Provided there is a $150,000 airport bonds issue, he noted, their retirement over a 10 year period would raise the annual bond payments from the presently projected $32,000 for 1957 (for example), to $46,250.

Collective division included antiques in pressed glass, cut glass, colored glass, silver, china and furniture. There were heirlooms by the dozens, spoon collections, a fisherman's fly collection, arrowhead and stone collections and the unusual pen sketches of Bill Hacker which attracted much interest.

Holiday Recipes Lure The Youngsters To Want Candy

As the covers of the latest magazines and the advertising being published by all the grocery stores here proclaim, the time to begin holiday cooking is drawing near. All of the ingredients for fruit cakes, candies, puddings and all the other holiday specialties are already on the grocers' shelves in anticipation of Thanksgiving and for the lucky cook with a freezer who can begin now with her Christmas lay-away — of foods to serve to her family and guests during the holiday rush with little concern for long hours in the kitchen. One plea that is already being heard from the younger set is: "Mom, couldn't you make us just a little candy now. It's such a long time until Christmas."

Here is a recipe for fudge that made its debut during the pre-holiday season last year and is still popular with everyone because it is quick — not more than 10 minutes involved from the time the sugar can comes down off the cabinet shelf until the pan goes into the dishwasher and the fudge into the refrigerator. And another strong selling point for this particular recipe is that it is failure proof. No danger of wasting good ingredients because you cooked it a little too long or not quite long enough. For lack of a better name, we'll just call this Easy Fudge. Easy Fudge: Mix 2/3 cup undiluted evaporated milk, 1 2/3 cups sugar and 1/2 teaspoon salt in a pan over low heat. Heat to boiling and then cook for five minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add 18 diced marshmallows, 1 package of chocolate chips, 1 teaspoon vanilla and 1 cup chopped nuts. Stir about two minutes. Pour into buttered pan.

Medieval Styles In Spain

MADRID, (AP) — To be in fashion in Spain in the winter of 1956 — and particularly if it's after five — you have to date yourself circa 1600. Jose Maria Marbel, young Madrid designer, takes you right back to the universities of medieval Spain by basing his entire collection on the "eslavina," a short cape worn by students here during the middle ages. Made of velvet and brocade for evening wear and fashioned of tweed, fur or fleecy wool for daytime, the student cape lent an indisputable Spanish flavor to the collection unveiled here recently. Scarcely a dress walked alone without being topped by an adaptation of the "eslavina."

Different in cut from the capes that swept the Paris openings, Marbel's "eslavinas" were cut close to the body in front and flared into fullness in the back. Some of them sported giant, loose collars, lending them the cocon-tin look. In fact Senorita Madrid certainly will be cozy and snug this winter if she follows Marbel's advice. Almost every one of his coats and suits were fur-lined and definitely fur-trimmed. Many of his dress-coat ensembles featured hamster fur lining, reminiscent of grandfather's winter coat. One of the most attractive creations shown was a stone-gray heringbone tweed suit topped with a hipbone-length "eslavina" lined in Black Persian lamb and topped with a square-brimmed fur toque. The Moorish influence was apparent in Marbel's festive dresses. Adaptations of the harem's skirt appeared in everyone of his chiffon gowns. All of these were also highlighted by giant roses veiled with the transparent material.

Letters To The Editor

Hereford, Texas
November 21

Dear Editor:
I have been planning to write you for some time, but since you do not publish letters from the people I did not see any need to write, but here I am anyway.

I want to tell you and a lot of people here at Hereford that Hereford is not a very friendly town. If I were the only one who thought that I would keep my mouth shut and say I only have a chip on my shoulder, but I know that I am not the only person who thinks that.

Even the churches are not friendly. Now please don't say I am speaking from hearsay, but I am really concerned about this. This is my home and I don't want my hometown to be like this. Do you know that there are some stores in Hereford I would never put my foot in again unless I have to? I know you can't cure this situation but you do write an editorial and you could write a good article on it.

Hereford has so many pretty churches, and there are a lot of friendly people, but not enough. Isn't a Christian supposed to be friendly? If they are a real Christian they are friendly. Please tell me if there is anything I can do to help this situation.

A Newcomer
(Name Withheld by Request)
P. S. I moved here at mid-term last January, from Tulsa. I could write a lot more on this.

Belleville, Pa. — Postmaster Ard. B. Caron likes to talk about Belleville's 10 Sam Yoders and 8 Extra Peaches.

"I've never been bawled out by any of them. If the letter gets into the wrong Ezra's or Sam's hands, it's simply passed on until the right one has it," said Caron. Belleville has only 1,300 residents.

Marian Anderson Tells Life Story

The glamorous career which has changed her life from one of an unknown vocalist in a church choir to that of being the first of her race to sing a leading role in the Metropolitan Opera is described by Marian Anderson in her new autobiography, "My Lord, What a Morning." The book is one of the late additions to the shelves of the Deaf Smith County Library, according to Mrs. J. J. Boydston, librarian.

My Lord, What a Morning. By Marian Anderson. Viking.

The time would come, an enthusiastic music lover told Marian Anderson when she was hardly of age, when she would earn $50 a night; not long afterward some one else assured her that eventually "you're going to have your whole family on easy street." They were pretty rash prophecies to the people who made them, but pretty timid viewed with the benefit of our hindsight, now that Miss Anderson's income has soared to fabulous figures. She began as humbly as a body can, in South Philadelphia the daughter of an employee of the Reading Terminal Market. The daughter sang in church choirs, scrubbed and ran errands to buy a $3.98 violin.

But at high school as well as at church her contralto began to be noticed. Roland Hayes got her a chance to study, but grandmother said no: the one local music school to which she applied told her brutally: "We don't take colored." So she went on to become the voice which Toscanini called the only one of its kind in a century, and to be the first of her people to sing a leading role in the Metropolitan Opera.

Miss Anderson's unique gift led her into high places, and among the great people of this world—where she belongs. There is no career more glamorous than hers, and no one could be more modest and unpretentious about it. The woman who on tour carted around an electric iron, ironing board, electric oven, and even a sewing machine so she could work on the curtains for her home was never in any danger of being spoiled by fame and wealth.

CIRCULATION

The Hallmark of Circulation Value

In the same way that STERLING on silver signifies a standard of known value, so is the A.B.C. emblem a symbol of integrity for the circulation of newspapers and periodicals. It means that circulation so identified is measured according to the rules and standards of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS.

The A.B.C. is a cooperative and non-profit association of 3,450 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Organized in 1914, these buyers and sellers of advertising brought order out of advertising chaos by setting up standards for paid circulation and establishing rules and methods for measuring, auditing and reporting circulations.

Therefore, the work of the A.B.C., of which this newspaper is proud to be a member, provides you with a direct and valuable service. You can buy advertising as you would make any other sound business investment — on the basis of well known standards, known values.

At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of our circulation records. The results of this exacting audit show: How much circulation we have; where our circulation goes; how it was obtained; and many other facts that you need in order to know just what you get for your advertising dollars. This audited information is published by the Bureau in easy-to-read A.B.C. reports which are available to our advertisers on request. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

WHITEFACES WILL INVADE DOMAIN OF PROUD HAWKS

By BILL P. KNOX
Brand Sports Editor
L. B. Russell's Hereford Whitefaces invade the kingdom of once mighty and proud Phillips Friday.

Twelve seniors, eight of them starters, will be playing their last high school football game for the Whitefaces. And Hereford's being rated as a definite underdog will not be unusual.

It will be the last game of the season for both teams. Both have been eliminated from the 1-AAA race. Hereford has lost three straight in conference play, while Phillips has lost one and tied one.

The Blackhaws will be fresh from an open date after being ousted by mighty Levelland, 7-0. The Lobos conquered Hereford, 40-13, in the Whitefaces' last engagement.

The Hawks boast an overall season record of seven wins, one loss, and one tie. Hereford has won three and lost six. Probably the most impressive victory for the Hawks was their 85-0 win over Mangum, Okla. Hereford was impressive for a half against Littlefield, leading 13-12 at intermission, and in defeating Clovis, 31-21.

The Phillips coaching staff isn't altogether terming the Whitefaces as negligible opposition, however. According to reports, they have much respect for Hereford's splendid passing attack and will probably worry most about that phase of the Hereford attack Friday night.

This may be a hint to Hereford coaches who are diligently preparing their squad for the season's final game.

After the fracas with the rugged Levelland crew, the Whitefaces were hampered in workouts with numerous minor injuries. However John Paul Jones said as a whole the Herd would be in shape for the game.

After missing the Levelland game with a case of influenza, fullback Bobby Veigel's status was undecided. Veigel missed workouts Monday and Tuesday. He is a doubtful starter but is expected to see action.

Hereford scout Alex Glass said the two opposing lines will average out to about the same weight. Hereford may have a slight weight advantage in the backfield. But the Hawks will field a speedier fleet of backs than the Whitefaces.

Heading the Phillips crew will be field marshal Tommy Newman. "Newman is the best quarterback in the district," Glass told this reporter. "If he got hurt they'd be lost. I'd say he's 50 per cent of the ball club." Newman paces 1-AAA scorers.

The Hawks will employ a tight "T" with the line split slightly. Passes have been used quite successfully on occasions for the Hawks, but for the most part Newman spearheads a powerful running attack.

A Hereford victory would not even elevate the Whitefaces from the district cellar but would gain prestige for Scat Russell's crew. Hereford has not defeated Phillips since 1951 when they turned the trick handily, 35-9.

Phillips defeated Hereford, 72-27, last year. The Saturday night affair was the Hawks' homecoming and may have been their best performance of the year. They lost to Stamford, 13-0, in the AA quarterfinals after winning the District 1-AA championship. Hereford finished in a tie for second with the Dumas Demons.

L. B. Russell, John Paul Jones, John Poindexter, Alex Glass, and Cubby Kitchens all agree that the Lobos are best. However, they differ on their views on who will win the Levelland - Littlefield game Friday.

Their opinions were influenced greatly by the fact that Levelland star Jesse Sudderth will be out with a knee injury.

Cubby Kitchens was the only one of the quintet to pick Levelland to win. Glass and Poindexter said it will be Levelland, while Russell and Jones could predict no more than a tossup.

At any rate, somebody will win the district championship Friday night.

The United States is largely fed by products from about 3.8 million farms which are home to some 15 million people, says the Population Reference Bureau.

Wrestling Donnybrook Slated Here Saturday

The first scheduled event in the brand new Deaf Smith County Coliseum will be the Lions Club sponsored wrestling matches featuring some of the best grunt-and-growlers in business.

No formal opening ceremonies are planned, "just good wrestling plus about $500 worth of door prizes for the spectators," said Ray Cowsert, general chairman for the opening night activities at the new 20,000 square-foot county-owned building.

An added attraction on the evening entertainment calendar will be the performances by an acrobatic team, the Amazing Monahans.

With a seating capacity of 1,750, the agricultural exhibit building that has been built to replace the fire-damaged and now demolished Bull Barn will afford the audience a comfortable and attractive arena for wrestling and many other events expected to be staged within its walls, said Ernest Langley, Lions Club president.

On the wrestling card for the evening are three 20-minute preliminary bouts and the main event, a six-man tag - team donnybrook. Competing teams will be Rip Rogers, Art Nelson and Shoulders Newman, versus Dory Funk, John Tollas, and Ray (Big Train) Clements.

Rogers and Nelson hold the world tag team championship. The colorful Dory Funk will enter the ring here as Southwestern States Junior heavyweight champion, having won the title last Thursday night in a much-publicized brawl with Dizzy David at Amarillo's Sports Arena.

Door prizes being offered by the Lions include a television set, electric fry pan, automobile tire, a man's hat and many other items.

Advance ticket sales will be made through individual Lions and at Dub's Man's Shop. Prices are $1 for general admission; $1.50 for ringside chairs, and 50 cents for children under 12.

Lions aiding Cowsert with opening night arrangements are Harold Wester, wrestling promotion chairman; Albert Maxwell, concessions chairman and F.W. Dool, timekeeper.

Wester is scheduled to referee the first preliminary bout, and Karl (Doc) Sarpolis of Amarillo will be here to oversee the matches and referee a second preliminary.

SPORTS GLANCES

by Bill Knox

Levelland's losing Jesse Sudderth was a blow to their chances of winning the District 1-AAA championship.

The Lobos may have been rated a favorite over Littlefield before Sudderth's injury, but now that the speedy athlete is sidelined with a knee injury the game may be rated a tossup or Littlefield may even be the favorite.

The tilt should be the game of the year at any rate. Indeed it is a difficult task to predict the outcome of the game and the person predicting a tie might be the only smart one in the whole bunch.

Levelland needs to win the game for the championship. A tie would give the title to Littlefield since the Wildcats have only one-half game in the lost column and the Lobos have one complete game.

It'll be a splendid defense against a sparkling offense. The Levelland defense is touted as the best of any AAA team in the state, while Littlefield's offensive power is at times pulverizing.

"Couldn't Have Been Beaten"
Several Hereford fans journeyed to Littlefield to see the Wildcats completely chew to bits the Dumas Demons. "I don't think anybody in the state could have beaten Littlefield the way they played that night," one man reported.

That may be right, but Littlefield, in the two times we've seen them play this year, didn't show us much. They tied Olton, 12-12, and were lucky to come out with a tie. After a slow start they cooled off considerably.

Hereford's Whitefaces had them on the ropes and fighting for their lives. The Whitefaces were ahead, 13-12, at halftime, and had they continued their first half pace would have won the game, we feel sure.

However, one thing in the Wildcats' favor is this: This column has predicted Levelland to win. That may be the one great factor in Littlefield's favor — that's the way our luck has been.

We won't go so far as to predict that our prediction is wrong because that might be carrying things a little too far. We'll stick with Levelland.

The Hereford Whitefaces may not have torn up the grid patch this year, but their end Danny Elliston has been somewhat in the spotlight all over the area.

Not very often will you find an end leading the team in scoring, and that's what Elliston is doing. He has scored 49 points on eight touchdowns and one extra point. Of course, the Whitefaces haven't been a high scoring outfit, but Elliston's touchdown output might be tops in the state for an end.

He picked up all-district, all-regional, and honorable mention all state honors last year and is a candidate for all state this year. The way he's been going, he may make it.

1-AAA ROUNDUP
A district championship clash features 1-AAA football action Friday.

The fracas will pit Levelland's Lobos and the Littlefield Wildcats in the game to be played at Levelland. The game will be rated a tossup and it could go either way.

Littlefield, boasting a conference record marred only by a tie with Phillips, will enter the game in first place. They have won two district contests, over Hereford and Dumas, and possess a fine season record of seven wins, no losses and two ties.

The Wildcats have been tied by Olton, 12-12, and Phillips, 13-13. They have defeated Plainview, Brownfield, Tulla, Canyon, Clovis, and Hereford. Their 28-6 win over Dumas last week was probably their most impressive performance of the season.

The Levelland Lobos have won seven games and lost two. They have no ties. Their losses were to Snyder, AAA kingpin, 2-0, and to the Dumas Demons, 7-0.

Their victories have been over Brownfield, Big Spring, Plainview, Andrews, Anson, Phillips, and Hereford.

Levelland will be handicapped with their star halfback, Jesse Sudderth sidelined with a twisted knee suffered in the Hereford game. Sudderth may be out for the remainder of the season even if the Lobos defeat Littlefield, which they could well do.

The other 1-AAA game will pit Olton's touchdown output might be tops in the state for an end. He picked up all-district, all-regional, and honorable mention all state honors last year and is a candidate for all state this year. The way he's been going, he may make it.

Commission Makes Game Available

AUSTIN (AP) — The game and fish commission has set in motion a new plan to make certain game available to hunters in areas presently void.

The program is to make wild turkey and deer from overpopulated areas available to landowners upon payment of trapping and transportation costs.

Game will be trapped and delivered to landowners to be released for restocking purposes. It has a three-fold purpose:

1. Provide game now occupying overpopulated ranges a chance to survive in new areas.
2. Make game available to hunters in areas which do not at present provide hunting.
3. Give landowners a chance to increase income from their land through the sale of hunting leases.

Turkeys will be delivered for about $12 each and deer for $35 a head, based on average trapping and transportation costs.

The plan will also serve as a supplement to the commission's regular deer and turkey restocking projects.

The commission believes it simplifies and streamlines restocking programs for those willing to pay operation costs. It will make game available to many landowners who fail to qualify under the regular restocking program which requires exceptionally large areas, a closed season usually of five years and strict habitat conditions.

Under the new supplemental plan, no closed season or habitat approval is required, nor are there requirements for minimum size of release sites.

Game will be taken from areas having excess populations. No orders will be accepted for less than 10 turkeys or 10 deer. There is no maximum. The commission also pointed out that under state law payment for trapping, and transportation must be made to the commission in advance.

Joel Hodges Named Little League Head

Joel Hodges was named president of the Hereford Little League, Inc., at the group's annual meeting in the Hotel Jim Hill Monday night.

Ralph Hastings was elected vice president and L. B. Russell was selected for the secretary - treasurer post. Hodges is vice president of the Hereford State Bank. Hastings is a prominent farmer. Russell is athletic director and head football coach at Hereford High School.

To Increase Lights
The group voted to enlarge lighting facilities at the new Little League Baseball Park from the 36 lights now in use to 60. Six towers with six lights each are now in use, and two new towers with 12 lights each will be added at a cost of about $1,500.

Hodges said the move was to keep pace with Little League rules and specifications "National Little League ball park must have at least 60 lights," Hodges said. "We feel that our park will be greatly improved with the addition of the lights."

Hodges told the group that the Hereford Little League organization is now operating with $1,450 in the treasury. "That's all net," Hodges said, "but we'll have to get some more from somewhere for the lights."

Plan Pony League
It was definitely decided that a Pony League for boys (ages 10-14) will be organized for play next year. The league has not been organized. Hodges reported, and definite plans have not been made. "However, it is our intent right now to have a Pony League," he stated.

Managers posts for Little League are not yet definite for the coming season. Some may take the step into Pony League. However, Hodges said that "we do need more help in the way of coaches." Those interested are asked to contact Hodges.

The playing field at the ball park will also be improved before the coming season opens. The season will start earlier this year and plenty of boys are expected to turn out to fill the posts vacated by graduating Little Leaguers.

Spin And Lift Get Hook

FINGERS AND WRIST—Bill Lillard's fingers apply the lift and his turning wrist starts the spin when the ball is released.

By BILL LILLARD
While I think the most important single thing for consistent accuracy in bowling is keeping a straight wrist, there are many methods of releasing the ball for high scores.

Buzz Fazio is the finest example of straight wrist accuracy. Buzz has it absolutely perfect. His straight wrist is liable to get him a strike even when he otherwise misses a shot.

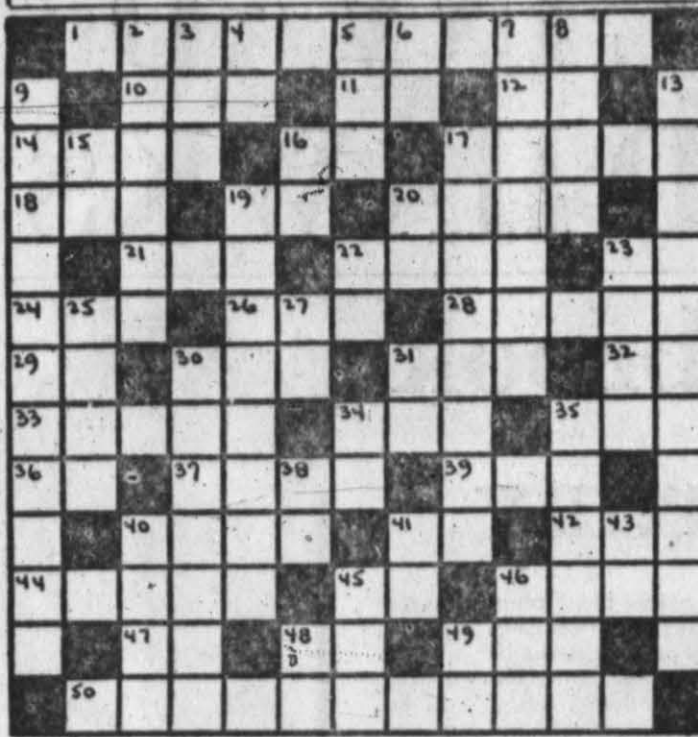

While I have tried for 15 years to achieve a straight wrist, my style is to combine spin and lift. At the release I use a slight spin of my wrist and apply lift with my fingers. This results in a side spin plus forward roll on the ball. The mixture of spin and lift produces stuff or mixing action.

Dick Hoover, ABC Masters' champion, is a high scoring bowler who combines lift and speed for mixing action. His speed is correct for him but may not be for others, unless it comes natural.

There are some other styles of release both orthodox and unorthodox. It is a matter of choice for the individual bowler to select a style which is comfortable, natural and, most of all, high scoring.

While lift, the style of Fazio and Hoover, is today's style of bowling rather than turn, there is still lots of life in the turn and lift method.

"MENTAL HEALTH" TOPIC FOR FEDERATION MEET DISCUSSION

Dr. R. R. Wills was guest speaker for the Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs quarterly luncheon held at the First Methodist Church Friday. He introduced his subject "Mental Health" by stating that there are more people in mental hospitals than in all other hospitals combined.

Talking directly to the mothers in the group, he urged them to see that their children know they are loved, to use firm disciplining, and to give children responsibilities. He also stated that mental problems are growing greater; and that broken or unhappy homes have a great deal to do with the mental health of children.

After the program Mrs. J. B. Sowell, president, conducted a short

Heart clubs for the luncheon sessions sessions Pioneer Study Club, Lone Star Study Club, L.A.E. Study Club, Summerfield Study Club and Cultural and West Hereford Home Demonstration Clubs.

The third quarterly session is scheduled for Feb. 15, with Mrs. Roy Pruitt in charge of the Public Relations program. Clubs serving as hosts will be La Plata, Bud To Blossom, Sims, El Nino Child Study and Westway Home Demonstration Club.

FARMERS AT THE CROSSROADS

Fallacies Of Support Programs - III

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third in a series of installments presenting the views of the Secretary of Agriculture on farm problems, and needs, and their solutions. The views expressed or implied are not necessarily those of The Brand or its editors.

By EZRA TAFT BENSON
A third, still much smaller, group is dedicated to the overthrow of the political, economic, and social system that is our tradition. The philosophy of such folk does not stem from Jefferson, but is foreign to our shores. These men understand our system thoroughly — and they hate it thoroughly. They exist in the uninformed and unprincipled. Through rabble rousing and demagoguery they play upon the economic reverses and hardships of the unsuspecting. They promise the impossible, call black white, and mislead with fallacies masquerading as truth.

All of these groups, when it has served their purposes, have built a smoke-screen of fallacies around farm policy problems. Here are examples:

1. That high farm incomes of the nineteen forties were due to high price supports.
This is a falsehood that has been so often repeated that many people believe it. The truth is that throughout the war and immediate post-war years, the instable demands of war and wartime inflation — resulted in high prices for everything farmers could produce. Farmers then sold their products in the market place at well above the support levels. Their prices would have been higher yet had it not been for price ceilings. No one has the right to claim credit for those high wartime prices unless he is willing to claim credit for the inflation accompanying the war.

2. A second and even more serious fallacy is that high price supports can keep up farm income, even though surpluses accumulate. This is another falsehood demonstrated by the fact that in every year but one from 1947 through 1955, farm income declined — and in all these years, until mid-1955, the high rigid price supports were in effect. It was under these supports that our present farm problem developed. In other words, if the high rigid price supports we had until last year were the answer to our problem, we would have no problem.

LEGISLATION NO SOLUTION

I cannot emphasize too strongly the need for replacing these fallacies with truth, for any farm policy that is founded upon such fallacies will, in the end, depress farm income more than it will raise it, and will destroy freedom of operation at the same time.

Of one thing I am certain: the decisions which made this country great were characterized by neither timidity nor short-sightedness nor pleading looks to Washington to cure all complaints. American agriculture did not reach its present eminence because of any farm price support formula, rigid or flexible.

If agriculture continues to make great strides forward, it will not be because of regulative legislation. It will be because the people on the farms of the nation — together with our scientists, all energized by traditional American incentives — push forward together on this march of progress which has made our agricultural plant one of the modern wonders of the world.

Hybrid corn growers who doubled production, wheat growers who vastly improved their yields, cattle growers who raised standards of breeding and feeding, all attained these goals owing nothing to price support legislation.

I believe the American people, our farmers included, will take in stride the readjustments which are being made, I believe, too, that our farmers would rather see those adjustments than a continuation of the carnage, heartache, and suffering that have characterized the wars which on two occasions saved agriculture from collapse under the old farm programs.

SUPPORTS GIVE TOO LITTLE

We have been proceeding upon the assumption that if the farmers of America fully understood the causes of our current agricultural problem, they would instinctively turn toward the best solution. We have sought to lay the whole problem before them in frank and free discussions. We have urged them to give consideration to what we believe is a sound and constructive approach to the entire question of price supports. As I said earlier, we believe that a stable, prosperous, and free agriculture is essential to the welfare of the United States. I believe all this can be achieved without war.

Contrary to what many may have been led to believe, my own quarrel with the theory of rigid price supports is not that they give the farmer too much but that, in actual practice, they do not give him enough.

Not all the pioneering was finished when our forefathers crossed the plains. There are new trails to be marked out, new truths to be discovered, and old truths to be rediscovered. This is as exciting and stimulating an adventure as our forefathers undertook more than 100 years ago. The obstacles are different, but they are equally challenging and fully as formidable.

New Jersey hired 4,625 new school teachers in 1955-56, twice as many new ones as employed 5 years ago.

Most Class 1 railways in the U. S. have a dual system of pay to equalize salaries between freight crews and passenger trainmen. Freight crew salaries are based on 100 miles or 8 hours; passenger crews on 150 miles of 7 1/2 hours.

Bible Words for Today

ROMANS 7:15 - "For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate." (RSV)

A man invited into the control room of a large modern airplane was amazed at dozens of dials, indicators and delicate instruments provided for the safety and control of the great ship of the air. Especially fascinating was the gyro-compass steadily pointing the direction unaffected by surrounding influences.

But surprisingly enough, there was also an old-fashioned magnetic compass. It was explained that the gyro-compass, though not affected by its environment, is controlled by a power within itself which gradually changes and has to be corrected occasionally by the magnetic compass. The latter, though temporarily affected by surrounding magnetic influences, is subject to the earth's unchanging, far away pole.

Everyone needs that power within himself, called will, to guide his life. But one's will alone is not a safe guide. We all need the constant guidance of the divine power outside and beyond ourselves. Daily prayer and meditation serve to correct our wills by the will of God and to keep us on the true course.

Legion Auxiliary Sponsors Veterans Hospital Program

By ARGEN DRAPER
The local Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary sponsored a program at the Veterans Hospital, on Monday night. Approximately 25 persons attended and helped with the program. The H. D. Choral Club sang some numbers; Mabel Vaughan played the guitar and a boys sextet and girls quartet from high school gave some numbers. The patients at the hospital seemed to appreciate the program. It is planned that some of the Units of the Auxiliary in the Panhandle give a program at the Recreation Hall at the hospital the first and third Mondays of each month. The local Unit plans to give three programs up there this year. The committee members for the Hospital and Gift Shop are Ethel Logan, Pet Ott and Edna Smith.

Counts Blessings
Having two Thanksgiving Days this month has paid off well for us as we are going to have company both days. I try to be thankful enough every day for blessings. Every morning I'm glad I have some work to do that day and some of it is work that no one can do but me. Can anyone think about a greater blessing than work and liking to do it?

In club this month we are studying Family Life Education, Getting Along With Others and Working Out Our Problems. It is one of the best programs we have had as all the club members give recipes for solving problems and for getting along in the family circle, club, church and community groups. One young homemaker gave her recipe: When she is aggravated with her husband she will spend some quiet time and then list 10 of his good points. By the time she has done this and he has come in from work the annoyance has disappeared. Most of our problems can be solved with some thought and effort on our part. In club we have all agreed we will be much happier if we will learn to accept the things we can't change.

Rug Making Experts
Mrs. B. M. Sudduth came to the office wanting some help with a program on Rug Making for the Puro Homemakers Club. Mrs. Bur en Sowell and Mrs. Will Caraway have agreed to go to the club on the 27th; they both make pretty and practical rugs. Mrs. Sudduth makes braided rugs so they should have a good program. Mrs. Caraway said that Emma Gunter taught club women rug making when she was agent here.

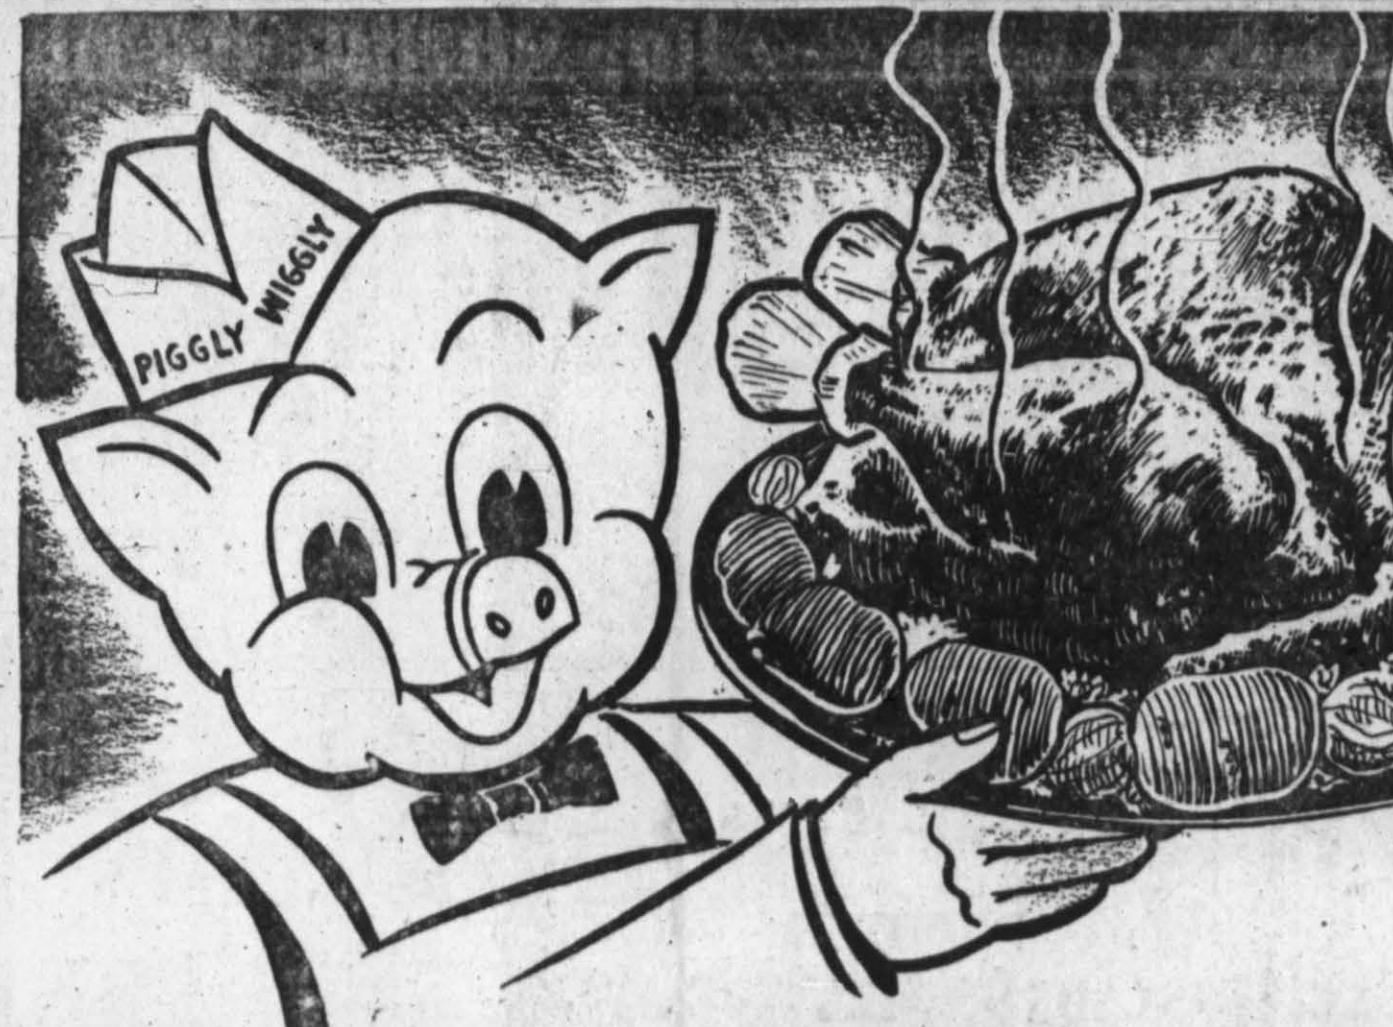

The Dick Fries make woven rugs which are lovely. They have quite a nice home industry.

Good, Good Pie
Here's a good Chess Pie recipe.
4 eggs
2 cups sugar
3/4 cup butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon lemon extract
Beat together until light; bake 350 degrees until brown.
I'm taking this recipe and working on a pumpkin pie recipe. If it turns out, I'll give it to you.

STRAIGHT HOLES
Boring a straight hole in the edge of a board, such as a door, is no easy when you trust your eye to keep the bit true. A craftsman offers this tip in the Practical Build or trade publication: Clamp two straight cleats on each side of the door with a C-clamp and keep the bit, shank in the center of the cleats.

TRACING MOISTURE
When paint blisters appear on the outside of a house, check the time of the year. Vapor pressure from the inside is greatest when the temperature drops to 25 degrees or below. This damage becomes noticeable in early spring. Outside water does its greatest damage in heavy rainy seasons and on gable ends where eaves are short.

THE BIG BRUSH-OFF
More than 350 million paint brushes are worn out every year in the United States, says the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Assn.

WHAT'S UP? Resourceful cat photographer Walder Chandoha cued his son to bark suddenly from another direction ... with this result. It appears in the "1947 Cat Calendar."

Pictures Of Pets Are Fine Works Of Camera Artistry

By IRVING DESFOR

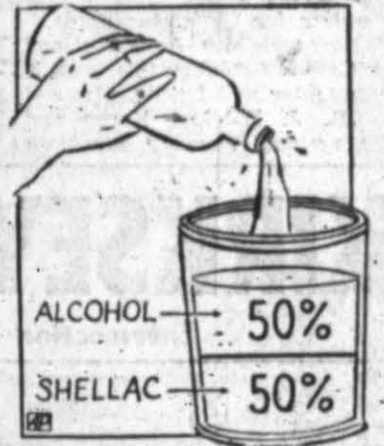

AP Newsfeatures
Pictures of pets can be recognizable, sharp and properly exposed yet lack interest for anybody except the pet's owner. These pictures are often entered in photo contests or camera club salons only to meet indifference on the part of judges. Their quick elimination puzzles the doting animal fancier. Why?
Walter Chandoha, famous cat photographer of Huntington Station, L. I., had a ready answer. "Lack of animation," he diagnosed. "The pictures are static. They are merely record shots much like passport pictures of people and who ever heard of a passport picture winning a prize?"
"Animation does not necessarily mean lots of action—but it does mean lots of expression. The expression could be happiness, sadness, one of alarm, alertness or curiosity—anything but a deadpan. Our cat and dog pals can express all of those emotions if given the right stimulus."
Chandoha's technique is to rely greatly on sounds to stimulate expressive pictures. He meows, and barks and moos. He can gobble like a turkey, bleat like a sheep and cluck like a hen. He whistles, sings, snaps his fingers, faxes the camera and crumples cellophane in his hand.

"Any sharp, clear noises to get an animal's attention are okay," he said, "but make sure they are not explosive noises that will frighten him."
"When a pet fails to respond to sounds, other inducements have to be tried... like tasty food morsels or strange objects. Dangle a toy on the end of a string tied to a stick or let the pet get a whiff of a favorite food to arouse curiosity."
All of this technique is centered around a certain limited area on which the camera and lights are already focused. The background must be extremely simple so as to offer no distraction for the central figure, the pet.
If you want to see how this method is carried to a successful conclusion, look for the "1957 Cat Calendar" or the "1957 Dog Calendar," weekly engagement calendar books (Berkshire Publishers, Cambridge, Mass.). Each has more than 50 eye-catching studies of the two favorite household pets by our expert advisor, Walter Chandoha.

Home Repair Notes

AP Newsfeatures
USING SHELLAC
DO... dilute shellac with denatured alcohol in a 50-50 mixture for most ordinary purposes around the house and in the home workshop.
DO... flow on shellac with a dust-free brush which should be cleaned with alcohol after use and kept only for shellac.
DO... know that you will get better results with two or three thin coats than with a single heavy coat, sanding very lightly between coats.
DO... use shellac as a sealer between a coat of oil stain and the final finish.
DON'T... apply shellac in damp or rainy weather unless you want to wind up with a cloudy or whitish finish.
DON'T... put on shellac over wax or oil, although shellac itself provides a good base for wax, preventing dirt from being ground in to the wood.

DON'T... buy a large quantity of shellac at one time unless it will be used up in a couple of months, as it deteriorates slowly, once the container has been opened.
DON'T... forget that white shellac is not actually white but clear and produces a practically colorless finish, while orange shellac (which looks somewhat the same) produces a slightly tinted tone.

PULL-PROOF SCREWS

Screws used to hang heavy doors on soft wood often pull out in a short time. One way to avoid this, says the Practical Builder trade publication, is to drill a small starting hole, fill it with thick glue and then drive the screw. The glue will be forced into surrounding fibers, giving them increased hardness.

CEILING GLOW NEEDS NO LAMPS

Luminous ceilings are being designed for the entire 38-story Seagram building now being erected on Park Avenue in New York. No conventional light fixtures or lamps will be needed. During office hours the ceilings will be lighted to full capacity. At night they will glow at one-fourth of normal intensity to make the skyscraper a tower of light. The system was developed by Light-olier, Inc.

All of a sudden and out of a clear sky, there seems to be quite a bit of interest in oil development in the immediate territory. Some activity in leases is reported in spots occasionally, but predict that one or two wells will be drilled in the area during the coming year.

Much of the interest is possibly drifting down from the national and state levels. The Palo Duro basin, it seems, is scheduled for spotlight attention during the next of the areas biggest irrigation well booms, chiefly in the west and north portions of the county. Many of the wells are deep and, to judge by driving around, many of them are new. It would seem that literally hundreds and hundreds of acres have been transformed from dry land into irrigation farms during the past 12 months. This is due largely to the extensive drought.

Meanwhile, F. W. Dool says he wishes I would quit picking on "poor old Benson." Dool allows that everyone picks on Benson, and that it isn't fair. Still, and all that, I don't agree with Ezra T. If he will resign and go back to Utah, I will promise to quit. However, I am glad to know that Ezra has one friend in Deaf Smith County.

Dool also predicts that the airport deal will fall by a big margin. He may be right, but I hope not. Some folks say we had better save the money for more school buildings. Personally, I figure we need to do something to get more industry and business to get more valuations to get more taxes to build more schools.

Besides, when it comes to schools, Hereford Rural High School Trustee Tom Robinson recently came up with a suggestion which appears to have more than passing merit. Tom says we have all of these millions of dollars invested in school plants — and that we only use them a small fraction of the time. This is an innovation, of course, but it does make sense. Our schools operate 167 days out of each 365, and on a one-shift basis. The rest of the time these millions of dollars go idle, except for maintenance and supervision which costs additional money.

Any big factory in the nation takes advantage of its facilities and equipment by operating full-time and, generally, with three shifts. Tom figures a 12-month school could save a lot. Add to this a two-shift attendance plan — and they could save twice as much as a lot. Even the buses could backhaul, bringing students to school as they carried others home.

Sounds fantastic? Yes, but don't write it off too suddenly! It will be several years but many of us may live to see it happen. Certainly, it does not present the obstacle which many people faced in getting an education in generations past. Anyway, it's an idea.

I was in Dimmitt Tuesday with some Lions Club members to visit and to advertise the formal opening of the new County Coliseum and Lions Wrestling Saturday night. You never saw such a meal as the Methodist Church ladies served the Dimmitt club down south. It was really out of this world. Saw Bruce Woodell, former Herefordite, along with quite a few other Dimmitt folks. Several were asking about the proposed airport. They have an eagle eye on Hereford.

Dimmitt is growing by leaps and bounds. They seem to have more per capita construction right now than Hereford. Jimmie Allred entertained with some of his magic stunts — and he certainly hasn't lost his touch, although this is the first time I have seen him perform in several years. As Earnest Langley said, Jim is about as near professional as one can get, and still maintain his amateur standing.

People have come a long way since the cave man days. However, we are still fairly dependent upon the weather. It governs our crops and, consequently, our daily menu; it governs travel, a business, and practically everything else under the sun. We have lessened many of the woes caused by the weather, but it is still the biggest single factor with which mankind must contend.

Several stores already have up their Christmas decorations. This year, Thanksgiving comes so late in Texas that they have to start in November to get them all up. Anyway you look at it, Christmas is almost here.

I have been expecting any time to run across one of those complete Christmas dinners, frozen and packaged. It will probably be complete with left-overs for turkey hash.

Back to Thanksgiving. There was probably never before in history a time when the people of this section had more for which to give thanks. The Chamber of Commerce recently did a lot of research and came up with the following:

Total value of crops harvested in 1956 — $35,500,000.

They showed deposits totaling $12,901,000 as of Nov. 15, 1956, which represents actual bank reports. Other statistics included an estimated population of 3,500 in the city and 13,700 in the metropolitan area. Retail sales in Hereford showed at $14,572, while the per capita income was set at $7,876.

In a drought year like '56, the $35½ million value of crops harvested is really something. I don't know how they got the figure, but I presume it is fairly accurate. True, it is bountiful. We should

Dolls Of Many Nationalities And Antiques Fill Large Collections

By CAROL INMAN

Most little girls collect and keep their dolls until the age of 12 or 13, then throw the dilapidated toys away, or discard them in favor of lipstick, high heels, and flirting with the neighborhood boys.

But, one little girl began saving dolls when she was six years old—and is still collecting them! Mrs. Willa Keppel Williamson has collected over 100 dolls in these many years, and several of them are over 100 years old.

Her love for antiques began when she was a young girl, and the first thing Mrs. Williamson remembers saving is a small china doll which was given to her when she was six years old. The doll stands out in her mind because a neighbor boy gave her an orange and the small, inch-tall china figure was under the peeling where he had cleverly concealed it.

The largest doll she has is about 30 inches tall, and has real hair which is naturally curly. The doll is dressed in a long yellow dress which was fashionable about the turn of the century, and has an old sweetheart necklace around her neck.

"Of course, I like all my dolls," stated the bright-eyed old lady, when asked which doll was her favorite. "I don't think I could possibly choose between any of them but here's a very cute one I got during World War I.

"It's Flirty Flossie, and you can see how her blue eyes turn and roll from side to side."

She has dolls from Spain, Germany, France, Guatemala, Holland, Venezuela, and of course, the United States. Many of them were brought from antique shops in New York, Chicago, and Oklahoma.

A doll dressed in a native costume of Jerusalem is also a favorite of Mrs. Williamson's. Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Walter of Oklahoma City brought it to her last year, along with a small vial of water from the Jordan River, when they visited in Europe. She had lived with the Walter family from 1902 to 1906, and they remembered her when they journeyed to the Holy Land. The doll is brightly decorated in colors of fuchsia, red, black, yellow, blue and green, and had the Star of David around its neck.

The antique collector lives with her son and his family, the Leroy Williamsons, in the Dawn community about 18 miles north of Hereford. They have just recently built their home there, but Mrs. Williamson declares that "my collection takes so much of the room that we're going to have to enlarge the house."

She has received many of her dolls from Mrs. Carl Gilliland, and recently had the chance to get a poke bonnet doll—a doll with a blue poke bonnet on. These dolls were very popular among little girls many years ago, although many people today have never seen one.

A very unusual doll of Mrs. Williamson's collection is named "Josephine." She bought it in Enid 15 years ago. A replica of Napoleon's wife, the doll wears a blue and gold terra and has pierced ears.

Mrs. Williamson has many very delicately carved figurines of the Christ Child, and a Madonna. They are of delicate pastel colors.

"WHICH DO YOU CHOOSE?" asks little Lisa Williamson, as she holds her grandmother's largest doll, which has natural curly human hair, and a small doll from California which is made entirely of shells. (Staff Photos)

Candy Making And Candles 4-H Club Lesson Subjects

In addition to their November lessons on candy and candle making, the 4-H girls of Deaf Smith County are beginning to talk about their Christmas plans. Each group will stage a party to mark the holiday season in the weeks just before Dec. 25.

Members are being welcomed into the clubs at each meeting as new girls move into the various communities or just realize that they too would like to be a part of the fun and learning of being a 4-H girl.

Happy Homes
Happy Homes 4-H Club met Nov. 8 in the REA Kitchen. Mrs. George Heard presented a demonstration on candy making. Patsy Court served as hostess.

The business session was conducted by Carlynn Williams, vice and their hands are carved so perfectly that they look real.

However, Mrs. Williamson's love for antiques isn't just limited to dolls.

She has a large break-front chest which is filled with oddities such as salt dips, beautiful cut-glass dishes that sparkle like diamonds, several china plates over 100 years of age, cup and saucers from all over the world, money collections, stamp collections and many portraits.

All of these are most interesting to see and hear about, and Mrs. Williamson is justly proud of her collection. "I couldn't place a value on my collections, and I certainly wouldn't part with them, although I have had many chances."

Guests of the club were Mrs.

president, in the absence of the president.

Those present were Glenna Gandy, Jane Heard, Sharon and Patsy Court, Geneva Logan, Louise Axe, Linda Hewitt, Brenda Carter, Carlynn and Fanelida Williams and the leaders, Mrs. Ira Ott and Mrs. Heard.

Caprock

The Caprock 4-H Club met at Adrian High School on Nov. 7 with Glenda Homfeld, president, in charge. The minutes were read by Paula Criez and approved.

A demonstration on the making of fudge candy was presented by the club food demonstrator, Cynthia Kromer. Mrs. C. F. Homfeld, the adult leader, gave a demonstration on the making of peanut brittle.

Refreshments were served by Marlene Williams and Janie Taylor to the 16 members present.

Willing Workers
Candle making was the study topic when the Willing Workers 4-H Club met in the home of Tom Beauchamp on Nov. 12. Patricia and Shari Schuet were welcomed as new members.

Those present were Ann Gentry, Tom Beauchamp, Peggy Lemons, Dorothy Reznik, Helen Davis, DeLores Brorman, Janice Higgins, Caroline Brumley, Shari Joe Carmichael, Linda Lemons, Shari and Patricia Schuet.

Visitors were Mrs. Walter Lemons, Mrs. Carmichael and Mrs. Beauchamp.

Argen Draper
Dorothy Stewart was hostess to the Argen Draper 4-H Club on Nov. 6 for a lesson on candy making. Lucy Beth Miller and Dorotha demonstrated the making of peanut brittle and of chocolate fudge.

Tentative plans for a Christmas party were discussed but definite arrangements are to be made at a future meeting. Committee reports were also heard.

Guests of the club were Mrs.

Paul McClung and son, David, and Loretta Russell.

Members present were Betty Hagar, Dorotha Stewart, Linda Tooley, Gail and Lucy Beth Miller, Wainie Beavers and Audri Miller. Leaders attending were Mrs. Lenoy Tooley, Mrs. H. H. Miller and Mrs. Clifford Stewart.

HD Clubs Discuss Family Problems At Current Meets

Club women of the county have requested one program each year for the past five years on the topic "Family Life Education," and they are during the month of November hearing a discussion by Mrs. Argen Draper on the current selection from this series entitled, "Let's Work It Out Together."

Mrs. Draper lists as the purposes of this study the following: To help families strengthen themselves through a better understanding of human development and human relations within the family; To understand the needs of children and youth in the home and community; To help families work toward more democratic family living.

She advises, "Let's share with our family the most important skill of all—ways of thinking and planning together and ways of getting along with others; and solving our problems as we work and live and learn together."

Some clubs have discussed facts and fiction about Texas at their recent meetings as one of the year book programs for the month of November.

North Hereford
The North Hereford H. D. Club met at the home of Mrs. A. A. Hare on Thursday, Nov. 15. The program theme was "Let's Work It Out Together" with Mrs. Ar-gen Draper acting as program leader.

The outline of the discussion was as follows: Face the problem; Look at the cause; Put yourself in others' places; Decide what to do; Make a plan of action; Check your plan with your goal; Go to work.

As each point was introduced, the club members joined the discussion with their reactions to the problems presented.

Mrs. Otto Olson gave the finance report and the marketing report was presented by Mrs. O. C. Williams. The family Thanksgiving supper was set for Nov. 24 at the Camp Fire Hut.

Members present were Mesdames E. L. Whitehead, W. H. Russell, R. A. Fullwood, Jackie Bishop, Argen Draper, Charlene Reiger, O. C. Williams, Otto Olson, Belle Williams, Paul Hoff, Miss Roberta Campbell and the hostess.

West Hereford
Mrs. Mary Waters was hostess to the West Hereford H. D. Club on Nov. 13. The roll call was answered with names and facts about heroes of Texas.

Draperies were also demonstrated at the meeting.

The hostess gift was presented to Mrs. Ida May Vaughn.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. John Jacobsen Sr., Mrs. Edna Bowe, Mrs. W. H. Awrey Sr., Mrs. Mary King, Mrs. A. E. Douglas, Mrs. N. W. Livey, Mrs. P. H. Luck, Mrs. Leon Denton, Mrs. Ray Boyd, Mrs. Carlos Vaughn and Mrs. Ida Mae Vaughn.

WAR'S HORROR DESCRIBED IN MESSAGE FOR MRS. EUBANKS

When Mrs. E. C. Eubanks visited in Vienna, Austria, about two years ago, she was fortunate to have as her hostess and guide for two weeks Frau Lydia Eder who lives there with her two children.

Just this week, Mrs. Eubanks received a letter from her friend which describes very graphically the conditions as they exist in Vienna during recent days. An excerpt from the letter follows:

Wien (Vienna) Austria, Nov. 11, 1956

"We in Austria are living under the dread shadow of war. In Vienna we can hear the sound of the heavy guns. For a while we thought the fighting would overflow into Austria and have been beyond ourselves with fear, having barely lived through the last.

"But for the moment we remain unscathed and breathe a little easier. This is but for the moment because of the way things are in the East. Anything can happen there and if it does, probably will lap over and reach all of Europe.

"The things going on in our neighbor-land, Hungary, surpasses anything that has happened over here before, to my knowledge. And believe me, I saw plenty all through the last war.

"It isn't new for a big nation to overrun and crush a smaller one, but is horrible—more horrible than anything that has gone before,—for the Red Cross stores to be bursting with medical supplies and later all the other peoples of the world collected to help the Hungarians and that no one is permitted to go in and help. This while wounded die in the streets like dogs. Freezing and bleeding to death when many could be saved. Not even doctors and nurses who volunteer are allowed inside the Hungarian border.

"This, apart from the atrocities of cruel revenge. And we only 60 kilometers from the frontier!

"Are we going to have to try to survive another devastating war? And will our children starve and die from exposure as they did in the last one? I feel this terribly. I know if it had not been for a woman in New York who sent us food packages, my babies could not have lived through all the terror."

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

AN EXPANSION ATTIC offers the most economical way to enlarge a house. Mere finishing of extra rooms usually does the job. This house, covering only 1,200 square feet without garage, has space for three additional bedrooms and an extra bathroom upstairs, adding 835 square feet of floor space. This is plan B-2967AP by Alvin Cassens Jr., architect, 145 So. Franklin Ave., Valley Stream, N. Y.

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago
Since the adoption of local option in Amarillo some six weeks ago, five arrests have been made for bootlegging. The "anties" as well as the "pros" are assisting the officers in enforcing the law. One of the men arrested declares that he made $4,000 during the "dry season" before, and made his brags about voting for "dry" the last time, presumably so he could turn the same trick. He and the others may "land" behind the pen walls.
E. Rentro is the third man to sign for one of the McDonald wells. The papers were drawn up the first of the week. The first to sign, as already announced, was Baskin & Hester. The drilling has progressed rapidly on this well, the depth now being 200 feet and the reaming process is now going on. This done, the machinery will be installed. This makes a total of six big wells, including the three McDonald wells.
A joke in a December issue of the 1911 Hereford Brand: Husband—Are the children out of hearing? Wife—Yes, why? Husband—I just want to tell you what I think of that new hat of yours.
25 Years Ago
With the closing of the football season in Hereford by the defeat of the Whitefaces week before last by the Dalhart Wolves for the district semi-final, the boys have turned in their suits and called the football season complete.
While not extremely disagreeable, weather conditions since the first of the week have not been very pleasant. Chilly, foggy nights with penetrating winds have called 'out winter wearing apparel. Light snow fell Monday night, alternating with rain and sleet at intervals Tuesday. Precipitation has been slight, but the damp condition keeps most of the moisture where it can soak into the ground.
While considerably late for a great deal of benefit this year, it seems that Panhandle wheat has at last come into its own for a deserved higher price on the market because of its higher protein content. Local elevators are paying an extra premium for wheat that government tests show to contain over the usual 11 to 12 per cent of protein. While not definitely established, The Brand has been informed that a premium of four cents per bushel is paid for each per cent of protein shown over that amount. One farmer this week was paid 50 cents for wheat when the market price was $3.38.

How Can I?

- Q. How can I remove plaster and lime stains from woodwork and floors?
A. Use one pint of vinegar to one gallon of hot water. Scrub well, then rinse with clear water and wipe dry.
- Q. How can I detect a leak in a gas pipe?
A. At the point where the leak is suspected, apply a paste of soap and water. If there is a leak, bubbles will appear. Never use matches or a flame in looking for a gas leak.
- Q. How can I relieve the pinch of new shoes?
A. Wring a cloth from hot water and lay it across the tight spot while the shoe is on the foot, changing as it cools. This will make the leather shape to the foot.
- Q. How can I remove varnish stains from goods?
A. Rub the spot with turpentine or benzine, then wash the goods thoroughly.
- Q. How can I make a good polish for the stove?
A. Mix equal parts of a good stove polish with kerosene and turpentine until the consistency of cream. Apply when the stove or range is slightly warm. Then polish with a rough cloth. This also prevents rust.
- Q. How can I avoid shelling peas?
A. Wash the pods and place them in the boiling water to cook. The pods will open and the peas settle to the bottom of the vessel. Merely skin off the pods.

Cowboys And Indians Are Back In Hereford Again

REPRISAL
A better-grade western - Indian drama that has much excitement in the unfolding, vying with audience interest in the relationships of whites and Indians will be "Reprisal," showing Friday and Saturday at the Star Theatre.
The western has an unusual plot with rapid action to the inconclusive ending. Guy Madison delivers a very good acting job as the half Indian posing as a white man. He manages to keep the audience sympathy even after he discloses that he is part Indian.
Felicia Farr, as the white girl who falls in love with him, impressive with her action before the mob threatening to hang Madison. The complete family will enjoy "Reprisal," however, the picture will find its best reception with the young cowboys and cowgirls.
Guy Madison is well known to disciples of sagebrush fare because of his continued appearance in the title role of TV's "Wild Bill Hickok" series and Kathryn Grant will be interesting to watch, as folks remember she has been the object of much printer's ink lately because she's the lass whom Bing Crosby is reportedly about to wed.

THE MIGHTY CHRYSLER '57

CAR ILLUSTRATED IS CHRYSLER NEW YORKER 2-DOOR HARDTOP.

Riding in it is a brand new kind of motion!

The minute the wheels start you know something important has happened. On rough country road or superhighway, Chrysler's new Torsion-Aire Ride lets the wheels ride the contours but the body doesn't—the road just pours under you.

Chrysler's completely new Torsion-Aire Ride didn't just happen. To achieve it Chrysler engineers had to develop and apply new principles of design. They wanted a lower car with a lower center of gravity. To get it they eliminated front end coil springs and substituted the greater, smoother resilience of torque rods. The whole effort is a blueprint of advanced engineering.
From this ground-hugging ride sprang the long, low styling of the new Chrysler as functional as it is glamorous.
Pride in fine engineering is one of the solid satisfactions of Chrysler ownership. You'll find this exciting Chrysler ride, powered by a 325-hp. engine, a personal pleasure you cannot duplicate in any other conveyance that travels on wheels. So when you visit our showrooms, don't just look at the new beauty of this car. Get behind the wheel and travel as you've never traveled before!

FREEDOM MARTYR

WILLIAM R. LOVEJOY OF ALTON, ILLINOIS, GAVE HIS LIFE DEFENDING HIS RIGHT TO SPEAK AND TO PUBLISH HIS HATRED OF SLAVERY.

Your rights before his martyr's death November 3, 1857, Lovejoy said: "If the civil authorities refuse to protect me, I must look to God; and if I die, I have determined to make my grave in Alton. I have sworn eternal opposition to slavery—I can die at my post, but I cannot desert it."

Beauty At Home

Q. What is a good exercise for helping to reduce overly-fleshy hips?

A. Sit cross-legged on the floor, and with your hands clutching your ankles and keeping the feet slightly off the floor, rock from side to side as far as you can without upsetting. This is a very good one, if practiced faithfully!

Q. How does the length of the sleeves affect the appearance of one's hands?

A. Sleeves that end in the middle of the forearm make the hand look thin and long. If your wrist and forearm are already thin, the effect is scrawny and unbecoming. For long thin hands, the sleeve should either come right down to the wrist, or end above the elbow, not below it. But of course, if your arms and hands are short, your wrists and forearms plump, your sleeves that end between the elbow and wrist will make your hands look longer and thinner, to their advantage.

Q. What is a good, inexpensive lotion that will combat the dryness of my skin?

A. A bottle of lanolin or baby oil is excellent for this purpose.

Q. What causes white spots on the fingernails?

A. These are believed to be the result of bruises to the nail as it forms. The cells under the base of the nail are extremely sensitive, and that is why it is so important not to dig and scrape the cuticle at the base of the nail, for the nail as it forms in those cells under the half-moon is very soft and delicate.

Q. The skin on my throat seems quite a bit darker than that on my face. What can I do to correct this situation?

A. Try bleaching, the skin on the throat with buttermilk massages.

Q. How can I remove some rubber cement stains from one of my frocks?

A. Sponge the stain with carbon tetrachloride, gasoline or benzine, or dip the stain in it. If the cement has dried, rub petroleum jelly into the stain to loosen it, then sponge with solvent; or rub it first with dry cleaning soap.

Q. How should the hair be brushed?

A. Be sure, first, to brush for several minutes a day WITHOUT FAIL! Part your hair in several places and brush step by step over your entire head. Brush the hair UP, off the scalp, lifting it with a definite pulling stroke of the brush. Then brush OUTWARD from the scalp, drawing the hair out to its full length in all directions. And finally brush your hair in the lines of your coiffure, brushing its curl and pinching each wave with your fingers.

Q. What can I do if my foundation cream does not spread easily?

A. Try dipping your fingers into water, scattering a few drops over your face, and patting lightly. This should insure an even distribution of your cream.

Q. What kind of body bath is especially soothing and refreshing?

A. The sponge bath of alcohol and cool water at frequent intervals, followed by a talcum powder rub.

SCHOOLS BOOST SALES

WEST POINT, Miss. (AP)—Supt. B. D. McCallister of West Point's city schools says a survey in Mississippi shows that retail sales are higher in cities with better schools. All other factors being equal, he said, cities with better schools have up to 22 per cent more retail business than those with poor schools. He said education increases individual productive capacity which in turn boosts living standards and purchasing power.

THE CHURCH'S ONE FOUNDATION IS JE-SUS CHRIST HER LORD

... She came from God the Father to accomplish good for all; to persuade people to a better way of life. Her steeple is high, her influence reaches far. Men know she holds comfort for believers and direction for those lost in sin.

She is where a lot of people go as a last resort. Oh, that all men might first, come by way of His church for renewed hope, divine courage and greater strength.

Over nineteen hundred years ago, God opened her doors to all men regardless of race, color or creed. He raised the cross, on which Jesus died, atop her steeple with a prayer that men might never commit blasphemy against His name. — Then, "come let us go into the house of the Lord." Here, it is always time to worship the God I serve... for I am His church.

The doors of our Churches are open! Our Ministers invite you to come and worship. Every person can be strengthened through regular church attendance.

Avocados Add Color To Meals

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor

Avocados, we find, are always successful on a party menu. As an elegant first course for a company meal, we like to serve them in the shell. To do this, we cut the speckled avocados in half, twist them apart and remove the seeds. Then we fill the cavities with a dressing made of olive oil, wine vinegar, salt, freshly-ground pepper and mustard — with or without the addition of a little catchup or chili sauce.

Sometimes, too, we fill the cavities with seafood or chicken salad and use them as a main course for a ladies' lunch. Or for a buffet party when we want an interesting accompaniment for baked ham, we may fill the cavities with a mixture of chopped fresh vegetables that have been tossed with French dressing.

Another party success is a mold for a ladies' lunch, the mold may be made in ring form and the center filled with seafood or chicken salad. Or it may be put into a large fancy fluted mold and turned out on a large round platter; it may then be surrounded with thin slices of smoked tongue or baked ham and a ring of watercress. You might keep this green and red combination in mind for use around Christmas time.

AVOCADO COMBINATION SALAD

Ingredients: 3 avocados, lime or lemon juice, 3 cups diced mixed fresh raw vegetables, French dressing.

Method: Cut avocados in half lengthwise, but do not peel; twist apart and remove seed. Brush cut surface with lemon or lime juice to prevent discoloration. Spoon 1/2 cup mixed vegetables into each avocado cavity. Just before serving, pour French dressing over vegetable mixture. Makes 6 servings.

Note: For the fresh raw vegetable mixture, tomato, cucumber, celery and green pepper make a delicious combination.

MOLDED AVOCADO SALAD

Ingredients: 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin, 1 1/2 cups cold consommé or bouillon (fat-free), 1/3 cup lime or lemon juice, 1/4 teaspoon salt, Tabasco sauce, 1 teaspoon minced onion, 3 cups sieved avocado, 1/2 cup commercially-prepared mayonnaise.

Method: Sprinkle gelatin on cold consommé to soften. Place over boiling water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat; stir in lime or lemon juice, salt, Tabasco sauce to taste and onion. Chill until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Mix avocado and mayonnaise; stir into gelatin mixture. Turn into a 5-cup mold; cover tightly with plastic see-through wrapping; chill until firm. Unmold before serving and serve as desired. Makes 12 servings.

Note: A 10 1/2-ounce can of fat-free bouillon (beef broth) may be diluted according to the directions on the can and part of this soup used as the liquid called for in the above recipe.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. —The woman pulled a heavy gold wedding ring from her finger and insisted it be used to fill her teeth, despite the dentist's assurance there was a cheaper way.

She explained:

"I promised my first husband before his death that I'd always wear his ring. I'm getting married next week and the man I'm going to marry has made me promise that I'll wear only his ring. This way, I can keep my promise to both."

A TICKET LANDING

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. —Patrolman Paul Ramsey couldn't believe his eyes when he saw the helicopter land on the street at Fountain Square. He asked the pilot what was going on. The pilot said he stopped to let off a couple of passengers while en route to Tennessee. Patrolman Ramsey pondered a moment, then wrote a traffic ticket for the pilot. He was doubled parked.

Freckles

A good remedy for freckles is to bathe the face in fresh buttermilk. Or, mix two ounces of sour milk, or buttermilk, with two drams of grated horseradish, and six drams of cornmeal. Spread this mixture between thin muslin and apply to the affected parts at night, leaving on as long as possible, but be careful not to get it in the eyes.

Mellowed Fruit

Make the fruit beverage and the fruit cup a few hours before you intend to serve them, and you will find a mellow flavor that is a big improvement over fruits and juices that are served as soon as assembled.

Hard-Water Stain

To remove hard-water scale deposits from the bottoms of porcelain enamel double boilers, boil

Ink Stains

To remove ink stains from colored fabrics, apply a paste made of sour milk and fuller's earth.

When in a Pinch

Your quantity of scrambled eggs can be stretched by soaking a half slice of bread in milk and mashing it with a fork adding for each two eggs used. Beat the bread pulp together with the eggs and scramble as usual. This defies detection and tastes just as good.

Stiff Curtains

To stiffen net or marquisette curtains, take about five cents worth of gum arabic, soak it in three quarts of water over night, and use instead of starch.

Burned Tin Pan

To clean a tin pan in which some thing has been burned, fill it with water, add a handful of sal soda and boil. Repeat this process if not successful at first.

together one quart of water with one teaspoon of salt and the juice of 1/2 lemon, one teaspoon soda or one tablespoon vinegar for a few minutes, and it will disappear.

Grease Stains

To remove grease stains from delicate fabrics, touch the spots with chloroform or ether. Then rub with a dry cloth until the spot is perfectly dry. Use CAUTION when handling chloroform or ether.

Adhesive Tape

If the leather on the inside of the heel of a shoe wears through, cover the hole with a piece of adhesive tape and thus prevent the wearing of a hole in the shoe.

Vinegar Cruets

To clean vinegar cruets, fill them with warm water to which a few drops of household ammonia have been added. Let stand for an hour, then rinse well with lukewarm water.

A chemical weld is now largely used, instead of a wedge, in sealing axe heads and handles.

CHEAP FOOD MAKES EXPENSIVE MINKS
PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—What gives mink that expensive look? It's an inexpensive, quick frozen food made out of ground-up fish. George Lewis, Portland business-man, owns four New England factories that produced 100 million pounds last year out of what, and what's left of redfish, or ocean perch, after the filets have been cut out. He estimates his plants provide nearly three-fourths of the nation's mink farm food requirements.

Stamps In The News

By SYD KRONISH
AP Newsfeatures
Did you know:
The present 3-cent rate for letters is the same as it was in 1851? In the early days of this nation the cost for mailing a one sheet letter was as high as 25 cents?
In 1813, to encourage vaccination, Congress provided (at that time only) for the free mailing of vaccines?
In 1797 Congress provided that all letters and packages to George Washington could be mailed free to him for the remainder of his life?
These and hundreds of other interesting facts are contained in a new 138-page booklet issued by the Post Office Department. The publication, "United States Domestic Postage Rates 1789-1956" is available from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C., at 45 cents a copy.

A neatly designed 4-color photograph stamp depicting the "Conquest of Manasu" has been issued by Japan. The 10 yen adhesive honors the scaling of this giant peak in the Himalayas by a Japanese expedition.

Also issued was a 1 rial stamp to honor the arrival in Teheran of the President of Pakistan.

Finland has issued four new stamps for the Finnish Red Cross. This same set also commemorates the 50th anniversary of the last meeting of the former Finnish Diet. Depicted on the stamps are the portraits of the last speakers of the Diet.

A 12 centavo blue airmail stamp has been issued by Cuba to honor the Inter-American Press Society. At the same time four stamps were issued marking that country's annual tuberculosis fund drive. Each stamp in this set depicted a child.

STAMP NOTES. . . . eight stamps have been issued by Yugoslavia to hail the Olympic Games in Australia. . . . Another Olympic set has been issued by Korea. The two adhesives of identical design show a hand holding the Olympic torch on which is superimposed the five ring Olympic symbol. . . . The UN Postal Administration announced that on the first day of the UN Day stamp (Oct. 24) there were 303,560 covers cancelled.

BANK REAPS REWARDS
MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Public Museum picked up a little cash when it staged an exhibit of five small mechanical banks at a new savings and loan company office. After the exhibit closed it was discovered people had dropped pennies into all of the banks to watch them work. Total take was 16 cents.

LOST AND FOUND
TRUMANN, Ark. (AP)—Milford Davis could not find his automobile. He reported the car stolen. Later that day Davis met auto dealer Bill Kinard and told him of the theft. "Why your car is at my place," Kinard said. "You told me a couple of days ago to pick it up this morning and do some work on it."

TOO FAST

Taxicabs Are Displacing Asia's Famous Rickshaws

By LEN LEFKOW
HONG KONG — Life has been bittersweet to the vanishing man of Asia, the cocky rickshaw puller. The taxicab is nudging him into oblivion.

The once familiar sight of a barefoot rickshaw man, his bamboo hat flopping jauntily as he darts through jammed streets, is only a memory in most parts of Communist China.

He's fast disappearing from this teeming British colony, where once thousands of rickshaw haulers skillfully fought for space and passengers amid the bustle of the buses, trams, autos and foot traffic.

Today, there are perhaps 600 or so rickshaws left and not many more customers.

Ngan Chung-tung has pulled the same bright red cab for 10 of his 27 years and he doesn't want to see them go.

"No rickshaw, no money, it's very simple," he laughs. "Ngan can't read or write. He's never stepped inside a school."

Yet Ngan considers himself luckier in some ways than other pullers. Young and alert, he dashes along crowded streets faster than most and can spot potential customers quicker.

Little Return
He makes only the equivalent of about 80 cents to one dollar U.S. during his 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. shift.

His take-home pay averages about $15 U.S. a month, or 50 cents a day, the price of a quart of milk here. His two daughters, chubby from their rice diet, have never tasted fresh cow's milk.

"Sure, I'd like something better for them," he says. "Maybe they will be able to go to school, I'd like that." He adds plaintively: "But I doubt if they will. Not so many people take rickshaws nowadays."

NO BARKING
MILWAUKEE (AP)—Judges at the 36th annual Wisconsin Designer-Craftsman Show had to admit the coat woven by Mrs. Belle Schultz of Milwaukee was her pet project.

The wrap was nothing unusual, but the wool—! The wool was the combings from her pet Scotch collie.
