Raid On Poker, Dice Game Begins Drive On Gambling

Seventeen Men Assessed Fines

Seventeen men were arrested and fined by city authorities Friday night as a drive against organized gambling in Hereford was started by the Police Department. All of those arrested were either taking a direct part or watching poker and dice games in one of the potato sheds.

Officers closed in on the game about 11 o'clock after parking their cars some distance away and slipping up on the building. Previous attempts to catch men playing had been foiled when a lookout man had spotted the officers and given warning in time for the games to break up.

As soon as the men could be taken back to city hall, City Manager Cecil Massey was called, and a night session of municipal court took place, ending with the fining of all 17 men on gambling charges.

Fines Assessed
Fines totaling $367 were assessed. These ranged from a low of $10 to a top of $100, Chief Box said. Box waited as late as possible to make his final plans for the raid. Day patrolmen were called back about 10 o'clock and briefed on the plans for the raid, Box said.

Three men were held in jail until Saturday, but they were supposed to pay their fines and be released before Saturday night.

Officers taking part in the raid were Chief Box and officers R. L. Gilbert, James Bates, Virgil Ritchie and L. D. McDuff.

THE "QUIZ KIDS" of the La Plata Study Club brought home the television set Thursday night when they won the KFDA-TV Texas-USA quiz program. The television, set was given to them by Clack Radio and television, 1607 Washington in Amarillo, sponsors of the program. Members of the

Television Set Won On TV By La Plata Quiz Team

The long hours of hard work and studying of the "quiz kids," Mrs. H. H. Caraway, Mrs. Emil Dettman, and Mrs. Frank Prowell, has finally paid off for the members of the La Plata club.

Mrs. S. S. Dodson, president of La Plata, also believes she knows a lot more about Texas history because she was "sitting in" if any of the three ladies could not attend.

The "quiz kids" went to Amarillo again Thursday night and competed against three members of the Dumas Road Kings, with the Hereford women winning with a score of 70-25. The Road Kings teams consisted of their sponsor, a Texas History teacher and one of his star pupils.

Table Model TV
Since this was the third time in succession the "quiz kids" won the "Texas USA" quiz program, they received a Spartan table model television set from the Clack Radio and Television, 1607 Washington in Amarillo.

The first time the ladies went to Amarillo, July 16, they competed against three men of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Amarillo winning, 50-20. On July 23, they won with a score of 25-20, competing against the Tip Toppers club.

Family Of G.E. Brewster Held Reunion Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brewster and children held a family reunion in the Brewster home, 210 West Ninth, Wednesday.

All four children were present for the occasion.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sweigart and children, Thomas Gary, Janice K. Timothy, and Terry of New Port, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Odom and children, Tena and Kim of Big Spring, Mrs. Vernon Savage and children, Doyle Joe and Bobbie of Amarillo and Edgar Brewster of Covington, Ky.

Only Two Missed
Only two questions were missed by the women Thursday night, and one of those brought up a question that not even Murray Warner, the quiz master, could answer.

The women were stumped by the question, "What is the second largest building in Texas?" They thought that the state capitol was the largest, but it is the second largest. Warner could not tell them what the largest building is, though.

Some of the questions that were answered would stop most "average" experts on Texas history and geography.

First Newspaper?
One question thrown at them was, "Where and when was the first newspaper published in Texas and what was the name of the paper?" They answered that one correctly by saying that it was the "Mejicano," started in Nacogdoches in 1813.

Another one was, "Where is the Enchanted Rock and what makes it outstanding?" For those unfamiliar with this natural phenomenon, the rock is in Gillespie and Burnet counties, and is famous because it covers an entire section of land.

Mrs. Dodson, said that the television set will be used by the club in welfare work.

WHO SAYS A COW CAN'T PACK A WALLOP! Billy Paetzold, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Paetzold, found out late Wednesday night that a milk cow is likely to be a little on the rough side when he collided with a Holstein belonging to George Heard on Highway 51. About $250 worth of damage was done to the car. The cow was killed. (Staff Photo.)

PMA Approval Of Wheat Cover Crop Is Needed

Deaf Smith County wheat farmers will have some special privileges under the acreage allotment program for the coming year whether they vote for or against marketing quotas on Aug. 14, but they have some responsibilities to protect those privileges.

N. E. Gass, chairman of the county Production and Marketing Administration committee, pointed out that wheat farmers here can go in for fence-to-fence planting to get hay, green manure or a cover crop, in excess of the acreage allotment, but it must be approved by the PMA county committee prior to seeding time.

"A sketch map of the farm, showing fields to be planted to 'cover wheat' must be filed with the county PMA office. If this is not done, prior to planting, all acreage must be measured as wheat and will disqualify the operator for price support," Gass continued. "If this is not fully understood, please see the county PMA office before seeding wheat."

Allotment Required
Gass pointed out that, under the law, the Secretary of Agriculture had to put on acreage allotments for 1954 because the supply of wheat had reached more than 20 percent over "normal" consumption. The referendum on Aug. 14 will not affect the acreage allotment in any way.

If the marketing quotas are approved, then those who exceed their acreage allotment will be subject to a 45 percent marketing penalty of the wheat parity price as of May 1, 1954 for each bushel of excess wheat.

Must Not Mature
It is for this reason that Gass is urging growers to report, and turn in sketch maps, on wheat acreage they plan to use for cover crops, hay or green manure. He also warned that if any of that wheat is allowed to mature, even though it is then burned or plowed under, the effect would be the same as if the farmer had deliberately violated his acreage allotment, and he would have to take the penalty price for his wheat.

If the marketing quotas are approved by two-thirds of the nation's wheat growers, then support prices on wheat grown on allotted acres will be at 90 percent of parity according to Gass.

Should the marketing quotas be disapproved, then the loan to operators will be only 50 percent of parity.

Applies To Nearly All

Plans Are Laid For Fun Night On August 15

An evening of entertainment which is supposed to have some of the general atmosphere of "Hellzapoppin'" with just a lot of good, clean, fun is being planned for the night of Aug. 15 at the rodeo grounds.

Hereford merchants are backing the program, and will be giving away free tickets between now and show time on the date set.

Wear Old Clothes
For the parents, it has been suggested that they wear some of their old clothes when that night arrives, for a pie eating contest is part of the program, and a child well-smeared with pie could make parents the best—or worst—customer a dry cleaner has had recently.

Another section of the program will probably feature some of the county's most frustrated softball players, as they try to play ball while riding donkeys. Seeing some of the fleet-footed base runners tied, literally, to a donkey-walk while fielders have a similar problem as they chase the ball should make the trip to the rodeo grounds that night worth while.

Some $500 worth of free prizes are being offered by the merchants, including some prizes which should provide a large amount of mirth, even from the recipient.

Greased Pig
For some of the hardier souls, there will be a greased pig chase, and for the men, there will be a "beauty contest" to pick the homeliest man in Deaf Smith County. If all of those things aren't enough, the master of ceremonies has promised to keep things moving even if he has to act like Marryin' Sam at a $5 Dogpatch wedding, but he doesn't think that will be necessary.

Boy! Some Fun. OK, Let's Start. Hey! Wait a minute! Careful, Bud. That nasty man! Let's call the deal off. Hey, Mom! Look what he done. Help! Bloody Murder. No, Sir. Never Again!

THAT FIRST HAIRCUT for Charles Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clell O. Wood Jr. of Friona was no different from most others—except Cameraman Bill Patton happened to be around. Anyway, Mom did the suffering and junior did the yelling and it was all in a days work for Delbert Scott, the barber.

Around Town

Fire Inspection Due Next Month

When the members of the West Texas Division, Texas Insurance Fieldman's Association, conduct a two-day fire hazard inspection of downtown Hereford Sept. 24, the visitors will have nothing to sell and no axe to grind.

This was made clear Saturday by G. E. Mullins, Chamber of Commerce manager. Although inspections of this kind are made as a public service by the capital stock fire insurance industry, insurance never enters in the picture, Mullins explained. Fire prevention and the saving of life and property are the only interests the inspectors have.

Who Are They?
And who are the inspectors? The 60 or more who will visit Hereford are members of the West Texas Division of the Texas Insurance Fieldman's Association of Lubbock. They make these fire hazard checks on invitation only and perform them as a public service.

In the workday jobs, these inspectors are special agents for some 200 capital stock fire insurance companies which operate in Texas.

THINGS ARE GETTING PRETTY BAD when vegetable growers have to resort to this sort of thing to protect their crops according to A. N. Dopson, who was getting ready to put a "Posted" sign. Some people have evidently begun to think that potatoes or onions in the field are supposed to be for the first comer, rather than waiting to glean after workers had gone over the ground. Several growers report that this is the first year they have had any trouble of the sort, and are at a loss to account for it. (Staff Photo.)

Ursalee Jacobsen, chairman of the international relations committee of the Business and Professional Women's Club, will have charge of the program at their meeting at 8 o'clock Monday night at the Jaycee Clubhouse. Mrs. Art Manjeot is to show pictures which were taken by her son while he was inorea.

Berry Green at Park Avenue Appliance is gathering talent to be on Carl Hare's KFDA-TV talent show Saturday night. So far, he has lined up a girl's trio, and Irene Witherspoon, who will be acrobatics and twirling. He will be most happy to know about, or talk to, any other person or persons who might be eligible for the show.

Beginning of work on the shop building part of the new high school is still awaiting the arrival of steel, according to school Superintendent George Graham. The contractor has said that he will start to pour footing as soon as steel begins to arrive, which should be any day now.

Tom Draper, who lives north of Bootleg, says that the buffalo grass in his pasture is beginning to head out. The cattle even "bawled at him" when he took cottonseed pellets out to them, though he had been giving them a different kind of feed.

Four of the gamblers who were fined Friday night told a cab driver, after they were released, that they had only $1 left, and asked if he would take them back to their camp for that. He would, and did. The usual fare for the trip is 80 cents.

One of the worst things that could happen in the drought relief feed program, other than not getting any at all, has occurred here. Some 800 sacks of cottonseed pellets arrived here in bad condition, and were not usable as feed. The Commodity Credit Corporation was notified and, presumably, feed will be sent to replace it, but that doesn't help cattlemen who are taking partial rather than full loads home.

Understand the Hereford Shrine club will meet Monday evening to get the ball rolling once more in the direction of locating a crippled children's hospital here. Everyone should pitch in and help all they can on this project. Just think what a wonderful thing it would be for the kids. Dr. Barnett says the clinic tests definitely prove exceptional bone building qualities of this area. For a long, long time folks have been noticing the same thing in cattle marketed from this section.

Older people frequently die from broken hips, but here they usually heal in a few weeks. This was the situation which really woke the medical profession up regarding the possibilities. Actual facts of this type naturally tend toward making this area the ideal location. Wallace Hill still has the tract of land ready to donate for the location. Also understand that several other donations for the hospital are available. Right now, however, the big job is selling the Shrine committee on the location.

Scores of Hereford people have been talking about the death of W. C. Black, president of the Canyon bank. Mr. Black was born at Canyon in 1894 and has lived there all of his life. I understand that Clyde Warwick, present publisher of the Canyon News, will probably go into the bank. Clyde has been a director for 25 years or so and is one of the leading newspaper men in Texas.

Furthermore, he is the only working newspaper man I ever heard of being considered for a banking post. He might be pretty good, too. I asked him about a loan right off and he replied, "No sir. I know too much about the business to lend any money on a newspaper." I think he will miss the newspaper business a lot, however. It is a hard business to leave, once you get started. There is an old saying that once you get printer's ink on your hands, you are lost.

Just got a card from Ben Ezzell, Canadian publisher. Ben wrote in reference to the picture "It Happens Every Thursday" and says, "you are going to eat those words, I've seen the picture." I think he was talking about the fact that it looked so easy to print the paper. However, he could have meant that it was a lousy picture. Has anyone else seen this film? I've talked to several people who really liked it. Nelda Guy Ricketts was by to find out if Francis Hardwick finally decided to furnish the whole picnic. He did not! That is definite.

Where is Drain, Oregon? I got a nice little gift-wrapped package this week by mistake—and the only return was "Drain, Oregon". The postoffice stamp was the same. Since the package was addressed to me and marked personal, I opened it. Guess what it contained, "A Brush for Bald Heads". That's how I knew it was a mistake. The brush was a piece of terry towel cloth glued onto a nice little flat board. I am sure they meant to address the package to Jimmie Witherspoon and just wrote down the wrong name. However, I think I will keep it. I might get bald sometime myself. Besides, I can lend it to Hub Homer and Sam McLallen when they drop in occasionally.

My nomination as the proudest papa in history is Frank Cogdell. He has some special cigars with the wrappers printed, "It's a Boy". Besides, he was literally beaming. I don't think this papa business is going to help his golf score much, but he isn't worried.

The new front on the old Quality Food building has me worried. They finished it in corrugated sheet metal. I even went over and asked George Tiefert how come it looks like barn roof tin. "It looks like barn roof tin," said George, "because it is barn roof tin." Anyway, it looks pretty slick. Quite an innovation. Sam Nunnally has the same deal over his building. I tried to get them to paint it gray, but Ike and Frank don't seem to like gray. However, they said if I wanted to pay for it, they would go ahead and paint it gray. With this in mind, I decided there are a lot of other colors which look just as well as gray. Green maybe? After all, the folks at the Brand and the Star Theatre have to look at it more than anyone else. Please don't paint it yellow or red.

Shower Given For Bride-Elect

Miss Anna Marie Dunn of Artesia, bride-elect of Dale Doak, was feted at a miscellaneous shower given in the home of Mrs. Louie Olson Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Pat Robinson and Mrs. G. W. Duncan were assistant hostesses. Mrs. E. E. Doak, mother of the prospective bride-groom, stood with the honoree to receive the guests.

A short program was presented, including two readings, "To My Daughter at Her Wedding" by Mrs. Pat Robinson and "A Little Home" presented by Mrs. Louie Olson. The shower was introduced at the conclusion of games.

Wedding News
Refreshments were served from a table done in the colors chosen by the bride-to-be for her wedding. Pink carnations formed the table center piece with the wedding news inscribed on green satin streamers. Mrs. Jimmie Lindsey of Canyon poured.

Those attending were Mesdames Bub Newell, Dwaine Walker, J. T. Richardson, Geo. L. Olson, L. M. Harris of Amarillo, Byron Durham, J. B. Sowell, G. B. Miller, Jack Reynolds, E. E. Doak, J. R. Dodson and Jimmie Lindsey of Canyon the honor guest and the hostesses. Many who were unable to attend the party sent gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rose and daughter Sherrie left Friday evening on a week's vacation at different places in Texas. They plan to visit in Stamford, Fort Worth, and Wichita Falls.

Missionary Baptist Church Is Holding Open-Air Revival

An open-air revival which started Thursday night at the Missionary Baptist Church, 1003 Union Ave., is scheduled to continue through Aug. 13.

The revival services are being conducted by Rev. R. E. Rodgers of Henderson, who is sponsored by the Missionary Baptist Association of Texas in co-operation with the American Baptist Association.

Rev. Shirey Assisting
Rev. Rodgers is being assisted by Rev. S. B. Shirey of Amarillo, who will complete the series of revival services if Rev. Rodgers is unable to remain in Hereford that long.

Services, which are open to the public, are being conducted each evening.

Special Deputy Given Credit For Detective Work On Check Case

Fred Gonzales, special deputy sheriff, has been given credit for the capture, in Big Spring, of a Latin-American who is charged with passing $160 worth of worthless checks at a Hereford jewelry store in exchange for merchandise.

Mike Pineda, who allegedly passed the checks, which were signed with a fictitious name, left town shortly after the checks were passed, but he did leave some clothes behind.

Clothes Found
In searching for Pineda, whom Gonzales had recognized from his description, Gonzales found some of Pineda's clothes and was able to trace him to Big Spring through papers in the clothing.

Deputy-sheriff Neal Young went after Pineda, bringing him back to Hereford Wednesday.

Young People's Class Has Watermelon Feast Friday
The Young People's Sunday school class of the East Side Baptist chapel met in the home of Nancy Milford Friday night for a watermelon feast.

Members of the Sunday school class present were: Lajeane Latham, Carl Hutcheson, Jackie Allmon, Sue Savage, Donna Caylor, Lloyd Brooks, rank Jones's, Mary Beth Sparks, Nancy Milford and Mrs. Herbert Haseloff, teacher of the class.

Guests present were: Dovie Jones, David Stanton, Eugene Campbell, Douglas Bracken, Jane Poenack, Gayle Gault, Melrose Whitfield, Judith Ray Haseloff, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Milford.

COKE PARTY
Four school friends held a get-together at the home of Mrs. Harold Loerwald Thursday evening to say "hello" to Mrs. Ted Hardwick of Roswell who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. F. N. Pittman, and her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hardwick. The girls who chatted over Cokes were: Mrs. Hardwick, Mrs. Loerwald, Mrs. Bob Goldsborough and Mrs. Leo Hennington.

ARKANSAS VISITORS
Mr. and Mrs. Luther Burchfield of Little Rock, Ark. and her mother Mrs. Minnie Cooksey of Ector, Tex. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Caraway and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ramey recently. Mrs. Cooksey is Mr. Ramey's sister. Burchfield is employed with the Game, Fish and Wild Life Commission for Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, and Tennessee. Mrs. Burchfield is a teacher in the Little Rock Public Schools.

John D. Aiken told Rotary Club members at their meeting Friday that he thought the proposed constitutional amendment giving women "equal rights" was just a political football. "Most women would lose a lot, rather than gaining anything, if such an amendment were passed," Aiken said. He gave such examples as alimony, child custody, no jury duty and other things as being privileges which women might not have if the amendment is ever approved.

local insurance companies throughout the state. Their job is to help the local insurance agent with his work. Naturally, dealing with fire insurance everyday gives these special agents, or fieldmen, a more than average interest in fire prevention. So five years ago they decided to do something about it.

Five Divisions

The more than 500 of these special agents in Texas got together and organized the Texas Insurance Fieldman's Association. They split the organization into five divisions, or clubs, to serve the areas or fields in which the members normally travel. One division is headquartered in Lubbock, another in San Antonio, the third at Houston, another at Corpus Christi and the fifth at Dallas. It's the Lubbock group which will inspect Lubbock.

After the Fieldman's Association was organized, its members decided to learn something about the causes of fire and how to prevent it. They took training courses in fire hazard inspection. Then they decided to make their knowledge available to Texas communities for aid in preventing fires.

Gatesville First
Gatesville, in Central Texas, heard about the Fieldman's Association and invited the North Plains Division to conduct a fire hazard inspection there in 1948. Since then, the five divisions have inspected 34 communities. Hereford will be the 35th.

"There is no obligation of any kind connected with these inspections," C. E. Colson, President of the West Texas Division says. "Our only object is to help communities reduce the toll that fire takes each year in lives and property."

Cattlemen Warned To Guard Against New Anthrax Epidemic

An alert, to guard against a repetition of 1952's deadly anthrax epidemic, the worst in the nation's history, was recommended today by the American Foundation for Animal Health.

Late summer and early fall are special danger periods for anthrax because close grazing on sparse pastures more readily exposes livestock to the anthrax germs which live in the soil.

3,500 Head Killed

The foundation said 1,644 outbreaks were reported in 32 states last year, killing nearly 3,500 head of livestock. The 1952 epidemic was marked by the occurrence of the disease in many new areas.

"This 'seeding' of new areas with anthrax germs has increased the danger," the Foundation said. "All livestock raisers in these localities must be constantly alert for new outbreaks."

Vaccination of livestock in these danger zones was recommended, because anthrax can be controlled effectively by vaccines.

Report Deaths

Since anthrax can strike with deadly speed, killing apparently healthy animals overnight, the foundation recommended that all "mystery" livestock deaths be reported immediately to the local veterinarian or state and federal authorities.

The foundation said farmers who ignore possible anthrax outbreaks endanger not only their own farm, but the entire area. "Anthrax can

Credit Association Meeting Is Planned

COLLEGE STATION—A statewide meeting of the Production Credit Associations of Texas will be held at Texas A&M College August 9-12. The meeting will be sponsored jointly by the School of Agriculture of A&M, the 36 PCAs of the state and the Houston Credit Corporation.

More than 275 persons are expected, consisting principally of ranchmen and farmers who are serving as the officers and directors of the Associations.

Jointly Sponsored

"It is the policy of the college to provide all interested groups of farmers and ranchmen of the state with information on economic as well as production matters," Dean C. N. Sheppardson of the School of Agriculture, said today. "This conference is being jointly sponsored by the School of Agriculture in accordance with that policy."

Economic information relating to agricultural finances will be presented by college staff members and sound farm and ranch management practices as the basis for successful production loans. Rep-representatives of the associations will devote some time to a discussion of their own practices and problems, Sheppardson said.

When poultry is in trouble from diseases or parasites its best to call in an experienced veterinarian.

Antibiotics may be used in the near future to control bacterial diseases of plants.

Demand for farmland has been weakening across the Nation for the past year, and farm real estate values in general have trended downward, according to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, USDA.

Influence Of First A&M President Is Still Felt

COLLEGE STATION — Many Texans' emotions are stirred at sight of the statue of Lawrence Sullivan Ross, a campus shrine at Texas A&M College.

Few others are affected quite so deeply, however, as Mrs. Howard W. Mittel, secretary to J. Gordon Gay, general secretary of Texas A&M's Y.M.C.A.

Lawrence Sullivan Ross—or "Little Sul"—as he was known to his friends and associates, and to whom A&M College and the citizens of the state owe so much—was her great-grandfather.

Colorful Man

From earliest childhood, when marauding Indians whipped blood from his legs with arrow-shafts and later spared his life because of his courage, "Little Sul" was one of the most colorful men in the history of a young and virile state.

As a Ranger captain less than 21 years old, he killed the Indian chief Peta Nocona in a knife fight and recaptured Cynthia Ann Parker, captive-wife of a chief and mother of the great chieftain Quanaah Parker.

Entering the War Between the States as a private on the side rank of general after engaging in more than 100 battles, "Little Sul" returned to Texas which he later served as governor and as president of its first state-supported institution, Texas A&M College.

His mark upon the college is indelible and is evidenced in many ways. In addition to his statue which stands on a broad lawn before the Academic building, the student newspaper, The Battalion, dedicates its editorial page, to "Lawrence Sullivan Ross, founder of Aggie Traditions; Soldier, Statesman, nightly Gentleman."

Older classes of the school, joining together, call themselves "The Sul Ross Classes," and the top military honor group, oldest student organization in Texas, is the Ross Volunteers.

Lawrence Sullivan Ross accepted the presidency of A&M College during an era of threatened failure and, through sheer force of personality and statesmanship brought about what is still referred to at times as "The Golden Age of A&M."

Family Remembers

The family of "Little Sul" has no more forgotten the college than the college has forgotten him. Mrs. Mittel's husband, whose schooling was interrupted by two years of service with the armed forces—one of them in Korea—is now back, studying civil engineering.

Her father, Frank Clarke Jr., formerly of Bryan, attended the college during the First World War; an uncle, Lawrence Sullivan Ross Clarke—named for "Little Sul"—was graduated in 1921, and two of Mrs. Mittel's brothers have attended the school.

Mrs. Mittel's paternal grandmother was the daughter of Sul and Lizzie Ross. At present there are five great-grandchildren of the knightly fire-brand in Mrs. Mittel's branch of the family.

Personals

Mrs. Rosa Speer returned Sunday from a two months visit in Springfield, Mo., where she visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Warner W. White. She also visited friends and relatives in Branson, Mo., and Lake Taney-coma and throughout the Shepherd of the Hills country.

Tommy Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Duncan, of Andrews, visited friends in Hereford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Caraway, Sandre Jo and Carolyn left Saturday morning on a tour of several of the western states. They plan to spend a few days visiting in the home of Mrs. Caraway's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Housley at Castro Valley, Calif.

Mrs. George Garrison, former resident of Hereford who now lives in Corpus Christi, has been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cockrell. Mrs. Garrison has been visiting in California and stopped in Hereford on her way back to Corpus Christi.

W. S. Fluitt is home again after spending the past ten days in Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Miss Lillie Wilson of Prosper and Mrs. Ed Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Berry Noles and three children of Denton have been visiting in the home of W. F. Gillis and Mrs. C. W. Riddle.

Letter To The Editor

To the Editor of the Bull Column: In answer to the question our great editor and publisher had in his Bull Column of July 25th, as to why I have not entered the OLD GENTLEMEN'S Golf Tournament which ended in Amarillo a few days ago, here is my reply. One reason is because I am not a great many years older than said editor, and he should remember when we were kids and used to fish for Catfish in Sandy Creek, which ran through our Granddads' place at El Dorado Oklahoma.

Remember that Jim? But the main reason I have not entered, is—I came into this old World on March 31, 1906, to the great surprise of my parents, and if I have not figured wrongly, that would make me a young 47.

I understand that you must reach the age of 50 before you may enter his tournament. Hope this will answer his question.

Maybe a few years older than the Publisher of our great newspaper, but I still have my hair and a FULL set of teeth—I notice I has NO hair and I doubt—very many teeth. By the way Jim—have you entered the Tennis Tournament the Jay-Cees are sponsoring for old Gentlemen?

J. M. Posey. (Ol Pose)

Texans To Play In Pro Football Game At Lubbock

LUBBOCK — Eleven Texans are on the roster of the two professional football teams—the Chicago Cardinals and the Baltimore Colts—that will meet in Texas Tech's Jones Stadium Aug. 22.

Five are with the Cards six, with the Colts, formerly the Dallas Texans.

Canadian's Billy Cross heads the list of Cards, as far as West Texans are concerned. The little half-back from West Texas was just as tricky as ever in the Cardinals' victory over Camp Polk here last year.

Other Cards from Texas are tackle Paul Lea of New London, who played for Tulane; quarterback Ogden Compton of Dallas, ex-Hardin-Simmons starter; full-back Bill Svoboda of Bonham, former Tulane player; and guard John Hancock of San Antonio, ex-Baylor Bear.

From Perryton, center Keith Flowers, who played for Texas Christian, is probably the biggest attraction for West Texans among the Colts. Also, here are Baylor's Bill Athey, guard from Austin; Georgia's Dan Edwards, end from Gatesville Texas A&M's Andy Hillhouse, end from Alvin; Texas' Ken Jackson, tackle from Austin and Midwestern's Joe Tidwell, full-back from Wichita Falls.

The Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the game.

Attend Lubbock Meeting Among the many Methodist women from throughout this area attending the Northwest Texas Conference School of Missions and Christian Service the past week in Lubbock were two members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and two members of the Youth Department of the First Methodist Church of Hereford. They were Mrs. S. M. Dunning, Mrs. E. W. Hobson, Lu Durham and Earline Plank.

All-Star Teams Split Double-Header Game

By Billy Paul Knox
The two All-Star teams of the Hereford Softball League split a double header here Thursday night. The West team, managed by Jack Streun, won the first game, 9-8, by scoring three runs in the last of the seventh. The East, whose manager was Hubert Homer, won the second game, 10-4. The second game was called with two men out in the last of the sixth because of rain.

The East scored exactly half of their total of eight runs in the first inning. These came as a result of three base hits and an error. One of these hits was a home run by Larry Summers. The first three batters led off with singles netting two runs for the West in the last of the first.

East Scoreless
The East was held scoreless in the second with the West getting one more run.

A single, a walk, and an error netted the single tally.

The East made their total five by adding one more run in the third. Leroy Suttle accounted for this run with a home run. The West tied it up in the last half of the third inning by getting two runs. Three straight errors followed by a two-base hit turned the trick for the West team.

The fourth was a scoreless inning for the Two All-Star teams.

One More
The East went ahead by scoring one run in the top of the fifth. A double and an error, mixed in with a base on balls accounted for the tie-breaking run. The fifth was another scoreless inning for Jack Streun's West team.

The East widened their lead to two runs, getting a single tally in the top of the sixth. The West narrowed the lead to one run by countering for a run in the last of the sixth. A double and a single were used to get this score.

A triple by George Loerwald and a single by Roy Campbell meant another run for the East in the seventh.

Seventh Fatal
The seventh was the fatal inning for the East. It was in this inning the West scored the runs that won the game. Bob Clark led off with a base on balls. Stan Barrett tripled scoring Clark to bring them within one run of the East. Tim Corbett singled scoring Barrett with the tying run. An error put Tim on third and Bill Howard on second. Melvin May then lifted an easy pop up to second baseman, George Loerwald, who dropped the ball. Corbett scored, ending the game.

The East made an unusually large amount of errors. They made eight. The West made three errors.

Two Apiece
Four West batters got two hits apiece. They were Bill Howard, Ruben Knox, Melvin May, and Stan Barrett. Roy Campbell led the East with three hits.

Second Game
The East won the second game by a score of 10-4.

Both teams got a hit but each was held scoreless in the first inning.

A base on balls and a double sent one man across the plate for the West in the second. The East matched this run and one more, scoring two runs in the last of the second. A triple with two men on by Larry Summers was the big blow.

The West was again held scoreless in the third. The East was also scoreless.

The fourth was the same way for the two teams.

Two For West
The fifth meant two more runs for the West. These came as a result of two singles and two bases on balls. The East got two runs in the fifth also. They got only one hit but three walks and an error helped them.

A double and a single evened the score momentarily for the West in the top half of the sixth frame.

The East burst the game wide open by rallying for six runs in the last of the sixth. They used four hits, a walk, and an error to get these runs. They used up only two outs in the sixth because the game was called because of rain with two men out in the sixth.

Errorless Ball
In contrast to the first game, the East played errorless ball in the field. The West made three errors in the field.

Rocky Lee and L. J. Clark got two hits apiece to lead West batters. Wendell Burdine led the East with two hits.

Next Tuesday night, August 4, the playoffs of the Hereford Softball League will start. Teams competing in the playoffs are Dawn Phillips 66, Summerfield, and Hereford Hardware.

Pairings Tuesday night are: Phillips 66 vs. Hereford Hardware in the first game and Summerfield vs. Dawn in the second game.

On August 6, Phillips 66 meets Summerfield in the first game and Dawn plays H-H in the second game.

Motor Vehicle Accident Death Rate Beginning To Drop In Texas

AUSTIN—The Texas Department of Public Safety today released its annual Texas Motor Vehicle Traffic Accident Summary booklet along with a tabulation of the first six months experience for 1953.

The booklet which makes an exhaustive treatment of Texas' motor vehicle accident picture covers both 1951 and 1952 since none was issued last year.

On the basis of the summary, which carries an introduction by N. K. Woerner, Chief of the Safety Department's Statistical Division, the 7.0 death rate in the State last year was the lowest in the history of recorded traffic records analysis.

New Word
Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said that he believes the book will introduce a new word into the English language—Motorcide. This term was coined by Woerner and Lewis E. Berry, Supervisor of Public Safety Education for DPS, to refer to traffic fatalities.

Briefing the reader on the definitions of suicide and homicide, the booklet goes on to define MOTORCIDES as: "the killing of another human being or of one's self through the operation of a motor vehicle—usually the result of negligence or wanton carelessness."

Accident Rate Down
The report shows that 2,498 persons were killed in Texas traffic accidents in 1952—2 percent under 1951. A continuing decrease is noted for the first six months of 1953 in a supplemental summary which indicates that there were 7 percent fewer MOTORCIDES through June than for the same period last year. Since this is based on incomplete reports for 1953, Woerner estimates that when all reports are in the decrease will be 2 percent.

Drinking Drivers
Also included in the accident report is the fact that in rural accidents, a drinking driver was in-

Immigration Change May Come After Change Of Heart

Americans must have a change of heart and mind before the injustices of the McCarran-Walter immigration law can be corrected, Dr. Wynn C. Fairfield, director of Church World Service, told a public forum in Philadelphia recently. He urged his listeners to go all-out in support of pending legislation to admit 240,000 refugees to this country, as advocated by President Eisenhower.

Full-Of Prejudices
"As a people," the church leader said, "we are full of prejudices, dislikes and distrusts against people with different languages, facial characteristics, political views and social and economic status. 'The necessary change of heart will be quicker if the leaders of our American churches and synagogues point up the religious and moral implications of present attitudes.'"

U. S. immigration laws will improve, Dr. Fairfield concluded, if Americans will stand behind the immigration policy declaration recently issued by representatives of the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths. The statement called for laws which will welcome new immigrants without racial, national, religious or other discrimination, and assures them the basic rights guaranteed to all citizens.

Poached Eggs
To prevent eggs from breaking when poaching, place a teaspoonful of vinegar, or salt, in the water.

Rust Spots
To remove rust stains from clothing, soak them in boiling rhubarb juice. It is claimed that the most stubborn spots will yield to this treatment, without injuring the material.

Putty
Putty in windowframes can be softened by stirring together two pounds of sal-soda, one-half pound lime, one gallon hot water. Apply while still warm to both sides of the glass and let it remain for 12 hours. The glass can then be removed without cutting.

Clara West, Dale Kelly United In Marriage

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd West. Mr. Kelly's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Dale Kelly Sr.

Minister Curtis Camp of the San Jacinto Church of Christ in Amarillo directed the double-ring marriage service. Nuptial music was presented by Colleen Brown and Martha Jean Brown who sang "Because of You" and "I Love You Truly."

Preceding the ceremony, the dal chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" were sung as a processional and recessional by a mixed chorus of voices. Singers were Shirley Sharp, Wanda Gunstenson, Betty McGaughey, Karen McGee, Gerry Patterson, Nancy Patterson, David Stanton, Jerry Reece and Nelson Pierce.

Pyramiding white tapers flanked by tall baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums formed a background for the impressive ceremony.

Attendants

Miss Barbara McGee, maid of honor, and Miss Betty Walker of Clifton, Ariz., bridesmaid; were classmates of the bride at Abilene Christian College, Abilene. They wore identically designed dresses of pastel blue taffeta made with fitted strapless bodice and full skirt with bolero and overskirt of net. They wore small veiled halos and carried pink rosebuds and feathered carnations tied with maline and satin ribbon.

Jim Elland of Stanton served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Joe Hershey and Jim Alston. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace, made over matching satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, buttoned in the front with tiny lace covered buttons and finished at the neck with a small pointed Peter Pan collar.

The lace overskirt, edged in large bound scallops, divided in front to form a three-quarter length panel and extended to the full length of the satin skirt in the back. Elbow length mitts of lace and a fingertip veil of illusion caught to a matching Juliet cap accented with simulated pearls, completed the ensemble. Her bouquet was of white rosebuds and stephanotis, streamered with ribbons of net and embellished with tiny seed pearls.

The bride's mother wore a shantung print in rose with black velvet accessories and a rose corsage. Mrs. Kelly, the bridegroom's mother, wore a pink silk shantung dress with navy accessories and a rose corsage.

Reception at Bride's Home

The bride's parents were hosts at a reception in their home honoring the couple following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a white hand made cloth with the bridal bouquet and bouquets of the feminine attendants forming the center piece on a mirror reflector. Mrs. R. P. Odom of Stanton, sister of the bridegroom, cut the three-tiered wedding cake, and Mrs. Dwayne Walker poured.

Patsy Wiltshire presided at the bride's book of names.

Chamber Of Commerce Joins National Better Business Bureau

The Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce has become a member of the National Better Business Bureau, New York City, thus making it possible for the Chamber to better serve the community as a whole, G. E. Mullins Manager, announced Saturday.

"By becoming a member of the National Bureau, the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce has joined forces with over 600 Chambers of Commerce and 92 Better Business Bureaus throughout the country in the protection of the buying public from fraudulent promotions and unfair business practices", Mullins said.

"As a member of the Bureau, we will receive monthly bulletins alerting us to be sharp promoters and slick-buck artists operating in other sections. In addition, we will have access to the bureau's files and are entitled to special reports on any inquiry we make.

Channel For Investigation

"While this program is not a cure-all and will not stop all the abuses so prevalent in our business system today, it will give the community some measure of control over them and provide it with a channel through which investigation and rectification can be made".

Mullins emphasized the fact that this program can best serve the community only if the community makes use of it. He urged the buying public to be especially cautious of any proposition which promises "something for nothing".

"As with all programs of the Chamber of Commerce, this one can only be successful if we have co-operation of the community. A check with the Chamber of Commerce may save time, money and worry. It pays to "investigate before you invest", he said.

Would-Be Antelope Hunters Should Write For Permits Soon

AUSTIN—Persons interested in competing for permits to hunt antelope in Texas this fall were advised by the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission to write for a formal application.

Those writing will receive a blank to be filled out and returned with $5 covering cost of a license. The license money will be refunded to those whose names are NOT picked in the drawing to be held at the Commission headquarters in Austin early in September.

Aug. 31 Deadline

The Executive Secretary said the applications must be in the Austin headquarters before midnight, Monday, August 31.

Dates for the annual antelope harvest were set by the Commission for October 1 to 6, inclusive, in the Big Bend country and for October 20 through 24 and for October 27 through 31 in the Panhandle.

The Commission estimated the probable harvest of male antelope in the Big Bend at from three hundred to three hundred and fifty and the harvest in the Panhandle at about three hundred bucks. The final license total will depend on surveys now being conducted.

Persons, who are awarded a license through the drawings in Austin, make their own arrangements with ranchers who are permitted to charge up to $40 for each licensed hunter.

Another time, the boys made a trip to Huntington Beach, where they went in swimming, with nearly 5,000 other Scouts, under the watchful eyes of Marines in amphibious trucks and helicopters.

Special Sights

Going to the jamboree, the special train let them out for a stop at Grand Canyon. After the jamboree, the group went on to San Francisco, saw the redwood forest, and came back by Salt Lake City, where they visited Great Salt Lake and the Mormon tabernacle.

There were 29 members and guests present at the meeting, which was presided over by Bill Patton, Kiwanis president.

Came To Summerfield in 1918

Mrs. Cannon was born near Lincoln Park, Ky., and attended college in Magnolia, Canyon and Buffalo, Ky. She married in 1895, and she and her husband moved to Summerfield in 1918. She joined the Summerfield Baptist Church in 1919, and has been active in its interests and in community affairs for many years.

She worked with the Red Cross in World War I, and has been a club member since the organization of the Summerfield Study Club, organized first as a Home Demonstration club. She holds a life certificate in the Summerfield study Club and has been a member of the Rebekah Lodge since 1925.

As a young woman she shouldered responsibility of the cattle and farm, often working beside her husband with the cattle. She is proud of the record of losing only two premature calves during the snows of 1918.

MEET YOUR PASTOR AND HIS FAMILY— Rev. Levi Louderback and his family came to Hereford in June from Clovis. Rev. Louderback is the pastor of the Church of the Nazarene located at Fourth and Jackson. The Louderbacks have three children—Shirley, 13, will be in the eighth grade this fall, Donna, 11, will be in the sixth, and Dean, 9, will be in the third grade. Rev. Louderback was born in Vona, Colo. He attended Clovis High school, took a four year ministerial course at Denver, Colo., and was ordained in Denver in 1950. Mrs. Louderback was born in Clovis and attended school there. His first place of service was the Church of the Nazarene in Yampa, Colo. Rev. Louderback has been preaching for seven years. (Staff Photo)

FOIBLES

Kent Snare

I picked up the first 1953 preview type of Football yearbook today, at least it was the initial issue that I had rested my optics upon. It was published by Street and Smith and is the usual garble of information and mis-information that such an early publication is, of necessity, ordinarily constituted of.

In the Atlantic Coast and Southern section is listed the lineup of the Atlantic Coast Conference. This new conference venture is made up to date, of the seven teams that withdrew from the unwieldy Southern Conference last spring, those being Maryland, Duke, North Carolina, South Carolina, Clemson, North Carolina State and Wake Forest.

To this, the scribe had blithely added the University of Virginia, probably via wishful thinking, since the seven had from the inception of their new league leaned toward the Cavaliers as the necessary eighth member. However, the latest word extant had it that the Virginians were staying out for varying reasons, none of which seemed too good to me, albeit sufficient for the men of McDonald, Texas '40. Aside, how-cum South Carolina to beat them last lap, said upset being their only loss outside of one to upcoming Duke, 6-7. Another glarier, which I spotted during my sketchy run through of the pulper, was a case of a man being simultaneously on two elevens. Rick Casares was listed as Florida U's fullback and also as being a backfield candidate at the Quantico Marines. If you are uncertain as to whom Mr. Casares might uiz, I give you any 1952 adherent of the Tulsa Hurricane who can inform you and scorch your ears in the process. It seems that on January one, last, the Tulsas and the Floridas were hand to handing it in the 'Gator Bowl' at Jacksonville and the tussle was knotted when Mr. Casares missed the all important go-ahead point after TD, but the Tulsas were caught askew in a misdemeanor and Mr. Casares sacked up the rattle at 14-13 by bracketing the next attempt.

Fancy and Plain

In the Southeastern conference, the unusual slot of sixth is designated for Tennessee, mayhap in deference to the absence of General Neyland, after about 26 terms leading the Vols. They had a surprising season last year, losing to Duke and being tied out of a cut of the SE championship by Kentucky, before losing to Texas in the Cotton Bowl. They have an 11 game layout this lap studded with an occasional humpy-dumpy type opponent, and with two real toughies only on it, Alabama and Duke. Although they wind up the season with Houston who was salty indeed in '52.

Bama and Georgia Tech look to be the one-twoers in that run. They knock noggins on November 14 at Birmingham, probably for the rag. In addition Tech tackles 10 other foes including Notre Dame, Duke, Southern Methodist and Georgia, a clambake of violent proportions, allays. Bama also tackles 11 opponents, the biggie of which, added to the Vols and the Wrecks, would be Maryland whom they doused last lap.

Tulsa U. is also on their schedule, although maybe not up to it this go-round. Among other skull-ers the mag opined that "the Rams would be helped by UCLA rookie, Rudy Bukich, who threw the winning TD pass agin Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl." The trouble there being that UCLA didn't play in the Rose Bowl and Mr. Bukich belonged along of USC.

In the Detroit Lions writeup, they state Ronzani came up with last year's best crop of rookies, and he did that, but with Green Bay for whom he is still head coach. I note in the '53 schedule that Utah plays BYU on Thanksgiving, thus breaking up the bearded series with Utah Aggies on that date. The overall picture was getting a little lopsided in the Utes favor, at 35-12, with 4 ties, but scarcely comparable to their bulge over Brigham Young U. which stands at 23 wins and a lone loss.

Outside of propinquity and being in the same league, their's isn't too much of a contest on the field and hasn't been for some laps.

Clean Concrete

To clean and freshen a concrete cellar floor, or outdoor pavements and driveways, scrub with soap and water, or turn on the hose. Then, while the concrete is still wet, sprinkle dry cement powder over it. After 10 minutes, sweep the excess powder off with a stiff broom.

Scorched Linen

If you scorch linen, cut a raw onion in half and rub the flat side on the discolored area; then soak linen in cold water several hours.

Hard Putty

Putty that has become hard and dry can be revived by mixing it well with a few drops of linseed oil.

Paint Spots

Turpentine, kerosene and cleaning fluid are all good for paint spot removal, unless the spots are old. For old paint spots, try com-binning equal parts of turpentine and acetone (or nail polish remover), as long as the fabric involved is not acetate rayon, and use it as you would ordinary cleaning fluid.

Lebanon And Germany Sent Emergency Food

More than 39 tons of canned foods are being rushed by Church World Service to Germany and Lebanon to meet emergency needs in the two countries. The canned goods, which include meats, vegetables, fruits and baby foods, were made available by the Heinz Company, and processed in the Church World Service Center in New Windsor, Maryland.

Fifty percent of the goods will be sped to Europe to help feed refugees streaming into Berlin from the Soviet Zone. The 48,706 refugees who have arrived in the American sector of Berlin since March have brought on an unprecedented feeding problem. The Lebanon shipment will be distributed among the most needy of 900,000 refugees in the Near East.

Baby foods are particularly wanted in this area since there are approximately 37,800 births annually among the Near East refugees. The shipment, donated as 500 cases each in behalf of the Presbyterian, Episcopal, Methodist and Baptist Churches, has a total value estimated at $15,724.

Let's Cook Something

Pineapple Cream Cheese Pie A Midsummer-Day Dream Dish

It's a dream, the way Mrs. Clint Formy makes it. Pineapple Cream Cheese Pie was one of the first culinary feats Mrs. Formy accomplished when a bride, and because it became such a favorite she has used it ever since.

The formula has been polished and very nearly brought to perfection by frequent use, and its rich goodness of blended eggs, of crushed pineapple, of cream cheese and pecans, all encased in flaky crust, eats like a dream.

Pineapple Cream Cheese Pie
1-3 cup sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch

1 nine-ounce can crushed pineapple
Blend the sugar with cornstarch and add pineapple, juice and all, and cook slowly until mixture becomes thick and clear, stirring constantly.

1 8 oz. package of cream cheese
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 whole eggs
1/2 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup chopped pecans

Blend the cream cheese, which has been softened at room temperature, with the half cup sugar and salt. Add eggs one at a time, stirring well after each egg is added. Blend in the milk and vanilla. Spread the cooled pineapple mixture in the bottom of an unbaked pie shell and pour cream cheese mixture on top of pineapple mixture.

Sprinkle the chopped pecans over top and bake in 400-F oven for ten minutes. Reduce the heat to 325 degrees and bake fifty minutes. Cool and hide from the family until ready to serve.

Beer Stains

Beer stains are usually as easy to remove as they are to acquire, since beer is soluble in water. Ordinary laundering will work for washable fabrics, and sponging with a cloth dipped in soapy water for unwashables. If the stain is old add a little ammonia to the water.

Cadet Program Changes Made

Continuing needs of the Air Force's Aviation Cadet Training Program have effected a change in eligibility requirements that now permits high school graduates to apply for the Aircraft Observer phase of aviation cadet training. Captain Alden C. Clark of Aviation Cadet Selection Team number 207, Webb Air Force Base, Big Spring, Texas said today.

The Air Force flying training program is divided into two phases, Pilot and Aircraft Observer; and previously, two years of college were required of both type applicants. An immediate, critical need for applicants for Aircraft Observer training has brought about a reduction in educational requirements.

Receive Commission Training time is from 54 to 62 weeks, and upon graduation, cadets are commissioned Second Lieutenants in the United States Air Force Reserve. Such officers are required to serve a three year tour of active duty, and are paid $438.58 monthly if single and $455.68 if married.

Aircraft Observers function as members of Aircrew Teams in such capacities as Bombardier, Navigator, Electronics Countermeasure Officer, Aircraft Performance Engineer Officer, Bomber Defense Officer, Photographic Reconnaissance Navigator, Weather Observer-Navigator and Intercept Radar Observer.

Captain Clark also stated that it does not take a "superman" to fly in the supersonic aircraft of today's "jet" age. Any normal young man who meets the qualifications stated below and who likes to fly can progress through both the academic and flying phases of training now given in the cadet program.

Qualifications
To qualify for aviation cadet training an applicant must be between the ages 19 and 26, be an unmarried male citizen of the United States, be of high moral character and successfully pass a mental test and a series of aircrew tests to determine his flying suitability. High school graduates are acceptable for Aircraft Observer training but two years of college is required of applicants for pilot training. Complete and detailed information regarding the Air Force Aviation Cadet Program may be obtained by writing the Aviation Cadet Selection Team, Webb Air Force Base, Big Spring, Texas.

Hiroshima Orphan Getting Scholarship

Thanks to the officers and men of the "U. S. S. Bryce Canyon," a lad who was orphaned by the bomb that fell upon Hiroshima, Japan, ten years ago, has been awarded a four-year scholarship to study at the new International Christian University in Japan.

He is Kiyoshi Tagashira, who is now enrolled in the recently opened ICU College of Liberal Arts. The scholarship was established by 278 officers and men of the "Bryce Canyon." They contributed more than $1,200 to a scholarship fund for a Japanese young man to attend ICU.

Father Was Minister
Kiyoshi's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Chiyokichi Tagashira, were the victims of the atomic bomb blast at Hiroshima. The father was a Methodist pastor and evangelist. Without parents, Kiyoshi was left with his grandmother. He was then a 14-year-old-boy, but toiled and struggled to support his grandmother, who passed away two years ago.

Cold War Takes Sinister Turn With Truce in Korea

Western Harmony Major Red Target

By WILLIAM L. RYAN, Associated Press Foreign News Analyst

WHAT happens now, after Korea? The cold war becomes more dangerous than ever to the United States, even though the Soviet Union seems enmeshed in its own private troubles.

The internal political instability of the Soviet empire betokens a period of indirect attack upon the West, continuing until the reasons behind that instability are liquidated.

Apparently improvising as it goes along, the Soviet hierarchy has established the "rule of collectivity" in the Kremlin as a mode of living until the power struggle is settled and a dictator emerges.

Meanwhile, the Communist party remains free to operate, and it will operate, on a world scale. It is too valuable an instrument to be cast aside by any Soviet ruler. Indeed, it is the basis of his rule, whoever he may be—general or politician.

Korea Reflections In checking over the balance sheet of Korea, the Soviet leaders may consider they have gained much more than they lost in writing off the gamble to seize a strategically vital peninsula.

Here are some possibilities for the future: Inside Russia: The Great Russian element in the Soviet Union has beaten down threats against Russian domination of the Soviet empire, but at a cost of disunity and compromise.

Recent pronouncements in Pravda, which controls the minds of Moscow followers throughout the world, show that the shibboleth of "capitalist encirclement" is to be the cornerstone of the Soviet drive.

The term means that the Soviet state must grow stronger and stronger, while capitalism exists abroad in any nation. And by capitalism, the Soviet Union means simply non-communism.

The Korean war's end will bring demands in western countries, including the United States, for cutbacks in armaments, lessened taxes and broadened trade to include the Communist nations.

Communist China: A period of economic building and swift industrialization may be forecast for Red China, freed from the heavy toll of the Korean war.

There are evidences of strain between Peiping and Moscow but, thrown as they are into each other's arms, they can well compose those differences sufficiently to advance the overall aim of Communist domination in Asia.

Each, perhaps, might be reckoning on the day when it will wield the greater power in the Asian sphere.

The Communist Chinese will make a strong bid to occupy the Chinese seat now held by the Nationalists in the United Nations. While the Soviet Union speaks of the "sacred task" of strengthening its "unbreakable friendship" with the Chinese, it is not altogether a foregone conclusion that the Russians would be happy to see the Red Chinese seated in the U.N. China, industrialized and organized, can become a mighty power in the Orient, capable someday of asserting its independence from Moscow.

Southeast Asia: With the Chinese Communists freed from the Korea drain, aid to the Vietnamese Communists of Indochina could be quietly stepped up.

The French, wearied by seven years of futile warfare, are anxious to release their grip on the tiger's tail there. The fall of Indochina to communism would lay all Southeast Asia open to the mercies of Peiping and Moscow.

Even in the event of differences between the two big Communist capitals, the lure would be enticing. There is little reason to believe the Communists would hesitate to violate the spirit of the Korean truce by a move against Indochina, if they thought they could get away with it.

Plot for Mideast Iran: The Soviet Union has just assigned to this disorganized country its expert on internal revolution, Anatoli I. Lavrentiev. He had been stationed for some time in Romania, seat of the Cominform and channelling point for Soviet intelligence from all the Middle East.

The situation in Iran is brittle. It would be no trick for the Tudeh (Communist) party to take over at a signal from its Iranian and Russian bosses in Moscow, when the time is ripe for striking—perhaps when western unity is sufficiently disrupted. The Communists are vir-

Emily Post's latest book on etiquette and 700 aluminum fish fry pans had Senators in a lather. How, they wanted to know, did Miss Post's opus get to Bankok as part of a foreign aid shipment to Thailand? And who ordered those fry pans, for which the MSA paid $200,000, and why?

Samuel P. Hayes, Jr., assistant MSA director for the Far East, confessed he was a little puzzled himself. He promised to look into the matter of the etiquette book, said he wasn't acquainted with the fry pans purchase.

One member of the Senate Appropriations Committee which votes funds for MSA's overseas program, asked also why it was necessary to buy anagrams, play-blocks, crayons, Chinese village cutouts and goodness knows what all for Thailand.

MSA officials pointed out the agency employs social service advisers, anthropologists and others to help educate the people receiving assistance.

Medicine

Army medics in the Korean war learned and put to use new life-saving techniques which reduced the fatality rate among wounded soldiers to an average all-time low of two deaths for every 100 wounded.

Korea brought these major advances in Army medicine: 1. Widespread use of mobile surgical hospitals set up close to the fighting front and staffed with highly qualified surgeons.

2. Greater availability of so-called wonder drugs. 3. Fuller employment of helicopters and large transport planes for evacuation of the wounded.

4. More use of whole blood in transfusions. 5. Development of plastic caps to cover wounds of the skull.

6. A new surgical technique in which a finger is transplanted from its normal position to the position of the thumb to restore maximum use of the hand to a patient with a thumb amputation.

7. A new type eye magnet designed to remove materials other than iron from the human eye. 8. Marked progress against malaria through use of a new drug, primaquine, not available during World War II.

Two diseases caused the Army plenty of trouble in Korea—hemorrhagic fever and infectious

Germany

Communist officials in East Germany used several ruses this week in attempts to break up the U.S. food distribution program going on in West Berlin.

The Reds were unsuccessful. Huge crowds of East Germans thronged West Berlin food relief centers rising arrest and loss of their identity cards—considered vital in the East Zone.

The Russians, meanwhile, pushed arrangements to deliver food handouts to East Germans on their own. They already have protested the U.S. distribution of it. U.S. officials, however, decided to set up food relief centers on the East German border anyway.

In one action, the Reds tried to throw a wrench into the works by passing false information that unemployed West Germans also would be eligible for free food handouts. The West German government acted promptly to quash the report and prevent what could have been a serious incident.

Named: as a U. S. delegate to the United Nations General Assembly, South Carolina's Gov. James F. Byrnes. The nomination by President Eisenhower brought a protest from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People which declared the appointment would be "widely interpreted as an abandonment by the United States of its championing of human rights."

Asserted: by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, that the U. S. will not buy Korean unity at the price of Red Chinese membership in the United Nations.

Shelved: by the House Post Office Committee, the Administration's "must" bill for increased postal rates.

Established: by an American B-47 strategic bomber, a new U. S. to England speed record of four hours, 45 minutes.

Suffered: by Italy's Christian Democratic leader, Alcide de Gasperi, his first no-confidence vote in parliament since he took the reins of government in December, 1945. A combination of extreme right and extreme left voted against it. A new coalition of center parties seemed likely to make up any new cabinet.

Business

The guns in Korea have fallen silent, but U. S. industry goes right on humming. Some business leaders concede a temporary period of adjustment may be in the offing, however.

Here's the way the future shapes up industry by industry: Aircraft: Present orders, both for military and civilian airplanes will keep most plants at about the current level of activity for two to three years.

Steel: Near capacity operations are expected to continue in the steel industry through the rest of the year.

Automobile: Most motor men think the truce will have little influence on military contract expenditures, although some manufacturers are pressed by slow sales.

Metals: Metals, say industry leaders, will continue to go into armament, and a start may be made at rebuilding depleted stockpiles.

Oil: A temporary reduction in demand for petroleum products may be expected.

Rubber: A period of adjustment in this industry will mean a shifting of gears from full speed to high cruising speed. The truce is not expected to make any deep felt changes.

Retail Dry Goods: Stores are figuring on a high level of business for the rest of the year with a "moderate period of readjustment following."

Chemicals: Some slowdown in orders is looked for as inventories are reduced, followed by an expansion of markets for chemical products.

Light and Power: This industry is likely to go along as usual because it is geared to a peacetime economy.

Textiles: Korean war boom collapsed two years ago as far as textiles are concerned, manufacturers say.

Machine Tools: Cutbacks and stretchouts may reduce manufacturing employment substantially in this industry.

Crime

Eugene Lindsey, his son Richard, 17, and Fred Clear, 20, left home in Hollidaysburg, Pa., June 5 for a hunting trip in Quebec. They planned to camp in the Gaspé bush, 65 miles from the nearest town.

A month later, worried relatives telephoned Quebec provincial police. No word had been received from the party. When that call was made the three hunters had long been dead—killed by human savagery, not by the bears they hunted.

A ghastly story of human bones, gnawed by hungry bears and strewn in disarray, of tell-tale bullet marks and robbery began unfolding.

Remains of the elder Lindsey were found early in the search near a logging camp. The bones of the youths were found later at another logging camp, circled by countless bear tracks.

"Murder, cold-blooded and planned," said an official of the Quebec attorney general's department.

There were days of swift developments and wild rumors. Police worked tirelessly for more facts and clues. They had to work from a negative basis—$700 in cash gone, food, cooking utensils and other equipment missing.

A coroner's jury ruled two of the hunters were "murdered by gunshot wounds." Because of the condition of the remains of the third member of the party, the jury was able only to rule he died of "unknown causes."

Wilbert Coffin, 37-year-old prospector, told an inquest two other Americans also were in the wilderness at the start of the bear hunting expedition. He testified the three Pennsylvanians introduced him to the two other Americans June 10. He said the pair was between 35 and 40 and also hunting bear. They were driving a jeep with black and orange license plates, Coffin said.

Police continued hunting clues, meanwhile, to help them unravel the mystery surrounding the murders.

Probe Truce Effect On Cost of Living

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR., Associated Press News Analyst

AMID all the hurly-burly in Washington this week over what comes after the Korean truce, one group of plodding experts stuck closely to a job of knitting which contained almost as much puzzlement.

What, they were trying to find out, is happening about President Eisenhower's "hard" dollar? For months the argument had been going on. Would the government's higher interest rates, attempts at economy, and decontrol give the American public a greater purchasing power? Would it put the economy on a better fundamental basis to cope with the problems of leveling off that part of the national production devoted to military preparedness? Would basic living costs go down?

For a time it appeared these things would come about. But this week government economists had before them two important factors to worry about.

Deflationary Factor The end of the shooting in Korea had been largely discounted and was not expected to have any appreciable effect for the moment, although it certainly was a deflationary factor.

But the experts had before them charts showing that after a period of stability and some slight declines, the national cost of living had increased recently. A continuation of that would bring wage increases in some of the great industries and threaten another inflationary spiral.

Also, they had finally arrived at the verdict that the national debt limit must be increased. The government does not have enough prospective income to last it through the year. Under the law, only 2 1/2 billion dollars more can be borrowed. The experts do not consider this a safe margin for such a big enterprise.

Yet an increase in the limit, and particularly government use of the increased authorization, are inflationary factors overbalancing any deflationary psychology produced by the Korea truce.

Wholesale Price Decline Wholesale prices have recently shown some drop, but the effect had hardly begun to reach the public when the latest rises occurred.

One of these has been a rise in rents as controls came off, and more of the same is expected now that federal controls are being largely wiped from the books.

Rising costs—in fields other than food and rent have begun or are foreseen. The recent boost in the New York City transit fare from 10 to 15 cents is enough in itself to affect the government's cost of living index. Reports of fare problems are coming from all parts of the nation, and hearings are now under way in Washington and Baltimore for considerable increases.

Seasonable Rise The experts hope that the recent rise in food costs is only seasonal. But seasonal production went up along with unseasonable pork, they note.

They admit, too, that the costs of many services, not covered by the government's index, are still catching up with other price rises which always beat them to the gun.

With all this, the consensus seems to be that there are not enough increases apparent now to offset the prospect, generally accepted in business circles, that there is going to be a somewhat general leveling off or even possibly a downturn in both prices and volume early next year.

In the interim, the experts expect current price rises in some lines to be offset when recent wholesale decreases show their effect in the retail market. The course on the upside and that on the downside seem about to coincide.

Food Prices Level They cite the fact that food prices in general—and they are the big item in the cost of living index and in the political results of the "hard money" program—have leveled off and even dropped. Produce prices should do likewise when the harvest peak strikes the market, and pork should drop in the fall.

In the meantime, political supporters of controls are claiming that the effects of higher money rates and decontrol in some lines are just beginning to be felt.

It will probably be a year before the public will know which of the theories costs it less.

K.C.'s Win Over REA In Last Regular Game

By Billy Paul Knox
The final game of the Hereford Softball League regular season schedule was played Tuesday night. The K.C.'s won over REA, 12-9. The game was fast with the exception of one or two innings. The K.C.'s led off by scoring no runs although they left the bases full. REA was runless in the first also.

One Across

REA sent one man across the plate in the second, doing it on two hits and one error. The K.C.'s tied it up by scoring one run in their half of the inning. They scored the run on one base hit and one error.

REA put nothing across in the third inning, with the K.C.'s scoring five times. Dunnam allowed K.C. batters four hits walked one, and REA made one error.

Game Tied

REA came within one run of tying the game up in the fourth. They scored four runs, banging out two hits, collecting two walks. The K.C.'s stretched their lead to three runs by scoring two runs in the last of the fourth. They hit safely twice in the inning. One base on balls was helpful.

The REA boys were again held scoreless by Kenneth Walterscheid in the top of the fifth inning. The K.C.'s scored two more runs, making their total ten in the last of the fifth. The feat was accomplished on only one base hit. REA infielders made two errors which could have been avoided.

In the sixth REA scored two runs while pounding out two hits. One base on balls was issued to Carl Hennington. The K.C.'s also scored two runs in the sixth. They got three hits, one walk, and REA made three blunders afield.

Two In Seventh

The REA bunch scored two runs in the seventh but this wasn't enough to continue the game.

Does your watch keep good time?

Q. What is a good "emergency" dry shampoo I can give myself?
A. Mix one cup cornmeal and one teaspoon of salt. Shake this through the hair, then brush it out well with a stiff-bristled brush. It takes a lot of brushing, but all oil and grime are removed. Wipe the brush on a clean hand towel after every 20 or so strokes.
Q. What powders should be used for the various types of skin?
A. A dry skin takes a light powder; a normal skin, a medium powder; and an oily skin, because of its high shine, requires a powder of heavy covering power.
Q. How can I correct hair that is dry and brittle?
A. Frequent and regular massage is excellent, being sure to move the scalp with the fingers. Rub a little warm olive oil into the scalp at least twice weekly, and be sure to brush the hair at least twice daily—and more if you have the time.

IF NOT, bring it in for a free examination today. A simple adjustment or thorough cleaning may be all that is needed to put it in tip-top condition.

Real Estate Board Reports

One of the new home owners in Hereford is Bill Cargo who works for the Keaney Geann Machine works. Bill just bought 'Big Chief' Milford's home up on 301 Blevins.

Marvin May has bought the new brick home out on the Airport Road that R. J. Engler is building. Seems that there is quite a demand for suburban property right now. Several small tracts are changing hands.

Bill Wallace has sold his home out on Harrison Highway to Joe Storey. Joe is to move in before school starts. Bill in turn gave N. D. Bartlett a contract to build him a new home out in the Westhaven Addition. The contract was signed one night and the walls were going up 48 hours later.

Just went thru the new house that J. D. Porsch is building at 503 N. Lee for Mrs. Bess Givins. There is some of the finest workmanship going into this house we have seen in Hereford.

Got in on the conversation of three of our Potato Growers this morning and it seems that the people from town are doing so much damage and getting in the way of machinery, especially in parking their cars, that the growers are having signs made to post their fields. Then if the people hunting free potatoes come on the farm the growers will have recourse thru the trespassing laws. So if any of us town people want any field spuds we should just dig down and pull out a couple of old rusty bills and buy them from the growers. We would think mighty hard of the farmer who came up to our home and picked up a 2 to 4 dollar garden hose and walked off with it without so much as a how-do-you-do.

Nearly tore the front end out from under Mama's Chevy the other day on that big ditch out in front of Paul Harvey's house on K Street. Sure hope City Manager Cecil Massey reads this.

Sully Gleaton spent his life running drag lines, caterpillar tractors and all kinds of heavy equipment. Sully can be seen every afternoon out in his new lawn running an old fashioned chopping hoe cutting Johnson grass and weeds.

Mrs. S. S. Boutwell of Terrell is a guest in the home of her sister, Mrs. A. C. Thompson.

MARILYN RUSSELL AND WANDA KIMBROUGH were honored at a combined birthday party held Saturday night at the O. B. Russell home, 106 George Street. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and Cokes were served to the guests, who also played "peppy" games. Those present were, front row, from

Peace In Korea, State Level Taxes But No Fanfare Could Save Money

Some comment and speculation has resulted from the fact that the American people have accepted the Korean peace without fanfare usually accorded such events. The situation, for certain, is a far cry from termination of World War I in 1918, and from the ending of hostilities with Germany and with Japan at the close of World War II.

People all over the world apparently reacted to the Korean peace signatures just as did the people in Hereford. No blowing of sirens. No firing of guns. In fact, very little street corner gossip.

Actually, the Korean engagement is one of the most unusual in the history of this country. From the first it was an undeclared war. Washington "big guns" termed it a "police action." Still, casualties touched the heart of American homes just as deeply as if the war had been declared. Another possible reason for the lack of celebration can also be due to the long-range negotiations, plus the fact that many of the details remain to be settled. People, in other words, are inclined to consider the action as a temporary truce rather than a permanent peace.

Another possibility upon which to base American reaction may rest in the fact that Americans take up arms generally in behalf of freedom. Unless final results bring about freedom, it is possible that the American people sub-consciously feel that they have little to celebrate. Be these things as they may, the conclusion of America's "police action" is far reaching and gigantic in scope — yet it failed to elicit widespread celebration which has long been the custom of our people.

Many people are undecided, even a little bit dazed, regarding the Korean treaty. Few are critical, however, and general comment regarding the settlement indicate that among all fields of endeavor, the background and experience of President Eisenhower places him in a position to handle best such situations as we have recently engaged in Korea.

State Senator Andy Rogers spoke in Hereford this week and, although his talk touched on several subjects, Mr. Rogers stressed most of all a theme of States Rights.

This question possibly was more basic to the Civil War than was slavery. It has been cropping up more and more frequently during recent years and, if Mr. Rogers attitude is in accord with state of Texas policies, we can expect to hear more and more of the subject during the next five years. His contention is that state levels can collect and administer tax money cheaper and with more far reaching results than can be done on a national level.

Mr. Rogers, we feel, is right in this regard. It stands to reason that money collected and spent closer to the source can be handled more efficiently. Furthermore, because it is closer to the people, it is therefore less subject to corruption or graft.

On the other hand, many people have come to regard Uncle Sam as a sort of glorified Santa Claus. While Texas was surveying the drastic ranch and farm drought conditions, the federal government stepped in and took care of the situation. Texas could hardly have coped in such a generous fashion with the situation, since a large portion of the hardship was in Texas. Spreading the "burden" over the entire nation created small burden on any single person, whereas such a program for Texans alone would have been extremely costly per capita. Military conscriptions and defense are also items which the individual states are not likely to handle so efficiently.

However, as Mr. Rogers points out, such improvements as roads, schools, hospitals, state parks, police and scores of other operations can best be handled on a state level. Government, under the National Taxing system, has become exorbitant in costs. A cut in these costs is inevitable and a trend toward state handling in many instances appears to be the logical answer to America's current dilemma.

Several states, on the other hand, have imposed heavy state income taxes, sales taxes and direct assessments—in addition to present federal taxes—resulting in a situation even worse than that faced by Texans. People should consider carefully both sides of this question which is sure to appear from time to time.

An Investment

Is a town good because it has a Chamber of Commerce, or does it have a Chamber of Commerce because it is a good town? Anyway, you never saw a live-wire community without one.

Whether the Chamber of Commerce is the forerunner or the by-product of progress, it has proved itself worthwhile. Hereford has for many years maintained a C-C, active in varying degrees. Progress of the community has, likewise, varied with the activities of the Chamber of Commerce.

A town-wide membership drive appears logical and probably for the Hereford C-C during the next six months, and much will depend upon its outcome. Merchants, farmers and ranchers alike should be interested in the Chamber of Commerce. They should look upon it at its face value: an investment rather than a donation.

People who play the races have nothing on the farmer. Even the most avid of them are pikers by comparison.

Horses are predictable; the elements . . . and insects . . . and plant diseases . . . and farm market prices are not. COUNTY WIDE NEWS, LITTLEFIELD

In Floyd County you don't know when you're smart nor when you're not, if you're in the farming business for a living. It takes Floyd county weather and soil to confound the wise man. A cinch is never a cinch. A last effort at a lost cause is as often a winning move. FLOYD COUNTY HOSPERCIAN

The first Sunday that the bell on the Presbyterian Church tower rang at 9:15 as a "get ready signal" we rushed around in a furor thinking that all our clocks were 15 minutes slow. But now that we're used to it, we like it . . . for half an hour is plenty of time for the most laggard child to be hurried into Sunday clothes, hair brushed, and all . . . while 15 minutes cuts things just too short.

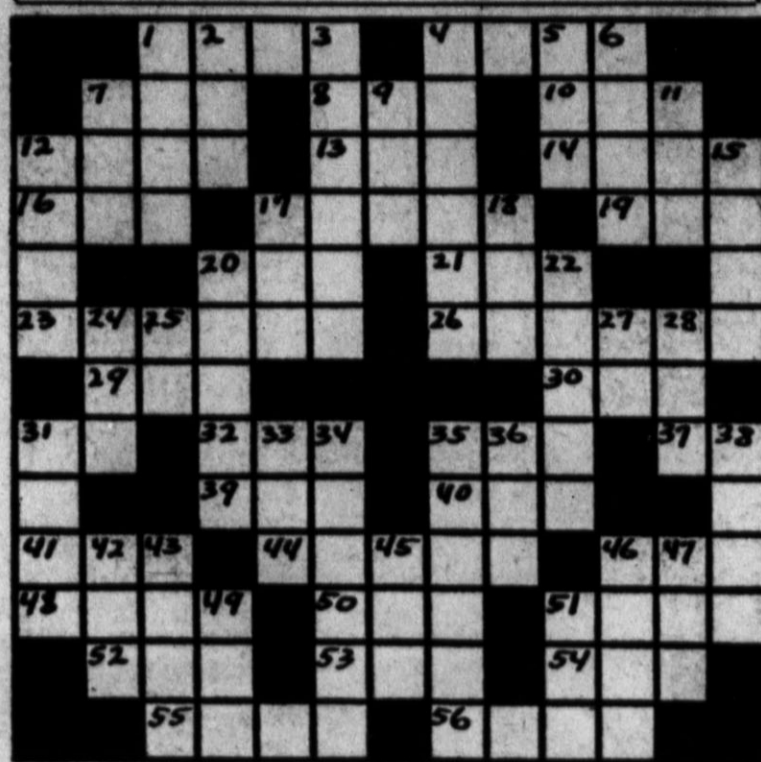

I wonder how many Canadian families keep their ears cocked for that church bell and time their worship-going activities by it. CANADIAN RECORD

There is one alibi I love and thrive on: "Sorry, these news items crowded out of last week's paper because of advertising." —Leonard Sekavec, Holyrood (Kansas) Gazette.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK Even Trade Seems Most Fair On Rural-Town Phone Tie-In

Should major telephone companies get extra money for tying into co-op exchanges or should it be an even trade?

MRS. V. C. HOPSON
I think it should be an even trade so it would keep expenses down because my telephone bill has certainly been high.

MRS. C. E. LEASURE JR.
I should think both companies would benefit by it so it should be an even trade.

E. J. KIRKSEY
• An even trade, certainly, because fair play is even money.

MRS. W. N. GRISWOLD
I think it should be an even trade because they are getting enough the way it is. We are already paying all that we can.

MRS. C. C. FERGUSON
I think they should have what's coming to them because they render us a wonderful public service.

MRS. P. M. HOUSER
I think an even trade would be right because our telephone bills are high enough and I don't think we should be charged any more.

MRS. DOC KIRBY
I definitely think it should be an even trade. I don't think its fair to tax rural people because they pay more on regular fee than the people in town do and they are taxing them over and above their regular fee.

MISS JANICE CRAIG
Telephone rates have gone up continually for the past four years until they reached the point of excess and I don't think they should charge extra rates because they are high enough now.

MRS. O. F. LONG
I think an even trade should be worked out on that situation because rural subscribers won't benefit from them as much if they have to pay extra for them.

'Tater Peelin's' By Roberta Campbell

We are going to dedicate this week's issue "Tater Peelin's" to Mrs. C. L. Whitehead because as we begin our fifth year of peelin' taters she tells us that our little column is still the first thing she reads every Sunday.

We feel that an endurance record like that deserves recognition. "Thank you, Mrs. Whitehead!" —lp—

Looks as if the border patrol will have to think up a new term to apply to Latin American laborers who slip across the border to work in Texas. They can't be "wetbacks" anymore with the Rio Grande as dry as a powder house. —lp—

Buster, our twelve year old appetite, is as happy over the rain as we are because we can put down our hoe for a few days and stay in the house. This always terminates in doughnuts and cookies and such. —lp—

Right now the kitchen smells more of vinegar and spices because we are tryin' to keep up with our cucumbers. We have four favorite recipes that take care of all sizes and are quick and easy to make.

The giants make bread and butter pickles, the next size we use for dill, the small ones for Nine Day pickles (made in one night) and those about four inches long we slice lengthwise, pack in pint jars, add a teaspoon each of salt and sugar, fill with hot vinegar and seal. They are crisp and sour enough to take your breath.

By Vera Sanford

Texas Press Association AUSTIN — "A natural disaster and public calamity" exists in the drought areas of Texas, according to an official proclamation by Governor Shivers.

The proclamation was a legal requirement for putting the state drought aid program into action.

Using his emergency powers, the governor set up a state defense and disaster relief council to administer the program. Most of the council members are heads of state agencies.

From Victoria, Claud McCan, state PMA chairman sent telegrams to county committees telling them that they have wide discretion in screening applicants for federal drought relief.

Applicants do not have to sign a pauper's oath, said McCan.

That assurance also came from President Eisenhower, Governor Shivers, and Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

Their statement was in reply to the complaints of many Texans who had interpreted a U. S. Department of Agriculture directive as meaning that applicants would have to swear they were broke before receiving aid.

The President said in a telegram to Governor Shivers, that the decisions respecting the distribution of feed will largely be the responsibility of local committees within the framework of regulations prescribed by the secretary of agriculture.

And by telephone, Benson told Shivers that the Agriculture Department had not thought of asking for either pauper's oaths or financial statements as a prerequisite for aid to farmers and ranchers.

Members of the local committees will be farmers, ranchers, bankers, and agriculture experts, able to judge each application on its own merits, Shivers said.

He added that work is going forward on the drought aid program at the state level.

A meeting of the Texas A&M College board was to follow conferences between representatives of the attorney general and the college on a plan to furnish hay to drought areas.

And the State Department of Health surveyed water supplies as related to health.

Program Needed
In Washington, Senator Price Daniel of Texas, following a visit to the drought area, said "our great need today is for a long-range state-federal program of drought control."

Temporary relief in time of emergency solves no permanent problem, Daniel commented, and "We must control droughts by joint effort or else, in the not too distant future, droughts will control us."

While the drought-relief program was getting started, hard rains fell at scattered points over much of the state, bringing joy to some of the people in parched places and cooler weather to most sections.

The rains, however, were not general and it was not considered that the drought was broken.

Probe Due
Charges against District Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin of Alice will be investigated by the Texas Supreme Court, which appointed District Judge D. B. Wood of Georgetown to hear testimony on eight of the counts, four others having been dismissed.

The probe will include the accusations of 11 lawyers in Judge Laughlin's district that he ordered impounded ballot boxes delivered to a nephew of George Parr. The nephew at that time was sheriff of Duval County.

Also to be looked into is a charge that Laughlin impeded a Jim Wells County grand jury which was considering the slaying of Jacob S. Floyd Jr.

Indictments Dropped
Another subject for the investigation is a charge that Laughlin dismissed 68 indictments in Starr County, 60 of the indictments being based on alleged fraud and irregularity in the July primary last year.

Judge Wood is to make his report to the Supreme Court by October 1. Judge Laughlin's attorneys will then have 30 days in which to file their objections. Thereafter the court will determine whether or not to sustain the charges and whether to remove Laughlin from his office.

Governor's Conference
Governor Shivers will be in Seattle on August 2 for a five-day session of the national governors' conference.

CATTLE KILLER
Rancher Gus Schneider killed 29 head of cattle and was hospitalized himself when he accidentally sprayed his herd with poison instead of an insect killer.

His cattle were valued at $6,000. The County Agent said the rancher accidentally used tetra-ethyl-pyrophosphate which normally is used only on plant life.

The cattle died within 15 minutes after being sprayed. THE DALHART TEXAN —pp—

SOME FUN
A teen age boy paid a fine of $15 in Corporation Court on a charge of reckless driving after being arrested for driving down the center of the railroad tracks.

When asked what they were doing, the boys said they were just "having fun." They said the trip was made three times. NEW BRAUNFELS HERALD —pp—

AN EYE FOR SALE
A mother of two small children was ready Thursday to sell one of her eyes for $10,000 although her husband tried to talk her out of the plan.

The 31 year old mother, said she was ready to give the eye because of their financial condition.

Her husband talked to her for more than two hours. She said that, while he wasn't in favor of her selling an eye, he couldn't stop her.

She said she had been considering it for three years and "I'm not a case for a psychiatrist." THE DALHART TEXAN —pp—

TELEPHONE CONSTRUCTION
Completion in about eight months is called for in contracts for construction of lines and exchanges for the Central Texas Telephone Co-operative, officials of the Co-Op have told the agriculture committee of the Brady Chamber of Commerce.

They said the co-op also intends to increase representation on its board of directors. All five members of the board now are residents of Mills County. THE BRADY STANDARD —pp—

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm may be an expert on what he's talking about, but he probably has misinterpreted the government's plans, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:
I was napping out here yesterday afternoon on a couch on the front porch when a fluttering noise woke me up and I slapped at what I thought was a wasp but found out it was a newspaper which a puff of wind had dropped over my face and the steady rise and fall of the paper as I snored was what was making the flapping noise, and since I was awake by then and the paper was at hand I lifted it off my face far enough away to get it in focus and still stay stretched out and read where Washington is now worried over what to do with an estimated 25 million idle acres next year if crop controls go into effect.

As I understand it, us farmers have produced so much stuff the Secretary of Agriculture will be required to reduce the number of acres that can be planted to wheat, cotton and maybe other crops next year in order to make the price support program work, and Washington is scratchin' its head and ponderin on the problem of what to do with the acres that'll be left idle.

Washington is sure strainin a point to find something to worry about. It just imagines idle acres will bother anybody. Maybe it's true at first the thought of some idle acres will bother some farmers too, but out of years of experience can report if a man has the strength of character he can get used to seeing idle acres all around him and in time it ain't no more to worry about than fearin the sun won't come up in the mornin.

In fact, an expert in handlin' idle acres, I will be glad to take over the whole 25 million myself, if Washington can't think of anything else to do with em, and I will guarantee not an acre of it will be planted to wheat, cotton, corn or any other crop the government wants to hold production down on. If holdin' down production is what it takes to keep agriculture on an even keel, I'm the man they've been lookin' for, and I don't mind sayin' I feel pretty good about the whole thing. I've been criticized from certain quarters for idle acre farmin' for years, and I'm proud that the government itself has come around to my way of thinkin'.

As far as I'm concerned, idle-acre farmin' is the most satisfactory occupation there is.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

ed to be present for discussions on federal-state relations. Shivers is chairman of the conference.
Property Tax
The state property tax this year will remain at 42 cents per $100 valuation—35 cents for schools, 5 cents for the college building program, and 2 cents for Confederate pensions.
An extra 30 cents will be collected in the Dallas flood control district, in precincts of Jefferson and Matagorda counties, and in all of Aransas, Austin, Brazoria, Brazos, Burleson, Calhoun, Cameron, Coke,

Fort Bend, Grimes, Milam, Robertson, San Patricio, Tom Green, Waller, and Washington Counties, all of which pledged state taxes to pay for conservation projects.
The rate was set by the State Automatic Tax Board, composed of the governor, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert, and Treasurer Jesse James.
Return to the state from the tax is an estimated $26 million for the year.
Draft Quota
For September, the Texas draft quota is 1,232 men, state selective service headquarters announced.
That's two more than the August call and 54 below the number of draftees in the July quota.

Thirty doctors of medicine will be inducted in August, largest number for any single month to date, said Brigadier General Paul Wakefield, state draft director.
Political Development
There was one political development: State Senator Searcy Bracewell of Houston said he might run for lieutenant governor next year "if it is an open race."
By that he meant he would not run, if Ben Ramsey, the incumbent in that office, seeks re-election.
And the "if" in that sentence is a big one in the state political picture.
Ramsey is considered a sure starter in the race for governor "if" Shivers does not run. Shivers has said that he might ask for a third term.
On Shivers' decision rests the candidacy of more than one hopeful not only for the governor's office, but for other places that might be vacated in the political shuffle.
New Headquarters
Purchaser of a site for a new headquarters building in Austin is the Texas Public Employees Association, an organization of state and local government workers.
The location is a block north of the capitol. Pirtle Watt, executive secretary of the association, said that the date for beginning construction of the building has not been set.

Wayland College Group On Way Home From 45-Day Brazil Tour

Plainview — The homeward trek of the Wayland College group from a 45-day tour of Brazil was begun this week with the closing of the 4th Baptist World Youth Conference in Rio de Janeiro, where the choir group was featured at every evening service and where Joe Abston, Houston, choir accompanist, was official pianist.

The choir group arrived in Miami Thursday and will sing in Miami, Fla., Dothan, Ala., Hope, Ark., and Port Arthur, Tex., on their way to Plainview. The basketball team returns Aug. 5. Others in the party of 37 returned this week, while still others will remain for more sightseeing.

Under the direction of Dr. Shelby Collier, chairman of the fine arts division of Wayland, the 15 voice unit of the Wayland International A Cappella Choir had sung to thousands—in dozens of appearances, even before arriving in Rio. They were assisted in their formal concerts by David Appleby, assistant professor of piano.

Group Is Spoiled
"My group is spoiled," writes Dr. Collier. "Never again will they have such wonderful receptions. Never again will they be able to sing to thousands in auditoriums of such elaborate splendor. They have been the most photographed group at the Youth Conference."

The tour was conceived by Dr. J. W. Marshall, who resigned as president of Wayland College last spring, as a unique missionary journey. With the musicians went an eight man basketball team, youth leaders and ministers to assist with evangelistic services ar-

Basketball Team Wins

The basketball team at last report had won nine straight games in four Brazilian cities, playing outstanding teams in matches arranged by Brazilian Basketball Confederation, an affiliate of Amateur Athletic Union. At each game, the choir sang and Jackie Robinson, Fort Worth, Baylor University's 1948 Olympic basketball star who captained the team, spoke on "Clean Living" and invited the spectators to evangelistic services the next day.

Stove Burners

A good cleaning of the stove burners can be effected by removing them and dumping them into a large enameled pot with water and lye. Boil for 10 minutes. No need to dry them; just replace them, light them up for a few minutes, and they'll dry themselves.
