

BRAND CORRESPONDENTS

Adrian News Comes From Judy Pinnell

One of the newest Brand's newest and youngest correspondents is Judy Gretchen Pinnell, 18 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pinnell.

Judy, who will be graduated from Adrian High School next year, got her job as correspondent when the former writer, Annie Briggs, resigned and recommended her successor.

Her territory covers a more populous area than most of the country correspondents areas. In addition to serving the town of Adrian, Judy also writes news of Simms Community and of Deaf Smith County residents in that area.

And because she writes for a town, there are more activities and organizations to report on than there are in many country regions.

Likes Basketball and Sewing
Judy was born in Pampa, in 1938. She has two brothers and one sister, all younger than she. Her hobbies are sewing and playing basketball and she joins her family in watching television, picknicking, and reading.

Work on her column usually requires about six hours, twice a week. Most of her contacts are made by telephone, but she also finds her friends are helpful.

"And my community is helpful, too," she points out. "The people are very considerate; many of them call to give me news, they have been nice to comment and make suggestions. It lets you know that someone reads your column."

Likes to Use Own Style
Judy, who has the fresh-faced look typical of healthy American youth, says the thing she likes best about writing the Adrian news is that she can use her own style and dialect.

"I haven't been doing it long enough to know what time of year it's easier to do and what time it's harder to do. I just know that so far, it's a lot of fun."

Judy is to be graduated from Adrian High School next year and after that she plans to continue her education at West Texas State College in Canyon. What she will major in, is as yet undetermined. Journalism? Maybe so; maybe no; but at any rate, Judy's getting a practical touch of newspaper writing beforehand, to help her decide.

Tech Workshop Dramatically Illustrates Language Arts

AP Texas Supplemental Service
Lubbock, Tex., July 25 (AP)—How can you take thousands of Texas youngsters who speak only Spanish and put them in schools with other youngsters who speak only English?

That question is being studied intensively at Texas Technological College here, and classroom experts believe they may have found the answer.

Recently a group of 17 pre-school children who three weeks before knew only Spanish sat down and read first-grade books in English. Thirteen other boys and girls who three weeks before spoke only English chatted with the Latin Americans in Spanish.

The dramatic demonstration was the result of a Tech summer workshop conducted by Carlos Rivera, a bilingual teaching specialist from El Paso.

Throughout the workshop Rivera stressed that the problem is particularly pressing in South and West Texas where most of the state's million-or-so Latin Americans migrated to work in the agricultural fields. If the Spanish speaking youngsters show up at school at all, they soon lag far behind in studies because of the language barrier. Many drop out.

"Love, appreciation and a sense of belonging are just as important as scholastic discipline in helping children overcome language barriers," Rivera declared.

"Any method that will develop confidence in the Spanish-speaking child is used. In most instances up to now, we have just forced him to learn English, forgetting that he also has something to offer."

"The English-speaking child is helped to appreciate the Spanish-speaking youngster by learning Spanish songs, dances and other culture," Rivera explained.

"Soon the Spanish-speaking child feels he belongs," Rivera added.

Both groups of children were taught a new language by the same instructional methods. They see a picture of an object, hear a word pronounced, then repeat the word themselves. Dances and the songs help imprint the words more firmly in young minds.

During the first part of each workshop session, Rivera taught both groups. Watching were 30 teachers who will face the problem in public schools next fall. The latter part of the session was used for a discussion of Rivera's techniques.

In the last week, the teachers took over the classroom instruction themselves, using materials which they prepared.

Two Ladies Feted At Douglas Home

Mrs. Townsend Douglas and Mrs. R. G. Peeler were hostesses at a coffee given on Friday morning in the Douglas home to honor Mrs. Lawrence McGee, who is moving out of the neighborhood, and Mrs. Henry Sears, who is to move into the McGee house.

Roses in varied shades of pink predominated in decorative arrangements and Mrs. W. C. Hromas presided at the coffee service.

Those attending were Mesdames S. L. Waiser, Frank Knabe, H.M. Cogswell, O. M. Diekey, Jim Higgins, Ray McCullough, Ralph McCullough, Frank Lookingbill, Carl Luke, W. C. Hromas, George Brumley, B. F. Cain, J. D. Williams, M. W. Nobles, Kenneth Coaker, H. M. Thomas, the two honorees and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. McGee are moving to Amarillo, their former home before coming to Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Sears have purchased their home on North Texas Ave.

specified that the Texas Legislature should pass resolutions to conform with the other 30 states. The 25 percent maximum, it specified, will be void in case of war or disaster.

Censor Farm Agencies

The farm aid resolution sought three points: disaster aid to agriculture, a guarantee of 90 percent parity on basic crops, and increased marketing assistance through expanded market news, greater research programs and the use of state and national advertising media to help move farm commodities. The resolution also denounced many of the present federal and state agencies, originally established to assist the farmer, as detrimental and a hindrance to operation by the farmer.

Committees which served during the 45-minute session follow: Resolutions—Ray Cowser, Townsend Douglas and R. G. Peeler; credentials—Frank Cogdell, S. H. Slagle and Mrs. Louis Woodford; delegates—John D. Pitman, Bill Ellis and Mrs. O. E. Sherman, Jr.

Farewell Party For Mrs. Criswell

Mrs. George Springer and Mrs. Robert L. Thompson were hostesses at a coffee held in the Springer home Friday morning as a farewell courtesy to Mrs. Dalton Criswell who is moving to Andrews to make her future home.

The refreshment table was centered with an attractive arrangement of multi-colored sweet peas and deep purple petunias. A handkerchief shower was featured for the honoree.

Those present were Mesdames Tommy Braddy, Glenn Billbrey, H. V. Poarch, Fred Cunningham, A. L. Manjeot, Raymond White, Bill Price, Clay Angelo, the honoree and the hostesses.

About a third of U.S. spending units (families and single people) had incomes over $4,000 a year in 1950 compared to half in 1955.

By Jimmie Gillentine

Ordinarily we do not print unsigned letters, chiefly because we feel that people who write something which they are ashamed to sign can hardly expect us to do their dirty work. Here is an unsigned letter, however, which seems to have some merit — at least in one or two spots.

"Dear Sirs: In last Sunday's paper you had an article entitled 'Fewer Than One Percent of County's Boys-Girls Have Been in Trouble.'"

"I am a teenager and we don't like to be called juvenile delinquents!! Sure, teenagers have their wrongs, but they also have their good points."

"If the adults or adult delinquents wouldn't harp so much on the bad points and notice the teenagers' good points maybe we wouldn't try to do wrong all of the time, or try to be noticed."

"If the community would put a youth center in or provide some place where the teenagers could go and have fun instead of building big deals for the youngsters. For instance, the city is building a big ball park for the Little Leagues. What are the Big Leagues supposed to do while they play ball? Go to Dimmitt, Canyon, Amarillo, where there is something going on? Interesting!!!"

"Sincerely, (As ADULTS would say) 'A Juvenile Delinquent.'"

"P. S. The adults are the cause of the most of the juvenile delinquents."

Well, that gives you a birdseye view of how at least one of our teenagers feels. Unquestionably, this youngster should be taken to see a psychiatrist. Instead of working with people for general betterment, he (or she) seems to want everything on a silver platter. The writer, like a few other teenagers, is entirely selfish in wanting EVERYTHING for his or her own generation. He does not seem to care a whit about the youngsters who will be teenagers tomorrow; instead, he wants to gobble up things for his own age group "just to have fun." He would throw out the first and only step toward a better future by tearing down the Little League set-up — simply because he (or she) was too old to enjoy the benefits.

This very attitude on the part of older generations unquestionably resulted in the writer's present plight. Human nature has always included selfishness and greed but, upon these things alone, one can expect few, if any, accomplishments.

Furthermore, had the writer taken the trouble to have read the editorial in question, he would have seen that it made exactly the same point he makes: "Fewer Than One Percent of our Boys and Girls are Delinquents!" The Brand expressed his own opinion — yet he can find nothing but fault even with his friends! This attitude of expressing appreciation with criticism may be popular — but it is far from being smart. As for what this particular teenager might do with some of his (or her) spare time, we would suggest a little review in the subjects of Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar. Also, Penmanship if there is any spare time left.

In addition, I would take issue with the signature, "Juvenile Delinquent." This, I doubt very much. It would have been much more aptly expressed by the term, "Spoiled Brat."

Meanwhile, don't be hasty and judge all teenagers by this particular one. Most of them are wholesome, unselfish, clear-thinking kids. They appreciate the City Swimming Pool. Some of them even appreciate the advantage of an education, provided by the taxpayers. The letter, on the other hand, does emphasize a point in which the community is definitely dragging its feet. We do need to expand our baseball program into a Pony League in 1957 — and this is in the mill. We do need a recreation center, along with other forms of amusement. To recognize greed and selfishness on the part of our teenagers is not enough. Actually, the few strictly selfish boys and girls, like the fewer than one percent delinquents, are the ones who most need help.

Not until our teenagers — along with our adults — think more in general terms of community welfare, rather than selfish gain or personal enjoyment, can we ever realize the benefits of cooperation which the above letter demands. When people become willing to sacrifice their time, money and efforts in behalf of the community at large, they begin to realize the fullest advantages offered in a democracy. Even more important, you can depend upon the fact that future generations will be provided with the things which these kids may have missed along the line. Certainly, the attitude of having everything laid out on a silver platter is a far cry from the thinking which developed the United States into the world's leading nation. It is well to remember that the Government is THE PEOPLE — and that the people usually get what they want, IF they are willing to work for it.

Take the Hereford Firemen, for instance. They are putting on a drive to help the widows and orphans of the recent Dumas explosion. These boys are willing to go to a lot of trouble to help folks they never heard of before. They have made up some $300 among their own ranks. In addition, they risk their own lives from day to day and week to week just to help YOU and I, when we have a fire. These old boys are making Hereford a better place to live. If we had no fire department, very few new citizens would consider moving here — and we could not get insurance at a reasonable figure. The firemen are a fine example of unselfish devotion — and they will get a lot of help in their drive. Turn to the list in this issue and call one of the boys. He will come by pronto for your donation.

Meanwhile, let's give some serious thought to helping these kids.

There are a lot of vacant buildings around town these days. As I see it, the problem is strictly one for the parents to decide: not the city, not the schools, not even the P.T.A. Operating a teenage center is definitely a chore, and would require untold hours of time on the part of many adults. What's more, this is a "Do-It-Yourself" project — one which you couldn't afford to hire done.

Maybe you think the whole idea is bad. However, it does merit your careful consideration from all angles. As our self-styled "juvenile delinquent" points out in his letter, "What DO you expect the teenagers to do?" We can provide them with entertainment which we consider wholesome and clean — or, we can let them discover their own forms of amusement and take our chances. Whatever you decide, it's a good idea to keep your fingers crossed, and to remember that your kids are growing up in the fastest moving, most complicated civilization in the history of the world.

No Federal Aid
He also pointed out that federal aid will not be available for this new expressway, according to his information.

Hereford and Deaf Smith County officials received the news without excitement. County Judge Homer Henslee said he had expected it within the next four years. City officials pointed out that it had been discussed before and is still a long-term planning project.

Club Projects Show Study Groups Are Civic Minded

The thin line between study clubs and service clubs is fast disappearing.

Most women's clubs are primarily study clubs, but in affect many have become civic organizations, having put the knowledge gained into civic channels.

Many Hereford gardens and public places present an inspiring picture during the summer months and each is a reflection of the care and the forethought that have gone into its planning. Hereford's three garden clubs have not actually had a hand in some of the beauty spots, but they have provided the inspiration and impetus that have brought them into being.

Hereford Garden Club
The Hereford Garden Club was organized in 1937 and members immediately set about civic beautification as well as beautification of their own premises with the objective, "To stimulate the love of gardening, to increase the knowledge of horticulture and to aid and encourage civic development and beautification."

Soon there was enough interest to justify the organization of a second club based on the same objective, and in 1946 the Garden Beautiful Club was organized. Then in 1947 the Bud To Blossom Club was organized "to increase the knowledge of horticulture, study flower arrangement and landscaping and encourage the development of civic beauty."

Since organization these clubs have developed many civic projects such as landscaping public school grounds and parks, staging flower shows and conducting schools, until now Hereford is "beauty conscious" as evidenced by well kept lawns and beautiful flowers and shrubs all about the town.

Beta Sigma Phi Sorority

Kappa Iota chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, dedicates its study program to the ideals of richer living, deeper learning, and stronger friendships. While their activities are largely cultural and social, their civic interests include many worthwhile projects. Members have sponsored the local cancer drive for many years, as well as taking part in many other civic enterprises. Last year the local chapter organized a Beta Sigma Phi chapter in Tulsa.

Jaycee-Ettes
The Jaycee-Ettes was organized solely for the purpose of giving assistance to the Junior Chamber of Commerce in carrying out their service program. When the Jaycees launch a project the Jaycee-Ettes immediately set to work to help in any way they can to put the job over. They also carry on a social and study program in the fall and winter months.

Not Idle During Summer
Each new season starts with new challenges and all during the summer vacation months officers of the clubs and committee members are busy mapping out programs and schedules for the coming season. Pictured today are some of the club presidents and their year book committees making final plans for the 1956-57 calendar.

their major projects each year is to provide hot coffee and sandwiches for the Jaycees who do the decorating for the city streets at Christmas time. Mrs. Hale is treasurer and Mrs. Fudge serves the chapter as vice-president.

BETA SIGMA PHI—Intimacy and privacy are afforded in the lovely "outdoor living room" walled in by hedge and trees, at the Norman Moore home. Statues serve as a focal point in the background. The president, Mrs. Glenn Nelson, left, Mrs. F. H. King and Mrs. Harold Beauchamp, yearbook committee members of Kappa Iota chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, look over assignments in yearbooks for the coming season. Like most of the women's clubs of the city, Beta Sigma Phi will begin the new season in September.

study programs, flower show clinics and placement shows, their plans include the annual tour of homes—the club's main project for several years. Funds from the tour go to financing civic enterprises sponsored by the club.

Women's Activities

at the right. Standing are Mrs. Pat Robinson, president, and Mrs. Godwin. Most of the members of this club are new home owners and are putting knowledge gained in the study programs to good use in landscaping and in growing beautiful flowers.

HEREFORD GARDEN CLUB—The real joy and the real reward of gardening is in gardening itself, as members of the Hereford Garden Club well know, but they can look back over the past 20 years with pride and note some of the changes they have helped bring about in the beautification of the city. Trees, shrubs, evergreens and profusions of blooming flowers are part of the backdrop of this garden at the W. C. Hromas home. Standing by the umbrella is the club president, Mrs. W. C. Hromas and seated are Mrs. A. L. Manjeot, right, and Mrs. O. H. Herring, members of the yearbook committee. Mrs. Manjeot has served as president of the club and served one term as district governor. Mrs. Herring is the immediate past president. [All Staff Photos]

Improve Driving Or Lose License, Motorists Warned

By BRIAN DUFF

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Ninety-six thousand California drivers got a polite letter from the state last year.

It warned: "Improve your driving or risk losing your license."

Three out of four of the 96,000 took the hint. The 25 percent who didn't soon began to feel the weight of the State Department of Motor Vehicle's program of drivers improvement.

The department exercised its discretionary power over California's 6,600,000 drivers and took nearly 14,000 of them off the road for varying lengths of time.

The suspension or revocation of license usually came after at least one, and perhaps several, personal interviews with the division's 40 roving driver analysts.

But what ever the action, it was the least severe the analyst felt would straighten out the driver.

"We're not here to punish people - that's a job for the courts," said Fred Williams, licensing division chief.

"We want to keep as many drivers as possible on the road but make sure that they drive safely."

The department revoked 6,610 licenses last year, suspended nearly 7,000 others and put 17,000 drivers on probation.

In addition, the courts ordered over 5,000 revocations and some 20,000 suspensions. Other drivers lost their licenses under provisions of state law which provide a mandatory penalty for certain offenses.

But almost no driver lost his license for life. The judges can't order a permanent revocation, neither can the department.

The normal revocation lasts one year. At the end of that time the driver can re-apply. If he has no new blots on his record he gets it back.

The closest thing to a permanent suspension is one which sets a condition which must be met before re-licensing. The condition might be proof of financial responsibility or that a physical handicap to driving has been overcome. In the case of some disabilities the condition has the effect of a permanent suspension.

Other states have drivers improvement programs. Technically they are called "post-licensing control." They attempt to reach the driver who slipped through the screening when the license was issued . . . or whose driving has since deteriorated.

But in California the important thing is discretion. Nothing is automatic. It doesn't follow that three speeding tickets mean a 60 day suspension unless the analyst thinks necessary.

"We think we have our best success with the young drivers," says supervising driver analyst, Ronald Thunin. "Most of them sincerely want to improve."

Another thing that makes the analysts happy is the expanding drivers training programs in high schools.

"The high school driving teachers get the youngsters when they want to learn and before some well-meaning adult has passed all his bad driving habits along to them," Thunin says.

Hereford Women Injured In Falls

Two Hereford women are recovering from injuries received in recent falls, when both suffered broken bones.

Mrs. A. J. May fell on the back steps of her home at 508 Sampson, Tuesday afternoon and broke her hip. She was taken to Deaf Smith County Hospital where surgeons operated, repaired her hip with a metal bar and her condition is termed "very good" by her attending physician.

Mrs. D. W. Crawford, who fell at her home, 209 Kibbe, on July 27, received treatment at Deaf Smith County Hospital for a broken bone just above her ankle. She was released from the hospital on Wednesday and will rest at her home until Tuesday when she will go to Truth or Consequences, N.M., to be with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Crawford, until she recuperates.

Mrs. Oscar Crawford has been here with her mother-in-law since the accident. Also here for a short while was Mrs. Lawrence Laster of Port Arthur, the former Nina Crawford.

MISS NORMA CUMMINGS

Norma Cummings, Raymond Dement To Marry Aug. 24

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Cummings are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Norma Cummings, to Raymond Dement, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Dement.

The couple will exchange vows in the Central Church of Christ on Aug. 24 with minister J. V. Davis directing the marriage service.

Miss Cummings is a 1955 graduate of Hereford High School and is presently employed at the First National Bank.

Dement, also a graduate of Hereford High School, is employed with the Southwestern Public Service. The couple plan to make their home here.

INDIAN CEREMONIAL DANCES will be performed by members of five Oklahoma tribes at the Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial in Canyon on Sept. 1, 2 and 3. In the picture, two members of the Kiowa tribe, Gus Palmer and Wilson Ware perform the Shield Dance, typifying a mock hand-to-hand battle. Future dances and pageants by Indians are planned as an annual affair in Palo Duro Canyon.

Robert Ellistons Feted At Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Nollie Elliston honored their son and his bride at a family get-together Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliston spent the past week in the home of his parents on a brief vacation trip.

The couple was married last December and are located at Silver Springs, Md., where he is engaged in research work toward a master's degree.

Feature of entertainment for the evening was moving pictures of Hereford shown by Byrl Elliston.

Reception Monday

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Elliston honored her daughter-in-law at an informal tea. Assisting with the party were Mesdames Ray Wilhelm, Wirt Albracht, M. T. Rutter, Ira Ott and Curtis Tra-week.

The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth and appointments were in crystal and silver. Shades of yellow predominated in arrangements of midsummer flowers which formed the table decorations.

A large number of guests from Hereford and surrounding area signed their names in the guest register.

Mrs. Homer Fox left last week for an extended vacation which will take her to Colorado for the rest of August and then in to California for several weeks visit with relatives and friends.

Indians from Five Tribes to Perform At First Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial

Some 80 of the best Indian dancers in the nation will appear in Buffalo Stadium in Canyon on Sept. 1, 2 and 3 for the first annual Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial.

Representing the Kiowa, Comanche, Apache, Caddo and Wichita tribes of Oklahoma, the dancers will perform in two shows daily during the Labor Day weekend.

The afternoon shows, which begin at 2 p.m., will be made up of various tribal dances and Indian games, and each day's performance will be completely different.

The evening performance, beginning at 8 p.m., will be a historical pageant entitled "The Peace Pipe of the Prairie." The pageant composed and staged by the Indians, will cover the history of the Plains tribes from before the time of the Spanish to the present.

Included in the pageant will be demonstrations of the Indian way of life before and after the horse was introduced, ceremonials and dances. One of the dances which will be performed only at the pageant will be the Geronimo Apache Fire Dance.

One of the dances to be shown on the first afternoon performance is the Shield Dance, in which two dancers armed with spears and shields typify a mock hand-to-hand battle.

Another dance to be performed will be the Horse Thief Dance, which was danced in the old days in honor of the horse stealing activities of the tribes. The dancers look along the ground for horse-tracks and signs of other Indian tribes and settlers. The dancers trail the signs they find and capture the horses.

Tickets for the Palo Duro Indian Ceremonial will be on sale at the gate. Prices are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12.

Hayride-Party Is Birthday Event

New Preparation Solves "Summer Hair" Problems

Tired of "summer hair"? Worried with locks that are bleached by exposure to the sun, dried from exposure to the wind, tinted by swimming pool's chlorinated water?

It's a popular summer complaint, and every fall milady wrestles with the problem of getting her coiffure back in shape for the sleek, soignée look that fall clothes demand.

There are many preparations on the market to help combat these problems, and chemical preparations are a real assist to the age-old standby: Regular hairbrushing. Together they obtain results that are near - miraculous.

In one new preparation, made with cholesterol, scientists and cosmetologists have at last found a treatment that helps control the hair while it is restored to its original "vitality."

What happens is that decomposition begins in almost all hair after it emerges from the scalp and is, of course, increased by the sun, wind, rain, by ravages of permanents, dyes and bleaches. If you could look at a hair beneath a powerful microscope, the entire length would be marred by many tiny holes caused by the action of dyes and bleaches and from harsh shampoos.

This new preparation fills in these holes which cause the hair to become lifeless and breakable.

After each shampoo, rub two tablespoonfuls thoroughly through the hair for a minute or two; then rinse out with warm water. No other rinse is needed. The liquid is absorbed instantly and counteracts damaged portions of the hair, which absorbs only the amount needed. The residue should be thoroughly rinsed out.

It leaves your hair manageable, and, unbelievably, almost tangle-free. If additional hairdressings are desired they may be used, for the treatment has no hairdressing qualities and won't hold hair in place, but will help it to lie down, and to curl as it should.

The lotion is available in all Hereford drugstores.

Of course the hairbrush and the 100-strokes a day are still one beauty treatment for which there is no substitute, but supplement the elbow grease with the new hair-treatment and "summer hair" is no longer a problem.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Donald of St. Petersburg, Fla., arrived on Thursday to visit with his sister, Mrs. T. W. Roberson.

The O. Z. Goldens are on vacation this week, and although they aren't getting far from home base, have planned family-size jaunts to Buffalo Lake, Palo Duro Canyon and other right - around home treats.

Brent Combs Has Second Birthday

Shower Fetes Miss Berend, Bride-Elect

Blue and white were used as decorative colors at a surprise shower given recently as a courtesy to Miss Annette Berend, bride-elect of Thomas Albracht. Mrs. Ed Loerwald in whose home the party was given, was assisted by Cleta Betzen, Dorothy Hund and Dolores Loerwald.

The attractive serving table was laid with a lace cloth over blue and centered with an arrangement of white gladioli and blue daisies flanked by blue candles and balsam blossoms floating in low bowls. Ribbon streamers revealed the romance and wedding date in blue lettering: "Annette and Tommy - August 7." Favors were tiny white wedding bells tied with dainty blue ribbon bows.

Securing signatures for the bride's book of names were Susie Loerwald and Dorothy Hund, and the honoree was assisted in opening gift packages by her mother, Mrs. C. J. Berend.

Games were directed by Dolores Loerwald and readings were presented by Cleta Betzen and Dorothy Hund. Sharon Brinkman sang "Always," and nuptial selections were played by Susie Loerwald.

Those attending were Mesdames C. J. Berend and Morris Hacker, Misses Mary Jo Peters, Patricia Peters, Iriene Galley, Katherine McDonald, Sharon Brinkman, Kaye Kersten, Susie Loerwald, Alice Marie Lueb, Shirley Schulte, Emily Pavlicek, Dee Buck, Karen Albracht, Kathleen Diller, Betty Lou Walterscheid, Betty Beizer, the honoree and the hostesses. Many gifts were sent by those who could not attend the party.

Community Gets Daily Showers; Farmers Prepare To Plow Land

By MRS. S. N. THWEATT
The rain has been the biggest talk around this week. Every day since Sunday, there have been showers. Not any very big, but enough to help. Things are greening up; the farmers are beginning to smile and think what they should do next.

who is reported to be doing very well. She plans on being home in a few days. Mr. Smith has some plowing to do, so two of the sons, Lewis and Hoyt, are going to help him get that cleared so he can be home with Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Brown Improving
Mrs. Eldred Brown is reported doing nicely from her operation Monday and plans on coming home over the weekend.

Mesdames N. A. Brown, Floyd Brown and Ernest Brown and Tommy were all in Amarillo to visit Mrs. Eldred Brown on Wednesday.

Mrs. S. N. Thweatt was in Friona, Wednesday, on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Dufur, Mary and Billy, Kay Scott and Payne, all went to the mountains of New Mexico Saturday and returned Wednesday night. They went to Red River, then on to Questa. They stayed in a cabin and used a wood stove. Said it was so cold they had to keep a fire going all the time. They saw lots of pretty things, some snow at a distance, and were told that

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Deaf Smith County, Texas, at the Court House thereof, in Hereford, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock a.m. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 17th day of September, 1956, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 2nd day of August, 1956, in this cause, numbered 3900 on the docket of said court and styled George Gabel, Plaintiff, vs. W. W. McGilvary, et al, Defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: This is a suit in Trespass To Try Title and for title and possession of all of the Northeast quarter (NE 1/4) of Section Twenty-Five (25), Township 4N, Range 3E, Capitol Syndicate Subdivision of Capitol League No. 406, Patent No. 401, Vol. 4, Abstract No. 467, of Deaf Smith County, Texas, according to plat of said subdivision appearing of record in Vol. 15, pages 60-65, Deed Records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, and being 160 acres of land. And with the further plea of title by virtue of the five and ten-year statutes of limitations.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Irbeck and daughter of Vigo Park were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Irbeck Friday. She is Mrs. Irbeck's sister and he is Henry's brother.

Mrs. Rouse's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Dwight Rouse of Farmington, N.M., and sons went home over the weekend. The boys had spent some time this summer with their grandmother, but they went home to prepare for school. They will be missed very much by the neighbors and more so by their grandmother.

as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Hereford, Texas, this 2nd day of August, 1956.

Attest: Lucille Posey District Clerk, Deaf Smith County, Texas (SEAL)

Fryers, Broilers, Plums, Pears Are Good August Buys

Budget conscious Deaf Smith County housewives will probably be feeding their families plenty of chicken during August, or buying supplies of broilers and fryers to freeze for later on.

According to Argen Draper, CHDA, they are leading the list of plentiful foods for next month. There will be large quantities of beef available, also, and fresh plums and Bartlett pears will probably be in abundance in fresh food markets.

Fryers, which can be picked up now for around 35 cents, will continue to be a good buy. Statistics show that August supplies are expected to be 20 percent above a year ago with an average of nearly 29 million birds going to market weekly. Prices are running 20 to 22 percent below last year, throughout the entire U.S.

Plenty of Turkeys
The United States Dept. of Agriculture points out that the turkey crop is at least a third larger than a year ago with heavy breed hens and toms making up most of the excess. However, there are no commercial turkey growers in this part of the area and our supplies are always shipped in.

Food shoppers will also find plenty of beef available. Large quantities of all grades are expected for August. Fresh plums and Bartlett pears are two plentiful fruits listed. The plum market has its peak supply in August and prices usually break.

Lemons and Peanuts
Other plentiful listed for August include fresh and processed lemons, peanuts, peanut butter, rice and hens.

Mrs. Draper suggests that menus featuring broilers and fryers or even turkeys be used during the coming month because of the supplies and favorable prices of these food products.

The U. S. natural gas industry has 24 million customers.

THANK YOU, FOLKS
May I take this means of saying that I really appreciate your confidence in once again electing me as Sheriff of this county.
I will try my utmost to keep this office running to the best of my ability.

Nail Picker Collects About 1800 Pounds Of Scrap Metal on Each Day's Drive

By JUDY GRETCHEN PINNELL

Watch the faces of a farmer and his family as they stand and watch the magnet leave with the pick-up loaded with scrap metal, from their farm. It is quite an experience, for now they need not spend those many hours each summer picking up rusty metal. They will pick a few nails up, but it will never be as big a job now that they have had the Magnet's help.

The magnet, owned by Precinct One, has been leased to the different commissioners, to comb the roads in their districts. Mr. Hicks, commissioner of Precinct Four, has the machine leased. E. J. Reynolds, who has been employed by the County for many years, is the operator in charge.

The equipment is rather simple compared to the vast amount of work it does. The red pick-up driving along the road catches the eye of everyone. The two-five-foot magnets suspended horizontally between the front and rear tires receive their current by a small gasoline motor. The coil in the magnets has a circular field of magnetism with the strongest field of current at the bottom of the magnet. As the magnet is pulled along it picks up all types of metal within its reach.

At The Movies

THE MAN WHO KNEW TOO MUCH

A story of political intrigue, kidnapping and murder, "The Man Who Knew Too Much," shows on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Star Theatre. James Stewart and Doris Day are cast as a doctor and his singer wife, on vacation in Marrakech. Stewart witnesses the knife of an Arab in the city's back streets, and while tending the dying man, is given information of an impending assassination. He thus becomes a dangerous man to the plotters, and from that moment on neither he nor anyone belonging to him are safe. Doris Day has two songs in "The Man Who Knew Too Much," and a dramatic orchestral piece is performed by the London Symphony Orchestra which plays an important role in building suspense.

the scrap is interesting. A trap is put under the magnet and the current shut off. Instantly the scrap drops. This is then thrown in the back of the pick-up.

When the bed of the pick-up is filled with scrap metal it is carried to town and dumped. The metal is sold for 4 cents a pound and on the average 1500 to 1800 pounds are picked up over the 20 miles covered each day.

Many thanks are extended to Donald Hicks for his work in getting the Magnet to Precinct Four. The marvelous invention means a great deal to the improvement of our county.

Almanac Editor Clarifies 'Worst Drouth in History'

By STUART MCGREGOR
Editor of the Texas Almanac
Dallas, Tex., July 25 (AP)—The worst drought in the history of Texas has now passed the midway point of its seventh year.

Possibly "worst drought" needs definition. It is not as intense as the drought of 1916-18 when the all state rainfall average dropped to a record low of 14.3 inches in 1917, while even mesquite trees in West Texas gave up the ghost. By incomplete records, there may have been an even more intense drought in the 1880s. But the present one is the most persistent.

mal of 27.7. Thus, a long-continued moderate drought has permitted the growing of some good crops in various parts of the state, including two good grain crops in North Texas. The rainfall still averages enough, with fortunate distribution, to grow good crops.

But the present drought is bad for the "tanks" — big and little. Runoff from the average Texas surface declines sharply with the decline of the rainfall under normal. From Falcon Dam on the Rio Grande to Texoma on the Red, reservoir water levels are low.

The current seven-year record (estimating the last of this year on the basis of the first half) will show an all-Texas average of 21.3 inches of rainfall as against a nor-

While there have been some individual years with greater rainfall than fell at any time during 1940-50, inclusive, it set the highest record for so long a period, according to records going back to 1890.

All this brings up the old question: "Does rainfall run in cycles?"

Charted on graph paper, Texas rainfall does seem to run in dry-wet years by twos and threes, even up to sixes and sevens. There is the vague appearance of cycles.

But take a couple of galloping dominoes and throw 100 times. Then put a similar chart on graph paper: You have the same vague impression of cycles. Maybe luck runs in cycles.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

Two Modern Dairy Plants Being Set Up in County

We've always felt that the irrigated portion of the plains of Texas offered some of the best opportunities for dairying of any area we know of. Yet it's so capable of supporting a lot of other enterprises that require less investment and are less confining, that relatively few farmers have seen fit to go into the business.

It's interesting to see two of the most modern dairy plants to be found anywhere, being set up on adjoining farms in the north central part of Deaf Smith County. The barns are now under construction and are both on land belonging to W. J. Schulte of El Reno, Okla. The larger of the two dairies will be operated by the Meives Brothers and will carry a herd of about two hundred cows. The other will be operated by Fred Smith and will carry about a hundred cows.

Both operators are new in the District, having moved here from Oklahoma in the late spring of this year. We, of the Soil Conservation Service, have had occasion to spend quite a bit of time with them in helping plan their cropping systems to get production of grain and forage to supply the herds.

Schulte signed cooperative agreements with the Tierra Blanca Soil Conservation District and a cooperator will receive whatever help the District can give him, including technical help of the SCS and use of equipment owned by the District. Pasture crops will occupy a good portion of the land and are being planned to provide as near all year grazing as possible.

Crops in the dryland portion of the District continue to be very spotted. Some are good and some are bad. We've never seen it quite so dry in a year when some parts of the District get a shower almost every day.

There are some farmers that have received enough of the showers to permit them to have very good crops while other areas didn't get enough of the showers to get a crop up. Most of the grain sorghums on dry land have just reached the stage where they are beginning to use a lot of water. With a limited supply of moisture in the soil, we'll have to keep getting showers through August to expect much of a harvest.

If we can go into wheat planting season with as much as two feet of the soil wet, we can bet our chances for a harvest are pretty good. It's hard to find any of our dry land farms that have that much moisture now. In fact most of them have almost none. To get that much water in the land, between now and planting time would mean we would have to get in the neighborhood of four inches of rain and all of that would have to go into the ground.

"This we can't do on showers, but this we have those long, slow, soaking rains like we can remember a few of in our lifetime. Since the chances are, if we get any appreciable amount of rain, it won't come slow but will come in a storm, the best thing we can do is 'keep the land in a 'receptive mood' that means keeping as much trash and crop residues on the surface we possibly can. Trash slows down runoff and gives the water more time to go in the ground. A good amount of it also keeps evaporation down by keeping the soil temperature down. Chisel and sweep-type implements used exclusively will help the residues where they belong. In addition they keep the top soil open so that water can get in.

All the children have been at their mother's bedside except Miss Hicks, who is in Europe attending an international conference as representative of the American Association of University Women.

Attending the funeral from Hereford were relatives and long time friends of the family including Mrs. Barrett Sowell, Miss Vida Hicks, both nieces of Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Arthur Thompson, Wylie Robertson, G. W. Brumley and Jasper Cockrell.

Funeral Services Conducted For Mrs. Billy Hicks, 78

Mrs. Billy Hicks, wife of a pioneer cattleman of Deaf Smith County, died Wednesday at her home near Garden City, Kans. She was 78 years of age.

Funeral services were conducted Friday morning at the First Baptist Church in Garden City.

Mrs. Hicks had been ill for many months, suffering from a heart condition which limited her activities. Less than a year ago she had suffered from a stroke and had been bedfast since then.

The former Celona Goad, she was married to W. E. Hicks and the family moved to Hereford while the country was young. They had extensive ranching interests, and made their home in the two story white house at the corner of Twenty Five Mile Avenue and Lake Street.

In 1932 they moved to the ranch near Garden City. Mr. Hicks passed away in the 1940's and since then, Mrs. Hicks made her home on the ranch which she and her son, Caldwell, operated.

Always an active member of the Baptist Church, Mrs. Hicks was also an enthusiastic member of the Music Study Club in Hereford. The family had many lifelong friends in this area.

Survivors include her five children: She and her two sons, Caldwell Hicks, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Little Rock, Ark.; and three daughters, Mary, now Mrs. J. D. Raymond of Albuquerque,

What's Your Neighbor Doing? Making Trips, Buying Home, Entertaining Friends

Visiting is nothing new to ministers. Visiting other people: the sick, the bereaved, the shut-ins, the church members, old, new and potential, is as much a part of their work as delivering Sunday sermons. But when they get a chance to go visiting just for the fun of it, it is news. Even then, however, business often comes first.

Then, after a brief day-and-a-half respite from being away from home they packed up again and set off for Ceta Glenn where the Christian Church in this area conducted a family camp. Rev. Root taught a course in "History of Brotherhood" and Mrs. Root taught a course in working with kindergarten children.

Other Herefordites at the camp included their son, Jerry, and the Ellis Combs, and the A. Petersens who were accompanied by two of their grandsons from Lubbock, children of Richard and Robert Petersen.

Also from this church are the Norman Roberts who make their home in Vega. Camp began on Sunday night and was over Wednesday. Attending opening services from Hereford were Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson and her sister, Leslie Martin.

Rev. and Mrs. Alby Cockrell, pastor of the First Methodist Church, have had a busy week out of town. On Sunday, Mrs. Cockrell, accompanied by Clarabeth Holt and Jackie Brown, went to Lubbock to attend the school of missions being held there. They will return on Friday. Early Monday morning — long about 4 a. m. in fact — Rev. Cockrell, and the Rev. Bernard Seay, pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church, left for Georgetown, where they are attending a ministers school at the Southwestern University. However they are due home today and will probably relish getting away from the Central Texas heat.

On a real vacation, however, were Rev. and Mrs. Howard Scott. He is pastor of the First Baptist Church. Accompanied by their children, Beth and David, they left about three weeks ago for the West Coast. They planned to visit with his brother, Harold, in Burbank, Calif., and then to Tacoma, Wash., for a visit with her sister, Doris, and come back home through Yellowstone. They were due to arrive home sometime Saturday. While the Scotts were away, Baptist laymen filled the pulpit for Sunday morning services. The first week Jim Wiman was speaker; last Sunday it was Jim Bob Allison.

The Scotts, the Cockrells, the Roots, and Rev. Seav will probably be glad to get back home. Most people are. Among those who were mighty glad to get back home recently were Hardy and Mary Lou Benson. Son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Benson, they all held a family get-together this past week out at the Benson farm.

Mary Lou drove up from Dallas, where she is employed as a private secretary to one of the officials of Dell-Taylor Oil Corporation. Mary Lou, fond of her work, reviewed its advantages and reported, "If you want to get fat and sassy, go to work for an oil company." Among its advantages are company-planned flights in its luxurious airplane which is complete with downy-soft couches and a butler.

Hardy, who is now a testing engineer for guided missiles and is based at Holloman Air Force Base at Alamogordo, N. M., has been doing his share of flying, too. They sent him clear out to Los Angeles to take a physical examination, and after he had passed it, outfitted him in a high altitude flying suit and sent him to Miami, Fla. He reports it rained the entire time they were there, and as far as he is concerned, therefore, California does have more sunshine than Florida.

But anyway, Hardy, his wife, Joan, and their three children, Pamela, Barbara and Carol, came down from Alamogordo last week end. It was good timing, because it gave Hardy a chance to visit his high school and college buddy, Robert Owen Elliston, who, with his wife, Cathy, was visiting in the home of his parents, the Nolle Ellistons.

Hardy and Robert Owen classmates in Hereford High School and roommates at Texas Tech while they studied electrical engineering. Now both scientific minds are involved in government projects. Robert is a research engineer living at Silver Springs, Md. His work is labeled Top Secret and all we know is it has something to do with atomic energy.

This, incidentally, was Cathy's first visit to Texas. She is a registered nurse, formerly with Walter Reed Hospital, and she says Texas is wonderful. Mrs. Elliston entertained while Robert and Cathy were here, introducing Cathy at a tea Monday and holding open house for friends and relatives last Thursday when Uncle Byrl showed his famous movies of Deaf Smith County.

It was also a week for former Herefordites to come back and visit. For example, the Ed Adams and son David, who now live in Rogers, Ark., were here visiting Ed's sister and her family, the E. W. Hobsons. And the R. E. Lincoffs, who moved from Hereford to Austin, were through here Saturday night en route to Canada on a camping-out jaunt. The Lincoffs were guests of the Ullin Streus and son Steve, spent the time with Charles Seed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Seed.

Bill Knox and Billy Paul left on Wednesday for Landers, Wyo., where the big attraction is a new grandson, David Kent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Durham. Mrs. Knox has been up there since the baby was born, July 14. After a visit with the Durhams, the Knox family plans a trip home through Yellowstone and other tourist attractions. Billy Paul, incidentally, arrived home Monday from Rangeter, where he had been editing the Rangeter paper for the past six weeks.

Recent guests of the O. M. Diekneys were Mr. and Mrs. Fay Adkins of Amarillo who drove down Monday night for a few hours and a lot of conversation.

Jim Curtisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dub Curtisinger, left last Tuesday for a week's visit with friends and former school mates in Rangeter, Mo. However, he called his family Tuesday and said he was just having too much fun to come home and could he stay longer? He could! Jim will be home later in August.

Mrs. Nona Jowell had as her guests this week her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Jowell, Carol and Chuck, all of Abilene. They stopped by Hereford both coming and going on a vacation trip to New Mexico, where they visited Sandy's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jowell. And Mrs. C. Ora Cockrell is another who has recently been to cooler climes. She has returned from a week's visit with her daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Osborn who live in Colorado Springs.

Well, Mrs. Francis Hardwick is certainly getting in her share of travel this summer. She's been down south to see her sister, but returned Friday night. Then bright and early Monday morning, she and Francis left for a tour through the Black Hills, Yellowstone and probably up into Canada. They plan to be gone about two weeks.

Plenty of building and remodeling and moving going on around town. The Frank A. Cyles recently got the remodeling bug and decided to add on a den, redecorate, etc., at their home on Star Street; then the Bill Bradleys, across the street must have found all that activity contagious because they started in, adding several rooms. The Ben Childers this week moved into their new home on the Dimmitt Highway, and so this weekend the Oliver Streus are moving into the Childers home which they recently purchased, at 228 Avenue B.

Then the Lawrence McGees sold their home to Henry Sears, and will be leaving soon for Amarillo, where they purchased a home at 1615 West 24th; the Sears plan to move into their new home on Texas about the first of September. The McGees, who have lived in Hereford about eight years, moved here from Amarillo, and now are going back to the city.

The R. J. Richardsons have moved into their beautiful new home on Union Avenue. And the Melvin A. Pattersons purchased the Jim Calmes home at 107 Avenue F. Patterson, new parts man at Kinsey-Robertson, came in June and his family, including a 16 year old boy and a nine year old girl, joined him here later.

Then the E. W. Kendricks, who moved here recently from Abernathy purchased a new home at 403 Avenue J. Mr. Kendrick, service manager for Trully Teague, and his wife have two boys, Gary 11, and Jerry 6.

Not too long ago the Bonnie Brumleys bought the home V. O. Hennen had built in the new addition north of Harrison — the house with the interesting split level arrangement. And the Jim Woods are soon moving into their new house on Center Street. The Bill Deckers are about settled in the house on South Main, which they bought from the Otis Halls, and meantime, the Halls are living in a tourist court and planning the house THEY are going to build.

Add to your list of Herefordites who have come back home: the S. O. Wilsons who returned not too long ago from two months spent at Place Ranch, just two miles south of the South Gate to Yellowstone. S. O. Wilson's daughter and her husband, the W. W. Stienens of Denver, owned the lodge which they recently sold. After completion of the sale, and as soon as the Wilsons could get away, they started the trek back home via Jackson Hole, Wyo., Salt Lake City and other scenic spots. Still Mrs. Wilson says "This part of the country certainly looked better than anything else we saw." Also back in town are Dr. and Mrs. Ben Wiltshire, returning from a sojourn in Arkansas. They are now at home at 517 Avenue K, and Doc says that the family will be here all through next year with Martha Sue and Judy Kay attending schools in Hereford.

Mrs. E. S. Ireland was in Amarillo the latter part of this week

Mexican Laborer Falls Into Pit Of Water Reservoir

A Mexican laborer employed by Panhandle Construction Company which is building the water reservoir on Avenue C, tumbled about 14 feet into the reservoir Wednesday afternoon and suffered only a minor back injury.

His attending physician reported that he would be hospitalized for three or four days. His back was not broken, but a small bone in his back was snapped. Francisco Silva Megrette, 41, a Mexican national, was apparently standing near the edge of a reservoir when the cement bucket being lifted up by the winch truck swung to the side and knocked him into the pit.

The accident occurred about 6 a. m. and he was rushed to Deaf Smith County Hospital where emergency treatment was administered.

Hereford Students To Get Degrees

Two Hereford students are among 65 seniors in the Texas Tech Business Administration Division who are candidates for bachelors' degrees at the end of the summer session Aug. 24.

John Samuel Coombes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Coombes will receive his bachelor of business administration degree in marketing. A veteran of four and a half years in service where he served as a first lieutenant in the Air Corps, he plans to leave about the first of September for Dallas where he will be employed.

Patricia Joan McGee will receive her bachelor of business administration degree in retailing. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taft McGee. Both young people are graduates of Hereford High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nunn, their children, Sandra, Don and John, and his mother, Mrs. W. H. Nunn, left Saturday for a vacation trip to Red River. They will be gone a week or 10 days.

of Terry County.

During the business session, the plans for highway promotion were discussed, all geared to the goal of having State Highway 51 designated as a federal highway reaching from Canada to Old Mexico. Plans were made to sell advertising in each town along the highway promoting its advantages to tourists.

The next meeting will be held in Andrews and is tentatively planned for October.

It's a dear bargain if you can't get immediate insurance service in time of need, if you can't get quick help after an auto accident or other loss.
