Around Town

Lots of talk was floating around town this week concerning the school election and the city election...

Don G. Clark will soon be a happy GI, because J. R. Baird who lives south of town found some horned toads in his back yard...

Hereford now has a taxi service. The City granted a franchise this week to Richard C. Ross, operator of Hotel Jim Hill...

Street lights have also been approved on Avenue B, between Grand and 13th Street.

It's a long way off but, just for the record, May 15 has been set as the final date for plow-up on excess wheat acreage...

A WIENER ROAST Tuesday night by the Scouts of Troop 50 was one of the highlights of annual Boy Scout week.

CAMPING OUT is always half the fun of any week for Boy Scouts and National Boy Scout week is no exception — even when it falls during the cold month of February. Shown above are the five boys that stayed from Troop 50 Tuesday night.

WITH POLICE PROTECTION!

Troop 50 Braves Freezing Weather, Tent Wreckers During 'Scout Week'

Camping out—under police protection—has been one of the highlights of Boy Scout week for the boys of Troop 50 of the Boy Scouts.

The tent was first torn down by vandals before the boys had an opportunity to occupy it. The next night someone dared to tear it down around their ears.

The boys have divided into teams of five for camping out and, during the week, each boy will have an opportunity to camp out two times.

Two Men Charged On 'DWI, Second'

Charges of DWI, Second Offense, were filed here this week by State Highway Patrolmen against Darrell Harkins on Monday, and against Billy J. Herrell on Tuesday.

Harkins was confined in Deaf Smith County Hospital for treatment, and Herrell was placed in the County Jail, pending bond.

City Starts On Easements Along 25-Mile Avenue Strip This Week

A drive was opened this week by City officials to secure right-of-way for the proposed expansion of Highway 51 through the city limits of Hereford.

The highway department, in addition, has indicated that they will redesign the intersection of U. S. 66 and Highway 51 from its present hazardous state into a modern intersection.

Plans Is Reviewed The City adopted a plan whereby the City will take 10 feet from the west side—and five feet from the east side of Highway 51 through the city limits.

City To Build Curb Compensation to property owners also varied under the plan. On the west side of Highway 51, the City will build all curb, gutter, sidewalks and driveway approaches for property owners.

sition when the plan was first advanced.

Starts This Spring Progress on the new road depends, first, upon how rapidly the City of Hereford provides right-of-way.

most city officials are of the opinion that the project will cost the City in the neighborhood of $34,000, running the total to well beyond the $100,000 mark.

"The highway department plans a road of which the community will be proud," Marshall Formby, commissioner, previously told the group.

New Addition To Extend City Limits Northward

Plans were outlined for a building program to include 48 city lots when City Officials Monday night reviewed preliminary application for opening of the Wayne Wallace subdivision, which extends north from Star Street.

Known as Block 45, the area extends east and west between Avenue K and Avenue J; it extends north and south between 14th Street and 15th Street.

The new area will come into the city under an ordinance passed in 1954, which requires the owner to pay 80 percent of the water and sewer installation costs against 20 percent of the cost borne by the City. The ordinance also provides for refunds when homes are completed in percentages of occupation.

Wayne Wallace, promoter of the new addition, also told the City Commission that he plans to pave Star Street on north through the addition at the present time.

The addition, when complete, can include 48 new homes, depending upon restrictions specified in the development. Wallace said that work will begin in the new addition as soon as possible.

Student Gain Of 159 Shown Here In School Census

Committees Are Listed For Jr. Livestock Show

Plans were nearing completion this week for the annual Junior Livestock Show, scheduled for Friday and Saturday, Feb. 18-19, according to W. L. Davis Jr., Rotary Club president, who predicted that it will outnumber the 1954 event both in number of entries and in attendance.

"One big improvement this year is that the avine division will be held right along with calves, lambs and chickens," he said.

Entries were already reported as coming in by Hugh Clearman, who said that reports indicate good showings from Oldham, Farmer and Castro counties, as well as from Deaf Smith. Clearman was especially enthusiastic over interest in the poultry division.

Hugh Beckout, Ed Hedrick, J. W. Witherspoon, and John Patton. Parade Committee B&PW Club in charge, assisted by Earl Phillips, R. G. Feeler, Otis Dickey, and Les Combs. Parade prizes will be 125 first place, $15 second place and $10 for third place. Entries should be submitted (Continued on Page 2)

One day while walking out across a pasture she heard a rattlesnake and looked down to see a huge one coiled and ready to strike. "But I wasn't there when he struck," she recalled laughingly.

'Stanton Jr. High' Is New School Name

Hereford school trustees, in one spontaneous action, Tuesday night officially selected "Stanton Junior High School" as the name of Hereford's recently organized junior high, located in the old high school building.

Selection of the name took only a matter of seconds following the reading of a letter from the school files. The letter was directed to the school board, and asked that the school be named in memory of H. V. Stanton, Junior High principal, who died here in February, 1954.

The school board reviewed school census findings, which indicate an increased enrollment her four living children, 18 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren, takes up much of Mrs. Galley's time.

Born in Polo, Ill., in 1865, Mrs. Galley moved when she was six weeks old to Traer, Iowa, where she was raised and married.

Up until 1908 when she and her husband, the late C. P. Galley moved to a farm near Dimmitt, they lived all over the state of Iowa.

In 1914 she moved to a farm near Dawn, where they lived until 1920 when she returned to Iowa to care for her mother, who lived to be 92.

Following her husband's death in 1934, Mrs. Galley returned to Hereford with her son, Lester, with whom she now makes her home.

Having always looked forward to being 90, Mrs. Galley was unable to pick out any one thing she was looking forward to now that she has arrived at her goal.

She has one little wish—that there were more girls in the Galley family. The boys are predomi-

Indelible Ink Stains
Most persons think that indelible ink stains cannot be removed, but most of them can if soaked in strong salt water and then washed with ammonia.

Cream Substitute
Two or three marshmallows to a cup of coffee or chocolate make a delicious substitute for cream.

The Hands
To soften and whiten the hands, mix one ounce of glycerine, three ounces of bay rum, 1/2 dram oil bergamot, and apply. Or rub well at night with olive oil and wear sleeping gloves.

Smooth Ironing
Smoothness and glossiness when ironing starched pieces can be attained by stirring the starch with a paraffin candle three or four times while boiling, and just before removing from the fire.

Mashed Potatoes
To make mashed potatoes more fluffy, add 1/2 teaspoonful of baking powder to the milk and butter before adding them to the potatoes.

Brass
To clean brass mix one gill of paraffin oil, 1/2 gill of naphtha and sufficient powdered tripoli to make a paste. Rub with this mixture, wipe off and polish with a dry soft cloth.

Colds
A good remedy for a cold on the chest is turpentine and camphor, to which add a few drops of eucalyptus oil. Shake thoroughly and apply to the chest, then place a warm cloth over the chest.

Chickens

The Bath

Try boiling for 3 hours, 2 table-spoons oat meal in 2 quarts of water, strain and cool; then add juice of 1 lemon and 1 tablespoon alcohol. After bathing in warm water, apply above lotion with cloth and allow it to dry into skin. The oatmeal softens the skin, lemon juice whitens it and alcohol removes greasy appearance.

TV Getting All Wet In Series On Dams

GRAND COULEE, Wash. — Out at the Grand Coulee Dam they are bringing in some strange pictures on a TV set. It's part of a scheme to give engineers a better idea of maintenance and construction needs of dams, bridges, piers and other under-water structures. Harold Maiken, veteran diver, rigged up the under-water set to show the engineers what he saw. Still pictures have been made before, but Maiken thinks his show was the first of its kind. He got out of bed after being hospitalized with the "bends" (a disability stemming from under water pressure; to make his first demonstration.

plained that still pictures and oral reports of the divers were not easy to interpret. "We just don't get the feel of it." Some experts also believe the camera can take pictures in places too small for the divers to enter and send them to the surface on a coaxial cable.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I bleach a white woolen garment that has turned yellow?
A. Sulphur is best for bleaching woolens. Place a sulphur candle in a pan of water in the bottom of a barrel across the mouth of which several stout cords have been stretched. The garment should be clean and wet. Hang over the cords light the candle, and cover the barrel tightly. This process should be done out of doors.
Q. How can I prevent a skin from forming on starch?
A. If the boiled starch is not to be used immediately, cover the dish closely. This will prevent a skin from forming over the top.
Q. How can I remove finger marks from a felt hat?
A. Try using a piece of very fine sandpaper and rub lightly with the nap of the goods until the mark disappears.
Q. How can I finish a seam securely when stitching on the sewing machine?
A. Instead of cutting the thread at the end of a finished seam, turn and stitch back again for about an inch. Then cut the thread and one will avoid the task of tying the ends.
Q. How should woolen garments be cleaned?
A. Before attempting to clean a woolen garment brush it thoroughly. Most of the dust and dirt will come out and then one can clean the spots and soil.
Q. How can I take proper care of a turtle?
A. Keep turtles in an aquarium in which there is plant life and sand. Place on dry land occasionally. For feeding, give them scraped meat, vegetables, berries or fruit.
Q. How can I save celery so that it can be used later for flavoring?
A. After washing and drying celery tops place them in the oven until thoroughly dried. Store the leaves in air-tight glasses and use them for flavoring. Some persons prefer them to celery seed.
Q. How can I keep silver-plated lids from turning green?
A. Coat the inside of the silver-plated lids of the mustard and horseradish pots with a thin layer of paraffin. It will prevent them from turning green.
Q. How can I make mirrors shine?
A. After the mirror has been washed with warm water and soapsuds, fold a newspaper into a pad and use this for polishing the surface.
Q. How can I get the best service out of a carpet sweeper?
A. It will give poor service if it is neglected. Empty it often and remove the tangles of lint and hair from the brush. Clean the bristles with a cloth dipped in kerosene. This will preserve the color of the carpets and keep down the dust.

MEAT REFRESHER
Stuff a square lamb shoulder roast with a bread-crumbs stuffing to which chopped mint leaves are added. Go slow on the mint, though! A tablespoon of the minced leaves will be plenty for a stuffing made from about eight slices of bread.

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago
After several months delay for the factory to fill the contract the Seagrave Combination Chemical Engine and Hose Cart arrived. J. W. McQueen, traveling salesman for the company was here Saturday to help the boys "work the thing." But the first test was made last Saturday, when the splendid wagon was paraded around the main streets pulled by a fine team belonging to Shirk and Stanek. In the afternoon a fire of boxes was started on a vacant lot at the corner of Fourth and Main. With the wagon in the lower part of town. The alarm was "turned in" and the run made. The outfit arrived "on time" but for some unknown cause the chemical apparatus failed to work. It was no fault of the machine. In the meantime the oil boxes were consumed. It was discovered that some one had failed to turn on the juice. With the presence of Mr. McQueen the digester that cabulates the sulphuric injector was put into operation and the excitement that followed showed that he had touched the button. Everyday the boys have been practicing, laying hose and testing their strength. The wagon is perhaps the finest in the Panhandle and puts Hereford in line with other cities.

Hereford and when the work of this year is all finished as outlined, Deaf Smith County will be in the front row on good roads.

25 Years Ago
Several wheat farmers have reported that the winds of the past few days have done considerable damage to wheat. The light snows and recent freezing weather left the soil in a pulverized state, which makes it very susceptible to the winds and unless something is done immediately to forestall blowing before the usual spring winds begin, wheat will suffer serious damage.
Two more planes were shipped in last week, making a fleet of four planes at Port Hereford, on South 25 Mile Avenue landing field. The last two planes received were brought here by Cox and Pinkert, local agents for the Eagle Rock Planes.

"Hereford is in need of a municipal air port," Mr. Cox says, "to accommodate the transients that occasionally land here, along with the local school that is being conducted here."

Walter Rogers Congressional News Letter

The Far East

On Feb. 2, 1955, I inserted in the Congressional Record an article authored by Dr. Diosadado M. Yap, editor and publisher of "Bataan Magazine." Dr. Yap has long been an outstanding foe of communism and a great champion of democracy. He covered the SEA-TO Conferences in Manila last September and then toured Southeast Asia for a period of approximately two months. He is a native of the Philippine Islands. He is a recognized and well-known authority of Far Eastern affairs. I have discussed this matter many times with Dr. Yap, personally, and have been deeply impressed with his profound understanding of the peoples in that section of the world. His recent article contains several paragraphs that I think would be of interest to you. He says:

"In talking with hundreds of people on my recent trip, I find that among the masses in the Far East, with the exception of the Philippines, the people know nothing of these vast sums (six billion dollars in economic and technical assistance since 1945) which have been contributed by this country to help them. The benefits have been used to attempt to build political power, to stabilize existing governments, or carry on a propaganda war among people who can neither read nor write and who do not have enough to eat. Let alone radios to hear American broadcasts against the evils of communism. In all my travels in about 27 countries, the only story I saw in any newspaper about America was a short paragraph in a paper in Pakistan concerning the divorce of Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio. By such standards are Americans judged in the Far East." Speaking of the thinking of these people, Dr. Yap says: "The attitude of the great majority of the people of southeast Asia is best illustrated by a conversation I had with a laborer in Singapore. 'The people just want peace,' he declared. 'We are tired, we do not want to fight anyone anymore. We just want a chance to make a better living.' " "Freedom to the common man in Asia means a small piece of land to call his own upon which he can raise enough to feed himself and his family and which will afford them shelter and give them the opportunity to clothe themselves."

And he quotes a Saigon taxi driver: "Yes, we have heard of America. They have given much money, but what is their purpose? They are in cahoots with the British and the French and will help these countries in their colonial policies, which means slavery for us."

In summing up, Dr. Yap says: "The minds of the people of Asia are yearning, not so much for knowledge of how bad communism is, as for assurance of how good democracy can be to their daily lives. Asia has been denied freedom for so long a time it has forgotten what freedom can mean in terms of a prosperous economy, progressive community life, and a richer meaning of human existence. These things cannot be brought home to the people of Asia merely through the propagation of the manual of arms or the usual vituperation against the Kremlin or Peiping governments."

I apologize for devoting most of the newsletter to this subject, but it is of number one importance at this time. We are truly engaged in a battle for the minds of man. We can win it, and we must.

Texas Wins Again

You have heard of George Washington being the father of this country. But, did you know that the Panhandle of Texas has some residents who are direct descendants of Colonel Joshua Fry, who was Washington's senior in command of Virginia forces in 1754? In other words, our Panhandle citizens' ancestor was the commander of the father of this country. Of course, some people will say this is a little far fetched, and it probably is, but I say it just takes a little figuring to prove that you can't beat Texas, and especially the Panhandle. I got this information from Tom and Vera Jones, of Canadian, who are visiting in the Capital and have been digging through the Archives. Tom is one of the descendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Fields of Amarillo visited Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McIver, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McIver and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagner.

Midgets Steal Show In Lions Club Wrestling

By Stanley Phillips

Any wrestling fan who stayed at home Saturday night missed one of the best shows ever seen at the Bull Barn. The curtain raiser featured Tony Ross of Chicago against Bob Cummings of Hereford. First main event was a fast, rough and often humorous match between Irish Jackie of Dublin at 95 pounds against Little Beaver of Montreal at 92 pounds. Final match of the night put Dory Funk of the Flying Mare Ranch at Umbarger, in the squared circle with badman Boris Kameroff of Rostov, Russia.

Bob Cummings and Tony Ross started the ball rolling Saturday night with a fast 20 minute or one fall match. Ross, a newcomer in this area, uses anything and everything to win. During the 20 minutes Cummings tried several times to apply his famous knee action leg hinder, but Ross always managed to grab a handful of hair and break it up. All through the match there was enough hair-pulling, choking and punching on the part of Ross to keep the fans excited and happy. When the final bell sounded, both boys were about even in the first swinging department and referee Scotty McFarland called the match a draw.

First Main Event

Highlight of the evening was wrestling in miniature when the midgets put on one of the best shows seen in this area; Little Beaver of Montreal, Canada took on the irritable Irishman from Dublin, Irish Jackie. Jackie, a shrewd and able wrestler, kept the ref busy with a lot of hairpulling and punching. After working Little Beaver over in the corner with his fists, and slamming him into the turnbuckles twice, Irish Jackie took the first fall in seven minutes with a reverse body jackknife.

Starting the second fall, Little Beaver sat down in the middle of the ring and Jackie being too cautious to go near him, gave McFarland a rough time wanting him to make Little Beaver get on his feet. Just about the time Irish Jackie decided to flatten Little Beaver with a swan dive, Beaver rolled out of the way and Jackie landed very hard on his stomach in the middle of the ring. After getting up and recovering, Jackie punched and kicked Beaver into a daze and then began coming off the ropes body blocking Beaver. Two of these blocks laid Beaver low, but on the third one, Beaver caught Jackie and upended him with a body slam and took the second fall in 13 minutes with a cross body press. Returning to his corner, Beaver entered into an argument with the referee, Scotty McFarland, and Scotty grabbed one of Beaver's moccasins and started to give him an old-fashioned padding. Beaver got away, took a running start, drop-kicked McFarland, and laid him low. McFarland came up raging and Little Beaver headed for the dressing rooms like a streak of "goosed lightning."

Irish Jackie started out fast in the third fall trying to sew the match up, but Little Beaver rode the storm out and finally put two monkey-flips on Jackie which threw him clear across the ring. Catching him in this dazed condition, Beaver grabbed him and spun him in a giant-spin, then took the fall with a body press in six minutes.

Second Main Event

In the third and final bout of the evening, Dory Funk of Umbarger took on Boris Kameroff of Rostov, Russia. In his second appearance here, Kameroff kept the fans unhappy by using every illegal action possible to subdue the favorite, Funk. Budnan Boris just about controlled the first fall and kept Dory in a daze by choking, punching, etc. After body blocking and dropping his knee into his Funk with the help of the ropes, throat a few times, Kameroff took the first fall in nine minutes with a "Hangman's Hold."

The second fall was the rough one of the evening with both boys disregarding the rules. Shortly after the bell, Kameroff threw Funk out of the ring, but Funk came back and started slinging Boris into the ropes and smashing him with forearms as he bounced off. Halfway through the fall Boris nearly got Funk with a crab hold, but Funk was able to squirm out of it. After that it turned into a contest to see which could give and take the hardest punch. Kameroff turned out to be one of the few men who can take Funk's best and remain on his feet. Soon after this Dory was able to get his old stand-by, the spinning toe hold, on Boris and that was the second fall in sixteen minutes. While the ref was holding up Funk's hand as winner, Red Boy Boris got up, and slugged Funk in the back of the neck. As punishment for this unsportsmanlike conduct, Funk bounced off the ropes, flattened Boris, and started spinning on his leg again. Somewhere in the mix-up, the bell was rung and everyone thought the third fall was underway but after Scotty McFarland got the boys untangled, he decided it was only the second fall. When the next period ended, Funk and the ref returned to the ring but Kameroff was unable to come back and Funk was awarded the fall and the match.

Littlefield Trounces Whitefaces 66 To 62

By Billy Paul Knox

In a knock-down-drag-out battle, the Hereford Whitefaces fell before the Littlefield Wildcats 66-62 last Saturday night at Littlefield. The game was close all the way, and play was extremely rough.

The Wildcats got off to a good start and took advantage of all the breaks that went their way. Hereford gained the lead in the fourth quarter and led by five points at one time, but Littlefield recovered to gain the margin of victory in the final minutes of the game.

Hereford scoring was probably better distributed than Littlefield's, although the Wildcats' scoring was pretty well balanced. Hereford has three men who passed the 10-point mark, while Littlefield also had three.

Play was very rough all through the game. Hereford had 16 fouls called against them and Littlefield was guilty of 12. Hereford made 14 free shots and the Wildcats sank 15. Many more fouls which were committed went uncalled.

Littlefield got off to a good start, taking an early lead. Led by John Clayton as they were throughout the contest, they outscored the Whitefaces 18-16 in the first period to make the score 18-16 at the end of the stanza.

Play was very close in the second period. Hereford gaining only one point on Littlefield. The Whitefaces scored 16 to Littlefield's 15 to make the score at intermission 33-32 with the Wildcats on the long end.

Hereford put up a mild rally in the third quarter and finally captured the lead. Paced by Homer Hershey and Francis Boyd the Whitefaces stampeded to a 52-49 lead at the end of the third quarter. The fourth quarter was all Littlefield's, as they rallied to overcome the lead the Herd has built up. Led by John Clayton and Keith Davis, they scored 17 points while Hereford was scoring 10 to bring the final score to 66-62.

Leading scorer for Hereford was Homer Hershey. Hershey tallied 17 points, while John Clayton, leading Littlefield scorer scored 29. Francis Boyd scored 16 for Hereford to run his season total to 504.

Top Notchers To Appear In Lions Matches Saturday

A tag team match involving three nationalities highlights the weekly professional wrestling card at the Hereford arena, otherwise known as The Bull Barn, Saturday night.

Angelo Poffo, a tall, dark and somewhat handsome Italian who resides now in Chicago, teams up with a Russian, Boris Kameroff, to match wits and strength against a couple of home-grown products, Bob Clay of Tulsa, Okla., and Dory Funk from Umbarger.

No title is at stake, although all the men involved have shared tag team championships, and hope to win some more. Kameroff, for instance, is the youngest of three wrestling brothers, and with the second youngest brother, Ivan, he won a portion of the Northwest tag title. Poffo, his partner Saturday night, is a former champion of the midwest sector. Bob Clay, originally from Muskogee, Okla., holds the Oklahoma State championship, and is close to gaining a foothold on the Southwest States title. He almost had it in the sack last week when he fought Bob Geigel to a stand-off. Bob Clay is considered one of the most "tentative" of belt holders. He is fast and specific, using a rocking cradle hold to win many falls. He is a student of the outstanding Leroy McGuirk of Tulsa, who formerly held the title and who was forced to withdraw from wrestling because an automobile accident deprived him of his vision; McGuirk, blind but capable, has taken many young wrestlers into his wing and has coached them to better things. Bob Clay is one of them, and Clay is apparently forecast to become one of the better wrestlers.

Most everybody knows Dory Funk and his leg-breaking leglock. It's up to the other wrestlers to evade the cruel hold, but few of them can escape it. Funk deserted the championship last year, after winning six times. He and Poffo should produce an exciting match; so will Clay and Kameroff.

Your Income Tax

By FRANK O'BRIEN

Your exemptions are the biggest single tax chopping device provided by the law. The new income tax law makes it possible to claim exemptions in several circumstances formerly not allowed.

Every exemption you have set aside (exempts) $600 of your income, making it tax free.

Since the amount for each exemption is so large, the rules about who may and who may not be claimed as an exemption are precise and rigid. But you are fully entitled to all the exemptions due you under the law. This article is aimed at telling you exactly what exemptions you may claim.

There are three types of exemptions:

1. For you, and, if you file a joint return, your wife or husband.
2. For your children.
3. For others.

The new 1954 tax code liberalized the rules under which children and others may be claimed as exemptions.

But let's take up the rules for the three types of exemptions in the order listed above, because that is the order in which they occur on your tax form.

1. You and your spouse: The taxpayer always gets at least one exemption. If you were 65 or over during 1954, you get two exemptions for yourself. If you were 65 or over, and blind, you get three exemptions. You get exactly the same exemptions for your wife, or husband, if you are filing jointly. Thus, a couple filing a joint return could get a maximum of six exemptions for themselves.

Blindness, for the purpose of tax-paying is:—Total blindness, meaning no sight at all, unable to tell light from darkness. A statement claiming total blindness must be attached to the return of the sightless.

—Partial blindness sufficient for an additional exemption. This is defined as no more than 20-200 vision in the best eye with correcting lenses, or width of vision not exceeding 20 degrees. Returns claiming extra exemptions for blindness when some sight exists must be accompanied by a statement by a qualified physician or a registered optometrist stating that the vision does not exceed these limits.

2. Children: You get one exemption for each of your children, within certain limits. Children include step children and legally adopted children.

One of the new tax law provisions allows you for the first time to claim foster children. The provision, aimed especially at foster children but written to include others also, is:

You may claim as an exemption anyone, even if not related to you, whose home was your home and anyone, even if not related to you, whose home was your home and who was a member of your household, and who received less than $600 income in 1954 and got over half support from you.

Previously, the law limited you to claiming children as an exemption only if the child (whatever his age) had income during the tax year of less than $600 and received half his support from you.

The new law liberalized this provision. Now (with restrictions to follow) you may:

Claim an exemption for your child regardless of how much the child earns if he is under 19 years of age.

You may also claim your child as an exemption, even if he earns more than $600 and is 19 years old or over, if the child is a student.

The restrictions: You may claim the exemption only if the child gets over half his support from you. (But you need not count the value of a scholarship as part of the child's support.)

The second restriction applies to married children. They may not be claimed as exemptions when they are party to a joint return.

Also, the child must be a citizen or resident of the United States, or a resident of Canada, Mexico, the Republic of Panama, or the Canal Zone. In the case of children who are residents of the Philippines and were born to servicemen or adopted by servicemen, you will need expert personal advice.

A student is defined in the tax law as a full time pupil, for at least five months of the tax year, at a regular educational institution or a person who is engaged in on-farm training, in a program of a state or a political subdivision of a state, such as a county.

3. Others:

On page 5 of the instructions booklet that came with your tax forms, you will find a list of persons, other than you, your wife or husband and your children, who may be claimed as an exemption.

The list is complete, when taken together with the new provision noted just below it (the one aimed at foster children) allowing you to claim some persons, even if not related to you, who live in your home as a member of your household (paid servants are not members of a household).

All must meet the usual dependency tests (not earn over $600, get more than half support from you, not file a joint return, and must be a citizen or resident of the United States, or a resident of Canada, Mexico, Panama or the Canal Zone), with the following exception, which is the final new exemptions provision.

This is for a person who is supported by more than one taxpayer but where no one taxpayer contributes more than half the support.

In this case (for instance, an aged mother supported by three or four children), the new tax law provides that one of the taxpayers may claim the person supported as an exemption, if:

1. The group contributes over half the dependent's total support.
2. Each of the group could claim the person as an exemption if he contributed over half the support.
3. The person claiming the exemption contributed over 10 percent of the dependent's support.

"Jivaro"

"Jivaro," the brand new Paramount Technicolor film which opens Friday and Saturday at the Star Theatre, takes you right smack into the middle of the treacherous Amazon jungle. Accompanied by lovely Rhonda Fleming and handsomely rugged Fernando Lamas and their co-star, newcomer Brian Keith, the audience is provided with more action and brilliant, wild scenery.

"Jivaro," although it does contain a wonderful love tale, is also a throbbing adventure story brim full of excitement. Set against a background of the treacherous Amazon jungle, it concerns a group of white men fighting for survival against head-hunting Jivaro Indians.

4. Each other person in the group files a statement saying he will not claim the exemption. For information on how and where to file such statements, see your nearest internal revenue service representative.

(Next: Income you do not have to declare.)

"Three Coins In The Fountain"

When "Three Coins in the Fountain" rolls on the screen of the Star Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in full Cinemascope splendor it will be something special to behold. It radiates with old world charm in which the six stars catch the mood of expatriates who are torn between their love for Rome and their love for home. Clifton Webb, Dorothy McGuire, Jean Peters, Louis Jourdan, Maggie McNamara and Rossano Brazzi essay the principal roles in this triple love story.

The story deals with the romantic yearnings of three American secretaries working in Rome. How the girls, each in her own way, manage their romances gives the story its poignancy.

"Boy From Oklahoma"

Will Rogers Jr., and Nancy Olson co-star in the WarnerColor production, "The Boy From Oklahoma," which opens Sunday at the Star Theatre.

The son of America's greatest humorist and a star in his own right, Rogers portrays the sheriff of Bluerock County in the Sooner state. Gun-shy and girl-shy he reportedly manages in his own whimsical and nonchalant way not only to round up a gang of killers but to win the hand of the prettiest gal in town, played by Miss Olson. Warner Bros., "The Boy From Oklahoma" was directed by Michael Curtiz. Produced by David Weisbart for

MOLDING MINDS

Through good books the sages of the ages may speak to the children of this age. Good books are antidotes for juvenile delinquency and for adult delinquency. Good books increase our joys, soften our sorrows, ennoble our friendships, enlarge our ideals, refine our ambitions, guide our energies, feed our souls. They are companions in loneliness, friends in trouble, tools for work and guides in wayfaring. The church and the church library offer you books that will keep your boys from being crooks. Books help mold minds.

Highlights and Sidelight FROM 40th State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
 Texas Press Association
 AUSTIN, Tex.—Austin is full of "land-grab" investigations. Attorney General John Ben Shepperd blew the lid off veterans' land sales to start the movement and the lid is still sailing. Both houses of the legislature have their own investigating committees. Also peering into the "land block sale" scandals are grand juries in Travis and DeWitt counties. Voting to conduct a full investigation, the House set up a committee composed of Representatives Joe Burkett, Wade F. Spillman, Virginia Duff, Reagan R. Huffman and Jesse Osborn. Burkett is chairman; Spillman vice-chairman. Recalled by the Senate investigating committee, headed by Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman, was Attorney General Shepperd, for testimony under oath. This at the request of Sen. Jimmy Phillips.

Because of Phillips' line of questioning, Rep. Leroy Saul charged that the senator was preparing to run for attorney general and using the investigation for personal publicity.

Shepperd testified that minutes of the Veterans' Land Board showing him present and voting for individual applications were erroneous. He said that the board didn't pass on the applications. . . that it was an administrative matter turned over to the chairman—former Land Commissioner Bascom Giles.

The same practice is being followed under the new chairman, J. Earl Rudder, Shepperd said.

Shepperd also said he didn't use his influence as a board member to get favors for any applicants. He further stated that a 1953 letter from G. Curtis Jackson Jr., Zavala County attorney, complaining of block land deals by C. O. Hagan, was not seen by him until after the investigation started.

Shepperd Files Suits
 This testimony came as Shepperd filed the first two of a prospective long list of suits to forfeit block land deals and recover the money paid land operators.

G. Curtis Jackson Jr., was a defendant named in one of the suits. Shepperd testified that Jackson was identified in one of the land deals.

Shepperd's first two suits were against L. V. Ruffin and B. R. Sheffield, both of Brady, and J.

Paul Little, G. Curtis Jackson Jr. and H. R. Stallings, of Crystal City. The Brady group was sued for $336,217; the latter for $150,000.

Sheffield has been identified as a former business associate of Bascom Giles, who quit as land commissioner and veterans' land board chairman on Jan. 1. Giles refused to testify before the Senate Committee on his business relations with Sheffield and other land operators.

Rep. Dolph Briscoe Jr., author of the House investigation measure, also introduced a bill providing 10-year prison terms and $10,000 fines on veterans, or false or forged documents in land deals.

Insurance Committee Action
 Corrective insurance bills have run into a slow-down.

Four were heard by a House Committee including one to regulate insurance company securities. All were sent to a sub-committee for two weeks.

In the Senate the insurance committee heard two bills. One would fix a $375,000 minimum capital and surplus for new legal reserve life companies, all in cash. One requires examinations of legal reserve life agents. Both were attacked as monopolistic—for the big companies and were sent to sub-committees.

Legislative committees moved slowly on a mass of other bills awaiting their action.

Several labor bills were heard. One by Sen. George Partridge, dealing with "the Port Arthur situation," won favorable action. It would permit picketing only by employees representing a majority of the workers of a struck firm.

Another bill by Partridge would prevent pickets from interfering with common carrier service to a struck plant, and would fine or jail common carrier employees for refusing to cross a picket line.

Water Committees Busy
 Two committees studied water

Beauty At Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. My complexion seems very pale and colorless. What can I do?

A. Wonderfully stimulating is a honey mask. Put some honey in a thin film over face and throat, leave on 15 minutes, then remove with a damp cloth.

Q. Is there some way, while shampooing, to encourage more gloss in my hair?

A. Try adding the beaten white of an egg to your regular shampoo.

Q. How do you recommend applying eyeshadow?

A. Two light coats are better than one, as any heavy application might gum up, streak or spread, and completely ruin that transparent look you want to achieve.

Q. What is the best way to remove old makeup?

A. Usually with cold cream. Apply first coat of cream lightly, being careful not to rub it into the skin. Remove with tissue so that makeup comes off and is not pressed into the skin. Then apply a second coat and let stay a few seconds before removing in same gentle manner. Then wash face with complexion soap and warm water, rinse skin well. Cold water is a good nighttime astringent, unless you have an oily skin.

Q. What is a good, simple, easy abdomen-reducing exercise?

A. Sit on floor, legs outstretched before you, and bend forward.

"Son, the money I'll save with this G-E motor will help send you to school!"

"You see, son, our General Electric motor practically takes care of itself. It requires so little attention that I can spend more time on important jobs that will add to my income. And you know that savings for me means better things for you!"
 "And it doesn't cost much to maintain this motor because it's made of cast-iron and built to last a generation or more. Vital parts won't rust outside or inside the motor because it is so well protected from dust, dirt, and water. It has an improved bearing lubrication system, too, that keeps the motor in top running condition even after hours of rugged duty."
 "Now look at that G-E control. It was made to operate outdoors—in any kind of weather. I don't have to worry about our motor burning out because the control was built to protect it against overloads and short circuits."

GLAZED CORN MUFFINS

Ingredients: 1 cup sifted flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 cup enriched yellow cornmeal, 1 egg, 1 cup milk, 1/4 cup shortening (soft), 1 tablespoon honey, 1 tablespoon butter.

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt, sugar and cornmeal into a medium-sized mixing bowl. Add egg, milk and soft shortening. Beat with rotary beater until smooth—about 1 minute.

Do not overbeat. Fill 12 one-third cup size muffin cups each two-thirds full. Bake in hot (425 degrees) oven until cake tester inserted in center of a muffin comes out clear—about 15 minutes. A few minutes before muffins finish baking, remove from oven and brush tops with blended honey and butter. Return to oven to finish baking. Serve hot.
