Hereford's fifth annual Harvest Festival gets underway Thursday night, starting ten days of activity for the traditional summer celebration. First event will be selection of Harvest Festival Queen. The contest will begin at 8 p.m. Thursday, July 18, in the Hereford High School auditorium. Twelve beauties will be competing for the title. They will appear in bathing suits and formal gowns with Amarillo television personality Dan True serving as master of ceremonies.

The contest is sponsored and staged by the Hereford Junior Chamber of Commerce with Wayne Fuller acting as general chairman. Interlude music will be by Charlie Bell and his combo. Church Office Burglary Nets $17 In Change

Offices of the First Baptist Church here were burglarized over the weekend and $17 was reported missing from the office, according to Hereford Police Department. Burglary of the office was reported by the Rev. B. L. Davis, pastor.

The break-in occurred between 5 p.m. Friday and 8 a.m. Saturday, according to the investigation report. Entry into the office was made by throwing a rock through a window on the north side of building just below the lot. The window was then unattached and opened. The money taken was located in a filing cabinet in the office.

Theft Charges Filed Against Amarillo Man

An Amarillo man is being held in Deaf Smith County jail in lieu of $500 bond as he was arraigned here Monday on charges alleging felony theft. Arraigned before Justice of the Peace C. B. Miles was Clifford Duncan, 34. He was arrested by Amarillo law enforcement officers and turned over to county officers Saturday. According to Sheriff's Office, Duncan is alleged to have taken a batch water meter from a construction site. The meter was reportedly valued at $400.

City Water Supply Is Good In Spite Of Heavy Demand

By Sara Gilentine, Brand Staff Reporter. Water consumption is a problem in many of the cities in the Panhandle, but, according to Hereford City Manager, Dudley Bayne, "Hereford is in good shape as far as water usage goes. At the present time, more water is available than consumption demands."

The city had its peak day in water consumption on Monday, July 15, when 5,500,000 gallons of water was used. The 11 wells in Hereford have a capacity of 5,720,000 gallons a day, so the city is capable of producing far more than the demand.

In the summer, much more water is used than in the winter months. In November and January, 1962, the consumption of water in Hereford was only 22 million gallons, while in August, the consumption was 99 million gallons. Much of this water is used for yard irrigation and in the vegetable sheds.

In the United States in 1960, 22 billion gallons of water was used for municipal use, 141 billion gallons was used for irrigation and 160 million gallons was used in industry. The problem in all water systems is not to pump enough water to supply the needs for a long period of time, it is rather to be ready to supply the peak demand. Hereford is capable of pumping over three billion gallons of water each year while the city uses only about 640 million gallons.

"The city tries to stay at least one and one half wells ahead at all times to insure that Hereford will have enough water even if there is power loss or the pumps happen to break down," Bayne pointed out. Hereford is rated in the lower ten per cent when its water rates are compared with others throughout the state. The city charges $5.00 for ten thousand gallons, while towns such as Friona charge $8.70, Dimmitt $7.20, and Canyon $6.40.

Water rates for cities in the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority will be increased considerably upon completion of the dam and aqueduct. Last year two new wells were added to the city's system. These wells are located on Moreman Street, south of King's (Continued on page 6)

Witkowski New President Of Wheat Growers

Leo Witkowski was named the new president of the Texas Wheat Growers Association in Amarillo on Tuesday afternoon, July 15. He is replacing Kenneth Kendrick of Stratford, who has resigned effective Aug. 1 to take a position as executive vice president of the National Wheat Growers Association at Washington, D. C.

Witkowski, an irrigation farmer and wheat grower, was elected following a luncheon which was held at the Holiday West Motor Hotel. Representatives of the association from nearly every wheat producing county of Texas were present.

City Denies Petition That Would Change Zoning Code

A bid to amend city zoning ordinances allowing one - operator beauty shops to fall into the usual home occupation status was rejected unanimously by the City Commission at its regular meeting Monday.

The request was submitted by Mrs. Dickson in behalf of her mother, Mrs. Charles E. Kropff, 414 Elvino, and asked that the operation of a one-operator shop be placed in districts outlining usual home occupations.

Under present zoning statutes, the ordinance expressly prohibits operation of beauty shops in residential districts. In making the decision, the Commission expressed the belief that it was acting "for the best of the whole community."

As commissioners explained their position to Dickson, they pointed out that the requested change would have to apply to all residential districts within the city. On the request, the Commission had two choices - it could either be submitted to the Zoning Commission for public hearing and recommendation or the request could be denied at the meeting.

Around Town

BY H. A. TUCK

Once again it's time for the Harvest Festival, with all its many events and entertainment. In the five years of the Festival, no two years have been exactly alike. There have been changes each year, all designed to improve the Festival and make it more enjoyable. We hope that you will support at least some of the events, all of which are locally sponsored and return money to the community in various civic projects.

In either case, final decision in the matter would have to come from commissioners. After denying the request, Mayor Ray Cowser stated that the city's governing body had nothing against Mrs. Kropff.

The mayor, speaking in behalf of the Commission, expressed the belief that it was acting in the best interests of the whole community. In other action, two areas were annexed by the city and first reading was passed on the annexation of a third tract.

Deaf Smith County has been awarded an "A" financial bond rating by a New York investment company. Announcement of the rating was made Wednesday by bond advisor Bob Davis of Amarillo.

Suspects Sign Statements On Alleged Thefts

A series of purse - snatchings and house burglaries was cleared Monday as two Latin - American men signed statements admitting the alleged thefts, according to Deaf Smith County Sheriff's office.

County's Bonds Get 'A' Rating

The rating came after Deaf Smith County Commissioners Court made a presentation before representatives of Moody Investments in New York City the first week in July. It was the first request for a bond rating by the county. As a result, future county bond issues will be sold for lower interest rates than if they were unrated.

Forgery Charges Are Filed Here; $1000 Bond Set

A $1000 bond was set Monday as a Hereford man was arraigned before Justice of the Peace C. B. Miles on a felony charge alleging forgery. Arraigned on the charge was Lee Rogers, 38, 521 Ave K. He was returned to Hereford from Farwell after being arrested by Farmer County law enforcement officers.

Urge Close Watch On Midge 'Hosts'

With the possibility of a midge infestation developing in the Texas High Plains, County Agent Lefty Thomas is cautioning Deaf Smith County grain sorghum producers to watch host plants for these insects. It is believed, Thomas pointed out, that the first generation of sorghum midge usually develops in seed heads of Johnson grass, sudan grass, sorghum alum, white tridens and possibly other similar plants.

Based on present research, findings indicate that midge over - wintered in the South Plains area possibly in the pupae stage since the cocoon is usually found on the spikelet or seed husk of the host plant, Thomas commented. No midge has been reported as yet in Deaf Smith County. Thomas pointed out. While the probability of infestation exists, the threat is mainly to late planted sorghum.

He recommended that when and if an infestation is found in the area, sorghum should be sprayed not later than the third day after the midge head emerges. For midge control, Endrin, Toxaphene, and Servin are the recommended insecticides. Endrin should be diluted 1.6 pounds per gallon and applied at the rate of 1 1/4 pints per acre. It should not be applied with in 35 days of harvest and can be applied only once each season.

Toxaphene is diluted six pounds per gallon and the application rate is one - third to one - half gallon per acre. It should be sprayed on midge only once after heads emerge. Do not apply over one - third gallon per acre within 28 days of harvest or one - half gallon within 40 days of harvest. Dairy animals or animals being finished for slaughter should not be pastured on Toxaphene - treated fields. Do not eat or drink sorghum. Servin (80 per cent WP) is to be applied at the rate to 1 1/4 to 2 1/4 pounds per acre. Servin may be applied to grain and forage sorghum without limitation. Twenty - one days must be allowed between final application and harvest. Information concerning the probable heavy infestation was released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock as population surveys of the insect were being conducted. The survey is being conducted by Ernest Montoya, research assistant, Texas A&M College; (Continued on Page 6)

Being a native of the panhandle area, we seldom get upset over the weather, particularly since it is apt to change before we have our say. However, we're just about ready for something to give. It's just too dog-goned hot and humid for this old boy. Some folks, of course, like Paul Harvey or Ralph McCullough, can go to the lake or take off to the mountains for a few days of fishing, but when you have to stay home and work it really gets rough.
"Slim" Wester invited us to run down to the lake Monday to check his trout line, but unfortunately, we were busy and couldn't go. Anyhow, we're never really sure whether "Slim" has his license to fish or not, and we're not anxious to get in dutch with the game warden.
Which reminds us of the time "Slim" and some of his buddies were seining fish out at the lake ... and of course seining is illegal as the devil ... and along comes the game warden. As the story goes, "Slim" was already in the water, and when he looked up and saw the warden, his thinker went to work and he hollered out, "Lise up fellows, and I'll baptize you now." It's a good thing "Slim" isn't a Methodist.
Now, we're not sure the story is true, but John Dameron and Ray Moore will vouch for it. All we need now is an affidavit from Tom Draper and Cecil Hart and we'd send that story to the Reader's Digest.
Certainly, Tom and Cecil never tamper with the truth.

We're not exactly experts on rattlesnakes, but it must be the morning while participating in a Junior Rodeo event and everything seemed alright until the doctor decided to cut away the trousers from Jackie's leg so he could have a better view of the damage.

"Don't cut those trousers," said Jackie, "they're brand new." The leg undoubtedly will heal, but the dog-goned doc just ruined those pants.

Lynn Chisholm, 12-year-old son of Mrs. Viola Chisholm, is included on our list of enterprising young business men. Lynn spends his summer months mowing lawns to pick up a little extra cash. And we understand that he's built up a pretty good summer business, too. But on top of the work, he's also a pretty good baseball player, according to his Little League coach.

Charlie Barnard, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barnard, decided to take his Scouting material to Dallas with him recently when the family attended the furniture market. Charlie figured he would spend a little time studying on Scouting in order to earn his Eagle badge.

When the trip was over, however, it was discovered that Charlie's scouting project turned out to be a young lady from California. Howda, no less.
They give badges for that?

The new Post Office ZIP code system is apparently working too well. Some folks over at Alamogordo, N. M., report that they have received a letter with a trading stamp affixed, instead of a postage stamp. But the ZIP code number was correct.
On the other hand, publisher Jimmie Gillentine, who has been vacationing with son Gus in Alaska, has been firing back a few columns via dog sled ... with the wrong ZIP code number and we still get them.

If we don't have any decorations for the annual Harvest Festival, please don't blame the H&H ladies. The decorations were ordered months ago but apparently have been lost in the mail. No ZIP code number?

Joyce Reever from Dallas was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dub Hair and family on Saturday and Sunday, July 13 and 14. Joyce and Linda Hair were roommates at Hardin - Simmons University. She was in Hereford to attend a bridal shower for Linda.

Wet weather (or the dry weather) that is bringing the snakes out this year. Mrs. Stella Thuest, who farms way out yonder in the Northwest part of Deaf Smith County, says that she has killed three snakes at the farm this year. Two of the little rattlers were inside the house when discovered. The other, apparently the granddaddy of them all, was hiding under a bush in the yard.
Mrs. Thuest's place joins the Perrin farms and is so far out in Deaf Smith County that they consider Herefordites as Easterners. Cord Hammock also farmed in this area, and he will tell you that is snakey country.

We noticed an item in one of the city papers the other day that said a swindler in a slaughter house in Russia named S. I. Lutski has been sentenced to death. The paper said Lutski netted $25,000 rubles, well over half a million dollars, in a swindle at Brest.
Could this be a Russian counterpart to Billie Sol Estes?

There will also be a number of new airplanes available for brief rides at very small cost. Hereford Riders Club rodeo will start on Thursday, July 25, with more action again on Friday and Saturday. Performances are slated for 8:15 p. m. each night in the Riders Club arena.

On Saturday afternoon at 4 p. m., July 27, the Festival Parade will swing down Main Street. It will be followed at 5 p. m. with a barbecue prepared by the Hereford Kiwanis Club.

Another new business will open next week in Hereford. It is Nichols Paint and Supply store, to be located in the Fullwood Electric building on West Third.

Everywhere I look, there are new houses going up. There are even a couple of new ones underway on Avenue K, which is pretty well filled up.

I've heard of things "getting up and walking off." But the folks at White Auto Store think maybe something "got up and drove off" Tuesday afternoon. A lady from Tucumcari was coming in to have new seat covers installed. So a couple of the workers put the seat covers outside in the sun so they would stretch out for a tight fit. A few minutes later the customer arrived. But the seat covers were gone. Employees searched frantically, but didn't find them. In fact, they still haven't located them.

And that's probably what happened to our older son's bicycle. It was taken from our front yard last week and hasn't been recovered yet. And the bike was parked right next to the younger son's bicycle, a newer model than the one that was taken.

But, to date, no one has tried to make off with one of our five new pups. I keep hoping

Legion Loses Two Straight In District 18 Tournament

Hereford lost two straight Saturday in the District 18 American Legion baseball tournament in Amarillo. That spelled the end of the road for the Redbirds, who were co-champions of the south half of the district.

In the first game, postponed from Friday night, the Redbirds couldn't match the hitting power of the Tascosa Sheriffs, who won 5-3. And in the second game, the Redbirds got started too slowly and lost to the Amarillo Dust-ers, 4-2.

The first game, with the Sheriffs, was interesting until the fifth inning.

Mickey Stevens opened up for Hereford with a single, but couldn't advance beyond second. Tascosa also put a runner on in the first, but stranded him. Tascosa's first run came in the last of the second when they used two singles and a double by John Bunker to score once. They added another score in the third on a walk, a sacrifice bunt, an error and a fielder's choice.

Hereford tied the score, 2-2, in the top of the fourth. John Willoughby got on by error and Eugene Green singled. Joe Coffman singled and Garry Smith was safe on an error.

A double play in the fifth out off Hereford's chances for the go-ahead run. Jimmy Carter grabbed a line drive at the mound and fired to Bill Bogan at first to double off a Redbird runner.

Then Tascosa swung the big stick in the fifth for three runs. Ronny Baker opened with a triple and scored on Jerry Kolander's single. A hit batter was followed by a single by Johnny Bowman and another by Stan Robinson. Hereford went down in order in the last four innings.

Tascosa put runners on in each of their last three innings, but failed to score again. Jimmy Carter went all the way for the victory. He allowed two runs on three hits, walked one and struck out two.

Mickey Stevens went the distance for the Redbirds and took the loss. He gave up five runs on nine hits, walked five and struck out five.

KEY TO MIDGE CONTROL: TIMING

Proper timing is essential to sorghum midge control. Here's how to get one-shot control with low-cost endrin.

Once sorghum midge adults lay their eggs in the heads, it's too late to prevent damage. Protected by the spikelets, the eggs and hatching larvae are out of reach of insecticides.

One properly timed endrin application will knock out the adults before they can lay their eggs—and keep midge populations below harmful levels for the rest of the season.

Note: Endrin also controls sorghum earworms and all other major sorghum pests.

How to time your endrin application

Sorghum midge adults lay their eggs in the spikelets or seed husks soon after the head emerges from the boot. Within a few days, the eggs hatch and the young larvae begin to feed on the juices of the developing seed. Infested heads quickly become blighted. They produce practically no grain.

Application recommendation: for maximum kill, make endrin application within 1 to 4 days after 90% of the heads have emerged from the boot. Do not apply endrin within 35 days of harvest.

Endrin saves you money

Powerful endrin saves you money because extremely low dosages do the job. Just 1 1/4 pints of the popular emulsible concentrate formulation is all it takes.

We have endrin under well-known brand names. Come in or call us today.

Dee Dee's Doodlings

By Dee Dee Thomas
I hope everyone is getting ready for the Harvest Festival which will start Thursday, July 18. There will be some event that will suit anyone's fancy. The festivities will start with a beauty queen contest and will end up with three days of rodeo. I don't want you to forget the Lion's Club Carnival, the barbecue or the parade either.

If you remember correctly, Barbara Langley was in Dalhart last week visiting Jane Ceasar. On Tuesday, July 9, Jane came to Hereford to see her father, who is working here, so she stayed at the Langley's home until Saturday, July 13. I wish Jane could have stayed longer and I imagine many others do, too.

Wednesday, July 10, the Hereford Junior Riders Club held their weekly practice sessions. They practice events that they will enter at playdays held at such places as Canyon and Amarillo. Those hard workers were Dean Crofford, Bill Jack Gilliland, Sandi Thomas, John Newton, Donna and David Hill, Lynn and Jo Poarch, and David Sorrels.

Thursday night, July 11, a party was held at the Veteran's Rock Club House. It wasn't a party for any special occasion — just a get together for the ones who weren't able to attend the last blowout. I couldn't possibly begin to name even half of the kids there. Believe me, I don't know where I have seen so many kids at one time; unless it was at a football game.

Friday, July 12, the Horizon Girls went to Buffalo Lake for two days of water skiing. Those girls who went and returned Saturday, July 13, were Beth Ballard, Judy Crume, Judy McCarver, Charlotte Williams, Nancy Boyer, Nancy Tyler, Janis Medley, Gail Witherspoon, Barbara Langley, Sharon Tinnin, Martha Hudson, and Linda London.

Betty and Patsy Buckert are visiting their sister in Atlanta, Ga. Their sister, Mrs. Robert Silver, has just recently brought home a new baby girl. I know that Betty and Patsy are enjoying their new niece.

Thursday night, July 18, the junior high boys of the First Baptist Church had a hayride in the wagon racing with 12.7 seconds. Dean Crofford and Bill Gilliland were second.

High point winners were Candi Poarch and Donnie Allred. In other recent activities the Hereford Junior Riders Club has participated in rodeos and parades in Plainview and Amarillo. They also had a Sunday afternoon gathering at the home of Charlie and Harold Bass.

Those attending the ride were Mike Davis, John Island, Jimmy Childers, Kay Brown, Gary Goodin, Deborah Thomas, Greg Herring, Becky Owens, Charlotte Babione, Kathy Pool, and Cindy Jones.

Attention! all F. H. A. members who are interested in making points! The pie making for the carnival will begin Friday morning, July 19. In the junior high department, Don't forget this not only helps you but it helps our city get the exchange students we enjoy so much.

I have been asked to announce that there will be a high school dance Saturday night, July 20. There will not be live music, but we do need it when you have a record player and records? If any of you are interested in having a dance next weekend, be sure and contact Mrs. Cave.

Congratulations are in order for Lareece Askew, Rozzi Rush and Suzanne Selgler, for making it for the production of Amle Get Your Gun—who knows, maybe our future Helen Hayes are among us right now.

Did everyone see that great TV appearance of Stan Sigman and David Hill and their wagon race? This event went along with playday activities which were held in Amarillo on Sunday afternoon, July 14. The Junior Riders brought back a whole sack full of blue ribbons in the baton race, pole bending, barrel race and other events.

Kathy Boston and Kaki Barnard returned from the national convention in Kansas City on Friday night, July 12, about 7:30. They agreed that the trip was fabulous. Kaki had a cousin, age 18, named Nancy Standford who took Kaki to dinner and they did some shopping. Kathy did make it home in time to unpack one bag and throw stuff in again to go with the cheerleaders to Oklahoma.

Speaking of cheerleaders—Brenda Neff, Ruth Ann Allison, Peggy Neff, Justice Bagans, Brenda Shelton and Kathy Boston all left on Sunday, July 14, for Oklahoma University in Norman for five days of hard work and lots of fun. The group will return home on Friday, July 19. Note of Buck, kids!

Lewis, Beverly, and Jennifer Barnett are familiar faces back home from their ranch in Colorado. They left soon after school was out and returned to Hereford on Sunday, July 14. Glad to see you — all back!

VISIT RELATIVES
Betsy and Suzy Castleberry from Wellington are visiting Mrs. Jimmie Gilentine and her daughter, Sara, this week. Mrs. Gilentine is their aunt.

VISIT IN HEREFORD
Bob Pearce, from Enid, Okla., will be in Hereford on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. He will be visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kreighsauer and family.

INSPIRATION

What makes a champion? What is that extra force inherent in a great leader, teacher, musician, scientist, or a Christian? This extra force, this compelling quality, this something has a current all its own... out-shining our every-day efforts. It turns the common into the outstanding. It has been called "inspiration" and surely it must be just that. Want to possess it??? Of course! - then keep an open heart, a clear unprejudiced mind, clean body, and a receptiveness to the will and word of God. Learn of Him through regular church attendance and daily reading of His word. Only through God may we find this something. - this force, - this inspiration. "There is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding."

ALTHOUGH SHE HAS SIX CHILDREN and a large home to care for, Mrs. Jim McAndrews finds time to discuss her favorite relaxation and hobby, reading current books and writing her column and letters. She also likes to collect recipes for common foods which have been improved for greater success. (Staff Photo)

LET'S COOK SOMETHING!

Not Much Except Ironing Disturbs Mrs. McAndrews

By Dale Stevens
Brand Society Editor

For most women six children and a large house are more than enough to keep them occupied, even distraught and harried. But ironing is the only thing that brings a frown of dismay to the otherwise serene face of Mrs. Jim McAndrews. The large home on the Canyon Highway where Mr. and Mrs. McAndrews and their family live is quiet and gracious. The children, who are active in swimming, 4-H club work, and other usual activities, are Maurita, 15, Teresa, 11, Kevin, 14, Steven, 12, Neal, 9, and Jamie, 6.

When her nerves are somewhat jangled Mrs. McAndrews' therapy is to read the current book about Miss Reid, an English school teacher, which she classifies as "dull dribble, but relaxing." An extremely well-read person in every area, Mrs. McAndrews' favorite reading is science fiction.

Her most interesting hobby at the present time is correspondence with several people in Ireland. She has received some very interesting letters and has established regular correspondence with several writers. She may even, she laughs, find relatives of both her husband's and her family.

In addition to letters, Mrs. McAndrews writes other things. She does a regular column, called "Letter from Hereford," for the West Texas Register, the official newspaper for the Diocese of Amarillo and San Angelo.

Her recipes for divinity fudge and brownies are somewhat different from other recipes for the same foods. The brownies are easily prepared, cut neatly, and are delicious. The recipe for Strawberry Delight is new and is a dessert especially well-liked by men.

Sea Foam Punch
Allow 2 pints of lime sherbet to soften slightly and add to three large bottles of chilled gingerale or any lime-flavored carbonated drink. Do this just before serving and then take a large spoon and stir gently. The sherbet will foam and make a pretty foamy topping over the punch. Any flavor of punch may be used.

Divinity Fudge
2 and 1/2 cups granulated sugar
1/2 cup white corn syrup
1/2 cup water
Pinch of salt
2 egg whites
1 cup nutmeats (black walnuts are very good)
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix the sugar, syrup, water and salt together and boil until it forms a firm ball in cold water. While this is cooking beat egg whites until stiff. Pour about half the cooked syrup over the whites, beating constantly. Return the rest of the syrup to the stove and let it cook until it forms a hard ball in cold water. Then add this syrup to the sugar-egg mixture which has been in the mixer while you are cooking the remainder of the syrup. Keep beating after adding until it starts to look dull. Then add the flavoring, stir in the nuts and pour into a buttered pan. This will be a fluffy divinity.

Never-Fall Brownies
Beat two eggs in a bowl and put it aside. Then measure into a large bowl:
7 T. cocoa
1 cup sugar
9 T. vegetable oil (or 1-2 cup plus 1 tablespoon)
1 t. vanilla
1/2 cup sifted flour
1 cup chopped nuts (optional)

Mix all the above ingredients together and then fold in the beaten eggs. Pour into an 8 inch pan and bake at 325 degrees for 35 minutes.

Ann's Rice Crispie Cookies
2 T. butter
1 heaping cup chopped dates
1 egg beaten
3/4 cup sugar

Mix the above ingredients and cook over low heat until the dates are soft and well cooked. This depends on the dates. Then

Accident Toll Increases Premiums For Insurance

By Vern Sasseford

A growing toll of accidents on city streets and freeways, heavier damage claims and an act of the Legislature... all have combined to cause insured motorists in Texas a double-dip premium increase during the next five months.

First boost for most drivers will come on policies renewed after August 1, when new auto insurance rates set by the State Board of Insurance go into effect.

Many others face a second increase in liability insurance premiums after January 1. This is effective date of a new law requiring financial responsibility of $10,000 per person and $20,000 per accident.

Present law requires $5,000-$10,000. So those now carrying minimum insurance will pay an average of $4 more after January 1.

Increasing accident losses, mainly in urban areas, forced the Insurance Board to hike liability and collision rates in most sections of the state.

Average premium boosts after August 1 will be 5.2 per cent for bodily injury, 9.7 per cent for property damage and 8.4 per cent for collision. This will cost policyholders a total of $12,000-

000. Drivers in some rural areas, however, escaped the rate increase.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION
Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has been asked to come to the aid of hard-pressed physical education departments in the 30 state-supported universities and colleges.

Commission on Higher Education asked Carr for an opinion on the legality of the "rider" in the new appropriation bill, which goes into effect on September 1. Rider declares that state funds for physical education can be used only for mass calisthenics unless the students are majoring in P.E. Net effect would be special fees charged by the schools if they wanted to give instruction in games.

Some schools have protested that the rider would seriously curtail physical education programs.

JOBS ASSIGNED
Speaker Byron Tunnell has more than 60 appointments to make on interim study committees. He is making them at the rate of one or two a week.

Reps. George Cook, Odessa; J. Collier Adams, Lubbock; Maurice Dolke, Wichita Falls; George Hinson, Mineola; and Ben Jarvis, Tyler, will study the oil and gas industry. Their assignment is no small chore... how to restore property to the Texas oil industry.

Reps. Ben Atwell, Dallas; Dick Cory, Victoria; and David Crews, Conroe, will take up membership on the Committee on State and Local Tax Policy.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith has named Senators George Parkhouse, Dallas; W. T. Moore, Bryan; and Jack Strong, Longview. Balance of the committee will be composed of three citizens to be named by Governor Connally.

Reps. W. H. Miller, Houston; Myra Banfield, Rosenberg; Raleigh Brown, Abilene; Charles Scoggins, Corpus Christi; and John Traeger, Seguin, will investigate public school testing. Rep. Bob Fairchild of Center has been named chairman of the House General Investigating Committee by Speaker Byron Tunnell.

Other new members are Reps. Ben Barnes of DeLeon, Hudson Moyer of Amarillo, Bill Parsley of Lubbock and James Silder of Naples.

Previous investigating committee's probes ranged from alleged basketball game fixes to the East Texas slant-hole scandal.

MENTAL HEALTH
National Institute for Mental Health has awarded a $302,000 grant to the State Hospital Board for research and training in mental health.

Houston State Psychiatric Institute received a grant of $114,878 for research in early clinical drug evaluation.

Remainder of the funds went to Baylor University College of Medicine for various research projects.

AFL - CIO LOSER
A suit by State AFL - CIO leaders alleging improper lobbying activities by Texas Employment Commission members and four employees was dismissed in 53rd District Court at Austin. Suit, filed last February, claimed TEC pushed 11 pro-employer bills in the Legislature. Judge Herman Jones said the union failed to prove its case. Union said it would appeal the decision.

COTTON
Texas cotton farmers planted 670,000 fewer acres this year than in 1962, U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Decline amounted to 9.7 per cent, which is more than the national decrease of 9.0 per cent. Reduction, made in compliance with the federal control program, would mean a cut of about 476,000 bales in the state's cotton production if yield-per-acre is the same as last year.

POLL TAXES
Folks who are past 60 and living in towns with 10,000 or more population should get their poll tax exemptions on October 1 or as soon as possible thereafter.

Exemptions for those over 60 are free under the old law, which will be in effect at least until November 5. That's the date for the vote on repeal of the poll tax as a voting requirement. If Texans vote FOR the repeal, those over 60 who live in towns above 10,000 population then will have to pay a 25-cent registration fee. Ditto for all voters under 60.

Those past 60 who live in rural areas or in towns under 10,000 population will not be affected by the changes. They can vote without paying under both the old and the new law.

The attorney general informed tax assessor-collectors that they must accept the $1.75 poll tax payments, starting on October 1, from those who insist on paying rather than waiting to see if the charge will be cut to 25 cents by the November 5 vote.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY
Governor Connally has appointed Calvin (Pete) Burnett, of Crane to replace Dan Sullivan as district attorney of Andrews, Crane and Winkler Counties.

Sullivan resigned to head up Sen. Raph Yarborough's state office in Austin.

FINAL MEETING
At the Game & Fish Commission's last meeting, the eight remaining commissioners were presented with engraved plaques by the 2,700-member Bayshore Rod, Reel and Gun Club. Executive Secretary Howard Dodgen then presented them with gold-framed certificates for their service on behalf of the department's staff.

Those receiving the awards were Ben F. Vaughan Jr. of Corpus Christi, chairman; Howard Carney of Atlanta, Morris Higley of Childress, H. A. Welsh of El Paso, Frank Wood of Wichita Falls, J. F. Corley of Houston, W. O. Reed of Dallas and Carl DuFoy of Lufkin.

Ninth member, Wilson Southwell of San Antonio, resigned last spring.

Commissioners are making way for the new 3-man Parks and Wildlife Commission. It will handle both State Parks and Game and Fish matters under the merger of the two agencies.

SHORT SHORTS
Texas railroads, trying to block federal court approval of the $211,000,000 Trinity River canal project, have asked the State Water Commission to delay its feasibility hearing from July 30 to August 26.

U. S. Bureau of Roads has released $23,428,004 in federal road funds to Texas to speed up current highway projects, aiding both the Interstate highway system and other federal-aid construction projects.

Texas Commission on Higher Education elected Dr. Lester E. Harrel Jr. as its director. Harrel has been acting director since Dr. Ralph Green resigned a year ago.

CHEERLEADING SCHOOL
Ruth Ann Allison, Kathy Boston, Rhonda Neff, Janis Hagans, Peggy Neff and Brenda Shelton are attending Cheerleading School at Oklahoma University. These girls are the 1963-64 Hereford High School cheerleaders.

Begins Letter Contest 'I Say Yes! To America'

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

Can you say YES! to America? Do you have faith in your country's future? Do you believe that the courage of our people and the strength of our institutions will carry our Nation to new glories?

In your personal conviction strong enough to withstand the assaults of those who would tell you that our Nation's most glorious days are gone, that we are surely destined for a secondary role in world affairs? Do you believe in the United States of America, past, present, and future?

Are Americans capable of patriotic expression, of putting into words the convictions they hold for their country and its future? I'm convinced our people, young and old, can say what they feel in their hearts about America. I believe that Americans, in full awareness of the deep problems facing us at home and abroad in this summer of 1963, can say YES! to America.

I like to see patriotism expressed. Now that it's summer, with the youngsters home from school, I'd like to hear from Panhandle folks — young and old — on this topic: I SAY YES! TO AMERICA.

I'd like to see expressions of faith in America and its destiny from children and their parents — letters, not formal essays, stating their continuing faith in their country.

I'm opening a kind of contest — one in which everyone wins. First of all, those who write letters on the topic "I Say Yes! To America" will have benefited by giving deep reflection to their feelings about their country and putting their feelings in words.

Second, those of us who read the letters — and I'll publish the most inspirational statements as part of a future newsletter — will benefit by seeing the convictions expressed by fellow citizens.

In a more material way, everyone who sends a letter on the topic will win. To each letter writer I will send copies of two booklets — "How Our Laws Are Made," a most interesting and accurate explanation of the Federal legislative process, and "Our American Government, What is It? How Does It Function?"

In addition, I will send other worthwhile books to the writers of the five letters adjudged to be most expressive in each of four age categories. These books are "Inaugural Addresses of Presidents of the United States" and the two-volume, authoritative study prepared by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, "Facts on Communism."

The letters will be judged in these age categories: 1. grade school (grades one through six);

Circuit Director Visiting Here

Lloyd Reddick, presiding minister of the Hereford congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, announced a special visit of their circuit director, L. D. Bell and his wife Edwina, who are spending this week with the local congregation.

A point of interest to the residents of Hereford and vicinity will be the house to house visitation by the Witnesses to give them a personal invitation to hear the free Bible discourse by Bell, "Is Your Destiny of Your Own Making?" to be given in the Hereford Kingdom Hall, 319 Ave. I, Sunday, July 21, at 3 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell were recently transferred here from Mira Loma, Cal., where he was presiding minister of a congregation. He has been in the ministry since 1954. He is now Circuit Director, presiding over 16 congregations in Texas and New Mexico.

Sunshine Club Hears Program On King's Manor

The program for the Sunshine Club meeting on July 9 was about King's Manor. Mrs. Clois Kemp told members of the club about the home routine, opportunities for crafts, paintings, and other entertaining activities, and beauty care for the women, provided by the local beauty shops.

Roll call was answered with names of favorite flowers. Both the penny ante gift and hostess gift were won by Mrs. Elmer Jones. The next meeting will be July 25 with Mrs. J. C. Mays of Dimmitt.

The hostess, Mrs. Clint Lun-

2. junior high school (grades seven through nine); 3. senior high school (grades 10 through twelve); 4. adult.

To the writers of the best letters in each category, I'll send an American flag that has flown over the Capitol of the United States — as well as the books and booklets. One of my most distinguished colleagues in the House of Representatives will be given the five letters I've picked best in each category. He in turn will pick the flag winners.

I hope the letters flood into the office. Be sure and give me your name and address and the category in which your letter should be placed. All letters postmarked by midnight Sunday, Aug. 25th, will be considered in the competition. I'll announce the winners in a newsletter early in September.

Send your letters to me: Congressman Walter Rogers, New House Office Building, Washington 24, D. C.

Short or long, handwritten or typewritten, on expensive bond or lined notebook paper. It matters not how you write — but write! The thing I'd like to see is the expression of your faith in America, your sincere statement on the topic "I Say Yes! To America."

By Jimmie Gillentine
YELLOWSTONE PARK—And this is a truly wonderful place, especially if you come in through the Tetons and the Jackson Hole country.

From the time we hit Wyoming, things have been getting more and more beautiful. Which is probably another way of saying that we are a couple of old boys from the Texas Plains — and we do appreciate "them mountains" whether they have any gold or not.

Bill Thompson will be right glad to know that we went into the Chamber of Commerce office in Lander, and that it is located next door to a liquor store. (No connection with our visit.) The folks were most happy to see us, and tried to talk us into coming back for the big historical fiesta and rodeo.

Lander is something like 5,000 people, and is one of the few towns so small as Hereford which boasts a large community park. This one has a trout stream down through the middle and seems to do as much business as the cattle, sheep and uranium mining put together.

A few miles up the road past Crowheart and Dubois, we went into Grand Teton National Park and, just like the C-C people said, it is hard to tell when you go from one park to the other. In fact, you pay $3 at Grand Teton, and this also takes care of Yellowstone, which still costs $3 from any other entrance.

We were amazed at the majestic beauty of the Tetons and the Jackson Hole, which is some 50 miles long and varies from six to 12 miles in width. As you probably know, this provides some of the best trout fishing in the whole U. S. A. I had heard Kent Snare tell so many lies about the Snake River that we decided to stop this side of Yellowstone and do some fishing. All of the public camp grounds were full, so we found a side road and took off down by the river, where someone had even erected a ridge pole for a tarp and had rocks made into a nice little fireplace.

And I guess there must be at least a little truth in some of those yarns Kent tells because, right off, we came up with four nice trout for supper. Things were going along so smooth that I almost had old Buz talk into washing dishes. WHAM! In moved the mosquitos. They were big fellows, and had real determination. Right off, we grabbed a can of that "guaranteed" repellent which Ansel McDowell sold us and began spraying ourselves. It turned out this was the wrong thing to do. It makes these Wyoming mosquitos mad as hops. They sail around a couple of times, then come in like dive bombers.

Honest, this is the truth. I am going to get my money back on this repellent or sue Old Mac, and if he wants to do the right thing he can send the money to me in care of General Delivery, Fairbanks, Alaska, because I think we are going to need it by the time we arrive there.

We built up a big fire and put some pine branches on it to create more smoke. This helped a little bit, but the wind kept changing and the "skeeters" would move in when we got out of the smoke, so we decided to go to bed. Mike Harvey sold me some cheese cloth, which we put over the windows with adhesive tape — and I'll be darned if the mosquitos didn't breeze right through that just as if it were not there. Finally, we rolled the windows all the way up and managed to get a fair night's sleep. This was a good idea, anyway, because it gets pretty cool at this 7,000 foot altitude.

Yellowstone Park is one place every American should visit. To me, it embodies the slogan, "See America first". It appeals to everyone; young, old and indifferent. No. 1, the scenery is magnificent — and is sure to "walk out" the Artist's Point area. Animals galore pop up all along the route, including bear, deer and wapiti elk. Always, when you drive up to a long line of cars you can figure the folks up front are photographing an animal which is "putting on a show" up the line. Everywhere you see signs: "Danger, do not feed animals!" and, every where, you see people feeding them. We were quite surprised to see the bears eating oranges — and with zest.

We took a park map and drove the entire circle, which was something like 200 miles. The geysers are another big attraction of the park, but we seemed to enjoy the scenery and formations most, especially after the first one or two geyser spots.

Two other things which surprised us about Yellowstone were the tremendous number of trailers and campers — something like 60 per cent of all the visiting cars — and the scarcity of Texans. We noticed only two other Texas vehicles during our visit there.

The mosquitos were different, though. They continued with us in abundance all during the route. The only place we could escape them was in the steam from the geysers — and it smells so bad that you finally decide to fight the mosquitos instead.

I visited Yellowstone some 35 years or so back, and was also amazed at the changes in park operations these days. The first time, as I recall, they had guides to explain things very much like the present tours through Carlsbad Caverns. Today, they give you a map and a litter bag — and you are on your own. The first time they asked about guns, and sealed our .22 rifle with wire; they also checked our rifle when we left the park. This time, they didn't mention guns. We only saw one ranger while in the park, and he was walking into a store. Needless to say, it was much nicer when we had the guided tours, but there are so many thousands touring the parks these days that it would be next to impossible to keep up with things. Now they will sell you a book for $1.50 which tells you all of the things you used to get from the ranger guides.

Yellowstone also has five shopping center areas with hotels, motels and cabins. They all have stores, photo shops, and camp grounds, and three or four have drug stores, restaurants, service stations and cafeterias, which seem to be operated on federal government leases. You can even rent horses, boats and automobiles. Camping, of course, is free — including the mosquitos. I am sure one must have reservations at the hotels and motels in advance, due to the enormous crowds which throng the park.

Everywhere people complain about the mosquitos. In service stations some of the boys have purchased head covers, which look a lot like those "men from Mars" outfits. One of the boys told us that they do very well, unless you happen to get a mosquito inside — and then you really have trouble. We had dinner in the cafeteria at Old Faithful, and it was good. However, as Buz pointed out, "Almost anything would be good after eating our own cooking for a few meals." Anyway we didn't have to argue about who would wash the dishes.

Most of the help in these places appear to be college youngsters. They have tags showing their home states, and range from Minnesota all the way to California. There is an emphasis, of course, on Wyoming, Utah and Montana — and we never did run across anyone from Texas.

Integration is in full swing in the park. You see quite a few Negro tourists; whether it is part of the national movement or not, we could not say. Signs all over the place specify that employees are chosen without regard to "race, color or creed" and they are signed by the Secretary of Interior. So far, however, we have not encountered any Negro employees at the counters, fountains or stores — so we presume it is pretty much like Texas in this respect.

Fishing runs a close second to sight-seeing in the park. No license is required to fish in Yellowstone and literally thousands of people throng the streams and lakesides. Hundreds have brought along their boats, too. The bag limit varies from three to five fish in various parts of the park — but we did not run across anyone who appeared to be having trouble with "too many fish", although it is probably about as good a place as anywhere.

All in all, you can see Yellowstone just about as you wish. You could spend several hundred dollars — or you can make it for three bucks and a tank of gas and, when you get through, it all adds up to the same thing. It is a "must" for those who have not been there, and a fond memory for those who have. Nowhere else is there a comparable area in the whole wide earth.

Without a doubt, Yellowstone Park will be a highlight of our performance of Old Faithful trip. Following the 9:20 p. m. we headed out toward West Yellowstone, some 30 miles away, and found a picnic area off the road, where we parked "The Beast" as Buz has named our van, and bedded down for the night. Much to our joy, we seemed to have somehow escaped the horde of mosquitos, which left only a few minor things such as black bear, brown bear, elk and deer to worry about.

Tomorrow we move into Montana through the West Yellowstone gate.
