Spring, Easter Values Shown

In this issue of the Brand, Hereford merchants have announced their parade of spring and Easter values in a special 16-page section.

It is suggested that shoppers use the section for a guide and keep it handy for future reference.

Hereford merchants this season say they are unusually well stocked in attire from head to toe. They promise shoppers that they will find unequalled values in their own home town.

Also in the section, shoppers will find articles suggesting styles of the season. Suggestions are directed toward the young and old alike.

Residents will be interested in knowing that a complete stock of the latest fashions has just been unpacked in Hereford stores. Merchants have suggested that shoppers read the section today and visit their stores this week.

Around Town

Biggest topic of conversation this week was the juxtaposition of the moon and the planet Venus Wednesday night. For the camera enthusiasts, the above picture was taken with a Rolleiford, using Tri-X film, resting on the hood of a car in lieu of a tripod. Exposure was 7.5 for about 30 seconds. There was enough light so shorter exposures were just about as good. The telephone alerted a lot of people in a hurry about the unusual sight.

Hereford High baseball team, trying its wings after a four-day lay-off, will play Tascosa High Tuesday in Amarillo at 4 p.m. Since it will be Tascosa's first game in history, maybe you can have the same results as when the Herd knocked off the Rebels in their first basketball game last fall.

Our congratulations to Mrs. Eloise McDougal, Hereford High English teacher who has been elected president of District IX of the Texas State Teachers Association. She will head up the 2,500-member group for the next year.

Frederick H. Vahling, chairman of the board of F. H. Vahling, Inc., has been elected a director of Seaboard and Western Airlines, a transatlantic all-cargo airline. Vahling is also chairman of the Vahling vegetable processing sheds. (Continued on Page 2)

Honor Two For Red Cross Work

Mrs. Earl Springer, nurse for the Hereford public schools, has been nominated by the Deaf Smith County Red Cross chapter for national honors. The announcement was made Thursday during a tea in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

Mrs. Springer's background and achievements will be entered as a candidate for one of five national "50th Anniversary Red Cross Nurse" awards. All local chapters are making such nominations.

Also honored during the tea was Mrs. Wayne Lady, who received a certificate for her outstanding volunteer work in Red Cross since she was in

'Carousel' Show Combines Seaside Fun With Tragedy

The combined elements of tragedy and light-hearted fun will set the mood of Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Carousel," which starts a two-night run Thursday in the Hereford High School auditorium.

To be presented by the high school Mixed Choir, curtain time Thursday and Friday will be at 8 p.m. The production will be presented as the fourth and final production of the current Community School Concert Series.

Concert tickets will be good for each performance, and tickets will be sold at the door. This will be the second year that a Rodgers and Hammerstein musical has been selected for presentation by the choir. Last year the choir presented "Oklahoma!" as the final concert in that series.

Cast for the production includes Sylvia Wiman, Linda Noland, Pat Caywood, Gwin Norris, Durward Jacobs, Lee Kimball, Sheila Owens, Jan Wallace, Mickey Griffith, Danny Cleveland, Gary Wertenburger, Janie Bookout, Erin Wertenburger.

Proposed Boost On Light Spot Cotton Can Hike Local Income

A higher price on light spot cotton, an issue which has been put before the cotton trade and government, would give cotton growers in Deaf Smith County up to $18 a bale additional income in the future. George Pfeiffer, executive vice president of the Plains Cotton Growers Association, told a bout 100 county growers Thursday.

About 545 cotton producers, representing nearly 10,000 acres devoted to the county cotton crop, were invited to the meeting, which was held in 60th District Courtroom Thursday night.

Safflower Production Gets Local Interest

Farmers interested in growing safflower as a partial replacement for grain sorghum crops can complete details of the proposed program at a meeting scheduled in Hereford on Monday, April 6, 8 p.m., in the county Bull Barn according to an announcement made Friday by Bill Gentry, Deaf Smith County Farmers Union president.

Other meetings in this territory will be held at Earth April 3, 2:30 p.m.; Tulia, April 6, 8 p.m.

Interest in the crop has expanded sharply during the past week, following announcement by the Farmers Union that a safflower oil mill will be located in the Panhandle and that growers will be guaranteed a contract price of $62 per ton on safflower seed this year.

"We want to plant 20,000 acres of safflower in the Panhandle this year," said Richard Alexander, Farmers Union Secretary - Manager of Denton, when he visited with a Hereford Chamber of Commerce group Friday. "Most of this crop will be used for seed, and we will want a minimum of 100,000 acres of safflower in 1960."

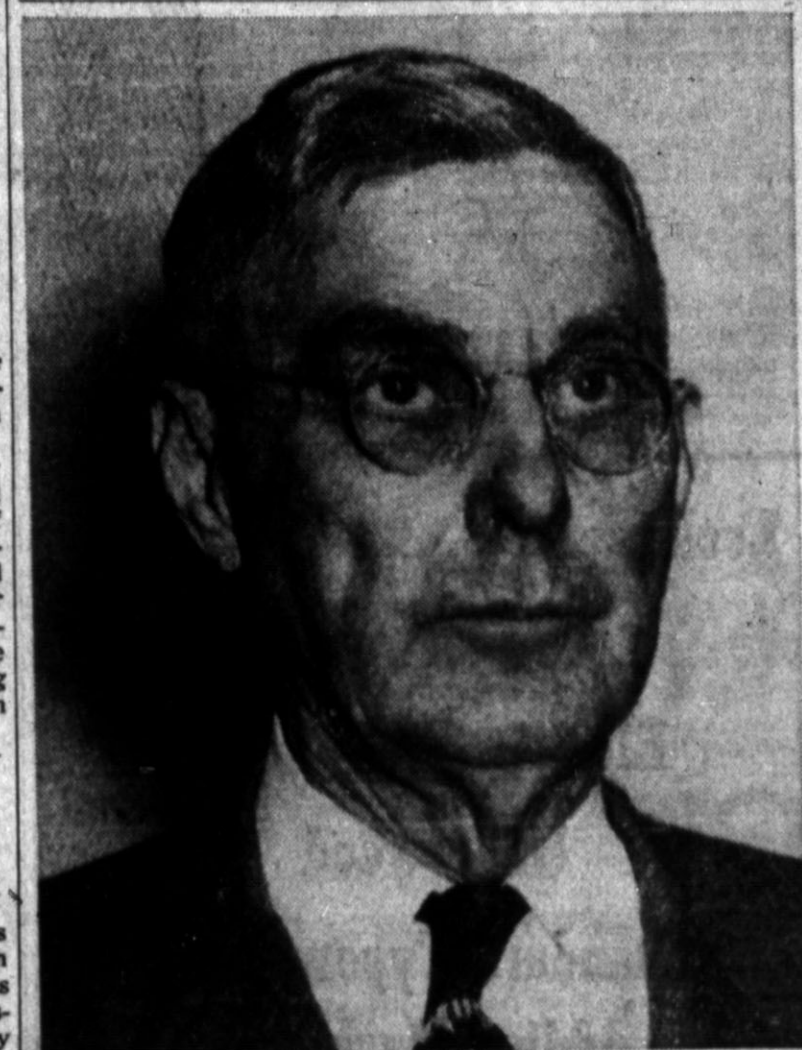

Alexander further said that the mill will be completed by harvest, around July 1960, at a cost of $500,000 to $750,000. It will be jointly owned by Farmers Union (51%) and International Safflower (49%). "The oil mill will be located on the basis of storage facilities, acreage planted, and sound business judgment," Alexander pointed out. "The location will be determined by members of the board of directors, in coopera-

Cameron, Milam County, Tex., on Feb. 27, 1881 and came with his family to Swisher County in 1890.

In 1900 he started working for the Panhandle Safflower Corporation officials. He estimated that the mill will employ 50 persons, operate 24 hours per day, and on a 12 month basis.

Farmers Union plans call for grower participation in the mill with purchase of a $5 share of stock for each acre planted. Alexander said that the preferred stock will pay 6%. He further said they want numerous growers over the entire Panhandle with small acreages - running from 10 to 20 acres, rather than

C. R. Smith

Former XIT Cowboy, Pioneer C. R. Smith Succumbs Saturday

A pioneer of Hereford and the Panhandle area, C. R. Smith, 78, died Saturday in Thurmond Rest Home in Amarillo following an illness of several months.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 3 p.m. in the First Christian Church with the Rev. Gilbert Davis Jr., pastor, officiating. The Rev. Joel Treadwell, pastor of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, will assist in the services.

Burial will be in West Park Cemetery under the direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

Mr. Smith was born near the huge XIT Ranch, becoming foreman of their Escabada Division. He was married to Zula Mae Vanderburg on Aug. 22, 1906. It was that year that he built the family home at 410 Jowell.

Quitting the XIT, Mr. Smith went into the cattle and real estate business and also served for several years as a deputy sheriff in Deaf Smith County. Survivors include his wife, of the family home; one son, Roy

V. of Hereford; one daughter, Mrs. W. J. Wilson of Albuquerque; a sister, Mrs. J. W. Skipworth of Dimmitt; and three grandchildren.

Mr. Smith was a member of the First Christian Church of Hereford, having served as a deacon and a member of the church board.

Active in church and civic affairs, he had served as a school trustee, a member of the hospital board and as a member of the local draft board during World War I.

Mr. Smith was noted in Hereford for his modest charity to others. He donated to each church in Hereford as it built its building. His many other good deeds to others went unnoticed, except by the recipients.

He often told of how he helped survey the first three sections of XIT land which were sold in Deaf Smith County. He sold land for $2 an acre that cost more than $100 per acre half a century later.

City's Absentee Voting Begins On Wednesday

Absentee voting for the April 7 general city election will begin Wednesday, according to City Attorney Earnest Langley. Persons who will be unable to vote on April 7 should cast votes in the City Clerk's office by April 3, deadline for absentee voting, Langley said.

Voting for post of mayor and two city commissioners will begin at 8 a.m. and end at 7 p.m. April 7 in the City Manager's office. Only the post of mayor is contested.

Feasibility of locating a vegetable canning plant in Hereford was investigated this week by four representatives of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

A trip to several canneries in the South Texas Valley brought out new aspects of the oft-voiced comment that Hereford should have its own canning operations for locally raised produce, according to Cleo Meharg, chairman of the Chamber's industrial committee.

Making the trip with Meharg were Howard Beasley, Les Combs and Bill Thompson, C manager. The trip included visits to processing plants in McAllen, Edinburg, Westlaco and Browns-

Camp Fire Girls Have Birthday

Tuesday, March 17, is the day set aside for Hereford's Camp Fire Girls, along with the other half million members of that organization in the U. S., to celebrate their 49th Founders' Day.

During the entire week of March 12-22, local Camp Fire Girls will be participating in many activities to highlight Camp Fire Birthday Week. Camp Fire activities during Birthday Week will begin when the members attend their churches Sunday in groups. The girls will wear their service costumes, various groups will present programs for service clubs, window displays will be arranged in local store windows and a program on Camp Fire is scheduled over Station KPAN Monday at 7:45 a.m. and again at 10:05 a.m., with local people.

American Legion Slates Founding Day Activities

Hereford American Legion Post 192, along with 17,000 other posts throughout the nation, will observe the 40th anniversary of the national organization Tuesday, March 17, according to Ira Ott, commander.

"A covered dish dinner will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Legion Hall," Ott said. "All veterans and their wives are invited to attend." He said that a brief program is planned following the dinner meeting, and that the Legion will furnish meat to accompany the covered dishes.

American Legion was organized March 15-17, 1919, in Paris, France, according to Ott. He added that the organization now has four million members, and is the largest organization for ex-service men in the world.

Hereford Post 192 is now 29 years of age, according to Ott, who said that the local post was organized in 1930.

School Trustee Voting To Start

Absentee voting for two posts on the Hereford Rural High School District Board begins Monday. Election of school trustees for the Deaf Smith County School District Board, Walcott Common School District Board No. 6 and the Hereford board will be held in the county from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. April 4.

No absentee voting will be held for the county and Walcott school boards. Absentee voting for the Hereford school board ends March 31 in the school tax collector's office in the County Courthouse. On election day, voting for posts on the Hereford board will be held at the Dawn schoolhouse and the school tax collector's office.

In the county school district election, polls will be open at the Dawn schoolhouse and County Attorney's office for Precinct 1; Commissioner's Courtroom for Precinct 2; and Ford schoolhouse for Precinct 4.

Voters in the Walcott District will cast ballots at Walcott schoolhouse.

County school board candidates are J. C. Morrison for re-election to Precinct 2; H. M. Benson, for re-election to Precinct 4; J. V. Perrin for election to Precinct 4, and N. R. Miller for re-election to Precinct 1.

For the Hereford board, candidates are Charlie Seeds, Ivan Block and Dr. L. B. Barnett. Waldron H. Melton and Jim Monroe are contested for a single post on the Walcott board.

City To Open Bids Monday On New Community Center

Bids for the construction of a Community Center will be opened Monday, March 16. Hereford's City Commission is scheduled to hear the bids during a regular meeting Monday night and probably will award the contract during the business session.

About 10 bids are expected to be submitted by area construction companies, according to city manager Dudley Bayne.

Although it is likely that a contract will be awarded to the low bidder, there is still not quite enough money on hand to pay the total cost of the building.

The Community Center, which will cost about $100,000 to build and furnish, must be paid for at the time of its completion.

Last fall the Jim Hill Estate offered $60,000 toward the cost of such a building, providing the public would raise the remainder of the necessary funds. At last report, fund drive workers had collected slightly more than $30,000, with only urban and rural residential solicitations not completed.

The building will be completely paid for at the time it is completed, since pledges may not be payable after Dec. 31 of this year. There will be no additional costs later, since the City has agreed to pay all operational and maintenance expenses.

Centrally located, the building is to be constructed on city-donated land at the corner of Park Avenue and "C" Street.

Contrary to a rumor which has been widely circulated, the Center will not be primarily for adults. "This Center was designed for use by all ages, but particularly for young people," drive officials pointed out. "The majority of the space is for use by our young people and we hope

Open Entries For 'Miss Electric Cooperative,' Slated April 30

Contest entry blanks for the "Miss Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative - 1959" beauty queen contest are now available at the Cooperative building, according to Sam Morgan, power use advisor.

Deadline for entry is April 10. Any single girl between the ages 16 and 21 whose parents are members and receiving electric service from the Co-op is eligible to enter the contest.

Winner of the contest will receive an all-expense paid trip for herself and a chaperon at the state meeting of the Cooperative in Houston, where she will be a contestant.

Candidates may be sponsored by any organization, club or school. Leo Forrest, manager of the Cooperative, said he expects all schools, home demonstration clubs and several business organizations to sponsor candidates in the contest. All candidates will be presented a name of the contest winner will be announced during the annual meeting of Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative April 30 at the Bull Barn. The meeting will start at noon with a barbecue lunch, and a business meeting will be held at 1 p.m.

The contest is held in cooperation with the state and national associations of Rural Electric Cooperatives. Winner of the local contest will compete in a statewide contest at the Texas Electric Cooperative annual meeting in the Shamrock Hotel in Houston Aug. 27-28. She also will be awarded an achievement trophy.

State winner will compete in a national contest to be held in St. Louis in February, 1960. National winner will receive a $500 scholarship to the school of her choice.

ville. In a report prepared for the C-C directors, the group said that a small cannery operation could be a profitable operation, but admitted there were some drawbacks.

At present, a cannery to handle small potatoes and green beans probably would be the most effective for the Deaf Smith County area and would require the least investment — about $100,000 minimum.

Canneries to handle larger lines of vegetables would take a much larger type of investment, investigation revealed. Completely out of the question at this time, according to the group, would be a frozen foods plant, which takes a much larger investment and a continuous operation to be profitable.

Plant operators in the Valley area said that markets for products were of prime consideration and that a market or markets should be secured before starting an operation.

To go with financing, the group agreed that experienced personnel would be of vital importance, but felt that qualified cannery directors could be brought from the Valley. Local large tracts the first year. "This way we can tell where the crop does best. It will also be a help in determining the location for the mill." The mill, in addition to safflower, will be capable of extracting soy bean oil, Alexander said; if necessary to maintain full capacity, it will also handle products from other areas and states.

Safflower is not a new crop labor could fill most of the jobs with a minimum amount of training, they declared.

One particularly pleasant facet of the trip came as the plant managers told the local group that vegetables grown in the Deaf Smith County area had gained a reputation as being good-quality. Any cannery located in the county probably would have little trouble in marketing its production, because of this reputation, the group pointed out.

Although there were few tangible results of the trip, the C-C received valuable information about cannery operations, marketing, crops and hazards peculiar to the business. All of this information will help evaluate future activities which might be directed toward getting a cannery for the Hereford area.

to this area, approximately 4,000 acres having been grown here in 1951. Untimely rains and lack of adequate market were chief complaints to the crop at that time, according to most producers.

Farmers Union releases state that safflower requires the same cultural practices as does grain sorghum and that it can be expected to yield approximately three-fourths of a milo yield. At current prices, they estimate approximately twice the money return per acre.

From a national crop of only 40,000 acres in 1940, safflower expanded to a record 168,000 acres in 1958; around 10,000 acres were estimated for 1957. Much of the acreage, at the present time, is in California.

Grown under irrigation, the crop is thoroughly pre-watered. It can be planted with a drill or row planted. Fertilizer methods at present are similar to those used on grain sorghum. Standard combines and present farming equipment will handle the crop.

Safflower oil is used primarily as a raw material in the paint and varnish industry, where it competes with linseed and soybean oil. Recently, it also has been used as an edible vegetable oil, especially in heart cases.

"We see a tremendous increase in demand for the product," said Alexander, "or we would not be interested in the program or the mill. So far, there seems to be every indication that the price will continue, along with demand for the product."

Dr. Wade Parkey, agronomist, will appear at the Hereford meeting, April 6, to answer questions concerning growth of the crop. Dwyte Wilson, Farmers Union project development leader, is also slated to attend the meeting, along with several national directors and leaders of the Farmers Union organization.

"It looks as if we have something which might be a real help to farmers in this area," said Gentry. "To say the least, it is worth careful investigation — and we invite every farmer in this area to make plans now to attend the meeting on April 6, at 8 p.m."

Pfeiferberger said the association has contended before cotton trade and the government for a higher price on light spot cotton, as the difference between spot and white cotton last year was about $36 a bale.

As about 51 per cent of the cotton produced in the county is light spotted, Pfeiferberger estimated that the move for a higher price on that quality would give local growers about $18 more per bale.

Deaf Smith County cotton has been ranked last in quality, with about 78 per cent of all production cut because of spotting, which makes the cotton below the minimum standards set for milling quality.

Johnny Davis and Dr. T. C. Longnecker of the agricultural experiment station at Halfway said local growers should direct all their attention toward producing high quality cotton.

They suggested that growers plant during the first half of May, preferably on top of the bed, which results in a 10-day earlier start than cotton planted deep in the bed. It was suggested that growers control insects early, from the four-leaf stage until a load of cotton is set.

They said growers should plant their crops in soil having at least a five-foot layer of moisture. They should hold off the first water until the mid-bloom period, or about two to three weeks after blooms first appear in the fields, the team suggested.

Irrigation should be shut off by Aug. 20, to give the cotton a chance to mature, they advised.

They stressed the importance of paying particular attention to selection of variety. If the grower plans to harvest his crop manually, he should select an open boll variety, they said, and if he plans to use mechanical harvesting, he should select a storm-proof type.

Setting of the production is in a small New England village between the years 1873-88. A barker of a carousel marries a local girl. The barker is fired from his job, and the penniless newlyweds are told that they soon will be parents.

Desperate for money, the prospective father meets a shady character at a clambake and the two attempt a robbery. The robbery fails, and escaping the possibility of a prison sentence, the barker stabs himself.

After a 15-year-period, the barker discovers that his laughter faces embarrassment as result of his actions on earth. He is given a chance to return to earth to redeem himself.

Big news of the week, I guess, was sale of the Hereford State Bank. The deal came as a shock to everyone I have seen. News that Charley Seed has purchased the Townsend Douglas home pretty well wraps up the fact that the Douglas family will be leaving us some day, though Townsend did announce that he will be here several weeks to help Russell Carver, the new president, get acquainted. In addition to his serving as C-C president, both Mr. and Mrs. Douglas have been active in community affairs — and we are bound to miss them a lot.

Beautiful weather Thursday and Friday, in some little measure, helps compensate for the blowing wind earlier in the week. One good thing, though, we usually have a lot of "dog complaints" about the time the sand starts to blow — and, this year, I haven't heard one single gripe about dogs.

Glenn Weir is back in circulation with these pretty days. He says the cold weather gets him down, and when I asked about the sand storms Glenn replied:

"They don't bother me at all. I just stay in the house while it is blowing."

Dub Reeves, chief cook and bottle washer, estimates that the Lions Club fed 1,200 people at their annual pancake supper Thursday. He arrives at the figure through amounts consumed: 20 pounds of coffee, 340 pounds of sausage, 72 gallons of syrup and 192 boxes of pancake mix. However, I talked with the dishwashers there in the hotel — and they said 7,500 plates would be a conservative estimate.

Faust Collier tells me that a lot of local farmers are intensely interested in the growth of safflower as a base crop. Quite a few tried it back in 1951, and the big trouble they encountered was too much rainfall, along with lack of a dependable market. Alton Fraser is familiar with this past crop. Some of the growers at that time were: Earl DeHart, Charles Frye, Chester Wiggins, Carl Wimberley, J. E. Stengel, J. B. Probst, Joe Kendall, Fritz Hoffman, Rose and Sons, Leroy Cupell, George LeGrande, Clinton Jackson, Earl Lane, Bill Waldrep, Mack Jackson and Herbert Haseloff.

With present prospects for a guaranteed market at $62 a ton, it seems that the crop has unusual possibilities. This is especially true in view of the grain sorghum situation. Anyway, if you are interested, you might contact one of the previous growers.

Bill Gentry says the meeting previously set for Tuesday has been called off, and rescheduled for Monday, April 6, at 8 p.m.; probably in the Bull Barn.

Next time Betty Bablone runs one of her "Best Dressed Men" contests, I sure hope she carefully considers Gene Moore. That boy is looking sharper by the day. Never a hair out of place. Not even any catsup on his tie. If this keeps up, we are probably going to lose an eligible bachelor someday.

A belated welcome back to town for Earline Ross. Dick says she is coming along fine, which is wonderful news to her many friends.

Around two dozen friends were nice enough to call about the moon spectacle the other night, and I sure did appreciate every call. Charley Holt, however, was the only one smart enough to identify the star as Venus. Frankly, I was a little bit surprised to find out next day that Charley was 100 per cent right. I never would have figured that old boy for an astronomer. Somebody is always throwing me a curve.

Ira Ott, commander of the Hereford Legion post, tells me that they are ordering some pamphlets on flag etiquette. Hardly anyone, according to Ira, knows the proper recognition of our flag. He also said that it is permissible to use your "48 star" flags until they are worn out. The new "50 star" flags will be available through the Legion as soon as they get on the market.

In quite a few places, the Legion has a deal with local merchants to furnish flags, hoist them on the proper occasions, take them in at sundown, furnish laundry service, etc., in a package deal. The cost usually runs $3.50 to $5 a year. A little arm twisting, and I think the boys might do the same in Hereford. Sounds like a good topic for the merchants' meeting some Friday morning.

Thanks to the basketball games, teacher meetings, Easter and the like, many Hereford students are rejoicing over the fact that they only have to attend school one Friday during the month of March. Come to think of it, I haven't seen a single one who was unhappy over the situation.

Meanwhile if you are thinking about going to the Eighth Olympic games in Squaw Valley, Calif., next year, you had better start saving your pennies. One house out there recently rented for $10,000 a month — and a mere cabin for $500. The State of Nevada alone calculates to collect $800,000 in extra taxes on the money the Olympic crowd will drop in that neck of the woods. And, just for good measure, Squaw Valley expects most of the $16 million dollars worth of Olympic equipment to be left on the slopes.

Marine: "But why are you writing so slowly?"

Sailor: "Because my girl can't read very fast."

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas appears to be in a strong position in the race among many states for the first of the five government pilot plants to develop practical ways of taking the salt out of sea and brackish waters. Under law, one plant is to be built on each of the three major coastlines — the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf; one is to be built in the Southwest area and one in the northern Great Plains. The Interior Department announced recently that the first plant will use the distillation process — as contrasted to electrolysis and other methods. That means, in all probability, it will be on the sea coast since the electrolysis process is considered more adaptable to brackish inland water conversion. An official in the Department's office of saline water said Texas would seem to have an excellent chance for the first plant through weight of applications. Twenty-eight are on file from Texas. About a dozen are from inland cities which hardly would be considered for the distillation plant. California has filed 13 applications; Washington state 1; Louisiana 2, Mississippi 1, Florida 4 (on the gulf side, none on the Atlantic side), Virginia 2, New York 1, New Jersey 1, Connecticut 1, and Rhode Island 1. This same official observed that if a Texas coastal city got a plant, it would decrease, though not entirely eliminate the chances of inland Texas getting one, since there are only five for the nation. The Interior Department is expected shortly to announce a committee to select the first site. The plant is expected to cost about two million dollars and have a capacity of about a million gallons of fresh water daily — enough for a small city. Texas cities which have filed either individually or jointly: Port Lavaca, Port Isabel, Port Mansfield, Brownsville, Harlingen, San Benito, Rio Hondo, Corpus Christi, Galveston, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Orange, Bay City, Del City, Matagorda, Freeport, Imperial, Houston, Crane, San Angelo, Ozona, Monahans, Andrews, Fort Stockton, Wichita Falls and Denison. Rep. Frank Ikard of Wichita Falls said: "There seems to be little doubt but what a feasible method will be developed within the next few years. When this occurs, vast areas of non-productive land can be irrigated." Publisher Charles Roberts of the Andrews County News went with Rep. George Mahon of Lubbock to talk with the new director of the office of saline water, former Nebraska Congressman A. L. Miller. "Those folks were surprised to learn that salt water which we have has any commercial use at all," commented Roberts. "It was news to them when I told them it works fine to mix up mud for oil well drilling. We have it in abundance, a few hundred feet down." Around the Capital: The First Baptist Church of Washington celebrated its 157th anniversary with a real Texas-Oklahoma atmosphere: Sen. Robert Kerr (D-Okla.), a Sunday School teacher there, gave the anniversary dinner address. Prominent on the program were Speaker Sam Rayburn and Rep. J. T. Rutherford of Odessa, both Baptist Rep. W. R. Foage, a Universalist whose district includes Waco and the Baptists' Baylor University; Harold Kennedy, former East Texas state legislator here as an Ohio Oil Co. attorney. Among other Texans who

Beauty At Home

Q. What's a good exercise for shapely ankles — either thin or fat? A. Place a thick book on the floor. Stand on it, and raise and lower your toes several times over the front edge of the book. Then slide back and raise and lower your heels. Repeat this five to 15 times per exercise period. Q. What precautions can I take to prevent any yellowish tinge in my gray hair? A. Try following your regular shampoo with a bluing rinse. Ordinary bluing, put out by a reputable firm, is all right, but use it with discretion. Your water should be warm — not hot — as hot water tends to discolor gray hair. Q. What external means can I take to call life back to a pale and colorless complexion? A. One excellent method of doing this is a honey mask — patting honey over face and throat in a thin film, leaving on for 15 minutes, then removing with a damp cloth. Q. Do you think the proper care of one's elbows is important? A. If you want true arm beauty, you must pay particular attention to your elbows. In youth, the elbows tend to become roughened or to appear dirty. They are one of the first parts of the body to show wrinkling and aging. To keep them young-looking requires constant scrubbing and massaging with a handbrush, a grainy cleanser or toilet pumice, and a regular application of a nourishing cream. Q. What is a good astringent lotion for an extremely oily type of face? A. Before your makeup, squeeze some lemon juice into a bowl of ice water, and splash this on the skin. Q. Please suggest a good bust-developing exercise. A. Stand tall, arms uplifted so that the upper arms are slightly above a position at right angles to the body, palms toward each other. Clench fists hard and pull elbows in and down a few inches. Relax, and repeat. You should feel the pull on your chest muscles. Q. What is a convenient method of adding oil to a dry scalp and hair? A. Wet the hair well with 70 per cent alcohol in which a small amount of castor oil has been dissolved. The alcohol evaporates and leaves the castor oil on the hair. A proper mixture of this sort is three or four teaspoons of castor oil to a pint of rubbing alcohol. This does not mean simply one oiling, but the repetition of it as frequently as necessary to keep the hair in the proper condition. Q. What can I do about stained and discolored fingernails? A. Wrap the end of an orange stick with cotton and dip into peroxide. Clean under your nails thoroughly, taking a bit of time over this. Oil, ink, grime, etc., will respond to this treatment if you're real patient about it.

WESTWAY NEWS

Farmers Hopefully Watch For Moisture

By MRS. HAROLD RUDD
Strong winds and blowing dirt are causing the farmers to gaze at the sky and wonder when they will get some moisture in some form. The housewives clean their homes and hope it will not blow in again the next day.

The irrigated wheat is looking very pretty now and the dry land still has a good chance if we get some moisture in the near future.

The "42" Tournament planning committee met in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Rudd Tuesday morning. Among those present were Mrs. J. C. Morrison, Mrs. George Turrentine, Mrs. Howard Walker, Mrs. Ernest Flood, Mrs. Charles Owen, Mrs. Herbert Owens and Mrs. R. L. Wilson. Mrs. Turrentine and Mrs. Walker prepared the advertising posters that afternoon and delivered them in Hereford.

Mrs. Dick Godwin and Mrs. George McLean were on the program at the Music Study Club meeting held in the home of Mrs. Wayne Thomas in Hereford Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Floyd Walton Sr. left San Francisco by plane recently to visit with her daughter, Pat, in Hawaii. They are former residents of this community.

Mrs. Paul Rudd visited with Mrs. O. A. Rudd in Hereford

Tuesday morning. Mrs. Herbert Owens and Mrs. Irlie Carlisle of Friona were in Littlefield and Olton Monday visiting friends.

Mrs. Bess Werner attended the funeral of Mrs. Reber Howton in Hereford Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Patterson of Olton are the parents of a baby boy, Gary Dean, born at Dimmitt last week. He weighed eight pounds and 10 ounces. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Patterson of this community.

HALF THERE
MCALESTER, Okla. (AP) — R. P. McCord would like to get a half back, but not the football kind.

He received a dollar bill as change at a store and found that it had been torn in two, then pinned together. On the way home he lost half of the bill.

The Turkish-Greek war was in 1897. The war was ended by intervention of major powers.

EXPOSED BEAMS for the Avenue Baptist Church's new sanctuary form an odd pattern without any covering, looking somewhat like the ribs of a mammoth whale. This is just one of the many construction projects which have started in Hereford recently. (Staff Photo)

ALL DRESSED UP — Little Miss Becky Godwin is all dressed up for her birthday party on St. Patrick's Day. Becky, who will be six years old on March 17, will have many little party guests and she is especially looking forward to this celebration because she will be old enough to go to school this fall. She is the daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Ray Godwin. (Staff Photo)

Homes In Bible Studied At Meet

Mrs. O. G. Hill Jr. discussed "Homes of Religion" at a meeting of El Nino Study Club held in her home Monday evening.

She told of homes in Bible times and dwelt at length on the homes of the Jews and their strictness in teaching the children.

During a short business session members pledged a contribution to the community center program.

Members present were Mesdames Ivan Block, Jim Bookout, T. J. Clay, R. A. Daniel Jr., Bill Decker, Virginia Hartman, Sam Nunnally, W. J. Reeves, Wayne Thomas, Melvin Young and the hostess.

FATAL TRAP

GLEN WILTON, Va., (AP) — A snakeshaft bear trap was blamed for the death here of C. W. Thomas, a Botetourt county farmer. Coroner E. B. Morgan said Thomas, whose crops had been damaged by bears, rigged up a rifle and attached a wire to its trigger. He tripped on the wire when going to inspect his trap.

Services Held For Mrs. Herr

Funeral services for Mrs. E. A. Herr, 60, were held Friday at St. Anthony's Catholic Church with Father Nathaniel Madden, pastor, officiating. Rosary services were held Thursday morning at Kreig-Marcum Chapel.

Mrs. Herr, who lived at 117 Bradley St., died at 1 a.m. Wednesday in an Amarillo clinic following a short illness.

She was born April 2, 1898, in Bastrop, Tex. She married E. A. Herr on Nov. 4, 1919, at Muenster, Tex., and the couple moved to Hereford in 1925. She was a member of the Christian Mothers' organization of the Catholic Church.

She is survived by her husband, E. A. Herr of the home; three sons, Erwin of Syracuse, N. Y., Raynold of Hereford and Willfred of Purcell, Okla.; two daughters, Sister Emma Marie of Lindsey, Calif., and Miss Thelma Marie of Hereford; two brothers, Arnold Friske and Martin Friske, both of Gainsville; one sister, Mrs. Betty Luise of Muenster; and 10 grandchildren.

Burial was in St. Anthony's Cemetery under direction of Kreig-Marcum Funeral Home.

WHERE'S THE CACHE?

HARRISONBURG, Va. (AP) — Several years before his death, John H. Manning told a sister, under promise to keep it secret, where he had buried $70,000 on his Chestnut Ridge estate. Since his death relatives have been doing some tall spading to no avail.

First colonial name of Williamsburg, Va., was "Middle Plantation," then (in 1632) a palisaded outpost.

OPTOMETRY: The Art and Science of Visual Care

Are YOU horse and buggy?

Some people still hold to Horse and Buggy ideas—even about their vision. Some think vision examinations are a simple 5-minute procedure. Actually it takes almost an hour, sometimes more, to make a complete visual examination. That's simply because the demands on vision today are totally different than 50 years ago.

An ethical optometrist always examines not only for present seeing problems, but for problems that might arise in the future. Preventive care is a fundamental part of any profession—especially OPTOMETRY.

"Texas, Our Texas." The Rev. Russell A. Wingert, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, led a devotional.

Instructions were given to the entrants, after which they went to various rooms of the educational buildings of the First Methodist and First Baptist churches.

A luncheon for teachers, counselors and interested guests was held at noon at the Hotel Jim Hill. Mrs. A. O. Thompson had charge of the luncheon.

Most of the entries were in piano, although voice and band instruments were represented.

Mrs. Gladys M. Glenn, president of Musical Arts Conservatory in Amarillo, combines administrative duties with teaching. She earned bachelor's and master's degrees at the Cincinnati Conservatory and the master of arts degree in psychology at West Texas State College. An honorary D. Music Degree was conferred upon her several years ago by Southwest Conservatory for her contribution to music development in Texas. She also is president of the Amarillo Music Teachers' Association.

Mrs. Nova Schubert Bair, B. Music, has taught piano at the Musical Arts Conservatory for ten years. She established the musical kindergarten and continues to give the musical instruction to both morning and afternoon classes as well as teaching piano and theory to

Farmers Prepare Row Crop Fields

By MRS. CARL WIMBERLEY Farmers are now busy getting row crop land ready. Little local blowing has occurred during these windy days, except where a field has been floated. The acreage of vegetables and potatoes in this area will be somewhat less than last year's. No estimate on soy bean acreage is available at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Carmichael and daughter, Shari, went to Snyder last Friday where they visited overnight in the home of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. O'Rear. On Saturday the Carmichaels went on to Austin to attend the Hereford - Smiley basketball game. They visited with friends in Abilene and Slaton on their way home Sunday.

In the recent Community Center Drive, $340.50 was contributed by the farmers and businesses in this community. Considerable interest was shown, both pro and con, but the majority of the people seemed to think it was a good project. This is a lean season, financially, with farmers.

The Dawn Music Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. L. W. Tooley. Mrs. W. H. Gentry was a guest.

The members of the Dawn P-TA are urged to attend the joint P-TA meeting which will be held Thursday, March 19, in the Hereford High School auditorium. The findings of the workshop held in January will be given. Helpful suggestions and local plans to be used in planning programs for the year of 1959-60 will be given.

The Rev. Charles Davenport made a business trip to Oklahoma City Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Davenport visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Peek, in Amarillo while he was away. Many local residents observed the unusual phenomena of the Moon and Venus Wednesday eral times both inside and out. After this has thoroughly dried, shellac the entire shade, both inside and out, and you will be pleased with the results.

Q. How can I avoid discoloration of apples when paring them?

A. Pare apples with a silver knife, instead of the ordinary paring knife, and they will not become discolored.

Q. How can I renew tarnished braid?

A. When gold lace or braid is badly tarnished, sprinkle with fuller's earth and then rub with a stiff brush.

Q. How can I prevent a musty odor in feather pillows?

A. When filling a pillow with feathers, crush a small block of camphor and mix in with the feathers. It will preserve them and the pillow will not have a musty odor for a long time.

Q. How can I bake potatoes in less time than it ordinarily takes?

A. Let the potatoes stand in hot water for fifteen minutes before baking, and the baking will require but one-half the usual time.

Forty-two per cent of the working population of Italy are farmers.

night. Mrs. J. B. Caraway, sewing chairman for the local Home Demonstration Club, attended a sewing workshop Wednesday in Hereford. This will continue for several Wednesdays. This information will later be given to the local members by Mrs. Caraway.

Miss Bertha Frye visited Wednesday afternoon with relatives in Amarillo. She saw Mrs. Adolph Frye, Mr. and Mrs. David Frye, Mrs. Peggy Frye and son, Tommy, who recently received his discharge from the service.

Ted Wimberley took part in a piano recital which was held at Canyon High School Tuesday evening.

J. B. Caraway and Fred Henry of Hereford were in Stratford one day last week. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Hartland Caraway while there.

Mrs. R. T. Stewart honored her husband with a birthday party Monday evening. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Reece Stewart and Rosemary, Mr. and Mrs. Caraway and family, Mr. and Mrs. Zed Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Russell and children.

Members of the Dawn Home Demonstration Club who attended a luncheon given by the North Hereford Club in Hereford Thursday were Mesdames Leo Hoffman, L. W. Tooley, Orval Galley, Marion Russell, H. S. Fuller, Zed Stewart, R. T. Stewart and Mrs. Caraway.

The Dawn Musettes will meet Tuesday with Mrs. Ray Polan.

Family Plays Safe; Builds Raid Shelter PORTSMOUTH, Ohio — Ralph and Joyce Armbrister live in a frame house here with their three children and do just about the same things that other American families do. With one exception, that is. The Armbristers have spent the last two years creating a special survival shelter in the brick house next door where Joyce's uncle lives. It's an area about 10 by 7 feet in a brick-walled fruit storage room. The family has equipped it with three bunks, a pantry of canned foods, 12 gallon jugs of drinking water (refilled every few weeks), a canned heat stove, battery radio, rifle, shotgun, ammunition, matches (the latter two in a milk can to keep out moisture) and other equipment.

How Can I? Q. How can I give relief to a tender skin, caused by a mustard plaster? A. Immediate relief can be given by applying pure olive oil to the affected parts. Q. How can I hem an old window shade if the needle breaks the fabric? A. When making a new hem in an old window shade and one is not sure it will stand stitching, make a deeper hem and try gluing it shut to hold the stick.

She 'Digs' Music Of Past

LOS ANGELES — Attractive, charming Elisabeth Waldo is a musical archeologist. While other students of the past dig for the bits and pieces of an ancient city and try to fashion a picture of what it looked like, she collects the musical instruments of aboriginal cultures and uses them to recreate the sounds of ancient music. For years she has done intensive research in the music of the Indian Americas. The results of her experiments with — among other instruments, a one-string Seri Indian violin, a Tarsacan whistle, a ceramic rattle from a Toltec tomb — have now been put down in recorded form. The effect is eerie, compelling, rhythmic and strange all at once. The recording of her first selection of aboriginal melodies is called "Maracatu." She already is at work on a new venture in lost music.

"I think that as we learn more about these mystical musical forms we gain added confidence in our own cultural heritage," Miss Waldo says. "Over a period of centuries the native music of the Americas took shape, yet we just now are beginning to appreciate its great artistic value and its entertainment potentials." In re-creating the music so it can be played by a modern musical ensemble, with the aid of modern instruments, she attempts to transport herself as composer and arranger into a period of history 500 or more years ago. To do this she has sought musical clues in ancient dances and songs handed down from generation to generation in the jungles and from folklore authorities. Miss Waldo admits that it's hard to imagine delicate music as part of a barbaric culture but she insists that this was the case. "The Apache one-string violin decorated in chartreuse and producing a soft tone seems out of keeping with the reputation for cruelty these people had. In composing and arranging the get the bad qualities of the peehistoric melodies I almost forple in my admiration for their musical outlook."

BIRTHDAY WEEK celebration of Hereford's Camp Fire Girls will start Sunday morning, when members attend services at the church of their choice. During the week, girls will wear their service costumes and various groups will present programs for service and civic clubs. (Staff Photo)

Campfire....

Each girl will be given the opportunity during Birthday Week to contribute a penny for each year of her age, the money to be used for the purchase of trees to be planted on the grounds of the proposed Community Center. During the month of March, Camp Fire girls are selling Camp Fire Candy. Proceeds for this project go into the treasury of each group, to be used during the year for work and fun.

Since 1910, when Camp Fire was founded by Dr. and Mrs. Luther Gulick and other educators, the organization has helped more than four million girls to become better homemakers and citizens, which is the primary purpose of Camp Fire.

Girls begin membership at Blue Bird group. When they become 10, they graduate to Camp Fire until they reach the age of 15. At that time the girls advance to membership in a Horizon Club if they choose.

Hereford's Camp Fire program at the present time includes 16 groups with a total membership of 190 girls. There are approximately 80 adults serving on the executive board as committee chairmen and as leaders or sponsors, many having served over a period of several years.

Serving on the Board of Directors are W. L. Davis Jr., president; Mrs. Jack Gilliland, vice president; Mrs. Clyde Cave, secretary; and Walter Seed, treasurer. Mrs. Phillip Barkley is administrative secretary for the local Camp Fire unit with offices at the Camp Fire Hut.

There are eight Blue Bird groups in Hereford. The leaders are Mesdames John Alkin, Gordon Elliott, Virgil Marsh, Arthur Stoy, Ervin Robinson Jr., Harold Beauchamp, L. B. Barnett and Townsend Douglas.

Hereford also has eight Camp Fire groups. Leaders are Mesdames Carl Stapp, Dean Robbs, W. D. Gibson, Jay Boston, Ben Medley, T. B. Thomas, Mervin Coffee and S. A. Fangman. Mrs. Carl Stapp is president of the Camp Fire Leaders Association.

Outstanding work has been done in Camp Fire by numerous adults since its organization in Hereford. Gulick Awards, which are given for contribution to Camp Fire, have been awarded locally to Mrs. Urline Streu, Mrs. Dick Barnard and Bob Wilson. The Murrin Medalion, of which there were only 10 awarded in the U. S. in 1946, was awarded to Mrs. Bob Wilson at that time. This award is based on annual activity reports sent to National Headquarters.

In addition to the leadership in work and play girls receive at their regular meetings, some 70 Camp Fire girls from Hereford were able to attend a five-day encampment at Ceta Glen in August of last year with training in swimming, handcraft, campcraft, nature hikes and dramatics.

H. D. Club Studies Business Practices

By MRS. GENE WELCH
The Black Home Demonstration Club met Thursday at the clubhouse with Mrs. Dick Rockey serving as hostess. The program topic was Business-like Practices demonstrated by Jimmie Lou Wainscott, county agent. The most discussed practice was on banking.

Members attending were Mesdames Fern Barnett, J.R. Braxton, Helen Fangman, Clyde Hays, Roscoe Ivie, T. J. Presley, Lloyd Prewett, Ralph Price, T. A. Shirley, Gene Welch, Jimmie Lou Wainscott and a new member, Barbara Joyner. Mrs. M. C. Wainscott, Jimmie Lou's mother from Olney, was a visitor at the meeting.

The next meeting will be held March 19 in the home of Mrs. Helen Fangman.

Parents taking part in Texas Education Week by visiting in the Friona schools were Mesdames F. W. Barnett, J. R. Braxton, Helen Fangman, Lloyd Prewett, Ralph Price, Bruce Farr, Travis Stone, Lester Dean and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carthel.

The 4-H Club girls displayed some of their garments in the window of the Black Mercantile during the last week.

Donnie, Darlene and Deborah Cearley returned to their home in Amarillo Thursday morning, after spending several days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Shirley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Key and sons of Levelland visited in the Dick Rockey home Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Key is Mrs. Rockey's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Roden Smart were in Wellington over the weekend visiting in the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carter.

Mrs. Sam Greeson visited with Mrs. K. E. Deaton Thursday.

Visiting Sunday in the Clyde Hays home were his sister, Mrs. Jim Bookout, and his father, A. C. Hays.

Mrs. G. H. Whitacre and Mary Sue visited in the Woodrow Whitacre home Friday.

Kenneth Rich of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harkins of the Frio community visited in the Gene Welch home Wednesday night. Harkins is Mrs. Welch's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. McCabe and Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCabe and sons of Dawn and Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCabe and family of Borger were guests Friday in the Bill Carthel home.

Harold Bails of Friona spent Saturday afternoon with Maynard Greeson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Braxton and sons, Jim and Ray, went boating at Conchas Dam in New Mexico over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Southall visited their daughter, Mrs. J. R. Braxton and family, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Frye of the Easter community visited in the Travis Stone home Monday night.

Mrs. Lester Dean was hostess of a costume jewelry party in her home Tuesday morning. Those attending were Carrie Shirley, Helen Fallwell, Alta Wylie, Eltha Hand, Lottie Bails, Taleta Mabry, Barbara Joyner, Ruby Stone, Mildred Welch, Christine Shirley, Charlotte Mims, Leona Wolfe, Mrs. Homer Linderman, Mrs. Glenn Roberson, Mrs. K. E. Deaton, Bebe Walker, the demonstrator from Hereford and the hostess. Also attending were seven children.

In addition, Mrs. Springer has taught on first aid for children, has taken part in Red Cross fund drives and has donated blood through the Red Cross donor's program.

She is active in the Lutheran Church, is advisor to the local Future Nurses Club, serves on the Crippled Children's board and was on the county Child Welfare Board for five years.

Making the presentation of an award to Mrs. Springer was Mrs. H. H. Miller, local Red Cross board representative, while Mrs. J. H. Early, volunteers' chairman, gave her a corsage.

Since she is moving to Amarillo soon, Mrs. Wayne Lady was given an award for her years of service to the local Red Cross chapter. Mrs. Lady began her Red Cross work as a trained Junior worker while in high school. After more than two years, she became a staff aide.

Attending the tea were Red Cross personnel, members of the Future Nurses' Club, Future Home Makers teachers and the Hereford Medical Auxiliary.

The Carlos Reyes Family Relieves Teacher Shortage

Corpus Christi — The Carlos Reyes family of Beeville not only believes in getting an education but is also helping to relieve the teacher shortage in South Texas.

Of the 12 children of Mr. and Mrs. Reyes who have graduated from college, six are now teaching in elementary schools in Corpus Christi and San Antonio.

The Reyes have a total of 14 children. Besides the 12 who have degrees, one is now in college and the one who is in high school plans to go to college.

The teachers are six daughters, who hold degrees from Texas A&I, Southwest Texas, Texas Woman's University and Trinity. Mrs. Rachel Gonzales, Mrs. Stella Anranjo, Mrs. Christine Trevino and Miss Florida Reyes teach in the San Antonio schools. Misses Clita and Martha Reyes are in the Corpus Christi school system.

Five of the Reyes boys have graduated from Texas A&M and the sixth is now enrolled there.

Mrs. Reyes was honored in 1956 as "Mother of the Year" at Texas A&M.

Reyes, a Beeville accountant who was educated in Mexico, says that the girls' interest in education was probably influenced by their love for children.

"They used to take care of their younger brothers and sisters," he said. "There was ample opportunity for the girls to learn to handle children at our house."

School work was given a high priority in the Reyes home. One of the girls recalls nightly homework sessions around the dining table.

Sometimes there were as many as 14 children in the room studying. Neighbor children would attend to take advantage of encyclopedias and other reference books available there.

"There was no fooling around," Miss Otilia Reyes said.

The Reyes children's grandmother presided over the session and made sure that school work was the only object of attention. When one finished his work, he was hustled out of the room and not allowed to remain and distract others.

With such a large number of children to send through college, a number of sacrifices were required of the entire family.

"Of course most of the burden fell on mother and daddy," one daughter said, "but as soon as one graduated from school and began earning, he was expected to help those still in school."

Spotted Furniture
Water spots on furniture can be removed with hot vinegar. Rub over the spots, dry, and polish with furniture polish or linseed oil. To remove water spots from varnished furniture, use ammonia water followed by furniture polish.

Covering Buttons
When covering button molds with silk material, cover them first with some soft flannel or wool, and then with the silk. They will look and wear much better.

Manicuring
A teaspoonful of lemon juice in a cup of warm water will remove stains from the nails and fingers preparatory to manicuring.

The Washing Machine
Do not pack into the washer more than the amount specified by the manufacturer. It is hard on the clothes and the machine. Excessive splashing is caused by too much water and will down on the efficiency of the machine.

Removes Printing
Boiling the flour sacks in a mixture consisting of a tablespoonful of soda ash and four parts of soap suds will remove the printing from the sacks as well as bleach them.

Chocolate Stains
Chocolate or cocoa stains can be removed from clothing by sponging with carbon tetrachloride or benzol. Then soak in borax and cold water.

Too Much Salt
To remedy too much salt in soup add a few slices of potato to it and allow to boil for a few minutes. If still too salty remove the potatoes and add fresh slices until all the salt has been absorbed. The potatoes may be used for some other dish later on.

Soiled Feathers
Soiled feathers can be cleaned by covering with warm pipe clay and letting them stand for two or three days. Beat out the powder, and you will note a great improvement.

Suede Shoes
Keep suede shoes in good condition by rubbing them frequently with a piece of fine emery paper, or a coarse brush.

Linen
Table linens that have become yellow because of infrequent use should be washed in generous suds, given a thorough rinsing in clear water and a light bluing, and they will be restored to their original whiteness.

YOUR RED CROSS ON THE JOB

By CORINNE J. NEELY

JUNIOR RED CROSS HAS HAD A FULL AND BUSY YEAR. A brief resume of the months pass show:

A 100 per cent enrollment of all schools in the county in October, with close to $300 paid in for membership and project needs for the year. Stanton Jr High for the second year had the highest enrollment through their Variety Show and were recently given an award for this achievement.

Four other schools accepted projects and have at this date completed them, also receiving awards of merit. They are Dawn and Walcott, rural schools, St. Anthony's and Alleman. The High School Council with Mrs. Billye Buck as teacher-sponsor and two trained Jr workers, Erin Wertenberger, and Gary Tannahill have been working in the whole year on one large project for all the schools. This is the first year for this chest project. The assembling of materials, school supplies, medical supplies, toys and games etc. will cost over a $100. It will be sent to disaster area here or overseas or may even be used as a goodwill project to a foreign county.

In November some of the Council members served at the United Fund Kick Off Breakfast. December, the schools Christmas project for the fourth year was the sending of 25 gifts to the Childrens State Home in Waco.

Mrs. H. A. Cavness - Jr. Red Cross chairman and the group decided this year to do more local projects. Therefore the tray favors made by the schools were used in the local hospital and not sent out of town as in past.

January found the Council Group viewing a Jr Red Cross film - the first time this has been done.

February the Council Group made two cartoon and joke albums to be used in hospitals and the Parkview School also began an album to be used in the children's ward. March 17 the Council will have a program on Water Safety with chairman for that service, Bill Hardwick, presenting the program. The Jr's will be helping with the other plans this month too - at this time incomplete.

Some new and special plans are in the making for April and May.

YEAH-- BUT YOU CAME BECAUSE YOU WERE SCARED NOT TO!

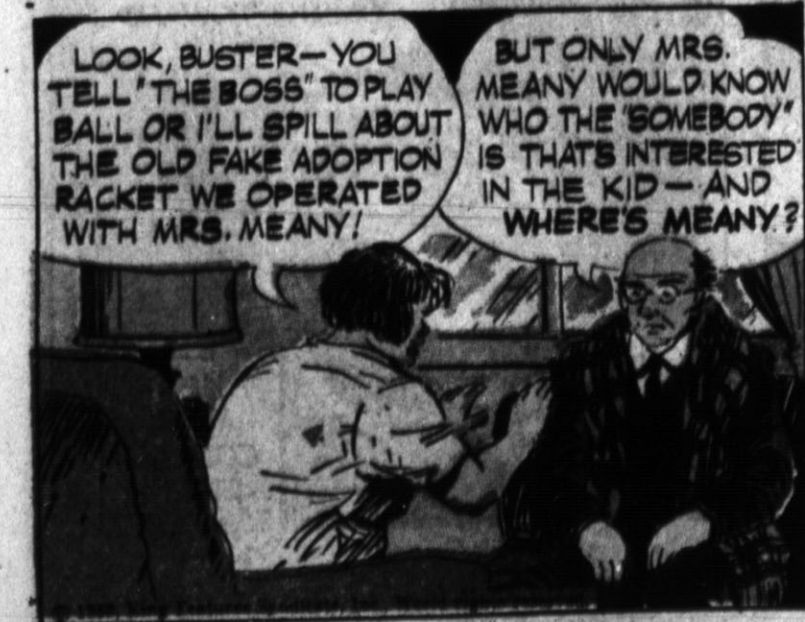

WELL, 'THE BOSS' IS JITTERY! SOME WOMAN IS TURNING THE TOWN UPSIDE DOWN SEARCHING FOR INFORMATION ABOUT MRS. MEANY!

YEAH-- AND I KNOW WHY! SHE'S GOT AN ORPHAN KID WITH HER NAMED ANNIE ROONEY!

THIS KID RAN AWAY FROM MRS. MEANY'S WHEN I WORKED THERE-- THERE WAS SOMETHIN' SPECIAL ABOUT THAT KID BECAUSE MEANY SPENT A SMALL FORTUNE TRYING TO FIND HER! THAT KID'S WORTH A LOT OF MONEY TO SOMEBODY, AND I WANT A SLICE OF IT!

BUT WE'RE RESPECTABLE CITIZENS NOW -- WE CAN'T---

LOOK, BUSTER-- YOU TELL 'THE BOSS' TO PLAY BALL OR I'LL SPILL ABOUT THE OLD FAKE ADOPTION RACKET WE OPERATED WITH MRS. MEANY!

BUT ONLY MRS. MEANY WOULD KNOW WHO THE 'SOMEBODY' IS THAT'S INTERESTED IN THE KID-- AND WHERE'S MEANY?

DON'T ASK QUESTIONS-- I KNOW WHAT I KNOW! I WANT MY HANDS ON LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY AND YOU 'RESPECTABLE' GUYS ARE GONNA GET HER FOR ME-- LEGAL!

YOU'RE PUSHING US HARD, BUT I'LL TALK TO 'THE BOSS'!

YOU SEEM SO NERVOUS AND TENSE WHEN WE'RE OUT IN THE STREETS ANNIE!

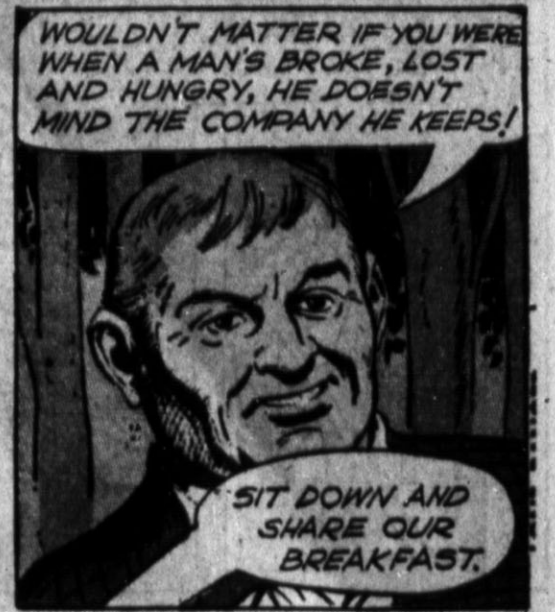

I CAN'T HELP IT, MISS TEECH! IT'S CAUSE I SAW THAT WOMAN WHO LOOKED JUST LIKE 'AUNTIE' VIOLET AT THE ORPHANAGE!

Our Slogan: "More People—More Farms"

Hereford, Texas, Sunday, March 15, 1959

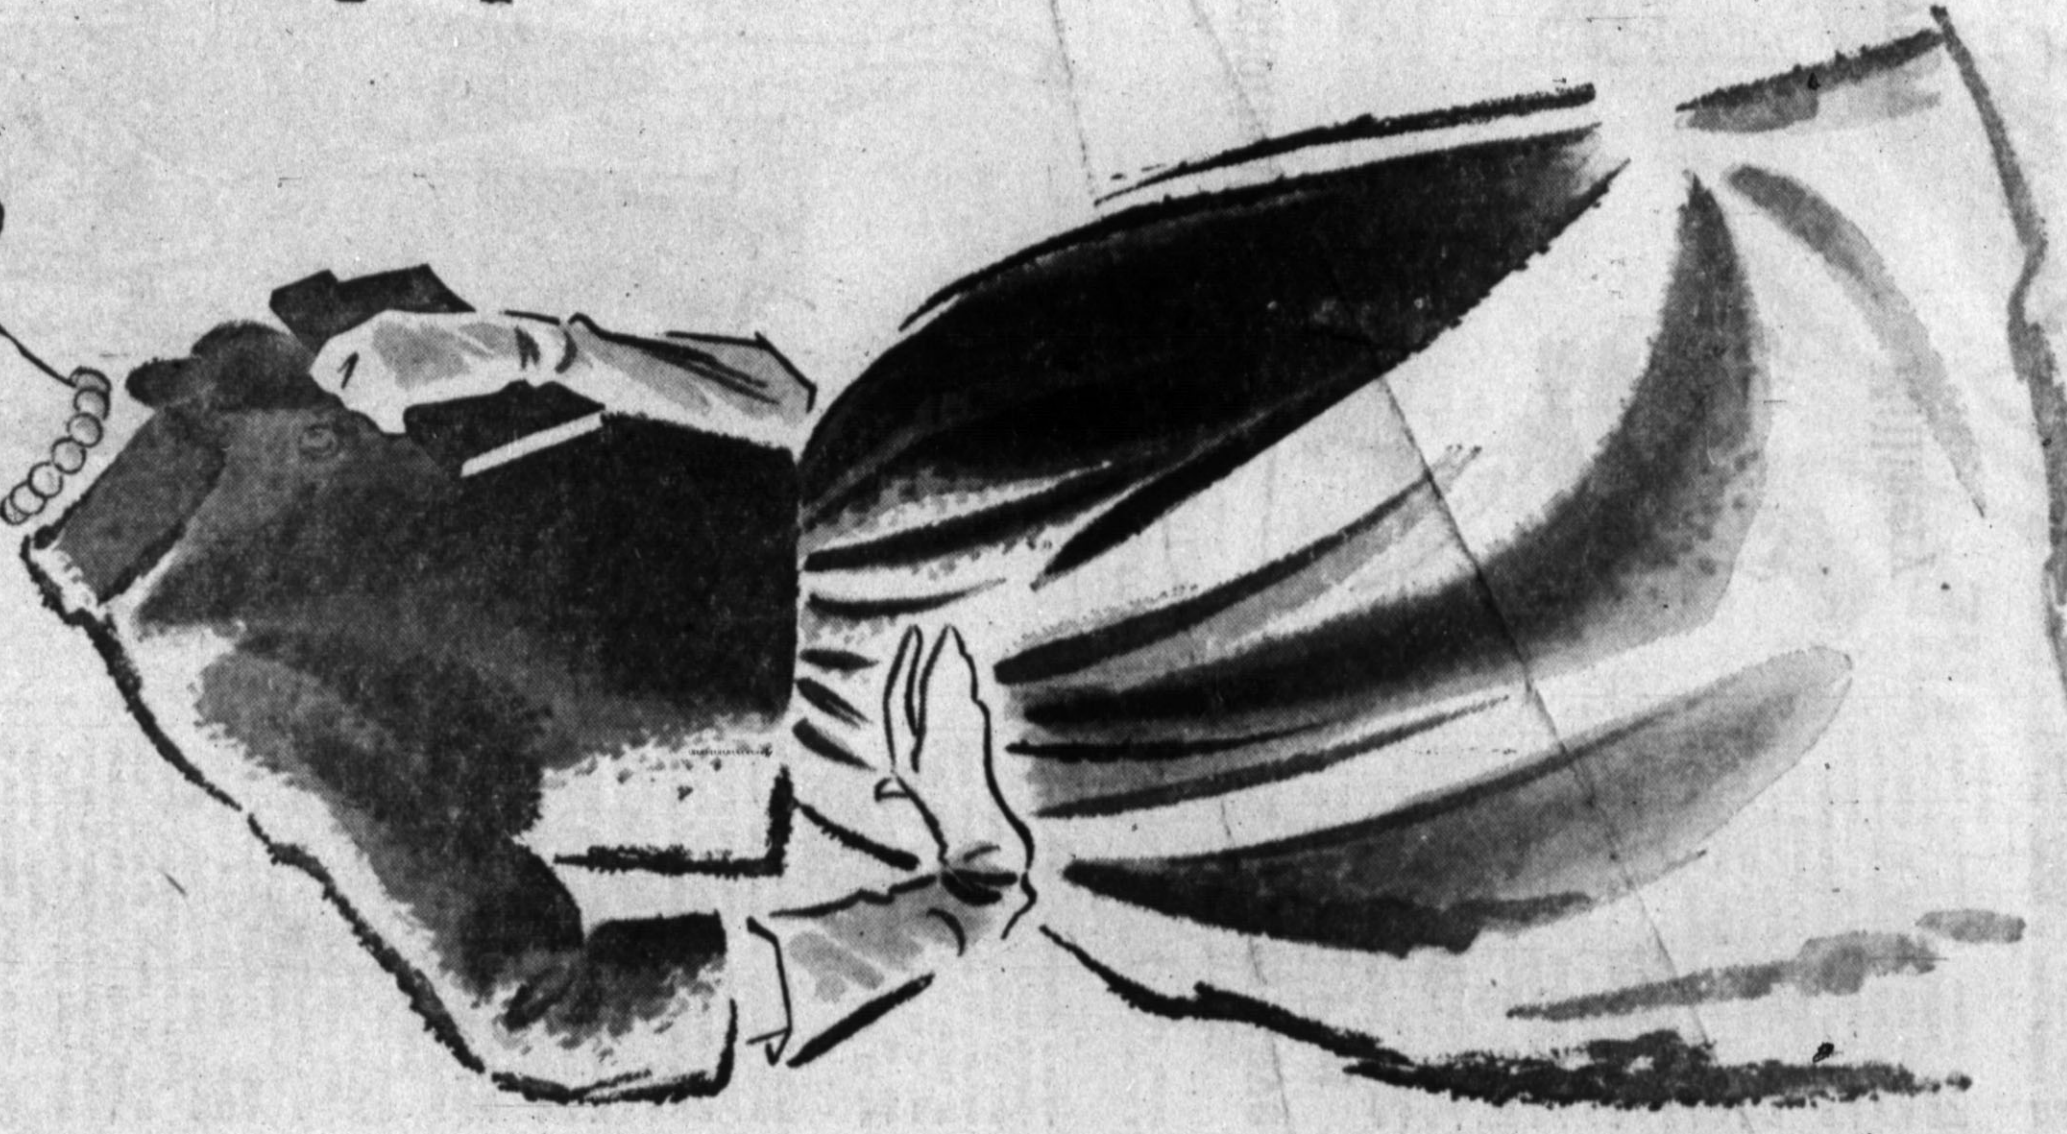

Ahi--Spring!

Inspired by the vibrant colors of the Orient, spring fashion wings its way to extravagant heights of brilliance . . . dips to embrace the new vivid pastels! From flaming, sun-drenched shades to scintillating, iridescent neutrals, color underscores all the significant, lightly-shaped spring silhouettes. Come, see the glorious array of just-unpacked fashions starring all that's new in fabric, shape and color.

Turn these pages for a thrilling adventure with all that's new for spring and the coming Easter Parade.

The Hereford Merchants cordially invite you to shop their fine array of spring fashions . . . fashions for the entire family.

Buckles are as unusual as the size and colors of the belts they decorate. Over-sized bows, jeweled squares and ovals, and novelty button-metallion types capture the limelight. Utah gets its name from the Utes, an Indian tribe.

Wide Belts Rise High, Handsome

Designers are giving the waist back to fashion this spring—beautifully wrapped with wide soft-belts.

Softness means delicately crushed and that means suede—a decidedly different fabric for spring and one of the most important.

A half a foot is not too wide, but most daytime belts linger at around three inches.

Call of course, remains as a rich complement to many of the more conservative ensembles. Soft glove leathers appear most often in cummerbund, cross-over or sash styles.

Most belts settle at around one inch above the natural waistline. Some contour belts sit on the hip tops and rise high on the midriff.

The new belts do not indent at the midriff but swathe it gently.

Vibrant, exciting colors play a starring part in the show of belts this spring. Tri-color belts offer many a match 'n' mate possibilities.

Striking the high hue-note are cyclamen pink, streamer blue, blazing poppy, aqua, fern and apple green.

IT'S ALL HERE—The checks, the wide cummerbund-style belt, the softly eased silhouette and shorter jacket that are so unmistakably Spring '39! Subby-shaped of all-wool, this beautifully up-dated version of a favorite style would be equally at home shopping on Main Street or promeneading down a Paris Boulevard.

Soft, Light Shoes For Men Point Up Range of Browns
Highlights of the men's shoe scene for spring are rich, true spring slippers. Some have grained leathers designed to be dusted perforations around the top-line; others have horizontal rows around the toe of the shoe and perforations in vertical rows up the tongue. Moc toes, too, are often outlined with perforations.

Many slippers have inverted seams, giving a smooth line. Sometimes a seam runs down the center of a plain toe. Often there is a swirling seam along one side of the toe.

The usually-casual buckle strap shoe is now seen in business shoes as well. Probably the most dressy strap is only a quarter of an inch wide, fastening in the center with a tiny self-buckle.

Braded straps and monk straps divided in two at the outside are prominent. Some shoes have three straps—or one strap folded into three parts. Often the strap is in smooth leather on a self-buckle.

Black is important mainly in textured silk suits, with beige in tones from sand to midnight. Navy or gray with the traditional spring-icing of white are still with us and much preferred for its crisp, fresh look. Following the phibs in popularity are the new greens and the deeper blues.

It's so easy to be perfectly suited this spring—with the suits crammed with new and imaginative styles to suit every preference.

Wash and Wear Means An Easy Care Wardrobe
This summer, wash, wear, wash, wear. The revolution suits will be more in evidence than ever. And the revolution they're making will go full cycle. For now men can freshen a second-looking business suit in a matter of an hour or less.

Fashioned from so-called test tube fabrics, or a blend with natural wool and cotton, they can be dumbled in a washing machine and run through the dryer along with the rest of the wash. These types do not have to be hung out to dry—the simple wash, dry cycle does it. Nor do they have to be pressed. They come out of the dryer ready to be put on, with little or no touch-up needed.

Along with this convenience, which is good for both travelers and stay-at-homes, the new summer suits are lighter than ever, to provide cool comfort on the hottest days.

The wash-wear revolution has also affected rainwear. Thanks to new fabrics and fabric blends and special treatments of established fabrics, some new raincoats can be washed instead of dry-cleaned. They don't even need sizing or other treatment afterward, for they retain their rain-resistant qualities through it all.

Lighthearted Look Animates Junior Lingerie
Lighthearted and lovely are key words to describe the lingerie fashions in junior sizes this spring.

And since junior is a size, not an age—wise designers have created a variety of styles all youthful, not neoclassical. Slips and sleepwear are a show of color, stretched prints and floral appliques. Embroidery and lace appear in delicate profusion.

Border interest plays an important part, too. When all-over prints are used, one solid color is usually picked up as a border—and an applique taken from the print is strategically placed on the bodice.

Borders are printed when the foregrounds are lightly printed or plain.

GARDEN-TONE COLORS
Strong colors this season are gold and orange tones—with pink to coral important in tailoring pajamas and camisole gowns. Prints absorb all the garden tones in cotton gowns and ensembles.

The wash-and-wear fabrics, more wanted than ever, appear everywhere—but especially in lingerie for the younger set. Dacron and nylon or sheer cotton batiste promise to be most popular.

The Empire is more powerful this spring, too, in both slips and sleepwear.

To accent the leading silhouette in junior sizes—the tulle, hip, bubble and classic tutu—designers have created fuller petticoats in cotton and blends.

The handworked look in slips, so popular for after-five wear, is seen everywhere. Nylon sheer, lace self fabric and eyelet appear as insets—and the goal type panel on petticoats and full slips gives added width and interest to many items.

The underover story this season is indeed an exciting one—especially for the fortunate woman with a junior size figure.

Planetary motion was discovered by German scientist Kepler in 1609.

President George Washington signed the bill to establish the U. S. Navy in 1794.

The Azores, a part of the Republic of Portugal, was an Allied air base in the Second World War.

As Seen in Glamour

Featured For Spring

Costume is the word for Spring, with coat dresses, dress costumes and suit costumes epitomizing this newest fashion book.

Accepted overwhelmingly by women in every age bracket, these versatile outfits lead double, triple, and sometimes quadruple lives!

Three piece suit costumes feature a slim skirt with contrasting cardigan jacket, and flannel print blouses that exactly match the lining of the jacket.

Each of the three fashion components can lead individual lives in company with other skirts, blouses or dresses. Smart — and a wardrobe stretching wonder!

Print dresses team with solid, print-lined coats. Solid shawls and matching 7/8 length coats create a smart new look.

In many cases, a dressy jacket, which when open reveals a bright lining.

The dress with matching jacket finely detailed to resemble a suit is in great demand by women who lead busy lives as homemakers or careerists. Simply tailored for day time wear, often the dotted jacket reveals a dress with glitter-sprinkled bodice, low scoop neckline or other dressy accents.

Trans-Season Wardrobes New For Men

When the weather can't make up its mind, during Spring's early days, men will step forth in the new "mid-weight" suits, according to the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear.

This year the in-between suit has come of age, in all the variety of styles, fabrics and patterns of winter or summer. In styles, they're available in "ivy, regular drape, the "Continental" and others.

Going all out to satisfy every whim and taste, suit-makers have turned out these mid-weight suits in snarled flannels, hopsacking worsteds, flannels, hopsacking worsteds and tweeds. In harmony with the season, colors are in medium tones. As for patterns, they're neat and subdued. The tailoring is slimming and boasts the important feature of roominess for ease in wearing.

A further style note is struck by the "Continental" models which, together with the equally new "Ambassadors," feature

Available in a wonderful selection of solids, prints and combinations, the new spring costumes are so slim, smart and beguiling, there's scarcely a woman who wouldn't love to have one!

Children's Shoes Shape Up In Lighter Leather

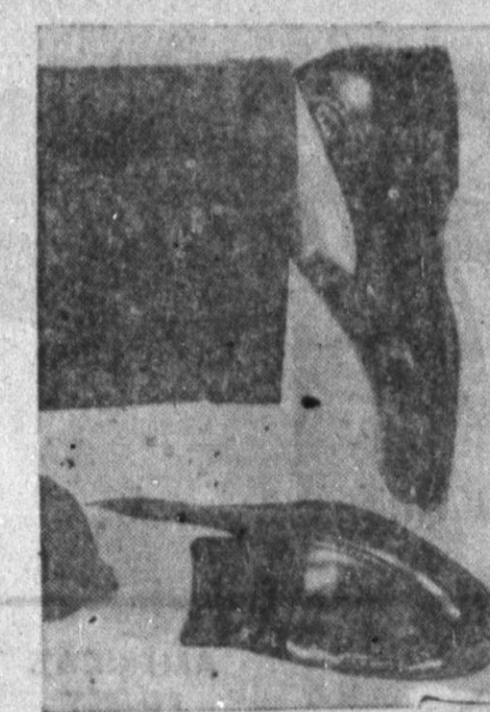

Boys' and girls' shoes will come to a point this spring. If you're a parent, you'll want to make sure your child's shoes are comfortable, light and durable. The new "mid-weight" shoes, made of lighter leathers, are just what you need. They're available in a variety of styles, from the classic oxford to the more casual slip-on. The new styles are designed to provide extra support and cushioning, making them perfect for the active child. They're also available in a variety of colors, from classic neutrals to more vibrant shades. So, when it's time to buy shoes for your child, look for these new "mid-weight" styles. They're the perfect choice for the active child.

BROADWAY ENTRY

NEW YORK (AP) — Mark Harris, college instructor and author of six books, is making an impressive entry on the Broadway theater scene. Three of his novels are being dramatized for the stage, including one that is being done by Harris himself. "Something about a Soldier" is under the production wing of Kermit Bloomgarden, and "Bang the Drum Slowly" has been acquired by David Merrick. "Wake Up, Stupid" is being played by Harris, who currently is teaching English at San Francisco State College.

THE BOLERO EFFECT will be very popular for spring. On this coat-dress the front is cut to give this impression while the back remains straight. One large black button ends the long wide collar and contrasts with the black and white small dogtooth pattern. Crisp touches of white set off the neckline and cuffs. Hat is of same woolen fabric.

NEWS IN BROWN IS TRUE BROWN—and here it is, shown in the style that's new in men's spring shoes—the blunt toe! This is the choice for complementing daytime blues. Perforations lend extra interest.

Gay, Tailored Straw Hats For Young Misses

Despite an array of "dainty" hats on the market, the feminine Tailored Young Lady Look is still important for Spring '59. Hats for youngest misses feature a simplicity of line—therefore, textured straws, imported Swiss braids, ornate and ribbon combinations, toques and straw and even a few Panama straws help give emphasis to Empire and other new stylings.

The cloche and Breton roller for the first place in all their many adaptations although bonnets and sailors are also style leaders.

Trimmings are used sparingly, but help to create the effect of smartly-styled youthful elegance.

Wide varieties of grosgrain and velvet bands offset spring straws. Ripple brims, field ribbons and ribbon trims are important style touches for this season.

White, off whites and assorted pastels are favored although brilliant colors continue to be shown.

The happy combination of uncluttered line with a touch of gaiety is the mark of children's hats for Spring 1959.

CONNELLY IN GREASE

NEW YORK (AP) — Marc Connelly, a Pulitzer Prize playwright, is returning to acting in "Fall Story," a comedy by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crockett scheduled for production this season.

Connelly is to enact a science professor at a midwestern college. He played in the London run of "Our Town" 12 years ago, and recalls having faked in for various performers during runs of his own works on Broadway.

In recent years he has been teaching playwriting at the Yale University drama school.

Homier is the Cumae name for "blind."

ALL AMERICAN—Mrs. Dale Young typifies the All-American look in a black cluster-pleated dacron and cotton shirtwaist, accessorized with a white roller hat designed by Betman and short white gloves. The classic shirtwaist is very popular because it adapts so easily to a change of accessories. (Staff Photo)

PRETTY PETITE—Amy Ballard, pretty as a picture, is dressed for an afternoon party in a white Kate Greenway pique frock. The sleeves, the tiny peplum, and the gloves are daintily trimmed in black and white Swiss braid. Her hat is a white Perle visca straw with ruffle trim. Amy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Labry Ballard. (Staff Photo)

A Fashion Preview For Spring Season

The return to a more normal fashion picture was in evidence Saturday afternoon when wives of members of Toastmasters Clubs of this area were entertained at a coffee, featuring a miniature style show, in the Hospitality Room of the First National Bank.

The occasion was the annual meeting of Area 1, District 44, Toastmasters International, held at the Hotel Jim Hill here Saturday.

Mrs. Irving Alexander directed the show and served as narrator, with wives of members of the local club modeling high fashion dresses and accessories from the Popular Store.

Black and white costumes were shown because fashion experts predict black and white to be the highest fashion colors for spring and summer, 1959, but many other favored colors were suggested, such as moss green, absinthe, beige, yellow, Paris pink, apricot and of course navy.

SPRING SHEATH—Mrs. Weslie Owen models a slim black pique sheath, styled with a large cuff collar which dips low in the back. The important large black hat of ball-buntal straw delicately trimmed with flowers, white bag done in rose motif, chalk white and rhinestone earrings and bracelet complete the costume. (Staff Photo)

AFTER FIVE—Mrs. Gwynne Owen models an after-five ensemble. She is wearing a white cotton damask sheath studded with rhinestones, styled with chiffon bodice. She wears twelve-button gloves, feather clip hat (made in France) rhinestone necklace and earrings, and holds a blue mink stole, any season wrap. (Staff Photo)

'Operation Gyroscope Program' Offered To County's Young Men

Deaf Smith County young men meeting high physical and mental standards are eligible for assignments to units scheduled for assignment to Europe under the U. S. Army's "Operation Gyroscope Program," according to S/FC Carl J. Fussell, county recruiter.

Sgt. Fussell said the Army recently opened its doors to the program, but only applicants meeting high physical and mental standards can be accepted.

Beginning March 27, applications will be accepted for the 6th Armored Cavalry Regiment at Ft. Knox, Ky., 547th Transportation Company at Ft. Bragg, N. C., and the 215th Quartermaster Company at Ft. Lee, Va.

Final date of acceptance to the three units is April 9, Sgt. Fussell said.

"The Army's reasoning for setting up the 'Operation Gyroscope Program' is that the personnel in these units are trained together as an individual unit while here at state-side military posts and in Europe alike.

"Units develop a greater personnel pride and a better understanding; also it provides an ideal means for friends and relatives to serve together, which makes a more effective organization," he said.

For complete information concerning requirements necessary for assignment to any of the units listed, interested men should call or visit the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, 212 E. 7, in Amarillo. Sgt. Fussell will be in Hereford on Thursday of each week and also may be contacted through Mrs. Eunice Peterson at the local Selective Service office.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mrs. Alwyn Savage and brother, Elwin Dysart and family of Dalhart, attended the funeral services Tuesday, March 10, for their uncle, Herbert Dysart, in Plainview.

Benjamin Franklin was in France from 1776 to 1785 during which time, as American representative, he obtained military aid.

Six Hereford Students Seek Degrees At WT

Six students from Hereford are among the 315 candidates who will seek degrees during the spring convocation May 24 at West Texas State College in Canyon.

Dean Walter H. Juniper has announced that 379 are candidates for Bachelor's degrees and 36 are seeking advanced degrees. Should most of the candidates graduate, another record class will be registered at WT.

Those from Hereford seeking degrees are Robert Lamm, Jack Allen Johnson, Veradelle Andrews, Marsha Cockrell, Charles Quattlebaum and Roy Hartman.

Robert Lamm, sociology major, is seeking his B. S. degree. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lamm of 127 N. Knight.

Jack Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson, is an education major. He is seeking his B. S. degree.

Veradelle Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Andrews of Star Route, is an elementary education major. She is also seeking her B. S. degree. Miss Andrews is a member of Buffalo Gals, service organization and Student Education Association.

An English major, Marsha Cockrell is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Alby J. Cockrell, 429 N. Miles. She is seeking her B. A. degree.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Quattlebaum of 407 East Fourth, Charles Quattlebaum is a secondary education major. He has received such honors at WT as Personality King, Campus Sweetheart, Pi Omega Sweetheart and member of the Student Senate, campus student governing body. Quattlebaum is seeking his B. S. degree.

Roy L. Hartman, teacher and coach at Central Elementary School, is seeking his M. Ed. degree at WT.

H.D. Clubs Hold Luncheon Tuesday

Named For Army Spanish Course

Pfc. Lohman N. Lookingbill has been selected for an intensive six-month course of instruction in Spanish at the US Army Language School in Monterey, under the Army's stepped-up program for over-coming a critical shortage of skilled linguists.

Lookingbill, the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lookingbill, Route 1, Loco, Okla., was graduated from Hereford High School in 1954 and from Draughon's Business College 1954.

Upon completing his present course of study, Lookingbill will be prepared to act as translator or interpreter, able to converse freely in Spanish as well as to read and write the language.

Baptist Church Slates Revival For April 12-19

By BETTY WALSER
The Summerfield Baptist Church will hold a revival the week of April 12 to 19. Any interested persons are urged to attend.

The Young Mothers' Club met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Roy Bolkin with Mrs. Bess Moore of Hereford presenting the program on Fashions.

Those present were Mesdames W. C. Beene, C. J. Lance, Earl Lance Jr., Reese Dawson, Billie Gene Cotton, Billie Bell and the hostess.

The V. F. W. Auxiliary of Hereford entertained husbands of the members Saturday night with a St. Patrick's buffet supper. Following the supper games of 42 were played by the group.

Attending from this community were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lookingbill.

Ken Walsor, who was with a group of boys and agriculture teacher, Wade Thompson, in Houston at the Fat Stock Show last weekend, participated in the grass judging contest. The group placed 23rd out of a class of 49.

Mrs. L. L. Cannon was admitted to the Deaf Smith County Hospital Wednesday morning for treatment. Cannon, also a patient in the hospital, underwent surgery Thursday morning. Linda Kay Noland will be among the cast in the musical, "Carousel," to be presented March 19 and 20 in the Hereford High School auditorium. Linda will portray the role of Carrie Peppridge.

Ken Clearman, member of the Whiteface basketball team, was named on the state tournament team last weekend in Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clearman and daughters returned home

Tennis Teams Begin Practice

With the arrival of warm weather, the 1959 Whiteface tennis teams are getting ready for the spring campaigns.

Coach Jerry Murphy has a fairly large squad working out daily in preparation for a full slate of matches. Murphy has just one returning letterman returning. Richard Leggitt was a member of the 1958 team, which won second and third places in the 1-AAA district meet.

This year the squad is larger, since Hereford High will have a girls' team also competing for district honors. Girls who are currently on the squad are Patsy Loerwald, Shirley Curtis, Carol Snead, Jan Reese and Sunday from Austin where they attended the state basketball tournament. En route to Austin they visited in the homes of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Farrol Craggers of Ranger and Mrs. Henriks of Gorman. On the way home Sunday they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Earnest McCaffety, Mrs. Melissa Pettigrun and Mr. and Mrs. Odis Sansom in Goldsborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Gene Cotton, Carolyn Lee and Patsy Campbell visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Albracht and sons and with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ensey while on their way to Austin.

Others who attended the state basketball tournament in Austin last weekend returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cheatham,

Barbara Jacobs.

On the boys' team, along with Leggit, Coach Murphy has placed Herman Jesko, Richard Jesko, Louis Block, Gary Guseman and Troy Don Moore. The Jesko brothers now are seen as the best doubles team, while the rest of the squad will be battling for the number one singles slot.

Hereford will open its tennis season with matches against Palo Duro High in Amarillo on Wednesday, March 25. The complete schedule will be announced later.

Phillips High netters are the defending champions in all boys and girls divisions for the conference.

Dr. Laurence E. Morehouse of the University of California says a dentist gets more pain and fatigue from pulling a tooth than does a patient.

Abraham Lincoln was once offered the governorship of Oregon.

Joe and Jody of the Frio community visited with the Carlyle Sargents Friday evening.

Nancy Parsons and Glenda Allison of Hereford spent Tuesday evening with Betty Walser. Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Dulin and Debbie Sue of Tahoka spent Saturday evening and Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Baker.

Mrs. J. L. Lookingbill and Mrs. Effie Crow of Hereford visited in the L. B. Lookingbill home Thursday afternoon.

Gary Cotton spent last weekend with his grandparents, Mr.

and Mrs. Robert Simpson, in Hereford.

Mrs. Carlyle Sargent, Dennis and Donna visited in the Wayne Lee home in Hereford last Thursday evening.

Billie and Jackie Phillips of Andrews visited with Betty Walser Sunday.

Gaines Howell of Dimmitt spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Sargent.

No school was held in Summerfield Friday due to the teachers' meeting in Amarillo over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Evans spent last weekend in Fluvanna visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bunyon Evans.

Mrs. Frank Huckert and Mary Katherine and Mrs. R. R. Rule were visitors in Amarillo Tuesday.

Mrs. Kenneth Christie and Valerie are visiting in Truth Or Consequences, N. M., with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Carter and Wesley spent last weekend in Lubbock in the Louis Pengrass home.

Mrs. Ann O'Conner of Denver, Colo., visited in the home of her sister, Mrs. Lee Curry, a few days this week.

Mary Jeanette Renfro of Hereford spent Thursday night with Judy Lookingbill.

Jimmy Christie of Hereford is staying in the L. B. Lookingbill home while his mother is visiting in New Mexico.

Mrs. Bill Craig and Valerie of Hereford visited in the home of Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Jr. Wednesday.

Safflower Interest Heightens In Face Of Grain Sorghum Cut

With hundreds of grain sorghum producers complaining that current support prices are now on a "break even" level, much interest is being shown in preliminary reports that a safflower meeting will be held here in approximately two weeks.

Sponsored by the Farmers Union, with an eye toward taking up slack created by the lowered milo supports, the growing of safflower merits serious consideration. At the same time, it includes a proposition to which some may react slowly.

Growers, as we understand the plan, will be invited to participate in financing the Panhandle plant on a per-acre basis, along the line of co-op gins and elevators. Full details, of course, will be explained at the meetings, which are to be held over the entire Panhandle.

In addition to providing a substitute for approximately 20,000 acres heretofore planted in milo, the plan seems designed to put the farmer in business for himself, and on a basis which is not controlled at federal governmental levels.

From past experience, when this area planted around 4,000 acres of safflower in 1951, we know the crop will grow. The proposed guaranteed market overcomes the greatest hurdle faced back in 1951, while yields are said to have been stepped up measurably in California since that time.

All in all, it seems to us that every producer owes it to himself to attend the meetings and to become familiar with the proposed plan. Even if the processing plant is located elsewhere, it will offer a market for producers in this area.

The Farmers Union, meanwhile, merits a pat on the back for its effort and leadership in helping the farmer to meet a terrific challenge. Instead of resenting the corporations and big business in general, the idea seems to be that of becoming one himself.

As the old saying goes, "If you can't whip 'em, join 'em."

Old Folks Home Back In News

Discussion of an "Old Folks Home" by members of the Commissioners Court this week marks the first official recognition of a project long needed in the community.

While the discussion definitely did not reach the planning stage, it is fairly safe to expect that any development will follow along a pattern similar to the Community Center, rather than on tax structure or bond issues. This would depend, of course, upon the thinking of the court.

Hereford and Deaf Smith County are blessed with many climate and health advantages. These are so recognized, in fact, that we are considered as the location for a crippled children's hospital.

Meanwhile, we send our elderly people to other towns which do not have these things to offer. The reason, chiefly, rests in the fact that no facilities are available at home.

An efficiently operated, well planned home for elderly people, it seems to us, should take precedence over all other community projects. Certainly, we will have more and more old people as time passes. If the commissioners can work the problem out without taxation, all the better—and power to them.

Four Days More In School Term

Many youngsters, faced with an anticipated 10-month school term, no doubt breathed a sigh of relief when Hereford trustees this week adopted and announced a 180-day term for 1959-60, as compared with 176 days this year. The action, they said, conforms with Gilmer-Aiken state recommendations.

While students get by with only an additional four days of school attendance, the teachers seem to have picked up five additional days of in-service work before school opens.

Longer school terms, no doubt, gained support on grounds that millions of dollars are tied up in empty, unused buildings during the three-month vacation period. Opponents of the plan, however, argue that the nine-month period is ample, and that many teachers use the vacation period to improve their teaching abilities.

Both viewpoints, without question, have their merits.

Meanwhile, we doubt if the four additional days will upset many students or parents or, for that matter, even teachers or administrators. Education has become a necessity instead of a luxury these days. As times change, it is inevitable that our school methods will also be altered. How great this change will be and which directions it will take, only time can tell.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

PASSION SUNDAY

Just below the Golden Gate in the wall of Jerusalem is the little Valley of Kidron. Across the stream that flows through the valley floor and passes up the gentle lower slope of the Mount of Olives lies the Garden of Gethsemane.

It was in the Garden of Gethsemane that Jesus, saddened in the knowledge that He was about to be betrayed, withdrew from His disciples to a flat, light-colored rocky outcropping and prayed, saying:

"Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done."

"And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him."

"And being in agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground."—(Luke 22:42-4)

Bright Ray In A Dark World

Recent observation of National 4-H Week brought to many local citizens information which was pleasing and worthwhile. More important, the value of the organization was deeply impressed upon scores of tax payers.

Some of our greatest presidents, industrial leaders and scientists have, in fact, emerged from the "grass roots"—and this is the same source from which 4-H springs as a ray of shining light into a world of mixed strife and turmoil.

As the youngsters of Deaf Smith County related experiences and told of their 4-H activities, they talked of such things as health, Americanism, free enterprise; they spoke of their fathers and mothers as friends and leaders, and they expressed appreciation to the community for helping make these 4-H organizations possible.

This, of course, is a far cry from the hoodlum gangs found in many of our great cities. It is a far cry from the communist infiltrations into schools and disgruntled groups, where people are massed together and competing for survival.

The thing we liked most about the youngsters and their reports... however, rested in their expressed ambitions and their optimistic outlook on the future. This positive approach is the thing which made America a great nation; likewise, the outlook varies greatly from that of the youngster whose sole future is that of becoming a small cog in a giant plant and, ultimately, bowing to dictates of some questionable labor leader.

Those who saw these programs during the week should never again be surprised that so many of our great men and leaders inevitably spring from the grass roots of America.

Highway 51 Now Federal Route

BASCOM NELSON in The Castro County News: It is difficult to see the advantage of having a federal highway passing through a community such as Dimmitt.

"Most people could look at a highway one day when it was under state control and look at it after it was designated a federal route and they wouldn't see any difference.

"The difference actually doesn't lie in the physical pavement.

"The difference comes in thousands of atlases and other maps which show only federal routes. Some people use these in planning trips. Dimmitt will begin to show up on maps of the United States along with Hereford, Amarillo and other towns on federal routes.

"US Highway 385, as it will be known, will be maintained by both the federal and state governments. There is some speculation that it will be made four-lane within the next ten years or so in keeping with the present federal highway modernization program.

"This federalization made a lot of difference. It may be a while before it's apparent, but before long there will be things happening as a result of the change."

Flower Watering Was A Never-Ending Chore

By MRS. R. L. CRISWELL Miss Lulu Botsford lives about ten miles east of Hereford on a farm with her twin brothers, Floyd and Loyd. She keeps house and raises poultry as well as having a green-thumb.

"I was born in South Dakota and came to Texas in 1907 with my parents," she said. "The climate and terrain here is much like the Dakotas, except that it gets much colder there. The wind and dust blows and blows there as it does here.

"The dust would get so thick that visibility would go down to zero and the wind blew so hard a man had to lean against it to keep on his feet.

"Deaf Smith County was a vast prairie then, and when the air was clear we could see for miles and miles. One of the beautiful sights of that time was the herds of antelope. Their grace was as effortless and beautiful as the waving of the prairie grass in the wind. They gradually retreated west as civilization crowded them, just as the miles of space gave way to fences and farm homes and herds of cattle roamed in their stead.

"Father chartered a freight car to ship our belongings to the Staked Plains. Our first home was near Summerfield, and there we attended church in the school building. This was a union church and Sunday School. We worshipped with each other and were happy to have a meeting place for worship.

"I do not remember any special interest in flowers as a child other than we have always had flowers in the home as well as in the garden. I have carried water in a pail and watched as the high, dry and dusty winds would absorb all the moisture in a very short time.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I would like to bring to the attention of all who come to the shopping district of Hereford, this situation which has been experienced in some manner by many.

Two times during the past few weeks I have seen little boys lost from parents and on the sidewalk and the street. Each time it has been in the 200 Block of Main, but it can easily be at any business house. Each time the boy ran to go into the street, seemingly to look for his folks, or to cross the street. With no time for words I sprang to take him up. The first time I really got a very awkward hold on the little boy, but, praise be to God, I lifted his feet from the pavement and stopped his rush. Each time it was between parked cars and not at crossings. As we drive our cars we need to take some sober thought also, and drive quite a bit slower in the shopping districts. Usually in these places, we can drive slower without causing trouble to other traffic, and also with very watchful eyes for children. Blood on the street is difficult to erase, and we cannot erase it from our minds. I praise God that no little child has ever been seriously injured in my presence.

We parents of children can be more careful and have the children understand to stay near us and also that we do not leave a store until everyone is in the group. The rule that we enter the store together and we leave the store together, needs to be understood by all. Sober thought and action is good for us.

Very humbly I present this letter to all for we have been spared some sad situations. More joy and peace to all.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Marriage Should Not Interfere With School

Many cities are having problems with high school students who are married. Do you think schools should set up special rules for those students who do marry before graduation? What should they be?

MRS. W. E. CARROLL—Well, I don't see that that should change anything for any of them if they were married. I definitely think they should be urged to go on and finish school, but I don't see why they couldn't go ahead and participate in all the school activities.

MRS. JOEL TREADWELL—I think there definitely should be a place in schools for married students, because I don't think we should deny any person an education just because they are married. As to whether there should be any special rules for those students who marry before graduation, I wouldn't have any idea whether there should be any different patterns of educational activities or not.

MRS. LARRY PASCHEL—Well, I just don't think they should marry before graduation, but if they do they should definitely go on and finish school. I see nothing wrong with the married students participating in all the social activities or organizations. I just really don't think they should be treated any differently from the single ones.

MRS. BERT BOOMER—I'm surely in favor of the couples going ahead with their school work. As far as their classes they enter I can't see that there should be any restriction and in our particular situation here I don't see why there should be any special rules set up, because the extracurricular activities that we have here in our school should be open for all in school.

WATER WELL APPROVED

Members of the city council of Friona approved a motion to engage Parkhill, Smith & Cooper, an engineering firm of Lubbock, for the purpose of drawing up specifications for the drilling and installation of a new water well at the regular meeting of the council Monday night. The new well will be drilled on the city's property in the west part of town as quickly as possible. This new installation will be a direct supply type of well with the water passing through a sandtrap and directly into the mains serving that section of town. The well, which with all its equipment to serve the city water supply, will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000, according to an estimation given to the city council by Red Smith of Parkhill, Smith & Cooper. Smith told the council he will draw up specifications whereby the city would ask for bids on both natural wells and gravel packed wells. In addition, the specifications will be so drawn whereby the city can either add or leave out certain items, such as flow-meters and other things which may not be essential in the operation of the well.—FRIONA STAR

ARMY RESERVE DETACHMENT INACTIVATED

Perryton's Army reserve unit will be inactivated about the first of April, according to a letter received last week from the commanding general of the 8th U. S. Army Corps (Reserve). About 45 reservists in the local unit, the 358th Engineer Detachment (Utilities), will be affected by the inactivation. Some will be transferred to other units, while others will be transferred to control groups and attend only a two-week summer camp. The 358th is one of the strongest units in the area, with a full component of men attending most meetings each Tuesday night at the Veterans Memorial Building. The unit has been at or near full authorized strength for several months. Personal and detachment equipment will be turned in to Amarillo Unit Advisor's personnel at the Tuesday, March 10, meeting. Included will be office furniture, field equipment, files and weapons. Most of the men will be phased out at that time, with seven or eight ranking non-commissioned officers and the commanding officer remaining on duty through March. Complete inactivation will take place around April 1, according to a Fourth Army general order.—OCHILTREE COUNTY HERALD (Perryton)

'WE'RE GAMBLERS'

"We're gamblers! We're betting several thousand dollars worth of new equipment plus the expenses of a full-time editor and news editor that you—the subscribers, advertisers and people of Oldham County—will support us in our efforts to improve the Enterprise. Beginning last week, we installed a system designed to improve the Enterprise. First, the editor will be on the scene each week to gather news, get local pictures and features, and service advertisers. Second, beginning March 1, Mrs. Dolly Stone, our news editor, assumed the additional duties of business manager and from the Enterprise office in Vega will handle subscriptions and advertising affairs. Third, in the past few weeks we have begun remodeling our shop. We are to have a bigger and better press, an automatic folder, press camera and other improvements that will allow more time to better the paper."—VEGA ENTERPRISE

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm discusses jokes this week, but we don't know whether he's serious about it or not.

Dear editor:

It's a long way from this bindweed farm out here to Bolivia in South America and I don't know any more about what's going on out here, but it seems to me anybody who'd riot over what a magazine says is hard up for something to riot about.

As I understand it, a U. S. magazine quoted some anonymous person in the foreign service as saying the only way to solve Bolivia's problems was to abolish Bolivia, and the Bolivians rioted.

What I'd like to know is, what are they complaining about? U. S. magazines are always suggesting the way to solve the farm problem in this country is to abolish a lot of us farmers, but you don't hear of any of us rioting about it, do you? Oh, maybe somebody did throw an egg at Sec. Benson once, but that's not rioting.

In the first place, we don't take magazine articles that seriously. In the second place, abolishing a lot of us farmers might be an improvement, come to think of it, but you don't want to carry this line of thinking too far. It's possible you might improve banking by abolishing some bankers, you might improve teaching by abolishing some teachers, you might improve children by abolishing some parents, you might improve newspapers by abolishing some editors, you might improve Congress by... as you see, this thing can get out of hand.

I understand that some thinkers have pointed out that the suggestion that Bolivia be abolished was just a wise-crack in the first place, and this, they say, emphasizes the great care people should exercise these days in deciding what to joke about.

I don't look at it that way. When a country is in such a fix it's lost its sense of humor, that's no argument the rest of the world ought to tread lightly when talking about it. That's an argument that maybe the country is headed for abolishment anyway, on its own.

If the farmers of this country got mad every time somebody joked about them and rioted, there wouldn't be much plowing done.

Although understand when I'm not plowing, that's no sign I'm mad. In fact, as a rule, I'm a lot madder plow than not plowing.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

'Texas Day' Is Observed During Program Of Music Study Club

"Texas Day" was observed in a program presented at the Music Study Club meeting Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Wayne Thomas. Mrs. T. W. Roberson was assistant hostess.

Mrs. Cliff Estes, leader, told how music came into use by the Texas Indian as an aid in appealing to the great powers above and how the Spaniards used music in trying to convert the Indian to Christianity.

Continuing, she said, in part, "It would be hard to estimate the value of the German settlers to create and develop a love of good music in Texas. It was largely through German insistence that music was introduced into the first public schools established in the state in Galveston in 1845 and in San Antonio in the early fifties."

"Music development after the Civil War varied with the social classes and was left mostly to the foreign population. Among the most important centers were Houston, Galveston, San Antonio, Austin, New Braunfels and many smaller places. Probably no single agency has been more active and effective in awakening the general public to musical interests than the women's clubs of the state. Today the greatest agencies of music itself are the sound producing machines and the radio and television," she said.

The musical program featuring Texas composers included, "Le Petit Moulin" (John Steinfeld) played by Mrs. A. J. Schroeter, "Sheep and Goat Walkin' To the Pasture" (Gulion) played by Mrs. J. C. McCracken; "This is My Prayer" composed by a former Hereford resident, Zollie Garrison Genrich and sung by Mrs. C. J. Mountz, with Mrs. W. J. Stanford as accompanist.

The Hymn of the Month, "God Moves in a Mysterious Way" (William Cowper), was sung by the club in conclusion. Mrs. A. J. Schroeter served as accompanist.

Members in attendance were Mesdames J. R. Allison, James Alston, Bill Bradley, Steve Clements, Ellis Coombes, R. P. Coneway, B. Y. Crosthwait, W. E. Dameron, Cliff Estes, H. K. Fox, Dick Godwin, Joe Hacker, George McLean, J. C. McCracken, Norman Moore, C. J. Mountz, T. W. Roberson, A. J. Schroeter, Lowell Sharp, W. J. Stanford, A. O. Thompson, Jeff Gilbreath, J. P. Slaton, Miss Frances Dameron and the hostess.

Foundation Study Given At Meeting

Mrs. Tom Draper, county Home Demonstration agent, presented a program entitled, "The Under Cover Story," to the Dawn Home Demonstration Club last Friday in the home of Mrs. J. B. Caraway.

Mrs. Draper pointed out that except for teens and young juniors, the foundation suggested for dress or evening wear is the corselet. A smooth unbroken line from the bust to thigh is its purpose. All elastic corselets are made for the figures which require little control, and those with panels of rigid fabric are designed for the heavier women.

During the business session, the club voted to sell 12 bottles of vanilla for the benefit of the council treasury. Plans were made for a community-wide party to be sponsored by the H. D. club sometime during April. Mrs. Marion Russell was asked to make arrangements for the film, "A Tenderfoot in Europe," to be shown at that time.

Mrs. Leo Hoffman then conducted a game of slogan recognition, with gifts for the persons recognizing the most and the fewest number of slogans. Refreshments following the Easter theme were served to the group.

Those attending were Mesdames Tom Draper, Kate Wilson, J. G. Gandy, A. J. Ramsey, Orval Galley, Ray Stewart, H. D. Fowler, H. S. Fuller, Leo Flower...

Then, we piped water from the windmill, and later when we had irrigation wells, it was much easier to get water to the flower-beds.

"In growing houseplants, it has been very interesting to see what would grow from a very small seed. I have 31 or more different kinds of green plants — some flower, but most of them are foliage plants.

"Of the foliage plants, there are four palms. Three are Date Palms, which I grew from seeds. A friend sent us dates from California and I planted the seeds, more out of curiosity, I suppose, than anything else. These plants have long slender leaves which reach a good length. As yet, there has been no show of buds or blossoms to show that they might bear dates.

"I have a Weeping Palm which I also grew from seed. These I ordered from a mail-order seedhouse. The seed are hardly as large as sweet pea seed. The leaves are large and fan-like with long fronds, eight or 10' long, making the plant very graceful and lovely.

"I also have a pot of Sanseveira, which is more than five feet tall, a snake plant which is very curious, a Calla Lily, Amaryllis and two carnations with blossoms as large as hot-house plants in two colors, red and pink.

"I have arrow-head Ivy (Philodendron, very tall, along with an angel-wing begonia and a smaller type begonia that fills one corner of the sun-porch), Cacti, mottled Ivy, Devil's Ivy and many others.

MISS LULU BOTSFORD stands among a forest of plants she has grown in her home east of Hereford. Among the plants are lemon tree, (Staff Photo)

"I also love to read and have just finished The Flood by Alfred M. Rehwinkel. I read magazines and periodicals and the news in general to know what is going on in the world. I want to keep up with the latest ideas, not only in science but also in other phases of education.

"I love living in the country, watching the birds, especially the tiny red-throated hummingbird, and plant Cypress-vine each spring as they love it and will hover over it for hours. Gardening and poultry are interesting and something to keep one out in the sun and fresh air," she concluded.

Young Mother's Study Club Meet Hosted By Mrs. Hugh Clearman

Mrs. Hugh Clearman was hostess to members of the Young Mother's Study Club at her home Tuesday evening. Members answered roll call by answering the question, "What Are Your Children's Outside Interests?"

A two-part program was presented, with Mrs. Jimmie Bownds speaking on "The Development and Characteristics of Children At Eight Years" and Mrs. Jay Hammond discussing "The Nine Year Old".

Mrs. Bownds explained that the eight year old does not like to be treated as a little child but is very dependant upon praise and encouragement and needs to be reminded frequently of his responsibilities. "The third year in school can be good for both parents and children," she said.

Mrs. Hammond said, "Nine is the year when the child is no longer a young child but is fairly responsible and dependable. He is an individual with a very real personality of his own. It is a good year in which to build for the future, and is an important year in the development of the child." Those attending the meeting were Mesdames Labry Ballard, Jimmie Bownds, Bill Bradley, Gid Brown, Wendall Burdine, Jay Hammond, James Headstream, L. J. Jones, Gerald Mc-Caskill, Jess Robinson, Bill Stanford, James Alston, Clinton Massie and the hostess.

MR. COTTON FARMER

May we recommend the Wet Acid Process as the process to be used in chemically delinting your grain seed? Here's Why —

1. Seed stays in contact with the acid for a period of 30 seconds or less.
2. Water is used as a neutralizer.
3. Does not eat the bags.
4. Wet and green seed can be safely delinted.
5. Seed can be safely stored and used for a period of several years.
6. Does a more thorough job on angular leaf spot and other seed borne diseases.
7. Heat is used only to dry the seed after the acid has been washed off.
8. Planting 12 lbs. per acre the cost is less than 10c per acre more using wet acid.
9. More uniform planting.
10. More even stand.
11. Quicker emergence.
12. Plant faster.
13. Get bigger yields.
14. Gravity table floats out most seeds.
15. Treating prevents seed rotting even in cold, damp weather.
16. No sticks, stems or roots to clog the planter.
17. In warm soil seed will sprout in 12 hours—a stand in 5 days.
18. Less moisture required for germination.
19. For only 1 lb. of lint cotton per acre you can have your seed chemically delinted using the safe WET ACID PROCESS.

For an appointment call the Hub Delinting Plant

REMEMBER WHEN?

By CHARLIE SEEDS

The name of Walt Davis is inscribed in the record books for his extraordinary track-and-field achievements. But the really remarkable thing about Walt Davis is the story behind his records.

At the age of 8 Walt was stricken with polio, paralyzed in one arm and both legs. There was doubt that he would ever walk again. . . much less jump. But Walt Davis wouldn't believe what the doctors said. . . and he wouldn't give up. Long years of training and struggle began, forcing his muscles to work, strengthening them, finally bringing them to the point where he could realize his dream of becoming a track star.

Walt became a high jumper. . . and he won a gold medal at the Olympic Games. Then came his greatest day, at Dayton, Ohio, in the annual A. A. U. Track and Field Championships. On his third try over the high jump bar the legs that had once been crippled pushed him higher than any man in history. . . 5 feet, 11 1/2 inches. . . for a new world record! Remember the year?

It was a buyer's market in new cars that year, and new records were being set in the sale of cars. . . and the kind of deal a wise buyer could get. Cars were better than ever. . . and so were the deals.

The year was 1953. You'll find a terrific buyer's market in our showroom today. . . and a car that's bigger, better, more beautiful than ever. . . the new 1959 FORD. You'll find our trade-in allowances are setting new highs now, too, so don't wait! Drive a new FORD today, at CHARLIE SEEDS MOTOR CO., INC. 146 E. Second. Phone EM 4-2727.

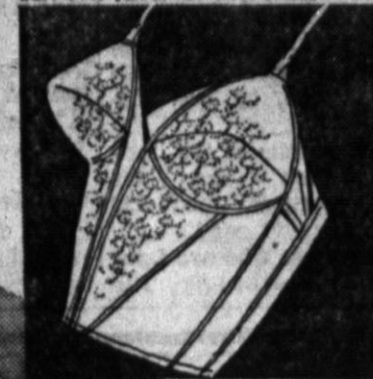

Others attending were Mesdames Wayne Lawrence, Lloyd Olson, Muri Bridges, Harold Hawkins, Leonard Davis, Everett Crisp, Sam Lindley, Dick Oakes, Jim Lookingbill and Jerome Erdman.

Good looking, thermostatically-controlled electric heaters like this cost little, are easily installed and give the safety that is needed for both children and adults.

ELECTRIC HEATING

HIGH IN COMFORT

LOW IN COST

If yours is a home now heated by a floor furnace perhaps you have cold spots in outlying rooms — maybe even the room itself becomes too cold for healthful comfort. There's an easy solution — a way, in effect, to s-t-r-e-t-c-h your living space. Cold rooms become warm and pleasant with the easy addition of a safe, clean, efficient and low cost electric wall panel. Such heaters do a wonderful job for less than the cost of a . . . a small price for the kids to have a safe, warm place to play while you and mother enjoy the quiet comfort of your living room. Your Public Service manager can give you the facts.

OFF THE Shelf

By H. A. TUCK

Incredible valor by some, in decision by others is clearly described in 13 Days To Glory, the newest account of the battle of the Alamo, by Lon Tinkle.

Now listed as one of the best-selling non-fiction works, the book is fairly short, about 250 pages, and easy to read.

Even for those who are familiar with Texas history, Tinkle brings out many previous, by-unknown facts about the 182 men who chose certain death in order to buy time for the rest of Texas.

Every student in Texas schools has heard about Jim Bowie rising from the dead, bed to fire his pistols and wave his famous knife at a screaming horde of Mexican soldiers. But how many know the two reasons why he was in bed?

And most Texans don't know that Bowie and Colonel William Barrett Travis, just 27 years old, were bitterly divided over who would command the abandoned, tumbling old mission at the edge of San Antonio.

The final chapter in the incredible legend of Davy Crockett, half bear and half crocodile, was written in the dead Mexicans who were piled around his body. He and his little band of Tennessee mountain boys helped keep thousands of the enemy at bay until after the second attack that simultaneously hit four sides of the mission grounds and overwhelmed the defenders by sheer weight of numbers.

Tinkle also describes the selfless belief in freedom that led 32 men from Goliad to the Alamo after the siege had started, going to certain death to gain time for their families and the struggling Republic of Texas.

Cruel Santa Anna had massed an army of thousands to assault the Alamo, since San Antonio had been the scene of an earlier defeat, Tinkle points out a little-known interlude when Santa Anna "married" a beautiful San Antonio girl with the aid of an officer who imitated a priest. Another side of the Mexican leader's nature was revealed when he begged to be able to adopt the daughter of one of the women who had stayed with her husband during the battle for the Alamo. Mrs. Dickinson turned him down, of course.

While Colonel Travis was sending desperate pleas for help, Sam Houston and other leaders were trying to form the new Republic of Texas. They were so intent on their task, and Houston upon his drinking, that they ignored the messages for help sent out from the little band of men who were rendezvousing with destiny.

Lon Tinkle, book editor of the Dallas Morning News and professor of French and Comparative Literature at Southern Methodist University, has written a marvelous book about the Alamo. 13 Days To Glory is a crisp narrative that reveals the human nature of the men fortune chose as the great heroes of Texas.

How Can I?

Q. How can I patch wallpaper so that it will not be noticeable?

A. When mending a blemish in the wall paper by using a patch of the paper that has been saved, hang the patch out in the sunlight for a few days, and the difference between the old and the new papers will not be noticed.

Q. How can I clean decorative candles that are soiled, but otherwise perfect?

A. Saturate a cloth with alcohol and rub the candles. All soil will be removed and the luster retained. The candles can then be wrapped and put away for next winter.

LOOKING AHEAD TO EASTER

Easter Sunday, to most of us, is a happy, dress-up, go-to-church day for all the family. And I hope you and your family will all be together for a Happy Easter.

Unfortunately, some families are scattered and won't be gathered around the table for the carving of the ham.

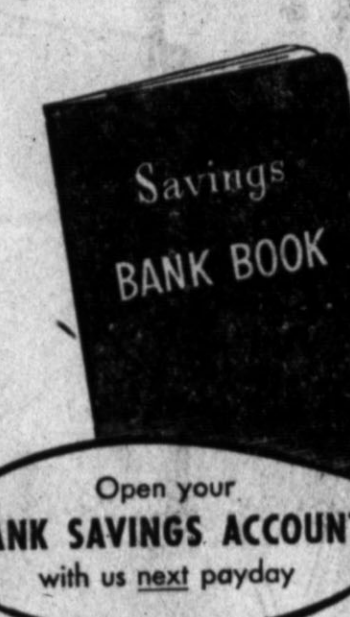

For these families, a Long-Distance visit or two by telephone is the answer. It's the next best thing to being there in person, and everyone has fun on an out-of-town call.

Naturally, low Sunday rates will be in effect. And if you call station-to-station, you can talk longer for less.

Call by number. It's twice as fast. SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY
