Palo Duro And Borger Diamond Tilts Set Again

With fingers crossed and one eye looking skyward, the Hereford Whiteface baseball team will try to play a game Thursday afternoon in Amarillo.

They have scheduled a game at Palo Duro, replacing a contest between the two teams that was called off Tuesday because of wet grounds. Starting time is 4 p.m. for the single game.

Hereford also is scheduled to play a doubleheader at Borger on Saturday. First game is slated for 1 p.m.

If the Palo Duro game goes on as planned, it will be the first time in ten days that Hereford has played.

Four games have been cancelled and one postponed by weather since the season started. The Whitefaces have played (Continued on page 2)

281-222 Vote Carries Issues

Bids by bond companies and contractors will be opened Friday at 2 p. m. by the City Commission as voters approved a $180,000 street improvement issue Tuesday.

By a vote of 281-222, the proposal was approved for an extensive street repair and improvement program. The favorable vote came just one month after a similar issue was defeated by a 2-1 margin.

Look To Senate For Help With Sugar Act Bill

If this area is to be granted favorable sugar legislation which could result in a sugar beet refinery, it will rest with action of the United States Senate, backers said Wednesday.

The House of Representatives Tuesday passed a 21-month extension bill which does not make provisions for new growers in the U. S. Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association has been notified that it lost its bid in the House by only six votes on the floor. Vote was 283-129. (Continued on page 2)

U. S. Senator William A. Blakley Wednesday asked the Senate Finance Committee to give Texas growers an opportunity to show how they can solve the nation's sugar crisis.

Blakley wired the request to Senator Harry F. Byrd, chairman of the committee, which will take up a House-approved bill to extend the Sugar Act through 1962.

"I respectfully request hearing on HR5463 in order that the people of Texas and other areas may have a full opportunity to present information and data to (Continued on page 2)

The Commission will meet in City Hall at 5 p. m. Friday to consider the bids.

At least three bond companies and a minimum of four major contractors are expected to submit bids for consideration. Meeting in special session Tuesday night, Commissioners canvassed the election returns and called for the special meeting to open and consider bids.

Turn-out for Tuesday's election was about 300 less than the 800 who cast ballots in the first election. The February bond issue proposal was for $220,000 and encountered strong, organized opposition.

Issue which was approved was virtually the same, except it left out the controversial widening of Third Street, which had been a major part of the first issue.

City Manager Dudley Bayne said Tuesday night that he expects the low bidder to be working within a week with some topping work underway by April 1.

Officials of the city made five panel forum appearances during an eight-day period to explain the proposal to civic club members and other interested citizens.

The issue included 11 different jobs, with a cost of about $171,969. Other regular election expenses were not included in this total.

Senate...

He described the Communist invasion of Cuba as the Number One problem of the United States. "The Cuban trend toward becoming a more and more important base from which Communist-trained spies and propagandists are infiltrating the nations of our hemisphere must be reversed," he stated.

Wilson advocated a re-entatement of the Monroe Doctrine to eliminate disease, pestilence, poverty and ignorance, "the seedbeds of Communism."

He also advocated the construction of a better defense warning system in the Gulf Coast area, particularly to guard vital industrial and petroleum concentrations along the Texas Gulf coast.

Excessive foreign aid programs, he stated, are draining capital from the U. S. and subsidizing businesses which compete with this country's. He gave two illustrations: Japanese transistors can be shipped to this country, with all duties paid, for 25 cents while a similar unit costs 80 cents to manufacture in the U. S.; India has been given equipment for its shrimp fleet, so India now can land shrimp in California for half the cost of catching it by Texas fishermen.

But domestic problems also were discussed by Wilson, who said he would work, if elected, to have Cuba's sugar quotas allocated to domestic growers, particularly in West Texas. Wilson also said he favored allowing depletion deductions for underground water.

Wilson urged that Texas keep its cattle and grain sorghum for commercial cattle feeding operations, rather than selling them to feeders in other areas.

This, he said, would attract packing houses, tanneries and other allied industries into Texas. "A lot of a move to get manufacturing closer to raw products."

He urged that the oil business be put back on its feet without resorting to a Fuel Allocation Board, which has been proposed. "In order to keep our high school graduates in Texas, we must create 60,000 new jobs a year," he commented.

Describing himself as a state's-righter, Wilson told of his political background: four years as district attorney of Dallas County, six years on the Texas Supreme Court and four years as Texas Attorney General. "I am going to fight for local and state government first," Wilson concluded.

(Continued from page 1) support their needs and desire to join in the production and refining of sugar," Blakley's telegram said. "Hearings are urgently needed in order that your committee may fully consider the best interests of our domestic economy in this particular area before passing this legislation which is so vitally important."

Blakley has already joined with Sen. Clinton Anderson of New Mexico and Sen. Robert Kerr of Oklahoma in sponsoring a Senate bill to lift restrictions on sugar beet acreage to at least 25,000 acres. If approved, increased acreage could open up a new and important industry in West Texas, leading to the establishment of sugar refineries, Blakley believes.

On a West Texas tour, Blakley said a solution to the sugar problem exists "right here in the Great Plains."

"There should already be a flourishing sugar beet industry in this area, just as we have a great cane sugar industry on the Texas Gulf Coast, he said.

"I will do everything I can to help you accomplish this," he concluded.

James W. Witherspoon, Hereford attorney and legislative representative of the Association, left for Washington, D. C., Tuesday evening to join two other legislative representatives, H. L. Benefield and J. H. Sears, both of Hereford. Benefield, president of the Association, and Sears left Hereford for Washington Tuesday morning.

The bill the House passed would:

1. Continue until Dec. 31, 1962, a 1960 act giving the President authority to reduce the Cuban sugar quota. Under the act, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower stopped all U. S. purchases of Cuban sugar.

2. Strike out a provision in the 1960 act which required the President to divert some of the Cuban quota to the Dominican Republic. This does not affect the regular Dominican quota.

3. Divert more of the Cuban quota to western hemisphere countries and other countries which purchase U. S. farm commodities. This provision would increase the quotas for the Philippines, Peru, Mexico, Costa Rica, Haiti, Panama, The Netherlands and nationalist China.

Opponents of the bill complained it had no provision for helping new producers and producing areas in the United States.

Witherspoon said: "We would have won, but the administration, including Sam Rayburn, insisted on the 21-months extension without taking care of new growers. The closeness of this vote, however, will help us in the Senate."

He urged local residents to send telegrams to the Senate Finance Committee, where the bill will now go, in helping new growers obtain favorable legislation.

Senators on the Finance Committee include: Harry Flood Byrd, Virginia, Committee chairman; Robert S. Kerr, Oklahoma; Russell B. Long, Louisiana; George A. Smathers, Florida; Clinton P. Anderson, New Mexico; Paul H. Douglas, Illinois; Albert Gore, Tennessee; Herman E. Talmadge, Georgia; Eugene J. McCarthy, Minnesota; Fance Hartke, Indiana; Frank Carlson, Kansas; Wallace F. Bennett, Utah; Carl T. Curtis, Nebraska; and Thurston B. Morton, Kentucky.

"Has anyone seen a wreck?" Several people had, but neither vehicle involved was anywhere in sight. Ed asked around and finally found that the two drivers had agreed to move on and meet at a less congested area while waiting for the investigating officer.

We heard this week that the Easter bunny came about this way: A Greek goddess had a bird for a pet and one day changed it into a rabbit so it would remain on the ground. That confused the rabbit and he would remain on the ground. That confused the rabbit and he would remain on the ground. That confused the rabbit and he would remain on the ground.

Dick Plank Wins Essay Contest

Dick Plank won a $10 first place award in an essay contest sponsored by the County Auxiliary of American Association of Physicians, according to Mrs. M. W. Nobles, chairman. His essay has been entered in further competition on the state level.

Second place went to Pat Ranspot, third place to Austin Hodges, and Kay Allen received honorable mention.

"The contest is an annual affair," said Mrs. Nobles, "with two topics: 'Advantages of American Free Enterprise over Communism' and 'Advantages of Private Medical Care.' Students may choose from either of the topics. Winner on the state level will receive $500, while the national winners receive $1,000, $500, and $250 in awards.

Judges in the county contests were Wayne Thomas, Dr. Roy J. Grubbs, and J. M. Gillentine.

Funeral services were held Mar. 16 at Guthrie, Okla., for Robert Burton, uncle of Mrs. Joe Curtisinger and Mrs. Guy Cornelius of Hereford. Mr. Burton, who was 76 years old, died in a Concord, Cal., hospital after a short illness.

He was the brother of Mrs. Jim Ashlock, former Hereford resident now living in Concord.

Teen-Age Children Of Alcoholics Create Hereford Alateen Group

Six youngsters stood and recited the Serenity Prayer — God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can, And wisdom to know the difference.

Thus opened the first meeting of Alateens in Hereford. The initial meeting was held Monday evening in the Hereford AA building.

A special Alateen meeting will be held Sunday, March 26, at 8 p.m. in the AA building. About 15 Alateens from Lubbock will be at the meeting to provide a program.

Meetings will be held each Friday night at 8 p.m. in the Hereford AA building.

Teen-age groups are a recognized and vital part of the whole AA and Al-Non Family program. Actually, so many new Alateen groups are being constantly formed and expanding that every stage of development exists throughout the country.

A suggested preamble comes from the Fifth Avenue Alateen Group in New York City which is read at the opening of each meeting:

"The Alateen Groups are made up of children of problem drinkers who find that meeting with other children of alcoholics is helpful. We realize that even though the alcoholic parent may have joined AA, and the non-alcoholic joined Al-Non, we, as their children, can play an important part in reuniting the family.

"We urge you to try our program. We, in Alateen, have learned to become individuals. We try to accept the fact that alcoholism is a disease. In studying the Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous we can accept the fact that we are powerless over alcohol, and that we can develop the ability to detach ourselves emotionally from our parents' problems, yet retain our love for them.

"Our changed attitude might possibly inspire the alcoholic to seek help which may eventually lead him to AA, so there is no need for discouragement even though the alcoholic may be still drinking.

"We try at all times to reassure our parents that we do not discuss them at our meetings. Our sole topic is the solution of our own problems.

"We will always be grateful to Alateen for giving us a way of life and a wonderful, healthy program to live by and enjoy."

Also from the New York group comes a set of twenty questions suggested for use in Alateen meetings:

"1. Is your unhappiness at home affecting your school work?"

"2. Do you hate your alcoholic parent or only resent his drinking?"

"3. Does the fact of having an alcoholic in your family hamper your social relations and activities?"

"4. Do you try to provoke the alcoholic?"

"5. Have you ever attempted to escape the problem?"

"6. Do you feel inferior, frustrated and depressed?"

"7. Are your problems in the home 'distorting' your reasoning and behavior?"

"8. Will you permit your ambitions for the future to be influenced by a parent who is drinking?"

"9. Have you become less religious through living with an alcoholic?"

"10. Would you marry an alcoholic?"

"11. Have you experimented with alcohol yourself?"

"12. Have you learned to detach yourself emotionally from your parents' problems without detaching yourself from your parents as individuals?"

"13. Do you spend enough time and interest in Alateen affairs to replace resentment and self-pity?"

"14. Do you believe that Alateen 'helps those who help themselves'?"

"15. Can other people's problems help you understand your own?"

"16. Can your attitude influence the other members of your family toward accepting the problem?"

"17. Can you strengthen your family circle?"

"18. Can you be happy in your home if you apply the knowledge you have derived from Alateen meetings?"

"19. Has Alateen deepened the affection and understanding between you and your alcoholic parents?"

"20. What things in the program first helped you and what has continued to help you most?"

"These questions could well form the basis of round-table discussions, using only one or two per meeting, or they could easily be related to the Twelve Steps to form a lively springboard for delving into basic Alateen attitudes and problems.

"When we speak of the twelve steps, we mean the steps that can be a way of life for the families of alcoholics as well as AA's:

"1. We admitted we were powerless over alcohol — that our lives had become unmanageable.

"2. Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.

"3. Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.

"4. Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.

"5. Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to other human beings the exact nature of our wrongs.

"6. Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.

"7. Humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.

"8. Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.

"9. Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.

"10. Continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong promptly admitted it.

"11. Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood Him praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.

"12. Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to others, and to practice these principles in all our affairs."

"This was a small group meeting, but for the first time much interest was shown." A representative of the group said, "If each one that was there would tell another youngster about the meeting and maybe pick him and go to the next meeting more and more will eventually be coming and enjoying the good fellowship that is spread by each individual there."

School Closed Two Days Because Of Snow Storm

BY MRS. T. L. COLLINS

After such nice weather Tuesday and Wednesday, the chill, cloudy skies on Thursday were quite a change. Friday morning there was a deep snow cover on the ground. School principal Thomas L. Collins and custodian Joe Rader tried a bus on the roads about 5:15 a.m. then started sending out word that there would be no school that day.

Saturday was nice and highways were cleared. Sunday there was more snow everywhere and still falling. It stayed cloudy most of the day. Snow was steadily coming down at bed time.

There was no school again on Monday.

Walcott's girls and boys basketball teams played Stanton Junior High School on Wednesday afternoon. They were practice games and Walcott won. Their coach, Miss Bourquin, as well as the team members came back wearing smiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader spent Saturday and Sunday in Hereford visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. M. Payne and her family. Mr. and Mrs. Elton Sorrells had a house full of company on Sunday, when these relatives came to spend the day with them: Mr. and Mrs. Al Sor-rells of Center Plains, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Sorrells and their three daughters, also of Center Plains, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Sorrells, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grisom and Cindy and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Morris, all of Amarillo.

Frank Ford has spent some time lately at Kerrville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tom Miles and Jan from Dallas were weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Burk and Mrs. Florence Miles. On Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Bullard of Hereford were dinner guests in the home also.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stocks took Janell Weaver back to Abilene on Sunday. Janell had been home for three weeks having a serious case of the mumps. She will now resume her studies at Hendricks Hospital there.

The art group met at Walcott School in the auditorium on Tuesday morning. The instructor, Mrs. Ernest McGee of Hereford, Mrs. J. V. Perrin, Mrs. Noel Berry, Mrs. John Hill, Mrs. G. V. Hall and Mrs. Thurman Davis were present.

Norman Minks made a business trip to Midland last week. Assembly was held on Wednesday morning. A count was taken of those who have been absent because of mumps—30 children and chickenpox—15 children. Some are still out of school with mumps. Thomas L. Collins read Psalm 134. The first grade children showed the Health drawing they had made and each explained his own. The second graders gave some demonstrations or experiments they had tried in Science class. Then they showed and told about their drawings of "glass and its uses."

The film "Men, Women and Children" produced by the U. S. Forest Service of Atlanta, Georgia; for the Department of Agriculture was shown. Our forests are our priceless heritage, which are often destroyed by careless people who come to enjoy them. Tourists who smoke should always use the auto ash tray. A permit to hunt is no license to be careless in the forest. Animals and fish cannot fight fires, yet their homes are destroyed by humans.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wylie have a new son, born in the Friona Hospital on Wednesday morning, March 15. He is the brother of Gay, Debra and Gerald Wylie.

The P.T.A. meets this Friday night, March 24, at 8 p.m. The 4-H boys and girls will give demonstrations. Declamations will be presented. Bring pie for refreshments.

Merry Kay Pruitt and Bruce Collins enjoyed seeing "The Alamo," a picture show, in Amarillo on Saturday night.

WT Professor Guest Speaker At Music Club

Dawn Music Club met recently at the Dawn Baptist Church for the Texas Composer's Day program, with Dr. Houston Bright, professor at West Texas State College in Canyon, acting as guest speaker.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames Steve Bavousett, Ted Richardson and Charles Davenport. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Robert Strain, president of the club.

OFF THE Shelf

BY H. A. TUCK
Vangel Griffin, at 29, was fed up with his mass-produced life in middle-class America. And the decision he makes forms the theme of a first novel by Herbert Lobsenz.

Vangel had graduated from the right school, married the right girl and joined the right law firm. But he felt it was a hopeless future that confronted him.

Although he considered suicide, he felt that was too impulsive. Instead, he gave himself one year of study in Spain, leaving his wife happy in her job on Madison Avenue.

Vangel finds himself surrounded by the student hatred of the Falange that is to grow into a full-scale riot. But a man who sees no reason for living is hardly likely to find it in Spanish politics.

But what he does find is a frightening love affair with the beautiful Satry. She is fierce, wanton, tender and decisive, not at all suitable for the mild, middle-of-the-road Vangel Griffin.

Nor does he find any satisfaction in Alonso, Satry's brother. Alonso, with one trusted aide, is a latter-day Don Quixote who is bound to reform the world... if he can get the world to stop and listen to him.

With his suicide date set and the circumstances planned, Vangel is overtaken by despair, committed to actions that are inconceivable to the man he believes himself to be, battered, shaken and outraged by Satry and Alonso.

Stubbornly, almost against his will, he finds a fledgling moral strength. He is surprised into accepting life... a ridiculous, tragic life.

Vangel Griffin is a fresh, vigorous novel. It combines deep seriousness and some rich comedy.

ERIK OKSETER, exchange student at Hereford High School this year, had charge of the program for the Optimist Club meeting Tuesday. He talked briefly of his home in Norway and then showed a color film, "This Is Norway". He is one of two exchange students at Hereford this year through the American Field Service program. He was introduced by Bill Stanford, high school principal. (Staff Photo)

Kitchen Centers Topic Of Program On Friday

BY ARGEN DRAPER
The snow Friday morning interfered with our Home Management Group which met at the R. E. A. kitchen. There were only three who were brave enough to come to the meeting. They were Ruth Gandy, Nita Rudd and June Rudd. The program was on arranging kitchen centers and was given by Miss Mildred Webb, Area Home Management Specialist, with headquarters at Lubbock. Miss Webb drove from Lubbock Friday morning and she reported that the highways were almost impassable in some places.

during the snow was the forsythia, which was in full bloom in the park just east of the hospital.

I thought the Lions Club minstrel was very good entertainment. J. T. Marlin was in the audience peddling cracker jacks and I wish you could have seen his face when he discovered that John Frank had bought four boxes.

There is a lot of enthusiasm among the committee workers for the beautification of Hereford and Deaf Smith County. Congratulations to Teddy Alexander for setting up such a wonderful organization. I believe that we are going to see some real fine results in town and in rural areas.

It's hard to believe that Spring is here with snow, ice and fog but the calendar says it's Spring, as do the forsythia and robins.

Corinne Weems is one step ahead of the Beautification Committee. When you go by Moore Bros. Station look at the lovely red geraniums in the window.

The committees of the County Program Building Committee are busy at work making plans and carrying them out. There's a list of shrubs, trees and vines in the office that will help you in landscaping the lawn and beautifying your place.

Just as there are many styles of architecture in use today so there are many styles in landscape design. Perhaps there are as many ways of designing a landscape as there are in designing a dress. Styles come and go, however, whatever is truly beautiful remains beautiful. You should measure your design by asking yourself three questions: Does the design add to my home's (1) comfort, (2) convenience and (3) beauty?

The landscape planting combines comfort and convenience and attractive grounds for a small home. Variations in landscape plans may be produced by using different plants, making different combinations of plants, enlarging or making smaller the service area and by enlarging or making smaller the recreation area. The screen planting can be varied in line, color and texture. More or fewer trees could be planted to suit the taste of the family. Flower beds might be placed in the service area and more annual and perennial flowers planted in the recreation area. The vegetable garden is a good place for annuals.

Saturday, while in Lubbock, I saw Emma Mae Hastings. She is teaching fourth grade at Reese Air Base. Emma Mae was a member of West Hereford Home Demonstration Club while she lived in Hereford.

Mrs. W. D. DiGrassi says, "Parliamentary procedure is traced back to 350 B.C." Longan's Parliamentary Procedure book is the authority used by the National and State Parliamentary Associations. ### Alterations Topic Of Progressive HD

The Progressive Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday in the First National Bank Club room with Mrs. E. C. Hammett giving the opening exercise.

Mrs. Alvis Jolly gave the demonstration on altering men's clothing. She said to never take up more than two inches in the waist or one and three-fourths inch in the crotch. She also said to be sure and take up the waist before taking up the crotch and to put new seams in before taking out the old ones.

The members present were: Mesdames Taft McGee, Alvis Jolly, E. C. Hammett, P. L. Carmichael, T. J. Parsons, Dale Hallows, Fred Autry and Brenda Jolly.

Irrigation Gas Group Formed

Approximately 750 farmers who use natural gas for irrigation fuel in the Panhandle and South Plains region have banded themselves together into an organization entitled "Plains Irrigation Gas Users Association."

David Burgess of Tulia has been elected president of the Association. Other officers include Don Anderson of Crosbyton, who was elected vice-president, and True Rosser of Petersburg, who was elected secretary-treasurer.

Purpose of the group is to secure fuel for irrigation motors at the lowest possible price. The move to organize came about during the past six weeks as a result of county and community meetings in 11 Panhandle and South Plains counties. The Association is expected to spread to some 20 or 30 other counties where irrigations wells presently are being operated on natural gas, Burgess said.

Officers of the Association will meet with any interested group in this area at any time a meeting can be called. Motivating factor for creating the organization, Burgess stated, was the notification recently by Pioneer Natural Gas Company to the irrigation farmers of this area that another rate increase would be affected.

Individuals who assisted in organizing the Association included Jay Boston of Deaf Smith County, Ray Joe Riley of Castro County, and Bruce Parr of Parmer County.

FAITHFUL WORKERS MEET

Attending were Mesdames Floyd Tucker, Wayne Lawrence, Barrett Sowell, Ray Calvert and Joe Curtsinger.

Irrigated Grasses An Asset To Complete Farm Program

Irrigated grasses can play an important role as an agricultural crop in this area, according to Arneal Scott, local Soil Conservation Service technician. Blackwell switchgrass has proved to be economically important as one of the crops grown on the Luther Lesly farm. Lesly is chairman of the board of supervisors for the Tierra Blanca Soil Conservation District.

LUSH PASTURE of Blackwell switchgrass has proved a good investment for Luther Lesly. This 22 acres has been grazed, irrigated and then cut for hay. It can be used for summer grazing after cattle come off wheat. (SCS Photo)

Grasses that can be planted under irrigation include Switchgrass, Caucasian Bluestem, Indiangrass, Western Wheatgrass, Sideoats Grama and Midland Bermuda Grass.

These grasses can be grazed in conjunction with other grazing crops. Wheat pasture is our major grazing crop in the winter. With irrigated grasses there is a place for livestock after they come off wheat pasture, adds Scott.

Cool season grasses such as Western Wheatgrass can be used as an intermediate grazing crop between wheat pasture and summer grazing. This grass produces maximum forage in the fall and spring under irrigation.

Irrigated grass production can be increased by fertilization and by application of water in controlled amounts. These grasses can produce enough forage to graze as many as two beef cows per acre from May until September.

Irrigated grasses are also a soil improving crop. They will condition the soil as well as maintain organic matter and provide cover for the land when it is needed most. This crop will also aid in controlling Johnson Grass.

Some of the farmers that have planted grasses under irrigation in this area are Luther Lesly, Charles Hoover, F. L. Elche, Carrol Forrester, M. C. Kaul and Robert Lloyd. There is Federal cost-share available for establishing irrigated grasses. This includes seeding operation as well as seed costs.

Now is the time to start making plans for planting irrigated grasses. Technical assistance is available through the local Soil Conservation Service office, Scott concluded.

BY JIMMIE GILLENINE
I was looking at a sample ballot for the forthcoming U. S. Senator race, and found it quite confusing. With 71 names on the ticket, it is actually hard to locate the name of the candidate for whom you wish to vote. This is one case where the candidates should be arranged alphabetically, instead of drawing for places. Will Wilson was in Hereford this week and, to my knowledge, he is the only candidate who has visited us during the campaign.

I figure Wilson and Wright for the run-off, but will probably be wrong as usual. Either of these fellows, if elected, is young enough to stay in Washington for a sufficient time to become acquainted — and I think the people of Texas will consider this angle, particularly in view of the success of "Mr. Sam" and Lyndon Johnson.

Curtis Traweck was recently in Wichita Falls, and returned to report that the segregation problem is running rife in the area; he says all over town you see windows reading: "Halt segregation! Take a Negro home with you for lunch!"

Buddy Hutson and Johnny Johnson appear to have pretty well moved in and "stole the show" in the recent Lions Club Minstrel. Homer Brumley says the club made around $1,000 from the project — including the Crackerjack concession — and there seems little doubt but that it will become an annual affair. Proceeds were earmarked to benefit the Golden Age Home in Hereford.

Those who saw the TV bowling show out of Amarillo Sunday know that C. J. Lance did trounce Paul Jette, who is said to have taught the Hereford youth a lot about the game. Now, I hear by the grapevine that C. J. is thinking about "turning pro."

Workmen have just about finished demolishing the house where Supt. Fred Cunningham lived at 805 W. Fourth Street, B. M. Wiltshire, who bought the property from the school district, plans to replace it with a neighborhood food store.

Meanwhile, the snow is melting away and the newspaper business is looking up. I figure this because everybody I see is talking about going fishing — and some of the subscribers keep telling me that the only thing The Brand is good for is to wrap fish; even then, one or two recommended using the section which does not contain the Bull Column.

Some of our globe trotters are back home after making it around the world. I saw Carl and Mrs. Perrin, and she says when she gets to thinking about it and is ready to go again. Homer Newton was giving me that old stuff about interpreting the hula dance through motions of the hands. Carl said they were somewhat surprised when they ran into Jack and Julia Bradley in India that time, and he figures they will not return until after the first of next month.

Included among the changes seen in this country during the past 30 years is the barbering profession. Reed Williams was department man who picked up Paul Harvey, nationally famous newscaster, and brought him from the Hereford airport in a department pickup, was eating lunch and listening to the commentator recall experiences the other day on a broadcast out of Chicago.

"One fellow I'll never forget," said Harvey. "Is Jerry Albracht of Hereford, Texas, and the ride he gave me in that yellow truck." It came as such a surprise that Jerry swallowed half an egg sandwich at one gulp.

Just to keep the record straight, no license or bond is required for farmers who do their own herbicide spraying, according to a bulletin furnished by Peyton Ramey, who is in charge of this work for the area. He says the proposed law, if adopted, would only cover commercial spraying, and that it was designed primarily to cover damage from plane spraying.

I'm like the Bootleg Philosopher. Sometimes, it looks as if the government is going to make us work, whether we like it or not. You run into about the same proposition milking a cow or hauling freight; a man can do what he pleases with his own truck and load, but if he hauls the same thing for someone else, he gets into so much red tape he can't dig his way out.

I always heard that the cattlemen were the cream of the crop, and now I believe it. Lee Cocanougher stopped me this week, and expressed appreciation for the recent snow, and how I predicted it right on the money. He didn't even mention that it came a couple of days ahead of schedule, which is quite a contrast to some folks I could name. All in all, I guess Lee is probably one of the nicest people I know.

If you have a good jacket, go ahead and put your overcoat in moth balls. You may wish you had it once or twice, but not enough to take it out.

D. E. President Answers Questions On Program

Every day some student asks the Distributive Education president, Ronnie Byers, questions about the D. E. program. Here, Ronnie has answered some of the questions that may help students interested in the D. E. program.

1. What is Distributive Education?
Distributive Education is a vocational program especially designed to teach high school boys and girls the fundamentals of retail, wholesale, and service-selling businesses.

2. How many credits do you receive in D. E.?
A D. E. student receives two credits per year. One credit is received for one hour of classroom activities and the other for training on the job.

3. Who may enroll in D. E.?
Any junior or senior who is 16 years or older and is employed at a distributive occupation.

4. What are the advantages of D. E. training?
There are many advantages. They are as follows: It makes possible a better-trained employee, insures an interested worker, provides the businessmen a chance to work in active co-operation with schools, creates a cross-section and in personnel age groups, brings in new customers, keeps some of the best youth in the community, and makes replacements available when key people are absent.

5. How did this program start?
D. E. was developed because of identical interests of two groups:

1. Operators of retail, wholesale, and service businesses have expressed an interest in more efficient workers being graduated from our schools.

2. Boys and girls today realize that they must have specific training and experience to find a place in the highly competitive business world.

6. How does D. E. operate at school?
Students spend half of each day attending school taking the usual courses, including a Distributive Education course. In this course — selling, accuracy in arithmetic and correct business behavior are taught.

7. How does D. E. operate at work?
Students work during the afternoons and Saturdays. Here, they apply the lessons which they have learned in class and gain practical experience. The employers grade the students on their work and forward the information to the co-ordinator.

8. What is the salary?
The salaries vary, but the average D. E. job pays students what a person would normally receive for part-time work.

9. How long do you spend in D. E. class each day?
Each day D. E. students spend one hour in class.

10. Why did you take D. E.?
Personally, I took D. E. to receive the training and the money. Most students take D. E. for these reasons. The salary a student receives helps him to have the things he wants and prepares him for the problems of handling money later in life. Also, D. E. training will help students get a job after graduating.

Ronnie Byers
D. E. president

11. How many students are in D. E. at this time?
At present, there are 42. We hope to have more next year.

12. What are some of the activities in D. E.?
Some of the activities of the D. E. program are as follows:

1. Field trips — during class, we visit the various businesses of interest.

2. Speakers — Business men and women often come to our class to talk to us about important subjects.

3. Area contests — These are small scale contests of the type held at the State Convention.

4. State contests — Various contests such as business speaking, job interview, ad layout, and sales demonstration are some of the activities of the State Convention which was held in Galveston this year.

5. Parties — Such parties as election campaigns, Christmas, and others are a few at which every student enjoys himself and takes an active part.

6. Annual banquet — Of course, there is our annual banquet for which we all work so hard in order to honor our employers.

13. How many students went to State Contest this year?
Five. They were chosen by having elimination contests here.

14. Who were the students who attended the State Convention?
The five students and their contests were: Merry Kay Fruit, ad layout; Dewann Fryar, sales demonstration; Dyan Duvall, job interview; and Sam Saul, business speaking.

15. How many years have you

I have taken D. E. two years: my junior and senior years.

16. How did you find the job you are now holding?
I found my job through Mr. Hart. In the latter part of the year, I filled out an application telling the type of work I was interested in. Then during the summer I went to Mr. Hart. He gave me a list of places that were wanting students. I then went to the various places and had an interview with the employer's. Don't think it is easy. You'll be competing with about 10 other boys and girls; so I advise planning and preparing for your interview.

"I hope this questionnaire answered some of your questions," comments Byers. "If you have other questions, you may consult Mr. Hart."

'Smilin' Through' Set As Production Of Senior Class

"Smilin' Through," the world famous comedy-drama by Allan Langdon White, will be presented by the senior class on April 20-21 in the high school auditorium.

The play, which brought Jane Cowl into outstanding fame, is based on a love tragedy that occurred 50 years back. As a stage attraction it stands out among those that have lived over the years.

It is the story of a beautiful young bride-to-be who is shot and killed on the night of her wedding by a rejected suitor, who had intended to kill her future husband.

She vows that she will come back some day in spirit to undo the great injustice that has been committed. As time passes, a girl and boy of the two families and of the present generation fall in love. Their elders keep them separated until her spirit returns to aid them in their romance.

This beautiful, fantastic tale of a great romance will bring laughter and tears to young and old alike. Each event winds its way steadily onward and upward to a gripping climax. Every element needed to make a perfect stage production is combined, woven and twisted into a story such as the theater has never before known.

Human interest combined with a sweet wistfulness and a quaint whimsical Irish appeal make this a very enjoyable piece. It has played on both sides of the Atlantic for several seasons and was always stamped a sensation.

Tryouts will be held during the week of March 20-24. No exact admission price has been set as of now. All proceeds will be used as a gift to Hereford High School from the graduating class. Miss Delores Wall is in charge of the production.

Pam Clay
H. H. S. twirler

Pam Clay Has Been Twirler For Two Years

"I've really enjoyed twirling in Hereford High School for the last two years," says Pam Clay.

Pam is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Clay. She is 18 years old and has brown hair and brown eyes.

She has been twirling ever since she was in the eighth grade. Her ambition is to make the most of life and teach twirling if she gets the chance.

Pam's pet peeve is people who won't participate in school activities and then make fun of you when you enter them. She believes there is more school spirit and more noise when the band plays in pep rallies.

Junior Class Busy On Fund-Raising Projects

Members of the junior class, along with their sponsors, were busy employed last Saturday with receiving and delivering baked goods of all kinds; and with counting the proceeds from the sale of the goods, which will all be used to help provide the junior-senior banquet this year.

The pies, cakes, and cookies were contributed by members of the class and their parents. Several members telephoned everyone listed in the Hereford telephone directory to take the orders. Teams of boys and girls kept a steady stream of deliveries going as late as 5 p.m. Saturday afternoon. Some deliveries were made as late as 7 p.m.

"We sincerely appreciate the support of the people who placed orders," remarked Mrs. Viola Chisholm, junior class co-ordinator. "Their co-operation was necessary to the success of the project. As a result of the hard work and co-operation of all those who helped," she continued, "the banquet will be held this year, as planned."

Ideal Girl

Arnold Powell's ideal girl would have to be as cute as Judy Kreighshouser, and as beautiful as Joyce West. She would have to have hair like Sharon Hill, eyes like Sammie Tisdale, and teeth like Toni Parker. She would have to have a mouth like Jerre Bea Noland and a nose like Suzanne Langley. She would have to be as mannerly as Carol Kent and as much fun as Linda Edwards. She would have to be as flirty as Jenny Holt and as silly as Terry Smith. She would walk like Judy Bradley and have a figure like Sandra Moore. She would have a smile like Judy Fowlkes and be as daring as Linda Reed. She would be as neat as Joy Wiman and as well-dressed as Kay Seamonds. As for being the best all around, she would have to be like Connie Kent.

Question Of The Week

"What do you think of the homerooms being made into Study halls?"

Kay Lemons - I think we should go home unless we have meetings.

Doris Berend - I don't like it.

Jackie Nunley - I think that we should be allowed to do something besides study in homeroom.

Lynn Thompson - I think we need a time to study, but I also think they could be a little more lenient.

Sandy Blythe - It doesn't make much difference to me because I won't be here next year, but I don't think it will work out that way.

Jim Dziuk - "We'll" have to reform.

Grady Persons - Does this mean we can't tell any more funny stories?

Senior Class Personalities

Kylene Hodges is 17 years old, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hodges. Kylene lives at Route 3, Hereford.

Kylene's hobby is cheerleading. She was one of the five cheerleaders of Hereford this year. Her most embarrassing moment was when she forgot one of her yells.

She plans to get married after graduation, but if she were going to college she would like to attend the University of Texas.

Kylene spends most of her spare time cooking, but she also likes to read love stories. Dancing is the kind of entertainment she likes best.

She doesn't like people who are unfriendly and who gossip. If she could work, she would want to be a secretary. Her opinion of H.H.S. is, "It's o.k., but I will be glad to get out."

When he moved from Anson, was Don Dutton's biggest disappointment. Don is 18 years old and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dutton. He lives six miles north on Highway 385 and four miles west of Hereford. He was born on Oct. 11, 1942.

Don plans to attend West Texas State after he graduates, because it is close to home. Don said that he likes bowling better than any other activity. His hobby is hunting, but he also likes to read westerns.

The thing that irritates him most is grumpy teachers. Don thinks that H. H. S. is too hard and he doesn't like homework. He advises all underclassmen to study and keep the teachers happy.

Some Correct Ways To Spend Study Time

How important is it that we learn to study properly? We are hearing more and more that we don't know what studying is until we start to college. But do any of Hereford High's students have any idea of how to study?

Many of us get out our books, turn on the radio, and we think we are ready to begin studying. After a few

Students Have Many Freedoms

BY JUDI PRICE

Whether you think so or not, Hereford High School is a very democratic school, much unlike many other public high schools.

Stop and think about it. You may eat in the cafeteria or at any other eating place off the campus that you choose; while in some schools, the students have no choice but to eat in the cafeteria.

Some schools require their students to leave their cars in the parking lots all day and not go near them until school is out. Others won't let their students bring their cars; they either ride bicycles or walk.

Here at H.H.S., we have a choice of what time we come to school — 8 a.m., if we happen to be earlybirds; or 9 a.m. if we're sleepyheads. There are many other freedoms in H.H.S. Do you appreciate them as you should?

Expenses Of Junior And Senior Students Listed

BY PHYLLIS WARD
WHITEFACE EDITOR

Learning to assume financial obligations begins in high school with the prompt payment of class dues, lab fees, and any other obligatory expense.

For the convenience of parents and students I would like to list the main financial things that students are expected to meet and that which is voluntary during the junior and senior years.

As an individual class the juniors are required to pay $1.50 each, per semester for class dues, and to contribute sandwiches to be sold at the concession stand during football season.

Juniors may purchase yearbooks for $4, but this is voluntary. The price may have to go up in the coming years. Contributions to the money-making projects for the yearbook candidate are also voluntary.

The obligatory expenses of being a senior are cap and gown rental fee, $4.70, and diploma cover, $1. Voluntary expenses include a senior ring, for the boys, $2.85; for the girls, $3.85. Invitations are 13 cents each; souvenir leather invitation, 90 cents each; and calling cards, $3.50 per 100.

In addition to the things mentioned above there are some other dues and fees a student will be expected to pay. A good course of study depends on fees.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

Much Controversy Over General Retail Sales Tax

BY VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN — Foes of a general sales tax are pushing to get it before the Legislature. Friends of the tax are trying to hold it back.

At a hearing before the House Revenue and Taxation of regional Chambers of Commerce, generally favorable to a sales tax, asked that the matter be delayed. Committee members opposed to the tax insisted on going ahead.

Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, who is against a sales tax, charged backers with dragging their feet in hopes their plan would finally be accepted in last-minute desperation.

Hearing was on a general sales tax measure by Rep. Charles N. Wilson of Trinity. Wilson introduced the bill and asked for immediate hearing to outmaneuver those who wanted to delay. After hearing, the bill was, by the usual procedure, sent to subcommittee.

Awaiting consideration is just about every tax bill imaginable. Among them:

A temporary (1 year) 20 per cent increase in the omnibus tax (a collection of existing taxes on many items) by Representative Hinson. Estimated yield: $40,000,000.

A one per cent corporate income tax by Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger and a three per cent corporate income tax by Rep. Tony Korioth of Sherman.

A 10 per cent levy on petrochemicals by Rep. Lloyd Guffey of El Campo.

A six per cent tax on income from dividends and interest by Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston.

A two per cent Texas business invoice tax by Rep. Maco Stewart of Galveston.

A graduated production tax on oil, a corporate income tax to replace the franchise tax and an excise tax on utilities by Representative Stewart.

An increase in state college tuition from $50 to $100 per semester by Rep. Frank McGregor of Waco.

A three per cent sales tax on furniture and household equipment by Rep. John C. Alaniz of San Antonio.

A five per cent tax on gross receipts of highway contractors by Rep. W. T. Dungan of McKinney.

A five per cent tax on gross receipts from marine products by Rep. Jake Johnson of San Antonio.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has ruled that a proposed bill to set up machinery to arbitrate firemen's wage and hour problems would be constitutional.

Rep. Robert Hughes of Dallas is sponsor of the bill which would set up an arbitration board to work out disputes between firemen and city governments. Disputes not settled by the board could be taken to the people in an election once each year.

A bill directing the State Board of Insurance to make drastic changes in the merit rating auto insurance plans has been approved by the Senate Insurance Committee. Passage came after a lengthy battle in committee. More heated debate and attempts to amend are expected when the bill is taken up by the entire Senate.

As approved by committee, the plan would still assess insurance premium penalties for speeding but not for running red lights or stop signs, making illegal turns, illegal passing or negligent collision. It would still assess penalties for accidents with damage of more than $25, and it would still be retroactive for three years.

House, meantime, killed by a decisive 123-to-21 vote a bill that would have provided a complete new approach for auto insurance in Texas.

Called "flexible" rating, it would allow each insurance company to set its own auto insurance rates. Rep. C. W. Pearcey of Temple sponsored the bill which has been defeated by previous legislatures. He argued for it on the basis of free competition rather than state-controlled rates.

Opponents successfully argued that the plan allows large out-of-state concerns to take over the market and eventually set much higher rates.

Milk continues to stir up arguments in this legislative session.

Senate passed a bill placing restrictions on the importing of milk from other states, but the House postponed floor debate after tempers flared to the shouting point.

Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo sponsored the Senate bill, and Rep. Steve Burgess of Nacogdoches is the House sponsor. Their measure would bar out-of-state milk from Texas unless a health inspector could certify that he had "personal knowledge" that the milk had been produced under the same standards as Texas milk.

Dairymen - supporters contend that it is a health standards protection and will prevent "unfair competition" from out of state. It is opposed by milk processors who declare it will limit the supply unnecessarily and force up prices.

Proposals that would allow for the garnishment (taking over) of wages for payment of debts are being considered by the House Constitutional Amendments Committee.

Rep. Henry Fletcher of Luling is sponsor of a proposed constitutional amendment that would permit the Legislature to pass a broad garnishment act.

Rep. Ben Jarvis of Tyler is sponsor of another that would allow for attachment of wages only to make child support payments.

Proposal for a 75-cents-an-hour minimum wage for Texas workers, including farm labor, was argued before the House State Affairs Committee.

Employers of fewer than four persons would be exempt. Spokesman for the AFL-CIO testified in favor of the bill, declaring that migrant farm laborers are often paid only 30 cents an hour. A Texas Restaurant Association official said that restaurant workers average 81 cents an hour, but that many "marginal workers," such as the handicapped would lose out under a minimum wage.

Rep. Malcolm McGregor of El Paso is sponsor.

Local Student Receives Honor

The degree of bachelor of arts in physical science was conferred upon Jon Merle Leasure of Greeley, Colo., at the winter quarter commencement of Colorado State College at Greeley recently.

Leasure is the son of Mrs. C. E. Leasure, Route 3, Hereford, and is a graduate of Dimmitt High School. He attended the University of Colorado, Boulder, and the City College of Los Angeles.

The degree was conferred on March 10.

Legal Notice

NOTICE
Secretary of State Frank Lake announced that all qualified Notaries Public desiring re-appointment for the new term ending June 1, 1963 must requalify by the payment of the required fee and the filing of a new oath and bond with the County Clerk of his residence between June 1, 1961 and June 10, 1961.

Lake emphasized that Notaries Public should not send requests for re-appointment or for commissions directly to the Secretary of State. The law specifically requires that the County Clerks approve notary bonds.

Any person not now a Notary Public who desires appointment should apply to his County Clerk between April 1, 1961 and May 20, 1961. Application during this period will assure prompt attention before the rush procedure of re-appointing present Notaries.

The Secretary of State further pointed out that each person applying for a commission as a Notary Public must be at least 21 years of age and a resident of the county for which he is appointed. The exact name and permanent address of the applicant must be furnished the County Clerk.

Whiteface Whims

(By Whiteface Staff)

If woman's intuition is so wonderful, how come they ask so many questions?

Some druggist should invent a pill composed of chlorophyll and aspirin. It would be a dandy way to get rid of a stinking headache.

A fellow left a will recently, proving that he was one of the smartest people of this generation. The will read: "Being of sound mind I spent all my money."

"If you are troubled by a noise in your car," says Tennessee Ernie, "let her drive."

A Texas tycoon rushed into the airport - plunked down a $100 bill and said "Gimme a ticket."

"Where to, sir," asked the agent.

high school cafeteria. Members were divided into five committees to start work on the banquet. Committees are for decorations, food, invitations, and clean-up.

Have you read the classifieds?

"Anywhere son," boomed the Texan, "I've got business a 11 over."

The best way to save face is to keep the lower end of it closed.

Want To Be A Popular Speaker? Follow the rules:

- To be seen, stand up;
- To be heard, speak up;
- To be appreciated and applauded, shut up.

"I hear your son is studying dentistry. Didn't he say he wanted to be a ear specialist?"

"Yes, but I reminded him that man has 32 teeth, but only two ears."

Expenses...

(Continued from page 1) to present an adequate program. Biology, art, bookkeeping, English, crafts, typing, wood and mechanical drawing courses have been approved as needing small fees to be good courses.

There are also organization dues and rental fees on band uniforms and choir robes.

A good deal of time and effort is saved when students are diligent in payment of the dues and fees. None are foolish and none are profit-making. Every cent is used for a good and useful course.

Letter To Editor

Dear Editor,
I am a very irate mother of school age children who need to catch the bus that can run only on the highway and I cannot reach the hiway. I can't reach it because of the State Hiway Department maintainer! They make it a habit to close the road at the end of our lane so we cannot reach the hiway. When the snow off the hiway is scraped off they throw it right up in the end of this lane and do not cut a path for traffic to get in or out and here we sit. What do we do? We call the commissioner first; he tells us to call the State Maintenance men; we call them they say come in as if we could, then tell us to call our commissioner. Where are we? Nowhere but where we started on the wrong side of a man-made snow bank. These men seem to forget that come time to vote and pay the taxes that pay their wages that we are voters and tax payers and we can have a long memory.

Maybe this will jolt some of these people out of their complacent little seats.

To VICTORY

...that is the cry of the multitude. Today we join the happy throngs around the earth as we shout together, "Hosanna!" Whatever the morrow may hold of suffering, today we declare to the world... "Christ has come." Because we are in His company, we know that God ultimately will be sovereign over all the world. We are confident that goodness is stronger than evil. We are sure love will triumph over hate. Whatever a Friday of crucifixion may bring of temporary defeat, we know life will triumph over death, and the Christian way will resolve itself supremely in the final destiny. Then Palm Sunday is a day to celebrate and set up our banner of hope. "For right is right as God is and right the day must win." This hope will convert, for us, spiritual defeat into eternal victory.

'Deaf' Smith Says

TO: The Spirit of General Sam Houston
 FROM: The Spirit of Erastus "Deaf" Smith
 SUBJECT: My Chamber of Commerce in Action
 The Chamber of Commerce is many things to many people, Sam. The public image of what the Chamber of Commerce is, what it is supposed to do, varies from community to community and from individual to individual.

This was brought home to the Chamber Manager recently when he visited the Distributive Education classes at the high school. Kenneth Hart, D. E. teacher, asked the class to express their concept of what the Chamber of Commerce is. Few had any real concept at all while those that did express an opinion showed that they had only a limited experience.

Not too many years ago the Chamber of Commerce was sort of a glorified booster club, an organization given to wild exaggerations and wilder promotional stunts. Comedians and would-be comedians could never get by, even today, without some allusion to Chamber of Commerce "facts."
 But Chambers of Commerce across the nation have changed in concept and in purpose. As community leaders have come to realize that sound community buildings means more than just new payrolls, and, in turn, that new payrolls come with sound community development, Chambers have become, to a high degree, research organizations. In the Chamber of Commerce or accessible to it is accumulated a wide range of factual material.

From the weather bureau is obtained exact data as to average rainfall, average day and nighttime temperatures for every month, and other important information for agriculture and industry. From the census bureau comes data as to the number and character of the housing situation, facts about business. From the local banks and other financial institutions come facts about the financial resources of the community. From the City and the County come facts about our government, taxes, miles of paved road and so forth. From the schools come figures on enrollment, value of the school plant, number of teachers, curricula, and so on.

The utilities furnish valuable data on quantity and price of power and from the telephone company, railroad and truck company comes the answers to transportation and communications problems. Even the circulation of this paper, the coverage of the radio station, and the coverage by television is of importance to many.
 My point, Sam, is that the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce everywhere, no longer can glibly quote generalities, exaggerations and half truths and continue to effectively serve the community. Yes, Sam, the Chamber of Commerce is many things to many people. To the farmer or rancher it is supposed to find the answers to all of the agricultural marketing problems; to the retailer it is supposed to bring more sales; to the manufacturer or processor it is a source of factual information; to the motel, hotel, cafe and service station operator it is to bring more conventions and tourists to town; to the citizen planning a vacation trip it is a source of information; to the school student it is the source of information for his sixth or seventh grade class in Texas geography.

 To sum it all up, Sam, the Chamber of Commerce is trying to make Deaf Smith County a better place in which to make a living and a better place to live. Its only limitation is the voluntary leadership and following that the community will give.

Merry Maidens Study Breads
 The Merry Maidens 4-H Club met for their regular meeting recently, with Kay James presiding.
 The roll was called and answered with "My Favorite Bread."
 Susan Peters, secretary, read the minutes of the past two meetings. Reports were made by Linda Loerwald, Foods and Clothing demonstrator, Joyce Warren, reporter, Susan Peters and Kay James on their foods project.
 Becky Long led the group in a song, "We're on the 4-H Trail." Fanelia Williams led the 4-H Club ritual.
 The demonstration on plain bread muffins, was presented by Loreta Fowler, assistant 4-H County Home Demonstrator.

Bill Carmichael Gets Assignment
 Second Lieutenant Billy G. Carmichael of Hereford has been assigned to the 329th General Hospital, an Army Reserve unit in Houston.
 A graduate of Hereford High School and West Texas State College, Lt. Carmichael in civilian life is a student in The University of Texas, School of Dentistry.
 Lt. Carmichael has had no prior service and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete L. Carmichael of Hereford.
 Agent. Following the demonstration, the club members judged eight plain bread muffins.
