MAKING HARD JOB HARDER -- Hereford residents apparently have a knack for making a fireman's job even harder than it should be. This shot shows the truth of that statement. Firemen and police alike had a rough time when a fire call on Highway 60 came in Friday afternoon. A truck owned by Albert Perez caught fire and the blaze, which caused only minor damage, attracted scores of sightseers. Traffic on the highway came to a halt at one time. (Staff Photo)

Grasshoppers Not Bad Problem Here

County Agent Hugh Clearman says Deaf Smith County has apparently escaped severe damage from grasshoppers. Hoppers have caused damage running into thousands of dollars in other Plains counties, however, Clearman said that the most severe cases he knows of in the county are east of Hereford, where at least two farmers have been forced to spray the insects. The county agent said that in some small areas the damage has been "pretty bad."

Second Arrest Made In Forgery Case By Sheriff

Another person has been arrested by the Sheriff's Department and charged with forgery in connection with two forged checks passed in Hereford recently. He is Billy Don Knight. Earlier this week a woman identified herself as Knight's wife, was arrested on a similar charge. Neither have made bond.

URGES CHURCH SUPPORT -- Jim Walker of Fort Worth, governor of the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis District, urged Hereford Kiwanians to support churches in their spiritual aims, when he addressed the club Thursday. The meeting was attended by representatives of several nearby clubs. (Photo By Bill Patton)

District Governor Reminds Kiwanians Of Church Duties

The support of churches in their spiritual aims was stressed here Thursday, when Jim Walker of Ft. Worth, governor of the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis District, spoke before the Hereford club at noon Thursday. "The churches have a greater membership than ever before," said Walker; "there are more religious subject books on the market for laymen, and novels with a religious background continue to lead the parade of best sellers," he pointed out. "Faith in God is essential—and Kiwanis is an adjunct," said Walker, who also pointed out that Kiwanis is the only major service club which maintains a standing committee in this regard. Walker also reviewed various methods through which the Hereford club could do more toward promotion of church attendance and promotion. He stressed work with the schools, touching on the curbing of the sale of lewd comic books. "Go to Church" campaigns were also cited as a means of betterment, along with distribution of church service directories in hotels and tourist courts of the community. The home was also cited as a point where Kiwanians can help

Rainfall In Area Totals One Inch

A brilliant electrical display ushered in more than a half inch of rain in many sections of the county Friday night, bringing rainfall measurements to close to an inch for the week. The rain combined with a similar one Thursday night to send most rain gauges close to the one inch mark. Some areas were completely skipped, however. The rain was accompanied by high winds both nights. At least one building, owned by Oris Cansler, was damaged by the wind Thursday night. The building was under construction, and the wind blew down a large scaffold throwing it into the side of the building and causing considerable damage to the structure. About the only other damage reported was to the trees and corn. Some corn was reported to have been blown over by the wind, but most farmers said it would probably straighten itself out. Rainfall in Hereford measured .40 of an inch Thursday night and .32 Friday night. Reports from throughout the county: S. P. Bass, who lives a mile north of Hereford, reported a total rainfall of .70, with some wind damage to corn. W. H. AWTREY reported .45 Thursday night and .75 Friday. C. J. BEREND, seven miles northwest, had a half inch Thursday and .30 Friday. ROBERT BETZEN, four miles north, also had a half inch Thursday and .30 Friday. O. C. BUCKMASTER, three miles northeast, reported .40 inches Thursday and .30 Friday. FLOYD COKER, four and a half miles southwest, had .80 Thursday and a sprinkle Friday. H. V. CRAWFORD, two miles east, measured .35 Thursday and the same amount Friday. W. N. HODGES of a mile and a half northwest of Hereford had .25 Thursday and .45 Friday. TANDY LEGG, two and a half miles north on Highway 51, reported a total of one inch. C. F. NEWSOM of six miles southeast, had .40 Thursday and (Continued on Page 2)

Murder Trials Set Same Day

Two murder trials have been scheduled in District Court in Hereford for Sept. 26. District Judge Harry Schultz has set the trials of Clifton D. Potter and Melvin O. Wheeler for the same day. Potter is charged with murder with malice in connection with the shooting death of George Thompson. He was indicted June 16 of this year. Officers say Thompson was shot four times following a fight over liquor. Wheeler was indicted Nov. 6, 1953 in the stabbing death of Mike Huckert. The stabbing is alleged to have occurred over "family troubles." This is the fifth time that the case has been on Judge Schultz's docket.

Six Charges Are Filed Following Speeding Chase

Six charges were filed against William Isaac Allen in Corporation and County Courts Friday following a speeding chase down Twenty-five Mile Avenue Thursday night. Allen was charged with speeding, driving without a license, resisting arrest, driving on the wrong side of the street and driving without lights by city police and was charged with driving while intoxicated in County Court. Fines of $83 were levied against the man in Corporation Court and then he was transferred into custody of county officials. Saturday he was free on $500 bond on the DWI charge. City police had a running chase moved to Hereford from Kansas. She was a member of the Methodist Church. Pallbearers were: Leonard Schmidt, Herb Schmidt, Clark Andrews, E. H. Little, Frank Robbins and James Dobbs. Interment was made at West Park Cemetery. Surviving are her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy White of Peabody, Kans., and Mrs. Edna Buss from Denton; four grand children and five great grandchildren.

Mrs. Cora Geer Buried Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora E. Geer were held Saturday morning at 10 p.m. in the Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral Home. Rev. B. H. Baldwin of the First Baptist Church was in charge of the service. After an illness of several months, Mrs. Geer died Thursday, July 14 in her home at 407 West Second in Hereford. Born May 28, 1864, Mrs. Geer was married Oct. 2, 1900, to John Geer in Illinois. In 1947 the Geers moved to Hereford from Kansas. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Around Town

Most popular past time Around Town these days seems to be having July clearance sales. Everyone but the lawyers, dentists and doctors seem to be getting into the swing of things. From all indications, what you can't get on sale this week "ain't" worth getting anyway.

And the town is taking on a rosy look too. Store windows have suddenly blossomed forth in beautiful shades of yellow, green and blue. We understand the color is the latest method of keeping the sun out of a window that was made for the sun to come through in the first place. Even the boss broke down and had our windows sprayed. Now every day we have the blues around The Brand.

Announcement was made this week of the sale of the Thomas P. Howard Accounting firm to Russell, Curtis and Graham of Amarillo, who have already assumed operation of the business. Howard, who has operated the business for the past 11 years, will remain with the firm a few weeks. His future plans include attending law school, following which he will specialize in tax law.

Polio Shots Are Due This Week

Hereford first and second grade students will probably receive their second shot of the Salk polio vaccine this week. That was the word Saturday from Dr. R. R. Willis, county health officer. Dr. Willis said that he was notified by telegram Friday that the vaccine is now available in Austin. A Shamrock Oil Co. plane will fly to Austin sometime this week to pick up the vaccine for Deaf Smith County and other area counties, and return it to Amarillo, where Dr. Willis will pick up Hereford's share.

Wool Referendum Begins July 27

About a dozen Deaf Smith County growers will be eligible to vote in the wool referendum to be conducted from July 27 to August 13, F. G. Collier, manager of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office, revealed Saturday. Collier said all known wool growers would be sent a ballot and any grower not receiving one should request one from the ASC office.

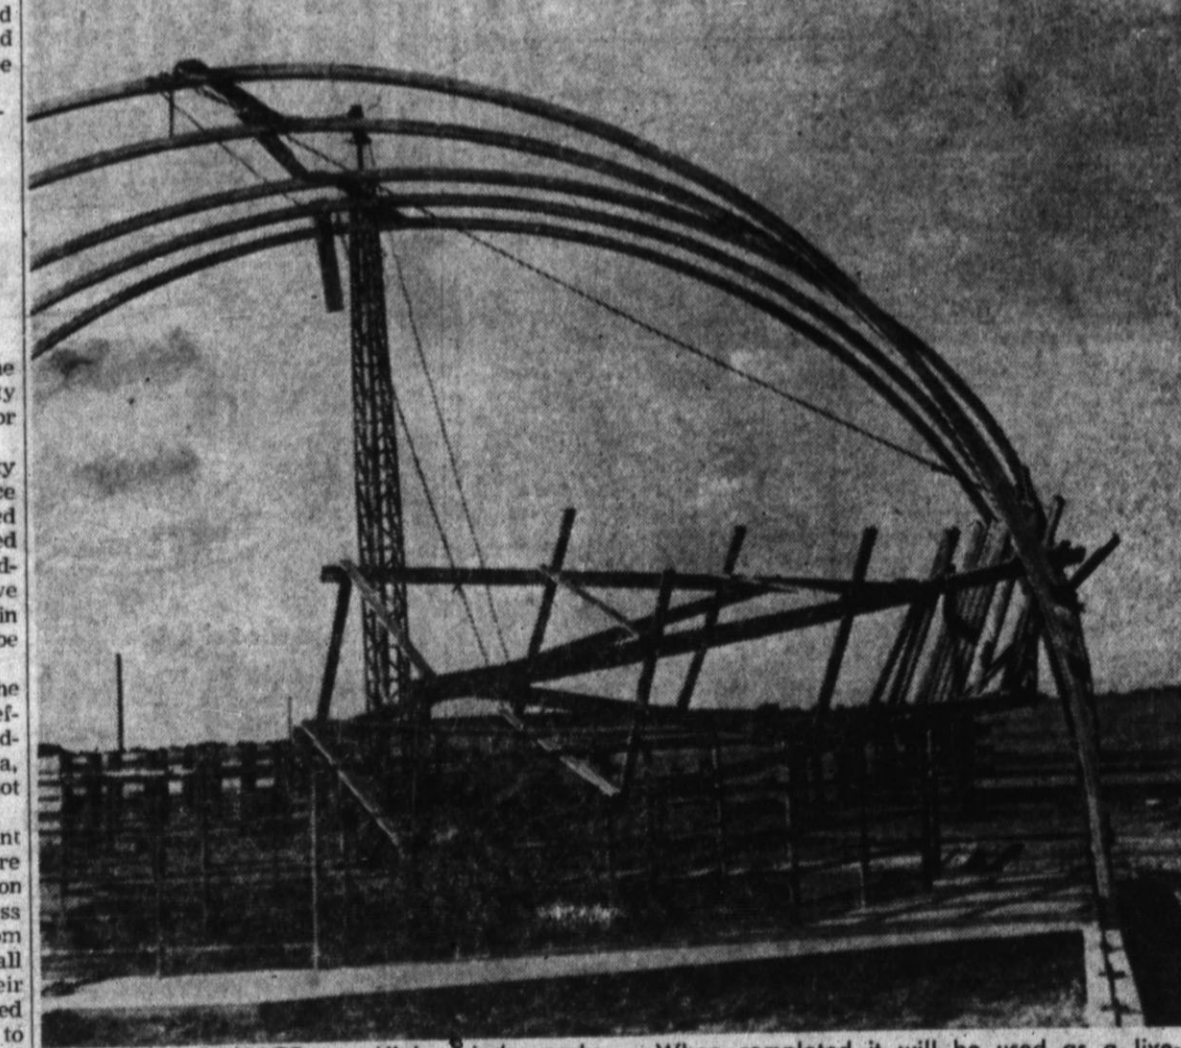

'Hugging' Costs Man Heavy Fine

A Hereford man was given a maximum fine in Corporation Court this week on a charge of disturbing the peace. Barney A. Rhoten was fined $200 by Judge Cecil Massey following his arrest at the swimming pool. City police were called to the pool after several complaints from swimmers. Rhoten was accused of "hugging" several young girls. (Continued on Page 2)

Poor Quality Wheat Will Be Penalized Next Year

Deaf Smith County wheat growers were recalling this week a prediction that didn't ring home quite as well as it should have. The government may in the future loan "so much" on good quality wheat and "maybe nothing" on poor quality wheat, they were told June 13 by Frank M. Pharris of the Producers Grain Association of Amarillo. He suggested that a large number of the growers get together, study to find out what variety would be most acceptable to millers, and plant that one variety. By the applause Rudd drew at the meeting, growers apparently thought the idea was a good one then—and today it probably sounds even better.

Some farmers have indicated that Benson's plan will work only if there is a great enough difference in support prices between good quality milling wheat and wheat fit only for use as feed. They point out that some of the lower quality wheat will far out-produce the good quality wheat and still make it financially practical for the farmer to grow it unless there is a big difference. The local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office suggested in their news bulletin this week that growers check wheat varieties with elevator operators and seed dealers, before treating and storing wheat for seed. "Get their ideas on the future of poor-milling wheat," the ASC recommended. Some growers feel that Benson may have found a partial answer to the wheat surplus problem. They

WIND DAMAGE -- High winds early Friday morning caused an undisclosed amount of damage to the building pictured above which was under construction at the time. Owned by Otis Cansler, the building is located 1 1/2 miles southeast of Hereford. When completed it will be used as a livestock auction barn. Cansler said the wind blew over a scaffold into the side of the structure. The building was insured. (Bill Patton Photo)

Planning Commission Asks Engineer To Prepare Overall Traffic Program

An overall traffic pattern program for Hereford is being studied by the City Planning Commission. The Commission, in a meeting this past week, asked City Engineer Earl Jones to draw up plans incorporating such things as one way streets and no parking zones. The group even discussed the possibility of an overpass on Park Avenue to relieve a possible traffic problem. All of the suggestions may be included in a long-range traffic plan to be drawn up by the Committee. The group is taking the same action taken by Lubbock some years ago when citizens there planned for the city's growth. They will study Hereford's growth and plan now for the time when there will be a series of super-highways passing through Hereford. Chairman of the committee is J. C. McCracken. Other members include Neil Cooper, J. R. Allison, Ben Childers and Claude Ricketts. The group also studied the petitions presented by the Hereford Rural High School District to bring in the new elementary school property into the city and one presented by F. J. Engler to bring a new addition into the city. The Committee serves as an advisory group to the City Commission.

on Hereford's quality index rating fifth in the state and reprinted a portion of it in their Texas Views Roundup column. The News added this compliment to the city: "Actually, Highland Park and University Park are not strictly comparable with the others since they are not primarily business communities. This would put Hereford and Kilgore right up next to Plainview and Sherman. They are all in mighty good company, however you survey it."

Final wheat loan rate in Deaf Smith County is $2.09 a bushel, the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office announced Saturday.

James E. Alston has been named a distinguished student for the spring semester at Texas A&M College. A distinguished student must have a grade point ratio of 2.25 or better.

J. W. Robinson Jr., received the following letter from the president of Southland Life Insurance Co. this week: "Congratulations! You led the entire company in written business for the month of June."

In connection with the annual July Clearance of H. and H. Furniture, Otis Hall also announced today that the store will extend its premises back to the alley—increasing the floor space of the firm by approximately 50 percent. The sale this year, he said, will be a "double-barrel" event.

Earnest L. Langley has been named on the State Bar of Texas Committee on Administration of Justice by Maurice R. Bullock, State Bar president.

Jim Hill Gains On Pigs; Stop Summerfield, 8-3

Hotel Jim Hill gained a half game on league-leading Piggy Wiggly by taking a decisive 8-3 victory over Summerfield in an abbreviated but official game Friday night.

Blue Turpin definitely had the Farmers off balance with his slow ball. They batted out six hits, but Turpin struck out four men in four innings and walked only two. Bob Clark, Summerfield starter, gave up only five hits but was plagued by wildness, giving up five bases on balls.

The game started under threatening weather conditions and finally the contest was called in the top of the fifth. However, the game was official since four complete innings had been played. Leading only 4-3 going into the top of the fourth Jim Hill had added some insurance tallies and held Summerfield to nothing in the bottom half of the inning.

Jim Hill led all the way, and the Farmers never did pose as a threat to them even if they pulled to within one run at one point in the game. Hotel scored its only two innings, but they had a rally started in the fifth before the game was called.

Jim Hill first took the lead in the top of the first with a four-run uprising. Dick Ross and Doug Timberlake both walked as the first two hitters, and Bill Howard, fine catcher, smashed a double to score both of them. Winkler fanned, but Renner walked, Howard stealing third. Hale scored. Howard with his deep fly to left, and Carrell walked to put runners on first and second. Turpin lined a double to left to score Renner.

But Summerfield had no yearning to be shut out, so they scored a lone tally in the first. After Lee had grounded out Howell walked and Botkin singled. Hill Davis wanked also, and Duane Balze drove in the run with a single.

They held Jim Hill scoreless in the second and third but picked up two runs in the bottom of the third. Bobby Clark's home run with one mate aboard was wholly responsible for the scoring of the tallies.

In the top of the fourth, however, Jim Hill put the game on ice with four runs. With two out Ross singled and Timberlake got on by way of an error. Howard doubled to score one and put runners on second and third. John Winkler then bashed a home run to complete the four run rally.

made it 7-0 with a pair of runs. Both came by way of Tim Corbett's four-base smash with one mate aboard.

Then in the fifth trying to end the game, in five innings, they failed to score a single tally. Pickens and Morgan both popped up, and after Wilson singled, Sims flied to centerfield to end the inning.

In the sixth they returned to their old ways and pushed across four more counters. Ken Brock walked as a lead-off hitter, but Dement, who failed to get a hit in five tries, flied to leftfield. Lueb smashed a double to score Brock, and after Corbett was thrown out McNeese socked another double to score Lueb. Pickens followed with the third double of the inning for another run, and the fourth double was elicited by Morgan.

Rutherford's only run came in the sixth. Ellison led with a base on balls, and Shanks caught a Morgan change of pace and smashed it into left field for a double to put him on second and Ellison on third. Callaway was hit by a pitch to load the sacks. Ellison scored the run when Summers popped to second baseman Marshall Wilson whose throw trying to get Ellison who had tagged was late.

The Pigs were not satisfied with a 10 run lead, so they added three more in the top of the seventh to complete the final score of 14-1. Sims led with a single, and Brock walked. Dement popped to second base, and Raymond Lueb smashed a home run to score all of the three runs.

It was Morgan's thirteenth win against two losses. In Monday night's games Jim Hill will tangle with Popular Store in the second game and Piggy Wiggy will take on the KC's in the initial fracas.

Pigs Notch 13th; KC's Gain On JH

By BILL KNOX

Piggy Wiggy notched victory number 13 by pasting Rutherford's 14-1 Thursday night, while the Knights of Columbus glided by Coopers 15-5.

The Pigs did not have to fight hard for the victory, but it did not come as easily as the score may indicate. They banged out 14 hits but never did have what might be termed as a big inning. Morgan was sharp, giving up only one hit and striking out 11, and Piggy Wiggy didn't need many runs to win.

Rutherford's lone hit didn't come until the sixth inning. Their only run, which came in the same inning, was due probably to one of Morgan's infrequent wild spells. He gave up only four walks in his seven inning stint.

It looked as if Rutherford's might make a game of it at the beginning, but the Pigs' power was too much. Raymond Lueb league-leading batter, fattened his already bulging average with a perfect day at the plate, five hits in five tries including a home run.

Piggy Wiggy first took the lead in the second on a four-run outburst. Lueb led off with a single.

Corbett flied to right, but Slagle singled, scoring Lueb all the way from first. Bookout and Morgan both drew bases on balls to load the bases, and Rose drove in one when he was safe on a fielder's choice. Sims scored another with his sacrifice fly, and Kenny Brock drove in the fourth tally.

The Pigs picked up three hits and a walk in the third but managed to put across only one run. Lueb again led off with a single, but Corbett fanned. Bookout got a single to score Lueb who had gone to second. Rose singled and Morgan walked after that, but they failed to count another tally.

The Sheriff Reports

Guess The Brand must be having a hard time finding something to fill up space between the ads. Anyway whatever the reason one Mr. Moore has been after me to start writing the column again. Have been hesitant to start again because when you have lots of business in the department there isn't time for a column and when there is time the news is scarce. Will do the best I can with the ability allotted me. We can't seem to get caught up even though the days are two days long. As most of you know, the vegetable season brings troubles by the truck load. The labor camp is about full and a couple of fellows I know aren't helping the situation by building another camp across the tracks from the big one. Think one of these guys would have ceased construction if we had known in time to make a deputy out of him. He knows what I'm talking about if you don't.

Have been busy all week on a couple of fergeries among other things. Had some good luck in finding some parties involved but the case has been hard to complete due to those in custody handling the truth so loosely. Occasionally a day or two in jail helps them remember a little better.

We only handled 26 people in the jail last month but June is the month for marriages and not getting in jail. That comes along later on.

Our county has been pretty lucky concerning fatal accidents the last few weeks. The last accident was one of the most unusual things I have ever seen. However you describe the thing it was still a terrible thing.

Virgil Moore is looking down my collar so guess I'll quit and let him go to press. I'm sure this will delay publication if I don't hurry. In case I'm vacationing in Colorado next weekend will try to find a substitute.

Tips On Fruit Canning Are Given By County HD Agent

By ARGEN DRAPER
Canning fruit for family use has always been popular with homemakers who are economically minded. Canned fruit reduces the cost of living and often gives better quality products than the family budget can afford if the same quality fruit is bought commercially canned.

to retain food value and color and it also must be stored correctly. The water-bath method is considered the best to can fruit, fruit juices, tomatoes, tomato juices, and rhubarb. Any large kettle with a rack and tight fitting lid is sufficient for canning if the kettle is deep enough to hold the cans or jars upright and allow the water to boil one or two inches over the top of them. Before peeling the fruit or getting it ready to put in the cans, get the jars, lids, and syrup ready. It is very necessary to work fast when preserving any fruit or vegetable, but it is particularly necessary to work speedily, carefully, and with a small amount of fruit. Fruit that is exposed to the air for a long period of time will turn dark. Dark fruit is unappetizing. If there are a few slices of dark fruit at the top of the jar, these slices will probably be thrown away, thus adding to the cost of the fruit. There are a few things to do to prevent discoloration. You will want to make your syrup first.

Spotting Faces On Floor Is Not Unusual In Utah

SALT LAKE CITY—George H. Gowans had just finished reading a newspaper story about Queen Elizabeth II when he saw her face on the floor.

The coincidence shook Gowans a little, although he is used to seeing faces on the floor—and the walls—of the building where he works. He is the guide on the second floor of the Utah State Capitol. He has been there two years, and in that time he figures he has found at least 100 pictures.

There is nothing wrong with Gowans' sight. Anyone who visits the rotunda can do the same thing, and so many pictures have been spotted that Gowans says he could not begin to estimate the number. The floor and walls are inlaid with gray Georgia marble. In the grain of the marble and in the way the panels are joined you can see butterflies, a pair of socks, Mt. Hood, a lion's head, a Cub Scout's profile, an atomic explosion, an hour glass and what Gowans calls a "Persian rug" containing the faces of sleeping children and a Newfoundland dog's face, front view.

These are just a few of the going to can your fruit by steaming and cooking in the water-bath cooker or by using the open kettle method. The Experiment Stations tell us that colors and better food values are retained by peeling fruit raw, steaming and water-bathing.

pictures on the floor and walls. The marble pillars are full of pictures, too. Mae West, Santa Claus, a Boston terrier.

In one wall panel you can see black crickets, like the ones that plagued the early Utah settlers. And on the pillars opposite are swooping seagulls, like the ones that devoured the crickets.

Gowans says the pictures are there by accident, not design. The marble was laid in 1915 and the first to spot a picture were the workmen who did the job. They saw a face in one panel and called it William Jennings Bryan. Gowans thinks it looks more like Bismack. But some people think they see a resemblance to Genghis Khan.

"Anyhow, people have been seeing pictures ever since," Gowans says.

Because of the rotunda's age, some of the pictures had to wait a long time before they got names—like the atomic explosion and the Cub Scout.

And some were a long time in being discovered. Like Queen Elizabeth II. After Gowans spotted her face, he found an identical likeness of her, across the marble but not quite so clear.

Elizabeth isn't the only queen on the floor. Queen Victoria is only a few feet away. Gowans has known about her for a long time.

"I'd have sworn every picture had been found," Gowans says. "But I turned around and there was Queen Elizabeth, right on the floor behind me. The floor was laid 11 years before Elizabeth was born in 1926 and Mother Nature put her face in that marble maybe a million years ago."

GLASS FAMILY
DUDLEY, Mass. (AP)—The Walter H. Tobin family collects glass—father, mother, daughter and son-in-law. And they're real collectors: They won't even swap among themselves, says Mrs. Tobin.

"We've got so many collections I keep my antiques down cellar," says Tobin. He specially fancies bottles, mostly flasks, but also rare glasses and steins, plus some 120 glass baskets. His wife collects Tiffin glass and china. She gets baskets but won't share them with her husband for they're high on her collection list.

Daughter Mrs. Laverne F. Lundberg collects antique eggs—make believe eggs, that is. They're made of blown glass, ivory, laquer and what-have-you. Also, she has a line of sugar, salt and pepper shakers. Tobin infected his son-in-law by giving him a shaving mug some one in Tobin's family carried down through the Civil War. Now, Lundberg has a shaving mug collection to excite the envy of a bar or shop quartet.

Hoffmans Relive Their Wedding After 50 Years

It was not quite the same as it was 50 years ago when Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Hoffman went through a wedding ceremony Tuesday morning to celebrate their golden anniversary.

On July 12, 1905 Miss Elizabeth Kuper of St. Henry, Ind., became the bride of Joseph L. Hoffman in the St. Henry Catholic Church with the Rev. Joseph Schveigmann officiating.

Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock the Hoffmans and their family and friends gathered to re-create the event in St. Anthony's Catholic Church of Hereford. The Rev. Father Nathaniel Madden was the officiant.

All the attendants at that long ago ceremony were present for the anniversary ceremony except one sister of Mrs. Hoffman, Catharine Kuper, now deceased. Taking their same places as in the wedding were Henry Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kuper and Mrs. John Lueb of Boulder, Colo., serving in place of Miss Catharine Kuper.

The church was decorated with yellow and gold gladioli and candles burned at the altar. Ed Dziuk, vocalist, and Armella Reinart organist, provided the music. Dennis Hoffman and Ralph Schulte served at the mass.

A dinner was served for the immediate family and out of town guests at the home of their son, E. M. Hoffman, and in the afternoon approximately 200 guests attended a reception honoring the couple held in the new St. Anthony's School Hall. Daughters and daughters-in-law acted as hostesses. Mrs. Joe Paetzold was in charge of decorations which featured a gold theme throughout.

Hoffman was born in Johnsburg, Ind., and Mrs. Hoffman was born in nearby St. Henry. They attended the same school and after their marriage they moved to a farm near St. Henry. They moved to Hereford in 1916 and were engaged in farming south of Hereford. Later they moved to their present farm five miles west. Although he has retired, they continue to make the farm their home.

Their nine children include Mrs. J. I. Lueb, Boulder, Colo., Mrs. Albert Schulte, Nazareth; R. L. Hoffman, Talala, Okla., Mrs. W. D. Isbell, Eddie Hoffman, Mrs. Joe Schulte, Tony Hoffman, Fritz Hoffman, all of Hereford, and Mrs. Vincent Guzman of Inola, Okla. There are also 29 grandchildren.

Out of town guests attending the anniversary ceremony were Klem Kilten, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kilten, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kilten and Henry Holliday of Slaton, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Lueb and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lueb of Boulder, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hoffman and family of Talala, Okla., Mrs. Vincent Guzman and family of Inola, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hang and Veralee, Martha Ruth and Jochum of Evansville, Ind.

NOW AND THEN -- Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoffman are pictured above as they celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. They were reliving a day 50 years ago (see inset) when they were married.

Miss Virginia Fay Brock Marries Leonard Schmidt

Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. B. H. Baldwin, pastor of the Frio Baptist Church. The home was decorated with white gladioli and fernery.

Miss Frances Andrews played traditional wedding music at the piano including "Clair de Lune," "Always," "Melody of Love" and "Summer Dawn," and during the ceremony "Bless Be The Tie That Binds." The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was used as the professional and Bless This House as the recessional.

Bride Wears Ice-Blue

white Frenched carnations. The bride's attendant was Miss Verdelle Andrews who served as maid of honor. She wore a rose-mauve, silk-alene dress fashioned after the bride's dress, with pink accessories. She wore a white carnation corsage.

Glenn Andrews served the bride-groom as best man. The bride's mother's dress was in charcoal gray with black accessories. Mrs. Schmidt wore a

Proposed 'Master Plan' On City Growth Will Eliminate Many Future Headaches

A delegation of Hereford citizens known as the Planning and Zoning Commission met the other night and did quite a bit of head scratching. Immediate accomplishments from the meeting were none but one decision of the group could easily exert far reaching effects upon the future of the community.

This decision concerned the proposal to adopt a Master Plan around which the future Hereford will be expanded and built. The same Master Plan will also take into consideration some of our present shortcomings and will attempt to cure them in line with careful future planning.

Some of the problems discussed at the meeting centered around: How to get people into town from outlying additions; How and where to best cross Highway 20 into South Hereford with a possible underpass; Location of future highways, safety and kindness of a corporation or institution merits such recognition. This we believe, is the current case of "John Santa Fe".

We refer to the fact that Santa Fe which may someday bypass Hereford when they are widened or expanded; Rules governing new additions to the City from time to time. The group also discussed the presence of traffic problems on Main Street and talked of "one-way traffic and parallel parking" as possible answers; they also considered one-way traffic on Third Street, along with "No Parking" on Third Street. The probability of need for making Avenue K into a 50-foot street was pointed out in connection with the proposed grade school now in preliminary stages. Parks, present and future, were also discussed, along with required utilities and general improvements.

Each of these questions poses its own particular problem and definitely cannot be solved in one big swoop. On the other hand, it does appear that the Planning and Zoning Commission is on the right track in adopting some type of overall Master Plan. No thinking person or group would consider constructing a church, school or large building without specific plans from a qualified architect. Yet, cities and towns all over the nation are thrown together without benefit of even meager planning for future situations.

Such is the case concerning Hereford's current ills, most of which could easily have been eliminated through making Main Street and Third Street wider at the outset. The cities of Dallas and Ft. Worth have been forced to spend literally millions of dollars -- and still have far from desirable circumstances as regard traffic on central arteries. Smaller towns like Amarillo and Austin have found temporary relief with one-way traffic. All of these things could have been eliminated a few years ago, probably without cost, had the towns been partly planned.

Hereford of course, is a long way from the status found in these larger cities. It will probably never be as big as any of the four mentioned. We already have immediate troubles as the result of growing pains, however, and with careful planning the community can be made much more desirable and attractive in future years. Failure to follow some plan of this type will find us in a position parallel to those times when our children have attended school in various churches three times during the past decade.

The community has grown. It continues to grow. With this growth comes responsibilities and privileges. The proposed Master Plan, to us, answers a definite need, and is one which every citizen should encourage and join for a better Hereford.

Do Civic Clubs 'Make' The Town

Initial steps are underway toward organization of an Optimist Club in Hereford, according to announcements during recent weeks. This club, when activated, will give Hereford a total of four active civic clubs in addition to Jaycees, B. and P. W. and other similar organizations. The four clubs will represent a combined membership of approximately 250 men, composed chiefly of citizens interested in the welfare of the community.

The Optimists, with smaller national and international membership may not be so widely scattered as some of the other clubs but, where they have organizations, the Optimists are generally considered as one of the hardest working, most industrious groups in the community. Optimists place a heavy emphasis upon boys and girls work which, we understand, will be one of the chief objectives of the local club. For this reason, the people of Hereford, along with members of the other clubs, should encourage and welcome the new organization with open arms.

Many towns the size of Hereford support only two active civic clubs, a few have three and it is a livewire town, indeed, which produces enough manpower for four energetic clubs.

This situation, all in all, speaks exceptionally well for the community. From the same basic spirit of progress, cooperation, and community endeavor springs the factor which has resulted in the phenomenal growth of Hereford and the surrounding territory during the past decade. ### QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Readers Disagree On Auto Straps As Safety Factor

Safety straps in automobiles are being praised as a proven lifesaver. Do you believe that they will ever become common in passenger cars?

BUDDY SLAUGHTER

No, the highways and automobiles are improved so much that they aren't necessary.

MRS. KENNETH COWAN

No, too many passengers are thrown clear of car wrecks and if they were strapped in when an automobile accident occurred, many more deaths would probably occur.

BILL MILLER

No, they will not become standard equipment in automobiles because of some makes of cars having a cushion dash panel which will protect passengers.

MRS. FRANK PROWELL

Maybe they will in the far future, but people are too busy to take the trouble to use them now.

BUD TAYLOR

Yes, they would be practical because of the high speed in cars now.

MRS. NEIL HENRY

No, people wouldn't want to take the time and bother of strapping themselves in every time they decide to go some place.

TROY MOORE

No, people won't take time to use them and I don't think they are practical.

S. O. WILSON

Yes, they will because it's just the natural development of progress and everyone will want to try it.

MRS. J. D. DODSON

Yes, because of so many accidents today and the speedy drivers.

F. M. KESTER

No, people wouldn't want to go to the inconvenience of strapping themselves in every time they decided to go a short distance.

'Tater Peelin's' by Roberta Campbell

Fate has always been pretty kind to us but we were indeed fortunate to have an invitation from Cliff's parents to go with them up to Canada. We have been wanting to make the trip for years and they couldn't have asked us to go anywhere that would have pleased us better. For once we are getting to just sit and look at what there is to see without having to keep at least one eye on the road. Buster is interested in the scenery, but can't get his mind entirely off food. When we were driving through Nebraska he took a look at a nice field of winter wheat on a hill side and said, "That sure is pretty wheat and just think of all the hot biscuits."

Kansas was cutting a short crop but north of there what a few years ago was considered to be only a spring wheat country will harvest one of the best crops we have seen on the hillsides of this country. Spring wheat in the boot and oats and barley look good, too.

We were interested in the change of pattern on the Kansas farms the last couple of years. Formerly the practice was to farm one field and summer fallow the other until the whole edge of the western part of the state looked a great deal like a big checkerboard but now the blocks not in wheat are usually planted to grain sorghum and the farmers use their wheat method of farming by sowing it around the land instead of rows as we do. They use Sweeps on chisels to cultivate it and apparently stop every other hole in the drill to plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Heitz of the Simms Community may be surprised to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Thompson and Joe are also making the trip up to Colgary with us.

Community Builders

By MARGARET ALSTON

Through the efforts of Ralph McCullough, Hereford can boast of the fact that it has the largest Chrysler industrial engine dealer in the world. That is quite an imposing title, but is well deserved by McCullough, president and owner of the McCullough Motor Company of Hereford.

A resident of Hereford since 1928 Ralph McCullough has made his home here permanently after leaving and going to Amarillo for a few years. He and his family built their home here for good in 1950. It is located at 139 Texas Avenue.

Born Jan. 23, 1905 in Indian Territory, which is now Oklahoma, Ralph McCullough attended school at Anadarko and Midway, Okla., and graduated from high school in Fletcher, Okla., in 1921.

Although born on a farm, he did not become a farmer, but a mechanic, at which he worked part time until he graduated from high school. He then went to work for Ireland Motor Company in Lawton.

In 1928, McCullough moved from Lawton to Hereford because of friends and relatives who lived in Amarillo. At first he was planning on living in Amarillo until he visited Hereford. He then decided to live in Hereford as he liked it better.

Upon coming here, he was employed with the Norton Motor Company, where he stayed for 10 1/2 years.

In 1939, McCullough was given a better job in Amarillo, so he went there as service manager for the Chrysler Corporation. He stayed there until 1941 when he moved back to Hereford, having bought the McCullough Motor Company.

May 11, 1924, he married Miss Anna Halek at Sentinel, Okla. The McCulloughs have two children, Mrs. Norma Killian of Amarillo and Pat McCullough, who is attending school at Texas Tech.

A member of the Baptist Church, he is also a member of the Elks Lodge in Amarillo. Among the clubs and organizations to which he belongs are the Kiwanis and the Chamber of Commerce.

Like many men of this town, Ralph McCullough especially likes to fish and hunt.

"A wonderful town," said McCullough, "that is the reason we came back here. We always figured on coming back because we liked the churches and schools along with many other things and think it is a wonderful place in which to live."

McCullough believes that Hereford could make improvements, however, one of them being more industries. And he says they will come if the people will work for them.

NEW PEACH TYPES

SOUTH HAVEN, Mich. (AP)—Sunhaven and Richaven — two new varieties of peaches developed by Stanley Johnston at the South Haven Agricultural Experiment Station — were introduced this year. Both originated from crossing of the Redhaven and SH-50.

Both varieties are bright red and gold, averaging 2 1/4 to 2 1/2 inches in diameter. The Sunhaven ripens 10 days earlier than the Redhaven, currently the first Michigan peach of commercial importance.

Johnston says the Sunhaven tends to be clingy until it is fully ripened and is intended only for fresh market channels. The Richaven is a dual purpose peach, rated excellent in commercial canning tests. A tough, thick skin protects it well in shipping.

Trees are large, vigorous and self-fertile. Some of them weathered a freeze of November, 1950, which killed off about half southwest Michigan's peach trees.

HIGHEST GAS PRICES

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—The man in charge of a Montana Legislature-ordered investigation of gasoline prices said his preliminary studies show that gasoline prices in Montana are the nation's highest, exclusive of taxes. He said Missoula's gas prices, exclusive of taxes, are the highest of any city in the United States.

John Vance, counsel for the Montana Trade Commission, said, "Maybe there is a satisfactory explanation. That's what we are trying to find out." The Legislature appropriated $20,000 for the investigation.

CHILDREN ARE CHILDREN

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—Guidance has changed more in 40 years than children, says Francis S. Warner.

"In fact, kids basically have hardly changed at all," Warner says, and he should know — retiring after 40 years as school janitor and custodian.

The most valuable thing teachers can do in guidance, Warner says, is to manage the two or three mean kids found in every group "so the other children will influence the mean ones instead of vice versa."

HOCKLEY COUNTY SEEKS JUVENILE OFFICER

Members of the Hockley County's court-appointed youth development committee voted unanimously in their first meeting Thursday afternoon to recommend hiring of a juvenile officer for Hockley County. The move was coupled with only one other official act, unanimous approval of a resolution urging the churches of the county to investigate possible expansion of their youth programs and recommending regular church attendance by both parents and children as a means of combating juvenile delinquency in the county.

DOCTORS TO PAY FOR OFFICE SPACE

Confronted with the problem of whether or not to continue the present method of hospital operation or draw up a new program, Castro county commissioners and members of the county hospital board settled upon a compromise at a joint meeting in the commissioners courtroom here Wednesday night. They voted to continue the present hospital set-up but agreed that all office space being used by doctors should be vacated within four months with the understanding that physician office space would be provided by the doctors themselves in the future.

SCHOOL BOND ELECTION SET

The vote on the proposal of the trustees of Floydada Independent School district to issue $550,000 in school building bonds will be held Saturday at the county court room. The bond issue for the new building is seen by the school authorities as the cheapest and best solution of the imminent break-down in facilities of the district to care for its growing scholastic population. At this time there is need for six or seven additional rooms at Andrews Ward School for the opening of school on September 1. Temporarily, this need will be met by putting in partitions in frame buildings now on the campus.

LITTLEFIELD GETS CITY MANAGER

A change in the form of city government for Littlefield, the employment of a city manager, and personnel changes were all topics for discussion and action by the Littlefield City Commission at a meeting held Thursday night. The commission adopted sweeping recommendations made to it by an investigating committee at the meeting which will entail the elimination of at least one job in city hall, the combination of two other jobs, and the hiring of a city manager to run the city's business affairs.

The BOOTLEG — Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher has a tinge of irritation in his letter this week. He'll get over it.

Dear editor:

What amounts to success in life is sometimes hard to figure out.

I got to thinking about this serious subject the other day after I read in a paper about the rise to success of a politician up north.

That is, the article said he was successful, and apparently he is, as he gets elected every time he runs for Congress and he works hard at his job and is opinion is sought by leaders in industry and government.

But what got me to thinking was the choice of language used in proving he was a success.

What it said was he "rose from a farm boy."

Right off, I'd like to tell you, me and that writer differ considerably on our standards of measure. If he'd said he rose from the slums, or from poverty, or from illiteracy, and got elected to Congress, it might make sense, but to lump farm boys in the same class, as though being a farm boy was something to rise above, demonstrates an odd viewpoint.

Understand, this doesn't make me fighting mad, not in this hot weather, as I happen to know there're a lot of Congressmen who went to Congress because they didn't have any land to farm and wasn't doing much of anything else at the time. In fact, the article would have made just as much sense if it had said he rose from a seat in Congress and became a successful farmer, and it might surprise you how many members of Congress would give up running for office if they had the security of a good farm.

Every once in a while you hear somebody, talking about a boy who grew up on a farm and made his mark, say "that's pretty good for a country boy," as though it would have been peanuts for a city boy.

Anyway, I just thought I'd get this off my chest. Personally, I wouldn't be interested in rising from my way of life. I like sitting where I am.

Yours faithfully,

Do Civic Clubs....

In addition to business men and store employees will be found a generous sprinkling of farmers and stockmen in the civic clubs of this community. Again, such membership is another index to community expansion and progress.

We do not think that civic clubs "make" a community. We do believe, however, that the same spirit which causes citizens to want to affiliate with civic clubs in behalf of a better community cannot lead in any other direction than toward improvement and progress.

Collection of State taxes—The method of collecting a 2.2 percent tax on radio and TV sales has been amended in a measure that will become effective Sept. 1. The tax remains on the seller making the final sale and requires wholesalers to pay the tax on sales to institutions, hotels, and others. The retailer is required to file a quarterly report showing a starting and ending inventory on both TVs and radios. The bill further requires TV and radio dealers to be bonded to guarantee payment of the tax and requires retailers to secure a permit and authorize the State Comptroller to collect audit fees from the dealers.

Effective Oct. 1, the maximum weekly unemployment compensation benefits will be raised from $20 to $28.

Assignment of wages—Employers, under terms of the new law are exempt from legal action in cases where an employee's wages are pledged to a creditor, if the employer can prove that he was not notified in writing of such an assignment and did not assent to such an assignment in writing.

Assignment of accounts receivable—A bill that has already become law protects assignments of accounts receivable regardless of whether such accounts are in existence at the time notice of assignment was filed, provided, however, that the recording of such notices constitute constructive notice and regardless of whether the contract out of which the accounts arose was in the contemplation of the assignor and assignee when the notice of assignment was executed.

The Retail Merchants Association of Texas review noted that an effort was made during the latter part of the Legislative session to have a gross receipts tax on retail sales passed. The proposal was defeated in committee.

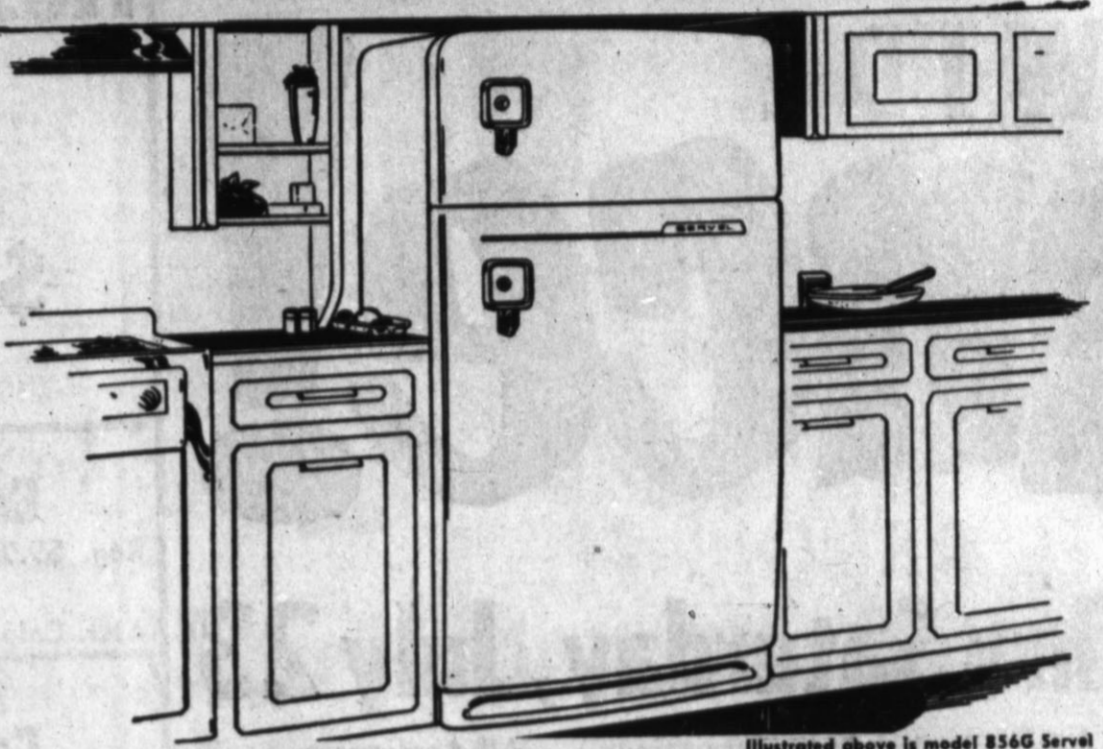

Frying onion rings to go with that charcoal-broiled steak? Peel large Spanish onions and slice them about a quarter inch thick. Separate the rings and dip them into milk, then into flour seasoned with salt before frying until golden brown. The rings will need to be fried from five to seven minutes at 365 degrees.

Peanut-butter sandwiches going in the picnic basket? Mix the peanut butter with chili sauce, crumbled crisply-cooked bacon, sweet relish, chopped raisins or grated carrots.

Youngsters with hearty appetites sometimes enjoy a bowl of soup as a mid-afternoon snack.

Review of Bills Affecting Retailers Made by Retail Merchants Association

A review of bills passed at the recent session of the 54th Texas Legislature, compiled by the Retail Merchants Association of Texas, shows that more than a score of measures affecting retailers of the state have been signed into law.

Woodrow B. Wilson, Hereford Retail Merchants Association manager, said he had been advised by the State RMA office in Austin that bills relating to collections, wage assignments, sale prices (grocery items), and taxes were among the more important enacted.

A breakdown by subjects of the laws passed follows:

Collections — The Small Claims Court Act has been amended to provide for a fee of $1 to the citation serving officer and authorizes the usual court fees for levying executions to enforce judgments.

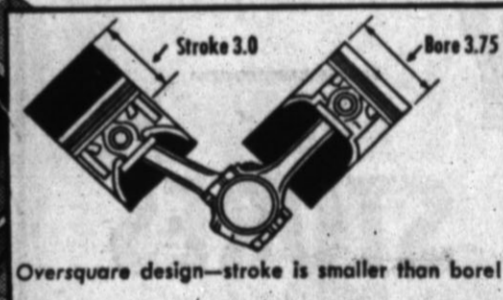

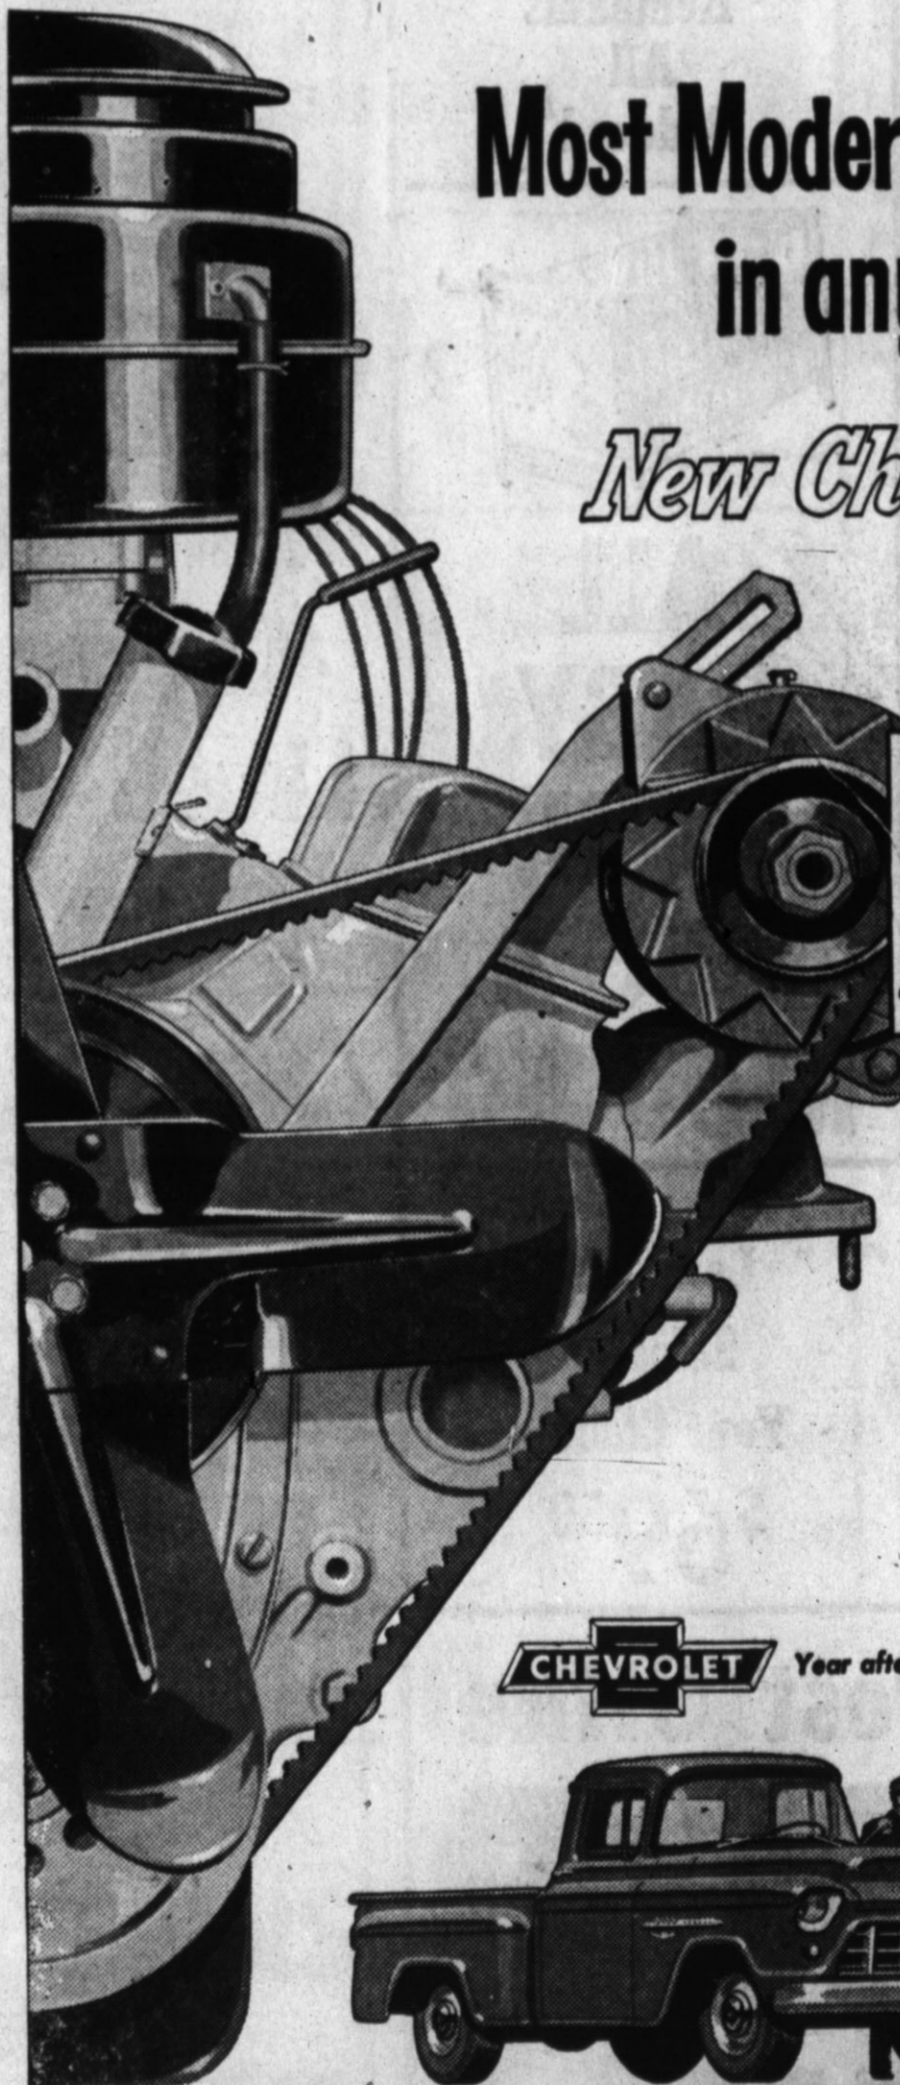

Holidays — Nov. 11 has been officially designated Veteran's Day. Banks and Trust Companies are given permission to close on Saturdays.

State taxes — A one-cent a gallon additional tax on gasoline. A one-cent a package additional tax on cigarettes. A $2.30 per barrel increase in the tax on beer. A 25 cent additional levy per $1,000 on corporate capitalization.

When the Range is ELECTRIC!

says MRS. M. H. SANDERS of ARTESIA, NEW MEXICO

"I wouldn't trade my electric range for any other type of cooking in the world. It's so easy to cook electrically. The oven bakes wonderful cakes. The deep well is keen for beans, stews, and foods like that, and everything is done so evenly when I use the broiler."

You'll eventually cook electrically, for it's the modern way. Why not now?

A REDDY KILOWATT HOMEMAKER

When you cook on a surface element on an electric range, all the heat goes into the pan - it cooks the food. And, in an electric range oven there's complete insulation, so no heat is needed to support flameless cooking.

The result? Cool, clean cooking and the best meals you ever prepared.

REMEMBER - IN RANGES, AS IN ALL OTHER HOME APPLIANCES, IF IT'S MODERN, IT'S ELECTRIC.

At The Movies

"The Country Girl," showing Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday at the Star Theatre, is a warm human story of a has been actor, played by Bing Crosby, who has lost his confidence in himself. His country wife, portrayed by Grace Kelly, and a show director, William Holden, help him come out of his world of alcohol to make a personal success out of himself. Wednesday and Thursday Alec Guinness, always a complete delight, is more amusing than ever before as the star of "The Detective," which shows Wednesday and Thursday at the Star Theatre. This story is based on the G. K. Chesterton stories about Father Brown, (played by Alec Guinness), the sleuthing cleric who is usually a step ahead of Scotland Yard in the pursuit of criminals; he wants to reform them before the law can jail them.

Tower "They Rode West," a story of the frontier when thousands of Indians and cavalry men swept across the plains, stars Donna Reed the colonel's flirtatious daughter Robert Francis, as a young post surgeon, May Wynn, as a captured white girl wed to an Indian chief's son, and Phil Carey, a cavalry captain who considers the Indians savages. This fast moving drama shows Sunday and Monday at the Tower Drive In. Gary Cooper stars in "Return to Paradise," which will show Tuesday and Wednesday at the Tower Drive In. Also showing is the surprise picture of the year, "Suddenly," which stars Frank Sinatra.

Household Tips

Note to new cooks: pastry shells must always be pricked well with a fork before baking in a hot (450 degrees) oven for 12 to 15 minutes.

When you serve a cream soup to your family, use a cup of milk for each portion when you prepare the soup. This way you will be including generous amount of valuable nutrients in your family's diet.

Layer diced cooked potatoes and bits of crisply cooked bacon in a shallow casserole. Cover with a thin white sauce and top with buttered soft bread crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven until hot through; if topping isn't golden brown, place under the broiler for a few minutes.

Add bits of ham and diced canned pimiento to scrambled eggs and serve on hot buttered toast. Delicious for Sunday brunch!

Cut snap beans in narrow pieces and cook quickly in lightly salted boiling water just until tender-crisp. Drain and toss gently with cooked rice and butter or margarine. Delicious with meat, poultry or fish!

Any cooked corn on the cob left over? Cut the kernels free and add to a well-seasoned cheese sauce.

Serve over toast with crisp bacon for lunch.

Know how to sterilize jelly glasses when you are going to fill them with freshly made preserves? Just place the clean glasses in a large kettle and cover them with water. Bring to a boil; boil 15 minutes. Turn off the heat but keep the glasses in the hot water until you are ready to fill each one.

A generous amount of butter or margarine spread on bread slices, when you are making sandwiches, helps to keep fillings from soaking into the bread.

Canned date-nut roll makes quick and delicious sandwiches for a tea. Use cream cheese flavored with grated orange rind for the sandwich filling.

HOMER GETS LOST
MATTOON, Ill. (AP) — If the pigeon club of Cleveland, Ohio, is missing one pigeon with band number "A. U. 52-L. U. 33" and a tag marked "U 948," the bird is in the hands of Mrs. Harley Snyder. She told police that the pigeon landed in her yard and showed no signs of wanting to leave. Investigation showed it was one of 1800 homing pigeons released for the annual 500-mile pigeon derby which starts in Mattoon and ends in Cleveland.

PUBLIC PATIENCE!
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — The driver of a bus is in a sense a public servant "in that he must be more patient and careful than the average driver and must hold his temper," District Judge D. A. Macpherson ruled. He dismissed a $5000 damage suit brought by a bus driver against a motorist following a fight between the two.
