The 10th annual B&PW Style Show will be presented Monday evening, March 21 at the high school auditorium. Time for the show will be 8 o'clock.

Theme of the style show this year will be "Keynotes To Spring" and will feature selections from all the Hereford clothing merchants, jewelry, flower shops and some of the beauty shops.

The club is looking forward to the show being one of the best since it is being held at the new auditorium where the audience will be able to see better.

Mrs. Rosa Cowart will narrate the show and Mrs. John Sims will present the music.

Admission tickets are selling for $1 and may be purchased from any club members or at the door.

Dog Campaign Is Now More Strict

Hereford's pick-up campaign on stray dogs will swing into earnest this week, according to City Officials, who said that the movement is emphasized by a rabies outbreak in the Rio Grande Valley, where several towns have been quarantined.

During the past two weeks the City has impounded 63 dogs, according to City records. However, officers have been following instructions in contacting owners whenever possible and have been making investigations to locate the owners.

The policy, henceforth, will be to pick up all stray dogs—with or without tags—for impounding, they said. Officers also reported that numerous people are becoming alarmed over the stray dog situation in view of the outbreak in the Valley.

Licenses and vaccination receipts are far below 1954, they reported.

Tourist Marvels At Efficiency Of Fire Department

The Hereford Fire Department has the enthusiastic support of at least one grateful tourist, although no one thought to ask her name.

The lady told foremen that she had been about to pull into the station behind the car which struck the gasoline pump Monday night. However, when the pump exploded and burst into flames which soared to the station ceiling, she said she pulled up across the street to watch.

"Honest," she said, "exactly four minutes from the time the car hit the pump, your department had answered the call, and completely put out the blaze. Then, shaking her head, she added, 'I don't believe it. I was looking at my watch, but I still don't believe it.'"

Milo Growers To Stage Last-Ditch Battle On Mar. 31

Grain sorghum growers of the High Plains Irrigation belt will make their last-ditch stand in Washington on Thursday, March 31, at 2:30 p.m., according to a telegram this week from Congressman Walter Rogers.

The telegram calls for a meeting of grower representatives with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson and Asst. Sec. Jim McConell, at which time the temporary committee, created in the Amarillo meeting and headed by H. G. Peeler of Hereford, will place the whole story before the top-level brass of Washington agriculture.

In addition to Mr. Peeler, the committee is composed of representative grain sorghum growers from four states, including: Leo Witkowski, Happy; W. N. Shirley, Lazbuddie; John Vanderman, Spearman; George Hammond, Clovis; Raymond Holes, Liberal, Kan. and Roy T. Nall, Boise City, Okla.

Arrangements for the top level meeting were made through Cong. Rogers and other representatives in Washington as an outgrowth of the grain sorghum meeting in Amarillo, where producers gathered from over the four state-area to air protests regarding the drop in parity supports from 85 percent to 70 percent of parity.

Moved Started Here The Amarillo gathering, in turn, stemmed from a movement started in Hereford when producers, especially in the irrigated belt, protested that $1.58 grain sorghum would be a money-losing proposition on current cost levels.

The Hereford sentiment gained momentum over the irrigation belt, and spread into the other three states.

Chief objective of the representatives from this area will be to secure a return of 85 percent parity on grain sorghum supports for 1955. Steps toward securing fair price returns on future grain sorghums as compared with other grain crops in future crops will be the objective of permanent organizations now being formed over the four-state area.

Absentee voting on City of Hereford officials opened here Tuesday, but Wednesday afternoon had failed to attract a single voter. Absentee voting will continue throughout Saturday, April 2, preceding election day, scheduled for Tuesday, April 5.

Absentee voters with 1955 poll tax receipts may apply to the City Clerk for ballots.

Listed on the ballot this year are Henry Sears for mayor; Wayne Edwards and Raylan Evans for Commissioners. The trio is unopposed, and all three men are running for re-election to the respective offices.

"Current prices will be the sole object of our committee," said Peeler. "We are not authorized to encourage or discourage or represent any group concerning acreage allotments or future developments along this line. Our objective is the immediate relief of hardship created through lowering the parity support from 85 percent to 70 percent—and we will concentrate our efforts to this objective."

Cotton Measure Date Extended

Announcing an extension on the "Pre-Measurement of Cotton Acreage" to April 1, 1955, Faust Collier, ASC manager, today reviewed the measurement plan as follows:

"The Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides that cotton allotment acreages are to be pre-measured for all farm operators requesting the service. The State Committee has approved a rate of charge of $7.00 per farm plus $2.00 for each plot over one. At the time the farm operator files his written request for the pre-measurement service, he should understand that he or his representative must be at the farm at the time the pre-measurement is made and it will be his responsibility to have available any stakes that may be needed in staking out the areas to be planted to cotton.

"This service is offered only to the farmers who request that their cotton acreage be measured in the field before planting time and who pay the $7.00 per farm plus $2.00 for each plot over one at the time the request is signed in the county office. The final date to apply for pre-measurement service is April 1, 1955. This is an extension of the original date.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Williams have just returned from attending the funeral of her brother, Mr. Hamilton.

C-C Survey Report Monday

The final report on the Industrial and Agricultural survey, sponsored and through the Chamber of Commerce, will be made Monday, March 21, according to plans outlined today by Bill Lenderman, C-C manager.

The survey, prepared at a cost of $5,000, will cover resources, possibilities and needs of the community. It was prepared by the Blanton Company, survey engineers, and was underwritten by six groups: Southwestern Public Service, Santa Fe Railway, Pioneer Gas Company, Deaf Smith County, City of Hereford, and Deaf Smith REA. Work started on the survey in November of 1954.

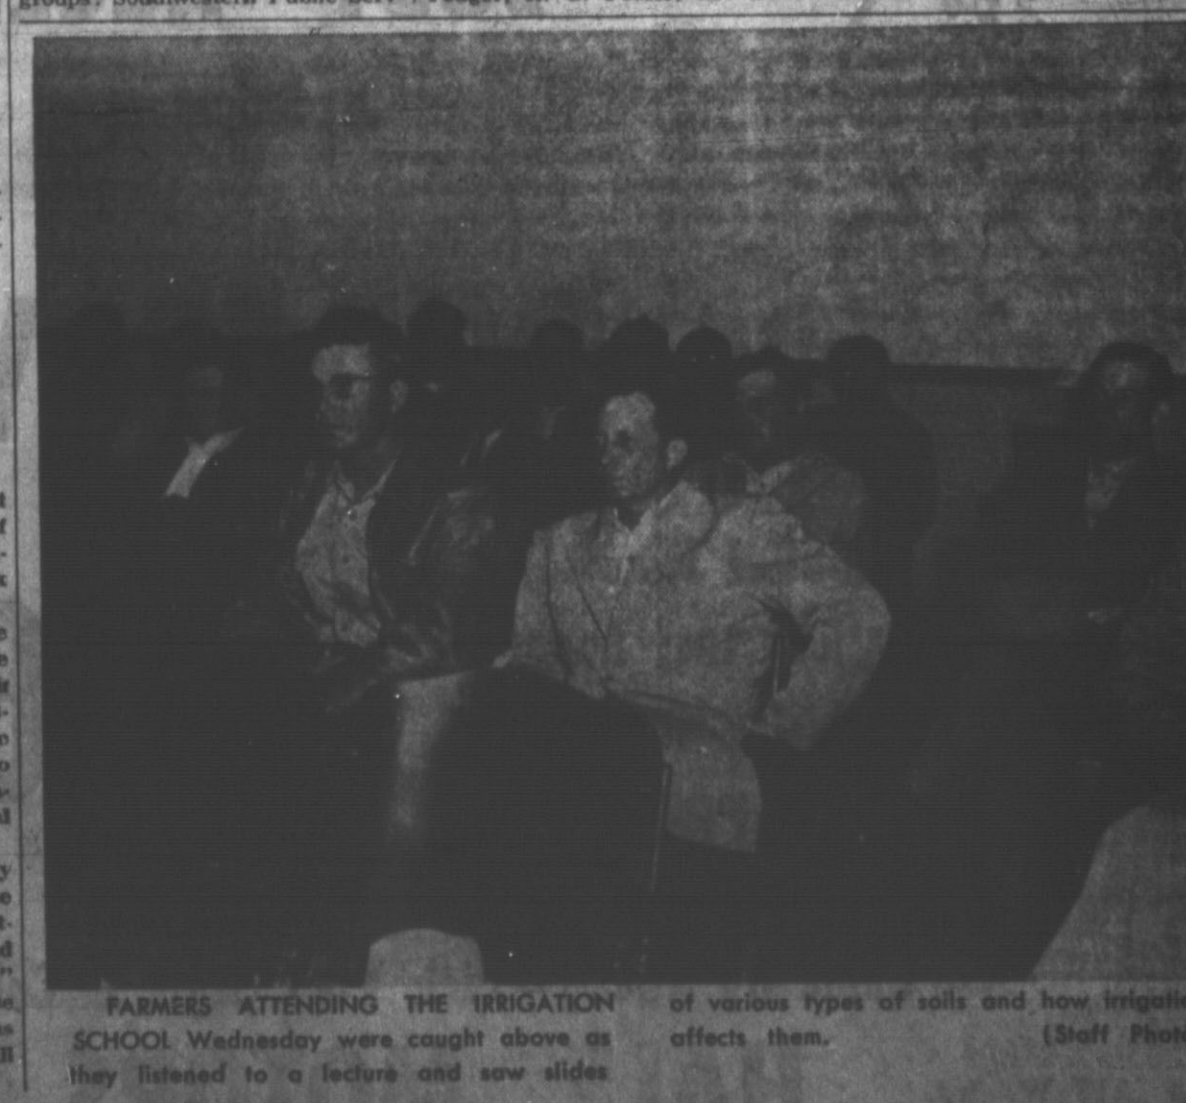

Gathered to hear the report will be the Chamber of Commerce directors, representatives of the sponsors, and the C-C Industrial Committee, which is composed of Jas. W. Witherspoon, chairman; Carl McCallin, O. D. Nixon, Al Yeager, R. G. Peeler, Lee Ben-field, Leo Forrest, and Johnnie Sims.

The survey, calculated to open new vistas for the area, will give the community a basis upon which to make future plans, Lenderman said. It will also point out such potential industries or developments which most nearly fit the future of the community from a practical standpoint, and will serve as a yardstick for future plans through the Chamber of Commerce.

Around Town

Most people appeared to be "coasting" along with the momentum of things Around Town this week. No undue excitement, but plenty of routine activity to keep everyone on the jump. Even the weather fell into the same category with "nothing particularly bad, or particularly good."

The Camp Fire girls, for instance appeared at the Rotary Club and at the Lions Club—and had several other appearances scheduled in observance of their annual week.

Don Zimmerman, C-C membership chairman, got a pleasant surprise Monday, however, when C. E. Brown made a special trip to join the Chamber of Commerce before the drive opens on March 25. "There's no use in working the committee extra," said Brown. "Just count me in." They did, even to the point of giving him a committee assignment. Zimmerman still says the drive will be over during Friday morning, when it is scheduled to open at 7 o'clock with a committee breakfast.

Members of the L'Allegre Club would up a lengthy program Saturday, when they awarded prizes in connection with their project to place furniture, draperies, lamps, chairs and other furnishings in the hospital pediatrics ward. Winners in the drawing were: Mrs. Walter Seed, first place, electric skillet; Mrs. Paul Mathley, electric coffee maker; N. W. New, electric deep fry; Earl Stagner, chafin dish; Bernard Roberson, electric bean pot. All funds from sale of the chances were donated to the ward improvement.

A few people were also talking about "Wearing of the Green" today, Mar. 17, which is St. Patrick's Day. The KC's have also announced a St. Patrick's dance at the hotel for tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Brand Want Ad Finds Lost Keys

"Don't lose your keys." Is the sage advice of Mrs. E. C. Eubanks, who adds, "but if you do, then try a Brand Classified ad."

Mrs. Eubanks lost her keys last week and put an ad in the Sunday Brand. The finder took the keys into Flevy Wigley and left them; and Flevy Wigley, in turn, called Mrs. Eubanks.

"At least two people read the ad," says Mrs. Eubanks—"and, right then, they were the two most important people in the world concerning my keys."

Combined 'Accident-Fire' Results In $500 Damages

Damage ranged from $500 up as the combined result of an accident and a fire which occurred at the Jake King Magnolia Station, across north from the Santa Fe Depot, here shortly after 8 o'clock Monday night.

The accident occurred when Jeanine Dwyer drove into the station and her car struck one of the large gas pumps. As the pump collapsed, it pulled loose electrical wiring, which started out and started the fire.

Fumes from the tank sent the blaze soaring up to the ceiling of the station, presenting a definite hazard to the building. The Hereford Fire Department used "dry powder" on the blaze, however, and extinguished it promptly, without any spread from the fire. Major damage was reported to have been to the pump and the electrical wiring.

Mr. King said that repairs were completed Tuesday and Wednesday, but that the station remained open during the interval.

Business Is Slow At Court Meeting

The Commissioners Court session Monday concerned routine business and closed around 3 o'clock in one of the shortest sessions for the year.

Mrs. Jewell Smith, County Welfare Officer, met with the Court and reviewed activities in her office, also pointing out that appointments on the Child Welfare Board are expiring. The Court reappointed the board for a two-year period as follows: Neil Cooper, W. J. Abracht, Ernest McGee, Earl Springer, Mrs. O. G. Hill, Mrs. Bert Boomer and Mrs. Henry Hastings.

The Commissioners also confirmed a contract with Krause Landscaping Service in the amount of $421 to cover tree surgery and trimming at $321, plus an additional $100 for fertilizer and spraying. Condition of the courthouse roof, which is causing some trouble, was also discussed and investigation of repairs was authorized.

The Court examined bills, heard fee reports from various officers, and reviewed a P. and L. statement from the hospital to be filed in the office of County Judge.

Star Telegram Points To Deaf Smith Area As Leading Agricultural Point

Hereford and Deaf Smith County were given top priority in the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram Sunday with an article and pictures on the Telegram Agricultural page. Pictures included a 1954 feedlot scene and an elevator scene, along with the following article:

By Tony Slaughter Deaf Smith County has become one of West Texas' top producing counties for fresh vegetables, among the top three for grain sorghums in 1954 and first in Texas for sugar beets.

Because of the mineral content of its soil and water Deaf Smith finds a ready market for its vegetables throughout the nation.

It is said that a California packer once labeled Hereford carrots as grown in California. Now it is reported the same packer is doing the opposite, putting California products under Hereford labels.

In 1954 Hereford shipped 720,000 crates of lettuce, or a total of 34,500,000 heads.

Also shipped were 350,000, 50-pound bags of onions, 13,000 tons of sugar beets and 409,541, 100-pound sacks of potatoes. Grain sorghum production last year totaled 487,500,000 pounds. Wheat production was 802,000 bushels.

The county has 295,000 acres under irrigation from 1,800 wells and 279,000 acres in dry land cultivation.

Hereford has grain storage capacity of 7,500,000 bushels, with nearly 3,000,000 bushels of this provided by Pittman Grain Company, operator of the nation's largest non-terminal elevator.

Deaf Smith cattle population is near 35,000, sheep 5,000 and hogs 8,000.

Hereford is building new homes at a rapid clip. They range in price from $7,000 to $75,000. A new $200,000 county airport is to be built and a new $1,000,000 high school is in use.

Bank deposits at two Hereford banks total $13,145,756.

A public library with 2,000 volumes, 29 churches, 70 miles of paved streets, a modern 60-room hotel, five motor courts, with 64 units and 38 industrial establishments are other Hereford assets.

Letter To The Editor

Hereford Brand
Hereford, Texas.
Dear Sir:

The Shadow Players would like to extend a vote of thanks for the article appearing in the Hereford Brand, March 6, 1955. We are a newly organized group and are very interested in hearing the opinions and reactions of our audiences. We know that we are far from being professionals, but our ambitions are to provide for our community clean, wholesome entertainment. We have not asked for donations from any of our businessmen, are not trying to sell them advertisement in any way. However, we do ask that they support us with their attendance at our performances and aid us in this way to offer our community the wholesome entertainment the entire family can enjoy.

Your readers might be interested to know the financial standing of our organization. We started with $30.00, dues from members, and have presented two productions. Our first being three one act plays, "The Blue Teapot," "Seeds of Suspicion" and "Albuquerque Ten Minutes." The latest being "Time Out For Ginger." We now have approximately $30.00 in the bank, on which we have to operate until our next production.

Since the article appeared in the Sunday issue of The Brand, we have acquired three new members and hope to increase our membership considerably as we progress in our endeavors for not only you, but all interested persons.

We, The Shadow Players, feel that we are contributing to the people of Hereford and the surrounding communities, entertainment which they heretofore did not have access to enjoy.

Once again, we want to thank you for your complete cooperation and hope that you have enjoyed our productions as much as we have enjoyed presenting them to you.

Sincerely,
THE SHADOW PLAYERS
HEREFORD, TEXAS

Lady Wrestlers Will Grace Local Lions Club Card Saturday Night

Once more, in the Hereford wrestling arena, the "weaker" sex will attempt to prove that professional wrestling does not belong to men!

Blonde Bonnie Watson, a sturdy 145-pound beauty from West Union, W. Va., will exchange clever offensive and defensive maneuvers with black-haired Olga Zepeda, from Monterrey, Mexico; that's one of two main events set up for the Hereford ring Saturday night.

In the other, and final section of the twin feature, Bob Cummings of Hereford will try to defend himself against the vicious attack of Tony Morelli, transplanted Italian now residing in New York City. Cummings, who settled down in Hereford after a history-making wrestling career out of Seaside, Ore., devotes much of his time to raising chinchillas—or rather starting a new "crop" following a fire which almost annihilated his stock last fall. The former world's light heavyweight champion spends a lot of time wrestling or refereeing, and while he would like to add the world's junior heavyweight belt to his list of trophies, he still gets a bang out of holding his own against the veterans and the newcomers. And he can do it, too!

Morelli also is a veteran, once the proud champion of Italy. He came from Naples, and he has made headway, but fast in United States wrestling. Morelli and Cummings favor the more or less "old fashioned" style of wrestling, meaning they like to work scientific holds and breaks. But they can get mad, and usually do. It will be interesting to see how they work against each other.

Maurice La Chappelle, born of French parents, never lived in France but he has fought there, and in a number of countries. He is a veteran wrestler, but sure of his stride. His permanent address is Tacoma, Wash., but he works the whole world. Pleasant on the outside, he is dangerous on the inside of a ring. In Benny Trudell, also a Frenchy, from Montreal, Canada, La Chappelle will find a willing and capable opponent. Trudell, incidentally has let his beard grow out again, and fans can expect anything.

Hereford Wins Over Farwell In 14-5 Opener
By Billy Paul Knox
The Herd Whitefaces ushered in baseball season with a bang Tuesday afternoon by roaring past the Farwell Steers 14-5. Coach E. B. Russell's charges scored six runs in the second inning, and Farwell never threatened from then on.

Russell used three pitchers, not out of necessity, to lasso the Steers. Francis Boyd, G. C. Merritt, and Buddy Jowell held Farwell to three hits, while the Whitefaces clouted two Farwell hurlers for nine bingles.

After Farwell held a small one-run lead at the end of one, the Herd caught fire and never allowed the Steers to pull within striking distance again. After Smith had reached third on Bill Albracht's error, he scored on Jerry Poteet's ground out to give them their first inning run.

However, Hereford recaptured the lead quickly by scoring six runs in a big second inning. Richard Hagar and Bill Albracht each drew walks to begin the stanza, and then both scored on Danny Elliston's double. After Easley drew another base on balls, Francis Boyd helped, his own cause by driving them in with a base hit, then scored himself after Bybee had walked and Calloway had clouted a double.

Two errors and Bill Roberts' single gave Farwell two runs in the third. Had it not been for Francis Boyd's clutch pitching, the Steers probably would have gone on to pile up a big inning. Boyd walked the bases loaded, then forced Josse Jesko to ground out to get out of his self-created situation.

The Whitefaces poured on more steam in the third. Bill Albracht singled, and Joe Easley drew another base on balls; each stole a base, then Francis Boyd drove in his fourth run by scoring them both with a single. Boyd reached second and scored on Bybee's single.

Trailing 9-3, Farwell scored one more in the fourth on Truet Hargrave's walk and Smith's double, then held Hereford to their only scoreless inning other than the first.

However, the Herd picked up two more on the Steers in the fifth. Parsons and Merritt walked, Parsons scoring on Taylor Sims' single, and Merritt tallying on Bill Calloway's sacrifice fly.

Having no more bases, the Whitefaces made it worse by adding three runs in the sixth. Hagar, Barnes, and Parsons loaded the bases with walks, and Bud Jowell drove in one with a single. Lynn Bybee's single scored the other two. Farwell's final run came in the top of the seventh by way of three errors committed by the Whitefaces.

Winning pitcher Francis Boyd started and pitched four innings. He was relieved by G. C. Merritt in the fifth and Buddy Jowell in the seventh. Jerry Poteet, losing pitcher for Farwell, was relieved by John Carpenter in the fifth.

Hereford's next game will be against Amarillo Tuesday afternoon at Amarillo. Amarillo will return the engagement the next week and will be favored both times.

Release Details On Farm-Stored Reseal Program

Details on the resealed program on wheat and grain sorghum were this week announced through the ASC office in Hereford by Faust Collier, manager as follows:

"A resealed loan program has been approved by Commodity Credit Corporation whereby farmers may (1) extend their loans on 1954-crop farm-stored wheat and grain sorghum for one year and (2) place farm-stored purchase agreement 1954 crop wheat and grain sorghum under farm-storage loans. Reseal loans on these crops will mature March 31, 1956.

"A producer who desires to participate in the resealed loan program shall file an application with the county committee which approved his loan or purchase agreement. In the case of a farm-storage loan, the producer will be required to apply for his resealed loan before the final date for delivery specified in the delivery instructions issued by the county committee.

March 31 Deadline

The producer who signed a purchase agreement on farm-storage wheat and grain sorghum is required under the provision of the 1954 price support program to notify the county committee not later than March 31, 1955 of his intention to deliver the grain to CCC. If the producer notifies the county committee on or before the maturity date of his intention to deliver the grain or to participate in the resealed program, he may obtain a farm-storage loan on the grain. The loan documents must be executed by the producer on or before the final date for delivery specified in the delivery instructions on or before May 31, 1955. If the producer has not requested delivery instructions, the loan documents must be presented for disbursement within 15 days after execution.

The eligibility requirements for wheat under the resealed program will be the same as for the regular 1954 loan program except that resealed wheat must be of a quality which will meet the Food and Drug Administration requirements in effect at the time of resealed relative to contamination of grain by birds, rodents, insects, and other vermin. The requirements for Grain Sorghum will be the same except moisture content must not be over 12 percent. Such requirements in effect at the time the wheat and grain sorghum is resealed will be applicable at the time of settlement of the loan.

Same Quantities

The quantity of wheat and grain sorghum eligible for resealed on an

New Fabrics In Spotlight For H-D Club Women

Women who sew are learning that they not only need to know the amount of material required but should also ask for information concerning the care of synthetic fabrics used for many dress materials and other household articles.

Clubs reporting recent meetings for demonstrations on "New Fabrics" are:

Dawn
Argen H. Draper told members of the Dawn Home Demonstration Club who met with Mrs. J. M. Carathers on March 4, that each fabric is manufactured for a primary purpose but can also be used in many other ways. Therefore she emphasized that it is important that those using the materials understand the fiber blends for proper care of the fabric.

Following the program the Council report was given by Mrs. Zed Stewart. Members also voted in favor of the Outstanding Club Woman of the Year and favored a nominee being selected from each club.

Mrs. Cecil Payne was welcomed as a new member. Others attending were: Mesdames Zed Stewart, O. R. Galley, H. S. Fuller, L. W. Tooley, J. M. Carathers, Muriel Little, Marion Russell, Tom Draper, Miss Lulu Botsford and the hostess.

The next meeting will be on March 25 at the home of Mrs. Zed Stewart.

Bippus
Mrs. G. V. Hall was hostess to the Bippus H. D. Club on Mar. 9.

Mrs. C. F. Hornfield and Christine Fortenberry gave the program on "Homestead Improvement."

Mrs. L. C. Rudd was a visitor. Members present were: Mrs. J. G. Fortenberry, Mrs. C. F. Hornfield, Mrs. N. E. Tyler, Christine Fortenberry and the hostess.

Messenger
Distinguishing the differences in fabrics was the discussion by Argen H. Draper, CHDA, when members of the Messenger H. D. Club met with Mrs. Elmer Northcutt on March 11.

Mrs. Ernest Brown gave the council report. Mrs. Draper gave a report on the County Federation meeting.

The club voted that the Woman of the Year be selected by secret committee.

Members also voted to donate to the Red Cross.

Mrs. H. W. Campbell won the recreation prize and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt received the floating prize.

Members present were: Mesdames J. E. Rouse, J. T. Guinn, S. N. Thweatt, N. A. Brown, John McCullar, Johnny Northcutt, Ernest Brown, W. D. Howard, H. W. Campbell, Mrs. Draper and the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. John McCullar on March 25. The program will be on "Annuals."

Cultural
Mrs. C. S. Barclay was hostess for the Cultural H. D. Club on Mar. 8. The program was given by Le-gen Draper, THDA.

"Know about the fabrics you buy that you may prolong their life and safeguard their beauty," Mrs. Draper told the women. She also pointed out that one should consider thoroughly the particular wear and use that will be expected of each fabric or item bought and the selection made accordingly. The requirements will vary with the use and an understanding of what the fabric is made of is a guide in making selections of textile merchandise. One of the advantages of synthetic fibers is the ease with which it may be cleaned.

Copper Crafts Continue To Hold Wide Interest

Special interest classes in copper craft, taught by Mrs. Earl DeHart, have shown the popularity of copper foil for making pictures and planter boxes for the home.

The first of these classes was held in the district courtroom on March 7 and other local women, as well as Home Demonstration Club members interested in copper work, spent the day working on the project.

Procedure Changed
Procedure for the craft school has been changed this year in an effort to give more women an opportunity to participate in craft work.

Formerly craft leaders from each club have been instructed by a member sent to Lubbock to take special instruction, but this year club women felt that since special emphasis was to be on copper and leather it would be better to have the courses taught by club members who had already had instruction in this type of work.

Aluminum Trays
On Mar. 21, all those who are interested in working on aluminum trays are asked to meet at the district court room for another all-day meeting. Mrs. DeHart will give the instruction for this type of metal work. Those who do not have aluminum are requested to come anyway.

On April 4, all those interested in leather work will again meet in the same location for a day in leather tooling. Roberta Campbell is to be in charge of this meeting. Mrs. V. E. Dodson has already given suggestions in working out designs and will work with the leaders at both meetings.

HD Chatter

by Argen Draper

The craft program is working out well. Mrs. Earl DeHart is doing a good job and is spending a lot of time for us. Some of the women met again March 14th to finish their pictures. They met with Mrs. Mary King and Mrs. DeHart reported that the pictures were pretty. On March 21 we will have an all day meeting to make the aluminum trays. Some of you have aluminum from a long time back. In fact we hate to think about how long we've had the metal and haven't finished the project but let's get all these trays done now. If you have the metal and other supplies we bought then bring them on Monday or if you need metal come on to the meeting.

There are some metal pieces in the office that are for sale. However, the pretty mirrored aluminum has come back on the market and if you want to get that it sure will make a pretty tray. The new shipment of metal is higher. Call Mrs. DeHart if you need information about the metal craft.

Have the design for the tray in mind when you come to the meeting or have your design made. Also, bring small paint brushes. Soft brushes like water color brushes or ceramic brushes will be the kind you need.

April 4, we will have the leather craft training. You should have your materials to work with including tools and leather.

The 4-1 girls have the bulbs ready for sale and you can buy them from any of the clubs or leaders and some of the other home demonstration club members will have them. This is the kind of project we like to see a club have. You will get your money's worth from the sack of bulbs—they give you a free bulb, too.

Virgil Hennen has pruned the elm trees that border their place on the east. This is a good demonstration on pruning and if you have not pruned your trees and need a suggestion on how to do it properly go by and see the way these are pruned.

There are still some Planting Guides available from the members of the Hereford Garden Club. Mrs. A. L. Manjeor has some copies of these and will be glad to sell them to you. Don't miss getting yourself a copy.

Our bulletin on sub-irrigation is not as yet off of the press but I will be pleased to take up the subject by correspondence. The field where sub-irrigation has developed most extensively is in the Florida track districts. A study of the Florida district brings out these points:

There must be present a substratum of impervious material to form a bottom which will hold the irrigation water up against the surface soil.

That open tile joints cannot be used with deep rooting crops.

The expert went on to say that he might come to Hereford later on concerning the possibilities of irrigation.

The ladies of the Mother's Club had another tree planting yesterday afternoon. The ladies have laid out a park which when completed will be a real beauty spot. ## Fast Matches Keep Referee Jumping In Lions Club Wrestling Saturday

By Stanley Phillip
A crowd of more than 350 attending the Lions Club sponsored wrestling matches Saturday night and really received 'full value' for their money. Three fast, rough bouts kept the excited fans on the edge of their seats most of the evening, while Herb Parks tangled with Bobby Wallace, Bob Cummings took on All Bey, and the Parks brothers, Herb and Bill, wrestled Wallace and Ray Shire. Scotty McFarland had the job of keeping things orderly and above board.

FIRST MATCH
In the fifteen minute opening bout, long-haired Bobby Wallace of Evanston, Ill., met Herb Parks of Ontario, Canada. As usual, Wallace relied on the rough stuff to come out on top and kept Herb in trouble for the first few minutes of the match. Stepping on the bottom rope for added power, Herb finally managed to floor Wallace with a hard uppercut, and that was the beginning of the end. Coming off the ropes with kicks and blocks he kept Wallace dazed and after a particularly vicious drop kick Parks pinned Wallace with a body jackknife in six minutes for the fall and the match.

SECOND EVENT
Second event of the evening saw the local favorite, Bob Cummings pitted against All Bey, a five-by-five grappler from Istanbul, Turkey. Before the fall was a minute along, it had developed into a rough and tough affair, with Bey doing a lot of hair pulling and clawing and Cummings retaliating with hard fists to the head. Unsuccessfully, Cummings tried to apply his knee-action leg binder, but Bey always managed to get a handful of hair and pull him off.

MAIN EVENT
Main event of the night's card was a tag team match between Professor Roy Shire and Bobby Wallace of Evanston, Ill., and the Bob was finally caught with a series of judo chops and fists to the throat and went down to be pinned with a body press in 26 minutes with the Turk taking the first fall.

Second fall of the match went much faster than the first with All Bey trying to work on Cummings' throat again, but being slowed up with hard rights to the head. After a few minutes Cummings was able to slam Bey into the southeast turnbuckle and before the groggy Turk could recover, he was upended and made the victim of the knee-action leg binder. This gave the second fall to Cummings in five minutes.

Third fall was a fast go-around with both wrestlers 'shooting the works,' but time ran out and ref McFarland called it a draw. At the end of the match All Bey insisted on shaking hands and as soon as contact was made, slammed a judo chop into Bob's neck. Cummings came back with a few hard lefts and rights and ended up chasing All Bey out of the ring, much to the delight of the fans.

Mr. and Mrs. Liston Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Urlin Streu drove to Boys Ranch Sunday and on to Channing, Stratford, Dalhart and Dumas. The Streus' collect pictures of county court houses in Texas as they have visited and they added several pictures to their collection during the afternoon and returned by way of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Urlin Streu were in Clovis Friday night. They visited in the home of Urlin's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Seago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Lundry went to Roswell Sunday to visit with his uncle, J. D. Lundry.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Edwards and daughter Jan of Wichita Falls visited over the week-end with her mother, Ettie Mathis.

Parke brothers Herb and Bill of Ontario, Canada. The strutting, swaggering team of Shire and Wallace immediately dipped into their bag of alleged tricks and started giving the Parks boys trouble. Both teams were dishing out nearly equal amounts of punishment when Shire began using a bandage on his arm to work on the eyes of his opponents. After sending Bill out of the ring due to eye strain, Shire went to work on Herb, using the same bandage and getting the same results. Growing tired of trying to remove Herb's eyeballs by scraping them out, Shire started slamming him into the turnbuckle, where shaggy-headed Bobby would helpfully kneel him in the back. After a few of these fast trips and sudden stops, Herb was bounced on the floor and pinned with a body press going the first fall to Shire and Wallace in 15 minutes.

During the rest period between falls, the Parks boys protested to the ref about the blinding tactic used by their foes, and Shire forced Shire to remove the bandage before the second stanza. Second fall of the main event probably set a record for briefness. Shire entered the ring to start the fall and from then on never knew what hit him. Bill Parks grabbed him, dragged him to the corner, and both brothers went to work with a vengeance. Peating Shire to the mat the Parks duo took turns hooking his leg on the ropes and then bombshelling on it. When Herb figured the leg was soft enough, he started applying pressure when a combination inside step-over toe hold and leg binder which had the professor yelling uncle in a hurry. This gave the second fall to the Parks team in 90 seconds.

Third fall developed into a brutal, bloody brawl, with all four wrestlers participating while the ref trotted from corner to corner trying to decide what to do and who to do it to. Shire and Wallace began taking turns with the bandage trying to blind their opponents and usually succeeding. When Bill was put out of commission, they went to work on Herb and proceeded to scrape most of the skin off his brow and nose. With Herb blinded and bloody boy, McFarland finally put a stop to the slaughter by disqualifying the Demon Duo after nine minutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Urlin Streu were in Clovis Friday night. They visited in the home of Urlin's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Seago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Lundry went to Roswell Sunday to visit with his uncle, J. D. Lundry.

Call It Rabbit Or Rarebit

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor

WHEN YOU SERVE smooth and savory cheese sauce over toast or crackers, do you call the dish "Welsh rarebit" or "Welsh rabbit"?

A crusade has been going on for some time to reinstate the use of the word "rabbit" for this unctuous offering. Heimit Ripberger began it when he noted in his utterly delightful little book "Cheese Cookery" (George W. Stewart) that the term "Welsh rabbit" was given in the Oxford Dictionary at the beginning of the 18th century; it was not until some 73 years later that the Oxford dictionary-makers acknowledged the term "Welsh rarebit."

When I told Mr. Ripberger recently that I was disinclined to go back to the early English terminology, he reminded me that our own Webster notes that Welsh rabbit is "sometimes erroneously called rarebit." That seems to settle that!

There are a couple of schools of thought about the ingredients that should go into Welsh rabbit. One school likes cheddar cheese, beer or ale, salt, cayenne and dry mustard. Another school prefers to thin the cheese with milk or cream and adds paprika and Worcestershire sauce to the salt, cayenne and mustard. Both schools sometimes add an egg.

The recipe we are going to give you is far from being a traditional Welsh rabbit, but it tastes good. This rabbit is really a white sauce with cheese added. It is enlivened not only with salt, cayenne and mustard, but also with onion, green pepper and tomato. Because the rabbit has obviously been influenced by the Southwest, you might like to serve it with hot corn sticks instead of the traditional toast.

"Cheese Cookery" quotes an old proverb: "Cheese is gold in the morning, silver at noon and lead at night." But despite this admonition, we think this Southwestern Cheese Rabbit makes a fine light supper dish. After it we like an assortment of fresh fruit so each person can help himself to his favorites—oranges, apples, pears or grapes. It's also pleasant to have a plate of cookies around for munching with second cups of tea or coffee.

No rabbit will be better than the sharp cheese that goes into it. We prefer the natural American cheddar to the processed variety—but that's up to the cook!

SOUTHWESTERN CHEESE RABBIT

Ingredients: 3 tablespoons butter, 1/4 cup chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons finely diced onion, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 2 cups well-drained canned tomatoes, 2 eggs, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, cayenne, 1/2 pound coarsely grated sharp American cheddar cheese (2 cups).

Method: Melt butter in top of double boiler; add green pepper and onion and cook over low heat until wilted. Stir in flour well. Add

Oatmeal Muffins For Lent

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
MUFFINS WILL HELP you to make a Lenten lunch or supper substantial. They're delicious with so many fish, egg and creamed dishes—as well as with salads—and usually give that feeling of satisfaction everyone enjoys after a meal.

For family service, we're enthusiastic about this oatmeal muffin recipe. First, the muffins are nutritious. Second, they have a welcome flavor that comes not only from the rolled oats but from the buttermilk and dark brown sugar that go into them.

Looking back through American cookbooks published during the early part of the century, we find only a few muffin recipes that contain rolled oats—and these all call for the cooked oatmeal. Nowadays most oatmeal muffin recipes, like this one, call for uncooked rolled oats.

Muffins should, of course, always be served hot. But if you want to make these oatmeal muffins ahead of time, or there are any left over, you can reheat them. One way is to put them on a rack in a shallow pan in a hot (425 degrees) oven for about 10 minutes.

One note about the mixing technique for these oatmeal muffins. Some cooks like to beat the egg that goes into a batch of muffins until it is ivory colored and about as thick as mayonnaise because this method they believe produces a fluffy texture. We tried beating the egg to full volume for one batch of these oatmeal muffins; for another batch we beat the egg only slightly. Both methods produced muffins much the same in texture.

Our family likes these oatmeal muffins best with lots of butter and a cream-style honey spread; but yours may prefer jam or jelly to the honey.

OATMEAL BUTTERMILK MUFFINS

Ingredients: 1 cup sifted flour, 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, ¼ teaspoon baking soda, ½ spoon salt, ¼ cup firmly packed dark brown sugar, ¼ cup butter or margarine, 1 cup uncooked quick rolled oats, 1 egg, ¾ cup buttermilk.

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt into a medium-sized mixing bowl. Stir in the brown sugar. Cut in the butter with a pastry blender until no particles of fat can be seen; rub the mixture between the palms of your hands, if you like to hasten this process. Stir in rolled oats thoroughly. Beat the egg enough to combine yolk and white—beat in buttermilk enough to combine. Add egg-buttermilk to rolled oats mixture; stir just until dry ingredients are moistened. Fill greased muffin cups each about ¾ full. Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven until cake tester inserted in the center of a muffin comes out clean. Remove muffins from cups at once and serve piping hot. If muffin pans whose cups each hold 1-3 cup are used, this recipe will make 8 or 9 muffins and will need to be baked about 18 minutes.

Time Goes To Head

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
Any belle of the junior high crowd will love a date-time beret, which keeps a reminder of the hour of her date right on top of her head.

It's simple to make at home, if you follow these suggestions from local sewing center experts. You can start with a ready-made beret or make your own from white felt. To make the beret, cut two circles of white felt of the size you prefer for your beret. In one circle cut a round hole in the middle slightly smaller than your headsize, so it will fit after hemming. You now have one doughnut-shaped piece of felt and one solid circle.

Mark off a clock face, with Roman numerals, on the solid circle of felt, tracing lightly with pencil. Then you can embroider them by machine, using either an automatic swing-needle machine or the automatic zigzag attachment. In either case, use the widest bight and a solid satin stitch. Work along the marked lines. If you use Roman numerals, you have no curves to worry about. Attach a button or a small stem of the white felt to the center of the beret. Then cut out clock hands of red felt and cut a slit in the ends to slip over the stem or button. Since the red felt clock hands use scarlet knitting worsted to beret cloth to the time of you are movable, you can set your date. Next stitch your two circles of felt together. Turn under and hem the inner headsize circle, checking carefully for fit. For final trim, date—and then you'll have no excuse for being late.

DATE-TIME BERET -- Easy to make at home.

HOW TO ENDORSE CHECKS....

Before depositing a check which is drawn to your order, or before transferring it to another person, you must sign it on the back at the extreme left end. If your name on the face of the check is misspelled or incomplete, write your first endorsement in the same incorrect way; then underneath it, write your regular, correct bank signature.

When you endorse a check without qualification, YOU MUST ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY: (1) that the check is genuine and valid, (2) that you have received value for it, and (3) that, if necessary, you will pay yourself. You may hold previous endorsers responsible for payment, just as any endorser after you may hold you responsible if the bank upon which the check is drawn should refuse to honor it.

NEVER cross out or change any written part of a check. If spoiled, write "Cancelled" across the face of the check and file it with your cancelled checks.

Aid For Home Dry Cleaning

Thrifty housewives and home gadgeteers will be delighted with a new, simple and inexpensive home dry cleaning machine.

Made of aluminum, it consists of a lightweight pail, a perforated drum which fits inside the pail, an agitator, which is a perforated disc with a high handle, and a rack on which to set the drum for draining.

The compact little outfit, weighing less than five pounds, will clean dresses, sweaters, blouses, children's clothing and any garment that is not too bulky to fit into it. It's great for cleaning men's ties, 25 or 30 at a time.

Here's how it's done: First pour a gallon of cleaning fluid into the pail. Then put the garment into the perforated drum and immerse it in the fluid. Next use the perforated agitator, moving it up and down so that the fluid flushes back and forth through the garment, continuing the motion for about two minutes, after which the garment should be clean.

Then raise the cleaning drum on the rack which fits the top of the pail and use the agitator to press out excess fluid. Roll the garment in a turkish towel to blot up remaining fluid, then hang on a hanger to dry.

The cleaning fluid may be reused.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Doak of Portales and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Green of Amarillo spent Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Olson.

At The Movies

The Robe

The opening of "The Robe" at the Star Theatre this coming Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, a Cinemascope production produced by Twentieth Century-Fox in Technicolor, ranks as the entertainment event of the year and may eclipse anything within memory.

Producer Frank Ross has at last fulfilled a 10-year dream to see the masterpiece created in all its historic pageantry on film and has been rewarded for his patience to have it unfold in the panoramic splendor that the new screen process affords. All the great scenes are preserved in the story of what happened to the cloak Christ wore to the Crucifixion and the effect it had on the lives of Marcellus (Richard Burton), the Roman soldier who won it gambling at the foot of the Cross, and those close to him. Jean Simmons co-stars as the lovely Diana. Others listed among the outstanding cast are Victor Mature, Michael Rennie.

Three Hours to Kill

Hollywood can pack a lot of split-second action and breathless suspense into a story covering a mere three hours in a frontier town as Columbia Pictures' "Three Hours to Kill," satisfactorily demonstrates at the Star Theatre.

"Three Hours to Kill" is the story of a gun-slinger falsely accused of murder, on the eve of his wedding, and nearly lynched for it by his own "best friends." The girl helps him to escape the lynch rope, but the incident burns deeper inside him than do the rope scars on his neck. A fugitive, wanted for murder, he still returns to the frontier town determined to find the true killer and to clear his name. Given until sundown—a mere three hours—to prove his case, the gun-slinger goes to work on his former friends. Dana Andrews plays the lead and Donna Reed co-stars.

Crest of the Wave

Gene Kelly, famed for his musical hits, now appears in a straight dramatic role in "Crest of the Wave," the exciting M-G-M picture starting Wednesday, at the Star.

Against a background of intrigue involving Anglo-American cooperation in the armed services, Kelly plays the role of Lieutenant Bragville of the United States Navy, who fights both the unknown and prejudice in the development of a new undersea explosive on which both American and British personnel have been working. The action filled portrayal follows his song-and-dance roles in "Brigadoon," "Singing in the Rain" and "An American in Paris."

Teaches in Clovis

Dale Doak, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Doak of Hereford is teaching science in the Clovis Junior High School. Mr. Doak graduated from Hereford High School in 1950 and took his BS from ENMU at Portales in 1954. Following his graduation from ENMU, Doak was in the service for three months until he was given a medical discharge.
