BUYERS TO GET DAYS WORK

Lions Planning Slave Auction

How would you like to have a real, live slave? A fellow who would do your bidding for a whole day?

Friday, August 28, will provide you with the opportunity when more than 100 members of the Hereford Lions Club will go on the auction block for sale to the highest bidder. Each successful buyer will, within the following week, put his Lion "slave" to task on any job he desires. The Lions will mow lawns, wash windows, scrub floors, wait tables, drive tractors—and probably quite a few other things before the day ends.

The auction will be held at the noon hour at Hotel Jim Hill in a combined meeting of service clubs, according to T. E. Seigler and Raylan Evans, co-chairman on the project. In addition to Rotary, Kiwanis, Jaycees, B.P.W., Garden Clubs, study clubs and other organizations, the general public is also invited to attend the session and to bid on any Lions Club member they wish.

To Help Buy Scoreboard
Proceeds from the sale of members will be used to supplement recent Lions Carnival earnings for payment of Hereford's new electric football scoreboard. Approximately $750 is needed to complete payment on the board, according to J. W. Robinson Jr., Lion President who added: "and the board is already here."

Draft Board Reclassifies 102 County Men

One hundred and two men were reclassified at the meeting of the local draft board Tuesday night. Of this number, 38 were classified into V-A; 29 into I-A; 3 into IC-Disc.; 8 into III-A; 3 into IC-Res.; 4 into IC-Enl.; 3 into IC-Ind.; 2 into II-C; 2 into I-D; 1 into II-S and 1 into IS(C).

Classifications are Class I—I-A, registrant available for military service; I-D, qualified member of reserve component, or student taking military training, including ROTC and accepted aviation cadet applicant.

Class II—II-C, agricultural deferment, and II-S, student deferment. Class III—III-A, extreme hardship deferment, or registrant with a child or children.

Class V—V-A, registrant over the age of liability for military service.

Classifications V-A
George C. Loerwald, John H. Johnston, Don C. Edwards, Charles J. Lance, Royce E. Boyce, Owen E. White, Manis R. Foster, Joseph H. Batenhorst, Rupert M. Ott, Ralph Shirley, James C. Palmer, Charles W. Hereford State Bank And The Brand Join In Safety Campaign

Death is riding the highways, and the Grim Reaper is becoming a passenger in more cars as the rate of speed increases. To help meet the growing threat of speed, the No. 1 killer on the highways, the Hereford Brand and the Hereford State Bank are joining 9,000 other newspapers from coast-to-coast in the national Newspaper Highway Safety Program.

Last year, highway deaths had increased to 28,200, up more than 6,000 a year from the 1949 average, and could reach an estimated 31,000 before this year is over.

During the same period, fatal accidents in towns—urban areas—has been decreasing.

Price Too Great
"The price Americans are paying for their speed thrills on the highway is too great," Thomas N. Boate, manager of the accident prevention department of the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies, has said. "The cost in lives from the use of vehicles with built-in super-speeds that should never be used on the public highways is too great. The cost runs into many thousands of lives lost in rural accidents caused by excessive speeds and hundreds of thousands of injured victims."

The first of a series of ads concerning this problem may be found opposite the editorial page. Read it. THE LIFE YOU SAVE MAY BE YOUR OWN.

Pioneer Reunion Speech Scheduled By Rev. Dunnam

Rev. S. M. Dunnam, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Hereford and former pastor of the First Methodist Church of Littlefield, has been chosen speaker for the fifth annual Lamb County Pioneer Reunion to be held in Littlefield August 25.

Anyone who was a resident of Lamb County up to and including the year 1926 is eligible to belong to the pioneer group. Business session for the program will begin at 2 o'clock, and a barbecue will be held at 6 o'clock. Square dancing will take place that night.

Fender Dented In Minor Accident At Intersection

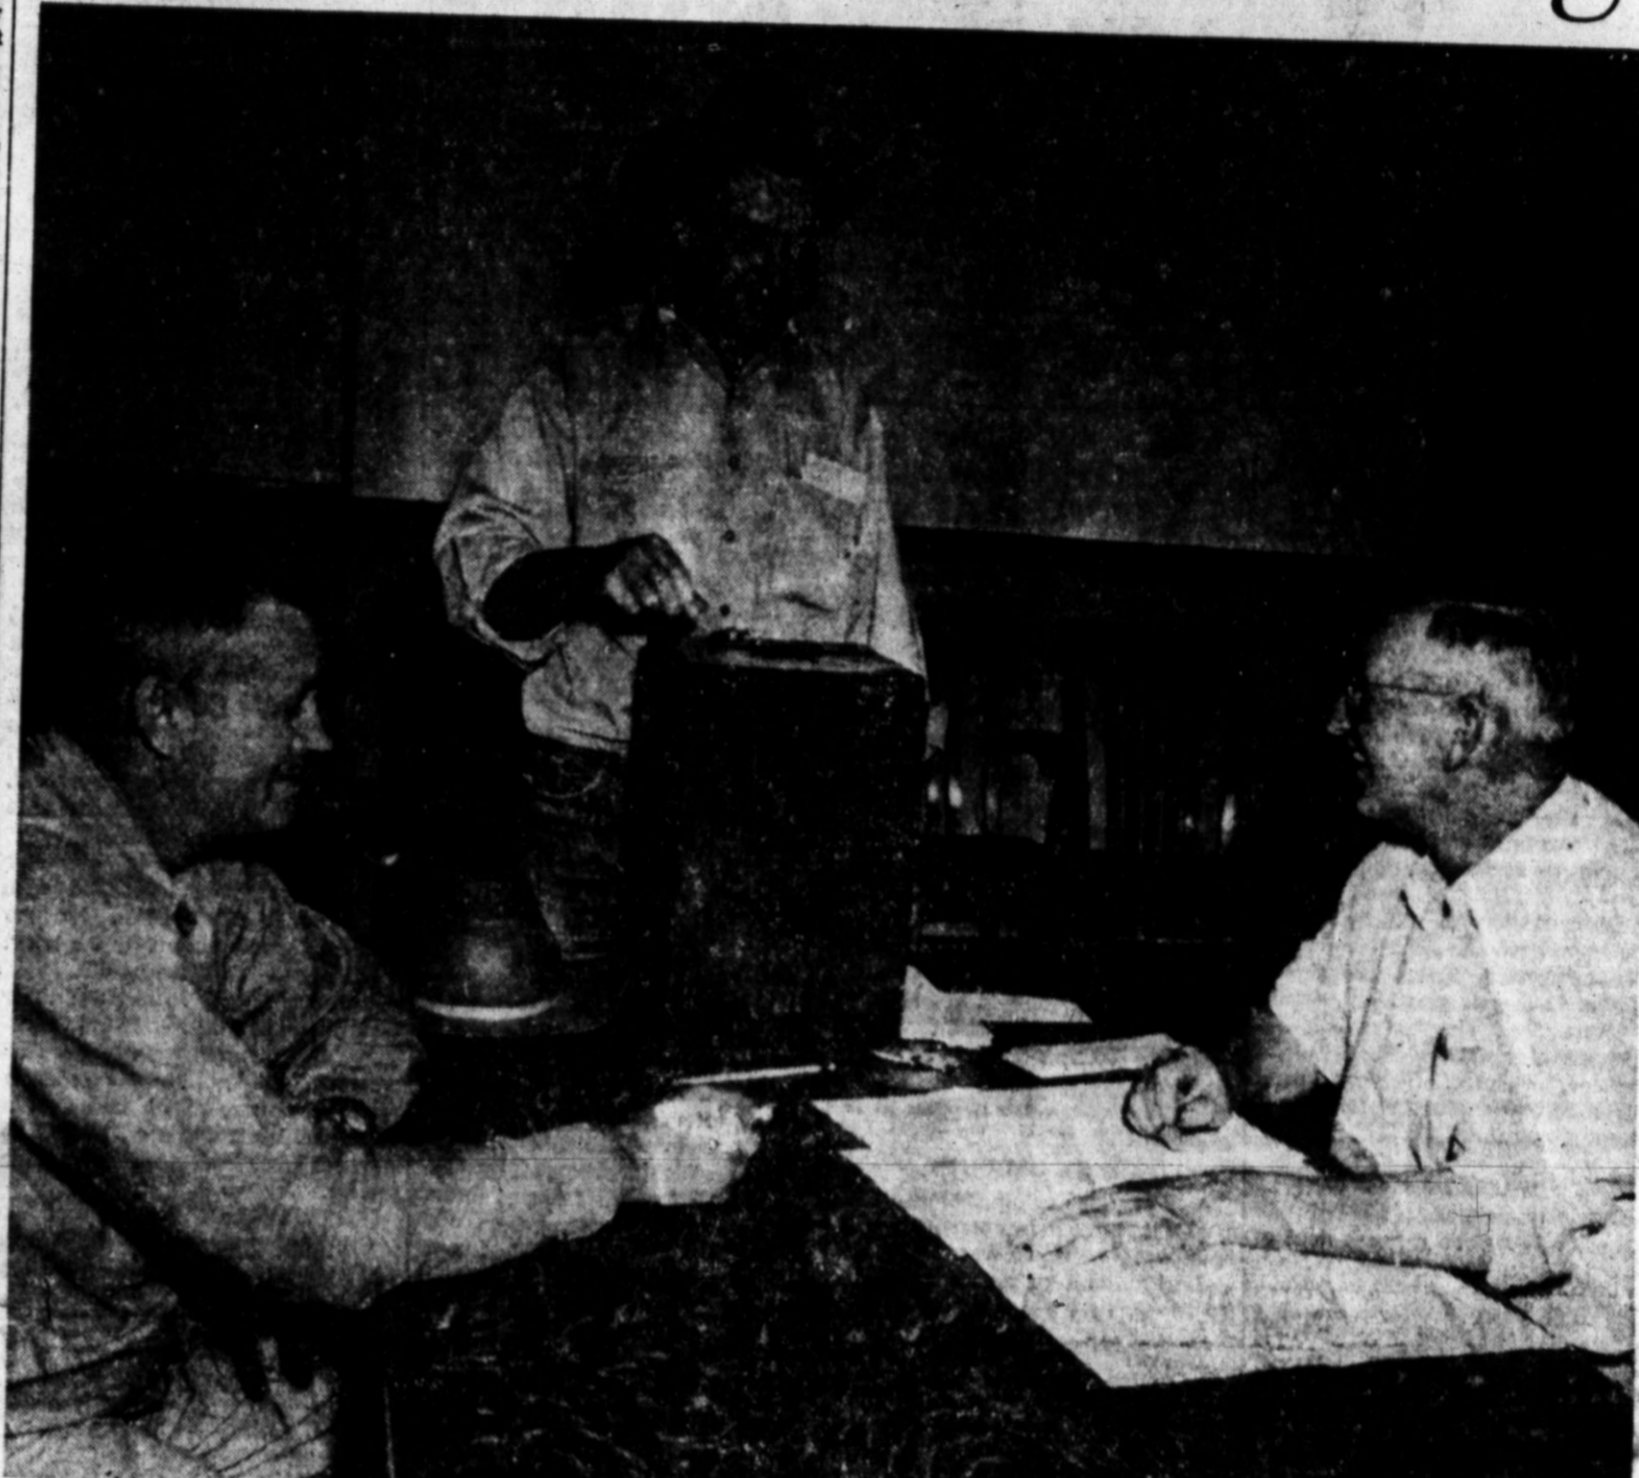

Minor damages occurred in an accident here early Saturday morning at the intersection of Highway 60 and 51.

Audel Cole Jones, driving a 1941 Dodge pickup, had stopped at the intersection when the motor of his car died. When Jones took his foot off the brake, the car rolled back into a 1951 Studebaker, driven by John Patrick Needham.

Fender Dented
The bumper of the pickup made a dent in the left front fender of the Studebaker.

Damages were estimated at $25 to the Studebaker, according to investigating officers.

Marketing Quotas On Wheat Approved For Coming Year

SATURDAY THE SMILES WERE BIGGER on the faces of most Deaf Smith County wheat farmers when they learned that, nation-wide, a majority of wheat producers had voted in favor of the wheat marketing quotas on their activities. Shown at a polling place Friday in the Deaf Smith County Courthouse are Leonard Click, left, Bob McQuigg, who had just dropped his ballot in the box, and Jim Neill of the voting committee. (Staff Photo) better a bushel for their wheat, rather than 50 percent of parity, or about $1.20 a bushel, caused them to vote in favor of the government controls on their activities. Farmers Vote Favorably 22-1 In Deaf Smith

Wheat marketing quotas were approved by a majority of the nation's wheat growers Friday, with Deaf Smith County growers voting more than 22-to-1 in favor of the quotas which will also give them a 90 percent of parity support price.

Votes counted unofficially Friday night showed 489 for, and only 22 against the imposition of the quotas.

Incomplete, unofficial returns, which had reached Washington by Saturday morning showed 153,291 votes for, and 33,148 against, or a favorable margin of 80 percent. Only 66 and two-thirds percent of a favorable vote is required to put the quotas into effect.

Farmers Happier
Wheat farmers in and around Hereford were much happier and relieved Saturday than they were Friday, when rumors had been heard that some of the other wheat states might vote heavily against the proposition.

"I would rather have 100 acres of wheat and know that I was going to get $2 a bushel for it, than to have my whole farm planted, and wonder whether I would get enough out of it to even pay my costs," one farmer commented.

Without Quotas, Lower Prices
Had the quotas been rejected by the nation's wheat farmers, the price of wheat would have been supported in 1954 at 50 percent of parity, about $1.20 a bushel.

Wide Margins in Favor of the Marketing Quotas were noted in five Panhandle counties which produce wheat.

Potter County votes showed 118 for the quotas and 5 against; in Oldham County the vote was 445 for to 31 against.

In Hale County, the vote was almost 90 percent in favor of the quotas, being 445 for and only 31 votes against.

Castro One-Sided
Castro County turned in the most one-sided vote in the area, with 963 votes for, and only 20 votes against.

Wives of wheat producers in Texas helped to swing the vote, as they are allowed to cast their ballots under the community property laws.

With a guarantee of price supports once more, farmers are already beginning to think about the need for rain which will mean the difference between a light or heavy grain crop next year on dry land, and recent thunderstorms hold promise of an end to the long drought.

Members of the refreshment committee are Billy Don Combs, Betty Lou McQuigg, Don Parsons, Mrs. C. A. Sauley, and Patsy Townsend. Recreation will be singing, quiet and active games.

More Than 2,000 Students Expected For Schools Here

Overflowing Hereford schools will have about 2,000 students studying over 85 or 86 teachers, according to Superintendent George Graham. Some 170-180 additional students over the number enrolled last year are expected, and almost that many will begin their school year in special classrooms in the churches, Graham said.

In addition, the two barracks buildings which house the seventh and eighth grades will continue in use. More than 200 students are expected to study in the two buildings this fall.

Could Use Every Room
"Actually, we could use every room in the new high school building if it was finished, right now," Graham said.

If every child between the ages of six and 18 now living in the Hereford area were to be enrolled in Hereford schools, the jam would be even greater, for there are a total of 2,445 shown on the school census, but about 400 of these will not be enrolled for various reasons, experience has shown.

Thirty Or Less
"We try to keep classes to thirty students or less, particularly in the grade schools," Graham continued. "It isn't always possible to do that in high school particularly in some courses."

Notices have already been sent out to the parents of all first-grade students that pre-enrollment for that group of students will be held on Friday, September 4, starting about 10 o'clock in the morning.

Pre-enrollment for high school students some time the week before school officially gets underway on September 8 (Tuesday) is also planned, but no exact date has been set for that as yet.

Most In First Grade
According to the school census, the first graders should number more this year than any other

4-H Family Party Set For Saturday In Central School

The annual 4-H club party to entertain the families of 4-H club members will be held Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the Central school gymnasium.

Each 4-H'er should bring enough homemade cookies for his or her family and bring some fruit juice for the punch, according to Argen Draper, county home demonstration agent.

Committee Members
Members of the recreation committee are Ann Dyer, Mistress of Ceremonies; Donna Sue-Guseman, Martha Heard, Larry Kaul, Ralph Morrison, Jimmy Northcutt, Mrs. E. K. Pinnell and Colby Conkright.

Members of the refreshment committee are Billy Don Combs, Betty Lou McQuigg, Don Parsons, Mrs. C. A. Sauley, and Patsy Townsend. Recreation will be singing, quiet and active games.

Postal Receipts Show Increase Over Same Period Last Year

All bank transactions in Hereford were lower during July of this year than they were during July a year ago, but gross postal receipts were up, and money orders bought here showed an increase, according to the Chamber of Commerce.

Clearings—interbank transactions—for July were $3,529,349.41, compared to $3,249,916.69 for the same period last year.

Deposits
There was a total of $8,280,355.90 deposited in Hereford banks during the month, and $8,515,819.78 checked out during the same period. Deposits at the end of the month remained at $8,901,579.69.

Last year, there was $9,927,845.81 still on deposit when July ended, there had been $11,145,522.94 deposited during the month, and $9,045,272.71 checked out of accounts. Postal Receipts
Gross postal receipts this year were $5,727.48 for the month, compared to $5,300.65 last year during July. Money order sales increased $2,960.03 for this July over July of 1952, going from $52,261.33 to $55,021.36.

All utilities showed an increase, with water meters leading the list. These have increased 152 to 1,799; electric meters increased 117 to 2,473; gas meters increased 56 to 1,937, and telephones have increased 104 to 2,081.

This July there were five marriages, 37 births, and seven deaths recorded in the county, compared to seven marriages, 24 births, and six deaths during July of 1952.

There were more building permits issued this year, but the construction is scheduled to cost less. Seven permits were issued for $20,450 worth of construction, compared to six permits for $70,000 worth of construction last year.

Accident Victim Getting Ready To Rejoin Parents

Dawn—Last Monday was a red letter day in the life of Emma Jernigan, when she was released from her plaster cast which has encased her from just above the waist to her toes, and the doctor assured her that before long she will be walking again.

Just four months ago—on Easter morning, April 5th—four young people were on their way to the Easter sunrise services at Palo Duro Park when they had a car wreck, and Emma's legs were broken in three different places. Emma was in the hospital for about two weeks and was put in a cast. Then she was moved to her home about six miles north of Dawn.

Soon after, Emma's father became critically ill and Emma's mother had to take him to a distant city for medical treatment.

Moved To Parsonage
It was then that Emma was moved to the parsonage next to the Baptist Church in Dawn. There Rev. and Mrs. Paul McClung and their five-year-old son Kenneth reside.

EMMA JERNIGAN, who had her legs broken in three different places in a wreck about four months ago, will soon be walking again, her doctor told her August 5. Emma and three other young people were on their way to attend the Easter sunrise services at Palo Duro Park when they had the accident.

Around Town

The Jaycees tennis tournament is still moving slowly. Bruce Miller and Dr. J. W. Barnett were scheduled to play Saturday afternoon, the first game of importance in about a week, according to Berry Green of the tournament committee.

Jimmie Gillentine and family started their vacation trip Saturday morning with probably the biggest sack of "popped" popcorn ever seen around these parts, compliments of his friend Francis Hardwick. Buz and Sarah will probably get more good out of the popcorn than Jimmie will, though.

A notice received from the Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center in Lubbock announces that they will hold an examination day for cerebral palsied children on September 14.

FOUR PERSONS WERE INJURED when the 1953 Ford, right, skidded out of control west of Friona Thursday afternoon and was hit broadside by a grain truck. A shoplifter who tried to bring the stolen goods back for a "refund" Friday found himself the object of pursuit by an irate store manager and the police, but managed to elude capture. That gag had been worked here before, so there was less chance of its working this time.

County attorney Ed Line is spending his days studying the law and waiting for the harvest season to pass so juries can be called in criminal cases without inconveniencing too many people. He is expecting to learn a lot more about legal loopholes when he gets into court.

A gasoline truck which made a delivery to the W. A. Powell place 11 miles northwest of Hereford did a wholesale job of killing rattlesnakes during the trip. He saw one rattler and drove over it, and there were 11 little ones there which will never get a chance to do any damage, either, Mrs. Powell said.

Accident...

Summer In Bed Here, Emma, who will be 15 this month, spent the summer on a hospital type bed. First taking examinations and finishing her school work, she read, learned to do needlepoint, made a tiny doll, and learned to sew, not only by hand, but on the machine which was placed close to her bed.

Emma would turn across her bed, working the foot feed with her hand. In this position she also worked jigsaw puzzles by the hour. During the June heat, Bro. Paul, for her comfort, installed an air conditioner and saw to it that lighting was just right for reading and working puzzles. He borrowed a neighbor's car, which has a seat that can be made into a bed to move Emma and took her to the doctor.

Brace For Leg On Wednesday, August 5, Emma's doctor put a brace, which she will wear for the next three or four months, on her leg. Emma is now ready to learn how to walk again, with the aid of crutches. She hopes to go to Sherman to her new home in a few weeks, and enter school this fall.

Aggies Asked To Buy Tickets To Barbecue

Plans are being laid here to sell tickets to a barbecue to be held in Lubbock on October 10, when Texas Tech plays Texas A&M, according to Gerald McCaskill. The barbecue, which will honor the A&M band, is being provided through the sale of special tickets. Former A&M students are being asked to purchase tickets at $2.50 each, with half of that money going to pay for the meal for a band member.

Other Tickets

Tickets for the wives and children of Aggies will cost only $1.25 each. The meal is scheduled to be held at 5 o'clock the afternoon of October 10 in the Animal Husbandry pavilion at Texas Tech. Those who have tickets on sale in Hereford are Gerald McCaskill, J. W. Robinson Jr. and John Estes.

Friona News

Mrs. E. R. Day, Correspondent — Phone 2792

By Mrs. E. R. Day, Sr.
Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wise and family left Friona Sunday for Balineau, N. D., to visit with her sister and family. They will also visit in Canada during their two weeks trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Cass Perkins have as their guest for a few days her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wright and family, of Tribby, Okla.

Mrs. Page and daughter of Friona are visiting her parents in Oklahoma this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baxter returned home Monday from Truth or Consequences, N. M., and Tuesday they left for Elk City, Okla., to visit with relatives and friends.

Visited in Tucumcari
Mr. and Mrs. Duane Wyly were in Tucumcari, N. M., visiting her parents over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Trigg and family of Berger are spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lea and his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gib Trigg.

Baxter Guests
Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Baxter and family Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Burtram Jack and Mrs. Alta Wyly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gee and children are visiting with his mother and brother at Carbon. J. T. Gee, teacher of agriculture in Friona High school, attended a meeting for agriculture teachers in Dallas last week.

Attended XIT Reunion
Miss Joyce Miller, Gay Ann and Doris Jane McFarland attended the XIT reunion in Dalhart Tuesday and Wednesday. They were accompanied to Dalhart with Press Abbott of Bovina, an old XIT hand.

Mrs. Allen Stewart has been visiting with her husband in California. He has been attending school there.

There were five babies born at the Parmer County hospital since Saturday. Sons to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rector, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Harilson, and daughters to Mr. and Mrs. George Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Galvon.

Smart Clothes for Smart Women

A great, big "Thank You" to Ike Crosthwait, Frank Daniel and F. A. Tucker for the delightful "eye-ease" green color they used on the front of the building across the street. It is wonderful. Couldn't have done any better myself. Everyone in our office appreciates their good taste. In addition, they are going to have a really nice little place. Understand they have changed their original plans for a sandwich and steak shop into a full-fledged cafe.

Kmmett and Dell Sherman are also doing a lot of building out on Highway 60. They have added a complete new kitchen, along with a special meeting and party room, to the old Western Wheel-Inn Cafe. They are slated to open this morning—and will make quite a splurge. Real nice, too. New tile. A lot of new fixtures. Hereford can stand a couple of really top-notch cafes. I hope someone specializes in those crisp, tantalizing salads. The kind that are not fattening.

Add Blue Turpin to the list of "Streamlined Men About Town." Blue is a mere shadow, but says he didn't do it by dieting. He says he started on this low calorie diet, then got to farming. All of a sudden, he started losing weight left and right. He also started eating more. Most unusual about Ole Blue is the fact that it was potatoes that made him lose his excess pounds. Most people are just the opposite. They lose pounds by never, never touching a potato. It wasn't hard work, either. Blue told me this himself. He says the hard work is only incidental when you grow potatoes. He says you worry the pounds away. Just like water continually dripping on salt. Pretty soon, no salt. You worry about labor. You worry about watering. You worry about too much rain. You worry about not enough rain. You worry about cold weather. You worry about hot weather. You worry about yields. You worry about processing. You worry about the market.

Generally, says Blue, you don't have any potatoes and the price is high—or, you have a lot of potatoes and the price will not cover picking. The best thing you can expect from a potato crop is a slim, trim athletic figure. At least, that's how Blue Turpin has the deal figured. Betty has an entirely different story—but we won't go into that.

The other night around 11:30 o'clock Bill Wolfe called up Frank Barber and wanted to know what day in August you plowed to kill Johnson grass. Frank was already in bed when the call came—and he was a little bit unhappy about the whole thing. Maybe, even a little bit abrupt with William. Frank, like "Grass Roots" Estes, figures this is a lot of hokey. He is wrong, though. There is a specified date. It's August 12. Dave Alexander says he has tried it several times. It really works. To say this is the bunk is like saying that planting by the moon is bunk. There are skeptics, I know. That's the trouble with Blue Turpin. If he had planted by the moon everything would have been OK. Even the price. The moon is a wonderful thing. When folks get too old or too involved to spoon under it, they can still use it to plant by. It gets just as good results on the planting business—as on the spooning business—and who wants better results?

Did you ever notice how smart black dogs usually are? There are exceptions, but I do honestly believe that black dogs are the smartest. Wonder why? Also, there seem to be more black strays than any other kind. Can anyone enlighten me on this subject? Maybe I am wrong?

Here's a nice letter from George Strange. George has had a lot of tough luck, but he is a good boy, and he is trying harder than anyone I ever saw. He thanks us for putting his picture in the paper. Says his box number is 162—not 462. He also has a special on the Reader's Digest: 20 months for $3. It is good until August 31 for new subscribers. He also has the Woman's Home Companion, The American Magazine and Colliers—all to one address one year—for $6, or 30 months of the Woman's Home Companion for $4; 40 issues of Colliers for $3; 18 months of American Magazine for $3.

George is a wonderful boy. He has shown more fight than a lot of soldiers with decorations. He has a spirit you can't whip. He asked to buy an ad, but I wouldn't let him. Newspapers seldom turn down ads which are legitimate, either. But this old boy deserves a helping hand. He doesn't want charity. He just wants to find a job. Something he can do that will be productive and worthwhile. He has all the good magazines. The Reader's Digest is tops. Let's shower him under with a deluge of subscriptions. Let's make next week George Strange week. Let's put heavy emphasis on the Digest. It figures 15 cents a month. It's a good deal, folks—and it will give George a new grip on life. He worries more than even Blue Turpin. He needs friendship and encouragement. Better still, drop by and see him and leave your subscription in person. It will cheer him up a lot. Remember the phone number: 9002-F-2.

Just got a note from Cecil Malone. He says come up and see Drowsy Water Ranch. We are going, too. We've been sending these "Good Neighbors" up there year after year—and I never have seen the layout. Also understand President Eisenhower is near there fishing. He is at Frazer, a little town about the size of Umbarger, probably about 30 or 40 miles from Drowsy Water. I sure hope he doesn't bother me for advice while I am up there. If he does, it will be plain "No." I'll just tell him I am on vacation and to write me a letter when he gets back to Washington. I am sure he will be reasonable. I know a lot of fellows who are nuts about trout fishing, also many who go overboard on golf. Ike is both. What a combination. He is baldheaded, besides. If he can't get things straightened out, there is little hope left.

E. B. Posey is still blowing and going. He says I am nuts, but the thing that makes me mad is that he proves it. He's a fine fellow, definitely interested in the community and, for once in his life, he is being reasonable. I like the nice things he says about the paper, especially the Bull Column. A little soft-soap goes a long way, but read it for yourself!

Attention of the "Bull Column"

Dear Jim:
Inasmuch as you admit that you are personally responsible for the statement made in your column Sunday issue of the Brand August 9th—with regard to the slogan "Town Without A Toothache" I here and now wish to offer my sincere apologies to Mr. Mullins. It is not my purpose to be critical toward anyone unjustly.

I cannot agree with you that perhaps the slogan is obsolete even though it may be somewhat misleading.

It will never die. . . I'll personally see to that.

Why are our dentists busy men? Why are our doctors busy men? Why is our hospital full to capacity and running over most of the time? Each of these questions has an answer.

We must realize since 1939 the population of Hereford and Deaf Smith County has increased almost five times and is still growing.

Our intensified agriculture program attracts thousands of people (migrant labor) during the cultivation and harvest of these crops.

I like to read the Hereford Brand—it is a newsy paper chock full of constructive writing and ideas, I enjoy the "Bull Column" . . . your space and sheet. . . you let us guys blow off surplus steam in this column. You are doing a wonderful job with your paper. . . more power to you Jimmy.

Respectfully,
E. B. Posey

Here's a little story with a moral. It is dedicated to the mothers everywhere. Everyone who likes children, especially babies, will appreciate it:

The wife came to the door of the nursery and saw her husband standing over the baby's crib. Silently, she watched him as he stood looking down at the sleeping infant. In his face she read rapture, doubt, admiration, ecstasy, incredulity, wonder. Deeply touched and with her eyes glistening she tiptoed in and slipped her arms around him. "A penny for your thoughts," she said. Startled, he blurted, "For the life of me, I don't see how anybody can make a crib like that for only $12.95."

Korean Peace Parley Faces Maze of Thorny Problems

Reds Will Hammer At Western Unity

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press Foreign News Analyst

THE United Nations General Assembly meets Monday to try to find a way to solve the insoluble, to make the impossible become possible. The delegates will be preparing for a political conference on the future of Korea. But in this conference, each key word will mean a different thing to each side. The two sides will not even be agreed on the meaning of the word "peace."

Around every corner is a dead end street. Behind every disagreement lurks the threat of a new shooting war. In the background are staggering problems, economic and political, upon whose solution depends the number of friends the United States will have left in the world.

Some time before Oct. 27, a political conference is to be called under the terms of the Korean armistice. Both the United Nations side and the Communists say the conference will concern itself with unification of the Korean nation. But agreement ends there.

The Chinese are interested in aiding the "Korean peoples democratic republic." That means a satellite Communist state. The United Nations fought for three years to keep the Korean peninsula from being transformed in its entirety into a Communist satellite.

The United States has authorized 200 million dollars, and plans to appropriate a billion in all, for economic reconstruction of Korea. Does this include North Korea? The Soviet government has announced the appropriation of a billion rubles (200 million dollars by Russian exchange calculations) for economic reconstruction of Korea. Does this include South Korea?

Curious Omission
And in this respect, there was a curious omission in the Soviet announcement, which brings up even more mysterious questions. Premier Georgi Malenkov, telling the Supreme Soviet about it last week, referred only to the "heroic Korean peoples."

Has the North Korean Communist purge any connection with this odd omission by the Soviet premier? Did the Chinese manage to throw out the Muscovite Communists from Pyongyang, and if so, why? Are the Chinese suddenly determined to assert their authority in Asia independently of Moscow?

Do the Chinese believe the Russians will be forced, willy nilly, to give them the economic and military aid they need in any event, so that they can risk such a political offense to Moscow? Will the Chinese start the Korean war all over again to force Moscow to come through?

Someone Wanted Peace
Somebody on the Communist side wanted the Korean armistice badly enough to push for it steadily through a number of incidents, any one of which would have given the Communists an excuse—if they wanted one—to call the whole thing off.

What are Chinese intentions in North Korea, Malaya, Burma and elsewhere in Asia, not excluding Japan? There has been much talk of confining the Korean conference to Korea alone, but is it possible to lift Korea out of the Asian and world picture?

And what about all talk of unification? Will either side bow to the other or what form it should take? The United States, for example, has initiated, subject to Senate ratification, a mutual security treaty with South Korean President Syngman Rhee. How can this be squared with unification, unless it is under Rhee, which the Communists surely will not accept?

The Troop Question
The pact provides for basing American troops in Korea, but any proposals in the political conference on the country's fu-

FOOD IS A WEAPON ...

THE whole campaign of Communist "hate America" propaganda has been shot full of holes by little packages of meat, canned milk and fats—worth $1.19 each. Despite recurring waves of Red threats, arrests, rail and road blockades of Berlin, hungry East Germans continued to slip across zone and sector borders into West Berlin to get the free food parcels. In 15 days, 2,113,500 relief packages were given away.

The Reds confiscated all the packages they could lay hands on. They told East Germans it was "infected food," impregnated with American polio germs but the confiscated foodstuffs, repacked by the Reds, turned up later in communist state-owned stores at exorbitant prices.

The Reds banned all listening by East Germans to RIAS, the U.S. State Department radio transmitter in West Berlin and to make that order effective opened a new jamming network to black out American programs.

The radio counterattack obviously was prompted by fear that slowdowns now crippling production in strategic East German industries might flare into a new anti-Red revolt. RIAS broadcasts were an important source of information for leaders of the June 17 uprising.

ment, although there has been strong speculation that a hydrogen device was actually detonated during A-bomb tests at Eniwetok last fall.

Two federal medical authorities agreed there is no evidence that cancer or heart disease is more likely to strike Congressmen than others.

The doctor said if the original cancer could not be identified on the basis of obvious findings on gross examination, he didn't believe it would be clarified by microscopic examination of the tissues.

The United States got its 160th millionth person about 10 a.m. last Monday—almost 9 million above the official Census figure of three years ago.

That's the verdict of a 10-foot high machine ticking away in the lobby of the Commerce Department in Washington. Census officials arranged a special ceremony to mark the event.

The machine records a net gain of one person every 12 seconds. It figures on a birth every 8 seconds and a death every 21 seconds. It also takes into account the number of persons entering and leaving the country.

U.S. Orders Study Of Foreign Trade

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press News Analyst

AMERICAN business was watching closely this week to see whether President Eisenhower would follow the even-steven pattern of congressional appointments to his new Foreign Economic Policy Commission, or whether he would attempt to lead it.

Amid the constant clamor from abroad, especially from Britain and Europe, for freer American markets to meet the situation created by the U.S. position as their universal creditor, the President suggested the commission make a thorough investigation of the whole situation.

The administration is already known to be for freer trade. But the President is expected to rely heavily on the commission's report in formulating a legislative program on the subject. The commission is to report 60 days after Congress re-convenes in January.

Commission Appointments
Vice President Nixon and Speaker Martin have now made their appointments to the commission, five members from each house.

From the Senate, Milliken and Hickenlooper are strong protectionists. Byrd and George support protectionism. From the House, Reed and Simpson are strong protectionists. Cooper and Richards are strong for reciprocal trade, Vooris an in-and-outer.

This gives the protectionists a slight but not invariable edge. The President is to appoint seven members. They could all be freer traders. But that would be out of character with his announced intention of persuading Congress rather than trying to use a bludgeon.

Two Reports
The nature of the problem and the complexion of the congressional appointments make it almost certain there will be two reports from the opposing sides. The President is looking for all the information available on which to base a sound program which will protect American business where needed and still open American markets to her friends abroad as far as economically possible.

The odds were, then, that Eisenhower's appointments would serve either to balance the Commission, or give the freer traders just enough edge so that there would be the majority report. He will also have an eye to giving foreign relations their full weight in the considerations, as against a study based solely on straight economics.

Foresee Battle
Lines are forming for a bitter battle as the Commission starts work, and in the subsequent legislative process.

The freer traders, responding to foreign appeals, largely from the British, started their campaign long ago. They include many of the great exporters and importers. With Henry Ford II they made most of the noise for long time. The banner has been carried by the United States Council on the International Chamber of Commerce.

They argue that if the United States doesn't do something other nations will have to extend their restrictions on dollar purchases, and thereby put the pressure on them to trade with the Soviet sphere which will be increased. Ford and other big manufacturers have expressed full confidence in their own ability to meet any competition in this country which may result.

The list of protectionists is nearly as long as the list of industries, large or small, which would run into direct competition. Members of Congress from coal, oil and copper areas have spoken against tariff reductions. Small industries of all sorts are forming associations and preparing to hire lobbyists for their defense.

They think they won a big battle this year by creating an atmosphere in which the Administration was afraid to move until it had taken steps, such as the work of the Policy Commission, to establish that it was not going off half-cocked under foreign pressure.

But at the recent United Nations trade conferences in Geneva, at the International Chamber of Commerce meeting in Vienna, in the reports of clinical investigators such as the Brookings Institution, as well as in the foreign chancelleries, the demand for change was presently growing.

When I first moved to this neighborhood," said Mrs. Kasenkina. "I was nervous and afraid. I never left the house alone. I spoke through interpreters. Life was empty."

"I have been with interpreters for two years now. I drive my car to the supermarket every day and chat with the other women. I do not jump every time the telephone rings. The venetian blinds in her four-and-a-half room apartment are open wide in the daytime. A special police siren once kept at her bedside now gathers dust in a hall closet."

Mrs. Kasenkina's weekly schedule is full. A few days a week an English teacher drops in to polish up her vocabulary. In spare time she paints. The living room walls are covered with landscapes and religious paintings, all her own work.

Under existing law, she cannot be naturalized before May 14, 1956. It was on May 14, 1951 that she obtained her certificate for permanent residence in this country. The law says an alien must have five years such residence before being eligible for citizenship.

Mrs. Kasenkina filed her "first papers"—the notice of intention to seek naturalization—in New York in May, 1952.

Mrs. Kasenkina gave no indication of the broken leg and pelvis she suffered in her leap for freedom as she stood, small and erect, for her toast.

"It is a very special day," she said. "I feel like an American. I want to act like one."

Gold

Basis of Trade
Gold continues to flow out of the United States as other nations—notably Britain and western Germany—build up gold and dollar reserves.

Western European countries are generally improving their trade balances—their exports showing money gains as their imports are held down.

The National Foreign Trade Council estimates that this year might show a gain of 2 or 2½ billion dollars in other nations' gold and dollar reserves, on the basis of transactions with the United States alone.

Foreign countries have drawn more than one billion dollars from the American gold stock since December. The U.S. Treasury, however, has more than 22 billion dollars in gold, about 1½ billion lower than last year.

In addition to the gold that other countries have been getting from the United States as their trade improved, they have also been investing in U.S. securities.

The U.S. Treasury reported that at the end of April, foreign-owned short-term dollar assets topped the nine billion dollar mark for the first time.

But, says the International Monetary Fund, no amount of reserves can be adequate to finance a chronic or continuing imbalance in a country's payments.

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York says: "General currency convertibility will depend upon progress toward a better pattern of production and trade, not only among the European countries, but also between them and the rest of the world."

ARTS & SCIENCES REPORT

Fission & Fusion
The next fortnight will have American radioactivity detection devices scanning world skies for proof of Russia's boast that it has the hydrogen bomb.

A well known atomic scientist, Dr. Ralph Lapp of Washington, D. C., declared that Russia actually may have conducted a "small scale" test of a primitive H-bomb late last week—small scale insofar as the hydrogen end of it, but conceivably involving a triggering atomic bomb 10 times as powerful as the one dropped on Nagasaki.

Dr. Lapp estimated it would take at least a week for this nation's detection devices to verify such an event.

While the United States has never said how it detected the first Soviet A-blast in 1949, Lapp suggested America's network for scenting the atmosphere for radioactivity from Nevada tests probably had global arms extending right up to the Iron Curtain.

Reaction to Soviet Premier Malenkov's claim was varied. Much of it was on the skeptical side.

One effect of the Russian announcement was to jar loose what seemed like the first confirmation of speculation that the United States had unlocked the secret of the H-bomb.

Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa.), voicing suspicion of the Red claim, said: "Why, we didn't know we had one (an H-bomb) ourselves until last October when we exploded a hydrogen device."

The United States never has claimed it had the H-bomb nor even disclosed how close it might be to that accomplish-

Medicine

Two federal medical authorities agreed there is no evidence that cancer or heart disease is more likely to strike Congressmen than others.

Dr. John R. Heller, director of the National Cancer Institute, called the death of four senators from cancer in the past two years "unusual" because, he said, the normal expectancy would be about one Senate cancer death in that period.

Dr. R. C. Arnold, acting director of the National Heart Institute, said death from heart disease of 13 members of the Senate and House in the past two years is not an unusual number among that many men.

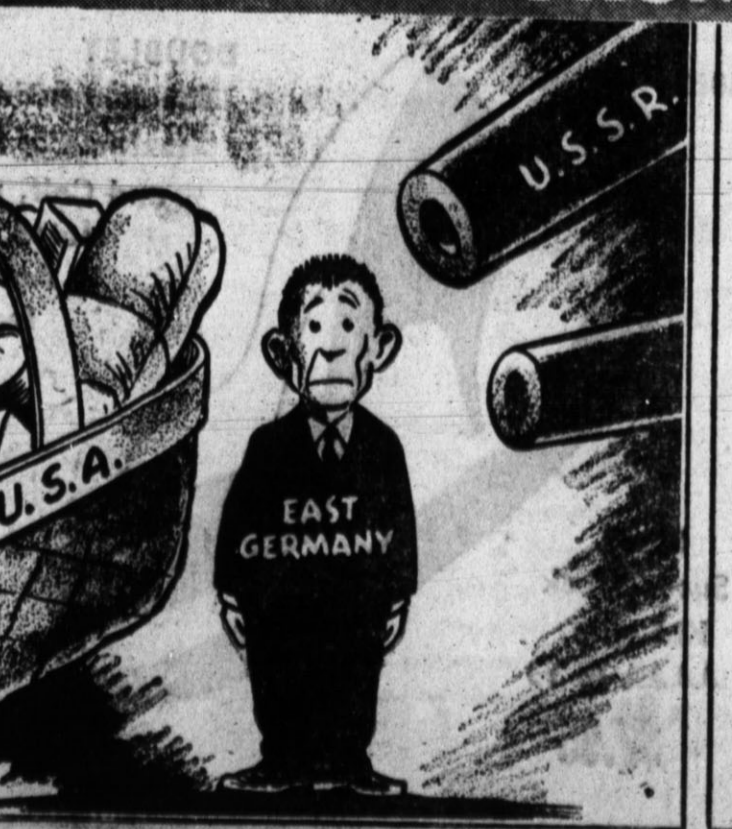

Members of Congress who died recently of the diseases mentioned in the report were: Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) and Brien McMahon (D-Conn) of cancer; and Sens. Charles W. Tobey (R-NH) and Willis Smith (D-NC) of heart trouble.

Quotes

Gen. Mark W. Clark, U.S. commander of troops in Korea: "If the truce is broken, I would favor using any and every weapon at the disposal of my country."

Dr. Hugo Eckener, German designer of Zeppelins on his 65th birthday: "It would be foolish to build new dirigibles (in the jet age). It would be very much like a covered wagon trying to compete with a truck."

Jones, Helen Pipkin, C. C. Ferguson, Gaylord Mullins, S. M. Dunnam, Don Root and daughters, Shirley and Lotus, Nona Jowell, C. R. Smith, Robert Veigel, F. H. Oberthier, Louise Tinsley, Frances Houston, J. M. Gilliland and A. O. Thompson and Miss Frances Dameron.

Mrs. B. J. Greenhouse Will Receive Masters' Degree From West Texas

Among those who will receive masters degrees from West Texas State College, Canyon, on August 21, is Mrs. B. J. Greenhouse, the former Miss Caren Conklin. Mrs. Greenhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Conklin, received her B. S. degree from W. T. with majors in education and English in August, 1952.

On June 12, she married B. J. Greenhouse, and in July the couple moved to Los Angeles, Calif., where he is connected with the Century Chevrolet Company. Mrs. Conklin plans to teach in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith of Falls were guests of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cawthon Bryant last Sunday.

Miss Frankie Criswell's Engagement Announced

Miss Frankie Criswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Criswell of Wichita Falls, and Fritz Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoffman, will exchange marriage vows on September 8, in St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

The engagement was announced at a tea given Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. G. Lewis. The hostess was assisted by the bride-elect's sister-in-law, Mrs. Dalton Criswell, and Mrs. Lester English.

Marilyn Lewis presided at the refreshment table which carried out the bride-elect's chosen color of blue. The table was covered with a cream lace cloth and centered with three bridesmaid figurines in the shade of blue to be used in the wedding, and a bride in white.

"Cris and Fritz"
Blue bridal streamers suggested a path for the bridal party and bore the inscription "Cris and Fritz"—September 8. Flanking the center arrangement were blue crystal candelabra holding white tapers. Blue tinted gardenias were laid flat on the table surrounding the punch bowl and as accessories for the tapers. All appointments were in blue crystal. Receiving the guests were the honoree, Marilyn Henderson, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Joe Hoffman. Mary Hund presided at the guest book.

Those Attending
Those attending were Mesdames Don Enders, G. W. Hund, Eugene Fangman, James Fangman, Tony Hoffman, Charles Schlabs, Leander Reinart, Joe Schulte, Vincent Guggemos, Ed Hoffman, O. B. Russell, Wm. Lawrence F. C. Glendenning,

Keep Flowers Happy, Club President Says

(Editor's Note: This is the final article of a series on Hereford club presidents who will assume their leadership this fall.)

Mrs. Deward Roberson, recently elected president of the Garden Beautiful Club, believes anyone can grow lovely flowers provided they try to understand each plant's special requirement. She believes that flowers are much like people—some like secluded spots, others thrive in groups, but none like to be crowded. All need to be happy.

Mrs. Roberson usually succeeds by the simple process of experimenting, as she did with the Texas State Flower, the bluebonnet, which provides such an unforgettable sight when planted in large masses. Her club has chosen the bluebonnet as the club flower for the coming year, and she has proved by experiment that, although the flowers may come a little later in the spring, they can be grown as successfully here as in East Texas.

She plants the seed in October, the plants come up and live all winter, ready to grow and bloom in the early spring.

Will Sell Seed
At the Annual Tour of Homes, sponsored by the Garden Beautiful Club on October 2, the club will sell bluebonnet seed with the hope of seeing masses of the blue blossoms all over town in the Spring. "Children are fond of the bluebonnet, not because it is their state flower, but for the many legends connected with it," Mrs. Roberson said.

Some of her especially loved plants are: the gladiolus and the iris (she has 25 or 30 named iris varieties), and there is the Dutch Iris, another of her favorites, and she likes to grow roses, tulips, daffodils, peonies and to experiment with effects.

Mrs. Roberson, the former Miss Tiny Lee Springer, married Deward Roberson in 1931. Two years later the couple moved to Amarillo, returning to Hereford after World War II.

Wanted Hobby
In 1939 she decided she wanted a hobby and chose gardening, because of the beauty which may be created. She became interested in making corsages, especially using gladioli to make camellia or orchid corsages. Her artistic nature has led her to do some china painting and she has just completed a set of six fish platters.

Sewing has great interest for her, too, and she designs and drafts patterns for most of her own clothes and those for her small daughter.

She plays golf with her husband to keep from becoming a golf-widow, and has learned to really enjoy the game. Both Mr. and Mrs. Roberson are members of the First Baptist Church.

Looking Forward To Club Work
Mrs. Roberson is looking forward to the club work this fall. The membership is complete with 30 members and programs have been worked out: Several programs on flower arrangement, as well as the regular study programs, are included in outlines for the year and the flower show will be held in connection with the annual tour of homes in October.

The civic project, that of beautifying the Deaf Smith County Hospital grounds, will be continued, and the Christmas party will be one of the year's highlights when guest-day will be observed. "Use what you have" will be the club slogan as members stress using their own flowers, materials and containers in carrying out the program of the club the coming year.

Committees Named
Standing committees appointed by the president include: Program and Yearbook—Mesdames D. C. Kinsey, J. B. Harin, Mary Seigler and R. B. Miller. Membership—Mesdames R. N. Larmer and O. M. Dickey. Constitution and By-Laws—Mrs. R. B. Miller and Mrs. J. W. Kirby. Social and Cheer—Mesdames F. P. Lyons, E. W. Harrison, and Tom Alderson. Telephone—Mrs. S. L. Easley and Mrs. Helen Pipkin. Flower Show—Mesdames W. J. Stanford and G. P. Owen. Horticulture and Plant Exchange—Mesdames Howard Armstrong and Frances Houston. Projects—Mesdames Carroll White-side, J. W. Thomas, J. L. Woodford, Ray Cowsert, and Lowell Sharp. Ways and Means—Mesdames George Graham, J. M. Thomson, Robert Veigel, E. W. Hopson, and R. N. Larmer. Films and Photography—Mrs. B. E. Roberson.

MISS ELANOR RUTH DUNNAM has been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. S. M. Dunnam, the past two weeks. Eastern Star Members Observed Founder's Day

Thirty members of the Hereford Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, held a salad supper at the Masonic Hall Tuesday evening, preceding the regular meeting of the chapter at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Bessie Jones, worthy matron, presided at the business session which opened the meeting and a Robert Morris program was presented.

Panel Discussion
The program honoring the founder of the O.E.S. was presented in the form of a panel discussion of his life. Deward Roberson told of Robert Morris' family, John Patton gave his religious life, and an outline of his Masonic work was given by Frank Terrell.

W. C. Hromas told of the founder's travels and Mrs. Myrtle Witherspoon told of his work in establishing the O.E.S.

In conclusion, Mrs. Iva Cocanougher gave interesting highlights of a visit to an O.E.S. chapter under dispensation in Hot Springs, Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hill and son Tim left Friday to make their home in Petersburg where he will be head coach in the Petersburg High School. Mrs. Hill is the former Miss Doris Jean Hastings. The couple have spent the summer in Hereford. Hill was coach in the McLean Schools last year.

Mrs. T. W. Ridgway of Fort Worth is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Kellar Muse, and family.

Buffet Dinner Party Is Held For Pastor

Mary Martha Class of the First Baptist Church entertained with a buffet dinner party Thursday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Massie, to honor the new pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Howard Scott.

Late summer garden flowers were used about the house in decorations and adorned quartet tables at which the dinner was served.

Quiz Game
After the meal Mrs. Steve Powell, president of the class, directed an introduction quiz game in which members told of their particular place in the church work as a get-acquainted measure. A round table of funny experiences was held to conclude the program.

Those attending were Rev. and Mrs. Howard Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Young, and Mesdames Ella Mae Childers, John Winkler, O. M. Dickey and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Calvert returned Monday from Conchas Lake where they spent the weekend on their cabin-boat.

Mrs. Meade Haile and daughter Pat of San Angelo left Thursday for their home after a week's stay here with Mrs. N. E. Milburn and other friends.

MRS. DEWARD ROBEBSON

Relatives Visit In R. R. Jaskson Home

Relatives visiting in the R. R. Jackson home the past weekend were his sister, Mrs. Amanda Cherry of Medford, Ore., and Jackson's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Felt and 4 children of Eugene, Ore. They left Tuesday for Amarillo to visit with relatives. A reunion of the Jackson family is being held in Amarillo today.

Mrs. Jackson's brother, Raymond Saylor of Stockton, Calif., left Wednesday after a two weeks' visit in the Jackson home and her sister, Mrs. Chas. Smith, left Saturday for her home in Sunray after spending a week with Mrs. Jackson.

Guests in the N. E. Milburn home this weekend are her sister, Mrs. Bonnie Morell of Altus, Okla. and her brother, L. H. Lange and wife and their son of Tulsa.

Mrs. Johnnie Bush, whose home is in Arizona, and her aunt, Mrs. P. H. Gilliland, spent a couple of days in Lubbock with relatives the past week.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HACKER celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at an open house held Sunday afternoon, August 9 at their home, 142 Roosevelt Avenue. Over one hundred guests signed the memory book guest register. A pink and silver theme was carried out throughout the house, with pink gladioli centering the lace-laid refreshment table. Mrs. C. R. Lady and Mrs. Louie Olson poured punch, and Mrs. Alvin Hacker of Amarillo served cake. Miss Evelyn Benson, bride-elect of Joe Hacker, registered the guests. Four of the five Hacker children attended the anniversary affair. They are Alvin of Amarillo, and Joe, Morris and Dean of Hereford. One daughter, Mrs. H. H. Betzen of Washington, D. C. was unable to attend. Mr. and Mrs. Hacker were married in Hereford in 1928. The wedding was held in the Baptist Church parsonage. Both are members of the Baptist Church and have made their home in Hereford for the quarter century.

Mrs. Slagle Feted With Gift Party

Mrs. Stanley Slagle, the former Miss Novella Arrington, was feted at a gift party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Moore Monday evening. Hostesses were Retha Jo Godfrey, Gayle Gault and Sharon Dee Moore.

The refreshment table was laid with a white cloth and featured a center piece of wedding bells and tapers surrounded with pink rosebuds. Carrying out the colors the bride used in her wedding, she was presented with a corsage of pink rosebuds tied with aqua marine.

Attending were Patsy Cates, Sue Smith, Dovie Jane Jones, Sherry Benson, Betty Hamilton, Joan Moore, Virginia Sigle, Joan McGee, and Mesdames Howard Gault,

Surprise Birthday Party Held For Mrs. Billy Wall

Mrs. Billy Wall was honoree at a surprise birthday party given at her home Monday evening. A covered dish supper was held and gifts were presented.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wall and children, Mrs. D. R. Grimes, James Martin and daughters, Patsy Hyde, David Monroe Sellers, Billy Jo and Johnny Wall and the honoree.

Mrs. Ruben Knox is attending a Home Economics Convention in Dallas this week. Mrs. Knox will be the Home Economics teacher in High school this fall.

H-H Defeats Phillips 66 In Tuesday Night Game

By Billy Paul Knox

Hereford Hardware won the first game of a double-header from Phillips 66, 30-26, Tuesday night. Summerfield defeated Dawn, 15-9, in the second game.

The outcome of the games Tuesday night gives H-H sole possession of first place. Summerfield and Dawn are tied for second and third place. Phillips 66 is the lone owner of the cellar.

The first game resembled more of a track meet than anything else. In a way it seemed a pitchers duel to see who could walk the most. H-H drew nine walks. Phillips 66 drew six walks in a single inning.

Started With Eight

H-H started the game by scoring eight runs in the top of the first six hits, three walks, and three errors provided the needed big blow was a home run by Tim Corbett.

Fifteen Around

Then came the big fifth inning. H-H scored 15 runs on nine hits, three walks, and one error. One of the hits was a home run by Dick Ross. H-H sent 19 men to the plate in scoring these runs.

The last of the fifth was in direct contrast. Phillips 66 went down in order.

H-H did likewise in the sixth. Phillips 66 came within 10 runs of H-H by scoring two runs on two hits in the sixth.

H-H scored two runs in the seventh, thanks to a two run homer by Leo Box.

66 Rally

In the last of the seventh, 66 rallied but this rally fell short with only six runs.

The final score was 30-26, in favor of H-H.

Leo Box led H-H with four hits. Two of them were home runs. Gerald Wilson also got four hits for Phillips 66.

Second Game

Summerfield won the second game from Dawn, 15-9.

A double and a single netted one run for Dawn in the top of the first.

Two singles, a triple, and a walk gave Summerfield three runs and the lead in the last of the first. They kept this lead throughout the game.

Dawn could not score in the second and third innings.

Summerfield couldn't score in the second but they scored four runs in the third.

Dawn scored two runs on one hit and two bases on balls in the top half of the fourth inning.

Summerfield made it 9-3 by scoring two runs in the last of the fourth. A triple and two singles turned the trick.

Dawn Scoreless

In the top of the fifth Burrus led off with a single but Dawn was scoreless in the fifth. Summerfield could not score in the fifth either.

Dawn scored five runs on six hits in the last of the seventh.

Jack Burrus, John McBroom, R. Stewart, and Murphy White led Dawn with two hits. Roy Botkin led Summerfield with four hits.

Collision With Truck Damages Automobile

An illegal left turn by a truck in the middle of a block caused $350 damage to a 1950 Lincoln driven by James Harvey Ferguson, 1408 S. Adonis, Roswell, N. M., Monday morning.

Grady Wendell Morton of 133 Avenue H, driving a Reo truck, turned onto Highway 60 from a side street then made a left hand turn in the middle of a block, causing Ferguson, who was driving behind him, to hit the left rear wheel of the truck.

There were no damages estimated to the truck, according to investigating officer Hollis Rainey of the Hereford Police Department.

Heavy Lettuce Planting Reported By Association

Latest report on the planting of lettuce, which had to be in by last Sunday in this area, is that about 7,000 acres of the leafy green vegetable will be growing in this area soon.

There are eight or nine operators contracting for the lettuce, according to a report received from the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers Association.

STARCH

An added luster can be given to linen after it is ironed, if a little salt is added to the starch.

THE SINK

Keep the porcelain sink looking immaculate by cleaning with a little kerosene added to soap water. It takes so little time and is such an easy method, it can be done frequently.

Thinking Changes On Negro Question

World War II changed many things and, not least among them was the attitude of people in this area toward the Negro race. Less than a decade ago Negroes were afraid to come into the community, even for a period of a few hours. People still talked about a few years further back when Negroes were dynamited out of their homes and forcefully driven from the community.

Today, local governmental units are doing everything possible to establish a Negro school and a housing settlement. In addition, many people openly favor admitting Negroes into the white school system—an action prohibited by Texas statutes.

No one will deny the change of thinking apparent in the community. This change is due, in a large measure, to extension of racial equality within the armed forces. Today, Negroes serve side by side with Caucasians in the Army, Navy and Marines. They eat at the same tables, play on the same teams, and fight beside each other at the front. When the Air Force band from Amarillo field played recently in Hereford Negroes appeared scattered along the tables at the banquet. Ten years ago such a thing would have ended in open violence.

Scarcity of labor is another possible factor in acceptance of the Negro in this community. Competition for jobs has not been so keen and labor of the type Negroes afford seems to be in heavy demand. Also to be considered is invasion by Latin-Americans. Some people, of course, still protest the appearance of the Negro in the community. Generally speaking, however, thinking on this subject seems to have done a complete about-face. Most people are willing to grant that the Negro, when called upon to pay taxes and subjected to service in the armed forces, should also share the rights of education and freedom with other Americans.

Time To Get Tough Honest Inventory Is Good Business

The announcement by leading safety specialists that this country is headed toward a record of 40,000 killed and 2,000,000 injured ed traffic accidents by the end of this year should cause every citizen throughout the land to stand up in alarmed indignation and demand that it be prevented.

At least this newspaper, in common with some 9,000 other newspapers throughout the country, intends to offer the people of this community a full opportunity to do their part by giving them consistent and forthright facts about the causes of traffic accidents and what it will take to stop them. This will be no haphazard effort; it will be a concentrated nation-wide program bearing the approval of specialists and it will have three primary objectives; as follows:

1. Firm and impartial enforcement of all speed laws, because there is no longer the slightest doubt that speed is the No. 1 killer on our streets and highways.
 2. The employment of sufficient police to patrol the streets and highways with sufficient frequency to assure the arrest of motorists who violate any traffic laws, because violations lead inevitably to accidents.
 3. And an uncompromising demand that the courts hand down stern sentences for serious first offenses and repeated minor offenses, because there can be no doubt that some motorists' indifference to human safety is partly due to overly tolerant courts.
- We hope everyone will read and heed the important information we shall publish. We particularly hope public officials—including legislators, judges and licensing authorities—will read it. Did you know, for instance, that in less than a dozen states last year 7,050 mental incompetents had been found driving motor vehicles—after they had accidents and law violations? This is only one of many little known facts we purpose to make as widely known as possible.
- But reading and merely regretting will do little good. Let's learn the facts and tell our legislators and public officials that we want safer streets and highways in this state.

Once each year practically every business firm in Hereford pauses to take inventory, some even pursue the practice once each month and a limited few consider the procedure so important that they maintain records to provide a day to day perpetual inventory.

Few towns, however, follow the practice. This week Dr. L. B. Barnett, recently back from a leave of absence, spoke before the Lions Club and in the course of his talk actually took an inventory of Hereford. The result was so startling that it perhaps overshadowed the intended point in his talk. The inventory, to say the least, was the one topic which members discussed as they mingled in the halls after the session adjourned.

Dr. Barnett went back to 1929, he recalled the dust bowl days, then followed closely through the pre-war era of 1939 and 1940, dwelling most upon the period immediately following World War II. As he pointed out, Hereford was a little town of 2,500 just before the war. It was traversed chiefly on dirt streets. When you wanted to know where anyone lived, your directions were always, "Oh! They live the second house west of _____." The schools were adequate, although obsolete in many phases. The hospital he described as "possibly the worst in Texas." Hotel facilities were vague. The town had been 2,500 population for many, many years—and had little prospect of growing very much.

Today Hereford is held in high regard and esteem over the country. It is frequently considered as a model for other towns. It has come a long way since 1940. Yet Hereford is not a boom town. Only those who have resided here for the past decade can really make the comparison.

Most firms take inventory for one reason. That reason is for improvement. A town can do likewise. While Hereford has come a long way in the past 10 years, it is also a good idea to check up on where it is going today. Are we keeping pace with the pattern which the community set and maintained? Do we have several general projects planned and in progress? Or, on the other hand, are we coasting? Are we sitting back and reaping the benefits of past progress and planning? This article is not one of criticism on any individual or any group. We merely want you to answer honestly and in a forthright manner the question: "What am I doing to make Hereford a better community in which to live?"

As we have often said: A town never stands still. It either goes forward or backward.

AUSTIN—Texas politics appear calm on top. Only an occasional ripple indicates the seething turmoil under the surface.

Such a ripple is the announcement by George W. Sandlin of Austin, secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee, that the group will meet September 11 in Mineral Wells.

Small space was occupied in the newspapers by the announcement, which was casual in tone.

Sandlin said the purpose of the gathering was mainly "finding out what the members might have on their minds."

What they might have on their minds might be plenty. It would involve whether the Shivers "conservative" people would retain control of the Democratic Party in Texas, or whether the "liberalist" faction would regain control.

Hopeful in the political races of next year were concerned especially prospective candidates for state and national offices.

Depends On Governor

Politically and otherwise, a great deal depended on the governor's decision as to whether he will run for another term, seek some other office, or retire from the public service.

Several potential candidates are waiting for the governor's announcement before completing their own plans.

Some of the "experts" here said Shivers will try for a third elective term as governor, because in that position he could exert his influence most effectively in keeping Texas on the "conservative" side with respect to national politics.

A meeting of the executive committee at this time indicates strongly that the political forces are beginning early to prepare for next year's three-sided campaigns, with competition from both Democratic factions and from the Republicans.

Need Two Members

Otherwise, there was the business of replacing two members of the executive committee.

Mrs. L. E. Tennyson of Clifton resigned because of illness in her family. Peyton McKnight of Quitman left the committee to take a position with Jack Porter of Houston, oil man and national GOP committeeman.

Sandlin's announcement of the Mineral Wells meeting came while Shivers was attending the national governor's conference at Seattle, where President Eisenhower expressed his views on states rights.

The federal government, said the president, should never undertake to do for the states anything that the states can do for themselves.

Governors Liked Speech

This was what most of the governors wanted to hear. Shivers, chairman of the conference, had said that the problem of "bringing the government closer to the people" was considered by most of the delegates as the most important question before the meeting.

Governor Dan Thornton of Colorado agreed that there should be decentralization of government, and that the nation is still in danger of "drifting into socialism."

From Seattle came an indication on the part of some for Shivers to enter the presidential race in 1956. Louisiana's Governor R. F. Kennon made the suggestion to reporters there—a thought that has been expressed in Texas and elsewhere before.

Looney Removes Self

Everett L. Looney of Austin, president of the State Bar of Texas, has removed himself as co-counsel for District Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin of Alice.

Looney gave two reasons for his withdrawal: first, he is ill and unable to appear at the court proceedings; and second, some of the directors of the state bar felt that it was improper for him, as president, to appear in the Laughlin case.

Looney called for a special meeting of the bar directors for August 13 to determine what action if any the lawyers' organization should take in the Laughlin case.

Looney called for a special meeting of the bar directors for August 13 to determine what action if any the lawyers' organization should take in the Laughlin case.

Eleven South Texas attorneys petitioned the Supreme Court to hear a list of complaints against the Alice judge and to consider removing him from office.

The proceedings are scheduled to begin August 17.

Laughlin is accused, among other things, of interfering with a grand jury investigation into election matters in his district.

SWIMMERS AGAINST FISHERMEN

A new kind of contest is to be featured at the Municipal Swimming Pool between swimmers and fishermen.

Good swimmers will wear a sort of jacket or harness which is attached a fishing line. The swimmer is to swim the end of the pool to the rope in the deep water space of 60 seconds, with the fisherman trying to reel in during that time. If the swimmer fails to make it in 60 seconds, the fisherman wins.

A limit of six-pound line is set, and the equipment will be a straight rod and reel. THE DALHART TEXAN

QUESTION OF THE WEEK Fringe Areas Are Suggested For Negro Housing Development

Since a number of Negroes are asking that some area in Hereford be designated as a place for them to build homes, what part of town do you think would best suit their needs and that of the community as a whole if they wish to live together?

REX LEE

I think the north part of town in the Gamez addition at the end of C street because it is more or less out of town and it would also be convenient for the Negroes to get to town. I also think they should be allowed to attend school in Hereford. After all, they are citizens of the United States.

MRS. O. D. LOWRY

I think an area northwest of town about a mile or so out on Highway 51. I am a teacher in Hereford High school, and if they were admitted to the school it wouldn't bother me at all to teach them.

MRS. EARL NEEDHAM

Any section of land outside of the city limits so they could be off by themselves, but it shouldn't be too far out because they need the convenience of getting into town.

OTIS KING

I think they should be restricted to a certain district or area out of town so they can be by themselves. They should have a school built in their district wherever they decide to stay.

MRS. JAMES GARNER

On the southwest corner at the intersection of Highway 51 and 60 because it isn't a part of the business district and it isn't thickly populated right now.

The black-eyed peas are ready to pick at last and they are right east of the house this year.

The careless weeds got to be too much for us we thought so we changed to ground that has only white lake weeds, blue weeds, goatheads, and some careless that are nearly as big as small trees.

The change almost caused Mrs. Tom Hall to have heart failure.

They were drivin one Sunday afternoon and when she saw the cotton growin in the old pea patch she thought we hadn't planted any peas this year.

We're sorry about the green beans.

The hot weather must have been too much for them because first one vine and then the other kept turnin its toes to the daisies until we've plowed up most of them.

We have a later patch comin on but it is still anybody's guess as to what they will terminate in.

And thanks to you folks at the filling stations who keep sendin us customers from out of town.

We feel quite accomplished. The Alton Monroes, our neighbors on the corner who nearly always have some nice honey to sell, called us about a swarm of bees they didn't want so we donned the net and the long gloves, sawed the limb off and shook the bees right into our hive without gettin stung once.

Course we hurried a little as we left the box to let them settle.

—O—

Dear editor:

I was out here yesterday afternoon sittin in the shade rym about the national debt, I find it's a whole lot restful to worry about the national debt than the private impersonal thinkin is a lot more effective and trouble than personal thinkin, I know lots of men who can come or to settlin Washington's financial difficulties than the their own, and along about sundown I noticed a cow fin at something in the weeds and when I got up to go I walked over there and discovered it was a newspaper I picked it up and put it in my pocket and after supper where some emissary from Washington was just back South America and he reported that that country ne some cash from this country.

"If South America could manage a little financing the United States, it'd be a big help in fightin Com and building a stronger country," the representative sa

I've been thinkin. Now South America ain't the only try which could use a little cash. As I understand it, the States could too. I notice that President Eisenhower is glin with the problem of balancin the budget and has a found out we've promised to spend more money in the few months than we got comin in and a special sess Congress may be necessary to raise the debt limit so w borrow a little just to meet our current obligations, until new sources of revenue can be found or the expens be cut.

I know this may sound revolutionary and in some co even inhumane, but what I'd like to know is why don't borrowin some money from a foreign country ourself?

We've had every kind of representative imaginable abroad to see which country needs to borrow from u now that we're a little hard up for some ready cast selves why don't we send out a borrowin mission of our Or, to save a little money, why couldn't we just w fellows we already got abroad to stop lendin and star rowin?

I know it would spread consternation abroad quick the news we'd discovered how to mass produce atom I at two-bits apiece and were gonna make practice clear around the world just to see what happens, or it be like you announcin your paper was gonna publish of all the past-due accounts owed all the stores in He next week, but in desperate times desperate actions times are called for.

If you think this borrowin mission has any merit, know, and if Washington can't find anybody trained rowin to send abroad, I'll go. I've had considerably experience borrowin than I have lendin.

Powers Studied
Annexation powers of cities is being studied by the Texas Legislative Council.

Laws governing annexation have not been changed for 30 years, and there is need for revision, in the opinion of many, including Representative Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio.

Bell told the council that "cities should grow in an orderly way, but we ought to prevent the incorporation of 'parasitic' areas seeking to avoid city taxes while obtaining the benefits of a nearby big city. On the other hand, cities should be stopped from annexing farm territory, or from expanding where there would be no benefit offered to residents of the area."

Findings of the Council will be referred to the next Legislature.

"Right To Work"
Scheduled in federal court is the National Labor Relations Board's attack on the Texas "right to work" law.

Federal Judge R. E. Thomason of El Paso ordered Attorney General John Ben Shepperd to appear and testify in regard to an injunction suit filed by the NLRB.

The board by its suit is undertaking to prevent the attorney general from enforcing parts of the law as applied to a San Antonio collective bargaining case.

Texas' law in this instance is in conflict with the national labor relations act, the NLRB contends.

Behind the NLRB action are two injunctions forbidding the International Fur and Leather Workers Union of the United States and Canada from participating in an election to be held by workers of the Nelson Tanning Corporation of San Antonio.

Under present Texas laws labor unions are prohibited from operating in the state without first filing a detailed financial and operational report with the secretary of state. And union organizers must file a report and secure an organizers' card before conducting their soliciting activities in Texas.

Drivers Responsibility
Another Texas law under attack is the driver responsibility act. The test is going to the U. S. Supreme Court.

D. C. Gillaspie of San Antonio is contesting the law, after registration of his family car was suspended because his son, who was driving it, figured in a traffic accident.

Under the law as it now stands, the son must show financial responsibility before the car can be driven by anyone.

The Texas supreme court upheld validity of the law, but Associated Justice G. B. Smedley cleared the way for the case to go to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Gillaspie argues that the sections of the law applying in his case are harsh and unreasonable and nullify the entire statute.

More Construction
Construction in Texas for the first half of the year was greater than expected, reported Richard C. Henshaw Jr. of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Non-residential building more than counterbalanced a slump in home construction, the report said.

At the same time, Texas Employment Commission reported job placements for June above that of May, but behind that of June last year.

The drop was attributed to payroll cuts in federal and defense establishments, the drought, and other factors.

SHORT SNORTS: Frank S. Maddox has resigned as assistant state highway engineer to accept a position with the Portland Cement Association at San Antonio. . . David Irons, assistant attorney general and president of the Texas Public Employees Association, will go to Washington to head up a subversive activities investigating unit of the U. S. Attorney General's Department. . . Pay raises of $50 per month have been granted to some of its employees by the Texas Library and Historical Commission, probably the first pay increases under the new appropriation law.

WHAT PRICE SPEED?

Speed—excessive, reckless speed is the greatest killer stalking the Nation's highways today.

In one out of every two driver accidents resulting in deaths and injuries, speed is directly responsible for this carnage on the highways. Other lethal causes, such as cutting in and out, passing on curves and hills, driving off the roadway, are indirectly the result of quick bursts of speed.

And the speed death toll is climbing! Faster roads, super-powered cars urge drivers beyond their human limitations to a quicker and more frequent rendezvous with Death.

Rural highway fatalities due mainly to speed soared from 22,000 in 1949 to 28,200 in 1952 and over 31,000 in 1953. Those are the dead—and for every death count fifty injured, maimed, crippled for life.

Is this the price you and others are ready to pay for the momentary thrill and the ever-present danger of death from speed? It takes only a split second to change speed exhilaration into speed tragedy.

The decision is in your hands—be sane, be sensible, slow down and live!

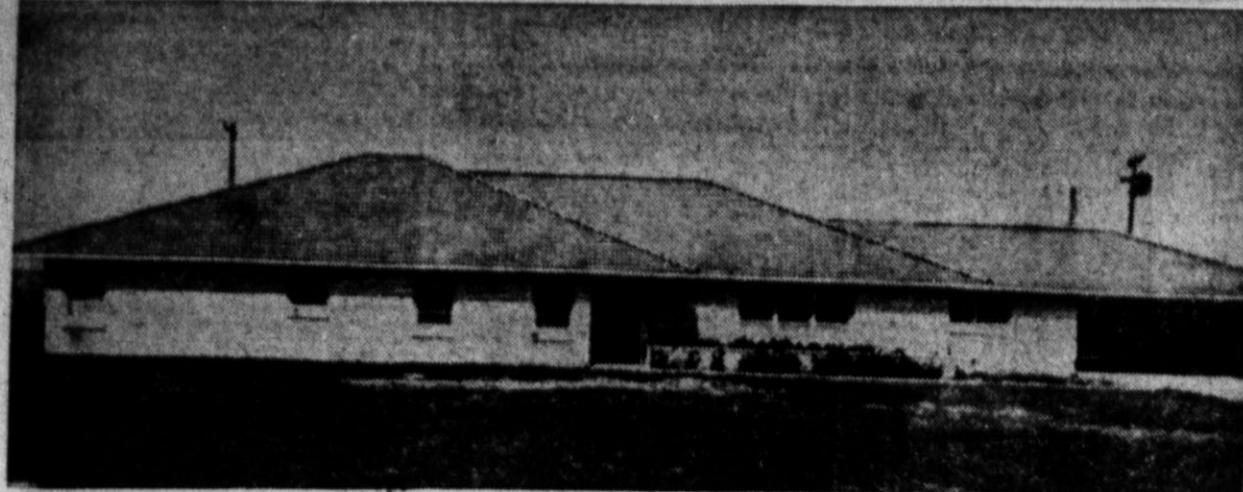

SLOW DOWN—LIVES ARE IN YOUR HANDS!

Real Estate Board Reports . . .

Colorado sure has a heap of real estate and we do mean heap. Just got back from a short run up thru the irrigated San Luis Valley where the spuds are sure looking good. Apparently none of the south end of the valley is digging now but the north end, around Sagauche is really hauling them to town. And of course we tried our luck at trout fishing. Ever see an old cow go tearing through the brush when the flies get bad. . . ? That's just what we did when the mosquitoes got after us. We won't say much about the fish except to say that cars from Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri were flocking into this fish camp to fish around the camp and the Camp Operator's kids were leaving the Camp. . . going fishing off somewhere where there were no Texans or Okies.

estate made a profit on it, we have more or less operated our business on a man's word. If he gave us a listing and agreed to pay a 5 percent commission, we took his word for it and sure enough they always paid us. Now that some of our city property has actually been sold at a loss the sellers are reluctant to pay a commission and since the State Real Estate Laws require a signed listing before the sellers can be forced to pay the commission. . . we are having to stick to the letter of the law and ask everyone who lists property with us to sign the listing cards. We ain't in business for the fun of it. So if your favorite Realtor asks you to sign a listing card when you go to sell your property. . . go ahead and sign it.

Fosdick Professorship Set Up By Rockefeller

A gift of $250,000 by John D. Rockefeller III has established the Harry Emerson Fosdick Visiting Professorship at Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

According to the terms of the gift, the purpose of the professorship is "to honor Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick for his distinguished contributions as teacher, preacher, writer and counselor, and to strengthen the training of the present and the oncoming leaders of the Christian church so as to enable them in their generation, as Dr. Fosdick has in his generation, to interpret the abiding truths and experiences of Christian faith in terms relevant and compelling to contemporary life."

Dr. George F. MacLeod, founder and leader of the Iona Community in Scotland, has been designated as appointee for the year 1954-55.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Sandwiches And Tall Drinks Make Quick Augustime Treats

When friends stop by for brief chats on a hot August afternoon, it's nice to have the makings of light refreshments ready to serve. Simple refreshments are much preferred these hot days, or, if you are watching television in the evening, the simple ice-cold drink and a tray of little sandwiches make ideal interlude snacks.

If you know in advance there will be callers, there's nothing prettier than ribbon sandwiches which can be made up hours before and sliced at serving time.

Mrs. Nelson McRight gives you this recipe for little sandwiches. It combines delicious foods for unusual flavor, and is so quick and easy to prepare, taking only a few minutes. The ingredients will store indefinitely and may be served on rye bread, toasted triangles or crackers. With the sandwiches she serves a delectable lime sparkle that takes care of the cold drink in a big way.

Ribbon Sandwiches
1 lb. Velveeta Cheese—cut up
1 pimento—chopped
2 hard boiled eggs—cut in pieces
1 cup sliced olives—chopped very fine
5 tablespoons mayonnaise

Put all ingredients in your electric mixer bowl and beat 20 minutes. Or if you have no mixer beat thoroughly by hand. Slice crusts off all four sides of a loaf of sandwich bread and cut bread lengthwise in four slices. Spread the first slice with Philadelphia cream cheese tinted a delicate pink, mixed with just enough salad dressing to spread easily. Add the second slice of bread and spread with sandwich mixture given above. Add the third slice of bread and spread with the cream cheese which has been colored green. Stack the fourth slice of bread to complete the loaf and cover all sides with uncolored cream cheese. Place in refrigerator until serving time when the loaf may be sliced cross-wise into individual sandwiches.

Lime Sparkle
This tall, cold drink seems to be everybody's favorite and it goes well with sandwiches as well as with crunchy cookies or toasted cereals. Here is how Mrs. McRight makes it:

1 cup lime juice—strained—or the frozen juice
1 qt. ginger ale
1 qt. orange sherbet

That is what she buys for the drink. When she is ready to serve she puts 2 tablespoons lime juice in a tall glass, adds two tablespoons of the orange sherbet and fills the glass with ginger ale. Then she adds a few orange or lime slices, and it's ready to serve. Will serve 8 or 10 glasses.

Colored Ice Cubes
Mrs. McRight likes to keep colored ice cubes on hand and when youngsters happen around, hungry for something cold to drink, she mixes a big can of orange-ade with a large can of pineapple juice and pours it over the colored ice cubes. They like that.

Visitor From Lockney Honored With Swim Party

A Hereford visitor was honored at a swim party given at the home of Mrs. N. D. Bartlett Wednesday afternoon. She was Barbara Carthel of Lockney, house guest of Mrs. Maurice Tannahill, who served as co-hostess for the party with Mrs. Bartlett.

Conversation over refreshments after the swim in the pool completed the entertainment for the group.

Girls attending were: Barbara Carthel, Sharon Moore, Virginia Sigle, Patsy Jackson, Patsy Childers, Lajean Latham, Barbara McGee, Karen McGee, Donna Cayler, Sylvia McCracken and Shirley McCullough.

THE BOOKS
A few drops of oil of lavender here and there throughout a book case will save the library from mold.

Hereford Friends Visited By Presbyterian Minister

Rev. and Mrs. Jimmie Aiken of Denton left Monday after a short stay in Hereford with Mr. and Mrs. Will S. Kerr and other friends. Rev. Aiken is a former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

The couple and their children were entertained at a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hastings Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Will S. Kerr and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gilbreath Jr. and Royce Ann also attended.

Personals

Mrs. Gwendolyn Baymiller of Dunsmuir, Calif., Mrs. Leon Grisset J. E. Ferguson of Wenatchee, of San Gabriel, Calif. and Mrs. Wash. have arrived to be with their mother, Mrs. J. P. Slaton, who is ill in Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Morton left Saturday, Aug. 8 for El Paso where they will make their home. Morton will attend college there this fall. Mrs. Morton is the former Donna Cowsett.

Leonard Walterscheid, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Walterscheid, was home for the weekend, Aug. 8 and 9. Walterscheid, who is stationed at Fort Bliss in El Paso, has been in the Army about six months.

GRAPES
When preserving grapes, select the best clusters, pick off all the decayed ones, drop a bit of sealing wax on the ends of the stems, and hang up in the cellar.

Only Gas
offers clean SMOKELESS broiling
Try the cigarette test and prove to yourself that only a live flame offers you smokeless broiling. Light a cigarette. Hold a lighted match over the smoke coming from the cigarette. See how the flame consumes the rising smoke. The same principle applies when you broil in a modern gas range. The clean blue flame of natural gas consumes the rising smoke and grease vapors. Only gas offers you clean smokeless broiling.

BUZZ SAWYER

FEATURING HIS PAL
ROSCO SWEENEY
By ROY CRANE

JUST WHY ARE YOU CERTAIN YOU'RE GOING TO FIND A POT OF GOLD ON YOUR FARM, MR. SWEENEY?

I GOT IT STRAIGHT FROM THE OLD MAN WHO SAW A FRIEND BURY IT DURING AN INDIAN UPRISING. IT'S BOUND TO BE HERE BECAUSE THE FRIEND NEVER CAME BACK-- HE WAS KILLED BY INDIANS.

HOW DO YOU KNOW WHERE TO LOOK?

I'VE GOT A BURIED-TREASURE DETECTOR. WHEN THE PINGS GET EXTRA LOUD--

PING-PING-PING!

DID YOU HEAR THOSE PINGS? HOT DINGIES! THIS MAY BE THE POT OF GOLD! I'VE STRUCK METAL!

HEY!

GET YOUR CAMERA READY, JOE.

CLINK!

HAW, HAW, HAW! AN OLD RUSTY HORSESHOE!

YEE, HEE, HEE! IS THIS GOOD!

OKAY, WISE GUYS. LAUGH! HORSESHOES ARE GOOD LUCK.

DAYS PASS, DAYS OF TOIL IN THE BROILING SUN.

JUST DROPPED OUT, YOUNG FELLER, TO SEE IF YOU'VE FOUND THAT POT OF GOLD YET.

LOOK, ARE YOU SURE IT WAS BURIED?

YEP? UNDER TWIN OAKS. REMEMBER IT PLAIN AS YESTERDAY BECAUSE THEM PESKY COMANCHES STAMPED A HERD OF BUFFALO.

COPE 196. KING FEATURES SYNDICATE, Inc. WORLD RIGHTS RESERVED.

JIM CLUMB ONE TREE, AND I CLUMB TH' OTHER.

BUT I NEVER HEARD OF COMANCHES AND BUFFALO IN FLORIDA.

I'VE BEEN TELLING YOU ALL THE TIME, GRAN'PA-- YOU'RE MIXED UP! COMANCHES AND BUFFALO WERE ON THAT PLACE YOU HOMESTEADED IN OKLAHOMA, NOT FLORIDA.

WAL, BY DANG! TH' JOKES ON ME, BABY. I BELIEVE THAT POT OF GOLD WAS BURIED IN OKLAHOMA.... OR WAS IT NEBRASKA?

BLOWIN' UP BRIDGES IS A NEW WRINKLE IN HIJACKIN', IF THAT'S WHAT'S GOIN' ON HERE... I'LL JUST DISCONNECT THIS WIRE...

WHAT DO YOU S'POSE THAT FELLA MEANT ABOUT THE BRIDGE, TEX?

I AIN'T SURE, RUSTY, BUT WE GOTTA TAKE A CHANCE... WE'LL JUST ABOUT REACH LEXINGTON IN TIME AS IT IS JEEPERS, TEX! THERE'S TWO OR THREE MORE MEN!

AN' THEY'RE PACKIN' GUNS... I AIN'T TAKIN' NO CHANCE WITH THEM!

SO YOU'RE IN THIS GANG, TOO. "VELVET" KANE CERTAINLY MADE SURE WE WOULDN'T MAKE IT TO LEXINGTON!

WE AIN'T IN ANY GANG, MISTER... WE'RE SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES... WE WERE TOLD TO STOP ANYBODY WHO CAME ALONG HERE!

HERE'S THE SHERIFF... HE'LL TAKE OVER...

WHO ARE YOU, MISTER? WHAT'RE YOU DOIN' BACK HERE?

MY NAME'S PURDY... I'M TRAINER FOR MILESTONE FARM... WE WERE TRICKED ONTO THIS ROAD BY A PHONY DETOUR SIGN!

THERE WERE TWO MEN, SHERIFF... ONE IS UP AT THAT CABIN ABOUT TWO HUNDRED YARDS BACK...

I GOT THE OTHER... HE WAS GOING TO BLOW UP THE BRIDGE... HE'S HANDCUFFED TO AN EIGHT-INCH SAPLING RIGHT NOW!

LOOK, SHERIFF... THIS IS RUSTY RILEY... AND HERE'S MY IDENTIFICATION... THERE'S A HORSE IN THAT VAN THAT'S GOT TO BE IN LEXINGTON TOMORROW... THESE OWL HOOTS PULLED THIS STUNT TO STOP US!... CAN'T YOU JUST LET US GO?

MILESTONE FARM, EH? WELL, OKAY... GO AHEAD... BUT I'LL WANT YOU TO TESTIFY LATER.

PLEASE, SIR... IT MEANS A TERRIBLE LOT TO MR. MILES.

LATER... AS DAWN BRIGHTENS THE SKY.

JUST OVER THOSE HILLS, RUSTY, AND WE'LL BE HOME!

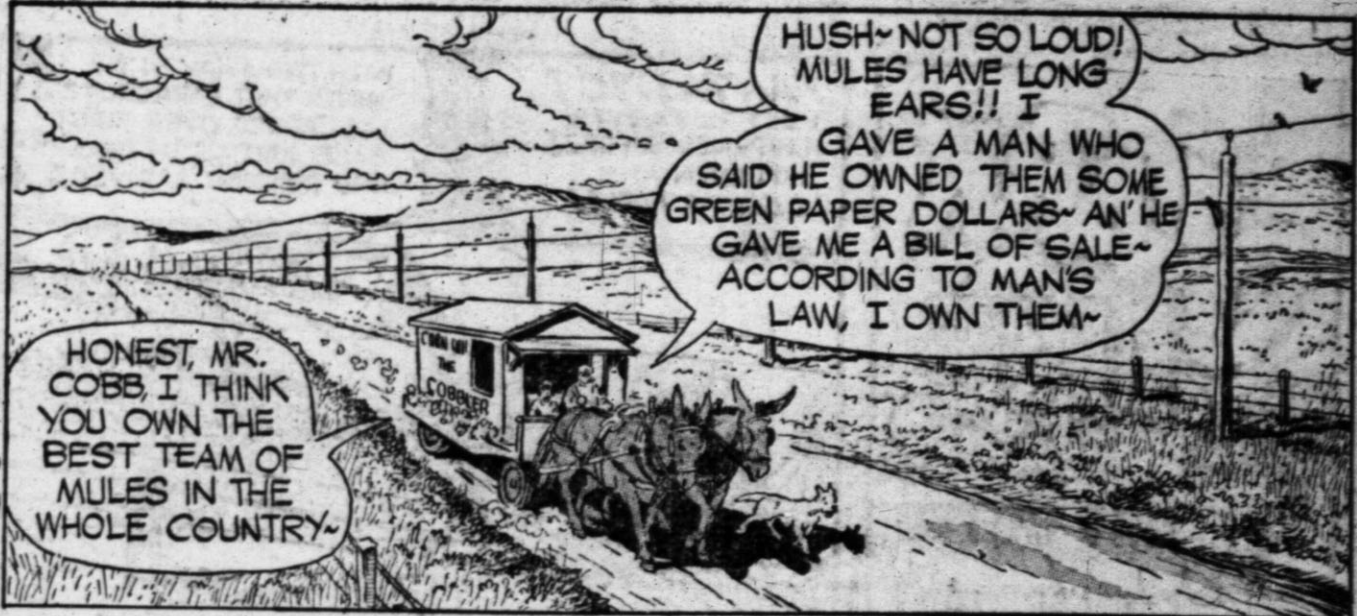

BOY! THAT WORD "HOME" SOUNDS GOOD! I'LL SURE BE GLAD TO SEE MR. MILES... AND PATTY TOO!

HONEST, MR. COBB, I THINK YOU OWN THE BEST TEAM OF MULES IN THE WHOLE COUNTRY~

HUSH~ NOT SO LOUD! MULES HAVE LONG EARS!! I GAVE A MAN WHO SAID HE OWNED THEM SOME GREEN PAPER DOLLARS~ AN' HE GAVE ME A BILL OF SALE~ ACCORDING TO MAN'S LAW, I OWN THEM~

WELL, GOLLY~ WHAT OTHER KIND OF LAW IS THERE?

THERE'S THE DIVINE LAW~ THE LAW OF NATURE~ ACCORDING TO MAN'S LAW, I OWN THE MULES~ ACCORDING TO MULES' LAW, THE MULES OWN ME~

AW, YOU'RE ONLY FOOLIN' ME~

NOPE~ THOSE TWO LONG-EARED BABOONS FIGURE I'M THEIR PERSONAL VALET~ I BRUSH 'EM, COMB 'EM, MANICURE THEIR HOOPS, TREAT 'EM WHEN THEY'RE AILING, WATER 'EM~ AND EVEN BRING 'EM THEIR BREAKFAST IN BED~

I DIDN'T DO ANYTHING~ I JUST FOUND A PAIR OF OLD BOOTS ON THE CITY DUMP~

THEN YOU MADE THE BOOTS INTO A LOVELY, WONDERFUL LADY'S HANDBAG AN' GAVE IT TO BE RAFFLED OFF FOR MONEY TO HELP BUILD THE HOSPITAL~ AN' HEAVEN SENT A RICH ANGEL FROM TEXAS~

A BIG, HUSKY ANGEL WHO OWNS HALF THE OIL WELLS IN TEXAS~ HE WON THE LADY'S HANDBAG~ NOT BEING A LADY, HE FILLED THE BAG WITH MONEY AND~

AN' A TORNADO BLEW THE BAG OUT OF HIS HAND~

GLORY DAY! YOU WASN'T KIDDIN' ABOUT THE ANGEL FROM TEXAS~ IT'S A LOVELY WHITE HOSPITAL WITH TWO WHITE WINGS!

YOU'RE UP TO SOMETHING, INSPECTOR! FOR YEARS YOU'VE KEPT THE WHEREABOUTS OF YOUR "PRIVATE" TROUT STREAM A SECRET... NOW YOU'RE INSISTING THAT I SPEND MY VACATION THERE!

TO TELL THE TRUTH, KING, WE'RE NOT HEADING TOWARD THAT STREAM...

LET ME EXPLAIN, KING... IT WAS THE BEST GIMMICK I COULD THINK OF. THIS WAY THERE'S NO SPECULATION ABOUT US LEAVING HEADQUARTERS TOGETHER! THIS MISSION IS TOP SECRET!

HOW DO I FIT INTO THIS CASE?

WHY, THAT'S THE OLD AIR-MAIL EMERGENCY FIELD, "SCAR VALLEY"... IT WAS ABANDONED YEARS AGO!

SO IT WAS... BUT A NEW UNDERGROUND HANGAR HAS BEEN SECRETLY BUILT THERE, AND YOU SHOULD SEE WHAT'S IN IT!

I THOUGHT YOU'D NEVER GET HERE! THIS IS RISKY... I MIGHT BE MISSED!

YOU ARE BEING WELL PAID! NOW LISTEN CAREFULLY! THIS IS THE THERMO SWITCH... ALL YOU DO IS PLUG IT INTO THE RADIO POWER CABLE... IT IS VERY THIN... IT WILL NOT BE NOTICED!

AND IN THE WOODS ACROSS THE VALLEY!
