again appearing on the market, housewives are giving them a hearty welcome. Many people want potatoes every day and up in Maine a fisherman may demand them twice a day.

The Hereford potatoes that are being dug now are wonderful, but don't buy more than can be used in a short time unless they can be stored properly.

For two unusual potato recipes we are indebted to Mrs. Norman Gray who has used them as stand-bys for years. Her mother used to make potato salad when Mrs. Gray was a little girl and while she changed it to suit her family's tastes, she isn't sure she has improved the dish.

Potato Salad

- 6 or 8 medium sized potatoes
- 2 tablespoons crushed onion
- 2 tablespoons hot water and 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 2 tablespoons Miracle Whip salad dressing
- 2 tablespoons chopped pimientos
- 2 hard boiled eggs
- salt and pepper to taste
- 2 tablespoons green pepper

Boil potatoes in jackets until tender. Remove skins and dice in small pieces. Add the onion and green pepper to potatoes and salt lightly. Blend the vinegar, hot water and mayonnaise together and pour over the potato mixture, mixing well but being careful not to mash the potatoes. Add chopped pimientos and boiled which have been cut up in small pieces. Stir just enough to mix. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Potatoes au Gratin are fine for the hot dish of the meal. Mrs. Gray uses Velveeta for this because of its flavor, although other cheeses may be used with satisfaction.

Potatoes au Gratin

- 6 or 8 potatoes
- 1 cup cubed Velveeta Cheese
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 cup cream or heavy milk
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Paprika

Place a layer of cubed potatoes (half of them) which have been boiled in their jackets, in baking dish and sprinkle thickly with cheese. Dot with butter and add another layer of potatoes and cheese. Add remaining butter, sprinkle with salt and pepper and pour cream over top. Bake 20 or 30 minutes in moderate oven. Dot with paprika and serve hot.

Iris Expert Learns Faith From Her Favorite Plant

(Ed. Note -- This is another in a series of articles on timely gardening subjects being sponsored by members of the garden clubs of the city.)

Mrs. A. O. Thompson learned a lesson in faith from her favorite flower, the iris, one day last May and discovered something more than the miracle of nature -- a formula for overcoming obstacles.

That early morning in May Mrs. Thompson looked through her window into her iris beds. They were beautiful beyond compare, but late that evening a terrible wind and rain storm laid the blossoms low, every bloom was ruined. For three days she was heart-sick, for much love, care and hard work had gone into the making of her garden.

Then, three mornings later, standing in the window to view the garden once again, she could scarcely believe what she saw. A miracle had happened in her own back yard. New buds had opened and a riot of color from the iris beds again greeted her eyes. Three days later one of the worst sand storms of the year came along and the lovely irises were again in ruins. This time she knew she could hope that again her garden might flourish, and sure enough in a few days new buds opened, later varieties began to blossom and there again the iris greeted her in a gorgeous array of color.

Mrs. Thompson is a member of the Hereford Garden club and of the American Iris Society. Her iris career started about 20 years ago when she began planting irises given to her by her friends. A gift from her son-in-law enabled her to buy a collection of unnamed varieties and five named varieties. She was really splurging, spending two whole dollars for irises, never dreaming that she would someday spend more than that for a single rhizome.

Iris, like everything else, was much cheaper then and older varieties could be bought for 15 or 20 cents. In 1940, she spent over $8 for irises and the National Iris Gardens sent her an $8 rhizome of their own introduction as a gift with the order.

When the many colored iris opened in the spring of 1941, Mrs. Thompson had the thrill of a lifetime. She set about adding to her collection and at one time she had 430 named varieties growing in her garden.

Since moving into her new home she has only planted about 225 varieties, but her order has already gone in for 25 new ones. In her garden she has represented most of the exotic and beautiful types, and she will tell you that you need not be an artist to paint a garden picture with irises. Their lovely rainbow of colors blend into an array of gorgeous beauty without assistance, once you provide the plant and the proper environment.

How They Grow

There are three varieties of irises that do well in this locality -- the bulbous, the bearded and the beardless. The Dutch Iris is the most common of the bulbous type. The bearded is so called because of the hair-like growth on the upper part of the falls. In the beardless are the Siberians and the Spuria. The Siberians like a sunny location. They will stand a great deal of water in the spring and summer but are able to adapt themselves to ordinary garden conditions and they do well in good garden soil.

Iris...

Planting is best done in September for the best flowering effect comes only with well established clumps, and they should remain undisturbed for years. They may be thinned or divisions removed for new planting by simply chiseling out sections from the margins of the spreading clumps. If planted in rich soil they will not need fertilizing until the clumps are large, when a mulch of old manure is needed.

Spuria Iris like full sun and do well in average garden soil. They need plenty of water in the spring when making growth and while blooming, but will do well with little moisture the rest of the year. Rhizons should be set just below the surface of the ground in well prepared hole, about 18 inches apart. When once established, they may be left for years without division if fertilized occasionally.

As cut flowers, spurias have no equal in the iris family, other than the Dutch Iris, which they exceed in length of stem and size of flowers. With their fine foliage and tall stems they are especially suited in the back of the herbaceous border.

Volumes could be written on the bearded type, the iris most familiar to everyone. No other group of iris can begin to compare with these in garden value and general usefulness. Great strides have been made in recent years in the developments from the "flags" of our grandmother's day to the marvelous iris of today with rhizomes being introduced at one hundred dollars each.

One of the greatest achievements of recent years is the introduction of the new flamingo pinks with tangerine beard, which sells for $15 and $25 dollars each.

The bearded iris range in height from the five inch dwarfs that begin blooming the last of February, the intermediates, 18 to 24 inches in size, that bloom next, to the tall varieties of 60 inches. The average is 34 to 40 inches. Some have small blooms and some blooms range from seven to nine inches, and there is color to suit every taste.

By careful selection, the iris season may be extended over a long period. From early spring, through the fall into the cold weather.

Select iris that are hardy - never buy the tender type. Watch for varieties with stiff stems, good branching and that are free flowerings. Chose types that are clear and unfading and have heavy substance, which means the thickness of the petals and the ability to stand up in all kinds of weather. If an iris lacks substance, however beautiful in other ways, its beauty will not last.

Plant iris where they will have sun at least seven hours a day. The soil should be spaded to a depth of 12 inches and well rotted cow manure worked in.

Make the hole large enough to take the spread of the roots. One half cup of potato fertilizer (16-20-0) may be worked into the bottom of the hole, then a little top soil put in with a handful of bone meal. Spread roots out fan-like and downward, but keep rhizome toward top covering with about two inches of soil. Pack soil well and then water. Keep moist and cultivated until plants are established.

Do not water iris too late in the fall for if a hard freeze comes you will lose next year's blooms. A secret for most people, but iris provide for next year's blooms before it goes to rest for the winter.

The best planting time is from June to September in this area. Early planting allows the plant to become well rooted before going dormant for the cold weather.

Iris clumps are at their best the second and third years. After that they may be dug, divided and reset. Cut tops back to seven inches and fan-shaped.

If you do not care to dig the whole clump, add fertilizer to the remaining part and leave in the ground. They may be planted in a triangle 12 inches apart, or 24 inches apart. Mrs. Thompson prefers to plant 36 inches apart, thus avoiding resetting too often.

Fall blooming (or twice blooming) iris need to be given food, water and cultivation throughout the summer and should be divided every two years after the spring blooming season is over. All iris need watering if the summer is hot - it is during July, August and September that next years are being formed in the rhizome.

Contrary to some beliefs, Mrs. Thompson thinks the best is not always the most expensive. She prefers to get those in the Iris Hall of Fame (the one hundred judged best for 10 successive years) which have been the most expensive when introduced, but are reduced through the years. Sometimes the most expensive are reduced to 50 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Brame of Abilene arrived Thursday to spend the July 4 holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grady.

Rewards Great In Study Of Childrens' Problems

Being president of child study club is just like being president of any other club, except the pleasures are a little more pronounced and the rewards a little greater.

Mrs. J. W. Witherspoon, president of the Child Study Club of Hereford, believes this to be true because of the fact that in discussing and studying the many intimate problems of their children, members naturally develop closer ties of friendship and have a better understanding of each other.

Mrs. Witherspoon says that while the Child Study club was organized mainly for the study of children and their related problems, its members also study how to become better parents and how to prepare their children to be better citizens.

One of the most helpful programs of each year is "Problem Night" when members submit individual problems for discussion and possible solution.

"We stay on into the night for that one," she said.

Mrs. Witherspoon was born in Castro county and moved to Hereford while in the fourth grade. She is a graduate of Hereford high school and married J. W. Witherspoon in 1937. After Pearl Harbor they moved to Vallejo, Calif., but in 1946 the call of the Lone Star state brought them back to Hereford.

Since her marriage, her interests have centered around her home and family. The couple has four daughters and of a necessity, a natural inclination toward domesticity developed into making a hobby of sewing. She makes most of her own and her daughters' clothes. "I am teaching them to sew as they make their doll clothes. That is the way I learned," she commented.

Collecting China slippers gives her much enjoyment but she has purchased only a few pieces because other interests have crowded out that interest. She is a member of the First Baptist church and a past president of the Fidelis Matron's class. She has also served as president of the West Hereford Home Demonstration club.

In discussing the club work for the coming year the leader says that each member will have charge of one program, selecting her own subject or guest speaker for the evening.

One special program for the children is being planned with the children of members presenting the program. There will be book reviews and informative programs pertaining to the local school government and county library.

MRS. J. W. WITHERSPOON

For the past two years the club has sponsored the "Mother's March of Dimes" for the Polio fund drive and that will also be a feature of this year's activities. Following a custom of years, husbands will be honored at a Valentine party.

The club will be opened in August with a family picnic at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Kaul. Plans for the year's work and opening of the study program in September will be discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson and Mrs. Seale Stephens left Thursday for Red River to spend a week or 10 days vacationing. They were joined by relatives from Littlefield who also planned to vacation at Red River.

Mrs. Ralph McCullough accompanied her daughter, Norma, to Amarillo Wednesday after a visit here with her parents over the weekend.

Beauty at Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. What can I do about spotty, blotched or freckled hands?

A. Your hands need a good bleaching, and you can do this with one of the mild, bleach creams available at cosmetic counters. Follow carefully the directions for its use. Apply often, but do not leave on overnight.

Q. What type of eyebrows are most suitable to the roundfaced girl?

A. Don't let small brows accentuate the roundness of your face. Curve the brow slightly, and lengthen it on the outer side. Anyone without feature faults should let the eyebrow take its natural course. As a rule, such brows need not be plucked except for an occasional stray hair.

Q. What hairdress should be worn for the girl with a low forehead, and what for the girl with a high forehead?

A. For the low forehead, comb the hair loosely back from it, which adds alertness and intelligence to the expression. For the high forehead, modify the extreme by training the hair to fall in loose tendrils or waves upon it.

Q. How can I add a healthier appearance to my face and hair?

A. The nightly "beguine position" is good for this. Make a practice of hanging the head over the side of the bed before going to sleep at night, and propping the feet high for 15 or 20 minutes. The flow of blood to face and scalp is a good tonic.

Q. Is there any astringent I can use to absorb dandruff, when the hair is excessively oily?

A. Yes; witch hazel or commercial antiseptic preparations may be used. They are drying to dry hair. Apply, then follow with a scalp massage and shampoo.

Q. What is the cause of open pores in my complexion?

A. Usually, poor blood circulation. Use astringent lotions, applying with cotton pads by patting vigorously over face and throat. Rub ice, wrapped in cotton, over the skin.

Q. What are some tips of fingernail filing?

A. Use a long, flexible file. Follow the grain of the nail from end to tip. Don't file back and forth, or too close to the flesh. If fingers are long and slim, you can file them in smart almond shape. If not, a rounded oval will make them appear longer.

Q. What is a good exercise for shrunken hips and thighs?

A. Stand with your right side to a wall, with hand on wall for support. Raise left leg forward, knee rigid. Kick backward violently with quick movement, keeping knee rigid and tensing leg and buttock muscles. After 10 times, perform exercise with the other leg.

WSCS Features Luncheon Program

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met at the church Wednesday for its regular business and luncheon meeting.

Following the luncheon Mrs. S. L. Easley, president, directed a short business session and Mrs. Dean Bishop was in charge of the program. Assisting with discussions of "The Earth is so Full of All the Earth Be Glad" were Mary Durham, Martha Heard, Virginia Sigle and Elna Bishop.

Special guests were Mrs. Jewell Heath, Dallas; Mrs. J. M. Donnelly of Terre Haute, Ind., and Mrs. McCawley.

Mrs. J. M. Donnelly of Terre Haute, Ind., is a guest in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Heard.

Boys' Ranchers To Hollywood For Appearances

California, here they come, straight from America's First Boy's Ranch located 40 miles NW of Amarillo, Tex. Boy's Ranch will be well represented in Hollywood this month when four talented boys from the Ranch arrive to make a number of network recordings and appearances on several radio and television shows there.

The lucky boys are David Ash, 13, of Amarillo, comedian and singer; Bur Hillier, 15, of Crutcher, Mo., the star of the show who plays the guitar and sings western ballads; pianist Eddie Stevens, 14, of McCamey, Tex.; and Bill Price, 17, of Kansas City, Kan., the master of ceremonies for the program. The boys are making the trip with Mr. Henry Schulte, ranch vice-president and general manager.

They will make several stops to present entertainment between here and California. The itinerary includes a visit to Carlsbad, El Paso, Juarez, Tucson, and Los Angeles, where programs will be given in each town. The boys will be guests on radio programs and present entertainment for meetings of various clubs.

Thirteen 15-minute transcription will be made with the C. P. McGraw-Hill Record company and on each transcription, a movie star will make a guest appearance with the boys. ## Re-Activation Of Scout Troop 50 Chartered At District Meeting

Progress reports on the re-activation of Boy Scout Troop 50 were given by Bruce Miller at the Deaf Smith District Boy Scout committee meeting held last Tuesday noon.

A new troop committee, comprised of Ted Fokd, chairman, and John Estes and Jim Whelan, was named. Art Stoy has been selected Scoutmaster and O. D. Lowry is the institutional representative of the club for the Hereford Lions.

Plans are underway to complete the reorganization by the time school starts this fall.

J. C. Reese reported on the visit made to Camp Don Harrington for the annual camp inspection. He said 25 Scouts from Hereford attended this camp and that four Explorers are to take part in a trip to Philmont Scout Ranch later this month. He also discussed plans for helping the local Scouts prepare for the Council Swim Meet to be held in August.

Dr. M. G. Adams reported that several Merit Badge Counselors had been approved and that a list would be available next week. S. O. Wilson reported that the Stanford Bible class which he represents, had nearly completed purchase of new tents for Troop 2, which they sponsor. Troop 52 also has a new Assistant Scoutmaster, Jack Flowers. Flowers attended camp last week with the boys from his Troop.

Bill Phillips, District Commissioner, reported that both Scout Troops were meeting during the summer. He also reminded the group of the adult leadership training which is being conducted during the summer at Philmont. Coy Patton, Neighborhood Commissioner, gave a report on the Cubbing activities.

W. J. Hiatt, executive, and Haroldashmatt, field executive, were also present. Hiatt encouraged all groups to plan for outdoor activities during the summer months. DeLashmatt gave a brief report on the camp which has just concluded. Attendance was the largest in the history of the Council. Dick Wilson and Bob Vefgel were selected as candidates for the Order of the Arrow.

Wayne Edwards, vice-chairman of the district, conducted the business meeting.

Resignation Of Some Navy Reserve Officers Allowed

If you're a Naval officer, this might affect you.

According to a Navy announcement in Washington, certain Naval reserve officers who have been released to inactive duty since June 25, 1950 may resign.

Officers eligible are those who are 35 or over, who performed active duty (including enlisted service) of more than 90 days or more between December 7, 1941 and September 2, 1945, who have subsequently maintained continuous membership in the naval reserve, and have been released to inactive duty since June 25, 1950.

However, time served in government-sponsored training and educational programs may not be counted to fulfill the active duty requirement.

At the same time, the Navy announced that regular or reserve personnel, office and enlisted, released or discharged from active duty since June 25, 1950, who become members of the organized reserve, shall not again be ordered to active duty involuntarily except in time of war or a national emergency hereafter declared by Congress.

To The People Of Deaf Smith Co.

During the years that I have served you as your County and District Clerk, no complaint has come to my attention, and I have heard of no criticism of the way I have conducted the business of the office. I feel that this is a record of which any public official could be justly proud.

It is on this record, and in all humility, that I ask you to elect me to the office of County Clerk. I feel that I am well qualified to serve you in this position because of my training and experience, and I believe that you will agree with me that this office should not be awarded on any other basis than that of qualifications and merit.

Choosing a County Clerk is strictly a matter of business, and it is considered a sound business principle to choose for positions of importance persons who are experienced in their line of work. I hope that you will consider this when you mark your ballot.

These statements are not made in criticism of my opponent. It has always been my policy to solicit your help on my own merits, not the demerits of my opponent. I hope that it can never be said of me that I ever uttered a word to the discredit or embarrassment of any of those who have opposed me. In fact, I am proud to be able to number among my best friends those who have been my opponents in past campaigns.

If you see fit to elect me as your County Clerk, I shall try to show my grateful appreciation to you by continuing to give to the office the best that is in me.

Sincerely yours,
Robert L. Thompson

Proposal In Korea

EVER mindful of the Oriental passion for face-savings, Allied truce negotiators in Korea pointed out to North Korean Gen. Nam Il a loophole through which agreement might be reached.

The loophole concerned the wording of the Allied draft on prisoners of war, last stumbling block in the path to a Korean armistice. In outlining it to the Communists, chief U.N. delegate Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison, emphasized that agreement on the rest of the armistice document "demonstrates that the negotiations of the past year have really accomplished a great deal."

Harrison pointed out that the Allied draft on prisoners reads that "all prisoners of war held in the custody of each side" when a truce becomes effective will be released, and an exchange will be made according to "lists which have been exchanged and have been checked" by each side.

Reds Repeat Demand

Under this wording the Communists could get back all their prisoners carried on the list. Those who refused to go back to North Korea or China would have been reclassified and, presumably, removed from the list.

Nam Il listened to interpreters drone out the Allied proposal, then reiterated that the only way to reach an armistice was for the Allies to accept the Red proposal of May 2, which would require the Allies to send thousands of North Koreans and Chinese prisoners back to the Communists against their will.

However the Communists did not ignore the Allied proposal entirely, but asked for a one-day recess in the truce talks—presumably to study it further.

Harrison told Nam it seemed clear that "if the prisoner of war issue was settled, an armistice would result without delay."

But, Harrison said, "we have in our custody prisoners of war whom we cannot return to you without repudiating our basic moral principles."

U.S. Firmness Attacked

The Allied refusal to repatriate any prisoners who do not want to go home has bedeviled the armistice talks for weeks. This has brought charges from left-wing Laborites in Britain that the U.S. through "obstinacy" is prolonging bloodshed in Korea. These same Laborites urge the U.S. to recognize the fait accompli of Communism in China, and accept Red Chinese delegates into the U.N.

The British left-wingers cannot, however, point to many advantages that have come their way since Britain recognized the Peiping regime. The Red Chinese have never taken cognizance of the British recognition, have confiscated British holdings in China and British businessmen in Red China have been forced to withdraw $40 million dollars worth of investments and quit the country.

South Korea's political crisis approached a climax, meanwhile, as President Syngman Rhee handed the assembly an ultimatum—adopt his proposed constitutional amendments quickly or be dissolved.

Quotes

Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination: "General Eisenhower is one of the greatest Americans I know, but I don't see how such a great general can be so poor a politician. He didn't have to take off his uniform to keep Senator Taft from becoming President. We Democrats will take care of that."

James F. Longworth, 69-year-old Kentucky mountaineer commenting on his apparent good health after explaining that God twice told him he would die at 7 A.M. today: "I am greatly disappointed. I was ready to go."

In Short

Approved: by the Senate, a military budget containing $45,403,000,000 in cash and credit to maintain the armed forces in the new fiscal year which started Tuesday.

Voted: unanimously by the Senate, to approve a program for an Air Force buildup aimed at a 143-wing goal by mid-1955.

Announced: by the State Department that Secretary Dean Acheson will meet with the foreign ministers of Australia and New Zealand in Honolulu early next month to set up an American-Australian-New Zealand defense alliance.

Resigned: after four troubled months in office, Egypt's Premier Ahmed Hilaly Pasha. King Farouk appointed independent Hussein Sirry Pasha to succeed Hilaly Pasha.

REPUBLICANS: Battle for Delegates

ROBERT TAFT

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

HAROLD STASSEN

DOUGLAS MACARTHUR

EARL WARREN

"POLITICS," wrote essayist Henry David Thoreau, "is the gizzard of society and the two political parties are its two opposite halves which grind on each other."

This week in Chicago one of the halves was grinding on itself as GOP policy makers tried to settle the question of contested delegates in time for the National Convention.

The biggest contested delegation involved was Texas, with 38 seats at stake. The contest began at local conventions in Texas when Eisenhower backers were thrown out by the Taft-controlled state GOP committee. The Eisenhower men held a rump convention with the result that two Texas states—one pro-Taft, the other pro-Eisenhower—started packing their bags for the trip to Chicago.

No Compromise

Eisenhower advisors said the general has no intention of compromising with Sen. Taft over the Texas delegation dispute.

Said Sen. Frank Carlson (R-Kan.), an Eisenhower backer, "We want all the delegates who legally are ours. I don't see how fair-minded men can fail to seat the Eisenhower delegation from Texas."

Eisenhower himself has charged the Taft forces state Texas delegates as brazenly as cattle rustlers. Taft indignantly rejected the charge, contending the pro-Ike people were mostly Democrats who shouldn't have been allowed to vote on GOP delegates.

Arguments over the accreditation of convention delegates from six states in addition to Texas came up before the Republican National Committee in Chicago this week. In all, 72 seats were in dispute. Those 72 seats could very well tip the balance in the close race between Taft and Eisenhower.

As state groups presented their case Taft said he did not believe pre-convention skirmishes would inflict any gaping wounds in the elephant's hide and added that, if nominated, he would have "a forgiving nature."

There were few signs of forgiveness at the hearings on the delegate fights as hot-under-the-collar disputants flung charges of steamrollering and robbery back and forth.

Squabble Over TV

One Taft-Eisenhower squabble arose over televising these delegate selection preliminaries. Taft supporters kept their attitude on the TV question under wraps as much as they could, but the Eisenhower backers issued a statement calling for opening the hearings to television, radio, and press photographers.

The Republican National Committee finally voted 60 to 40 to bar the delegate hearings to radio and TV.

While all this was going on, convention headquarters announced the speakers who will follow keynote Douglas A. MacArthur.

Speakers' Roster

They include former President Herbert Hoover—down for Tuesday night—and one of the party's most controversial figures, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin, scheduled to speak Wednesday afternoon. Another Wednesday speaker will be Pennsylvania's Gov. John S. Fine, the man whose state delegation could turn the tide toward Taft or Eisenhower if the outcome of the delegate contest doesn't.

New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey arrived in Chicago from the Governors' Conference in Houston with the prediction that no darkhorse is going to win the nomination.

Dewey thinks the nominee will be Eisenhower, but if it isn't Dewey said the man who heads the ticket will be Taft.

The Dewey reasoning left no room for Warren, MacArthur or any darkhorse to emerge to take the nomination away from Taft or Eisenhower.

East-West Grapple Over German Unity

FOR most Germans, the division of their country seven years after defeat is a galling reminder. They are willing to listen to anybody who offers to wipe it out.

The Kremlin's harping on German unification has thus found receptive ears in West Germany. U.S., British and French diplomats feel the Russians are interested more in propaganda than in unification. They want the question of free, all-German elections settled first.

Steel

Price Boost in the Offing

The melting inventories caused by the extended steel strike will boost the demand for steel products in months to come. This will mean that customer price resistance will be practically nil in the event of a substantial hike in steel prices.

Most businessmen had thought the Government would step in and halt the steel strike soon after it started. Few of them made any attempt to build up steel inventories.

The fact that the steel strike continued without intervention from the Government meant that industrial inventories were thrown out of kilter.

Steel Flow Delay

The end of the steel strike could not start steel flowing from the furnaces immediately. The furnaces take time to get heated up properly and care must be taken to see that they haven't been damaged during the weeks they were cold.

The steel workers themselves, meanwhile, have fought a divide-and-conquer war with the nation's steel industry trying to win over smaller basic steel companies in an effort to win new contract settlements.

Leaders of the union huddled in secret sessions with the smaller companies. The larger steel companies raised their biggest objection to granting a union shop but some of the smaller companies were willing to go along with the recommendation of the Wage Stabilization Board and grant a union shop, thus making union membership a condition of employment.

Idleness Spreads

Idleness among workers in steel-using industries left more than 250,000 men without work as negotiations to sign strike-ending contracts continued.

The International Harvester Co. furloughed 5,000 employees at its Louisville plant and 50,000 more throughout its chain of factories.

The New York Central Railroad in New York has laid off a total of some 8,000 workers. In Gary, Ind., a branch of the Budd Co. shut down putting 1,000 out of work.

Some Workers Recalled

On the other hand, the Johnson Steel and Wire Co. in Worcester, Mass., reopened and recalled 450 employees. The firm is a subsidiary of the Pittsburgh Steel Co. which signed an agreement with the union.

As more small companies signed up with the union, other subsidiary companies were expected to start operating again.

In another steel development, Clifford Hood, vice president of U.S. Steel, wrote to all employees denying reports the company wanted to weaken the union, eliminate seniority or take away workers' rights to negotiate bonus and incentive plans.

Sidelights

● In New York a policeman, clad only in his pajama bottoms but with his service revolver in hand, chased a burglar from his apartment and captured him on a busy avenue. Later, in felony court, the policeman shyly told the judge: "I was embarrassed. I had no place to pin my shield."

● In Baltimore, buses and trolleys were snarled while transit company and union fought out the issue of whether the drivers would wear white or gray shirts. The management ordered drivers to wear gray shirts. The union ordered white shirts. Some drivers showed up in yellow, red and blue shirts.

● In Washington, Congress approved a bill setting up a commission to investigate whether a regulatory law is needed in the field of artificial rain-making experiments.

Controls

Ten-Month Extension

The extension of wage and price controls represents something of a victory for the Administration, but the President was not very enthusiastic when he signed the bill extending controls until next April 30.

The President said the new controls law "weakens our ability to hold down prices and stabilize our economy."

The new controls bill makes several major changes in the Defense Production Act.

It will end rent controls on Sept. 30 except in localities whose governing bodies vote to extend them to next April 30, and in certified critical defense areas.

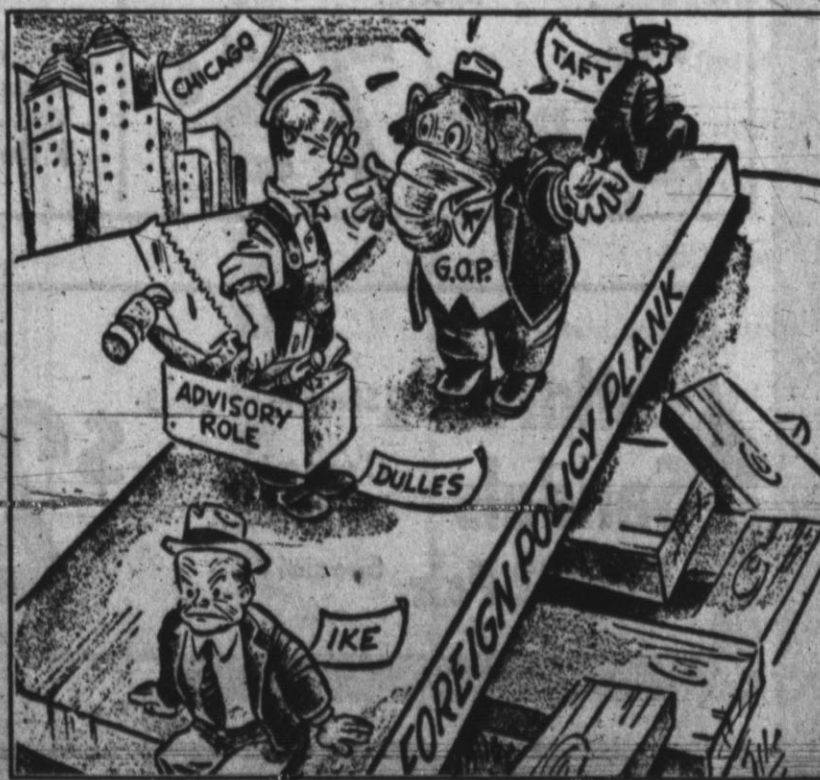

It will throw out controls over credit for consumer goods and for conventional housing loans. Housing credit could again be restricted by the Federal Reserve Board if the annual rate of new houses started passed 1,200,000. The present rate is 1,100,000.

No change will be made in real estate credit controls fixing minimum cash down payments on houses.

The third major change involves the Wage Stabilization Board (WSB) which is retained but stripped of some authority. The appointment of its members will be subject to Senate confirmation and the board will be deprived of its power to make recommendations in labor disputes unless management and union agree to ask the WSB how much of a wage increase might be granted in a dispute.

Food Dispensers Given Grace On Price Ceilings

The Office of Price Stabilization has extended until August 1 the deadline for restaurants and other eating and drinking establishments to adjust their ceiling prices if they can qualify for adjustments.

Announcement of the action, along with other price regulation changes, was made this week by the district OPS office.

The restaurant ceiling price regulation (CPR 134) which became effective early in April, forced prices at the level prevailing during the week February 3 to 9, 1951, but permitted adjustments by operators who were charging prices during that week lower than were permitted under the old restaurant regulation.

Restaurants had been given until June 1 to make the adjustments and post new ceiling prices.

The deadline was extended, however, because many operators were unable to determine their eligibility for an adjustment by the June 1 date and many applications which had been filed with OPS had not been processed in time.

Other recent OPS action included an authorization for manufacturers of ready-mixed concrete to increase ceiling prices by four percent.

The agency also announced that exemption from price control has been ordered for ice. The exemption of ice became effective June 27. The agency said that selling prices for ice have been relatively stable for the last 20 years, that declining demand and availability of mechanical refrigeration operate to prevent price advances above ceiling levels, and that the burden on the industry and the agency of continuing controls would far outweigh the advantage to price stabilization.

Parmer Wheat Harvest End This Week

FRIONA--Wheat in the Parmer county area will be all cut by the end of the week, it is believed here.

The rain that fell Friday put a stop to harvesting operations for a while, but work is once again in full swing.

Practically all of the wheat cut in Parmer county and brought to the elevators in Friona has been put in government storage, local elevator managers say.

In spite of a lower wheat acreage, each of the elevators reported receiving about the same amount of wheat as in 1951. The Friona Wheat Growers have about 100 cars on hand and the Santa Fe Grain company has about 90 or 100 cars on hand.

Friona Dusted By Air Twice

FRIONA--Friona got an aerial dusting with DDT powder twice last week -- once on Saturday and once on Wednesday morning -- as a precaution against flies and the possibility of their spreading polio.

The Benger Air Service in Friona did the spraying.

What Good Is One Vote? If It Might Write History

As primary election time nears, you will be reading more and more about the "Ballot Battalion." Just what, you might ask, is the "Ballot Battalion"?

The "Ballot Battalion" is a non-partisan movement made up of all the civic clubs in Hereford to stimulate interest in voting, in obtaining views of the candidates and creating more votes in other ways, such as providing transportation to the polls, reminding voters of voting times and dates, etc.

Most of all, the "Ballot Battalion" was set up to make you and me realize the importance of OUR ONE VOTE!

How often have you heard a citizen ask "What good does my one vote do?" Have you had a ready answer?

Your one vote—my one vote—is ALL important. In the first place, as a matter of principle, it is a franchise few nations in the world today give. You and millions like you, using your one FREE vote can make or break a president, can make or break a party.

Your one vote is something that has been won at a high cost in blood and human suffering.

Treat it with due respect.

Numerically, one vote has thrown the tide of more than one election in the electoral college. A margin of one vote in Congress gave citizenship to millions of Texans as well as several other states in the union.

One vote assured the passage of the World War I draft act and thus influenced the history of our nation from then until now, and will continue to influence our history for future generations.

What good, you ask, is one vote?

One vote in each precinct in the state of Texas might well give our nation a new president, our state a new governor, or a new congressman.

Maybe YOU will cast that ONE VOTE in your precinct!

That is the purpose of the "Ballot Battalion": to make you and me mindfull of our duty as American citizens in casting our vote in the coming elections.

It is not the concern of the "Ballot Battalion" as to HOW you cast your ballot, but that you cast it.

If the "Ballot Battalion" were to assume the proportions of a public relations clearing center for any one candidate or any group of candidates, it would be ceasing as a community project and our support of it would cease immediately.

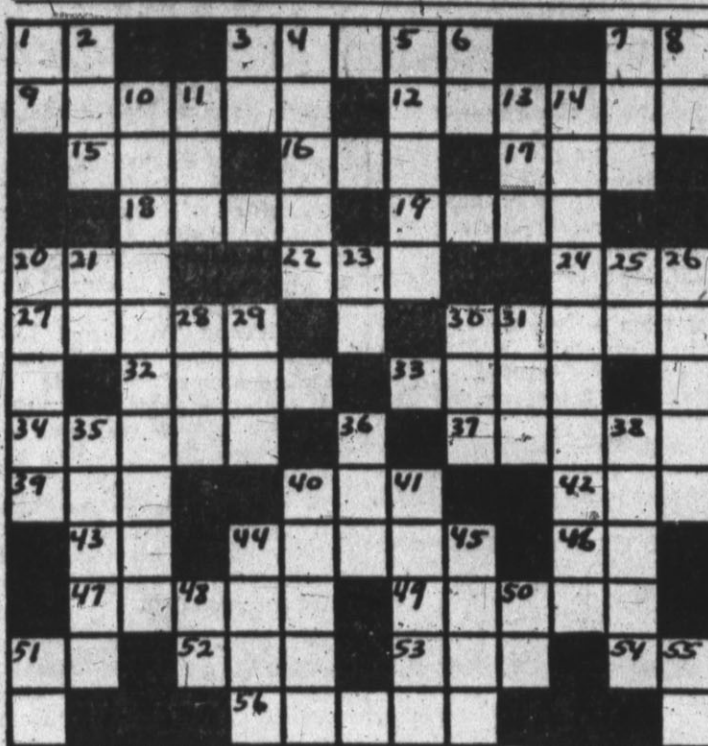

There is a real need for stirring the people to recognize their duty of citizenship and voting. To do, a good job of voting, they should take the trouble to educate themselves about the issues and candidates.

That, however, is beyond the realm of the "Ballot Battalion," which is doing its job in MAKING you realize the need for probing in this election year.

We said the "Ballot Battalion" is a community undertaking under the wing of Hereford's civic clubs. It is. However, the movement itself is a national project of the Kiwanis International, which plants the seed and asks civic-minded persons in the community to cultivate it.

As Americans, we can all well heed the message of civic awakening to be spoken through the "Ballot Battalion."—W. W. K.

I'll Never Forget

By MRS. RAY HERSHEY

We came to Deaf Smith county in 1908. We moved to a farm north of Dawn when we came.

We came here from Pickney, O. We had lived in a town all the time with a telephone and every convenience then we moved out here to the Plains where there wasn't anything.

Mr. Hershey decided to move to Texas for his health and for the health of one of our boys. It helped us a lot all right. He sure did snap out of it good and it helped me some too.

We attended church at Umbarger. We drove the eight miles over there in a spring wagon. "Uncle Andy" Thomas who was our first neighbor was attending meetings over at Umbarger so we decided to go over there too.

I remember the first time we saw "Uncle Andy." We had just moved here and went over to his place for something. Of course he didn't know who we were or anything but just as soon as we drove up he invited us to get down and come in and visit. We told him we didn't have time that it was getting late and we had to get back home. Then what really surprised me was he asked us to stay all night then. It was a shock to hear a total stranger who knew nothing about us to ask us in to spend the night.

I remember the day we moved our stuff to the farm from Dawn. It snowed and the dirt was blowing. We commented on how funny the snow looked all mixed up with the dirt. All the snow had a dirty look.

The Harry Voress family moved to Deaf Smith county from Ohio with us. They thought they would like to try it out and see what it was like. It wasn't long before they got cold feet or something and moved back to Ohio. They are living at Sidney now.

The place we moved to north of Dawn was known as the old Boyer place. We lived there for nine years before we moved to what was then known as the West Green Valley farm—a part of the large Green Valley ranch. It was later called the El Toro farm.

We lived on the Green Valley farm for about five years and then moved to Progressive.

Four of our children were born before we left Ohio and the other two were born here.

New Pasture Bulletin Is Available Now

COLLEGE STATION—"Every acre of cultivated land in Texas ought to be in grasses and legumes three to five of each 10 to 20 years; to hold the soil, to keep active organic matter available to produce profitable crops or otherwise to make it pay."

That is a thought for the future and is only one of many listed in a new bulletin just released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service—B-197.

BUILDING PASTURES.

The author, A. W. Crain, formerly associate pasture specialist for the Extension Service, outlines the steps that should be followed in building pastures. Principles discussed in the bulletin apply to the building job on old cultivated land which is now in broomseed, needle grass or other low quality forage; former low-producing bermuda, carpet or other pasture grassland that is presently infested with needle grass or broomseed; land presently in cultivation; timberland or woodland pasture cleared of timber by machinery or poorly drained, brush or "rangeland"—land referred to in this category is "native" land in the Gulf Coast prairie area.

Copies of the bulletin are available at county extension offices—county agents. Just ask for the new bulletin on building pastures. At the same time why not start making plans for improving the pastures you already have on the farm. Your county agent can furnish valuable information that can make your job easier for chances are good he can show you demonstrations where the building job is now well underway.

The BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his farm near Bootleg may have hit on a popular idea, but we doubt if he gets anywhere with it.

Dear editor:

I read in yesterday's paper which my wife had lined the pantry shelf with where Congress, not wanting to come out and vote itself a raise but still wanting one, had figured out a method which accomplished the same ends, and while the idea carried in the House, the Senate voted it down.

I regret that the Senate is not as far-sighted as the House, and I wish you would use your influence if you haven't misplaced it and get the bill re-introduced, not only for Congressmen but for everybody.

Here's the way it would work: it would allow Congressmen to count their living expenses in Washington as legitimate deductions on their income tax. Whatever it cost to live, the whole amount could be counted as a business expense and deducted.

Now this is what I call the most advanced thinkin I've encountered in years. The income tax ain't too high, we just can't deduct enough items before we start figurin how much we owe, but if the government would let me count everything it takes to live out here as a business expense, it wouldn't make much difference to me how high the income tax went.

Accordin to the Congressmen favorin this bill, livin in Washington certainly ought to be deductible expense, and they're right, the same as livin out here ought to be. Just because a man has an income of so much a month ain't no sign he's able to pay any income tax on it. The more money you make, the more it takes to live, I've seen it happen over and over, and the man makin the most money frequently is the one shortest of cash.

Under this new proposal, though, whatever it takes to live on comes first, and what's left over is subject to an income tax. It's one of the most beautiful ideas I've seen in years, and is just the thing to meet inflation with.

This might not bring in much income tax, but I guarantee it would make business boom. Let's get it passed.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

HST Paints Rosy Picture Of Advances, Forgets Debts

Harry Truman really "told 'em off" Wednesday at Mule Shoals Dam, Ark., when he enumerated the multitudinous benefits to the common man from the New Deal and Fair Deal.

Good enough. It made fine listening, even if our nation's highest official used his office—and the taxpayer's money—to go on the stump in a political attack.

We're getting used to things like that.

Harry painted a rosy picture, alright. He can do it as long as he doesn't dip his paint brush in the red ink. And there's plenty of that.

Just how big does that new car, home, those electrical appliances look when you figure that they aren't paid for yet? Of course they're not.

Here are some figures that'll make your hair stand on end: "If you had started on January 1, 1263 and spent ONE MILLION DOLLARS EVERY DAY OF EVERY YEAR since that time, it would still take until May 8, 1953, to spend AS MUCH MONEY as the U. S. Government HAS COLLECTED IN TAXES since World War II ended!"

How can we poor non-bureaucratic mortals comprehend such stupendous figures!

Our government has spent all that money and still is more than 260 BILLIONS IN DEBT!!

Soria takes the shine off that new auto you got parked in the garage, doesn't it? Someone's going to have to pay for all that, don't forget. The day of reckoning will come later, but Harry gets the credit for playing Santa Claus with YOUR CREDIT.

How do we get so far behind after collecting roughly about 250 BILLIONS in taxes in seven years? Simple. The Fair Deal is based on the theory of eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we may be out of office.

We buy the votes that put them in office, regardless of whether we agree with their philosophy or not.

How can ANY PARTY or any candidate hope to compete in dollars with the multi-billion dollar "pot" Harry and his playmates have to woo the voters?

As in 1948, they can "rig" the price of corn to scare the voters. They have the Department of Agriculture in their camp. They have the Social Security in their camp. They have public works in their camp, to say nothing of the thousands feeding at the public trough in government jobs.

These people would be simple, the Trumanites feel, if they would vote against them and cut their own jobs. And they're figuring right in 99% of the cases.

Harry Truman can use the pocketbooks of millions of Americans as campaign fodder by condoning an increase in pay to workers while their products must increase on the market for wage-stabilized white collar workers.

Talk about a campaign slush fund! Harry Truman and all his political dependents shouldn't ever lose an election!

We need a man—or an administration—that will put the brakes on this jackpot-to-end-all-jackpots. We need someone to quit throwing away our money like fools.

Even the American economic system can reach a breaking point. That's what Russia would like to see.

Sure, if you want to look in the living room, things are rosy enough, just the way Harry painted them:

But you should see the dirty dishes in the sink!—W. W. K.

'Tater Peelin's

North Hereford Home Demonstration Club lost one of its oldest charter members last week—Mrs. M. H. Koelzer.

If all club workers were as unprejudiced, as unselfish and as delightful as was Mrs. Koelzer, Club work would be profitable and pleasant for every member.

Until we read an article in a farm magazine lately we hadn't given it a thought but people who are so critical of western movies and comic books might have to admit that they aren't a great deal more gory or exciting than the songs we sniveled over in grandma's parlor or the horrible Indian Massacre story we shuddered through just before bed time.

What, we ask, could have been more morbid than "The Baggage Coach Ahead," "The Letter Edged in Black," "The Dying Cowboy" or the "Face on the Bar Room Floor"?

—lp—

Does anybody have a fool-proof remedy for gettin a person straightened out who is turned around as to directions?

If not we are afraid Mrs. Draper may lose her new assistant. A few days ago Miss Redman had gone out west of town to meet with a group of 4-H girls and asked her hostess the way back to town.

She thought she was returnin' on Highway 60, but after drivin' for miles found out she was on Harrison headed straight for the line of New Mexico.
