Speaker Asks For Courage, Faith In An Uncommon Man

BY H. A. TUCK BRAND NEWS EDITOR. Reasons why he feels men were not created equal were outlined by radio commentator Paul Harvey before an attentive and receptive crowd of more than 825 here Friday night. Despite a lengthy program, Harvey held his audience with a rapid-fire delivery and a sense of timing for his speech at the annual Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce banquet in the high school gymnasium.

"War has never ended," he boomed by way of introduction to his topic. Harvey went on to explain that less than eight per cent of recorded history has been without a war of some type. "Mr. Khrushchev detailed on January 17 in Moscow his blueprint to conquer the world," he stated. "It is to the communists' advantage to prevent a thermonuclear war if possible, since they are prepared to take over the world by other means. "We can forestall indefinitely the next war by strength and preparedness. I do not favor disarmament, since that is America's equalizer for the numberless hordes of Asia." Harvey urged that citizens take a stand and strengthen their ideals, as well as their faith in God. "Man must have a reason to live and to die... the communists will do that. We have the mightiest guns, but they have the strongest ideals. "Politicians, seeking votes, promised us security instead of

School Census Shows Increase

Preliminary school census figures released this week showed there are 3,142 children of scholastic age within Hereford Rural High School District who will be between six and 18 years old as of Sept. 1, 1961. Of that number, 3,077 are white and 65 are colored. Last year's total was 3,017 — 2,940 white and 77 colored. The preliminary figures were announced by Paul Stevens, superintendent of Hereford schools. Final census figures will be presented to Deaf Smith County judge by March 1, he said. On or before the regular board of trustees meeting in March, Stevens pointed out, estimated enrollment for the next five-year period will be presented for consideration.

A pre-school report was requested by school trustees as an indication of future needs in the school district. The pre-school age census, held in the school district periodically, lists children from three months to five years of age. From Jan. 3 through Jan. 31, 10 enumerators canvassed Hereford Rural High School District in counting children who will be of scholastic age for the 1961-62 term. If a family having a school-age child was not contacted in the door-to-door canvass, a parent should call Mrs. O. Z. Golden at EM 4-2396, Mrs. Golden was chief enumerator of the month-long school census. Enumerators included: Mrs. T. J. Parsons, Mrs. R. B. Patton, Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Mrs. B. E. Roberson, Mrs. J. B. Shirley, Mrs. F. P. Lyons, Mrs. J. W. Robinson Jr., Mrs. Marcus Latham, Mrs. Louise Ferguson and Mrs. Golden.

Herd Whips Lobos, 72-50; Last Home Game On Tuesday

A torrid third quarter gave Hereford its fourth conference victory Thursday, a decisive 72-50 victory over the Levelland Lobos. Both teams played on fairly even terms during the makeup of a game postponed last week by bad weather. But 27 big points in the third stanza made the difference. On Tuesday, Hereford will play its last home game of the season. The Whitefaces will host the hapless Littlefield Wildcats in a District 1-AAA game. The Herd will finish out the season with three games on the road, including two crucial district contests. With little height and almost no bench strength, Littlefield has been unable to win a district tilt this year. Hereford won the first meeting of the teams 91-44. The Wildcats have won but three games all season. Game time is 8 p.m. for the varsity contest, with the B team contest starting at 6:15 p.m. Hereford ripped to an 11-3 lead midway through the first period and stretched that to 15-9 before Ted Turnbow and Rocky Hill hit field goals late in the quarter. The Herd had

Country Club Lets Bid For Swimming Pool

Marsh Construction Company of Amarillo was awarded contract for building a swimming pool at Hereford Country Club Friday after submitting a bid of $18,500 for the job. The contract includes construction of a huge "L" shaped pool, a baby pool and two ultra-modern diving towers, according to Charlie Seeds of Hereford, chairman of the Country Club's building committee. Weather permitting, construction should begin within 10 days, Seeds said. Completion is expected in six weeks following start of construction. The pool will be 38 feet wide at the narrow end, 48 feet at the wider end and 70 feet in length. Depth will range from 3 1/2 to 12 feet. The pool will be complete with heating and filtering systems. Two diving towers will be constructed, one three meters high and the other, one meter. The baby pool will be 12 by 20 feet and 14 inches deep. The swimming area will be just off the lower level of the Country Club, northeast of the building.

Mrs. Earl Plank Honored As 'Citizen Of The Year'

MRS. EARL PLANK was named Hereford's Citizen of the Year for 1960 during the annual Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce banquet here Friday night. Homer Brumley, left, president of the Hereford Lions Club, made the presentation. (Staff Photo)

A small woman of boundless energy and enthusiasm Friday night was honored as the Hereford Citizen of the Year for 1960. Mrs. Earl Plank thus became the 15th recipient of the annual award.

Presentation of the award, which had been a closely guarded secret, was made by Homer Brumley, president of the Hereford Lions Club, during the annual Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Mrs. Plank was cited for her untiring efforts and conscientiousness in many fields. She lives with her husband and younger son, Dick, on a farm northeast of Hereford.

"The citizen we are about to honor is not a native Texan, but I know of no one who loves Texas better," Brumley said in leading up to the climax of his introduction.

Mrs. Plank came to Hereford in 1944 and immediately started working for the community. She is a member of the First Methodist Church, serving as superintendent of its Junior Department for 12 years. She teaches a Sunday School class and served on the building committee for the new educational building.

Always concerned about school affairs, she served two years on the board of trustees of the Hereford Rural High School District, and has been a substitute teacher.

Mrs. Plank also is president of the Hereford Art Guild and teaches several art classes. She has served as president of the United Council of Church Women and helped organize a day center at the labor camp.

Her activities also extended into the Campfire Girls work. She was president of the Hereford Leaders Council for Camped $205 for the month-long drive. Largest source of contributions came from a Mothers' March in Hereford, in which $300.16 was collected.

Saturday Rites For Emmett Hale

Emmett Thomas Hale, 62, of 303 Star, passed away Feb. 2, in the Deaf Smith County Hospital at 12 noon, after a short illness. He was born Nov. 13, 1898, in Mineral Wells. Mr. Hale and Miss Tresa Bowlds were married April 12, 1928, in Abilene. The couple came to Deaf Smith County in February, 1956, from Dalhart. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Hereford. Mr. Hale was the operator of a service station here. Funeral services were held Saturday in the First Baptist Church at 4 p.m. The Rev. B. L. Davis, pastor, officiated. Survivors include his wife, of the home; a son, Gerald Hale of Hereford; three brothers, Clarence and Joe, both of Perrin, Tex., and George of Mineral Wells; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Patton of Perrin and Mrs. Velma Hodges of Dallas, and two grandchildren.

Jim Clark, pioneer pharmacist in Hereford

Druggist Can't Retire After 50 Years

BY DAN MUDD BRAND STAFF REPORTER. Jim Clark of Hereford, who last week was presented a citation of achievement by Texas State Board of Pharmacy for 50 years of devoted service to his profession, three years ago tried to retire from the drug store business. But his "retirement" lasted only six short months — three drug store operators in as many areas towns wanted him to come back. He accepted one of the offers, coming back to Hereford to work as registered pharmacist at City Drug. For obvious reasons, he chose Hereford. This is where he operated a drug store for 35 years after becoming a registered pharmacist in 1907. Clark can vividly remember when a day's work started at sunrise and ended close to midnight. His daily routine might include making a stock supply of drug ingredients, mixing ice cream for the soda fountain, waiting patiently on children trying to decide what kind of candy they wanted for their penny, and, of course, filling prescriptions. After the weary pharmacist finally dropped off to sleep in his warm, comfortable bed, he was not at all surprised to hear a knock at his door at two or three o'clock in the morning. And the devoted pharmacist was only too glad to trudge down to the drug store to get something for Johnny's terrible cough. "You know, nothing is unpleasant and hard to do if you like your work," Clark contends. One day back in 1914, a stranger went into Betts and Clark Drug Store in Hereford, spotted Clark and a doctor at the prescription counter and asked: "Could you give me something to help my digestion?" Clark filled a pepsin and pancreatin prescription and gave it to the polite stranger. There was nothing unusual about the stranger's visit to the small drug store, except that the man and his notorious brother at one time were leaders of a famous gang which robbed and murdered through most of the central United States. The "stranger" was Frank James. Clark knew who the famous ex-outlaw was, but he saw no reason to be frightened. Frank James had been in Hereford to visit Capt. Trow, a leader of the Quantrill Confederate Raiders during the Civil War. And to Clark, James was just "another customer." "Besides," Clark said, "I don't think he was half as bad as he was made out to be. They say that he and Jesse gave practically everything they robbed to the poor." Clark came to Hereford Nov. 30, 1907, to work at H. O. Park Drug Store as a registered pharmacist. He has been amazed at the evolution which has taken place in drug lines during the past 50 years. Only two per cent of the compounded ingredients used today were available in the early part of the century. Clark pointed out that in the early 1900's, the pharmacist had to "start from scratch" on (Continued on page 2)

Paul Harvey's jokes were subtle and well-received during his Chamber banquet talk. But one of the best laughs came when it was discovered that Mike Baird was listening to Paul Harvey's radio broadcast from Amarillo at 5:30 p.m. Friday. That was the same time that Harvey's plane landed at the Hereford airport and Mike wasn't there to greet him. In fact, Paul had to hitch a ride on Jerry Abrach's in a Texas Highway Depart on a pickup. They journey included a ride down one ditch and then the other along the 107th-up highway project in town.

Don Moore had his mixed choir in the voice for its part on the program. Particularly effective was "Rocka My Soul," a spiritual number with a black-out of the gymnasium. The girls' long white gloves and the boys' white jackets glowed brilliantly. The choir's medley from South Pacific also had a similar dramatic effect. Gary Mills of Hereford joined the choir for an outstanding solo part in the old cowboy favorite, "Cool Water."

Woodmen of the World Lodge will start meeting each Monday night at 7:30 in the Rock Clubhouse in Veterans Park. This change in meeting place becomes effective Feb. 6.

Four Fighters Gain Regional Gloves Finals

Four Hereford Athletic Club fighters were scheduled to box in final matches of the Amarillo Regional Golden Gloves Tournament Saturday night. In semi-finals Friday night, Hereford's Donnie Lesly took a split decision over Ronnie Morgan of Dee's Pharmacy boxing club of Amarillo in a 135-pound open bout, but Euel Perry of Hereford dropped a TKO to James Webb of Pampa Optimist Club in the 175-pound high school division. Perry lost when the referee stopped the bout in 1:46 of the third round. In final pairings for Saturday night's card were: Johnny Welby of Hereford matched against Eugene Kerwin of Borger in the 160-pound high school division; Roy Rogers of Hereford defending his high school heavyweight title against Bob Pierce of Levelland. Donnie Leslie matched against Ronnie Morgan of Dee's for the 135-pound open crown; and Elmer Clement of Hereford defending his 175-pound open title against Gene Weaver of Dee's.

Hereford Airman In Germany Hurt In Auto Crash

Critically injured Jan. 21 when a car which he was driving swerved down an embankment and crashed into a tree near Bamberg, Germany, condition of SP5 Joe Ed Burleson, a Hereford airman, was reported as somewhat improved this week.

Burleson, 40, son of Mrs. Leona Burleson of Hereford, sustained a head injury, broken pelvis, and fractured leg, arm and ribs in the accident, which occurred about 35 miles from Nuremberg, Germany. He was taken to the U. S. Army Hospital at Nuremberg. Burleson's sister, Mrs. Dean Robbs of Hereford, Thursday was notified that condition of her brother was improved but that it was still listed as critical. The Hereford man reportedly was driving his new 1961 American model automobile when he tried to avoid a crash with a speeding European model car driven by a German who was fleeing from police. Burleson's automobile swerved off the road and hit a tree. Burleson and his wife, Kate, and daughter, Iris, 2, live near Nuremberg, where he is stationed at an American air base. A radar and guided missile specialist, he is scheduled to retire from the service in about two years. He joined the U. S. Army cavalry prior to World War II. (Continued on page 2)

 vey got onto his primary topic of men not being created equal. "Our forefathers wrote equality into the Declaration of Independence to appeal to the French for support," he said. "But they retorted this in the Constitution."
 "We should not be gratified by being 'common'. All the world's leaders have been uncommon men. We must be superior people; we must care for the weak and less fortunate, but not through government aid."
 "This nation's people must seek self-sufficiency," he said. Harvey declared that government should never be first aid, but should be a last resort. "We have taken away the challenge of reaching for the sun and told our children that they must conform to the same mold."
 Harvey concluded with the score in the "spaceball game," saying that America was ahead in that field and far ahead of the Russians in production.
 Master of ceremonies for the banquet was Paul Harvey, a Hereford clothing store manager. C. Palmer Norton, president of the Chamber, introduced his new directors and those who are going off the board.

 Jump-shot artist Roy Sage started hitting for the Lobos in the second quarter as they pulled within a single point of the Whitefaces 18-17 and 20-19.
 But the Herd broke things loose with a scoring surge that carried to a 31-25 margin at halftime.

In the third period, it was all Hereford's game as Thomas Coffman, Carl Miller and Jackie Oldham teamed up for frequent baskets. Dennis Hodges spent most of his time stealing the ball and Charlie Burrus was working hard on defense under the basket.
 Hereford scored 27 points during the quarter, with just one point on a free throw. Lovelland was held scoreless for more than three minutes as Hereford raced from a 39-31 margin to a 50-31 edge. Lovelland finally found the range again, but Hereford had swept to a 58-36 lead with the Freeman assured us he is deeply interested in the matter. He made no commitment, but said he would give it careful consideration.

 The group emphasized that enactment of such a measure would attain three specific goals in addition to helping individual growers:
 1. Enable a sugar mill to be constructed in the area and boost employment in some economically distressed community.
 2. Permit greater diversion of acreage from land now planted in such surplus crops as wheat and grain sorghum.
 3. Reduce the amount of sugar now imported and thus curb the outflow of gold from the United States.
 The group contended that the United States should be more independent of foreign sources of supply.
 Before Freeman assumed the Secretary of Agriculture post Jan. 20, he was visited by Jim Witherspoon of Hereford, who also represented the Texas Association.

 most of his prescriptions. For some prescriptions, he had to spend as much as two days in making a stock supply of a certain required ingredient.
 Today the pharmacist can rely on a pharmaceutical firm to furnish a "ready-mixed" stock supply for most formulas.
 Patent medicines flooded drug stores' shelves when Clark started in his profession. Since he became a registered pharmacist up to the present time, he has sold such old-time patent medicines as "Groves' Chill Tonic," "Pierce's GMD" and "Carter's Little Liver Pills" to generation upon generation of Hereford residents.
 In the early days, Clark commented, he used to sell talcum and carmine to women who mixed their own rouge to a desired tint.
 But today, the pharmacist practically has to be a master in knowledge of cosmetics in addition to his other chores with all the colors and shades of colors available on the vast rouge and lipstick market.
 Clark's registration — No. 590 — proves that he was among the first registered pharmacists in Texas. Two more digits have been added since Clark was licensed, as registrations are now in the range of 13,000 to 14,000 in this state.
 Clark started filling prescriptions two years before he was ever registered as a pharmacist, starting at Suddeth-Crabb Drug Store in Leonard, Tex.
 He had attended Toby's Business College in Waco for six months, a university in Galveston four months and Leonard Collegiate Institute three years before starting at the Leonard drug store.
 In 1907, he passed his examinations in materia medica, pharmacy and chemistry branches to qualify for his license. He was registered in August, 1907.
 He became co-owner of Betts and Clark Drug Store in 1909. In subsequent years, the business was known as Clark's Drug. He later operated the Corner Drug Store, which was located in the building at the corner of Main and W. Third St., which currently is being torn down.
 He was County Commissioner of Precinct Two from 1941 to 1945. Clark often is called upon to serve as judge in various city or county elections.
 He and Mrs. Clark live at 711 25 Mile Ave. They have three children, all of whom live out of town.
 Clark likes to remember the days when his work day required all kinds of chores — from compounding long, complicated prescriptions with raw or base ingredients to mixing up a batch of carbonated water for the soda fountain — but he has enjoyed keeping up with new methods which have been developed in pharmacy during the past half century.

 "Anyone likes progress," Clark explained. "When you enjoy the present and look forward to the future, you don't miss the 'good old days' so much."

NEVER SEE HIS EQUAL NEW YORK (AP)—When Casey Stengel was feted by the New York baseball writers, Yankee General Manager George Weiss said:

"It was my privilege to be with him 12 years in New York. You fellows will never live to see his equal."

Weiss' voice then broke. He has known Stengel since 1924, when both were in the Eastern League. Senior Don Savini paced Columbia's football team in scoring with 26 points during the 1960 campaign.

Hereford Entry In Stock Show

Joe Shultz, a member of the Hereford Chapter of the Future Farmers of America, will exhibit a pen of commercial steers in the Junior Division of the 1961 Houston Fat Stock Show Feb. 22 through March 5. Houston will have the largest show and the largest Junior Livestock Show in the nation. It also boasts the largest amount of premium monies paid anywhere, more than $160,000 to the livestock alone.

There will be the best teams in judging the contests and will present the most trophies. Houston has long held the title of having the World's Largest Calf Scramble.

New records have already been established for this year's show, the 29th annual event.

New in the show will be a sale of Santa Gertrudis cattle. Also there will be selling Herefords, Aberdeen-Angus, Charolais, Shorthorns and quarter horses.

There will be eleven breeds of cattle, eleven breeds of sheep and four breeds of horses shown.

The unique Salt Grass Trail ride will again lead the way to the show from Brenham, Tex. The riding, which will consist of approximately 2,000 horseback riders and 65 chuck-wagons, has been extended to a four-day trip beginning on Saturday, Feb. 18.

The parade, a pageant of the old west, will consist of an estimated 10,000 persons and 150 chuck wagons.

A star of television, "Rex Allen," will sing his way through 19 R.C.A. approved rodeo performances. The handsome "real life cowboy" star will have with him "Koko," billed as the most beautiful horse in the world.

Also performing in the parade will be Johnny Puleo and his Harmonica Rascales with a group of colorful and accomplished trick riders. The latter make their appearance in the Houston show after an absence of 12 years.

Special bus arrangements are being made by the stock show management from downtown garages to facilitate parking. There will be rodeo performances nightly and matinees on Saturdays and Sundays. Reservations can be made by writing the Ticket Director, Houston Fat Stock Show and Rodeo, 3005 Louisiana, Houston 6, Tex.

Louis Machuca

Scout Program Outlined For Optimist Club

Roles played by the various participants in the Scouting program were explained to the Hereford Optimist Club during its noon meeting Tuesday.

Louis Machuca, Scout executive for the Tierra Blanca District, spoke on the responsibilities of the Scoutmasters, the parents and the sponsoring organizations.

"The Scoutmaster should be responsible only for the Scouting program of varied activities," Machuca stated. "But, too often, he ends up assuming various other duties when the committees that back him up fail to function."

The District Committee is supposed to set up the program and make such arrangements as transportation, housing and safety, he pointed out. This leaves the Scoutmaster free to supervise his boys in the program which has been outlined.

"Since the Boys Scouts were chartered by Congress in 1910, the program has not varied from its purpose stated in the original charter," Machuca said. "This is 'to teach boys citizenship training, physical fitness and a duty to God in cooperation with other agencies already established.'"

TOP PITCHING STAFF PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—Clem Labine, who saw action in four World Series as a Dodger and now is with the Pirates says the Los Angeles pitching staff is the best in the majors.

"The Dodgers have the best staff," says relief ace Labine. "They have those hard throwers — five of them — Williams, Drysdale, Koufax, Podres and Craig. And Roebuck and Sherry in the bullpen."

"The Orioles might be second, but not better than the Dodgers."

BY JIMMIE GILLENTE
You get a lot of mixed opinion on the Paul Harvey talk show last Friday evening. Some said it unusually well; others did not care for the talk at all. Everyone pretty well agreed on one thing, though, namely that the deal struck out too long. Most people got in line around 15 - and by 10:45 they were just plain pooped. It looked as if even Mr. Harvey was beginning to wonder if he was going to make it or not. I thought Will Rogers take-offs were best of all. Some of them even sounded like Will, especially the one about coming back.

The two Paul Harveys on the program was a clever idea. I liked our own Paul Harvey, if anyone got mixed up sufficient to give him the $1,200 instead of the radio man. Paul said he didn't. He said they gave the design to the Paul Harvey who had the least hair - and he wasn't even considered. He also did, after being up there before all of those people last Friday night, he well believes the radio Paul Harvey is under-estimated.

"Reading dry goods may be a little slower," declared Hereford's Paul Harvey (the one with hair), "but you at least know what you are talking about."

Clarence Caywood is becoming intensely interested in astrology and horoscopes. It all started when he recently became a father, and someone told him that babies arrive on certain cycles. Clarence noticed that the hospital started filling up right along with the prediction. He says this is hard to ignore. He next read off my horoscope out of an almanac - and decided he really has something. Anyway, it sounded good to me. The almanac said that I am a fine, jovial fellow of tremendous ability, perceptiveness, and personal drive; it says I have a wonderful character, good disposition, and a big heart.

I made a special trip to get an almanac of my own and took it home to read to my wife. She listened attentively, then suggested that maybe I was on the wrong page. Sometimes I wonder how the real heroes shape up in the eyes of their wives and children. I'll bet they get defrosted every once in a while.

Kenneth Cowan got in a dither recently because so many people, including one school class, came to the conclusion that luminous watch dials give off radiation. He got a four-page article by Hanson Blatz, national expert, which covers the field from A-to-Z. Mr. Blatz says luminous watches give off no more radiation than colored china, black bathroom tiles and granite, according to Geiger counter readings; he further indicates no likely hazard for the wearer. If you are further interested, you can get the entire article from Cowan. However, I found it pretty dull and unexciting. Besides, I don't have a luminous dial watch in the first place.

I notice where J. W. Robinson Jr. jumped into the $5- and $10- life insurance bracket - $5 to $10 million, that is. The way I hear it, J. W. is one of the 10 top salesmen in his company, and one of the leading salesmen in the nation as a member of the 1961 "Million Dollar Round-table."

Mike Baird is one of those old boys whose stature consistently improved with acquaintance. The longer you know Mike, the better you like him. Every week, or month, or year, I hear something which Mike has done that makes me appreciate him more than ever before, whereas I am afraid too many of us tend to travel in the reverse direction.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Alexander left Friday on their annual trek to New York, which means "going home" to Irving. They are making the trip by train this year. Irving says there wasn't any argument after they travelled by car in 1960 - and took the children along for good measure. It is hard to say if Hereford is going forward or backward these days. Wednesday workmen were busy tearing down the Dameron building at Third and Main, another crew began demolition of the old courthouse, and workmen were in the midst of wrecking out the potato cellar adjoining Tierra Blanca Creek on South Main. This, incidentally, was the first potato shed built in Hereford and was made possible by a collection on Main Street to get the industry started through a grower's association.

President Bill Decker reports that the Country Club building committee has the green light on construction of a swimming pool. He figures that work should get underway this month - and the pool will be

William Reinsauer, student at Texas Technological College in Lubbock, was one of nine students enrolled in an advanced vegetable production course at completed well ahead of the swimming season.

A sure sign of middle-age: When the first figure a man thinks of is government expenditures.

CONTINUES TRAINING
Harold H. Betzner of Hereford is continuing his technical training at Oklahoma State Tech, Okmulgee, and is enrolled that school to take a week-long tour of the South Texas vegetable industry. The group toured the San Antonio Terminal Market and visited vegetable farms as well as the Texas A&I Vegetable and Citrus Research Center at Kingsville.

A HARD LEFT thrown by Donnie Lesly of Hereford, left, seemingly makes putty of the nose of his opponent, James Morse of Borger, in semi-finals of the Amarillo Regional Golden Gloves Tournament Friday night. Lesly won the 135-pound open division match by a decision. Lesly made his first appearance in the regional gloves tournament as an open division contender Friday. Morse staged a good fight against Lesly but was unable to dodge the wicked left of the Hereford fighter.

A LATIN-TYPE DANCE STEP executed by Hereford's Ronnie Caster seems undecided about the unusual basketball action. The Levelland's Roy Sage (51) leans with the rhythm. Charlie Burrus (30) looks like he's too tired to dance, while Lobos Richard McCann and Kenneth Turner seems undecided about the unusual basketball action. The Whitefaces spent most of their time shooting to capture a 72-50 decision here Thursday. (Staff Photo)

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. What is the best way to wash corduroy?

A. Use lukewarm water and suds, lifting the garment up and down in the water. Rub badly soiled spots with a soft brush. Rinse in clear water and hang up without squeezing or wringing out the water. Shake it occasionally while drying. When thoroughly dry, raise the nap by stroking with a soft brush in the same direction as the ribs run. An automatic dryer is ideal for corduroy, since it fluffs up the nap as it dries.

Q. How can I avoid the formation of scum over my custards?

A. While the custard is hot and before you put it into the refrigerator to chill, cover with some waxed paper or a plastic bowl cover. This will prevent that skin-formation on top.

Q. How can I clean stained kid shoes?

A. Regular cleaning fluid will usually do a good job, but if none is at hand you can use ordinary cuticle remover. Moisten a cloth with it and rub over the spots, which will disappear quickly.

Q. How can I remove rust from a sewing needle or pin?

A. By pressing it, tip first, into a piece of soap. The soap removes the rust and sterilizes the needle.

Q. What do you recommend for "invisible mending" of clothes?

A. The commercial paste-on patches (sold by yard or package) are lifesavers for all sorts of cottons. You press them to the torn fabric with a hot iron, according to manufacturer's directions. Properly applied, these paste-ons withstand quite a few launderings.

Q. How can I remove some fingermarks from my wallpaper?

A. Dampen the fingermarked area with some cold water, then dust on powdered pipe clay or fuller's earth. Remove with a soft brush.

Q. What is the easiest way to raise wooden roof shingles so I can repair or replace them?

A. Use the garden spade. The long, flat metal blade will let you get safely under the shingles. Press the handle down slowly.

Q. How can I remove iodine stains?

A. Try taking finely shaved white soap, moistened with cold water, spreading it over the stain, and allowing to remain for a few hours.

Fabulous February

Reception Honors Frederic Taubes

A reception honoring Frederic Taubes, distinguished American Art instructor, and one of the world's leading authorities in print techniques, will be held Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m. at the Community Center.

The Hereford Art Guild is sponsoring Taubes in a special school for artists Feb. 6-11 and the reception will enable his students and the people of Hereford to acquaint themselves with the artist and his works.

an artist-educator, writer, without parallel. His paintings are in 26 museums and public collections in the United States including the Metropolitan Gallery, San Francisco Museum of Art and many others. He has had more than 80 one-man exhibitions in museums and galleries, 24 of which were held in New York City. He is the author of The Technique of Oil Painting, You Don't Know What You Like, Studio Secrets and many other publications for artists and art lovers.

He is contributing editor to American Artist Magazine, where he conducts the famous Taubes Page. He was formerly contributing editor of the Encyclopaedia Britannica Yearbooks and the Pacific Art Review and also has contributed articles to other publications.

Taubes has served as Carnegie Visiting Professor of Art and Resident Painter at the University of Illinois; Visiting Professor at the University of Wisconsin; University of Hawaii, University of Alberta, Canada; Colorado State College, Greeley, Colorado; and has taught at the College of the City of New York, Cooper Union, the Art Students' League and many other institutions.

In 1948, he was elected Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, London, England. He lectured at the Royal College of Art, the Slade School of Art, London University College; The Camberwell School of Arts and Crafts; The Royal Society of Arts and others.

The public is cordially invited to attend the reception Sunday afternoon for this leading figure in the art world.

Frosh Win 65-41 Game Thursday

BY WAIN MILLER
BRAND SPORTS WRITER

Taking their fifth conference win, the Stanton Freshmen outclassed the Levelland ninth graders to the tune of 65-41 in a fast-moving game here Thursday night. Losing their first conference clash to Estaca do, the Dogies have won the last five.

Stanton hosts Canyon Monday in a non-conference tilt before traveling to Littlefield Thursday in what should be an easy win for the Dogies. Stanton has outdone the Wildcats 63-31 and 49-28 in their two previous duels.

Breaking loose in the second half after a very close first half, the Dogies downed Levelland 65-41 for win number 18. With all five starters hitting in double figures, Stanton came up with its most well-rounded scoring column this season.

Totalling 13 points in the second half, Earl Jackson paced the Dogies with 18 points during the game, while Steve Conaway and Jim Haney claimed 12 each. Eugene Green got 13, and Bill Hill 10. Thursday night's game found Stanton scoring its highest number of points thus far this season, with the five starters teaming up to do all of the scoring for the Dogies.

With the first quarter closing in a 14-all draw, there was only a three-point margin in Stanton's favor at the half. Jim Haney led Stanton with seven points in the first quarter, while Bill Hill and Eugene Green led with four each in the second period. Haney, Earl Jackson, and Steve Conaway all netted two-points to make it 28-25 at the half.

Stanton broke loose in the third quarter to gain a 47-37 advantage over the tiring visitors. The Dogies took advantage of seven free throws along with five field goals to take the lead.

Holding the lagging Lobos to only four points, Stanton racked up a total of 18 points in the fourth period, eight of which were scored by Earl Jackson.

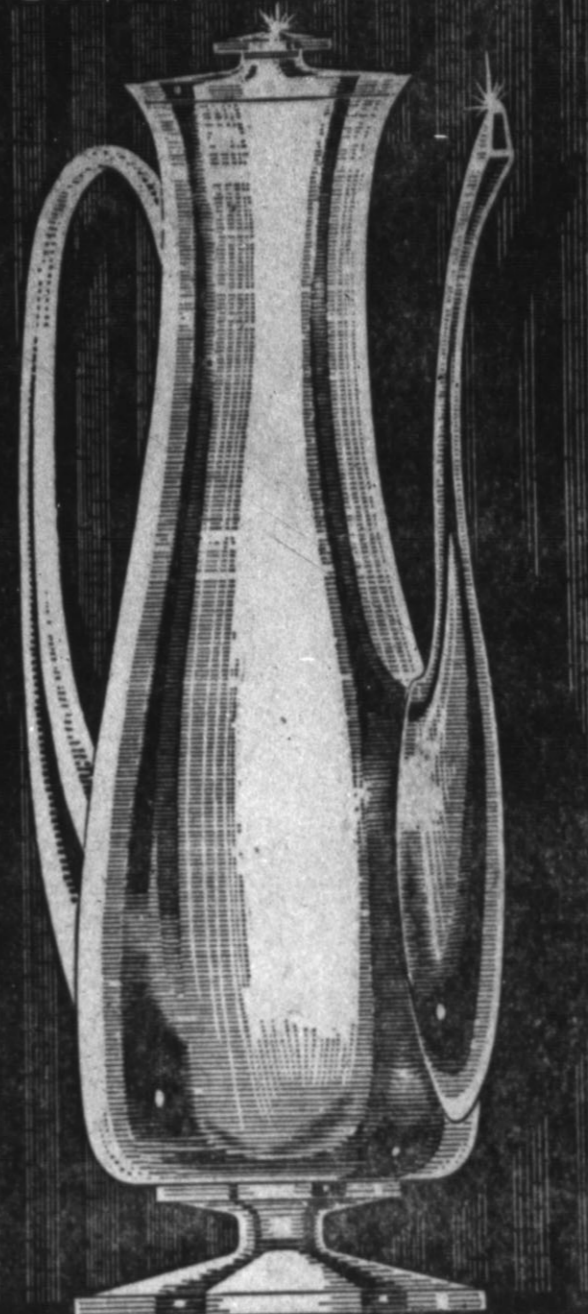

With only three games left, Stanton hosts Canyon in its last home game of the season here Tuesday, with the seventh grade game beginning at 5 p. m.

As evidenced by their outstanding 18-2 record, the Freshmen Dogies have a fine club this year. Basketball fans should remember the game Tuesday if you want to see some exciting basketball action. In their last meeting, the Dogies staged off a fourth quarter rally by Canyon to win 55-51.

B Squad Chalks Up 55-24 Decision Over Levelland

BY WAIN MILLER
BRAND SPORTS WRITER

Limiting their visitors to only five points in the second half, the Hereford Bees racked up a 55-24 tally over the Levelland Lobos Thursday night for their 15th win of the season.

Hereford takes on the young Littlefield Wildcats here Tuesday night at 6:15. With a previous 59-34 win at Littlefield, the Herd should have little trouble in their clash Tuesday. This is the last scheduled home game, so come on out to support the boys who have compiled a 15-5 record.

With a well-balanced attack, Hereford led all the way after a 12-12 count late in the first period. Randy Dowell, Lynton Allred, and Mack Cansler all topped ten points to pace the Herd.

Jumping to a 8-4 advantage with four minutes left in the first period, the startled Herd allowed a 8-3 record with two minutes in the first quarter. The Lobos matched points with Hereford until Randy Dowell sank a two-pointer to regain a permanent lead. Lynton Allred canned one with 30 seconds remaining in the first quarter to make it 16-12.

Lobo Jim McCullough claimed 10 of Levelland's 12 points in the first quarter, but didn't fare so well in the remainder of the game with only one point.

With excellent teamwork in the second period, Hereford netted 11 points, allowing only seven for the visitors. Granting only three points to Levelland in the third stanza, the Herd rolled on to a 43-22 margin.

Managing only one field goal in the final round, the Lobos bowed to a 55-24 shortcoming at the hands of the Herdsmen. Virgil Strange and Mack Cansler scored quick two-pointers early in the fourth quarter before taking time out for Lynton Allred to can a free throw.

With two minutes left, sophomore Austin Hodges scored with a lay-up. Shortly thereafter, Hodges stepped in to intercept a pass from the baffled Lobos and sank another two-pointer for the Herd to make it 53-24.

Jennings finally sank Levelland's only fourth quarter score with 1:30 remaining. David Dowell tossed in Hereford's final two points with 45 seconds to go, setting the final reading at 55-24.

Bay View Has Meet In Gillentine Home

The home of Mrs. Jimmie Gillentine, 507 Star St., was the scene for a meeting Thursday for members of the Bay View Club.

The course of study for the year is "Good Reading" and Mrs. Francis Hardwick, in introducing the study of the 17th century, told members:

"In the 17th century, Europe was torn by political, economic and religious strife. Between the Renaissance and the Age of Reason, came the politically turbulent, intellectually active 17th century."

Mrs. W. S. Kerr discussed the book "The 17th Century Background," by Basil Willey. This publication is a deep study of the thought of the age in relation to poetry and religion.

Mrs. Kerr further developed her subject by discussing the philosophy of Hobbs, Bacon, Descartes and Locke, the scriptural interpretation of Milton and Browne and the poetry of Dryden and Wordsworth.

Those attending were Mmes.

D. H. Alexander, Philip Barkley, H. L. Benefield, Colby Conkwright, C. W. Fisher, Howard Gault, W. J. Gilliland, Francis Hardwick, E. W. Harrison, A. M. Jones, W. S. Kerr, J. W. Kirby, Paul Mathers, R. B. Miller, Eugene NauGLE, J. W. Spradley, Dick Barnard, J. P. Slaton and the hostess, Mrs. Jimmie Gillentine.

HD Club Breakfast Held On Thursday

The North Hereford Demonstration Club was honored with a breakfast Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. W. H. Russell.

Roll call was answered by members with "Why We Should Be Concerned With Radio-active Fallout" and "What I Can Do About Civil Defense."

Miss Roberta Campbell presented an informative program on these two subjects. Mrs. Marie Ward presided over the business meeting.

Those attending were Mmes. Otto Olson, Otto Massie, Mary Botkin, O. L. Williams, Marvin Kendrick, Martin Wagner, Jack Bishop, Paul Hoff, Marty Smithers, R. G. Barrett, A. E. Hodges, A. A. Hare, Fred Barrett, Tony Hoffman, C. L. Whitehead, Nancy Sensabaugh, Frank Brinkman, Miss Roberta Campbell, the hostess and a special guest Mrs. Charles Owen.

TO LONDON, TO LONDON

NEW YORK (AP) — The rights to do a London production of Broadway's new musical, "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," have been acquired by S. A. Gorkin.

The timing of the presentation may depend on whether Dore Schary, the White Way director, can repeat that chore.

Services Held For Resident's Sister

Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Kelton have just returned from Holdenville, Okla., where they attended the graveside services for Dr. Kelton's sister, Mrs. Sam Bagby, Mrs. Bagby, 65, died in Inglewood, Cal.

Survivors include her husband, Major Sam Bagby of Inglewood, Cal.; two sisters, Mrs. Mark Shepherd of Oklahoma City, Okla., and Mrs. Paul Roberts of Oklahoma; four brothers, Dr. C. D. Kelton of Hereford, Bill Kelton of Oklahoma City, Okla., Shird Kelton of Turin, Cal., and Avey Kelton of Inglewood, Cal.; and the mother, Mrs. Ivy Kelton, Holdenville, Okla.

Thank You

May we express our sincere appreciation to each of you who have been so helpful in writing duplicate checks to replace those lost in our recent burglary. We cannot overemphasize the good feeling it gives us to be a part of a community such as this, where people have such a wonderful spirit and sense of values.

By way of reporting our loss to you, we were only partially covered by insurance, and even with the duplicate checks we have been given, we will still sustain a substantial loss. Many of you are still replacing these checks and we are indeed grateful to you. If you have any problem concerning a check, we will welcome the opportunity of discussing it with you.

Seventh Grade Takes 45-35 Win

BY WAIN MILLER
BRAND SPORTS WRITER
Leading throughout the game, the Stanton seventh graders won over Levelland by the score of 45-35. The Dogies now have five conference wins and only one loss to Estacado. Stanton has earned a 10-3 record for the season.
Beginning at 5 p.m. Monday, the seventh graders host Canyon in their last home game of the season. Stanton defeated Canyon 26-22 earlier this year. The Dogies go to Littlefield

Thursday night. The Dogies have already beaten the young Wildcats 45-20.

The Hereford Seventh Grade Tourney will be played here Friday and Saturday, with the Dogies serving as host team.

Jumping to a 18-8 lead in the first quarter, the Dogies had little trouble defeating their visitors. Steve Hodges netted a total of 26 points for the victorious Dogies Thursday night. Hodges canned nine points in the second quarter to lead the Dogies as they moved on to a 29-14 advantage at the half.

Jimmie Young made two as Hodges added four in the third quarter, which found Stanton leading 35-22. Randy Tooley totalled four in the fourth quarter while Hodges canned six more to lead Stanton to a 45-35 victory.

Denver Church Scene Of Wedding Ceremony

Park Hill Methodist Church of Denver, Colo., was the setting for the double ring marriage ceremony of Miss Sandra Jean Slaten and Leonard M. Rowe Friday at 4:30 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Slaten and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Rowe, all of Denver. The bride is the granddaughter of

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Wilson and a niece of W. B. Wilson of Hereford. She and her parents have visited in Hereford on numerous occasions.

The candlelight ceremony was read by Dr. J. Carlton Babbs as the couple stood before an altar flanked by large basket arrangements of white carnations and greenery. A soft glimmer of light was cast from votive lights held in twine seven-branched candelabra. Family pews were marked with giant feathered carnations accented with white satin ribbon.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of white dulcette satin. The princess style bodice featured bracelet sleeves and a circular neckline dipping low in the back. Full blown roses and leaves, exquisitely outlined in satin-lined bugle beads, pearls and clear crystals, decorated the bodice front and was repeated in a wide panel of satin that extended to the hem of the bouffant skirt. Back interest was created by a full court train.

A cascading veil of illusion trailing to the end of the court train was held by a Renaissance headpiece of satin, laced with pearls and clear crystals. The bride carried a bouquet of two white orchids, surrounded by stephanotis. Miss Susan Rowe of Englewood, Colo., was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Mrs. Terrence L. Richards and Miss Deanna Lea Johnson and Miss Brenda Lewis of Denver, Colo., were bridesmaids. The bridal attendants wore identical dresses of holly red velvet and matching hats and shoes. They carried white fur muffs to which were attached cascade arrangements of red carnations and white hyacinths.

Wendell Barry Slaten of Denver acted as his brother's best man. Ushers were Patrick Stout of El Paso, Robert A. Backus of Goshen, Ind., William Read of Denver, Colo., and Fred Boyd, Englewood, Colo.

Following a reception at Lakewood Country Club, the couple left for a wedding trip to various parts of Colorado. Upon their return, they will be at home at 1468 Ivanhoe, Denver.

The bride attended the University of Colorado, where she was a member of Tri Delta, social sorority.

A graduate of the University of Colorado, the bridegroom was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Wilson of Hereford, Mrs. Willis Slaten and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Rowe, all of Denver, the bride's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Hughes of Thousand Oaks, Cal., were among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding.

IN BURK HOME

Farm And Ranch Club Has Hawaiian Lunch

An Hawaiian theme prevailed at a recent luncheon meeting in the home of Mrs. Charlie Burk for members of the Farm and Ranch Club.

The table was laid with a tropical printed cloth and centered with a doll dressed as a Hawaiian dancer. The exotic dishes served during the meal further carried out the island theme.

Mrs. John Hill presented the program on "People and Customs of Hawaii." She told of the theories about who the earliest Hawaiians were and how they got to the islands.

"Nothing is known about the original homeland of the Polynesians, the first settlers of Hawaii," Mrs. Hill commented. "Today, more than half of the people in the territory are of Oriental ancestry; 38 per cent Japanese, 13 per cent Filipino, seven per cent Chinese and two per cent Korean. Many mixed nationalities are to be found." Mrs. Hill also told members of the many different customs of the islanders and the origin of these customs.

Mrs. Phillip Miller won the floating prize and Mrs. Cliff Johnson was welcomed as a new member.

Plans were made for a family Valentine party Feb. 10 at 7:30 p.m. The party will be held in Walcott School. Also announced was the date of the next meeting, which will be Feb. 16 in the home of Mrs. John Hill.

Attending were Meses, John Hill, Phillip Miller, Cliff Johnson, N. E. Tyler, Paul Rudd, Glenn Burrus, Hershel Burrus, Harold Bass, F. B. Sowell, the hostess and two guests, Mrs. Paul Miles and Mrs. J.S. Stocks.

How Can I?

Q. How can I renovate a shrunken thermos-bottle cork?
A. You can usually bring these corks back to normal by boiling them in a covered pan. This sterilizes them, too.

Q. How can I remedy some of our doors which drag or scrape on the floor?
A. Tighten the screws that hold the hinges in place. If they refuse to tighten, fill the screw holes with plastic wood and try again when dry. Of course, if loose hinge-fasteners aren't the answer, you may have to remove the door and plane down the bottom edge.

HAGAR - BATTEY

Double Ring Ceremony Is Solemnized Friday

Double ring wedding vows were exchanged Friday at 5 p.m. in the Dawn Baptist Church by Miss Betty Louise Hagar and Keith D. Battey. The Rev. Charles Davenport, pastor, officiated at the reading of the candlelight service.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hagar of Route 1 and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Battey, 515 Star, Hereford.

The altar space was decorated with a basket arrangement of white gladioli, mums and greenery. The flower arrangement was flanked at either with chiffon completed her wedding costume. She carried a circular arrangement of white carnations atop a white Bible.

The annex of the church was the scene for a reception honoring the newly married couple following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a white cloth over pink and centered with the bride's and attendant's bouquets. The double tiered wedding cake, iced in white and garlanded with greenery and crystalline rosebuds, was placed at one end of the table. The cake, punch and coffee service was presided over by Mrs. Richard Hagar and Mrs. Charles Kemp.

Mrs. Battey was graduated from Hereford High School in 1959 and is employed at Continental Grain Company. The bridegroom served six months with the United States Army and attended West Texas State College at Canyon after his graduation from Hereford High School in 1955. He is engaged in farming at the present time.

Following a short wedding trip to parts of New Mexico, the couple will be at home at 305 Witherspoon in Hereford.

side with candelabrum, each holding seven lighted candles.

Mrs. Carl Wimberley of Dawn played traditional nuptial selections prior to the ceremony and accompanied Ted Wimberley, soloist, as he sang "Because."

Mrs. Charles Kemp was the bride's only attendant. She chose an egg-shell white broad-clothed cotton dress, emphasized with pink shoes and pink chiffon hat. Her bouquet was of pink carnations arranged in a holder.

Miss Rhonda Hagar, dressed in a pink frock of fluffy nylon, was ring bearer. Charles Kemp assisted the bridegroom as best man.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride was dressed in a white broad-clothed two-piece suit. The double-breasted suit-jacket was styled with three-quarter length sleeves, V'd shawl collar and accented with pearlized buttons shot with gold. The skirt flared to street length from unpressed pleats at the waistline. Matching fabric shoes and a white hat veiled

At one tryout performance the three sponsors — Robert Fryer, Lawrence J. Carr and John F. Herman — appeared in the mute legislative group.

Installation Is Held For Rainbow Officers

Majorie Sue Muse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Muse, was installed as Worthy Advisor of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls Saturday evening, Jan. 28, in formal ceremonies held at the Masonic Hall.

With blue, white and silver as her chosen colors and the blue carnation as her official flower, the new Worthy Advisor was installed by her father, George Muse, Master Mas on. Miss Muse's theme is "Love."

Other installing officers included Beth Lemons, Worthy Advisor; Mrs. Gladys Merritt, Marshall; Mrs. Ann Fellers, Chaplain; Beverly Boyer, Recorder, and Lynn Thompson, Musician. Miss Thompson sang "You'll Never Walk Alone" after the Worthy Advisor had taken office.

Mrs. Joe Deavenport, outgoing Mother Advisor, installed Mrs. Marvin Coffey as new Mother Advisor. Mrs. Deavenport also presided over the installation of the Advisory Board.

At the reception following the ceremonies, the table was laid with a white cutwork cloth over blue, centering the table was a circular arrangement of blue carnations, flanked by a crystal punch service and individual cakes, frosted in white and decorated with blue carnations.

New officers for the ensuing term are: Marjorie Muse, Worthy Advisor; Judy Bradley, Worthy Associate Advisor; Sharon Hill, Charity; Joy Story, Hope; Mar'Gwen Lackey, Faith; Linda Kay Allen, Chaplain; Meribeth Gilliland, Recorder; Joyce West, Treasurer; Jan Story, Drill Leader; Cathy Bilbrey, Choir Director; Penny Johnson, Musician; Ann Braddy, Love; Beth Ballard, Religion; Merry Kay Pruitt, Immortality; Linda Kay Martin, Fidelity; Merle Carmichael, Patriotism; Jackie Nunley, Service; Gwendell Bainum, Confidential Observer; Joyce Linderer, Outer Observer; and Mrs. Marvin Coffey, Mother Advisor.

Beauty At Home

Q. I've been told that tweezing facial hairs is not good. Can you tell me why not?

A. Tweezing removes the tissue around the hair as well as the hair itself, and disturbs the natural hair follicle. (For some reason, this does not apply to the eyebrow hairs). After years of tweezing, the follicle may become distorted or bend so that the hair grows inward - which is dangerous! If you are really troubled by facial hairs, it is much better to check with your doctor as to the possibilities of electrolysis for their permanent removal.

Q. What sort of exercise or massage do you recommend for reducing the hips?

A. One of the best is the "fanny walk." Sit on the floor with your legs out straight, arms overhead, holding yourself very erect. The wriggle forward, shifting your weight from side to side 10 times - then back the same way. Repeat the whole thing at least 10 times. This is a good one for breaking down and dissipating those fatty tissues.

Q. For what type of girl is the "oriental" blend of perfume most suited?

A. Since the oriental blends are the most exotic and sophisticated, they're for you if you're spectacular, exciting, intense. Your temper is volatile, your clothes are "different" and dashing, and you cultivate a flare for the dramatic.

Vows Are Exchanged In Chapel Saturday

Soft candlelight illuminated the chapel of the First Christian Church Saturday evening, Jan. 28, as Miss Sallie Sue Kirby of College Station became the bride of John Edward Noakes, also of College Station. The Rev. Gilbert Davis, pastor, officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim E. Kirby, formerly of Hereford but now residing in College Station, are parents of the bride. She was graduated from Hereford High School, where she was named Personality Queen on his doctorate at Texas A&M. The nuptial space was decorated in white, with two seven-branched candelabra entwined with huckleberry and dainty white bows flanking the altar. Cascade arrangements of white gladioli and white stock in tall baskets complemented the candle arrangements.

Wearing a gown of bluish pink imported tulle over candlelight taffeta, the bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. The sculptured bodice of her gown was accentuated by a face-framing portrait neckline which dipped to a deep "V" in front and short sleeves which were met above the elbow by long matching tulle gauntlets. The neckline was cuffed with re-embroidered alencon lace, richly studded with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The free-swinging bell-shaped skirt swept to a graceful chapel length train.

She wore a scalloped veil of illusion, caught at the crown with a lace Juliet cap gleaming with the luster of pearls and sequins. Her bridal bouquet was a white cattleya orchid nestled in stephanotis.

Miss Karolyn Kirby, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress was fashioned with a fitted bodice of pink lace over cerise taffeta, scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The cerise satin of the bouffant skirt was accented by her old-fashioned nosegay of pink sweetheart roses.

Thomas W. Duke of College Station acted as best man and Ben Buglio of Providence, R. I., ushered.

Mrs. John Sims, instrumentalist, provided the traditional wedding marches. She also accompanied Mrs. E. C. Godwin as she sang "Still As The Night" prior to the reading of marriage vows.

At the reception following the ceremony, Miss Ann Kirby, sister of the bride, sat at the guest registry.

Miss Joe Eddy Scott and Miss Clarabeth Holt presided at the cake and punch service. Others in the houseparty included Miss Carlynn Williams, Mrs. Fred Ruland and Mrs. Norman Bookout.

After a short wedding trip through the Southwestern and Rocky Mountain States, the couple will be at home in College Station. The bridegroom is connected with Texas A&M College as graduate assistant in the chemical oceanography department.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilbreath, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gilbreath and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gilbreath of Dimmitt were among those from out-of-town who attended the wedding. Others included Mr. and Mrs. Fay W. Gilbreath and Thomas Duke of College Station, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Curtis of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bookout of Lubbock and Ben Buglio of Providence, R. I.

and Miss Hereford High School. The bride also attended Texas Tech in Lubbock and was graduated from Sam Houston State Teachers College in Huntsville, where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ona Noakes of Binghamton, N. Y., and W. E. Noakes of Walden, N. Y. He received his bachelor of science degree from Champlain College and his master's degree from Syracuse University and Texas A&M. He is presently working

Marches Impress In Living Stereo

BY L. J. KRAMP
"The sound of a Marching Band" is an album that puts all the splendor and excitement of a big brass band into high fidelity speakers, with spaciousness and motion translated by stereo.

The musical content is the usual assortment of Sousa and college and military classics, but the amazingly lifelike sound make this disc, by Medallion, startling to say the least. The trumpets and trombones blare from the left channel; the piccolos and flutes shrill from the right. Then the brass suddenly crosses to the right with a dramatic flourish that gives the music exceptional presence and dimension. The drums sound like drums, too!

In addition, this album was recorded at 120 cadence, or 120 beats, or steps, to the minute. This alone makes it unusual musically, if such selections as college victory songs and "Colonel Bogey" and "76 Trombones" and "King Cotton" do not. Coupled of fine engineering and sharp direction by David Terry, these attributes add up to a record which hi-fi fans will treasure.

Medallion also offers "The Sound of Top Brass," and the "Sound of Dynamic Woodwinds," with the latter the better of these two. All three discs are for stereo fans, since pronounced directionality is the distinguishing feature.

Two other new records of band music are rewarding from a musical standpoint — "Sound Off! Marches by John Philip Sousa," by Frederick Fennell and the Eastman Wind Ensemble (Mercury); and "Famous Marches," by Etrem Kurtz and the Philharmonia Orchestra (Capitol). Fennell's group also offers "Ballet for Band," with selections from Rossini, Gounod and Sullivan, but it is more exciting in the Sousa marches, many of them rarely recorded in modern stereo. Fennell's third Sousa album, following "Marches," and "Marching Along," should be another best seller for Mercury.

The Kurtz album contains such gems as Verdi's grand march from "Aida," the bridal march from Rimsky-Korsakov's "Le Coq d'Or," Meyerbeer's coronation march from "Le Prophete," Chabrier's "Marche Joyeuse," and other famous ones by Tchaikovsky, Berlioz, Strauss and Sousa.

The more restrained British style of band music is reflected theatrically in "British Bandstand," by the Band of the Royal Military School of Music, playing Gilbert and Sullivan tunes; and "The Scots Guard Behind the Footlights," playing selections from "Bitter Sweet," "Lilac Time," "The Geisha" and "The Belle of New York" (both by Angel).

"The Royal Artillery Band on Display" is an encore by the 200-year-old group which won wide favor in a previous best seller, "The Queen's Birthday Salute" (Vanguard). The new one is sonically impressive in stereo with von Suppe overtures and the marches from "Aida," "Faust," and "Tannhauser."

For brassiness and sharpness of sound, a "German Army Chorus and Brass Band" record by London gives a hi-fi rig a good workout, although the musical content — army marching songs sung in German — becomes monotonous after a while. This one got quite a play at the recent New York High Fidelity Show.

Ron Miller, Wisconsin quarterback, led the Big Ten in football with 981 yards on total offense.

Many Upsets Fill Sports Chronology Of 1960

BY FRANK ECK

Newsteaters Sports Editor In recording the sports events of 1960—a year beset with one surprise after another—it might be best to ease into the situation month by month.

JANUARY began with unbeaten Syracuse turning back Texas, 23-14, in the Cotton Bowl. But in the Rose Bowl, Washington astounded Wisconsin, 44-8. Mississippi routed LSU 21-0 in the Sugar Bowl and Georgia beat Missouri in the Orange Bowl, 44-0.

College coaches voted for the return of unlimited substitutions but the NCAA rules committee permitted the unrestricted use of only one substitute. He was called a "wild card." The NCAA barred Oklahoma indefinitely from bowl games and TV football after a booster group refused to open its books.

Paul Pender of Boston gained a split decision over ex-middleweight champion Ray Robinson who hadn't boxed in 22 months. Slugger Jack Jensen quit baseball. The National Football League named Pete Rozelle, 33, a former basketball player, as its 500,000 a year commissioner.

John Thomas raised the high jump mark to 7 feet 1 1/2 and Carol Heiss and Dave Jenkins both won a fourth straight U.S. figure skating title.

FEBRUARY'S scene featured the eighth Winter Olympics at California's Squaw Valley. Carol Heiss, 20, easily won the women's figure skating gold medal and Dave Jenkins, 23, beat the men to match the 1956 feat of his brother Hayes. The U. S. hockey team, featuring goalie Bask McCartan, won the nation's only other gold medal.

Russia won seven gold medals and piled up 165 1/2 points. Sweden finished second with 71 1/2, beating the U. S. by half a point.

A Pekinese, Chik T'Sun, of Caversham, walked off with Best in show honors at the Westminster.

Ohio State, paced by sophomore Jerry Lunceas, turned back California, 75-55, for the NCAA basketball crown. Bally Ache, a horse that cost less than $2,500, won the Rich Flamingo.

MARCH found Boston University sophomore Thomas high jumping to a world record 7 feet 2 1/2, Carol Heiss winning her fifth-straight world figure skating title and the Boston Celtics taking the National Basketball Assn. crown.

Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, 23, a rookie with the Philadelphia Warriors, rewrote the NBA record books, averaging 37.6 points a game with 2,707 tallies. He made a record 1,941 rebounds. He said the opposition was too rough and planned to retire.

The Big Ten ended its 14-year Rose Bowl pact.

APRIL was a good month for shot putters. Hardly a week passed without Army Lt. Bill Neider, Dallas Long, Parry O'Brien or Dave Davis breaking records with the heavy ball. Manager Eddie Sawyer had a premonition about the Phillies. He quit after they lost their opening game. Gene Mauch replaced him.

The San Francisco Giants opened their $15 million Candlestick Park. Stan Musial's comment: "They should have talked to the ball players first." Most National Leaguers called it a wind tunnel.

John David Martin, Oklahoma junior, pole vaulted to a world record 15 feet 9 1/2 inches. John Thomas set a world outdoor high jump mark of 7 feet 1 1/2 inches at the Penn Relays. Husky Arnold Palmer, 30, of Latrobe, Pa., won his second Masters golf title in three years with birdies on the final two holes.

MAY had its surprises. Outsider Venetian Way won the Kentucky Derby by 3 1/2 lengths. Manager Charlie Grimm of the Chicago Cubs and radio announcer Lou Boudreau changed jobs. Bally Ache was sold for $1,250,000. He then won the Preakness. Venetian Way ran fifth.

Don Cardwell, 24, two days after being traded by the Phillies, pitched a no-hitter for the Chicago Cubs against the Cardinals who lost their first 11 road games.

Jim Beatty, 25, of North Carolina ran a 7:58 mile at Modesto, Calif., fastest ever run in the United States. Dyrrol Burleson of Oregon, who ran a 3:58.6 mile in April, finished second.

On Memorial Day at Aqueduct 70,410 fans wagered $5,560,628, a one-day world record. Jim Rathmann, 31, took the Indianapolis 500.

JUNE saw Floyd Patterson become the first ever to regain the world's heavyweight title. He knocked Sweden's Ingemar Johansson unconscious in the fifth round in the Polo Grounds.

Golfer Arnold Palmer shot a final round 65 to total 280 for the U. S. Open title. Bill Hartack piloted outsider Celtic Ash to victory in the Belmont Stakes. Pender outpointed Robinson again.

The Boston Red Sox ordered Manager Bill Jurges to take a rest. A few days later he was replaced by Mike Higgins, the man he succeeded a year ago. Ted Williams hit the 500th home run of his career.

San Francisco Manager Bill Rigney was only four games off the pace but was fired. He was replaced by Tom Sheehan, 66, a scout.

In JULY, Willie Mays got three hits in each All-Star game, the Nationals winning 5-3 in Kansas City and 6-0 in Yankee Stadium.

Three putts on the 17th cost Palmer the British Open. He finished second by one shot to Australia's Kel Bagie. Betty Rawls, 32, won a record fourth National Women's Open and Jay Hebert, 37, took the PGA.

Olympic hopefuls set new marks. John Thomas high jumped 7 feet - 3 3/4 inches in the Trials; Glenn Davis won the 400 meter hurdles in 49.5 and Don Bragg pole vaulted 15-feet-9 1/4.

AUGUST heralded the start of the Olympics in Rome. One of the biggest rubeats developed early when Lance Larson of El Monte, Calif., was clocked first in the 100-meter free style swim. But two of three judges voted and he got the gold medal.

Gary Tobian, 25, Glendale, Calif., won the first gold medal for the United States, taking the springboard dive. Bill Mulliken, 21, Champaign, Ill., and Carolyn Schuler, 17, Berkeley, Calif., won gold medals by taking the 200-meter breaststroke and 100-meter butterfly, respectively.

Army Lt. Bill Nieder broke the Olympic shot put record with a toss of 64 feet 6 3/4 inches. Parry O'Brien finished second, Dallas Long third.

Lew Burdette of Milwaukee turned in a no-hitter against the Phillies and Blaze Hanover won two of four heats to capture the $144,590 Hambletonian at Du Quoin, Ill. Cleveland and Detroit officials fired their managers but it became a job switch with Jimmie Dykes going to Cleveland and Joe Gordon to Detroit.

SEPTEMBER found the United States with 34 gold medals and 564 1/2 points but the Soviet Union collected 43 gold medals and 807 1/2 points in the Olympics.

Chris von Saltza, 16, Saratoga, Calif., swimmer and Wilma Rudolph, 20, leggy Negro from Clarksville, Tenn., starred for the U. S. Chris won three gold medals and Wilma took home three in track. Among the disappointments were Ray Norton in the sprints, John Thomas in the high jump and Harold Connolly in the hammer throw.

Milwaukee's Warren Spahn no-hit the Phils and turned in his 11th campaign as a 20-game winner. Deane Beman of Silver Spring, Md., won the U. S. Amateur golf title, the American Football League went into action and among the collegians the "wild card" rule, permitting a single substitution at any time, brought more field goal attempts.

OCTOBER ended the long baseball season with the Yankees taking their last 15 games to win the American League pennant. The Pittsburgh Pirates copied their first National League flag in 33 years. In the World Series the Yankees were in every game and the Pirates in four. But the Bucs won their four, the deciding blow coming in the last half of the ninth of the seventh game when Bill Mazeroski drove the ball over the left field wall in Forbes Field. Other stars for the Pirates were Vern Law and Harvey Haddix, who won two games each, and center fielder Bill Virdon.

After winning his 10th pennant in 12 years, Yankee Manager Casey Stengel was fired. He was replaced by first base coach Ralph Houk. Kansas City released Manager Bob Elliott, Joe Gordon quit Detroit and hooked on with Kansas City and Lou Boudreau quit the Cubs.

Pittsburgh's Dick Groat and Boston's Pete Runnels won the NL and AL batting titles, respectively. The National League announced that New York and Houston would be added for 1962. Nine days later the AL said it would go to 10 teams, but in 1961. The Washington Senators were moved to Minneapolis. Washington was to get a new team and Los Angeles was eyed in the expansion.

Adios Butler paced the mile in a record 1:54.4 at Lexington.

NOVEMBER went to the footballers with Navy's Joe Bellino, a 5-foot-9 halfback, regarded as the outstanding player. He led the Middies to a 17-12 victory over Army. Yale enjoyed its first perfect season in 37 years. Minnesota was rated the top team.

The United States Golf Assn. decided to return to the 1959 rules with loss of stroke and distance on lost balls and out-of-bounds shots beginning with the new year. Mickey Vernon was named manager of Washington's new team. Baseball rookies of the year were Dodger Frank Howard and Oriole Ron Hansen. Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles had a 71-point basketball night against the hapless Knickerbockers. Bob Scheffing was named new manager of Detroit.

DECEMBER found baseball in a turmoil due to expansion plans. The American League decided to field new teams in Washington and Los Angeles for 1961. Miami, Fla., was shifted to San Juan in the International League and Hawaii was admitted to the Pacific Coast League. San Francisco traded John Antonelli and Willie Kirkland to Cleveland for Harvey Kuenn and Cincinnati sold Billy Martin to Milwaukee. The Braves traded Bill Bruton to Detroit for Frank Bolling.

The United States failed to gain the Davis Cup challenge round for the first time since 1936, bowing 3-2 to Italy in the semi-finals in Australia. Gene Fullmer retained his middleweight title in an unpopular draw with Ray Robinson in Los Angeles. Benny Paret kept his welterweight crown by beating Federico Thompson.

In pro football the Philadelphia Eagles won the National League's Eastern Division title. In the American League, sectional crowns went to Houston and Los Angeles.

A Senate subcommittee delved into boxing and discovered that underworld figures were involved in championship fights.

to a once-thriving one-man business!

Too often, a businessman leaves only problems for his heirs. Here's how Business Insurance from New York Life can help solve them!

When the owner of a "one-man" business dies, much of the value of his business often dies with him.

Even if his wife or children are capable of continuing the business, they must first settle taxes, wages, legal fees, and other debts. Should the family be forced to sell, the business may barely "pay its way out." The work of a lifetime can be lost in a day.

A foresighted businessman can guard against such a tragic loss, can assure his heirs the full value of his business—through Business Insurance from New York Life. Under a proper plan, the family will have the cash needed to 1) settle business debts, 2) offset the loss from disruptions and "shrinkage" in values which follow death, or 3) help dispose of the business favorably.

This is only one of many, many types of Business Insurance New York Life offers. Whether you are interested in protecting your family, company, or employees, it will pay you to talk to me.

TV OPERA STARS: Kenneth Smith, as Mormon leader Brigham Young, and Judith Raskin, as the girl slated to become his 25th wife, have the lead roles in the NBC Opera Company's color telecast Sunday of "Deseret."

First A Tune... Then An Opera

BY W. G. ROGERS
NEW YORK, (AP)—"Unless you can write a tune, you can't write an opera."
That's the conviction of a young man whose first opera, a three-act running almost two hours, will have its premiere tomorrow in an estimated 100 cities before an audience of no one knows how many millions.
"I'm very old fashioned about this, but you've got to communicate without melody," declares composer Leonard Kastle.
His "Deseret," melodic, tuneful, all-American opus about Mormons and plural wives versus the one-woman practice of Christians in general, will be the NBC Opera Company's colorcast salute to 1961 from 3

Minks Watch Son Show Top Steer

BY MRS. T. L. COLLINS
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Minks were with their son, Larry, in Amarillo during most of the Amarillo Fat Stock Show, while Larry was showing his 4-H Steer, "Red."

The steer was judged Grand Champion of the junior division of the show, winning over more than 300 entries. "Red" sold for $2,850 on Thursday at the Junior steer sale. The First National Bank of Hereford added $1 per pound premium to the sale price.

On Tuesday night, Jan. 24, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Minks and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dameron and Mr. and Mrs. Lefty Thomas attended the Panhandle Hereford Breeders' Association banquet at the Herring Hotel in Amarillo.

During the banquet, Larry was presented with a silver covered vegetable dish, inscribed with the championship he had won.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fruit and Merry Kay of Hereford and Bruce Collins attended the rodeo at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show on Wednesday, Jan. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson finished the first semester at Oklahoma State University, Stillwater. They were home four days visiting their parents, other relatives and friends before returning to enroll for the spring semester.

Londell Dale of Hart visited his uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bass and Charles on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. White, Sharon and Shelton made a business trip to Amarillo on Saturday, Jan. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Kirby, Diane, Kay and Larry and W. A.

two divorces. The Kastle-Balley opera centers, with extreme fictional freedom, on a 25th wife. Salt Lake City music lovers like very much what they already know about work; and Maurice Abravanel, Utah Symphony conductor, considered a "Live" performance out there. An off-Broadway production was planned for a time, and even the Russians have asked for the score and formally indorsed it. NBC beat them all to it.

A native of New York, Kastle began his musical career at the piano, and studied at the Juillard, Mannes and Curtis schools. Among his compositions is a violin sonata premiered at the Spoleto Festival in Italy last summer, and he's at work on another full-length opera.

The story of "Deseret" is laid in the Mormon chief's Lion House, in 1862. Kenneth Smith takes the role of Brigham Young, and Rosemary Kuhlmann is one of his wives, Sarah. The girl slated to become the 25th Ann Louise Brice, is sung by Judith Raskin, and Mac Morgan and parts of her parents, John Alexander appears as Capt. James Dee of the Union Army. Peter Herman Adler conducts.

REMEMBER WHEN?
BY CHARLIE SEEDS
He was the man who took a small Indiana college to the crest of football greatness, and made the "Fighting Irish" of Notre Dame a household word. His name was Knute Rockne, the coach of the truly great wizards of the gridiron.
Then, at the very height of his career, came the tragic accident which snuffed out his life. Just a few months before his Notre Dame team, quarterbacked by Frank Cardo, had climaxed a sensational season. For the second straight year the Irish had been named National Champions. No one could beat them. A lot of experts still claim that this last team forged by Knute Rockne was the greatest Notre Dame eleven that ever played.
Remember the black headlines which brought the shocking news of Rockne's death to the world?
Remember the year?
There were other black headlines that year, too... the long lines of unemployed. A man held onto his money... and when he spent it, he made sure he got value for his dollar.

Flag Quiz

Sponsored by the Junior Red Cross

July is the month of a patriotic holiday, but patriotism is a year-round job for every citizen. It is with this responsibility and love for our country in mind that the Junior Red Cross wishes to emphasize the need and importance for all to know and respect the United States flag.

1. The United States flag was used first in (War of 1812, Revolutionary War, Civil War.)

2. The stars on the first flags were arranged (in rows, in a star, in a circle.)

3. The stars on the original flag numbered (20, 13, 24.)

4. The national salute to the flag was written by (Thomas Jefferson, Patrick Henry, Sen George F. Hoar.)

5. The President who proclaimed the first Flag Day was (Theodore Roosevelt, Hoover, Wilson.)

6. When displayed at a speaker's platform, the U. S. flag should be (draped over the platform, above and behind the speaker, on a staff at his left.)

7. When a flag becomes soiled or frayed, it should be (thrown away, cut up for a rug, burned.)

8. "The Star Spangled Banner" was written during the bombardment of (Fort Sumter, Fort Mifflin, Fort Mifflin, Fort Mifflin.)

9. The last two stars added to make 48 stars in the flag were added in (1900, 1908, 1912.)

10. Flag Day commemorates (adoption of the flag, signing of Declaration of Independence, end of Revolutionary War.)

11. On Memorial Day the flag is flown at half-mast (at noon, in the afternoon, until noon.)

12. The first and last stripes on the flag are (both white, both red, one white and one red.)

13. The last two states to come into the United States are (Alaska and Hawaii, Canada and Cuba.)

14. There are (50, 49, 48) stars in our U. S. flag.

15. The stars on the flag are arranged in this manner (5 rows of 6 stars and 4 rows of 5 stars, 6 rows of 8 stars, 7 rows of 7 stars.)

What's New?

By Judy Crume, Carolyn Boynton and Phyllis Warrick

There have been many new additions to school this year. We have in the course of the year received many new items. The first thing which should be mentioned is our new teachers. Teachers new to Junior High this year are Mrs. Hodges, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Ratcliffe, Mrs. Tucker, Mr. Collebon, Mr. Horn and Mr. Kaufhold.

The science classes received a shipment a few days ago of microscopes. They have also received many other new items of equipment throughout the year.

We have some new custodians as most of you know. They are Mr. Tisdale and Mr. Montgomery.

Have you noticed the new curtains in Stanton's auditorium? We now have one of the prettiest auditoriums in Hereford. The curtains are blue velvet trimmed with light gray. There is also a big "S" at the top.

The student body was proud indeed when on Thursday, Jan. 19, the homeroom representatives presented a flag to Mr. Quattlebaum. The flag has a white background and blue letters which say "Stanton Junior High, Hereford, Texas," and in the center is a real Stanton Dogie.

Shortly after Christmas the library received a new set of Encyclopedia Britannica which we students are enjoying learning to use.

The thing that seems to be always new in our school is our supply of new students. We are glad to have you and hope you have come to stay and to help make Stanton a better place for all of us.

Fodder Box

BY LINDA KAY MARTIN
One of the main things of interest around Jr. High is the new flag. It was presented in assembly by Diedra Thomas and Linda Higgins.

The new curtains are another topic of conversation. They are a beautiful blue with a large white "S" at the top of them. It seems that our old auditorium was burst forth into flowers since they were put up.

What would happen if - Linda Lemons were Linda Orange, Kathy Boston were Kathy New York, Kathleen Kuper were Kathleen Safeway, Larry Hill were Larry Mountain, Tex Rhodes were Tex Highway, Cynthia Seeds were Cynthia Plants, Coach Glass were Coach Board.

Roving Reporter

BY ANN ATCHLY

After having nice responses to our questions in 1960, we hope that the same will happen in 1961. Our question this week is, "What is your favorite television program?" We thought for sure someone would say "The Flintstones," or "Huckleberry Hound." But we were mistaken. So here we go.

Robert Higgins, "The Tab Hunter Show," because I like the girls, and some of the things that happen on this program are unbelievable."

Larry Hill, "my favorite television program is 'The Tall Man,' because I like the music in the background and the content of the stories."

Cynthia Seed, "Hong Kong" because I like the guy on the show. I also like 'Adventures in Paradise' for the same reason."

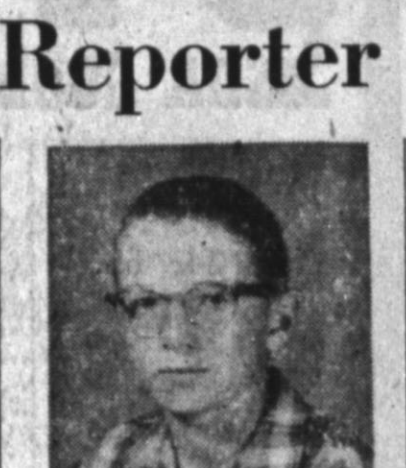

Cheryl Parker, "The Tennessee Ernie Ford Show," because I enjoy watching him; he's a good singer-and has good guests. He can tell funny jokes and I like his hound dog."

Jr. Red Cross In Four Groups

BY KATHLEEN KUPER

The Junior Red Cross has such a large group of volunteers wanting to work this year that they had to be divided into four groups. One group meets each Wednesday.

The safety group met and made up the Walker's Code, a group of laws pertaining to safety.

Leann Petree, "My best television is 'My Three Sons,' I like the little boy best, because he is always in some kind of trouble. I also like the acting of Fred McMurray."

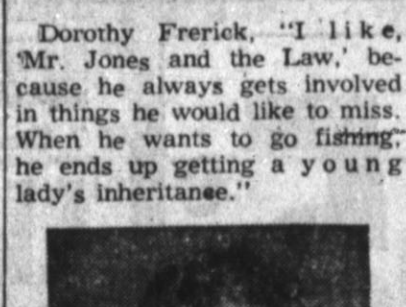

Dorothy Frerick, "I like Mr. Jones and the Law," because he always gets involved in things he would like to miss. When he wants to go fishing, he ends up getting a young lady's inheritance."

Mrs. Kendall Williams is the new eighth and ninth grade science teacher at Stanton Junior High School. She is replacing Margaret Barkley, who resigned at mid-term.

The Williams came to Hereford from Galena Park, Tex. She was born in Lubbock and went to Sam Houston College in Huntsville, Tex, where she received her B. S. degree.

Mr. Williams is the assistant principal.

Mrs. Brown has really been at Stanton Junior High School the longest. When she came here, she began to teach at Stanton, and she is still here. She has classes of eighth grade English and ninth grade general business.

EDITORIAL

How About A New Cafeteria Name?

BY ANN ATCHLY

Those of us who have thought about it will probably agree that our new cafeteria needs a name of its own. Try putting the name and address as a heading on a letter. It has never been officially named "The Stanton Junior High School Cafeteria," which it is frequently called.

Also this name gives the people of our county the idea that it is only for use to the school, but it's not. But, remember, it belongs to the people of Deaf Smith County. This building is not just a cafeteria, a

Students Of Today Are Tomorrow's Scientists

BY LINDA LONDON

Who will be our scientists of tomorrow? We will. We have a very well-equipped science department, and three of the best teachers. So, why not take advantage of the opportunities offered?

Mr. Philip Shook teaches four seventh grade classes and one eighth grade class. His seventh grade pupils are studying physical science (the things around us). Recently they started a new semester, and they are studying about air. They have new textbooks this year with more pictures.

Mr. Shook says that this helps the student to understand better. They are simple equipment such as that found in the home. They also have microscopes, an aquarium, a propane torch, and some very delicate scales. They have weighed air using these scales. All seventh graders take one semester of instruction in science. Mr. Shook enjoys teaching them very much.

Mr. Fred Mercer teaches five eighth grade classes. His students are presently studying about the sun, moon, and artificial satellites. Mr. Shook's eighth grade class is also studying this topic.

A three-inch refracting telescope, planetarium, maps of the Northern and Southern skies and a terrestrial and celestial sphere are just a few pieces of equipment used. The star charts show stars up to the eighth magnitude and well-known constellations. Mr. Mercer thinks we have one of the best equipped science departments he has seen. He has tried other things, but he likes teaching best.

Mrs. Kendall Williams is a new teacher this semester. She thinks we have a well equipped science department, and she likes teaching in it. She teaches four ninth grade classes and one eighth grade class. Her eighth grade students are pursuing the same things as the other eighth grade classes. The ninth graders are studying the A B C's of the atom. They have experimented by testing water pressure at different depths.

Remember, our students of today will be our scientists of tomorrow.

School Pioneers

BY MERLE CARMICHAEL

Recently the question arose as to who had been associated with Stanton Junior High School for the longest period of time, so this news hound proceeded to do some inquiring along these lines.

We found that Mr. Byron Durham, Mrs. C. O. Brown, and Mrs. Eleanor Hudspeth all came to Hereford the same school year, 1946-47. Mr. Durham first taught at Central School, then at Shirley. In 1954 he came to junior high school. He now teaches five classes of seventh grade mathematics.

Mrs. Hudspeth taught in junior high school one year, then she taught at high school for five years. She had a little girl in the first grade, and her high school work involved so many night activities that she asked to come back to junior high. She has been here ever since. Now she teaches classes in eighth grade mathematics and ninth grade general mathematics.

Mrs. Brown has really been at Stanton Junior High School the longest. When she came here, she began to teach at Stanton, and she is still here. She has classes of eighth grade English and ninth grade general business.

New Home Ec. Equipment

BY SHERI ROSE

The new homemaking lab, containing a sewing room, cooking lab, and living room, have a new appearance this term.

At the beginning of the 1960-61 school term, the sewing room was brightened by the addition of new Singer Slantomatic sewing machines.

At the beginning of the spring semester, the cooking laboratory containing six modern kitchenettes, was also further equipped.

Soon the laboratory will be provided with Deluxe 1961 Frigidaire ranges, both gas and electric. Provided for the entire laboratory will be a 1961 Frigidaire refrigerator.

Each kitchenette is enriched by a new set of canisters and a complete setting for four of Triumph china. Other cooking utensils and appliances including Mirro pans, casserole dishes, aluminum mixing bowls, and knives have recently been provided.

Adjoining the sewing room and cooking laboratory is the living room. This room has also been furnished quite recently with a drop-leaf dining table and two matching chairs, a couch, a lamp table and lamp, and two matching arm chairs. The furniture is French Provincial.

F. H. A. News

The junior and senior F.H.A. chapters met Monday, Jan. 23. Mrs. Cope presented a program on what fields of work a person can enter after taking homemaking.

Friday, Jan. 27, the F.H.A. chapters gave a chili and fish supper the proceeds of which will go to help support the Foreign Exchange Student program.

Tuesday, Jan. 31, the F.H.A. girls participated in the March of Dimes program by presenting a skit entitled "Radio Rumpus." The participants were Linda Tooley, Linda Martin, Janice Hagans, Royce Gilliland, Betty Scott, Cynthia Seed, Cheryl Neill, Diedra Thomas, and Kathy Boston.

The freshman homemaking classes has enjoyed this department very much and hope the coming homemakers will enjoy it as much.

Art Classes

Make Posters

The second semester finds our art students busy making posters for the March of Dimes. There is a new class of art I, two classes of art II, one class each of art III and IV, and art I for freshman.

The advanced students are doing pen and ink drawings of animals. Art II is making booklets of Indians designs, monograms, modernistic and border designs. The students in the

Federated Clubs Hold Seated Tea

Mrs. Elmer Patterson, president of the County Federation of Women's Clubs, presided over a Seated Tea Tuesday afternoon at the Community Center. Approximately 55 women attended the tea.

Hostess clubs for the event were Hereford Garden Club, Westway Home Demonstration Club, Music Study Club, La Plata Study Club and Business and Professional Women. All are members of the Federation.

After the introduction of guests, Mrs. Dick Godwin introduced a chorus composed of Mrs. Bobby Williams, Herb Boardman, Paul Lyons, Bill Bradley, Dale Young, Joe Hacker, Bill Stanford and Mrs. Godwin.

With the exception of Mrs. Williams, all are members of Music Study Club. They presented a selection of vocal numbers, including "Because You're You," "All The Things You Are," "The Donkey Serenade," "Let A Song Fill Your Heart" and several selections from the smash hit "My Fair Lady."

Mrs. Elmer Patterson and Mrs. Ray Johnson presided at the graciously appointed tea table, which was laid with a pale pink organza cloth over a deeper pink linen. A stair-step arrangement of pink carnations and greenery in rose goblets formed the centerpiece. Silver trays held tea delicacies and assorted nuts.

Officers of the Federation are Mrs. Elmer Patterson, president; Mrs. Charlie Burk, first vice-president; Mrs. Ed Cox, second vice president; Mrs. Ruth Lee Hickman, recording secretary; Mrs. B. A. Reddell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Wiley Roberson, treasurer; Mrs. Bess Werner, reporter and Mrs. M. T. Rutter, parliamentarian.

The next meeting of the Federation will be April 28, at 1 p.m. at the Community Center. Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr., and Mrs. Guy Newsom will be in charge of the program for the luncheon meet.

Gary Stagner learn whom to walk with at lunch.

Lewis Barnett, Dan Thomas, Mike Ranspot, Gary Siaker stop making so much trouble at dinner.

Lyn Cook be on time to the ball games.

Coach George start speaking to Jo Ann.

Coach Glass let the boys out of athletics earlier.

Mr. Shook not give non tests in science class (particularly fourth period.)

Orchids to the basketball teams for having a winning season.

Onions to people who are late to assembly.

Orchids to the people who present the devotionals.

Onions to people who don't appreciate them enough to attend.

Orchids to Mr. Quattlebaum and faculty for getting the school flag and new curtains.

On Surveying The 'New Frontier'

BY DAVID STEVENS
DOGIE STAFF REPORTER

On Jan. 31 and Feb. 1, the eighth and ninth grade social studies classes of Stanton Junior High School listened to a tape recording of President John F. Kennedy's State of the Union message.

The eighth graders who have been studying the executive branch of the government, listened to the message and discussed it. They plan to refer back to the message as the legislative program of the Kennedy administration progresses.

The freshmen world history classes took notes on Kennedy's message. The world geography classes listened to the message and could take notes if they wished to do so. These notes were taken up and will be graded as extra work.

A few comments of Present Kennedy's speech were collected. Eighth grader Barbara Neff said, "I believe Mr. Kennedy has some good ideas. If everyone does his part the United States will gain in the next four years."

Freshman J. Carter said, "I think Mr. Kennedy was trying to get the people of the United States to become more nationalistic and patriotic. He seems to be ready to preserve the prestige of America through war or peace."

Freshman Judy Wiman said, "I believe that President Kennedy's State of the Union Message was one of the most inspirational I have ever heard because of his understanding and knowledge of the conditions of the world today."

Arvel Williams, another freshman, said, "President Kennedy said some things I don't agree with, but I believe that if we will all support him, America will hold true to its best traditions."

The faculty and student body of Stanton Junior High School would like to take this opportunity to thank two business merchants for the "good deed" they did last week to the school.

Oliver Street of Street Hardware furnished the school with a 23-inch RCA console model television set in order that the students and faculty could watch the President's Inauguration, Jimmy Roberts, of Roberts Appliance, supplied the antenna for the good reception.

Mr. B. H. Baldwin, special education teacher and one of the sponsors of the program, stated that the reaction of the audience was wonderful. He added that he thought this successful program might lead to other events of civil importance.

Mr. W. C. Quattlebaum, principal, stated that seeing such a program on television impressed the student body of the importance of national and world affairs.

Help Our Janitors

BY PEGGY LEE
DOGIE STAFF REPORTER
Have you noticed? We have some new janitors; they are Mr. Tisdale and Mr. Montgomery.

I'm sure these are very nice gentlemen and very patient. They wouldn't desire to stay after school at night or come early in the morning and work as hard as they do if they weren't. Yes, this is their job, but we have a job too. That is to help them as much as we can without getting in the way, which is pretty easy to do considering the havoc in the halls before and after every period. This is whether you know it or not, pretty disgraceful and uncomfortable. Time after time we've heard, "Stay to the right." I'm beginning to think some people don't know their right from their left, or better yet don't care!

It's almost pathetic to watch our janitors going up and down the hall with broom in hand trying to clean up our messes. So I've discussed my points: help our janitors and stay to your right. If you do, you'll have a clear conscience and you will get to your classes on time.

GIRL LEARNS EARLY
DENVER (AP) — A Denver father was disturbed to learn, in a meeting of parents with the kindergarten teacher, that his 5-year-old daughter was the only one in class who didn't know how to tie her shoelaces. When he asked her about this, she said: "I don't tie my own shoes at school because the little boys tie them for me."

Bob Scheffing, new manager of the Detroit Tigers, got his start in the major leagues when the Chicago Cubs drafted him from Rochester, N. Y., after the 1940 season.

Why Do So Many People Want General Sales Tax?

If you had stopped 10 people on the streets of Hereford 10 years ago and asked if they favored a general sales tax in Texas at least 99 out of 100 would have said "No". Indications today are that at least 89 out of the 100 would now say "Yes".

This assumption is based upon actual figures from a recent Chamber of Commerce survey on methods of state financing. From 100 reply cards, 89 voted in favor of a general sales tax, seven wanted an increase in selective sales tax, and one favored the gross payroll tax, sponsored and so ardently supported by Gov. Price Daniel.

In addition, the Commissioners Court of Deaf Smith County voluntarily went on record and authorized the County Judge to write Austin that their group favored "a general sales tax in lieu of the proposed payroll tax."

If you find the attitude of these Texans in favoring a general sales tax is unusual, just stop and consider the sources from which these opinions were derived. Chamber of Commerce members, for the most part are merchants and farmers. The Commissioners Court is composed of at least 50 percent of farmers, and probably represents the stronger "farm thinking" in the area. Certainly, not one single person in either group would personally be required to pay taxes under a payroll tax plan. If these people, not effected by the payroll tax, favor a general sales tax which would include themselves, how do you think the working man — the fellow who would pay the extra tax — would vote?

The $64 question, though, centers around "why" would these particular people favor a general sales tax. No one will have the complete answer, but we would like to speculate.

The merchant probably sees it this way: he operates a business employing let's say 12 to 18 people; time after time, he has noticed that of this group only one, two or three persons pay any taxes at all — and generally, the ones who never pay any taxes are the ones who send the most children to school, demand more frequent police protection, and least often pay their full hospital expenses. The farmer can point to an even higher ratio of non-tax payers through his employment of seasonal labor, which often runs into the 50's and 100's.

While the merchant and farmer cannot help but notice this circumstance, members of the Commissioners Court get an even more graphic picture of injustice. They know that the influx of migratory labor has tripled and quadrupled the costs of our schools, sheriff's department and hospital. What it has done to our welfare department they do not even like to think about. Yet, these people compose a vast majority of the army of non-tax payers in Texas.

The man who pays federal Withholding Taxes is, on the other hand, the most maligned and mistreated citizen in the United States of America today. He is the one tax payer who is already doing his share, and possibly more. He is the one tax payer who suffers most.

When you consider additional taxes from these viewpoints, it is not surprising that these particular people would favor a general sales tax. It is the only equitable and just way out of a difficult situation, chiefly because ad valorem taxes are already fairly stiff to meet.

The Brand joins the group in recommending a general sales tax to our Legislature, but with one reservation. We honestly feel that all revenues from this source should be earmarked, preferably for exclusive use in our schools. This would leave present taxes paid into schools for other purposes and, as time passes, it might eliminate some new and different tax threat. Otherwise, it seems to us that our state officials might go on a spending spree and be back yelling "Wolf" in a year or two.

Besides, it would be much easier to turn loose of a penny each time we bought a loaf of bread — if we knew that those pennies were going to the education and general improvement of the boys and girls of the Lone Star State.

Boot-Strap Days Are Here Again

Most people we see appear enthusiastic in their accord with President John Kennedy's foreign policy recommendations, and more especially strengthening of America's stand in the "cold war." Some of his domestic recommendations, however, appear more controversial.

The proposal, for instance, to increase unemployment benefits through additional collections from employers is a good example. Such a plan, instead of helping business, as he proposes, must ultimately leave employment and business in a far worse condition than we find it today. And the situation applies to farming as well as industry.

Any increase in unemployment benefits will not be paid by the employer, as Mr. Kennedy indicates, but by the consumer. Such benefits will become a part of the cost of the product, manufactured or grown, and will appear in the form of higher retail prices. The employer will merely act as a collection agent.

One reason we already have so much unemployment in this country can be traced directly to the expense of American made goods as compared with imports from Japan, Germany, and the Scandinavian countries. We have to charge more than these competitors, because we have such high taxes, high salaries and so many fringe benefits. When we add additional unemployment taxes, we are forcing our prices still higher. Is this the way to meet competition which is already creating the present unemployment situation?

To convince yourself of this fact, look through the stocks of hardware, dry goods, variety stores, toy stores — in fact, almost any store in Hereford, Amarillo, Friona, Dimmitt, or other U. S. town. People do not buy these imports because they are better. Instead, they buy the imports because they are often 50 percent lower in price, and the situation is far worse in foreign nations in which the United States competes for the world market.

If people are hungry, they should be fed in this land of plenty. This Kennedy theory is one with which we wholeheartedly agree. Would it not be far better, however, to feed these people out of some government tax fund in the name of charity — which it really is — than to hamstring the future of American business with handicaps which can do nothing more than create additional unemployment?

Franklin Roosevelt met an even greater emergency with soup kitchens and relief lines, but he was wise enough to give American business the chance to recover and compete on the world market. And our nation did exactly that.

Americans are willing and ready for fight in the war, "cold" or "hot", in the name of freedom and democracy. When the war is over, however, we would like to return to the American way of life, based not on socialism, but on free enterprise, reward for ability, energy and know how.

America is perfectly capable of pulling herself up by her bootstraps, but once we get the boot on, it would be a great disappointment to find that someone had carved away the entire sole of the boot.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

"No one could tell me where my soul might be. I sought for God, but God eluded me. I sought my Brother out, and found all three."

These lines, expressing the faith of a little known American reformer of the last century, Ernest Howard Crosby, lived to transform the lives of Allied prisoners in the Japanese Changi camp on the River Kwa Noi in Thailand during the last war.

Voiced by a corporal to whom the author was unknown, the lines inspired starving, diseased, depressed prisoners to become hopeful men with inner strength. They built a bamboo church, established a jungle university, formed teams to voice encouragement, teams to massage wasting muscles. Craftsmen made artificial limbs, botanists, drugs. Men shared food they had fought over before. And they forgave the enemy guards and soldiers who had trespassed against them. Such is the power of faith.

PROPOSE CHAPEL AT HOSPITAL

Mentally Ill Derive Strength From Faith

(Editor's note: The following talk was made Tuesday by Mrs. George Turrentine of Westway at a district training meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association in Wellington. She discussed the need for an All Faiths chapel at the state mental hospital and urged that the THDA make it a major project for the year.)

RELIGION AND MENTAL ILLNESS

"I was astonished to learn that the national figure shows that one out of every ten individuals will require psychiatric assistance during his lifetime. This means that every family will be affected in some way by mental illness; whether it is every fifth or fourth family which is personally involved with a mentally-ill relative or whether it be a friend or a neighbor down the road or someone else in the community.

"There have been many misconceptions about mental illness. According to the earliest writing, we learn that mental illness was always seen as the result of evil spirits or demons possessing the soul of man. The treatment of the illness in ancient times consisted of offerings to the gods, spells and incantation.

"Our attitudes as individuals, as families, and as communities, have changed toward the mentally ill over the centuries. The most important changes have occurred within the last ten years.

"We now have different ideas and treatments for our mentally ill. Good mental hospitals are discharging about 80 percent of their new cases, as compared with about 65 percent ten years ago. Many of these included in the 80 percent are released within one to three months.

"This is the result of earlier hospital admission, intensive care and improved hospital attitudes and surroundings. The earlier hospital admission has been brought about because we are no longer ashamed of our mentally ill, but rather, more interested in seeing them live normal lives again and because mental illness is being recognized earlier by more alert family doctors.

"Some remarkable changes have taken place within the walls of these institutions in the last five or six years. Physically, they are much more attractive and homelike. They are cheerful, with brightly-painted walls, comfortable furnishings and television sets in nearly every ward. Old-fashioned bars on the windows have been replaced with modern psychiatric windows and screens. The use of restraints and locked rooms has been cut to a minimum, and in some institutions abolished completely.

"Probably the greatest and most important change that has taken place in mental hospitals is that of the hospitals' attitudes. There is a more permissive and trustful attitude on the part of the staff toward the patients.

"But still the mentally ill and the disturbed ones need more compassion and more understanding. Sometimes, God is all they have, and they must be encouraged to reach Him. They need help and the religious ministry, to the mentally ill, also need help.

"They would be greatly aided by the erection of All Faiths Chapels on the grounds of our (Continued on page 5)

SNOW IS FIRST 1961 MOISTURE

First moisture of 1961 moved into the county late last week in the form of light snow, accompanied by bitterly cold nighttime temperatures. Approximately one inch of snow was left on the ground early Saturday morning after intermittent snow fell Thursday night and during the day Friday. Moisture content of the snow was relatively light, however, with .13 of an inch received here from the mild storm. However, the snow did bring the first measurable amounts of moisture in the past few weeks and for the new year. Cold accompanied by the snow dropped temperatures to a frigid eight degrees on Wednesday and to identical marks of 10 degrees for both Thursday and Friday. High recorded Friday was 21 degrees. While the snow received a relatively quiet welcome from area farmers, it did create slick conditions in the city, particularly in intersections. However, only one traffic mishap was reported Friday by the Dumas Police Department. North of Dumas on U. S. Highway 287, the icy conditions were blamed for a minor accident in which a city man escaped injuries after his car overturned 2 times.

POLL TAX DEADLINE

Will you have a vote in 1961? The number of people in Andrews County who can answer "yes" to this question is limited to less than 2,000 today, according to figures in the office of the county tax assessor-collector. By the end of the week, only about 1,490 persons had purchased a poll tax receipt and another 215 had picked up an exemption. Tax assessor-collector Floyd Peacock reminded Andrewsians that only two days remain to obtain a current poll tax. When this office closes on Tuesday, the door also closes on any further opportunity to assure your privilege to vote this year. Because last year's federal census figures put the population of Andrews over 10,000, a law goes into effect regarding exemptions for persons over 60 years of age. Now, residents who were 60 years of age or older by January, 1960, must pick up an exemption certificate before they will be allowed to vote. In the past, only proof of age was necessary. Although this is considered an "off" election year, at least three elections have been scheduled for 1961 of interest to residents. Statewide, the important special election to elect a U. S. Senator is scheduled for April 4. This election was made of even more local interest with the entrance into the race of this area's state representative, Wesley Roberts.

CITY PLANNING PROJECT STARTS

Homer A. Hunter Associates of Dallas, engaged by the City of Dalhart to develop a Comprehensive Dalhart Plan, has started preliminary work on an economic study, one phase of the comprehensive plan. D. C. Blanton of Dallas was in Dalhart to get the preliminary economic study work under way. It will attempt to devise a pattern for community development that will result in the greatest possible benefits for all concerned. The economic study phase of the plan will be concerned, among other things, with indicating the kind of industrial development that is best suited to this area.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm stands up for his principles this week, which is hard to do from a sitting position.

Dear editor:

A town friend of mine I hadn't seen in a long time dropped by to see me out here the other day and he got to looking the place over and finally he said, "Why don't you modernize things around here a little? This is 1961 we're living in, not 1932."

Well, I know what year it is, I've got a calendar, that's one of the splendid things about democracy, one man's calendar is just as good as another's and the man with 500 is no better off than the man with only one, but I didn't say anything, just sort of laughed apologetically as though maybe I would, although the truth is this place suits me like it is.

Well, maybe not exactly like it is, but the amount of work it'd take to make it more modern isn't worth the difference.

Moreover, what's modern is something that's hard to put your finger on. At the very moment you buy a new model, branded 1961 and made only two hours ago, engineers are off in a corner somewhere scheming up a newer model to replace the one you just bought.

Sometimes it seems to me there's no use in getting something new, there'll be something newer out tomorrow. For example, take refrigerators. I've always contended that a refrigerator, when it manages to maintain a temperature of around 36 degrees, has reached its full purpose, and anything below that is ridiculous. Refrigerators have been doing this for years, maintaining the right temperature 24 hours a day, but they're still bringing out new models.

I've got me a refrigerator out here on this bindweed farm, but if I bought a new one, it'd be out of date 12 months from now, and if you're going to be out of date 12 months, you might as well be put of date 15 or 20 years. An ex-convict is an ex-convict, whether he served one year or twenty-five. My notion is that the time to buy a refrigerator is when you haven't got one or the one you've got plays out.

Some people say this theory is bad for business, that it'd stand in the way of progress and mass production. This is because they don't have enough confidence in business. Business, as I see it, will always manage to sell the consumer a little more than he can pay for, regardless of what bracket he's in. If I ever get through paying for my 1939 tractor, I'm going to buy me a new one.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Officers Are Installed By Canton Auxiliary

Hereford Canton and Ladies Auxiliary Patriarch Militant No. 36 held an open house meeting and dinner for their joint installation Friday night at the I.O.O.F. Temple, Lady President Cora Lee Loving and Captain A. R. Rogers presided.

The tables were arranged in a "T" shape and were covered with white table cloths and vases of yellow daffodils were placed on purple doilies at intervals in the center of the table. An arrangement of yellow daffodils in a purple receptacle flanked by yellow candles was the center piece on the head table. Gold, purple and white, the Auxiliary colors, were carried out in the table decorations by Lady Anna Conklin.

After the serving of dinner, the installation of officers was held. Those on the installing team were Lady Thelma Gage, past president of the International Ladies Auxiliary Patriarchs Militant of the World; Raymond Gage, Past Grand Master of Texas, both of Circle Back; Lady Ona Berry, Lady Allie Snyder, Chevaliers Frank Snyder and Tom Berry of Muleshoe.

aide to president; J. B. Williams, left aide to president; R. E. Barrett, right aide to vice-president; Ruben Mayfield, left aide to vice-president; Elmer Combs, right aide to president; Janey Hopson, left aide to past president; Wallace Shelton, right aide to chaplain; Dwain Pittenger, left aide to chaplain, and team captain, Ben Conklin.

Canton officers are: J. B. Williams, captain; Wendell Morton, lieutenant; Ruben Mayfield, ensign; Ben Conklin, clerk; Dwain Pittenger, accountant; W. D. Natzger, guard; A. N. Hopson, chaplain; Guy Lawrence c, banner bearer, Wallace Shelton, sentry, and A. R. Rogers, picket.

A Past President's pin was presented to Lady Cora Lee Loving by the Auxiliary. The next meeting was announced for Feb. 3.

Up In the Air

BY BENNY WOMBLE

We have had considerable activity locally at the airport. Neil Cooper and Frank Longhofer have soloed since last time. Their shirt tails now adorn the office wall along with those of many more who ventured forth by themselves previously.

Some people think of soloing as a first step in learning to fly. Others seem to think that the instructor finally got fed up and crawled out of the airplane and the student then has to solo. In all seriousness, I imagine there are times when an instructor might just do this. Congratulations, Neil and Frank.

We understand that Mrs. Neil Cooper is learning to fly also and has about three hours already. A wife who can fly can really help out on a long trip and give the husband a chance to stretch his legs.

In my own case, my wife frequently flies as much as I do when we go somewhere. I think more women should learn to fly as they will enjoy it just as much as their husband.

By the time you read this, Doc Adams and Curtis Tra-week and party will be winging their way toward Mazatlan, in old Mexico. They are using the Blac-Air-Service Skylane and plan to do some fishing. Personally, I will be surprised if these old boys are much fishermen. Maybe the airplane won't be too overloaded to bring their catch back.

The Blac-Air-Service Skylane has been busy recently on charter and rental. It has made two round trip flights to Tyler this last week. It has also been to Midland a couple of times recently. Friday, it was flown to Abilene, Tex., on a charter trip.

Last Sunday, my family had a get together in Roswell, N. M., in honor of my oldest sister, Mrs. L. E. Hinrichsen of Hagarman, New Mexico, on her birthday. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Baker Womble, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strain and Wesley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson and Lynn, Ethel Womble, Carolyn Williams and my immediate family. We flew down and had a real nice visit and returned after dark.

Seen in the pattern: Roger Osborn home from college flying the Luscombe, J. V. Campbell in his Tri-Pacer, Dr. Owens flying the Cessna 120.

Jackie Allmon is a new student recently. As the weather warms up, there are several interested people who will probably start learning to fly.

Howie Stethers, who played freshman football at Syracuse during 1960, is one of the most sought-after southpaw pitchers in the east.

SCREAM SCUTTLES SNAKE

DENVER — A woman screamed—and that did it. Dr. A. M. Bailey, director, promptly ordered the removal of a glass case of live rattlesnakes from the Denver Museum of Natural History.

The case had been installed just the day before, close to another exhibit that shows an antelope — stuffed — startled by a coiled rattlesnake — also stuffed.

More than 500 visitors viewed the live snakes behind the glass barrier the first day. Then an elderly woman walked in, took one look and screamed.

Pete Chudy of Synder, N. Y., 6-foot-4 senior on Syracuse's basketball team, is a southpaw.

HOME STUDY CENTER

Many sincere people regard the Bible as the sole authority for Christian belief. And they reject the teachings of the age-old Catholic Church because these teachings and forms of Catholic worship are not mentioned by name in Holy Scripture.

"Where," some will ask, "does the Bible say anything about the Mass or Purgatory? And how about confession to a priest, praying to Mary, and those seven Sacraments Catholics talk about. They're not in MY Bible."

Catholics say that their teachings are found in the Bible. She teaches nothing that is not found in Sacred Scripture. If you wish to know more about Catholic teachings, write for a free pamphlet explaining the Catholic Church. Write to: Home Study Center, Box 5644, Amarillo, Texas.

Without obligation, please send free pamphlet.

mental hospitals. Religious faith is a source of strength and hope for the sick person in the hospital, just as it is for those of us in our own communities.

"Tax money cannot be expended for chapels at our state mental hospitals.

"With all this taken into consideration, our Safety and Health Committee had to foresight to recommend to our 36,000 Home Demonstration women of Texas that each club in each county contribute to the All Faiths Chapel to be built in Texas.

"It is with this that I ask each of you to urge your clubs, in your counties, to give generously to the fund."

Also attending the meeting from Deaf Smith County were Mrs. T. J. Parsons and Mrs. H. L. Hershey of the Progressive HD Club and Mrs. Argen Draper, county agent.

PIGS EXONERATED

WILMINGTON, N. C. — Three pigs, awaiting use in a pathology laboratory, were naturals to take the blame for an offensive odor which spread through a nearby ward at James Walker Memorial Hospital here.

But hospital authorities found the three pigs blameless when they discovered a sewer line broken in the basement of the building.

Local Housewife Displays Unusual Spoon Collection

BY MONA JETTE
BRAND WOMEN'S EDITOR

Every one is familiar with the armless figure of Venus de Milo. But how many have ever seen this timeless beauty carved as the handle of a dainty demitasse spoon?

Such a spoon is just one in the interesting collection owned by Mrs. B. E. Roberson, 125 Ave. C. In this collection are over 200 spoons from all over the world and cast in honor of many famous men and national monuments.

Opal Roberson started this collection by chance in 1938. She bought a spoon in Yellowstone National Park in Wyoming while vacationing, little knowing that it would be joined over the years by spoons from 27 foreign countries and nearly all of the 50 states.

In 1945, her husband bought a small collection from a man in Abilene for Opal, this starting her on a hobby that would give her many years of pleasure.

"When I started out with that one spoon, I had an idea it would make a nice collection but I never thought it would lead to all this," said Opal, with a wave in the direction of her display case.

The display case itself is unique. It used to be an old pie display case, of the type used years ago in cafes and restaurants. Standing four feet high, the sides are made of glass, with the molding and bowed legs cast in heavy iron.

"We lined the back with mirrors and added some glass shelves. After the molding and legs had been painted gold, it was just what I needed," she commented.

Opal has lined the shelves with deep red velvet. The shimmer of the gold and silver spoons against the dark background make a pleasing reflection in the mirrors and add to the beauty of the Roberson's Victorian furnished living room.

B. E. shares his wife's interest in the spoon collection and encouraged her a lot in finding unusual and rare pieces.

Several are of copper and some have solid gold bowls. All are different; in the collection there is not one duplication.

One spoon features the skyline of New York in bold relief as the handle. The bowl is etched with the city's name.

Many of the spoons from Europe have the country's official emblem enameled on the handle and most of the state spoons feature the outstanding attractions of that state.

Florida, for instance, uses a cutwork design of oranges, the fruit painted in a color-

"THAT ONE IS from Canada," Mrs. B. E. Roberson comments as she points to one of the many spoons in her interesting collection. She started collecting demitasse spoons in 1938 and has been helped by her husband and friends as they constantly make new additions to the accumulation from 27 countries and nearly all the 50 states. (Staff Photo) ful enamel, Washington, D. C., has a picture of George Washington in the bowl, with a hatchet and cherry tree on the handle.

One especially interesting has a cut watermelon enameled in the bowl, and is complete down to every last detail, including the rind, seeds and meat. On the handle is the picture of a grinning little darkie, licking his lips in anticipation of good things to come.

Opal and B. E. moved to Hereford from Summerfield in 1950. They have one daughter, Mrs. Clifford Galley. Their son, Wendal, died in 1949.

Opal has been active for many years in several of the local women's clubs, but now confines her club activities to the Garden Beautiful Club and work in the Order of the Eastern Star. She is a past matron of that order and a past Grand Deputy for the State of Texas.

Superintendent of the Intermediate Department of the First Baptist Church, she has worked with this age group for 30 years. "But my real loves are china painting and sewing," Opal confessed. "I'm proud of my spoon collection, but it doesn't occupy my time like these other hobbies."

She walked around her living room, pointing out dainty demitasse cups and saucers beautifully handpainted. Her favorite is a punch set, painted in a realistic grape and leaf motif, complete with matching cups. This set is in constant demand and has been loaned out for numerous occasions.

She spends a good deal of time in sewing and crocheting. Her crochet needles have clicked merrily through the making of countless hats and other articles of clothing. She worked many hours before Christmas making doll clothes for her granddaughter's Chatty Kathy doll.

Everyone is familiar with the old saying "She was born with a silver spoon in her mouth." If you hear of such a case, be sure and contact Opal Roberson. She would want to add it to her collection.

Senior quarterback Jack Kinderdine of Miamisburg, Ohio, set a Dartmouth record by completing 81 passes during the 1960 season.

Eighth Graders Drop Levelland

BY WAIN MILLER
BRAND SPORTS WRITER

Gaining an early lead, the Stanton Eighth Grade Dogies downed the Levelland Loboes 48-36 here Thursday night for their fourth conference victory. The Dogies have a 16-4 mark for the season.

With only three games left, the Dogies host Canyon here Monday before going to Littlefield on Thursday for a conference battle. The Dogies outclassed Canyon 40-24 earlier this year, and have defeated Littlefield 41-24.

Stanton edged out the Loboes at Levelland 19-18 Dec. 15, but the visitors offered less resistance in Thursday's meeting. Stanton jumped to a 18-6 lead during the first quarter.

Robert Strange set the pace with 14 points, followed by Frank Cain's 12 points, and Lynn Cook's nine points for the Dogies. Strange scored six in the second quarter to lead the Dogies as they maintained a 28-18 lead.

Stanton retained a safety margin in the third stanza

ANNUAL MEETING HELD

Credit Union Observing Silver Anniversary Year

Hazardous weather conditions clashed with the annual meeting of Hereford Texas Federal Credit Union Jan. 24, but about 200 members and 50 guests attended in spite of snow-covered roads in this area.

Hereford Credit Union is commemorating its silver anniversary year through out 1961, it was pointed out by Mrs. Dyalitha Benson, treasurer-manager of the savings and loan institution in Hereford.

Credit Union president Robert L. Thompson presided at the business meeting. Directors re-elected were A. J. Schroeter and O. L. Bybee for three-year terms.

Elton Malone and A. N. McRight were elected for three-year terms on the credit committee. Charlie Owen was named first alternate member of the credit committee, Gaylord Newell was elected to the supervisory committee for a three-year term.

Buford B. Lankford of Dallas, regional representative of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, spoke on the future of the Credit Union movement. He emphasized the citizenship responsibility of members of the Credit Union.

Director of the First National Bank of Hereford, Earnest Langley, a local attorney, substituted for Henry Sears, president of the First National Bank, in giving a talk on "25 Years

"MOTHER PAINTED AGAIN" GALESBURG, Ill. (AP) — Old Mother Bickerdyke, a statue of the famous Civil War nurse on the Knox County courthouse lawn, again was daubed with green and red paint.

Officials say the identity of the vandals is unknown.

The last time a paint job was done on Mother Bickerdyke, Monmouth College students in a feud with Knox College took out their vengeance with paint brushes.

Officials made them scape and wipe until every speck of paint disappeared.
