Around Town

If you wonder why folks were shivering Around Town Saturday morning, take a look at the 7-degree weather readings for Friday night.

Several people have asked about weather reports. They always appear in the top, left ear of The Brand and are furnished through the City of Hereford records, compiled by Clay Angelo in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Similar reports are filed with the Amarillo offices. All readings are taken on the morning shown in the reports and cover the previous night.

"Don't worry about the rain," forecasts H. H. Miller. He says it will definitely rain between three to four inches next month. He doesn't say why, but acts like he really knows.

Merchants were busy getting ready this week for February Dollar Day, which falls Monday, Feb. 7. The offering includes several lines this time with a heavy emphasis on hardware and department store merchandise. Most stores are "deep cutting" all winter merchandise (despite the weather) in an effort to get ready for new Spring lines. Streu Hardware also came in with an outstanding list of specials in connection with their 31st anniversary. (Continued on Page 2)

Hereford Students To Compete For State Band, Choir Honors

Seven Hereford choir students and six Hereford band students will leave Wednesday for Dallas to attend session of the all-state band and all-state choir.

Five Hereford students, Ann Dyer, Clarence Coywood, Raymond Wells, Gene Streun and Taylor Sims were selected for the all-state choir during regional tryouts. Dixie Young, accompanist for the group and Wanda Kirksey will also make the trip.

Dick Wilson, cornet; Bill Kirksey, snare drum; Pickens Moore, French horn; J. B. Wills, bass drum; and Jimmy Lady, cornet are the band students selected to appear with the all-state band.

Housing Project Plans Adding 12 New Apartments

Members voted Saturday to add three new barracks to the Hereford Housing labor camp project this year, provided the barracks are available through Clovis Air Base. The addition will provide 12 new apartments, bringing the total to 182, according to Ed Dziuk, president of the non-profit corporation.

The group also re-elected W. N. Hodges to the board of directors, resulting in the same board as last year: Ed Dziuk, Henry Benson, Jack Renfro, Ed Reinauer and Mr. Hodges. Officers will be named later in a board meeting.

Insurance on the barracks was also increased by the group to $1,500 each, almost double the previous amount carried by the corporation.

Morris Hacker, drum major will accompany them. Hereford was second in the region in placing members of the chorus. Amarillo led the region with seven students in the chorus. Don Moore and Bill Miller, choir and band directors will take the group to Dallas.

FEDERALS JOIN SEARCH

Barbiturates Are Recovered From Car Abandoned Here By Three Men

FBI and other federal agencies this week joined the Deaf Smith County sheriff's department in search of three men, who abandoned a 1949 model car here on Jan. 7. Chief interest in the case these days centers around the discovery of three sacks, each half-filled with various types of barbiturates, including some 500 "yellowjack" capsules. The "dope" was discovered by deputies a few days after the car was abandoned, but no release was made for fear of scaring off the three men. Also left in the car were boxes of clothing and other personal belongings. The car, 1949 Hudson carrying a South Dakota license tag, was left at Warren Motor Company when the trio, none local men, "threw a rod" in the car while approaching Hereford. They told garage employees they would return to complete arrangements for repairs but have not been seen since. (Continued on page 3)

HEREFORD DIDN'T 'BITE'

Chain Letter Bond - Buying Sweeps Across Panhandle During Past Week

Hereford this week appeared to be one of the few Panhandle towns which has escaped the newest "Get Rich Quick" chain selling fad, which is systematically blanketing the nation. The new scheme, basically the same as "dime chains" started back in the '30's, is different in that it concentrates upon purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds. Several Hereford people reported contacts on the scheme, a few bought and several said they declined to purchase. The Hereford State Bank Friday reported sale of five bonds over normal purchases this week, and the First National could not point to any single bond sale which might be attributed to the new fad. An exact replica of the nationwide scheme was noted here in the summer of 1954 when the gimmick was fishing lures. Last fall, it also appeared in the form of ladies "panties," which lited through the mails in huge bundles. Postal authorities declared the "chain" deals as illegal, however, and stopped one of the mails in carrying out the scheme. (Continued on page 2)

Seventeen Men In Draft Calls For Feb. 9-10

A draft call for nine men on Feb. 9, and eight men on Feb. 10, has been issued by the local Selective Service Board, according to Mrs. A. Petersen, clerk.

Included in the call for Feb. 9, are: Thomas Frank Eirkenfeld, Tulsa; Joe Edgar Kerr, Hereford; Joe Anthony Betzen, Hereford; Roy Joe Hershey, Hereford; Floyd Joe Schulte, Dimmitt; Floyd Robert Schaefer, Friona; Alvin Edward Kielem, Nazareth; Norman Ray Taylor, Bovina; Cyril Charles Brockman, Nazareth.

Those who will report for induction on Feb. 10, are: Alex Julius Schroeter, Abilene; Donald Robert Jesko, Muleshoe; Robert Wesley Smith, Dimmitt; George Alfred Drager, Hereford; Gaylon Davis Patterson, Hereford; Arthur Leland Shelton, Dimmitt; Joseph Martin Ramirez, Hereford; and Bob Allen Eller, Canadian.

The local induction call for February was filled, with the exception of one man, with volunteers.

Harman Accident On Icy Roads In Vega Territory

S. L. Harman Sr., was injured Friday when his car skidded on icy pavements six miles north of Vega and overturned.

Mr. Harman was badly bruised, but was not hospitalized.

He was on his way to Guymon to visit with his brother when the accident occurred. Damage to the car was very heavy.

Similar icy conditions were reported by a car of Hereford women who were traveling to Vega to a WSCS meeting. They ran into a heavy coating of ice on the pavement about three miles south of Vega, where they were going to attend a sub-district meeting of the WSCS of the Methodist Church.

By the time they hit the icy strip of road they had also run into sleet and snow.

When they left to return to Hereford Friday afternoon, ice in Vega was beginning to break the limbs of the trees. The closer they came to Hereford the prettier it became until by the time they were home they were in sunshine and warm temperatures, they said.

Those attending were Mrs. C. Conkright, Mrs. Wayne Edwards, Mrs. Bert Boxner and Miss Naomi Hare.

New Method May Expand Scope Of Irrigation Area

A new method of casing deep wells with concrete proved Tuesday afternoon to be efficient with the development of a 300 foot well on the W. P. Betts land, two miles southwest of the Simms Community house. It is predicted to open a vast new irrigation district in the northwest part of the county, which has always been dry land because of the difficulty of developing irrigation wells.

Cementing the wells from the water sand to the surface will ease the problem of pipes getting out of alignment and breaking off in the well, sponsors said. It will also keep the "cave sand" from seeping into the water sand, thus causing the well to pump sand instead of pure clear water, according to Darrell Harkins, who developed this method of casing the wells. This method should prove practical enough that wells can be drilled on the many sections of the vast territory, he said.

Approximately 200 irrigation farmers and drillers have been to the well during the past week looking over the development which could become an irrigation miracle for the area.

A GOAL OF $7,635 was announced for the 1955 Red Cross Roll Call campaign this week by Bill Decker, chairman. Decker also appealed for cooperation in completing the drive as rapidly as possible.

Red Cross Names Leaders; Kickoff Set For Feb. 28

A goal of $7,635 and 1,500 members has been set for the Deaf Smith County Red Cross drive, according to Bill Decker, 1955 campaign chairman.

Plans for the drive have been completed and committee chairmen have been appointed, Decker said.

The nine chairmen who have been named for the 1955 campaign are: Carl McCaslin, advance gifts; O. D. Lowry, special gifts; Howard Gault, industrial; Dick Barnard and Bill Patton, business section; Mrs. Robert Veigel and Mrs. E. F. Cain, residential and Charlie Hill and Steve Clements, rural.

A kick-off breakfast on Monday, Feb. 28, at 10 o'clock will officially start the month-long drive.

"We have always raised our goal in less than a month," Decker said, "and based on that, we hope to complete our current drive by (Continued on Page 2)

Merchants Group Lists Holidays For Coming Year

The Retail Merchants organization approved seven official holidays for the coming year at their meeting Friday morning.

The first of the holidays will be almost four months off, coming the last of May, Memorial Day. During the month of November, there will be two official holidays, Veteran's Day and Thanksgiving. The holidays will be:

- Memorial Day—May 30
Independence Day—July 4
Labor Day—September 4
Veteran's Day—November 11
Thanksgiving—November 24
Christmas—December 25
New Year—January 1, 1956

The group discussed and approved having their parcel post delivered to the back or side door of their businesses rather than to the front as it has been done in the past.

The merchants were warned to be on the lookout for chain letters which were circulating in the area on U. S. Savings bonds.

Soliciting and peddling were discussed and definite action will be taken, when a committee reports on what can be done about eliminating and controlling peddlers and solicitors. A program to educate housewives and businessmen on the methods used by peddlers and solicitors was also discussed, but no definite action resulted.

Recover Stolen Car; Man Held In County Jail

Larry R. Trotter, 17, was being held in the county jail this week following his arrest in Amarillo Thursday on charges of theft by Bailee.

Trotter was charged with having taken a 1948 Ford from Norris Busby, Hereford cafe operator, on Feb. 1, and was returned to Hereford by Police Chief Leo Box, who turned the case over to the county.

Trotter, a resident of Amarillo, told jailers that he is AWOL from Ft. Bliss. The automobile was also recovered in Amarillo in connection with the arrest.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Smith are at Truth or Consequences, N. M., for a two or three week's stay.

Dimes Drive Near $6,000 To Set New Area Record

Hereford's 1955 March of Dimes campaign Saturday was slightly over the $5,900 mark, according to C. C. Acker, treasurer, who predicted that the drive this year will bring in $6,000 by the time all phases have been completed.

The figure sets a new record for the area, running $1,688.83 over the 1954 campaign, which totaled out with $4,311.17. In 1953, the March of Dimes drew only $3,619.78—which was $2,386.22 under the estimated total for this year.

"Quite a few donations keep dribbling in from folks who were missed during the drive," Acker said. "We also still have to hear from the lung containers which were distributed in various business houses over town. All in all, it looks safe to say that the 1955 drive will top the $6,000 mark with ease."

The figure is also $1,000 above the tentative $5,000 goal set by local chairmen, since no quota is issued by the National Foundation.

Grain Storage Now 6,425,000 Bushels

Work got underway Tuesday on a new 560,000-bushel concrete storage unit at Sears Grain Company, which sends Hereford's total elevator storage spiraling to a total of 6,425,000 bushels. The storage figure, when combined with Summerfield's 485,000 bushels and Dawn's 550,000 bushels, totaled 7,460,000 bushels for the immediate territory.

"Construction is being handled by Chalmers and Borlen of Kansas," Henry Sears said, "and is scheduled to be completed by April 1, 1955." The new addition will give Sears a combined storage total of 725,000 bushels.

People who are wondering about pouring concrete during freezing weather can also rest at ease, according to Bill Walraven, foreman, who says: "I would rather pour concrete in 20-degree weather than in 80-degree weather." The situation is made possible by addition of a calcium chloride compound, known in the trade as "anti freeze," which Walraven says will make the concrete even a bit stronger.

In addition to the Sears construction, Fraser Grain Company also recently reactivated around 700,000 bushels of storage when they replaced their old "black bin" with an all-steel modern construction, which is nearing completion this week.

Info Missing On Eight Draftees

Eight men listed with the local draft board will become delinquents if they do not list their present addresses with the local board. The eight are all older men with a III-A classification, Mrs. Petersen said, but they are still subject to notify the board of any change of address. In case the men cannot be found they will become delinquents. Anyone knowing their whereabouts should notify the local selective service office at once, she continued.

The eight men are: Dan Wilton Dunn, Clarence Hall, Buddy Lee McClennan, Deibert Carrer, Aser Clinton Johnson, William Ester Gipson, Dale Wallace Jackson and Emmitt Lee Owens.

ANOTHER 560,000 BUSHELS of elevator storage was under construction this week at Sears Grain Company as workmen poured concrete on the new bids. Completion will give Hereford around 6 1/2 million bushels of storage which, with Summerfield and Dawn, boosts the total to almost 7 1/2 million bushels in the immediate area. (Staff Photo)

Crazy Sweeps Panhandle
It was a different story in other points, though, as reports trickled in this week. Banks in Wellington, Childress, Quanah and Floydada were reported completely without $25 savings bonds. The situation became so wide in scope that the Federal Reserve Bank in Dallas sent out warning letters to member banks in which they definitely frowned upon the practice--despite the fact that bond sales were soaring to a point topped only during World War II buying. Federal Reserve said that such purchases are definitely not in keeping with the purpose of savings bonds and, although no legal action was cited, they advised selling agencies to discourage such sales in the interest of public welfare.

Early Bird Gets Dough
Like other "chain gimmicks," the Chain Bond Sales brought reports of great returns to some of the few "early birds" who started the scheme on its merry way. Most of the buyers, however, were soon left out as the scheme mushroomed to gigantic mathematical proportions--leaving no customers for those down the line. The only alternative remaining was to circulate the chain deal into another city, which accounts for its passage across the country.

"The scheme is a letter," said an Amarillo post office inspector Friday. "Sending the bonds through the mail is using the mails to further a lottery, and that's illegal."

The statute carries a maximum penalty of two years in prison, a fine of $1,000--or both.

The following report concerning the newest chain fad appears in the Floydada, Texas, Hesperian, where the scheme was reaching an apex this past week.

"A wave of chain selling has hit Floydada, along with numerous other high plains cities and towns. A merry-go-round of buying, selling and give-away of the $25 U. S. savings bonds hit quietly here weeks ago and has snow-balled to considerable proportions by Tuesday of this week.

"The get-rich-quick gimmick apparently hit Floydada both from the east and the west. Small bond sales which had been slowed down to an average of two a day at the

Mrs. Pruitt Is New 4-H Leader Council Head

Mrs. Roy Pruitt was named chairman of the 4-H Leaders Council at the meeting of the group Friday afternoon in the REA building.

Mrs. Ira Ott was chosen as vice chairman and Mrs. T. B. Thomas, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Ed Dziuk gave a report of the poultry committee and Mrs. M. H. Wiseman gave a finance report.

A training session on "Broiling meats" was given following the business session.

For the opening exercise Loyce Sullivan led the group in the recitation of the 4-H Club pledge and prayer.

Those attending were: Mrs. Ira Ott, Mrs. George Heard, Happy Homes; Mrs. Roy Pruitt, Walcott; Mrs. T. B. Thomas, Sadie Lee Oliver; Mrs. J. E. Dyer, Jolly Girls; Mrs. M. H. Wiseman and Mrs. Ed Dziuk, County Wide; Mrs. T. J. Parsons, Merry Maidens; and Mrs. C. F. Homfeld, Caprock.

First National Bank here were in the two-digit numbers yesterday. Tuesday sales had jumped to 20 shortly after noon. C. H. Bedford, vice-president of the bank, said:

"The situation is unusual, especially, because the bonds are being bought for other people. A number of them have gone out of town.

How You Get Started
"The way the plan figures out on paper, you get something for nothing before the chain has run its course. The way to go at it is to find somebody who has a "give away the wealth" chain letter. You pay $18.75 for the letter, then you go to the bank and buy an $18.75 (face value) bond and deliver it to the person whose name is at the top of the list of the letter you have purchased. The letter has 11 names on it.

"That accomplished you are in business. Your next move is to make two copies of your letter, putting your name on the bottom of your lists, and remove the top name.

"You sell these two letters at $18.75 each and you have your money back! Also your name is on the list. If the chain is not broken you'll get 2,048 bonds, the present value of which would be $38,400 held until maturity more than $30,000.

Handle With Post Office
"A few Floydada people are already getting bonds, according to cafe talk. These got in on the deal early.

"The question of sending the bonds through the mails has been raised, but the answer to that is that all a man is doing is mailing a U. S. Savings bond to somebody. One report said that the postal authorities in a location "have visited" had squashed the scheme. Accordingly it appears there is due to be a torrid wrangle over the matter--until such time as there is not any customer left to buy the letters."

College Group To Present Play By Hereford Student

CANYON, Feb. 3--"Another Tomorrow," an original play by Gary Walker, sophomore speech student from Hereford, will be presented by the Buffalo Masquers in the Branding Iron Theatre at West Texas State College Monday and Tuesday nights at 8 o'clock.

Walker's modernistic drama is the first student-written production to be staged at WT since 1952, when "Midway Incident," by Fred

GARY WALKER

Wills was given. Proceeds will go for Buffalo Masquer projects.

The play departs from the conventional style and presentation, with no scene or act divisions. Staging emphasizes lighting and two areas for action. Story concerns a group of boys in a college dormitory.

Directing the play will be Letha Fedrie, Stratford, and Paul Caillet, Dallas; William A. Moore, associate professor of speech, will supervise the production.

In the cast are John Welton, Pampa; Buddy Knox, Canyon;

Jerry Williams, Canyon; Fred Ralphen, Canadian; Bobby Vandergrieff, Canyon; Jim Cornette, Canyon; Joe Snyder, Pampa; and Don Bauer, Tulia.

President of the Buffalo Masquers, Walker is a member of the Buffalo Bills, Advisory Council, the Wesley Foundation Council, and the Wesley Players.

No Dope Sales

No traces of attempted dope peddling have been reported since the incident, according to Sheriff Lowell Sharp, who says he believes the men were merely passing through Hereford when they had car trouble, and possibly forgot the barbiturates when they moved on.

The "yellowjacks" ordinarily sell at 50 cents to $1 each, when handled through "dope pushers," according to officers. Their retail value, when sold on prescriptions is around 10 cents each. Officers estimate from 1,200 to 1,500 capsules in the three sacks.

You may have read of the drunkometer test they use in some cities for drivers suspected of having a few too many. The driver breathes into a balloon and the police test his breath for alcohol. A certain percentage of alcohol and... you've had it. And no chlorophyl gum can help you.

Most people know about a similar test you can try on a used car (not that our cars look drunk, mind you, but it's a similar idea). Almost everybody watches for smoke from the exhaust, but I find a lot of people really don't know what they're looking for, or why.

When you're browsing around a used car, race the engine a few times and watch the exhaust fumes for blue smoke. It's the blue you want to look for, not gray or black.

What does it all mean? The car that billows blue smoke is burning oil. Eventually, it will require a ring job, as all cars do sooner or later.

It's not a sign of anything fundamentally wrong (the driver in the breath test can be sobered up pretty quickly.) If you like the car in other ways it will still be a good buy.

We didn't have any blue-smokers on the lot the last time I looked. When you're shopping around, though, I hope you'll ask to be shown everything you want to see, ask the things you want to know -- poke around a little yourself to make sure.

Take a car out on the road and drive it the way you'll be driving your own. You do that much for a new pair of shoes, we want you to get the "feel" of your new-used car, too.

We have recently taken in several one-owner late model cars among which are a 1953 Buick Riviera, 1951 4-Door Cadillac, 1955 Oldsmobile '98 4 Door, and several others to choose from.

Dudes, Piggly Take Lead In City League

Piggly Wiggly and the City Dudes took victories in opening night action of the Hereford City Basketball League Monday night. Piggly Wiggly rambled over Summerfield 49-25, and the City Dudes wrecked Doc's Dozen 45-37.

Piggly Wiggly, which is made up of many ex-Hereford High School stars, had no trouble in talking the victory from Summerfield. Paced by Ken Brock, they were ahead at every stop.

Brock was high for the Piggly Wiggly team with 21 points. Leroy Suttle paced Summerfield with 12.

The game between Doc's Dozen and the City Dudes was considerably closer than the Summerfield-Piggly Wiggly game. Doc's spotted the Dudes an early seven-point lead and then made a game out of it. Final score was 45-37 with the Dudes on the long end.

High point man for Doc's Dozen was Stan Barrett with 16. High for the City Dudes was Marcus Matthews. Matthews tallied 15.

The league was organized just recently, and it promises to furnish some fast and exciting action. Trophies will be given to the team which finishes first at the end of the season which will last through March 10. A tournament will also be held, the winner, receiving a trophy.

Walcott News

By Mrs. T. L. Collins

Steve Patton was nine years old on Friday, Feb. 4. His mother, Mrs. Cliff Patton brought a lovely birthday cake to school that afternoon. His birthday party was held in Mrs. M. L. Preston's classroom. Games were played. Refreshments were served.

Due to the ice formed on roads and windshields, the Walcott School buses did not make their regular runs on Thursday morning. Thus the children had an unexpected holiday.

A. J. Walker and Ettie left Friday afternoon for Mineral Wells. Mrs. Walker is with her mother who is very ill.

Walcott P-TA met Friday night for games and visiting. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Preston entertained the children. Mr. and Mrs. Travis Alston of Westway were guests for the evening.

Two films were shown by Mr. Collins. Refreshments were served by the Walcott faculty.

Aven Birthday

Dickie Aven was honored on his fourth birthday with a party given by his mother, Mrs. Hilrey Aven, Tuesday afternoon.

A valentine theme was carried out in the decorations, and valentine horns were given as favors. Those attending were: Dawn and Randy Hopson, Lile Livesay and Donald Williams. Mrs. L. J. Livesay also attended.

IT'S GOT EVERYTHING -- Walnut and rattan room divider utilizing pigskin, plastic and brass. By John Wisner.

Today's Furniture In Rainbow Colors

CHICAGO -- Today's furniture is colorful, casual and airy. It is ideal for the small home, often can be utilized in several rooms and is equipped with hard-to-hurt surfaces. Color was stressed at the International Home Furnishings Market held here at the Merchandise Mart and American Furniture Mart. Woods took on new hues. "The contemporary trend is not so new now," says Edward Wormley, furniture designer. "There's continued interest in free designs, with better quality and a kind of elegance that doesn't shout." New Wormley creations include a Bristol blue upholstered occasional dining chair with laminated ash frame. A love seat on a mahogany frame is upholstered in aqua textured fabric filled with silver threads. It has a deepened channel where seat and back meet to give it a new look. Colors in upholstery fabrics have drifted away from bright reds and yellow greens. They are quiet with deep blues and blue-greens. Color refinement also is in woods. Dining room furniture may be finished in charcoal. Bedroom pieces are tinted in light jade green and misty pink colors. Mahogany woods are finished in two-tone effects. Upholstered, wood and metal pieces are used as room dividers. Far Eastern rattan is freely used on cabinet doors and chairs. Leather reflects a simple elegance. Designer John Wisner emphasized this with a room divider utilizing natural walnut, rattan, pigskin, plastic panels and brass. A MODERN DESIGN -- The captain's chair has been fitted with elevated platform on springs to rock slitters. By G. McStay Jackson.

DINE IN COMFORT -- Upholstered occasional dining chair by Edward Wormley is Bristol Blue supported by laminated ash frame.

rattan frame supports a china cabinet of walnut. Pigskin leather tile is used to decorate sliding doors for the lower credenza. Raffia strands are embedded in plastic sheets used as sliding doors for the upper china cabinet. Paul McCobb scaled down a hi-fi unit of walnut-finished mahogany to the small home or apartment. He designed a bookcase-China unit with solid brass frame and mahogany-woodwork in sandrift tone. George Nelson created a full-sized armchair scaled to look small. It is upholstered in a soft green fabric, has wide arm rests and spindle-type legs of satin chrome to give it a light appearance. Harold M. Schwartz gives a bedroom group a delicate look with an off-white edged headboard framing a pink upholstered inset panel. Contrasting night stands are of natural finish oak. Sliding tambour doors enable easy storage. Matching pink upholstered benches fit under the night stands. G. McStay Jackson's modernized captain's chair in ebony and maple has a seat on an elevated platform which rests on four springs to enable the sitter to rock. Indoor lighting has received attention by the National Home Lamp Council. Its group of 22 members displayed a bowl-like prismatic diffuser designed to provide up to 100 percent more illumination than conventional lamps.

Tired Feet Add a tablespoonful of soda to a pint of common bran and put in a basin, dampening with sufficient hot water to make a paste. Immerse the feet in this for 10 or 15 minutes and great relief will be felt.

Oatmeal Soap Oatmeal soap for the bath can be made by melting a large bar of white soap and adding 2 cups of oatmeal and 2 teaspoons of borax. Spread out in baking tins and when cool cut into cakes.

Fresh Bread When cutting fresh bread for the table dip the knife in hot water and see how much easier the work becomes.

Iodine Stains If iodine has been spilled on clothing, cover the spots with white laundry soap, and allow it to remain in cold water for at least two hours. It can then be laundered in the usual fashion and the stains will wash out.

Soap Bubble Liquid Tough bubbles can be blown by the children by using the following solution: 2 parts of dry castile soap, 30 parts of glycerine, 40 parts of water.

Layer Cake A layer cake can be baked in one pan of sufficient depth, by cutting pieces of paraffin paper and placing it between each layer.

Boiled Eggs Boiled eggs will continue to cook if left in hot water, even though the fire is turned off. To keep them warm until needed, pour the water off, replace eggs in hot pan and replace cover tightly.

Burns To relieve the pain of a burn cover with dry flour; or make a paste of common baking soda and water and apply. Butter, or a scraped raw potato applied to the burn, are also effective.

Debating Team Has Outstanding Record

Four Hereford boys attended an invitational debating tournament on Saturday in Amarillo. One Hereford team, made up of Clarence Caywood and Donald Zimmerman, won three out of four of their debates. They debated with Pampa, Midland, Perryton and lost to a team of a boy and a girl from Perryton. The Midland team was one of the four teams from Midland which debated to win the tournament cup. Only schools with teams entered in both the boys and girls divisions were eligible for the cup. The other Hereford team, Robert Woolsey and Robert Davis lost to two Lubbock teams, one Amarillo team and one Pampa team. The Lubbock teams are slated to go to state. Mrs. Elmer Patterson, high school speech teacher, sponsors the two teams.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnie Townsend, Sandra and Tirrie Jan were supper guests of the Lewis Neals in Hereford Friday night. Mrs. J. O. Harris of Channing and children are staying with her parents the Everett McIntosh's while her husband is in Deaf Smith County Hospital for treatment. Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Evans and daughter Mrs. Muri Brown of Amarillo called in the Johnie Townsend home recently. Mr. and Mrs. Preach Merritt and G. C. moved from the N. D. Bartlett place to a farm eight miles south of Hereford last week. Mrs. Joe Landers and Mrs. Roy Lee Wilson went to Simms recently to sing in the H. D. Choir. The children of the Elvir Wilson's are confined to their home with the chicken pox. Moisture received in the area last week was very much appreciated although the amount was small. Larry Kaul and Florene McIntosh attended a banquet given the Seniors by the W.M.U. ladies of the First Baptist Church of Hereford. Mrs. Roy Lee Wilson attended a study of "Rose Culture" at the Central School last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rudd attended the funeral of LeRoy Rudd in Hereford last Sunday. The Westway W. M. U. met with Mrs. A. A. Head in Hereford last Wednesday. The lesson was a study of the sixth chapter of Acts with members reading and discussing same. The ladies packed quilt scraps to be mailed to the Mental Hospital in Austin. Early planning for Vacation Bible School was discussed. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jack Renfro Feb. 16. Ladies present were Mesdames: Joe Landers, Roy Lee Wilson, Everett McIntosh, Harold Head, J. C. Morrison, Johnie Townsend and the hostess. Mary Lynn Morrison was hostess to the Sadie Lee Oliver 4-H Club on Wednesday. Mrs. Jimmy Thomas gave the girls a demonstration on "Broiling Meats." Florene McIntosh newly elected president presided over the meeting. Members present were: Nancy Green, Jane Auten, Florene McIntosh, Sandra Townsend and the hostess. Florene McIntosh will be hostess for the club Feb. 16. Lucky Attends Church
The family pet of the Elmer Combs, a screw tail bulldog attended church services Sunday night. Rev. R. D. Evans had just begun his sermon when Lucky came quietly through the door (left ajar due to an over heated room). Without hesitation she walked right over to her master, climbed up on his lap and sitting very still and showing very little curiosity remained for the preaching service. Even when the speaker raised his voice and pointed his finger, Lucky only pricked her ears. Elmer said "I was afraid she would wander over the building before finding me," but evidently she spotted her master before entering the building. "She was a well behaved dog," commented the youngsters. "Maybe a little more reverent than we."

FRED BAIRD FIRST... AGAIN!

License Tag Sales Off To Slow Start

Sale of 1955 license plates got off to a slow start here this week, according to reports from the county tax office, where 111 passenger car plates were recorded as having been sold Saturday morning.

The first plate, "A-R 2990," went to Fred Baird early on the morning of Tuesday, Feb. 1. This was the eighteenth consecutive year that Mr. Baird has bought Deaf Smith County's first plate. He started the custom in 1937, and has since that time made it a point to be the early bird on license plates. He attached the plate the same day he made the purchase.

Despite the slow start this week, license tag sales will definitely pick up during the next 60 days, however, if 1955 sales are to reach the 4,000 mark on tag sales in 1954 on passenger cars. The state delivered 4,100 passenger car tags to the county this year to cover anticipated needs. The last tag carries serial number "A-R 9999."

Rogers Predicts Fight On Water Issue For Texas

Austin, Feb. 4—Senator Andy Rogers, District 30, of Childress, today forecast a battle on the floor of the state senate "between representatives of plains landowners and a lot of people from other places who think they can do a good job of running our business for us."

Speaking out against "absentee control and regulation of underground water" by state and federal governmental bodies, Sen. Rogers said that "water use and control should be in the hands of the landowner—the man who knows what the water problem is on the plains." He condemned a measure submitted earlier in the legislative session by Sen. Gus Strauss of Dallasville, Senate Bill 130, that would control and regulate all underground water in Texas that is not covered by locally-controlled water conservation districts.

"It looks now like somebody is trying to force the plains areas into water districts—either that or subject landowners to bureaucratic interference in our water matters," Rogers said any workable solution of the problem will "have to come from the people who will have to live with the decisions."

"I want to pledge to the people of the 30th District that I and your other elected representatives in Austin will continue to fight for landowner decision in matters affecting water and other resources of the plains area."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kendall and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lenderman are attending the Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth this week.

Damages $200 In Local Accidents

About $100 in damages were estimated in an accident Thursday afternoon at the intersection of Highway 51 and Highway 60.

Gene Streun, driving a 1948 Plymouth made a left turn onto Highway 51 from U. S. Highway 60 and Edna Scott, driving a 1951 Chevrolet started pulling away from the stop sign when the two autos collided.

Damage to the Streun auto was set at $100.

Edna Scott was given a ticket for failure to grant the right-of-way and no operator's license.

Damages $100

About $100 in damages were listed in an accident Friday morning on Third Street about 40 feet west of Schley Street.

W. H. Awtry, who was driving a 1954 Plymouth, was going west on Third, when he stopped near the intersection of Schley Street.

Joe A. Stagner, traveling south on Schley in a 1947 Chevrolet made a right turn onto Third and collided with the Awtry auto.

RECORD SET -- T. T. Perry, manager of the Texas Tech Poultry Farm at Lubbock, Texas, holds Queenie the year old white Rock hen that laid the largest egg he has seen in his 35 years of poultry business. The egg weighs 5 1/2 ounces, 9 1/2 inches around the long way, 7 1/2 inches the short way, is held along side of a large size egg. Queen is one of 325 hens (products of 2nd generation inbreeding which are producing 2 dozen double-yolked eggs each week. Perry believes the strain may produce eggs large as turkey eggs if inbreeding is continued. (AP Wirephoto)

Cast Is Announced For Senior Play

The cast for the annual senior play which is scheduled for March 31 and April 1, was announced this week by Mrs. W. W. Buck, senior sponsor.

The play, a three act comedy, "No More Homework," is a story showing the problems the officers of the student council of Ames High School run into when they run the school for a day.

The cast includes: Barbara Winger as Tullulah Ploety, the high school's gift to the "The-ah-teh"; Donnie Johnson as Shalamas Ames, a trouble-making, good looking, over-indulged girl; J. B. Wills as Mr. Harper, a history teacher and confirmed bachelor; Joe Easley as Buzz Bailey, Pamela Jones' boyfriend; Georgia Lewis as Pamela, a capable, conscientious, well-liked girl of 17; Wanda Kirksey as Miss Ogilvie, an English teacher and Drah-ma coach; Clarence Caywood as Mr. Ames, a paunchy, pompous attorney; Jean Glass as Midge Murphy, who is fond of rumors and bubble gum; Pickens Moore as Coach Guthrie, who is breezy and congenial; Larry Kaul, as Mr. Lundquist, the long-suffering, ambitious, principal; David Self as "Tick Tok" the janitor; Billie Martin as Mrs. Patchett, a scrub woman; Cleta Betzen as Miss Goodin, a mathematics teacher; Martha Jean Brown as Miss Dill, the school secretary; John Benson as Ronald Sassoon, a handsome, over-confident basketball star; Lynn Bybee as Faversham Lightly, a very slow and sleepy freshman and Sylvia McCracken as Mrs. Clendenning, a plump science teacher.

Mrs. Bill Stevens and Byron left Thursday by train to join her husband, A-2c Bill Stevens, who is stationed at Travis Air Base in California. Mrs. Stevens is the former Bettye Henry.

Parents To Hear Teenage Trials In Traffic Court

The City of Hereford this week took steps to curb an outbreak of teenage traffic violations which have suddenly appeared on city court dockets.

Chief measure in halting the sudden rash will be a request for appearance of parents, along with youths who face charges on speeding and on second violations, according to City Manager Cecil Maysey and City Attorney Earnest Langley.

The City reported 21 violations for the past week on speeding and stop signs. They said that 18 of the violations were made by teenage youths as compared with three for adults. Many of the youths, they say, appear indifferent to fines and adopt antagonistic attitudes when they appear in city court.

City officials feel that when parents understand true conditions concerning violations, especially speeding, the measure will do much to curb the sudden outbreak of youthful violations.

ABOUT 35 HEREFORD members of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church are planning to attend the District Brotherhood Annual Evangelistic rally in Lubbock Tuesday evening. The group will travel by chartered bus. Speaker for the evening will be Dr. Ramsey Pollard, pastor of the Broadway Baptist Church of Knoxville, Tenn.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashby

Q. How can I keep a child from biting his fingernails?

A. Apply the following nail varnish: 1 1/2 ounce alcohol; 1/4 ounce choline; 1/4 ounce gum mastic; 1 1/8 ounces gum myrrh. Mix and allow to stand forty-eight hours, shaking the bottle occasionally. Brush on the nails. It can be removed with alcohol or hot water.

Q. How can I clean leather?

A. Add a little vinegar to warm water (not hot), rub over the leather with a clean cloth, then wipe dry. Grease stains can be removed with benzine or pure turpentine.

Q. How can I soften brown sugar and make it easier to measure?

A. By placing it in a flat baking can and placing in the oven for a few minutes. However, it should be watched closely to prevent burning.

Q. What is the proper way to care for meat?

A. Uncooked meat should not be allowed to lay in its own juice or it may become tainted. Place the meat on a platter with a hollow center that will hold the juice without the meat touching it.

Q. How can I make shoes waterproof?

A. Apply a dressing made by melting together two parts of beeswax to one part of mutton fat. Apply at night and remove the next morning by wiping with a piece of flannel.

Q. How can I make a good hand lotion?

A. By mixing equal parts of glycerine and camphor; or equal parts of glycerine, rose water, and bay rum.

Q. How can I make bedsheets last longer?

A. They will last longer if after laundering, they are hung on the line correctly. Shake well, while still wet, then hang them with the hems pinned to the lines.

Q. How can I make nutmeats crisp?

A. Nutmeats will become crisp again if they are placed in the oven for a few minutes. This also applies to wafers that have become wilted during hot weather.

Q. How should gilt frames be cleaned?

A. Go over them with a dry cloth to remove the dust. Then wash with tepid water, in which an onion has been boiled. Use a soft cloth to rub dry.

Q. How can I keep blankets fluffy?

A. After laundering woolen blankets and clothing in lukewarm water and soap flakes add a few soap flakes to the last rinse water.

Ever run out of gas? I heard about a fellow the other day who ran out of insurance. . . He had an auto accident, a bad one, got dragged through court. . . When the smoke cleared there was a judgment against him for $27,250. . . He had $5,000 bodily injury liability insurance for each person and $10,000 for each accident. . . Cost him $17,250. They finally settled by taking his house, his car and $2,000 cash. . . All he had. . . Just like running out of gas; car's no good without gas. . . Insurance's not much good unless there's enough of it. . . If you're in doubt, whether your coverage is adequate, just call Lone Star Insurance Agency, 136 N Main Street, Phone 424.

Miss Naomi Hare of Hereford was guest speaker for the meeting of the Joyce Hill-Naomi Hare Sub District of WSCS of the Methodist Church Friday in Vega.

Mrs. Bert Boomer of Hereford was elected assistant leader of the sub-district during the afternoon business session.

Mrs. Co. Co. Conkright served on the nominating committee.

Mrs. Wayne Edwards conducted the record reports for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bennett stopped in Hereford Friday afternoon for a brief visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Patterson before continuing to Fortan where they will visit for a week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bennett. They plan to return to Hereford next week for a longer visit. He is on a 3-day leave before being shipped overseas.

Nutritionists recommended that some animal protein be included in each meal. The following (oz) give about the same amount of animal protein: 1/2 cup cottage cheese; 3 ounces cheddar cheese; 2 1/2 cups milk; 3 ounces of cooked lean meat, poultry or fish; 3 medium-sized eggs.

Braising pork chops? Top them with green pepper and onion rings for delicious flavor. Canned cream of mushroom sauce, with a little soy sauce added, makes an excellent braising liquid.

Candice Lynn (Connie Hopson) and Bill Bailey (Bartley Dowell) Who were very much in love at one time meet unexpectedly. -- "Let's try patching things up."

"But Candice Lynn is on this train" Mrs. Haskins (center) tells others of the cast while Bartley Dowell as Bill Bailey and Connie Hopson as Candice Lynn listen in consternation.

Little Theatre

Opening Night

The theater minded portion of Hereford's populace are assured of wholesome entertainment for every member of the family on Friday night, Feb. 11, when Hereford's Little Theater, "The Shadow Players" will present its first public performance, in the new high school auditorium. Three one-act plays will be presented, "The Blue Teapot", "Seeds of Suspicion" and "Albuquerque Ten Minutes".

Since its organization in August, 1954, the group has been practicing and perfecting several one-act plays in preparation for opening presentation. At the present time, casting has also been completed and rehearsals are underway for the first major production, a three-act play "Time Out for Ginger" under the direction of Jack Teague of Amarillo. Mr. Teague is a member of the Palo Duro Players of West Texas State College and has had wide experience in Little Theater work.

This group is a non-profit organization, being financed by member dues and proceeds from public productions. Members of the board of directors include Kathleen Cayler, chairman; Pat Loerwald, secretary; Tomi Mathies, treasurer; Will G. Harris, Janice and Bedford Forrest and Betty Babione.

"The Blue Teapot"

Will Harris, left, as Pa Brown, Betty Babione as Ma, Tomi Mathies as Jim McNabe and Georgia Lewis as Cynthia -- With the aid of Ma and Pa Brown Jimmy and Cynthia became reconciled and Jimmy presents the blue teapot which serves as an example for engaged couples to remember when problems must be solved through compromise.

Tomi Mathies as Jimmy McNabe and Betty Babione as Ma Brown -- "Pa bought that blue teapot years ago -- Women have to learn to understand men and the things they do."

W.S.C.S. Holds Luncheon Meet

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of The First Methodist Church held its regular luncheon-program meeting at the church Wednesday. Hostesses for the luncheon were Mesdames G. W. Edwards, J. C. Cummings, Harry Lomas, John Jacobsen Jr., and W. J. Messick.

Mrs. Leo Forrest was leader of the program which followed the luncheon, explaining the united work of protestant church women. Mrs. S. L. Easley gave the program on missions and Mrs. Bert Boomer gave the prayer.

Like mocha flavor? Put a teaspoon of instant coffee and a teaspoon of instant cocoa into a cup. Fill with boiling water and add cream and sugar to taste.

Let's Cook Something

A Favorite Of Mrs. M. W. Nobles

So many wonderful dishes come to us from other countries and when we are lucky enough to get hold of special recipes like the one we are giving you today, it rapidly becomes a favorite. We asked Mrs. M. W. Nobles for today's recipe which she often uses, as does Mrs. R. R. Wills who first used it.

The Hungarians are famous for their treatment of meat and for their combinations of meats which give that something different to the flavor and appetite appeal. As is the Hungarian custom, this dish may be used in varied combinations and for any type of meal. A tossed green salad and a light dessert with your favorite hot drink makes a wonderful meal in anybody's language. As a luncheon main dish it makes delightful food for the party hostess.

Beef Stroganoff

1 1/2 pounds sirloin or tenderloin steak cut in 1/4 inch strips

3 tablespoons flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 clove garlic

Trim fat from meat and rub both sides with garlic. Mix flour and seasonings and pound into both sides of meat.

1/4 cup oleo margarine
1/2 cup minced onion
1/4 cup water
1 can condensed Cream of Chicken Soup
2-4 oz. cans mushrooms sliced

Melt the margarine in a Dutch oven or deep skillet and brown meat strips turning often. Add onions and saute until a golden brown. Add water and stir to dissolve browned particles in bottom of container. Add soup and mushrooms and simmer slowly (uncovered) on top of stove for 1 1/2 hours. Add one cup of sour cream with a bit of minced parsley or chive just before serving.

Serve with rice or gritz. Wild rice is recommended for best flavor.

"Children's Fears" Topic Of Young Mothers Study Club

"Children's Fears" provided an interesting subject for members of the Young Mother's Club Tuesday night when a meeting of the club was held in the home of the president, Mrs. Rex Lee.

A two-part program was presented by Mrs. H. A. Cavness and Mrs. Harold Banks.

Mrs. Cavness reviewed the book "How to Prevent Unnecessary Fears," by A. A. Bantz and H. Potts in which the authors recommended beginning to assuage a child's fears almost before they start.

Mrs. Banks used the book "Children Are People" as a basis for a discussion on "How To Cope with Childhood Fears." She cited examples of parents' control of childhood fears through love and understanding.

Members of the club present were: Mesdames Harold Banks, Bill Beady, H. A. Cavness, Hugh Clearman, W. B. Dowell, Gerald Hale, L. H. Lookingbill Jr., Don Martin, Clinton Massie, John Winkler, Sam Albright and the hostess.

Alternate squares of beef tenderloin, small mushrooms and squares of green pepper and bacon on skewers. Dip in melted butter or margarine and broil. Serve with rice and tomato sauce.

Drama Appreciation Program Is Presented For Bay View Club

"Drama Appreciation" was the subject for the play at the Bay View Study Club session held on Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Geo. Heard. Mrs. Paul Mathers was leader of the program.

Mrs. Mathers spoke on "The Common Sense of Drama" and quoted from the book of that title by L. A. Stron. "The scope of drama is as wide as life. It has, humanly speaking, no limits—life is drama and drama is life."

Mrs. C. J. Crump gave critic's comments on current Broadway hits, including "Anastasia," a dramatic episode by Guy Bolton, "The Bad Seed," a shocking melodrama by Maxwell Anderson, "Dear Charles" a new version of "The Flowering Peach" by Clifford Odets, "Lunatics and Lovers", a farce, "Mrs. Patterson," a fantasy, and "Quadriple," by Noel Coward. "Witness For the Prosecution" a murder mystery by Agatha Christie and "The Anniversary Waltz" a comedy.

Horizon Club Presents Play

The Shangri-La Horizon Club presented a playlet "The Simple Things in Life" under the direction of the sponsor, Mrs. Emil Dettman.

As the play opens the girls are in their club house preparing for a visit from a distinguished visitor, Mrs. Willard Colton Cutting, society woman and club leader. Everything goes wrong and their planned formal meal falls flat. The picnic with pop and hot dogs held in substitution, went over big, however, with the visitor who declared "I like the simple things of life." Girls in the cast were Tina Beth Hazlewood, Faye Noyes, Wanda King, Marylon Williams, Gwendolyn Wright, Mary Martin, Jo Martin and June Shreve.

At the conclusion of the session it was announced that the next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Ansel McDowell instead of Mrs. Carroll Goss and Mrs. Glenn Hopson were co-hostesses for the LaMadre Mia Study Club Tuesday night at the Goss home. Roll call was answered by members listing favorite current novels.

LaMadre Mia Club Meets Tuesday

Mrs. Joe Lyons, leader of the program, discussed sex problems with children, stressing the fact that nervousness may be responsible for many such problems.

A short talk on Red Cross and the need for donations to carry out the program of the Red Cross was given by Kenneth Coker.

Mrs. Carroll Goss read the newly revised constitution and by-laws and Mrs. Dennis Lomas gave the federation report.

Mrs. Raymond Wells was welcomed as a new member of the club.

Those in attendance were Mesdames Don Fudge, Glenn Hopson, Dean Herring, Dennis Lomas, Joe Lyons, Hershel Miller, Bobby Owen, Stanley Phillip, Ogle Riddle, Troys Riddle, Eugene Sparks, Vernon Wilson, Morris Easley, Raymond Brown and the hostesses.

Valentine Party Plans Completed By L'Allegra Club

Plans were completed for a valentine party honoring husbands at the regular meeting of L'Allegra Study Club held in the home of Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Jr., Thursday afternoon. Arrangements committee members include Mesdames Richard Ireland, John Estes, H. A. Cavness and V. C. Hopson. The party will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Slagle with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ireland serving as hosts.

Mrs. J. W. Barnett, chairman of the project committee, announced plans for the club to decorate the pediatrics ward in the Deaf Smith County Hospital, as the club's main project for the remainder of the club year.

Virgil Dodson presented the program which included a talk on Red Cross activities and the local Red Cross aims and objectives.

Those attending were Mesdames J. W. Barnett, Jack Brown, H. A. Cavness, Gerald Hule, Hilton Higgins, Richard Ireland, George McLean, J. W. Robinson Jr., Floyd Ross, Bill Waldrep and the hostesses.

Program On Public Affairs Presented At L.A.E. Club

L.A.E. Study Club met in the home of Mrs. T. W. Roberson on Tuesday afternoon. Roll call featured current events.

Mrs. Boyd Knox, leader, told and the participation in civic affairs by both youth and adults.

Mrs. Jim Loving answered the question "When You Give—Are You Being Taken?" She said in part: "Phony charity drives cost Americans up to 120 million dollars per year. Legitimate groups need protection and so do you."

Members present were Mesdames James C. E. Beauford, Gayeth Bogle, Harvey Brock, Altus Higgins, Boyd Knox, Luther Lesly, Jim Loving, Phil Radoyich, B. A. Reddell, T. W. Roberson, George Suggs, and Jim Whelan. Mrs. Max Drever, a newcomer to Hereford, was a guest.

Missionary Work Reports Given

Missionary work in darkest Africa was discussed at the monthly uncheon meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church Wednesday.

Mrs. J. R. Hickman had charge of the mission program.

Miss Frances Dameron conducted the worship program and used as the basis for the devotional the scripture, "He who loses his life for my sake shall find it."

Mrs. Glenn Williams, general chairman conducted the business session.

The following members were present: Mesdames Glenn Williams, J. R. Hickman, C. Ora Cockrell, F. S. Smith, W. C. Witherspoon, Mina Jones, Ida May Vaughn, M. L. Winget, Bert Brown, Ted Summer, O. H. Criswell-Soehngen Vows Exchanged In Tucumcari Rites On January 8

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Criswell announce the marriage of their daughter, Frankie, to Charles H. Soehngen of Jersey City, N. J.

The wedding took place in Tucumcari, N. M., on Jan. 8, in the First Baptist Church with the pastor, Rev. Chester O'Brien officiating.

The bride is a graduate of Throckmorton High School and was a student nurse at Parkland Hospital, Dallas for 18 months. She came to Hereford three years ago and served as charge nurse in the Deaf Smith County Hospital. At the time of her marriage she was a student of nursing at North West Texas Hospital, Amarillo.

Mr. Soehngen is a member of the U. S. Air Corp., stationed at the Amarillo Air Base. The couple is now residing at 1607 Polk St., Amarillo.

MRS. CHAS. SOEHNGEN

Mother Spends Christmas With Grown Son First Time Since He Was Age 6

"Once again, thank you very much for all you and the Red Cross have done. It was the happiest Christmas and New Year I have ever known."

—And thus ended a touching story, transacted behind the scenes of everyday life in Deaf Smith County. The story unfolded chiefly through the Red Cross office in Hereford, and is told as follows by Mrs. Corinne Neely, executive secretary in this county.

Every week brings an outstanding case in Red Cross work but this might be the story of the month, or even the year of 1954. It happened in December, the month when nice things should happen.

The Deaf Smith Red Cross chapter had a letter from the Waco chapter saying that a resident of our county had asked them to help her, the mother, locate two sons in service. She had not seen them or heard from them in years. But somehow she had got word that one of the boys was at a certain army base.

The Waco chapter had already written the American Red Cross Field Director at the base and asked that he send information here as the mother lived in Deaf Smith County. Why she wrote the Waco chapter we are not sure, unless she had previous experience there.

At this point our executive secretary and Home Service worker took over. She wrote the mother, whom we shall call Mrs. B. for any and all information she might have on either son. She told her also if information did not come through from the army base that she could write to Army Headquarters in Washington and that she would be glad to help her write the letter if needed. Otherwise as soon as she got any news she would get in touch with her.

Mrs. B. wrote that her work prevented her coming at regular office hours but would want to see the worker as soon as either had any news. She asked the worker to come to see her. And though she did not live in town the worker said she would do so.

In less than a week's time a letter arrived saying the Field Director had located the son and had talked with him. He wrote that he seemed a nice young man and was most pleased to hear from his mother. (Something a worker is not always sure of). The boy wrote his mother that very day according to the F. D. He was also sending the other son's address (now in Germany). The mother was called and also was mailed a copy of the letter.

Jan. 10, the serviceman came to the Red Cross office asking a 4 day extension of leave. He had been home for the holidays with his mother.

The mother and step-father had gone down to see the serviceman and brought him back with them. In the meantime the step-father had become ill and the boy wanted to stay and help the mother until the father was better. Too, he was glad to be with his family and wanted to be with them longer. Dr. G. verified the illness and operated in recommending the serviceman have the extension without knowing the background, which would have been told him if it had been necessary, because of the importance to the family. The serviceman was given the extra time.

Next day the serviceman came to the office to thank the worker and to talk about his new family. It was nice to see his mother again whom he had not seen since he was six years old. (He was now 21). He and his brother had stayed with his father who had remarried. Then his mother, after a time remarried and in moving about had lost track of the boys. Then something about the season, or the stray clue caused her to try to locate them and things worked out from there.

The boy was fond of both parents and both step-parents he said and was looking forward to the time when the other brother could see them also. He is due home soon.

All cases are not happy ones like this one. They don't always end so well or as smoothly but it is one with which the worker was left happy as well as those involved in the case. A family reunited at Christmas through the efforts of Red Cross is a pleasant experience for all.

Breakfast - Party Honors Former Resident Tuesday

Mrs. Phillip Miller was hostess at a breakfast party Tuesday morning at her country home to compliment Mrs. Frank Rickels of Dupree, S. D., a former resident of the Bippus Community. Guests included close friends of the honoree.

The table was laid with a gray linen cloth and red pottery and china marked with red were used. Red hearts were chosen from a silver tray to find places at the table. During the meal guests wrote friendship messages on the hearts which were presented to the honoree to be read on the return journey to South Dakota. The honoree was also presented with a hostess gift.

The colorful menu included fried chicken livers and home made sausage, scrambled eggs in cream, a broiled fruit platter, stuffed prunes, jelly and honey and hot rolls and coffee.

Those enjoying the courtesy were Mesdames Frank Rickels, the honoree, Charley Burk, C. A. Ferrin, Roy Fruit, P. B. Sowell, Charles Hoover, Bill Nunn, Edw. Morris-son, Garland Solomon and Glen Hetzler. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Wallace Lumpkins.

Mrs. Katharine Jenkins left Wednesday for Cisco because of illness in the family.

RED CROSS DRIVE IS EXPLAINED

Rebekah Lodge held its regular business session at the IOOF Hall Tuesday night with Mrs. Bobby Mencham, noble grand, presiding. Curtis Trawcek was guest speaker, giving a discussion of National and local Red Cross activities. Stressing the need for everybody to participate in the Red Cross drive for funds, Trawcek gave an outline of the channels into which the funds are directed.

Jaycee-Ettes Make Plans For Valentine Fete

Mesdames Harold Loerwald and John Aiken were hostesses for the Jaycee-Ette session held at the Jaycee Clubhouse Wednesday evening.

Plans were made for a valentine party with husbands as honor guests and members voted to purchase a flash bulb camera for both Jaycee and Jaycee-Ette use.

Entertainment for the evening was presented by the Hereford Burns, high school quartet, who sang barber shop tunes, popular songs and favorite melodies. Singers were Clarence Caywood, J. B. Wills, Pickens Morre and Raymond Wells.

Members attending were Mesdames Hershel Miller, Don Fudge, Dennis Lomas, Gerald Hale, Bill Howard, Bill Williams, Doryal Young, Ray Bosley, and the hostesses.

SISTER BURIED IN ARKANSAS

Funeral services were held in Fayetteville, Ark., Thursday for Mrs. Mae Skelton, sister of Mrs. Mont Baker who died from a heart attack suffered two weeks previous.

Mrs. Skelton, 72, was a resident of Prairie Grove, Ark., and was visiting a brother, A. E. Collier, in Fayetteville when stricken. She had visited in Hereford often and had many friends here.

Besides her brother in Fayetteville and sister here, she is survived by Mrs. Rass Nunnellee of San Diego, Calif., and Mrs. Clyde Williams of Inglewood, sisters and two brothers; L. M. and J. C. Collier of Clinton, Okla.

CARD OF THANKS

It is impossible for me to thank each one personally for the many kindnesses shown me during my illness. I want you each to know that every card and letter and the beautiful flowers have meant so much to me. To those who have given me blood it has meant my very life, and thanks is inadequate for that. The Prayers and Masses are the very best things you can do for me. I hope that I may recover to show my sincere appreciation. I have the very best of medical care and I am completely confident that every thing is being done for my recovery.

Mrs. V. O. (Grace) Hennen

Miss Dorothy Sims Becomes Bride Of LeGrand Morton In Home Rites

In a single ring ceremony read Friday, Jan. 28, in the home of the bride's parents in Happy, Miss Dorothy Sims, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sims, became the bride of LeGrand Morton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Morton, Rev. R. H. DeLancy, pastor of the Hereford Assembly of God Church, read the service as the couple exchanged vows before an improvised altar arranged before an arch of greenery and baskets of white stock tied with white satin bows.

MRS. LEGRAND MORTON State College for a degree. She will do her practice teaching in Hereford High School. Mr. Morton is employed at Truly Teague Chevrolet Co.

Music was provided by Loraine Morton organist, who played a medley of nuptial music and the wedding marches, and Coletta Shelton, vocalist, who sang "I Love You Truly," preceding the ceremony.

Miss Mildred Dunn was the bride's only attendant. She wore a navy-crepe frock with pink accessories and a white carnation corsage. Paul Morton, brother of the bridegroom, served as the best man.

The bride chose a white faille street length dress fashioned with fitted bodice having a small pointed collar and three-quarter length sleeves, and full skirt. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Refreshments were served following the ceremony. Lois Allison, roommate of the bride at West Texas College, Canyon, presided at the wedding cake and Jane Allison served punch.

The couple has returned from a short wedding trip to make their home at 305 Roosevelt.

Mrs. Morton is a graduate of Happy High School and has completed her work at West Texas basketball game in Canyon Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson Guest Speakers For LaPlata Study Club

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson who spent five years in Venezuela, were guest speakers on a program dealing with that country, for the LaPlata Study Club Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Urlin Strou, Mrs. Horner Brumley opened the session with a prayer.

A bird's eye view of Venezuela was given in movies shown and in descriptive comment. Highlights pointed out were The Angel Falls the highest in the world, the beauty of the Andes Mountains and other scenic spots. He told of the gold and diamond mines, Maracaibo, where U. S. gets most of her oil and the iron ore obtained from the Orinoco River.

"The people are a mixture of Spanish and Indian and a typical Venezuelan home consists of only one room. The women dry their bread on the roof tops and all are seamstresses, most homes boasting a Singer Sewing machine. The Catholic Religion predominates but for the past 26 years missionaries have been at work here. The schools are provided for the most part, by the large American oil companies and are very modern," he said in conclusion.

During the short business session plans were made for the club to enter a float in the Junior Live Stock Show parade and Mrs. J. P. Johnson was named treasurer to serve the remainder of the year. Committees appointed were:

Float—Mrs. Don Little, Mrs. Milton Adams, and Mrs. Emil Dettman. Refreshing Committee—Mrs. Don Little, Mrs. A. J. Schroeter and Mrs. Clint Formby.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Citizens Committee Step Toward Better Government

Inequality of Taxes, unquestionably one of those things everyone feels but fears to mention, came out into the open and took a good drubbing at the Community Breakfast Wednesday morning.

Furthermore, The Brand feels that the Citizen's Committee in general and Mrs. Deward Roberson in particular are to be commended for treading on a topic which is long overdue for community consideration. To say the least, any committee which ignores basic controversial questions is destined to defeat its own purpose.

As Mrs. Roberson pointed out, possibly the greatest inequality in taxes in this area lies in the fact that people who render real property are also required to render personal property, while hundreds of people with only personal property escape rendition, and consequently, pay no taxes in the support of schools, city and county benefits which they derive, side by side, with the tax payer.

The City of Hereford, through benefit of on-the-spot legal council, was the only taxing agency in the community which collected taxes on the community hotel during the first several years of its operation. The hotel is now assessed, but during its connection with RFC went tax free to county and schools as a special consideration. She also cited examples where assessments covered businesses which no longer exist in the community, along with other discrepancies.

Two possibilities definitely occur from the situation. The last tax survey was made in this area around 1946 with the city, school and county sharing expenses jointly. Only this year, the city has followed up with a revised tax survey and, as we pointed out in a recent editorial, the movement should definitely pave the way for similar surveys by the county and school district.

The other point emphasized to us is the urgent need to separate the office of sheriff from that of Tax Collector-Assessor as soon as possible. Such action was approved by Texas voters in 1954, and will be possible following the next general election of county officials. This provides an answer to the most critical question posed through the Citizen's Committee. The committee pointed out that "lack of time" was the chief reason for existing inequalities in taxes. Which, after all, was the chief reason the change in Texas laws was proposed in the first place.

A good tax assessor-collector who worked at the job could, without question, pay his salary many times over in additional taxes which are now being omitted from the tax rolls of all agencies. This, of course, would not directly concern the city and school district, both of which operate independent of the county.

Most people are willing to pay their fair share of government costs but, when they encounter neighbors or fellow citizens who pay less (and sometimes nothing at all on the same property) you can hardly blame them for being upset.

The really encouraging thing, though, is the fact that average, everyday citizens are beginning to take a sincere interest in their government. The constitutional phrase, "of the people, by the people and for the people" has been ignored so long by a passive public that the very foundation of our democracy has been seriously threatened. Lethargy has seen the enthroning of hoodlums and gangs in some of our large cities. Small communities like Hereford have too often been informed of actual conditions, all made possible by lack of interest and information on the part of the public.

The Citizen's Committee is a forward step toward better, more efficient and sounder government. We hope they will continue as a body, carefully investigating and studying county and city methods, along with school methods and needs. A first-hand study of all conditions by such groups can result only in better government.

Audit Approved By Grand Jury

The Grand Jury this week carefully studied the County Audit, the first made here in many years. Their conclusions appeared definite, including a recommendation for continued audits on an annual or alternate year basis.

The group also discharged some $10,000 in shortages as being insufficient for indictments, due to the fact that the shortages came as "honest mistakes" and without "criminal intent". We presume that the jury investigated the matters thoroughly and have no quarrel with their findings.

On the other hand, we also heartily agree with the Grand Jury when they say that such findings make a regular audit even more important. Whether the discrepancies occurred through mistakes, ignorance or with malicious intent, the tax payers are still paying out money which should be in the treasury. The audit likewise exposed situations directly in violation of Texas statutes in that books were missing and records inadequate.

An annual or alternate year audit would disclose such items before they became large. It would cost no more per year than an audit covering long periods. In addition, if properly used, an annual audit would point the way to economy and savings by an alert Commissioners Court. Better records and methods would unquestionably result.

The primary purpose of an audit is that of more efficiently operating the county by showing expenses in their proper category. Uncovering of shortages is a secondary purpose, indeed. When more officials look upon audits in their proper light, they will welcome them as a means to better serving the constituents who elect them, and not as a police measure.

"Oh, George wants to make sure we get our money's worth out of it."

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What Local Women Say About Jury Service

As one of the area's first women jurors, what do you think of jury service for women? Do you have any suggestions whereby the courts might be improved?

MRS. HOMER BRUMLEY:

I believe it is a good thing. I think that judgments or verdicts handed down by juries with women on them will be better balanced. I think that the jury commissions will have to be careful though in selecting women jurors, so as not to work a hardship on the family. I really don't know enough about courts to make any suggestions. I do know that it about doubles the field of prospective jurors and the same people won't have to serve so often. It was a very enlightening experience for me.

MRS. V. E. DODSON:

I think it's all right and I enjoyed serving on it. I was glad to get out of the class of imbeciles and insane. I don't have any suggestions about the courts, because I wasn't really in court. I don't know enough about the court to have any suggestions yet.

MRS. S. O. WILSON:

I voted against it because I personally didn't want it, but since I've had this experience I realize that it has been valuable. I feel that all women should take their turn on juries. It gives us an insight into things that maybe we have been critical of before. I think we often let lack of experience cause us to make some very unfair statements.

MRS. H. A. CLOSE:

Personally, I have always been against it. It wasn't as bad as I was afraid it was going to be. I believe in women being the power behind the throne -- not trying to sit on it. I know that I am not in accord with most of the women, however. I'm not sorry I was on it. I did learn a lot about procedure that I never had any idea about. This being my first time, I couldn't suggest any changes. It seems to me that they were very efficient.

MRS. RICHARD BARNARD:

I enjoyed it. I thought that it was very interesting. I'm in favor of it. I think it's a good idea. I really feel that women can be of service in some capacities as jurors. I think that women have different angles on things to what men do. I am not in favor of all women juries, but I do like the idea of them serving together.

'Tater Peelin's

Roberta Campbell

Maybe the law doesn't pertain to school buses in relation to each other but we've been pretty surprised twice last week to see one loaded school bus pass another on the highway while the children were being loaded or unloaded.

One instance was over in Randall county and the other was near town when the bus had pulled off on the shoulder to pick up children waiting at a corner.

A car and an oil transport came to a halt but as we see it the busses were carrying the most valuable cargo that can be carried on the roadways.

We've never seen so many clouds and so little moisture as we have had this winter. Just about the time our little wheat has begun to gasp its last breath we have a mist or a few flakes of snow to revive it for another few days. Watering at this time of year is apt to break the roots of wheat that is freezing every night, and the threat of green bugs has us wondering just what is best. Looks as if we are going to have to hunt up our boots and shovel in spite of everything if we are going to have any sort of a harvest.

It is nice to have the Naugles back home, though Bess is still wearing just about all the costs a person can be wrapped up in. Her sense of humor helps her to get a laugh out of getting overbalanced because of being so top-heavy.

People will believe anything you tell them, if you will just whisper it.

It is wise to keep on good terms with your stomach, your conscience, and your wife.

Community Builders

By Nelda Guy Ricketts

Hereford might be just a big unsurveyed block of land if it hadn't been for Alex Thompson, a community builder, in many senses.

Alex has been responsible, in his capacity as county surveyor, for 26 or 25 sub-divisions of the original blocks of land laid out as the town of Hereford. All the additions of the town of Hereford that you see growing and building today were first a job for the county surveyor, who had to cut them down into lots.

Alex has been the county surveyor since 1925 and, during that time, has seen the price of good, well placed lots jump from $100 to $1000.

However, his work as a community builder hasn't stopped with surveying the lots. He helped the Masons, a group of which he has been a member since 1907, build their old hall over the old First State Bank and again helped them get their present hall.

38 Year Record
Alex was elected Sunday School Superintendent of the First Baptist Church before it moved from its old location to the present building and has served in that capacity for 38 years—since 1917.

He has seen the Sunday School enrollment grow from about 150 to 1500, and has helped with the organization of three Baptist Churches and Sunday Schools. These missions have grown and become separate churches with a total Sunday School enrollment of 800.

The Dawn Baptist Church also started as a mission of the First Baptist Church of Hereford and, again, Alex was in on the organization and building of the group.

On School Board

In the latter part of the 1920's Alex was a member of the school board for two terms. One term he served as president of the group.

One of the few charter members of the Hereford Lions Club that is still active in the group, Alex was a representative from Hereford to the International convention in Havana in 1941.

The first county fair that Hereford ever had found Alex in there with his sleeves rolled up trying to help get it organized and doing his best to make it go over. Then the exhibits were put in the courthouse and the livestock was housed at the livery stable. After the first year, Alex found himself serving on some committee each year to keep the fair going in the county.

Was Baseball Manager
About 1910 Alex decided that Hereford needed a baseball park so he proceeded to build one from lumber he had on hand. He also served as manager of the baseball team in 1910.

Alex was born in Gainesville, Tex., on Feb. 5, 1883 and attended the Wilson School in Gainesville. He also attended the Gainesville Business College before moving to Hereford at the age of 19.

He still thought he needed some more schooling, so he enrolled in the Hereford Christian College and went to school there until it was disbanded.

Sparking School

It was at the Hereford Christian College that he met Audrey and the courtship during that particular phase of his schooling caused his mother to name the Christian College "the sparking school." They were married on Thanksgiving day, Nov. 26, 1908.

The first job Alex ever had was the foot route delivering newspapers for the Gainesville Record. Then later he started to work in the Gainesville Clerk's office.

He quit that job when his father bought a farm near Hereford and Alex came to Hereford to work on the farm. It took him 13 1/2 days to make the trip in a wagon in 1907.

In 1906 the family moved to Hereford.

About 1910 Alex started the A. O. Thompson Lumber Yard where Mrs. J. E. Ward lives now.

Was County Clerk
Elected county clerk in 1914, he served the county until 1921. After that he worked at the Dunlap Hardware Store for two years.

Alex later started selling Fords for Henry Wilkins, a job he kept until he bought the abstract plant in 1925, which was also the year he was elected county surveyor.

As everyone knows, Alex is also an amateur photographer in his spare time and uses that as a hobby. He had been interested in photography before, but in 1940 he built a modern dark room and went into it more completely. Very few people over the county would think of having anything without Alex to come and make their pictures.

Alex has two daughters, Mrs. A. J. Schroeter, and Mrs. W. T. Carmichael, and four grandchildren.

As a community builder, Alex

LADY COTTON BUYER

Memphis is the home of perhaps the only woman who operates her own cotton company. At least Annette Boswell, whose office is on the second floor of the Whaley Building says she has never heard of or met another woman who owned and operated a cotton firm. As a matter of fact, she says she has never known of a woman who classed cotton, although she knows two or three who buy the fleecy staple. Actually, Mrs. Boswell sees no reason why more women shouldn't be in the cotton business. —The Memphis Democrat

PALO DURO URANIUM LEASES

Two Lubbock men, R. W. Stalter and E. P. Gray, have applied for an uranium lease in the Palo Duro State Park. Texas State Park Officials are scratching their heads and wondering what sort of lease they can give on State owned land. It is presumed that the question of a lease must go to the public lands board, composed of the governor, commissioner of general lands, attorney general and chairman of parks board. However, several other applications have been received for lease of land in the park where geiger counters have been in use for some time. —The Canyon News

Things are moving so fast nowadays that a man has to run like the very dickens just to stand still.

One thing can be said for today's dollar. It has plenty of buying power.

Trouble with people who drink like fishes is they don't drink what fishes drink.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's Note: The Bootleg Philosopher has a hair-brained idea this week, which he won't get anywhere with.

Dear editor:
A lot of people have been complaining about the block sales of land under the veterans program in Texas.

As I understand it, a man goes out and contracts to buy up a lot of land at as low a price as he can get, divides it up into blocks, and sells it to veterans at as high a price he can get, with the state of course furnishing the money.

Naturally, some men have gone at this program too hurriedly, and in their desire to help the state spend its money have sold land faster than some veterans could buy it or even have a chance to look at it, but as any salesman knows, when the fellow putting up the money is ready to close the deal, then's the time to stop talking and start signing, and if there wasn't any veteran handy to do the signing, they didn't see any sense in letting a technicality stand in the way of a good profit.

Now I don't know anything about the veteran's land program, but I have been thinking, and I'm wondering why the state don't extend this program to farmers.

Under the present system of crop controls and price guarantees, the farmer and the government both know at the start of a crop year what the government will pay for the crop when it's harvested, but under this newer system, why couldn't I, instead of the government, contract to buy say all the crops in this county this year? I wouldn't want 'em for the whole state, just one county, no use in being greedy. Then after I'd contracted to buy the crops, without of course putting up any of my own money, all I'd have to do is get an appraiser who had the proper training to come out here and appraise the stuff at 10 or 15 percent more than it cost, after all it ought to be worth something to the government to get to buy everything that's grown in this county with one big check instead of a lot of little ones, and complete the deal and deposit the difference. I have plenty of time for such activities, as my farm's operations don't take up my full time and if you think this system will come into general use, I would like to reserve this county for my territory.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

That Pooch Poses No. 1 Headache

Right on schedule comes the annual City drive to eliminate stray dogs. It happens every year, and, needless to say, the problem is one of the greatest headaches connected with Hereford's city offices.

Many people classify their dogs in just about the same category they hold their children. Still others have absolutely no use for dogs, be they big, little or medium. Pleasing two groups with such conflicting opinions is naturally an impossibility.

In an effort to be fair to all concerned, the City Commission has adopted enforcement of the licensing system which, incidentally, is that used in most other cities over the nation. The clinic, proposed for Feb. 14-15, comes as an added convenience for people who have trouble locating a veterinarian to give vaccinations.

Certainly, no thinking person can argue against vaccination of dogs. This prevention is one even more to be lauded if you have ever seen a child stricken with rabies. While the expense may prove a hardship to some, especially children, we are inclined to agree that owning a dog does incur some responsibility -- and certainly a dog with rabies is far more dangerous than a criminal with a loaded revolver.

"SAID THE WALRUS..."

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (S)—Seal-hunting Eskimos at Point Barrow on the northern tip of North America have been having walrus trouble.

An Eskimo correspondent of the Fairbanks News-Miner reported in this way.

"Today Ernest Kignak and few others saw a walrus. Day after day men would go out and most every man would come home empty. Walrus is an enemy to seals that's why the seals don't hang around, no matter how good the ice could be. The people here wish to see the walrus go away or killed. A very strange thing had happened to this village one time in 1933. People would be short of seals then, too."

By VEEN SANFORD

Texas Press Association AUSTIN, Tex.—Veterans' land scandals got the silent treatment last week.

Four witnesses refused to testify. The senate investigating committee took other testimony behind closed doors, silent so far as the public was concerned. And, the house veterans' affairs committee stymied its own public investigation in a tangle of technicalities.

A House committee member, Rep. Bill Elliott of Pasadena charged "organized pressure" to block further investigation of the issue.

Speaker Jim Lindsey had sent a separate House investigation resolution to a different committee, state affairs.

Ex-Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, head of the Veterans' Land Board until Jan. 1, invoked the Constitution and refused to testify as to his business dealings with several persons named in testimony about block deals.

C. O. Hagan and C. P. Ernesters, principals in much of the land-sale testimony, followed L. V. Ruff in refusing to testify.

Insurance Hearings

HEARINGS STARTED in both houses of the Legislature on a long list of bills to "clean up the insurance mess."

Sen. Searcy Bracewell told a Senate committee his bill to firm up capital requirements was "tough." The committee put it in a tending sub-committee for three weeks.

It would raise minimum requirements for future legal reserve life companies to $25,000 capital and $25,000 surplus, all in cash or bonds. Smaller existing companies would continue, but would be limited in size of policies and re-insurance, until they reached the minimum. Those with investments of minimum capital and surplus in office buildings or real estate mortgages would have three years to convert to cash.

The House Insurance committee heard the three state insurance commissioners and others propose corrective measures, including the state regulation of the sale of insurance securities.

Shepherd Wants 13 Laws

Attorney General John B. Shepperd asked for legislation "to prevent another Duval County."

Speaking to 200 publishers at a Texas Press Association convention in Austin, Shepperd reveals that his legal skirmishes with Boss George Parr disclosed many shortcomings in Texas laws.

He recommended 13 bills, and asked the editors to help effect passage.

Most of the bills would tighten control over county funds and call for annual published reports of expenditures.

Suggested Taxes

TAX PROPOSALS continue on the penny basis set by Gov. Allan Shivers' program. His two-penny gasoline tax hike, good for $60 million a year, was introduced earlier by Rep. Charles Murphy of Houston.

Rep. W. G. "Cotton" Kirklm of Odessa introduced the other Shivers' bill, the one-cent cigarette levy, good for $15 million a year.

Rep. Curtis Ford of Corpus Christi offered the familiar penny-a-thousand-foot natural gas deduction tax bill. He figured it would bring in $3 million a year.

And, Rep. Jerry Sadler of Pecos dropped in a penny-a-glass, $3.36 per barrel, beer tax, estimated to produce $16 million a year.

All faced an ultra-conservative revenue and taxation committee.

From Rep. Jack Bryan of Buffalo came a proposal to place a three percent gross receipts tax on establishments engaged in storing or parking motor vehicles.

Bills in the Hopper

APPROVED by the House of Representatives, was a bill to increase the pay of state officials. If acceptable in the senate, the pay scale will go to $25,000 for the governor; $20,000 for the attorney general; secretary of state, $15,000; and the land commissioner, treasurer and comptroller $17,500.

Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr., of Paris and Rep. Barefoot Sanders of Dallas are sponsoring a plan to provide $45 million for new school building construction. It would let school districts vote higher bond issues, up to 10 percent of the assessed property values.

Two representatives, John T. Cox of Temple and Jack Welch of Marlin, have submitted a bill seeking the death penalty for second conviction under the Narcotics Code, and permitting conviction on uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice.

Sen. Doyle Willis of Fort Worth has a bill to close beer taverns on Sunday.

A bill to limit the building of lodges in state parks was introduced by Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas.

Sen. Kistner, Corbin of Lubbock wants to make Democrats out of Democrats. His bill is to prevent Texans from voting in the Democratic primaries and then voting Republican in the general election.

Much Happens In Baby's First Month

By Dorothy V. Whipple, M. D.

Your baby has changed a lot in a month's time.

He has gained weight, probably between one and two pounds.

He's eating a little more regularly now. A few babies will be on a pretty regular schedule by a month of age, but lots of others won't hold out every time for four hours between feedings.

Don't be too rigid about your schedule, but at the same time make some effort to feed him at the same hours each day. Begin the day, if you can, at the same time each day, say 6 a.m. This way, the days fall more easily into a pattern.

When the next feeding time rolls around and your baby is still sound asleep, wake him up and feed him. You know he'll wake up soon anyway. If he wants to eat before feeding time, pick him up, rock him a bit and hold him over to nearer the scheduled time.

Do what you can gently to urge him into a schedule. Don't make him yell an hour just because he is hungry off schedule. On the other hand if he's been fussy and just gone off to sleep at what should be the next feeding, let him sleep.

By a month of age many babies will have given up the 2 a.m. feeding. Never wake a baby for this middle of the night food. But as long as he wants it give it to him. When he grows up enough he'll want to sleep the night through just as much as you want him to. We don't teach this to a baby, he just grows up to it. And before he has grown up to it, it's much easier on everyone to give him the food.

The navel should be completely healed now. Sometimes the navel protrudes a little especially when the baby cries. This means the muscles of the abdomen haven't grown together as they should. The doctor will probably put an adhesive strap over the navel to help

Sen. Carlos Ashley of Llano tossed into the hopper a joint resolution that would permit Texas to go after the tourist trade by advertising. An amendment to the state constitution would be necessary to remove the old, old, ban designed to keep the carpetbaggers out of Texas.

New Officials

WHILE the veterans' land probe rolled on, newly appointed State Land Commissioner and Veterans Land Board Chairman J. Earl Rudder borrowed Ray Clark Disbel from the State Auditor's Department and named him executive secretary of the board.

Lawrence Jackson quit this post soon after Rudder replaced Bascom Giles.

Gov. Shivers will have a new secretary of State early in February. He appointed Al Muldrow, Brownfield farmer-rancher - businessman to succeed C. E. Fulgham who resigned to return to Lubbock. Like Rudder, Muldrow is a World War II veteran.

poseless way.

The month-old baby has usually learned one thing he can do on purpose—and that is to smile.

Q. How can I take proper care of the rolls of the wringer?
A. After using the wringer, dry it thoroughly by running a heavy dry bath towel through it. All parts will be dried easily and it will preserve the rolls.

Q. When is the best time to transplant maple trees?
A. In the early spring before any buds have appeared. Choose a rainy spell when the ground is soft and preserve as much of the root as possible. This refers to trees not more than six or eight feet high. Then trim down the crown of the tree.

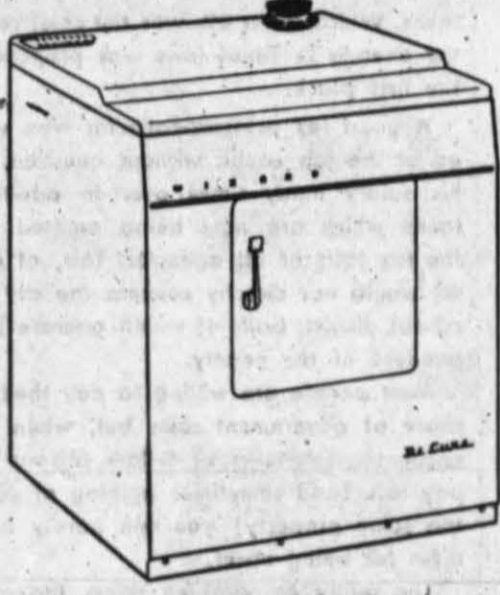

Here's a delicious afternoon pick-up. Put a teaspoon of instant coffee and one of instant cocoa into a cup; add ½ cup boiling water and stir well. Add sugar and cream to taste.

Some farmers prefer to use equipment on hand as is being done on Herbert Boardman's Dairy Farm east of Hereford where Charles Higgins pulls a trailer alongside a tractor drawn ensilage cutter in a field of grain sorghum. Charles Higgins is driving the tractor.

tor drawn ensilage cutter in a field of grain sorghum. Charles Higgins is driving the tractor.

Operation:

TRENCH SILO

TRENCH SILOS, which were unpopular when they were first introduced to this area because of the work involved, are now widely used by stock farmers and dairy men in Deaf Smith County. The use of an ensilage cutter to replace hand chopping of bundles and dump trucks to unload the silage into the pit speeds up the operation and requires less manpower than the old process.

Fodder In The Bank

Like the fellow who puts his money in the bank when he has it to be used when he needs it, two of the Hereford area are now drawing on trench silos filled last summer to help feed cattle which are being finished for beef or make the dairy herd of milk producers.

When pit silos were first introduced to this locality several years ago they involved so much work that cattlemen did not find them practical. The value of ensilage as a feed was not discounted, but the methods used in filling the pits which were dug on a high spot near the feeding ground required a great deal of handling from the time the bundles were cut in the field until they were chopped up to fill the silo.

Farmers also thought it was necessary to cover the filled silo over the top to keep the feed in good condition and this meant extra trouble when they were opened for feeding later in the year.

Ensilage cutters were then tried out in the corn fields, while the fodder was still green enough to be palatable and some farmers tried mixing other type of row crop with the corn.

The mixture proved to be quite satisfactory and now most of those who feed ensilage prefer about half corn and half sweet sorghum of some variety, seeded ribbon cane or honey drip is the most popular.

The use of dump trucks speeds up the filling operation of the pits, which hold from 150 to 400 or more tons of ensilage. Weight of the trucks, which are driven over the feed as they are emptied, pack the ensilage for better keeping qualities.

Since the pits are no longer covered, feeding from them is a much simpler process. Most livestock men use a tractor or similar equipment with some sort of scoop to lift the feed from the pit and carry it to troughs used in feeding or to the feed grounds.

Finishes Calves

W. T. Gunstenson who is feeding out 16 Angus calves in the barn at his place south of town uses an ensilage mixture of corn and seeded ribbon cane along with ear corn, hay, and meal in the finishing process.

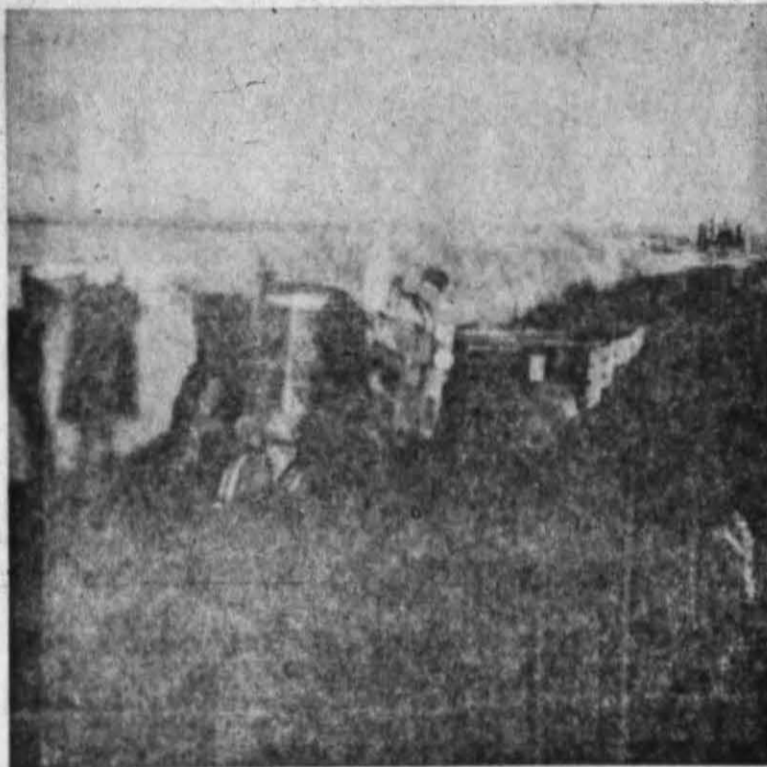

The calves weighed about 500 pounds when they went into the barn for finishing in December and he expects to market them early this month at 750 pounds. Dairy farmers are also using ensilage, not to raise milk production but to keep it up during the winter feeding and to maintain the body of the dairy cow.

Among the stockmen using pit silos are J. B. Noland, Howard Gault, Lyle Woodford, W. T. Gunstenson, B. E. Brumley, J. C. Clearman, Kenneth Neill, L. E. Rickman, W. H. Andrews, Derz Pulliam, Frank Bezner, Colb Conkwright, Homer Brumley, Jack Bradley, W. P. Axe, Roger Brumley, Bill Dameron, Charles Beven, R. C. Childers, Herbert Boardman, and Jack Frost Ranches.

Breakfast is about over for the cows in the Pulliam herd and the picture shows the herd to be in good flesh for cows in heavy production. (Staff Photos)

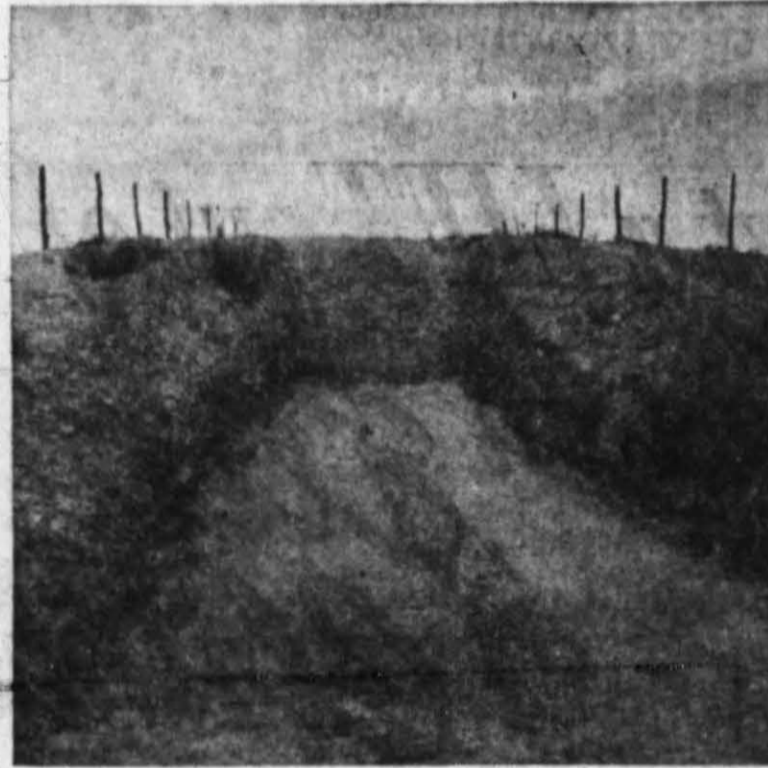

The loaded trailer is pulled into the pit and a cable fastened to the tractor in the background is attached to a wire netting placed in the bottom of the trailer before it was filled. The wire with the ensilage on top is pulled into the trench.

Irvin Reeves has just unfastened the cable from the wire and has put the netting back into the trailer from a return trip to the field.

While waiting for another load, Reeves spreads the feed out to level it.

The partially filled pit on the Frank Bezner place on the Dimmitt Highway was cut in a caliche bank on Frio Draw and provides ideal drainage.

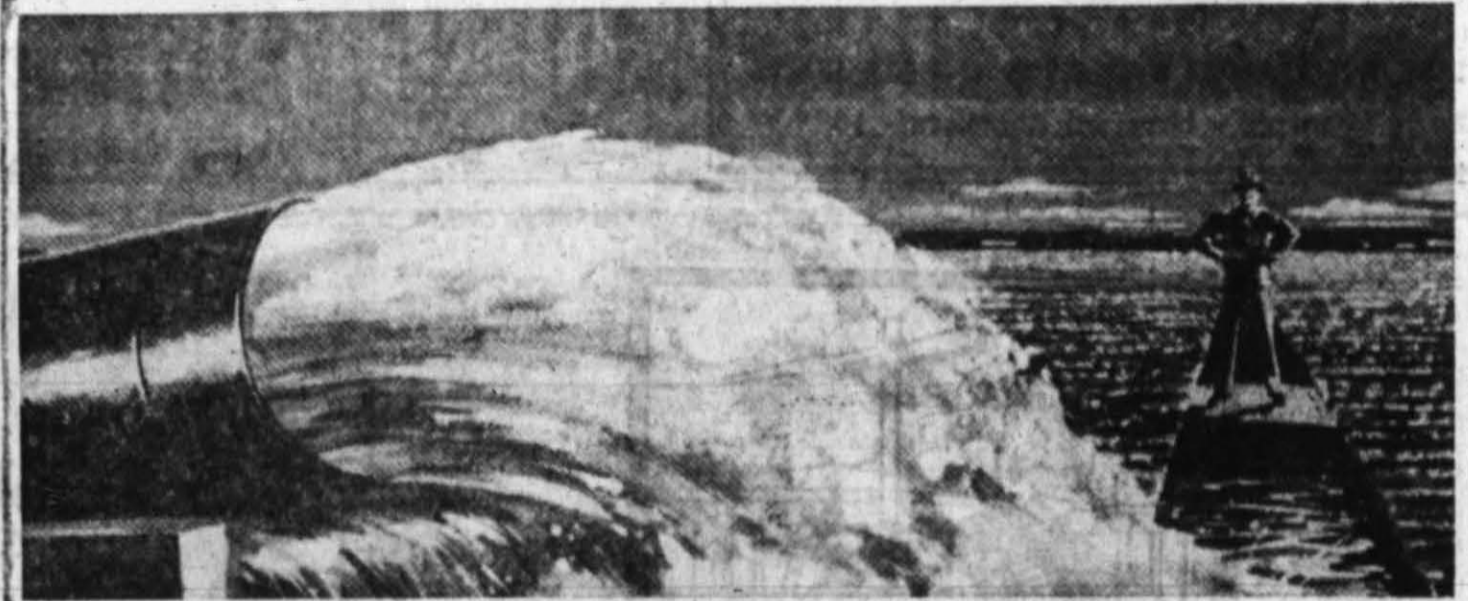

In this picture a top view of the silo is shown. The ensilage was hauled in with dump trucks and the feed was packed by the wheels as each truckful was dumped. Stockmen have found that it is no longer necessary to cover the pit as was done at first.

Denzil Pulliam who lives three miles south of town stands in the silo from which he has just fed his holstein dairy herd. Pulliam's trench is also in a caliche hill on Frio draw and his only objection to the location is that it is farther from the barns than he would like. He uses a scoop attached to the front of his tractor to carry the feed from the silo to the feed troughs in the lot.

Blackhawks Win Over Hereford By 78 To 61

By BILLY PAUL KNOX
The Phillips Blackhawks scored 10 points before allowing Hereford to enter the scoring column, then soared to a 38-61 triumph over the Whitefaces, Tuesday night at Phillips. The Hawks led all the way and were never seriously threatened.

The Blackhawks, who held comfortable leads at every stop, got off to a flying start, scoring ten points before Hereford scored. From then on the only time they failed to strengthen their lead was in the third quarter. However, the Hawks didn't lose ground in this period, as both teams scored the same.

Phillips scoring was very well distributed, probably better than Hereford's usually well distributed scoring. Francis Boyd was high for the game, but four Phillips players scored in the double numbers. Only two Hereford players passed the 10 point mark.

The game was extremely rough and numerous fouls were called. A total of 48 fouls were called on both teams—Hereford was guilty of 28, while Phillips committed 20. Four Whitefaces and two Blackhawks went out by the foul route.

Phillips started out like a house on fire. They scored 10 points before Hereford had tasted the flavor of two points, then went on to score 12 more before the quarter ended. Hereford scored 16 points in the first stanza to make the score 22-10 at the end of the period.

The Blackhawks scored 16 and held Hereford to 13 in the second period, a gain of three points for Phillips. However, despite their loss of point, Hereford began to hit the bucket better in the latter stages of the initial half. Score at halftime was 28-23.

Nobody accomplished anything in the third quarter—both teams scored the same number of points. Both teams were the better by 15 points, but Hereford failed to narrow the lead any. Score at the end of the third quarter was 55-41.

Phillips gained two points in the fourth period; the basic reason was the fouling out of Hershey Godfrey, Burrus, and Elliott, but Francis Boyd carried the load and kept Hereford in the game.

High for Hereford and the game was Francis Boyd with 26 markers. Carl Mitnell was high for Phillips with 16. Boyd has now scored 483 points in 22 games for Hereford this year.

What's This

—By Chris

Hello, guys and gals, Moms and Pops.

Isn't it wonderful that the people of Hereford have been so cooperative toward the March of Dimes drive? The talent show sponsored by Student Council to collect money for the March of Dimes was a big success. The talent was all very well organized and went over with a bang.

I thought that the number done by the Girls' Sextet was especially cute. A lot of time and work must have gone in on their costumes.

I don't suppose the stage will need to be dusted for quite a while, but I have my doubts as to whether Clarence's shirt will ever be white again.

A certain teacher in charge of study-hall, must have eyes in the back of his head. That's all I can say!

Did you hear about the funny little episode that happened to Robert Davis and Robert Woolsey at the debates in Amarillo.

It seems there was a slight mix-up. Robert Davis introduced himself as Robert Woolsey and—yes, you guessed it, Robert W. introduced himself as Robert D. The boys said that they were just nervous because they had drawn two Lubbock teams, but inside information (Mrs. Patterson) said that they were too busy watching the beautiful time keepers. Which story sounds more likely to you?

Wonder why Marvin F. is walking in circles? He's been acting a little vague lately. Maybe he has spring fever, but methinks it's still February.

A certain girl I know tried to play "If I Give My Heart To You" on the coronet. At least she told me that's what she was "playing." Strangely enough, her mother kept muttering things like, "Give me strength."

The senior play should be quite an affair this year, since there is going to be such a talented cast. It will be a rib-ticking comedy by the name of "No More Homework."

Well, folks, so long for now. It's been nice chattering with you.

Q. How can I make gelatine harden quickly?

A. Add only one half the liquid boiling hot, and after dissolving the gelatine add the rest of the liquid as cold as possible.

Q. How can I remove lipstick stains from a non-washable garment?

A. First work petroleum jelly or lard into the stain, then sponge with carbon tetrachloride. Should a trace of color remain, sponge with denatured alcohol, diluted with two parts of water for stains on acetate rayon or colored materials. Test colors first.

Creamy Vegetable Soup
Ham and Lettuce Sandwiches
Cookies Beverage
CREAMY VEGETABLE SOUP
Ingredients: One 11-ounce can of vegetable soup, 1 1/2 cups stock, dried crushed mixed salad herbs or curry powder, salt and pepper.
Method: Empty soup and stock into electric blender. Blend thoroughly; pour into saucepan. Add a pinch of salad herbs or curry powder. Heat. Add more herbs or curry if desired, along with salt and pepper to taste. Makes three servings.
Note: The stock may be made with the wing tips and giblets of a chicken, 1 cup water, celery leaves, onion and other seasonings.

LUNCHBOX SPECIAL
Youngsters will love these cookies for noon munching.
Egg Salad Sandwiches
Carrot Sticks
Easy Oatmeal Cookies
Apple or Orange Beverage
EASY OATMEAL COOKIES
Ingredients: 1 cup sifted flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 2-3 cup shortening, 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 cups quick-cooking rolled oats (uncooked), 1 cup light or dark raisins (rinsed in hot water and drained).
Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Melt shortening and stir in sugar; add egg and beat until well blended. Stir in vanilla, sifted ingredients, rolled oats and raisins. Drop by teaspoonfuls, a few inches apart, onto greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 15 to 20 minutes. Cool on wire rack. Makes about 5 dozen.

SATURDAY SUPPER
Leftover meat loaf makes a quick and delicious meal.
Meat Loaf with Tomatoes and Peas
Elbow Macaroni
Bread and Butter
Fruit Gelatin Beverage
MEAT LOAF WITH TOMATOES AND PEAS
Ingredients: One can (1 pound) stewed tomatoes, 1 1/2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 1/2 tablespoon flour, one 8-ounce can green peas, salt and pepper. 4 servings of leftover cold meat loaf.
Method: Put tomatoes into skillet (8 or 10 inch size), heat. Blend butter and flour with back of teaspoon; add to hot tomatoes. Stir constantly until thickened, breaking up tomatoes as little as possible. Drain peas thoroughly and add; save liquid from peas for other use. Add salt and pepper, to taste. Cut meat loaf into slices that fit size of skillet and add. Cover skillet and heat gently about 10 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Note: Half a meat loaf that was made with 1 pound of beef will be fine for this dish.

SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPER
You'll treasure this recipe for rich crumbly cornbread.
Creamed Chicken on Mexican Cornbread
Mixed Salad
Plum Whip Beverage
MEXICAN CORNBREAD
Ingredients: 1 cup sifted flour, 1/4 cup sugar, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon chili powder, 1 cup water-ground yellow cornmeal, 2 eggs, 1/2 cup milk; 1/2 cup (1/2 pound) butter or margarine (very soft), 1/2 cup finely diced green pepper, 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento.
Method: Sift flour, sugar, baking powder, salt and chili powder into a large mixing bowl. Stir in cornmeal. Add eggs, milk, butter, green pepper and pimiento; beat vigorously with rotary beater (hand or electric) just until ingredients are well mixed—about 1 minute. Turn into greased pan (8 by 8 by 2 inches and bake in hot (425 degrees) oven until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean—about 20 minutes. Allow to stand 5 or 10 minutes before cutting into pieces. Split pieces and spoon creamed chicken over. Makes 6 servings.

CASSEROLE FLAVOR
Here's a really different casserole. Layer slices of cooked chicken with canned drained ravioli. Mix the sauce from the ravioli with some chicken stock and add to the baking dish. Heat in a moderate oven and serve with grated Parmesan cheese and a green salad.

FREEZING MEAT PIE
Freeze meat pies or turnovers with pastry crusts unbaked. Crusts baked after freezing in experiments had fresher flavor and were more flaky and tender than those baked before being frozen.

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many 1955 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three."

In Price, too, it is one of the "Big Three"

THE 1955 BUICK SPECIAL delivers locally for less than some models of the 2-Door, 6-Passenger Sedan, Model 48 (illustrated), so-called "low-price three." COME IN AND CHECK!

MOST PEOPLE still don't believe it. But it is true. And when you look into the facts, you'll find these two solid truths:
Buick is one of the "Big Three" in sales volume—and hotter this year than ever before. And Buick is one of the "Big Three" when it comes to prices which make such popularity possible. The price tag we'll show you proves it.
So why not get what a Buick has to offer, if you are in the market for a new car?
You find that the dollars you pay for Buick buy you a lot more automobile—and the sheer satisfaction that comes with bossing a brawny traveler of this caliber.
You find it in the record-high V8 power that gives life to this spirited performer. You find it in the soft and level and cruiser-steady ride that comes of all-coil springing and torque-tube stability. You find it in the extra roominess, the extra frame strength, the extra tread width, the extra silencing—all part and parcel of every Buick.

We could tell you about the little things, too. Things usually charged for as "extras" in other cars, but yours as standard equipment at no extra cost in every Buick. Things like direction signals, oil-bath air cleaner, full-flow oil filter, automatic lighting in glove and trunk compartments—and so on.
But—you get the idea. This is a buy, this '55 Buick—a great buy—and a thriller from the instant you press its gas pedal. Come in this week and check things for yourself, won't you?

Thrill of the year is Buick

At The Movies

"Naked Alibi"
"Naked Alibi," Universal-International's melodrama, has been scheduled to open next Wednesday and Thursday at the Star Theatre, with Sterling Hayden, Gloria Grahame, Gene Barry and Marcia Henderson, cast in starring roles.
The story of "Naked Alibi," begins with a series of brutal police murders which detective Hayden stubbornly believes is the work of "honest-citizen" Gene Barry. Pursuit takes him to a tawdry border-town where Barry's girlfriend, honky-tonk singer Gloria Grahame and Hayden join in solving the killings and trapping Barry.
Following the production of this great movie will be the Star Theatre Anniversary giveaways.

Household Hints

Weight-watchers will be interested to know that there is now an apricot nectar on the market that has a non-nutritive sweetener—instead of sugar—added. The nectar comes in a 12-ounce can; each ounce of this nectar contains about 7 calories.
Know how to serve turkey? A slice of white meat and one of dark, plus a spoonful of stuffing, on each plate. Don't ladle the gravy over the turkey and stuffing—let family and guests help themselves.
Cauliflower, whether you serve it with a butter or a cream sauce, benefits from a dusting of paprika.
Ever try adding both Swiss and Parmesan cheese to a cream sauce for fish, poultry or vegetables? It is a fine flavor combination.
