PTA REFRESHMENTS were served in the gym Thursday, night following dedication services and a tour through Hereford's new, modern $850,000 high school plant.

Around Town

Formal dedication of Hereford's new $850,000 high school was probably the most discussed happens ing Around Town this week. If there was anyone who didn't like Mrs. Billie Davis' address, we didn't run across them. Most people also agreed that the new building was a shade better than beyond "super colossal."

One discussion and arise, however, as a result of the pamphlets distributed at the opening, which listed the Central School date as "1909." Jeff Gilbreath got interested and spent Saturday morning searching through The Brand files. He found that the building was opened in September, 1910. He also things, including a strike of bricklayers in May, 1910. The foundation, it seems, was pouned by nonunion workmen, and the bricklaygers refused to stack bricks on a non-union foundation.

T. E. Seigler and his staff at the Deaf Smith County Hospital have moved their office to make where the offices were originally located. The business offices are now located back adjoining the next week on remodeling of the two rooms where the office was formerly located.

Poll tax payments reached a total of 754 Saturday, still more than 1,000 below normai. Jaycees, to help the situation, are setting up booths in the drug stores-and you can always pay them at the sheriff's office in the court house.

McLallen Buys Ben Franklin Variety Store

Purchase of the Ben Franklin store by S. B. McLallen was announced this week by H. B. Stanfield, who has operated the store here for the past three years. The transaction becomes effective starting next Friday, according to McLallen, who has been working in the store for the past week to familiarize himself with the re-

"We will close Tuesday for inventory, and will remain closed until Friday morning," he said.

Mr. McLallen served as manager of J. C. Penney Company in Here-ford from April, 1943, until Jan. 1, 1955, when he resigned the position after 25 years with the Penney Company. During the past 12 years, the McLallens have become widely known in this area through amerous community and business activities. Prior to joining the Penney organization, Mr. McLallen also spent five years in the variety store business in Colorado.

Mr. Stanfield announced his plans as being indefinite at the present time. He said, however, that he and Mrs. Stanfield plan to remain in Hereford-"and I hope to catch up on my fishing, he concluded.

HOWARD GAULT, left, trustee president, presented Supt. Geo. Graham with a TV set for his home during the ceremony. Gault said that the gift was from friends who wished to remain annoymous and who appreciated Graham's work in making the new building possible;

The crowd, composed ing. of teachers, students, parents and Howard Gault, trustee president other interested citizens filled the new 1,003 - capacity auditorium, emergency room. Work will start plus around 200 additional guests who appeared on the giant stage and lined the walls at the rear of the room.

The program was brief , the speaker was outstanding - and the inspection tour was interesting. All in all, the crowd loved every minute of the well planned program.

The occasion opened with numbers by the high school band and chair, which filled the the stage to capacity. Numbers rendered were "Nation's Creed," band and choir; "Once to Every Band and Nation," choir; "American Folk Rhapsody," band; "Battle Hymn of the Republic," band and choir. Direction of the numbers was shared between Bill Miller, band director, and Don Moore, choir di-

Three Boys Plead Guilty To Thefts, Each Gets 60 Days

A rash of battery thefts in this area came to a halt this week, when three Amarillo boys, around 20 years of age, appeared in County Court on two theft charges, drawing 60 days each in county

The boys, Robert Scott, Marion C. Scott and Glenn Rich plead guilty before Judge Homer Henslee Friday, receiving 30 days on each count. They have also been billed to appear before the Grand Jury in District Court the last of this month.

The boys said that they started out borrowing their dad's car about two years ago, then going out to steal gasoline and, later, batteries.

On the night of Jan. 10, they took several batteries in the Vega area, dropping south as far as the Kenneth Cook place, where they also took batteries. Again, on Jan. 18, they went on a battery prowl, turning south at Vega the vicinity south of Ford and were sold to a funk company trio into custody Wednesday night when the boys returned to their homes in Amarillo. They estimated that the boys received around $41 for $400 worth of batteries.

Plans Outlined For Dimes Radio Program Jan. 30

Preliminary plans for the annual March of Dimes radio program, scheduled Sunday, Jan. 30, were outlined today by Ray Bosley, Jaycee chairman, in charge

The program will open at 1:30 over KPAN and will continue until around 5 o'clock, Bosley said. It will feature strictly local talent, including special stunts or numbers which listeners request along with their contributions to the Po-

Here is a delightful salad just right for Springtime just ahead, however, Mrs. Irving Alexander nakes this salad for family and for friendly hospitalities the year around. Most men like it with any part of the meal as it goes well vith a heavy meat course or with sandwiches and coffee or light television snack. Children love it too for it looks so pretty it gives a lift to appetites whether old or young and its fresh fruit flavor, teamed with rich whipped cream give appetizing nutrition. Here is Mrs. Alexander's recipe for:

Fruit Fluff

1 package lemon Jello 1/2 cup hot water

2 tablespoons lemon juice 1/2 cup orange juice ¼ teaspoon salt

¼ cup grape halves

1/4 cup mayonnaise 4 cup orange segments (membrane removed) 14 cup drained pineapple tidbits

2 tablespoons quartered Mara schino Cherries 2 tablespoons chopped nuts

1 cup heavy cream whipped Dissolve Jello in water and coo! Add orange juice, lemon juice and salt, and blend slowly into the mayonnaise. Place in refrigerator until slightly thickened and then

Have you heard of the March I'll see you next week

Several years ago the automobile horn was outlawed in Memphis, Tenn. A special ordinance made it illegal to sound the slightest beep inside the city limits because police and safety officials thought horn blowing was more of a nuisance than a necessity. It had some surprising results.

By D. C. Kinsey

Many taxicabs disconnected their horns. Drivers said the temptation to blow their horn in traffic was always great and it was safer to remove them. An elbow might touch the horn accidentally which could prove both costly and embarassing.

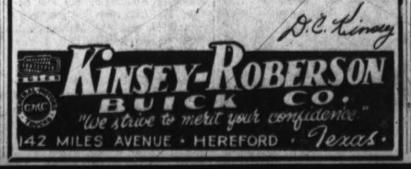

Fines for violation of the anti-horn blowing law ranged from $10 upwards. It was effective, and visitors to the city often commented on how quiet Memphis was.

A group of women in the East Memphis Women's Club asked the city to install an automobile horn in the museum or set one up in a park so children would know what one looked and sounded like.

A visiting motorist from Mississippi evaded the ban on horn blowing. He attached an electric doorbell to the side of his car and drove through the heart of Memphis ringing his bell merrily. Police scratched their heads, but allowed him to proceed. Motorists and pedestrians guffawed.

If all the motorists in the world were wide awake and all the pedestrians watched where they were going, there would be no need for automobile horns. But I know many a tight spot a polite beep-beep of the horn has got me out of. All the cars on our used car lot have horns, a wide variety of sounds because we have a wide variety of used cars. All the horns work because we don't sell any cats in Memphis, Tent., and everything else in the cars we sell works too.

And don't forget folks, that it's time to have your Annual Automobile Safety Inspection. The stickers must be on your car by April 1st, and it would be a good idea to have it done now before the rush.

The crowd milled over the entire building, generally concluding their inspection at the new gymnasium. where Parent-Teacher leaders were in charge of refreshments. Members of the Future Teachers association and the Student Council acted as hosts for the tour, wearing badges which invited the visions to ask questions.

The new building, which has been occupied since Dec. 21, is designed for 625 students and is arranged so additions can be built as they are needed.

a "hobo child." She said it was difficult to understand the existence of public buildings in which no one lived. She was amazed to learn that there were laws requiring people to go to schoola privilege in her eyes, rather a requirement.

"Who has the right to complain" asked Mrs. Davis, "until they have taken advantage of all the schools, the libraries and churches have to offer?" Once enrolled in school, Mrs.

Davis, as a hobo child, shifted from town to town and from school to school and, always, she found interested devoted teachers. "I know that polished shoes and stiff collars are nice," she said, "but they don't help you to spell a whit better."

Existence of a democracy which ecognizes even the most lowly citizen, she still finds exciting. "It was a revelation to me when I learned that the tax payers banded themselves together to construct buildings which they didn't live in," she declared, then with a smile recalled an incident which proved her point:

"As the outstanding girl in my graduation class (250 students), I thought as I stood on the platform about the outstanding boy who shake god alread of me. His father was an influential citizen and-just the very night before-I had gone to this boy's father, who also served as chairman of the Welfare Board, to a problem of the same proportion is facing most feed companies in mixing about 1/3 oz. of stilbestrol into one ton of cattle feed

The Food and Drug Administration in its approval for use of stilbestrol has set about 1/3 oz. per ton as the right amount for this powerful growth stimulant. That means it is added in the proportion of only 1 part to 90,800 parts. It must be mixed so that cattle get just the right amount...too little stilbestrol in their ration won't produce maximum gains . . . too much in their ration can prove toxic. WAYNE EDWARDS

Community Builders

"Hereford is the Lest thing that ever happened to me." Wayne Edwards commented the other dayand Hereford feels that Wayne Edwards is one of the best things that ever happened to Hereford.

Active in all civic projects and in church work at the Methodist Church, where he has served for several years on the Board of Stewards. Wayne feels that he owes the community something, instead of just making a living from the

One of the first projects he helped with after coming to Hereford was selling stock and helping or ganize the Hereford Golf Club.

Then Hereford decided to build a hotel; so, again, Wayne pitched in and helped sell stock and boost the hotel organization until finally it was built.

One of the first big conventions to be held in Hereford after the new hotel was built was the Distriet Lions Convention in 1951-

Speaking from a minister's standpoint, Rev Wingert discussed "Religion and Mental Health" saying in part: "Mental, spiritual and physical life are so closely bound together that it must be considered as a whole. It is essential that man have something with which he can defeat the complexity of circumstances which surround him and such influnces as fear, shock, hate, resentment and guilt that bring on complexes to beseige the soul. Religion is vital to thought, mind and body and that is where mental health comes in. Man must have a set of values by which to govern his way of life, and if man could really know the meaning of love as Christ meant, there would not be so many problems for man

The first of two programs on "Meeting Today's Problems" was presented at the L'Allegra Study Club session held Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Wayne Lean, and the hostesse

The program for the afternoon had to do with "Alcohol in the Home" and the quotation "Never let a bad habit start-remember. food sticks easier to a pan that's been burned before," from grandmother's time.

Mrs. Jack Brown, program leader, gave a comparison of United Wednesday afternoon. States and other countries in the alcohol consumption and that the Synod. United States ranks fifth.

She quoted authoritative writers who agree that the basic cause of so much alcoholism is a neurotic response pattern which is evidenced the same in any country, for the Farm and Ranch Club and concluded by listing danger signals that may be recognized in time for the individualtocontrol the impulse to drink.

For some time it has been our desire to establish a congregation in Hereford. Now our desires and hopes are to become a reality. We will meet for the first time Sunday January 23rd. This congregation shall endeavor to speak as the oracles of God and practice New Testament Christianity. We will not practice nor endorse those who do practice and teach the following:

SUNDAY SCHOOL OR BIBLE .CLASSES: The early disciples did not divide into classes nor use women teachers in the assemblies. One male speaker spoke at the time to the assembly, and the women were silent. 1 Cor. 14:31-35. Women are to teach (Titus 2) but not in the assembly.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC: The Lord gives christians the commund to sing. Nowhere do we have the command to play an instrument in the services of the New Testament church. Eph (5:19; Col. 3:16) The music of our voices with the melody in our hearts will please the Lord.

THE SO-CALLED MINISTER SYSTEM: Paul commanded the elders of Ephesus to feed and oversee the flock or church of God. (Acts 20:28) If we can pay a preacher to do our teaching or feeding could we not pay him to do our praying also? This system is the result of irresponsible elders in

ONE CONTAINER HERESY: To use one container is not wrong but to bind the use of one container is going beyond the word of God. The cup of the Lord is not the container but the New Testament in His blood, and a communion of the blood of Christ. (1 Cor, 11:25 etc.)

PLACE OF MEETING: (Temp. location) county court room in the Court House.

TIME OF MEETING: 2:30 P.M. Sunday 23rd and succeeding Sundays.

LET'S TALK PIGS

There is possibly no farm animal that can bring greater returns, yet is more neglected than the hog. Many farmers let pigs shift for themselves, when with a little extra care they would make him extra returns.

And there is no time that a sow requires greater attention than during her period of gestation. That's when the right food really counts.

Ever bear of P. C. C. Pig and Sow Feeds? They contain all the necessary proteins and vitamins to carry a sow during this period up to weaning time. This special feed, scientifically prepared, comes in both Pellet and Crumble form and is intended to be used as a supplemental ration. It will not only maintain a better-broad sow, but will develop a healthier and better pig - the kind that in turn can be finished quicker and better for a profitable pork market.

How Much Does It Cost To Be Happy?

Efficiency experts and business tycoons frequently classify all people as salesmen. Some people sell merchandise, some sell the products of their imagination; Still others sell their personality. Employees sell their time, along with their ability.

The reasoning is, to a certain extent, true. When you throw people into the broad classification of salesmen, however, you get only one side of the picture. Considered from the standpoint of the individual, his ability as a purchaser is even more important than his ability as a salesman.

The average man in the Panhandle probably takes in from $120,000 to $150,000 during his working years, although some may acquire much more. What the average man does with this money means, in the long run, much more to him than the hours spent in acquiring it.

Some people who make $50 a week build their own home, rear well trained families and find time to contribute to general improvement of their community and to the welfare of their country. Still others, who make $100 a week, are unhappy, homeless and have broken families. The situation, too, can be just as easily reversed. In either case, however, we would say that the happy man is the one who spends his money wisely.

Will Summerfield Follow Up In 2002?

The folks out at Summerfield turned the hands back 47 years on the "clocks of time" when they banded together to donate time, labor and individual work to construct a new modern church for the People who have heard of the incident have only words of praise for the accomplishment and, while we heartly agree, we cannot help but wonder if these tributes are being aimed in the right direction.

Summerfield's first church was built in 1907 - a.d it was built by the predecessors and forefathers of the men and women who are sweating and toiling on the Summerfield church today. Other improvements have been made in the community along the same pattern during the years that intervened.

In 2002 -- 47 years from now -- the church now under construction will no doubt be inadequate and obsolete. The people of Summerfield will again need a modern church. Will they have the undaunted courage, the humble faith and the ambition to follow in the footsteps of their grandmothers and grandfathers as have the residents of Summerfield today?

In the true answer to this question activates the ergise which the folks of Summerfield honestly deserve. What mey are doing now is wonderful. It indeed mertis tribute, but that same praise, many times fold, goes to the pioneers who built the first church in 1907 -- and who still found time to instill their children, their neighbor's children, and the unborn children to follow, with the deep faith necessary to overcome any obstacles in order to have a place to worship.

Such a heritage is priceless, indeed

In areas where social barriers are stressed more diligently than Texas, it is not unusual at all to find members of an almost penniless family "accepted", while the rich man may never penetrate the barrier. Again, you have an example of the importance of the purchasing power of the individual in a complex maze of human society.

Most people today are so busy making money that they completely forget the imporportance of spending it well and wisely. Most of us direct our spending through immediate selfish desires and needs, seldom placing the yardstick of time and ultimate happiness on our purchases. Often our desires become so intense that we might even be likened to the drunkard who spends his entire check on whiskey, only to awaken the next morning filled with remorse because his family may go hungry during the next week.

It is a wise man indeed, who can spend his money -- and his life -- in such a fashlon that he discovers contentment and happiness. Some people can buy these things on an income of $1,000 a year, others buy the same thing for $1 million dollars a year. Thousands of people could not buy the important commodities, regardless of their income, whether it be high or low.

We agree, "Salesmanship of Ourselves" is important. In the long run, though, it does not begin to compare in importance with the manner in which we invest and spend our dollars and ourselves as we go through life. People who build their earning ability around the Golden Rule seem to find the same rule most applicable in their spending.

Poll Tax Time

"I wish I had paid my poll tax."

How many times have you heard that statement? Often, we are sure, for offelection years such as 1955 generally wind up that way.

This year, however, voters will definately elect a mayor and two city commissioners. They will also elect school board members in regular scheduled elections. In addition, the possibilities are excellent for bond issues within the city and school district. The possibility of a county-wide airport bond election is also to be considered.

Because we sincerely feel that such elections should represent the majority, rather than just a few people, The Brand again calls attention to the poll tax dead-line of January 31. We hope that people will throng the courthouse before that time.

By excercising their voices at the polls, the people have made the United States a great nation.

City Improves Dump Grounds

Summerfield honestly deserve. What mey are doing now is wonderful. It indeed merits tribute, but that same praise, many times fold, goes to the pioneers who built the Classified for many years as a community eye-sore, the dump grounds have long been a problem. Once before the city adopted a similar system, later abandoning it under pressure of help shortages.

The fact that the City Commission recogthat they are taking steps to remove it nizes the program is important, and the fact are even more important. The dump grounds as they stand today, are a definate reflection on the community which any tourist is about to enter. They may not make or break the town, but they do have some effect upon the visiting stranger.

The situation can be improved only through a long-time, planned program such as the city has now adopted. Five years from new, the place may be an attractive spot -- but do not expect the impossible. Meanwhile, give those commissioners a pat on the back for their interest and foresight They travel a long road, seldom interspersed with words of praise.

The man who looks before he leaps often gives the other fellow a chance to get in ahead of him.

No man should have reason to complain if he is measured by his own yardstick.

Reserve Military Plan Draws Likes, Dislikes

Do you think President Eisenhower's proposed military program of shifting the emphasis on military service from a large number of men on active duty to a large number of men on reserve duty is good? And why? MRS. TONY BURRUS:

I would like it better to have it shifted that way. I think that we need the trained men but I still hate for them to have to be away from home for any length of time."

JOHN BENSON:

I personally like the other way better because with the new program you would be tied up for 10 years. With the old plan you would get your service done fast and have it off your mind, although a lot of people do prefer the new plan.

JAMES WELCH:

I think it is a pretty good idea to give some of the fellows that aren't in some training. I sure do prefer it to being in the service for two years.

OSCAR EASLEY:

Personally I don't believe in compulsary military training but military training may be necessary. I still can't favor it however.

J. C. REESE:

I can see some advantages in that the methods of modern warfare would require more specialized services and less manpower. It would also release a number of men for more productive work. Overall the program probably would be good if we can defend our country with fewer men in the armed forces. If not it wouldn't be good.

MRS. A. J. SELF;

I think that the boys would like the new program better because at the end of the six months they would be pretty well able to go ahead and plan their own lives instead of having to wait so long to call their lives their own.

Standing room only -- and hardly that -- at the School Dedication on Thursday night shows that people are definately interested in our fine school system. Without question all who heard Mrs. Davis had a greater appreciation of the building than when they went in.

We can recall how happy we were as a second grader when we moved from an old frame two-story building to a new brick; where we divished high school.

The president of the town's only bank stood at the door and gave every school child a nickle and as tempted as we were by all the candy in the showcase of the drug store we kept the nickle as a souviner.

Some of the high school youngsters complain about being deprived of their chewing gum, but if they have the pride in the new building that they should have the regulation shouldn't bother them. Laws and regulations only get in the way of those who break them, so if you object to the regulation then maybe you haven't learned to have the respect you should for public property.

We asked Mrs. Bess Werner, who has such a wonderful sense of humor, what she thought about it all and her reply was "I was just wondering how smart we would have been if we had had a chance to go to a school like this."

A lot of women are trying to see who can get the most out of an evening gown.

Don't know why they call 'em slacks when there's never any slack in them.

It's bad enough to be a quitter, but it's worse to finish something you never should have started.

The Sheriff' Reports

If I can keep my eyes open, will try writing a little. Neal, Day Thompson (Oldham County Sheriff) and I worked all night rounding up three young men that had stolen some 26 batteries in Deaf Smith and Oldham counties. The boys lived in Amarilio, were late going home and when they got home saw us coming and took off on foot. Two or three hours later we had them rounded up, thanks to very fine co-operation of two Potter County night Deputies,

If you think the wind wasn't cold about 2 A.M. Thursday you should have been out prowling around on foot in Amarillo.

We had a good long uneventful trip to Los Angeles and back. I sure am a small town boy. Those L. A. people drive too fast and furious for me.

We think we have a lot of people in custody when we have 10 or 12. In the Hall of Justice alone, Los Angeles Sheriff's Department had about 3400. The county has other jails, plus their County prisoner road labor crews. Trying to get something done in their Hall of Justice is about like trying to get from L. A. to Hollywood when you are turned around in your directions. What a mess. I still like Deaf Smith County and Hereford.

Was asked to explain the meaning of theft by bailee which is a felony in the State of Texas. About the most simple way, I know to explain theft by bailee is thusly: I lend you my car to go to Amarillo and you are to return at an approximate time or date. When you get to Amarillo you decide to go to Kalamzaoo without first consulting me. This constitutes theft by bailee which as I said before is a felony in Texas.

Lots of work to do and besides that I'm getting sleepy, so that's all for this week, with this closing question; Do you know what your teen-ager is doing when he or she is out at night?

Lloyd E. Brownell, supervisor of the University's Fission Products Laboratory, says the process does not harm the potatoes nor spoil their taste.

TONIC HAIRDOS

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. On Ask any woman to name a few of the greatest feminine morale boosters and chances are she'll place a new hairdo at the top of the list. Seven Grand Rapids hair stylists know that too, and so they've become far and away the most popular visitors to women at the Maple Grove Home for the Aged.

The hairdressers donate their services each Monday free of charge, giving permanents as well as hair settings to about 100 women at the home. All the necessary equipment was donated by area beauty shop operators. The regular beauty treatments do much to perk up the spirits of women at the home.

"It proves that beauty is more than skin deep," says Kenneth Stout, Maple Grove superintendent. "This is the nicest thing I've seen in a long time."

NEW LABOR CAMP

A labor camp that will accommodate 20 families with living quarters and good sanitary facilities is due to go up beginning this week on a 3.3 acre site lying east of 12th street in Floydada. The builders . . . seven in number . . . organized themselves into the Floydada Growers and Producers Association here Friday night. Coincidental with the begining of the labor camp, the association also contracted for the purchase of a modern grader and brushes unit for onions and potatoes. These will be installed in the vegetable shed on the Quanah Acme and Pacific right-of-way where the association has rented quarters for the next season.

FOUR LÂNE HIGHWAY

Lamb County Commissioners Thursday went on record in favor of the state proposed four-lane divided highway connecting Lubbock with Clovis, but pointed out that a $350,000 bond issue would be necessary to finance the county's cost of acquiring rights-of-way for about 32 miles. County Judge Robert Kirk announced following the meeting that "if folks are willing to obligate themselves for a $350,000 bond issue, we'll hold an election when we are duly requested to do so."

MOST ACCURATE ROPE TOSSER

Sheirff L. S. Johnson tossed a rope 75 feet to a man and boy who were clinging to a cliff in the Palo Duro Park Sunday night. It was the most accurate throw of the year, stated J. H. Buchanan, owner of the scenic railroad, who assisted in the recovery of Hobart Brown and his son, Mickey. The pair had climbed Capital Peak and were returning when darkness overtook them, and they found they could neither go up nor down. The father was trapped for three hours, and his son four hours in the chilly night air.

BOOTLEG

-Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher has found out the Legislature is in session, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editar:

When you get right down to it, the other fellow's problems aren't much different from your own, the man who is trying to figure out how he can buy a new washing machine is offset on one side by the man who is trying to figure out how he can buy a new wash pot and on the other by the man who is trying to figure out how he can buy a second automobile or, in a higher bracket, a new office building, and long of to thinking about this after reading about the opening of the Texas Legislature last week in Austin.

After reading fourteen columns of type on the Legislature in three different newspapers which turned up out here with the help of a strong north wind, I have come to the conclusion that the average lawmaker's problem is about the same as yours and mine; he's either got to cut expenses or bring in more revenue, and either course ain't gonna result in universal happiness.

And figuring but how to do either is about as hard in the Legislature as it is at home, although of the two I believe I'd rather just have the problem at home, as I figure most Legislators are under double jeopardy, they've not only got the problem at home but in the Legislature as well.

And also, the job in Austin is a little more complicated. At home, if you decide to cut expenses, you don't make over three or four people mad at the most, and half of them stay half-mad at you anyway. But in the Legislature, you cut expenses and you're liable to make two-thirds of the people in your district mad.

Or, if you decide to increase your income at home, it mostly means working harder yourself, but in the Legislature, it means voting for somebody else to work harder, which is one of the poorest ways ever devised to stay in office. You vote for two-thirds of the people in your district to work harder by paying more taxes, and it's almost as effective as firing yourself at the next election.

Personally, I'm glad my only problem is worrying about the finances of this Johnson grass farm, without taking on the whole State of Texas. I know my limitations, even if some Legislators can't say the same for themselves.

However, I've noticed that the state, like the average family, keeps on getting by, one way or another, although personally I don't see how.

Yours faithfully,

J. A. .
