WHEN THE WEATHER gets hot, a feller needs some shade. This young Angus calf and his mama had troubles, though, when they tried to share the dubious shelter provided by one small tree in their pasture southeast of Hereford. As usual, baby came out best, since he was able to use his mother's shadow for some relief from the heat. (Staff Photo)

United Fund Sets $25,000 Budget For Fall Campaign

Two Get Minor Injuries During Three-Car Wreck

Two Hereford residents received minor injuries in a three-car accident in the city Sunday evening. Treated for minor injuries were William Randy Dowell, 17, 131 Ave. A, and Mrs. Odella Sherman, 44, Route 1, Hereford. Both were drivers of cars involved in the accident, which occurred at 7:17 p.m. at the intersection of Park Ave. and Ave. I. Other driver was Van Emil Smith, 15, 216 Ave. B. Damage to the three cars was estimated at about $1450 by investigating Hereford police patrolman Leland Cole. Dowell was treated for a minor laceration of the head in the emergency room of Deaf Smith County Hospital. Mrs. Sherman was treated later for a minor injury. Hereford police reported that Mrs. Sherman, headed west, on Park Ave., had stopped her car to make a left turn to Ave. I and that the car driven by Smith struck the rear of her automobile. The Dowell car, headed east on Park Ave., then struck Mrs. Sherman's car, the report showed. Damage to Smith's 1956 model car was estimated at about $200, and to Mrs. Sherman's 1957 model automobile, $300. Police estimated about $950 in damage to Dowell's 1958 model car.

GUEST SPEAKER for the Hereford Rotary Club Ladies Night program on Tuesday evening was Melvin T. Munn of Borger. Munn combined humor and inspiration into his talk. The meeting was held at the Hereford Country Club. (Staff Photo)

Members of the Deaf Smith County United Fund budget committee agreed to seek a $25,000 goal during their meeting Tuesday afternoon. Total goal is about the same as was sought last year. Five organizations, all local in operation, were approved for inclusion in the 1962 budget. Three others failed to submit budget requests but are tentatively being included. All six United Fund directors present agreed that the fall campaign would be a critical one and that the United Fund in the county was at a crossroads in its career. The first two years of its existence, the county UF made its goals. The drives in 1959 and 1960 fell short of the projected needs for various organizations. Treasurer Don Baugous told the group Tuesday that 85 per cent of the approved budget requests were being paid during 1961. Groups approved Tuesday for United Fund budget included the American Red Cross, Deaf Smith County Council on Alcoholism, Hereford Athletic Club, Boy Scouts and Salvation Army. Campfire Girls, Little League baseball and Pony League baseball failed to make budget requests or to have representatives present for the meeting. However, all three were tentatively included in the budget for the coming year. Their exact allocations will be determined later. Red Cross requested $8,383 for the coming year. This is $3 higher than the approved budget figure for last year, of which only 85 per cent was paid. The Council on Alcoholism requested $500, which is an increase of $100 over the 1961 budget approval. The Hereford Athletic Club requested $600. This group did not make a request in 1960, since it felt it had sufficient funds on hand. It had been included in previous UF budgets. Boy Scouts requested $6100, a $400 increase over the 1960 request. The Salvation Army's request of $2600 was the same as last year. Among the three groups which failed to submit a request, the Campfire Girls had been approved for $3002.50 last year, while Little League and Pony League were approved for $1050 each. In all cases, the United Fund paid 85 per cent of the budgeted figure. A request from the Texas Rehabilitation Center, Gonzales, Tex., for $1000 was not approved. A request for $100 from the national United Fund organization was not approved. J. W. Robinson Jr., president of the county United Fund, pointed out that the budget was being set earlier this year in an effort to make more definite plans for the campaign. Vice president Mark Woodall told the committee that a much larger amount will be spent this year in promoting the United Fund appeal and that a stronger organization is being developed to direct the annual finance campaign. As has been true for the past two years, all agencies approved for inclusion in the (Continued on page 2)

Approve Joint City-County Civil Defense Organization

The City of Hereford and Deaf Smith County Civil Defense was formed Monday night when the City Commission joined County Commissioners in adopting a resolution for organization of a local unit. Purpose of the new organization is preparedness in event of any emergency, whether it be local or national. The local unit is part of the national Civil Defense organization. Joint executive officers of the city-county unit are Hereford Mayor Ray Cowsett and County Judge Don Zimmerman. Expense of organizing the unit was divided equally between the city and county. Judge Zimmerman said a mock emergency alert is being planned, when various agencies and volunteers will go into action. Practice alerts will be held within a month, if possible. The Civil Defense organization here includes the following agencies or groups: law enforcement, Texas Highway Patrol, Hereford Volunteer Fire Department, Hereford Riders Club, Army Reserve, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion and the Deaf Smith County Red Cross Chapter. In charge of communications in event of emergency are R. L. Ethridge and Cleo Meharg, and Jack Messer and R. D. Lance are in charge of securing heavy equipment. Other classifications included in the organization are: food and housing, rescue and hospital, ambulance service and information and education. Zimmerman said he and Mayor Cowsett would probably (Continued on page 2)

Around Town

There are all sorts of new looks around Hereford business establishments. Perry Bros. 5410 is sporting a new look after extensive remodeling. The E-Z Way market is open, with entrances from either East Fourth or Park Avenue. And Virgil Justice is popping his buttons after Sunday's open house for his new Lucky U Motel units. There are several other businesses that have been making changes inside and/or out. One of the most refreshing little scenes in Hereford, I think, is at the intersection of U. S. Highways 60 and 385. Moore Bros. service station has a lot of geraniums blooming. The red flowers look even more attractive in their setting of whitewashed tires, which act as flower boxes. The committee which is planning activities for a group of exchange students here next week met Wednesday evening with Mrs. G. W. Newsom. Anyone who wishes to keep one of the students is asked to contact Mrs. Newsom or Mrs. J. J. Durham. The Harvest Festival committee will meet at 7 a.m. Friday, June 23, in the Chamber of Commerce conference room. Coffee and doughnuts will be served. All members are urged to be present. A special meeting of the North Avenue Flood-Watchers Society was convened about 2:15 a.m. Tuesday when thunder, lightning, wind and rain suddenly hit. For a while it seemed that our chapter was the only one meeting, but then lights started coming on in other houses around the neighborhood, as meetings were suddenly called to order. In my sleepy numbness, I've never been too excited about watching clouds, but my attendance always is required. Hereford Young Farmers met Tuesday night to hear Jack (Continued on page 2)

Weather, Slight Shortage Of Combines Slow Harvest

While a shortage of combines Wednesday kept Deaf Smith County wheat at the mercy of weather, harvest of the 1961 wheat crop is expected to be in full swing later this week. Although there was a slight shortage in combines, the biggest block in harvesting operations was early morning dew on area wheat crops. Farmers are harvesting from noon until after dark to get top-quality truckloads of wheat in safe storage at local elevators. Weather permitting, harvest of 1961 wheat should near completion stages by July 4. Wheat started rolling in at local elevators Wednesday after a sprinkling crossed the scales Tuesday afternoon. Up to a half-inch of moisture fell on county crops Monday night. "What we need is a lot of sunshine and a steady breeze to really get harvesting in top gear," an elevator manager said Wednesday morning. Another elevator manager said: "Up to date, I have never seen a better wheat crop." "If we have some wind and sunshine this afternoon (Wednesday), Thursday and Friday should be the busiest days in the harvesting period," he added. Up to two inches of rain last week halted the start of wheat harvesting while barley harvesting was nearing stages of completion. Nearly all the early barley has already been harvested, and harvesting of late barley will start shortly after wheat harvest, a county farmer said. It was hoped that the problem of shortage of combines would change Wednesday afternoon as much of the wheat in the county is ready for harvesting and storage. Local and transit combine operators were harvesting at a fast pace Wednesday. Moisture content of wheat is ranging from 12 to 15 per cent, and some crops are testing out (Continued on page 2)

Thrips Attack Young Cotton

Thrips continued to retard the growth and weaken young cotton seedlings in many Deaf Smith County fields this week, according to County Agent J. W. "Lefty" Thomas. Thrips control, when needed, is vitally important in permitting the young cotton seedlings to establish a healthy plant, mature rapidly and produce maximum yields during growing season, Thomas said. Recent rains which fell over (Continued on page 2)

Jury Finds Ramsey Guilty, Proposes Eight-Year Term

BY DEAN RYDDE BRAND STAFF REPORTER Garrett Milton Ramsey scarcely blinked an eye late Saturday afternoon as he heard a 60th District jury found him guilty of the Jan. 18 burglary of Cooper's Market in Hereford. The jury panel of 12 set sentence of the 26-year-old Fort Worth man at eight years in the state penitentiary. Conviction for burglary carries a sentence of from 2 to 12 years confinement. It took the jury only 98 minutes to return the verdict after closing statements of the state and defense were concluded at 4:30 p.m. The jury went into chambers at 4:30 and returned to the courtroom with the verdict at 6:08 p.m. Ramsey didn't utter a word to his attorney, Frank Coffey of Fort Worth, who was seated next to him while District Clerk Lucille Posey read the verdict and sentence. After District Judge Harry Schultz of Dalhart dismissed court at 6:12 p.m., Ramsey and his three attorneys vanished from the courtroom within a (Continued on page 2) miraculous spectators milled around for another 15 minutes. While most of the spectators were discussing highlights of the three-day trial and verdict, the 12 jurors were greeted by members of their families. The trial marked the first jury case District Attorney Bill Hunter of Dalhart has prosecuted in the Hereford courtroom. Hunter took over the District Attorney's post Jan. 1 this year. He was assisted in the Ramsey trial by attorney King Fike of Dalhart. Ramsey has 10 days following the guilty verdict to appeal the case to the state Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin. He is expected to appeal this week. While the state based its case on circumstantial evidence surrounding the burglary, the defense relied on what is commonly known as an alibi. Ramsey's witnesses testified that the defendant was in Fort Worth several days before and on the day the burglary was committed here. Two state's witnesses, both Hereford residents, testified that they saw Ramsey in Cooper's Market on the afternoon before the burglary. Some $8,000 in cash and checks were taken from a front floor safe of the (Continued on page 2)

Approve Two Storm Sewers For Park Ave.

City Commissioners accepted the low bid Monday night for materials and labor on two storm sewers to help drain Park Avenue. Bid of $8,796 submitted by Stockton Construction Company of Amarillo was approved by the Commissioners. The bid price includes materials and labor for two storm sewer connections. The city will do some minor backfill work on the job. The bid is for storm sewer at Avenue K and Park Avenue, which will run south to First Street, and at Avenue E and Park Avenue, which will run southwest to Dameron Park. Other bids submitted included: Brodie Construction Company of Amarillo, $9,850; and H. B. Jordan Company of Am- (Continued on page 2)

So, the election of officers has been scheduled again for Tuesday, July 18, at 8:30 p.m. The group meets in the high school vocational agriculture building and invites any farmer up to age 35 to join the organization.

Hereford's American Legion team, in second place with a 3-1 record in district play, has three games on tap for the weekend. Two of the games are non-conference. Friday, June 23, the Redbirds will play at Clovis, starting at 7 p.m. Mountain Standard Time. On Saturday, June 24, they will go to Littlefield for their second non-conference game at 8 p.m. Sunday they will be at home to the Canyon team for a district game. The home game will start at 2:30 p.m. on the high school diamond.

A few combines were trying to cut wheat Wednesday morning, but most of the harvesting crews were waiting until fields got a bit drier. It seems like the wheat crop is being harvested faster than most folks figured on.

When the lightnings flash I'm required to get up and dash to the window quickly and gaze while I'm still in a sleepy daze.

The city also approved participation in a joint city-county agreement for the formation of a Civil Defense organization. The county previously had approved the agreement.

Extension of a franchise agreement with Southwestern Bell Telephone Company for ten years was approved on second reading. The agreement will be final upon third reading.

A zoning commission recommendation was approved by the city. It will allow J. O. Miller to change his property on North 25 Mile Avenue from a B (residential) to a D (business) zone.

Commissioners also heard a report on the airport operation and a regular budget report.

Sale Of Homes Surges Upward

BY ANDY LANG
The Federal Government and the housing industry have taken a number of steps in recent months to stimulate the sale of new homes. There is every indication that their efforts are bearing fruit and that the home-buying public will purchase more houses this year than in 1960, barring some unexpected setback in the overall recovery program.

No matter how much of an increase there is in housing construction, builders and sellers will continue to utilize the sales ideas they put into effect when the going was rough. Many of these merchandising plans spurred home sales considerably—and competition among the builders and sellers will remain keen regardless of whether housing starts increase, decrease or move all at an even pace.

One idea which proved successful was the establishment of a baby-sitting service so that young couples might leisurely look over a model home without interruption.

A midwest builder used a "divorce-proof" theme in advertising. His homes, he said, were built to combine the attributes of family togetherness and privacy. For instance, one of the features he stressed was separate bedroom closets for the husband and wife, presumably to prevent any arguments over whose clothes are taking up the most room in one of the single master bedroom closets.

Another builder included a used car in the purchase price of the house. A mortgage company set up arrangements with builders for a "trading headquarters" to assist home owners who desired to trade in their old homes for new ones. One builder made arrangements with the local drug store to outfit the medicine cabinet in each house in the development.

A very popular plan was to hire a decorator to remain on duty in a model home. This decorator would talk over various decorating ideas with prospective purchasers as they looked over the model house. And the big selling point was that the services of the decorator would be included in the purchase price.

It's a cinch that no builder will abandon a good selling plan no matter how the housing industry fares in the future.

Thomas said that some farmers have started spraying to stop spread of infestations. As cotton begins fruiting, the county agent pointed out, fields should be watched closely for damaging fleahopper buildups. Fleahoppers feed on the very small squares in the terminal bud of the cotton plant, causing them to die and fall from the plant, Thomas explained, and the loss of these first squares commonly produces a delayed harvest, poorer quality and less money for the farmer.

The county judge said information pertaining to Civil Defense is available in the County Agent's office. Information is available on survival, precaution, decontamination and use of foods in event of an emergency. Zimmerman said an emergency alert includes an enemy attack or severe storm.

A Civil Defense unit here was first discussed early in April. Commissioners Court passed the resolution for organization on June 12 and City Commission approved it Monday night.

Warren Hurls A No-Hitter But White Sox Win 2-1

Lynn Warren pitched his second no-hit game of the season in a losing effort as the White Sox edged past the Indians 2-1 in Pony League Tuesday.

S. D. Baize chalked up the win as he threw a two-hitter and struck out 15 batters. The White Sox had one error and the Indians made two costly miscues.

The White Sox tallies came in the first inning as lead-off batter David Cabrera walked and stole second. The Indians made a play for him as he streaked to third but the throw from the catcher was wild.

Baize hit a ground ball and the Indians tried to cut down Cabrera at the plate but were unsuccessful. Baize stole second and third and scored on an error. Warren struck out the last two batters to retire the side.

Baize struck out the side on 11 pitches and the score stood 2-0 at the end of the first frame. Both Indian errors and one of Warren's two walks were given up in the first inning and provided the margin for victory as the final score indicated.

The Sox were retired in order in the second. The Indians fought to even things up in their half of the second. Larry Minks led off with a three-bagger and Alex Guerrero followed with a timely single.

Guerrero was retired on a fielder's choice situation and Baize struck out the last two batters. The Indians took the field trailing 2-1.

In the White Sox third Warren struck out the first two men and threw out the last batter on an easy hopper to the mound. The Indians were likewise retired in order in the third.

Darrell Christiansen was the only other Sox base runner in the contest. He walked in the fourth and was put out on a fielder's choice play.

David Stevens walked in the Indian fourth after two outs. Gary Payne was hit with a pitched ball. With runners on first and second, Baize blazed three straight strikes past Steve Seigler to dampen Indian hopes.

order throughout the remaining innings and the Indians had one other base runner.

In the Indian fifth, Warren got to first on an error but was cut down in a steal attempt. In the seventh inning Baize struck out the side on 11 pitches to chalk up the narrow win.

Baize recorded 15 strike outs and Warren fanned 12 opposing batsmen.

In other Pony League action this week the White Sox are scheduled to play the Tigers, Thursday and the Indians meet the Red Sox, Friday.

Six Tiger Hits Down Sox 7-4 In Pony League Action

With six well-timed hits the Tigers defeated the Red Sox 7-4 in Pony League action Monday.

The Red Sox out-hit their opponents 9-6, but the hits were too scattered to be entirely effective. Mike Ranspot received credit for the win in going the full route. He struck out seven and walked three.

Jerry McCaslin took the loss as he struck out eight and walked three. The Tigers committed one error and the Red Sox were guilty of five.

Three of the Red Sox miscues came in the first inning as the Tigers picked up two runs on one hit. Roger Owen got on first as a result of an error, advanced on another error and a passed ball and scored when Frank Cain singled. Cain scored on an error.

Robert Strange singled in the Red Sox first and Steve Coney walked but both men were left stranded as the Tigers played errorless ball and retired the side.

Neither team scored in the second, but the Tigers fought to lengthen the gap in the third. Cain led off with a single, one of his tree hits during the game. Jim Gutierrez followed with a double.

Both runners scored on an error.

The Red Sox came to bat trailing 4-0 in the third. Coney doubled and Lynn Cook followed with a booming four-bagger. Wynn Buck singled and stole second. He advanced on an error and scored on McCaslin's single.

The Tigers put down the rally and maintained a slim one-run lead as they came to the plate in the fourth. Two runs padded the lead for the Tigers. Ranspot helped his cause with a double. Robby Lemons got on first when a third strike got past catcher Cook. Owen followed with a single, scoring Ranspot. Cain sacrificed to put order in the sixth. The Tigers added another run in the seventh as Cain boomed a home run. The Red Sox were set down in order in the seventh.

Alabama Schools Get Less Money

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Alabama, the land of milk and honey, is bursting again with the same old problems.

Lush green pastures are dotted with fine-blooded angus cattle. Some of the best roads in the country, bordered by colorful clover, lead the traveler through a land of beauty. Past schools that are at the very bottom of the list of 50 states in money spent per pupil.

A system of prorating appropriations to make them fit tax collections has lowered money earmarked for schools by about $6 million annually over the past five years.

Last year the legislature appropriated $146.6 million for the schools but because of lower-than-anticipated tax collections, they received only $135.2 million. Frank Stewart, state superintendent of schools, says that as far as he knows, no other state practices proration for school finances.

The cutback has resulted in elimination of maintenance, borrowing from banks by local systems, soliciting donations and talk of closing schools early.

An effort to take a month's pay from teachers in Choctaw County last year to make up a deficit of $60,000 caused by proration, brought the threat of a teacher walkout. The county finally borrowed money to pay the teachers.

Proration cost Russell County schools $70,000 in 1960 and the school finished the year with a $43,000 deficit. The county school board tried a voluntary fee system, asking $1 per month from each of 5,000 pupils in a move to get parents to help. "We expected $40,000" said Supt. H. B. Hamner "and got $6,217."

The school board called off the effort and refunded the donations. But it set up a fee of $10 per pupil for the 61-62 school year and will try compulsory compliance, if legally possible, to bring in $50,000.

Gov. John Patterson warned that a 9.4 per cent proration appears probable this year — the fifth straight for school cutbacks. Patterson hasn't offered any solutions publicly.

The bulk of the school money comes from the sales tax, income-tax and the tobacco taxes, levies that are extremely sensitive to the rise and fall of the economy. The state provides about 85 per cent of the school funds. Some legislators believe local systems should beef up their contributions.

The State Department of Education estimates an additional 500 teachers are needed each year to take care of the growing enrollment. There were 787,269 pupils enrolled in the 1959-60 term and Stewart says the public school rolls are increasing by 15,000 annually.

He placed Alabama 45th in classroom teacher pay with salaries averaging $3,850.

Based on average daily attendance, the state paid $194 per student during the 59-60 school year. The estimated expenditure per pupil for 60-61 is $217. This compares with the estimated $285 spent this fiscal year by first-ranked New York and Alaska.

Fete Employees With Barbecue

Mr. and Mrs. Dock Miller were hosts at their home recently for a barbecue supper honoring the employees of the county tax assessor's office.

The group had an outdoor supper and spent the evening visiting.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lady, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Freeman, Billie Lance and Jenene, and Mr. and Mrs. Dock Miller and Carl.

Penny Johnson To Present Recital

Miss Penny Johnson, advanced piano student of Mrs. Glenn Snyder, will be presented in a public recital Sunday afternoon, June 25, at 3 p.m. in the educational building of the First Baptist Church.

Penny is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson, 101 Aspen. The public is invited to attend.

Draft Boards Will Call 258 Men In July

The state quota for Texas draft boards in July calls for 258 men, Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, has announced.

There were no formal calls on the state for May and June, and the April call was limited to volunteers. The July call is the state's share of a national quota of 6,000 men, all for the Army.

Local board quotas for the July call already have been figured and sent to the state's 137 local boards.

The July quota will be filled with men who are at least 22 years old on July 1, with the exception of volunteers and draftees, who may be younger.

No quotas for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in July are planned for local boards.

COOPER'S

BY JIMMIE GILLENTE

While we have been getting more rainfall than most farmers like the past week or so, it has been nothing to compare with the South Plains country. On U. S. 385, between Dimmitt and Springlake, I counted 63 "mud turtles" in a one-mile stretch Monday. Like frogs, these pesky things always cause me to wonder where they have been hibernating before the rains came. Technically speaking, I guess they are terrapins, but they will always be plain old "mud turtles" to me. The thing I remember most about turtles stems from an old wives' tale which says if they bite you, they won't turn loose until it thunders.

Even as a youngster, I never did swallow this one hook, line and sinker, neither did I doubt it enough to give it a fair test — and today I still have the same feelings on the subject which I had 40 years ago. I guess it is one of those things I never will know for sure, because I have never yet run across anyone who admits being nipped by a turtle or, if you prefer, a terrapin. Did you?

This is the time of year our population begins to spiral, and Chief Henry Aycock says the Latin American influx is heavier than most people realize. The labor camp is fast filling up, and field workers are being housed over the entire county. Aycock says they usually notice it first in the traffic count increase, then gradually in other police areas. In a week or two, the influx generally shows up in retail sales in the community. Right now, we have some of the prettiest crops the area has ever seen. I am sure the growers can find something wrong, but the stands look exceedingly good from the road.

Wayne Evans I missed again. He dropped in Monday and, as usual, I was gone. Another time or two, and Wayne is going to get the idea that I am not a very consistent worker — and if he runs into Nell Cooper, Earnest Langley or DuB Reeves, it won't help my cause a single bit.

This Garrett Ramsey, convicted in District Court last week on a burglary charge, is a pretty good operator. I hear that he bet a steak the jury wouldn't be out two hours — and lost. When the winner got the news, however, Ramsey was already gone. All in all, it sounds like one of those "heads I win, tails you lose" deals.

R. A. Freeman is a real baseball fan. Amarillo played San Antonio a double header Monday and the second game went to 19 innings. Mr. Freeman says without a hit until the 18th, and Mr. Freeman stayed up until 2 a.m. Tuesday morning listening to the game on the radio. He was quite happy, though, because the Gold Sox won both games.

Ansel McDowell has finally come around to my way of thinking about the price of coffee. At least he posted a clipping which says that civilization is a state of achievement where a man pays a quarter to park his car so he can save a dollar fine while he is paying a dime for a nickel cup of coffee.

Several young ladies, who have been doing volunteer work in the Negro Vacation Bible School, got quite a bang out of the review one little girl gave for the previous lesson concerning Moses in the Bull Rushes.

"They takes this little baby boy, and they puts him in a cradle," recalled the youngster, who became more and more excited as she went along. "Then they puts this cradle in the water on the river" — at this point her eyes got as big as saucers — and she concluded — "then the baby drowned!"

Gaston Baer is getting close to being the oldest continuous retail proprietor on Main Street. Rockwell Bros., E. B. Black, The Brand, and perhaps a few others may have been in business longer, but have changed management one or more times.

The Riders Club seems unusually active these days and, best of all, the group includes several youngsters who have horses and who are taking part in many of the events and contests. This group is probably more symbolic of the area than any other organization in Hereford, and it is wonderful to see the younger generation taking such an interest. These days it costs a lot of money to keep a horse in the manner and fashion which he is due, and the Riders Club members are doing a tremendous job for the entire community.

Jim Witherspoon was telling me that the firm hopes to move sometime next week. Their new building is really nice, and will probably be one of the most modern of its type in the Panhandle.

Word is also going around that one of Hereford's older business firms is planning to close out. Details probably will be disclosed next week. We will soon have another furniture store, according to present developments.

I know that the record doesn't justify the idea, but it seems to me that a medium size cafeteria with a downtown location is probably one of the most needed services in the community.

Cardinals Walk To Win Over Dodgers

The Cardinals walked their way to a 9-1 win over the Dodgers in Little League play Tuesday. Jerry Kendrick was the winning pitcher. He came in with the score at 0-0 at the beginning of the fourth inning. David Casas, Dodger starting pitcher, went five innings and gave up no hits but walked 12 batters. Brad Johnson relieved him in the fifth and gave up one hit and walked one batter.

After three scoreless innings, the Cardinals began to capitalize on free passes. Roger Suttie led off with a walk in the fourth and advanced on a passed ball and an error. Suttie scored on an error before Casas struck out the side. The Dodgers came right back to even things up in their half of the fourth.

Three straight singles by David Evans, Bill Watts and Dusty Duncan put one run across to tie the score at 1-1.

In the fifth the Cardinals scored eight runs on one hit. Kendrick started the run spree as he got to first base on an error. Six batters walked and Alvin Davis slammed a home run. Johnson came in to take over mound duties for the Dodgers and struck out the last batter.

Casas led off the Dodger fifth with a double. Gary Story followed with a walk. Casas was put out in a fielder's choice situation and the side was retired with the score standing 9-1.

Neither team got a hit or scored in the sixth.

Timothy Dawson Candidate For 'Hard Luck Kid' Title

BY DOT BOWLES
BRAND STAFF REPORTER

"Sticks and stones may break my bones..." Timothy Dawson, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Dawson of Hereford, doesn't need any help from these objects. He manages to get the job done himself.

Timothy was released from Deaf Smith County Hospital last week after being in traction for three weeks. It seems that he saw his older brothers jump from the back of a pickup truck and decided it must be fun. When Timothy playfully leaped from the truck he didn't fare so well as his older siblings. He broke his right leg. It was necessary to put both legs in traction to insure equal growth and to make the situation somewhat more comfortable.

Being in the hospital was nothing new for Timothy. In fact, he might well deserve the title of "Deaf Smith County's Hard Luck Kid." When Timothy was barely two years old he mistook a glass of hot sugar syrup for water. The taste was such a shock that Timothy immediately dropped the glass—right in his lap. Timothy was badly burned from the neck down and has the scars to prove it.

On Thanksgiving Day in 1959 Timothy was a bit "unlucky" again. This time the chair in which he was sitting turned over. Result: four days in the hospital for Timothy with a brain concussion. The hot syrup had taught Timothy a lesson about drinking unfamiliar liquids... until he saw an iodine bottle one day. Several gulps of iodine resulted in another experience for Timothy—having his stomach pumped out. That sums up Timothy Dawson's accident history, except for a few "minor things that every child experiences."

Perhaps Timothy felt he should keep up with his brothers, Reese Jr., 9, and Michael, 7. They have had a couple of accidents also.

Reese Jr. fell from a moving car when he was two years old. Fortunately, he was wearing several inches of padding since it was winter. Several days and 36 stitches in the head later, Reese was as good as new.

Michael has his hard luck story too. When he was two years old, he shared a high chair with a hot iron.

Michael became entangled with the cord on the iron and Mrs. Dawson had trouble removing it from the chair. He has scars to show for his accident also.

"We have a lot to be thankful for. The children could have been hurt worse than they were," Mrs. Dawson remarked.

Grandparents of the "Hard Luck Kids" are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lance of Summerfield and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dawson from Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Boydston have returned from Eagle Nest, N. M., where they enjoyed a week's fishing and relaxation. They report that, due to a late spring, the fish were not biting too well. OFF THE Shelf

BY H. A. TUCK

Two new non-fiction releases on the shelf of the Deaf Smith County library are widely separated in geography, yet close together in readership appeal.

Two Against the North is set in Alaska, while Bedlam in the Back Seat takes place from New England to Europe and back.

Ada White Sharples has written a story of individual courage and determination in Two Against the North. In 1938 she and her husband decided on homestead in a remote area of southern Alaska.

Times were hard and her husband had been drinking heavily. They were both in their 40's and not at all the pioneering type.

But they built a cabin on the edge of forbidding Skilak Lake and tried to beat the wilderness. The weather, the animals and birds, even the lake all conspired to whip them and send them running for more civilized parts. The Sharples had to use all their strength and ingenuity to stay alive. Reluctantly, they realized they couldn't be independent, since they needed the help their few neighbors could give.

For six years they struggled, trying to raise chickens and food. Ada was trying to build up a catalog seed business for unusual plants. Finally, however, they bowed to "cabin fever" and a fire that razed their home.

They were beaten, but they had won their self-respect and dignity. They were still alive, back from a region where the smallest mistake was usually fatal.

Not nearly so grim is Bedlam in the Back Seat. Janet Gillespie humorously relates the trials and fun when her husband decided to take a leave of absence from his college teaching job for a study period in Europe.

Just making arrangements to leave house, car and dogs was a problem. But add to it the difficulty of going to Europe with four children: Kathy, 17; Pete, 13; Margie, 10; and Billy, 7. As Janet said, "In any case four children plus two parents makes six people and it's expensive for us all to go to a movie."

But they packed up and boarded a passenger liner in New York. Despite seasick youngsters and other minor trials, they arrived in Paris for a stay that was longer than they had anticipated. But they came to love the city and were reluctant to leave when their tiny Volkswagen bus finally arrived.

They found that children on long trips were intolerable. They were almost crazy after a few days of driving through the wine region of France. As they started through the snow-covered Alps, they were forced to lay down strict ground rules, such as limiting seating space to 26 inches per person (Margie's doll got six inches), requiring Bob to stop instantly for car-sick passengers, etc. and etc.

The Gillespies found such rules were absolutely necessary to maintain some semblance of order during their stay in Europe.

Bob left his family in Austria while he went to Greece for some research. The children were delighted to ski, but Janet was more concerned with trying to stay warm.

They crossed the high mountain passes to Italy, where they settled in a convent. This created some problems, but the Gillespies were great adjusters by then and they managed very well. Rome was the next stop, followed by a tour along the Mediterranean coast and back to Paris, which they had come to look upon like a second home.

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES

Castro Overplays Hand

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT: Castro's sordid attempt to blackmail this country has gone far enough, and should be branded before the entire world for what it is and what he stands for. His "iron for flesh" deal was recognized by all decent human beings as nothing more than an act of international piracy and a perfect example of the philosophy that constitutes the difference between our way of life and that to which he subscribes. This pronouncement, above all others, clearly demonstrates the basic principle upon which Castro and his cohorts operate. The dignity of the individual has no place in his ideology, except as regards his own person, which is usually the case with dictators.

Honor Exchange Students Here

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Moore Tuesday, June 20, were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Plank, Erik Okseter, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Newsom and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Durham. The Moores were hosts for a dinner honoring Okseter, foreign exchange student from Norway, and Heidi Rutishauser, exchange student from Switzerland. Okseter has resided with the Planks during his stay in the United States and Miss Rutishauser has lived with the Moores.

The students will leave Hereford on Friday, June 23, for Amarillo, where they will board a bus with a group of exchange students.

The students will tour the midwestern states enroute to New York City. In New York, Okseter will board a plane for the final leg of his journey home. Miss Rutishauser will travel by boat to Switzerland.

Miss Rutishauser has recently learned that her family in Switzerland will host an exchange student from Decatur, Ill., during the next school year. While in Illinois during her trip eastward, Miss Rutishauser will meet her house-guest for next year, Miss Sally Baker, and her parents.

then destroy the victim. In my further opinion, his greed has caused him to overplay his hand. When he was able to have a visit from negotiators, he probably felt that he may as well ask for more, so long as people were willing to deal with a scoundrel. This, in my opinion, is where his greed completely condemned him. He has now proven beyond any question of doubt that his Communistic beliefs underwrite the proposition that material is superior to human life, and that he is completely devoid of any character or integrity. Assuming that there was some justification in the first instance to try to meet the requirements of the "iron for flesh" offer, it should now be clearly evident that the chances for the salvation of these prisoners will not depend upon whether or not tractors or bulldozers are de-

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

Echos Still Ring In Texas' Tax Debate

BY VERN SANFORD
AUSTIN — Texas' tax debate continues! Not as lively now as during the legislative session—but many voices are being heard.

It's sort of a "speak now or forever hold your peace" period. Some type of tax bill, undoubtedly the biggest in Texas history, will have to be passed in July or August, and those with something to say are rushing to get in the rinks.

Legislators report that the small-scale "great debate" is proving very helpful in stirring up opinions from previously silent constituents. They're hoping to discover enough home district reaction to guide them to a swift, sure solution when they return for the special session July 10.

Eight Central Texas lawmakers, in a reply to Gov. Price Daniel's report to the people, say that raising $341,000,000 in new revenue will require a "broad coverage tax."

Although five of the eight voted with the governor during the session, several objected to a "hit and miss" tax approach. Some say that people in their districts object to selective taxes on grounds that "it's not fair to tax my product and not my neighbor's."

IN THE WIND — A number of new approaches to tax plans already batted around during the regular session are being worked on by lawmakers during this interim. Among plans being considered are these:

1. By Rep. Charles N. Wilson of Trinity (sponsor of the 2 per cent sales tax passed by the House last session) — a new sales tax that would be linked, Slamese-twin fashion, with a corporation income tax.

2. By Rep. George T. Hinson of Mineola (a frequent sponsor of legislation favored by the governor) — a 2 per cent tax on everything selling for $5.00 or more, with the usual food and drug exemptions.

3. By Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas — selective excise taxes of 2 per cent on a long list of items, but generally exempting the bed rock necessities of life.

NEW COMMITTEE AT WORK — Governor Daniel's new tax study committee, made up mostly of the board chairmen for various state agencies, got off to a diplomatic, soft-voiced start.

Several lawmakers took a dim view of having "another study group," recalling that the last one had come up with a payroll tax plan that never caught fire. Texas voters, they pointed out, selected their legislators to write the tax laws and will hold the legislators responsible for the outcome.

Members of the committee made it clear that they don't intend to dictate to the Legislature. But they do hope to be able to indicate some possible paths of compromise among the various plans for which the legislators have shown favor.

DOWN THE DRAIN? — Some legislators are fretting over the loss in state revenue resulting from the Legislature's failure to pass a tax plan during the regular session.

Here is the way they see it: 1. Bills passed by a simple majority vote take effect 90 days after the close of the session. If a tax bill had been passed in the regular session, it would have taken effect at the last of August and money from it would be accruing September 1 when the new fiscal year begins.

2. If a bill is passed by a simple majority in the special session — say about August 10 — it will not take effect until November 10.

3. A $340,000,000 tax bill covering the 24-month period would raise money at the rate of about $14,000,000 a month. But between September 1 and November 10, nothing would come in from the new bill. This waiting period of two months, would mean the loss of some $35,000,000 in state revenue which would have been raised if the same bill had been passed earlier.

Question that immediately arises is: Can the Legislature pass a tax bill by a two-thirds vote of both houses so that it will go into effect immediately? (As done in 1959.)

Today legislators are dubious. As the new tax bill is expected to affect more items, many Legislators feel that it would be unwise to expect businessmen and storekeepers to get ready overnight to charge all sorts of new taxes.

NEW WORLDS TO CONQUER — With the election of John Tower as U. S. Senator, exultant leaders of the Texas Republican Party feel they have a foot solidly in the door.

Beyond the door, that they hope to swing wide, is a two-party Texas with the GOP sharing political power in Texas on a roughly equal basis.

Gullible Victimized By Phony Contest

Sheriff Robert B. Chaney of Jefferson County, New York, recently warned residents in that area to beware of a current swindle while he offers phony prizes in a fake contest to induce the unsuspecting to buy merchandise at two or three times its regular price. Since it is a scheme that can be worked anywhere, Bill Thompson, manager of the Deaf Smith County area residents to be alert for this racket.

The Sheriff described the scheme as follows:

"The about-to-be fleeced victim opens his mailbox and finds a letter or postcard inside telling him of a wonderful contest that offers $1,000 in prizes.

"The victim fills in the card, mails it back, and in a few days a man appears at his door telling him he is one of the four finalists in the contest.

"The man further tells him that the $1,000 in prizes are his if he can answer three little questions mostly pertaining to geography. The victim answers two, but misses one question.

"The victim is now told that he has won, but for missing one question there is a penalty. He must buy a set of stainless steel cookware for only $3.00 in order to get the $1,000 in free prizes.

"Grabbing the bait, the victim pays out $300. The prizes soon arrive and they turn out (Continued on page 2)

Allison Blasts Two Grand Slams In Yankee Victory

The powerful Yankees slammed the Giants 15-2 in Little League play Monday. Jim Allison entered the game in relief of Randy Baize and received credit for the win.

Gene Drummond took the loss as he gave up eight hits and 15 bases on balls. The game was almost error-free as the Giants made two miscues and the Yankees one.

Allison accounted for eight RBIs as he blasted two grand slam home runs in consecutive innings.

The first Yankee run came after four straight walks in the first frame. Drummond settled down to retire the next three men in order.

Sydney Shaw slammed a two-bagger in the Giant first to score Drummond who was on first base after a fielder's choice situation.

Neither team scored in the second. In the third Danny Lester singled and advanced on a wild pitch and a passed ball. He scored on Danny Baize's single.

Gene Sparks led off with a single in the Giant third. Baize walked the next three men he faced to force in Spark. Slick infield play kept the Giants from scoring more runs in the frame.

Four walks and two singles gave the Yankees four runs in their half of the fourth inning. Lester and Danny Baize singled. The Giants came to the plate trailing 6-2 in the bottom of the fourth.

Allison was on the mound and walked two batsmen and struck out three. In the Yankee fifth, Drummond walked three men and Allison blasted a grand-slam homer.

Charles Brewton hit a double in the Giant sixth but was left stranded.

First test is due in Bexar county where Congressman Paul Kilday is due to resign to become judge of the Court of Military Appeals. Bexar County went for Tower last month.

Under the present law, Kilday's successor will be determined in a one-shot, high-man-wins special election, probably next fall. There is some talk of trying to get the Legislature, during its special session, to pass a law which would require a run-off in special congressional elections. This would reduce Republican chances.

CONTEMPT OF COURT — Court of Criminal Appeals ruled that a person cannot be held in contempt of court for an act committed outside the court room.

In the case in point, a district judge had held a man in contempt of court for assaulting him (the judge) at a filling station. Judge sentenced his assailant to 72 hours imprisonment and a $100 fine. Nope, said the appeals court. Contempt of court has to take place in the court room.

If ten thousand bulldozers were delivered to Castro tomorrow, the lives of the prisoners in Cuba wouldn't be worth a plugged nickel. If these prisoners, or any of them, are saved, it is going to be because the world recognizes what has happened. The world should be told now in unmistakable terms that Castro has not only made the offer but has openly admitted it, and has now reneged on it and is trying to extort more and more. Under the circumstances he has convicted himself completely under any system of law ever employed by mankind.

Hence, it would seem to me that the time is ripe to tell Mr. Castro that there will be no tractors and there will be no bulldozers, but that if he harms even one of the prisoners he has attempted to use as pawns, he must stand condemned before the bar of world opinion and every judicial system in existence as an international murderer. and that he should expect to pay the same penalty as has been paid by other international murderers—to wit: Hitler, Mussolini, and a company.

On reflection, he realizes that instead of getting something for nothing, he has paid a price for his cookware which has been inflated so as to cover the costs of the phony prizes, plus the promoter's profit.

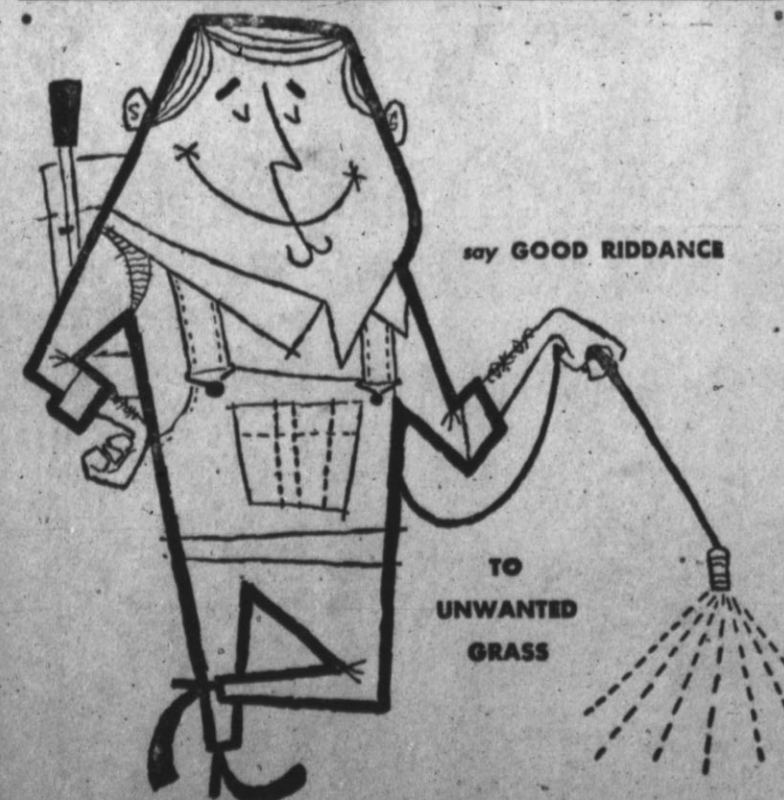

"The moral, of course, is that when you are in the market for pots and pans, base your judgment upon the merits of what is available, the price at which it is offered in relation to competitive prices, the reliability of the vendor, and your needs."

Redbirds Edge By Nazareth In 3-2 Thriller Here Sunday

Hereford edged by Nazareth 3-2 in American Legion play Sunday. The win enabled the Redbirds to retain second place in the southern half of District 18. Tascosa of Amarillo leads in the standings, one game ahead of the local team.

Mickey Stevens recorded the win in going seven innings. He struck out nine batters and gave up no bases on balls. Drew Kershner took the mound in the eighth to save the win for Stevens.

Ray Schumucker was the losing pitcher in going the route and striking out six batters and giving up five hits. He walked three men.

Nazareth took the lead in the first inning as Schumucker was hit by a pitch and scored after back-to-back singles by Greg Venhaus and Norbert Gerber.

Bill Nelson led off with a single for the Redbirds but was cut down on a steal attempt. The first inning score was 1-0 in favor of the visiting team from Nazareth.

Dennis Gerber singled for Nazareth in the second but was stranded on first as Hereford retired the side. The local team was retired in order in the first half of the second.

Both teams were set down in order in the third. Stevens struck out three straight batters in the Nazareth fourth and Hereford bats went to work in their half of the frame.

With two outs, Gary Smith boomed a double and Wes Pparch got to first on an error. Another error scored Smith and Pparch and put Ken Loerwald on first. The Redbirds took the field in the fifth with a slim 2-1 lead.

Nazareth fought back to even things up in their half of the fifth as they scored one run on one hit. Ralph Brockman led off with a double and scored after two Hereford infield errors.

The Redbirds tried to break the 2-2 knot as Smith singled in the Hereford sixth. They were unable to advance Smith as Nazareth retired the side.

Nazareth had no luck at the plate as they were retired in order in their half of the sixth.

Dennis Gerber singled for Nazareth in the seventh but was later put out in a fielder's choice situation. The score was still tied as the Redbirds came to the plate in the seventh.

Richard Casas, playing third base, led off with a base on balls. The next two batters hit fly balls and with two outs, Glen Nelson banged a timely double to score Casas. The next Hereford batter grounded out to the shortstop but as it turned out, the Redbirds had the winning run across the plate.

Nazareth fought back in the eighth as pitcher Schumucker led off with a single. Hereford coach Harlon Voyles called on Kershner to relieve Stevens on the mound.

The first batter Kershner faced hit a fly to second base and the next hitter waited out a base on balls. With men on first and second, Kershner bore down to retire the side.

Smith collected his third hit of the day in the Redbird eighth as he blasted a double but was unable to score as Nazareth retired the side. The visitors came to the plate for the last time and failed to deny Hereford its victory.

Brockman led off with a walk and advanced on two consecutive fielder's choice situations. Nazareth's last hope was thrown out by the Redbird catcher.

Now, for not one penny more than you pay for conventional 1st line nylon tires you can have Gates Air-Float Deluxe in the low profile design that gives you 25% to 30% more miles. You save fully one-fourth of the dollars you spend on tires - a 25% discount in cost-per-mile!

TESTED more than 10 MILLION MILES

Because it is built lower and wider (closer to the true running shape of a tire) Gates Air-Float Deluxe low profile design, greatly reduces the major cause of tire wear - scuffing of the tread caused by excessive flexing as the tire runs. Heat, another enemy of tire life, is also greatly reduced. That's why this tire gives average drivers a bonus of 5,000 miles or more - a fact proved by more than 10 million miles of carefully recorded fleet tests.

Unconditional ROAD-HAZARD GUARANTEE

against ANY tire failure for the entire life of the long-wearing tread - no time or mileage limit! Should tire fail for any reason, you get a new tire, with full credit for unused mileage, based on Gates standard, nation-wide adjustment schedule.

Haney Fans 16 As Hereford Blasts Childress AL, 13-1

Hereford's American Legion baseball team slammed Childress 13-1 behind the two-hit pitching of Jim Haney, Saturday. A swinging bunt down the third base line and a bloop single into left accounted for the two Childress hits. Haney went the route and struck out 16 batsmen. Johnny Thornton took the loss as he gave up 12 hits and walked four Hereford Redbirds. Hereford took the lead with one run in the first frame as Bill Nelson led off with a base on balls and Joe Mack Hale and Dan McDowell hit back to-back singles. Childress put their first two batters on base but failed to score in their half of the first. Glen Beal led off with a single, the only hit off Haney until the ninth inning. James Self followed with a walk but the next three batters were retired in order. The Redbirds stole the show at the plate until the ninth. Ken Loerwald led off the second inning with a single. Johnny Willoughby got on first after an infield error, advanced on an error and scored after Thornton walked two men. As they came to bat in the third, Hereford led 3-0 and Gary Smith stepped to the plate to blast a home run. Loerwald hit a single, stole second and scored after a wild pitch. After the third stanza the score stood 5-0. Haney led off in the fourth with a single and Nelson got on after an error. McDowell hit a single, one of his four hits during the game. McDowell stole second and third and scored on Smith's single. Thornton set the Redbirds down in order in the fifth but the local boys came back to pick up three runs off three hits in the sixth inning. Nelson and McDowell singled and advanced on three wild pitches and three errors.

Hereford added two runs in the seventh after Haney was hit by a pitch. Hale got on by an error and McDowell singled. Childress was guilty of five miscues in this frame. This ended the scoring for the Hereford squad and Haney had a shutout working as Childress went to bat for the last time. Jackie Petty led off with the second hit off Haney. The big Hereford mound ace struck out the next two batters but Petty stole second.

With two outs in the ninth, Haney had a wild streak and walked two men. Petty scored on a wild pitch to ruin the shutout. Haney bore down to strike out the last batter.

LOUISIANA VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Taylor of Alexandria, La., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Garner and son Don, of Shreveport, La. were guests last weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Urline Streu and Mrs. Maude Hackworth.

MRS. JOE H. SMITH JR. demonstrates her method of preparing a tasty Italian spaghetti dish. Inset, son Van, just home from Shattuck School, Faribault, Minn., looks into the empty bowl after "stuffing" himself on one of his favorite foods. (Staff Photos)

LET'S COOK SOMETHING!

Spaghetti And Salad Are Favorites Of Mrs. Smith

Mrs. Joe H. Smith Jr., director of school lunch rooms in Hereford, is better known to the younger set for the meals planned and prepared for the various school cafeterias throughout the city. But to her more intimate friends, she is famous for a variety of tasty dishes. One of our favorites is her Italian Spaghetti.

- To prepare this delicious dish you will need:
- 2 lbs. ground meat
 - 4 chopped onions
 - 2 chopped green peppers
 - 2 cloves garlic, minced
 - 1 No. 2 can tomatoes
 - 2 cans tomato paste
 - 1/2 tsp. salt
 - 1/4 tsp. black pepper
 - 1/4 tsp. thyme
 - 1/4 tsp. dry mustard
 - 1/4 tsp. marjoram
 - 1/4 tsp. oregano

When all ingredients are assembled, brown the meat in deep well of stove (or in a heavy skillet), add onions, peppers and garlic. Cook until onions are clear and add all other ingredients. Cook slowly for one and one-half hours. Prepare enough spaghetti for eight servings. Fill plates with spaghetti, cover with sauce and sprinkle with parmesan cheese.

A green salad and garlic bread, served with the spaghetti, round out a very tasty meal. One of Mrs. Smith's suggestions is a Springtime Salad, easy to prepare and oh-so-good! Combine in salad bowl and chill:

- 2 cups crisply shredded cabbage
- 1/2 cup chopped parsley
- 1 med. onion, sliced and separated into rings

- Mix thoroughly, stirring to dissolve sugar:
 - 3 tbsp. sugar
 - 1 tsp. salt
 - 3 tbsp. vinegar
 - 2 tbsp. salad oil
- When ready to serve salad, pour dressing over vegetables and toss lightly. Garnish with additional onion rings and pepper rings if desired.

ETERNAL LIFE THROUGH JESUS CHRIST

Your hatred hurts you.

For every action there is a reaction. If we love we are loved. If we give we are given. When we learn this and believe it we have learned God's plan for us.

No man can live alone. He needs his neighbor. God told us this many times, "Love thy neighbor as thyself." God also told us who our neighbor was . . . everyone, even our enemy.

It is hard for us to accept this unless we realize that our hatred hurts us. Hatred drives out love. That is why God told us to love one another. The more we love the closer we come to God who is perfect love. Truly we are our brother's keeper.

How Can I?

Q. Is there any way I can stretch a window shade roller that just falls short of the distance between the supporting brackets?

A. First remove the pin from the roller end, and pry off the metal cap carefully. Slip a washer into the cap, push the cap back onto the roller, and replace the end pin. Then return the shade to its brackets.

Q. How can I renew the color of a red brick fireplace?

A. First scrub the fireplace thoroughly with a brush and a solution of water and a little ammonia. Then bring back the color by daubing generously with mineral oil, applied with a pastry brush.

Q. How can I remove chewing gum that has lodged in my child's hair?

A. By applying some egg white, and then washing the hair with cold water.

Q. How can I make a white-wash mix for masonry walls?

A. Mix dry a half-pail of hydrated lime, two handfuls of common salt, two ounces of alum, and one-half pound of powdered glue. When ready to use, add the dry ingredients to boiling water until the mixture reaches the consistency of paint.

Q. Do you have a hint for the easier attaching of merit badges to my son's Boy Scout uniform?

A. One ingenious housewife I know uses snaps for attaching these badges to the uniform. This makes them easy to remove when she launders the outfit.

Q. What do you recommend for cleaning the inside of a refrigerator?

A. Lukewarm water and borax will keep the enamel or porcelain sweet and clean, and tend also to do away with any stains or odors.

Q. What is a good treatment for a rubber plant?

A. Sprinkle a little sweet oil around the roots of your rubber plant every few weeks, and this will make the leaves green and glossy.

SWITCH
OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A couple of 4-day old infants left the same hospital only to turn up in the wrong homes.

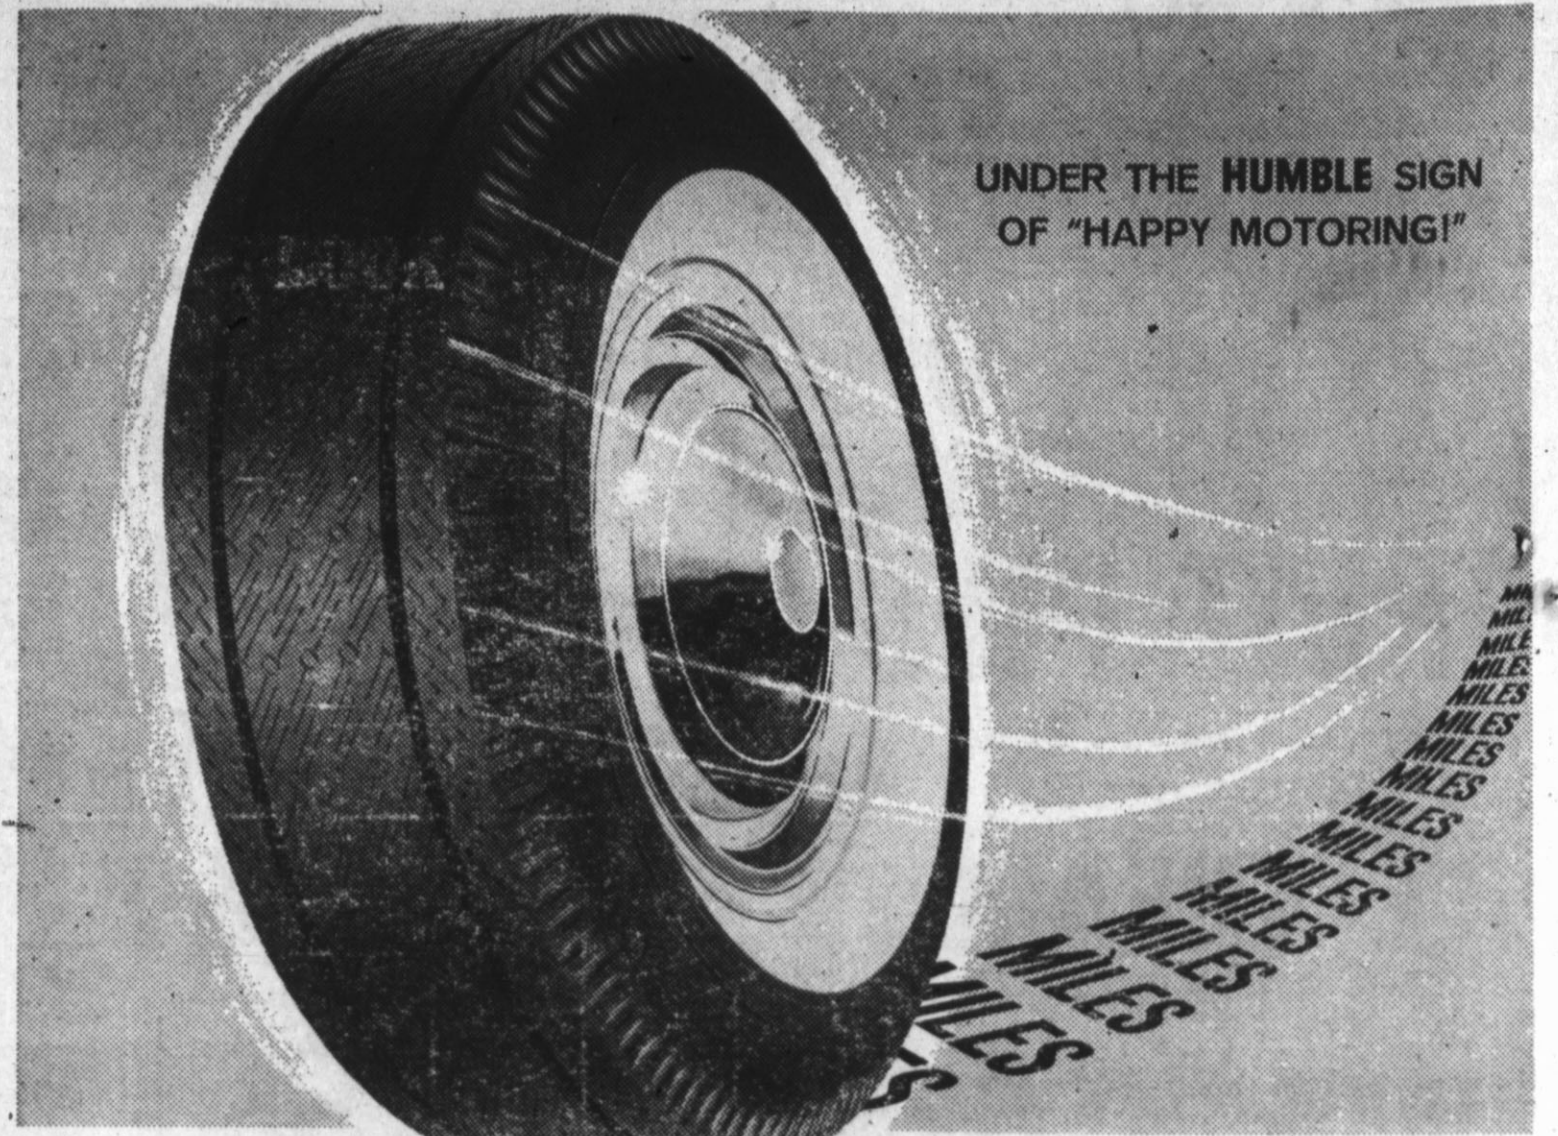

The babies belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grimes and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Woods.

One father discovered the slipup when he undressed his tot and found his name-tape read something other than his given name.

He quickly called the other father. The babies were returned to the hospital and exchanged.

The switch apparently took place after the tots were dressed in identical clothing and taken to their mothers' rooms before going home.

The 780-mile Santa Fe Trail was made obsolete on Feb. 9, 1880, when iron rails reached the old Spanish town of Santa Fe.

The Newest Developments In HYBRIDS

SCOTT 500

Here is a short-stalked, red grain hybrid with great yield potential and wonderful stand ability. Stalk height is about 12 inches shorter than RS 610. Red Grain (darker than RS 610 grain) on very large medium-dry heads. About same maturity as TX 660 and outstanding in ability to stand and to yield. Adapted to dryland or irrigation. 110 days to mature.

SCOTT 450

An early grain hybrid of about the same maturity as RS 610. It is very similar to Scott 500 (above) but earliness makes this an outstanding hybrid for areas needing this factor. Red grain, large heads, high yield and shorter stalks make Scott 450 a highly desirable early grain hybrid. 95 days to mature (12 to 18 shorter than 610).

A GREAT PAIR OF TRUE COMBINE HEIGHT HYBRIDS.

Leading Texas and RS Hybrids — all grown on our own farms — processed in our own plant, winter grown in Mexico.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

Galaxie styling is inspiring more admiration (and imitation) than any other car on the road!

This is the look that started with Thunderbird —sired the Galaxie—and quickly became the styling success of the Sixties.

Many cars have tried to copy it. No car has succeeded. Incomparably beautiful, the 1961 Galaxie maintains its distinction—as originals always do.

Styling is only part of Galaxie's distinction: this is the car that's beautifully built to take care of itself. The '61 Ford goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications . . . 4,000 miles between oil changes. Brakes adjust automatically. The muffler is built to last three times as long as ordinary ones. The body is specially treated to resist rust and corrosion. The finish never needs waxing.

Wouldn't it make sense to STOP spending money on an old car that can never do for you what a new Ford can do?

SWAP right now while your Ford Dealer's sales are booming—and the swapping is easier than it's ever been before.

SAVE with the Ford that makes saving fun!

Today is the day to STOP . . . SWAP . . . SAVE
