CofC Calls For Meeting Of Cotton Men Monday

Funeral Scheduled Today For James R. Robinson

Funeral services for James Robert Robinson, 69, will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the First Christian Church with Rev. Don Foot, pastor, officiating, and Rev. Eugene Naugle, pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church assisting.

Mr. Robinson died January 7 at his home, 509 Ross Street, following a heart attack.

Moved Here In 1901
Mr. Robinson was born July 15, 1885, in Cedar Hill. He came to Deaf Smith County from Cedar Hill in 1901, and on June 12, 1920, married Eunice Sawyer in Waco. Mr. Robinson had been employed as a pump salesman in Hereford and vicinity for approximately 15 years.

Survivors
Survivors include: his wife; two sons—Brittan of California, and Conrad of Oregon; two daughters, Frankie Bell and Johnnie Marie Brittan of Hereford; his mother, Leora Robinson of Hereford; two brothers, John P. and Tom of Hereford; 7 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

JAMES R. ROBINSON

Palbearers will be Dick Walker, Lloyd Neill, Cecil Wilkins, Earnest Wade, Harold Banks and Miles Roberson.
Burial will be in West Park Cemetery under the direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

Delegates Will Attend Hearing In Waco

With the possibility that Deaf Smith County cotton acreage might be changed upward by 5,591 acres for 1954 if a new bill can be pushed through Congress, the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce is asking all cotton farmers and other interested persons to meet at the Chamber of Commerce office at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon to discuss the situation.

Much To Gain
"Because Deaf Smith County is comparatively small, and is a county where a number of small farmers raise cotton, we would have much to gain from a change in the allotments. More, comparatively, than many other counties," Hastings added.

He pointed out that Deaf Smith County had 21,000 acres of cotton planted in 1953, but a three year average of only 16,027 acres. At the present time, the 1954 quota for this county is 7,063 acres for cotton, so the increase to 12,654 acres under the new bill would be of tremendous value to cotton farmers.

Waco Meeting
Wednesday's meeting at Waco Hall on Baylor University campus will be the second of three meetings being held in the cotton area of the south and southwest by the House Agriculture. The first meeting will be held Tuesday in Enid, Okla., and the third on Thursday in Memphis, Tenn. In each case testimony will be gathered as to why the new bill should be made into a law, in the opinion of those who appear before the committee.

Maximum of 35 Percent
The new house bill which is being considered is designed to provide that no farmer would, if at all possible, be forced to take more than a 35 percent cut in acreage on the three year average, Hastings said.

Last fall, a somewhat similar bill was set up by the House, but did not pass the Senate. Now, the Senate has a bill which it would like to substitute for the house bill introduced last fall.

NEW GRANDDAUGHTER
News of a granddaughter, born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson in Owensboro, Ky., has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Wilhelm, 313 S. 25 Mile Ave. The 6 1/2 pound girl is the Thompson's first child. Thompson is attending medical school in Owensboro, Mrs. Wilhelm said.

Services Conducted For Dupnik Infant

Funeral services for Leona E. Dupnik, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dupnik, were held Saturday morning in St. Anthony's Catholic Church with Father Bartholomew Paytas, pastor, officiating.

She was born January 7 in the Nesbitt Hospital in Canyon and died the same day.

Survivors
Survivors include: her parents; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dupnik of Pana, Mo.; and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Kuper of Hereford.

Burial was in the Catholic Cemetery under the direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

Mrs. Owen Neel of Dumas, visited in the home of her mother and brother, Mrs. J. W. Vick, and Harlin Tuesday and Wednesday.

Agents Receive Training On Windbreaks, Exhibits

Ralph Smith Announces For Re-Election

Ralph Smith, County Clerk of Deaf Smith County, has authorized the Brand to announce that he will be a candidate for re-election to that office.

In his prepared statement, Smith said: "I want to let the people of Deaf Smith County know that I fully appreciate the fine support and co-operation that I have received during this term of office.

"Their continued support will be greatly appreciated, and I can assure them that, if re-elected, I will continue to carry out the duties of the county clerk to the best of my abilities, and do my best to serve them in any way that I can while in office."

County agricultural agents and county home demonstration agents from five counties received training in planning and building exhibits, and the choice and use of windbreaks and shrubs at a meeting Friday in Hereford.

Jack Sloan, visual aids specialist, and W. M. Bishop, illustrator, both from College Station, and H. V. Johnson, silviculturist from Woodward, Okla., all took part on the program.

Spacing Windbreaks
Johnson gave the group instruction in the spacing of trees for windbreaks, and told of the different varieties which can be used to best advantage.

Representative Gives Report On Convention

O. K. Hoyle, State Farm Bureau field representative, gave a report on the national convention held in Chicago in December at a special Farm Bureau meeting called by President Pete Carmichael Wednesday night.

Hoyle also reported on the state activity outlining some of the possible activities for the county and gave the relationship of County and State, State and National Farm Bureaus.

Sam Allen Spoke
Accompanying Hoyle was Sam Allen of Dawson County, a former state director. Allen spoke on activities and experiences of Dawson County.

There were 14 directors and 8 director's wives present.

"Evergreen trees should be planted 15 feet apart in the row, with 18-20 feet between rows," Johnson said.

He particularly mentioned Ponderosa and Austrian pine, but added that some people like poplars for background plantings, and that Chinese elms and smooth locusts are also quite useful.

Had Prepared Exhibits
Sloan and Bishop, who put on their part of the program during the afternoon, had some prepared exhibits that they showed to the agents. One of these was an educational exhibit based on the consumption of whole grains.

"The main idea in building exhibits is to remember to put just one idea over at a time," Sloan said.

"There are many kinds of materials that can be used, and whether or not the exhibit is expected to be fairly permanent is one consideration in the choice of materials. Cost is also an important factor."

Materials Mentioned
Among the materials mentioned were plywood, masonite, and cardboard. Tricks with colors and special decorative materials were also illustrated.

Bishop showed the group ways in which they could make their own blowups of pictures by projecting a negative, then tracing the outline of the object pictured.

Attended Session
Among those who attended the session were Gaines Frank from Oldham County, John Brazzill from Randall County, Charles Hud-

Majority Of County Taxes Paid Before First Of Year

Taxes collected by the County Tax Collector under four classifications during the period September 1 through December 31 reached $181,148.39, according to Homer Henslee, of the Tax Assessor-Collector's office.

This amount was out of a total of $236,868.78 on the tax rolls.

School Taxes
Fred Baird, tax collector for the Hereford Independent Rural School District, showed that $180,989.63 had been collected during the same period by his office.

Records in the County Tax Collector's office showed collection of $89,567.59 in county taxes, out of $117,420.82 rendered.

Road taxes collected amounted to $34,882.80 out of $45,731.80, and taxes for the Walcott School District were $19,556, out of $25,206 collected.

Water District
Taxes collected for the High Plains Underground Water District amounted to $3,741 out of $4,000, and $33,401 in state property taxes, out of $43,544 shown on the records.

Concert Pianist To Present Program Tuesday Night

James Wolfe will be at 8:00 o'clock by the High School Association in the High School Auditorium.

Wolfe is received as a pianist of exceptional interpretative powers. During his crowded concert season, he will play in many parts of the country. In March he will sail for Europe on the Queen Mary for an intensive tour of France, performing three orchestral engagements in Paris alone.

Wolfe was born in Omaha, Neb., and received his early education there. A scholarship from an Omaha newspaper enabled him to attend the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, from where he received his Bachelor of Music degree.

Enlisted in Navy
Wolfe enlisted in the Navy in World War II, was commissioned a lieutenant, and was later sent to Guam where he remained until Japan's surrender. After his discharge he returned to the University of Michigan for a Master's degree in music. Soon after that he began an active concert career.

Immigration Men Take Flores Away

Casimero Reyes Flores, who was picked up by city police December 31 for driving with only one headlight, was turned over to the Immigration Service authorities Wednesday. It is believed that the authorities had been searching for Flores for some time.

Flores was picked up at First and Main about 10:15 on the night of December 31 for driving with one headlight. Further check of the car produced three cases of quart bottles of beer and five and one-half pints of whiskey.

He was turned over to county officers and held until the Border Patrol could check on him.

Planning Sessions Set For Cub Scout Banquets

Plans for the annual Cub Blue and Gold Banquet for Pack 50 will be made at the Pack committee and Men Mothers' meeting Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Tom Howard home, 227 Star.

Window displays and other activities for Scout week, February 7-13, will also be planned. The Scouts are working on civic club programs for the week, and they plan to have 24 window displays in Hereford this year.

Pack 52 will have a meeting of this same type in the home of Paul Conaway at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night.

Around Town

Hereford drugstores are observing an earlier closing hour during this month, February and March. On week nights, they are closing at 8:30 o'clock, rather at 9:30 o'clock. The later closing hour will be resumed in April, according to present plans.

Bud Dobbins, who has had charge of the city water pumps for more than 23 years, has been transferred to a job in City Hall, effective the first of February.

Members of the Soil Conservation District and Wind Erosion District boards will meet at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in the SCS office in the Courthouse.

Faust Collier, officer manager of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office, is hospitalized in Canyon with a duodenal ulcer. He will return to his office just as soon as he is permitted to do so by the doctor and his wife.

FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Plans Complete For Annual Meeting, Officer Elections

Buford B. Lankford, regional representative of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, Dallas, will be guest speaker at the annual membership meeting of the Hereford Texas Federal Credit Union Thursday night in the High School auditorium, according to Dyalithia Brady, managing director.

Other parts of the program will include the showing of the new credit union film, "King's X."

Election Of Officers
During the business meeting officers will be elected, financial reports given, dividends voted, and the drawing for door prizes for members will take place.

Mrs. Brady, one of the organizers of the credit union, has been treasurer - manager since June, 1937.

The local credit union, which moved to quarters at 137 Sampson on March 1 last year, has shown a growth of $135,000 during the past year, Mrs. Brady said. The organization now has 1,176 members.

"Since our organization, the credit union has loaned a total of $1,279,047.74 to members, and has only charged off $1,675.19," Mrs. Brady added.

Present Officers
Present officers and directors of the organization included: Robert L. Thompson, president; J. Wallace Robinson, vice - president; Dyalithia Brady, treasurer - manager; and O. L. Bybee and A. J. Schroeter, directors.

Committee members are: Supervisory committee - Fred W. Baird, chairman, with Bessie Smith and Velma Hodges; Credit committee - Russell Huntley, chairman, with H. E. Henslee and Dorothy H. Ross; Educational committee - Argen Draper, chairman, with Della Stagner, J. R. Lipscomb, S. T. Loerwald, LeGrand Morton, P. E. Hagans, LeRoy Price and Zula Gilliam.

Office personnel, besides Mrs. Brady, include Mrs. Pauline Howard, assistant to Mrs. Brady, and Kay Jowell, distributive education student from Hereford High School.

IT ISN'T VERY PRETTY right now, but the Hereford Rider's Club has plans which will make this building so different it will hardly be recognizable when the work is finished. The building was set down near the Rider's Club arena, and remodeling work is to begin immediately. (Staff Photo)

Salem, Ind. (AP)—Burglaries hardly seem worth while in Salem. Nine business establishments were broken into here in one day, with a total loss of $16 in change reported to police.

No Apple For Teacher!

OMAHA (AP)—An apple for the teacher? Omaha school officials say the custom seems to be dying out in many schools. One school man explained "children like to bring things to school but we encourage them to bring things that will interest other members of the class." A science teacher could recall only one instance when she got an apple as a present. But she did get other "presents," including a salamander, caterpillars, a raccoon's feet, snakes, rocks, shells, bats, tadpoles and a fish's skeleton.

The first practical mechanical carpet sweepers seem to have appeared about 1865.

History Of British Coronation Given At L'Allegra Study Club

"Portrait of an Era in England," was the subject of the program presented at the L'Allegra Study Club meeting held in the home of Mrs. J. W. Barnett Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. V. C. Hopson, who was in charge of the program, gave an interesting discussion of traditions and customs in England, speaking mainly about the Coronation. Tracing the history of the Coronation, she told of the Rock of Scorn and how it was brought from Scotland, and why it is used under the throne. She described the crown and the jewels, giving the names and meaning of the five most important jewels.

Members attending were Mesdames Darrell Blanton, Jack Brown, Bill Dameron, F. C. Glendinning, Hilton Higgins, Richard Ireland, Lee Kent, Bill Lawrence, L. H. Lookingbill Jr., Richard Winget, J. W. Robinson Jr., and the hostess.

Border Survey Sought
ISTANBUL (AP)—Radio Sofia says Albania has asked the United Nations to help in setting up a joint Albanian-Greek commission to delineate the border between the two countries.

Natural Wonders
DALLAS (AP)—Ben Wooten of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce was giving a banquet audience a word picture of the beauties of Texas and its wide open spaces.

While Wooten was laying it on thick, somebody interrupted with a kind of howl. But Wooten was up to the occasion.

"I hear a coyote now," he said. Temperatures in an atomic bomb explosion may go as high as 36 million degrees Fahrenheit.

Far Production Speeded
MOSCOW (AP)—A Tass dispatch from Vladivostok says that killing of mink and silver foxes on the state farms of the Far East has been stepped up by at least a month.

The foxes and mink are placed in barns, the windows of which are closed by special shutters. The amount of daylight admitted is gradually reduced, beginning July. The animals begin to take care of their fur, preparing it prematurely for the winter.

Values Underestimated
HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Montana members of the American Society of Civil Engineers got a chuckle out of a 100-year-old report given the War Department by an Army officer.

The report concerned the Colorado River area now covered by Hoover Dam. It said:

"The region last explored is, of course, altogether valueless. It can be approached only from the south, and after entering it there is nothing to do but leave. Ours was the first, and doubtless will be the last, party of whites to visit the profitless locality."

Egyptian Police Lose Fez
CAIRO (AP)—The red fez will soon disappear as headware for Egyptian policemen under new regulations. The fez still is popular among Egyptian civilians, but many consider it a symbol of reaction and out of place in a modern state.

Although the Egyptians usually are credited with domesticating the cat, modern domestic breeds are supposed to have crossed Egyptian types with the European wildcat.

Catgut usually is prepared from the intestines of sheep.

In ancient times the infantry soldier, best represented by the Roman legion, was more important in Europe and cavalry was more important in the warfare of Asia.

In the late Roman empire, the legions used cavalry more and more extensively and infantry did not begin to become important again in Europe until the Hundred Year's War.

Most Noticeable Trait In Bells Is Friendly Ways

Bells, Tex. (AP)—This is a little town where everybody knows your business — and you're sort of glad.

For example, there was a wandering man named Mike, lived here for a while. Everybody knew his business, which didn't amount to much. Home to Mike was only a resting place between seizures of wanderlust.

But when he came back, the citizens of Bells found him a job. When he took sick, they sat with him in the hospital. And when he died, they gave him a funeral as big as anybody ever had in Bells.

Story Symbolic
The story of Mike is a symbol of the spirit of Bells, a town of 614 population near Sherman in North Texas.

In Bells, a man who goes to jail knows that his family will be provided for.

Nobody, not even a passing stranger, need ever go hungry and evictions are things that happen in other places.

Even the mayor, J. E. (Happy) Dopsom doesn't know how it all started.

"If just seems," he said, "that people around here like to help the other fellow. Whenever a family gets in trouble, why, there's always someone to pass the word and start something to help."

Help From Anybody
Dopsom, a barber and school bus driver, said help for those temporarily down on their luck is likely to come from anybody in Bells—even those who can't afford it.

Everybody in town knows about the man who was so sick he had to give up his business. He spent three months in a Dallas hospital, in critical condition, and each night for 49 days the men of Bells took turns traveling the 75 miles each way to sit with him, all night. The citizens of Bells supplied 42 pints of blood for the transfusions he needed.

When he got out of the hospital, he found the gas bill at his home—all he had left—had been paid for a year, and the kitchen was piled high with groceries. Nobody knows, they say the identity of the contributors. The man is now back in business adding his bit to help those in difficulty.

Woman Hitch-Hiker
Thomas Lucas, a 23-year-old ex-marine, recalls the time a woman hitch-hiker passed through Bells en route to Greenville.

She collapsed in front of the home of a prominent businessman. He revived her and found nothing ailed her except an empty stomach. He drove her to the cafe, left her there to eat a early meal — on the house — and made the rounds of the stores. In 10 minutes he had collected more than $20, which got the woman a bus ride to Greenville and then some.

Free Haircuts
W. E. Taylor, who helps the mayor in the hair-cutting business, doesn't remember just how many free haircuts have been given in his establishment.

Family Poverty Caused By TB

More people are probably under treatment for tuberculosis today than ever before in this country, according to Miss Mary Dempsey, statistician of the National Tuberculosis Association.

Pointing out that the loss from tuberculosis runs into hundreds of millions of dollars annually, Miss Dempsey says that the excessive cost of the problem has seldom been faced "by law-making bodies or health organizations, official or voluntary."

Cost Of Each Case
The cost of each case of tuberculosis could conservatively be estimated at $15,000, she says.

Miss Dempsey calls tuberculosis "both a cause and an effect of indigency."

"It is simple to grasp the fact that poverty lowers resistance so that the disease spreads rapidly when families live on an inadequate or unbalanced diet, are crowded into insanitary homes, can obtain little education," she says.

Leads To Poverty
"But we do not always stop to think how directly tuberculosis leads to poverty in families where it did not previously exist," she pointed out.

"A recent study of a sizable group of patients showed less than two percent of the patients' families were relief recipients at the time of diagnosis; upon being admitted to hospitals a few months later, 16 percent were receiving public assistance. At the time of hospital discharge, 50 percent of the families of these same patients were on relief."

for school or something," he said, "it doesn't matter much if he's got the money."

"Heck," said the mayor, "the other barber shop also does its share of free hair-cutting."

A well-to-do farmer called on the mayor one day and asked his help to get a drunk out of the barn.

"I don't mind him sleeping in the barn," he told Hopson, "but the way he is, he might burn the thing down."

Deal Offered
The mayor and the farmer called on the drunk and made a deal with him. It never occurred to anyone to put the malefactor in the hoosegow. This was the proposition:

"Now, you're liable to burn the barn down if you stay here. How about you going to Sherman and stay in a hotel there until you sober up."

That was agreeable to the intoxicated gentleman. So they drove him to Sherman, paid for his room and gave him money for breakfast in the morning.

And if the fellow gets put in jail, this is the way the mayor looks at it.

"Shucks, it's not the fault of his wife and kids that he gets into trouble. Somebody's got to look out for them till he gets out. The folks here do that."

Scholars Read Brassiere Ad NEW YORK (AP)—Who reads the brassiere advertisements?

The Bali Brassiere Co. distributed nationally an ad showing a model posing against a map labeled "Netherlands East Indies." It drew a surprising number of letters from foreign embassies, university professors, geographers, students and others—pointing out the area now is known as Indonesia.

Sam Stein, company president, said he was sorry for any unintentional slight the map may have caused—but happy that the ads were being read by so many people.

Let's Talk Livestock

By TED GOULDY

Fort Worth — Fed steers and yearlings and heavy weight calves were fully 50 cents and most late sales $1 lower at Fort Worth Monday. The pressure on beef cattle follows the reports of heavy cattle runs over the nation.

The 12 major markets reported 6,000 more cattle than a week ago and 12,000 more than on the same date a year ago. Fed steers predominated in the runs at all markets.

At Fort Worth cows were mostly steady, and bulls sold at fully steady prices. Stocker cattle and calves of good and choice quality were steady, but those of less quality were dull and usually sold at their butcher value. Slaughter calves drew weak to 50 cents lower prices, some heavyweights off more.

Hog Prices Drop

Hog prices dropped sharply. Butcher hogs were 50 cents to mostly $1 lower, and top hogs sold at $24 to $24.50. Sows were $1 to $1.50 lower at $22 down.

Slaughter lambs were highly uneven. Some sales of fat lambs were steady, while others were 50 cents lower. Fat lambs topped at $18.50. Feeder lambs were strong to 50 cents or more higher. Some shearing type feeder lambs topped at $18.75. Old sheep and yearlings sold at strong prices.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings cashed at $16 to $21, a few higher. Common and medium slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $10 to $15, with cutter grades from $8 to $10. Fat steers were sold Monday at prices in accord with the low time in the pre-Christmas trade.

Fat cows sold from $9 to $11, a few heiferish kinds to $12. Canners and cutters cashed at $6 to $9.50, with some thin, emancipated lightweight canners down to $5. Bulls sold from $8 to $13, individuals up to $13.50.

Good and Choice

Good and choice fat calves sold from $15 to $19, a few top heavyweights to $20 and above. One load of 546-lb. calves sold at $20.50. Common and medium slaughter calves drew $10 to $14, and culls sold from $8 to $10.

Good and choice stocker steer calves cleared at $14 to $19. Stocker and feeder steers and steer yearlings sold from $13 to $17.50. Stocker cows cashed at $9 to $13.

Good and choice butcher hogs weighing 190 to 250 pounds topped at $24 to $24.50. Lighter and heavier hogs sold for $22.50 to $23.75. Sows cashed at $20 to $22.

Lamb Prices

Good and choice fat lambs sold at $17 to $18.50, both woolled lambs and shorn lambs at the top figure. Cull, common and medium slaughter lambs sold from $10 to $16. Stocker and feeder lambs sold from $15 to $18, with some woolled shearing lambs of around 90 lbs. at $18.75. Ewes sold at $6 to $8. Stocker ewes sold at $10 down. Yearlings drew $12 to $15. Old wethers sold from $8 to $10.

Election Is Delayed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Mansfield, Ark., held an election two weeks late. It developed — on election day — that printing of the ballots had been overlooked.

AGGIE GRID COACH RESIGNS — Ray George (above), Texas A&M football coach, resigned to go into private business. A&M President David H. Morgan accepted the resignation and said he was appointing George as assistant athletic director from now until the effective date of the resignation, August 31. [AP Wirephoto]

Streetcar Sale Cancelled

CAIRO (AP)—An Egyptian landed in jail for selling a streetcar to a Nile valley country boy visiting Cairo. The villager paid $233 and promised the rest of $560 later. But he couldn't find the man again to pay up the balance.

When the swindler was arrested, police discovered he had once made a habit of wearing police dress and searching villagers coming to Cairo under the guise of looking for narcotics. During the search, he picked their pockets. Now he won't be free till 2055.

Thieves Avoid Cows

SALLISAW, Okla. (AP)—Arkansas' former Gov. Sid McMath, says:

"The GOP program has driven the price of livestock down to the point where thieves have stopped stealing our cattle and started robbing our banks."

PINE BUSH, N.Y. (AP)—To get cash toward repairing the century-old Crawford Methodist Church here, it was decided to confiscate and sell the honey stored up by bees in five hives under the eaves of the church.

A night-expedition resulted in the following casualties:

Burnet Decker, former Brooklyn policeman, was stung several times, and Ira Jones did a jig for five minutes trying to get one insect out of his pants leg.

Warren Spadola, a beekeeper, was stung on the tongue as he offered advice to the novices.

Cable Cars Troublesome

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Mary Alice Ball, 34-year-old war widow, has switched to office work after 11 years as one of San Francisco's two woman cable car conductors.

Mrs. Ball, mother of a 16-year-old daughter, said she's through demanding "fares, tickets and transfers, please," on the creaking, swaying, hill-climbing trams because:

"It was my ulcer or the line, and the ulcer was gaining."

Winter Melon Is Gift

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—O'Neil Camahos likes to raise watermelons out of season. He recently gave his largest melon to a Pottstown Hospital to satisfy a dying man's wish for watermelon.

Retirement Postponed

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Robert Shelton of Hamden has been eligible for retirement for the past 25 years, but he passed his 75th anniversary with a New Haven hardware manufacturer (Sargent & Co.) without any thought of quitting.

"I don't believe in retirement so long as you can stand on your feet," says the 90-year-old Shelton.

Driver Likes Mud

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A Knoxville driver, who had .38 per cent alcohol in his blood by "drunkometer" test, was freed on a drunk driving charge because he was stuck in the mud. Judge Charles Kelly said law requires a car to be in operation on a public street for a drunk-driving charge to stick.

Quizz Is No Gamble

ROSELLE PARK, N.J. (AP)—Some Union County theaters, with giveaway programs, resort to quizz sessions to get around New Jersey's anti-gambling laws. Raffles, considered games of chance, are illegal. Games involving skill are okay. Hence the quizz.

From about 300 A. D. to after 1350 most Europeans considered that riding in a vehicle instead of on horseback was unmanly.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I blanch nuts?
A. By immersing them in boiling water for two minutes, then in cold water. Drain and remove the skins; then spread thinly in pans and put in a warm oven for a few hours. The crispness of the nuts will depend upon their dryness.

Q. How can I iron slips so that they will not stretch?
A. Remember to iron slips crosswise instead of up and down. This tends to prevent the slip from showing below the skirtline.

Q. How can I prevent rubber overshoes from slipping on wet pavements?
A. Fasten a strip of adhesive tape lengthwise down the sole.

Q. How can I make a hand lotion?
A. Take one-half cup of vinegar, one-half cup of water, four tablespoons of starch; put these ingredients into a jar and shake well. You will then have a very effective and inexpensive hand lotion.

Q. How large a lemon should be used if a recipe calls for the juice of one lemon?
A. It is far safer to use three tablespoons of lemon juice. The size of lemons and the amount of juice yielded vary so much, that a measured amount is often profitable.

Q. How can I prevent stretching of woolen scarfs when laundering?
A. Dry woolen scarfs and shawls between towels. Never hang them on the line or they will stretch out of shape.

Q. How can I remove burnt food from aluminum cooking vessels?
A. By placing dry over the fire. As soon as the food is charred it will loosen and should be removed immediately. Acids, such as tomato or lemon juice, will brighten aluminum.

Q. How can I obtain relief when always troubled with cold feet?
A. Relief is often obtained by cutting a piece of paper the shape of the sole of the shoe, and placing it in the stocking.

Q. How can I make good coffee?
A. To make good coffee always use fresh water, and measure both the coffee and the water to obtain the same strength each time.

Q. How can I remove the marks left on the skin by adhesive tape?
A. Try wiping with benzine or any cleaner of the benzine type.

At The Movies

A Lion In The Streets
Wednesday and Thursday at the Star Theatre

Starring James Cagney, Barbara Hale and Anne Francis.
A Lion In The Streets is a tense, dramatic story of the rise of a southern peddler to candidate for governorship, acted to the hilt by the flaring energy and flamboyancy of James Cagney. It is a forthright and flaming performance—the best thing he has done.

Barbara Hale plays the part of the sweet and understanding school teacher that Cagney weds. The young backwoods girl who has always been in love with Cagney is played by Anne Francis.
The picture has stamina, deep human interest and believable characterizations.

Thunder Over The Plains
Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Star Theatre

Starring Randolph Scott, Lex Barker and Phyllis Kirk.
Thunder Over The Plains is an exciting chapter in the colorful history of Texas, and is packed with the flavor of frontier fury.

The story takes place after the Civil War, when carpet baggers prey upon the impoverished people of Texas. Randolph Scott is the leader of a Northern army and although he is sympathetic to the Texans' cause, he nevertheless keeps angry Texans at bay with his Northern army. Charles McGraw is the leader of an outlaw band who Scott and his cocky Lieutenant, Lex Barker try to capture.
The story is tensely dramatic and laden with exciting action.

Members Of Smallest Sects Give Largest Percent To Churches

By W. W. Reid

The average Protestant church member in the U.S.A. gives a total of $41.94 per year as his church contribution, according to the Rev. Thomas K. Thompson, of the department of stewardship, National Council of Churches. This, he says, is an increase of $2.95 per member per year over the figures of twelve months ago. Of the average member's total giving, $8.57 is for missions, benevolences, and other projects "for others" outside the local church. While these are all-Protestant averages, Mr. Thompson points out that members of the Seventh Day Adventist Church give a yearly average of $165.26 of which $136.59 is for missions and benevolences; the Wesleyan Methodists a total of $149.56 each; the Brethren in Christ, $120.44; the Church of the Nazarene, $117.97; and the Orthodox Presbyterians $109.34. On the whole it is noted that members of the "smaller sects" contribute more per capita than do members of the numerically large denominations.

people everywhere and their contribution of a fund "to make scriptures available to others." The American Bible Society, a 138-year old Bible printing agency, is having part in the celebration.

One of the major emphases of the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief in 1954 will be the bringing to the United States from Europe some 5,000 refugees or displaced persons. This, it is expected, will be "Methodism's share" in the Refugee Resettlement Program of 214,000 persons authorized by Congress to be admitted during the next three years. The Committee will secure from Methodist Church members sponsors, jobs, and homes for these victims of communism, Nazism, and cold war persecution. Miss Elizabeth M. Lee, of Pittsburgh, Pa., has been named by the Commission to direct the job of securing sponsors for persons to be brought to America by the Methodist Church.

"The only peace movement that offers any tangible barrier to war, and a practical road to peace, is the United Nations organization, says the Rev. H. Palmer Phillips, prominent minister of Victoria, Australia. "The preamble to the charter says, 'We, the people of the United Nations, determined to save future generations from the scourge of war... have resolved to combine our efforts to accomplish these aims.' U. N. seeks peace through cooperation and negotiation, and thus seeks peace on terms acceptable to the majority of the peoples of the world. It alone has the machinery and the membership to make world cooperation and negotiation possible. U. N. is a universal non-aggression pact. Sixty nations have agreed never to fight each other. If U. N. fails the world is undone. There is no visible alternative for peace. It is U. N. or perish. Had it not been for U. N. World War III would have begun long since. It is the greatest humanitarian venture in human history; but it can only function by the sympathy and goodwill of the people."

Youth from American churches will play host to some 40,000 foreign students now enrolled in American colleges and universities as part of the observance of "Youth Week" from January 31 to February 7. The Week and its religious activities is sponsored by the United Christian Youth Movement, a department of the National Council of Churches. The national UCYM president is Rogerick French, of LaGrande, Oregon, a student at Kenyon College.

Twenty-four Bible publishing and distributing societies, serving people of some sixty countries, will observe the entire year of 1954 as a special period for giving "one of the greatest mass statements of faith in all history." The year marks the 500th anniversary of the first printing of the Bible—the Gutenberg Bible in Germany; and also the founding of the oldest Bible society in the world—the British and Foreign Bible Society (London). Goals of the year by the United Bible Societies will include an increase of the distribution of the twenty-four societies from present 20,000,000 volumes of scriptures per year to 25,000,000 in 1954, and a gradual increase to 50,000,000 in 1960. A major project of the year will be the signing of the "World Good Will Book" by

Her tiered veil of imported French lace was attached to a coronet of Alencon lace embellished with seed pearls. She carried a white velvet muff on which rested a white orchid, with knee-length falls of stephanotis and white satin and velvet ribbon. Her only ornaments were a single strand of pearls with matching ear rings, the gift of the bridegroom.

A matching hat and veil and a purple orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a DeNichel original two-piece dress of ice blue lace and taffets. Her hat was of white velvet with pearl and rhinestone trim and her corsage was of red Pinnocchio roses.

Reception Held

The bride's mother was hostess for the reception which followed the ceremony at the Union Club Room. The refreshment table was laid with a floor length cloth of white linen garlanded with fern and Christmas greens. "A good conversationist brings out the best in those with whom he speaks and knows how and when to listen. He does not monopolize the conversation nor discuss at length his personal problems, and he tries to be original in the way he expresses himself", she said.

and the Readers Digest.

Difference In Words

In beginning the lesson on the voice and vocabulary, the speaker quoted Mark Twain, "The difference between the right word and the 'almost right word' is the difference between the lightning bug and the lightning. ## Texans In Washington

By Tex Easley

AP Special Washington Service
Washington, Dec. 9.—Some 500 square miles of Texas coastal low lands, in Fort Bend County, pose a problem for this session of Congress.

The question: would proposed dredging of drainage ditches and canals in the area be primarily a flood control operation or would it have more the nature of a reclamation operation enhancing the value of private lands?

The issue, which bears on how much federal money would go into the project, was thrashed about at length recently by two generals and five colonels sitting on the army engineers' board for rivers and harbors improvements.

They couldn't quite decide and split 3-3 on a motion which would have increased the federal share of the cost. The southwestern division engineer, Col. Herbert D. Vogel, couldn't vote because a project under his personal jurisdiction was involved.

The board finally voted to approve plans drawn up by the district and division army engineers, under which the federal government would put up $2,068,500 of an estimated total cost of about 8 million dollars.

The project now goes to Congress for authorization and appropriation of funds. The board, in an unusual action, decided to submit along with its recommendation an observation that the federal share of the cost might be increased up to about 5 million dollars if the lawmakers decided public benefits from the work would justify taking that amount from the treasury.

Fort Bend County Judge George Roane headed a group which came to Washington to press for approval of the project plans.

Around the Capital

Arthur Perry of Austin, Sen. Lyndon Johnson's administrative assistant, was flabbergasted on receiving a letter which read:

"I am writing to invite you as a Republican leader to become a member of the Capital Hill Club in Washington, D. C. The club is the meeting place of the Nation's capital for Republicans from all over America, and you, as a member, could arrange guest cards for your friends."

Responding, Perry wrote: "It, naturally, appeals to the ego of any individual to be regarded as a 'leader,' even in the Republican Party.

"However, it is somewhat depressing to me to feel that after having spent my whole life in the Democratic Party, and having been one of the original organizers of the Young Democrats of America and the first President of the Young Democrats Club of the District of Columbia, I made no more impression than now to be considered a Republican leader.

"Nevertheless, my record as a Democrat is well enough known that I am afraid, as a member of your Club, I might prove embarrassing to some of your more partisan members."

Dear Sir:

In recent months it was the distinct privilege of the First Baptist Church of this city to place at the disposal of the School Board a part of its physical plant to be used to house the sixth grade until further provision could be made. The deacons of the First Baptist Church, in regular meeting of January 3, 1954, unanimously voted an expression of gratitude to the following:

Mr. George Graham, Superintendent, and Mr. L. C. Thomas, principal, for their splendid cooperative spirit in the administration of various details.

Mrs. Tandy Legg, Miss Ethel Womble, Miss Flo Dickinson, Mrs. Fred Welch, Mrs. J. J. Durham, and Mrs. Bob Wilson, teachers, who did so splendidly in the maintaining of discipline.

And, to the 170 boys and girls of the sixth grade for their exceptional deportment and for their preservation of the building and landscaping.

Also to the Board for their graciousness in the repainting of the concrete floors in the basement.

what does mean on the Automatic Gas range I buy

The "CP" trademark of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association is a "Buying Guide," and means that the gas range on which it appears meets all requirements of the American Gas Association Laboratories and, in addition, special high minimum requirements for convenience, performance and economy. It is a trademark and not a "brand name," and can be used only on automatic gas ranges manufactured by a member of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association, whose ranges meet these extra requirements.

Not all automatic gas ranges bearing the "CP" trademark are alike. To these high "CP" requirements each manufacturer adds individual performance and convenience features developed in his own test kitchens and engineering laboratories.

State Of Union Address Forecasts Sound Future

President Eisenhower Thursday delivered his State of the Union message to an eagerly awaiting populace. The message, in addition to being clear-cut and candid, also touched upon several points close to the hearts of the American people. His political foes will, in fact, admit his straight-forward presentation and will probably support several of the measures included in his talk. Eisenhower swept into office, after all, with solid backing from millions of Democrats. More important, however, is the fact that he seems to be making a sincere effort to carry out the wishes of the majority of the people.

One of the most discussed and most popular points in the address included a constitutional amendment to let 18-year-olds vote. The measure was recommended by the President in view of the fact that boys of this age, have, since 1941, been called upon to bear arms.

Also striking a popular keynote were his proposals to reduce economic aid to allies, availability of housing to all income groups, and continued efforts to eliminate the spread of Communism in this country.

Farm supports and Labor regulations were to the most vague categories in the message. Substitution of flexible supports for rigid price supports can, of course, be measured only when the plan is tried. Labor, likewise, will carefully scan his proposed "improvements" on the Taft-Hartley law, which Eisenhower classified as basically sound. Upon the outcome of these two phases depends, in a large measure, the future welfare of the country, and it is likewise important to note that these two particular phases have in the past drawn more fire than any other two points during the Eisenhower administration.

Reminiscent of the methods of FDR was the Eisenhower approach to a possible economic depression. The President did not plead or ask, he merely pointed out the means by which he would curb such developments. He made it definitely clear that the nation will not go into an alarming depression.

Three other phases of controversial nature were also included in the message. They were statehood for Hawaii, a measure strongly recommended by the President; government underwriting of private hospital and medical insurance, and a four-cent first class letter rate, along with other necessary postal hikes.

All in all, the Eisenhower recommendations may not solve all of the nation's problems. They may even be based upon fallacies in different places. However, we do believe that the President sidetracked politics in behalf of public interest. He is apparently doing his very best to keep this nation, which represents the highest civilization yet recorded, on an even keel. Eisenhower inherited a difficult job. He has faced and will, in the future, face political jibes and thrusts. Eisenhower has already been recorded in history as a great general and, judging by his State of the Union message Thursday, he is likely to be also recorded as a great statesman.

It surprises many persons to know that money from Washington is not free; that the people pay it. The rich Uncle Sam is not just a generous fellow who give us what we want.

Get It From Washington - It's Free

Here is where the federal government got its money during the last fiscal year:

From individual income taxes (those who made $600 or more a year): $29,274,107,000 (of which $17,929,047,000 was withheld by the employer and taken from your wages before you got your check).

Those who work, Social Security taxes (withheld from your wages), $4,464,264,000.

Those who drink liquors or wines, $2,549,088,000.

Those who smoke cigarettes, cigars or use tobacco, $1,565,162,000.

Those who buy gasoline and oil, $808,460,000.

Those who bought automobiles, $578,149,000.

Those who bought trucks, $147,445,000.

Those who bought parts, accessories, or tires or tubes, $325,497,000.

Those who use electricity, $53,094,000.

Those who bought refrigerators, air-conditioners, $57,970,000.

Those who bought radios or phonographs or records, $125,124,000.

Those who bought musical instruments, $9,412,000.

Those who bought jewelry, $230,403,000.

Those who bought furs, $41,436,000.

Those who bought toilet supplies, $112,892,000.

Those who bought luggage, $90,799,000.

Those who use the telephone or telegraph, $705,770,000.

Those who traveled by train or bus, $275,174,000.

Those who shipped by train or truck, $388,589,000.

Those who went to shows, $330,782,000.

Those who went to cabarets or night clubs, $45,489,000.

Those who joined clubs, $33,592,000.

Those who ate sugar, $78,473,000.

Those who died, $750,591,000.

All of us, $65,009,939,000.

You get it for nothing from Washington, do you?

Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. reported its net income for the first 10 months of 1953 at $45,598,672, an increase of 23 percent over the comparable period of 1952. Perhaps Mayor Cox and the councilmen can use this in their arguments against raising rates locally. THE LOCKNEY BEACON

City Dog Ordinance Seems Fair But There Are Too Many Strays

Do you feel that the order enforcing the dog licensing ordinance is fair, too strict, or not strict enough?

ROY BRITAIN

"I think that we should have the dog licensing ordinance. I have no comment on why we should have it."

MRS. ED SKYPALA

"Well, really and truly I do think that the ordinance is fair. After all we have to do something about dogs just running loose. I have two dogs of my own and for my children's sake I want to have them vaccinated and don't mind buying the license at all."

MRS. J. H. REINARD

"I believe that the ordinance is fair. I'd rather not state my reasons for believing this."

C. P. CLARK

"I believe that the ordinance is fair. I feel that the dogs should be vaccinated and licensed for health purposes."

MRS. ELMER WINKLER

"Well, I think that the ordinance is fair, I think we should license our dogs. After all, if you think anything of your dog you want it protected."

MRS. W. H. RUSSELL

"Oh yes, I think the ordinance is fair. Maybe if it is enforced there won't be so many dogs running loose around the city."

EARNST WADE

"In some respects I think the ordinance is fair and in some respects I think it is not. I'd rather not state my reasons, however."

MRS. C. SHANKS

"I believe that the ordinance is fair, however, I do not believe that the city is strict enough about the stray dogs inside the city limits. I know I have had stray dogs in my yard at different times and nothing has been done about it."

'Tater Peelin's

By Roberta Campbell

We use paint to mark our sheep but anybody wearin a patch of green or maroon paint the last few days has more than likely been by the Brand Office

We wonder how F. A. Tucker, Wayne Brown, and Al Powell ever managed to keep ahead of all of us long enough to finish their job as many times as they had to stop to wipe paint off of somebody's fingers.

Inside and out it all looks nice doesn't it?

-tp-

Everytime green is mentioned we think back a year or two when green became as popular for paper as it is for paint. Mrs. C. L. Conklin said when they were called on to paper a house they never asked anymore what color the paper would be, but just—

"What shade of green is it?"

In spite of the fact that three-year-old Rusty (Russell) Barrett, son of the Fred Barrett's Jr., comes from the ball playing Russell and the ball playing Barrett families, Mrs. N. E. Milburn, his Sunday school teacher, wasn't exactly expecting the answer she received when she asked her class what songs they wanted to sing and Rust piped up with —

"Take Me Out to the Ball Game."

I'll Never Forget

As Told by Mrs. C. F. Kerr to Lou Perry

I came through Hereford, as I was going to Dimmitt in 1898, in the caboose of a freight train. I was a widow with one small boy. At that time there was no Hereford, just camping ground. There were no buildings, only a few shacks and tents put up along side the railroad tracks.

I went to stay with my aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Beach, who lived in Dimmitt. Mr. Kerr was teaching school at that time and was boarding at with him there. Later he was persuaded to run for County Judge and superintendent.

At this time the land around Jumbo lake was Kerr land. You had to pay so much for the land and then stay on it a certain length of time. Mr. Kerr traded all the land and several hundred dollars for our first home in Dimmitt. He bought my uncle and aunt's home when they moved to a ranch. He bought all of the furniture for our house in Canyon and did not pay over $100 for the entire furnishings.

We waited for three weeks to find a preacher to marry us and were finally married by a Justice of the Peace in Dimmitt on May 17, 1899.

Mr. Kerr was County Superintendent at this time and was often away from home. Castro was the only organized county and Lamb and Bailey counties were attached for judicial purposes. He visited all the schools in the different counties under his jurisdiction and visited all of the range camps throughout the counties. Since he had to go on horseback, I never knew when he would be back home. I knew that he would be gone at least a week on each trip, though.

I guess Mr. Kerr knew just about all of the people in all three of the counties, and I knew most of them. There were no hotels at that time and, of course, Mr. Kerr was always bringing someone home with him. We had company nearly all of the time. I know my neighbors used to feel sorry for me because we had so much company. I have had as many as twenty persons to stay overnight at my house at one time. I'd just make pallets all over the house. We had a wonderful time, though, everyone that came would stay and visit awhile.

People have just ruined the country. It used to be that everyone was friendly and glad to have company. Then we knew everyone for forty or fifty miles around, now you can live across the street from someone for years and never know who they are or what they do. Why, even strangers would stop at your house in those days and we would all become the best of friends.

There were no birds around the country at that time and no rabbits either, only prairie dogs. I used to have a little pet prairie dog and he would come in the house and just make himself at home.

Mr. Kerr, the children and I moved to Canyon in 1920. I had four of my children in college at one time and one little boy in training school there at the college.

We stayed in Canyon until all of the children had finished school but my youngest, Reavis. (Continued on Page 5)

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm seems to be discussing politics this week, but you never can tell.

Dear editor:

With a political year shapin up, I have naturally devoted considerable thought to politics lately, although politics to me is an enterprise similar to plowin, something more to be observed from a distance than to be participated in actively, and I've noticed an odd thing.

From time to time I have noticed where some prominent man, being talked up by rumors as a possible candidate for some national job, has declined to get interested in the grounds he doesn't want to bring up his children in Washington. And some Washington office-holders have declined to run for re-election, just to get their children out of the place.

I have thought about this a long time, and while it's my opinion more men have been ruined in Washington than children, still the Washington-shy men may have a point and I've been wonderin, you reckon we ought to start a campaign to make Washington a fit place to bring children up in?

Of course, the thing isn't as simple as it sounds. In the first place, most grown-ups in Washington were put there by the voters, and if it has resulted in the place turnin into a town unfit to bring children up in, you can see whose chickens have come home to roost.

Moreover, while I never have considered the problems of the nation could be attributed to juvenile delinquency in Washington, I always figured you'd have to go up the age scale just a little to really put the blame in the right place, still somebody has to serve in the national capital and if nobody's left there except the parents who don't care how their children are brought up, you can see what the future of the nation is.

I was talkin this problem over with my neighbor and he suggested it could be solved by movin the national capital some place, else besides Washington, but I doubt if this would work. In the first place, where would you put it? We got no room for it out here. And in the second place, what would keep the new place from turnin into another Washington, if the same people was runnin it?

Personally, I prefer to work on the angle of keepin Washington where it is and tryin to work out some system whereby it will become a safe place to bring children up in. I know a lot of men you couldn't trust to send to Washington, but didn't know you couldn't trust children there either. Something ought to be done about this right away, as there are a lot of good men we could use up there.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Winning Ball Team

Timely to the point of being fantastic is the amazing record which the Hereford basketball team is establishing this year. Equally amazing is the fact that the Hereford boys have accomplished the feat with an obsolete gymnasium which does not meet Interscholastic League standards.

Coupled with the fact that the present gymnasium does not seat more than 200 people, is the situation that persons wishing to see games must be on hand 30 minutes or more before game time in order to secure a seat. The gymnasium, long a point of contention in the new high school, is scheduled for completion before next season. It will seat around 1,000 persons and with a team of the same calibre, the new gym will probably likewise operate on a sell out basis. This situation has developed as a complete surprise—even to strongest advocates for a modern gymnasium.

Gym or no gym; however, the community is mostly proud of the boys. Their record is excellent in the field of competition and, even more important, it is excellent in the field of sportsmanship.

Let's Cook Something

Here's a cake for January, for the lull between plum pudding and fruit cake time and Springtime desserts which call for lighter foods. It's easy on the budget, compared with the traditional fruit cake, easy on the cook, is nourishing for children, because of its fruit content, and suitable for the family as well as for unexpected or planned for guests.

Mrs. J. J. Durham makes this cake often during the winter months when she can get the candied fruits. It is called Chinese Nut Cake and sounds paradoxical, for it is very dry, has no shortening nor milk, yet is a very moist cake which will keep indefinitely.

- Chinese Nut Cake
- 2 pounds shelled pecans
  - 1 pound candied pineapple
  - 1 pound candied cherries
  - 1 pound dates
  - 2 cups flour
  - 2 teaspoons baking powder
  - 4 eggs
  - 1 cup sugar

Don't cut up the fruit. Just mix it all together and dust over with the flour and baking powder, which have been sifted together. Beat eggs thoroughly and add sugar and cream. Pour egg mixture over fruit, it is better when cold.

Suit Goes On 46 Years

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—Although all the original parties are long since dead, the lawsuit in which they became embroiled 46 years ago is still alive.

J.M. Lewis and wife filed the suit in 1907 against S.W. Harris and wife. The Lewises claimed the Harrises had entered their property and removed timber valued at $300. The defendants denied the charge saying they owned part of the property.

The case dragged on until 1917, but there was no action from 1917 until 1953 when M.M. Banks acquired the Lewis property and revived the case. He asked that descendants of the Harrises be made defendants, and got a court order forbidding them to enter the property.

Another judge decided it was time to end the case and he dismissed it. However, the State Supreme Court recently gave it new life by ruling that the judge exceeded his authority.

Only Drivers Are Drivers

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—It took an Arkansas attorney general's ruling to prove that you can't be convicted of drunken driving in the state if you aren't driving.

A 1953 law said that it was "unlawful for any person who is under the influence of intoxicating liquor to drive or be in actual control of any vehicle."

The ruling said the law could "catch any person who might happen to be intoxicated and who might happen to have an automobile and the means to operate it either on the highways or elsewhere."

The law was declared unconstitutional.

Hereford Beats Lobos In Photo-Finish Game

By Billy Paul Knox

It looked as though the Herd had lost their second game of the year Tuesday night, but they pulled it out of the fire in about the last five seconds on a free throw by Tom Woodford to defeat the Levelland Lobos for the second time this year, 62-61.

Double Foul

The score was tied at 61-61 with about five seconds to play, then the fans were brought to their feet when Johnston of Levelland and Woodford of Hereford committed a double-foul, just as the horn ending the game blew. Johnston missed his shot and Woodford sank his to gain the hard-earned victory for the Whitefaces. Woodford was also high point man for Hereford with 20 points. Johnston also led Levelland with 18 points.

Woodford now leads Hereford scorers with 194 points in 34 games. Everett Allen is next with 169.

Poor Facilities Hurt

Although the Herd was playing on their home court, it looked as though the poor facilities hurt Hereford more than it did Levelland. The Whitefaces were not hitting well at all and made only about 20 percent of their shots.

The Herd started out the game on the big end of the score but the Lobos played terrific ball to manage a first quarter draw of 11-11.

The Whitefaces fell behind in the second quarter. They scored only 8 points and Levelland scored only 12 points but the Lobos were by far superior in this quarter. Half-time score was 23-19 in favor of quence unmarred by impartiality. I, therefore, by the authority vested in me, hereby commission the above named person "Special Introduction Assistant" with full authority to repeat said high-sounding phrases upon any occasion without fear of over-doing it."

It has a seal and everything. Otis Dickey and John Estes have been kidding Howard about the document, but I think it is nice. However, I sure feel sorry for Howard. He will have to clean out his desk someday—and it will require a major decision to throw it away or to keep it. I know just how he will feel. That's the kind of thing I was referring to above.

It reminds me of the old boy who was such a diligent worker on the farm that his boss actually got to worrying about him. One rainy day, just to save the fellow from exposure, he put him in the basement sorting out sprouted potatoes from the good ones. An hour or so later he came back to find that the man had passed completely out and was prone on the floor. Finally, they revived the helper and when questioned about his trouble the man answered, "The work wasn't bad—but making those decisions was what got me."

Hereford is well represented at the big REA convention in Miami, Fla., this week. In addition to the T. E. Seiglers and Leo Forrests, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Alderson are also attending as guests of REA friends in Muleshoe.

the Lobos.

Farther Behind

In the third quarter, the Whitefaces fell even farther behind and it looked as if the Whitefaces cause was lost. Although the Herd scored 19 points, Levelland scored 21 to bring the score to 44-38.

Hereford staged a terrific comeback in the latter stages of the game and pulled up even with the Lobos at 61-61 with just a few seconds left to play; the double foul was committed and Woodford sent his shot to win the game for the Herd.

Woodford led Hereford with 20 points. Johnston had 18 for Levelland.

Thirteen Victories

The most recent victory by the Herd brings the number of victories to their credit to 13 and the tenth in a row. One lone loss to Amarillo mars their record. Hereford played Perryton Friday night at 7:30 in a conference game.

Dish-Washing Excitement

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A robber made Ruth and Robert Ambler, teen-age children of a food market owner, help him search without success for money hidden in the Ambler home. He noticed before leaving that the dinner dishes were unwashed and ordered Ruth and Robert to get to work on them. They did, it being their regular chore, anyway. When their parents came home everything was spick and span, the robber was gone and the $3,300 weekend market receipts was still where the father had hidden them.

Mummy Startles Firemen TEANECK, N.J. (AP)—Firemen got quite a start when they opened a closet in a blazing home and came face to face with a mummy said to be 3,000 years old. They reported to police, a "petrified human of unknown origin." Police knew all about the mummy, which belonged to a retired Bergen County game warden William Small. He collects them as a hobby. This particular mummy, thwarted a robbery at Small's home five years ago. The thieves were scared off before they took anything, police said.

Never again! Never again! Moving is bad enough around the house, it's worse on a business—and a newspaper office is terrible. We are just beginning to get straightened out during the last two or three days. However, we've been messed up so long that it is almost painful to get on an even keel.

On top of everything else, Frank Daniels has been giving me trouble. They started to paint the Brand Office front and he grabbed his phone and lodged a protest. It just goes to show how your sins will come home to rest. Frank said I gave him so much trouble about his front colors, then started painting our front without consulting him. I asked him what color he wanted and he said "red". He raised so much Cain that we finally went back and swapped the purple we originally planned for red. The painters fussed, but I decided maybe Frank was partially justified. Anyway, we painted it red, like he said, then he had the gall to say he didn't like that particular shade of red. I always thought Frank was an easy-going old boy, but he isn't—especially when it comes to paint colors. I still think purple would have been much, much better.

One thing about moving, though, you run across a lot of things you had forgotten. I found this little poem which Phyllis (Radovich) Dishman left on my desk when she decided to desert the newspaper business in favor of holy matrimony:

"Twinkle, Twinkle, little hair,
How I wonder where you are,
Up on top that head so bald,
How I wonder, where are they all?"

I can't figure where she got the inspiration. It must have been right after S. B. McLallen or Hub Homer had been over here for something. At least, I know she wasn't thinking about Melvin Young or Stanley Phillip. Fact is, most of the boys around here have a pretty fair head of hair. I wonder if she is the culprit who sent me that "Hair Brush for Bald Heads" from Broken Bow, Wyoming?

Another thing which irked me no little was the fact that I put on some coveralls and pitched in to help with this and that. During the day people would be talking to me, abruptly stop, and say: "Why, I didn't recognize you. I really didn't. That's the first time I ever saw you dressed in working clothes." Naturally, I knew they were kidding—but it happened so much that I honestly got to wondering if people figure that I never do any work. About that time the wife and children came in to view the mess. I happened to put my arm around the wife's shoulder and she jumped a foot. She turned with an amazed expression and said: "Why, I didn't recognize you. Honest I didn't." That was the last straw. It was too close to home for comfort. Does everyone figure that I am a non-working, non-productive parasite? Don't answer, please. I think I already know.

Also I found a copy of the Caddo Gazette dated Monday, June 29, 1863. This was in the drawer of my desk. Everyone around the office says that I probably put it there in 1863 and forgot it. This is an absolute untruth. I wasn't born until 1909. However, it served a good purpose. I figured if anything had been in the drawer that long and not used, there wasn't much use in trying to save the contents—so I just dumped the whole thing.

I am a natural "saver" of everything but money. I save all of the little things most people throw away. This includes old shoes, pictures, old pipes, magazines, gas fittings, letters and a few old light bulbs. It breaks my heart to throw things away. It really does. A lot of things I save have so much sentimental attachment that I generally wind up saving them again. The only way I can clean out a desk drawer and still sleep at night is to shut my eyes and dump the whole thing. Is anyone else like that? Besides, when I throw something away, I generally find myself needing it the very next day. It never fails to happen. If you just shut your eyes, dump it, then you never know you had it—and don't miss it the next day.

I remind myself of the Washington, D. C. bureau which asked permission to destroy the contents of some ancient files in order to use the space. Permission was granted. The order read, however: "Make six copies of each document, then destroy originals."

Special note to Alex Thompson. My desk is clean—and I am sorry. I can't find anything. The only bright spot was the fact that I ran across an unopened Christmas card dated 1949. I was glad to hear from the old boy, of course, but it wasn't worth the effort I'd rather have my desk back like it was. Alex will be making a mistake if he ever lets them talk him into the same deal. Now, the gals around here are saying the desk is clean, and must stay that way. They mean it, too! At least, they have me convinced.

Howard Gault has recently been accorded a most unique honor. It was conferred by Attorney General John Ben Shepperd of Texas and appears in the form of a special engraved certificate which designates Howard as a "Special Introduction Assistant". It all came about when Howard presided at the annual Texas Citrus and Vegetable Shippers and Growers breakfast last October, and introduced Shepperd as a speaker. In full, the document reads:

"Whereas, Howard Gault displayed verbal agility and complete lack of restraint in introducing the undersigned (Shepperd) at a public gathering; and, whereas said eulogy was delivered in a loud and laudatory manner, with rare elo-

Beauty At Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. What can I do to cause my lipstick to stay on longer?

A. Try powdering the lips before applying your lipstick.

Q. How can I help to correct a skin that is too oily?

A. Try sponging your face with equal parts of cologne water, witch hazel and rose water. Cut down on fatty foods in your diet!

Q. How can I exercise to reduce over-fleshy ankles and calves?

A. One exercise that is very enjoyable, and good, consists merely of walking on tiptoe to music around your room for a short time every day. You must do this regularly and faithfully.

Q. The skin on my throat seems darker than that on my face. How can I rectify this condition?

A. Try bleaching the neck with buttermilk massages.

Q. What rinses will add softness and luster to the hair?

A. Either vinegar or lemon. When using vinegar, add three drops of rose water.

Q. What can I do about hollows under my eyes?

A. Make sure first that these aren't due to lack of sleep or to some organic trouble. To help the process of rounding them out, try a little massage around the eyes. Pat gently with the fingertips. A special eye cream used in conjunction with the massage is good. Leave the cream on overnight.

Q. I wish to use soap and water as little as possible on my very dry skin. What is a good substitute cleanser?

A. Mineral oil is very good for removing old makeup.

Q. What is an easy and quick way to freshen up my fur coat?

A. Just brush a small quantity of white cornmeal through the fur with the grain.

FEATURING HIS PAL
ROSCO SWEENEY
By ROY CRANE

I'VE CONNECTED THE STEAM CALLOPE TO THE SHIP'S BOILER, AS YOU DIRECTED, MR. SEALYHAM.

STOP WIGGLING YOUR MOUTH LIKE A RABBIT, YOUNG MAN. SPEAK UP!

I AM SPEAKING! I'M SHOUTING MY BUNKIN' BRAINS OUT! IT'S NOT SAFE, I TELL YOU!

SAFE, ISN'T IT? WHAT'S SAFE?

NOTHING'S SAFE! THE WHISTLES AREN'T MEANT TO CARRY 800 POUNDS OF STEAM!

DRAATED PEOPLE! AFRAID TO SPEAK UP... LOSING THEIR VOICES. COME, CHILD, PLAY "SWEET AND LOW!"

Woopa Ka Hoot!

YOU'RE THE ONLY PERSON WHO ENJOYS MY MUSIC, MR. SEALYHAM.

AH! HOW FAINT AND LOVELY!

EIGHT TIMES AS LOUD! AND TWENTY TIMES WORSE!

MEANWHILE, MILES AWAY.

WHAT'S WRONG, BRANHAM?

SIR, THE SONAR'S GONE HAYWIRE. WE SEEM TO HEAR NOISES ALMOST LIKE MUSIC.

THERE'S NOT A SHIP IN SIGHT, I TELL YOU!

LISTEN! I TELL YOU IT'S MUSIC FROM HEAVEN.

G'WAN! IT'S TOO OFF-KEY TO BE FROM HEAVEN.

Too Toot!

Rooty too toot

BOOM!

IT AIN'T EXACTLY MUTINY, JAKE. WE'LL SIMPLY GRAB THAT PIANO-LEGGED DAME AND

WHAT HAPPENED? I THOUGHT I HEARD A NOISE.

YOU DID, MR. SEALYHAM! THE WHISTLES BLEW OFF!

HOORAY! THEY CAN'T PLAY IT WITHOUT WHISTLES!

MANDRAKE

THE MAGICIAN

BY LEE FALK & PHIL DAVIS

IN THE SWAMPLANDS--A GREAT ROARING HISS--A SOUND NOT HEARD ON EARTH FOR A HUNDRED MILLION YEARS--

WHAT IS IT? DOES IT SEE US? I'M NOT SURE. QUICK, BEHIND THE TREES--IT'S OUR ONLY CHANCE--

WHAT MANDRAKE DOING?

Shh--Hey--IT'S STARTING TO MOVE THIS WAY --MANDRAKE--!

THE EARTH SHAKES-- SMALL TREES GO DOWN --AS THE TWENTY-TON MONSTER MOVES SWIFTLY BY...

FOR HE HAS HAD HIS EYES--NOT ON THE PEOPLE-- BUT ON A WATER BUFFALO BEYOND THEM...

GOOD NIGHT! LET'S GET-- OUT OF HERE!

SECOND THE MOTION! THAT'S WHAT MADE THE BIG FOOTPRINT! SOME SORT OF LIZARD --BUT THE SIZE!

LET'S GET TO DR. GALE'S FARM. HE MAY HAVE AN ANSWER TO THIS!
