Date for the trial of Robert appearance bond, has been set for Sept. 15, according to County Judge H. E. Henslee. Palmer, a former bell hop in a hotel, is charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, and will appear in County Juvenile Court.

While Juvenpe Court is ordinarily conducted behind closed doors, Judge Henslee said this case will be an open hearing, due to its nature. Palmer's charge resulted in connection with a 16-year-old girl, returned to custody of her parents by the court. It was in connection with the same girl that a Brand news editor plead guilty last week in Justice Court to making obscene photographs of a minor.

Final Rites For Higginbotham Boy Held Tues.

Funeral services for Landis R. Higginbotham, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Higginbotham, eight miles north of Here-ford, were held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday in the First Methodist Church, with the Rev. Alby Cockrell, pastor, officiating.

The youth was found dead Sunday in a barn on the farm of his uncle, Bill Higginbotham, near Crosbyton. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Kreig - Marcum Funeral Home.

The youngster would have een in the 9th grade this year. He was born April 22, 1943, at Lubbock, and moved to Hereford in 1952 from Spur. He was a member of the First Methodist Church.

Justice of the Peace W. H. Nickson returned a verdict of "self-inflicted death .possibly accidental" in the boy's death.

Relatives said that he had

1939 Class Plans 1948 Class Reunion Here

Members of the 1939 graduating class of Hereford High School have started planning for their first reunion in 20 years. The reunion is tentatively set for the first weekend in June, 1959, with Mrs. Jack Higgins of Wildorado (tormerty Caroline Fry) and Mrs. Richard Winget 211 Ave. J. (formerly Virginia Newell) in charge, assisted by Mrs. Mickey Miller of Albuquerque (the former Mary Louise Dean). Out of the class of 51 graduates, the whereabouts of only five are unknown; Mrs. Higgins and Mrs. Winget ask assistance in locating Kenneth Potter, Jewel Fox, Joyce Cress, Noel Washam, and Bessie Bowman.

Other members of the class who moved away from Hereford before graduating are invited to heturn for the celebration. Contacts should be made with Mrs. Higgins or Mrs. Winget. Special invitations to attend will be given to Knox Kinard, now superintendent of schools at Pampa, as the 1939 class was his first graduating class in Hereford; to G. M. Hudson, then Hereford High principal: of Amarillo, class sponsors.

pressure URAN Nitrogen Fertilizer Solution. URAN gives you quick-acting, long-lasting nitrogen that's ideal to build big crop yields. You spray or dribble it on the soil from a simple tractor-tank rig. Pumps and machinery do the work. You have no bags to lift, no high-pressure equipment to fuss with.

Wheat and other small grains need plenty of nitrogen and URAN supplies it handily. Apply URAN before you plow for small grain. Or top-dress in fall, late winter or early spring. URAN is ideal to make small grains produce a green feed crop for grazing as well as a crop for grain. With rice or other irrigated crops, you can apply URAN with an airplane, or add URAN to irrigation water and let water do the work of spreading your ni-

3000 Migratory Workers Harvest Crops

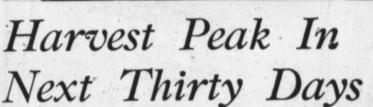

The Hereford Brand

Hereford, Texas, Thursday, August 21, 1958 Section Two very

"Within 30 days from now, the area will be at the peak of harvest," Pat Patterson, local representative of the State Employment Service, said.

During the peak of harvest, he said, approximately 4,000 laborers will be engaged in harvesting crops. About 3,000, Patterson added, will be migratory laborers.

In classifying the labor situation in this area last week as a "White Picture," Patterson estimated that from 2,500 to 3,000 workmen are currently employed in fields, packing sheds and processing sheds.

Patterson, during the first part of this week, placed 200 laborers on farm jobs.

Patterson said that the housing situation is steadily becoming worse. "About 200 workers have come to this area to find jobs, but left when they were unable to find living quarters."

Most of the migrant labor in this area comes from southern Texas, Patterson said. Very few workers come from Mexico.

At the present time, harvesting of potatoes and onions is

At the present time, harvesting of potatoes and onions is coming to an end, and carrot is becoming the main crop being harvested.

In about six weeks, the harvesting of lettuce will be in full swing. Patterson predicted that the ginning of cotton will start Sept. 20. He said that maize would be harvested about the middle of September, Beets should be harvested about the middle of October.

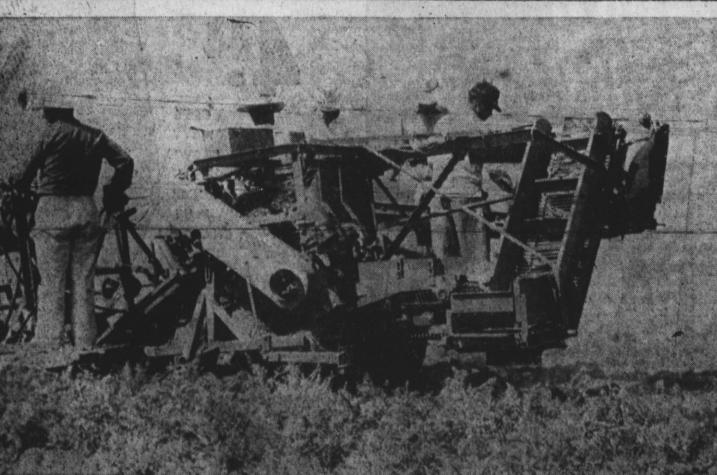

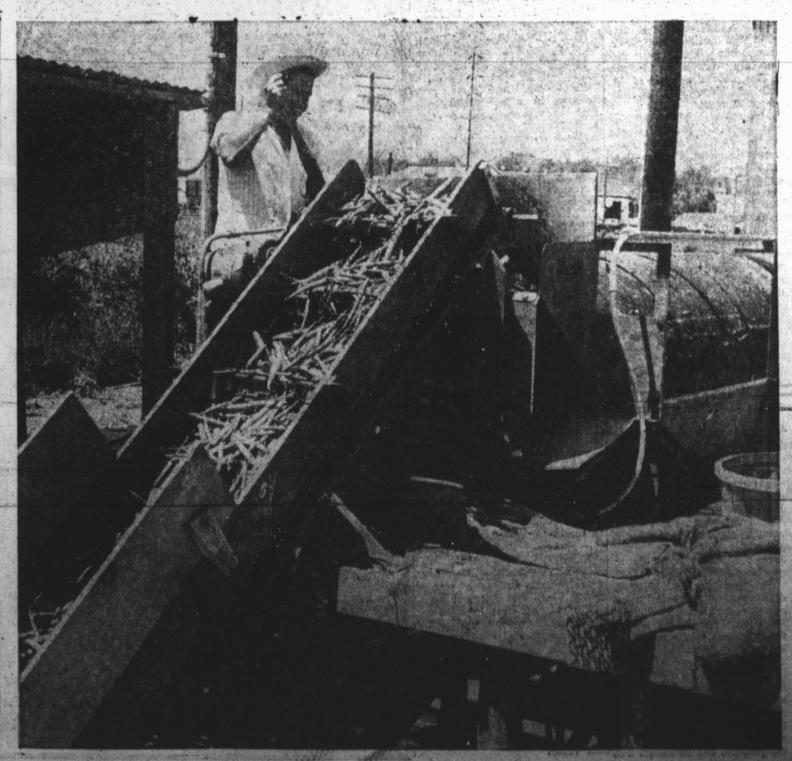

CONTINUOUS CYCLE—Potato digging, top left, is done throughout the morning and during the evening. There is little activity in potato fields during the afternoon because of high temperatures. A little fellow, top middle, follows the potato digger and puts potatoes in his burlap sack. At top right, an employee of one of the carrot sheds sacks packages of carrots. A potato shed employee, at left, catches potatoes from a conveyor. A truckload of potatoes, above, are put on the docks of a potato shed, where they eventually will be processed. At one of the carrot sheds, right, carrots are inspected by an employee. In a lettuce field, bottom left, carrots are dug and will later be taken to carrot sheds. Carrots are being washed, bottom right, and after washing, they will be processed. (Staff Photos)

ACTOR REJECTS HOLLY-WOOD

NEW YORK (A) - A dedicated stage actor is D. J. Sullivan. Sullivan, who is 22, appeared on Broadway this season in "Compulsion," and is now performing in a successful off-Broadway production of Jean Anouilh's "Ardele."

Based on his work in the two shows, a major Hollywood film studio offered Sullivan a term contract. But the young actor turned the bid down to stay with the footlights.

LA CROSSE, Wis. (P) - Religion and medicine are in closer accord today than ever before, says Dr. Gunnar Gundersen, president-elect of the American Medical Assn. He said: "Thoughtful people . . . are recognizing again the old truth that man does not live by bread alone and are finding the newer truth that man cannot live by science alone.'

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (2) - The Methodist Church has named the Rev. Dr. Samuel McCrea Cavert, of Bronxville, N. Y. ong-time leader in the church cooperative movement, to receive the church's 1958 "Upper Room" citation for leadership in world Christian fellowship.

ANCIENT PERFORMER NEW YORK IM - The oldest

performer on Broadway now is Senor Car. The hundred year old parrot has been inserted in "The Rope Dancers," while his predecessor is being used in a Hollywood film. Senor Car lays claim to several career highlights; he was once owned by Mexico's notor Pancho Villa: thwarted a

Line Up Next Summer's Job

The job you can't five without is the one to have in summer. If you didn't hit that pleasurable note this vacation, make plans now for next season's work stint. That's the advice of handsome, blond-George Wiggin, 18, a Donaldsonville, La., high school student who chose Montauk, Long Island, as his "workplayground." He was cabana boy in the Surf Club by day, working in his fun after hours.

"It's simple to find a job that offers you bonuses in fun be- missed to date are black-eyed sides income," says the six-footer, pointing out that the trick of seeking a good job is learning how to pinpoint the locapays off.

"I wanted to skin dive in my spare time, and I can do that here at Montauk. We swim out 100 or 150 yards off shore, listen for fish, give them the spear and they're in the bag. people my own age, and I found out beforehand that college girls and boys work at the Manor, the big hotel here, so I knew I wouldn't be lonesome," George explains with typical Southern candor.

George hasn't been lonesome, because he did choose a job where he cound combine work talents and his own amusements. When he isn't skin diving, drag'stripping or beach partying, he hi-fi's it from Bach to the "Witch Doctor."

The only things George has peas, turnip greens and cornbread, mouth watering Southern delicacies that can pale the choicest Northern morsels.

How does all this add up to future career?

"As a cabana bay, swo thing depends on your atti-tude. You must learn to be diplomatic, not talk unless-persons are willing, to be per-sonable, not pout if criticized and not talk back. If you are polite and keep the cabanas serviced, you will be rewarded for your efforts," explaint

This discipline, he says, is grooming him for the job he wants when he completes high school and college or Georgia Tech.

George has met some nice girls up North, but he is still partial to a Southern girl, although he can't marry until 21 without permission of his guardian, Uncle Oscar.

Operation Motorcide Set For Labor Day Period By Policemen

In announcing a prediction of 29 motorcides for the forth-coming three-day Labor Day period, Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, outlined an extensive traffic law enforcement program for the holilay weekend.

The prediction was made by N. K. Woerner, veteran statistician of the DPS, who estimated that motorcides will total two more than the 27 killed during the similar period of last year.
Col. Garrison said that Texas

DPS will begin its. Operation Motorcide at 12:01 a.m. Aug. 30, and that it will extend through 11:59 p.m., Sept. 1. During this period, patrolmen of the Motor Vehicle Inspection and License and Weight services will bolster the force of the Texas Highway Patrol in enforcing state traffic laws.

M. Sgt. Robert H. Thomas, four rows of campaign ribbons on his chest, waited for an argument. He's well aware that many see the bulky, comparatively slow tank as a sitting duck in a nuclear war.

But Thomas argued: "In that tank you're afforded protection against nuclear radiation, heat and blast.

"The skin on that tank is lots thicker than the shirt on a dogfoot's back."

Brig. Gen. James I. King, the assistant Ft. Knox commandant, puts it more formally: 'Armor is the type force a-Senior officers study military tactics - in nuclear and conventional warfare. Courses for enlisted men cover a dozen subjects.

Tankers are confident, if not downright cocky.

One armorman talking about corps morale pointed to a passing private:

You can tell his morale by his uniform."

It was starched so much it creaked as he walked. His boots and brass glistened.

Today's tanks are more squat and faster than their World War II or Korean War predecessors. But little has been added in fire-power.

THE FARM BILL that was passed hurriedly on last Thursday was a compromise bill. It will answer only a few of the problems that I think should be in the agricultural segment of our economy. One reason it pays to be able to sew your own clothes is that often you can stitch up a copy of some gay new fashion you see in the movies or at the theater.

Right now there seems to be much attention to South Seas movies, which offer some colorful ideas in summer fashions easy to make at home. Take, for instance, the outfit called 'Pahu Lava'' worn by an enchanting young Tahitian beauty named Ramine in a current South Seas Cinerama produc-

Freely translated, the Pahu is a strapless chemise worn with the traditional Pareu, or sarong. Ramine says its easy to make such an outfit, and local sewing center experts tell how it's done.

You'll need about three yards of the brightest cotton print you can find, preferably in a 36inch width. Cut a piece about 38 inches long, leaving a piece about 70 inches long. The shorter piece will be used for the Pahu, or chemise. (The 38-inch measurement is about average larger figures require more.) the waist and worn as a skirt, The longer piece is for the Pareu, or sarong.

This piece will be wrapped around the body, with selvages at bust and hemline. Make casing in the top for elastic. Stitch edges together to a point eight inches down from the top, leaving rest of the slit open. Hem raw edges. Thread elastic through top casing and gather to fit under the arms.

This Pahu will be as long as the width of the fabric. The woman of average height will find that a 36-inch measurement will reach from the chest to the knees. Tall women may need a wider fabric.

To make the Pareu, or sarong, simply hem the raw edges of the longer piece of fabric. It may then be wrapped around

The grand staircase spirals up four stories without visible support. In the center hangs a black, lacy chandelier - the largest hung from a single point in the world.

It's all pretty fantastic, but not everybody is impressed by it. Take the elderly lady who stalked through the rooms and emerged shaking her head.

"Well," she said firmly, "if I had money enough to build a house like this, I'll be darned if I'd fill it with secondhand furniture."

He made reconciliation for us through the blood of His cross; He preaches peace to them that are afar off and to them that are near. Blessed be God, there is efficiency in the blood of Jesus to heal the wounds which sin has made. If it be sprinkled on our hearts by faith, it will purge us from an evil conscience and speak peace to our souls.

JOHN 15:14 - "Ye are my friends." (King James · · · DESCRIPTION OF Loneliness is a terrible feeling ... truly it is! For the lonely here are words of assurance that the most important Person of all loves and cares. Jesus, the Christ...Jesus who is God revealed loves you. The Gospel shows His friendliness for all, children, outcasts, sinners, poor and rich. He had "a way about Him" that won their friendship. He was never long-faced or gloomy; He never belittled or teased; He never made fun of others.

Your response to His friendship is the strength of your relationship to His church. In the church family, loneliness, doubt, discouragement can be removed through the love found in companionship to the Friend of all, Jesus Christ our Lord.

60-Year-Old Bank Teller Loves to Swim

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P) -When a 63-year-old Columbus, Ohio, bank teller jumped into England's River Thames the other day, a passing Londoner reportedly exclaimed: "Hey, the bloke's committing suicide!"

Sleppey's hobby is swimming dangerous waterways. He started out on this unusual pursuit only about three years ago.

At the age of 60, he says, it suddenly came to him that his life "could not, by any stretch of the imagination, be called glamorous." He decided to begin anew at 60. Since then he has made more than 30 endurance swims during leaves from the bank. Rivers are his favorite opponents, the aquatically inclined bachelor says, and he ticks off the Ohio, Mississippi, Hudson, Potomac, Colorado and Missouri among his conquests.

Then of course there's the Thames. That took 23 minutes. After going as far as South America and Hawaii to tackle Designer Arthur Boys ex- bays and off-shore courses in both oceans, as well, Sleppey is looking for new worlds - or waterways - to conquer, Contards the drying process for atinental Europe's rivers look

The World Beyond Imaginati

Where Adventure Never End

Children Spark Mother's Talent

By VIVIAN BROWN

A triend of mine, Lynn Martin of Roslyn, N. Y., tossed a good job overboard, married and had 5 children in 7 years. Everyone said 'what a waste of good talent,' that her brain would disintegrate in the humdrum existence of Household, U. S. A.

But Lynn thrives on it. Instead of developing the "housewife vagues," a disease characterized by pigeon-hole conversation involving washing machines and septic tanks, she has applied her creativeness and talents to her home.

"How could I ever get bored with my brood?" she says. "They keep up imagination keyed up, and I think of them as being part of the fun of living, not as a chore.

Everywhere in Lynn's home are evidences of her creativness, an outlet for her talents. "Little decorating feats are accomplished in a long quiet evening or a snatched five minutes or with the help of the littlest one."

Take the children's dresser drawers, for instance. Lynn used alphabet blocks for handles, designing "S" for socks and "H" for hankies.

Window shades in the girls' rooms are punctuated with gay rod or flowers or other leavpulls - cups from their tea set. es. and sprays them gold, silinvite fingerprints. Invite your decorations in vase, bottle or little girl, as Lynn did, to put pitcher. Tree and weed sprigs then leave her imprints on the stark white wall. Simple arithmetic problems and tic-tac toe games, hearts and flower motifs in childish hand, may be added for more charm.

It's an idea, too, that may be applied to your own game room, perhaps with guests scrawling their names on the wall in paint. Five pairs of tiny feet were dipped in water-soluble latex paint, and the children had a wild time making foorprint history as an over-all pattern for the outdoor terrace floor, "Children should be fun and comfortable to live with," says Lynn, "and so should decoration. People spend too much time worrying about how the neighbors will like their home, instead of making a home their family will enjoy and remember." Keep in mind that children, are incorrigible collectors of strange lore, and turn their prize specimens to good decorating advantage, too.

Lynn took a giant starfish, sprayed it with gold paint, and put it on a black tray for a striking table centerpiece. She has painted conch shells with white and gold paint, using them for greens and dried flow-

NEW YORK @ - Peter Ustinov, author-star of the Broadway hit "Romanoff and Juliet," has been awarded the annual Benjamin Franklin medal of Englands Royal Society of Arts.

Joey Jordan's Tops on Track

HOUSTON (P) - Joey Jordan's contemporaries mostly are of the tricycle set, but the Houston youngster prefers wheeling around a track in a midget racing car. Joey is 31/2 years old.

A few weeks ago he had never soloed in vehicles other than the two - and three wheeled leg-powered variety. Now Joey is the darling of Houston's newly organized quarter midget race car fan

He pilots his own two-horse power around a new track in the Gulfgate section at speeds up to 20 miles per hour. One peek over the fence at six to 12-year-olders tearing around the 20th-of-a mile track and Joey became a confirmed racer. His dad, Joe Jordan Sr., loved it. The elder Jordan, an aviation equipment salesman, planked down several hundred dollars for a slick-looking Grand Prix racer, and Joey was in business.

After less than a day of ininstruction, the 38-pound grayeyed lad was put-puttering around the oval alone.

Safety-minded, Joey has learned to obey the signal flags green for go, yellow for one more lap, blue and white for move over and black for a return to the pit.

But he's daring enough in guiding the little red car in competition

"In a few more, years he'll be outdoing them all," his father says. "He can only race one of the older boys at a time, but he holds his own against them.' The elder Jordan has issued a challenge to any other three-he can't find any takers. Under rules of the sponsor ing Telephone Road Dads Club, Joey won't be eligible to race against more than one older boy until he's four. Then he'll be eligible for 10-car main events.

How does his mother feel? "I feel better about him when he's in his racer than when he's on his two-wheeled bike at home," Mrs. Jordan said.

Thus far, Joey has suffered only one injury at the track. He stumbled on the parking lot and split his lip.
