Speaker Cites Need For New Govt. Interest

Officials representing 14 West Texas cities in this area were told Wednesday noon by Dorsey B. Hardesten, former San Angelo mayor and state representative from the 91st district, that they had an opportunity to reawaken public interest in the democratic form of government.

The city, Hardesten told 43 city officials assembled here for the sixth of a series of meetings sponsored by the League of Texas Municipalities, is closest of all governmental units to the people, and thus held the key to an attack on "concealed indifference."

Public officials, he said, can stimulate public interest through education and participation. Describing democracy as an "adventure in cooperative living," Hardesten said that citizens should be made to realize that they can win or lose.

Frequency of elections and occasional turn-overs were hailed as a "healthy condition" by the speaker, who also called for a spiritual awakening, a sensible program of producing citizens of character and stamping out subversive influences.

Ordinance Discussed
During the morning session of the one day meeting, which discussed the proposed "West Texas University Plan" ordinance, upheld in the supreme court, which would give municipalities the right to levy a gross receipts tax on utilities for street lighting lines.

During the afternoon Charles R. Bennett, with the American Society of Planning Officers and an leave from Milwaukee, was to make the principal talk. E. E. McVane, executive secretary of the League, presided, assisted by C. C. Griffith, assistant secretary.

$478,000,000 Is Added To The Supply Bill

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Acting with the telephoned approval of President Roosevelt, the senate naval appropriations subcommittee added $478,000,000 to the supply bill to make provision for a 25,000 increase in navy enlisted strength.

President Roosevelt asked $318,000,000 for the navy in his emergency defense recommendations. The subcommittee wrote this into the pending appropriation bill and added to it at the same time $60,726,000 in cash and $100,000,000 in contract authority after getting the chief executive's approval.

The total of funds being made available to the navy under the expanded defense program thus stood at $1,464,000,000, as compared with $1,823,000,000 for the army.

Chairman Byrnes (D-S. C.) said the added $100,000,000 in contract authority was requested by the president for purchasing 1,735 training planes to speed the navy's pilot program.

A short time before, Rear Admiral John H. Towers, naval air chief, told the house naval committee that the navy's need now was for training planes in "great number." He predicted that the navy, with 3,000 fliers now compared with a goal of 16,000, would be training men at the rate of 560 per month a year hence.

Aircraft problems held much of President Roosevelt's attention during the day. He called in top military, naval and fiscal advisors to go over plane procurement problems.

The senate committee voted, Byrnes said, to add $26,538,000 to the navy bill to bring the service's enlisted strength up to 170,000 men. It also put in $22,238,000 to increase marine corps enlisted personnel to 34,000 from the present 25,000.

A $5,000,000 fund went in marked for modernization of three of the oldest battleships.

Port Of Boulogne Is Objective, Soissons Is Imperiled

By PRESTON GROVER
BERLIN, May 22 (AP)—Two curving prongs of the German army ripped northward toward the bottleneck of the English Channel and south to within some 50 miles of Paris today.

But while Nazi bombers showered down death from the sky, the main German army in northern France braced itself for a hard counter-attack by the allied armies now under the supreme command of General Maxime Weygand.

"It may be that our present movements will come to a temporary halt," General Walther von Reichenau, German commander in the field, acknowledged. "Weygand has ordered every man to stand his ground. That may mean hard fights ahead."

Holding between 500,000 to 1,000,000 allied troops in what they call a huge sack in northern France and Belgium, the main German forces now are making their major job the systematic destruction of these divisions.

The northward prong of the armored advance forces, after brushing by Abbeville, on the Picardy coast 12 miles from the channel, drove on today toward the port of Boulogne on the shoulder of the narrowest part of the channel, while the air force punished this and other ports where British forces might embark for home.

On To Paris
Another German force swelled on its "bulge" into northern France at the same time, informed circles said, with a swift southward drive toward Paris which may have passed through or around Soissons, World War battlefield only 56 miles northeast of the capital.

The Nazi drive toward the channel was pointed toward St. Pol and Montreuil-Mer, a line toward the Straits of Dover where only 22 miles of water separate the British Isles from France.

Ahead of it roared German warplanes, the high command reported, bombing the waterfronts of Ostend, Dunkerque, Boulogne and Dieppe the chief ports behind imperiled British forces fighting with their backs to the coast.

Blazes started by Nazi air bombs also swept through the railroad stations at Compeigne and Creil, on the line from St. Quentin to Paris. Creil is about 25 miles north and Compeigne about 40 miles northeast of Paris.

Both are beyond Soissons where, it was reported, the Nazis may be applying pincer tactics by surrounding the city without occupying it.

The high command acknowledged that "in Flanders the enemy covering the retreat on the Scheldt river still offers strong resistance."

The Scheldt flows west of Charleroi, Valenciennes and Maastricht, at the bottom of the deep sack which opens toward the channel and which the Germans are trying to close around the allies.

"At Valenciennes," the high command said, "the attack is under way, coupled with hard fighting against French forces concentrated in this region."

SUFFERING INJURIES
Sam Crutchfield, 700 W. 3rd street, was treated Wednesday at the Malone & Hogan Clinic-Hospital for injuries sustained when his car struck a culvert on a curve of the highway two miles west of town Tuesday afternoon. He suffered lacerations of the scalp and legs and a slight brain concussion.

NAZI GENERAL AWAITS WORD FROM HITLER

By LOUIS F. LOCHNER
WITH THE GERMAN ARMIES ON THE WESTERN FRONT, May 22 (AP)—A gigantic fort capitulated under our eyes today as we stood on height between Eupen and Malmedy with a superb commanding view of the whole region, now German.

It later proved to be Battice, last of the great major fortification works around Liege, Belgium.

Artillery, followed by bombing warplanes, made it easy for the infantry to force its entry. Stukas (bomb-divers) began their attacks at 3 p. m. (7 a. m. C.S.T.) and we saw the Nazi swastikas raised atop the main fortification 20 minutes later.

Col. Gen. Walther von Reichenau waited in a peaceful old castle for a telephone call from Adolf Hitler which would send the powerful right wing of the German army westward against a half million Allied troops in Flanders.

The object: To drive back toward the English channel the forces which block a direct Nazi attack on England.

Expressing confidence in the outcome, von Reichenau, while he waited, checked through his general staff plan once more.

The west Flanders town of Ypres, which the British Tommy of the first World War called "Wipers," appeared to be one of those to be struck when the newly accumulated fury of the German mechanized forces is released.

Hitler's plan for encirclement of Paris presupposes this strong right wing movement in the southern sweep, and to von Reichenau was entrusted the job of seeing it through.

"Have you looked at the faces at the end of days of enormous marches hitherto considered impossible? Have you seen them sullen or grouchy?"

I could not but admit that the good humor of the sunburned young men whom we passed every evening on our way back from the operations area to our little hut as something that baffled me.

Von Reichenau continued: "You see our soldiers all know that war is not child's play but hard and grim work. They have no illusions. That has been so drilled into them that an indomitable fighting spirit animates them."

Parliament Is Invested With New Powers

All Wealth, Resources And Labor To Be Controlled

LONDON, May 22 (AP)—Britain's parliament tonight invested the government with dictatorial powers to conscript labor and wealth to strengthen the nation's shield against German invasion.

Within three hours the house of commons and the house of lords passed and King George approved a bill giving Winston Churchill's government unprecedented, sweeping war emergency powers demanded "in view of the grave peril in which the nation stands today."

It armed the cabinet with administrative weapons similar in efficiency and scope to those of Britain's authoritarian enemy.

An order in council, prepared even before the parliamentary process got underway, gave immediate effect to the law.

It set up controls under the ministers covering, chiefly, labor, banking, agriculture, transport, mining, war industries and export trade industries.

The war material and export industries will be given absolute priority and labor will be drafted as required to the more essential industries.

Arthur Greenwood, labor minister under portfolio and head of the production council, summoned the munitions board immediately.

Supply Minister Herbert Morrison ordered all ordnance factories to work full time seven days a week until further notice. Most factories now are working two 12-hour shifts.

Absolute Control
The bill gives the government absolute control over all wealth, labor and resources.

All-power production councils will be set up to speed supplies of munitions, ships, aircraft, farm produce and minerals.

Clement E. Attlee, Prime Minister Churchill's lieutenant in the house, who called for the virtual "dictatorship" declared he wanted the munitions boards to "get on the job" tonight.

The new measure carries forward a swift transition from democracy to semi-dictatorship which began before Britain went to war.

Military conscription was introduced hastily in the days just preceding that fateful Sunday, Sept. 3, and since then there have been measures restricting profits, limiting individuals' actions and controlling investments, all paving the way to today's complete subjection of the nation to the one idea of victory.

There would be a 100 per cent excess profits tax.

He said there even might be cases where firms would be closed or others where property would be destroyed.

During the afternoon Charles R. Bennett, with the American Society of Planning Officers and an leave from Milwaukee, was to make the principal talk. E. E. McVane, executive secretary of the League, presided, assisted by C. C. Griffith, assistant secretary.

NAZI 'CHUTE SOLDIER—This picture, according to German description, shows a German soldier of a parachute unit, which participated "so successfully" in the German advance into Belgium and Holland. He is wearing his official uniform. England has taken measures to prevent invasion of the British Isles by soldiers like these, dropping from the skies.

Public Is Urged To Assist In Final Census Checkup

Spot Checks Over The City To Be Made Friday

Cooperation of the public will be sought Friday morning in an effort to make sure that the 1940 federal census count of Big Spring has been complete.

At a conference with A. G. Bear, dean, Lamesa, district census supervisor, J. H. Greene, chamber of commerce manager, and others made tentative plans for a series of thorough spot checks over the city Friday from 10 a. m. to 12 noon.

Upon the results of this check will depend whether a systematic canvass of the entire city by volunteer workers will be attempted in an effort to assure an accurate population count.

Green told Bear that local people had an attitude of cooperation with enumerators and were only desiring to see that every bona fide resident was counted. He said that under no circumstances was "padding" of the rolls wanted or remotely considered.

The census count of Big Spring has not yet been released, and is not known, but there are good indications that as it now stands the aggregate will be considerably below the figure shown in 1930.

"It gets down to one of two things," said Greene. "Either the 1930 census was grossly in error, or all the people in Big Spring today have not been counted. We want to satisfy ourselves which is the answer."

Heard also concurred in this. He said he hoped that the final count would be on a basis that would satisfy all in the city.

One thing which has puzzled chamber of commerce officials is the projected decrease in population in the face of increases of scholastic enumerations, utility meters, new houses, etc.

W. C. Blankenship, city school superintendent, and King J. Bides, assistant superintendent, who were at the meeting, took immediate action for cooperation through the schools. The chamber of commerce agreed to pay 10 cents for every report returned by school children, signed by both parents, which showed that the family had not been enumerated this year. A special program to cover the Mexican section was under consideration.

Light Showers In Local Area

Up to Wednesday afternoon, Big Spring and surrounding drought stricken area had missed another excellent opportunity for needed moisture.

Overhanging clouds, which gave little but promise, had poured out only 13 of an inch through Tuesday night and Wednesday morning. The fall in the southwestern part of the county was slightly heavier from showers late Tuesday afternoon reaching a quarter of an inch in the Elbow region. Elsewhere, the Big Spring total was average.

At Hamby, six miles northeast of Abilene, a six-inch downpour was reported together with damaging hail. Abilene had 73 of an inch.

Rain totals at other points, as reported by the Associated Press were: Haskell 2.94, Coleman 1.5, Hamlin 2, Albany 1.5, Brownwood 2.55, Dallas 1.45, Fort Worth 1.62, McKinney 1.70, Chubbuck 1.93, Corsicana 6.8, Lubbock 95, Austin 22, Waco 85, and Vernon 27.

French Retake Arras, Weather Favors Allies

Weygand Optimistic As Forces Put Up New Resistance

By HENRY C. CASSIDY
PARIS, May 22 (AP)—A new wave of optimism swept over France today as reports reached the capital that the French had retaken Arras and chased a strong advance force of Germans out of Abbeville, 12 miles from the English Channel.

The ministry of information, rallying Frenchmen from the gloom that followed the terrible setbacks of the past few days, announced also that the bridges of the Somme river had been destroyed and a strong stand taken by French troops to halt any southward push.

The first note of optimism was sounded by General Maxime Weygand, Allied commander-in-chief, after a visit to the front, and every hour his words to Reynaud repeated over the National radio system.

"I am full of confidence if each man does his duty with a fierce energy."

The perfect weather which favored Hitler's Polish campaign and the blitzkrieg which he hurled against the Lowlands twelve days ago was broken last night by heavy rains.

Skies were clear again today, although fields and roads over which heavy tanks and armored cars had to move were soggy.

That break in the weather gave a slight rise to the French optimism, even though tempered by the belief the Germans may be consolidating their forces for a new and more furious lung.

As the Germans pushed their double-pronged lightning warfare westward towards the vital channel ports, the French established new front along the Somme and Aisne rivers, 200 miles across northern France.

Firmly Established
"With this defense system firmly established, the Allies began their counter attack to relieve Allied troops from pressure of the German push their first success, announced in a brief communique, was the recapture of Arras. Shortly afterward the ministry of information announced the taking of Abbeville.

A military spokesman said the destruction of the Somme bridges would force the Germans to bring up much heavier forces than they seem to have if they intended to cross the river.

The communique telling of the capture of Arras merely said: "Enemy pressure continued in the direction of the coast, taking the form of raids carried out by small motorized detachments. Arras is now in our hands."

The taking of Abbeville, where German motorcyclists and French had doggedly fought for possession of the railroad station, was announced by the ministry of information. A spokesman there said grimly the Germans had been "chased out" of the town.

AGAIN AFFIRMS DEATH SENTENCE
AUSTIN, May 22 (AP)—The court of appeals today made final its ruling affirming the death penalty assessed Ascension Martinez, convicted in Hidalgo county of the murder of an unidentified man whose body was found in the Rio Grande south of Donna in December, 1934.

Martinez had been convicted previously and the appellate court had reversed the verdict and dismissed the case. A later trial resulted in another conviction which the high court affirmed a year ago. The final action overruled a motion for rehearing.

HIGH TIDE

By Frances Hanna

Chapter One
SALVAGE
Something was floating on the water about two or three miles off shore. It could be almost anything, Jan reflected, but it was probably a dead barracuda.

The annoying thing about curiosity is that it won't leave you alone until you satisfy it. Rigid self-discipline was the only means of counteracting it, Jan decided. She attempted discipline by laying down her binoculars, stepping back from the parapet, and surveying her latest work of art with a critical frown.

"It's terrific—awful—pitiful!" she screeched, adding "as usual."

Carefully, rebellion rankling in her eyes, she picked up a cloth and wiped the canvas clean, erasing an impossibly blue and cheerful sea supporting an impossibly neat white ship.

"Why can't I do it?" she cried, her young face tight with despair. "Why?"

She knew there was no answer which could satisfy. Loving the wide sweep of ocean stretching before her from this roof-top, loving to paint, having studied and studied ART, still she could not catch that essence of beauty and briny majesty on canvas.

No use trying to do anything more today, she thought. The sun was setting with a splendor that mocked her futile attempts to catch it with a paint brush. The tide was running in, ebbing white and foamy on the brown sand before her house, depositing its burden of shells, seaweed and tiny sand crabs. Jan snatched up the binoculars from her deck chair and stared out over the water. That something still bobbed around in the trough of the waves way out beyond the fishing pier. It wasn't a boat nor a box—it looked human!

She resisted the impulse to run for her boat and investigate. Surely no human being would be swimming in a cold March sea with evening coming on, and if they were, they would certainly swim in now with the tide. Another hour and the dragging heavy ebb. With a shrug she put her paints and the canvas in a waterproof locker and began to fold the easel. Again she picked up

When all hope of his rescue had been abandoned, Richard Halliburton's parents disclosed the fact that over a period of more than twenty years he had written them long, intimate detailed letters which they had preserved. The problem of compressing and arranging the

MISS LANEIOUS NOTES

By Mary Whaley

Our nomination for oblivion would be the intervals in picture shows when ads try to sell us high priced cars or cigarettes or typewriters when we have saved our pennies all week to be entertained for an hour.

Except that it gives us time to find out if seats are without disturbing anybody, look for our gloves on the floor or exchange remarks with a friend it is rows away, we can't figure any good in them.

Sometimes, we get a laugh at the ludicrous situations portrayed before dragging in the name of the product by the heels but mostly we crutch our popcorn and wonder wearily how much longer it will be before the show starts.

It makes us want to whistle and stamp our feet and give cat calls but some old fashioned belief that we must act like a lady restrains us. We content ourselves with eating our popcorn vigorously and muttering under our breath.

But had enough as it is to see them once, it is deadly dull when by chance we get to go to the show twice in one week and have to sit through the same again. See the same models do the same artificial things. It causes our sales-resistance in an all time high.

And too, when we are hungry and trying to wait until the end of the show before popping that "I'm hungry" on our escort, they show mouth melting pastries or sometimes a whole table full of food. Someday, we shall swoon in our seat and have to be carried out and then maybe they will stop running the things.

New Espionage Precautions Are Taken

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—New precautions against espionage and any "fifth column" activity in the United States were added today to the general scope of the national defense program.

The major recommendation originated with President Roosevelt, who disclosed he was planning to give the justice department supervision over immigration as a safeguard against alien spies and saboteurs.

Immigration control now rests with the labor department, but Mr. Roosevelt said he would make the transfer in a government reorganization order.

Announcing the projected shift, he said yesterday it was for obvious defense reasons.

Chairman Dies (D-Texas) of the house committee investigating un-American activities commended the idea. Anything in that direction, he said, "will be greatly appreciated by the American people and by the congress."

Dies, whose committee has been seeking to unearth evidence regarding existence of a "fifth column" here, said his group would pursue new clues obtained in closed session yesterday from Nicholas Dozenberg, former soviet OGPU operative.

The committee, he said, would use names mentioned by Dozenberg to dig into accounts of a huge spy ring which Dies asserted was spread through the country to get military and industrial secrets.

Red Cross Speeds Campaign For Funds In U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—The American Red Cross speeded up its campaign for a $10,000,000 war relief fund today after receiving word that between three and five million Belgian and French refugees were fleeing terror-stricken toward southern France.

Wayne Chaffield Taylor, European delegate of the organization, telephoned National Chairman Norman H. Davis from Paris.

"It is impossible to exaggerate the refugee problem. There are probably 5,000,000 men, women and children homeless. The impact is staggering, but the Red Cross is in there pitching."

The word from Taylor came as President Roosevelt told reporters yesterday that planes were sweeping French roads with machine gun fire, resulting in a refugee death toll such as never had been seen.

To aid in relieving the mass suffering in Europe, the American Red Cross has cabled $1,000,000 in cash to Paris within the last five days. More than that amount has been collected in the current drive for funds.

Since the European war started in September, the Red Cross has sent $2,776,000 to help the Poles, Finns, Dutch, Belgians and the allies.

In addition, $386,000 in supplies—surgical dressings, medicine, ambulances, clothing—were sent abroad up to May 11. Since then orders have been placed in the United States for $1,000,000 in supplies, including 100 ambulances and 150 hospital trucks.

Loss Of Brains By Operation Not Necessary Handicap Is Claim

By STEPHEN J. McDONOUGH Associated Press Science Writer

CINCINNATI, May 22—The actual loss of brains by operation of injury does not necessarily handicap a person, the American Psychiatric association was told today.

Dr. Leland B. Alford, of St. Louis, declared that serious destruction of brain tissue in the "speech area," which is supposed to radiate impulses to other parts of the brain, did not interfere with the activity of other parts.

Persons whose speech areas are damaged either by concussion or operations for tumors remained as normal, or more so, than before their accidents or operations.

"A school teacher continued teaching her class efficiently in spite of a large cyst in the frontal lobe" lying just back of the forehead, "a man with a brain tumor which destroyed the speech area of the brain gave his own hospital history" to the receiving attendant, and another patient who had a large part of the speech area of his brain removed by operation continued his work and activities without impairment of his activities, Dr. Alford said.

His results indicate, the St. Louis physician said, that it is impossible to localize in or on the brain such complex activities as speech, hearing, smell, or other sensations since they seem to be functions of the whole brain rather than any individualistic part.

Psychiatrists here declared this is one more refutation of the outmoded practice of phrenologists who profess to read personality by bumps on the skull.

The next day the official was sorry that he had been sorry when the woman returned and asked where she could present her bill for $8.50 for repairs to her car bumper.

SHIPBUILDING PROGRAM WELL UNDERWAY

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—National maritime day found the United States today well advanced on its civil shipbuilding program and somewhat reassured as to the effects of the war on its merchant marine.

Contracts for the construction of 152 merchant ships, to be built at a cost of $380,000,000, have been placed in the last two and one-half years by the maritime commission, which was charged by congress with the responsibility of providing this country with an adequate and well-balanced merchant fleet.

The impact of the war has not been as severe as was feared at first, although through the neutrality act it has resulted in the barring of more than 100 American flagships from their regular runs to continental Europe. Most of the ships have found employment in other services.

Rear Admiral Emory S. Land, maritime commission chairman, summed up the situation in his latest report to congress with the observation that the over-all picture of the merchant marine, despite disturbing factors, "is far more satisfactory than in 1914."

The maritime commission's building program, intended to regain some of the glory of the old clipper ship days, calls for a minimum of 50 new ships a year for ten years.

NEWSMEN NAME CAROLINAN

MINERAL WELLS, May 22 (AP)—A. W. Huckie, publisher of the Rock Hill (South Carolina) Herald, today received many congratulations upon his election as president of the Southern Newspaper Publishers association.

Publishers of small city newspapers in the south were pleased because the new head of the S. N. P. A. is one of the few ever chosen from small cities in nearly 40 years of the organization's history. The coming year is expected to see extension of the activities of the S. N. P. A. in the small city newspaper field.

More than half of the S. N. P. A. membership of 262 represents small city newspapers. Metropolitan publishers, however, chose Huckie for the 1941 presidency and E. K. Gaylor, Oklahoma City, chairman of the nominating committee paid tribute to Huckie's career and to his record of S. N. P. A. activities.

Witnesses Ready To Testify In Murder Case

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 22 (AP)—Twenty-seven witnesses were ready to testify today in the case of Mrs. May Walker Burleson, 51, Galveston, Tex., artist charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of the seaman who succeeded her in marriage to Col. Richard C. Burleson, U. S. army.

Defense attorneys said they would present witnesses from Boston, Mass., Baltimore, Md., and Texas, but would not give their names. Neither would the lawyers indicate what procedure they would follow for their client, who recently was adjudged "not insane."

The second Mrs. Burleson, formerly Isabelle Recca of Boston, was shot as she sat at a hotel cafeteria table March 8.

The coroner's jury was told that the divorced wife approached Mrs. Burleson from the rear, pushed a pistol barrel through a black cloth handbag and fired into the woman's back. As the victim slumped, the first Mrs. Burleson walked in front of her and fired again, eyewitnesses said.

The assailant waited at the hotel desk until officers arrived.

Col. Burleson, at the time of his wife's death, was stationed at nearby Camp Jackson, where he was artillery advisor of the Sixth division.

American petroleum export trade no good.

One exporter declared that his exports had declined from 10 to 90 per cent on his various products.

Another complained that American equipment makers were doing the domestic producers a disservice.

"We make more good equipment for producing and processing oil in this country than we can use," he said. "You can't blame the equipment makers for selling it abroad, but what happens? The equipment is used to produce oil from new fields and there goes some more of our export market."

Representatives of countries affected by the war declined comment on crude or gasoline supplies for the battle machines of the belligerents.

In domestic refining circles, marketers generally reported "no change." Travel weather has brought an increased demand for motor fuel but heavy stocks built up in anticipation of war demand which did not materialize has been a depressing influence.

Wonder whatever became of....?

Did his classmates lose track of him? How could they? He was the sort of friend that all of us would want to keep... mostly because of his understanding slant on life and people and things. He was active in athletics, yet his studies never suffered... nor did he overwork cheat him of recreation and relaxation. Light-hearted, yet serious when problems faced him... always master of his worries. He avoided idlers, but added constantly to his circle of sincere friends. He was courageous without being reckless, confident without being cocksure... moderate in all things. Everybody said he'd make good. He has.

Veteran Pilot Believes In Plane Steam Engines

SEATTLE, Wash. (UP)—Aviation could use another James Watt to re-discover the uses of steam in air transport, believes Capt. Hubert B. Rueschenberg, veteran pilot.

In fact, he has an automobile powered by steam and he hoped it would lend some day to steam-propelled airplanes.

"If steam had been engineered and studied as carefully as gasoline motors," Rueschenberg said, "I'm sure we could today see planes with steam power plants."

This year 1,300,000 trees will be planted in the southwestern "dust bowl."

BARONS RETURN HOME TO FACE LUBBOCK HUBS IN OPENER OF TWO GAME SERIES

Winners in four of their last five games, the Big Spring Barons returned home to face the Lubbock Hubs, the first of a two game series.

Tony Rego's forces have not exactly moved into a contending position for the WTNM league lead but have definitely been playing better ball during the past week than at any time this season. They lost but one game on the last road trip, that a 3-5 Saturday night argument to Lager. They rallied to win the series by taking two games Sunday, then grabbed off a Monday evening debate with the Pampa Oilers.

Rego brought an abrupt halt to Tuesday festivities at Pampa when the two teams tied at one-all going into the fourth inning.

A quartet of new players, including two pitchers, will be available this evening. Rego's pitching assignment will probably go either to Lefty Sperry or Bill Parmenter who came here from the coast last week.

Available also for duty are Venticelli, an outfielder, and Denison, a right handed first sacker.

Denison fits into the lineup. Garbe, now at first base, will probably be moved into the outfield. Garbe has been hitting exceptionally the past week and is expected to hang around.

Whittick goes into the outfield. Snooks Carroll might be benched again. Carroll has finally boosted his batting average above .500 after a bad start. He is the No. 1 gardener if his ankles can hold up.

Rego seems well satisfied with the lineup. Scopetone in centerfield, Soupy has built up an impressive array of extra base knocks and is fielding up to par. Too, he's a difficult man to pitch to, has been able to wait for more than his share of free passes.

If Sperry and Parmenter come through, it might mean that Rego has given up on Buck Schulze. Schulze has shown much promise and the skipper has dedicated plenty of time in working with him but the Saint Louisian may yet be a year away from pro ball.

Not the same team that won titles in 1938 and '39, the Lubbock crew nevertheless brings a team with championship possibilities into the ball orchard this evening. The youngsters, and practically every member of the crew is without previous professional experience, are riding in the cellar at the moment but are expected as much as any outfit in the circuit.

Engle's outfit is but 4 1/2 games out of the first division and seems capable of pulling up with any kind of combination in hitting and pitching.

Wither Ray Finnechero or Gene Stack is expected to go to the hill for the visitors.

Last night the Hubs absorbed a tough beating at the hands of the Clovis Pioneers in Clovis, losing out, 2-1, as Pete Potter set them down with five scalped hits. The champions pushed across a run in the final round to escape a blanking.

In Amarillo Pat Patterson, former Baron, won his fourth straight game, stopping Amarillo with five hits to pace Lamesa to a 4-3 victory. The Lobos had to tally twice in the final heat to win, however. Bus Dorman was the losing pitcher.

In the league's other game, Berger smashed Midland, 13-4, taking advantage of the wildness of Alkins, Midland hurler. The Gasks garnered nine hits, two more than did the Waddies.

Lew Jenkins To Be Honored In Sweetwater Thursday Night

"Lew Jenkins Day," originally scheduled to be held Monday, will be observed Thursday in Sweetwater, according to Bob Cooke, Sweetwater scribe.

Cooke writes: "The hometown of the world lightweight champion is throwing a fine public party for the busy headed youngster who less than two weeks ago uncrowned Lou Ambers and brought the world lightweight belt to Nolan county from Hickimer, N. Y."

"Jenkins is well-known in Big Spring, and Sweetwater has sent a special invitation to that city to join in honoring Texas' second world champion fighter. Jenkins has a sister, Mrs. Fay Brennan living in Big Spring, and the ex-champion has appeared on fight programs there while he was still in the 'ham and egg' class."

"While the Thursday night program is to feature Jenkins, the Board of City Development, sponsoring the event, plans to pay tribute to other Sweetwater champions. Sam Baugh, former all-American footballer spending the summer at his ranch near here while waiting for the training camp of the Washington Redskins to open in Seattle in mid-August, is on the program. Sweetwater high school athletes who won championships during 1939-40 are to be honored, as is Kenneth Lewis, the 4-H Club boy who fed a number of grand champion calves shown at numerous West Texas shows last season.

"Noah Valadez, 124 pounds, Arlo Royce, 113, both of San Angelo, Julian Farmer, 118, and Chell Whitsett, 135, both of Abilene, have agreed to meet in a number of preliminary bouts of boxing. Jenkins is to put on a three-round exhibition bout with Jimmy Lacune, Dallas, one of the champion's sparring partners.

"Jenkins, now in Dallas, telephoned BCD officials that he would be accompanied back to Sweetwater Wednesday night by his manager, Hymie Caplin, and his wife, Katie, whom the home-folk have not yet seen. Both Caplin and Katie have agreed to take part in the program.

"Sweetwater has invited all West Texas to join in this free demonstration planned for a West Texas boy who has gained fame within the last year as one of the most colorful lightweights to ever wear the crown.

"Thursday evening's program is to begin at 7:45 with a 30-minute concert by the Mustang band.

"The BCD has arranged to care for 10,000 persons. A ring has been built in the center of the football field and the farthest one of the 12,000 seats in the stadium will be as close as some of the best ringside seats in the Polo Grounds when Jenkins fights Henry Armstrong, the welterweight king, in a 12-round non-title fight in New York July 17."

Swatzy Looking For Games With Teams Of Other Towns

Bill Brown, former Big Spring slabsman who experienced a successful season for Midland last year but who failed to catch on with any W-T-NM league club this spring, has confined his activities to weekend mound tests and has been doing very well at it.

Last Sunday, Bill was very effective in hurling the Odessa semi-pro to a 4-3 decision over the Crane Gulf Oilers, going the route despite a three-run rally on the part of the Oilers in the ninth.

Two Sundays ago Brown beat the Oilers, 2-1, in 11 innings.

Jimmy Foxx Increases Home Run Total To 11 As Sox Win

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Maybe it's Nostalgia creeping up, but a fellow can't escape feeling every once in awhile that the old heroes are the best heroes.

There's Jimmie Foxx of the Boston Red Sox. In the 15 years he has been swashbuckling around the American league, a lot of fine new faces have appeared.

But old "double x" still is setting the opposing pitchers crazy with his terrific slugging. He hit a home run with the bases loaded yesterday for the second straight day to help Boston beat the Detroit Tigers 11-8 and get a stronger grip on first place in the junior circuit.

He has hit 11 homers and batted in 38 runs already this spring.

The world champion New York Yankees took some of the pressure off Boston by belting the Cleveland Indians 10-2 with a 12-hit attack, led by George Selkirk and Charley Keller.

The victory was not sufficient to get the Yanks out of the cellar because the Chicago White Sox edged out the Washington Senators. Joe Kubel led the Sox's 15-hit assault with a perfect day at the plate, five hits including a home run and two doubles.

These were the only completed games in the American league. The Philadelphia Athletics started to work out on the St. Louis Browns but rain washed out the game in the middle of the fifth.

In the only contest the weather allowed in the National league the Brooklyn Dodgers squeezed past the Chicago Cubs 4-3 to end a three-game losing streak.

Bisons Trim Cats, 5 To 2

By The Associated Press

A runaway race naturally isn't what baseball league officials want. It isn't the best inducement for fans.

The Texas league is taking care of the situation very well. While Houston splurges along with a wide first-place margin, six other teams are waging a hectic battle for the next three places that pay off in the Shaugnessy plan.

Between runner-up Tulsa and seventh-place Fort Worth there is a margin of only four games.

Houston beat Fort Worth last night 5-2. Oklahoma City downed San Antonio 3-9 behind Charley Fuch's six-hit hurling.

Jackie Reid solo-batted Tulsa's Oilers into a 4-0 defeat for Shreveport.

Dallas came to life in the ninth for five runs and beat Beaumont 5-3.

Railroad Aids Hobo

WHITEFISH, Mont. (UP)—Good Samaritan instincts went into operation when a pneumonia-ridden hobo stumbled into a track walkers shack along the Great Northern railway. The track walker stopped an incoming train, the train crew loaded the feverish man into a mail car and he was rushed to a hospital at Priest River, Ida.

Negro Writes Oratorio

BUTTE, Mont. (UP)—Working at a public desk in the Butte post-office lobby, Joseph Lee Turner, 25-year-old negro musician, is finishing an oratorio using "The Lord's Prayer" as his theme. Setting down the notes with a rusty postoffice pen, Turner already has completed the piano score for his composition.

Alabama Keeps Republic Flag

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UP)—A copy of the "flag of the Alabama Republic" has been presented to the state department of archives and history by the Alabama United Daughters of the Confederacy. There is only one original flag of the republic, also in the department, Alabama was a republic for several weeks after secession and before she joined the Confederacy.

Spirits To Be Hunted

COOR HAY, Ore. (UP)—Coor head near here is expected to become a brew for "buried treasure" hunters. Bill Brown, former local newspaperman, while walking along the beach in 1924 found a 20-gallon keg of whiskey. He worked all afternoon burying it beneath a fallen tree. Before he could return next day, a forest fire swept the area and destroyed his landmark. The "treasure" is still there somewhere.

It just doesn't add, but Zeke Bonura's gilt-edge fielding is featuring Washington's western invasion. Col. Terry will please note.

Today's True Story

Two days later along came Mrs. Gene Root with an 88 to chop a stroke off the club's women's record, which she held.

S'western AAU Spotlight On Ace Miler

DENTON, May 22 (AP)—Chunky Joe Wood of Buckner Home (Dallas) has developed into one of the brightest track prospects in Texas.

Any schoolboy who can run the mile on successive nights under 4:30 is liable to be in line for bids from all the colleges.

He ran the event in 4:26.5 Monday night to win in the Junior division of the annual Southwest AAU meet here.

Last night in the senior division Wood raced in with a time of 4:27.6. He again won the event.

Other notable showings included a javelin throw of 204 feet 6 inches by Albert Mikeska of North Texas State Teachers college and a 9.8 seconds hundred by Olvis Hicks of North Texas.

Mikeska's heave was nearly two feet better than his own Lone Star conference record.

Max Minor of Tahoka won the 220-yard low hurdles in 24.3. He holds the state record in this event.

North Texas and East Texas dominated last night's action.

Memphis Vet Sentimental Favorite

FORT WORTH, May 22 (AP)—Off the eighteen green, her kindly face framed by silvery hair, walked women's golf itself Mrs. Dave Gaut of Memphis.

Youngsters crowded around her, went through the familiar routine of congratulating the queen of Dixie, the woman who started her twenty-seventh a triumph that revealed the stout heart that has made her feared for a quarter of a century.

Stiffed by the precision of young Mrs. Robert Monstler's rush on the back nine that sent her one under par for six holes, Mrs. Gaut was two down and three to play. She just smiled a little more, parred the last three holes and won the match, one up.

She embraced the New Orleans girl, assured her she was a "grand little player," then sighed:

"These youngsters are beginning to be too much for me. But I love it. Today I got one of my greatest thrills. I've seen a lot of things happen in golf, but do you know what I did out there today? When I had to I jumped a stymie three feet from the hole with a niblick and made it!"

Her age is her secret but what does it matter?

Yesterday on a par 75 course fringed by heavy cloud and playing extremely hard, she was 82 and a winner.

Today she plays Miss Jane Cochran, the Greenville, S. C., girl with the "Seabiscuit" name. Col. odds favored Miss Cochran—youth, power, determination. But sentimental backing for Mrs. Dave Gaut, the great campaigner, was almost as strong.

SCREEN STARS IN SPORTS—They Laughed When Crosby Started A Racing Stable—

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD, May 22 (AP)—It seems about five years ago Bing Crosby bought a horse. It seems he paid about $5,000 for two-year-old Khayyam.

Khayyam never set the track afire, but Khayyam was the little beginning of a great big thing—Bing Crosby, follower of the sport of kings.

Bing was the first movie star to own a horse. He was among the first to subscribe for Santa Anita stock. He was among the first to take on a chunk of Hollywood Park at Inglewood, and he is the only movie star who is founder, organizer and president of his own racing club—the Del Mar Jockey club which operates a summer meeting south of here "where the turf meets the surf."

Bing used to "follow the horses" when he was one of Paul Whitteman's Rhythm Boys. He used to spurge some on bets in those days. Now that he's an owner, he bets mostly for sentimental reasons. When his Eight On won at Santa Anita and paid about $100 for 22, Bing had only a ducat across the board.

After he bought Khayyam and Zombie, and a few more nags, Bing hired Albert Johnston, three-time Kentucky Derby winner, to be his trainer. Johnston, like Bing, hails from Spokane, Wash.

They All Finished Last

That first year the Crosby entries unanimously ran last, which lashed from his fellows on the air because the still healthy torrent of Crosby horse jokes.

But now, Bing has two strings of horses not to be scorned. They are High Strike, Celer Divo, Small Fry, Donna O'Connell, Decca, Joe, Mighty Dave, and Rita O'Connell. With Lin Howard he owns Don Mike, Ligatort, Precipitor II, Olmop, Etolia II, Sures, Ra II, Comet I, Profundo and Golden Chance. Bing's wife, Dixie Lee, and Bob Howard, Lin's brother, together have his Taffeta.

At Rancho Santa Fe, near the Sweepstakes in the Santa Anita Derby? Don't Lucky Baldwin send four or five Kentucky and American Derby winners to the east? Well, so it again, and I'd sure love to be the man who does it."

Del Mar is where Pat O'Brien, Fred Astaire, Gary Cooper, Charles Hutton and other movie luminaries have a stake with Bing Crosby in the fourth meeting this August.

When not busy with radio, movies, or acting activities, Bing sponsors and plays host to one of the county's most unusual golf tournaments, the annual Rancho Santa Fe "Open." The purse is small but the fun is large, with barbecues, banquets and "gags" in abundance. Lawson Little, Sammy Sneed, Jimmy Demaret, Gene Sarazen, Kip Laffoon, Ralph Guldahl and other leading golfers, pro and amateur, have been "didn't one of our hometowns

A little fellow who plugs a ball with the best of them, Ben Hogan jumped into the headlines this spring by winning three straight tournaments in Carolina. Hogan has a whip-lash swing. He is serious, almost grim, has what is called a "killer instinct."

Near First Half Title—Phillips Tire Wins Over Ward, 17 To 7

Phillips Tire defeated Montgomery Ward, 17-7 Tuesday evening at the city park to all but fifth first half honors in the Major City softball league.

Only team with a chance to catch the high flying Tirmen are Ben Daniel's Anderson Devils, who this morning were reinstated into the league. The Devils oppose Standard this evening, then go out against the Porsan Oilers Thursday evening.

With Lefty Morris hauling seven hit balls and blanking the opposition through the first four innings, the Tirmen had little trouble with the Retailers.

Daryl Farmer hit a home run to feature the 12-hit attack of Louie Evans, Ward twirler.

Ted Phillips' crew chased across seven runs in the opening round and added three more in the third.

In the evening's opening bout, Standard shut out Carnett's, 11-0. Bobby Savage, Cowley and Sledge accounted for the only Carnett hits.

The Oilers rallied for three runs in the first inning, then returned for six tallies in the second.

Bobby Martin hit a second inning home run for the Oilers.

Divorce To Wife

SAN JOSE, Calif. May 22 (AP)—Judge R. R. Starr ruled it was not cruelty for a wife to kick her husband's skins under the bridge table if he trumped her ace. But, he held, the husband was cruel if he hurled a rolling pin at his wife.

On this basis the judge denied Guy Bernis, 54, a divorce and awarded the decree to Mary L. Bernis, 45.

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—Sam Snead is skipping the Metropolitan Open this week to toughen up for the National by doing road work, like a fighter. The other National league clubs are getting ready to clip the Dodgers' wings by passing a no flying rule. Flight Manager Al Weil, who has lost two champs in two weeks Lou Ambers and Joey Archibald is fit to be tied. And another of his meat tickets figures to be well pouched when Arturo Godoy goes against Joe Louis again.

Spirits To Be Hunted

COOR HAY, Ore. (UP)—Coor head near here is expected to become a brew for "buried treasure" hunters. Bill Brown, former local newspaperman, while walking along the beach in 1924 found a 20-gallon keg of whiskey. He worked all afternoon burying it beneath a fallen tree. Before he could return next day, a forest fire swept the area and destroyed his landmark. The "treasure" is still there somewhere.

It just doesn't add, but Zeke Bonura's gilt-edge fielding is featuring Washington's western invasion. Col. Terry will please note.

The incredible advance of Adolf Hitler's and the thus far ineffective resistance of the Allied armies is within itself a modern phenomenon; but it is no more remarkable than the about face of American public opinion during the past fortnight.

At one point, the British ambassador says: "If I were entitled to apportion the blame for the tragic and ghastly war which we have now entered, I should do so as follows: firstly, the overwhelming ambition and the ever growing megalomania of Hitler; secondly, the self-interested advice of Herr von Ribbentrop and of the small clique of Nazi veterans and gangsters... to whom, for their services in the struggle for power, were given many of the plums of victory... and thirdly, Himmler and his black-shirted S.S. and secret police."

BRIGHT COLORS FOR WAR WIN

MME. PATINE

LONDON (UP)—Bright colors, suitable makeup and plenty of smiles—this is the recipe for beauty—war or no war—used by the world's best dressed woman.

She is Mme. Antner Patine, wife of the Bolivian Minister in Paris, who is visiting London.

Mme. Patine was judged the best dressed woman by Parisian dress-makers, with the Duchess of Windsor second and the Duchess of Kent third. Beauty, she believes, comes from only one source—happiness.

Mme. Patine never has to diet. She eats as much as she likes and what she likes, but she seldom drinks or smokes.

Although it has been rumored that she spends fabulous sums on her clothes, she actually never spends more than $10,000 a year. Her suits she buys in London. Her gowns are made by Lelong and Alk and her hats by Suzy, but her shoes are American.

Mme. Patine buys her two small daughters' clothes in London. That is one of the reasons for her present visit.

Yams Advanced As Stock Feed

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UP)—Sweet potatoes soon may become an important livestock feed in the South.

Feeding tests which have been conducted at experiment stations in Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee show that sweet potatoes have a high feeding value if properly balanced with cottonseed meal or other protein rich feeds.

The experiments indicate that dehydrated sweet potatoes equal corn pound for pound for fattening steers.

Tests at the Alabama Experiment Station at Auburn revealed an acre of sweet potatoes will produce two to three times as much feed as an acre of corn.

Big Per Acre Yield

The average yield of sweet potatoes in Alabama is 88 bushels an acre, but experiments indicate this production can be increased to between 200 and 400 bushels in most sections of the state.

Alabama's average corn yield is about 13 bushels an acre and the tests showed the 88 bushels of potatoes produced on an acre of land would have two and one-third times the feeding value of corn grown on the same land.

Prof. J. C. Grimes, head of the animal husbandry department of Alabama Polytechnic Institute, reported that he fed 10 steers peanut hay, cottonseed meal and minerals for 112 days and 10 other similar steers peanut hay, cottonseed meal, potato pulp and minerals for the same time.

Foundings Gained Recorded

He said the steers fed the potato pulp gained 1.99 pounds per steer per day, while those not receiving the pulp gained .88 pounds. The potato fed steers showed a profit of $1.25 per steer above feed cost, while the other showed a loss of $4.46 per steer.

Grimes said that when sweet potatoes are dehydrated or dried, the moisture content is reduced to 8 to 10 per cent and a feed rich in carbohydrates is the result. He said dehydrated potatoes contain about 15 per cent more carbohydrates than No. 2 corn.

Sweet potatoes, long have been used in the manufacture of starch, but their use as a feed for cattle has not been extensive.

BRIGHT COLORS FOR WAR WIN

MME. PATINE

LONDON (UP)—Bright colors, suitable makeup and plenty of smiles—this is the recipe for beauty—war or no war—used by the world's best dressed woman.

She is Mme. Antner Patine, wife of the Bolivian Minister in Paris, who is visiting London.

Mme. Patine was judged the best dressed woman by Parisian dress-makers, with the Duchess of Windsor second and the Duchess of Kent third. Beauty, she believes, comes from only one source—happiness.

Mme. Patine never has to diet. She eats as much as she likes and what she likes, but she seldom drinks or smokes.

Although it has been rumored that she spends fabulous sums on her clothes, she actually never spends more than $10,000 a year. Her suits she buys in London. Her gowns are made by Lelong and Alk and her hats by Suzy, but her shoes are American.

Mme. Patine buys her two small daughters' clothes in London. That is one of the reasons for her present visit.

Yams Advanced As Stock Feed

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UP)—Sweet potatoes soon may become an important livestock feed in the South.

Feeding tests which have been conducted at experiment stations in Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee show that sweet potatoes have a high feeding value if properly balanced with cottonseed meal or other protein rich feeds.

The experiments indicate that dehydrated sweet potatoes equal corn pound for pound for fattening steers.

Tests at the Alabama Experiment Station at Auburn revealed an acre of sweet potatoes will produce two to three times as much feed as an acre of corn.

Big Per Acre Yield

The average yield of sweet potatoes in Alabama is 88 bushels an acre, but experiments indicate this production can be increased to between 200 and 400 bushels in most sections of the state.

Alabama's average corn yield is about 13 bushels an acre and the tests showed the 88 bushels of potatoes produced on an acre of land would have two and one-third times the feeding value of corn grown on the same land.

Prof. J. C. Grimes, head of the animal husbandry department of Alabama Polytechnic Institute, reported that he fed 10 steers peanut hay, cottonseed meal and minerals for 112 days and 10 other similar steers peanut hay, cottonseed meal, potato pulp and minerals for the same time.

Foundings Gained Recorded

He said the steers fed the potato pulp gained 1.99 pounds per steer per day, while those not receiving the pulp gained .88 pounds. The potato fed steers showed a profit of $1.25 per steer above feed cost, while the other showed a loss of $4.46 per steer.

Grimes said that when sweet potatoes are dehydrated or dried, the moisture content is reduced to 8 to 10 per cent and a feed rich in carbohydrates is the result. He said dehydrated potatoes contain about 15 per cent more carbohydrates than No. 2 corn.

Sweet potatoes, long have been used in the manufacture of starch, but their use as a feed for cattle has not been extensive.

French Retake

Fighting was also going on in the region of Neufchatel Sur Alsne, ten miles directly north of Rheims, the ministry of information said. Details were lacking.

Premier Reynaud, after his gloomy speech of yesterday, declared today that if France can hold out for one month she will be "three quarters of the way to victory." And France will hold out, he added.

The heaviest fighting today was in a fire-scarred triangle north of the Somme, from Amiens to Arras to Abbeville, where German paratroops descended yesterday with blazing torches, and eastward to the Cambrai region.

On the Lorraine front the French reported shelling three towns in German territory in retaliation for the German shelling of three towns behind the French lines. The names of the towns were not disclosed.

Arras, which was occupied by motorized German units yesterday, is approximately 60 miles from the vital channel port of Calais, gateway to England.

Amiens, 35 miles southeast of Arras and about 50 miles from the channel, apparently still was in German hands.

The capture of Arras heartened the civilian population of Paris, many of whom already were streaming out of the capital to seek safety in the south.

To Attend Meeting

Lora Farnsworth Howard county home demonstration agent, was to attend a meeting of other agents with Grace I. Neely, Texas A & M college extension service food preservation specialist, at Lorraine and Colorado City on Thursday.

She was to be joined here by Alpha Lynn, Midland, and Mrs. Elsie Gikerson, Stanton, in a trip to Lorraine where a frozen foods locker room will be inspected and thence back to Colorado City for a conference.

TO ADDRESS CLASS

Alvin Allison, Levelland, state representative from that district, will address the members of the Spangenberg graduating class in exercises scheduled for 8:30 p. m. Thursday, it was announced here.

BETTY JAMESON WINS 2ND DUEL
FORT WORTH, May 22 (AP)—National champion Betty Jameson plowed through mud in a great round to eliminate her townswoman, Mrs. E. R. Hury of San Antonio, 5 and 4, in the feature second round match of the Women's Southern Golf association tournament today.

Soggy from nearly two inches of overnight rain, River Crest's par 37-38-75 was no hurdle to Betty, who slowly studied every shot of an errorless round.

Stymied on the first hole and unable to go for her par, Betty went one down. But that was the last time Mrs. Hury could handle the champion. Birdies at the third, sixth and eighth holes sent Miss Jameson out in 36, one under par, and with a four-hole lead.

Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page, only one over par, disposed of Mrs. Emily Randolph of Dallas, 7 and 6.

Defending champion Marion Miley, out in 39, two over par, was never worried in a 7 and 5 victory over Mrs. F. C. Kochon of Fort Worth.

The challenge of Mrs. Dave Gault, Memphis veteran, to youthful Jane Cothran of Greenville, S. C., carried her to the eighteenth green, but there Miss Cothran laid a seven iron shot dead to the hole for a birdie that gave her two up victory.

Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite stepped over her home course in fine form to eliminate Mrs. E. L. Donaldson of New Orleans, the Louisiana champion, 4 and 3, in a battle between the queens of Texas and Louisiana golf.

Tomorrow's quarter final matches pit Miss Page against Mrs. Israel; Miss Cothran against Miss Miley; Miss Jameson against Miss Pearson; and Miss Kirby against Mrs. Goldthwaite.

Drive Response Is Heartening

The American Red Cross announced today that more than a million dollars had been contributed by the American public to date in response to an appeal for a $10,000,000 war relief fund, C. E. Heaton, general field representative from the St. Louis office, said here Wednesday morning.

Meanwhile, the local drive to attain a quota of more than $1,100 was gaining momentum steadily with the first $100 in sight. Shine Phillips, chapter chairman, announced Walton Morrison, Mrs. Inez Knight, Herbert Stanley, M. E. Allen, W. R. Martin and Joe Wood along with E. B. Webb of Dallas had been added to the list of donors.

Heaton conferred with Phillips on plans to organize a theatrical campaign in an effort to reach the quota set for Howard and Glasscock counties. Thus far, the drive has been strictly on a voluntary basis.

Assurance that American dollars even for all out desperately suffering war refugees of France and Belgium were in action today in France having food and shelter was given to Norman H. Davis, chairman, by Wayne Pfisterling Taylor in a transcontinental telephone conversation from Paris. The sum of $9,000 has already been used, and Maquita De Follos, president of the French Red Cross, advised that he was "deeply moved by valuable and effective assistance so generously provided by the American Red Cross for the populations so cruelly tried by the forced abandonment of their homes and loss of all their possessions."

Wichita county, Texas, today held the distinction of being the first chapter over 40,000 population in the midwest to report its quota exceeded. Elsewhere, results were encouraging.

MARKETS
Wall Street

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—The ebb tide of selling turned in the stock market today and a selective flow of buying set in. Aircrafts, steels and specialties were the principal gainers.

As news from the theater of war appeared more favorable to the allied cause, the hysterical selling of Tuesday was converted into careful buying in issues calculated to benefit from American rearmament.

The move was not vigorous, and many leaders had lost part of the day's gains at the finish. Turnover, at about 2,100,000 shares, was only about half Tuesday's.

Douglas, United Aircraft, Glenn Martin and Sperry were most consistent performers on the upside. Others in favor most of the time included Montgomery Ward, Youngtown Sheet, Du Pont, Allied Chemical, Loft, Great Northern preferred, East, American and Eastman.

Glasscock Co. Pioneer Dies

Death had claimed another pioneer of this section today with the passing of Christ (Chris) Schafer, 82, who had lived in Glasscock county for more than half a century.

He died at his home southeast of the Lee's community at midnight Tuesday following a long illness which had its inception three years ago.

Mr. Schafer was a native of Germany, but spent the major portion of his life in Glasscock county, where he settled in 1887. Gaining a small foothold, he not only worked his own place, but labored long hours for others, saving and extending his own holdings. He was a typical example of pioneer stock, one who knew honest, hard work as the only abiding solution to progress. Mr. Schafer was known for years as a breeder of fine Percheron horses on his Glasscock county ranch.

He follows his wife in death, Mrs. Schafer having succumbed on Feb. 19. He will be buried beside her grave in the Garden City cemetery.

Services will be at 3 p. m. Thursday at the graveside at Garden City with the Rev. Theo. Graulman, pastor of the Big Spring Lutheran church, in charge.

Schafer is survived by four sons, John, Blomark, and Benjamin, all of Garden City, and Benjamin, Miss Pearl Schafer of Garden City. Ten grandchildren and a great grandchild also survive.

Burialbearers include Bert Hillger, George Hillger, Will Currie, Will Hanson, Sam Ratliff, Joe Carter and Henry Currie.

Americanization Stressed By Club

Renewing of a sense of patriotism was manifested Wednesday when Lions club members, acting on the suggestion of District Judge Cecil C. Collings, voted unanimously to open all meetings henceforth by singing the national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner," instead of the lower pitched but less meaningful "America."

Another note of Americanism was sounded in the talk of Gene Salazar, teacher in the Kate Morrison school, who recounted his life's experience as a Mexican youth seeking an education.

"I count this the greatest honor of my life to be able to address a group of men such as you," he said in pointing out the aim and desire of the Mexican population of the city to become worthy, participating American citizens. Salazar outlined objectives of the Lado organization, which promotes use of the English language and citizenship among Latin American people in this nation, and pledged cooperation by this group with any move for upbuilding Big Spring.

Dr. J. E. Hogan, club president, named a committee to assist applicants for citizenship papers in their efforts to be Americanized.

Guests for the day included Dr. J. O. Hynes, Howard Schwarzbach, Tom Bradshaw and Salazar.

FDR GAINS MORE FOLLOWING IN NEW JERSEY

NEWARK, N. J., May 22 (AP)—Thirty-two votes were added today to the political convention prospects of President Roosevelt and Thomas E. Dewey as results of New Jersey's primaries, in which Wendell L. Wilkie polled a sizeable write-in vote at his ballot baptism.

First voters in the nation to consider the utilities magnate as presidential timber, New Jersey republicans in a last-minute write-in campaign gave him 9,137 votes in 1,225 election districts. Dewey polled 186,908 in 1,944 districts.

After tabulation of returns from 3,353 districts had given soft-spoken Robert C. Hendrickson a plurality of more than 23,000 votes, (248,187 to 225,802) former Governor Harold C. Hoffman conceded his 41-year-old opponent's victory as republican nominee for governor. Hoffman is 44.

Wilkie workers wrote in his name in an effort to establish him as second choice should New Jersey desert the New York district attorney during the convention. They expressed pleasure that his vote was far above that of avowed candidates other than Dewey.

INTO MUNITIONS
LONDON, May 22 (AP)—The inner iron railings of London's famous Hyde Park were being turned into munitions today. The government expected to get hundreds of tons of metal from this and other parks.
