Seven Will Get Induction Calls

Seven local men registered with Selective Service Board 18 will receive induction calls in July and 25 will receive physical examination calls.

The state draft call for July of 1,187 men will be the biggest monthly quota for the past six-months period, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service Director said.

"The July call is the biggest monthly quota we have received since February," General Wakefield commented, "when we were asked to deliver 1,314 men."

The state director of Selective Service said he had been expecting quotas to go up in July and predicted that the calls would stay at the increased level or higher for a 12-month period beginning in July.

"The national quota was increased from 18,000 to 23,000 in July," General Wakefield pointed out. "The national figure had been at 18,000 over a period of the past several months."

Cause for the increase, General Wakefield said, was the fact that more men will be getting out of uniform during the government's next fiscal year than were separated during the present fiscal year. The present fiscal year ends June 30.

Minor Damage Done In Sunday Accident

Minor damage was done in a collision at the intersection of Sixth and Main Streets about 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning when a Dodge and Cadillac collided.

Don Ray Parsons, Route 4, driving a 1954 Dodge, was going south on Main and passing a church. James W. Adrian, driving a 1953 Cadillac, was going west and had stopped at a stop sign and had started up again. According to police reports Adrian could not see the oncoming car which Parsons was driving because of the cars parked around the church and the two cars collided.

About $75 damage was done to the Dodge and no damage was done to the Cadillac.

Adrian was charged with failure to grant the right-of-way.

the commodities were given to Boys Ranch, while much more of the material was salvaged by other means. Wreckers from Clovis and Amarillo were brought out to clear the track. (Staff Photo)

Churches Begin Bible Schools

Twelve of Hereford's Churches have planned summer activities for the young people and children of their churches in the form of Vacation Bible School. Some are now underway, and others start soon, though a few will not begin until the latter part of August.

Vacation Bible School at the Wesley Methodist Church started Monday and will end tomorrow with a picnic. Then Sunday night at the regular church services the children will have a sharing program. First Methodist Vacation Bible School began Saturday and will conclude Sunday. Course of study for this year is centered around nature.

Each morning from 8:30 o'clock to 11:30 o'clock starting next Wednesday and continuing through June 18, Vacation Bible School will be held at the Avenue Baptist Church.

Preparation Day for Vacation Bible School at the First Baptist Church will be Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. School will start Monday and continue through June 18. Classes will be held each morning from 8:30 o'clock to 11:30 o'clock. Intermediate Vacation Bible School will be at 7:30 o'clock each night.

Both the Church of Christ and the Church of the Nazarene will have their vacation Bible Schools the latter part of August. Plans will be announced later.

Dorothy Daniels Will Attend Junior Red Cross Camp

Dorothy Faye Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daniels, 504 E. Fifth St., will leave Saturday for a Junior Red Cross camp to be held near Morrilton, Ark., according to Corinne Jennings of the County American Red Cross office.

"Dorothy Faye is on the Hereford High School Junior Red Cross Council this year, and the training she will receive during the 10-day camp at Petite Jean will make her better qualified to work on the Junior Red Cross Council during her next three years in High School," Mrs. Jennings said.

Planning sessions and class work will take up a portion of the time at camp, while swimming classes and recreational programs will take care of the rest of the time.

Dorothy Faye will fly from Amarillo to Little Rock, but will return to Hereford by train. Her expenses are being taken care of by the Junior Red Cross Council.

Last year, Betty Buse and Doreen Self were both sent to the training camp because the council had not sent anyone the year before, Mrs. Jennings said.

Charge Of DWI Is Filed After Highway Wreck

Charges of driving while intoxicated were filed against Henry W. Yandell, Hereford Rt. 3, after a collision at the edge of the recent high water east of Hereford on Highway 60.

Yandell, 34, hit the back of a pickup truck driven by Juan L. Ramirez when the pickup slowed up at the edge of the water, the Highway Patrol reported.

About $500 damage was done to the 1951 Chevrolet that Yandell was driving, as well as some damage to the pickup.

The collision occurred about 11:30 o'clock the night of May 23, about seven miles east of Hereford.

Yandell was released on $500 bond, Sheriff Lowell Sharp said.

Some People Must Just Attract Trouble

Cecil Massey, Hereford City manager, is getting downright rough on automobile windshields.

During the first of the heavy hail storms, Massey was caught east of town in an old car he uses for most of his driving, and had one side of the windshield ruined by hail.

Then last Friday he was driving to Houston to join his wife at a Beta Sigma Phi convention, and ran into a buzzard near Burnett. That unlovely bird took the windshield out of the new car he was driving.

Massey blames his latest mishap on the rabbits, which apparently don't have enough sense to keep from getting themselves killed on the highways, thereby attracting quite a number of the carrion eaters.

DOROTHY FAYE DANIELS

She was recently made editor of the Facts Forum magazine, which reached magazine status after she took it over.

Wills and Jim Lowry were cleaning the last of the winter's collection of dirt and debris out of the bottom of the pool. Those on the edge of the pool are Jack McCracken, Eva Gail Biggers and Tommy Culppepper. (Staff Photo)

Fun Is Fun!

DETROIT (AP)—The New York Metropolitan Opera House and a burlesque theatre may be at opposite ends of the entertainment world, but Jack Mann manages to jump from one to the other with the speed of a new joke. At the "Met" he is a "comedian;" at the burlesque 'house, a "comic."

Mann has played the role of the jester, Frosh, in "Die Fledermaus" more than 2 times.

He says there are more similarities between opera and burlesque than there are differences, although "things enjoyed by burlesque fans would shock the dignified audiences at the Met."

"There isn't too much difference in the routines." But, he says, "you can take your time building up a scene in opera, but your burlesque people want you to get to the point of a joke right now."

CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS SAYS

Action On Major Bills Needed Before Congress Can Adjourn

There is a great deal of legislation to be acted upon by this Congress before adjournment. Among the major bills which have been passed by the House but have not yet been acted upon by the Senate are the St. Lawrence Seaway Development, the Housing Act of 1954, and Public Health Grant-in-Aid Amendments of 1954. Other important items are listed below.

AGRICULTURE: The agricultural committees of both the House and Senate have had extensive hearings on general farm program legislation, including proposals on price supports and disposal of surpluses. This, of course, is one of the most important measures to be acted upon by this Congress.

TAXES: The Senate Finance Committee is presently working on the House-passed general tax revision bill, H. R. 8300. As mentioned in a previous newsletter, this bill consists of 820 pages, in small print. The Senate committee has held hearings on the bill and has had it under consideration in executive session for the past two weeks. It is estimated that the committee will hold executive sessions on the bill for about two more weeks.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT: The Senate Judiciary Committee has approved a proposed Constitutional amendment "to enable Congress to function effectively in time of emergency or disaster." This proposed amendment would permit state governors to appoint members of the House if a disaster should create more than 14 vacancies.

SOCIAL SECURITY: The Ways and Means Committee has just approved H. R. 93, Social Security Amendments for 1954. Under the provisions of the bill as approved by the committee, it is estimated that coverage will be extended to about 10 million persons not now covered. In finally approving the bill, the committee reversed a previous decision to extend coverage to doctors, internes, student nurses, policemen and firemen. By the time you read this, the House will probably have taken action on the Social Security bill, as it is scheduled to be brought to the

THIRTEEN MEMBERS of the graduating class of 1934 held a class reunion Sunday at the Jim Hill Hotel. There were six boys and 18 girls in the graduating class. All are still living and the address of each is known. Those present voted to have another reunion July 3, 1955. It is hoped that all 24 will be present at that time. Jess M. No Fish In Jail DANVILLE, Va. (AP)—Sgt. A.W. Wiggs of Danville police called on a friend and to open the conversation in a jocular mood asked him if there was anybody there he wanted sent to jail.

"I don't believe so," the friend replied.
"Go on. . . Go ahead," shouted his wife from an inner room.
The puzzled pair found that the wife thought her husband was being invited to go fishing.

Law Without Gun
IDA GROVE, Iowa (AP)—M.A. Jensen, 63, has had a quiet career as Ida Grove police chief, during his 17 years on the town's two-man police force, he has found it unnecessary to use his gun on anybody.

"Wheat harvest," an almost forgotten phrase, is once again creeping into conversations in these parts. Paul Harvey was checking over vacation schedules the other day, and was carefully taking wheat harvest into consideration. It has been so long since we made a wheat crop of major proportion that the phrase startled me.

Most people figure that the 1954 wheat crop, though not in the bumper yield class, will be far better than in recent years. Hail damage has cut the total some, but considerable little dry land wheat will be harvested along with average to better yields from the irrigation section. A lot of the present day merchants have never seen a bumper wheat crop in this country — and it is a sight to behold. I doubt if an oil boom could create more activity than that which generally accompanies a 5 million bushel wheat crop.

discussed. The first primary is less than two months away.

People seem more interested in food and diets. Tom Howard, for instance, would give a lot to gain 10 pounds — and hundreds of people would give just as much to lose 40 pounds. Meanwhile, new and more tempting foods keep coming onto the market. This new "beef bacon" seems to be getting a big play. Most people have one comment "It's just about as good as pork." The ice cream business is also undergoing radical changes. Mellorine and vegetable fats have entered into the picture and have chopped costs in a manner similar to "Oleo vs. Butter." Gaylord Newell was telling me a while back that vegetable oils will also go into cheese production in a big way, especially these "cheese food" products. This will ultimately result in tremendous price reductions, according to present predictions. Frozen soups are other new food items which are finding their way into food cases. Higher than canned soups, the frozen varieties are still meeting with wide public acceptance, due to flavor and freshness.

If you were among the hundreds of people who saw the Santa Fe pile-up west of town Sunday afternoon, you probably noticed all of those 50-gallon drums which dropped from the end of a refrigerator car. These drums were full of lemon juice, cold-shipped out of California. What their destination and final use was intended poses a good question. With a tiny can of the stuff costing around 15 to 20 cents, you can bet the loss was plenty heavy on those barrels.

Next to eating, most people are thinking about vacations. They are also interested in "cutting costs." For that reason, there will be a general "pitching of tents" and "return to nature" this season. During the lush times, most people have gone in for "cabin camping," but the cabin people have had to raise prices along with increasing costs. The result is that current prices do not fit with revised budgets of many vacationers. There are also quite a few who are beginning to wonder if it is smart to give up the comforts of air conditioning, foam mattresses and TV for a week of ants, flies and mosquito bites.

Figured all in all, vacation fish cost more per pound than perhaps any other kind of meat. Trout, for instance, comes at around $25 per pound to an experienced fisherman after he figures transportation, lodging, food, license, etc. A few years back I was vacationing in

by Argen Draper

Mrs. A. A. Hare wants a recipe for ice cream that will keep in the home freezer and not be icy. If you have a sure one, may we have it?

Rhubarb freezes well, according to Mrs. Lee Cocanougher. Rhubarb is one fruit, along with cherries, that we can raise every year. I can't remember a year that rhubarb didn't make. It is easy to grow, has a lot of vitamins in it and is tasty.

The club histories in the paper for the Pioneer Edition of the Brand have brought some letters from folks seldom heard from.

Mrs. Effie Brown, of Roswell, Mrs. O. L. Rutherford of Canadian, Miss Emma Gunter of Lubbock and Mrs. R. O. Dunkle of Graham; also, Mrs. Ralph Wolfe of Jacksboro. Miss Sadie Lee Oliver sends her best wishes to her many friends. Her mother, age 93, is hale and hearty. I know you will be glad to hear that as many of you have asked about her family.

Miss Oliver has so many friends in the Hereford area. I wish she'd come for a visit and we'll have a big celebration for her.

Mothers Of Club Girls Honored At Meeting Of County-Wide 4-H

The County-wide 4-H Club met May 22 in the home of Ann Rose Dziuk. Mothers of the girls were invited to the meeting.

The meeting was called to order by Nancy Parsons president, and "The 4-H Trail" the club song was led by Maxie Wiseman. Roll was called by Ann Rose Dziuk, secretary.

Miss Loyce Avant gave a cloth-

Area HD Work Began With Only Nine Clubs

The roll call of Home Demonstration Clubs that had been organized when the Brand printed their first yearbook in 1931 included nine clubs active at the time, with North Hereford and Simms organized after the book was printed. Only five of these have continued to be active under the names they used when they were started.

The original list includes: Summerfield Homemakers Study Club, Palo Duro Homemakers Club, Progressive, Ford Community Club, Ward Home Demonstration Club, Wyche Home Demonstration Club, Frio Club, Westway Community Club, Dawn Demonstration Club and the new clubs, North Hereford and Simms. Several of these are now inactive.

Programs outlined in the yearbook for 1931 were: County-wide living room improvement which listed the perfect score as 1000 points and allowed 75 points each on ventilation and screening. Also included were wardrobe demonstration and a chart for home canning. In the margin a note was made stating that Mrs. L. L. Crawford and Mrs. Miller had canned beef and Mrs. Dean had canned corn.

Miss Emma Gunter was the HD Agent. County farm agent was R. O. Dunkle and Earl Wilson was the County Judge.

Commissioners were C. J. Padlock, W. B. Phillips, J. T. Guinn and W. M. Stewart. Officers of the County Council were Mrs. S. A. Miller, chairman; Mrs. Lee Curry, vice chairman; and Mrs. C. F. Morgan secretary treasurer. Club songs were Sweet and Low and Alouette. The requirements for a 100 percent club woman were:

Braided rug, foot stool, bookshelf or magazine stand 200 Points

Asparagus or rhubarb plot 200

Canning budget made and filled as nearly as possible from the home garden 500

Foundation pattern and house dress 300

Make two canned entries to County Fair 100

Attendance at club meetings and Woman's Encampment and sending cards requested and taking part on programs brought the total up to a possible 2,000 points.

Among the seven things listed in a note in the back of the book were as going on help from the library, chairty canning, and recipes in the paper.

Clubs which have carried on in Home Demonstration work are Progressive, Wyche, Ford, Westway and North Hereford. Dawn became a study club and then reorganized home demonstration work in the community some time later.

Other clubs which have been organized since then include South Hereford, West Hereford, Cultural, Messenger, and Bippus. The new clubs organized this spring bring the total for the county to 13. The new Clubs are Friendship and Homemakers.

Home Demonstration Clubs were not organized as such in Deaf Smith County until early in 1915, when Miss Maggie Avant, the first county Home Demonstration agent, took over her work.

However, Mrs. Ira Ricketts of the Progressive community had already become an active member of a community club in the Wyche community. One of their projects was the first aid course which was taught by Miss Lulu Bender.

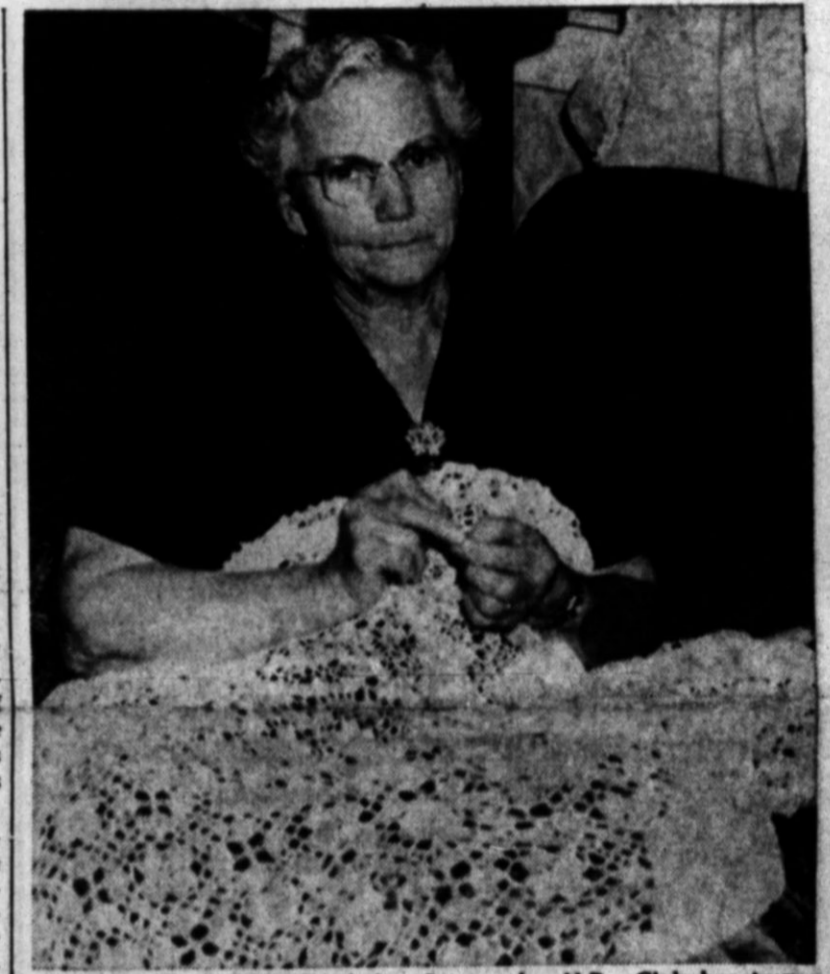

The Ricketts moved to the Progressive community later and in 1924 Mrs. Ricketts became a charter member of the Progressive Community Club organized under the direction of R. O. Dunkle, county agent.

Membership included both men and women. One of the unusual features of those early meetings at the Progressive School was the treasurers report which was written on the blackboard so all members could see.

Built Canning House One of the first things the newly organized club did was to build a canning house near the school and equip it for canning with a 100 quart steam retort and two sealers for use with tin cans.

Mrs. Ricketts says the women all worked together the first year but the next two years the group was divided into two teams, each with a captain, and they canned on alternate days. Many things were canned, including fruits and vegetables in season, and beef, pork and chicken. Smaller home type pressure cookers became available and the club turned its interests to other projects.

One of the accomplishments the community was very proud of was in 1927 under the direction of Mrs. the first booth at the County Fair Ricketts, Mrs. T. D. Perkins, Mrs. J. David Thompson and Mrs. O.L. Sharp. The exhibit placed second and immediately Mrs. Perkins visited them as a first place winner the next year.

Mrs. Perkins died before her dream was realized but her daughter, Miss Ollie Perkins, assisted Mrs. Ricketts in getting another exhibit together and the booth placed first and added a total of one hundred dollars to the club treasury. Prize for first place was 50 dollars but first prizes in individual classes and special awards made up the balance.

When the men quit taking an active part in club activities the name was changed to the Community Workers Club and finally was reorganized as the Progressive Home Demonstration Club in 1930 when Miss Emma Gunter came to the County as its first Home Demonstration agent since 1918.

The first work the women did under the agent was to make braided rugs and piece quilts, recalls Mrs. Ricketts.

During the time that the Progressive Club was inactive Mrs. Ricketts went to Hereford to meet with another club in home demonstration work, and later returned to help reorganize the club in her community.

During the years she has been in H. D. Club work, she has held most all the offices, worked on committees and served as council delegate and as a member of the expansion - education committee in council.

Mrs. Ricketts added to her long list of community activities by sponsoring the first girls 4-H Club in the county. Ira Jean, her daughter, became the first 4-H girl when she joined a boys club because there was not an organized club for the girls at that time.

Still Active Member

Mrs. Ricketts is still an active member of the Progressive Club munity projects she has helped with include: a well and windmill at the Progressive school, chairs and lights for the building and the remodeling of the building and installation of a water system and a place for the children to clean their hands. Actually these improvements served a great many people because for many years Progressive School was the meeting place for a literary society on Friday nights and a singing on Sunday nights as well as the other social activities that usually made up the rural school program.

The school building is still maintained by the club as a community center.

Mrs. Ricketts' hobbies, outside of her club work, are crocheting and growing flowers.

Wyche, according to available information, was among the first to have organized community activity which was reorganized as the Wyche Home Demonstration Club when Miss Emma Gunter came as the new H.D. agent in 1930.

Any reference to the accomplishments of the club will certainly include the name of Mrs. Nollie Elliston who probably did more to influence commissioners court to make an appropriation for Home Demonstration work in Deaf Smith County than any one other individual.

When the Wyche Club started its program on canning under Miss Gunter's leadership, Mrs. Elliston bought the first pressure cooker in the neighborhood and says it was a 25 quart size purchased from Streu Hardware.

Ten years later she bought her first repair parts for it when she went back to Streu's for a new valve.

Mrs. Elliston recalls how the hiss of escaping steam used to scare her. When the noise would start she would grab the directions and run outside to read them as she was afraid to stay in the house with the thing, while she was trying to find out what was the matter with it. Her only serious mishap was when a can of hominy exploded and plastered the ceiling.

The club women's program in sewing under Miss Gunter included house and street dresses.

Some of the unusual activities sponsored by the Wyche Club and members individually were the annual picnic at the Elliston home, which has been held every year but one, and Thanksgiving and Christmas entertainment. They had a course in home nursing and child care and also a First Aid course.

World War II prompted one of their most unusual activities. Since there were no telephones and few radios they organized a neighborhood communication system to notify everybody in case of disaster.

Wyche was probably the first community in the county to name their roads and was also one of the first to send delegates to the State meetings. They canvassed the neighborhood for money and raffled off a quilt to finance the trip for two women. Wyche Club claims the honor of having furnished more Council chairmen than any other club.

Wyche was unique in another one of its undertakings — hiring a baby sitter. Mrs. Elliston says in the early thirties most of the other women had small children like hers and they paid one of the older girls to ride herd on them so they could get more satisfaction out of their meetings.

Miss Oliver, in her landscaping program, started Mrs. Elliston giving away strawberry plants and she kept count until she had given away over 200,000. She also recalls another project when Miss Oliver had the whole neighborhood at her house for two days giving demonstrations in meat cutting and canning. That was when tenderloin ceased to be a part of the sausage and became a pork chop.

The first members of the Wyche Club still living in the community are Mrs. Nolie and Mrs. Raymond Elliston and Mrs. Ira Ott, who joined the club a year later.

Westway
If the first Westway Club had half as much fun at the first meeting at the home of Mrs. Pink Gilliland as the four remaining charter members did when they met there recently for a picture then the Club was a lively organization.

It was in the fall of '30, and while they were in the process of organizing young Bob Gilliland was making a popular host by introducing the littlest crowd to the watermelon patch and the hen house.

The first thing the women remember making was braided rugs and dresses. Mrs. Gilliland, the first president, had 13 names on the roll and recalls that they had 13 dresses.

When the first yearbook was printed in 1931 a membership of 26 was recorded. Westway now has the largest number of active members of the 13 clubs in the county.

Ford
At the time the first yearbooks were printed Ford Community Club had more members than any other club listed except the Summerfield Homemakers Study Club. Two of the 29 names still included on Ford's Club roll are Mrs. Hardy Benson and Miss Hilda Straufuss. Mrs. J. E. Dyer who was the first president after it was reorganized as a home demonstration club is also the president serving the club now. She is the 4-H leader for the Jolly Girls Club and a council delegate.

Youngest member of the club is Mrs. Willis Doogan.

Messenger
Although Messenger is not listed with the other clubs organized in 1931 Mrs. J. T. Guina and Mrs. Ruth Coleman have long been interested in club work in their community.

North Hereford Home Demonstration Club was organized at the home of Mrs. R. J. Kibbe north of town where the Wiley Robertson's now live in 1931 and although only two of the charter members are still active several of the early membership have gone into other organizations.

Mrs. C. L. Whitehead is the only member who has been continuously on the active list since that first meeting but Mrs. Gertrude Neill joined when a young girl with her mother, Mrs. M. H. Koelzer, and later returned to work with the club and is still a member.

Mrs. Bonnie Brumley and Mrs. E. M. Cox are the only other names on the first roll who still live at Hereford.

Mrs. Cox left the club to organize the West Hereford Club and she was also a charter member of Wyche. She is now president of the Federation.

Mrs. Brumley was active with the Junior Band Mothers in which she served two years as president and also as president of the High School Band Mothers organization. Until last year she was an active member of the Pioneer Study Club and has worked each year with the Red Cross.

Mrs. Brumley says one of the biggest projects of the club was a demonstration on butchering and cutting meat and canning. With a husband so long associated with the hog business her home would have seemed to be the logical place for such a meeting. Also equally logical would be the soap making that followed the butchering.

Toilet soap as well as laundry soap was made by the women and they recall making molds for the bars and using borax or buttermilk to add bleaching qualities and perfume for a pleasant smelling product.

Mrs. Neill is now a member of the Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. O. L. Rutherford, a charter member of the North Hereford Club, writes from Canadian where she now lives. "I haven't been very active in Home Demonstration work since I left Hereford. However I have been active in different things during that time.

"I have always tried to do everything I could in the activities of the church, Red Cross, and P-TA and when Alice Jean was in high school I was a room mother four years. That meant a lot of school and P-TA work which I enjoyed very much — Would like to be with you in H.D. Club work there. I have a warm spot in my heart for Hereford as we lived there 21 years."

Mrs. Effie L. Brown, another charter member, writes from Roswell, N. M., where she is still doing H.D. work. "About the Club: It was organized in my home and was known as the North Hereford Club and I had the honor of being the first president.

"The purpose of organizing the club was to impress upon the county Commissioners the need for Home Demonstration Clubs—we had a county agent but the commissioners could see no need for a home demonstration agent. We finally got an agent and the name of the club was changed to North Hereford Home Demonstration Club. Mrs. Ed Cox was its first president after the name was changed."

Her daughter Margaret is now Mrs. Drew Ridgeway and lives at 3321 Bellview, Kansas City, Mo.

The people of Corral Lake community are making an effort to build a school house. To this end Messrs. J. S. Brown and C. E. Chappel from that portion of the county were in Hereford Wednesday and Thursday circulating a subscription list among the merchants of Hereford asking for contributions on the building fund, and judging from the long list of names practically every businessman in town is a contributor. Corral Lake is about 10 miles northwest from Kelso, where the house is to be built. This will be on section 32, range 2, township 5, of the sub-vision of the Capital Syndicate lands. The house is to be 16x24 feet and to cost about $300 without the furniture.

Phone message from Friona this morning brings the news that S. A. Harris of Chicago will begin the publication of a weekly newspaper in that little city. The first issue to appear next week. The name of the new paper will be the Friona Sentinel. The Brand wishes Panhandle success to come to the enterprise.

Last Sunday clouds in the southeast told the story that some of the counties in that direction have had another good rain. Monday afternoon all the vicinity of Adrian and a good portion of the north part of Deaf Smith County had another fine shower.

25 Years Ago
Meeting in an all day session on Monday the Commissioners Court considered a number of matters that demanded their attention. An order was given to the Austin Bridge Co., of Austin, for a steel bridge span which is to be installed across Palo Duro creek on a north and south road in the northeastern part of the county. The cost will be approximately $1,000.

Because of the constantly increasing demand of the people of every section of the county for new roads, the Commissioners at their meeting Monday purchased a new road grader. Judge Wilson announced that two road crews and working outfits will be maintained by the county, each in a different section.

During the past six days Hereford and vicinity have experienced three heavy downpours of rain. Though of short duration each of these showers have added considerably to the moisture already received during the month. Farming operations have been delayed somewhat because of the rains.

Bryant Family Visited Here On Memorial Day

All of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bryant's children were home for Memorial Day, returning to Hereford Sunday night with their parents after attending the annual district meeting of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference held in Amarillo last week.

They included Dr. and Mrs. Orion Carter of Big Spring and their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Carter and baby of Pampa, Rev. and Mrs. Lester Taylor and family of Booker, and Rev. and Mrs. Noel Bryant and children who were transferred at the conference from Borger to Oak Cliff Methodist Church in Dallas.

Old Age Security
SHELBY, Miss. (AP)—Dolly, a mule, is 44 years old roughly the equivalent of 150 for a man—and very few mules ever had it so good—no work, green pastures and corn on the cob twice a day.

Her owner, D. N. Ray, 9, explains: "She's helped me make my living since 1912 and to raise my three children and put them through school. The least I can do is feed her as long as she lives."

Alligators are found only in the southern United States and southern China.

Ethel Bengler, Anna Mae Hays and Jessie Douglas received gifts from their club pals.

New officers were elected for next year.

Members present were: Altha Presley, Mildred Barnett, Jessie Douglas, Christine Braxton, Janice Patton, Anna Mae Hays, Lucille Rocky, Louise Roberson, Ethel Bengler, Eleanor Prewitt, Buehla Mae Deaton and Carrie Tatum.

Fifth Amendment Was Brought On By Old Practices

One of the most important basic rights of the individual in this country is the privilege against self-incrimination. The Fifth Amendment of our Federal Constitution provides that "no person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself." The early American statesmen insisted that this guarantee become a part of our law for excellent reasons.

The doctrine against self-incrimination is most probably an outgrowth of "trial by ordeal" practiced in the ancient days of England. A person accused of a criminal offense had to plead either "guilty" or "not guilty" at the time he was arraigned for trial, and still does today. However, in those days the accused had neither the benefit of counsel nor the right to testify in his own defense, and either plea ultimately amounted to just about the same thing.

If the accused pleaded "guilty" he was hanged a little sooner than was the case if he pleaded "not guilty." This situation, understandable enough, caused many persons charged with crime to stand silent on arraignment and not plead either way. When that happened, the accused was subjected to torture to induce him to plead one way or the other.

Incredible methods of making a person talk were used with almost total success. In some cases the accused was placed in close confinement with a bit of bread to eat one day, a sip of water the next, and so on from day to day until he consented to plead or died of starvation.

On other occasions heavy weights were placed on his chest above the heart and attendants stood on the weights, or he might have been forced to recline on a bed of sharpened stakes. Investigations in those days arose primarily because of alleged dereliction from the rules of the Church.

With memories of such atrocities, it is plain to see why the colonists from England made sure that such practices would be prohibited by their fundamental laws.

The privilege against self-incrimination is not only incorporated in the Federal Bill of Rights, but is also guaranteed under the constitution of all but two of the 48 states. Our Texas Constitution provides that an accused "shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself."

(This column, based on Federal and Texas Law, is written to inform -- not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Odd Lot Power
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Vehicle operated for power line maintenance include some odd looking contraptions. "Sno-cats" transport power line maintenance men and materials over mountainous snow packs. Amphibious "weasels" navigate marshlands and open water in patrolling transmission lines. Take trucks with 50-foot telescopic towers enable maintenance men to wash the dust periodically from insulators atop power line poles.

Early American colonists who fertilized their crops with 1,000 fish to the acre reported that one acre so treated grew as much as three acres without the fish.

Do you believe in God, the church, heaven, hell? Are you ready to die? If God should say, "this day thy soul shall be required of thee," how would it be with you? Great preparation must be made if the harvest is abundant. Are YOUR treasures stored in heaven or in your barn? When the GRIM REAPER comes to AVENGE, will you be ready? Or are you one who scoffs the church, derides God, and laughs at death? If so the unspeakable bottomless pit awaits you. The GRIM REAPER will not come to AVENGE, but rather to REVENGE. Down To a Whisker
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—The Southern Pacific Railroad uses "cat whiskers" to determine safe clearances for loaded freight cars in tunnels and on bridges of its Sierra Nevada line.
A special car is equipped with 12 steel-tipped aluminum feelers extending from the top and sides. They operate something like the whiskers of cats walking in the dark.
When the feelers touch an obstruction, they transmit the distance to dials inside the car, where crewmen record them.
