Herd B team was to tangle with Dimmitt, winner over Vega.
Championship game was to match the winners of those two games at 8:50 p.m. Saturday.
Four players hit in double figures for Hereford. Carl Miller got 20, of which 12 came at the free throw line. Dennis Hodges got 15, Charlie Burrus garnered 12 and Ronnie Caster got ten.

After a comparatively slow start, Hodges and Miller sparked Hereford to a 14-point quarter, while Friona was limited to five points on one field goal and three charity tosses.

It was more of the same in the second quarter, as the Herd whipped in 20 points and held the Chiefs to nine counters.

A 23-point scoring spree in the third quarter gave Hereford a wide 57-19 margin at the start of the fourth period.

Trying out a new offense, in the final period, Hereford still whipped in 15 points. But the Chiefs rallied for 17 to close the gap very slightly.

109 Fire Calls Made Last Year

Hereford Volunteer Fire Department during 1960 received fire calls from 109 locations in the city and Deaf Smith County, it was announced Thursday by Hereford Fire Marshal Clay Angelo.

Losses of property or personal belongings attributed to fires amounted to about $26,000, Angelo estimated.

Twenty-eight of the calls were in rural locations. The siren was sounded 48 times during the year, and 61 minor fire calls were answered by Angelo with the aid of one or two Hereford volunteer firemen.

There was no fatality due to fire this year, and only one injury was attributed to fire.

In 1959, fires were reported in 87 city and county locations. That year, the siren was sounded 40 times. Of the 87 calls, 24 were in rural areas.

Loss due to fire amounted to about $37,000 in 1959. That year, a 12-year-old boy died in a fire which broke out in his family's home south of Hereford.

For a time in his early radio career, Paul Harvey managed a radio station in Salina, Kan., doing every job. He later did news broadcasts in Oklahoma City and then went to KXOK in St. Louis as special events director.

According to Harvey, his most important experience in St. Louis was meeting Evelyn Cooper, now his wife. Known as "Angel," she is a Phi Beta Kappa with BA and MA degrees from Washington University in St. Louis.

Harvey went to Hawaii for special broadcasts when the Navy concentrated its fleet in the Pacific in 1940. Subsequently, Harvey was director of news and information for the Office of War Information for Michigan and Indiana before his enlistment in the Air Force. He received a medical discharge in 1944 and headed for Chicago.

In Thursday night matches, Wa Dee Hudson took a default victory over George Cooney of Perryton, 127 pounds.

Zeke Clements of Hereford took a decisive victory over Arthur Friend of Borger to wedge his way into the 147-pound finals. Johnny Welty took a decision over Billy Wade of Borger to win a 155-pound class semi-final match.

The Welty-Wade bout was perhaps the best slugfest of the evening. Welty dropped Wade with a left hook with only a minute gone in the first round, but Wade lasted the duration of the three rounds only to lose the decision.

Making his first ring appearance of the year, 147-pound open finalist Donny Lesly of Hereford decided James Morse of Borger Thursday night.

Lesly, as hard-hitting as ever, dropped his opponent in 1 1/2 minutes of the first round with a left hook. Lesly's Saturday night opponent, Don Box of Borger, scored a TKO over experienced Norman Rexroat of Pampa in semi-finals Thursday night.

Ross Bond of Hereford lost a 160-pound open match to Glen Ward of the Pampa Optimist Club Thursday night. That was Hereford Athletic Club's only loss of the night.

Mrs. Leroy Williamson has a cat that looks ahead. Last summer, this cat and others abandoned the barns and fields in search of mice. They discovered a ready food supply in a nearby culvert that teemed with small frogs. But this one cat didn't give up when the frogs went underground to hibernate this winter. She simply crawls inside the culvert, digs around and comes out with a well-frozen live frog. This cool morsel is brought to the house to thaw before eating. During the 1960 season, Thomas was credited with 117 tackles, 24 of those unassisted, and 49 assists for a total of 196. He was also responsible for many of the 22 fumbles made by opponents and recovered more than half of the 18 which were lost by opponents.

How Can I?

Q. How can I remove some stains from my mattress?

A. Place the mattress in the sun, then cover the stained area with a thick paste of starch and cold water. Rub or brush off in an hour or so, or when the paste is dry. If some of the stain remains, repeat.

Q. How can I separate egg whites and yolks the "for-sure, no-broken-yolk" way?

A. Puncture a small hole at one end of the shell. This releases the white into a collecting bowl, while the yolk stays inside. Then break the shell, and you have your yolk-whole.

Q. How can I remove grease stains from suede coats, bags, hats, etc.?

A. By sponging them with a cloth dipped in vinegar. When dry, restore the nap of the suede by brushing with a stiff-bristled brush.

Q. How can I repair the seal between our bathtub and the wall, which has crumbled away?

A. You can make your own resealer out of white tile cement and water. Mix this until it has reached the consistency of paste, then apply.

Q. The tips of my youngster's shoes are constantly becoming scuffed and unattractive looking. What can I do about this?

A. Shine the shoes well, then brush several layers of shellac over the tips. Not only will the shoes retain the gloss, but the shellac will protect the leather against careless kicks, scratches, and the like.

AUCTION SERVICE
 Sales of all kinds - none too big - none too small. 30 years experience. We would appreciate your business.

BY JIMMIE GILLENTE
A lot of the world's troubles occur through simple misunderstandings. Take the plight of Mrs. George Warner, who originated some clever ideas to remember friends this past Christmas. One of the ideas included the purchase and mailing of packages of stone-ground flour. Deaf Smith County wholewheat flour, and to make packages sound and acceptable to the post office, Mrs. Warner went down to the Miller Seed Company, which her husband operates, and latched onto some printed, but attractive seed boxes. She placed the flour packages in the seed boxes, and everything was wonderful — until she got a "Thank You" note from a friend in San Antonio.

"We certainly appreciate the exceptional Christmas remembrance," said the friend, "but haven't as yet decided on a place to plant them."

Mrs. Leonard Click thoroughly believes the "small world" theory. She went to California over the holidays by train, and the first morning in the dining car found that she was sharing a table with Mr. and Mrs. Deskins Wells of Wellington, publishers of the Wellington Leader, where I worked before moving to Hereford. The Wells, it developed, were enroute to Bakersfield, Cal. to visit Dr. and Mrs. Ansel McDowell Jr. Mrs. McDowell Jr. is the daughter of Mr. Wells, while the doctor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ansel McDowell of Hereford.

But when it comes to traveling companions, John Ham by literally takes the cake. The Hambys have a huge white cat which absolutely refuses to let the car leave the house without her. She coils up comfortably behind the driver, like an animated fur piece, and seems to enjoy every minute of the drive, long or short.

Marshall Formby, the politically minded lawyer and chain radio station man, was here this week from Plainview. Marshall says he believes still more candidates (already 10) will seek to fill the vacancy created by Lyndon Johnson's resignation in the Senate. Maybe even Will Wilson and Waggoner Carr might toss their hats into the ring. Like most other observers who have their finger on the political pulse of Texas, Marshall seems to get the impression that Price Daniel is running top speed right now for a fourth term as governor of Texas, a post for which Formby has been often mentioned.

Did you notice how rapidly the Christmas season faded away this year? This was due more to the weather than anything else. If we had undergone a long siege of cold and snow, the season would have lingered on much longer. At least, until the Jan. 1 bills started rolling in.

Melvin Young took seven boys to the Borger boxing tournament, and six of them landed in the finals. Not bad. Not bad at all.

can should see. It is called "Project: Abolition," and deals with anti-American hearings on the West Coast. It brings out many of the communistic avowed points about how they plan to take this country without firing a shot, and demonstrates some of their methods. No charge. It is sponsored by the Legion boys, who feel that seeing this film is just as important in the present Cold War as carrying arms in World War II.

Dennis Lomas admits that the present weather has him thoroughly confused. He needs an overcoat when he goes to work each morning, but it is away too hot to think about wearing it home at noon — and he says you look downright silly carrying an overcoat on your arm in the heat of the day when quitting time rolls around.

I think it was Earl Phillips, former fire chief, who told the story about two vacationing businessmen comparing notes on the beach at Miami. "I'm here on insurance money," said one. "I collected $50,000 for fire damage." "Me, too," said the other, "but I got $100,000 for flood damage." There was a long, thoughtful pause and the first man asked: "Tell me, how do you start a flood?"

Vows Are Exchanged In Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Ruby Faye Brewton and Fred F. Lookingbill of Summerfield exchanged wedding vows Saturday at 6:30 p.m. at the Temple Baptist Church. The Rev. H. V. Fields, pastor of the Grace Gospel Church, performed the impressive double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brewton, 223 Ave. K, and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Lookingbill of Summerfield.

The church was decorated throughout in white and accented with greenery. A wedding arch, decorated with huckleberry and tiny white mums, stood against a background of palm trees. Four seven-branched candelabra, lavishly entwined with huckleberry and white mums, held tall white tapers. Two basket arrangements of white gladioli and mums flanked the white satin kneeling bench. Family pews were marked with giant white mums tied with white satin bows.

Debbie Lookingbill, clad in a pink acetate taffeta frock, lighted the candles.

Debbie and Karen Erdman served as flower girls. They wore identically styled dresses of pink and beige and each carried a basket of rose petals. Miss Jerre Bea Noland, organist, provided the traditional nuptial music prior to the ceremony and accompanied Gordon Shaffer as he sang "Whither Thou Goest."

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, was attired in an original formal gown of white bridal satin. The lace bodice featured a flattering scalloped neckline delicately embroidered with iridescent sequins. Long tapering sleeves, ending in deep points over the hands, were accented with four tiny lace-covered buttons at the wrist. The floor-length skirt, sweeping to a long train, was inset with V's of lace in the front and back. Small clusters of lace flowers encrusted with sequins offered flowery contrast to the rest of the poufied skirt.

The bride's lace-edged veil of imported illusion cascaded from a tiara of stiff net, heavily encrusted with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a Cattleya orchid nestled in white stephanotis atop a white, lace covered Bible.

Mrs. Delton Cochran served as matron of honor. She wore a street length dress of cloud pink chrome-spun acetate, fashioned with an Empire waistline and flaring to a full skirt. The molded bodice was accented by a boat-necked collar and a matching bow at the bosom. Long tapering sleeves extended to petalpoints over the wrists and were met by short white kid gloves. Matching pink shoes and a white velveteen headband completed her ensemble. She carried a nosegay of beige carnations encircled with beige feathered carnations.

Miss Peggy Shelley, sister of the bride, and Miss Ariene Reid of Hereford, sister of the bridegroom, were candlelighters.

Charlotte Weir of Coppas Cove, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Jimmie Smith of Dimmitt, cousin of the bridegroom, served as ring bearer.

Howard Shelley, brother of the bride, was best man and groomsman was Danny Prather. Ushers were Kenneth Shelley, brother of the bride; Kenneth Reid of Lamesa, cousin of the bridegroom and George Sell of Petersburg, cousin of the bride.

Traditional nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Nellie Oliver at the organ and soloists Sue Kisor and Kay Adrian.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Members of the houseparty were Mesdames Don Bell, Roy Borchardt, Velon Townsend, John Robertson, Osear Parker and Miss Sandra Bourland.

The bride wore a blue wool suit with black and white accessories when the couple left for a short wedding trip to San Antonio. After their return, they will live at 4509 47th St. in Lubbock.

Mrs. Reid was graduated from Hale Center High School and is employed at Trans-Western Gas Company in Thoreau, N. M.

The bride wore a beige wool sheath dress accented with black accessories as the couple left for a short wedding trip. Upon their return, they will be at home at 104 1/2 Aztec, Gallup, N. M.

Avenue Baptist Church Is Scene Of Wedding

Avenue Baptist Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Marilyn Joy Jones and Chesley Johnson of Dimmitt Monday, Dec. 26, at 4 p.m. The Rev. B. H. Baldwin, pastor of the Frio Baptist Church, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer V. Jones, 708 Star, and Mrs. W. C. Johnston of Dimmitt.

The church altar was backed by basket arrangements of orchid chrysanthemums intermixed with white carnations and greenery. Stately seven-branch candelabra holding tall white wedding candles flanked the flower arrangements.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, Elmer Jones. She wore a formal gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. The princess-style bodice featured a Sabrina neckline, delicately edged with iridescent sequins. The long tapering sleeves of lace ended in dainty petalpoints over the skirt was inset with vertical lace panels. A scattering of sequins embroidered on the skirt repeated the gleam of sequins at the neckline. She also wore a heart-shaped birthstone necklace and matching ring, gift of the groom.

Her veil of French illusion was caught to a tiara of pearls and sequins and she carried a bridal bouquet of white chrysanthemums atop a white lace-covered Bible.

Miss Kay Cole and Miss Doris Jean Andrews were candlelighters, and Darlene King of Amarillo was flower girl. Joel Stacy and David

When the couple left for a short wedding trip, the bride was attired in a pale pink wool suit, complemented with black accessories. After their return, they will reside in Tulsa.

Orchid shoes and net circlets trimmed with tiny orchid bows as headwear completed their costumes. Each carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Couple Observes 50th Anniversary At Mineral Wells

Approximately 100 friends and relatives called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wilder of Mineral Wells Christmas Day as the couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. They were long-time residents of the Jumbo Community.

Hostesses for the open house were the couple's children: Mrs. Joe Trayler of Spearman, Mrs. Maurine Coke of Keller, Mrs. Gerald McIlroy of Dublin, Bernard Wilder of Tulsa, Okla., and Charles Wilder of Bartlesville, Okla. A granddaughter, Mrs. Alton Whitworth of Canyon, also assisted.

The receiving rooms were tastefully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and Christmas arrangements sent by friends of the couple. The serving table was covered with white net and satin over gold and centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums and golden wedding bells. Golden tapers held in silver candle holders flanked the centerpiece.

Miss Elizabeth Coke of Keller, granddaughter of the couple, served wedding cake and Miss Rita McIlroy of Dublin, another granddaughter, presided at the silver tea and coffee service. Guests were registered by Miss Barbara Coke of Keller and Miss Janie Wilder of Tulsa, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilder were married Dec. 10, 1910, at Oakdale, N. C. Turner of Grapevine and Roy Wilder of Mineral Wells, who were attendants at the wedding, called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Wilder is the former Nelle Millard of Perrin. After their marriage the couple farmed near Perrin until December, 1917. They then moved to the Jumbo community, located near Hereford. The couple had farming and ranching interests there until 1948 when they moved to Mineral Wells to retire.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilder have five children and 12 grandchildren.

State Tax Plan Should Improve Current Levies

Our state leaders keep telling us that more tax money is imperative. Grant that these people know whereof they speak, then ask yourself the question, "What type of state tax would be the most practical?"

Certainly, this is a question you will hear repeated several times before any action is taken. Currently the answers range all of the way from a salary tax, state sales tax, and state income tax to an increase in natural resource and present real estate levies.

No tax will be popular, and that is for sure. Meanwhile, all over the State of Texas each of the 254 counties has made a strenuous effort to hold down county valuations, which are the basis upon which state real taxes are collected. In their effort to outwit the other 253 counties, it seems that each of the individual counties has contributed to the present tax condition of Texas. A true reflection of the real estate valuations in Texas, it seems to us, might well solve the state-wide money problem.

On the other hand, time has altered conditions in our great state. Industrial workers and itinerant laborers have increased so tremendously that we cannot justly finance the state government solely upon the basis of real estate and resources taxations. Literally thousands of people in Texas benefit from schools, roads, police protection and many other services--yet never pay one cent in taxes. More alarming still, the number is growing from year to year.

We need governmental and tax reforms desperately. The only equitable answer rests within passing of a uniform real estate taxation plan to cover valuations, along with rates, in all of the 254 counties, plus a sizeable sales tax on items purchased. Only through laws of this type can we arrive at a long range, equitable answer.

Texas is fortunate indeed in that it does have unlimited assets on which to place taxes, whereas some of our sister states are not so fortunate. The more just and equitable these methods are, the happier our citizenship will be.

Meanwhile, let us hope that the State Legislature will not adopt some crack-pot theory. We don't mind if they sugar coat the capsule with high styled phrases centering on childhood, schools, motherhood and Christianity, but we do hope that they will have sufficient common sense to overhaul some of our present obsolete tax situations at the same time.

Cuba Should Become To America What The Alamo Means To Texans

Recent developments resulting in severance of diplomatic relations by the United States have made the word "Cuba" a topic of almost every conversation in every community in the nation.

Among other things, we are beginning to hear rumors of internal strife and possible revolution in the South American country.

The United States, it seems to us, is handling the situation in about the only possible method to conform with our "live and let live" national policy. If our nation followed the tenets of communism we would, long ago, have confiscated Cuba, just as Russia has gobbled up numerous nations on its borders.

Without doubt, the Russians are inciting most of the anti-U. S. movement, and they are doing everything within their power to keep the Cuban temperature at the boiling point. The situation is highly comparable with tactics in Korea -- and we can expect much more of this method as the years pass. This undoubtedly will be true, regardless of who and what party holds the reins of our government.

Like Hitler in his "Mein Kampf", the Russian plan has outlined the when and where of their efforts to "take the United States without firing a single shot."

The American people, at the same time, can learn a great lesson from the Cubans. Within two short years, the people of Cuba have shifted from a state of freedom to one of semi-slavery. The government has sacrificed revenue and Yankee "know-how" for promises and unrealized benefits. Already, the Cuban people are becoming disgruntled and unhappy; more and more, as the months pass, those who followed Castro will begin to realize that they had a good thing, but never fully realized their benefits.

Every American should remember Cuba, just as we Texans remember the Alamo. Cuba should ever sound a warning against encroaching federal controls, including medicine and schools; it should cause us to forget selfish aims and to ignore false prophets. It is the one circumstance, in fact, which could upset the apple cart of the entire Russian plan of conquering America without firing a single shot.

Communists Aim At Our Children

FBI Chief Edgar Hoover said recently that the Communist Party was now in process of making an intensified effort to win over the youth of America to the communist philosophy.

On the day Hoover spoke out, he said there was a major organizational meeting taking place in Chicago--with this aim in view. It is, of course, no secret that the commies are after young people.

What some don't realize is that the communist have already gained dangerous footholds in some of our universities and colleges. Students are both idealistic and impressionable. Communism sometimes feeds of both these qualities. At a congressional hearing in California earlier this year, students doing the work of the communists (knowingly or unknowingly) prevented a congressional committee from being able to conduct normal hearings.

In practically all of the Latin countries, where the people are poor and emotionally inclined, the communists have made disturbing progress in the student centers, at the universities and colleges.

The challenge of the communists to undermine us by boring into the minds of the young people -- is not something to be taken lightly. What students are taught, what they are instructed to read, and what philosophy is installed in them, is something parents should all take an interest in. Furthermore, the infiltration of communist ideas can be anticipated more and more on grade school and high school levels as the federal control of our schools expands, gradually diminishing the operations on district and state levels.

Dr. Floyd Golden, former president of Eastern New Mexico College in Portales, recently spoke here and issued a warning to further be alert in looking for communist ideas and trends in Sunday School and church literature. The communists, Golden said, have no scruples about entering these camps in sheep's clothing -- and have already made inroads in several national religious organizations.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

"Be ashamed to die until you have won some victory for humanity," said Horace Mann, who developed our great public school system. Over 100 years ago, he fought for better teaching and better-paid teachers. He proposed duty, affection, love of knowledge and truth as cornerstones of school discipline, rather than authority, force and fear. He suggested that apparatus be used as a science teaching aid and introduced school music. He urged that students be taught to think, envisioning much that is taken for granted, or hoped for, in schools today.

"God's laws abide forever and we abide forever under them," he said. "When I think, after the experience of one life -- what I could do . . . better than I have ever done for--humanity--peace--breaking the rod of the oppressor--higher education . . . I would enlist for another 50 year's campaign, and fight it out for the glory of God and the welfare of man."

Stick To Resolutions As Close As Possible

BY MRS. R. L. CRISWELL

Resolutions: there are all kinds of resolutions -- of respect, some for kindness, in business, and last but not least, there are New Year's resolutions.

What do you mean? New Year's has already passed, of course, and that is the why of this article.

Have you broken any of your resolutions yet? Let's not forget that for a moment and think of some of the reasons for making New Year's resolutions and perhaps if we do make and break them it is better to make and break them than to never to have made any at all. To go along with an old saying, "It is better to have loved and lost them to never have loved at all."

Most of our resolutions are to be more thoughtful, to be more appreciative, to live a better life or to improve ourselves, and we do need improvement in so many ways. Since some think that smoking is conducive to cancer there is a resolve to let up on smoking, to watch our diet, to be more loving at home, to be with the children more and then we will put as last, but in no ways least, to save a little money for the days when our earnings will not be so high as now and the fact that there will be a greater need for money as the children get into high school and college.

A lot of Christians will resolve to read the Bible through this year. That is a pretty large order but it can be done with a thirty minute reading period daily, spent in reading ten chapters in the Old Testament and three in the New Testament, and on Sunday read seven in the Old and three in the new.

So you make a resolution and fail, but think a minute now: haven't you read a great deal more in the Book of Books than you would have if you had not made the resolution, and in it you have had greater lessons in prose, grammar, history, literature, mystery, love and the art of living than you could have gotten from any other book or course of study you could read.

We need to study the art of living with our fellow-man far more than is being done for a reason for that, look about us and listen for there are wars and rumors of war all about us and our own country has been forced to break friendly relations with, as one might say, an "adopted child."

What a wonderful way of life we could have in the world God created if each one was taught the art of living from the Living Word, and would live as taught.

Resolve, Webster says, "is to determine, decide, to clear of difficulties" so make resolutions to help us to improve our health, our family, our daily lives and stick with them as closely as possible, and when we have broken one of these resolutions do not be discouraged but try, try again.

We just might keep them for a month, six months or even a whole year, and how we would pride ourselves on doing just that. Oh, not to brag, but for our own personal satisfaction and the improvement we have made over such a wide territory in so doing.

Resolutions are wonderful things to make, and more wonderful if we can keep them just a part of the time.

Irrigation Development Provides Huge Profits

Irrigation has long been practiced by the fillers of the soil. The early inhabitants of India and Egypt built reservoirs and extended ditches and conduits six thousand years before the discovery of America. Recent investigations indicate that even the American aborigines constructed irrigation projects greater in extent than many in the present day. Not till the Western spirit of adventure moved the population of the Middle States across the deserts of the plains of the West did the present English-Americans resort to artificial means of raising crops. For a half century the irrigation industry has grown slowly, but certainly, until now thousands of acres of desert and semi-arid lands blossom as the rose. That irrigation as a whole is a success may be stated as an admitted fact. The enormous yields of crops and the values of irrigated land indicate this. But it has remained for the modern scientists to bring irrigation to a high state of development. Where once it required enormous quantities of water, the irrigator has learned the art of conservation and now raises better crops with much less water. And this by the old methods of surface irrigation. It has remained for the students and experimenters of irrigation to develop a system of sub-surface irrigation or sub-irrigation which becomes at once both the natural and economical way of applying water to the plants. While sug-irrigation has been practiced in a small way in many sections of the country it remained for a Florida celery grower to show the practical and profitable side of sub-irrigation.

HUNDREDS GIVEN DIPHTHERIA SHOTS

Junior will go back to school tomorrow with a sore arm and Junior in this case is plural--by the hundreds! It's all a part of a mass diphtheria immunization program urged by Littlefield physicians Thursday as the disease in Plainview reached epidemic proportions; "Thirty minutes after the paper came out last Thursday, our lobby and halls were jammed," Dr. I. T. Shotwell, Jr., said Saturday. The leader had carried a strong appeal from the doctors for parents to have their children vaccinated before returning to school tomorrow. As a result of the appeal, literally hundreds responded at both Medical Arts Clinic-Hospital and Littlefield Hospital-Clinic. Dr. W. C. Nowlin, city health officer, had urged parents to play it safe and have booster shots given their children, or if they had not had vaccinations, he recommended a four-way immunization -- Diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough and polio.

GROWTH SHOWN IN YEAR-END FIGURES

Growth--the slow but steady kind, was the over-all picture for 1960 drawn from figures gathered in Moore County's two cities of Dumas and Sunray. Figures considered were those showing the amount of water and gas used bank deposits for the year, building permits issued and the total postal receipts for 1960. Sunray increased in gas consumption and bank deposits. In Dumas there was a slight decrease in gas used; while Sunray showed a decrease in water consumption. Consumption of water in Dumas for 1960 was 436,947,800 gallons, an increase of some 10,000,000 gallons over 1959's total of 427,352,600. Highest month for water consumption in 1959 was June, when Dumas residents used 62,535,400 gallons, but August of 1960 found them using even more with consumption totaling 63,572,100 gallons.

COUNTY MOVES TO PREVENT DIPHTHERIA

Offices of Dumas physicians were busy this weekend as local residents moved to prevent an outbreak of diphtheria in the city by obtaining inoculations against the disease. In many clinics in the city, special rooms were set up where the vaccine could be speedily administered to patients. Object of concern was the possibility of diphtheria spreading to the North Plains from the Plainview area, where cases were nearing 100 with one child having died from the disease. No cases had been reported in Moore County late last week, but doctors were strongly urging that preventive measures be taken at this time. With the number of holiday visitors between here and the South Plains, the possibility of spreading diphtheria was increased, it was pointed out, thus increasing the need for vaccinations. Dr. O. J. Richardson, county health officer, stated that persons who received injections more than two years ago should contact their physicians for boosters.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm strikes a confident note this week, or at least it sounds like it.

Dear editor:

Here 1961 is barely underway and already experts are predicting mournful things for the new year.

For example, according to an article I read last night in a section of a newspaper I had left over after I got through wrapping some Christmas presents in the rest of it, the world has enough atomic bombs to wipe itself out four or five times. The United States has 50,000 more atomic bombing ability now than it had when it dropped that first bomb on Hiroshima. Russia has an untold amount of the things, France set off its first bombs just the other day, England has quite a few bombs it borrowed from us, Red China is expected to have the bomb before long, and possibly five or six other countries.

One expert added that sooner or later, some of these bombs are going off, and not for practice, and when some go off, a lot more will follow. He said the human race couldn't stand it.

Well, I'm not going to predict the future of the world, not when I can't even predict the future of this bindweed farm for longer than three months at a time, although whatever confidence I have is based on the assumption the world is better off than this place, yet I don't share the gloom of this expert.

You take insects, for example. I'm not sure that science will support me when I say people are as smart as insects, but they may be, and if they are, I believe they'll survive. What I mean is, man has been fighting insects for years, and if the insects could read, they'd find out that man now has enough insecticides stockpiled to wipe out all of them, but if the insect population is any less today than it was 50 years ago, I can't tell it. The more you fight them, the stronger they come back.

On the other hand, man may not be as smart as the insects, and with all those atom bombs stockpiled, somebody better keep his fingers crossed.

Nonetheless, I predict me and the Brand both will be on hand a year from now, or at least one of us, and a fifty-fifty chance is all anybody can ask.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

REMEMBER WHEN?

BY CHARLIE SEEDS

It was a scandal which rocked the sports world, and threw a blanket of suspicion over America's national game of baseball. This was the year when the Chicago White Sox played in a World Series... and lost. They weren't supposed to lose, because some of the game's greatest players were on that team... like the famed "Shoelless Joe" Jackson in the outfield.

When the scandal broke, the name "Black Sox" came to be applied to that Chicago team. For the Sox were accused of throwing the Series, and even though they were legally acquitted for lack of evidence, the taint of suspicion hung over them.

It was this famous World Series which caused baseball moguls to hire a Federal Judge, Kenesaw Mount a n Landis, as a "czar" to watch over the national game and keep it clean. Do you remember when that World Series was played?

Remember the year? With skulduggery on the diamond in fashion that year, people wore a suspicious look. A man buying a car was dubious about big promises... and he looked over a deal with a lot of caution. The year was 1919.

It makes good sense not to buy a "big promise" without looking it over carefully. We can promise to make you a better deal on a new 61 Ford, and we'll be glad to give you all the facts, to show you why we can keep our promises! If you're dubious, come in and see for yourself! Ninth Graders Power Past Littlefield Cagers, 49-28

BY WAIN MILLER
BRAND SPORTS WRITER
The Stanton Frosh totaled their ninth victory as they easily overpowered the Littlefield ninth graders at the rate of 49-28 in basketball action here Thursday night. The Dogies raced to a 10-3 lead with only three minutes gone, and maintained their advantage the remainder of the game with Dogie reserves playing the majority of the game.

Eugene Green paced the Dogie scoring with 14 points, 12 of which came in the first period of play, David Stevens came out with nine of Stanton's points.

Steve Conaway netted five points before receiving a gash on his forehead following a run-in with one of the gym doors early in the third quarter. Steve received a few stitches for his efforts while chasing the ball out of bounds, while the door came out none the better as the force of the blow splintered it.

The Dogies gained a 20-7 stronghold during the first quarter. Green netted 12 points during the period, while Bill Hill and Steve Conaway both added four for Stanton.

David Stevens hit for seven points during the second quarter. Neal Lueb made three to give Hereford a 30-12 lead at the half.

Stanton allowed their opponents only five points in the third quarter while they combined for seven points. Steve Conaway scored a free throw before his accident, while Jim Haney, Bill Hill, and Earl Jackson all tossed in two-pointers.

S. D. Baize totaled four points in the final round as Green, Lueb, Stevens, and Wayne Edwards added two apiece to give the Dogies their final score of 49-28.

All three Stanton teams journey to Canyon to take on the Eagles Monday night. They entertain Coronado Junior High of Plainview in their next home games here Tuesday night.

NON-SWIMMING DIVER
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—In 25 years as a navy diver, Morris Hoffman, 71, recovered 450 bodies from ships and planes that went down at sea, most of them during World War II. But in all the 25 years, there was one thing that Hoffman did not do. He never learned to swim, he observed in recalling his experiences.

Hereford B Takes Tournament Game

After a slow start, the Hereford B team rallied for a 38-28 victory over the Dimmitt B team Thursday afternoon. The win moved the young Hereford team into the semi-finals of the Dimmitt Invitational cage tournament.

Jerry Curtisinger whipped in 23 points to lead the Whiteface squad.

Both teams had trouble starting. The score tied 4-4 in the first period, but Hereford finally pulled in front at the end of the quarter and was never headed after that.

Hereford chalked up 17 points in the second quarter while holding Dimmitt to eight.

At the start of the third quarter, Dimmitt went into a full-court press, but Hereford used its speed and deception to overcome the defense. The Herd got 14 points in the quarter while Dimmitt got 11.

With a comfortable 29-26 lead, Hereford put on an outstanding display of teamwork and shooting during a 20-point final period.

Curtisinger was hot during the second and fourth quarters. He got ten points in the second

Beauty at Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. I am over-conscious of my broad and heavy face. Is there any way I can reduce it?

A. Facial exercise can help to slim fleshiness in the face. Roll the head loosely from left to right for 10 minutes morning and night. Keep to a routine of systematic cheek and under-chin slapping. Check your overall weight also, as this affects the face as well as the body. If your face is broad-boned, you can work a little magic with cosmetics—darker foundation around the jawline, more sparkle in the eye department, a hairdo with height and generally oval shape. Also, see how much a deep V-neckline can do for you.

Q. Any suggestions for better application of the lipstick?

A. If you'll make a practice of putting a light coating of powder on your lips before applying your lipstick, the color will remain with you longer, and it will hold a more even line.

Q. How can I remove some mustard stains from one of my washable dresses?

A. Sponge with cool water, rub with warm glycerin, and then wash in hot suds.

Q. Just what can I do for the beauty and comfort of my poor, tired feet?

A. You can give them the benefits of regular care, starting with attention during every bath. After soaking, scrub feet and toes with a nailbrush. Use pumice stone on any calluses. Out of the water, dry them carefully, apply lotion, and give them a pedicure. Begin with cuticle solvent and cuticle oil, continuing as with a regular manicure.

Q. No matter how hard I brush and comb my wisps of hair into submission, they still defeat me. Hair spray doesn't hold them in place, and snipping the ends just makes them more unruly. Do you have any suggestions?

A. Give these short pieces special attention in nightly pin-ups, and use a hair conditioner regularly. On the very ends, you might use a wax stick to stiffen the hair into place. Or if these wisps are at the neckline of an unswept hairdo, you might consider making them an asset—little curls set along the nape of your neck.

Q. How can I "bring out" or emphasize my eyes, which are very pale and light-colored?

A. Try using a liberal amount of the darkest mascara, to contrast with your skin.

Q. What is a good, temporary, "emergency" camouflage for a pimple on the face?

A. A heavy covering of make-up foundation or skin paste. It's not wise to make a regular habit of this, however, since you're running the risk of turning a few pimples into a real skin disease! Get to the source of those pimples—diet, elimination habits, cleanliness.

Q. What are some of the "rights" and "wrongs" in dress for the top-heavy woman?

A. WRONG are extra trimming or fullness above the waist; white or bright tops; and bulky jewelry and fussy collars. RIGHT are full or flared skirts in bulky fabrics; dark tops, lighter skirts; narrow lapsels, and tailored jewelry.

Q. Although my skin is clear and fair, it flakes terribly. What can I do?

A. Unless your health (allergy or vitamin deficiency) is to blame, an effective course of treatment would be: First, get rid of the flakes by applying a pore-refining mask. Second, leave soap out of your cleansing routine for a few weeks, using a creamy cleanser instead. And third, wear a moisturizing cream at all times.

Q. What is a good exercise

Seventh Graders Take Sixth Win

The Dogies allowed nine

for trimming surplus flesh from the sides of the upper thighs?

A. Lying on your back, arms at sides, pull your right knee back to your chest, then swing it across to the left side, then straight down. Repeat this with the left knee, alternating legs. After doing this at least five times, rest—then repeat.

Of 15,000 different kinds of mammals in the world, 3,800 of them are native to North America.

HOME STUDY CENTER CATHOLIC AD NUMBER FOUR

Many sincere people regard the Bible as the sole authority for Christian belief. And they reject the teachings of the age-old Catholic Church because these teachings and forms of Catholic worship are not mentioned by name in Holy Scripture.

"Where," some will ask, "does the Bible say anything about the Mass or Purgatory? And how about confession to a priest, praying to Mary, and those seven Sacraments, Catholics talk about. They're not in MY Bible."

Catholics say that their teachings are found in the Bible. She teaches nothing that is not found in Sacred Scripture. If you wish to know more about Catholic teachings, write for a free pamphlet explaining the Catholic Church. Write to: Home Study Center, Box 5644, Amarillo, Texas.

HEREFORD GRAIN CORP.

TWO HEREFORD STUDENTS at Lubbock Christian College will sing with the college's Meistersinger Chorus, which will appear in the Church of Christ of Hereford Sunday, Jan. 8. They are Sheryl Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Patterson, and Glen Reeves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Reeves of Hereford. The concert program will begin at 7 p.m.

SCS In Civil Defense Training

Local Soil Conservation Service personnel attended a Civil Defense radiological monitoring training session at Pampa Dec. 13-14-15-16. Leron Satterwhite, Al Lee and Herbert Bruns attended the Dec. 13 and 14 session and Don Newman and Arneal Scott attended the Dec. 15 and 16 session.

The Hereford SCS Work Unit is one of nine Panhandle units that received this training. This training was given so that local SCS employees could monitor fallout in case of an atomic attack or a peace time atomic accident. Panhandle Soil Conservation Service official monitoring locations are Dimmitt, Friona, Claude, Silverton, Wellington, Foltet, Pampa and Dumas.

Radiological monitoring instruments are to be delivered to the local work units within the next few months. The set will consist of a low range survey meter, the Geiger counter, for monitoring food, water, personnel, vehicles and utilities. A medium range survey meter and a high range survey meter to monitor fallout will also be delivered. Radiological fallout can only be detected with these instruments as it cannot be seen, felt, heard, smelled or tasted.

Some of the subjects studied at the training session were nuclear weapons, nuclear physics, fallout and fallout plotting, personnel protection, effects of radiation on the body, decontamination, and instrument operation. Practice exercises using the Geiger counter and medium range survey meter were participated in to familiarize everyone with the use of the instruments. A source of radio-active Cobalt-60 was used in these exercises.

Another practical demonstration using radioactive phosphorus was given to show how food can be decontaminated. Fruits and vegetables can be decontaminated by washing and peeling. Canned packaged foods can be washed to remove the contamination then opened and eaten. Fallout, although very dangerous, can be removed as dust can be removed.

Objects will not become radioactive from fallout. Induced radiation, when an object itself becomes radioactive, only occurs in the immediate blast area.

The Hereford SCS Work Unit is one of 3000 Federal fixed monitoring stations set up throughout the nation. In case of an atomic attack or peacetime atomic accident monitored information is to be forwarded

Mon Amis Club Holds Meeting

SUMMERFIELD - - Mon Amis Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Christie Wednesday, Jan. 4.

Roll call was answered by each member on "My Birthplace."

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. B. G. Cotton. Plans were made for the next meeting to be held at the first National Bank, with Clay Angelo as guest speaker. The program will be on Civil Defense. Mrs. Bob Noland presented the program on the use of mushrooms.

Members present were Mes-

The regional and National Civil Defense centers will use dames, Billy Bell, Roy Botkin, Jamie Clearman, Laurence Jackson, B. G. Cotton, Earl Lance Jr., Jim Lookingbill, Raymond Wiley, Ted Godfrey, Bob Noland, Clayton Watkins, and the hostess, Mrs. Kenneth Christie.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Simpson returned home last week from California, where they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Dec. 7.

On their return, a reunion of their children was held in the B. G. Cotton home on New Year's Day.

A "This is your Life" program was presented to them.

Their children included Mrs. Leon Wellington, Mrs. Sam Lindley of Brownwood, J. A. Simpson and R. L. Simpson of Hereford.

this information to plot fallout patterns and to make a national damage assessment study. The Regional Civil Defense office can then recommend local evacuations, if practical, to uncontaminated or less contaminated areas. With the monitored information, the length of time necessary to stay in fallout shelters until radioactivity has decayed to a safe level can also be predicted.

Other Federal agencies besides the Soil Conservation Service that have local monitoring stations such as this are the Federal Aviation Agency, Weather Bureau, Air Weather Service, Department of Interior and Forest Service.

Tarzan's First Jane Revisits Jungleland

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
 Newsfeatures Writer

Actress Enid Markey sat in the darkness of a tiny Greenwich Village theater recently and curiously waited to come face to face with herself as she was 42 years ago.

Celluloid had captured and immortalized her in 1918 as "You, Jane," the pretty young thing with a blanching face, wide eyes, and pursed lips who taught Tarzan to appreciate girls.

Since the silent screen star's days as the first Jane (and the only fully dressed one), a number of Janes, talking and animal-skinned, have swung tree limb to tree limb across the screen.

In the four decades that have passed, Miss Markey too has moved on from silent films to the theater, to TV. Today she is co-starring in CBS' "Bring in the Bucky" TV series as Violet Flowers, an incurably romantic aunt.

But the role of Jane with Elmo Lincoln as Tarzan was the beginning of her road to fame.

A director discovered Miss Markey in a Los Angeles drama school in the days before the peroxide blonde sirens. The girl's thick mass of black hair was considered photogenic.

"Mama rolled it up on rags every night," the silent screen star recalls.

Now hedging 60, beige, blonde, sabled, and perfumed, Miss Markey is remarkably well preserved. A tiny unenthusiastic audience shared the actress' meeting with her young self without recognizing her... not even when the camera fell down and the lights went on.

As a shirt-sleeved piano player trilled the keys, Miss Markey watched the plot thicken. Tarzan and his hairy companions flickering and jerking through the jungle brought back a flood of memories.

"Where's the part where he finds the locket? It seems to have been cut out. Or maybe they've lost that reel. I know there was a locket. Tarzan gave it to me at the end and I've still got it somewhere."

Miss Markey giggled at the dress worn by Lady Graystone, Tarzan's ill-fated mother. ("Still they're not as bad as some we've got today.") And she roared at the picture captions. ("If this be justice, sir, I want none of it!")

But she politely demanded silence at the point where she was due to enter.

"My dear Jane, you cannot take your maid!" The caption said Jane was warned. The piano keys danced belligerently.

"Sir, is courage only for men then?" And Jane and her maid flickered into the tiger-infested jungle, Miss Markey's laughter rose above the piano noise.

"Ohhhhhh, Isn't that AW-ful!" The film jerked about. The screen went blank. The reel rolled down the aisle. The lights went on temporarily.

Enid Markey was determined to stay until the bitter end. Somewhere there was a lion. "O yes... there. Now watch. O no, that part has been cut out. No, there it is. Well, anyway, see Elmo (I mean Tarzan) knock him out?"

"Oh he was real all right, supposed to have been drugged, but something went wrong, the drug I guess. But that lion really meant serious business. Elmo had no idea! I tell you I was terrified!"

Yet everything turned out all right. Jane found happiness in the tree tops, and Tarzan learned to treat ladies like a gentleman should. The piano turned from mournful to lyrical as the jungle of Hollywood, 1918, vanished from the screen.

And Jane, nee Miss Markey, exited into her world of 1961.

Strangers When We Meet

ARE YOU ONE OF THE 3 TYPES OF WOMEN WHO DOESN'T USE A GAS CLOTHES DRYER?

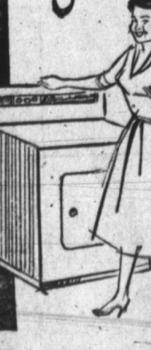

MRS. SEMORE CASH
 Money means nothing to her. Has a wealthy husband who pays all the bills without batting an eye. She just buys... and, of course, uses nothing but the most expensive, whether it's automobiles or appliances. (What else can a woman of her social position do?) She's not concerned with the phenomenal savings in operating costs of a Gas Dryer. Twenty-five dollars a year? Trivia, my dear Cavendish!

MRS. I. M. CAREFREE
 Time means nothing to her. No kids to keep up with... belongs to no clubs or organizations... doesn't have to fit her hours to any particular schedule. She's not impressed by the fact that the faster performance of a Gas Dryer provides precious minutes to the harried homemaker with an over-crowded schedule.

PRUNELLA HARDTACK
 You can't convince HER that the clean, live flame in a Gas Dryer is completely isolated from the clothes... that National Fire Underwriters statistics prove Gas near the bottom of the list as an accident cause... that the low heat—high air flow principle of Gas Drying is completely safe for even the daintiest of synthetic fabrics. No matter how valid the advantages, she'll stick with her prejudices.

RIGHT NOW, YOUR GAS APPLIANCE DEALER IS OFFERING THE YEAR'S BEST BUYS ON FAMOUS-NAME GAS DRYERS. IF YOU'RE NOT ALREADY USING GAS FOR DRYING, THIS IS THE TIME TO CHECK THE FACTS. LIVE MODERN... FOR LESS WITH GAS!

OLD FRIENDS REUNITED
 ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Anthony R. Mazullo was looking through the Atlantic City Press when he saw a photo of a man and his wife celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. The man looked vaguely familiar.

A phone call confirmed Mazullo's suspicions. He and the man in the photo, Michael Aluise, had been childhood friends in Philadelphia but had not seen or talked to each other in 60 years.

USE HANDS AGAIN
 RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Miss Ruth Bostian recently picked up a cup of water in one hand—the first time she had been able to do it in 11 years.

It had been that long since she dove into a swimming pool at East Carolina Teachers College and broke her neck. The injury cost her the use of hand and wrist muscles needed for grasping.

Lifting the cup was a triumph for Miss Bostian a former WAVE, and for Homer Hughes who designed a delicate set of braces for her at McGuire Veterans Hospital.

The first president to proclaim a nationwide Thanksgiving was George Washington. That was in 1789 when he set aside the last Thursday in November for the celebration.

ther, Mrs. W. A. Kirby of Alamogordo, N. M. had been in a car accident near there. The Don Kirby family spent several days with her. She is improving nicely, following a brain concussion and other injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Collins and family watched the Tournament of Roses Parade on T. V. and ate dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pruitt and family in Hereford on Monday, Jan. 2.

They made short visits in the home of Mrs. J. F. Ward, Mrs. C. F. Cherry and Mrs. O. R. Sanders in Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henderson and family drove to Bryan on Friday, Dec. 23, for a Christmas reunion with her family, in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sorensen and family. Present were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sanders of Aransas Pass, another sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rhodes and family of Houston; and a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sanders and family of Levelland.

The Henderson family returned home on Monday, Dec. 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weaver and family took their daughter, Janell, to Dawn on Sunday, Jan. 1, to the Norman Miller home there. From there, Janell rode back to Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene with Mrs. Miller and son and daughter.

Jackie Nunley of Hereford spent Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 28 and 29, visiting with Janell Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weaver and family drove from Dawn on to Silverton, where they ate their New Year's Day dinner. Then they drove to Claude going through Tulla and Palo Duro Canyon before going home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stocks went to Pampa for their New Year's Day dinner and visit in the home of her mother, Mrs. Minnie Miles.

On Thursday, Dec. 29, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Burrus, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Burrus, drove to Pampa to visit a sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Morrison and four children. A brother, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kribbs and family for Harlingen, were also visiting with them through that day.

On Friday the Morrison and Kribbs' families drove here to visit in the Burrus homes, spending that night, Saturday each returned to their homes.

Larry and Darla Payne of Hereford, spent some vacation days visiting their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader.

Roger Barnett has missed school all week because of a throat infection. He was having trouble with his throat before Christmas.

Remember the January meeting of Walcott P.T.O. will be held on Friday, Dec. 20, at 8 p.m. The foreign exchange students of Hereford High School will give our program. Bring cake for refreshments.
