Junior Livestock Show Plans Are Now Complete

Show Starts Here Friday

The Tenth Annual Four-County Junior Livestock and Poultry Show, which is sponsored by the Hereford Rotary Club, will be held here Friday and Saturday. Final plans for the annual event have been completed, a spokesman said Wednesday.

As in years past, the poultry division of the show is expected to attract the largest number of entries. County Agent Hugh Clearman said that the division is expected to create as much interest as it did last year when it was described as "bursting at the seams."

About 30 calves will be entered, with possibly a few more lambs and pigs, according to Clearman. One of the interesting highlights will feature around Jimmy Conkwright's bid for top honors again in the show. Conkwright has shown the Grand Champion for the past two years, and will be attempting an unprecedented third year sweep.

Reserve Champion awards last year were won by Richard Hunter of Dimmitt.

Last year's top winners in the Poultry Show were Jane Heard, top hen in production; Linda Cupell, champion pen of the show; Frank Day, champion male bird; and Sharon Bezner, champion bird of the show.

Entry lists had not been completed Saturday.

The annual livestock sale will be held Saturday afternoon following the awarding of prizes. Last year's auction totaled $11,955 with the Grand Champion selling for $7 1/2 cents per pound.

Concessions for the annual show will be under supervision of the Camp Fire organization.

Doug Wyatt of Amarillo will judge calves, lambs and pigs and Earl Curry of Amarillo will judge poultry.

IMPORTANT RESPONSIBILITY — Dr. Morris Wallace, of the Texas Tech Department of Education, was principle speaker at the Panhandle School Leaders Association meeting held here Saturday. Dr. Wallace spoke to the group on "The Responsibility of the School Administrator in the Improvement of Instruction." School leaders from throughout the Panhandle were present at the one-day affair. Poultry Division Is Important Part Of Junior Livestock Show

By ROBERTA CAMPBELL

When a poultry division was added to the annual Junior Livestock Show, sponsored by the Rotary Club, it would be more accurately termed a pet show.

What happens to either the chicken or the egg has changed considerably since old Biddy used to jump down from the feed trough and announce "mission accomplished" for those who were waiting at the house for an extra egg to bake a cake or a custard pie for dinner.

Not all this change has taken place in the barnyard as those handling the first 4-H Poultry Show back in 1949 will tell you. When a poultry division was added to the annual Junior Livestock Show, sponsored by the Rotary Club, it would be more accurately termed a pet show. Those entering caught up their best looking chickens, turkeys and rabbits, gave the poultry a foot washing and oiled up the wattles and combs and stuffed them into coupes borrowed from the tri-state fair in Amarillo.

The coupes were lined up for display under the auction ring on the west side before the arena was remodeled. Tom Draper and Tom Alderson left their jobs and

Around Town

It didn't break the drought, but Deaf Smith County did get some moisture Tuesday. Clay Angelo, official weatherman here, says the snow that fell wasn't enough to measure, but at least the county now has at least a "trace" of moisture.

Two fire calls this week caused only minor damage. The first blaze happened Tuesday night at Jack Renfro's Potato Shed. Workers were busy thawing out pipes at the well house when it caught fire. The second call was Wednesday morning. The fan belt on a car burned out at Pitman's Service Station.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lenderman attended the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Banquet Monday night. Lenderman, who is manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, said about 400 were present for the affair.

Earnest Langley was guest speaker at the Optimist Club Monday. Langley spoke on the United States Constitution.

Wrestling fans are in for a big night here Saturday. Instead of the usual main event, Lions have arranged for a double main event this week. Four of the top grapplers in the business will be seen. Dizzy Davis will take on Dory Funk in a best two out of three falls, one hour time limit match, and Cowboy Carlson will meet Danny Salvage in a similar match.

The Dawn Parents Council will sell hotdogs, pies and coffee Friday night beginning at 7 p.m. at the Dawn School to raise funds for playground equipment for the school.

Applications for new grower cotton allotments will be received at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office at the court house until Feb. 24. Deadline for all sugar beet growers to make applications is Jan. 27.

Drouth Aid For County Approved

Deaf Smith County has been approved for emergency drouth relief aid, it was announced this week.

Student Accident Policy Explained

Parents of Hereford school pupils will receive application forms for exclusive school time accident insurance policies for their children in the near future.

Under a plan approved by the School Board, group accident policies will be offered to all Hereford students for the remainder of the year for $1.

The plan, which will be strictly voluntary, insures a student "while attending school during the hours and on the days when school is in session, while traveling directly to or from school and while participating in school sponsored and supervised activities," according to a representative of the North American Accident Insurance Co.

According to the representative the policy will pay expenses up to $2500 per injury.

To have their children participate in the plan, parents must fill out the application form and return it with $1 to the student's home room teachers.

Parkview School Classroom Shortage Studied By Board

Hereford Rural High School trustees Tuesday night voted to attempt to find temporary classroom space for Negro students. The move came after Supt. Fred J. Cunningham told Board members that there are now 38 students enrolled at Parkview School.

Cunningham said two more students are expected to enroll at Parkview this week. "We possibly could get by with that amount of students," he said, "but something will have to be done if any more enroll."

The superintendent recommended that the Board make both immediate and long-range plans to "solve the problem." He suggested that a group of five Whites and five Negroes be named to study the situation and report to the Board.

Officials here received the following telegram from William L. McGill, state coordinator of Defense and Disaster Relief:

"Governor Shivers has asked me to tell you that the U. S. Department of Agriculture has approved his recommendation and that the USDA State Drouth Committee has asked that your county be designated as a drouth disaster area and eligible for emergency feed relief. FHA County Committees are authorized to accept applications. We hope this will work to the benefit of the farmers and stockmen in your area."

Faust Collier, ASC manager, said that as of Wednesday no plan had been received here. He said it would be at least Monday before the FHA office would be ready to accept applications.

Three Pleas Of Guilty Heard

Three pleas of guilty were heard Monday in County Court.

Floyd Baber entered a plea of guilty to charges of possession and sale of liquor in a dry area and was given a 10 day jail sentence and fined $100 and court costs.

Annual Meeting Of Llano Estacado Boy Scout Council Set For Monday

Annual meeting of the Llano Estacado Council of Boy Scouts of America, which includes Deaf Smith County, will be held Monday at the First Baptist Church in Amarillo.

Scouters will gather from the nine counties and two townships comprising the Council from the communities of Hereford, Dalhart, Stratford, Texline, Hartley, Dumas, Sunray, Skelly, Cactus, Masterson, Exell, Claude, Canyon, Happy, Friona, Vega, Adrian, Bushland and Amarillo.

Farris Oden is chairman of the program committee composed of Art Bralley, W. B. Lawrence, W. J. Hiatt of Amarillo, C. W. Forman of Cactus, and Jimmie Alfred of Hereford.

The business meeting will start at 4:30 in the afternoon with President S. G. Stockton presiding. Reports will be received from the District Chairmen: R. C. Buckles, Dallam - Hartley - Sherman District; W. H. Fowler, Moore County District; Dr. James P. Cornette, Randall District; Bert Boomer, Deaf Smith District; Art Bralley, Amarillo District; and Operating Committee Chairmen: Lon D. Edwards, Finance; Lewis P. Fields, Camping and Activities; Milton Morris, Leadership Training; Faris C. Oden, Organization and Ex-tenstion; Health and Safety, J. E. Spann; and Treasury, Dorsey B. Smith. Officers will be elected to serve for 1956 and the Nominating Committee is composed of Cleo G. Clayton Sr., chairman, Lon I. Edwards, C. A. Green of Amarillo, Lon C. McCrory of Dalhart, and Dr. James P. Cornette of Canyon. The business meeting will recess at 8 o'clock.

The Annual Scouter - Cubber-Ladies dinner will be held at 7 p.m. in the church dining room. A special program has been planned with special music by the four Hearsemen, World champion Barbershop Quartet singers. Special awards will be made for attendance from the various Districts of the Council.

Frank A. Watts, Sales Manager, Humble Oil and Refining Co., of Houston, Texas, will be the guest speaker. Mr. Watts has long been active in Scouting and is a past President of the Sam Houston Council.

This program will feature the launching of the new Four Year Program of the Boy Scouts of America with the theme, "Onward for God and My Country." Tickets are on sale and should be bought in advance from the Unit Committee Chairmen, District Chairmen and District Committee members.

Check Shows Engineer Was Conservative In Estimates

How close did the consulting business engineer who drew up the technical survey for Hereford come in his predictions for 1955? A check of figures that has been asked often, and a check this week gave the answer. Apparently the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce got their $3000 worth from Burt C. Blanton, Dallas mechanical engineer who did the work.

For instance, Blanton predicted that by Jan. 1, 1956, the City would have 2200 water customers. Actual figure on that date was 2205, putting the engineer within five of being on the nose. Citizens had found it hard to believe that Hereford could possibly grow as fast as the engineer said, it would, but figures reveal that if anything, Blanton was a little conservative.

He forecast that there would be 2200 natural gas users by Jan. 1 and there were actually 2273. His projected figure for postal receipts was $72,795 for 1955. Actual receipts were listed at $76,075. His forecast for building permits was $1,398,515 (which would in itself have been an all time record), while final tabulations on permits showed that they had actually soared to $2,028,297.

Throughout the entire survey, Blanton was high on only one prediction, and that was bank deposits. He would probably have been low on that forecast too, if it had not been for the drastic 25 percent cut in price supports on grain sorghum. He didn't figure on Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson's move there, either.

Three Hundred Attend Credit Union Meeting

Three hundred members attended the annual Meeting of the Hereford Federal Credit Union held on Tuesday night in the High School auditorium and voted a four percent dividend on savings and a four percent interest refund on interest paid in 1955.

Members also re-elected Robert L. Thompson president, Mrs. Dyaltha B. Benson as treasurer and manager and Charlie Noland as director. New Board members and officers include A. J. Schroeter, vice president; and O. L. Bybee.

Supervisory Committee elected is made up of Loyd Lovel, Mrs. Velma Hodges and Fred W. Baird, chairman.

H. E. Henslee, Russell Hunter and Mrs. Cecil Williams were named on the Credit Committee.

Paul H. Mullins, Dallas Credit Union leader, was guest speaker. Mullins stressed the financial stability of the Hereford Credit Union, pointing out strong reserves and past records of 29 years successful operation.

The speaker also pointed out the low cost of operation as compared to other credit unions, and said that comparing the local credit union with those all over the United States he found that members here average $100 more in savings and $350 more in loans.

Twenty-five door prizes of $5 each were awarded.

City Calls For Machinery Bids

Hereford City Commissioners Monday called for bids on some of the equipment which will be needed for water works improvement. The call for bids came after Saturday's successful $500,000 revenue bond issue.

Bids on three 2500 gallon-per-minute motor driven high service water pumps and two electrical control centers were requested. Commissioners said the machinery orders will be among the first needed.

Bids will be opened Feb. 6 at 10 a.m.

CLOSE PREDICTION — This table, which appears in the Hereford Industrial survey made by Burt C. Blanton, consulting industrial engineer, shows how close Blanton came on some of his predictions. The chart shows that the engineer predicted there would be 2200 water users by the end of 1955. Actual figures show there were 2205.

made the trip to Amarillo for the couples so the youngsters might have a means of showing their entries.

Interest in this new division of the show increased so fast that the Farm Bureau and the Rotary Club later bought coupes for the show and Bill Stanford and his FFA boys made the collapsible saw horses to hold the cages. By this time the show had been moved to the machinery shed in the "Bull Barn" as the county barn has been popularly known since it was built.

Ronald Kershner, Ann Dyer and Glenda Haffgen Zener were among the first winners with Ronald showing the Grand Champion winner. Since then showing chickens has become a family affair with the Kershners, with Mary Kay following Ronald as an exhibitor and then Drew, a younger boy, who is entering the Poultry division again this year.

Another family project that has grown out of the 4-H show is a broiler project carried on the year round and from one year to the other by the Inman girls who live northwest of town.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Inman and they are as enthusiastic about the poultry as the girls.

This year Doris Ruth and Freda, former members of the Workers 4-H Club, and Alice and Margaret, who are members of the Sadie Lee Quiver 4-H group, have raised and marketed 2700 fryers.

They sell their chickens either dressed or on foot and of course counting a profit comes only as a result of their experience in proper buying, brooding and feeding.

Janet Higgins, a member of the Daniel 4-H Club, also started a poultry project three years ago to help finance a piano which she is anxious to have.

Interest in the Poultry Show has increased each year and after the first year or so entries were limited to purebred due to space. Turkeys and rabbits were excluded to follow the trend in farm flocks in the area.

Farmers generally had accepted the results of the experiment station reports in farm magazines and other sources and had ended "the blissful existence of the hen who kicked down the hay stack and hid her nest out so the eggs were not found until she hatched out a brood of chickens to feed on the garden."

Those who kept poultry around the place were proud to display purebred flocks, all one breed and color, which looked more aristocratic than the multi-colored chickens that had run loose all their lives and had to be chased down when company came unexpectedly for dinner.

Hatcheries asked more money for purebred chickens so the farmer began to figure how to make them pay by getting more money out of the egg bucket and the frying size chickens.

Hen house doors which had first been shut only at night to keep out polecats and foxes, now remained shut and the hens stayed inside to live an elite existence by eating a balanced ration at a properly constructed feed trough and to drink fresh water from a fountain that was warmed during the winter.

The hen also layed her eggs in trap nests as the owner wanted to know which individuals were molting out on him so they could be stewed up for a Sunday dinner. Free boarders were no longer to be tolerated in this money making venture.

Oyster shell added toughness to the egg's exterior.

Somebody came up with the idea that lights in the laying house at night increased egg production and since baby chicks were now bought at the hatcheries and the roosters were no longer needed to wake up the egg layers for their day's work Old Chanciller lost his head to an axe. He furnished an extra meal for the farm family instead of being the one to receive the hand-out. For the most part his perch still remains empty in the chicken house.

Scientific feeding of broilers also became popular as an additional means of adding to the farm income back about the time that most 4-Hers today were born, and since fried chicken has become a year round part of the menu, instead of a spring time luxury, the broiler industry has continued to increase both commercially and on the farm.

The farmer not only found that the chewing qualities of the broiler or battery raised fryer were enhanced but that they were ready for market earlier, thus cutting down on feed costs. Antibiotics are one of the later sources of stepping up growth in broiler production.

Food freezers on the farm have also been instrumental in adding to the broiler industry in rural areas. With freezing facilities in the home the farmer can keep a supply of poultry on hand for the family table and freeze dressed fryers for market later if the price is unfavorable when they are ready to sell on the live market.

The 4-H girl of yesterday is learning how to process her poultry for the home freezer today as Home Demonstration Club woman.

Last year the trend in the local poultry show was changed again with the addition of a division in egg production. Hi-line and hybrid strains have stepped up the number of eggs and interest in caged layers in the county has increased to such an extent that the poultry raisers of tomorrow will likely be abandoning the modern chicken house for the more modern cages with their convenience and extra egg production on a money making basis.

The youngsters may now enter the purebred division or the egg production division, or both. Mrs. Tom Draper CHDA, in charge of the division of the show thinks this gives the 4-H members a better chance to win with their entries.

An egg ceased to be just an egg back when candling was first employed to determine if the egg was fit for market, but consumers are no longer satisfied with an egg that is still just this side of a state of incubation.

MRS. C. R. DAMRON, president of the Wyche Home Demonstration Club, was installed at a recent meeting at her home in the Wyche Community. Wyche was one of the First H.D. Clubs to be organized in the county and had been active in adding many of the improvements that have been made in rural homemaking since the first H.D. agent came to the county—more than 30 years ago. (Staff Photo)

The housewife who now buys the farmer's eggs at the super market demands that the crates be labeled so she can be sure her grocer isn't trying to make a "fast buck" by putting cheap cold storage eggs on the market when the price is high and the production on the farm slows up.

Large infertile eggs bring the best price with medium and small or pullet eggs scaled down for the more conservative buyer.

But the discriminating homemaker doesn't end her demand there. When she breaks an egg for frying or baking she has been schooled in how a product offered in an egg crate with a premium price and grade stamped on it is supposed to look and if the yolk doesn't stand up as it should or if the egg spreads out all over the pan the grocer had better hide under the counter.

She will see that she gets the quality she paid a premium for.

Four-H Club girls are learning in their baking programs that a good way to utilize small eggs and cracked ones is to freeze them or to use them in baking leaving the good ones to sell.

The exhibitors change from year to year as the 4-H Club members progress in their club work, but some of the people who have become as much a part of the show as the poultry and the coupes since its beginning in 1949 are Jack Wright, George Heard, J. C. Morrison and others including members of the Farm Bureau who help when the need arises. Wright assists the judge each year with entries to be judged and he, Mrs. Draper and Geo. Heard are the Rotary Club committee members this year.

Delmo Williams, Frank A. Gyles Jr., and Jack Roach, local poultry feed dealers, all encourage the 4-H Club girls and boys in their work and are ready to lend a hand when called on.

Mrs. Draper announced that the judge for this year's show will be Earl Curry, Amarillo, accredited judge in the poultry division.

The show, on Friday and Saturday of this week, promises to be the biggest one yet and although Biddy might prefer to be scratching grub in the barn lot, her pre-

Dallas Man Believes He's Nation's Number One Sunday School Attender

By TIM PARKER - Associated Press Staff

You can bet your bottom dollar George W. McDaniel Jr., will be in Sunday School next Sunday. He believes he's the nation's champion Sunday School attender. He's attended almost without fail for 44 years.

In the last 1924 Sundays he hasn't missed once. In the past 2288 Sundays he missed only during Navy service in World War I and one Sunday when an aunt died just before Sunday School.

"I went when I could while I was in the Navy," recalls McDaniel. "Even went to a Sunday School in France where I couldn't understand a word."

That he tried hard you can judge from this: A few years ago a Sunday found him in Dallas hospital after a hernia operation. His Sunday School class from Highland Park Presbyterian Church came to his hospital room and met there so that record would be intact.

McDaniel, 61 years old and a six-footer, was with the Abilene Reporter-News circulation department for 26 years ending in 1939. Then came 12 years with the Dallas Morning News during which he distributed nearly half a million copies of the Texas Almanac, that the News publishes.

McDaniel credits his mother, Mrs. George W. McDaniel Sr., of Abilene, for his perseverance in Sunday School attendance. She was Texas "Mother of the Year" in 1948 and has always been a faithful attender.

Last year was McDaniel's 44th in which he attended at least 50 of 52 Sundays, which meant he was entitled to a little gold and enamel pin with 44 bars. He already has 43 such pins. But he has to wait for his 44th because the company that makes them is having to do a special job on it. The firm does not get calls usually for 44-bar pins and didn't have one in stock.

McDaniel's 44th pin was the procurer of a purple ribbon for her owner means that the farm family of the future will not only be able to enjoy chicken on the table but can continue to eekle over the egg check as one source of farm income.

While traveling for the Dallas Morning News, McDaniel dropped in on Sunday Schools throughout the state. He remembers them all the way from Brownsville to El Paso, from Kermit to Wichita Falls, and from Houston to Corpus Christi.

Since becoming a real estate man six years ago, McDaniel has quit traveling and his Sunday School going is pretty much confined to his own church in Dallas.

"Mrs. McDaniel and I believe in the value of religion in our every-day life," says McDaniel. "I've always thought that parents should not send their children to Sunday School, they should go with them. Too many parents send their children but don't go themselves."

SAN MARCOS — The operator of a Greek restaurant in this little Hays County city calls himself the champion pepper pickler.

And it all began because a travelling salesman gave Bill Pappas a taste of jalapeno peppers brought from Mexico. Pappas, who still operates Pappas' Cafe here, vowed he could make better pickled peppers.

When the travelling salesman returned several months later, Pappas had several jars of Pappas-made jalapenos to prove his boast. The salesman agreed with Pappas, and the cafe has operated a sideline pickle business since that day in 1932.

Pappas — who was born Vlasios Papayianopoulos in Klimenty, Greece, in 1907 — now pickles 12 different varieties of pickled delicacies. During the summer tourist season he sometimes pickles 50 and 60 bushels of peppers at one time.

KNOX'S KNOTHINGS

San Francisco certainly deserves the rating, but whether or not Palo Duro can cope with San Francisco is doubtful.

If Palo Duro High School of Amarillo was the top ranked collegiate team in the nation, it would be different. They have already called San Francisco "dandy" which we consider correct. But we don't think that Palo Duro is worthy of the same billing as San Francisco.

So it's with renewed emphasis that we continue to believe that "the dandy Dons of Palo Duro" is being run into the ground as was "Palo Duro's unbeaten Dons" before they got drilled. We still wish that Palo Duro and Amarillo's Sandies would square away in an inter-city battle.

One thing that always helps to build good teams in any sport is backing. School officials and the fans must want a good team and do all they can to make one.

Such is the case at Phillips. We use this example because we can't think of a better one. Chesty Walker has received all kinds of backing from school officials, in appreciation for his state championship football team last year he now wheels around a new car.

We think that Hereford now has both backing from school officials and support from the fans. It has been argued in the past whether or not these things were present, but we now firmly believe that Hereford can boast these virtues.

The football outlook for next season may be somewhat brighter than a lot of people think and the basketball scene for next year will certainly be better, mainly because it can't be any dimmer.

So look for the Hereford Whitefaces to start making a name for themselves in athletics in years to come.

Hereford's Whitefaces dropped five games in four days at the rugged Odessa Tournament and to Plainview and Dimmitt while failing to rack up a victory.

The five losses brought to 18 the total of losses handed the Whitefaces this year. At the same time the Herd has victimized three opponents.

We still hold out, however that the Herd will be greatly improved at mid-term when Morrison and Weeks will join the club. They might not fare too badly at the Tucumcari Tournament with the addition of these two players.

At least we hope so.

Man Who Scorned Helium Is Now Seeking More Of It

By TIM PARKER

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—C. W. Seibel of Amarillo is 65 and has spent most of his life working with stuff he can't see, smell or feel, and right now there's a terrific shortage of it.

He is assistant director of helium activities for the U. S. Bureau of Mines. He is also eligible for retirement. But he says Civil Service employees aren't automatically retired until they're 70.

The bulk of the world's helium lies under the Texas Panhandle. Helium's best-known use is in lighter-than-air craft such as blimps. No other lighter-than-air gas available in suitable quantity is nonflammable.

Helium's other uses are growing rapidly. It's used in medicine, in welding, weather balloons, diving and as a leak detector.

Seibel has had charge of producing practically all the free world's supply of helium. But at first he gave it a guffaw of scorn. He was graduated in 1913 from the University of Kansas and was asked to write his Master's thesis on one aspect of helium.

Seibel didn't like the idea. Helium was then looked on as a freak of chemistry and Seibel saw no way to cash in on it. But he finally presented a paper on helium before the American Chemical Society in Kansas City in 1917.

"As I finished my paper, I remarked that I was sorry it had no practical application."

Dr. R. B. Moore rose in the audience, pulled a letter from his pocket, and asked if he might read it. The letter was from Sir William Ramsay of England and asked that America produce enough helium to fill dirigibles for North Sea scout duty.

Until about that time Seibel personally owned most of the world's recovered helium and had been selling it at $2,500 a cubic foot. At that rate it would cost 16 million dollars to float a dirigible like the Akron. Seibel stepped up to Dr. Moore, a personal friend, and remarked:

"You are as crazy as you can be."

"No," replied Dr. Moore. "You were young and do not have the vision."

A year and a half later 147,000 cubic feet of helium waited on the New Orleans docks for overseas shipment and Seibel was working hard to see that more was coming.

He's been at it ever since. With demand rising, the Shiprock, N. M. helium plant was reopened in 1952. A $6,000,000 project to triple the capacity of the Exell plant is about to begin. The mother plant at Amarillo is in full swing.

People who now talk about the price of maize used to gossip about a $25,000 bushel—or what a sale averaged. The Hereford business was BIG BUSINESS.

It is also possible that some of that should be made to re-establish this as a purebred cattle point especially in view of the decline in support prices on farm produce. This country is a natural for the breeding and growing of fine cattle. In addition, there is probably more "know-how" around Hereford than in any other area of the country and some of the best basic stock in the world.

Notice where the Amarillo paper is giving GIB Howard a real going over for spending more time on personal affairs than on county business. GIB is Potter County Attorney, and held the same post in Deaf Smith County before moving to Amarillo.

By Jimmie Gillentine

In the months of July and August it seems pretty stupid to even think about taking your vacation in January. Right now, however, the idea sounds fairly attractive. What's more, a lot of people are going just that. Mayor and Mrs. Sears are off down in South America, several couples have been in Florida and still others have visited the gulf coast area of Texas this winter.

Most of us who stayed at home have the sniffles. I never saw so much sinus and so many colds, all coming on top of a mild epidemic of stomach virus. Civilization has done a lot for the United States, but sometimes, I wonder if the Indians didn't have the best idea. They moved around with the weather, picking out the best spot for the most ideal conditions of their particular region. They probably got the idea from the migratory birds. Things are so complicated now that very few people ever achieve such freedom of movement.

Do you have any old magazines or newspapers? If so, call George Davis at 517. The Scouts are collecting them to help finance their summer camp trips, and they will be glad to call for them at your convenience.

Also, remember the Jr. Livestock show Friday and Saturday. The date has been moved up a month this year, but the entries are running high, especially on calves. No parade. No barbecue, but the Camp Fire girls will serve hot dogs, pop, etc., at the Bull Barn. The poultry division set an all-time record in 1955—and will probably be even bigger and better this year, according to advance reports.

Heart attacks are supposed to slow people down. I was reading about Senator Lyndon Johnson who, before his heart attack, could not possibly remain seated more than 30 seconds, due to nervous energy. Someone recently timed him to see how his self-discipline was working—and found that he remained seated 2½ minutes in his longest stretch.

Sen. Langer of N. Dakota is another bundle of nervous energy, they say. He chews on a cigar during the senate sessions, despite the "no smoking" edict. He gets around the regulation by leaving the telephone wrapping on his cigar.

Hereford can well be proud of Bill Dameron. We got a catalogue from the Panhandle Hereford Breeder's Association the other day and there was Bill's picture featured in the publication. It is the 49th anniversary, and Bill is the association's youngest president. They had a lot of nice things to say about Bill, but I thought the following paragraph to be the greatest tribute:

"The son of an illustrious father, whose early visions and ambitions played an important role in shaping world-wide confidence and admiration for the Hereford breed."

I know that the election of his son to the post would have been the very acme of achievement for Bill's late father, Elmer Dameron. He would have really been proud. Just as the entire community is proud of the recognition awarded to Bill. Seldom does the community produce a youngster who travels so far, so fast. Bill is a product of Hereford—all the way. A lot of our boys and girls get an education, then move away, but Bill chose to come back to Hereford to make his home. Since he was a little kid, Bill has always thought the Hereford cattle business was the best occupation—and that Hereford, Texas, was the best place to live.

Another thing, growing interest in Hereford cattle can mean a lot to the community from an economic standpoint. A few years ago, it was a major occupation in the area. I can remember when there were 43 herds of registered Hereford stock in this community. We had so many, in fact, that Amarillo used to call itself the "Hereford Capital of the World." People came here from all over the world to buy registered stock—and the proceeds provided a goodly portion of the community's income. They built the Bull Barn down on the highway to hold Hereford auction sales—and it was a focal point in community activity.

People who now talk about the price of maize used to gossip about a $25,000 bushel—or what a sale averaged. The Hereford business was BIG BUSINESS.

It is also possible that some of that should be made to re-establish this as a purebred cattle point especially in view of the decline in support prices on farm produce. This country is a natural for the breeding and growing of fine cattle. In addition, there is probably more "know-how" around Hereford than in any other area of the country and some of the best basic stock in the world.

Life Begins At Eighty, Kerrville Man Proves With Actions, Not Words

KERRVILLE (AP)—Every morning at daybreak a man who remembers seeing Admiral David G. Farragut capture the Confederate metropolis of New Orleans sedately marches into his front yard near here.

With due pomp and ceremony Frank M. Edwards raises a regulation, 3-foot Lone Star flag on a 2-foot mast in front of the stone house he built himself.

No one would guess that Edwards was more than 100 years old and one of the most talented primitive artists in the Hill Country.

The storming of New Orleans in 1862 is one of the favorite stories of "Uncle Frank."

Although only a boy of seven he remembers watching Farragut's gunboats steam up the Mississippi. With him was his widowed mother, who had been visiting relatives in New Orleans.

Edwards said the Yankee officers repeatedly failed in their attempts to persuade his mother to take the oath of allegiance to the Union. Finally the boy and mother were sent through the lines in a prisoner of war exchange.

"We were taken 10 miles inside the Confederate lines west of the city in a mule drawn ambulance," Edwards said. "Released, we then made our way toward Texas as best we could. It took us six weeks to reach San Antonio."

The mother and son joined a little band of refugees trying to reach the Sabine River. He remembers now that the boys killed blackbirds to bolster the meager food supply.

Young Edwards went to school in San Antonio for the rest of the Civil War.

During reconstruction days he was sent to Dr. Ben E. Edwards, his paternal grandfather, in Saint Louis for his higher education. After his schooling he returned to San Antonio.

In 1873, he moved 18 miles west to the Culebra Ranch that had been established by his father, who came to Texas from Kentucky in 1845. Ten years later he married Lillian Brockway of Navasota.

After some 20 years on the ranch he returned to San Antonio and entered the real estate field. For six years before coming to the Guadalupe Valley in 1936, he was employed at San Antonio City Hall.

He was past 80 when he began the construction of his rock residence at the foot of Pleasure Hill, nine miles west of here, every bit of which he built himself, even to gathering and hauling the rock.

The walls of every room in the house are decorated with murals he painted. He began painting in oil at the age of 80 and surprised everyone who knew him with the charm and skill of his work.

A widower for over 50 years, Edwards has four living daughters, one of whom is always with or near him. He has 10 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

"Uncle Frank," as he is known throughout his part of the valley, can still swim the Guadalupe River at his favorite swimming hole. He gave up deer hunting at the age of 98.

That daily raising and lowering of the Lone Star flag is one of Edwards' most important chores every day.

Damages Light In Auto Accident

Minor damage resulted in a two-car collision here Monday at 8:30 a.m. at Knight and Lake Street.

A 1950 Plymouth, driven by Mrs. A. B. Carr going east on Lake Street, and a 1953 Studebaker pickup, driven by James Wade Vine, going north on Knight, collided, police said.

The sun was shining in Mrs. Carr's eyes and she hit the left rear fender of Vine's pickup with the front center of her Plymouth.

Approximately $75 damage was done to Mrs. Carr's car and $150 damage was done to Vine's pickup. Mrs. Carr was charged with failure to grant right-of-way.

Walcott News

By MRS. T. L. COLLINS
Death came Friday night to C. W. King in Clovis Memorial Hospital. Mr. King had been sick for some time. He is the father of Mrs. Eldred Brown and Mrs. Floyd Brown of this community. We express sympathy to his family.
Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and Ricky, who are going to move to Dallas, are staying in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Neinst for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Smith is the sister of Walter Neinst. Her husband had polio when in his teens. He has since been crippled in a car wreck. Smith will attend a polio school in Dallas.

This is another good reason for contributing to the polio "March of Dimes."

Mrs. Roy Pruitt has been steadily improving following an operation on Jan. 5 in Deaf Smith County Hospital. She should be able to return home soon.

Billy Dufur, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dufur, left Sunday for Chicago. This is a trip he won through his fine work in 4-H.
Norman Minks and his son, Larry, will attend the Fat Stock Show in Amarillo this weekend. Norman Minks will take some stock from the Dameron Ranch.

Don't forget P-TA at 8 p.m., Jan. 16. Bring cookies for refreshments.
Walcott's boys and girls will be viewing before hand. Doesn't seem busy taking semester tests this week. Course there should be half over.

KNOX'S KNOTHINGS

By BILL KNOX

Any doubt as to which team is the superior concerning Phillips and Dumas was erased from our mind Saturday. And in quite a convincing way.

Phillips defeated Dumas, 78-49, and perhaps by the score you can tell that they didn't have a very hard time in doing so. The two teams were previously doped to be a fairly close match, but the matter was quickly straightened out.

As the case was last year, it looks as though the Hawks have developed into one of the finest AA outfits in the Panhandle. Last year they went to the regional finals before being knocked off by Childress and one Derrell Nippert. This year they might get by whoever gets into their way at the regional meet.

That is, if they win their district and bi-district games. It is generally conceded that they are best in 1AA and have already defeated Tulia, picked to win in 2AA. Hereford even turned the tables on Tulia quite handsily once this year after taking it on the chin twice before. So the Hawks probably won't have much trouble. We feel sure, however, they'll have plenty of trouble at the state meet.

We'll put in our two bits worth for Steve Gergeni. Gergeni, one of the better known referees in this area, has done an outstanding job in every game we've witnessed in which he was referee.

He has also built up a reputation as being a showman. He emphatically makes himself known and sometimes draws mockery from the crowd, which is absolutely unfounded and ridiculous.

We don't think we've ever seen a referee with such a fine voice as his. He uses that voice quite often, we might add, and when he does there is usually a reason for it.

Amarillo sure loves those Dons! They've switched from the "dandy Dons" of San Francisco to "Palo Duro's dandy Dons."

"And Worse Next Year"

Winter Golf Tourney Slated For January

A "mixed" Partnership Tournament played on two points a hole basis, one point for low ball and one for low total-match play will be staged at the local golf links commencing by Jan. 29, and ending before March 11.

Two weeks will be allowed for each match. Eight teams will be placed in each flight. Qualifying rounds will be played to determine flights and positions in each flight. Entrance fee will be $2.50 per person or $5.00 per couple. Golf merchandise will be awarded the winners, runnersup, consolation winners and consolation runnersup of each flight. Players may choose their own partners.

Entry deadline will be Sunday, Jan. 29. All qualifying scores must be in by 6 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 29. All first round matches must be completed by Feb. 12, all second round matches and first round consolation matches must be completed by Sunday night, Feb. 26, and all final matches must be completed by Sunday night, March 11.

This will give players two weeks to complete each match and from now until Jan. 29 to find a partner and play their qualifying rounds. The reason for this much time is the forever changing aspects of the weather at this time of year.

Reason for the tournament, according to local pro Bud Posey, is to prove that golf is a year-around sport in the Texas Panhandle and to promote interest in the game.

"You will thoroughly enjoy the companionship, sportsmanship, the courtesy shown by the fine group of golfers who are members of or play at the Hereford Golf Club," Posey said.

Cage League Opens Mon.

The Hereford Basketball League will open Monday, according to a statement released today by representatives of the league.

However, officials emphasized that plans as to the number of teams to be in the league are still pending. At present five teams are definitely entered, while four more teams are undecided. The league is trying for a six-team or eight-team league. Plans will probably be definite by Friday, the officials said.

Two games will be played each night in Whiteface Gymnasium two times a week, Monday and Thursday. The schedule calls for a double-round robin, each team playing the others twice. Game time will be 7:30.

At the end of the season trophies will be awarded to the team finishing in first place. The winner of a playoff between the top four teams will also be awarded a trophy.

The five teams now definitely entered are Friona, H&W Implement, Faculty, Summerfield, and Piggly Wiggly. The Faculty will be given the nod to walk away with the title, with such stars as Cubby Kitchens, Buck Overall, former All-Southwest Conference choice at Texas, Glen Brown, and Johnny Poindexter.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

AP Newsfeatures PLAN M-9494AP
 DRAMATIC PLANNING features this house. A full view of a 22-foot living room is commanded from the front entrance foyer. Sliding glass doors, comprising large single plates framed in aluminum, open on a garden terrace from living room, dining room and family room. The house is cleverly designed for construction with or without a basement. Cellar stairs are provided off the service entry next to the garage, and an outside cellar entrance is indicated below a rear bedroom window. Yet a large walk-in closet behind the chimney provides for a heater room if basement is omitted. This is plan M-9494AP by Rudolph A. Matern, architect, 90-04 161st St., Jamaica 32, N.Y. The house covers 1,722 square feet.

By MRS. DICK ROCKEY

Mrs. Bertha Dalton of Littlefield and Mrs. Edith Ruff of Albany spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Tatum and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shackelford from Cheyenne, Okla., visited with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Price, this weekend. While here the Prices and Shackelfords went to Pampa to visit Mrs. Price's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Hanna. Weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Coy Patton and family was her mother, Mrs. E. H. Crandall, from Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Rutherford from Clayton, N. M., spent Sunday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Elmore. Rutherford is

Mrs. Elmore's cousin. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Price of Canyon spent last Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Presley. Mrs. Price and Mrs. Glen Roberson returned home Sunday from California where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Roberson's sister-in-law.

We are enjoying the snow that covered the ground Tuesday morning—just hope we have more.

Mrs. R. E. Barnett was taken to the hospital Sunday. At latest report she is getting along fine, but will remain in the hospital a few days.

Marie Roberson spent last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Roberson, while her parents were in California.

The Black H. D. Club met Wednesday at the Club House with Mrs. Margie McGowan as hostess.

The president, Lois Whitaker, called the meeting to order.

The committees were appointed, the new year books handed out and the programs and hostesses for the new year were planned.

Members present were Mesdames Geneva Ivie, Mildred Barnett, Emma Elmore, Altha Presley, Dortha Nolen, Maxine Price, Carle Tatum, Eleanor Prewitt, Anna Mae Hays, Lois Whitaker, Dora Barnett and one new member, Christian Braxton, and the hostess.

HELD IN SLAYING OF COLLEGE STUDENT — Ronald Edward Menter, 22, right, leaves the Houston airport in an auto headed for Hempstead, where he faces charges of slaying Jan David Broderick, 20, a Texas A&M student on December 30. At the left is Texas Ranger J. J. Klevenhagen, who flew to Newark, N.J., where Menter was arrested, to bring the prisoner back to Texas. (AP Wirephoto)

STILL GOING STRONG AT 100 — Frank M. Edwards, who remembers the Battle of New Orleans during the War between the States, sits in home at Kerrville and holds a pistol his father brought to Texas from Kentucky in 1836. Every morning Edwards raises the Lone Star flag on a 25-foot mast in front of the stone house he built himself. On the wall in the background is one of the many murals in the house painted by the 100-year-old man. (AP Wirephoto)

BRAND BABIES — "I may not be a very big cowboy, but you know the old saying, dynamite comes in small packages," little Donny seems to be telling his mother. He is the 10½-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Wilson of 121 N. Knight. (Staff Photo)

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago
The City and County are completing the Tierra Blanca Causeway. The City has completed the north side division which required 12,000 yards of dirt. The bridge was first raised six feet and the approach on the county side is being cut to a low gradient. Now, there is no further ground for complaint from the southside people and Castro farmers who want to trade at Hereford. While the bridge is admittedly too narrow, the approaches are wide and in a measure corrects the defect. The causeway will be macadamized and made into a perfect street.

That a real sure-nuff broom factory has been located at Hereford is certain. Established without noise or bonus, the Hereford Broom Manufacturing Co., is turning out a good quality of floor brooms. The merchants of town have them for sale and the demand for the "homegrown" broom will no doubt grow as it becomes known. Let Hereford people show their loyalty by demanding Hereford-made brooms.

25 Years Ago
One of the oldest business institutions in Hereford is The Hereford Brand. It is of the same age as the twentieth century, and with this issue begins its 31st year of both public and private life in the community. Without any ceremony without any birthday cake or glowing pink candles, another mile post has been marked and left to recede into the past as a step into Number 1, Volume 31, is taken.

It has been talked on the streets that some of the people of Deaf Smith are hard-up, but it remains to be seen.

There will not be a meeting next week because of the training school for the leaders.

Sunshine Club Meets Thursday

Members of the Sunshine Club answered roll call with their New Year's resolutions at a meeting of the club Thursday afternoon. New year books were passed out to members, and following a business session, anniversary gifts were presented to Edna Smith and Iona Kemp. Helen Watts was also given a birthday gift.

Margie Kemp was prize winner in games played by the group. Refreshments were served to 12 members and one guest. Next meeting will be held Jan. 26 in the home of Mrs. Nell Pittman.

Jayful Bluebirds Make Nature Hike

The Joyful Bluebirds met Jan. 10 at the hut. They divided into two groups and went on a nature hike in the park. There were 15 girls present and Mrs. Marchman served the refreshments to the following: Virginia Clark, Barbara Dearing, Janis Medley, Patricia Price, Barbara Clements, Patricia Maxwell, Jimmie Hodges, Wanda Nichols, Mary Jones, Loujana Morris, Linda Scott, Linda Morris, Shirley McNelly, Gloria Marchman, Nancy Gripp and leaders, Mrs. Lola Scott and Mrs. Della Clark.

Those present were Jacqueline Box, Jean Crowell, Orvella Daniels, Doris Burgess, Edna Foster, Mary Gowdy, Betty Hagans, Lona Harrison, Virginia Kroll, Ruth Long, Glenn Lovett, Dorothy Norman, Nadine Bettis, June Dearing, Bobbie Meachem, Jeanette Watson and Emeline Watson.

Church Class Has Regular Meeting

The Golden Circle Class of the Temple Baptist Church met in the home of Jean Crowell Thursday night. Betty Hagans gave the devotional on "Christmas After Glow."

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Charlie Burk, Glen Hetzler, Paul Lyons, R. L. Pinnell, C. R. Hollabaugh, A. J. Ashburn and Mrs. J. V. Perrin of Walcott Community, who was guest demonstrator for the club.

ed for a New Yorker to class the population in the Hard of Hearing group. This letter was received by the county library after a request for book information from Daniel A. Poling, announcer for the National Broadcasting company: "I could mention many vocational guidance books, but since you want these for a library for the deaf, I would suggest that you write to Miss Elizabeth Sargent, American Federation of Organizations for the Hard of Hearing. There are so many occupations in which deafness is a handicap that I hesitate to recommend books. However, the J. C. Penney Foundation, in cooperation with the American Library Association, is publishing a pamphlet for librarians on a limited bibliography. I will send you a copy as soon as it is ready for distribution."

Mary Martha Class Meets In Home Of Mrs. R. L. Dowell

Mary Martha Class of the First Methodist Church was entertained in the home of Mrs. R. L. Dowell Friday afternoon with Mrs. Arthur Davis serving as cohostess. Mrs. Mary Seigler, president, conducted a brief business session.

Mrs. W. J. Stanford was leader of the program with Mrs. F. L. Terrell giving the devotional lesson on "The Timeliness of Religion" using the third chapter of Ecclesiastes as Scriptural reference. She discussed what is time, how much time do we have, and how do we spend our time.

Mrs. Stanford conducted a Bible character quiz contest, giving clues to Biblical characters identified by class members.

The next business and social meeting will be held with Mrs. Ross Fuller in the home of Mrs. F. L. Terrell Feb. 10.

Refreshments were served to: Mesdames Adam Flowers, U. E. Cook, J. C. Cummings, W. J. Stanford, Admonson, Mary Seigler, Orlice Prather, Ross Fuller, Harry Lomas, Lena Tons, Bott'r, F. L. Terrell, E. C. Eubanks and the hostesses.

FRANCIS A. SOPER

Advertisers Speaker Says Smoking Can Injure Your Health

"Fear alone should never stop a person from smoking, but good common sense should," declared Francis A. Soper, Washington, D. C., editor of Listen Magazine, in an address at the Hereford Seventh-day Adventist Church, Third and Lawton, Saturday.

"A downward trend in smoking would mean an upward trend in the health of the nation," the visiting editor affirmed, "in view of increasing medical and scientific evidence linking heavy smoking with such prevalent killers as lung cancer and heart disease."

In recent months there have been at least 14 scientific investigations into smoking and lung cancer alone, Soper pointed out, all of them without exception showing the same result, a definite and casual relationship between smoking and cancer. The findings tying smoking in as a cause of heart disease are becoming even more significant, he added.

"Young people especially," he emphasized, "should think twice and weigh all the factors before becoming tied to a habit that is in such manifestly bad company." Soper, who is stopping in Hereford on a lecture tour of Southwestern states, also cited medical authorities to the effect that doctors should cure their own addiction to smoking so they can best serve as "guardians of the public health by setting an example."

BULLDOGS ANTELOPE

FORT PECK, Mont. (AP)—George Haynes of Fort Peck, in keeping with a tradition of the Old West, got his antelope by bulldozing it. Haynes first used his big game rifle on the animal but only stunned it. As he grabbed it by the leg, the antelope fought to escape. The hunter was coming out second best until he grabbed the animal's antlers and twisted it to the ground.

NOISE IN NUMBERS

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—Members of the Newark Teachers College basketball team need great powers of concentration to keep their minds on the game.

Most of them are married veterans. Their wives form a special cheering section behind the regular cheerleaders. Spread out behind them is a rhythm section of 20 students who bang on drums, cymbals, triangles, castanets, etc. The din is terrific.

Beat an egg, a cup of milk and a couple of tablespoons of molasses together; serve to small fry for a mid-morning or mid-afternoon snack.

Mix tuna fish, diced celery, crumbled crisply-cooked bacon and chopped apple together; moisten with mayonnaise and use as a sandwich filling.

Making biscuits? Try adding the grated cheddar, Swiss or Parmesan cheese to the dough before rolling out.

Garden Club Hears Review Of A Treasury of A Gardening

The Hereford Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. S. S. Williams Friday morning. Mrs. M. T. Rutter, president, presided.

The program on "Conservation Protects Natural Beauties" had Mrs. E. W. Young as leader. Roll call was answered by members giving tips on conservation.

Mrs. Tom Draper reviewed the book "A Treasury of American Gardening" listing four main reasons for the change in gardening methods and for increased public interest. She mentioned first, the seed catalogs which present such a variety of color and beauty through their pages. Second, living literature—the garden writing in papers and magazines and garden news over television and radio. Third, the colleges that are stressing horticulture and landscaping in their programs and fourth; through the floral prints in our homes and floral designs in wall paper and draperies.

"Gardening not only adds value to property but the gardener gives expression to his own personality and spreads delight and enjoyment all around. Work the soil with reverence," she concluded.

A social hour and coffee was enjoyed after the program, and the next meeting was announced for Jan. 27, at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Glenn Boardman.

Members present were Mesdames John Hacker, O. G. Hill, W. C. Hromas, J. H. Lomas, M. T. Rutter, Ralph McCullough, E. W. Young, Tom Draper, Frank Brinkman and the hostess.

Calliopians Study Antique Glassware

Mrs. Roy Grubbs presented a program on "Antique Glassware" at the Calliopean Club meeting held in the home of Mrs. W. L. Davis Jr., Thursday evening.

"American antique glassware while one of the most interesting hobbies, is also one of the most tricky and the hobby most likely to leave the collectors pocket book in a bad way. Of all antiques, glass is the most difficult to identify, to periods and manufacture," Mrs. Grubbs said.

Refreshments were served during the social hour. Mesdames J. R. Fowkes, Richard Barnard, B. F. Cain, Clyde Cave, Paul Cane way, John Sims, Alton Fraser, J. T. Gilbreath Jr., Roy Grubbs, J. E. Kirby, D. C. McWhorter, W. J. Messick, M. W. Nobles, L. B. Russell, and the hostess, Mrs. W. L. Davis Sr., was a special guest.

IMPORTANT FIRST STEPS

Pair Of Feet Must Last Lifetime So Children's Should Be Guarded

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE M.D., AP Newsfeatures

One pair of feet must last a lifetime and feet need special care just as do eyes, ears and throats.

It's amazing how many people have trouble with their feet. A recent survey showed that 65 percent of the boys and 80 percent of the girls of school age in one community had foot disorders of one sort or another.

Most of these foot troubles need never have happened. Some of them could have been corrected during infancy.

The feet of a newborn baby normally are flat. The arch develops as the child begins to crawl and to stand on his feet. The leg muscles grow, the fatty pads are absorbed, and the true arch appears. The foot continues its development throughout the entire period of childhood.

It's important to have a doctor examine a baby's feet soon after birth. Sometimes the way an infant was held in his mother's womb pulls and stretches the pliable muscles and tendons of the feet. When this happens the baby finds it most comfortable to lie with his feet in an abnormal position. The longer he keeps his feet this way the more chance there is that some of the tendons will become so short that he can never quite straighten them out.

In mild cases a little massage is all that is necessary. In more severe cases the baby may need to have plaster casts applied to his feet for a few weeks. In any case treatment started in the first few weeks of life is many times more effective than that begun later.

During infancy the baby's bones are soft and are easily moulded by pressure. If a baby sleeps always on his abdomen his feet will be turned out all the time he is asleep. In this position the ligaments on the inside of the ankle are stretched, and the ones on the outside are often contracted. The foot does not grow properly this way.

If your baby has good feet at birth keep them that way during infancy. See to it that his position is changed from time to time. Try to accustom him to sleeping sometimes on his abdomen, sometimes on his back, and sometimes on each side. In this way the pressures are constantly changed and moulding does not take place.

When your child begins to walk, watch his feet and legs carefully. Bow legs, knocked knees, pigeon toes are more often than not due to something wrong with the feet.

If you observe any of these signs take your youngster to the doctor right away. These things will not be outgrown, but can be corrected completely if you institute the right measures early.

Throughout childhood watch your child's shoes. Make sure they fit. Children's feet grow rapidly. Many children outgrow a shoe before they wear it out. Sometimes it seems hard to have to spend money for new shoes when there is still a lot of wear left in the old ones.

Household Scrapbook

Removes Lime Deposit
The lime deposit that sometimes accumulates on the inside of the tea kettle can be removed by putting some vinegar, to which a little salt has been added, into the kettle and allowing it to stand for a while. When bubbles begin appearing, it means that the lime is dissolving. After it has been removed, rinse with clear water.

Measuring Butter
One pound of print butter, as sold in brick form, measures exactly two cups. So the easiest way to measure one cup of butter is to cut this brick into halves.

Suede Shoes
Nothing is better for brushing suede shoes, and bringing up the nap, than a stiff vegetable brush.

Seasoning Meats
Meats should be seasoned with salt and pepper on both sides, after they have been browned by searing in fat or broiling. If they are seasoned before being browned, some of the juices are liable to be lost.

Buying a Mop
When purchasing a new dry mop shake it and see if the strings are matted together. If they are, reject it. The strings of a good mop will practically stand alone.

Prevent Spillage
The mixing bowl can be prevented from slipping about the table if it is placed on a cloth that has been wrung out of cold water and doubled over.

Ironing
The efficient laundress will always iron an article until it is thoroughly dry. If this is not done, it will dry out later with a rough appearance.

Crockery
If a cracked piece of crockery is boiled in sweet milk, it will be restored to use.

Removing Wallpaper
About the simplest method of removing old wallpaper is to soak it with hot water and then scrape. Use a brush to wet the paper and repeat until the paper and paste are soaked through. When all the paper has been removed, wash the wall with clean water.

However, it is money very well spent for your child's future foot health.

Many clothes can be handed down from an older to a younger child—but not shoes (except rarely). Each child needs the benefit of shoes that truly fit him.

And watch socks too. They are outgrown just like shoes and need to be replaced frequently.

tion about prospective big league baseball players here.

AN INVITATION... to the man who is driving any car in the medium-price class

How you can own a bigger, more powerful Chrysler Windsor V-8 for the cost of a medium-priced car

Frankly, we believe you will find that the Chrysler Windsor is the only real luxury car that sells at a medium price... a car far in advance of its contemporaries and ahead of its time. We would like to put you behind the wheel of this car... because we've found from actual comparative demonstrations that 3 out of 4 open-minded men who drive a Chrysler for the first time prefer it to anything else.

There are many reasons. In the first place, the 1956 Chrysler is the only car in its price class that has been completely restyled this year. It has that "hair-trigger" look for which designers have been striving many years. We call it "PowerStyle."

But there's more to the Chrysler story than styling. There's power... more power to pass safely when necessary... more power to drive without effort... more power to stop.

There is not a car on the road today as completely power-operated as the "PowerStyle" Chrysler. Its PowerFlite transmission is controlled by pushbuttons... the ultimate in automatic, foolproof control. "But do Chrysler's competitors have this mechanical trouble-free system? Not yet! Chrysler's PowerPilot Steering works full time... does 80% of the work, not just in parking, but in long distance driving, in traffic and in rough going. Competitive power steering cuts in and out... does only a fraction of this job.

And what about engines? Chrysler was first to adopt the principles of the airplane-type V-8 engine. Today's engine is a new and bigger version of this engine... 250 hp in the Windsor Spitfire V-8... 280 hp in the New Yorker FirePower V-8 and now 340 hp in the blazing new Chrysler 300-B.

Then there is the all-important matter of brakes. Chrysler's newly designed PowerSmooth Brakes not only bring you safer, surer, straight-line stops—they outlast the others 2 to 1.

So if you have been driving another make of car in Chrysler's price class... ask yourself this question: Don't I want to know what my money can buy before I spend it? Then make a drive-them-both comparison. We'll leave everything else to your judgment.

*With the addition of the Chrysler Power Train at slight extra cost.

Farmers Today Enjoy More Modern Conveniences Through

ELECTRICITY!

Just as the 4-H and F.F.A. Club Boys and Girls constantly strive to improve their cattle, hogs, sheep or poultry, the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative, Inc. is always looking for better ways to bring more modern living to the farmers of this area.

Today's farmers enjoy the convenience of Modern Electric Cooking, Food Freezers, Refrigerators, adequate lighting, Television, Radio and many other modern inventions because of electricity.

Many farmers now operate their irrigation wells on electricity... as well as coolers for their dairy products.

These modern homes and farms, operated by electricity, mean more leisure hours for you.

Sorry - Wrong Number!

Read this dial carefully! Have you gotten these "Wrong Numbers"? If you are GREEDY you destroy your life. GREED is vile in any man. If you dial HATRED you have the wrong number, friend. It is written on this dial, but "The SCORNER is an abomination to men." We have God's word that "Bloody and DECEITFUL men shall not live out half their days." "VANITY is the last disease." VAIN things cannot profit. MALICE is a leech; easy to acquire, difficult to relinquish. Hell is not blacker than full-grown MALICE. But in the beginning was God. "God's way is perfect," 2 Sam. 22:31. "With God all things are possible," Matt. 19:26. Maybe you have been careless, friend; you have dialed these wrong numbers. Your need for God is inevitable. You've tried everything else... why not try dialing God? "Draw near to God and He will draw near to you," Jas. 4:8. Don't keep dialing the "wrong number."

EASTER NEWS

By MRS. L. B. WORTHAN

Mrs. W. A. Epperson and Mrs. William Moss were in Memphis on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Becker and Mrs. J. K. Mitchell spent last week end in the William Moss home and on Sunday visited with their brother and uncle, Jack Tucker, who is in the Plainview Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Epperson visited Sunday in the Jumbo Community with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith.

Mrs. W. A. Epperson visited in Hereford Tuesday with Mrs. R. B. Medley, Mrs. Myrtle LaPlant and Mrs. Eva Smith.

Ray Johnson was in Norman, Okla., this past week on business. Mrs. Clifford Johnson has been in the Plainview Hospital for surgery. She is recovering very nicely. Her mother has been visiting with her.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Markley and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Markley visited in the Murry Hall home Sunday.

Mrs. Jim Brooks received word this week that her nephew, Gene McClemmen, is getting married.

Easter Club met Jan. 12 with the president in charge. The roll call was club project for the year. Our program was installing new officers for the New Year. Those installed were Mrs. Ray Johnson, president; Mrs. Clifford Johnson, vice-president; and Mrs. John Burnett, secretary. Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Jim Brooks, Mrs. Anna Burnett, Mrs. Emerald Epperson, Mrs. Mary Flood, Mrs. Nadene Hall, Mrs. Louella Johnson, Mrs. Helen Johnson, Mrs. Nina Markley, Mrs. Anna Margaret Moss, Mrs. Dorothy Worthan and two new members, Mrs. R. C. Eally and Mrs. Keys. Also a visitor, Mrs. Murry Hall and Greg of Dismitt were present. Our next club meeting will be held Jan. 27.

SNEAKY SNAKE

HARRISBURG, Pa. — Mrs. Bertha Pfeffer stooped down to remove a stone from the path of her lawn mower and picked up a 27-inch copperhead.

Her screams brought a neighbor running. He killed the snake and hauled it away.

"I feel terribly lucky," Mrs. Pfeffer said.

In Mysore most of the people are Hindus and most of them speak Kanarese.

PARKING FEES RISING, TOO

DETROIT — Higher taxes, increased wages and bigger cars have resulted in a boost of parking lot fees in downtown Detroit.

William H. Coy, general manager of the Detroit Parking Assn., says increased parking fees are in effect at about 40 percent of downtown lots. Increased tax assessments have contributed to the rise, Coy says, and "newer, wider and much longer automobiles have cut the capacity of lots by a tremendous amount."

Simms News

Thursday night neighbors and friends, in and around about the Simms Community, gathered at the community house honoring Mr. and Mrs. Cord Hammock with a going away party.

The Hammocks have been residents of this community for over 24 years. They have been outstanding in community affairs, large or small, over the past years. The community regrets their moving away, but is consoled in the fact that they are not moving far away. Hammock, having sold his farm near Simms, has purchased an irrigated farm five miles northwest of Friona. They have just completed building a new home and other improvements on the newly acquired land and hope to move in next week.

As a token of love and friendship the community presented the Hammocks with a beautiful Thomas Electric Clock for their new home, requesting that they check the time and visit often in the Simms Community.

SINS OF THE CHILDREN

CONWAY, Ark. — Youngsters who roam the streets of this Arkansas city after 11 p.m. are likely to get their parents in trouble. People under 18 years old must be off the streets by 11 o'clock. Parents of violators are subject to a fine of between $1 and $25 and a jail sentence of from one to 30 days.

In Mysore most of the people are Hindus and most of them speak Kanarese.

At The Movies

The Americano
Interestingly backgrounded against the savage and scenic splendor of Brazil's famous Matto Grosso jungle-country, "The Americano" will show Friday and Saturday at the Star with a cast topped by Glenn Ford, Frank Lovejoy, Cesar Romero and exotic Ursula Thiess.

Each bidder shall submit with his proposal the name of the manufacturer of the equipment he proposed to furnish together with complete specifications and descriptive literature, and shall state the time required for delivery of the equipment from date of award of contract.

The City reserves the right to evaluate the bids on the basis of bid price, operating cost, construction, materials, design, operating characteristics, and delivery date; to reject any or all bids, to waive informalities and to accept the bid which seems most advantageous to the City's interest.

Specifications may be obtained from Cecil Massey, City Manager, Hereford, Texas or from Parkhill, Smith & Cooper, Consulting Engineers, 201 Avenue R, Lubbock, Texas.

Accident Causes Minor Damages

Minor damage resulted in a two-car collision here Friday at 12:51 on Main Street.

A 1955 Mercury, driven by Susan Annie Rose, backing out from a parking position, and a 1949 Studebaker pickup driven by Coy James Patton, going down Main Street, collided, police said.

The left rear fender of Patton's pickup was hit with the left tail light of the Rose car.

Approximately $20 damage was done to the Rose car and $50 damage was done to Patton's Pickup. Susan Annie Rose was charged with failure to grant right-of-way.

Cut a half cup of shredded coconut into short lengths; stir the coconut into a package of prepared chocolate pudding mix before cooking. Chill the pudding before serving and garnish each serving with a dollop of whipped sweetened evaporated milk and a maraschino cherry.

Legal Notice

NOTICE TO BIDDERS
Sealed proposals addressed to the Honorable Mayor and City Commission of the City of Hereford, Texas, will be received at the office of Cecil Massey, City Manager, until 10:00 A.M. February 6, 1956, for furnishing the following equipment: three (3) 2500 G.P.M. motor driven high service water pumps and two (2) electrical control centers.

Bidders must submit a Cashier's or Certified Check, or an acceptable Bidder's Bond, payable without recourse to the order of the City of Hereford, Texas, in an amount of not less than five (5%) percent of the total bid, as a guaranty that the bidder will enter into a contract in the form provided within ten (10) days after notice of award of contract to him. Bids without the required check or Bidder's Bond will not be considered.

urday at the Star with a cast topped by Glenn Ford, Frank Lovejoy, Cesar Romero and exotic Ursula Thiess.

"The Americano" is a story of a Texas cowboy who sets out to deliver a herd of prize Brahma bulls to a wealthy South American ranchero. His trail leads him across the angry rivers where Brazil's vicious man-eating tiger fish hunger, through the tall trees of the Matto Grosso where bandits hide, straight into the danger zone of the cattle king's empire where he finds both death and love.

For Glenn Ford, this is one of his more interesting assignments, and he brings to it the sincerity and rugged appeal which has made him one of Hollywood's top stars. Frank Lovejoy portrays the ranchero with a mad dream of power, and Cesar Romero is the bandit with a sense of humor and a sense of honor who guides Ford through the Great Forest. Ursula Thiess, European beauty, has her first major Hollywood role as the senorita who at first resents the Americano, then grows to love him.

A Bullet For
Edward G. Robinson and George Raft, two of the screen's toughest characters, are reunited in "A Bullet for Joey," which will show Saturday and Sunday at the Texas.

In the case of "A Bullet for Joey" these two expert triggermen are joined by Peter Van Eyck, Peter Hanson, John Cliff and Stan Malotte, all past masters of suspense, to mention but a few of the large cast of principals who include Audrey Totter, George Dolenz, Karen Verne, Toni Gerry and Bill Bryant.

"A Bullet for Joey" deals with a relentless manhunt in Canada, pitting the resourceful Royal Canadian Mounted Police against an organization of ruthless killers. "It is more than a shock-filled tale involving the fate of good and evil people," Mr. Robinson said. "A Bullet for Joey" is a perceptive and explosive story of the times we live in.

Landscape Achievements Are Outlined By HD Women In Area

Landscape achievements for the coming year were discussed in the program given by Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration agent for members of the Messenger Home Demonstration Club who met with Mrs. Ernest Brown Jan. 13.

Mrs. Bob Howard was elected as the club's nominee for delegate to the district meeting in April.

Members drew names for secret pals during the year.

Mrs. Johnny Northcutt won the opening exercises prize and the floating prize went to Mrs. Floyd Brown.

Plans for finishing quilts for Girlstown were discussed and Mrs. N. A. Brown reported that one would be ready for the women to start quilting at the next club meeting.

Mrs. J. T. Guinn was a visitor and members present were: Mesdames Ruth Coleman, S. N. Thweatt, Floyd Brown, Elmer Northcutt, Bob Howard, W. D. Howard, E. M. Jack, Johnnie Northcutt, J. E. Rouse, Brown and the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Floyd Brown Jan. 27.

After seeing the robins in the yard as an evidence of winter's being over and Mrs. Richard Fortenberry saying that the petunias are coming up volunteer, this 14 degree weather is quite a shock. We've got our fingers crossed hoping the Weather Man will be lenient during the Livestock and Poultry Show.

There are a few changes in the Poultry Show Rules and Regulations. This year pure breeds can be shown in the Egg, Production class as well as Hybrids and Cross-breeds. An exhibit in the Egg Production Class will consist of three female birds. There will be young and old classes. This gives more boys and girls chances to win some ribbons.

The deadline for ordering trees through the Texas Forest Service will be in about a month. Order blanks are at the Extension Offices or will be mailed to you if you'll write Box 671 or Box 152. Maud and Joe Story have already gotten their orders to the office. So have Fannie and Paul Rudd. The trees are to be dug March 1 and delivered to counties soon thereafter. We will be notified in advance of the delivery date so you can get ready to accept the trees.

When passing through Olton Saturday night we stopped to see Red Muse. You know he is operating a hardware store on the west side of Main Avenue and he was glad to hear some Hereford news. He likes to talk about the television show the Happy Homes 4-H girls gave last Spring and thought Sharon Bezner and Jane Heard just about stole the show with the live poultry they brought to the show.

Received a note from Betty and Wayne Wiley announcing the arrival of Kenneth Dean. Mrs. Wiley is the former Betty McGaughey.

The 4-H Clubs are having good meetings this month. It has been a long time since we have met with the 4-H Clubs and want to express our delight in the progress the clubs have made the last year. Gail Miller, Peggy Browning and Mary Lynn Morrison could easily give a model meeting that would help most any organization. The credit of their fine work goes to a lot of people—parents, neighbors and friends and a lot of credit goes to adult leaders. These girls' adult leaders are Mrs. LaNoy Tolley, Mrs. H. E. Miller, Mrs. J. E. Dyer and Mrs. T. B. Thomas.

During the meeting of the Sadie Lee Oliver 4-H Club, Dwight Davis Rickman, age 3, got into the spirit of the meeting and voted every time the club members voted. His sister, Carol Ann, was hostess at the Friday meeting. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rickman, Jr.

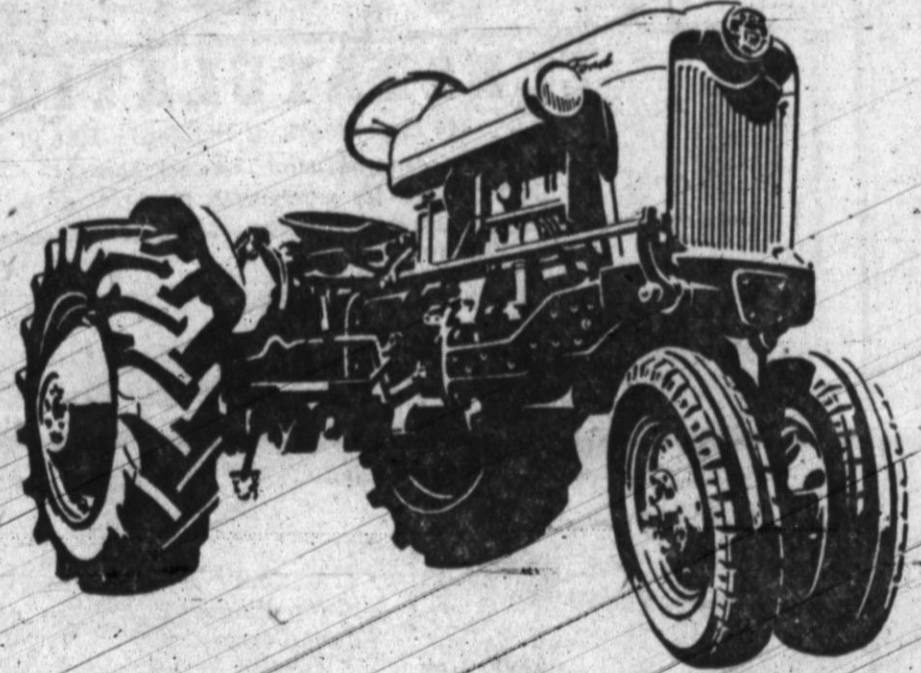

Mrs. T. J. Parsons has informed us that the Merry Maidens members have changed their meeting dates to the first and third Wednesdays. We are always glad to cooperate if we can get a date that will permit more girls to come to the club meetings.

Mrs. N. A. Brown has called a meeting of some of the Council Committees for Friday 2:30 in the (Continued on Page 4)

HEREFORD'S 10th ANNUAL JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SHOW

The 4-H and F.F.A. Club boys and girls have done a wonderful job throughout the years in preparing livestock for the big Annual Rotary Sponsored Club Show.

Like the Club Members of this area, FORD too, is helping to build for the future. Many club boys and girls are familiar with the Ford Tractors and Farm Equipment... many of them depend on FORD to till the soil on their own farms. They know that Ford is building outstanding Farm Equipment. You're invited to drop in during the show to look over the many improvements made by Ford this year, and also to see our new home, located on East Highway 60.

Homey-Type Cookies Go Over Big

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor
These new cookies, sampled by a couple of dozen tasters, got top rating. Everyone who ate them asked when they were going to be baked again. And we had young and old among our testers.
Just what makes them so popular? Molasses, sugar and spice contribute tempting flavor. And the texture is both crisp and chewy—rolled oats helping out here.
We found that stored in a tightly covered tin container, these cookies held up well. But chances are they'll be eaten before you have time to find out. Youngsters will go for them with a glass of milk; older folk will enjoy them with tea or coffee.
Please do try them; it's a long time since we have come on a cookie that was such an all-round favorite. We can't promise when we'll find an oatmeal-and-molasses cookie to equal them!
You'll like the easy method of mixing these cookies—all the ingredients are beaten together in one bowl.

JUST PLAIN GOOD — These cookies win votes.

CRISP-AND-CHEWIES

Ingredients: 1½ cups sifted flour, 1 teaspoon baking soda, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon ground ginger, ½ teaspoon ground cloves, 1 cup sugar, ¾ cup butter or margarine (soft), 1 egg, ¼ cup dark molasses, ¾ cup uncooked rolled oats (quick variety).
Method: Sift together the flour, baking soda, salt, cloves, ginger and sugar into a mixing bowl. Add soft shortening, egg and molasses. Beat until smooth—about 2 minutes. Lightly stir in rolled oats. Use a level tablespoon of the dough for each cookie; drop 2 inches apart (to allow for spreading) on ungreased baking sheets. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven 8 to 10 minutes. Do not overbake. Allow to stand on cookie sheets a minute or so to get firm before removing with a wide spatula. Cool on rack. When cold, store in tightly covered tin container. This makes about 3½ dozen cookies.

Cookies aren't the only food that appeals to all ages. We were glad to see this fact stressed in the recently published "Feeding Your Baby and Child" by Benjamin Spock, M. D., and Miriam E. Lowenberg, Ph.D. (Duell, Sloan and Pearce, New York; Little, Brown and Company, Boston). As proof of it, Dr. Lowenberg includes entire family recipes a mother can try when a youngster has gone through the baby-fool stage. The advantage of this system is obvious: when both Father and Toddler can eat Indian Pudding, Beef Stew or Salmon Loaf, meal-getting is simplified. Dr. Spock's collaboration with Dr. Lowenberg, an eminent dietician who has had many years of experience in planning food for children in nursery schools, is a happy one.

But recipes are only part of this book. All the details of feeding a child during infancy are gone into. Children's diet during illness is considered, and so are party recipes. There is plenty of guidance for

ADRIAN NEWS

By MRS. A. R. BRIGGS

The seventh and eighth grades of Adrian School enjoyed a trip to Amarillo last Thursday, where they swam and saw a picture show. They ate a fried chicken picnic supper in their classroom before leaving for Amarillo. Accompanying the pupils were Mesdames Lorin Creitz and daughter, Paula, Horace Betts and children, Ray Brown and son, Sam, D. W. Morgan and son, Don, Elbert Whitten and the teacher, Mrs. Hazel Chilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jewett, Morin Pounds, John Powers and Billy Don Brown were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Allen in Amarillo Saturday.

Miss Peggy Caffee was honored at a birthday dance Saturday night at Simms Community House. Peggy will be 14 Jan. 19. About 50 guests were served refreshments of birthday cake and cocoa; by Peggy's mother, Mrs. Leslie Caffee, and Mrs. H. A. Gudgell.

Mrs. Calvin Jackson went to Amarillo Monday to see her doctor about removing her tonsils. The operation was to be performed on Monday, but was postponed until Friday.

Weekend guests in the H. D. Tomlinson home Saturday and Sunday were his niece, Mrs. Betty Chadwick and son of Pampa, and Tomlinson's sister, Mrs. T. A. Preston of Amarillo.

Guests in the R. L. Pinnell home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Fuhrman and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cullender and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Heaton and family visited in Tiaban, N. M., last weekend with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reed.

Guests helping to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Allen's twenty-second wedding anniversary Sunday were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Townsend and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Townsend and children all of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Allen's son, Bobby and wife, of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mosteller and daughter, Alma, visited last weekend in Borger with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Fite, a niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Thompson, and a nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fite.

Adrian High School teams played four games last week against Bovina and Farwell. All games were played on the Adrian court.

In the match against Farwell, the boys and girls teams split the victories. The Adrian boys lost by a 55-70 score, with Edward Pinnell scoring 16 points for Adrian and Bert Williams totaling 26 for Farwell.

The Adrian girls defeated the Farwell team easily winning with a 77-57 score. Erma Lou Jordan made 33 of Adrian's tally and Davis scored 40 for Farwell.

In games against Bovina, both Adrian teams were defeated. The boys lost 42-60 with Davis Brown topping Adrian scoring with 14 points. The Adrian girls lost an exciting game, with the final score 47-43. Barbara Pinnell scored 22 of Adrian's points.

The Adrian P-TA met Monday at 7:30 in the Adrian High School Auditorium. Mrs. Annie Vickrey's fifth and sixth grade pupils presented a play, "Jack Frost's Realm." A short business meeting followed, after which the meeting was adjourned to the cafeteria for refreshments. Refreshments of coffee or cocoa and doughnuts were served to about 85 people by the hostesses, Mesdames E. H. Mosteller, Lorin Creitz, R. L. Fuhrman and Bill Leslie.

BABY ARRIVES, CAR LEAVES

RICHMOND, Va. — Ruey C. Collins parked his car three parking meters from police headquarters at 4:30 a.m. and went into a hospital. Several hours later he emerged as the proud father of a baby girl but found his car missing.

So many good things to add to a salad of tossed greens to make it extra special! Here are some of them: chopped green onions; crumbled, crisply cooked bacon; crumbled blue cheese; crisp croutons browned in garlic-flavored olive oil; finely cut anchovy fillets; sliced pimiento - stuffed green olives.

Dice leftover potatoes and add them to a package of frozen mixed vegetables (cooked and drained). Mix in a tangy French dressing and refrigerate to allow flavors to develop. Serve on crisp salad greens with sliced cold meat.

introduced the guest speakers. Patrolman Joe O'Rear and Patrolman Kenneth Maxwell. Hereford's two new highway patrolmen. Patrolman O'Rear stated that as drivers and pedestrians that it was our duty to make the highways safe. "Every person is a possible victim of traffic every minute he is upon the public roadway or street," he said. The motor vehicle transportation has mushroomed with such rapidity in America the essential political and the social machinery for its control has not kept up with its development. As a result in some areas of its development the system has become very inefficient. Two noticeable symptoms of this inefficiency are congestion and traffic accidents. Here are a few things that all of us can do to help this situation. 1. Education — Start our children early in life to be careful. 2. Enforcement — most states lack men and equipment. 3. Engineering. 4. Laws and ordinances — most states have neglected to have new laws for the advancement of the "machine age." 5. Public information. 6. Public support.

The four main causes of accidents are speeding, driving while intoxicated, failure to yield right-of-way and improper passing. After the short talk the club members had a chance to ask the officers questions.

Mrs. R. L. Wilson conducted the recreation, which was the game of Charades.

Final arrangements were made for the trip to Girlstown Jan. 19. Members will meet at the Westway Store at 7 o'clock and leave from there.

Mrs. Waldron Melton and Mrs. Morris Easley were welcomed as new members. Refreshments were served the following members: Mrs. Paul Rudd, Abraham Dragg, T. B. Thomas, Troy Smith, B. B. Northcutt, P. B. Sowell, R. L. Wilson, Jesse Odom, Joe Wagoner, George Turrentine, Bess Werner, Phillip Miller, Leo Ohlig and Merlin Kaul.

Special guests were: Mrs. Raymond Garrett, Floyd Rickman, Clarence Boatwright, Esther Cooper, Harold Head, Ernest Flood, Morris Easley, Waldron Melton and Patrolmen O'Rear and Maxwell.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Leo Ohlig at 409 Blevins for a program given by Argen Draper on Homestead Improvement.

Bippus

Mrs. J. G. Fortenberry was the hostess for members of the Bippus H. D. Club Jan. 11 for the first meeting of the New Year. New officers were in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. G. V. Hall, president, called the meeting to order and Mrs. Jim Perrin, who replaced Mrs. Clint Homfeld as secretary following her resignation, called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting.

Members spent the balance of the afternoon filling out the year-books.

Refreshments were served to: Mesdames Jim Perrin, C. F. Homfeld, G. V. Hall, Elmo Hall, Christine Fortenberry and the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jim Perrin Jan. 28.

Cultural

Members of the Cultural H. D. Club met with Mrs. R. C. Childers Jan. 10 for a program on "Homestead Improvement" given by Argen Draper.

The members repeated the club collect in union for the opening exercises. Following the program members discussed landscape problems and made plans for carrying them out in their own home grounds.

Points of emphasis made by Mrs. Draper were the work area arranged for convenience, the unbroken lawn area, shrubs to tie the house to the ground, a recreation area sufficient for family use and a safe water supply.

Committees named for this year are: Recreation, Mrs. Joe Story; Mrs. Fred Wolfington and Mrs. W. E. Holcomb; Finance, Mrs. Art Lewis, Mrs. M. W. Sumner and Mrs. A. C. Hershey; Expansion-education, Mrs. Paul Corbett, Mrs. J. T. Richardson and Mrs. Irving Robinson Jr.; and Marketing, Mrs. Earl Delfart, Mrs. R. C. Childers and Mrs. Marvis Southward.

Mrs. Irving Robinson was named landscape demonstrator and Mrs. M. W. Sumner and Mrs. Louie Olson will be the living room demonstrators.

Mrs. Paul Corbett was named citizenship leader and Mrs. Fred Wolfington will be in charge of civil defense.

Attending were Mesdames Curtis Barclay, R. C. Childers, Earl DeHart, Ralph Paekard, Grady Parsons, J. T. Richardson, Pat Robinson, Irving Robinson Jr., Ira Scott, Marvis Southward, M. W. Sumner, Fred Wolfington and the hostess.

Wyche

Argen Draper was the installing officer for the Wyche H. D. members at the first meeting of the year when they met with Mrs. C. R. Damron Jan. 5.

The following officers were installed: Mrs. Damron, president; Mrs. W. P. Axe, vice president; Mrs. H. L. Ward, reporter; Mrs. Ira Ott, parliamentarian; Mrs. C. E. Ellis, council delegate; and Mrs. J. V. Pickens, alternate.

Mrs. Axe was also named landscape demonstrator and Mrs. Howard Hill will serve as civil defense chairman.

Mrs. Draper introduced the program on landscaping with a quiz. Some of the low growing shrubs which the women were particularly interested in which she listed were: red barberry, euonymus radicans, lowdown hedge, Mugo (pine), mahonia, nandina, and the pfitzer juniper.

Those present were: Mesdames C. F. Newsom, J. V. Pickens, Ira Ott, Howard Hill, W. P. Axe, C. C. Ellis, H. L. Ward, Mrs. Draper and the hostess.

Rance

The first meeting of the year for the Rance H. D. Club was held in the home of Mrs. Clarence Behrends Jan. 12.

The program was given by Mrs. Sybil Stringer, CHDA from Castro County and her subject was "The Three Meals a Day."

She emphasizes that we are what we eat so every homemaker has the health of her family in her hands.

Mrs. George DeLozier, president appointed committees and a council report was given by Mrs. Jack Streun.

Jan. 26 is the date of the next meeting.

Salutations and the likes on this good Sunday.

Well what do you know? A little critter by the name of "Al" just about took over H.H.S. last Friday morning. The girls seemed to think he was adorable. Well I wouldn't know about that, but Bob Bradley and some of the other guys in journalism certainly had their curiosities aroused. You see, they didn't believe us when we told them that "Al" was a baby alligator, and they couldn't see for themselves because "Al" happened to be in a certain place that was off limits to men. Well, that's the way it happened the day "Al" visited school.

Why don't you ask Maxine why she was running up and down Main in a formal last Thursday night? Might be interesting. . . .

Yes, and then there is the story of the high school girl who eloped, but I won't tell that because it's a secret marriage. I do have my scruples about certain matters. I can also remain absolutely quiet sometimes.

Marlene A. was that a threat?? What you had to offer on the subject of Don Ray I mean. Oh yes, now it's coming back isn't it?

Carol Sparks! Someone needs to wash your mouth out with soap! What a thing to say. . . and in public too.

You know Rosa Lee Strange don't you? Isn't she cute? I'll bet you can't guess what she was doing at our meeting the other night. I'll also bet that she doesn't know that I know.

I hear Alan Younger joined the navy. How about that? I also hear that he and Betty Smith are planning to tie the knot very shortly.

Jackie C. oddly enough, was telling Dorothy W. how to wear her sweater: What do you think of that??

Lenoy, do you always go along yelling at girls like that? If you don't watch it, someone is going to report you to the chief, or who ever attends to matters of that caliber, that you are a menace

HAPPY BIRTHDAY FOR RAYBURN — Those four candles are only part of the story as Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn looks at a birthday cake he received from his office staff in Washington. A high-riding cowboy and some roses make up the Texas decor. Rayburn, at 74, has been a member of the House since March 4, 1913 and has served as Speaker longer than any other person in history. (AP Wirephoto)

YARBOROUGH HONORED — Austin Attorney Ralph W. Yarbrough, 1954 candidate for governor, has been named to membership on the national legal committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was recommended for the appointment by Ted C. Connell of Killeen, Texas VFW Department Commander.

MILITARY DISCHARGES — More Texans were discharged from military service in 1953 than were drafted or volunteered. A total of 46,545 entered service while 54,499 were discharged. Draftees totaled 7954, as compared with 38,591 volunteers. Nearly four out of every 10 men examined were turned down.

DANIEL MAY REVEAL HIS PLANS — Not if, but when U. S. Sen. Price Daniel will announce for governor, now is the subject for political seers. Most likely date is Jan. 21. Then Daniel, who also is co-owner of two East Texas weeklies — the Liberty Vindicator and the Cleveland Advocate — will address the Mid-Winter Convention of the Texas Press Association in Austin. A statewide gathering of some 200 newsmen would offer a golden opportunity for a campaign kickoff, some say. Congressman-at-Large Martin Dies and State Rep. Horace B. Houston Jr., have said they would run for Daniel's senate seat when vacated.

FARM INCOME DROPS — Texas' cash farm income for the first 11 months of 1953 dropped eight percent below 1952. Commodities showing decreases were cotton, cottonseed, wheat, oats, flaxseed, rice, cattle, calves, hogs, wool, poultry, milk and milk products. Gains were registered by peanuts, corn, grain sorghum, sheep and lambs, mohair, eggs, fruit and vegetables.

MORE VACCINE — Because of steadily increasing supplies, Salk polio vaccine priority in Texas has been extended to persons up to 20 years of age and to pregnant women. Total polio cases in 1953 were 1931. It was a sharp drop from the previous year's 3037.

SHORT SNORTS — John A. McCurdy has retired as executive secretary of the U. T. Ex-Students Association, after nearly 30 years of service. He has been replaced by Jack R. Maguire, public relations director of the Texas Insurance Advisory Association. Maguire's successor has not been chosen. George Haddaway, publisher of Flight Magazine in Dallas, is the first chairman of the newly formed Aviation Council of Texas which will open offices soon, possibly in Austin. Birth records of the past five years indicate that over 350,000 additional students will enroll in the public schools of Texas during the next five years. There are 1,853,000 children of scholastic age this year, or an increase of 80,000 over last year.

Meet The Man But Don't Do It Blatantly

AP Newsfeatures
Even in leap year you can't ask or even imply marriage. Young men are doing their own choosing these days and a good way to scare them away, they admit, is to look expectant. One popular man-about-campus thinks the average girl is too confident, aggressive, determined as it is — one reason why he'll not propose any time soon, he says. "It's the shy-violet type I'm looking for, but where will you ever meet a girl who depends on a man in this day and age?" There are lots of shy-violet types the only trouble is that they aren't all in a position to meet young men. They are not the blind-daters, the speak-first in class type, the glad-eye party type. They are taught not to encourage strangers. "But our shy-violet seeker says 'not true. There are hundreds of ways a quiet type can meet nice boys.' "How" is the next question and he replies by offering these suggestions. Pretty good ideas, according to girls who've looked over the list. Try one or more in 1954 if you haven't before this and good evening to you.

- 1. At the library: Lots of opportunity there, he says. If shelves are high, ask him to reach for that book. Or perhaps you've left your glasses home, a good reason to ask him to help locate a book for you.
- 2. At the co-op: Ask him to help you select something for father, brother or friend.
- 3. On a committee — something funds or contributing time to local community chest, school or library projects.
- 4. School Cafeteria — Waiting on table is a good way to make friends. Or sharing a table over ham sandwich is another.

5. At sports arena — Ask questions of a stranger if you like — it's accepted. Even the hero's autograph might be sought for a young nephew if it is the hero of the game who captures your imagination.

6. Playshop groups — acting, directing or stage setting are great friendship makers.

7. Having Fun — You might meet him at the riding stable, golf course, tennis courts, swimming pool, ski hill, ice rink, fishing camp or what have you.

8. Courses in Hobbies — Photography, painting, sculpting, wood carving or any of the other hobby courses.

9. Vacation Spots — Student tours, cruises, weekend resort buses or train trips.

10. On a job — Weekend or part-time jobs frequently offer many opportunities to meet the man of your dreams, our male informant tells us. He suggests work in local stores, hospitals, library, etc., as good opportunities for corraling a male.

The implication of this list is that you can't meet a man if you hibernate. Get out where you can meet him and then be in a position to hold a conversation with him. It is as simple as that.

MOONSHINE SHINING

Wyoming contains land from all four of the principal annexations which made up the territory of the United States west of the Mississippi river.

CREDIT DEFERRED
ST. LOUIS (AP)—Harriett Londoff didn't hang around to claim credit when she saved from serious injury a boy whose hand fell against a slowly moving car. His shouts unheard, the boy ran as fast as he could to keep up. Miss Londoff, in her car and noticing the boy's predicament, stepped on the gas and overtook the car just in time.

Later when her identity became known Miss Londoff explained she left the scene hurriedly because she recently got two speeding tickets and realized that in making the rescue she was guilty of speeding and running a stop sign.

A SAFE SAFE
IRVING, Tex. (AP)—Yeggs couldn't crack the safe at an automobile firm's office.

So they stole one of the company's new trucks to haul it away. The truck and safe were recovered — but not the $5000 in cash and checks the safe contained.

AUSTIN — Insurance firms of all types are feeling the effect of the public's reaction over the failure of U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co. There appears to be a public wariness of insurance salesmen at the moment.

Steps are being taken to re-sell the public on the insurance business. One such move was an offer on the part of 28 legal reserve companies to "take over" the life insurance policies of defunct concerns. Thus they would protect policy holders from loss of their life insurance.

Today no policy holder in any legal reserve life insurance company in Texas has suffered any loss. Nevertheless the companies are feeling the pinch of the adverse publicity.

J. Ralph Wood, president of the Southwestern Life Insurance Co., was one of the 28 executives who presented the "guarantee" proposal to the insurance commission. "We want to protect the good name of Texas insurance companies," Wood stated, "and also protect the innocent life insurance policy holders."

J. Byron Saunders, chairman of the insurance commission, said "I am happy to hear of the project. It is a most laudable step. It will help relieve much public anxiety and concern."

In other developments, the insurance commission moved to force a change in management of the John K. Wilson Mutual Aid Association of Princeton, while the state obtained court orders to shut down the American Atlas Corporation and J. A. Irwin, Inc., of Dallas.

Meanwhile investigations continue by the Texas State Senate's investigating committee concerning all details of the collapse of the U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co., whose president A. B. Shoemaker shot himself when the firm went under recently.

Sen. William S. Fly of Victoria is the new chairman of the investigating group. Fly was named to the post by Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey after Sen. Searcy Bracewell of Houston resigned when the committee voted to go into a closed session. "to avoid improperly divulging facts for the benefit of offenders."

In the opinion of the new chairman, there is a place for both open and closed meetings. "But executive sessions should be held only under unusual and extraordinary conditions," Fly stated.

Checks unearthed in U. S. Trust files by State Auditor C. H. Cavness reveal the names of six legislators or ex-lawmakers who have received pay from the now-closed firm. But Cavness has not been able to learn who received $50,550 in cash withdrawals, most of which were made during the time the 1955 Legislature was in session.

Another Cavness revelation was payment of $115,499 to Kamini Advertising Agency. Cavness said it was a Houston firm which handled the Drew Pearson television program in which the news commentator told his listeners, "You can put your trust in U. S. Trust." Of the $115,499, a total of $95,992 was paid in 1955.

GILES TO HUNTSVILLE SOON — Bascom Giles, former State Land Commissioner, says he will begin his prison term within three or four weeks: He has been convicted 13 times. Sentences total 75 years. But all terms run concurrently, not consecutively. His maximum sentence has been six years. Allowing time for good behavior he will be eligible for parole in one year, two months and 12 days. Giles has told friends he is reconciled to going to prison and has vowed to repay all he owes. He has repaid $80,000 to date. Giles is joint defendant in other civil suits totaling $170,000. But his share of the liability has not been determined.

WATER PROBLEMS STUDIED — To conserve water, Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson recommends the proration of water much the same as oil now is prorated. He made his recommendation at a meeting of the Texas Water Resources Committee. At the same session members of the Brazos River Authority said that in some years as much as 600,000 tons of salt and other chlorides are washed into Possum Kingdom Reservoir. Suggested was a dam to block off a salt flat in Northwest Texas and permanently impound the flow of brine springs and the run-off from the area. This would prevent intrusion of 200,000 tons of salt a year into the Brazos reservoir and stream flow. BRA's aim is a six-dam program costing $173,000,000.

Two Texans On House Agriculture Committee Say Farm Plan Not New

By TEX EASLEY
Special Washington Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — The two Texans on the House Agriculture Committee — Democratic Reps. W. Poage and Clark Thompson, both say that President Eisenhower's farm message didn't really contain anything new.

major crops, but thinks the two legislative bodies in the end will compromise on a bill guaranteeing farmers an income equivalent to 90 percent of parity.

"This likely will be done through a 75 percent of parity price supports," Poage continued, "combined with direct payments equal to difference between that amount and the sum they would receive if there was a 90 percent support program."

"By this set-up the Administration could save face in its refusal to approve a 90 percent of parity program, but they would be relying on the old rejected Brannon plan theory of subsidy payments to do it."

Thompson's gulf coast district grows a lot of rice, and he took exception to the president's suggestion that rice and peanuts be dropped from the price support program.

"The suggestion is in line with the big interests fight on the floor of Congress year after year," he said.

"It is led by manufacturers and not by agriculture."

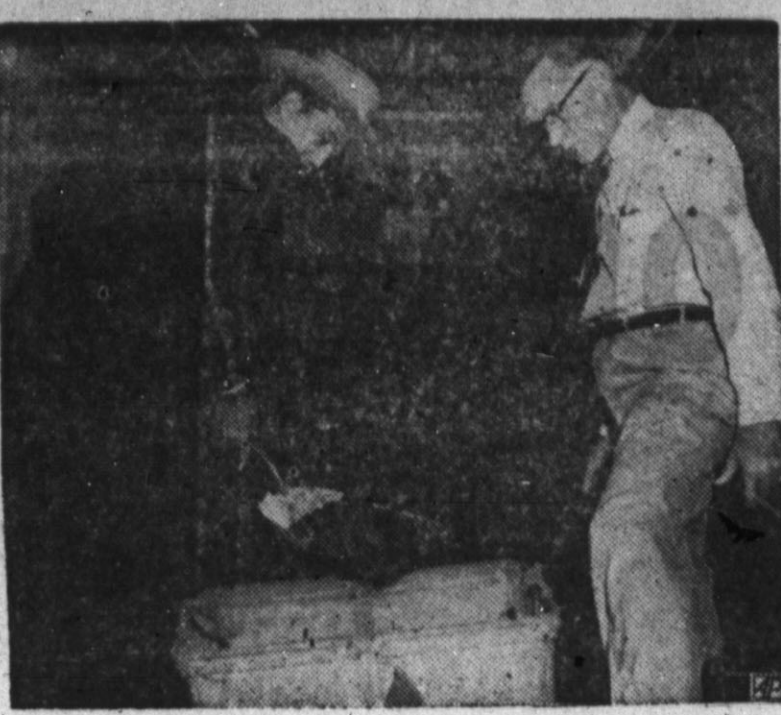

AROUND THE CAPITAL

One account of the origin of the rivalry between Dallas and Fort Worth is contained in a colorful history of the latter city written by Rep. Jim Wright and placed in the Congressional Record.

Observing that it was just 100 years ago Fort Worth took its first community action with the creation of a school district, and in that same year of 1856 a postoffice was established and the Tarrant County seat of government moved there from Birdville, Wright said:

"Wagon trains of settlers were rolling westward, looking for a place to get a new start and stake the family future. Some 30 miles to the east lay Dallas, already established, like a roadblock across the trail.

"When the wagons rumbled out through the westward track, Dallas men would stop them with lu-

COAL "UNCOVERED" IN MIDLAND — U.S. Representative J. T. Rutherford, left, dumps a shovel full of coal into a truck in the basement of the Midland Post Office as Postmaster Noel G. Oates watches. Rutherford found the coal pile while investigating whether more space could be made available in the building by using the basement. Postmaster Oates said the coal had been there since 1937 when the building was converted to gas heat and repeated requests to have it moved by the Government Services Administration have failed. rid tales of danger to the west. "The Indians will surely scalp you if you venture to Fort Worth," they warned.

"Here, perhaps, began Fort Worth's much vaunted early reputation as a wild and woolly place.

"Here, too, began an intense rivalry which has raged for a hundred years. Picking up the challenge, the Fort Worth settlement sent riders to intercept the wagons east of Dallas and escort them to Fort Worth along a trail that bypassed the neighboring village."

Since so much importance is placed on size of a city by many industries looking about for sites to locate, Rep. Wright Patman wants population counts to reflect the true size of the metropolitan area of his home town of Texarkana.

He has introduced a bill calling on the Census Bureau to give the population of Texarkana, U. S. A. a figure combining the official counts of the Texas and Arkansas Texarkanas.

The 1950 census, incidentally, showed the population of Texarkana, Tex., to be 24,753; Texarkana, Ark., 15,875. Total, 40,628.

UNIFORM GIVEAWAY

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Retired Marine Gen. H. M. (Howlin' Mad) Smith of World War II fame appeared in civilian clothes, instead of marine dress uniform as requested, at a military function. He explained he has given away all his uniforms, to museums and other such places.

FROZEN BAIT WORKS

DANA POINT, Calif. (AP) — The bait worked just fine — even though it was six centuries old. Dr. Richard T. Street displayed four fish to prove it.

The bait? A jar full of grasshoppers found embedded in the ice of a glacier in Montana. They were sent to Dr. Street by some friends who are members of the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science. They dug them out of the glacier and say the bugs have been caught in the ice when trapped in a downdraft.

Dr. Street, an ardent fisherman, tried them as bait more or less as a joke. His success proves fish don't know the difference between fresh bait and stale.

are old friends of the many 4-H and FFA Club Boys and Girls entering the Hereford Show. Many of you are irrigating your farms today with CHRYSLER INDUSTRIAL ENGINES . . . the most widely know irrigation engine in the world.

Remember kids . . . most of you will be running your own farms and ranches in the near future, and you'll surely want dependability in your irrigation engines. You'll have this with CHRYSLER INDUSTRIAL IRRIGATION MOTORS.

FOR A SURE WINNER

We Suggest You Always Feed P. G. C. Feeds

First we would like to offer our Congratulations to the Boys and Girls who have entered such fine livestock in this years Junior Livestock Show. You have done an outstanding job in this field.

Next, we want to remind all of you that if it's a P.G.C. FED CHAMPION, you're in store for a GRAND PRIZE from Hereford Grain Corporation. If you calf Places in the show, be sure to let us know.

And . . . whether your calf placed or not, you'll be wise to start preparing for next year now, by starting your calf on P.G.C.

The same prizes offered this year by Hereford Grain Corporation will be in effect for the 1957 show.

We Are Sincerely Interested In The Future of Our Farm Youth!

IF WE CAN BE OF ANY HELP TO YOU, PLEASE CALL UPON US.
