One curious fact about the railroad strike is that some local citizens are complaining of not being able to sleep without the noise while others say they are sleeping better than ever.

Miles Robinson was the last man to be officially enumerated in the 1950 census in the county. They got his name Wednesday night, and the crew chief, Mrs. Giddens, turned in the last five districts of Deaf Smith County Friday morning. She said it will probably be five or six days until they have been tabulated. Then the mayor and county judge will be notified in due course of time.

Here's the honest definition of an optimist: The fellow that bought mud chains from Jiggs Hartman Friday morning. Jiggs wouldn't tell his name for fear of retaliation, but it is really true.

The battle on the highways is almost as deadly as the combat of warfare. The dead and dying are on our highways every hour of the day and night.

Hereford State Bank really pointed up their north wall to add to the looks of the building as well as attract attention to the drive-in window. By the way, that things is equipped so a bank robber couldn't drive up and shoot through the window or the reception where you get your money.

Michael Kelly and Chloé Fortenberry won the watches given away to two 1950 HHS seniors by Kester Jewelry. Method of presentation was strictly by chance: two circles of names—one girls and one boys—were placed around the hands of an 8-day clock. Whosever name the hands came to rest on when the clock ran down were named winners. Neither owned a watch before they won these.

Dale Tinnin, Les Wagoner and Wendell Burdine of Hereford Parts and Supply attended a clinic on how to adjust regulators in Amarillo Thursday night. J. R. Coleman and Kenneth McGee were also present from this area.

Earl Monroe will meet Ed Mayfield in a matched roping contest at Dimmitt this afternoon.

Haven't heard exactly how much rain fell on a trip south of town Friday night, but reports are that it was plenty, including some hail that hurt some potatoes.

One fire truck answered the trash fire alarm at noon Saturday on Texas Avenue.

Judge Leonard Foster Saturday says work on the Wyche farm-to-market road will begin when some 33 right-of-way deeds have all been signed. He said only a few have been signed so far.

Sheriff J. C. Reese said the recent Riders' Club rodeo in Hereford was one of the most orderly and "driest" of any rodeo he had ever seen. He said the Riders should be complimented.

Mail Is Coming Through Office Workers Man Trains

Trains—those which were still running—Friday and Saturday were off schedule in Hereford as a result of the 27-scale, 4-rail rail strike which took hold at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Six section hands and a clerk at the local Santa Fe freight office have been out of temporarily since the strike began according to Leo Hoffman, telegraph operator. Hoffman said, while the mail isn't coming through on the usual trains, most mail destined for Hereford is being received, but only on two night passenger trains. Normally two trains run during the day also, but these have stopped running since the strike began. The freight trains which have been coming through are a small fraction of the normal number. They have been manned by dispatchers and office hands from other areas. No regular firemen have been on the job, according to persons at the Hereford Santa Fe yard.

No Perishables Accepted
Hoffman said no perishable goods are being accepted for shipment. He added that Friday's three freights ran. Usually, from 10 to 15 freights make the run through Hereford every 24 hours. Two passengers ran Saturday. Number 106, east-bound, ran at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Number 105, west-bound, ran at 8 o'clock the same morning.

Some railway employees expressed the opinion that if the strike continues much longer, additional trains will be put on the road. The two-a-day passenger trains will probably be put on again and some freights might start running again.

However, no official word from the railroad headquarters has been received by Hereford representatives. They say they are just waiting.

Cancer Crusade Is Short Of Goal

County Cancer Drive chairman Mrs. V. O. Hennen Saturday said the 1950 Cancer Crusade is still $350 short of its goal.

Although discouraged at the progress the drive has made, so far, Mrs. Hennen said the workers won't stop until the full $900 is accounted for.

"Several of our Hereford citizens have died of cancer in recent years," Mrs. Hennen said. "Our drive is for cancer education. Had these people who have already died, been favored with the information being obtained by cancer research every day many would have been saved. Our drive is for cancer research."

Mrs. Hennen said that a person with cancer is usually desperate. He will pay any amount of money if he thinks he can be cured. Sometimes, she said, he will fall into the hands of a quack. Our Cancer Crusade is to help prevent this from happening, she said.

She added that the person should consult his own physician if he has cancer.

Mrs. Hennen presided over a meeting Wednesday night which heard a cancer lecture presented by Dr. H. H. Cooke. Plans were then made to place tables in the banks and post office.

Handicap Tournament Draws Record Number; End Qualifying Today

With 37 golfers already entered and another 15 to 20 expected today, prospects are bright for the biggest golf tournament in the short history of the new Hereford Golf Course, Jim Terry said Saturday.

Tournament committee chairman Erb Jordan, Wayne Phillips and Bill Davis, Jr. will pair the matches this evening after qualifying is over, and golfers can find out their opponents by calling the golf course.

Jordan said last week that players will be divided in two flights by their qualifying scores and then all matches will be played on a handicap basis after that. The $1 entry fee will be used for prizes.

Scores turned in since the Thursday Brand include Jim Garner 101, M. J. Layman 100, Wendell Burdine 95, Matt Wheeler 93, H. E. Miller 103, Bill Miller 101, Jack Ramey 104, Homer Lee Owens 98, Harold Close 101, Alvin Shirley 92, Bill Howard 83, Tom Howard 90, Dr. Lingenfelter 77, Stan Barrett 79, Don Martin 89, Wylie Quattlebaum 91. Both Bruce Woodell and Pat Corbett turned in 47's at the end of their first nine. J. M. Posey and Martin Pavlich have paid entry fees but haven't turned in scores yet.

Eighty-Four Start Graduation Tonight With Baccalaureate

Eighty-four Hereford High School seniors start week-long graduation proceedings this evening with Baccalaureate at the High School auditorium.

Rev. R. H. Cagle of the First Baptist Church will deliver the sermon. Starting with the Processional at 8 o'clock, the program will consist of the Invocation by Jesse Clegg, "Bless This House" by the A Cappella Choir under the direction of Miss Thelma McMinn and "My Task" by the same group.

After the sermon Clark Andrews will give the Benediction followed by the Recessional. Commencement exercises will be held at the same place Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. Doyle D. Jackson of Texas Technological College will deliver the Commencement Address.

VFW Expects 250 For Convention Over Weekend

Some 250 VFW conventioners and auxiliary members are expected for the annual District convention here next week end, according to President Perry McMinn.

He said committee chairman Ben Childers, Roy Smith and Ray Cowsett are handling all details and the Tulla VFW Auxiliary will be in charge of registration and will also be official host to auxiliary members present, since Hereford does not have an auxiliary.

Unique feature of the convention is the plan of having ten service cars available with drivers for the convenience of conventioners. Roy Smith is in charge of that particular committee which includes entertainment and the dance in Hotel Jim Hill Saturday night.

Ben Childers, assisted by Bill Waldrep, is in charge of decorations, including street streamers, etc., McMinn said.

Ray Cowsett is chairman of the invitation committee. Registration fees will be $3.50 for the two-day convention, which includes breakfast, banquet and the dance. McMinn said there will only be two closed meetings and that anyone is welcome to attend any of the other meetings they wish to. This includes the dance, breakfast and banquet.

The two closed meetings will be Sunday. The first will be the ritual team and the other the afternoon business session.

J. E. Deen of Tulla is district commander.

'Big Dad' Pitman, Pioneer Resident Buried Saturday

Funeral services for Joseph Hiett Pitman, 81, pioneer real estate man and resident of Hereford for 44 years, were held Saturday afternoon, May 13, at 3 o'clock. Services were conducted from the First Baptist Church of which he was a member by Rev. R. H. Cagle, pastor, and were attended by a large crowd of friends from over the entire Panhandle.

Mr. Pitman died at his home at noon Thursday, May 11, as a result of a heart attack and, despite a brief illness several weeks ago, he was active until the time of his death.

Born in Winchester, Va., April 8, 1869, Mr. Pitman lived there until he was 18 years of age, at which time he moved to Saline County, Missouri. It was in Missouri that he met Miss Minnie Miller, who he married on February 20, 1893. Following the wedding, the couple made a hazardous but profitable trip in hub-deep mud to the new farm home which Mr. Pitman had prepared for his bride. They continued to reside in Missouri for 13 years, during which time three sons were born.

In 1905, however, Mr. Pitman made a trip to Wichita Falls, became sold on West Texas and in January, 1906 moved his family to Amarillo, where he engaged in the real estate business. It was while in Amarillo that their only daughter, Eloyse, was born. Because Hereford and Deaf Smith County were developing rapidly, the Pitmans moved to Hereford in the fall of 1906, where he continued to engage in the real estate business.

As one of the early day real estate men of this community, Mr. Pitman sold tracts of land to many other early settlers, some of whom are still on the original farms purchased back then; he lived to see many of the tracts which sold "for a song" become highly valuable property. Business often boomed back in those days, he frequently recalled with a smile, as settlers drifted into the community to make their homes. Mr. Pitman saw, and helped, Deaf Smith County, (population 843 in 1900) turn from vast cattle ranches to agriculture so rapidly that the population figure was 3,942 in the 1910 census. Hereford, as he often recalled, was a small village with scattered stores and homes when he first moved here.

Mr. Pitman was interested always in the community and in real estate transactions until the time of his death, but had retired from active business during the past 15 years. Because he enjoyed hunting and fishing trips, they became annual affairs with him and with many of his friends. Locally, he was also considered one of the outstanding bass fishermen of the community.

Close friends and mere acquaintances, alike, called him "Big Dad," a name contributed by his grandchildren. If any hobby exceeded that of fishing and hunting for "Big Dad," it was the growing of flowers and a beautiful yard. Red roses were his favorite flower and the Pitman home, 900 East Third Street, has become one of the show places of Hereford; despite his age, he personally did much of the work until the last year, and then carefully supervised any other yard activities.

Friends of Big Dad staunchly defend the life he enjoyed more than any person they ever knew, and many of them had known him for many years. (Continued on Page 6)

Meade Haile Dies In Dallas Sat.

Friends were notified Saturday afternoon of the death of Meade Haile, former Hereford drug store operator. His death occurred after noon Saturday at Baylor Hospital in Dallas, where he had been carried for treatment. Immediate cause of his death was attributed to a cerebral hemorrhage.

Mr. Haile, about 41 years of age, moved to Hereford in 1938 to establish Haile Drug Store, which still operates under his name. He sold the store around 1943, however, and moved to California, but returned to Hereford for more than a year before moving to San Angelo to accept a traveling position with Sharpe and Dome, pharmaceuticals. During recent months he had given up this job, due to ill health, and was living in San Angelo. He is survived by his wife and one daughter.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete Saturday afternoon, but plans were to return the body to San Angelo, where Massey Funeral Home will be in charge. Mrs. Emmett Milburn also expected to receive details of funeral arrangements Sunday.

School Board Okays Starting DE Course

Inauguration of a Distributive Education (DE) course in Hereford High School beginning with the fall term of 1950, is announced Friday by superintendent of schools, George Graham.

The decision came from the regular school board meeting held Thursday night. Roy L. Reinartz, district DE supervisor, met with the board members and reported the results of a survey conducted by him throughout Hereford this week. He said most merchants indicated willingness to cooperate with the program and said they will, if the DE course is taken on by the school, employ students. "Ability and screening tests will be given to all students who apply for the course," Graham said. "The students will not be employed in the type of work using their hands."

Depends On Instructor.
Graham added, "Whether we will have DE in Hereford High School depends, however, on the success in finding a suitable instructor. A few schools have tried DE courses but have had the program fall through because the DE instructor, or coordinator, was not the right man for the job. We are going to try to make certain we get the right man before we try it."

School Board president, A. J. Schroeter, said the students will be interviewed by their prospective employers before they are hired.

"Students won't just be placed in stores around Hereford. They will have to take the screening tests and then be interviewed by the merchants. The merchants are only cooperating in the program."

Several firms, including hardware stores, grocery stores and dry goods stores indicated an interest in the program.

Anticipates About 18

Graham anticipates an enrollment of between 17 and 20 students the first time the course is offered. The maximum number for a DE course is 27, he said.

Under consideration for several months by the school system, the final decision was put off until Reinartz could come to Hereford and interview merchants to find out if there is sufficient interest and enough businesses to handle the program. His survey this week confirmed the program and his report to the school board Thursday night resulted in the affirmative decision.

A student enrolling in DE will have his course in school closely allied with the work he is doing. He will get out of school at noon every day and report to work at 1 o'clock. He must put in a certain number of hours on the job to remain eligible for the program. He must, in addition to working for wages, receive definite training for the line of work he has chosen.

Work To Suit Student
The line of business he will work at depends on his screening and aptitude tests.

Graham gave no indication as to the person who will be hired. Qualifications are the same as that of the regular classroom teachers in addition to several years of professional or business experience, Graham said.

But, Graham said, the pay is on the same level with the other teachers. Other business at the school board meeting considered of further discussion of landscaping work on both Shirley and Central grade school grounds. Monthly bills were also paid, according to Schroeter.

Bank Deposits In Deaf Smith Remain Above 1949 Level

Contrary to normal trends, bank deposits in Deaf Smith County banks remained comparatively steady through the first four months of 1950. As a matter of fact, total deposits are higher today than they were at the start of the year by about $58,000.

A year ago during the first four months of 1949, deposits slumped almost $500,000.

V. O. Hennen, First National Bank vice-president and cashier, said one probable reason for not having the normal seasonal slump this spring is that wheat farmers have not had to prepare for harvest with resulting expenditures and Bill Phillips, Hereford State Bank cashier, gave as another reason the fact that many wheat loans came in after the first of the year on last fall's crop.

Loans and discounts at the two banks amounted to $2,602,816 which is about $300,000 more than in December but not up to the $2,922,657 in November, 1949 or quite equal to the $2,704,274 at this time last year.

Federal Reserve Bank stock amounts to $11,100 in the two banks and U. S. Government Bonds remain at almost two million dollars.

V. O. Hennen reported total deposits at $6,481,131, more than $100,000 over the total at the beginning of the year. Hereford State Bank cashier Bill Phillips reports $1,756,956 in total deposits which lacks about $25,000 of the first of the year figure.

Bank assets after four months of 1950 reach $8,676,146 for the two banks combined. This figure amounts to practically the same as the one shown at the start of the year when the report was about $300,000 over the preceding report in November. November was also higher than previous months.

Total assets at this time a year ago showed $7,745,335, almost a million dollars less than shown today.

The total deposit figure of $8,238,107 compares about the same with the 1949 figure of $7,368,419.

Complete Paving Road To Airport Next Week

Work is expected to be finished within a week on the Clover Airport road which runs from the Hereford city limits, north to the airport.

Workers say asphalt will be shot Friday or Saturday which is the final touch. The road was started a week and a half ago by Furtell and Jones, Littlefield, who did the paving work for the City of Hereford. Their bid was about a thousand dollars under the two other competing firms.

County judge L. H. Foster said the contractors said the job would be finished in about 15 days from the letting of the contract.

If the weather remains good through next week the road will be finished by Monday or Tuesday, according to workers.

Flying Bug Bite Is Common In Hereford

By JOHN SCOTT

The 33 Flying Farmers airplanes which last Saturday landed at Clover Airport revived, mildly and momentarily, some of the interest that has been going up and down in Hereford over the years, in aviation.

Visiting pilots liked the runways and complimented owner Carl Kropff for the job he had done building the place up. There are no hard-surfaced strips; just wide, dirt runways which can handle light airplanes and crop-dusters.

Hereford flying has suffered at times. More particularly, air tragedy has hit Kropff. His partner, Bill Bowman, was killed late in 1947 while chasing coyotes. His oldest brother was killed back in 1929 in a glider accident which occurred just a mile from where the main hanger at Clover stands today.

Crashed In A Fog
Another blow to Hereford aviation came when two young boys, who should have been home in bed, according to experienced pilots, were killed when they crashed while flying in a heavy fog. This also cooled off the flying bug a bit, according to Kropff.

But there are still some 17 planes based in Hereford hangars owned by Hereford businessmen. The planes stay both at Clover Airport and across town at Hereford Airport where Jesse B. Woodford and W. P. Ponder are in partnership.

Another regarding item in the slowing down of flying in Hereford was the cancellation of the GI Bill privileges of flight lessons. One owner admitted the "bum" "bad."

The county has taken some steps in aviation by recently authorizing the paving of the Clover Airport road from the city limits to just a little north of the field.

Built The Hard Way

With 50 student pilots and seven airplane owners calling it home, Carl Kropff thinks he has come a long way with Clover Airport in four years.

One-time Californian, but now West Texan, 38-year-old Kropff and partner Bill Bowman predicted aviation had a future in Hereford just after the war ended. The two enthusiasts built the Clover Airport up the hard way, cutting the lumber themselves and hauling it from Oklahoma. Little by little, they put together one main hanger and three smaller hangars.

When Bowman was killed, the airport went through a depression period. Between the two, there was one pilot's license. Bowman had it. Bowman's death left an airport owner who could not fly.

"Actually, I have been flying only about 3½ years. I have about 400 hours in light airplanes and have checked out in an AT-6. I got my license after Bill was killed."

"Our most ardent pilot is Lyle Blanton. He has a 4-place Stinson here. It is hard to say who flies better than who. But Blanton, in my estimation, is one of the best."

Other owner-pilots are W. D. Jones with a 2-place Cessna; Robert Draver, a 3-place Piper Cruiser; Alton Fraser, an Ercole; John A. Morris, an Aero-ona; Jim Barclay and John Burnett each have a Cessna.

"Dr. R. E. Lingenfelter does a lot of flying. He is probably the most frequent professional-man flyer we have," Kropff says.

Howard Gault, Hardy Benson, Jr. and Jack Johnson are three others who put considerable time in flying. Benson is a member of the Flying Farmers.

The youngest students at Clover are those who have had to wait until the legal age to solo. CAA says a person must be 14 to take lessons and must be 16 before he can take a plane up alone.

DO YOUR PART, STAY AT HOME

Be Prepared For Disaster

Complete cooperation of all citizens, including staying away from a disaster stricken area unless the person has been assigned a definite job to do in the area, was urged by A. J. Schroeter, Red Cross Disaster committee chairman of Deaf Smith County, Saturday.

Schroeter said all committees were recently asked to restudy their duties in case of a disaster and to know all functions of their committee.

A tornado has never been reported even close to Hereford, and chances are slim that one ever will strike, however, in the event one should hit any part of the city or county, citizens who panic and congregate in the stricken area will only retard relief measures, Schroeter said. The county courthouse has been designated as headquarters, and in the event it should be demolished the City Hall is second.

Schroeter also said they still don't have a 110 AC, 60 cycle emergency gasoline generator for radio communications. The highway patrol has radio equipment which would enable them to contact Amarillo or Clovis by AM or FM radio, but local authorities would like to spot another power plant in the event it is needed.

Both the local American Legion and VFW Posts have volunteered their services to work in the stricken area. All local police agencies will police the area and will probably enlist aid from private citizens and police from other cities if needed, Schroeter said.

Persons wanting to help should go to disaster headquarters and not to the scene of the disaster. All details such as sanitation, plumbers to cut off gas, electricians to take care of "hot wires," winch trucks to aid in clearing heavy obstacles and Boy Scouts for messenger service, as well as many more details have been assigned various committees.

The one thing for the private citizen to do is stay out of the way, Schroeter reiterated.

Central Defeats Friona Nine 14 - 6

Tony Esquivel's "twister ball" was breaking right as rain Friday afternoon, holding Friona to five hits and six runs as Central pounded out a 14-to-6 softball win to officially ring down the curtain for Central this year.

Shutting Friona out in five of the seven innings, Esquivel allowed two runs in the third and relaxed, somewhat, in the final frame when Friona got four runs off three hits.

Fred Ruland got things going for Central in the initial frame, smashing a triple to center. Knox drove Ruland across with the first run with a single and Don Parsons walked. Arol Acton and Esquivel were thrown out on in-field rollers with Morrison and Parsons scoring. Lynn Jones struck out to end the inning.

Parsons, who got two for three at the plate, and Acton, who hit three for five, both smashed powerful homers in the big fourth inning. Acton also smashed a triple in the second inning with two men on. Nobody was on when the homers were hit.

Friona made a "weak bid in their third inning when James

Allen hit a homerun, and in the seventh when a homerun by Don Madley opened the inning. Esquivel's control showed up, however, and the Friona rally in both cases was squashed. Houlette had a good day at the plate, getting two for three for Friona. Madley hit two for three, also.

Central coach J. E. Mode said the Central ball players, used to the 60-foot baselines, made hay with the 45-foot distance between bases in Friona. The starting Central line-up was made up entirely of graduating sixth-graders with the exception of Esquivel, who will be around next year.

Central played perfect baseball, committing no errors in defensive play.

St. Thomas' Episcopal Women's Auxiliary Has Goes Inside For Picnic

Women's Auxiliary of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church Wednesday evening entertained the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Seaman with what was planned to have been a picnic. Adverse weather drove the entertainment into Firemen's Hall where roasted hot dogs, beans, deviled eggs and other picnic fare was served.

After dinner, several games of canasta and bridge were enjoyed instead of the planned horse-shoe pitching and potato races.

The party was attended by The Rev. and Mrs. Seaman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradley, Mr. and Mrs.

Bud Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith, Mrs. Frances Houston, Mr. Wilson Gyles, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crutchfield, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waldrep, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brummel, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hendricks, Mrs. Helen Pitkin, Mrs. R. R. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Carter, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Trimmer.

Mrs. Nobles Is Honoree At Thursday Courtesy

Pastel colors carried out a spring motif in flowers and appointments when Mrs. Millard Nobles was named honoree at a courtesy given in the home of Mrs. Bruce Woodell Thursday morning. Attending were Mesdames Sam Nelson, J. T. Gilbert, Jr., R. A. Wingert, Herbert Boardman, Les Combs, T. T. Seigler, Jr., J. E. Kirby, Clyde Cave, B. F. Cain, Roy Ford, the honoree, and the hostesses who included Mesdames Leona Blood, Pete Cowart, Will Graham and Woodell.

Baylor Fish Really Have Things Fixed

WACO, Texas, May 12—Baylor University still is without the services of its principal flag pole despite long continued efforts to remove a Freshman flag that has waved since March 27.

The best brains at Baylor and the best brain of the Waco fire department have been pitted against the white rag at the top of the 100-foot pole.

But whoever raised the flag for the Freshmen this year evidently wanted the emblem to fly longer than a single day. He, or they, tied the cloth securely to the top of the pole, dropped the flag-raising chain to the ground, and smeared a heavy coating of grease on the pole as he slid down.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION COMES TO HEREFORD

Cooperation Will Be Necessary

Hereford School Board members made what is apparently a wise decision this week in approving the installation of a Distributive Education course in the High School curriculum.

Of course, as Superintendent George Graham stated, this particular type of course depends to a great extent on the type of teacher obtained and the cooperation down town business houses give the teacher.

Distributive Education was proven successful in Texas schools more than 10 years ago, and some schools in larger cities have used it ever since. Only within a past few years have schools in towns the size of Hereford realized the need and possibility of using such a course.

In one sense the course is as important to the students planning a business or salesmanship career as Vocational Agriculture courses are to the boy planning on farming, or the girl who takes Home Economics.

The student learns by doing and at the same time receives valuable instruction from his teacher during classroom hours.

Everyone will benefit by such a program. And it will be a success if the spirit shown by the Hereford businessmen present to hear the state DE representative Thursday continues.

Mother's Day

Since the year 1907, the people of the United States have been observing the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day, with appropriate services in the churches of the land, where individuals are accustomed to commemorate holy things.

In 1914 Congress designated the day which is widely observed in other countries, as well as our own. It differs from the earlier celebrations of ancient people whose festivities did not carry the same sense of appreciation for individual mothers.

Words of man are incapable of expressing proper appreciation of the unselfish and devoted life of good mothers and it is given to most children to revere and appreciate their own mother as the noblest expression of this human relationship.

Certainly, the day has been commercialized in some respects but so widespread is the recognition of the fittingness of the occasion that Mother's Day stands apart from other days and special occasions. It will be so for many years, and worthily so.

It is well for men to revere motherhood but it is better for them to honor their own mothers, who will be pleased to witness some expression of a love that should not be assumed. Let us all join to make living Mothers conscious of respect and love and to reverently remember the virtues of those who have gone on ahead.

Blame Society

One of the real tragedies of life involves a sixteen-year-old boy, recently sentenced to life imprisonment because he hid in the rear of a truck, hit the driver on the head with a hammer and took more than $500 in cash from the victim, leaving him in a dying condition.

The tragedy is not in the life sentence given to the young boy, but in the state of mind which led the young man to commit such a heinous crime. The judge, in sentencing the boy, gave it as his opinion that "society was largely to blame for the tragic happening."

This is utter nonsense. There are millions and millions of sixteen-year-old boys in the United States who, under no conceivable provocation would deliberately plan to kill a man and take his money. The circumstances, conditions and environment of these youngsters may vary from place to place, but the moral breakdown of one should be compared with the moral stamina of the millions.

It is getting to be a habit to blame "society" for the shortcomings of individuals. This is a dangerous philosophy for people to adopt. If we are to develop human character, there must be recognition of the responsibility of individuals for their activities and realization that, regardless of inequities and disappointments, the individual is not justified by circumstances or excused by putting the blame on the generalized mass of human "society."

Numbers Aren't All

How About You?

Personally, it has always seemed to us that the quality of the people in Hereford has been a bigger civic asset than the number. We would prefer to see 100 cultured, respectable, hard working men and women move into our community than 1,000 people of doubtful purpose, morals and intentions.

Naturally, the population determines, in a marked degree, the business of the town, but very often the farming area that trades within a city or town is as important in the commercial life as are those who live within the municipal limits. The character of these citizens is an important factor in the desirability of the place.

Hereford and Deaf Smith County have been blessed, we should say, with people of fine characteristics. These traits should be appreciated and our young people should emulate them. They should not be led astray by the typically American insistence upon size.

The world is heavily populated with individuals who would do "great things" if they had fine positions, or plenty of money. The world has very few men and women who are striving to do little things in life in a manner that befits the doing the greater things.

There is much talk, for example, about the value of family life. What do the average father and mother, in this day, do for the benefit of family life?

For that matter what contribution does the young son, or the young daughter, feel impelled to make in developing a happy family circle that, in too many instances, is but a theory?

The day will come when we will be considered foolish for giving so much of our time to the making of the money that permits us to live.

VA Hospital Fight

THE PUBLIC doesn't know it, but the real reason for waste regarding veterans hospitals is politics. It is also why conscientious Dr. Paul Magnuson, chief of the Veterans' administration's medical division, has been on the point of resigning.

He wants hospitals located where medical conditions are best, while general Veterans' Administrator Carl Gray sometimes locates them where political conditions are best. Here are some specific examples:

MULEY BOB DOUGHTON'S HOSPITAL—The V. A. soon will build a 1,000-bed neuropsychiatric hospital at Salisbury, N. C., despite the fact that medical authorities want it at Durham or Winston-Salem where it would be near Duke university or the future site of Wake Forest college. Doctors always like to place neuropsychiatric hospitals near medical centers, because nerve patients sometimes have a complication of diseases.

This view also was supported by Secretary of the Army Gordon Gray, a North Carolinian. But another North Carolinian disagreed. He was Congressman Bob Doughton, who, as chairman of the ways and means committee, is one of the most powerful members of congress. Despite economies and medical preferences, Doughton wanted the hospital in his district. So it is going to be put there.

SENATOR MURRAY'S HOSPITAL—A 100-bed hospital is being built at Miles City, Mont., also far from a medical center, as a favor to Sen. James Murray of Montana. This hospital originally was scheduled to be part of a V. A. project at Minot, North Dakota, until "Doctor" Murray decided otherwise. It will now cost the taxpayers the huge sum of $4,478,891, or more than $44,000 per bed.

CONGRESSMAN VINSON'S HOSPITAL—The V. A. has been forced to take over and maintain another out-of-the-way hospital at Dublin, Ga., built by the navy as a favor to Congressman Carl Vinson of Georgia, powerful chairman of the armed services committee.

This hospital is so far from a mainline railroad that the navy had to build a special airfield to bring in patients. Also, only 360 of its 500 beds are in use, due to lack of medical personnel. To staff the Dublin hospital, Dr. Magnuson finally had to order 15 doctors there from other V. A. hospitals. Whereupon eight of the 15 resigned.

BUDGET BUREAU'S HOSPITAL—Another glaring case is at Augusta, Ga., where the V. A. under pressure from the budget bureau, is being forced to take over a ramshackle navy hospital for neuropsychiatric patients. The main building is an old hotel, with corridors and doors too narrow for hospital use.

More important, this hospital cannot be adequately staffed with doctors and technicians to handle its 1,000 beds. The V. A. wants to build a new psychiatric hospital in Atlanta, Ga., where doctors from Emory university, a first-class medical school, would be available for residence work. Such a hospital could be built for what it will cost to maintain the navy "snakepit" at Augusta for 10 years. However, the budget bureau says no.

Closed-Open Embassy

Every spring the allegedly elite homes of Washington are put on display for the benefit of a church charity. For a modest sum, the curious public can traipse over the rugs of Mrs. Dean Acheson in Georgetown, or gaze at the bric-a-brac of Mrs. Felix Frankfurter.

Some of the embassies are also open to the public, and this year some of the ladies raised their eyebrows as to whether the Egyptian embassy should be included on the list. Reason: Last year the Egyptians barred a prominent Washington hostess because she is Jewish.

Mrs. Sidney Hechinger, wife of a leading Washington lumber merchant, was supposed to have served as hostess during a tour at the Egyptian embassy. But the Egyptian ambassador refused to let Mrs. Hechinger set her foot inside the front door. Mrs. Wiley Rutledge, wife of the late supreme court justice, calmed the furor; and instead, Mrs. Jesse Donaldson, wife of the postmaster general, served as hostess for the Egyptian embassy.

Now spring has come again and another open-house hour. But instead of protesting the insult, the society ladies have invited the Egyptian embassy to participate again and are meekly sending Mrs. Donaldson back as hostess.

Merry-Go-Round

Mrs. Patrick J. Hurley, blonde and beautiful wife of the ex-secretary of war, was almost in tears over her husband's television debate with Mrs. Roosevelt, during which he virtually called the former First Lady a liar. The Hurleys had been weekend guests of Mrs. Roosevelt at Hyde Park just before the television show, and Mrs. Hurley confided to friends that she spent the whole time fighting

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa:

I have a good husband who provides for me and is pleasant enough around the house but he is absolutely lacking in affection and ir thoughtless rather than inconsiderate. A peck on the cheek about three or four times a day is the limit of his demonstrativeness. He says he loves me and he never looks at another woman but he doesn't seem to look at me, either. I can't understand how one can love another and never give them a squeeze or a real kiss.

If we go to a party and the people are strange to me, my husband forgets all about me, until time to go home. It never occurs to him to see if I am stranded or stuck with the same partner if we happen to be dancing. It is simply sink or swim by my own power, as far as he is concerned. If I mention it later, he will say that he thought I was having a good time and he didn't notice me with the same partner for six dances.

What do you think about this? Do you really think he loves me? We have been married only ten years and I hate to think about spending the rest of my life with a man who is so wrapped up in his own concerns that he lets me feel so alone.

DISTRACTED—N. J.

ANSWER

You probably have a very lonely road ahead of you, Distracted, unless you can get your husband to see what he is doing to you.

He sounds to me like an extreme egotist who as you say, is so wrapped up in what he is saying and the impression he is making on other people, that he forgets to pay you the little courtesies that husbands pay their wives. His behavior at dances is really inexcusable. The first thing a boy learns at dancing school is to look out for his partner and certainly he should be even more thoughtful after marriage.

As for his lack of affection, I suppose some people are born affectionate and some are not but it seems that you would have discovered this trait before you were married. It is a pity when two people so different are married. Try being affectionate with him and perhaps he will develop this trait to some extent.

LOUISA.

Westway Club Meeting Held At School House

Westway Home Demonstration Club met at the school house Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Tom Draper, CHDA, giving demonstrations in canning fruits and vegetables. She stated that half the food Americans eat is fresh and the other half processed, as she illustrated the main steps in canning.

Members voted to serve the farm sale lunch at the Syd Maxwell field place Wednesday at 11 o'clock. Each member is requested to furnish two pies. The next meeting will be held on May 24 with Mrs. Merlin Kaul.

Mrs. Harold Head and Mrs. A. A. Head were guests at the meeting and members attending were Meadames R. L. Wilson, B. B. Northcutt, G. C. Merritt, Bess Werner, Joe Landers, Clarence Morrison, Kenneth Rudd, Joe Wagener, Elmer Combs, A. C. Pierce, George Turrentine and S. A. Duckworth.

A lady told us the other day that she enjoyed the editorials in The Brand—this makes it three.

We don't know whether the idea is original with H. R. Patterson but anyway it struck us as being very clever and practical when we noticed that she had her young plants covered with cardboard milk cartons. They won't heat like tin cans, are ventilated from the top, and can be easily disposed of when the plants get tough enough to resist the wind and sun.

The Central School first grader's Cowboy Day or the Rodeo must have left quite a charge of the Western spirit around as we saw one young cowhand with chaps ridin' his bicycle down the street.

The names of Jack Ratjen and Van Cape weren't new to us as they came over the P. A. Saturday night.

Even back when we had them listed on our register as first and second grade pupils they spent most every recess playin' that they were ridin' broncs.

And Pete Blackwell can pluck off a clover leaf in about as little time as it takes to bridle and saddle her pony.

Since J. V. Campbell advertises that age isn't a handicap to ones ability to bowl we keep aimin' to get around to the Bowlin' Alley to see how the game goes but seems like there is always another row of corn to hoe or an old sittin' hen to take off.

Well it isn't always work for our Firemen as was exhibited in the lively Water Polo contests Tuesday afternoon.

That was more water than has fallen on Third Street in quite a spell.

By the way, wonder what has become of that feller who was only waitin' for clouds so he could make it rain?

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

(Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher won't get anywhere with his proposition this week, but that never seems to faze him.)

Dear editor:

I was out here the other afternoon not doing a blamed thing, every once in a while a man ought to spend some time not even pretendin' to be doin' anything, when I noticed a calf jump sideways and belle? and I wandered over near where it was and discovered it had been scared by a copy of the News-Globe and since it's handy to have a newspaper in your hands in case your wife starts up a naggin conversation, I took it home with me and after supper if you want to call it that, and read where the Department of Agriculture is plannin' on a new bureau to be known as the Bureau of Weeds.

As I understand it, the bureau will spend its time studyin' weeds, their health and progress, and the right way to get rid of em.

I am glad to see this progressive step, and was wonderin' if you have enough influence with our Congressman or Senator in Washington to line me up with a job as a consultant for this new department.

If there's anything I'm a authority on, its weeds. Unlike some farmers who seem embarrassed at the sight of a weed on their farm and spend a lifetime fightin-the things when everybody knows there's about as many weeds now as there was when things started, I have learned long ago to accept weeds as a part of nature, the same as politicians, high taxes, radio static, a naggin wife, a squallin' baby, etc.

However, instead of them Washington agriculturists settin' up an expensive plant to there to grow weeds, I will be glad to offer my farm as a experimental plot. This way I believe the government can save some money and time. I got every kind of weed they have in Washington, some they probably haven't heard of yet, and I believe I can grow em a lot cheaper.

I will be glad to rent the government my farm for use in its Weed Bureau.

Why don't you line up the Chamber of Commerce behind this project and let's bring this new bureau here?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

SUNDAY'S CURRENT QUESTION:

Opinions Are Divided On Banning Russia From UN

Ex-president Herbert Hoover endorsed the expulsion of Russia from the United Nations organization. What do you think?

Mrs. Hazel Sparks: I don't agree with Mr. Hoover. I don't think Russia should be eliminated from the UN because it would cause more hard feelings and would bring on war sooner. I think Russia should be dealt with just as any other member of the United Nations. The rest of the United Nations should try to have a little more patience and try to solve the problems. I don't believe in taking anything from Russia but they should be given just as many privileges as any other country if we want peace.

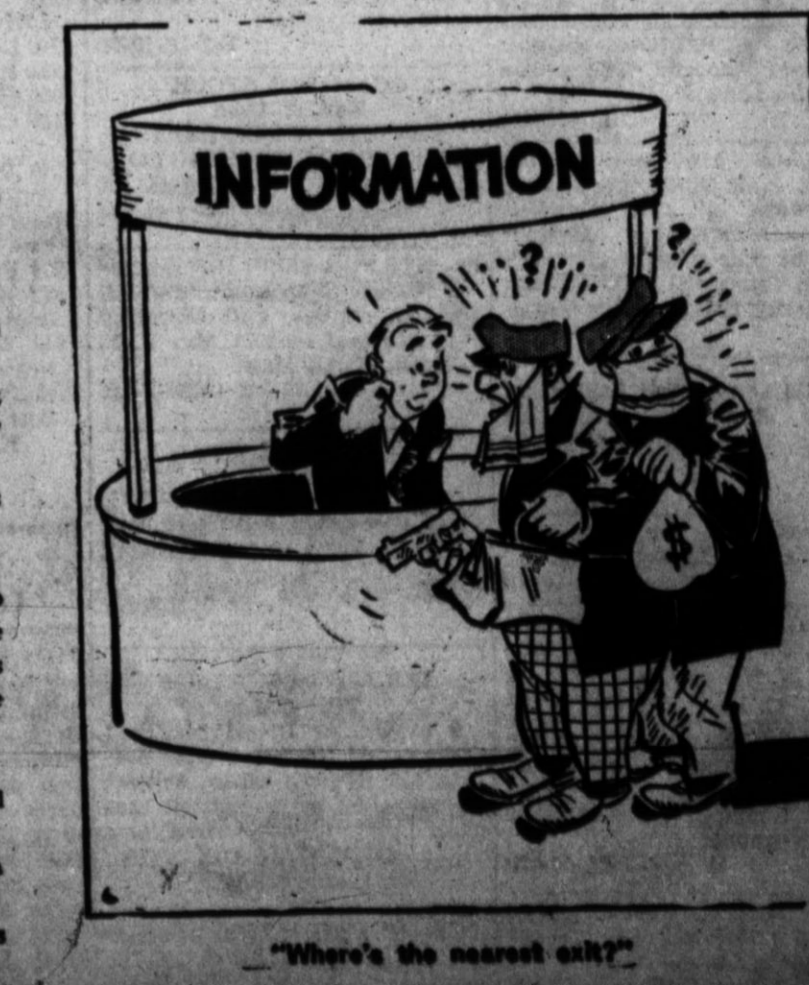

Mrs. W. M. Stovall: Well, it's hard to say, I'm inclined to agree with Mr. Hoover. We have tried so hard and so long to get along with Russia and it seems that cooperation is impossible. Hoover thought quite a long time before he made that speech. I think there was some sound reasoning back of it. He knows what he is talking about. I think, also, that we should forget all about Russia. I kinda' admire Herbert Hoover, anyway.

Rev. Roy Ford: It seems to me that when you shut the door to Russia, every road to peace is closed. We should keep on trying to get along. It will put up the same idea we would put if we told our neighbor to stay out of our yard. A feeling of animosity will be installed and war is that much closer. Nothing will be gained for world peace by excluding Russia from the UN. She has walked out many times but we should keep the door open.

H. A. Lamm: I think Russia should be excluded from everything. They should be ignored and forgotten by the rest of the world. They have a communistic form of government which isn't democratic and isn't representative of the people. Freedom of religion and freedom of speech is prohibited in Russia. Anyway, at the United Nations conferences, the Russian people aren't speaking. Only the few Communistic rulers are having their wishes and ideas voiced.

Jesse Stanford: Why, no, I don't think they should be kicked out of the UN. How are you going to get along with a fellow if you exclude him from your group? If you kick them out you might as well fight them. If you don't want to fight them, you must try harder to get along with them. I haven't given the problem too much thought but that is my opinion now.

The Sunday Brand, Hereford, Texas, Sunday, May 14, 1950
 MRS. WM. McGEHEE

Strawberry Shortcake Will Always Rate Top Favorite

Strawberry short cake makes a pretty dessert with little effort. Once a basic recipe has been mastered, any number of showy effects can be created. Its very nature is on the luscious side and its colors are so tempting that few can resist its appeal. Mrs. Wm. McGehee favors an old-fashioned recipe which she dresses up or down as the occasion demands. She and half a century have been married and are fond of strawberries, (they like to raise them), she has tried many short cake recipes, but this one is her favorite.

Strawberry Shortcake
 1/4 cup shortening
 1 cup sugar
 1 cup buttermilk
 1 egg
 1 teaspoon soda
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 2 cups flour (sifted)

Beat egg well and add to creamed sugar and shortening. Add the baking powder to the flour and dissolve the soda in the buttermilk. Alternate the flour and buttermilk beginning and ending with the flour. Bake in a well greased and floured flat pan in a 350-F oven for about 30 minutes. When cool cut half into 2 parts and place sweetened and crushed strawberries between the halves. Top with peaks of whipped cream two tablespoons of the crushed strawberries.

Individual shortcakes may be made with this recipe by baking the cake mixture in muffin pans, slicing the muffins in half and following the same procedure as with the large shortcake.

Cultural HD Club Meets With Mrs. Hobson Friday

Cultural Home Demonstration met Friday afternoon with Mrs. E. W. Hobson. After games directed by the hostess roll call was answered by members naming ways of shortening house work.

Mrs. Wayne Johnson spoke on work simplification and each member gave her own methods of simplifying some task. The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. C. Childers on May 26.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames C. S. Barclay, Ed Adams, J. I. Richardson, R. N. Cooke, Fred Wolfington, Paul Corbett, Bill Hargett, R. C. Childers, D. R. Denson, W. Johnson, Stipe and the hostess.

Class Honors Mothers With 20 Luncheon

Bethany Class of the First Baptist Church honored mothers and members of the Dorcas Class with a Mother's Day luncheon held in the dining room of the church Friday. This has been an annual event for the past twenty years.

Tables were decorated with bouquets of iris with runners of ivy centering the tables.

Mrs. A. O. Thompson was in charge of the program giving a tribute to the honored mothers present. Mrs. E. A. Ferguson gave the response. Mrs. Henry Melton entertained with readings and guests were introduced by Mrs. Ed Cox. Mrs. W. B. Beach was honored as the oldest mother present.

Honor guests present were Mesdames E. A. Ferguson, Reba Howton, B. C. Roberson, J. E. Cockrell, Lora Long, Let Lambert, J. C. Allred, D. B. Roberson, Joe Oswald, G. M. Suggs, W. B. Beach, Ida Bennett, Alice Virden, Joe Stagner and H. G. Conkwright.

Members present were Mesdames: Wirt Phillips, H. M. Benson, Bess Gill, Edna Bowe, Si Orr, Vivian Major, Joe Evans, John Patton, John Draper, J. E. Young, Jeff Gilbreath, J. V. Pickens, Hale, J. T. Richardson, Henry Melton and Ed Cox.

Hostesses for the party were Mesdames A. O. Thompson, Jack Roberson, Ed Moseley, Allen Powelson, Bransford Harlin, G. P. Owen and R. L. Roots.

Success Story: He worked hard all his life, seeking security for his family and cash for his hobbies, but, just when he was about to get the cash, he died.

Frio HD Club Learns How To Make Corsages At Thursday Meeting

"How to make and wear corsages," was Mrs. E. H. Little's subject at the Frio H. D. Club meeting at her home on Thursday, May 11. Mrs. Little was demonstrator, that day, after preparing for the program by attending a special school, which was conducted recently by Mrs. Deward Roberson of Hereford. Mrs. Roberson is considered an expert on the subject by many.

She explained the tricks to tying the ribbons, and showed the proper way to wire the flowers for the corsage. "Ordinarily the corsages should be worn with the flowers upright as they grow," Mrs. Little said, "with the top of the corsage showing slightly over the shoulder."

The business meeting was conducted by the newly elected president, Mrs. Glenn Gripp. It was decided to have only one meeting in each of the months of July and August. The club has been invited by the Jumbo H. D. Club to a Food Freezing Demonstration at the home of Mrs. M. L. Simpson in the Jumbo Community to be held on Friday, May 19th.

Those who go from Frio will meet at two o'clock at the W. A. Springer home that day and go in a group.

A report of the Dress Review last Saturday was given by members who attended.

The next regular club meeting will be on May 25th in the home of Mrs. Gene Noel. Mrs. Draper will be there and give a demonstration on canning.

Those attending the meeting were Mesdames W. A. Springer, D. E. Chisholm, Glenn Gripp, Frank Robbins, Henry Dobbs, W. C. Lowery, Bill Dickson, Gene Noel, T. L. Sparkman, Sr., E. F. Vogler, H. D. Robbins, H. E. Lindley, Owen Andrews and the hostess, Mrs. Little.

Winkler Starts At Vega Sunday

Johnny Winkler has been named starting pitcher for the Hereford VFW baseballers in their third start of the season against Vega as the locals go on the road for the second straight week end Sunday.

Winkler, with a 15-0-0 win against Vega Park already in the books this season, will be after his second successful try against the 1949 league champs.

Vega has looked none too good, thus far: Jim Haliburton's nine showed more hustle than talent in their opener against Tulla.

Unbelievable 14-to-6 winners over a good Tulla outfit, Vega made seven errors, two by second baseman Voyles, and collected only four hits. Vega has a long way to go before becoming the first-class club of 1949.

Hart provided plenty of competition for Vega before fading, 7-to-9 last Sunday. Pitcher F. H. Krahn started for Vega but was chased by Hart bats after four innings and two runs. Jay Hammond was hit for five more runs and five hits in his 5-inning relief role.

Both pitchers, so far, for Vega have displayed a marked lack of control although Hammond might possibly have it today.

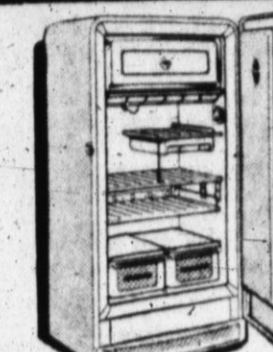

As for hitting, Vega had only two batters to get more than one hit against mediocre Hart pitching. Roark and Richardson sparked both at the plate and with the bat.

Probable mound-starter for Vega will be Jay Hammonds. With one win to his credit, Hammond held Tulla to six scattered hits and six runs while striking out 11. He had a perfect day batting, hitting safely twice in two times at bat.

Anderson expects little trouble with Vega Sunday if Winkler is right. Bill Howard, now acknowledged number one catcher, will round out the battery.

Flying Bug

A. J. Schroeter, Bill Dick, L. T. Hawks, Louis LeGrand and Dale Russell are some of the flier flyers.

Dr. Kester is Oldest The oldest flyer, Dr. Kester, is persuaded by his family to give up the game.

I think this deal will improve now on. If we only had one 100-foot hard-surfaced runway with no obstructions, we could have three Pioneer stops here every day. They have sent us their requirements and have said they would definitely put Hereford on their schedule if those provisions are met. The City and county could get together and make this possible if they could get it the right way. We could be the regular Pioneer Airlines' by the first of June if we had those provisions.

Kropff said the CAA will pay half the costs of a Terminal building, a fourth of the costs of the land purchase, half the cost of moving the high-lines and half the costs of building the runways. He says there is enough room to get a Pioneer C-3 in right now.

Although she doesn't fly, Mrs. Kropff is one of the more able aviators in this area.

Ex-Army Instructor

Across town at Hereford Airport, ex-army instructor, ex-crop taker, Jesse B. Woodford is co-owner. The other half of the partnership, W. F. Ponder, lives 2 miles west of Hereford.

"When I first came to Hereford, I was flying all I could. I used to go back and forth from Dimmitt to Hereford and instruct when I could. It seems to have died down a bit, now, though. We have never had a serious crack-up off this field and we have runways, a half-mile in length and three-quarters in width. "I would really like to see the county and city get together and make one good airport. There isn't enough business for two fields to operate and make any money. I think I have the best location because we have no obstructions.

We could have Pioneer stops in Hereford just like they do in Lawton. Flying interest has been only picked up there since that city and county got together and pushed the field.

"I think we have the interest and it would be a wonderful thing for Hereford."

Ducked Powerline

Wofford is one of the few crop-dusters who had to duck under a high-line and lived to tell about it. Dots of pilots, usually flying surplus Stearman have been killed trying it, he assured us. He says he saw enough deaths and crashes to know it was time to get out. But he still does it, occasionally.

The Hereford Airport was started in 1947. A wind blew the hanger away one year and the airport was out of operation for the whole 12 months.

Wofford says perhaps 100 to 150 students of Hereford have soloed.

He believes that charter flying can be made into a profitable business in Hereford. He recently made a round-trip to Fort Worth in four and a half hours. No stops were necessary either way.

He is also a sound believer in the possibilities of a regular airline stop-over. But, he says, the city and county have to be interested, too.

FRIONA NEWS

Baccalaureate Tonight; Commencement Thursday

By MRS. A. R. DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McFarland and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McFarland and small son are fishing at Hot Springs, N. M. this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Lillard of Phillips were in Friona over the week end visiting with his mother, Mrs. Carrie Lillard and his brothers, Franklin and C. L.

Mrs. Bert Shackelford and Mrs. F. N. Welch went to Midland over the week end.

Visiting friends in Clarendon over the week end were the Elbert Thomas family.

Dr. and Mrs. Faulkner are visiting in the home of the Gilus Cobb family this week. Mrs. Faulkner is Mrs. Cobb's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Williams from Lubbock were Sunday guests with Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilus Cobb. Mrs. Williams will be remembered here as Nancy Cobb, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilus Cobb.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Boye and children, Sharon and Brenda visited in the Wiley Foster home Sunday.

A kitchen shower honoring Miss June Moody, bride-elect of Jimmy Cruse, was given by Marjorie London and Ray Nell Foster in the home of Miss Foster this week. Those present included the honoree, Tila, Rue Day, Patsy Cobb, Marjorie London, Fern Hand, Vera Ann Jones, Helen Carr, Roe Williams, Ruby Shaffer, Bobby Joyce Tedford and Mary Nell Fulks.

Vera Ann Jones went to Austin last week end to a typing contest and returned with a first place gold cup. She had 96.6 per cent accuracy in 4531 words of which her score was 1552. She was entered against students from Classes A and AA. Mr. Kelley, Cecil Roberson and Mrs. Raymon Jones accompanied her. Edmund Schlaes failed to place in the slide rule contest.

Miss Genevieve Peay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Peay of Friona married Jerry Gordy Tuesday morning at Clovis. The young couple will be at home in Dalhart where Mr. Gordy is employed with a construction company.

Friona High School seniors celebrated Friday with "Kid Day" Everyone dressed as little girls and boys with the usual following.

The Friona senior class of 1949-50 will have baccalaureate services Sunday evening in the Methodist Church at 8 o'clock. Rev. James Tidwell will deliver the sermon. Mrs. Ray Miller will be at the piano for the Processional and Recessional.

Commencement exercises will be held at the Grade School auditorium Thursday night. Dr. E. N. Jones, assistant to the president at Texas Technological college will deliver the address. 29

Airport. His 4-place Bellanca is equipped to fly day or night. Wofford says. Wills has a private license.

Herbert Bippus has a Luscomb, Jesse Clark has a Fairchild, J. B. Campbell owns a 2-place Aeronica, Charles Frye has another 2-place Aeronica and G. B. Fraser has an Aeronica. Woodrow Ireland has an Ercoupe.

Curtis Traweck is also an able pilot who flies, occasionally, at Hereford Airport, although Wofford says his flights are infrequent now. A BT-13 belongs to Raymond Palmer.

The over-all picture seems to indicate that Hereford is truly an air-minded town. Possibilities for another travel service is good if the words of the two airport owners ring true.

Then, there is always the possibility of the recently proposed Hereford seaplane base at Buffalo Lake. Actually, there has been no serious consideration of establishment of such a base but it is included as a possibility along with 25 other Texas points the CAA listed recently as where airports should be built or improved.

Jaycee "Man of the Month" certificate Tuesday night for outstanding work in the club.

This week: Jaycees meet at noon Tuesday in Hotel Jim Hill. Toastmasters Club meets Tuesday night in the county courtroom. Lions Club meets Wednesday noon at Hotel Jim Hill. Kiwanis meets Thursday noon and Rotary meets Friday noon, also at Hotel Jim Hill. Scouters complete their training course Wednesday night at the Scout Hut, 7:45 sharp.

Due to overcrowded conditions in John Sealy Hospital at Galveston, little Sandra Wakefield hasn't undergone surgery yet. However, she is there and, according to Mrs. J. W. Terry, will be operated on soon—possibly next week.

In case anyone thinks they saw a flying saucer out in the west part of the county last week when the wind got up above a mild breeze, J. T. Guinn can explain. Seems the wind blew his stock tank away. He says he found where it went through the first fence but couldn't find a trace of it for about three miles over to Lewis Smith's place where it ended up. In between the two places the only way he can figure it that it was "flying."

Purris Williams, Jr., Hereford High School student competing in a 6-state band contest Saturday at Enid, Oklahoma, won First Place in trumpet solo and is playing First Chair, trumpet in the 208 piece student band entered there. 1,000 entrants from six states competed in the solo contest which was won by Purris.

Game Commission Plans Regulation In Panhandle

By BO BYERS

Austin, Tex., (AP)—Game Commission wardens are counting their chickens, as they hatch in the Panhandle—prairie chickens, that is.

They are also counting mama and papa prairie chickens, deer, turkey, quail, mourning dove and fish. And they are noting where this wildlife lives in 28 counties.

This inventory by 12 wardens and two biologists will be the basis of hunting and fishing regulations to be adopted by the commission in July for use in the Panhandle after Sept. 1.

The 51st Legislature decided at its special session to let the commission experiment in wildlife conservation.

The law is based on an emergency clause declaring that previous laws did not adequately protect wildlife in the 28 counties from depletion and waste.

Now the commission will have power to declare open or closed seasons as it deems necessary. The agency is required to provide open season whenever its investigations show there is danger of waste of any species of fresh water fish, game bird, game animal, or fur-bearing animal.

One of the first effects will be to shorten the deer and turkey season in the Panhandle.

"I think the deer and turkey season should not be near as long there as in other sections," said Howard Dodgen, executive secretary.

The law gives the commission power to declare open season on doe deer, subject to approval of the owner or person in charge of the area, but Dodgen doubted there would be any surplus of does for several years.

Dodgen likes the broad regulatory authority given the commission because he thinks his office can show landowners and sportsmen how to provide better hunting over the years through a scientific approach.

"You take prairie chicken up there," he said. "You don't know when you'll get a good crop. It's variable from year to year. But we can count them, keep track of them. When we know there's going to be plenty of them, then we can open the season."

Dodgen does not anticipate an open season on prairie chickens this year but says it's too early to know definitely.

He gets a laugh out of one section of the law.

"It authorizes us to issue elk hunting permits where there aren't any elk. Still, it's a good thing. We might have elk there some day. We have some down in the Davis mountains."

The commission is directed to revoke or modify its orders whenever necessary to prevent depletion of a species.

The agency is also instructed to take action to prevent waste, which is defined as "a supply of a species of sex sufficient that a seasonal harvest thereof will not prevent, or in the case overpopulation, that will aid in, the re-establishment of normal numbers of such species."

Court Appeal from orders of the decision is provided for by the law.

Counties covered by the law are: Dallam, Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hartley, Moore, Hutchinson, Roberts, Oldham, Hemphill, Potter, Carson, Gray, Wheeler, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Donley, Collingsworth, Parmer, Castro, Briscoe, Swisher, Hall, Childress, Cottle and Motley.

Formal Tea Compliments Mrs. William S. Dameron

One of the outstanding parties of the season, both for the size of the party itself and for the personality of the honoree, was the tea given by Mrs. W. S. Dameron Friday afternoon honoring her daughter-in-law, Mrs. William S. Dameron, a recent bride.

Rainbow colors were used throughout the house in floral decorations with tris and bridal wreath combined in bouquets and baskets. The tea table was done in pastel shades with the center piece resembling an oversize nosegay arranged with puffs of maline and satin ribbon mingled with roses, carnations, and sweet-william. Tall green tapers in pleated condelabra flanked the arrangement and tea accompaniments repeated the pastel rainbow colors. Presiding at the silver tea services were Mesdames Colby Conkright, John McLean, C. C. Ferguson and Miss Frances Dameron.

Others in the house party were Mesdames: C. H. Dyer, Wayne Evans, J. C. McCracken, Roy Smith, Ellis Coombes, J. R. Allison, Ray Conaway, R. G. Blue, J. A. Pitman, Earl Phillips, B. F. Cain, Jim Kirby, Robert Veigel, J. E. Boyer and Roy Ford.

Beta Sigma Phi Will Install New Chapter Officers

New officers were installed at the Wednesday meeting of the Texas Kappa Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi which was held in the home of Mrs. Eddie Johnson.

Officers include: Mrs. N. E. Moore, president; Mrs. Gene Prickett, vice-president; Mrs. Jimmy Sparkman, recording secretary; Mrs. Ernest Wade, corresponding secretary; and Miss Betty Goodin, treasurer.

Mrs. Gene Prickett was in charge of the program following the installation of officers and discussed the subject "The Art of Thinking." A round table discussion of the success and achievements of Beta Sigma Phi completed the program.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames George Jones, Eddie Johnson, Jimmy Sparkman, Kenneth Gooden, Ben Malone, Ernest Wade and N. E. Moore.

Founder's Day was observed by the local chapter recently and a program celebrating the 19th anniversary of the Beta Sigma Phi was presented.

Welcome to new pledges was given by Mrs. George Jones and Mrs. Eddie Johnson reviewed the history of the organization since its founding by Walter W. Ross in Abilene, Kansas. A message to the chapter from Mr. Ross was read by N. E. Moore.

The Founders Day Pledge, read by Mrs. Moore, was followed by toasts given by Mrs. Ernest Wade, Maryanna Whitaker and Betty Goodin.

After the group singing of "Beta Sigma Phi Love Story" a prize winning song, a buffet supper was enjoyed.

Elect Mrs. Cave Club President

Mrs. J. T. Gilbreath, Jr., was hostess for the meeting held by Calliopean Club members Thursday night.

Mrs. Wayne Evans gave the program reviewing the book "The Running of the Tide" by Esther Forbes. "This is the story of brotherly love, a character study of two brothers—their childhood and struggles in Salem, Massachusetts. The historical background provides a stimulating account of our country's past, but the problems of the brothers that have to do with the future are solved," Mrs. Evans said.

During the business session Mrs. Clyde Cave was elected president for the 1950-51 club year. Those who will serve with her are: Mrs. Carl Perrin, vice-president; Mrs. Alton Fraser, recording secretary; Mrs. D. C. McWhorter, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. W. L. Davis, Jr., treasurer.

Members of the social committee announced plans for the concluding session of the year which will be in the form of a dinner-party given in the home of Mrs. J. E. Kirby on May 25.

Those attending the meeting were Mesdames Richard Barnard, J. T. Carroll, Clyde Cave, Pete Cowart, W. L. Davis, Jr., Wayne Evans, Alton Fraser, J. E. Kirby, N. E. Milburn, Millard Nobles, Carl Perrin, Bill Waldrep and the hostess.

Jeareen Sowell-Charles Fry Engagement Told At Tea

The betrothal and approaching marriage of Miss Jeareen Sowell and Charles Fry was announced at an informal tea given by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Charles Sowell Sunday afternoon May 7.

The romance was revealed at the refreshment table where pastel sweet peas were arranged as a background bouquet for wide green satin ribbon-streamers lettered in gold, gave the wedding date - June 25. Large ribbon wedding rings held the ends of the streamers which bore the names "Jeareen and Charles" and extended to the corners of the table. Mrs. Julia Sowell, grandmother of the bride-elect, poured and Mrs. Francis Graham served the cake. Wynogene Sowell, sister of the prospective bride, presided at the guest book.

Miss Sowell is a graduate of Hereford High School and attended the University of Colorado at Boulder. She is employed at the Ford Motor Company.

Mr. Fry is also a graduate of Hereford High School and attended a School of Aeronautics in Tulsa and Colorado A & M College at Fort Collins.

Out-of-town guests attending the tea were Mrs. Greig Lee, Hedrick, Okla. and Miss Laverne McWhorter, Hedrick, Okla.

Others attending were Mesdames: Gene Noel, Francis Graham, J. B. Sowell, Jr., George L. LeGrand, Misses Guiletta Gunstenson, Leta Dene Springer, Anne Morgan, Allene Carroll, Betty June Goodin, Marie Denton, Barbara Burney, Wynogene Sowell, Norma Sue Sowell.

Two Will Attend State Meeting

Attending the 22nd Annual Meeting of Texas Garden Clubs, Inc., to be held in Tyler May 18 through the 20, will be Mrs. W. S. Fluit, president of Hereford Garden Club and Mrs. Edna Lee Collier.

Meeting headquarters will be Hotel Blackstone. The program will open with a tour of rose fields on Thursday, followed by informal dinner at Mayfair Hall. On Friday, following the executive meetings, a "Cotton" Style Show luncheon will be held prior to a tour of three private gardens and the state president's home.

A garden tea will follow and the formal Rose Dinner will be at the American Legion Ballroom.

National and special awards will be presented. Mr. H. Stewart Orloff will deliver a lecture. A general assembly and uncheon on Saturday will close the meeting.

On their return trip, Mrs. Fluit and Mrs. Collier will observe the therapy garden projects carried on by the Ft. Worth Lighthouse Garden Club.

West Hereford HD Club Is Host To Other Clubs

In observance of National Home Demonstration week, the North Hereford Home Demonstration Club entertained South and West Hereford Home Demonstration Clubs May 4 in the Community Room.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Fred Salzman, president, and Mrs. Paul Hoff. Program consisted of two movies, "Garden Insects," shown by Mr. Charles Crowell and "Palo Duro Canyon" and "Deaf Smith County," by Burl Ellison.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames: Steve Williams, Julia Sowell, Ray Hershey, Evelyn Bell, W. J. Hacker, Clarence Hollabough, D. H. Bryant, L. E. Gross, Leonard Davis, John Draper, Franklin Miller, Carroll Hagar, Lowery Walker, Bob McQuigg, E. P. Kistler, Glen Focht from Durham, Okla., Paul M. Hoff, Fred Salzman, E. F. Drury, Bill Helton, M. H. Koelzer, Frank Wilde, Otto Olson, H. E. Pettyjohn, Mary Bodkin, Bob Fullwood, Oscar Vaughn and Magg's Luck.

"SOUTH PACIFIC" FROCK—This fetching cotton polka dot frock in the new theatre length was inspired by one of Mary Martin's costumes in "South Pacific." The polka dot organdy has a deep pleated collar that may be used as a caplet or removed entirely for a formal effect.

Mother's Are In The Spotlight Today

Dawning as any other — MOTHER'S DAY does something special to most of us. We go to bed as usual the night before — but on the day itself we find ourselves transformed with memories as the spirit of the day pushes itself into every heart in the nation.

Flowers, gifts and messages travel across the distances to mothers all over the world, not because of tradition, but because of love. Mother's Day has become a heritage, rich in reward, for the meaning of the day does not disappear. Nationally it is only one day in our year — individually, it lingers week by week to form a pattern for 365 days of thoughtful living.

Mrs. Bruce Ezene and Deborah seem to be having a lot of fun. They are shown in the back yard at the home of Debby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George LeGrand. Debby, who is almost three, is big enough to swing by herself but refused to pose for the camera unless "swinging high" with her mother.

Music Study Club Luncheon Honors Famous Pianist

The Music Study Club honored Esther Johnson, world-famed pianist, at their closing-luncheon Monday held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Allison. Miss Johnson presented a concert in a capacity-crowded auditorium at Hereford High school Monday afternoon.

Decorations were in keeping with the season with purple and white iris and spirea used about the house and a mixture of old-fashioned spring blossoms in a colonial arrangement adorning the table from which the luncheon was served. Dainty corsages marked each guest's place at tables laid for four.

Following the luncheon a short business session was conducted by the club president, Mrs. W. T. Carmichael, and members of the club attended the concert held at 3 o'clock.

Besides the honor guest, Esther Johnson who is Mrs. Arthur Garlinghouse of Amarillo in private life, those attending included Mesdames: Bill Bradley, C. C. Acker, J. F. Beyer, B. F. Cain, W. T. Carmichael, H. A. Close, Ellis Coombes, W. E. Dameron, C. H. Dyer, Cliff Estes, C. C. Ferguson, H. K. Fox, Jeff Gilbreath, J. B. Jones, Bob Lawrence, J. C. McCracken, J. D. Neill, Earl Phillips, T. W. Roberson, A. J. Schroeter, Glenn Snyder, W. J. Stanford, A. C. Thompson, A. O. Thompson, Bill Stanford, Mary Carter, C. R. Smith, G. A. F. Parker, Misses Frances Dameron and Mattie Mae Swisher, Carl Johnson and the hostess.

Arrangements were made by the hospital committee of the club including Mesdames: Gilbreath, Roberson, Beyer, A. C. Thompson, Dameron and W. J. Stanford.

Farm And Ranch Club Plans Annual Picnic

Plans for the annual picnic, which will close activities for the season for Farm and Ranch Club were made at a meeting of the Club held Thursday in the home of Mrs. Jack Weaver. The annual outdoor affair will be held in Ellwood Park in Amarillo on May 21.

Officers for the coming year were elected during the business meeting. They include Mrs. Burrell Sowell, president; Mrs. Ed Thomas, vice-president; Mrs. Tom Cotton, secretary - treasurer; Mrs. Waldron Melton, historian; Mrs. Phillip Miller, reporter and Mrs. Woodrow Perrin, assistant reporter.

Tables for the luncheon carried out a purple and white theme with iris and bridal wreath. Mrs. Tom Cotton won the floating prize.

Members attending were Mesdames Burep Sowell, Herschel Burris, Frank Rickels, Tom Cotton, Woodrow Perrin, Waldron Melton, W. B. Nunley, Phillip Miller, Roy Pruitt and the hostess.

Young Mother's Installs Officers At Club Meeting

Installation of new officers marked the dinner-meeting held Monday night at Hotel Jim Hill by the Young Mother's Study Club.

Tables formed a semi-circle and red-rose corsages, which were later used in the installation service, formed a massed bouquet for the centerpiece. Red candles, which were also used as symbols for the candlelighting installation rites, flanked the flowers.

Mrs. Richard Barnard welcomed the guests and Eleanor Jo Aven entertained with piano selections. She also gave musical background as Mrs. Joe Reinauer retiring president, installed the new leaders. Gifts were presented to the retiring officers who lighted their candles from the flame of the tapers on the table. As each new officer repeated her pledge she lighted her candle from the retiring officer's candle signifying the continuance of endeavor already begun. Then the red-rose corsages were presented to the newly installed officers.

The officers include: Mrs. Paul Harvey, president; Mrs. Charles Hill, vice-president; Mrs. John Schneider, recording secretary; Mrs. Joe Reinauer, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Earl Stagner, treasurer; Mrs. Don Martin, historian; Mrs. Norman Gray, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Delbert Bainum, reporter. Members of the year-book committee are Mesdames Cecil Malone (chairman), John Schneider and Don Martin.

Those attending the dinner were Mesdames Leroy Aven, Delbert Bainum, Richard Barnard, Bartley Dowell, G. W. Edwards, Norman Gray, Paul Harvey, Chas Hill, Lee Kent, Cecil Malone, Don Martin, Joe Reinauer, John Robinson, Earl Stagner, John Winkler, Neill Young, John Schneider, W. L. Davis, Jr., and Chas. Dye.

New officers for the coming year were elected including: Betty Katherine Owen, president; Mettie Lee Roots, vice-president; Guiletta Gunstenson, recording secretary; Pat Loerwald, corresponding secretary; and Marie Denton, treasurer.

Betty Katherine Owen gave a report of the state Epsilon Sigma Alpha convention held recently in San Angelo and plans were announced for the next meeting which will be held on May 22 in the home of Pat Loerwald.

Ruth Pickens, bride-elect of Carroll Newsom, followed the traditional custom and passed a box of chocolates among the members to announce to them her approaching marriage. She was honored at the conclusion of the meeting with a lingerie shower.

Members attending the meeting were: Ellen Carter, Marie Denton, Wanda Ward, Troyce Hanna, Virginia Curtisger, Betty Katherine Owen, Guiletta Gunstenson, O'Nita Rudd, Ruth Pickens, Pat Loerwald, Anne Morgan, Adeline Koelzer, Frances Young and the hostess.

Garden Club Council Flower Show Winners Are Announced By Judges

Streamlined to correspond with the plush atmosphere of Hereford's new Hotel Jim Hill, the annual Spring Flower Show sponsored by the Deaf Smith County Council of Garden Clubs, sounded a high note of horticultural beauty Thursday with the theme "The Iris Rainbow" carried out in every relating detail.

Brimming with beauty and all the colors of the rainbow, the show demanded much praise. Across the room from the entrance was the rainbow shining above a tiered rock-garden wall where bloomed the different varieties of iris in the varying shades of rainbow. The theme was carried out in a succession of displays arranged against the four walls with special arrangements forming center attractions.

The show included four divisions: The Horticultural with 92 entries, Artistic with 89 entries, Junior with 29 and the Educational which included informational sheets, data on iris and their care and garden books.

Commercial entries were made by The Hereford Floral Shop, Earline's Flower Shop and Western Flower Shop.

Texans in Washington
By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The bill vesting ownership of tidelands in the states, drafted and pushed through the House Judiciary Committee by Rep. Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls, now falls in the lap of another Texan in its rough congressional course.

It primarily will be up to Rep. E. Lyle of Corpus Christi to see that it gets through the House Rules Committee, the group which says when measures already approved by other committees can have their turn on the House floor.

Although the Rules Committee doesn't have the power it once had—power by which it, in effect, could kill a measure—it still can cause prolonged delays as well as put limitations on debate on legislation which it sends to the floor. These limitations may or may not be to a bill's advantage.

Lyle is the only Texan on the Rules Committee. Noting that the administration is opposed to the tidelands measure and that it came out of the Judiciary Committee by a 16 to 10 vote, Lyle says it can expect to run into some sharp opposition in the Rules Committee.

In spite of the fact that Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.) and two or three other influential members of the Rules Committee probably will raise objections to the legislation, Lyle expresses confidence it will be reported out with a rule which will permit two or three days consideration on the House floor before a final vote is taken.

At least two or three weeks probably will elapse before it can get consideration in the House.

Meanwhile, all congressmen not on the Judiciary Committee will have had an opportunity to study further the controversy between some states and the federal government over ownership of the submerged coastal lands, some of which are rich with oil. The majority view of the judiciary committee was prepared by Gossett; a minority report also was prepared on the views of the 10 opposition members.

Around the Capitol

Former Congressman Hutton W. Summers of Dallas, a veteran of 34 years in the House, has been here visiting old friends. He got a big hand when he attended a Texas delegation luncheon in the Speaker's Dining Room as the guest of Rep. Frank Wilson, his successor in the House.

Many years ago "Judge" Summers, as the long-time legislator is known affectionately, saw workmen tearing away some stones from the original part of the U. S. Capitol in a remodeling job. They had been put in place about 150 years ago, after George Washington laid the cornerstone.

With a keen sense of this historical value, Summers obtained possession of the stones, which otherwise might have been thrown away. He had them stored in the attic of the old House Office Building. They remained there for years, but on this visit to Washington Summers had them crated and shipped to Dallas, for use in the New Southwestern Legal Center in Dallas. Summers is director of the division of research in law and government at the center on the campus of Southern Methodist University.

The National Capitol Texas A&M Club is one of the most active college alumni organizations in the capitol.

The ex-aggies' last annual San Jacinto Day Muster, held at Fort McNair (Old War College on the banks of Washington Shipping Channel and Anacostia River), drew considerable attention.

Earl E. McChesney, class of '43, is president of the club. The World War Two Purple Heart veteran, a legal resident of Coler Station is secretary to Rep. Olin E. (Tiger) Teague (D-Tex), of the A&M class of '32. Lieut. Col. Joe C. McHaney, '35, San Antonio, assigned to Marine Corps Headquarters, and Lieut. Col. Joseph H. Batjer, '37, Houston, assigned to Air Force headquarters, serve jointly as secretary-treasurer.

The American Red Cross sent Rep. Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater a report showing it spent $115,930 in helping residents of the 12 East Texas counties which were struck by tornadoes on Feb. 11 and 12.

A breakdown showed $76,915 went for building and repairs, and the balance for food and clothing, livestock and farm equipment and other occupational supplies.

Eight persons were killed, 29 suffered major injuries and 51 minor injuries.

Texas Avenue in the District of Columbia isn't of sufficient length nor importance to bear such a designation, says Rep. Teague.

He has taken the matter up with the district government, which has prepared a list of thoroughfares in the city which might be renamed for Texas.

The present Texas Avenue is only a few blocks long, in a residential part of the city. Those suggested for the name include Calvert Street, with its unarched bridge over Rock Creek, passing in front of the well-known Shoreham Hotel. Two others are Reno Road and Broad Branch Road, both of which lead into Rock Creek Park.

Texas members of Congress have pondered among themselves the question of sovereignty raised by Mexico's seizure of five Texas shrimp vessels.

The first reports reaching here indicated the fishing craft were barely outside the 3-mile limit. If protests to the Mexican government are vigorous, assuming the boats were operating only three miles or so from shore, what effect might the issue have on the tidelands fight?

Texas claims jurisdiction for three leagues, or roughly 10 1/2 miles, in regard to tidelands ownership.

Jolly Twelve Club Organizes Friday

The Jolly Twelve Club organized at Mrs. John Draper's home Friday evening.

It was voted to meet every two weeks and pay 25-cent-a-month dues.

Members present were Mesdames Brunley, Bradley, Calloway, Hacker and Miller.

Next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Boyd on May 18.

Eleven girls were present: Patsy Ford, Dorothy Faye Lamb, Mary Kathryn Lamb, Lawa Jane Lamb, Daleine Tinnin, Betty Woolsey, Marlene Legg, Carolyn Kester, Eddie LaNelle Morrison, Norma Jean McMillan and Mrs. Dale Tinnin.

They Are Looking For Bugs In South Texas

McAllen, Texas (AP)—Hotels and tourist courts in the Lower Rio Grande Valley are getting close inspections these days from insect hunters—and they aren't looking for bedbugs.

The search is on for Mexican black fly, an insect which does devastating damage to citrus.

Reason for inspections at tourist centers is that experts fear the fly will be brought in by tourists returning from Mexico, where infestation is reported very heavy in places.

P. A. Holdale of Harlingen is inspector in charge of citrus black fly work in Texas. He points out that one of the main ways the black fly infestation is spread is by being carried on plants or in automobiles. The black fly inspectors search through trees at the tourist centers.

Control agencies have spraying equipment standing by that can be sent on short notice to any part of the Valley where black

Did you ever see a mad Democrat? Well, he's nothing compared to a mad Republican — and I think all 457 of them called up to say that they got a raw deal in the Thursday Brand. I reviewed the election results and pointed out that the total Deaf Smith vote in the general election last November was 24 percent Republican, whereas the special election last Saturday was 35 percent Republican in this county. Somehow or other, it was printed

"25" percent instead of 35 percent. Actually the percentage was 34.16 Republican and 65.84 Democratic in Deaf Smith County in the special election. However, Dewey did get 535 votes in this county in the November election, whereas Gull polled 457. Chief difference lies in the fact that 2,089 persons voted in the November election while only 1,338 voted in the election last Saturday.

Furthermore, most of these Republican sympathizers are rabid in declaring that Gull will be re-elected in November. This I cannot see, but I have been wrong more times than I like to think about. Furthermore, I think Ben Gull is a good boy and, if re-elected, I think he will be a very good Congressman. Everyone should pitch right in and help him every way possible from now until he is succeeded, whether on January 1, or some later term. Final returns gave Gull top spot in four counties; Deaf Smith, Randall, Parmer and Donley; he lead in Donley by one vote. Tallma Smith showed 198 and Gull got 199. Deaf Smith was fifth highest in the Parhandle in the number of votes cast for Gull and at the same time was fourth highest in the number cast for Altavene Clark. Another interesting thing about Deaf Smith is the fact that it was one of the few counties which slighted non candidate. Not one single candidate got a zero mark.

Enough about politics. I believe this county has more fishermen and hunters and more golfers and more coffee drinkers per square foot than any other like area in the Southwest. Is this good, or is it bad?

Just heard that Little Joe Bishop is one of a select group of students who are touring the atomic bomb plant at Las Alamos. They will also watch the shooting of some rockets at White Sands, N. M.

Meanwhile, Deaf Smith County is once again getting a preliminary oil play. Nothing, of course, is official, but skid-walk chatter says that the majors are in here leasing—and leasing big. One generally reliable source says that more than 80,000 acres have been leased in Deaf Smith and Oldham Counties during the past few weeks. Castro is pretty well under lease, already. The oil men pay $1 per acre bonus and take a 10-year lease at 50 cents per acre per year with option of dropping; this gives the oil man a seven-eighths lease and leaves the owner one-eighth royalty. Most of the activity seems to lie west of town at present time.

TEXAS ONIONS IN CAPITAL—Rep. Lloyd Bentsen of McAllen and two employees of his office (on top of onions) pose with a truck load of South Texas onions parked in front of the U. S. capitol in Washington. The girls are Hermila Ansaldua (left) of McAllen and Lolita de los Rios of El Paso. Onion growers sell the onions to Washington for members of the Texas congressional delegation and others. (AP Photo)

Maybe this is something, maybe not. Anyway, it is safe to estimate that $80,000 in bonus has been paid into this area (Deaf Smith and Oldham) in 1950. Most of these leases seem to be talking about the Canyon Reef, which is structure that boomed Snyder into big-time oil play. Also understand they got a Canyon Reef producer near Leveland a few days ago. Seems that Canyon Reef structures produce generally around 8,000 feet. May be these people have something on the ball, maybe they are gambling. Who knows? However, we do know that there is probably more activity in this area right now than ever before.

All of which brings up the question: Do you want to live in an oil town? Lots of lots of people would sell out and move. That's what many have done, in the Snyder area. Marshall Fernby told me that more than 8,000 people are living in trailer houses around Snyder. Striking oil is fine for the land owner and fellow with the leases, but it might not be worth too much to the employee and general population. Guess there are other things more worthy of worrying about, however.

Hereford lost a pioneer settler this week when J. H. (Big Dad) Pitman died at his home Thursday around noon. I believe that Big Dad was the most "unforgettable character" I ever knew. This is due, probably, to the fact that he actually enjoyed life more than person I ever knew. Despite his 81 years of age, Big Dad was active, well informed and through all of the time he never once lost his unusual sense of humor. Through the dozen years I knew him, Big Dad never tried to be anything but himself. He had more fun, knew more people intimately and lived more thoroughly than any other ten people in town. He was a fine old gentleman and I was glad to hear that he passed on quietly, sitting in his favorite chair in the living room; he just went to sleep, his newspaper dangling from his left hand. That's how Big Dad lived and I know that

Joan Riffey YWA Honors Mothers

Joan Riffey Young Woman's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church honored their mothers with a Mother-Daughter Banquet on May 8. Decorations consisted of a bouquet of flowers on each table with candles surrounded by greenery. The Y.W.A. emblem was the center piece on the speaker's table. The W. M. U. of the church prepared the food and the G.A.'s served it. The W. M. U. also made a corsage for each mother with a matching wristlet for each girl. Toastmistress of the evening was Mrs. F. L. Graham, Y. W. A. Counselor. The invocation was given by Mrs. E. W. Young, W. M. U. president. Following a musical interlude by Donna Jean Stagner, Nora Jo McLallen, Y.W.A. president, gave a wel-

SHERIFF, TAX ASSESSOR AND COLLECTOR

Of American Mother Traditional Traits

By WILL G. HARRIS
Goathead Frairie

Why some call the war between the states the Civil War, I never could comprehend. It was a struggle of horror and bloodshed, of starvation of innocent women and children. General Sherman, one of the participants, was right when he said "War is Hell." The border-line state of Missouri suffered devastation almost unparalleled in the history of warfare. Two opposing armies fought in a death struggle, and left naked chimneys as monuments to once beautiful home.

I should like to tell of a Dear Old Lady who was caught between the fires of these opposing armies, of her covenant with her God. Her husband had died previously, her only son was in the army and she was there in that maelstrom with a housefull of girls. Her slaves fled in panic, her fence rails were burned, and her fields lay in ruins. The fighting grew so intense that an officer in high command issued an order for all the women and children to evacuate. It was called Number Eleven, I think. In the early twilight, one morning, this Dear Old Lady knelt to pray:

"Almighty God, who knowest every sparrow that falls, keep my dear brood from starving. I make a solemn covenant with Thee, I'll bring each up to walk Thy ways and help bring Thy Kingdom into the hearts of all with whom I associate. I know I have not served you as I should, I have had to fight fire, with fire, treachery with treachery, to preserve the lives entrusted to me. Hasten the day when wars will be no more, and love, not hate, will reign in the hearts of men. AMEN."

"Edith," she called, "come, dear, we are going to try to go to Texas."

"I am so glad mother," Edith said. "The oxen were too poor for the army to butcher so, with just a little help from one of the other girls, I can walk and drive them. The soldiers trampled the half side of meat into the dirt when you told them the starch you had put on it was strychnine, but I washed it good. There is the 10 pounds of meal we hid under the spring house. I know we will make the trip. Mother, we must."

What an exhaustive trip it was. A trip that required almost as long a time as it took Columbus to cross the Atlantic. Soon, the side of meat was gone and the main article of food was potato peelings which the army had left. These, this Dear Old Lady carefully washed and fed to her children so that the two girls had strength to walk beside the wagon. They were able to travel only a few miles each day. They forded swollen streams, and crossed the hostile, parched Indian Territory, later to become the state of Oklahoma. One of the oxen died enroute but they hitched the other with an old mule the army had discarded and, still undaunted, they struggled onward. It was a grand day when the ferry boat set them down on the South Bank of the Red River.

They were in Texas. Because there was a college in Bonham, this Dear Old Lady decided to make their home there. This college, Carlton College, named for its founder and great teacher, Uncle Charlie Carlton, was the first Christian College in Texas. Two brothers, Addison and Randolph Clark, were students of that school. They later established Adran College, forerunner of Texas Christian University—TCU.

This pioneer mother wanted her daughter to have culture along with a Christian education. Always thrifty, she provided the money by "dress making, trimming. Later, hesitant but hopeful young men came to ask this Dear Old Lady for the hands of her daughters in marriage. They were worthy young men. The eldest married a man who helped write the constitution of Texas.

Another became the wife of a merchant. The third married a banker who became wealthy and another married a farmer and rancher—the best man I ever knew.

No doubt, you have been reading between the lines. Yes, this Dear Old Lady was my grandmother, Elizabeth Turner Pickel. Like Timothy, of New Testament memory, who was taught by his grandmother, Lois, and his mother, Unice, I, too, heard the story of Calvary and the Cross from the lips of my Grandmother Elizabeth and my mother, Edith. Edith was a classmate of Addison and Randolph Clark. Later, I had the privilege of sitting at the feet of one of the younger Clark brothers, Thomas Marshall Clark, and learning some of life's greatest truths.

This Dear, Dear Old Lady and her children have gone the way of all flesh but her children's children rise up to call her blessed. I do not know a prodigal among all her descendants. I, perhaps, am the one who has done the least, but I am sure I inherited her pioneering spirit for I am the one who pioneered to the Texas Panhandle.

One of her great-grandsons is a minister of great ability. Another, though a very young man, is a pillar of his church. One of the grandsons is a chairman of the board of elders in a large church in one of our great cities.

Some of the descendants made names for themselves at TCU, especially in the early days of that institution. Several have been successful in the business and financial world but I do not think any will have to pass "through a needle's eye" to enter the Kingdom.

This story of a Dear, Dear Old Lady, who prayed that her children might not starve, has always been very dear to my heart. For a long time I have wanted to tell it even though the attempt might be feeble so that others, and especially her descendants, might know something of her turbulent but useful and beautiful life.

THE MOTHER'S DAY STORY

"May 14, 1950—Mother's Day . . . Presidential Proclamation"
. . . You'll see this notation on most any calendar you may care to consult. But . . . Let's forget the carnations and special five-pound Mother's Day-boxes for a moment . . . and let's remember Mother.

Do you recall the long years of your childhood and youth? She does. Are you remembering who spent some mighty anxious times over your growing up . . . your fulfillment as an adult? She is. More than just the "one who always healed life's little hurts and heartaches and solved your problems" . . . Mother had a fierce and intense concern in your being able to cope with the complex business of living. And she always will!

And so, as we remember Mother with our gifts on this, Her Day . . . Let's make pretty certain we reflect a little bit on what they really represent . . . and remember Mother.

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago
On a Sunday afternoon in May of 1905, Arthur Dendy and Willie Anderson had just finished dinner. They were working for J. B. Roberson who was building a fence for the XIT people and planned to take the afternoon off to do a little swimming in White Dam Tank, about 15 miles northwest of Boom. Roberson had gone back to Hereford to spend Sunday and had left Dendy and Anderson and Clyde Roberson out on the job. White Dam Tank was about 80 yards wide and 100 yards long. Depth ranged from eight to 12 feet. Arthur couldn't swim quite as well as Willie. After swimming around for a while in the deep water, both of the boys decided to swim the width together. Willie reached the shore first. He looked around and saw that Arthur had become exhausted and confused. Rushing back to Arthur, Willie grasped the drowning boy's hand but it slipped away. The only words Arthur said before he sank the third time were "Help Willie." An hour later the body was found by fifteen men from a Sunday School class who pushed a wagon with a high frame out into the water. Two hooks were made from pieces of sucker-rod and used for drags.

Lee Bivins, Amarillo, bought 615 steers from several men, some from Hereford.

The concrete foundation for the engine to the new electric light plant was finished. The dynamo was in its foundation and was soon to be covered with a dust-proof house. Owners Tucker and Jacobsen were looking for a load of brick to come in. Over 3,000 feet of cable were to be put in.

S. J. Dodson was back in his office in the Graves and Elliston building after being in the East for several weeks on account of his father's illness. Harvey Cash was county clerk of Castro County. A head-on collision at Umbarger resulted in the death of 40 head of cattle and considerable damage to both trains. An eastbound was to pass a westbound freight at that point but the train going west had not reached the switch when the east-bound arrived. An engine and four cars of stock were knocked off the track and a couple of rails and 25 ties were destroyed.

G. H. Womble married Deliah Cassles in the home of W. B. Beach J. M. Gilliland and Miss Willie Dyer acted as bridesmaid and bridegroom.

Millicent Griffith decided to open an "Arithmetic School" in the public school building. In the school, she proposed to instruct in fractions and percentage and would guarantee that any pupil would understand these subjects at the close of the term if they attended every session. She offered 20 lessons for a dollar, beginning each day at 8:30 and closing promptly at 9:45.

C. C. Ferguson happened to a very serious accident when a horse, which didn't like to be worked, kicked loose from the wagon, kicking once too often and catching Ferguson's leg just below the knee. So serious was the injury, that Ferguson was unable to walk for some time until the muscles healed.

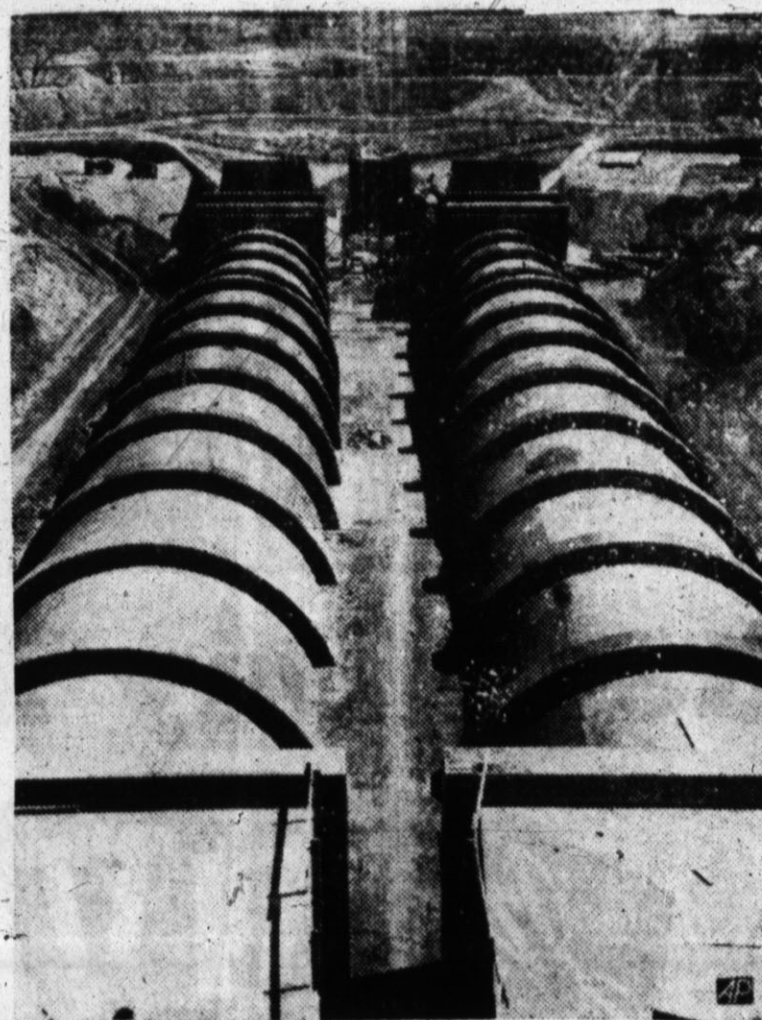

The Henrietta ball team passed through Hereford on their way home after being defeated, two out of three, in Roswell.

Woodmen of Hereford unveiled a monument of Sovereign Coston in Hereford before a large crowd which stood in the hot weather to watch.

Prospects for a baseball team in Hereford were good. W. J. Walters had charge of the proceedings.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
One-year-old Deborah Jesko was treated to a birthday party honoring her first birthday Friday in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Ed Jesko. Hostess was Deborah's mother, Mrs. Jimmie Jesko.

Attending were Charlotte Hamilton, Beverley Robinson, Jean Sparks, Dean Riddle, Cynthia Leasure and Rosemary Ker-shen.

We live in a GREAT COUNTRY

We live in a great country and one of the things which has helped tremendously in making it so is insurance. Why? Well, for one thing, the average American is unique in this world because he buys a lot of insurance of all kinds — life insurance, accident insurance, liability insurance, property insurance. That means that he doesn't have to carry his own risk by saving and hoarding his money. He just insures and spends the difference, thereby setting up a tremendous purchasing power. That is just one of the many reasons why we are proud that we are Americans and insurance agents.

OUR ADVICE COSTS YOU NOTHING

JOHN McLEAN Agency

mother

MOTHER . . . mother
grandest word in all the earth!

Mother . . . she dreams,
plans, prays for you.

Mother is always there when you need comfort and understanding, when you're hungry, when a broken heart needs mending.

Mother's power reaches into the past, cradles the future, raises the curtain of darkness bringing sunshine into the home . . .

MOTHER'S DAY, How can we crowd into one day or into a few words all that Mother means to us?

When the glitter of transient things has faded, when the small things of earth pass on . . .
there stands Mother smiling, patient, beautiful with the rare perfume of her personality enabling the world, bringing cheer and

Several From District Attend Meeting At Tulla

Several persons from Castro County attended the Fifth Annual Texas Soil Conservation Awards program held on Wednesday, May 10th, at Tulla. This program culminated the fifth of such programs sponsored each year by the Fort Worth Press and associated newspapers in a continuing educational project to give the state's most valuable asset. The statewide awards program was presented last week in Fort Worth with the only statewide winner from this region being J. B. Linn, the Farm Editor of KQNC, Amarillo. Mr. Linn, or Uncle Jay as he is known to all of us, was presented in Ft. Worth with a bronze plaque in recognition for the most conspicuous service to soil conservation by a radio station in the State of Texas.

Worth Press, presented the various awards. The program was concluded with another field tour of observing soil conservation practices. Those attending from Castro County were Barber Eubanks, R. A. Axtell, Willis A. Hawkins, Sr., Bruce Fields, all supervisors of the Running Water Soil Conservation District, T. A. Singer, Jay Boston, Chamber of Commerce Manager John McFarland, County Agent Raymond King, and Soil Conservationist Lewis Ellison.

Pioneer Study Completes Year

Pioneer Study Club held its annual spring luncheon closing activities for the year at the home of the president, Mrs. Mary Seigler, Tuesday at 1 o'clock. Spring flowers were used throughout the house with irises in various colors predominating.

After the luncheon a program on "Federation" was presented and convention reports were heard. Mrs. F. M. Kester discussed "Outstanding Personalities in Federation Work" naming Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck, Washington, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. J. Stuart Williams, Kinzston, Pa. dear of presidents; and the queen of the General Federation, Mrs. Sally Baker from Kentucky who is now making a tour of Europe in the interest of the federation. She also told of three Texas women who serve on the General Federation board; Miss Ethel Foster, Sterling; general chairman; Mrs. J. Howard Hodge of Midland, TFWC president; and Mrs. Florence Johnson Scott of Rio Grand City.

Mrs. Frank Terrell gave the delegate's report from the Seventh District, TFWC convention held recently in Memphis, mentioning the convention highlight, an address on "Our Great Heritage" given by the TFWC president, Mrs. J. Howard Hodge of Midland.

Mrs. Ray Johnson reported on "Girls Town" and Amelia Anthony who established the center at Whiteface. During the business session which followed the program, members voted to contribute to Girls Town.

Members of the club attending were Mesdames Fred Barret, A. G. Bell, J. E. Beyer, Bonnie Brumley, Jay Boston, H. A. Closs, O. M. Dickey, Noah Ewton, Burl France, N. E. Gass, J. B. Jones, E. O. Jordan, F. M. Kester, Ray Johnson, Tandy Legg, A. L. Manjeot, H. E. Miller, John Patton, Wirt Phillips, B. E. Roberson, F. L. Terrell, Al Werner, C. B. Williams and the hostess.

Sgt. Ira A. Burrows, WAC and WAF Recruiter, stationed at the Big Spring Recruiting Main Station, will be in the Amarillo Recruiting Main Station this week to interview applicants who are interested in enlisting as WACs or WAFs.

Sleeper

In Show Business a sleeper is an excellent picture without NAME Stars or with a title that draws. It comes and goes before you realize that you should have seen it.
"ALL THE KING'S MEN" was a sleeper... It made a clean sweep of the 1950 Academy Awards... Although the movie producers do not admit it, the picture is a thinly disguised story of the life of Huey Long... The Kingfish" picture of the year.

SCORCHY SMITH

SCORCHY AND BETTY FORBES ARE UP IN THE AIR ON "OPERATION SAUCER". AN UNCONFIRMED SHORT-WAVE RADIO FLASH REPORTS FLYING DISKS APPROACHING THE SAME AREA AS THEIR SOUPED-UP DC3...

LATCH ON TO THAT MEGACYCLE, BETTY... MAYBE THE O.N.I.* BOYS WILL DISH UP MORE DATA!

*OFFICE OF NAVAL INTELLIGENCE

TIME 2-2-04-6! CONTINUING WEATHER REPORT! TIMOR AND SUNDA STRAIT - STRATO NIMBUS VERY HIGH, VERY HIGH...

40,000 FEET ALTITUDE - FLYING SOUTH SOUTH EAST!

WOW! 40,000! WE'LL BE UNDER DOG BY 12,000! PUT ON YOUR MASK, BETTY, AND LET'S GET UP TO THE ATTIC!!

AT THEIR SPEED THEY'LL BE PAST US BEFORE THEY GET HERE!

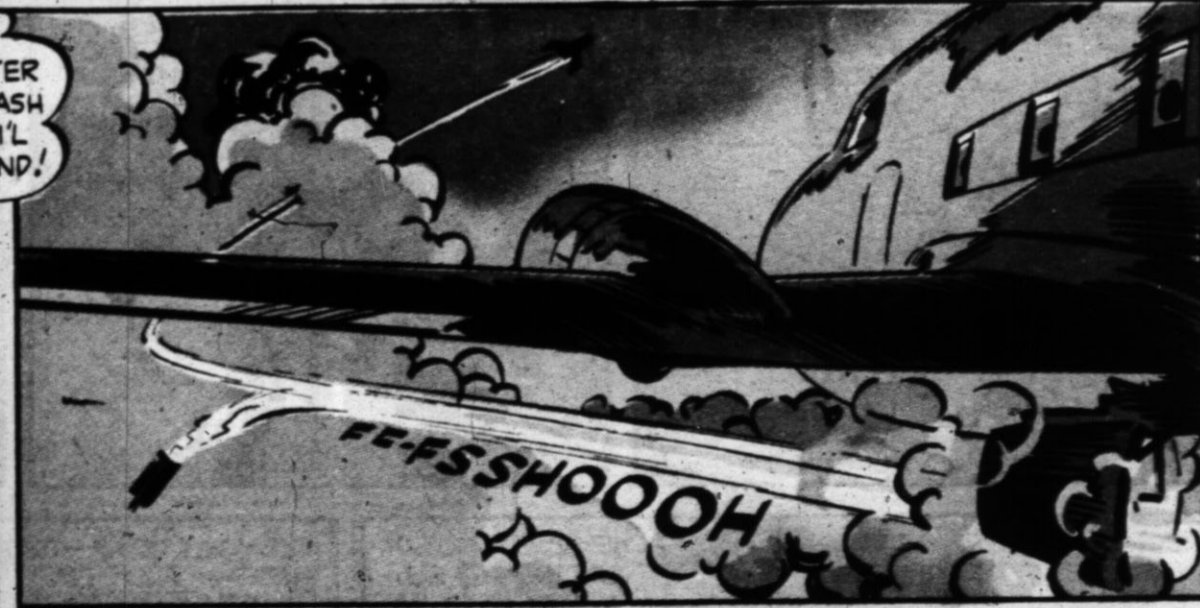

ANYTHING ON THE RADAR, SCORCHY?

NG-NGH! TROUBLE IS, THOSE DISKS HAVE A REP FOR ACCELERATING WITH NO APPARENT REASON!

ACCELERATING? THE ONES WE'RE CHASING WERE CLOCKED AT 650 M.P.H. ALREADY!

I THINK WE'D BETTER CUT THE LEASH ON OUR LI'L BLOODHOUND!

FF-FSSHOOOH

BY THE CHART, WE OUGHT TO BE RIGHT UNDER 'EM, BETTY! ... IF THERE ARE SUCH THINGS!!

DAN IS TELLING DICKIE HOW A PEPPERY VIKING "ERIK THE RED" WAS BANISHED FROM ICELAND, AND SAILED WEST IN THE YEAR A.D. 985

FATHER -- I SEE LAND!

"RUMOR WAS RIGHT, LIEF. THERE IS A COUNTRY TO THE WEST--"

ROCK AND ICE! CAN MEN AND CATTLE EAT THEM?

BUT LOOK AT THE FJORD, FATHER -- I SEE A PATCH OF GREEN --

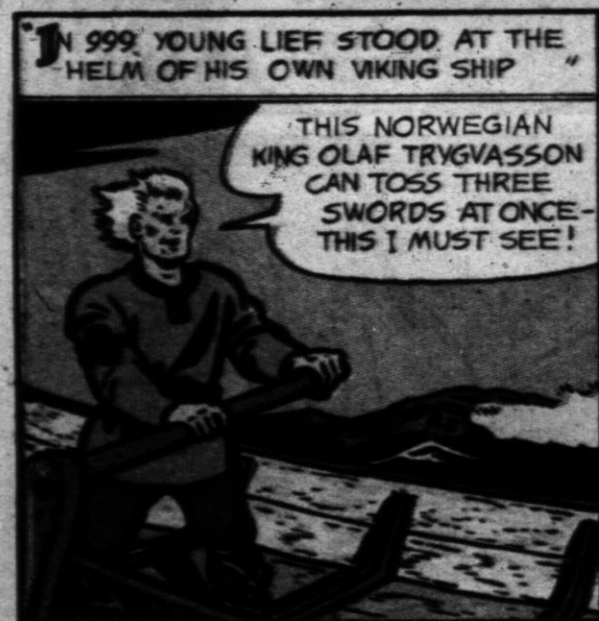

BY ODIN'S EYE, YOU'RE RIGHT -- I SHALL NAME THIS "GREENLAND" -- THAT GRASS WILL SUPPORT OUR CATTLE --

AND MAYBE THE CLIMATE WILL COOL ME OFF DURING THE THREE YEARS OF MY BANISHMENT!

ERIK WENT BACK TO ICELAND, BUT ONLY TO GET A CONGENIAL BUNCH OF VIKINGS AND RETURN TO GREENLAND

I WANT TO HEAR ABOUT THAT KID, HIS SON, LIEF ERIKSSON!

"IN 999, YOUNG LIEF STOOD AT THE HELM OF HIS OWN VIKING SHIP"

THIS NORWEGIAN KING OLAF TRYGVASSON CAN TOSS THREE SWORDS AT ONCE -- THIS I MUST SEE!

"LIEF WAS WELL RECEIVED IN NORWAY"

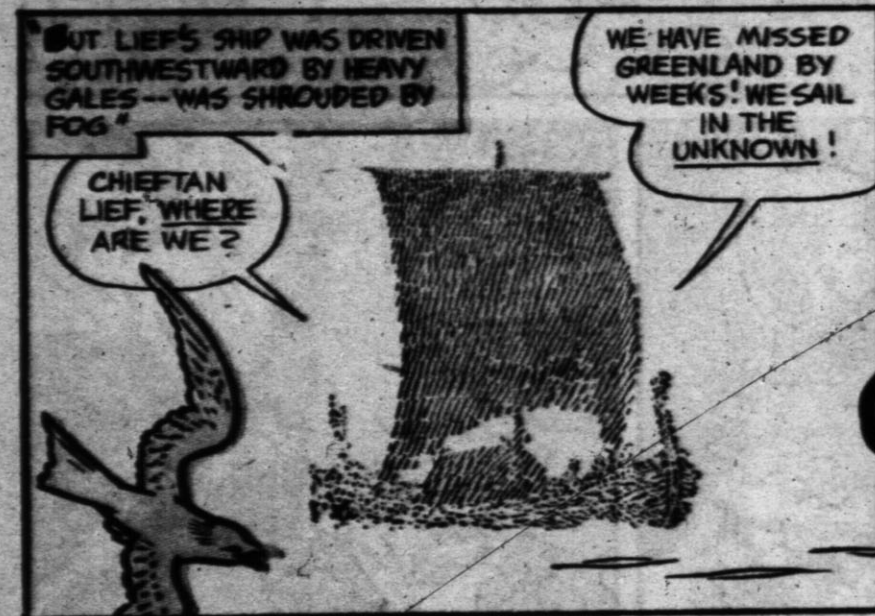

WELCOME, MY YOUNG GREENLAND POLAR BEAR! I HAVE A GREAT MISSION FOR YOU

"THE KING HAD BECOME CHRISTIAN. LIEF WAS BAPTISED, TOLD TO CARRY THE NEW RELIGION TO GREENLAND"

LIEF IS HEADING FOR HIS HOME HERE.

LIEF BOLDLY PLANNED TO SAIL DIRECT TO GREENLAND -- ALL OTHER VIKINGS HAD STOPPED AT ICELAND"

"BUT LIEF'S SHIP WAS DRIVEN SOUTHWESTWARD BY HEAVY GALES -- WAS SHROUDED BY FOG"

CHIEFTAN LIEF, WHERE ARE WE?

WE HAVE MISSED GREENLAND BY WEEKS! WE SAIL IN THE UNKNOWN!

CLEARING NOW -- THAT HAZE -- LAND! I'M YOUNG -- I'VE FOUND THE YOUNGEST COUNTRY IN THE WHOLE WORLD

WAS THIS AMERICA? --- TO BE CONTINUED ---

Summary: KING AGUAR LOOKS AT THE THREE MEN WHO ARE BROUGHT BEFORE HIM. FROM THEM HE WILL LEARN ABOUT CHRISTIANITY--THE FAITH OF HIS SON PRINCE VALIANT, OF KING ARTHUR AND ALL HIS KNIGHTS.

THESE MEN DARE TO PREACH TO HIS TURBULENT PEOPLE, TO SUFFER HARDSHIP, CRUELTY AND EVEN DEATH WITHOUT FLINCHING FOR THE SAKE OF THEIR MISSION.

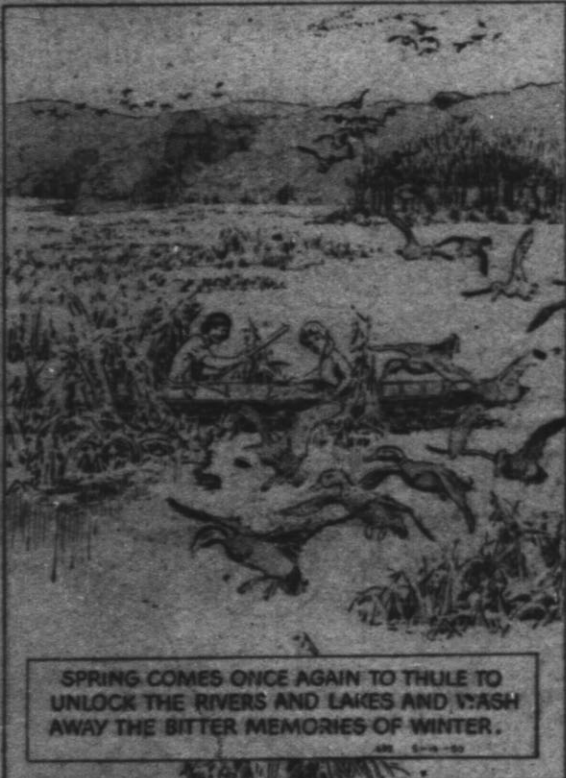

THE KING WISHES TO BRING KING ARTHUR'S CREED TO THULE, THAT RIGHT MAY COME BEFORE MIGHT, THAT JUSTICE BE FOR ALL AND THE RIGHTS OF THE WEAK RESPECTED. PERHAPS CHRISTIANITY IS THE ANSWER!

SO HE ASKS THE THREE PILGRIMS TO INSTRUCT HIM. AND GREAT IS HIS DISAPPOINTMENT WHEN HE DISCOVERS THAT THESE, LIKE SO MANY OF THE EARLY, MILITANT EVANGELISTS, ARE SINCERE AND HONEST BUT SO POORLY INFORMED THAT THEY EVEN DISPUTE BITTERLY AMONG THEMSELVES!

THEN THEY GO THEIR SEPARATE WAYS AMONG THE SAVAGE PAGANS, EACH TO PREACH THE WORD AS BEST HE MAY.

SPRING COMES ONCE AGAIN TO THULE TO UNLOCK THE RIVERS AND LAKES AND WASH AWAY THE BITTER MEMORIES OF WINTER.

AND THE KING IS SAYING TO PRINCE VALIANT: "PERHAPS THE TEACHINGS OF THE GENTLE CHRIST CAN CALM THE FIERCE SPIRIT OF MY PEOPLE AND TURN THEM FROM VIOLENCE AND PIRACY. SO I AM SENDING YOU FAR TO THE SOUTH TO ASK THE HEAD OF YOUR FAITH TO SEND LEARNED AND COMPETENT TEACHERS TO US."

NEXT WEEK - Parting.

JUST TRY TO GET OUT OF THAT, KING! HE'LL BE DEAD BEFORE HE REALIZES WHAT'S HAPPENED!

COUGH! COUGH!

ALTHOUGH KING IS CAREFULLY WATCHING EDDY CURRENT, THE ATTACK COMES FROM AN UNEXPECTED SOURCE... A POISON-GAS GENERATOR IN THE CRASH HELMET STRAPPED TO HIS OWN HEAD!

NOW TO MAKE A QUICK CHANGE, AND I'LL BE READY TO ROB THE BANK AT SHALLOW LANDING!

WHAT A PERFECT ALIBI! I'LL COME BACK AND TAKE A LIGHT WHIFF OF THE GAS... I'VE TIMED IT SO THE MAIL MESSENGER WILL FIND US... EVERYONE WILL THINK THE BANDIT ATTACKED US AND USED MY BOAT FOR THE ROBBERY! KING CAN'T DENY IT... HE'S DEAD!

I'M TOO LATE... THE SPEEDBOAT IS LEAVING THE CAUSEWAY! ANOTHER MURDER!

I SHOULD HAVE TOLD KING WHAT I SUSPECTED!

NOW IT'S TOO LATE!

AND THE RACUDA, WITH ITS MOTORS CUT OFF, GLIDES SILENTLY TO THE SHALLOW LANDING ANCHORAGE, AND THE RUTHLESS OWNER DROPS INTO THE BLACK, ICY WATER!

IN LETHE, WHERE LORO HAS CAUSED A NATION TO LOSE ITS MEMORY...

INSTINCT MAKES THEM EAT. THEY'VE FORGOTTEN ALL ELSE. NOTICE HOW THEY GULP THE WATER THAT CONTAINS MY SECRET POWDER--

THAT'S BECAUSE I KEEP EVERYONE THIRSTY WITH LOTS OF SALT! YOU SEE HOW CLEVER I AM--I'VE CREATED A VICIOUS CIRCLE--

SALT

IT'S--UNCANNY! THEY'RE ALL SO SILENT!

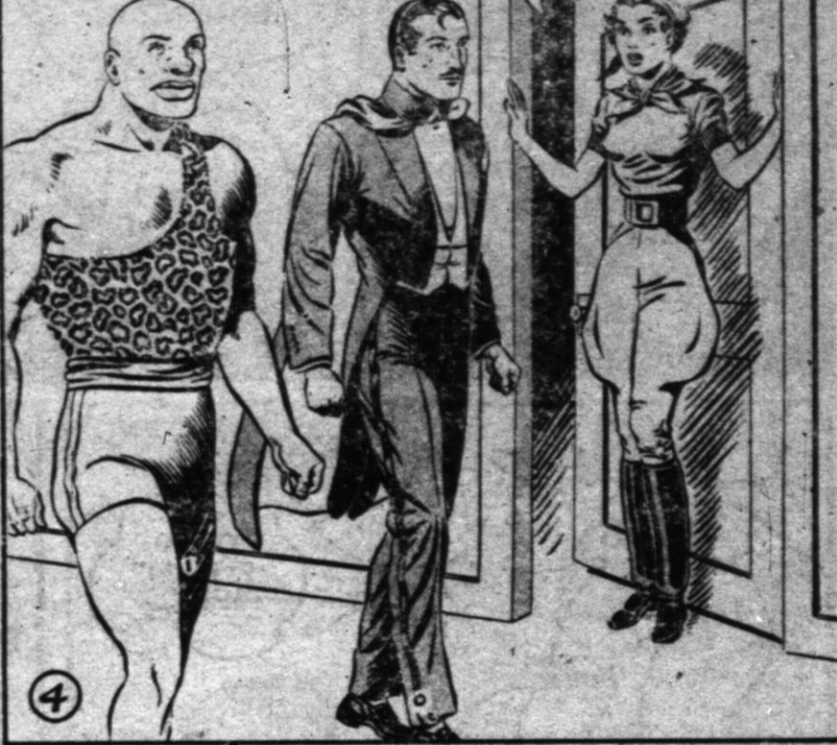

SALT, TO KEEP THEM THIRSTY SO THEY'LL DRINK PLENTY OF WATER CONTAINING MY SECRET POWDER--AND SO REMAIN WITHOUT MEMORY.

HOW CLEVER. I'M TIRED. GOOD NIGHT!

MANDRAKE--LOTHAR! THEY DON'T REMEMBER ME--OR ANYTHING! IF THERE WERE ONLY SOMETHING I COULD DO FOR THEM--AND ALL THE REST--!

NARDA BROODS. HOW CAN SHE FIGHT LORO, WHO HAS CUNNINGLY REDUCED A NATION TO SLAVERY?

I'VE GOT IT!

IF I CAN PUT THE SALT IN PLACE OF THE SECRET POWDER--THAT MAY WORK--AND END THIS NIGHTMARE! IF I ONLY CAN--!
