"We'll Have Dillinger Before Long," Declare Department Of Justice Agents

No Word From Bandit Despite Intense Hunt

Desperado Unreported Since Battle At Little Bohemia

MERCER, Wis., (AP)—America's million dollar murderer with a puny $25 price tag on his head, mocked Wednesday an army of more than 8000 officers hunting him.

"We'll have John Dillinger before long," said the department of justice through its division investigation at Chicago.

There was no word of the desperado despite intensity of the hunt.

Rumors simmered to the fact that Dillinger vanished Sunday night from a Little Bohemia resort near here, and is unreported since.

General Alarm For Twin Cities Police

ST. PAUL, (AP)—Four armed men and two women raided a farm near Elk River Wednesday, took a small amount of cash, and fled, causing a general alarm for the Twin City police.

First reports led authorities to believe the raiders might have been members of the John Dillinger gang.

First reports to the police stated an automobile had been commandeered. This is not confirmed. The police broadcast said the men were heavily armed.

Cannon

Standing trial in the District of Columbia on charges of election law conspiracy tries Bishop James Cannon in more ways than one.

Every four years the Methodist Episcopal church, South holds a general conference. All the southern bishops then report on their stewardships. The 1934 assemblage opens at Jackson, Miss., tomorrow.

It looks as if Cannon's report will be delivered by proxy.

Al Smith's arch enemy has been pining to get to Jackson, too.

Foreseeing the probability some days ago that the conspiracy trial would drag on into the M. E. South Conference, the Bishop's attorney nearly pulled a tendon trying to hasten the proceedings. He urged night sessions and even suggested that the court sit on Saturdays. But Justice Peyton Cordon of the D. C. Supreme Court had other ideas about conducting the trial.

The lawyer should have known better. It's rank heresy even to hint that a District Supreme Court jurist sit on Saturdays. They've been on the five-day week for years.

Bishop Cannon had a particular reason for wanting to be in Jackson when the gavel falls and even beforehand.

There are rumors in the air that his Methodist brethren—entirely apart from the outcome of the trial—are considering the bishop's retirement on grounds of superannuation.

While Cannon is 69 years old he most emphatically doesn't want to be retired at this time. He's said to feel it would be taken by the

THIS IS WHERE DILLINGER ESCAPED FEDERAL TRAP

This map shows the location of Little Bohemia resort, in the heart of the sparsely populated northern Wisconsin woods, where the desperado John Dillinger and six of his gun-toting henchmen shot their way out of a trap set by federal agents. They had held the resort for three days. Two men, including one federal agent, were killed, and four persons were wounded in the shooting incidental to the gang's escape. Federal agents' bullets killed the second man, mistaking him for a member of the Dillinger crew. (Associated Press Photo)

Japan Tells World To Draw Conclusion Of Chinese Policy

TOKYO, (AP)—Japan in effect Wednesday told the world to draw its own conclusions regarding her restated policy toward China. A foreign office spokesman said "Our statement has been made. Let others read as they will."

This was a reply to requests for further elucidation of a declaration in which Japan claimed responsibility for maintenance of peace in Eastern Asia.

The spokesman reiterated Japan has no intention of interfering with European and American powers in their Asiatic possessions.

He said: "We have no intention of promoting independence movements in the Philippines, Indo China or elsewhere."

Rotarians See Program Staged By Transients

Rotarians and their guests Tuesday noon saw first hand the facilities and organization of the Transient Bureau, located in the Bauer block on Main street.

The club, on invitation of E. W. Conway, bureau manager, took luncheon in the bureau dining room, corner of Main and First streets, where a regular meal was served in army style. Each Rotarian lined up and filed by the large kitchen, where a meal was dished out in army style.

Jack Reed, transient bureau official, assisted Rev. Theo. Francis, Joe Galbraith and Albert M. Fisher arranged the program for the day, the numbers of which were given by registrants at the bureau.

Richard Giblin, as master of ceremonies, introduced each number.

Father Francis made introductory remarks, stating the purpose of the club meeting at the bureau was to afford an opportunity to become better acquainted with the workings of the relief agency.

Nelson Hunt (stage name Johnny Devant) kept the audience thrilled with his sleight-of-hand tricks, using several of the Rotary members to observe the tricks at close hand. He was assisted by Tommy Newman. Various card tricks were shown.

Harry Okner and Harry Jones gave a harmonica duet.

Tommy Newman amused the crowd with a tap dancing number.

Copies of "The Sandstorm," Volume 1, Number 1, official Transient Bureau mimeographed weekly tabloid, were given each Rotarian as he entered the dining room. The paper is replete with news of the bureau and its registrants. Ulin Anderson is editor and publisher; Jack Reed, Jr., associate editor; Doc Jackson, news reporter; Tommy Newman, news reporter; Russell Palmer, art editor; Al Jacobs, advertising manager and sports editor.

Following the program, the Rotarians were conducted through the bureau, where they observed the workings of the entire set-up. E. W. Conway, manager, acted as guide.

Elliott Barron, Rotarian, of Midland, was a visitor. Mr. and Mrs. Garland Woodward, Mr. Albert M. Fisher, Victor Mollinger, C. E. Talbot, B. H. Hilliger of Big Spring were visitors for the day.

The bureau served the dinner to the club at 15c per plate. There were forty-nine present at the meeting, which netted a total revenue of $10.00.

Lions Club Ask For 1936 Convention

Big Spring Lions saved the good seeds in Colorado Monday and Tuesday toward obtaining the District 2-T Lions convention for this city in 1936.

To Plainview, went the 1935 convention when Childress withdrew and asked it for 1936, a move obvious from the start. However, Big Spring delegates were not given cause for worry because of a standing tradition that the convention moves from the north to the south end of the district on alternate years.

E. L. "Major" Pitts, Lubbock, was elected district governor. Marion F. Peters, candidate from Midland, lost his second consecutive fight in a dog fight between the north and south factions.

Big Spring was hailed as having staged the best program on the stunt night affair for the district convention. Gathered together by Harry Adams, the Big Spring troupe consisted of June Marie Tingle, Martha McCluskey, Jean Porter, Betty Jo Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riegel, decided hits in the Carleton. Betty Bolt, Miss Joanne Little, Miss Adams in furnishing entertainment for the ladies. Tom Monday afternoon, Miss Mary Vance Kenner and Mrs. J. E. Kirkpatrick, club pianist, furnished accompaniment for the occasion.

Among lions and ladies attending the convention at some time during the two day stand were—Bill Edwards, Harry Adams, Hollis Webb, H. E. Bunnah, Miller Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Black, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Dunham, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Malone, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Neel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holz, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Turpin, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Bollinger, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Williams, Clyde Thomas, Joe Ellis, Paul Rice, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Payne, Rev. W. G. Buchsacher, Charles Corley, Mrs. John Pike, Mrs. Clyde Tingle, and Mrs. C. S. Dittz.

PERHAPS A CAT'S LIFE IS BEST, AFTER ALL!

Albert Payson Terhune, the novelist who has written so elo-quently of his fondness for dogs, breaks down the other day and admitted that cats are really smarter than dogs.
They're smarter, that is, in that they're always looking out for number one. A dog will give you his loyalty and stick to you when there isn't anything in it for him. But not a cat.
"You, maybe, have had a cat for years and have treated it like a king," says Mr. Terhune. "I come along. I have a warmer kitchen and more milk and liver. Your cat will gladly come to my kitchen and desert you. To find a cat with loyalty would be like finding one with five ears."

Few people who have owned cats will be inclined to quarrel much with this assertion; indeed, the odd thing about it is that it is precisely this unaffiliated selfishness which makes the cat a nice pet.
For if the dog flatters the ego by plunging headlong into the most unselfish and selfless loyalty, the cat does it in a more subtle way by means of a haughty condescension.
A dog goes about the house humbly, looking gratefully at you for permitting him to stay there.
A cat goes proudly, regally, looking through you or past you and quietly letting you understand that it is a rare privilege to provide the daily ration of milk and chopped liver.

Even when it submits to being petted—or, for that matter, even when it comes over and demands petting—it does so with an air that lets you know that it is strictly an impersonal matter, and that it is not committing itself in any way by accepting such a favor from you.
And all this, for some reason, is rather agreeable. The unmitigated smoothness of the cat is actually flattering. In a world where most people, in one way or another, have to put up with a good deal to keep the daily bread in the pantry, it is somehow cheering to find one pensioner who neither scrapes nor cajoles.
"Hi," says Mr. Terhune, "I could sponge like a cat, please God, I'd do it. The only thing a cat will ever do is something for herself."

to the high school student body
Thursday the third period.
In Mr. Gordon's talk "My School" the following questions were brought to the attention of the audience to be considered: (1) Is my school physically clean? (2) Am I mentally awake? (3) Am I morally straight? (4) Does my school have a soul?
Dean Gordon said that the soul of the school is determined by the students and teachers; therefore, it is whatever they desire to make it.

BLACK-DRAUGHT FOR CONSTIPATION

"I am 71 years old and have used Theodore's Black-Draught about forty years," writes Mr. W. J. Van-without it. I take it as a purgative when I am bilious, dmy and have swimming in my head. Black-Draught relieves this, and helps me in many ways. . . . Keep a pack-

The way tobacco is cut has a lot to do with the way Chesterfield burns and tastes

There are many different ways of cutting tobacco.
A long time ago, it used to be cut on what was known as a Pease Cutter, but this darkened the tobacco, and it was not uniform.
The cutters today are the most improved, modern, up-to-the-minute type. They cut uniformly, and cut in long shreds.
The tobacco in Chesterfield is cut right—you can judge for yourself how Chesterfields burn and how they taste.
Everything that science knows is used to make Chesterfield

Highly Touted Club Just An Easy Set-Up

News Hounds Whip Veterans In First Game Of Season

The highly touted Kiwanis softball team may be tough to some of the boys, but they were just a gentle breeze to the Herald aggregation Tuesday afternoon. The newsies swamped the clubmen, 9 to 5 in a seven inning affair. It was the initial game for the Herald and the first defeat suffered by the powerful Kiwanis club. The Kiwanians were the first to score, but the newspaper outfit came back strong in the second frame when they practically cinched the game by tabbing five runs. Batteries: Herald—Beasley and Pickle; Kiwanis—Graves, Widmayer and Gentry.

New Yorkers Trim The A's

Frankie Crosetti Strikes Big Note In 1 To 0 Victory

NEW YORK, (AP)—While the assembled bombardiers of baseball did little more than go through the motions, a Yankee substitute, Frankie Crosetti, struck the one big blow that gave the New Yorkers a 1-0 verdict over the Athletics Tuesday. A crowd of 40,000 fans, out for the opening game of the American league season here, cheered lustily for the mighty maulers, Ruth, Gehrig and Foxx, but Crosetti's home run into the left field stands furnished the main thrill. It came in the sixth inning and gave Charles Ruffing (Red) Ruffing, big Yankee right hander, a brilliant decision over John Marcum, the prince of Eminence, Ky. Philadelphia . . . 000 000 000-0 4 0 intends to back settlement of the silver problem by international agreement, the White House is apt to be presented with a silver bill of sorts before the session ends. If it does pass the silver bill will be found in its "permissive" provisions. Mr. Roosevelt doesn't care too much if Congress authorizes him to pile up silver dollars ten feet high on the White House lawn. So long as they don't command him to do it he may go along. There are considerations of world leadership for the U. S. that will stop advance beyond that point.

In many respects the most significant angle in the silver situation is one of the President's arguments against open market purchases designed to drive the white metal up to $1.29. When Mr. Roosevelt admitted for the first time the administration's gold purchasing program hadn't produced all the results expected he broke no news. But he did not say that solid defenses against other and rarer experiments were a by-product of incalculable value. Congressmen who a year ago would have voted for almost any shot in the dark are today well-heeled in their desire to proceed cautiously.

Lipsticky—Black-beard, roly-poly George Holden Tinkham, whose Republican constituents in Boston and thereabouts keep sending him back to Congress year after year, was discussing the New Deal with a friend the other night. "You know, of course," he said in his magnificent way, "that I'm opposed to bureaucracy. 'I'm especially opposed to it when the bureau are run by masculine women and effeminate men.'"

Japan—Word reaches Washington via the diplomatic mail pouch that in Japan one still hears a lot about "the crisis of 1934-35." Translated, this means the Naval Agreement ends and Japan is prepared to go to extremes in her demand for naval parity with the United States and Great Britain. The parity is to be based not on the present scale but on a lower ratio more in keeping with Tokyo ideas. That's where the rest of the world's to get off. 10h-bun etoin etain un un un un Diplomatic channels further report that Japan's budget for the year runs 42 per cent for army and navy expenditures. Meanwhile those who should know renew their predictions that by this time next year Japan and Russia will be at each other's throats—or close to it.

Baltic—Russia sees further threat in another direction. Military authorities here are much interested in a new air force agreement between Poland and Sweden. Both countries have decided to let their air forces cooperate and learn one another's tricks—so as to form a consolidated unit in case of war. With Baltic problems frequently cropping up Moscow doesn't like the idea of two countries with so much in common against the U. S. S. R. getting together at all.

Notes—General Johnson's plan to boost heavy industry by direct expenditures for building construction has been abandoned. Chairman of the Senate special committee means business in his notice that Dupont, Bethlehem Steel and other munitions concerns are in for deep probing. A section of organized labor led by Matthew Woll is fighting the Roosevelt tariff bill. Speaker Rainey says forthcoming investigation of foreign propaganda will show the dangers are exaggerated. Anti-Nazis are prepared to prove otherwise. Rep. Werner, (Dem., S. D.) is charged with sabotaging the Interior Department bill to communize the Indians. Debtor nations will demand that debts be wiped off the slate as a condition of tariff concessions.

Rotarians (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) issue of $24.50. After deducting $7.50 for expense of luncheon, the balance of $17 was divided as follows: $10 to the Rotary club's Crippled Children's committee. $7 to be donated to the transient fund to buy soft ball equipment for the Transient Bureau soft ball team. Officers for the club were elected at a business meeting before the program got under way. The following were elected by acclamation: James A. Davis, president. Ben R. Carter, vice president. Elmo Wasson, secretary. E. L. Gibson, treasurer. Dr. M. H. Bennett, retiring president, automatically becomes a director. W. W. Inkman, Jesse F. Hall, Theo Francis and Jos Kuykendall were elected directors. The new officers will be installed at the first meeting in July. Dr. Fennett announced he district meeting of Rotary to be held in Abilene May 8-9. The local club will have a part on the Community Service program on May 8th. Father Francis will address the gathering. A large delegation of Big Spring Rotarians will attend the Abilene meeting, at which a strong effort will be made to obtain the 1935 district convention for Big Spring.

Whirligig (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) public as a kicking upstairs. Outcome?—In case you're interested, reporters covering the Cannon trial are betting it will end either in acquittal or a hung jury. They base their prediction on the fact that the charge is conspiracy. The jury must convict not only Cannon but his secretary, Miss Ada L. Burroughs, as well. The Bishop was wise to this. Testifying in his own defense he assumed sole responsibility for handling of the funds used to turn Virginia and other southern states into the Republican column in 1928. So, he contended, there could be no conspiracy. But you never can tell what a District of Columbia jury will do until the foreman brings in the verdict.

Dams—Here's good news for the Tennessee Valley. The Tennessee Valley Authority has reached a virtual decision to start four more dams this year—those at Aurora, Pickwick, Hiwassee and the French Broad river. When that $1,500,000,000 the President is going to ask for is cut up, TVA expects to grab off about $48,000,000 for the work. Tennesseans can doff a hat in the direction of Rep. Sam McReynolds, among others. McReynolds has been very active in selling the idea. Silver—For all that President Roosevelt

Fast-Moving Program At Lions Club

Three Classification Talks Made By Members At Club Wednesday

A varied, fast-moving program was arranged for Lions club Wednesday by Bill Edwards and Burma Barley. Headlining the program was the high school girl's quartet composed of Misses Alta Mary Staleup, Merie Smith, Frances Rogers, and Betty Lou Pyatt. Mrs. Bruce Fraiser accompanied them in three numbers. They were applauded liberally following three numbers; an Indian song, from the "Land of the Sky Blue Water," a negro folk song, and the familiar western ballad, "Home on the Range." President P. W. Malone and James E. Payne gave brief resumes of the District 2-T convention held Monday and Tuesday in Colorado. It was announced that the next program will be broadcast by remote control and public address system before the Stanton Business Men's club on May 2. Arrangements have already been completed.

Three classification talks, limited to three minutes each, were heard. Dr. C. W. Deats stressed the importance of care in growth and development of children's teeth as a means of preventing gross dental ills in later life. Charles Corley sketched an interesting story of the rubber trade and the development of merchandising units by his manufacturer. But to Burke Summers went laurels of the day when he laid bare inner secrets of the furniture industry. "We think there is a little sentiment attached to the furniture business," drawled Summers. "There's the old bedstead where Uncle Ed languished year after year until he passed to his reward. Then there's the mattress on which Aunt Janina suffered in her last lingering illness. "In good, prosperous times we put lots of stuff out and in the depression we take it back."

Representative Of Noted Beauty Expert To Be In Big Spring

Helena Rubinstein, outstanding beauty scientist, has sent her personal representative to Big Spring direct from Madame Rubinstein's exclusive New York salon with all the latest scientific methods for keeping the skin young and healthy, announces Collins Bros. Drug Store.

She will be at the toiletries department of Collins Drug store every day this week, and will be available for private consultation every day on individual problems of skin health and complexion beauty.

She will analyze the skin, recommend a simple but scientific, correct home treatment, and create, from Helena Rubinstein's new Parisian cosmetics, a special type of coloring.

Incidentally, she brings good news from Madame Rubinstein who, during her extensive travels in Europe, has discovered the amazing youth-giving properties of certain natural ingredients which she has incorporated in her preparations.

Madame Rubinstein's representative will be here for one week only. No woman will want to miss this opportunity of consulting her on personal problems of beauty, especially as her services are entirely without charge.

ZEZ CONFREY, NOTED PIANIST AND COMPOSER, TO PLAY HERE SATURDAY NIGHT AT SETTLES

Perhaps never has a composer of popular American songs exhibited such individuality as has Zez Confrey, noted pianist and composer who, with his orchestra of thirteen pieces and a complete floor show will be in Big Spring Saturday night only to provide music for a dance at the Hotel Settles.

What other musicians said could not be done or was against all rules of public wishes in music has been the signal for Confrey to experiment and determine if only musicians were right. And in practically every case he demonstrated they were wrong.

It was to contradict other musicians that Confrey composed "Kitten on the Keys", a tune that was the rage years ago and since has been adopted by music teachers the country over as a perfect practicing number in developing

Ticket Sale For Austin Clubhouse Fund Being Staged All Over Big Spring Today

Club women were busy today in Big Spring selling tickets to the Ritz theater for the show, "Whirlpool", to be given Thursday.

The occasion is "Woman's Day," when the biggest movie circuits of Texas will devote a percentage of their ticket sales to the Texas Federation of Women's club to pay off the indebtedness of the headquarters clubhouse at Austin.

William Currie started the ticket sale off with a wallop by paying $50 for a ticket numbered one, which he will give to some child. It is expected that if he can help this much, other citizens can pay the regulation forty cents and see a good show in addition.

Club women are emphasizing this fact in their sales. Tickets must be purchased through them or downtown at appointed headquarters or the percentage will not count. Theaters are not giving the club fund a percentage of what is sold at the ticket windows but a percentage of those tickets the women sell.

Tickets for matinee or evening counts toward the fund, as well as arranging matinee parties. All over Texas this sale is progressing rapidly. The response is expected to be enormous.

A few clubwomen who could not see their districts today will call tomorrow. Those who missed out on being interviewed are still held responsible, since everyone in town knows about this benefit performance and there is no excuse, except lack of interest, for not patronizing the show at the appointed date. Manager Robb says that if the house is crowded to standing room, he will make some arrangement for those he can not seat.

Those who do not buy their tickets from club women may purchase them at J. & W. Flahern's store or from Miss Marie Faubian at the First National bank, such tickets will count toward the benefit fund.

Garden Club To Sponsor Spring Show

A spring flower show will be sponsored by the Members of the Garden club, decided the club at its regular session Tuesday afternoon. The show will be held in May. Full details will be announced later.

Members of the Garden club were treated to an account of a trip through the famous old Southern homes and gardens of Natchez, Miss., taken by Mrs. Clyde Angel. These homes are thrown open to Garden club members during a certain week in the spring. Many of the most beautiful homes of the south are still well preserved in this region and the Garden club pilgrimages there is one of the highlights of the year. Mrs. Angel had taken this trip and told her experiences.

Mrs. W. R. Ivey was hostess for the occasion and showed the club and visitors her garden.

A bouquet-arranging contest was staged by the club. Two members, in this case Mrs. Dodge and Mrs. Phillips arranged two vases of flowers, Mrs. Dodge being the winner. Her award was to keep one of the vases until the next meeting. At every meeting this contest will be held. The member who at the end of the year has won the vase the greatest number of times will be entitled to keep it. The flowers arranged were American Rose verbenas from Mrs. Wilbanks' garden and roses from Mrs. Ivey's.

Mrs. M. E. Savage joined the club as a new member. Mrs. Angel and Mrs. Fruit were visitors. Other members present were Mrs. J. R. Phillips, R. V. Hart, J. P. Dodge, Bob Eubank, J. M. Morgan, W. D. Wilbanks.

The next meeting will be held May 8 at the Federation clubhouse.

Health Programs For Negroes And Mexicans To Be Held Today At Schools; State Representatives In Big Spring

R. C. Ortega, Mexican representative from the Texas Tuberculosis association and F. R. Barnwell, negro representative from the same society, both from Austin, Tex., arrived in Big Spring Tuesday night, and will conduct health programs in the Mexican and negro schools this afternoon and tonight. This work is a part of the health campaign being carried on by the Howard County Tuberculosis association under the direction of Mrs. J. C. Douglass, Dr. Lee Rogers and others.

Health work among the Mexican and negro children will be carried on this afternoon, by each of these state representatives, the teachers in the school, cooperating with them.

Tonight at 7:30, a mass meeting will be held, to which a cordial invitation to the public is extended. The Mexicans will be at their school for this meeting, at which time pictures will be shown to further emphasize the importance to good health. Ortega will conduct this meeting.

The negroes will gather at the Negro Baptist church at 7:30, and Barnwell will show them pictures, and lecture to them on health.

Every negro and Mexican in Big Spring and Howard county is urged to be present at these meetings. Anyone interested in the program of health, and who wishes to hear these lectures and see the illustrations to be shown, is welcome to attend, according to Mrs. J. C. Douglass.

Junior Class Play Is Huge Success

"The Spanish Onion" a play given by the Junior class the past Friday was excellent entertainment and was fairly successful financially.

About half enough money was cleared to pay for the traditional Junior-Senior banquet. The play was received well, and filled every expectation.

The players portrayed the characters unusually well and as far as the acting went, the play was considered a huge success.

The play was directed by Miss Dorothy Jordan, instructor of speech arts in Big Spring high school.

Members of the Junior class who were present were: Mrs. J. R. Phillips, R. V. Hart, J. P. Dodge, Bob Eubank, J. M. Morgan, W. D. Wilbanks.

The next meeting will be held May 8 at the Federation clubhouse.

SCHOOL CENSUS
Has Your Child Been Overlooked?

The enumerators have finished the canvass of the City. It is important that no scholastic be overlooked. A scholastic is a person who will be at least six years old by the first of September, but who will not be over seventeen years old on that date.

The patrons and prospective patrons of the Big Spring schools are urgently requested to and report any children who have not been enumerated. Children who will become six years old by September first, children who have finished high school and are still in the free school age, others who have dropped out of school to work, may have been overlooked. These should all be reported. For each child enumerated the school district receives $16.00 for the support of the schools.

Any person who is over 6 years of age and who has not reached their 18th birthday on or before September 1, 1934, is a scholastic and should be enumerated whether they are married or single.

Your cooperation in securing a complete school census will be appreciated.
