Election Interest Is Soaring

Record Vote Seen Tuesday

Hereford and Deaf Smith County residents will go to the polls Tuesday to help voters throughout the nation decide who will be President and Vice President for the next four years.

Although this is a presidential election year, local races will not take a back seat when voters flock to this county's 10 precinct polling places.

Two county races with both Democratic and Republican candidates and no incumbents will be on the ballot.

The polls will open at 8 a.m. Tuesday and close at 7 p.m., during which time candidates will see results of their long months of campaigning.

Interest in this election is extremely high, as indicated by the 162 absentee ballots filed in the County Clerk's office at deadline Friday afternoon for a new record. Only 106 absentee votes were cast in the May 7 primary here as the previous record.

Republican Vice President Richard M. Nixon will seek the presidency against his Democratic opposition, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, on ballots over the nation. Nixon's running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, will seek the vice presidency. The Democratic party has Lyndon B. (Continued on page 2)

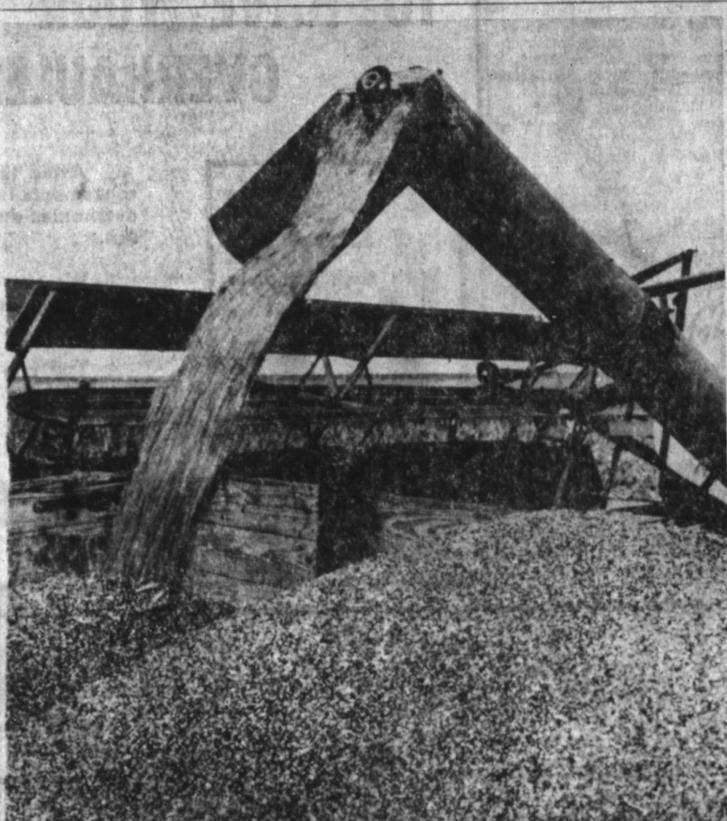

Polling Places For The County

Deaf Smith County and Hereford polling places for the Tuesday General Election are at the following precinct locations:

- Precinct 1 — Texas License Examiner's office, on the first floor of the County Courthouse. Precinct 2 — Commissioners' Courtroom, on the second floor of the County Courthouse. Precinct 3 — R. W. Mitchell residence. Precinct 4 — Sims Community House. Precinct 6 — Ford Community House. Precinct 7 — Dawn School. Precinct 8 — Garcia Community House. Precinct 9 — Bippus Community House. Precinct 10 — Palo Duro Church. Precinct 11 — Central School.

Polls at the 10 locations will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Judges at the voting places will include Frank Bezner, Precinct 1; Urlin Sireu, Precinct 2; R. W. Mitchell, Precinct 3; J. G. Fortenberry, Precinct 4; L. J. Strauss, Precinct 6; H. V. McCabe, Precinct 7; S. N. Thweatt, Precinct 8; Clint Homfeld, Precinct 9; Mrs. C. L. McBroom, Precinct 10; and J. J. Clark, Precinct 11.

Felon Admits Part In Burglary Here

Juan Sandoval, 29, now an inmate at New Mexico State Penitentiary in Santa Fe, has signed a statement admitting that he assisted in the burglary of the Troy Moore Farmer Drive-In service station Feb. 5 this year, according to the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department.

Also charged in the burglary and being held in Deaf Smith County Jail is Thomas Gonzales, 25, of Hereford. Gonzales waived examining trial before Justice Of The Peace C. B. Miles Thursday morning. Bond for Gonzales was set at $2,500, pending action by 69th District Grand Jury. Gonzales was charged with burglary Thursday morning after arrest by the County Sheriff's office Monday night.

Terry Higgins In Who's Who At North Texas

Jack Terry Higgins of Hereford has been named to represent North Texas State College in the 1961 edition of "Who's Who Among Students In American Universities and Colleges."

Higgins received the honor on the basis of high scholastic standing and participation in activities of the Denton College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Higgins, who live north-east of Hereford, and is a 1958 graduate of Hereford High School.

A junior chemistry major at NTSC, he is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, national honor society. Thirty-six students were selected from the student body of about 7,500. (Continued on page 2)

Expect 300 For Monday's Annual 4-H Club Banquet

More than 300 4-H Club members, families and guests are expected to attend the annual Deaf Smith County Achievement Banquet in Hereford High School cafeteria Monday night. The evening's program, which includes a banquet and presentation of awards, will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Seventy-four 4-H boys and girls from the county's 12 clubs are scheduled to receive awards. More than 25 different awards will be presented.

The annual program is open to all county 4-H Club members and their families. Other guests also have been extended invitations, according to Miss Loreta Fowler, assistant county Home Demonstration agent.

Families planning to attend are asked to take food for a covered-dish supper. Each family should take enough meat, a vegetable or salad and pie for themselves and two others, Miss Fowler said.

Dumas Demons Chill Herd 12-0 In Conference Tilt

A chill wind blew across Whiteface Field Friday night, caused as much by the speedy Dumas Demons as by the near-freezing weather.

Dumas took advantage of its fleet backs to score twice in first half and win a 12-0 conference victory over the Whitefaces. The victory kept Dumas in contention with a 1-1 district mark, while Hereford was handed its second loss against one win. The loss eliminated the Herd, which finishes the season next Friday at Littlefield. Levelland stayed atop the heap with a surprising 20-0 shut-out of the Phillips Blackhawks. The Lobos play at Dumas Friday in a game that could decide the conference championship.

Hereford failed to take advantage of two big breaks in the first quarter as Dumas scored on a ground-eating march.

On the first play from scrimmage Edwin Thomas recovered for Hereford on the Demon 40. After one first down, the Herd was stalled and the ball went over on the Dumas 28 as Collier's fourth down pass play was dropped in the end zone.

Halfback Charley Dean unreeled good yardage on Lumas' 72-yard march in ten plays. Quarterback Mike Boxwell picked up 15 yards on the drive on a roll-out around right end. Dean set up the score with a 27-yard sprint to the Hereford one.

After being held for no gain, Dean bulled his way over for the first score with 5:25 left in the first quarter. Boxwell's run for two points was short.

Hereford was held and had to punt. Again on the first play from scrimmage, Dumas fumbled and again Thomas fell on the ball.

Starting from the Dumas 24, Hereford was penalized five yards and moved just 11 yards in four plays.

Dumas took over and staged a 77-yard march in 15 plays. Halfback Ray Casas zoomed for 16 yards while Dean was getting 7.8 and 15. Dean's 16-yard gainer put the ball on the Hereford three. (Continued on page 2)

Arrested Here, Man Held For Draft Evasion

Enocencio Ramos Mariscal, 25, of Edinburg Thursday was turned over to a United States Marshal for return to Amarillo after he was arrested in Hereford Wednesday afternoon for draft evasion.

Mariscal was arrested at about 3:15 p. m. Wednesday in the 100 block of Main St. Making the arrest was Hereford police-patrolman Claude Roper.

The case is pending Federal Court action in Amarillo, Hereford police said.

Amarillo Firm Gets Pavement Raising Job

An Amarillo firm has been awarded contract to raise the elevation of the so-called "lake-area" of U. S. highway 385 five miles north of Hereford, it was announced by the Texas Highway Department this week.

The Amarillo Firm, Ivan Demment, Inc., submitted low bid of $50,964 on the project. Construction is expected to take about 30 working days, according to William V. York, of Canyon, resident engineer in charge of the project while it's under construction.

Sealed proposals for construction of 8 of a mile of highway construction will begin five miles north of the city and continue 8 mile north.

Construction will include grading, structures, flexible base and course surface treatment, according to Charles W. Smith of Amarillo, District Highway Engineer.

Unusually heavy rains this year left a temporary playa lake across the section of U. S. 385 June 17 through Aug. 1. During that time, through traffic was re-routed, causing a temporary inconvenience to residents in the northern part of the county, (Staff Photo)

A SCREAMING PROP-JET airliner, preparing for take-off interrupted a talk in Amarillo Thursday by Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic presidential candidate. And the threats and waving fist of a party ditatory (arrow) had no effect. A large delegation from the county attended the rally. Vice-president candidate Lyndon Johnson is seated at far left, leaning away from the jet roar while Kennedy joins U. S. Rep. Walter Rogers and others in looking at the offending plane. (Staff Photo)

WEDNESDAY'S TOO LATE
 We can't alibi for Friday's ballgame. Dumas was ready and Hereford wasn't. It was one of the few times this season that the Whiteface defense wasn't real tough and those little Demon linemen got the jump on almost every play. But a 4-3-1 record is nothing to be ashamed of and Hereford might be ready when it plays in Littlefield Friday. The Freshmen and B squads will host Littlefield here Thursday night.

 Dean got two and Boxwell sneaked over the last yard to score. Boxwell's pass for two points was incomplete, but Dumas had a 12-0 lead with 8:06 left in the second quarter.

Hereford's drive was stopped by a fumble. Dumas had to punt and the Herd started a drive late in the second quarter.

But after two first downs, Boxwell intercepted a pass to halt the rally.

On the second play of the third period, Hereford lost the ball on a fumble.

Dumas drove to the Hereford eight, where it was first and goal.

Four plays later, Hereford had given up only six yards as the Whiteface defense stiffened.

With less than five minutes remaining, Dumas fumbled and Hereford got the ball on its own 31. On a third and seven situation, halfback Dennis Hodges spun and jumped for eight yards to keep the drive moving.

Fullback Dale Vick powered for nine yards to give Dumas a first down and allow it to run out the clock.

Both teams were hampered by fumbles because of the cold weather, but Dumas took advantage of its breaks. Hereford's offense was spasmodic and its defense failed to stop the expected short-side run around end by Dean and Boxwell.

 ford, gave the statement to Deaf Smith County Sheriff's office deputies Kenneth Maxwell and Domingo Pesina at the New Mexico penitentiary Wednesday this week.

County Sheriff Lowell Sharp of Hereford said his office earlier this week had information that Sandoval might be in Santa Rosa, N. M. Deputies Maxwell and Pesina were told by Santa Rosa law enforcement officers that Sandoval had been convicted on a burglary charge in Santa Rosa and was sentenced to a three-year term in the New Mexico State Penitentiary.

Sandoval Wednesday signed a statement admitting having a part in the burglary, in which approximately $600 in cash and about $200 in checks were taken on the night of Feb. 5. The Sheriff's department in Hereford has placed a hold on the convicted man upon his release from the Santa Fe penitentiary.

In his statement, Sandoval said he stood outside the service station, located at 403 E. First St. in Hereford, while Gonzales burglarized the business. He said a window air conditioner was pushed to one side at the rear of the business in gaining entry. The burglary took place at about midnight, and Gonzales was in the station about 25 minutes, Sandoval said.

Sandoval said Gonzales paid an unidentified man to take him and Gonzales to Clovis, N. M., following the burglary.

Sandoval said he never entered the station, and that he received $150 in cash following the burglary.

He said in his statement that he and Gonzales rented a hotel room after arriving in Clovis. The following morning, Sandoval said, he went to Santa Rosa and has not seen Gonzales since that time.

Ernest O. Thompson is running on the Democratic ticket for Railroad Commissioner, opposed by Republican G. W. Ewing Jr. for Comptroller of Public Accounts, Democrat Robert S. Calvert will match votes against Mrs. Hargrove (Alesse) Smith, Republican candidate.

Jerry Sadler, Democratic candidate, is opposed by Republican Axtell Byles for the Commissioner of General Land Office post. Jesse James will seek another term as State Treasurer, running on the Democratic slate against his Republican opposition, Allen Lacy.

Running on the Democratic ticket, John C. White will eye another term as State Commissioner of Agriculture. White is opposed by Republican candidate Clarence Danklefs.

Will Wilson will seek another term as Attorney General on the Democratic ticket against Republican Gordon Tredaway. John G. Tower will represent the Republican party for U. S. Senator against incumbent Sen. Johnson.

Unopposed Democratic candidates for other state offices are Robert W. Calvert for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Clyde E. Smith for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Place One, Joe Greenhill for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Place Two, and W. T. McDonald for Judge of Court of Criminal Appeals.

Constitution party candidates include Charles L. Sullivan for President; Merritt B. Curtis for Vice President; Philip Lee Eubank for Lieutenant Governor; Muckelroy McDonnald for Attorney General; Bard A. Logan for U. S. Senator; Ruben R. Lozano for Judge of Court of Criminal Appeals; I. C. Jarman

Four Proposed Amendments On Tuesday Ballot

At the bottom of Tuesday's ballot for the General Election will be tacked proposals for and against four amendments to the Texas Constitution. In order that voters may study these four proposed amendments, we are printing the following detailed study of each of them. Also included in the discussion are the arguments which have been advanced both for and against each of the amendments. The Editor, HOSPITAL DISTRICTS IN LAMAR AND HIDALGO COUNTIES AND IN PART OF COMANCHE COUNTY

H. J. R. 39
Under House Joint Resolution No. 39 the Legislature could authorize creation of special hospital districts in Lamar County, Hidalgo County and Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County.

No tax could be levied in any of these districts until it was approved by majority vote of the participating resident qualified taxpaying voters of the district who had duly rendered elections so long as the obligations of the district were not impaired and so long as the rate did not exceed the maximum established by the constitutional amendment.

For the Lamar County Hospital District the maximum rate would be 75c per $100 valuation of property subject to district taxation. In Hidalgo County the maximum would be 10c for the hospital district. In Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County the hospital district maximum would be 75c.

If a tax was authorized for one of these hospital districts at an election, no other political subdivision or municipality within the district's boundaries could levy a tax for medical or hospital care for needy individuals, and they would be prohibited from maintaining or erecting their own hospital facilities thereafter. The district would be required to assume such responsibilities and also the applicable liabilities and obligations of the subdivisions or municipalities within its boundaries. The Legislature could authorize the district to issue tax bonds payable from the taxes it collected for the purchase, construction, acquisition and renovation of improvements and for initially equipping them.

If a hospital district should be established in Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County, the rest of the county could, by law, be authorized to pay part of the expenses of operating and maintaining the system, and might also be permitted to pay part of the debts of the hospital district. For these purposes the county might be allowed to levy a tax not to exceed 10c on the $100 valuation on all property within the county other than Precinct No. 4. If such county aid should be authorized, the hospital district would have to assume all obligations, liabilities and responsibilities of the county in the same way it does that of municipalities and other political subdivisions lying within the district.

Adoption of this amendment would not in itself create any of the districts; in each case that could be determined by local voters under provisions of special laws passed by the Legislature may enact enabling laws in anticipation of its adoption. House Bill 532, adopted at the regular session of the Legislature in 1959, provides an enabling act for Lamar County. House Bill 985, adopted at the same session, is an enabling act for Hidalgo County. Senate Bill 13, adopted during the first called session of the Legislature in 1957, is an enabling act for Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County.

These new constitutional provisions, if adopted, would become Sections 6, 7 and 8 of Article IX of our Constitution. Section 6 would apply to Lamar County, Section 7 to Hidalgo County and Section 8 to Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County.

These sections would follow Section 5, adopted in 1953, which empowered the Legislature to authorize creation of hospital districts in Wichita County, the City of Amarillo and two districts in Jefferson County. Section 4, adopted in 1954, applied to creation of hospital districts in counties having a population in excess of 190,000 and in Galveston County.

INCREASING THE LIMIT ON THE INTEREST RATE ON VETERANS' BONDS TO 3 1/2%
H. J. R. 6
Senate Joint Resolution No. 6 would permit a rate of interest not to exceed 3 1/2% on bonds issued hereafter for the benefit of the Veterans' Land Fund. The limit is now 3%.

Proceeds of these bonds go into the Veterans' Land Fund to be used for the sole purpose of purchasing lands to be sold to Texas War Veterans. Under this program veterans are assisted in the purchase of land by loans to them repayable at low interest rates over a long period of time. Support of the program by Texas citizens is evidenced by the fact that when initially established by amendment of our Constitution in 1946, and on the occasion of approving additional bonds in 1951 and 1956, the majority vote was substantial.

A total of $200,000,000 in bonds has been authorized. The last $62,500,000 of these bonds have not been issued because, bearing 3% interest, they cannot be sold at par in the present market. The Constitution requires that they bring at least par value and accrued interest.

Interest rates fluctuate on all government bonds, federal, state or local. The proposed rate will not guarantee immediate sale of these bonds; but experts in this field of finance think the 3 1/2% rate should prove sufficient under average bond market conditions.

If adopted, Senate Joint Resolution No. 6 would amend Section 49-b, Article III of our Constitution.

A YEARLY SALARY PLUS A PER DIEM FOR MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE
H. J. R. 3

House Joint Resolution No. 3 proposes to pay members of the Texas Legislature a salary of $4,800 per year plus an additional $12 per day while the Legislature is in session. The daily pay, or per diem, would be for a maximum of one hundred twenty days of a Regular Session (even though the session could extend to one hundred forty days.) It would be paid for the full thirty days of any Special Session.

The Legislature is organized for a two year term, commonly called a biennium. The Regular Session starts in January of the first year, which is the odd-numbered year. No other sessions are held during the two year period unless the Governor calls a Special Session.

The Length of the Regular Session is now left to the judgment of legislators. If this amendment is adopted, the Regular Session will be limited to one hundred forty days.

These changes would be accomplished by amending Section 24, Article III of the State Constitution. The same section provides that members of the Legislature shall receive at each session travel expenses for one round trip from their home to Austin, figured on the basis of $2.50 for every twenty-five miles. The proposed amendment does not change these mileage provisions.

When our Constitution was adopted in 1876, compensation of legislators was set at $5 per day for the first sixty days and $2 a day thereafter. In 1930 pay was raised to $10 per day for the first one hundred twenty days of a session and $5 thereafter. In 1954 the per diem was increased to $25 per day for the first one hundred twenty days with no further pay if the session lasts longer.

If no Special Session were called during the two year period of a biennium, this proposed constitutional amendment would allow a member of the Legislature a total salary of $9,600 for the two years plus $12 a day for one hundred twenty days—$11,040 in all. Present pay for similar service, under terms of the 1954 amendment mentioned above, is $3,000.

In 1959 our Legislature was in session two hundred one days, including the regular session and three called sessions. A member was paid $5,025 for these two hundred one days. This year, there being no special session, members drew no pay. If the proposed new salary scale had been in effect during this current biennium, a member would have been paid $7,212 for 1959, plus an additional $4,800 in 1960 when there was no legislative session, a total of $12,012.

Thirty-four states use a salary plan for compensating members of their legislatures. Salary proposals of various kinds have been submitted in Texas, but none approved. The most recent, in 1949 and 1958, included provisions for annual sessions of the Legislature. Annual sessions proved to be unpopular and undoubtedly affected the vote. House Joint Resolution No. 3 does not require annual sessions; on the contrary, it would permit only one regular session of not to exceed one hundred forty days during each biennium.

The last five regular sessions averaged one hundred thirty-eight days in length, the longest being one hundred fifty-one days in 1951 and the shortest lasting one hundred twenty days in 1959. If one hundred forty days should not prove sufficient for transacting necessary business, the Legislature could be called into a special session as it was three times last year. Work of a special session is limited to subjects submitted by the Governor. Salaries are more readily compared on a biennial basis since most states operate that way. The proposed $4,800 per year for Texas legislators would amount to $9,600 for a biennium. The range per biennium in the thirty-four states which use a salary plan is from $200 in New Hampshire to $15,000 in New York. The median figure is $3,600 per biennium.

Argument over the pay increase centers on the fact that it would be paid on an annual basis instead of the daily pay now stipulated in the Constitution.

Proponents believe that a yearly salary of $4,800 would make it possible for many good citizens to serve in the Legislature, who have heretofore refused to run for office, because it would enable them to devote whatever time is necessary to legislative work. They argue that the present pay of $25 per day does not meet actual expenses incurred by a member of the Legislature when it is in session.

Opponents of this amendment generally favor an increased per diem. They think an annual salary is more likely to attract people who want to make the Legislature a full-time job. They argue that men who spend the major part of their time in private employment are better legislators because they are closer to the people and their problems. They believe a generously adequate daily pay for the time spent in legislative sessions is more appealing to such citizens. They question whether New York or any other state has a finer or more dedicated group of members than those now serving in the Texas Legislature.

MAXIMUM RATES OF INTEREST THEY CAN CHARGE
H. J. R. 6

House Joint Resolution No. 6 would give the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, to license and regulate lenders, to define what part of the charge made on loans should be considered interest and to fix the maximum rate of interest which could be charged.

Our Constitution now provides that the maximum rate of interest which can be charged on any contract shall be 10% per annum. In contracts where no rate of interest is agreed upon, the rate may not exceed 6%.

In the small loan business the cost of maintaining an office and servicing loans is included in the rate charged for use of the money. Figures gathered by the Texas Legislative Council indicate three-fourths of more of gross income goes for expenses of operation. The trend of court decisions is to hold that most, if not all, these costs must be considered as interest and subject to constitutional limits.

Numerous studies have been made of abuses in the small loan field. This proposed amendment is the result of a thorough analysis of the subject made in 1958 by the Texas Legislative Council. The Council concluded that abuses cannot be controlled without destroying a needed source of loans, unless the Legislature is given authority to define those items which represent reasonable costs of doing business. The Legislature would then be able to enact small loan laws, such as thirty-seven states now have.

The proposed amendment provides that should any regulatory agency cancel or refuse to grant a permit under any law passed by the Legislature, the applicant or holder of a permit would have the right of appeal to the courts.

If this amendment is adopted, it will replace the present Section 11, Article XVI of our Constitution.

One thing for sure, come next Wednesday morning and people will have to find another topic of conversation. Folks have been talking politics so long, it won't be easy.

Ray Cowsert and Dub Reeves suggested a couple of old topics which have always been popular, but someone mentioned Nixon or Kennedy about that time - and everybody shifted gears back to politics. Meanwhile, after reading and listening to the insults and counter-insults of the two candidates for the past few weeks, I have come to one conclusion: "Thank goodness, only one of them can get elected."

And when you pause to consider some of the troubles our January, 1961, it truly is amazing that anyone would even take the office, much less ask for it.

Several Hereford merchants have inserted an appeal in their ads this issue for people to listen to KPAN at 1:05 Monday. The way I get the deal is that a non-partisan program will be presented concerning Communism and Socialism. They say the tape was especially released for local broadcast. It concerns a speech by Ronald Reagan, movie star, who helped drive the Communists out of Hollywood ranks a few years. Anyway, it will be a relief to for a change.

Also, don't forget the Kiwanis pancake supper Tuesday night. In addition to the food, they plan to show election returns. It will be in the hotel ball room this year, and should be a dandy.

Young Homemakers In Tuesday Meet

The Young Homemakers Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Charles Brothers, 309 Ave. K. Mrs. James Gandy discussed ways to raise money and each member brought a Christmas gift idea.

Mrs. Phillip Shook gave a report on the H.D. Council meeting.

Mesdames Dale Hines, Kenneth DeHart, and Wayland Hukill were welcomed as new members in the club. Those present, in addition to guests and new members, were: Mesdames Frank Day, John C. Robinson, Phillip Shook, Jack Campbell, Eugene Campbell, James Stayton, Melvin Shaw and the hostess, Mrs. Charles Brothers.

Monday is Dollar Day. As usual the November occasion will be a good one chiefly because it ushers in the Winter apparel months, and gives folks a chance to stock up on everything from red flannels to mink coats - at somewhat of a saving.

Lee Benefield is the hardest guy in town to find, when you happen to want to see him. I thought Slim DeBusk and Bill Decker were bad, but they won't hold a candle to Benefield; I've been hunting him three days now, and haven't even got "warm."

I got somewhat of a jolt a couple of weeks ago while riding in a taxi in Dallas, Texas. I always like to talk with taxi drivers, and this time we were both surprised when it developed that the driver not only used to live in Hereford, but once worked two days for The Brand. "I should have stayed with the job and learned the printing trade," said the driver, "but some gypsies came along and I quit to go with them and take a job cleaning cess pools." My companion, Canyon Publisher Troy Martin, got quite a chuckle out of the deal as he remarked: "Anything, I guess, is better than working for The Hereford Brand."

Probably I will never again place so much confidence in taxi drivers and their opinions, but it does prove that we live in a small world.

Children learn early these days. A groceryman was telling me about a conversation he recently overheard. A small child, attempting to help her mother shop in the store, picked up a package, carried it over and deposited it in the cart:

"No, No, Honey," said the mother. "Go put it back. It's one of those kind you have to cook."

Several of the Optimist and Jaycee boys are limping around, nursing bruises and sprained fingers these days. It is all a result of practice for the big football game they have matched for Nov. 12, and it is probably going to get worse, especially after the game. If these fellows are deciding they aren't so young anymore, think what a tragedy it would be if the Rotary and Lions matched such a contest. I can just see Major Schroeter, Jim Witherpoon, Joel Hodges and Les Combs - following a tough quarter on the gridiron. Their wives would be the real victims, having to listen to all of that moaning and groaning.

E. T. Brooks is probably the most gracefully retired fellow I ever knew. He takes things easy, enjoys life thoroughly, and does a lot of visiting, domino playing and the like. Most retired people keep themselves worked into a lather all of the time, but not Mr. Brooks. Come to think of it, maybe he isn't retired at all. S. O. Wilson is another one, but he still gets mixed up in too many things to completely enjoy the status.

Pheasant hunting finally picked up a bit with some new faces. Roy Smith, Glenn Burrus and Frank Cogdell are up in Kansas, and left just about the time Gwynne Owen and Earl Stagner got back. Fishing up a storm down on the Gulf Coast are Dr. R. R. Wills, R. C. McGilvary, Mr. and Mrs. George Stambaugh.

Dumas stopped the White-faces cold Friday but, like someone said, anytime we beat Phillips we've had a good season.

The Lions Magazine says dog is man's best friend because he wags his tail instead of his head.

Conduct Rites For Father Of Cuby Kitchens

Funeral services for John W. Kitchens, 62, father of Hubert (Cuby) Kitchens of Hereford, were held Friday at 2 p. m. in the First Baptist Church of Childress. The Rev. Joe S. Allen, pastor, and the Rev. Gordon Highfill, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, officiated.

Mr. Kitchens, mail carrier on the Star Route serving the Dodson area for the past 12 years, died about 10:20 a. m. Thursday, Nov. 3, in Harris Memorial Hospital in Fort Worth. He was taken to Fort Worth by ambulance late Tuesday after he became ill.

He lived in the Community Center north of Childress and had farmed in that area for many years. He was born April 20, 1898, in Wood County, Tex. He was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Deva of the home; four sons, Charles of Stephenville, Derward of Tucson, Ariz., Harold of Midland, and Cuby, Hereford; two sisters Mrs. Beulah Adams of Lubbock and Mrs. Maude Adams of Vernon.

Burial was in Childress Cemetery under direction of Newberry Funeral home there.

Full name of symphonic orchestra conductor Leopold Stokowski is Leopold Antoni Stanislaw Boleslawowicz Stokowski.

Mrs. Slaughter Dies In Germany

Graveside services for Mrs. Dorothy Slaughter, 24, of Butzbak, Germany, were held at 3 p. m. Saturday in West Park Cemetery in Hereford, with the Rev. Robert Laceywell, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church, officiating.

Mrs. Slaughter died at 2 p. m. Oct. 22 in the Landstuhl Army

Hospital in Butzbak after a short illness.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a. m. Saturday in the Franklin-Bartlett Funeral Chapel in Lubbock, with the Rev. T. M. Harrell of Hamlin, Tex., officiating.

Mrs. Slaughter was born Nov. 22, 1935, in Jacksonville, Tex. She and Larry Slaughter of Hereford were married Jan. 31, 1953, in Abilene. The couple went to Germany on April 21, 21, 1958, from Camp Polk, La. Survivors include her husband, two sons, Larry, four, and Scott, seven months; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Courtney of Lubbock; a brother, Gordon Courtney of Lubbock; three sisters, Mrs. Stacie Davis of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Miss Evelyn Courtney and Miss Karen Courtney, both of Lubbock.

Funeral arrangements in Hereford were under direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

AMATEUR RAILROADERS

LYNDHURST, N. J. (AP)—Though the day of the commuter railroad may be ending, there's a railroad here that is looking for more passengers and doesn't charge one penny.

The railroad runs on 722 feet of track raised three feet above the ground. The locomotives are one-twelfth scale and are real coal-eating, steam-driven engines.

They are built by amateur engineers from miles around who call themselves "Eastern Live Steamers." The engines can pull 12 grown men and even more children at a time.

Gelatin Tip
The best point at which to whip a mixture of unflavored gelatin and fruit juice (or milk) for a chiffon dessert is when the gelatin mixture has cooled and thickened slightly more than the unbeaten egg white. At such a stage, the volume can be increased two to three times that of the unbeaten gelatin.

Linoleum Patching
Small holes in the linoleum may be patched by carefully filling them with a mixture of finely chopped cork and liquid glue, which is permitted to dry thoroughly and then given a coat of clear varnish.

Rain-Spotted Felt
When a felt hat has become spotted by rain, rub the surface with steel wool until the nap is raised, and you'll find that the spots have disappeared.

Window Shade Roller
To stretch a window shade roller that just falls short of the distance between the supporting brackets, first remove the pin from the roller end and pry off the metal cap carefully. Slip a sasher into the cap, push the cap back onto the roller, and replace the end pin. Return the shade to the brackets.

Conduct Rites For Father Of Cuby Kitchens

Funeral services for John W. Kitchens, 62, father of Hubert (Cuby) Kitchens of Hereford, were held Friday at 2 p. m. in the First Baptist Church of Childress. The Rev. Joe S. Allen, pastor, and the Rev. Gordon Highfill, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, officiated.

Mr. Kitchens, mail carrier on the Star Route serving the Dodson area for the past 12 years, died about 10:20 a. m. Thursday, Nov. 3, in Harris Memorial Hospital in Fort Worth. He was taken to Fort Worth by ambulance late Tuesday after he became ill. He lived in the Community Center north of Childress and had farmed in that area for many years. He was born April 20, 1898, in Wood County, Tex. He was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Deva of the home; four sons, Charles of Stephenville, Derward of Tucson, Ariz., Harold of Midland, and Cuby, Hereford; two sisters Mrs. Beulah Adams of Lubbock and Mrs. Maude Adams of Vernon.

Burial was in Childress Cemetery under direction of Newberry Funeral home there.

Full name of symphonic orchestra conductor Leopold Stokowski is Leopold Antoni Stanislaw Boleslawowicz Stokowski.

Mrs. Slaughter Dies In Germany

Graveside services for Mrs. Dorothy Slaughter, 24, of Butzbak, Germany, were held at 3 p. m. Saturday in West Park Cemetery in Hereford, with the Rev. Robert Lacewell, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church, officiating. Mrs. Slaughter died at 2 p. m. Oct. 22 in the Landstuhl Army

Hospital in Butzbak after a short illness.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a. m. Saturday in the Franklin-Bartlett Funeral Chapel in Lubbock, with the Rev. T. M. Harrell of Hamlin, Tex., officiating.

Mrs. Slaughter was born Nov. 22, 1935, in Jacksonville, Tex. She and Larry Slaughter of Hereford were married Jan. 31, 1953, in Abilene. The couple went to Germany on April 21, 21, 1958, from Camp Polk, La.

Survivors include her husband, two sons, Larry, four, and Scott, seven months; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Courtney of Lubbock; a brother, Gordon Courtney of Lubbock; three sisters, Mrs. Stacie Davis of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Miss Evelyn Courtney and Miss Karen Courtney, both of Lubbock.

Funeral arrangements in Hereford were under direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

AMATEUR RAILROADERS

LYNDHURST, N. J. (AP)—Though the day of the commuter railroad may be ending, there's a railroad here that is looking for more passengers and doesn't charge one penny.

The railroad runs on 722 feet of track raised three feet above the ground. The locomotives are one-twelfth scale and are real coal-eating, steam-driven engines.

They are built by amateur engineers from miles around who call themselves "Eastern Live Steamers." The engines can pull 12 grown men and even more children at a time.

Gelatin Tip
The best point at which to whip a mixture of unflavored gelatin and fruit juice (or milk) for a chiffon dessert is when the gelatin mixture has cooled and thickened slightly more than the unbeaten egg white. At such a stage, the volume can be increased two to three times that of the unbeaten gelatin.

AMERICANS ARE AT THE CROSSROADS! WHICH WAY DO YOU CHOOSE? COMPARE!

COMPARE what you are making now with what you made under Truman.

Do you have a better home today?

Are appliances making your life more pleasant?

Do you drive a better car today?

Mr. Kennedy says we are spending our money foolishly when we buy better things for ourselves and that the Federal Government should take our money from us and spend it for us.

Do you like peace... instead of war?

Do you enjoy your husbands and sons home by the fireside?

COMPARE the Republican record of Peace without surrender to that of the Democratic Party.

Do farmers need a farm program administered by a Czar of Agriculture?

Mr. Kennedy would imply that all Agriculture must submit to complete control from Washington.

Submit to control or go to jail!

Is it better for the American farmer to live under a Czar... is it better for ANY American to do so... or is it better that we live as FREE men, to do as we please as FREE men, a privilege for which our grandfathers, fathers, sons, and daughters gave their most precious possession... their lives?

Grandmother Finds Secret For Youth With Hobbies

BY MONA JETTE
WOMEN'S EDITOR

Much has been written in recent years on the American Female usurping the place of the American Male in the home and in the business world.

Very few women today really want to compete with men in any phase of life. A basic need drives the average woman away from the dish pan and the clothesline into the magic world of jobs and hobbies. That basic need is the necessity of retaining some individuality, some little part of that sacred privacy that every woman claims as "the real me."

Some women can combine both a job and a hobby. Mrs. Imogenne Willis is such a woman—in fact, her hobby is her job.

Many Hereford residents are familiar with Imogenne's talent with mosaic tile. She has taught this craft for some time and plans to start free classes this next week for children aged ten years to 18 years.

Imogenne, a platinum-haired grandmother, with a deep tan and electric blue-grey eyes, is an example of today's modern woman-on-the-go. She studied mosaic two years ago in Houston under an Italian teacher, Moretta Wright. And since then, she has constantly improved her style and now does work with a professional flair.

The art of the mosaicist is one of the earliest true art forms known to man. As early as 3500 B. C., the Sumerians of the Euphrates Valley were gluing bits of stones to boards and creating stone pictures. In time, they developed a technique whereby the stones were attached to larger areas and mosaic murals became an integral part of their architectural forms.

Following the Sumerians in this art, the Egyptians not only created mosaic floors and murals, but developed the technique for melting and fusing glass rods to create beautiful mosaic jewelry.

The Greeks and Romans explored mosaics and developed the use of glass, rather than the natural stones and marble previously used in large mosaic areas. And from this ancient background comes the modern mosaicist.

Imogenne Willis is the forerunner of this old art in this part of the country. Her imaginative style lends zest and freshness to all her creations. Imogenne's home is a showplace for her talents. Her kitchen, which she designed, has as a focal point the kitchen countertop, covered with blue-grey and white venetian tiles, each of which is around three-quarters of an inch square. The pattern is enhanced by tiles in a bronze color, set in at irregular intervals.

Her bathroom is done in varying shades of turquoise. The entire bathing area is tiled in a picturesque beach scene. Figures stretched out on the sand seem to be absorbing the unseen sun, while a lighthouse stands sentinel in the background. The dressing table top matches the tiles of the walls surrounding the bathtub, again with the little touches of bronze venetian tile for accentuation. Imogenne worked approximately 150 hours completing the tile work in the bathroom.

Imogenne displayed several plaques she had made for kitchen use, among them a large fish and a luscious pineapple. The authentic pineapple was done in green and gold Smalti tile and looked good enough to eat.

"People think they have to be an artist to do mosaics," said Imogenne. "It helps, of course. But you know, we all have a little of the artist in us."

Fortunately, she possesses more than just "a little" of the artist. She does free style painting in oils and also does excellent china painting.

She has just completed a set of Christmas dishes, decorated with apple-cheeked angel-children. One plate, decorated with a snow-suited cherub planting a damp kiss on a jolly snowman, is especially cunning.

Mrs. Willis also sews and commented that she made drapes in her "spare time." She loves to read and is also an expert fisher-woman. She has just returned from a trip to Port Aransas.

Guests Are Fed With Salad Supper

Mesdames H. A. Walston, Leonard Davis, Dick Oakes, Arnold Wall, and Bill Craig acted as hostesses at a salad supper given Monday night at the VFW Hall by the V. F. W. Auxiliary.

A Halloween motif was used throughout the dining room. The table was covered with a white cotton tablecloth and centered with an attractive arrangement of miniature pumpkins and autumn leaves, with orange candles to highlight the centerpieces.

Special guests were Mesdames J. R. Watson, Gertrude Nickerson, W. J. Lueb, T. E. Brisendine, Marvin Kearns, and Harry Lookingbill.

Members attending were Mesdames Ida Mae Vaughn, Harold Hawkins, L. H. Lookingbill, Jr., Bill Massie, L. J. Clark, Effie Crow, Wayne Lawrence, Merl Bridges, Loyd Olson, Dub Maddox, Molly Jo Schofield and Doice Nivens.

Study Club Meets In Community Room

Mrs. Ray Johnson of Summerfield, assisted by Mr. L. H. Lookingbill, presented an outstanding program on dried arrangements at a recent meeting of the Valeda Study Club, which was held in the Community Bank building.

Using a variety of dried materials, the two women demonstrated the different types of centerpieces which could be made to suit the occasion. Several arrangements were used to decorate the meeting room.

Members present were Mesdames James Alston, Labry Ballard, James Boyd, Bill Brandy, Gid Brown, Wendell Burdine, Hugh Clearman, Dick Godwin, Charles Hoover, Kenneth Malone, Gerald McCaskill, Gwynne Owen, George Ritter, Jess Robinson and Charles Bell.

Mrs. John Seivers, Mrs. Rex Lee, and Mrs. Clinton Massie were guests.

Hungarian Recipe For Taste Treat

Everyone likes fried chicken. But a lot of housewives find that one chicken is not enough, and if they fry two, find themselves staring at a platter containing several necks, wings and backs at the end of a meal.

Here is a neat trick offered by Mrs. Ludwig (Louie) Kovacs. Freeze the bony parts of the chicken for another day, and when your hungry family is least expecting it, serve up this tasty dish for a big surprise.

Chicken And Rice
1 tsp. salt
Bony parts of two chickens or one 3 pound hen
1 bay leaf
10 peppercorns
leafy tops of several stalks of celery
2 Tbs. butter or shortening
1 cup rice
½ Cup chopped onions
Combine chicken, bay leaf, peppercorn, salt and celery in large saucepan, cover with water and simmer until tender. Remove chicken and remove meat from bones. Strain broth and measure off around two or two and one-half cups liquid.

In large skillet, combine butter, and onion and brown well. Add rice and brown slightly. Add meat and liquid and steam until liquid is absorbed, about (Continued on page 2)

God's Glory Givers Hold Recent Meet

The Intermediate Girl's class of the Avenue Baptist Church met recently in the home of Dorothy Sparkley.

The group voted on a new name, God's Glory Givers, or the Three G's. Chosen colors are green, white and gold and the new creed is "Sincerity in what we do and say; purity of heart and soul; and growth in number and spirit."

Members present were Gayle and Kay Bishop, Judy and Sue Smith, Betty Thomas, Carol Rigman, Jimmie Davis, Doris Barnett, and Billie Ann Grey.

Art Group Has Meet

The home of Mrs. Carlos Vaughn, 303 Ave. H., was the scene of a meeting of the Hereford Ceramics Art Club, held Oct. 27. Mrs. L. W. Norvell opened the meeting with roll call.

Mrs. W. J. Autrey displayed a collection of iridescent lustreware which she had recently (Continued on page 2)

Golden Age Group Honored By Club

Women of the Golden Age Group were honored at the Monday meeting of the Pioneer Study Club held in the Flame Room of the Pioneer Natural Gas building.

Special guests for the afternoon's festivities included Mesdames Joe Huckert, Ruth Lambert, R. J. Smith, Mary Bodkin, Lula Thomas, J. W. Alexander, Ida Ricketts, John Cunningham of Fort Worth, Harvey Bordner, J. P. Slaton, Minnie Williams, W. M. McGehee and Miss Jessie Morris. These women are all in the 64-90 age group and are honored several times a year by the Pioneer Club.

This club was mentioned in the last issue of the official Women's Clubs publication, "The Texas Clubwoman," as one of 30 clubs in the Top O' Texas District who subscribe 100 per cent to that magazine.

Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. read several poems from a collection entitled "Leaves Of Gold" to highlight the meeting.

Members present were Mesdames Ralph McCullough, John Patton, Myrtle Wright, Gladys Miller, C. N. McClure, Wirt

Antonian Circle In Friday Meet

The Antonian Circle of St. Anthony's Catholic Church met in the school auditorium on Friday evening, Oct. 28.

Mrs. Alfred Reinart, president, presided over the business meeting. Roll call was answered by the telling of a Halloween prank and plans for the annual Thanksgiving dinner were discussed.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames Sylvester Fangman, Billy Massie and Lester Wagner.

College Students Reveal Plans For Holiday Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Newsom, 130 Ave. C., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jane Evelyn, to Norman Ben Bookout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bookout of Hereford.

Wedding plans are set for December 29 in the First Methodist Church of Hereford.

The couple are both graduates of Hereford High School and are presently enrolled as students at Texas Technological College in Lubbock. Miss Newsom is an English major and will graduate in January. Bookout is a math major and plans to graduate in June.

Local Library Club Attends Lubbock Meet

Nine members of the Sadye Rigler Library Club attended the Teenage Library Association area meeting held in Lubbock Sat., Oct. 23.

Meeting Is Held By Wyche HD Club

The alteration of men's clothing was the subject for the program presented at a recent meeting of the Wyche Home Demonstration Club, which met in the home of Mrs. W. P. Axe.

Mrs. Ira Ott was guest speaker, who explained to club women the technique of taking up men's trousers and altering pants that are too long.

Mrs. Ott, who also serves the club as president, was in charge of the short business meeting.

Meet Features Flag Etiquette

Plans were made for the annual Thanksgiving Dinner at a meeting of St. Anthony's Guild held Wednesday evening in the school auditorium, with Mrs. Ed Dzuik presiding over the business meeting.

Mrs. H. J. Wijnheim was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. Gene Loerwald won the gift award.

The members answered roll call with "A Historical Spot I Would Like To Visit." Theme for the program was "Flag Etiquette." The group pledged allegiance to the flag and joined in singing "The Star Spangled Banner," and "America the Beautiful."

Mrs. Andrew Kershen presented a history of the Stars and Stripes and Mrs. Mable Wagner gave a description and rules for proper display and use of the national flag.

Film On Atom Is Shown Club

"The Friendly Atom" was the featured topic of the program at a meeting of the La Affiliatus Estudio Club, held Tuesday at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Emmett Hale, 303 Star.

Special guests Cleo Meharg and Gerald McCaskill presented a film on atoms to the clubwomen, after which a discussion was held.

Those attending were Mesdames Gordon Elliott, George Suggs, D. A. Reddell, T. W. Robertson, A. M. Hopson, A. B. Higgins, Emmett Hale and the two guests.

THIRTEEN WOMEN WERE special guests of the Pioneer Study Club when they entertained with a "Golden Age" party Monday afternoon, in the Flame Room of the Pioneer Natural Gas building. Standing are Mrs. Joe Huckert, Mrs. J. P. Slaton, Mrs. W. M. McGehee, Mrs. Lula Thomas, Mrs.

Nov. 2. The Mexican Baptist Orphans Home is one of four children's homes in the state owned and operated by the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Texas Baptists, through cooperative program gifts from some 3,887 Baptist churches in Texas, provide more than 1,400 children with the basic necessities of life, a Christian home environment, vocational training and educational opportunities.

The homes include the Buckner Benevolences system, South Texas Children's Home, Beeville; Texas Baptist Children's Home, Round Rock; and Mexican Baptist Children's Home, San Antonio.

Buckner Benevolences include three homes for children, two homes for the aged, and a home for unwed mothers.

VFW's Poppy Day On Tuesday

The V. F. W. Buddy Poppy is the symbol of concern for those who have given so much. It brings to memory a brother, a husband or another loved one who failed to return home from the battlefield.

It reminds many of a flaming plane in the jungles of far-away places. To some, it might

PLEDGES FRATERNITY

Wimberley was named to the High School Who Who in Science his senior year.

FALTERING START

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Attorney John Holt took 14 women seeking divorce into court and tried to calm their fears.

"It'll all be over in a few moments," he told the group. "Just watch."

Court convened, and Holt went into action. He put his first client on the stand, asked her name, and she fainted.

bring to mind a quiet hospital ward where thousands of our buddies passed many lonely, painful days.

And to others, it is the symbol of happy children, romping and playing on the spacious grounds of the V. F. W. National Home For Orphans of Veterans. This single red bloom can also mean a basket of groceries for the family of some needy veteran.

And for the many who are destined to spend the rest of their lives in a hospital ward, it can mean entertainment, parties, or just a package of cigarettes.

For more than 38 years, the crimson flower of Flanders Field has blossomed in the lapels of millions of Americans. It has come to symbolize, more than anything else, the V. F. W. motto that seeks to tell the world that the organization seeks to "Honor the Dead by Helping the Living."

The funds derived from the sale of Buddy Poppies are spent in many ways. Some is spent for the aid, relief and comfort of needy veterans and their dependents, widows and orphans.

Money goes to hospitals and individuals and is used for entertainment for needy veterans and for their dependents.

It is used for the maintenance and expansion of the V. F. W. National Home for Orphans of Veterans, and for rehabilitation, welfare and service work, including Veteran's Administration liaison service.

Some is used to cover the necessary expenses for military funerals for deceased ex-service men and for the acquisition, improvement, and maintenance of burial plots, and decoration of graves of veterans and service men.

Mrs. La Vern McMinn, Poppy Chairman for the V. F. W.

Auxiliary, announced, Friday that Poppy Day will be observed Tuesday, Nov. 8. A booth will be set up in front of Anthony's and she also made a plea for volunteer workers.

So this Tuesday, be proud to be an American...buy a Buddy Poppy.

AS A FAMILY HAVE YOU THOUGHT ABOUT THIS:

Parents should give much consideration to the Kennedy proposal for a Youth Mobilization Corps. If in the opinion of the government, your child is not surrounded by the proper environment, he will be taken away from home and enlisted in Y.M.C. Think about it.

Which pair of the four candidates possesses the greater degree of experience, sound judgment and courage to deal with the Communist threat and to keep the peace with dignity and pride?

Will this country continue to thrive as it has in the past on a foundation of individual freedom and dignity, free enterprise and states right, or will it run pell-mell in the direction of the welfare state and more centralized Federal government with the consequent loss of the freedom of its people?

AS A BUSINESS MAN WHO depends upon the profit motive and free enterprise for his very existence, what has Kennedy promised you? Nothing, except to milk taxes out of you to provide free services for others.

AS A FARMER, have you read Kennedy's farm program in detail? It would guarantee you a "fair" income as determined by bureaucrats—if you will trade what remains of your freedom for it. Even left wing Henry Wallace says the proposed Kennedy farm program is too far socialistic for him.

AS A MOTHER of teenage sons, can you risk the home life you have to visionaries and appeasers whose party carries a record of wars that end such home life? AS A YOUNG MAN, who must make whatever future this country may enjoy, can you risk the leadership of men whose out and out left wing platform leaves you with very little hope of rights or choice as an individual?

PLEASE THINK clearly, soberly, carefully, honestly concerning the issues of the past and the decisions made that thrust us into war and disaster. Remember the men who made these mistakes and listen now as Kennedy promises you more of the same.

KNOW THE FACTS

The Religious Issue

HAVEN'T WE CLOUDED THE ISSUE ABOUT RELIGION?

We should be concerned about being taken over by the godless Russians. Christians should join together in fighting atheism, rather than each other.

The Catholic Church has, probably more consistently than any other religious group, fought the communists.

In Canada they elect both Catholic and Protestants as Premiers with no noticeable difference in their administrations.

Senator Kennedy has positively declared that he does not believe in government aid to parochial schools. Republican Vice President Nominee Lodge on the other hand, says that he believes in government aid to Parochial Schools, and Nixon, when questioned about it by a Texas Baptist Magazine, was vague on the subject.

The Farm Issue

Deaf Smith County has and will continue to be predominantly dependent upon income from agriculture, which accounts for over 80% of the county income. No one can deny the fact that the Democratic Party has always been the friend of the farmer, and the Republican Party the friend of big business, and the last eight years have certainly proved this. Deaf Smith cannot afford another eight years of continued decline in income for commodities they raise. Do not lose sight of the fact that you are voting for a political party as well as individual candidates, as thousands of people within the party in power, not just the President, control the administrative and executive branch of our government.

IS OUR ECONOMY SOUND

Bankruptcy rate is UP 151%

Steel Production is DOWN 47%

Unemployment is HIGHEST in 20 years . . . twice that of any industrial nation in the world.

Interest rates are UP 40 per cent—(a rise from 5 per cent to 7 per cent on home loans equal 40 per cent increase)

25 million American are HUNGRY, according to Secretary Benson, Department of Agriculture.

Farm Income DOWN 31%

Tax Collection are UP 35% . . . YET the budget is UNBALANCED.

Our National Gross Production is increasing at the rate of 2 1/4% per year, while Russia's rate is 7% per year.
"Now it is clear we have a recession to reckon with"

IS OUR PRESTIGE HIGH?

IN CUBA (a distance from the United States which is less than the distance from Hereford to Lubbock) democracy has been replaced by Communism. Who'll be next . . . Panama or Mexico.

In SOUTH AMERICA, the Vice President was stoned.

In JAPAN, our President was denied entry.

In HUNGARY, we deserted the revolution we encouraged.

In EUROPE, we joined Nasser against our allies, France and Britain, in the Suez Crisis.

In PANAMA, we surrendered to demands over the Isthmus of Panama.

In the UN, only 8 countries voted AGAINST us on recognition of Red China in 1952; on Oct. 8, 1960, 34 countries voted against us and 22 nations, including all the new African nations, would not join us. This constitutes a majority in the UN who refuse to vote WITH us.

In WESTERN HEMISPHERE, we abrogated the Monroe Doctrine — without challenge — and permitted Russia to infiltrate Cuba.

In LAOS, we spent millions. It went Communist this year.

Our nation needs fresh new courageous leadership to regain our prestige with foreign countries; to inspire the confidence of the free world and of our people to combat the threat of Communism here and abroad. Senators Kennedy and Johnson will provide that leadership.

VOTE KENNEDY -- JOHNSON

Farmers & Businessmen

We are interested in the following: We need $2.00 Cwt for Milo, the same price that Eisenhower, Nixon and Benson are supporting for corn.

To get sufficient sugar beet acreage to justify a $15 million sugar refinery in Deaf Smith County it is imperative that we elect a Democratic president who will cooperate with our present Democratic Congressmen that are in favor of this legislation. You say the Republican party is a Conservative party . . . the only place they have been conservative is with the farmer.

Loan price on Milo in 1952, $2.50 Cwt.

Loan price on Milo in 1960, $1.38 Cwt.

IS THIS CONSERVATISM?

From George Washington through Truman, COMBINED expenditures totaled 800 billion dollars — Eisenhower-Nixon have spent 523 billion in 7 1/2 years.

Cost of our National Debt has INCREASED in the last 5 years by $12,360,000.00 A DAY!

Secretary Benson has spent MORE ($1,400,000,000.00) than all other Departments of Agriculture COMBINED in 70 years.

This year's (peacetime) budget is 88 BILLION DOLLARS — 28 billion MORE than the highest war-time budget in 1950.

Our National Debt has INCREASED 30 BILLION DOLLARS in Eisenhower's Administration (there was only a 1.4 Billion increase under Truman even during Korean War.)

IS OUR NATIONAL DEFENSE STRONG?

RUSSIA fired the first ICBM Not Us.

RUSSIA put the first rocket in orbit Not Us.

RUSSIA sent first life into outer space Not Us.

RUSSIA graduates FOUR engineers to our ONE, and FOUR TECHNICIANS TO OUR ONE (Allen Dulles reporting for Eisenhower Committee)

Big Crowd Attends Annual School Halloween Carnival

BY MRS. T. L. COLLINS

The Halloween Carnival held at Walcott School Oct. 28 was reported to be a big success. The general chairman of the carnival was Mrs. Leland Burns, who is the P-T-O treasurer.

Mrs. Burns announced that a large sum of money was received that night. She expressed appreciation to each person who helped, to each place of business that donated prizes for games, etc., and to each person who attended and enjoyed the evening of fun.

A crowd soon filled the building—a many dressed in interesting Halloween costumes, which added to the decorations seen in each room.

The kitchen attracted most people, where many brought hot dogs with chili, pie, pops, sandwiches or coffee for their evening meal. Mrs. Hershel Burrus was the kitchen chairman, with assistants, Mrs. Melvin Henderson, Mrs. Eldred Brown, Mrs. S. N. Thweatt, Mrs. Bertram Jack, Mrs. N. E. Tyler and Mrs. Floyd Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Obed Caraway, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bass, Mr. Mrs. Jim Monroe worked on the games.

Country Store was operated by Mrs. J. V. Perrin and Mrs. N. A. Brown. Fishing Pond was run by Mrs. B. E. White, Mrs. H. D. Buse, Mrs. Bruce Coleman and Mrs. Ruth Coleman.

The Grab Bag was in the responsibility of Mrs. J. E. Sorrells.

The girls' 4-H club gave away a doll, which was won by Mrs. Hershel Burrus. Their leaders, Mrs. Glenn Burrus and girls were on duty there.

Boys' 4-H club gave away a flashlight, which was won by Mrs. Leland Burns. Mrs. Norman Minks and boys were present during the evening.

Mrs. Ernest Brown showed Christmas cards that the P-T-O is selling. Fortune telling was done by Adair Melton, Marla Jack and Elizabeth Burrus, with others from the fifth and sixth grades assisting.

Cake Walk was operated by Mrs. Thurman Davis and Mrs. LeRoy Cupell. Many cakes exchanged hands.

The scare house was in charge of the teachers and seventh and eighth-grade pupils. Miss Paula Green and Miss Shirley Bourquin were present to assist.

Doll Chuck kept Leland Burns and Glenn Burrus busy throughout the evening. Leg Toss was run by Buel Monroe, and balloon darts provided a business for Ernest, Floyd and Eldred Brown.

To close out the evening some prizes still remaining were auctioned off by Jack Weaver to the highest bidder.

It was a late hour before things began to quiet down at Walcott School. Then a heavy rain fell for several minutes, to climax the successful 1960 Halloween Carnival.

Guests from Hereford who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Codgell and Chuck, Mrs. Cecil Guseman and Chip, Jamie and Marsh Pittman, Bill Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Roberts, Beverly and Ricky, Lynn Sowell, Lamar Townsend, Fred Mulkey, Phillip Walcott, Leldon Womble, Dusty Duncan, Ricky Austin, Betty Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Messer, Jack Roy and Jimmy.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Thompson and Bill, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pruitt, Royce Lee and Merry Kay, Connie and Debra Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Crume and Prissy, Mr. and Mrs. Mutt Wheeler, and Gerry Lynn, Carl Moseley, Dorothy Parker and John, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Payne, Darla and Larry.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pittman, Terrell, Kathy and Sherri from Fritch, Margaret Burrus, who is attending West Texas State College, Canyon, Donald Tice, Adrian High School, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Perrin, Carol, Jim Bob and Joe of Adrian, Lennie and Roxey Elliott of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bean, Larry and Roy, Mrs. Georgia Pinkerton, 84-years-old, J. T. Guinn, Cecil Morrison and sons Michael and Danny. Mr. and Mrs. Obed Caraway and Chip ate dinner on Sunday, Oct. 23, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Reynolds of Hereford. While there one of her uncles and a cousin that she hadn't seen in over ten years visited.

Melodye and Denise Caraway ate dinner in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Caraway, recently. In the afternoon they visited in the home of an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Pate.

Mrs. Harold Bass returned home by bus on Sunday morning, Oct. 23, after being at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Mary Whipkey of Hayward, Cal., for about 10 days.

Mrs. Whipkey had surgery and was in serious condition, but had improved slightly when Mrs. Bass left.

Walcott School assembly was held on Wednesday afternoon.

Oct. 26. Bruce Collins showed and explained his color slides made in the Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Parks this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader Wednesday after the evening meal visited in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Payne, Darla and Larry. Another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Davis of Cotton Center were present, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pittman, Sherri, Kathy and Terrell of Fritch spent Friday night and part of Saturday with his uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Collins and Bruce.

Janell Weaver, who is studying nursing at Hendrick's Memorial Hospital in connection with Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, surprised her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weaver, Mary Ruth, Charlene and Joe Don, with visit at home this weekend. Miss Weaver came home with an instructor, a Dr. Moore, who had business in Amarillo. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Burk met her in Canyon on Saturday afternoon. On Sunday afternoon her mother, Mrs. Jack Weaver, and Mrs. Jim Stocks took her back to Canyon to meet with her return ride to Abilene.

R. H. Bogle, brother of C. L. Bogle, died in Deaf Smith County Hospital on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 29. His funeral service was held on Tuesday morning at Gilliland Funeral Home. Interment was in West Park Cemetery.

Fifth Sunday Singing was held in Bippus Church on Sunday, Oct. 30, with a large crowd present.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Collins and Bruce attended a covered dish luncheon in fellowship hall of the First Methodist Church in Hereford at noon on Sunday, Oct. 30. Later Mr. and Mrs. Collins met with a group in Ward Hall to receive instruction on "Visitation Evangelism."

Bruce visited with Merry Kay fruit of Hereford. All three Collins later visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Willoughby in Hereford, and viewed movies made by the Willoughby family on their trip in July to Tacoma, Wash., and back. The Grand Coulee Dam pictures were interesting and informative.

First meeting of the "Art Class," which will deal mostly in oil-paintings, was held at Walcott School on Tuesday morning, Nov. 1. Mrs. Ernest McGee of Hereford is the instructor. Mrs. Eugene Naugle, also of Hereford, was present for instruction, along with Mrs. Noel Berry, Mrs. Thurman Davis, Mrs. J. V. Perrin, Mrs.

John Hill, Mrs. Jim Stocks and Mrs. Waldron Melton.

Walcott's 4-H clubs met on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 1, at school. Mrs. Glenn Burrus, leader, met with the girls, and elected officers. Candy-making proved interesting, and they made peanut brittle and divinity, which they shared with the teachers. A coffee can was sprayed and decorated.

Boys' 4-H club was called to order by the president, Larry Minks. During the business session it was reported that the club made an amount of money at the Halloween Carnival.

Newman left some order blanks and price lists for wildlife. A color movie, "Bob White Through the year" was shown, where the life of a quail was portrayed.

Lyndon Johnson Seeks His 'Reward' Tuesday

Lyndon Baynes Johnson got back to Texas this week, and says he will be with us on through the election. Mr. Johnson further tells us that Texas has been greatly honored through his nomination as vice president on the Democratic Party, and he sort of intimated if we don't get in line, like good little children and do what he says, we are likely to get our water cut off when, and if, the Democrats win next Tuesday.

Mr. Johnson is a Texan, but he didn't say anything about the Alamo. He forgot all about those hard-headed Texans who refused to "knuckle down" and do what Gen. Santa Anna said. Mr. Johnson also ignored the fact that all government wealth comes from the people, and that Texans really are people. Instead of equality and justice, it looks to us suspiciously like Mr. Johnson was doing a bit of left-handed blackmail — and using our own money as the bait.

Mr. Johnson's story sounded like the one about eskimos who turn sharp knife blades up and freeze them in ice, then coat the blades with tallow. The wolves come by, lick the blades and cut their tongues. The blood tastes nice and warm, so the wolves keep right on licking — until they bleed to death. This, of course, is another form of socialistic suicide. Mr. Johnson didn't mention that.

Does Mr. Johnson propose to run on a ticket of patronage, blackmail, and Las Vegas gambling odds, or does he propose to hold forth equality, justice and freedom upon which our Constitution was based?

Mr. Johnson says Texas is one of the few states which may not go for Kennedy and the Socialist-Labor platform. He says he will be personally embarrassed, and a little bit put out. He thinks we should back him, just as we backed John Nance Garner. He says it may be a long, long time before our state once again has such a chance, if we fail this round.

We don't know about you, but The Brand did back Mr. Johnson when he first announced for President. We thought he was the kind of Texan we know and appreciate as neighbors. We watched him at the national convention and, frankly he sold out any possible reason in the world to ask Texas for support. Instead of the tenets we cherish as Americans, Mr. Johnson chose to join forces with Socialist-Labor-Federal Control gang. Frankly, it is too much for us to swallow.

Therefore, with all sincerity, we apologize for our original endorsement of LBJ. We do appreciate the fact that he did not mention the Alamo, because he is not qualified to use this phrase. Mr. Johnson was elected to the U. S. Senate, when the Duke of Duvall "recounted" the votes and gave him a majority.

Lyndon Baynes Johnson went into this great office under highly questionable circumstances. He gave us another dose of the same medicine at the convention in Los Angeles.

Now, he comes back to Texas and asks for his reward. Frankly, we do sincerely hope he gets it at the polls next Tuesday.

Brand Is Cited As 'Republican'

Scores of people these days are labeling The Brand as "Republican". Some are joking, some are not.

True enough, we are supporting the Republican candidates, Nixon and Lodge — not because they are Republicans, but because we are sincerely and honestly afraid of the Socialist-Labor-Federal-Control policies as outlined wholeheartedly and supported by Kennedy and Johnson on the so-called Democratic platform.

We realize the importance of staying with one's party. We realize what it has previously done for the South and for Texas. On the other hand, we value the freedom of our children and our friends above all else. We feel that the welfare of the United States should be calculated beyond any political party, be it Democrat or Republican.

Furthermore, we hope we have been misled and misguided. We hope we are wrong at every turn along the way, in which case we will still live in a Free America regardless of who wins the election.

Meanwhile, unpopular as it may be in some circles, The Brand feels honor bound to support the Nixon-Lodge ticket for President. If you saw things as we see them, we are sure you would feel the same way.

Government Can Give The People Only What It Takes From Them

"We both been Democrats a long time," said Archie as he and Tex settled down for their regular morning coffee break. "Tell me, what's Mr. Nixon got that Mr. Kennedy ain't?"

"Mr. Johnson, for one thing!" snapped Tex. "Mostly, it isn't the man with me; it's the 1960 platform. The way I see things, the Democrats have turned outright Labor and Socialist. I'm not in love with the Republicans, but their stand is a heck of a lot better than the stuff I saw coming out of the Democratic convention in Los Angeles a few months ago."

"What are some of the things you are worried about, Tex?" asked Archie. "What are some of the freedoms you have lost?"

"If I were a farmer, I have lost the right to plant, harvest and sell the crops I want. I have lost the right to spend my tax money on local or state level, and I don't want to lose the right to send my children to a free public school," said Tex. "I don't want the bureaucrats hiring the teachers, black or white, and sending people out of Washington to teach my kids. If they furnish the money, they will sooner or later tell us what to do."

"So what?" questioned Archie. "If it is their money, they oughta tell us what to do."

"That really burns me," responded Tex. "The government can give nothing to the people that it hasn't first taken away from them. They collect our taxes, send us back 25 cents-on-the-dollar, and then try to tell us what to do."

"Arch, in the United States of America, 31 cents out of every dollar earned is paid in taxes — and two-thirds of this money goes to the Federal Government. This leaves less than a dime of our tax dollar to the state, county and city to build roads, streets and sewers, and to pay the teachers, policemen and firemen. In addition, Mr. Kennedy proposed to spend many times more through inflation and deficit budgets."

"But I know, a lot of farmers who think they will get a better deal," interjected Archie. "They say prices will be better."

"All I know is what I read," answered Tex. "I see where Henry Wallace says the proposed Kennedy program turns his stomach — and if it's too rough for Mr. Wallace, it's too rough for me! Besides, this deal is Labor controlled, and I know that organized labor, and not the farmer, will come out ahead. Furthermore, I don't want Jimmy Hoffa telling my kids how the cow ate the cabbage. I just don't."

"Me neither," agreed Archie. But it looks to me as if Mr. Khrushchev and the Communists want us to elect Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Johnson. At least, they won't hold any Summit meetings until Eisenhower goes out. After all, we gotta get along with our neighbors, don't we?"

"But not on their terms!" declared Tex. "If for no other thing, this is the best reason I know to vote for Nixon and Lodge. I remember how Nixon bucked up to Mr. K. in Russia — and how he is probably the only man in modern history who has actually held his own with the big Red boss. Mr. Kennedy might do OK, but I know at least from experience that Mr. Nixon can and will stand up for our rights. This is probably the most important thing in the whole controversy."

"You mentioned super-spending and socialism," Archie pointed out. "What's wrong with 'em?"

"A movie fellow named Ronald Reagan answered that one," said Tex. "He says an $80 billion budget and a $13 deficit will unearth our whole country, just like the Russians want. He says it's like a shortsighted fellow going into the poultry business without a rooster. He says you've gotta have a hell of a lot of confidence in the stork."

"If I vote for Nixon and Lodge, what would my gran'pappy say?" asked Archie.

"I don't know," answered Tex, "but if he is smart and could, he would be in the next booth doing the same thing. He would figure that the United States of America is a lot more important than any party, Democratic or Republican. He would want your grandchildren to have the same chance his grandchildren had. After all, a lot of grandfathers not only left their parties, but even seceded from the union to fight for what they considered right and just. I don't think he would want to see his grandson "knuckle down" at the prospect of a few measly dollars in deficit spending — when the freedom of your children and your grandchildren is at stake. I sure don't!"

By this time every eye in the drug store was focused on our two heroes, whereupon each of them carefully laid his own dime on the counter — and slipped quietly out the back door.

Our Freedom Must Be Preserved In America

BY MRS. R. L. CRISWELL that the United States has lost prestige in Europe. The "Great Day" is almost here. It will really be refreshing to hear something on television besides the statement that it not? That was never an important thing to do.

25 YEARS AGO First WPA Funds Allotted To County

A WPA allotment for lateral road and bridge jobs on county-wide projects has been made to Deaf Smith County, the first of the allotments for this area to come out of the state office, according to an announcement made by R. W. Willis, supervisor of the division of projects and planning, to County Judge C. W. Humble. However, the allotment will be delayed until man power is available, Willis stated. The allotment calls for the employment of 16 men for the relief role: Although the definite allotment was not specified in the announcement, it is believed to take in two projects, one for $8,892 and the other for $4,689, for building bridges and culverts, the widening of roads, etc. Judge Humble said the commissioners court is anxious to have the projects started and "if there is any way at all to get those men we're going to do it. I feel we can work it out." In connection with WPA projects in the county, County Engineer V. H. Henderson yesterday started a survey of the proposed north-south road through Hereford, from the point of the first survey north to the county line near Vega. This first survey ran south from Hereford to the county line and north five and one-half miles. The survey will run almost due north across the county.

45 YEARS AGO

Last Saturday about 25 farmers and business men met in the courthouse to listen to J. K. Wester of Lubbock, and Porter A. Whaley, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Amarillo, outline the plans and aims of the Panhandle Kafir and Milo Maize Association. The chairman introduced Whaley, who made an interesting and enthusiastic talk on the future outlook for the Plains country and the crops grown here. He spoke of how rapidly the population in the Panhandle had increased in the last 15 years and predicted that in another ten years the Panhandle will have more than half a million people, and will be producing millions of dollars worth of supplies and field products. He told of some of the efforts being made to advertise the products of the Panhandle to the end that farmers might get more for their crops. Wester then spoke of the results of advertising the feeding value of the grain sorghums in Farth Worth and other Texas cities and throughout Southern states.

HARVEST COMING TO LIFE

The Olton area's cotton and grain harvests, given a break by the weatherman this week, showed signs of coming to life. About 850 bales of cotton were ginned at the four local gins during the week, bringing the season's total to 2,503. The total is roughly 3,500 bales behind the pace for last year and far behind the normal pace. The grain harvest, which was almost complete by this time last year, is now at the halfway mark, one grain man reported. Farmers and ginners alike wore smiles Thursday as warm weather and drying winds prevailed. Earlier in the week, combines bogged down in grain fields and tractors were used to pull them as the harvest continued. Evidence that the harvests were picking up was seen everywhere this week. Cotton pullers were in fields throughout the area. Cooler weather was predicted for this weekend, but farm men held out hopes that it will be dry. If good weather prevails, ginners anticipate one of the biggest "traffic jams" in the area's history as cotton starts rolling in. The harvest of cotton is later this year than any other year old-timers can recall.

WATERS ARE SCHOOL HEADACHE

With high water from the "Santa Fe Lake" still surrounding their $45,000 investment in buildings that house the North Ward Elementary School and the North Floydada High School, the board of education has been in a real swivel for over a week. Driven out by the high waters all of last week the children of the schools were put into classrooms Monday morning when the Methodists and Baptists Churches loaned their educational departments and facilities to the board until the emergency is passed. Superintendent Graves said it would be at least two weeks, and probably three, before the north side schools could resume work in their own home. The elementary grades are being taught, up to the sixth, at the Baptist Church, the sixth to twelfth at the Methodist Church. The enrollment, including high school pupils from Silverton, Petersburg and Lockney, totals 225 students, with nine teachers. Damage to the school property has been minimized and when waters have receded from the grounds school work can be resumed there without too much expense of cleaning up.

HOSPITAL OPENS EXPANSION BIDS

Sealed bids were opened Tuesday afternoon at Parmer County Community Hospital on the hospital's proposed addition. Panhandle Engineers and Construction Co. of Amarillo submitted a low bid of $53,263. Seven other bids were submitted ranging to $64,792. Board of directors of the hospital must meet and approve or reject the bid before further action will be taken. The low bid was some $8,000 above estimated costs previously set by the board. The addition will contain 3,250 square feet and will extend from the main entrance of the hospital south for 108 feet. It will contain a meeting room, space for hospital records and bookkeeping, 15 new treatment rooms for examination and doctors' offices and an enlargement of laboratory. Part of the present building will also be altered and changes will be made in office arrangements. A doctors' lounge will be made from rooms now used for other purposes and the hospital manager's office will be moved to space presently occupied by the bookkeeping department. The present manager's office will be changed into part of the waiting room.

The BOOTLEG — Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm has his mind on the election, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

With the election only a few days away, naturally there's a lot of talk about it up and down the street in town and out here in the country too.

A bunch of us were talking politics yesterday afternoon and one of my neighbors said he'd be glad when the election is over and done with as he'd had enough of all this debating and arguing. "Tears the country up too much," he said. "Be glad when we get a new President elected and we can settle back down to normal. Maybe all this criticism and fussing back and forth will stop."

He's right in a way, but not altogether. I'll admit the campaign does unsettle things, brings out all the prejudices in other people's minds, messes up your television schedule, etc., and I have a notion that whoever gets elected, the country will fall in line behind him and give him a chance. But it's not going to put an end to debating.

I never have found a President who was 100 per cent satisfactory with me and I don't expect to, as there's no chance I'll ever have the job.

As a general policy, finding fault with the President of the United States, while not any easier, is a lot safer than finding fault with your in-laws.

I don't know who the next President's Secretary of Agriculture will be, but three months after he's in and I've planted, I'll bet you I can find something wrong with him. I don't believe there'll ever be a Secretary of Agriculture who can stay in tune with the agricultural program out here on this bindweed farm.

I don't know who the next Secretary of State will be, but I can name you half a dozen countries right now, in advance, that're not going to like him.

The election will decide who the next President will be, but it won't end all the debate. Not as long as I've got neighbors as short-sighted and knot-headed as they've revealed themselves in election arguments the last few days, which is exactly what, at this very moment, they're saving about me.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

'Deaf' Smith Says

TO: THE SPIRIT OF GENERAL SAM HOUSTON
FROM: THE SPIRIT OF ERASTUS "DEAF" SMITH
SUBJECT: MY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IN ACTION

Sam, I'm sorry that my report is a few days late but my usual source of information has been most unreliable for the past week. He's been completely worthless as a Chamber manager since his wife presented him with a new son last week.

On top of that he has been worrying a new house along so don't count on this report being too factual. Besides all of that I almost got mixed up with a lot of other spooks Monday night and nearly got carried away with the fun of it all.

Reckon there's nothing more important coming up than the national elections next Tuesday and that I couldn't do anything more for Texas and the United States than go around the next few days whispering in everyone's ear to vote.

Kind'a seems as though if everyone had had to work and fight as hard for freedom and the right to govern ourselves as you and I did they'd be a heap more eager to vote. Kind of figures that if we don't care enough to vote for people that think the way we do then it serves us right if those that would deprive us of our freedom took over.

Another election has been going on, too, and that is the annual election of Directors for my Chamber of Commerce. Those ballots have been coming into the Chamber of Commerce office regularly for the past few weeks. They will be tallied Monday night at a special meeting of the present board of directors.

The post office will be checked just before it closes Monday afternoon to be sure that all of the ballots are counted. Thursday evening only a little less than half of the members had voted. Reckon that same old clique will be running the Chamber for another year, the bunch that are interested enough to send in their ballots.

Besides electing Directors for a three year term, the Chamber membership is expressing its opinion on two other questions: "Shall the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce go on record as being in favor of the Commissioners Court being required to employ a qualified County Road Engineer or Road Administrator?" and -2- "Shall your Chamber of Commerce prepare and circulate the petition necessary to bring this issue to a public vote?" It will be very interesting to discover the view of the majority of the Chamber of Commerce membership on this issue.

The Directors will, in addition to tallying the ballots Monday night, consider the recommendations of the long range planning committee.

To wind up this report, Sam, just wanted to mention a few miscellaneous points of interest about my Chamber of Commerce. The "Ten at Ten" meetings have been fairly successful in bringing the membership to the Chamber of Commerce office for a discussion of the program of work. These meetings are being held at 10 a. m. each Monday, Wednesday and Friday and will continue until the whole membership has been contacted.

The Chamber office is now receiving the official state maps of all of the United States. As of Thursday maps from Arizona, Arkansas, Georgia, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, Texas, West Virginia, Wyoming and Saskatchewan are on display with more arriving daily.

Schedules of all of the airlines operating out of Amarillo are also available along with the Santa Fe, railroad and the Greyhound and New Mexico

Transportation bus schedules. And there is a large new library of city directories from some 35 major cities available along with a number of telephone directories.

Several new members have been reported and others have increased their financial support to the Chamber of Commerce. New members are: O. K. Rubber Welders and Williams News Stand. Increasing their support were: B. F. Cain and Lockwood Grades. Other new members not previously reported are: Charles Bell, Hereford Tortilla Factory, Dale Smith, Twentieth Century Beauty Salon, Stan Knox Radio and TV, and the City Barber Shop.

Solicitations for the budget to purchase the new Christmas Decorations are still lagging. They are ordered and on the way—and Santa Claus, another well-known spirit like you and I, Sam, reports that there will be lots of candy to be passed out on the day he visits Hereford to open the Christmas season.

That's my report for this week. Hope my usual source of information gets his feet back on the ground soon.

A Statement Regarding Electing A Catholic to the Presidency

By THOMAS F. ZIMMERMAN

General Superintendent, Assemblies of God

Within the past few months we have received considerable correspondence and many questions on the coming national elections. Since it is of such widespread concern to members and friends of the Assemblies of God, we have felt impelled to speak on the subject.

The Assemblies of God has as its calling the saving of souls. Our organization has always been strongly missionary and evangelistic in its outreach. We must not shrink from that calling nor must we allow anything to cloud our vision of this divine commission, for without a vision we perish. We are not religious bigots but we must stand and be counted against any ideology which would undermine our God-given program at home or abroad.

As you may remember from reading The Pentecostal Evangel, the Assemblies of God has spent the past fourteen years in a court battle in Italy seeking religious freedom for our churches. The battle was made extremely difficult in view of the Roman Catholic influence over the government. In fact, it was not until pressure was brought from a high source in the United States that we gained our rightful privilege of public worship without police interference. Our missionaries continue to have trouble in other countries where the Roman Catholic Church has strong control over governmental affairs. Especially is this true in Spain and Columbia. There have been many cases of arrests, church closings, etc., among Evangelicals in both of these countries.

This action reflects the Roman Catholic position on Protestantism. The Papal Church-State has spoken out over a period of hundreds of years and its position has not changed. The Roman Catholic Church considers itself the only true church and Protestantism heresy. "Heretics may not only be excommunicated but also justly put to death," the Catholic Encyclopedia, Volume XXIV, page 768, records. Brownson's Quarterly Review, another Catholic publication declares, "Protestantism of every form has not and never can have any rights where Catholicity is triumphant."

Officials of the Roman Catholic Church have indicated that even the American Constitution, which we hold so dear, could be changed, if necessary, making the Protestant Church illegal. Brownson's Review states on this subject, "If the Pope directed the Roman Catholics in this country to overthrow the Constitution... sell the nationality of the country... they would be bound to obey." In one of Pope Leo XIII's Encyclicals, which has not been withdrawn, it was stated, "They (Roman Catholics) must penetrate, wherever possible, in the administration of civic affairs... all Catholics should do all in their power to cause the Constitutions of States and legislation to be modeled on the principles of the true (Catholic) Church."

Many individuals have been lulled to sleep with the Roman Catholic line, "Why worry about the Presidency?" We have Roman Catholic Congressmen, Senators, Governors, and other high officials. What is the difference in having a Roman Catholic President and having a Roman Catholic in these positions? The President of the United States is the most powerful individual in the world. His influence touches more levels of the average citizen's life than that of any other person in the world. The action of Congress has a power-balance in the Supreme Court of the land, but much of the action of the President is second to none and is changeable only with great difficulty. As an example, it takes a two-thirds vote of the Congress to over-ride a veto of the President.

The President appoints Supreme Court Justices when vacancies occur. It is this court that interprets the law of the land, determining what is constitutional and what is not. He names Federal judges, selects ambassadors, cabinet members, and consuls. He appoints military leaders, heads of many institutions, and all policy-making officials of government. He makes agreements with foreign countries, attends and directs summit conferences for the United States and selects his advisors and counselors.

So strong is the influence of the President of the United States that he could begin a major ride in the direction of a Roman Catholic-controlled and directed America through his appointments, if he so desired. The question is a clear, simple, and short, "Yes." He would have to do so if a "good" Catholic.

Every Roman Catholic is completely under the control of his church, mind, soul and body. He cannot read books which the church selects to condemn, including any which point up the evils of its hierarchy. He cannot attend services in Protestant churches without approval of a high church official, and this is rarely granted. A Roman Catholic cannot make a decision on any level which runs counter to the thinking and expressed policy of Papal authority. In other words, under threat of excommunication (being cut off from the sacraments, last rites, and everything he has been taught to hold sacred) every Catholic is bound by Rome. And beyond excommunication, the church holds the threat of disallowing a Christian burial, and the possibility of eternity in purgatory, over the heads of those who revolt against its authority.

The American people were cradled in the arms of religious freedom. We fought for and won our independence, and today are spending billions of dollars to counter the attack of Communism, because, among other things, we value our religious freedom. Why should we spend these energies and billions of dollars for this precious freedom and for separation of church and state and then let the subtle forces of the Roman Catholic Church sweep into the White House without a protest?

The Assemblies of God, like most traditional churches of America, was born in protest. We must not now let down the guard and lose our time-honored and sacred position by giving the high position in the land to the Roman Catholic Church. But, to avoid doing so, we must take a positive stand both in conversation with others and at the polls in November. It is not sufficient to hope and pray, for faith without works is dead.

God help us to be awakened to the danger and diligently seek God for help in this protest.

This Article is a Reprint

This article is a reprint from the Pentecostal Evangel, official organ of the Assemblies of God. It was unanimously endorsed by the General Presbytery, governing body of the denomination, at a recent meeting in Springfield, Missouri, headquarters of the movement. It very clearly states the position of the Assemblies of God in regard to the Coming Presidential election.

Optimists Hear Of CROP's Activities

Energy and enthusiasm of youngsters working for others on Halloween was described Tuesday by Hugh Clearman at the Optimist Club meeting. County chairman of the CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program) organization, Clearman told of the hundreds of teenagers who gave up their own selfish desires to work for underprivileged in other countries during the annual CROP Trick - Or - Treat drive Monday night.

"I wish every one of you could have been present when those children came in, got their assignments and went out to solicit," he said. "And the enthusiasm worked up last week at a junior high assembly program was wonderful."

The trick-or-treat program is just one part of CROP, he explained.

It is a group of churches working through Church World Service to help those in poorer parts of the world. No particular denomination is taking the lead in the program.

In recent months, CROP has been working to aid some of the 150,000 hungry children in Hong Kong.

Last month, he said, the county CROP group sent about $2,200 to the state headquarters. This, with funds raised Monday night by the children and will be used in part to provide one meal of rice per day for about 50,000 of the children in Hong Kong.

The goal is one carload of rice for Deaf Smith County. "CROP used funds to move surplus commodities overseas at a very low cost... In fact, $1 will send about 300 pounds of food overseas," Clearman concluded.

Members of the club voted to approve formation of an Optimist Club Boys' Bowling League, to be held each Saturday for boys 8 to 14 years of age.

Guests present included C. W. James and Paul Jette of Hereford; Cliff Abbott, Canyon; and Harry Castle Sr. and Harry Castle Jr., both of Amarillo.

Large Crowd Attends Party Monday Night

BY MRS. JIM LOOKINGBILL
Approximately 50 people were present Monday night for a Halloween party in the educational building of the Summerfield Baptist Church. Games were played and sandwiches, cookies and hot chocolate were served. The WMU women were in charge of decorations.

Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Jr. was hostess to a bridge luncheon given in her home last Thursday. Two tables of bridge were played. Those attending were Mesdames J. M. Wright, Frank Huckert, Jim Lookingbill, J. R. Euler, Kenneth Neill, Mack Noland, Bill Kendall of Hereford and the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Lookingbill were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill of Hereford last Sunday. Later they drove to Amarillo to visit Mrs. J. L. Lookingbill, who is ill. They also visited in the home of Bradley Lookingbill and family.

Dickie Lookingbill returned home with his grandparents, the L. B. Lookingbills, for a visit in Summerfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ky Lawrence are fishing at Rockport on the coast. J. B. Noland drove them there last Friday and Mrs. Noland flew with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Botkin to join them. They returned home Tuesday evening. Jim Lookingbill, was invited to attend the pep rally in Hereford High School Friday morning in honor of the boys who played on the team when Hereford beat Phillips in 1950.

Billy Bell and L. B. Blake returned home last Tuesday night from Cortez, Colo., where they had been deer hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lawrence of Hamilton visited in the home of Roy Botkin Friday. The Lawrences are parents of Mrs. Botkin. They returned home Monday.

Mrs. Buster Thomason visited her mother in Lubbock Sunday and Monday.

Visiting in the home of Jack White Friday night were Mrs. S. G. White and Mrs. Lois Foster of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kuper are harvesting grain for David Acker at Nazareth.

Mrs. B. J. Manning and Mrs. Leon Hardin of Amarillo and Mrs. W. J. Thomas of Hereford visited with Mrs. Kenneth Christi recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Christi, Jimmy, and Valerie, visited in Lubbock over the weekend with his mother, Mrs. B. B. Christi.

Mrs. Robert Ramey of Amarillo visited in the home of Mrs. J. M. Wright Monday.

Mrs. Charlie Noland and Mrs. J. M. Wright were in Amarillo Thursday on business.

Mrs. Lee Curry attended a luncheon of the WSCS at the First Methodist Church Wednesday.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Lee Curry this week were Mr. and Mrs. Adam Flowers, Mrs. W. B. Scheihagen, the Rev. and Mrs. Herschel Thurston, Mrs. John Patton and a Mrs. Bryan of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Anderson were visitors at the Summerfield Baptist Church Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Walser were in Lubbock Wednesday night to attend the Baptist Convention being held there. They were to meet the Rev. Don Larkin, former pastor of the Summerfield church.

Bryant Lookingbill spent Wednesday afternoon with Jay Noland.

The Rev. and Mrs. Herschel Thurston visited in the homes of R. B. Baker and Ray Johnson Tuesday.

Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill of Hereford and Mrs. R. J. Smith were in Amarillo Thursday to hear the Kennedy-Johnson speech.

Mrs. E. J. Smith and Mrs. Ray Johnson attended a Halloween party sponsored by the Pioneer Study Club for the Golden Age group at the flame room of the Pioneer Natural Gas Co. recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cunningham left Friday for their home in Snyder, Okla. They have been harvesting in the community.

Newcomers to the community are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Bates from Snyder. They are working on the J. M. Wright farm.

Mrs. J. A. Stanford, Neal Stanford and Mrs. Albert McCaskey and Stanley of Amarillo visited in the J. C. Clearman home Sunday. Later that afternoon they visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Clearman and Keith.

Miss Ruby Brewton of Hereford was a dinner guest in the L. B. Lookingbill home Sunday.

Several in the community have started harvesting sugar beets.

VISIT PETERSBURG

Mrs. Molly Jo Schofield drove her mother, Mrs. Jack Robinson, to Petersburg Sunday, where Mrs. Robinson accompanied the Rev. and Mrs. Russell Pogue to the Southern Baptist Convention being held in Lubbock this week.

Philip Egner, a cellist in the Metropolitan Opera orchestra, was bandmaster at West Point for 25 years. He abandoned his cello for a rifle in fighting with the 17th U. S. Infantry in the Spanish-American war.

Clothing Storage Subject Of HD Meeting Tuesday

The Progressive Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday, Nov. 1, with Mrs. E. C. Hammett as hostess. Mrs. P. L. Carmichael presided over the meeting.

Mrs. Argen Draper, introduced by Mrs. Hammett, spoke on "Clothing Storage Improvement." She said in part, "Queen Elizabeth is credited with the origin of our modern clothes closet. Chest and cupboards were used at that time, and were not adequate for her crinoline wardrobe of 3000 dresses. She had a special room built to hang these garments in."

She also pointed out four factors to be considered in planning clothing storage: 1. Convenience—at or very near the place where it is to be used. 2. Visibility—as little hidden as possible. 3. Accessibility—frequently used items at most convenient height, heavy ones, below and those seldom used, above. 4. Maintenance—everyday items can be stored on open shelves, but less-used ones should be in inclosed storage to lessen dust.

A committee to plan the Christmas party was appointed at the meeting. The committee consists of Mrs. Leon Coffin, Mrs. Fred Autry and Mrs. Tom DeShazo. The County Home Demonstration Council Christmas party was announced for Dec. 12.

The club voted to send an amount of money to the Community Center dish fund.

A pink and blue shower was given in honor of Mrs. Darrell Thomason.

Visitors present were Mesdames N. E. Gass, Melvin Young, Jonnie Towns end, Ralph A. Packard, Tommy Bryant, J. B. Haile and Doris Coff-

WALLABY LULLABIES

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP) — A wallaby is an undersized kangaroo which, when unpouched and rejected by its mother, is a most pathetic figure indeed.

One such animal was rejected at the Bronx (N.Y.) zoo recently but now is as happy as any well adjusted wallaby could hope to be — thanks to Mrs. Joseph Davis.

Mrs. Davis knitted a wool pouch for the animal, bottle feeds it every two hours and keeps it hung in the bathroom.

"Imagine my delight when the church men's committee built us a Medallion Home!" says Mrs. Bruce Clark of Stratford, Texas.

"What will my new home be like?"

We all ask that question, even when we plan the home ourselves. Well, the Church Men's Committee of the First Christian Church in Stratford came up with the perfect answer when they built a new home for their pastor and his family. They built a Live Better Electrically Medallion Home.

And that's pretty easy to understand, because men, as well as women, enjoy the every-day comforts and conveniences that make a house a home — and electricity provides most of them.

Ask your builder — or Public Service manager — to help you plan a Medallion Home — hallmark of home building excellence.

ROME — The Vatican's influence upon the White House, should Senator John F. Kennedy be elected President of the United States, was the topic of a recent panel discussion organized by L'Espresso, a newspaper published in Rome. This discussion was stimulated by an editorial called "Firm Points," published on May 17 in L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican's newspaper.

In this editorial the Roman Catholic Church again declared what it called its right to enter the field of politics, stating that "it has the duty and the right to intervene also in this field to illuminate and to help those of conscience to make the best choice according to the principles of Christian morale and sociology."

The aim of L'Espresso's discussion was to "clarify to what point the doctrine expressed by the pontifical document holds not only Italian Catholics under obligation, but also foreign Catholics and in particular those that are American."

Panel members were Guido Calogero, a layman; Ernesto Rossi, an economist and writer noted for his firm stand for the separation of church and state; Giorgio Spini, in charge of modern history at the University of Florence, of a Protestant family; Giorgio Peyrot, head of the legal office of the federal board of evangelical churches in Italy; and Giovanni Miegge of the faculty of Waldensian Theology in Rome.

Opening the discussion, Signor Calogero said that "the theme that we must discuss is the article 'Firm Points,' published recently in L'Osservatore Romano, that renews the vigor and an intransigence greater than has occurred in preceding circumstances the authority of the ecclesiastical hierarchy on Catholic laymen regarding political problems."

"Unfortunately in Italy we are by now sufficiently accustomed to this kind of intervention; but the article in L'Osservatore Romano has even brought forth comments outside of our country, in particular the United States, where a Catholic politician is a candidate for the presidency."

"The question, then, is of general interest and it seems to me, must be faced from a double point of view. Above all we must examine the rapport between the Catholic and ecclesiastical hierarchy: Isn't the Catholic required to follow without question the commands of the hierarchy in political matters? There is then the second problem, which in a certain sense interests us still more: It is that of the compatibility between the obedience of the Catholic and the political directives of the hierarchy and his faithfulness to the constitutional principles that inspired our republic."

Signor Calogero asked: "Do we think that in America the Catholics feel their obligation of fidelity to the Constitution in a more solid way than they do in Italy? Or do we think instead that the danger of seeing a Catholic becoming the supreme magistrate of the United States would be erroneously undervalued by American public opinion?"

"We can ask ourselves to what degree the American voter will feel that his vote will also be reflected upon us. Kennedy's success would enormously strengthen the position of the Catholic Church in the Western World and would keep all the free spirits out of American politics, much more than have been kept out at present by the assistance given to Adenauer, to Franco, and to Salazar," said Signor Rossi.

"In particular we would immediately feel the repercussions in Italy; the Vatican would profit by its major influence in Washington to aggravate its pressures in a reactionary sense on our government. Therefore we have full right, it seems to me, to warn our American friends against the candidacy of Kennedy and to explain to them the reasons for our worries."

Further along Signor Rossi made the following observations: "If one can justify the difference regarding the constitutional loyalty of the Communists, at least to the same degree can one justify the diffidence regarding the constitutional loyalty of the practicing Catholics who, like Communists, must obey a different sovereignty from the national sovereignty."

"Since, in case of a conflict between civil power and ecclesiastical power, Catholics will array themselves on the side of the latter against the former, they logically shouldn't be entrusted to hold any magistracy or political office."

"But I would like to go back to the consequences of the article in L'Osservatore Romano on the electoral campaign in the United States. We Italians are perhaps the most sensitive to this problem, and there are reasons: the history of the church is intimately tied to that of our country; we have furthermore the fate of extending hospitality to the head of Catholicism in Rome. Therefore it seems to me our duty to put our experience at the disposal of the Americans."

"I have many American friends, and that which most impresses me is the extreme simplicity with which they consider the relation between the state and the Catholic Church, placing the latter on the same basis as the other churches existing in the United States."

"Evidently they do not take into account that the Catholic Church has a sovereign for its head; that this sovereign often has contrasting interests with the interests of the national states; that the Catholic Church is a centered and authoritarian organism in the administration of which the faithful play a part that is merely passive; that the Catholic doctrine, dogmatic and intolerant, such as is set forth in the encyclicals even of the most recent Popes, aims to subordinate civil power to religious power and considers as very serious errors the freedom of the press, and all other 'modern freedoms'; that the Vatican does not have one program for the United States and a different program for other countries — there is only one totalitarian program that the Vatican is gradually trying to realize, adapting its politics to the particular circumstances existing in each country: the last objective to which it aims — and it will always be everywhere the same — is a regime like that in Spain today."

At this point Signor Meigge reminded the panelists that Senator Kennedy "has made declarations of independence in the face of the article in L'Osservatore Romano."

To this Signor Rossi replied: "They are declarations that don't change a thing, no more or less than the declarations of democracy made by Communists in countries where they do not, at the moment, have hopes of coming to power."

Later on, Signor Calogero said that there was one point on which all the panelists agreed: "When Kennedy has declared that swearing allegiance to the Constitution of his country means the rejection of orders contrary to it — whatever they are and by whomever they are given — he has said something very serious for a Catholic."

"In many situations this man could find himself divided between two different loyalties: allegiance to the Constitution on one side, and on the other an allegiance to the Pope and to the bishops who might give him orders of a political nature. We must therefore ask ourselves if there is not an intrinsic disabreement between the Catholic theological-political tradition and the American constitution tradition."

Referring to a remark made earlier by Signor Spini on the danger of ostracizing Kennedy on the basis of his being a Catholic, Signor Rossi said:

"I do not think that it would be opportune to discriminate against the Catholics and to make laws that none of them can ever become President of the United States. The point is rather, to awaken non-Catholic Americans to consider the danger of having a Catholic in the White House."

"This is not discrimination. I would not want the strange misunderstanding to arise by which one is accused of intolerance when he makes his selections on the basis of certain criteria. I am not in the least intolerant; I simply advise all those who have the fate of American democracy at heart to remember that a Catholic is required to obey the ecclesiastical hierarchy when they ask something of him that interests the church."

"It seems to me," said Signor Calogero as he concluded the discussion, that the frankness with which these various opinions have been set forth are the best contributions that we can give to our American friends in order to resolve a problem that interests not only them, but also us."

Mrs. Criswell Gives Program

The home of Mrs. George Parker was the meeting place for the Cultural Home Demonstration club recently. Mrs. Clinton Jackson served as hostess and called the meeting to order. Mrs. Earl DeHart read the opening exercise. "Let's be attractive—let's enjoy life." Mrs. J. G. Gandy introduced Mrs. Goldie Criswell who gave hints on make up. She said in part, "To have a pretty complexion you must cleanse your skin, lubricate it, protect it and stimulate it." The group voted to contribute to the dishes at the Community Center. Mrs. Gandy gave the council report. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Ira Scott Nov. 11. Those present were Mesdames P. M. Houser, Art Lewis, Ralph Packard, Ira Scott, Clinton Jackson, Pat Robinson, J. T. Richardson, Louis Olson, Earl DeHart, Grady Parsons, J. G. Gandy, and guests Mrs. Goldie Criswell and Mrs. Kenneth DeHart.

Local Students Sing In LCC Meistersingers

Nelson Pierce and Glenn Reeves, both of Hereford, have been selected to sing this year with the Lubbock Christian College Meistersingers Chorus, directed by Wayne Hines. Pierce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. U. V. Pierce, and Reeves is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Reeves, both of Hereford. The chorus is planning several concerts on the campus and in the surrounding area. The Meistersingers, organized this fall, is one of the major choral organizations of the college. The group includes 53 members.

Suggestions for gifts from the pantry or kitchen were demonstrated. Refreshments were served to Mrs. O. L. Reigor, F. L. Eicke, LeRoy Williamson, Raymond Smith, Willa Williamson, John A. Smith and a Mrs. Carson.

REMEMBER WHEN?

BY CHARLIE SEEDS
This was one of the most famous lines ever penned on a sports page. It was written by one of the great sports-writers of them all, Grantland Rice. The line read: "Outlined against a blue-gray October sky, the four horse-men rode again... Stuhlreher, Miller, Crowley and Layden."
This was the story that gave Notre Dame's most famous backfield its nickname. It was used to describe an Irish victory over Army, 13 to 7, in which the four horse-men rode roughshod over the West Point Cadets.
That remarkable backfield, which had an average weight of only 157 pounds, went on to lead Notre Dame to an undefeated season... and to build a reputation as one of football's finest backfields. And much of their lasting fame can be traced to the line which Grantland Rice used to describe them on that October day.
Remember the year? America was becoming more and more car conscious that year. Millions of people flocked to the showrooms to see the new models. But they were careful buyers then, and they looked for the best deal when they bought!
The year was 1924.
America is 1961 Ford conscious this year. They've taken this beautiful new 61 Ford to their hearts. If you've wanted one, and you are a careful buyer, be sure to investigate our deal now. Your car will never be worth more in trade than it is right now, at CHARLIE SEEDS MOTOR CO., INC. W. Hwy 60, EM4-2727.

HELLO, MR. JIGGS -- YOU DON'T LOOK VERY HAPPY THIS MORNING

I'M NOT-

THESE BILLS ARE GITTIN' ME DOWN! MY WIFE BUYS A NEW DRESS ALMOST EVERY WEEK-

THAT'S NOTHING TO COMPLAIN ABOUT-

YOU SHOULD BE GLAD THAT SHE TAKES AN INTEREST IN HER APPEARANCE! WOULD YOU WANT HER TO LOOK DOWDY?

HMMM, NO - I GUESS NOT-

SHE DESERVES CREDIT FOR LOOKING SMART! BESIDES, SHE DOES IT TO MAKE HERSELF ATTRACTIVE TO YOU-

GOLLY, I NEVER THOUGHT OF IT THAT WAY-

YOU'VE GIVEN ME AN ENTIRELY NEW SLANT ON THIS THING -

YOU SHOULD ENCOURAGE HER TO BUY EVEN MORE DRESSES -

NOW, WHAT'S THIS ALL ABOUT?

SOMEONE REMOVED A WINDOW FROM MRS. CHILTON'S ROOM LAST NIGHT AND STOLE A DIAMOND NECKLACE.... THIS BANDANNA WAS FOUND OUTSIDE!

THE BANDANNA'S MINE, BUT I MUST HAVE DROPPED IT. I USUALLY INSPECT THE RANCH BUILDINGS BEFORE RETIRING.

I RECKON THAT EXPLAINS IT!

IT COULD HAVE BEEN AN IMPORTANT CLUE. I'D BETTER TALK TO MRS. CHILTON. I'M SURE SHE'S MISTAKEN ABOUT HER NECKLACE BEING STOLEN!

THERE ARE SOME OTHER THINGS THAT NEED EXPLAINING, TOO.

WHEW! THAT WAS CLOSE! LUCKY I HAD TIME TO HIDE BEHIND THIS CURTAIN WHEN I HEARD THEM COMING!

THIS PUTTY AND PUTTY KNIFE I FOUND IN INGRAM'S DESK COULD HAVE BEEN USED TO REPLACE THE PANE IN MRS. CHILTON'S WINDOW.

Junior Red Cross Holds Organizational Meeting

The council of the Junior Red Cross met on Oct. 5 with Mrs. Messick and Mrs. Wertenberger, teacher sponsor. The group elected the following officers for the 1960-61 school year: president, Kathleen Kuper; vice-president, Billy Hill; secretary-treasurer, Sherrie Rose; assistant secretary, Linda Higgins. The Variety Program for the Junior Red Cross is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 15. The public is invited. The Council has a program committee which will continue working all year on safety in and around our school. The project committee will work on favors, games, puzzles, etc., for our veterans' hospitals.

Cross Council: Alice Calloway, Jack Thomas, Joellen Hamilton, Mike Harvey, Jon David Miller, Ricky Roberts, Barbara Zinser, Carol Brashear, Patricia Byers, Nancy Boyer, Barbara Langley, David Marcontell, Patti Nobles, Cathy Bilibrey, Gwendell Bannum, Alfred Davis, Billy Hill, James Corbett, Linda Higgins, Kathleen Kuper, and Sherrie Rose.

The following officers were installed: president, Linda Kuper; vice-president, Royce Ann Gilliland; recording secretary, Janice Hagans; corresponding secretary, Diedra Thomas; parliamentarian, Kathy Boston; treasurer, Cheryl Neil; degree chairman, Betty Mae Scott; historian, Mammie Silvertooth; and reporter, Carolyn Aven.

Royce Ann Gilliland

Band Personality Of The Month

BY BETTY SUE CURTIS
Royce Ann Gilliland is the Dogie Band personality for the month of October. She was born Nov. 10, 1945, in Hereford. She lives with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gilbreath, Jr. at 303 E. 5th Street.

Royce Ann is a member of the freshman class, Future Teachers of America, Future Homemakers of America, and the Dogie Band. She is vice-president of F. H. A. and is a drum majorette in the band.

Some of her favorites are book, The Ugly American; show, Bellboy; song, "Last Date"; and food, fried chicken. She enjoys cooking and sewing also. For sports Royce Ann enjoys swimming, football, and basketball.

Royce Ann believes that Mr. Gollehon has helped boost band spirit and has been very well-accepted by the band members. She is pleased with the progress that the band has made so far this year. She enjoys band and the honor of being drum majorette for it.

The informal initiation for the Stanton Junior High School Future Homemakers of America was held on Sept. 26.

On Oct. 14-15, the club sold coffee, pie and cake at the Appliance Fair and raised a total of $71.

The formal initiation was held on Oct. 25 at the high school auditorium. A reception was held following the ceremony.

The following officers were installed: president, Linda Kuper; vice-president, Royce Ann Gilliland; recording secretary, Janice Hagans; corresponding secretary, Diedra Thomas; parliamentarian, Kathy Boston; treasurer, Cheryl Neil; degree chairman, Betty Mae Scott; historian, Mammie Silvertooth; and reporter, Carolyn Aven.

History Class Takes Presidential Survey

BY DAVID STEVENS

The freshman world history and world geography classes have recently completed a presidential poll as an extra-class activity. This work was undertaken on a strictly voluntary basis on the part of the students. There were five questions on the poll plus a space for remarks from the person being polled. One of those polled remarked, "I don't think school children should be made to make this survey."

Again may we emphasize the survey was purely voluntary on the part of the students. Those who spent their time and energy polling these people were not made to do anything. This was done for their classes, and it was reported as outside work.

Our first question on the poll was, "Are you eligible to vote?" To this we had 238 of the 240 polled who said they were eligible. The other two were not. The second part of the first question was, "Are you going to vote?" Of those polled 233 said "yes," seven said "no."

Our second question was, "Do you consider yourself a Democrat or a Republican?" Only 33 said they were Republicans, 176 said they were Democrats, 16 were neutral, and eight belonged to other minor parties.

The third question on the poll was, "Are you going to vote for the Nixon-Lodge ticket or the Kennedy-Johnson ticket?" The Nixon-Lodge ticket received 131 votes. The Kennedy-Johnson ticket received 71 votes, while four were for other candidates, and 27 were undecided.

The fourth question on the poll was, "Do you know when the election date is?" Of those polled 22 knew when the election date is but 11 did not.

The last question was, "Are you going to vote a split ticket?" The answer to this was the closest of those asked. There were 105 who said yes. There were 103 who were not going to vote a split ticket, while 25 were undecided. From these results we believe that many people do not know what a split ticket is. Many who said they were Democrats were voting for Nixon but were not voting a split ticket.

There was, at the bottom of the poll sheet, a space for remarks. We would like to relate some of these remarks. These are all quoted.

"I think definitely that a person should vote for the candidate he thinks best qualified for the job regardless of party."

Why Homework? How Much Of It?

BY LINDA KAY MARTIN

This is an interview to try to find out what a teacher and a student think about whether we should have homework, and if so how much.

QUESTION: Do you think students have too much homework?

ANSWER: Mrs. Collier—There might be days when they do. This can be solved in part by teachers giving weekly assignments.

La Reece Askew—No because if we had less, some kids wouldn't get any at all.

QUESTION: Do you think the majority of students resent homework?

ANSWER: Mrs. Collier—Kids who are "just getting by" in school may, but students who expect to go to college don't. QUESTION: Should teachers give extra time in class for homework?

ANSWER: Mrs. Collier—For study yes, but it should be confined to something you don't understand and need the teacher's help.

Stanton Cheerleaders Spark School Spirit, Enthusiasm

Go! Team! Go! The cheerleaders really have the spirit this year. The seventh and eighth grade cheerleaders are Myrna Botkin and Barbara Neff, eighth grade, and Jo Ann Ferguson and Becky Johnson from the seventh grade. The freshmen cheerleaders are Diedra Thomas, Betty Mae Scott, and Connie Renfro. These girls are all hard workers all of the time. They boost the spirit of the boys and of the school.

The cheerleaders have to have no grade under "C" and nothing under "S" in citizenship. They have to have attended the Hereford public schools for six weeks before tryouts. The seventh and eighth grade cheerleader's sponsor this year is Mrs. C. O. Brown. She has been very helpful to the girls. The freshmen's sponsor is Mrs. Martha Sullivan.

Myrna Botkin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Botkin. She was born in Lubbock on Jan. 11, 1947. Her hobby is playing jokes on everybody. Her most embarrassing moment was when the girls didn't know their yells very well and everybody was goofing up. Her favorite color is red and her favorite food is pineapple upside-down cake. Barbara Neff is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Neff. She was born in Blackfoot, Idaho, on Dec. 22, 1946. Her hobby is having a good time. Her most embarrassing moment was when she went the wrong way all of the time on one yell. Her favorite color is midnight blue, and her favorite food is different kinds of sea foods.

The government asks all citizens to be on the lookout for counterfeit money. Most of us, however, are too busy trying to dig up some of the real stuff!

The Plainsman

We are glad to see Wanda Cornelius back in school. She has been in the hospital for quite a long time. We wish her continued recovery.

I heard a girl say that when it comes to telling little white lies, some people are color blind!

It seems that since we started having pep rallies in the new gym, school spirit has increased a great deal. We owe this to the students and especially to the cheerleaders. Everyone seems to think that they can yell better in the gym.

We enjoyed Mrs. Wertenberger's assembly last month. It seems that no one realized just how important the month of October really is! While we are on the subject of assemblies, I believe that Mrs. Hodges' program was one of the nicest I have ever seen. When did you ever see and hear students speak up so clearly? Jack Thomas could have been heard clearly all over the auditorium without benefit of the public address system.

A girls sextet has been organized this year. We want to thank Mr. Moore for his patience in working with these girls.

We would like to urge all to attend the girls' football game this Tuesday evening, Nov. 8, at 7 p. m. at Whiteface Field. The freshmen Frillies will play the Eighth grade Dogiettes. We are sure everyone will enjoy this game since girls' football in neither very well-known nor widely played. We hope to see all of you there.

The Stanton Junior High School choir will present a program to the P. T. A. on Nov. 21. We urge all parents and friends to attend this meeting.

Who says a nickel is no longer good for anything? You can trade two of them for a dime and buy a nickel's worth of something with it.

Some of the homerooms have chosen names. Miss Dickinson's homeroom chose the name the Dungeon, Mr. Mercer's charges call themselves "The Unteachables."

One slate of homeroom officers overlooked last time was from Mrs. Martha Sullivan's freshman homeroom. Officers include president, Janice Hagans; vice-president, Carolyn Aven; secretary, Janey Noland; and homeroom representative, Jesse Joe Wright.

One of the students, James Brorman, smiled and then wanted to know if this insect uses chop sticks.

Mrs. Holt's homeroom will present an assembly program next week entitled "How High Is Your F?"

Mr. Mercer's homeroom recently staged their own presidential debate. After the debate a vote was taken and the Republicans won.

There are 31 members of the Future Teachers club this year.

Tips On Using Your Library

BY LINDA COX

I'm a Stanton Junior High School librarian. I was chosen to tell you about the library, so here goes.

When you come into the library to study, we would like for you to find a seat quickly and be very quiet.

When you use one of the encyclopedias, be sure to put it back in the correct place. Do the same with any of the other books. If you cannot remember where the book was, then put it on a table and the librarian will place it on the shelf.

Now, getting to the easy part. When you are going to check out a book it would help if you would take the card out of the pocket in the back of the book and sign it on the first empty line. If the card has no empty line on it, then the librarian will prepare another card.

When you return a book, put it in the green box and the librarian will do the rest.

We have a fairly complete file of back issues of many magazines. Ask your teacher or the librarian to show you how to use the Readers' Guide so that you may make the best use of these many magazines.

Now to tell you about the new books; we do have some you know. There are up-to-date lists posted on the bulletin board as well as attractive book jackets.

Come in and browse and learn how to make the best use of the library that has been provided for your information and recreation.

Stanton Seventh Grade And Friona End In 0-0 Deadlock

BY WAIN MILLER
BRAND SPORTS WRITER

The Stanton Seventh Graders had to settle for a 0-0 draw against the Friona Chiefs in a game played at Friona Tuesday night. The Stanton Dogies crossed the goal once, only to have their score called back by the officials for offensive holding.

The seventh graders came within scoring distance several times, but lost the ball three times with fumbles, and had their only score cancelled by a penalty in their last game of the season.

Stanton gained control of the pigskin late in the second quarter deep in Friona territory, as the Chiefs failed to make a fourth and nine situation on their 30. Dogie Steve Hodges fired a completed pass to end Mike Moore who made it 20 yards to the 10 before being pushed out of bounds as the first half ended.

Dogie tackle Ricky Fangman and guard Wayne Hudson toppled the Friona ball carrier after he returned the kick-off 20 yards to the 32. Jimmy Gutierrez blocked the Chief's punt on fourth down and Mike Moore dove to cover the bounding ball on the Chiefs' 25 yard line.

The Dogies tried two passes which fell incomplete, and then Roger Owens got chased back to the 43 to make it fourth and 35. Gary Payne and Estacio Casares stopped Chief Larry Johnson on the 31 as he returned the punt only two yards.

Jack Ferguson and Ricky

Fangman set the Chiefs back to the 28 on third down, forcing them to punt early in the fourth quarter.

The Dogies were stopped on the 47 on the punt return. Steve Hodges carried for four, and then Wynn Buck made it 12 yards to the Friona 35 for a first. Stanton drew five for off-sides, and then lost control on the second down and the Chiefs covered the fumble. Quarterback Teddy Renner completed an aerial to Tommy Shirley which was good for only four yards as Gary Payne raced in to upset Shirley. Jimmy Gutierrez and end Jack Ferguson stopped Friona's fourth and five try for a first on the Chiefs' 22.

Hodges carried for nine, but the Dogies received 15 for holding. Hodges tossed one to Mike Moore who went all the way from the 35, but the t. d. was called back, and Stanton received 15 more for holding, as they now had the ball on the 50.

The Dogies lost the ball on the fourth down incomplete pass with only 39 seconds remaining. Robby Lemons and Greg Johnson held Friona at the line on their first play. Friona quarterback Teddy Renner broke lose for a 33 yard scamper before Buck and Owens dragged him down on the 27, with 12 seconds remaining in the game. Renner was stopped on the line of scrimmage by Hudson and Moore, and Steve Hodges upended Renner on the last play of the game with the score remaining 0-0.

Tuesday night's game was the last football clash for the Stanton seventh graders, as they ended their season with a Conference championship under their belts.

The seventh graders remained undefeated in Conference play, and Canyon was the only team who defeated them during their nine games, by the score of 32-6. The Dogies defeated Dimmitt 14-0, Dalhart 30-0, Tulia 24-22, and were tied by Friona 0-0 in their non-conference play.

They downed Estacado 6-0, Levelland 22-0, Littlefield 32-14, and defeated Coronado 12-6 to win the Conference title.

Stanton Junior High School's eighth graders scalped the Friona Chiefs 18-16 at Friona Tuesday night, to end the football season for the eighth grade Dogies.

Tuesday's game marked the eighth graders fourth victory of the season, after losing four and tying one.

Frank Cain and Dick Rogers led the Dogie offensive drive against the Chiefs, with Cain scoring two touchdowns and Rogers adding the other six points.

Stanton's first score was set up as Cain blocked a Friona punt and the Dogies took over on the 30 in the first quarter, Cain carried twice for eight, and then handed off to Rogers who fought his way to the 17. Cain scored from the 12 on third down. Cain's pass to end Lynn Cook fell incomplete and the score read 6-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Halfback Danny Murphee of the Chiefs was toppled by Gary Roberson and Johnny Dowd after a nine yard kick-off return. Dogies Terry Hill and Lynn Cook teamed up to derain Murphee on the 40 on first down.

The speedy halfback made it to the 50 before Mike Ranspot and John Pool could unend him this time. Three downs later, Murphee scored another first as back Robert Torres and Roberson brought him down.

Johnny Dowd dived in to cover a Friona fumble to give Dogies possession on the 37. Cain fired a screen pass to Roberson good for five, and then Torres carried to the 48 for a first.

Cain was chased down by back Milton Hargus from Friona to suffer the Dogies a seven yard loss and force them to punt.

The Chiefs received the ball on the 21 and racked up four firsts before Johnny Dowd caught the Chief's Milton Hargus to give Friona an 11 yard loss, and a fourth and 14 situation after a five yard penalty. This fourth down pass fell incomplete to give the Dogies the ball on their 14.

Cain twisted nine yards, and then his pass to Roberson was intercepted by Murphee who was stopped by Charles Brownlow and Dan Thomas on the 20 as the half ended.

The Chiefs were stopped on the 27 after a 15 yard kick-off return. Murphee got loose for a gain of 23 to rest the ball on the 50. Hargus advanced to the 32 for 18 more. Jackie Clark covered the remaining distance to even things up early in the third quarter. Hargus scored the extra points to give Friona a two point lead.

The Dogies got the ball on the 20. Stanton fumbled, but Stan Sigman was there to recover. Cain was forced to punt on fourth down.

Dan Thomas and Gary Roberson gave Friona a couple of losses, forcing the chiefs to punt on third down from their 30.

Terry Hill returned the punt seven yards to give the Dogies the ball on the 33. Frank Cain broke loose from there and covered the 67 yards for his second t. d. of the evening.

Friona's Milton Hargus pulled in the lousy kick, and dodged 80 yards from his 20 to score, as Joe Cassels finally tackled him as he crossed the goal, but not soon enough. Chief half-back Larry Backley scored two more to make it 16-12, with Friona in the lead again.

Robert Torres returned the kick-off 35 yards, before the ball was knocked loose, and Friona covered on the 46. Gary Roberson set the Chiefs back four yards, and then Murphee raged 50 yards to cross the goal, but Friona received 15 for holding and the score didn't count. The Chiefs were forced to punt.

The ball was deflected off Cain's helmet as he blocked the punt and Cook caught it and ran 30 yards for the t. d., but it, too, was called back. Cain,

Why...

BY SIDNEY BAYNE
Each month this paper will have one question that will be asked to the students and teachers in junior high. Helping in this project will be Kathleen Kuper and Ann Atchely. Suggestions are welcomed for the question of the month. Our question for this month is: If you had one wish what would it be?
Wanda Cornelius — If I had one wish, it would be that I would be able to catch up in my school work.
Judy Wiman—That America is never under communist rule.
James Otis — That all my wishes come true.
Mr. Quattlebaum, Principal, thinks it would be wonderful, and it is his wish that all countries could live in peace and that countries could have plenty to eat and adequate housing.

Cheryl Parker thought for a long time and then decided that she would like a certain guy.
Mrs. Hudspeth, math teacher, wished that she could see her grandchildren.
(Editor's Note: A few hours after Mrs. Hudspeth made this wish, she received a package through the mail with their voices' recorded. Her wish nearly came true.
Jo Anne Ferguson—A pair of pink suede shoes.
Steve Hodges—A pair of pink polka dot pants.
And last but not least, Mrs. Ramey, geography teacher, hopes and wishes she never lives to be a 100.
That's all for now from your roving reporter.

cher's help. Study periods in class are fine if you study some at home also.
La Reece—It depends on the amount of homework in the class, and if you need teacher's help or not.
QUESTION: How does homework help us?
ANSWER: Mrs. Collier in high school there will be a great need for explanations. Without homework, you will never understand nor remember.
La Reece—Written homework helps us to write and spell and remember better. In our reading, it helps us in pronunciation, and our ability to read faster.
QUESTION: How much homework and how long should we work for each class?
ANSWER: Mrs. Collier—About thirty minutes for each class, on an average.
La Reece—It depends entirely upon the teacher and the subject.
Other suggestions followed the formal question and answer session. Mrs. Collier said that homework is more effective if the student has someone at home with whom to discuss some of the difficult parts. Try talking to your family about schoolwork. Don't wait until you are having difficulties. Tell them about the things you enjoy and that you learn easily. Keep your parents informed as to your school progress day by day so that they will always know where and how you stand.

History...

One exactly opposite this was, "I don't know whether I'm voting for the right man, but I'm a Democrat and that's what they offer." There were several who were like this, voting for the party and not the man.
Opposing the remark that "school children should not be made to make these surveys" is the remark that "I think that it is very good that young people can learn about the presidential election through these polls."
"The Democrats are too socialistic," has been a common remark.
The farm policy of the Republicans has been widely criticized as has the foreign policy of the Democrats.
After reading all the remarks it is doubtful that religion will be very much of an issue.
However you vote, be sure to get to the polls on November 8 to vote for the candidate of your choice.

Miss Lonely Heart Answers Her Mail

(By The Dogie Staff)
The Dogie is fortunate to have on its staff a person well-qualified to give advice and sympathy to the lovelorn. The following are samples of some of the mail she receives daily.
Dear Miss Lonely Heart,
I like a certain ninth grade boy very much. I am a seventh grader. This boy is going steady with another girl his age. There is a party coming up and I wanted very much to ask him to go with me. This is a true story. What should I do?
Heartbroken
Dear Heartbroken,
Since this is a true story, I would go ahead and ask him. If he does not accept, just ignore him. Whatever you do, don't get mad. If he does accept, do not act silly or do not act unwisely.
I have another suggestion. Why don't you ask boys your own age?
Miss Lonely Heart
Dear Miss Lonely Heart,
The only thing I can cook is dry cereal. My mother has gone to visit my aunt, and I have to cook for Daddy. Daddy used to like dry cereal, but I get the idea he isn't crazy about it any more. What am I going to do? Mother isn't due home for three more days.
Can't Boil Water
Dear Can't Boil Water,
I agree you do have a problem! Why don't you let your Daddy cook for himself for a while. Then I'll bet he will love your dry cereal. If he still does not like your cooking, then he can eat out of the neighbor's trash cans for three days.
Miss Lonely Heart
Dear Miss Lonely Heart,
is goofing off and loafing. Her favorites are book, Summer Place; food, everything; song, "Over the Rainbow;" movie, Imitation of Life; subjects, P. E and homemaking.
Connie Renfro was born March 30, 1946, in Hereford. She has one brother and one sister. Her past time is eating and cheerleading. Her favorites are food, all kinds; book, Leader by Destiny; movie, Strangers When We Meet; song, "Lovin' Touch;" subjects, English and algebra.

the same about you. If you really like this boy, wait until she's attracted by someone else and then move in, but don't step on anybody doing it.
Miss Lonely Heart
Dear Miss Lonely Heart,
I'm a freshman girl and would like very much to go with a particular seventh grade boy. He has asked me several times. Would there be any conflict-between our ages? I would like your opinion on this please. Thank you.
Seventh grader at Heart
Dear Seventh Grader at Heart,
I'm almost certain there would be. If you're really a seventh grader at heart, why aren't you in the seventh grade. My advice to you is to like someone closer to your own age.
Miss Lonely Heart
Confidential to Puzzled,
Sorry but I lost your letter. Do you mind writing another one? It won't happen again.
So sorry,
Miss Lonely Heart
RETURN FROM COAST
Mr. and Mrs. Clee Meharg have recently returned from a trip to the coastal regions of Texas, where they enjoyed fishing in the Gulf. They were staying in the area of Port Aransas and Rockport and reported the fishing was at its best.
The Laboratory of Ornithology at Cornell University has been recording the songs of wild-birds for nearly 30 years.

Audience Behavior Good Citizenship

BY JOAN MARNELL
Have you ever tried to play a violin in front of a large audience when two little girls in the front row were having a "giggle session?"
I haven't, but I can imagine what it would be like. Or have you been at a movie just reaching the climax of the story when a little boy spills his popcorn down your back?
Some people just can't sit still during a program. They don't realize that some other people really are interested in what places to practice audience behavior. If you are listening to a speech and disagree with something that is said, don't contradict the speaker in front of everyone else. Keep your disagreements to yourself.

Let us also remember that our churches are places of worship, not for gossip. Being late time after time is disrespectful and inconsiderate to all involved.
Last but not least is behavior at the movies. One of the first things to remember is not to go in and out of the lobby, trampling feet as you go. Inter-missions are for going to the lobby. A good movie is sometimes ruined by people who don't care about others. They just talk or laugh when they feel like it or stand up and get in other people's way.

Others wear huge, gaudy hats that are impossible to see around. But most important of all, don't whistle, shout or make general commotion. Remember: the ears you save may be your own.

DO YOU REALLY UNDERSTAND THE BIBLE?

Many people maintain that the Bible is so simple and clear that any one can understand it. Yet today the Christian world is divided into conflicting opinions as to what the Bible means.

How would you interpret the following passages from the Bible: "I say to thee, thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." (Matthew XVI, 18ff). "For, behold, henceforth all generations shall call me blessed." (Luke I, 48). "Receive the Holy Spirit; whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them; and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained." (John XX, 23). "He who believes and is baptized shall be saved." (Mark XVI, 16).

Catholics recognize the complete Bible as the inspired Word of God. If you wish to know the Catholic interpretation of the above mentioned Bible passages as well as other beliefs of Catholics, write for a free pamphlet explaining Catholic teachings. Sparkman Attends State Water Meet

T. L. Sparkman Jr., District Director for Deaf Smith County, attended the annual meeting of the Texas Water Conservation Association Sunday and Monday, Oct. 30 and 31. The meeting was held in Austin.

Other four directors of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District also attended the meeting, along with Tom McFarland, manager, and Bill Broadhurst, chief hydrologist.

"The TWCA seems content for the local district to solve its own problems," Sparkman said. "But there are still some who want to make the water of the high plains a state property. This opinion, however, seems to be in the minority and is not that of the TWCA."

Sparkman explained that it was necessary for the HPUWCD directors to attend the meetings to protect local interests. There is a growing need for more control or enforcement of the anti-pollution laws of the state, Sparkman commented. "We of the local region are not confronted with this problem very much, but in the areas of oil production, the salt water pollution is a great program. The water district is confronted with this on the South Plains, with a lot of time and money spent annually on the problem."

After some discussion, the group passed a resolution backing an appeal to allow Texas its share of the normal increase in sugar production, for use by Texas sugar beet producers.

This resolution will be presented at the National Reclamation Association meeting, to be held Nov. 16 and 17 in Bakersfield, Cal. Sparkman said Tuesday he planned to attend the California meeting. While there he will make an intensive study of the irrigation water laws in effect in that state.

Governor Price Daniel was one of the speakers at the Austin meeting. He said, "The man on the street is not aware of the future needs for water in the economy of the nation. With the growing population and increasing pollution of fresh water sources, the demand for usable water is becoming a greater and greater problem."

"We Stand Today On The Edge Of A New Frontier"

KEEP THE VOICE OF TEXAS STRONG

Texas' dominant position in the Democratic Party has been a major factor in the amazing growth and prosperity of our State during the past 50 years.

Count our blessings that have come because TEXANS were in the RIGHT party at the RIGHT time.

Count the jobs ... educational opportunities ... military installations ... defense projects ... water and soil projects ... rural electricity and telephone systems. Count our ultimate potentials for development.

Now the Democratic Party has selected a TEXAN for one of the two top offices our Nation has to offer. As Vice President, Lyndon B. Johnson will be in a position to render the greatest service any Texan has ever been able to give his State, his Party, his Nation.

Our Nation needs the dynamic leadership of John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson. And Texas needs to be counted in the Democratic column November 8 to keep its voice STRONG in the party that has honored its sons and nurtured its growth. Texas has no such stake in any other party or any other candidate.

Texas' future — and America's — lies in your response November 8.

Vote Democratic — Vote The Texan's Ticket
