

Probably the most neglected department around The Brand these days is the weather. We have focused around doing other things and have let the weather get in terrible shape. Now that we have some help, though, I am going to roll up my sleeves and do something about it. Honest, I haven't had time to predict even the bad weather.

Here's the dope. We will have one or two more dust storms in April. We won't like it, but we will have them anyway. Things are all fouled up. We are supposed to get these dusters behind us in March, but 1955 is completely confused. Don't give up and plan a farm sale, though, because things are going to start looking better after the middle of the month. The Washington long-range boys have been painting some pretty rough pictures, I know, but 1955 should close out with better than average moisture for this territory. Between April 15 and May 15, we should get some moisture. Mostly, they should be nice showers with maybe an old-fashioned gully-washer thrown in for good measure. Things will definitely improve after Easter, Hoover, don't do your Spring Cleaning before April 23. You might have it to do over again!

Wayne Edwards still defends the Oakes these days, but not with the same enthusiasm he once mustered. Wayne was in Oklahoma, his home state, last week due to illness of his brother. Finally, he carried the brother to a hospital in Oklahoma City. After getting the brother settled and in a room, he returned to his two-week-old car to find that someone had smashed in the window and had taken all of his clothes—including razor, extra shirt and pants. It's had enough to be stranded in a big city without any pants, but Wayne says it worried him most to think that it might have been some native Oklahoman. He insists it must have been some tourist passing through the state—but cannot fully convince even himself.

About the school election, I wouldn't claim to know the score except that some people are glad and some are sad. The election went off without a lot of strife and mud-slinging, and that is wonderful. Howard Gault and Lyle Woodford, the two retiring members, have put in a lot of time on our schools; eight years for Lyle and almost as many for Howard. There are bound to have been times when a lot of people did not agree with them. However, they did devote their time and ability to our schools and generally deserve our appreciation and thanks. Serving on the school board is a tough, thankless job. It is probably the most difficult of all public offices—and is the only one which goes without one cent of remuneration or pay.

Also understand that Don Martin, high school principal, has asked that his name not come up for re-election. Mr. Martin plans to go into private business. He has been with the Hereford Schools for a long time, eight or 10 years.

Back to the weather. Jim Lipscomb, the ex-fisherman, just stopped in and said that he has the weather situation under control. "We will have a nice rain within the next 10 to 15 days," says Jim. He figures between the 15th of April and the 1st of May. This pretty well fits right in with my prediction at the start of the column, so I guess you have nothing to worry about. Go ahead and do your Easter shopping. It's bound to rain when two such characters agree.

R. G. Peeler made an outstanding report at the Community Breakfast Wednesday morning. One of his most surprising remarks was the fact that most of our Congressmen and Senators gather for many of their meetings at breakfast. Peeler says this is quite the vogue. He told about one Congressman who made three breakfasts on one particular morning. He thinks this is an excellent arrangement.

It sounds bad to me, though. Back 40 or 50 years ago, all of the family gathered for each meal and spent the time together—including a blessing of the food. As time slipped by, pop started eating lunch in town and later, they started school cafeterias for the kids. In the cities, folks still gathered for "dinner" and out in the small towns and rural areas they met around the "supper" table. During the last generation or two, however, this has also slipped out of the picture, due to the rush of things—and breakfast was the only family meal left. This was the only time of the day many fathers saw and visited with their sons and daughters. Now, breakfast is getting away, too.

There are almost as many breakfast meetings in Hereford as there are evening and noon meetings. The same thing appears to be happening in Washington, and probably all over the country. The last ditch of family life is being invaded. Progress and time-saving gadgets will soon take our entire lives. All of which means that delinquency will probably increase. People will have bigger cars and more heart attacks.

I also want to take time out to introduce Virgil Moore, who took over the job of news editor at The Brand this week. Virgil comes here from Eastland, Tex. He is highly recommended and we hope that he will be with us a long time. Incidentally, he knows Tommy Wilson, a former Hereford boy who is now president of the Eastland bank. He says that Tommy is also president of the Rotary Club in Eastland and is one of the leading citizens of the community, despite the short time he has been there.

Everytime I think of Tommy, I remember the bicycle-horse race from Hereford to Summerfield and back. It happened around 1933. Tommy rode the bicycle and John Doug Pittman rode the horse. It was a photo finish with John Doug winning by a few feet. Tommy sure did work on that race, however. He would get up before school and make the round trip as part of his training. It was quite a deal.

Parks Wins Main Event At Barn

Three exciting bouts were on the program for last Saturday night when Mark Lewin and Scotty McFarland, Bob Cummings and Maurice Lachappelle, and Bill Parks and Ali Bey tangled with each other.

In the first 20 minute opening bout, Mark Lewin of Buffalo, N.Y. won over Scotty McFarland from Edinburg, Scotland, with a cross body press following a series of knee lifts.

The semi-final was a two out of three falls with a forty-five minute time limit. Bob Cummings of Hereford won the first fall in 14 minutes with a Japanese straight arm bar.

In the second fall Maurice Lachappelle of Paris, France, won in nine minutes with a top body press. The last fall was won by Cummings in three minutes by a knee action leg binder.

The main event played between Bill Parks of North Bay Ontario, Canada, and Ali Bey of Istanbul, Turkey, was a two out of three falls one hour time limit.

The first fall was won by Parks in the first 17 minutes with a spinning toe hold. The second was won by Parks as Ali Bey was disqualified in the first six minutes for nitting the referee.

ATOMIC WAITING LIST
OKLAHOMA CITY — The Scintillator business is really clicking in Oklahoma City these days. There's a waiting list for the instruments used by prospectors for valuable ore deposits. The Scintillator is a pepped-up version of Geiger counter.

The price of a Scintillator starts at $100, compared with $19.95 for a Geiger counter, and ranges up to $1,000. Miss Glenda Parker, head of one store's jewelry department said seven Scintillators were sold last week. Three went for $500 with the other four ranging from $300 to $100.

MUSTARD FOR ONE
A constant supply of mustard in kitchen may be a good idea. A new sanitary peach-colored cellulose coated with plastic. Besides preventing waste, it eliminates guess work in determining stock maintenance.

THE LADIES SPEAK
A recent survey of 2,841 women by the U. S. Department of Agriculture determined that women preferred cotton for aprons, house dresses, summer skirts, blouses, blouses, shorts, summer slacks and anklets. Half the women said they preferred cotton for summer street dresses and for short-sleeved blouses. Two-thirds of the women preferred wool for winter skirts. Cotton choice for winter street dresses. Women who preferred cotton claimed they did so because of washing and ironing ease.

Water and air outlets are inspected by Monvo Bosch during man-made snowstorm at Kiamasha Lake, N.Y.

Snow starts to form on ground as jet sprays of water shoot out into the frozen air.

A man turns a valve, pulls a switch and snow falls on a recreation area at Kiamasha Lake in New York's Catskill Mountains. A giant snow machine, which shoots out more than 500 gallons of water a minute, turns a barren landscape into a winter wonderland. People ski, toboggan and stomp cheerfully in the man-made snow that is packed as much as 14 inches deep.

Responsible for this phenomenal assist to nature is Frank Eck, 42, of Ellenville, N.Y., who built and installed the snow-making apparatus. Eck, who is a head greenskeeper in the summer, creates snow when the thermometer falls to 32 degrees or below. He has nine assistants.

The machine looks like a lawn sprayer in action and is easy to operate. Electric and gasoline motors pump water and compressed air simultaneously through 14 lateral pipes, 63 feet long and 32 feet apart. On each lateral there are four box heads in which the pipes converge. The mixture is shot into the frigid air through jet nozzles and freezes into snow. The crystals can be made fine or coarse depending on the ratio of air to water. It can lay a foot of snow over four and one-half acres in 12 hours.

How the snow is made and enjoyed is shown in these pictures, taken on the Concord hotel grounds.

It's bitter cold morning, and Frank Eck, builder of snow-making apparatus, keeps machine in operation by warming up valve with kerosene flame.

Preparing for fresh fall, Stanley Galewaler holds aluminum laterals as Monvo Bosch and John Eck plug water and air lines into box head.

Lateral box heads are heated to prevent water from freezing in nozzles. Monvo Bosch puts "heat" on by plugging in electric line.

Artificial storm creates dense mist as skiers wait impatiently for snow to settle.

Man-made snow now covers wooded winter playland. Skiers gather at bottom of slopes for ride to top.

Your Congressman Reports

By Walter Rogers

The President's condemnation of those who engage in war talk met with general approval in Washington. Many had become alarmed at some of the statements that were being made about this country getting into a war with Red China within a matter of days or weeks. In the first place, if there had been any intention of this country getting into war with Red China in the immediate future, the worst possible thing that could be done would be to advertise it to the enemy. In the second place, an immediate war between this country and Red China would be the most tasteful morsel that Russia could desire.

It seems that there are certain forces in this country who are bent on trying to force an international incident that could trigger the present cold war into a hot war in the Far East. Quemoy and Matsu could make perfect triggers for this purpose. It is very easy to scream in a loud voice about this country going to war if Red China attempts to take Quemoy and Matsu. Frankly, I detest this kind of talk because it is nothing but war talk. The truth is that Quemoy and Matsu are now in the hands of the Nationalist Chinese who are allies of ours. If the Red Chinese attack these islands, certainly we have the right to defend them and stand up against aggression with all of the resources at our disposal. However, if the President chose not to expend any of our resources in the defense of these two islands, it would hardly behoove anyone to condemn and criticize him. There are many, many items to be carefully considered concerning the action of this country with regard to these two islands. I think that the loud-mouths should stop trying to put the President and Mr. Dulles on the spot concerning them. In my opinion, either or both of these islands could well prove to be a military liability. Certainly, either or both of them are not worth the blood of one American boy.

Regardless of the clamor of the war mongers, and the perennial critics of whoever might be in charge of our foreign affairs, I do not believe that this country is going to be drawn into any sizeable conflict over Quemoy or Matsu. If we ever go to war with Red China, and God forbid that circumstances ever require it, it will be for reasons of much greater weight than two islands off the Asiatic coast.

The Grain Sorghum Problem
Changing from the international to the domestic scene, Washington has been honored with the presence of some honest to goodness grassrooters from the Southwest. I speak of the delegation who came to Washington on behalf of the grain sorghum growers. We had a nice visit with Dr. Gabriel Haug, economic advisor of the President. The problem was laid out to Dr. Haug for conveyance to the President in the straightforward and easily understood language of our great section of the country. The following morning this group entertained about 15 senators and congressmen at a breakfast in the Congressional Hotel. At this meeting the problem was again laid out in the plain, simple and understandable English to which we are accustomed. There wasn't a man present who didn't thoroughly understand and appreciate what these people are up against. That afternoon we went to the office of Secretary Benson, and the whole gang, the folks from home, the U. S. Senators, the Congressmen and the agricultural aides, all gathered in the Secretary's private office and sat down for an hour's heart to heart talk on the subject. The Secretary was visibly impressed, which incidentally is unusual. He remained in the meeting for its full length, which is also unusual. His able assistants were gathering figures together before we got out of the building. We sincerely hope that something comes of this meeting and that the problem is corrected. The Secretary promised us that he would thoroughly review it and re-evaluate it with the hope of being able to make some adjustments. The official committee that came to Washington were as follows:
R. G. Peeler, Hereford; Leo Wilkowski, Happy, Tex.; W. M. Sherry, Laz, Addie, Tex.; John Venneman, Spearman, Tex.; George Hammond, Clovis; Raymond Boles, Liberal, Kansas; Roy T. Nall, Boise City, Okla.; and others who attended the breakfast, some of whom went to the Secretary's office, were as follows: Joe Pittman, Liberal, Kans.; Julius Cox, Boise City, Okla.; Gabe Anderson, Bovina, Tex.; and John Pittman, Hereford.

This group has made a deep and lasting impression on the people in Washington. They have visited with the Senators and Representatives and have carried the banner for our entire section of the country. By this I mean that they have talked about the general economy of all, and have not appeared to be a group interested only in some problem that concerns them personally. It was undoubtedly this approach that appealed to Mr. Benson and is also appealing to the other officials of government. It shows that our people appreciate the fact that when one segment of our economy suffers, none of the other segments can fully escape the disease.

John Venneman brought along his pretty wife and Joe T., his fine son. Bill Sherry brought along his fine boy, Billy Bob. These folks have been doing some sightseeing around Washington, and we are certainly glad that they were able to make the trip.

We also enjoyed nice visits this past week with the following: Mayor S. T. Curtis, Judge W. M. Adams and Kenneth Greenwald of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller of Tulsa, and their granddaughter, Betty Ann Miller of Morriston, Tex. Also saw Hecrae Smith of Miami (the new one to Ft. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Miller of Waco, and Louis T. High - Kenneth Loyd and their Apple and all of Amarillo.

Mrs. Fred Sims Is Hostess At Bridge Party

Mrs. Fred Sims was hostess at an April 1 bridge party Friday afternoon with four tables of players making up the party. Spring flowers were used in decorative accents.

Whitefaces Take Tulia 15-5 In District Game

By BILL KNOX

The Hereford Whitefaces braved the wind and dust to face past the Tulia Hornets 15-5 Friday afternoon in the district opener for both teams. The Herd shelled three Hornet hurlers for 14 hits in coasting to the lopsided victory, while Francis Boyd, Whiteface pitcher, allowed Tulia only five binges.

The game started out as though it would be close, the Hornets taking a one-run lead in the third but quickly losing it to the slow-starting Whitefaces. It was Hereford's game from then on, and Tulia never again threatened.

The Whitefaces showed average hitting power which they are capable of for the first time this year. Kenneth Walterscheid, Richard Hagat, and Jack Barrus, all changed out three suttler apiece, Walterscheid's hits being his first of the year.

Both teams went for night in the first two frames, Jack Barrus' second-inning double being wasted. The Whitefaces went down in order in the first, and Boyd had little trouble disposing of Tulia batsmen.

Tulia solved Boyd for one in the third, capitalizing on Boyd's spark of wildness. Billy Watts walked to start the inning, and after he had stolen second he came around to score on a wild pitch and a past ball.

The Whitefaces pushed over three runs in the third and quickly overcame the short-lived Tulia lead. After two men had been retired, Bill Calloway started the rally with a base on balls. Walterscheid scored him with a booming triple, then scored on Dick Hagat's single. Barrus singled and Billy Albracht doubled across the third run. Danny Elliston rounded out to end the inning.

Tulia didn't score again until the seventh, and the Herd continued to pour more kindling onto the fire, scoring six in the fourth, one in the fifth, and five in the sixth. Boyd's wildness and a leaky infield handed Tulia four last-inning runs.

Francis Boyd is credited with the win, his second of the year against the Joss. The starter for Tulia, Billy Watts, was the loser.

was something that everyone knew without being told, but since a few people apparently don't know it I will make this suggestion: Please, not for the sake of not getting a ticket but through respect to the family and friends, when you see a funeral procession, stop your car at least, until the funeral coach and the first few cars pass. I want to express my appreciation to the teen-age drivers for the way they drove their automobiles last Sunday. It was a lot better than the Sunday before and I knew if they will try a little harder it can be still even better.

I guess one of the policemen gave someone a ticket for over-parking and the judge fined him a dollar, and it made him mad, so he decided to get even with somebody—I don't know who. He tore up about seven parking meters and stuck matches and tooth picks in all the rest of the meters. I don't know yet who could be that mad, but evidently someone is because that is what has happened the past few days. Those parking meters were installed at the request of the majority of the people and are enforced by ordinance and are bought and paid for with taxpayers money, and I certainly think the tax payers should help us find the ones that are destroying them. Don't you? Surely someone must see these vandals when they take a hammer or a rock and beat a meter all to pieces.

Certainly they won't do that when a policeman is within seeing or hearing distance; but someone is bound to be around when it happens and I think it is their duty as a citizen to report them to the police. I can assure you they will receive proper punishment from our judge. Those meters cost in the neighborhood of $65 installed, each and I know the tax payers can't continue to spend that kind of money and let some few men or boys go around tearing them up. So please help us find out who is doing this. We have even found two meters, pipe and all, that have been pulled completely out of the concrete. Luckily we found one of them in the back alley, but I guess the other one is in someone's front room as a mantle piece, or something, because we have never found it. I will say this much about it. Sooner or later we will catch someone but I hope it isn't after someone but I hope it isn't after several thousand dollars worth of meters have been destroyed.

I sure don't intend for this column to be a gripe column; I am only telling you some of the things that need your attention and I think with a little help from you folks we can make Hereford not only a better place in which to live but the best place to live. Don't you?

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hawkins of Lamesa visited in Hereford last week-end with relatives.

Texans In Washington

By Tex Easley

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Two Texans have been leading the fight for re-establishment of State Guards—militia which would take over National Guard home-front activities if the latter is called into federal service.

Before congressional committees in private conferences and at a stag dinner for legislative and governmental leaders the cause was pushed by Col. Don W. Peacock of San Antonio, and Col. Carl C. Hardin Jr., Austin.

Here's the background of their move: During World War II, after the National Guard was ordered into federal service and blended in with regular fighting forces, Congress passed a law authorizing creation of State Guards. They filled domestic needs normally handled by the National Guard, such as quelling prison riots, helping out in floods and tornadoes and keeping ready for handling disorders in the event of an enemy attack.

The authorization act expired with the end of the war and the State Guard dissolved, for under normal conditions the National Guard unit in each state is recognized and gets federal assistance only if it is the only such official militia in a state. The State Guard was re-authorized and re-established during the Korean War.

These advocating creation of a State Guard now, because of the present world turmoil, organized a "State Guard Association of the United States." They elected Brig. Gen. Allen D. Rooke, deputy commander of the Texas State Guard Reserve, as president of the national association.

Peacock and Hardin, representing Rooke, urged the House Armed Services Committee to provide for a State Guard in the legislation they were considering to set up the President's military reserve program. Personnel of the State Guard would include citizens not eligible or not then on active duty with the Armed Forces, among them the over and under age and those unable to meet regular physical standards.

AROUND THE CAPITAL
Col. Peacock, with his wife and daughter, Sue Ellen, 15, enjoyed a rare personal "family" visit with the President and Mrs. Eisenhower in the living quarters at the White House.

It came about because Eisenhower had served as football coach at the Peacock Military Academy in San Antonio while stationed at Ft. Sam Houston. Right after his graduation from West Point he became a close friend of the Peacock family—which had founded the Academy. So did Marie, who came down to the football field often to watch Ike handle the team.

"When we learned we were coming to Washington my wife wrote Mrs. Eisenhower," Peacock said. "She invited us to be there one evening."

"After showing us all about the White House, she took us to their own living quarters, and we were greeted by the president, dressed in house shoes and smoking jacket.

"We thought we would stay just a few minutes, but it was over an hour, we got so busy recalling old times."

Peacock was the guest of Speaker Sam Rayburn at the weekly Texas congressional delegation stag luncheon.

Porter Oakes, Amarillo public relations man here attending a convention of nation-wide trailer rental operators, was among other guests at the delegation luncheon.

Deputy Defense Secretary Robert B. Anderson took particular pleasure in a gift delivered to him personally by Rep. Frank Beard of Wichita Falls. It was a book, "The Big Ranch Country," by J. W. Williams, a Wichita Falls teacher, who autographed copies to Beard and Anderson and mailed them to the congressman.

The book includes stories about the Waggoner Ranch, which Anderson managed from his Vernon headquarters before coming to Washington soon after President Eisenhower took office.

Etta Mathis was in Abilene this past week-end visiting with her father, W. C. Maxcy Baird.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gollehon and grandchildren, Coretta and Norma Jean visited here last week from Colorado Springs. They are former Hereford residents.

The Police Chief Reports

As I am planning my vacation for the first two weeks of April I am writing this letter about two weeks early and I have a few items that I think need mentioning. Probably the first one should be about funerals: We escorted a funeral from the First Methodist Church last week and before we left the church we placed a card under the windshield wiper of each car, asking the driver to please turn his headlights on if he was going to the cemetery. I am happy to say that not one headlight was turned on. This would help get us through the traffic and maybe it would help keep other cars from cutting through the funeral procession. We certainly would appreciate it when you attend a funeral and go to the cemetery, your turning on your headlights. However, we will have a card under your windshield wiper as a reminder.

The other item concerning funerals is the parking conditions. The location of the churches forces us to stop all traffic from entering the block where the funeral is being held and therefore creates a problem. We are proud that we are called upon to handle these escorts, but we need all the assistance we can get from the public in order to keep from blowing a whistle or using a siren to turn traffic or to stop a car. We stand in the center of the intersection and point to the right and the left which should show the oncoming driver that he is to turn either to the right or the left, but 75 percent of the drivers stop about a half block away and almost get run over by the car behind them or they drive right on past us and get tangled up in a bunch of parked cars. I thought maybe this letter would be a good place to explain that one traffic direction. When you see a policeman standing in the intersection facing you and has both arms extended to his side pointing one to the right and the other to the left, it simply means please turn to the right or the left. On the other hand, if the policeman only has one arm pointing one direction and pointing at you with the other hand, he wants you to turn in the direction he is pointing and not like so many others do, turn the opposite direction. We are proud of most of our citizens for the way they pull off the street, stop and take their hat off when they meet a funeral but we still have a few who fly by like they don't know what a funeral is. I have always thought that

Bull Barn Main Event To Match Morelli And Parks

Tough Tony Morelli, veteran Italian grappler from Naples, Italy, and New York City, and big Bill Parks from North Bay, Ontario, Canada, furnish the main event fireworks at the Hereford Bull Barn Saturday night.
 Other fireworks may precede the main event, however, when a newcomer to the territory, Carl Gray of Phoenix, Ariz., mixes up with handsome Bob Clay of Muskogee, Okla.
 Not much is known about Gray in these parts. If he is a capable match for Bob Clay, then he must be a pretty fair wrestler, because Clay is one of the top-notch young guys in the junior heavyweight class. They wrestle for two best falls of three, or 45 minutes, and when it is over, fans will know more about Carl Gray.
 Another Tough Tony, last name Ross, comes back to the Hereford arena, this time to meet blond Gene Detton, youngest of the famous Detton family of internationally recognized mat ability.

Hereford Nine Joins Central Plains League

Members of the Central Plains Baseball League met Saturday at Nazareth and elected Bill Smith of Dimmitt as president.
 Eight teams will be represented in the league, Hereford, Umbarger, Nazareth, Olton, Dimmitt, Friona, Lazbuddie, and Bovina, will all vie for top honors. The Hereford team was a member of the Irrigation League last year, finishing second only to Springlake. Many of the same teams in that league will be represented in the new Central Plains League.
 Hereford's first game will be April 24 with Nazareth at Nazareth. Hereford prospects are bright despite the loss of standouts Stan Barrett and John Benner. Most regulars will be returning, but Wendel Burdine, manager, stresses the need for new and young players. Anyone interested in playing on the team are asked to be at Veteran's Park Thursday afternoon, April 7, at 6 p.m.

Sign Construction Fun Despite Work Involved

Paint remover and bandages for mashed thumbs were probably not figured into the initial cost when road signs were erected in several of the surrounding communities to enable residents to be located more easily. However such markers have been a real advantage in many instances to people not familiar with the community.

Wyche was the first to put up road markers which have been in evidence along their roadways for several years. Austin road is first of the signs bearing names of states that extend southeast through the Wyche community to the County Line Road which divides the Wyche and Jumbo communities.

These signs which gave only the name of the road have been an incentive to other communities which have gone a step farther and listed the names of people living along the road and the distances involved.

On Highway 51, south of town, road markers which were a project of the Jumbo community may be seen. To encourage all the people of the neighborhood to participate in the program each family was asked to stencil their own signs using materials furnished by the organization and stencils loaned to them by the Highway Department.

When the markers were finished they were set up by George Pope, Dean Varden and M. L. Simpson Jr., at corners which identified the roads bearing such names.

A similar project by the Dawn community was featured not long ago.

Less informative but very attractive are the signs in the area northwest of Hereford and in the Westway Community. These were a combined project of Home Demonstration Club women in the Cultural and Westway Clubs.

Roads running north and south were designated as roads and those east and west as lanes. Women in the Westway Club selected lanes and trees for the roads. The names which had a special significance for someone living along the road were chosen. Rose Lane which extends west from a point north on Highway 51 for a distance of 10 miles to the Paul Rudd corner is probably the longest in the two communities.

Lettering the signs was done by the club members and some of the men worked with the women to set up the markers.

Chains from old potato diggers were used to attach the signs to posts which were donated by Jack Renfro for Cultural Club and by most everyone in the Westway community where signs were to be set. Mrs. Paul Rudd and Mrs. R. C. Childers were chairmen for the project. All day work meetings with lunch and a great deal of coffee were held in both communities before the work was finished.

Clarence Morrison, Fred Wolfington, Raymond Childers and Kenneth DeHart are listed as helping with the road markers.

No final figures for liniment used for sore muscles following the installation of the road signs in the communities were available, but most of the women admit the projects were a lot of fun in spite of labor involved.

Marian Jo Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson, who is a student at Texas Tech, was home over the week-end for a visit with relatives and friends.

Billy Robinson, who is a student at Phillips University at Enid, Okla., arrived riday for an Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson.

'Good Grooming' Subject At Dawn Home Demo Club

"Good Grooming" was the subject for the program given by Mrs. R. T. Stewart when members of the Dawn Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. W. T. Deavers on April 1.

For her demonstration, Mrs. Stewart shampooed, cut and re-styled Mrs. H. S. Fuller's hair.

Mrs. Muriel Little read a short story, "Frank in the Heart of Texas," for opening exercises. Council report was given by Mrs. Zed Stewart and Mrs. Marion Russell was appointed to take a course in upholstery.

Mrs. C. C. Stewart, Mrs. Henry Miller and Mrs. C. C. Carter were visitors.

Members attending were: Mesdames Zed Stewart, W. L. Tooley, J. M. Carothers, Muriel Little, Cora Payne, H. S. Fuller, Walter Callow, Marion Russell, P. T. Stewart, Miss Lulu Botsford and the hostess.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Marion Russell on April 15.

and other things ready to eat. This might be a helpful hint to some of you ambitious sellers.

From our Specialist in Consumer Information: Fork heads the list of plentiful foods and will be cheaper during April than any time before next winter. Park prices will climb higher after April. Other plentiful foods are sweet corn, snap beans, eggs, cheese and rice. To complete the list of plentiful for April is lamb, vegetable fats and oils.

Mrs. Ada Brunson is getting ready for control of the bag worms that almost ruin evergreens as well as other trees and shrubs. The bag worms will strip and finally kill the plants. Treat by using sprays containing chlordane, lead arsenate or toxaphene.

Apply insecticides early while worms are small. No chemicals will control the worms when they are full grown. Hand pick and burn bags, as the winter is passed in new stars within the bag.

Carlyn Williams, Jane Newsom, Martha Logan and Pat Dawson, who appeared on the TV program not long ago, also came for people attending the Leon Convention here last week. The girls were accompanied by Nelda Pfifer and Gladys Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren D. Root of Sapin Palo, Colo., are here visiting with their son, Rev. Don Root and family.

Shirley Root, student of TCU arrived today for a short vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Root.

Sonja Fagan from Cleburne is visiting here with Betty Grimes.

County 4-H Leaders Hold Regular Session

The Deaf Smith County 4-H Leaders Council met in regular session March 29 at 3:30 p.m. at the REA in Hereford. Mrs. Roy Pruitt, chairman, called the meeting to order, or opening exercises,

Mrs. J. E. Dyer led the group in the recitation of the 4-H Club Prayer. The minutes were read by Mrs. T. B. Thomas, secretary. The following committee reports were given:

Bake Show—Mrs. T. J. Parsons, chairman, called a meeting of her committee on April 14 at 10:30 at her home to make plans for the Spring Bake Show.

Educational Tour—Mrs. Ira Ott, chairman, reminded the group of the tour to be held in July and asked them to be thinking of places of interest to be visited.

The chairman of Council appointed Mrs. T. J. Parsons to serve on the Finance Committee with Mrs. Wiseman to fill the vacancy left by Mrs. Elvin Wilson, who has moved from the community.

The Assistant Agent announced the dates for 4-H District Camp and State Round-Up and urged leaders to encourage all eligible club members to begin completing their record books for judging. The next Leader's Training Meeting will be held on April 25, with Miss Nena Robinson, clothing specialist from A&M, conducting the meeting.

All clubs were represented at the meeting. The following leaders were in attendance: Mrs. Ed Dziuk, County Wide 4-H; Mrs. M. H. Wiseman, County Wide 4-H; Mrs. Jack Higgins, Dardel 4-H; Mrs. Ira Ott, Happy Homes 4-H; Mrs. J. E. Dyer, Jolly Girls 4-H; Mrs. C. F. Homfeld, Caprock 4-H; Mrs. T. B. MORE PEOPLE than ever before!
ARE BUYING

1. You can buy a big, 200-H.P. Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars and much less than stripped economy models of higher-priced makes!

2. Only Pontiac gives you luxury-car size plus the sensational Strato-Streak V-8!

Biggest car at its price (122" and 134" wheelbases) • Most powerful car at its price • Only car at any price with distinctive Vogue Two-Tone Styling and the riding and driving ease of the Shock-proof Chassis.

You don't have to look far to find the reason for the tremendous surge to Pontiac. No further than the fact that only Pontiac produces cars that compete with the costliest in size, smartness and power, yet carry a price tag that is well under many in the lowest-price field.

That's what brings people in to see and drive a Pontiac—a value story they simply can't afford to overlook. And once they do—once they get a close-up of America's most distinctive styling . . . once they sample the superlative roominess and comfort of Pontiac's luxury interiors . . . once they try the pulse-racing thrills of exclusive Strato-Streak V-8 performance—they lose interest in every car but this.

Come in and get the rest of the story. See, drive and price this high-powered future-fashioned beauty. You'll find that if you can afford any new car you can easily afford a Pontiac.

TIPS....

To Better Banking Presented by the Friendly FIRST NATIONAL BANK

AVOID OVERDRAFTS

An overdraft means that you have asked us to pay out more money than you have in your account. You can prevent this embarrassing and annoying situation by keeping accurate records of deposits and withdrawals.

Every time you make a deposit, add it to the previous balance in checkbook. Before you write a check, be sure to enter on your checkbook stub the date, number and payee (person or firm to paid) and deduct the amount from your balance.

Another important habit to establish is to wait until you have notice from the bank that your monthly salary or annuity check, or any other deposit has been received before you start writing checks against it. Sometimes even the U. S. Mails are slow, and such deposits may be delayed in getting to the bank. By guarding against overdrafts you help maintain your own credit standing. And you won't have to avoid people who have receive a check from you and had it "bounce"!

New Officers Elected By Bud-Blossom Club

Mrs. Faye Godwin was hostess Friday afternoon for a regular session of the Bud Blossom Club. Mrs. Ray Howell made the arrangement for the day using yellow bouquets with pink ribbons.

A short business session was held when new officers were elected. They included Mrs. W. Glenn Williams, president; Mrs. Pat Robinson, first vice president; Mrs. C. R. Higgins, second vice president; Mrs. T. J. Scott, third vice president; Mrs. Jim Wood, recording secretary; Mrs. Lucy Sharp, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Preston Hagans, treasurer; Mrs.

Sari Long, reporter; Mrs. Don Martin, federation director, and Mrs. Irving Alexander, parliamentarian.

Reports of the District 1, TFGC meeting held recently in Borger were given by Mesdames Preston Hagans, Herbert Haseloff and Pat Robinson.

The spring flower show scheduled for April 15, was indefinitely postponed on account of the recent freezing weather which damaged flowers in this area.

Mrs. Ralph McCulloch was the guest speaker for the day choosing

"Flora" as her subject. She told how to prepare the rose bed and when, where, and how to plant roses. She gave advice on watering and pruning and named varieties that do well in this area, mentioning the new Queen Elizabeth, the Paul Serlet and the Buzze.

Those attending were Mesdames Irving Alexander, R. A. Daniel Jr., C. E. Elberts, Ray Howell, Jack Johnson, Sam Long, Don Martin, W. H. Patton, Pat Robinson, Delma Williams, W. Glenn Williams, Jim Wood, R. N. Yarbrough and the hostess.

Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex. Two big proposals for the state's water conservation program won in the Senate.

One is Sen. Dorsey Hardeman's $100 million state bond issue for aid to local projects. It calls for a constitutional amendment vote in September. The other is an enabling bill to start operations if and when the amendment is passed.

House sponsors on this, and on the Parish $300 million bond bill to aid local projects have delayed calling for final action. They don't think they have enough votes.

Tax Blank

An openly hostile revenue and taxation committee shunted Rep. Jerry Sadler's $160 million-a-year gas processing tax bill to subcommittee.

It would levy a one-cent tax on all Texas gasoline and repeal the four-cent gas sales tax. Opponents said it would bring a 19-cent cut in crude oil prices, costing Texas $190 million a year.

The committee left lurid the two bills embodying Gov. Shivers' original tax program. It included a two-cent hike in the four-cent gas tax and a one-cent boost in the four-cent cigarette tax.

This confirmed last week's report that administration forces had abandoned the two single-shot revenue bills and pinned new hopes on Revenue Chairman Stone's omnibus bill. It would permit increases in any of the 100-odd present taxes.

The billion and a half dollar House general appropriation bill (for two years) was passed by the Senate which substituted its own version.

When the House refused to concur in Senate changes, the way was opened for a joint conference committee to resolve the differences. Lieutenant Governor Ramsey has named five Senators to the Committee and House Speaker Jim Lindsay five.

Delaying Action
Special session speculation again comes up.

Sen. Jimmy Phillips saw his filibuster record fall this week to Sen. Wayne Wagonselle.

Like Phillips, however Wagonselle lost his battle. As soon as he stopped talking, the Senate tentatively approved the bus registration fee measure he was fighting.

When it was all over, weary Senators suddenly discovered the marathon talks had killed two full "House bill" periods in the Senate, with only one House bill passed in two weeks.

Observers saw that, with Shivers' entire program still hanging fire, and four more Wednesday filibusters in the Senate capable of killing all of it, a new switch in administration strategy might be possible.

Thought was that Governor Shivers might ask the Legislature to lay aside the tax bill and the appropriation whopper, and pass other legislation before theoretical adjournment May 11.

That would mean his calling a special session on taxes and the appropriation bill. Appropriations must be in effect Sept. 1 to keep the wheels of government turning. He would have control in a special session, lacking now.

Point Won

At any rate, the Governor won his point on the bill regulating securities.

As the legislature headed for what looked like its worst jam in the final month of session, he made a firm request that the House adopt a Senate bill regulating securities, particularly bringing certain trust company stocks under state supervision.

"I hope the House will disregard frantic efforts of certain speculators, promoters and others... and vote final passage..." he said.

Land Case

Basecom Giles' legal troubles mounted when a group of San Antonio GIs filed a civil recovery suit in 53rd District Court.

Asking $33,000 judgment against Giles, the veterans charged that he made that much in "personal profit" out of a veterans land deal.

At the latest count, Giles faced two criminal indictments, charging conspiracy to commit theft of state funds and accepting a bribe; four felony theft charges, and four civil recovery suits.

Twice Giles has refused to testify in court about the veterans land scandals and charges against him.

"Open Door" Bliss

Attorney General Shepperd has expressed "deep hope that action will be taken on the Open Door to Good Government bills during this session of the Legislature."

Most of the bills have been reported favorably by House committees, he pointed out, but some still are being held for further committee study.

"They are sound, logical proposals to aid better government in Texas, to give the people a bigger voice and to more quickly reveal official wrong-doing," he said.

Shepperd referred to 13 bills dealing with full public disclosure of public records and funds. All are pending in the House of Representatives.

Most of the 13 bills have been introduced and are backed by the Texas Press Association, and other groups interested in good government.

Cross Filing

Cross filing in political races is out as the result of a bill passed by both houses and signed by the Governor.

This bill by Representative Murray Maverick of San Antonio, removes from the law a sentence allowing candidates to run "as the nominee of two or more political parties for the same office."

Controversy arose over cross-filing when Governor Shivers and other state candidates were listed in 1952 as the nominees of both the Democratic and the Republican parties.

say you is from Tays-as Well I do declare, podner" etc.

TV's caricature of Texas and Texas puts us Texans who don't wear 10-gallon hats and carry rolled-up $100 bills in a delicate position--alloy can we explain that we dilly ordinary people are Texans, too?

But it serves to arouse a sort of worn curiosity about our state. Who wouldn't like to visit a place where everybody is oil-rich, drives fancy Cadillacs and keeps the trunk coat trade brisk?

Although Texas long ago decided to join the Union, you'll still hear the TV crooner quip to his Texan guest: "Say, when is Texas coming into the United States? Heh, heh, Ho, Ho."

Occasionally, "Texas jokes" break the bounds of good taste. A guest performer on a network comedy show out of New York got to cracking gags about Texas and wound up with:

"Believe me, there would be no Texas if the Alamo had had a back door!"

Now this is the kind of thing that can incite a Texan to violence. This fellow is probably still getting time in the penitentiary.

All in all, TV probably does Texas lots of good.

A Texan on a New York quiz show won some money. The emcee asked what he would do with it. This fellow replied:

"I been in New York four years trying to get enough money to go back home to Texas. Now that I've got it, I'm getting on the first train."

Ford sells more because it's worth more

The new Ford Fairlane Town Sedan is an outstanding example of modern 4-door design.

In 1954, more Fords were bought by the motoring public than any other make. That's because more and more people are discovering that Ford has more to offer!

FOR YEARS, Ford has been the trend-setter in all the features that make a car worth more... V-8 power... Ball-joint ride... modern styling. And today, Ford brings you even more good reasons to buy.

First, Ford offers the reassuring response of new Trigger-Torque power in your choice of two new and mighty V-8 engines or the industry's most modern Six.

FORD, the new BEST SELLER...

sells more because it's worth more!

Next, Ford for '55 brings you a new, and smoother, Angle-Poised Ride, made possible by Ford's advanced new Ball-Joint Front Suspension system.

And finally, in just plain good looks, Ford's farther out front than ever. With brand-new styling inspired by the long, low lines of the fabulous Thunderbird, Ford is America's most beautiful buy!

From the days of Paul, the Christian world has insisted that the Cross and the Empty Tomb must be kept together. Yet one is often associated with darkness and the other with light. Isn't Calvary black and Easter bright? If the Cross is blackness, it is the darkness before the Dawn; it is the Sacrifice before the triumph.

For Jesus there was light all the way; both Calvary and the Resurrection: had become a part of the loving will of God. For He had passed through Gethsemane; there He had accepted the via dolorosa as the path of blessing; He was never alone on that fateful Friday, for He walked with the Father God. The world may have lain in darkness at the Crucifixion, but there was no darkness in the soul of the Man of Galilee; He was the Son of God and had dedicated himself to the Father's will. To the world there was Death and the dark; it was Black Friday. But to the seeing soul of Jesus Christ there was Life and the light; it was Good Friday.

And so it has become for the Christian world. The Man who arose from the dead on Easter morning had carried a Cross on Friday. Perhaps Easter will mean most to those of us who have learned during Lent to bear as well as to wear a Cross. The Christian symbol was not intended to refer only to the Cross of Jesus; we set the Cross atop our churches and we exalt the Cross within the Church, representing a way of life. It is God's way as well as the way of Jesus; God has forever carried a Cross, and with a smile upon His face. Godly women and men have ever carried a Cross and it has brought joy to their hearts and blessings to mankind. For the Cross spells Life for all of us; and he lives best and knows the deepest joy who has chosen to bear his Cross as he discovers in it the will of his God. Most blessed is he who, like his God, can carry the Cross with a smile.

The Cross and the Tomb have both been snatched from their association with Death; for they have been transformed by love and self-giving and by a Presence of radiance and glory. He lives and we, too, shall live, in the measure in which we "learn to kiss the Cross," our cross as well as His.

Letter To The Editor

The idea of the new inventions and the continuation of these inventions are very interesting. But there is another interesting idea in connection with these new ideas and inventions. What is an even more interesting phase is why we have not had these inventions before now. The idea that these inventions will continue is a sound mental adventure.

But the fundamental law governing these inventions is the major factor. Why we have not had these inventions is interesting. The idea that these inventions will continue is governed by natural law similar to the law that governs summer, fall and winter but of centuries instead of months.

The mind of man is governed by these laws controlled by centuries while the changes as we have experienced during our past have been controlled by months and applies only to soil while the change we now experience applies to the mind and will continue for one thousand years and more.

In the foreground, a new Mercury Montclair shows its low silhouette. Accelerating up the 28% grade, another shows its high power.

NEW LOW IN SILHOUETTE NEW HIGH IN POWER

The new Montclairs are the highest styled, highest powered Mercurys ever built. Only 58½ inches high! 198 horsepower with dual exhausts!

Ever notice what happens when folks get together in the good old American custom of talking cars?

Sooner or later—they get around to the new Mercury Montclair. And to superlatives that haven't been heard in years about any car.

For this is the car that even excites many sports car lovers—as well as family men.

MERCURY'S TOP OF THE LINE

This is a dream on wheels. 58½" high—or should we say low? A whole foot-and-a-half wider than it is high. A luxuriously long silhouette. Beautiful baked-on enamel colors which make Mercury shine on any street. And you can choose from four new models, all with room-a-plenty. The brand-new four-door hardtop Sedan, the hardtop Coupe, the Convertible, or the Sun Valley with transparent roof panel.

And there's horsepower to spare—198 horsepower in this new SUPER-TORQUE V-8 engine. With new quicker-acting Merc-O-Matic Drive, you get a boost in pickup and passing power as high as 30% over last year's Mercury.

ONLY MERCURY GIVES YOU ALL THESE FEATURES

The dual-exhaust system is standard on the Montclair. There's improved ball-joint front wheel suspension, and a 4-barrel vacuum carburetor. Plus the widest choice of power features in its field, including Multi-Luber. (Push a button on the dash and all vital steering and suspension points are automatically lubricated!)

NOW'S THE TIME TO BUY

Right now—we've a good supply of Montclairs. And right now—we're trading high. Come in for a look—a trade-in figure on your old car—and a demonstration of the Mercury Montclair. You'll never go back to any other kind of car!

At The Movies

"Sitting Bull"
"Sitting Bull" opens Friday and Saturday at the Star Theatre through United Artists release and with a cast headed by Dale Robertson, Mary Murphy, J. Carroll Naish, John Littel, Douglas Kennedy and Iron Eyes Cody.
The affair at the Little Big Horn—popularly called "Custer's Last Stand"—took place on June 25, 1876, when the United States army sustained what is probably its greatest single defeat. Wiped out to the last man by Sioux warriors under the great Indian chieftain, Sitting Bull, was the entire U. S. Army command of Gen. George Armstrong Custer. The Battle of the Little Big Horn resulted in what undoubtedly is the most complete massacre in the military history of this country.

Time has put a lustre on the great massacre at the Little Big Horn. But, when the battle occurred, it was regarded as a shocking and unnecessary waste of many brave men.

"Demetrius and the Gladiators"
Beginning where "The Robe" left off, Twentieth Century Fox has carried on the magnificence of the Lloyd C. Douglas story in "Demetrius and the Gladiators," a spectacular Cinemascope production in color by Technicolor, which opens Sunday at the Star Theatre.

Although this movie follows the mood of "The Robe," it is a completely different story and shows the length to which the Romans went in the first century to break the faith of the Christians. Demetrius succumbs to the wiles of Messalina, wife of Claudius and called the "wickedest woman in Rome," and through her malevolence is forced to fight as a gladiator before being lured to a life of licentious indulgence. Victor Mature is again seen as Demetrius and Susan Hayward in Messalina, who is credited with having more lovers than Solomon had wives.

Two other characters carried over from "The Robe" are Peter, the Big Fisherman, played by Michael Rennie, and Catigula, the mad emperor, played by Jay Robinson. It is through Peter that Demetrius returns to the faith.

Debra Paget as Lucia, the Christian girl quietly enamored with Demetrius; and Anne Bancroft, in the role of Paula, and enslaved courtesan from Greece, complete the sextette of stars who give this Frank Ross production much of its quality.

"Riding Shotgun"
Showing at the Texas Theatre Sunday is "Riding Shotgun," starring Randolph Scott.

At the Tower Drive-In Theatre Sunday and Monday is "Road to Bali" starring Bing Crosby Tuesday and Wednesday is "She Couldn't Say No," starring Robert Mitchum and Jean Simmons. On Thursday and Friday it is "Back to God's Country" with Rock Hudson, and John Derek. Joan Evans is showing in "The Outcast" Saturday.

Garden Club Hears 'Dry Weather' Talk

Mrs. S. L. Easley presented the program at the Garden Beautiful Club meet Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Dick Miller with Mrs. F. P. Lyons as co-hostess.

Speaking on the subject "When It's Bone Dry and Boiling Hot," Mrs. Easley described the arid conditions in parts of the Southwest, and told how the early day settlers followed the pattern of the Spaniards in cultivating native plants and shrubs. She also described present day landscaping and the type of shrubs and flowers used today in the driest parts of the Southwest.

Mrs. Robert Veigel told of a trip to Arizona and her surprise at some of the flower gardens growing there.

During the business session Mrs. Ansel McDowell was welcomed as a new member of the club.

The arrangement for the day was used on the dining table with Mrs. F. P. Lyons featured pale pink stocks in a round crystal bowl.

Members present were Mesdames Howard Armstrong, Tom Carter, S. L. Easley, J. B. Harlin, E. W. Harrison, E. W. Hobson, Charles Hood, Frances Houston, D. C. Kinsey, F. P. Lyons, G. P. Owen, Helen Pipkin, D. B. Roberston, T. E. Seigler, W. J. Stanford, Gerald Wilson, Robert Voiegl, J. L. Woodford, Townsend Douglas, N. D. Bartlett Jr., and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jesto visited with Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Fetch Sunday. The Fetch's have purchased and built a new home six miles northwest of Hereford. They are now here, having moved here from Muleshoe about two months ago. They plan to make this their permanent home.

LOWEST-PRICE CAR

IN "ALL 3" TO GIVE YOU ALL THIS IS PLYMOUTH!

TOP SIX

The thriftiest, smoothest six in the low-price 3—that's Plymouth's Power-Flow 171! Its high compression ratio, combined with exclusive Chrome-Sealed Action, gives you more power from less gas, and velvet-smooth performance. You'll enjoy lightning acceleration, thanks to a special metering system in the carburetor. And the PowerFlow thrives on regular, not premium grade, fuel.

TOP SIZE

The biggest, longest, roomiest car of the low-price 3—that's Plymouth! Brilliant new Forward Look styling gives you more glamor outside, more luxury inside; plus the new Full-View windshield, swept back to give the maximum visibility in the low-price 3. And Plymouth's big size means you and your passengers will enjoy the smooth, steady ride that only a truly big car can give you.

TOP VALUE

Plymouth is the only low-price car to give you at no extra cost such extra value features as: electric windshield wipers, Safety-Rim wheels and an independent parking brake for extra safety... Oriflow shock absorbers for a smoother ride... an Oilite fuel filter and oil bath air cleaner for lasting economy. See and drive a Plymouth today—see why it's your best-buy low-price car!

WHY PAY UP TO $500 MORE FOR A CAR SMALLER THAN PLYMOUTH?

Don't be fooled by the claims of so-called medium-price cars that they cost practically the same as Plymouth. When you compare price tags you'll find that, model for model, Plymouth sells for much, much less than medium-price cars, and gives you more car for your money!
