

"School of Instruction" For Lady Voters Thursday

PUPILS ARE CONTINUING THRU SCHOOL

HEALTHFUL TENDENCY NOTED TO COMPLETE HIGH SCHOOL

RAISES PROBLEM

More Rooms and Teachers Must be Provided. Other Problems Bother

A very troublesome educational problem that has worried the entire state of Texas for years bids fair to be overcome in Deaf Smith county in the future, if present progress along this line continues, according to a statement made at Monday's luncheon by G. A. F. Parker, president of the Hereford Independent School District.

The problem is how to keep school children in school past the sixth and seventh grades and on through high school. According to Mr. Parker while the local scholastic population does not show any material gains still the school enrollment is steadily increasing, and this increase comes through the fact that the children are being weaned away from the habit of leaving school before they have graduated and the natural consequence is that the higher grades are increasing in numbers from year to year. "Of course this adds to our financial problems and housing troubles," said Mr. Parker, "but it is a problem which we all welcome instead of dodging."

Continuing, Mr. Parker said: "The trouble for years has been that we have been turning out too many Sixth Grade citizens instead of the finished product. These half educated children grow up, marry, raise families, vote and assume their places in our community life as full fledged citizens. A condition like that which prevails indefinitely is bound to lower the standard of American citizenship. Therefore I say that the apparent tendency of late for the children to continue through the high school is a happy and inspiring thought, and we must do everything within our power to boost the movement along and especially not to retard it."

This tendency is causing the local school board a lot of worry just now, as a consequence. It has been found necessary to employ two additional teachers for next year, and two more rooms must be found somewhere. The Commissioners Court have been asked for two rooms in the courthouse for temporary use. Failing in this the school board might construct temporary shacks or rent a residence; or as a last resort ask for a bond issue to build a new building. Other questions now before the board are the matter of improvement in the heating system at the Central school and the installation of proper gas flames in the domestic science and science departments of the high school.

BAND CONCERTS ON THURSDAY NIGHTS FOR THE SUMMER

From this time on until September 1 at least the Hereford Band will hold one rehearsal on Monday night and give one public concert each Thursday night.

There is a movement on for a joint concert the coming Thursday night given by the band and the band of the Brunks Comedians who are here this week. The plan as outlined for the combination to play for the general public about an hour before the show opens. If the plan is carried through the people hereabouts will have an opportunity to hear some real music, as both organizations are in tip top form and are hard to beat anywhere.

Mrs. S. T. Shore Visits Hereford for Meeting

Mrs. S. T. Shore and son, Moyers, and Mrs. G. L. Coffman and son, Arthur, from San Jon, N. M., reached this city Tuesday afternoon to attend a meeting of the directors of the Sulphur Park Country Club.

Plainview Family Are Guests Local Friends

W. Peterson and family of Plainview, motored to Hereford Monday and spent the day in the H. B. Webb and Dr. J. W. Hicks homes. Mesdames Peterson, Hicks and Webb are sisters.

Rev. G. S. Wyatt Dies After Long Christian Labor

The many local friends of the Rev. George S. Wyatt, former pastor of the First Methodist Church here, were grieved to hear of his death in Amarillo last Sunday. Rev. Wyatt was pastor here when the first installation of the money for the new church was raised. The Amarillo Tribune carried the following historical sketch:

"The Rev. George S. Wyatt, of Canyon, 89, prominent minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and superannuated during the year 1920, died in Amarillo Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. D. Cole, 904 Taylor Street. He has been in ill health for several years.

"Funeral services are announced for Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at Polk Street Methodist Church, the Rev. Stanley W. Hayne pastor of the church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. J. H. Hicks of Canyon; Rev. J. W. Storey, presiding elder and Rev. M. Phelan of Childress. Interment will be made at Llano Cemetery.

"Besides his wife, Mr. Wyatt leaves four daughters and two sons; Mrs. S. A. Barnes, Paris, Texas; Mrs. Ralph Kandel, Weatherford; Mrs. I. D. Cole, Amarillo; Miss Francis Wyatt, Canyon; George S. Wyatt, Jr., Ardmore, Okla.; J. C. Wyatt, Perryton, Texas.

"Reverend Wyatt was born at Oxford, Miss., November 23, 1853. He was married forty-three years ago at Oxford to Miss Fannie Magda Perry, he has been continuously in the ministry. His first pastoral charge was at Grandview, Texas and he has served as pastor at Mexia, presiding elder at Corsicana and presiding elder of the North Worth district, pastorates at Cleburne, Temple and Weatherford.

"The Rev. Wyatt was pastor of the Methodist churches at Canadian, 1910-1911; Childress, 1912-1913; Quanah, 1914-1915; Stamford, 1916-1917; Hereford, 1918; Tulla, 1919-1920, and was superannuated at Canyon in 1920, where he retired from the active work.

"During his ministry, Mr. Wyatt organized the Diamond Hill Methodist Church at Fort Worth; and engineered the building of parsonages at Corsicana and Canadian. The church building at Hereford was begun during his ministry, and he started the building of churches at Cleburne and Quanah.

"A debt of $14,000 was lifted from the Stamford church during his pastorate here.

"Reverend Wyatt served on the Board of Trustees of Southwestern University at Georgetown during his entire ministry, and for eleven years he was on the Board of Education in his Conference.

Over 600 Capons Turned Out Here So Far by Kinney

The rapid growth of the capon business in this section is indicated by the statement of E. W. Kinney of Hereford that he has caponized over 600 cockerels so far this season and is still having daily call for such work. Local produce men are becoming greatly interested in this business and another year or so promises to see a huge development along this line. Capons are bringing much better prices on the city markets today than even turkeys. There will be a good display of capons at the poultry show this winter.

FINANCIAL PLAN NEEDED FOR FARMERS

C. P. GALLEY OUTLINES NEED FOR FUTURE DEVELOPMENT

MUST COME TO IT

Long Time Loans and Better Interest Rates Are Necessary

What is admitted by everybody to be the most vital problem before this country today—more farmers—was touched upon at Monday's luncheon of the business men in an intimate and constructive way. C. P. Galley of the Astrow neighborhood was present and made a short address on the necessity for more farmers, and how to keep them here after they are secured. Mr. Galley stated in substance that in his opinion it would be necessary to organize something like the California land owners did for this purpose, forming a pool of their land and operating through local banking institutions in cooperation with the Federal Land Bank, thus securing a cheap rate of interest and long time amortization loans. Mr. Galley stated what every thinking man in this country knows, to be the truth that very few poor men can come in here and make the heavy annual payments now required on land, pay the present high rates of interest, and make the land produce enough to come out clear. And that a better plan of financing must be evolved before the broad fertile acres of the Plains country is peopled by farmers on every section or less.

J. Frank Potts, secretary-treasurer of the local Land Bank Association, was present and added some information from his store of knowledge along the lines advocated by Mr. Galley. The entire discussion was full of meat and thought for men who realize that something definite along this line must be found and put into execution before long, and the idea advanced by Mr. Galley Monday is in all probability the forerunner of a constructive plan for the future. Messrs. Galley and Potts were asked to reduce the plan to a more concise and practical basis and then to bring it up for further discussion in the immediate future.

Claude Secretary is Visitor for This Week

J. T. McClure, secretary of the Claude Chamber of Commerce, is spending a few days in Hereford visiting friends and looking after business affairs. Mr. McClure was formerly connected with the firm of Byrd & Hill and has many friends here.

Hog Show Needed And Will Come if Breeders Chip in Hereford is to have a Hog Show this fall—Jim Robinson says so. And when Jim starts something he usually finishes it, as past records will attest.

The question of pulling a real Hog Show this fall has been agitated hereabouts for several weeks past. It usually takes a lot of talk to start a movement under practical way. Mr. Robinson has taken hold of the matter now and is conferring with breeders of hogs around this community. He already has many pledges of cooperation and it begins to look like business.

A financial plan for premiums and expenses is also being considered which looks good. A committee of hog men is to meet soon and outline further plans, and when complete details are worked out the entire matter will be laid before the public.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ENDORSES PRESIDENT'S VIEWPOINT

P. N. Montgomery, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Santa Fe Lines at Amarillo, was in Hereford Monday. Mr. Montgomery asked the Chamber of Commerce to endorse the proclamation of President Harding of July 11 asking "all persons to refrain from all interference with the lawful efforts to maintain interstate transportation and the carrying of the United States mails." Bodies of business men all over the country have endorsed this stand of the Chief Executive as an evidence of public opinion being against interference by strikers or others with train service.

Such an endorsement was passed by the Chamber of Commerce at the weekly luncheon Monday noon and the secretary instructed to so advise the proper parties.

Mr. Montgomery stated that the railroads admitted the right of the workmen to strike, but would not admit their right to interfere with the railroads operating their trains with union labor while the strike was on.

COLONEL WOODBURN CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY WITH FAMILY

The birthday of Col. E. T. Woodburn was celebrated last Saturday at the Woodburn home, it being his seventy-ninth anniversary. All the children except two, Mrs. Leota Snyres of Weatherford, and Ernest Woodburn of Amarillo, were present. The children who attended were: W. H. (Bill) Woodburn of Dimmitt; J. D. Woodburn and family of Claude; Estes Woodburn of Lockney; J. D. Cross and two daughters of Texico (Mr. Cross is a son-in-law of Mr. Woodburn); Mrs. Edgar Betts of Claude and Mrs. Charles Woodburn and son of Amarillo. The guests began to arrive Friday and all had departed by Sunday evening.

Ladies "School of Instruction" For New Voters

A meeting of the qualified women voters of the county is called for three o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Methodist Church.

The Community Club's summer program included the holding of at least one "School of Instruction for Women Voters" in order that all women of the county might become more conversant with the machinery of voting and with legislative affairs of the state and nation. As this has not been done, it has been thought advisable to call a meeting Thursday in which these things may be briefly discussed.

The program will be educational and well worth the time of any woman who aspires to do her whole duty as a citizen.

Women of Deaf Smith County, let us prove our worthiness for citizenship by striving to give intelligent service to the duties to which citizenship calls.

Mrs. Homer Wilkinson, President Community Club.
Mrs. B. E. Guthrie, Vice Pres.
Mrs. Sherin Williams, Sec.

Same Old Harley Sadler is Cause Of Many Laughs

Brunks Comedians opened a week's engagement here Monday night with the play, "Circumstantial Evidence," which was presented in Brunks' usual smooth way to a well-pleased and capacity audience. Harley Sadler, playing the part of the red-headed country de-track-a-tive, was better than ever, if possible, and drew many a laugh. An interesting local note to this week's attraction is that Ralph Smith, local boy, leads Brunks' orchestra, sells the prize candy, and is the star player on the Brunks' baseball team, which was billed to play a local team Tuesday afternoon.

TOURISTS APPRECIATE HEREFORD'S SWIMMING PLACE

Tourists coming through Hereford are rapidly learning that Hereford has a fine swimming hole on the Tierra Blanca and are patronizing it in increasing numbers. Monday morning a crowd of California-bound tourists remarked to W. B. Kelleher that Hereford was a bright spot in the long trail across the continent, as nearly everywhere they stopped they were confronted with signs reading "Posted," "Keep Out," etc. while here they were welcomed.

NAZARETH MEN ON TRIP ACROSS SEA TO VISIT GERMANY

Rev. Father Conrad and Martin Fehr of Nazareth left Sunday morning for an extended visit in Europe. They will visit relatives and friends in Germany. Their first stopping place will be Bremen. Rev. Conrad will visit his parents and Mr. Fehr will visit with a sister.

Rev. and Mrs. Sharp Had Great Vacation

Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Sharp returned last Saturday from a ten days' outing at El Pevrenit, N. M., near Las Vegas. They rented a cabin in the mountains and took an absolute rest and vacation. They are both much rested and improved in health from the outing.

The exact "modus operandi" in voting a modern Texas primary ticket invariably puzzles even a large percentage of the men voters, say the local men who have had experience in holding elections, and many ballots are lost in every election through ignorance of voters in properly marking their ballots and in not observing the stringent provisions of the Carroll Election law in preparing the tickets at the polls. In small local school or precinct elections the tickets are so simple that not so much trouble is experienced, but the long primary ticket, with its state officers, causes a lot of trouble as a rule. The new voters, the ladies, are finding special difficulty this year in determining how to handle their vote, it is stated, and for that reason The Brand has been requested to say something about what not to do and what to do when voting next Saturday. Local election judges list some of the "don'ts" for next Saturday as follows:

Some "Don'ts"
Don't sign your ballot or write anything on it; that's against the law and will cause your ballot to be thrown out if you do it.

Don't mark an "x" after the name of the man you want to vote for or against; they may do that in Missouri, but you are now voting in Texas.

Don't rub off the name of the election judge on the back of the ticket; that is required by law, and you lose your vote when you erase it.

Don't cross out all the candidates for any one office and insert your own favorite; you will lose your vote if you do. You can only write in one name for each office that has no candidate's name printed under it. If there is one candidate's name printed there you cannot insert another name. If there is no candidate for any office, and a blank line is left there, go ahead and write in your candidate's name—but only one.

And Don't Forget
That when you come into the booth to announce your name to the presiding judge, so that it can be looked up on the list of certified poll tax papers before the judge.

That you MUST have a poll tax to vote in this election; and

That the Texas way of voting is to draw a straight pencil line through the names you do not want to vote for, leaving the name of your candidate without a mark; and

When you have properly marked the ballot, FOLD IT yourself and hand it to the judge.

HEREFORD TEACHERS KEEPING UP WITH THE TIMES

The school board advises that three members of the faculty of the city schools are taking university summer work in further preparation for their work the coming year. Superintendent, Miss Griffith, is in the University of Chicago; Miss Swisher, teacher of music in the University of California at Berkeley; and Miss Livingston, Bible teacher at the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

Members of the board express themselves as being very appreciative of the attitude of the teachers, not only this year, but in the past, toward keeping abreast of the times professionally and declare that this contact with the latest thought along educational lines is being reflected in the work of the schools.

FREAK CHICKEN IS DEAD; BRUNER'S PLAN IS SPOILED

A freak chicken possessing three legs the third leg in the middle of the body, and with seven toes, is an exhibition at the Magnolia Filling Station, the property of Leslie Bruner. Leslie had great hopes, expecting to start a new breed of poultry, but his hopes were crushed when the chicken died at the age of four days.

Good Job Printing at The Brand!

BLOOD-SUCKERS
 Most everybody understands, an' will agree, I have no doubt, that we should call the harvest hands an' kick a million loafers out! With salaries beyond compute, they howl about our awful fix, while they pursue the game of loot, by playin' dirty politics. They warn against extravagance if Willie craves some chaw-in-wax, an' fill the pockets of their pants by leavin' tax on top of tax. What use is all these windy-gents that hold a club above our head? These legislative malcontents that rob us of our meat an' bread? It ain't the real government that I would raise a row about, but every worthless loafer—gent—the parasite—let's kick 'em out! Uncle John.

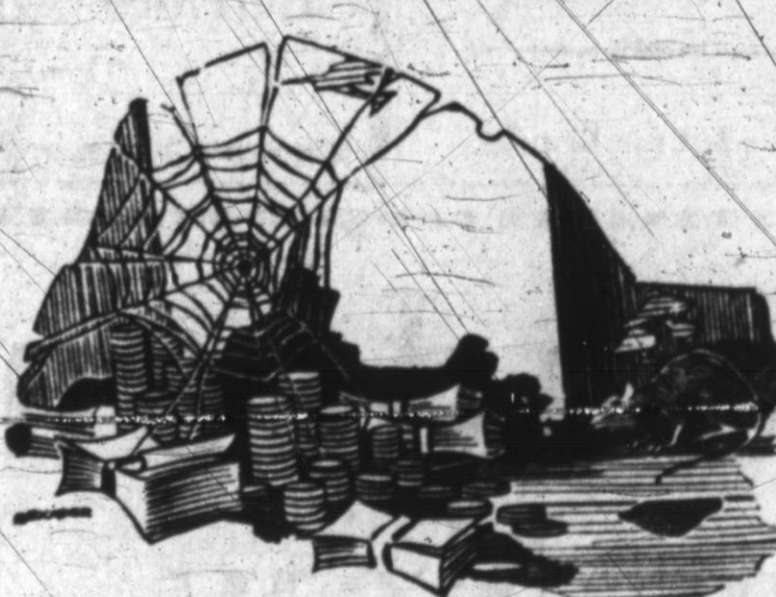

JUST BE WHAT HE MADE US

What do you care about the scandal monger? Nothin'. Just smile at him. Ain't he puttin' you on the map? All you need worry about is that what he says isn't so. Everybody'll find that out by an' by an' then on'll be better off than ever—if you keep on smilin'. The man who knocks you'll help you more than the man who boosts you, because the booster's likely to paint things up just as much as the knocker and when folks find out you're not a white winged angel, they may wonder if you're an angel at all. Opinions don't cut much figure anyhow, an' there's no use trying to stop folks from havin' 'em because they're like measles, bound to be. We don't have to improve on what God made us. If we just be what he made us, we'll be about all right, an' he made us to smile, particularly on the poor fish of a silly corner gossip.

COAL

We can listen to you TODAY Maybe we can't in JANUARY

PLEASE for prompt delivery of coal in January may be in vain, when cold days come.

There is no denying that the fuel situation of the nation is fast assuming a serious aspect with the continued deadlock between coal miners and operators.

Even though the strike were ended tomorrow and all mines resumed full-time operation, there would still be an underproduction throughout the winter.

Order coal now. It will be an act of wisdom. Deliveries will be slow at the best, but if you order now it will help us in making an estimate of the fuel needs in Hereford.

We are going to use every power within our means to protect our customers and we don't want a one of them to be cold next winter.

Place your order today.

Don't gamble your next winter comfort against the chance that coal will be cheaper when the strike ends.

It is possible that it will cost MORE before the winter is ended.

ORDER TODAY.

HOMEY PHILOSOPHY FOR 1922

Six thousand nine hundred divorces granted in one court in Chicago in one year and the city newspapers record as the important result that the Judge has collapsed from the strain. The collapse of a thousand judges isn't comparable to the collapse of the moral fibre of thirteen thousand eight hundred men and women, not to say a word about the children. Talk about happiness being the keystone of human development may be all right, but we don't get gold we can use till the ore is crushed and washed and the metal shot through the refining furnace. If ninety-five per cent of these trail love birds were made to see that a marriage license is not a scrap of paper we might produce a healthier and more self-reliant race.

To Our Customers — Warning

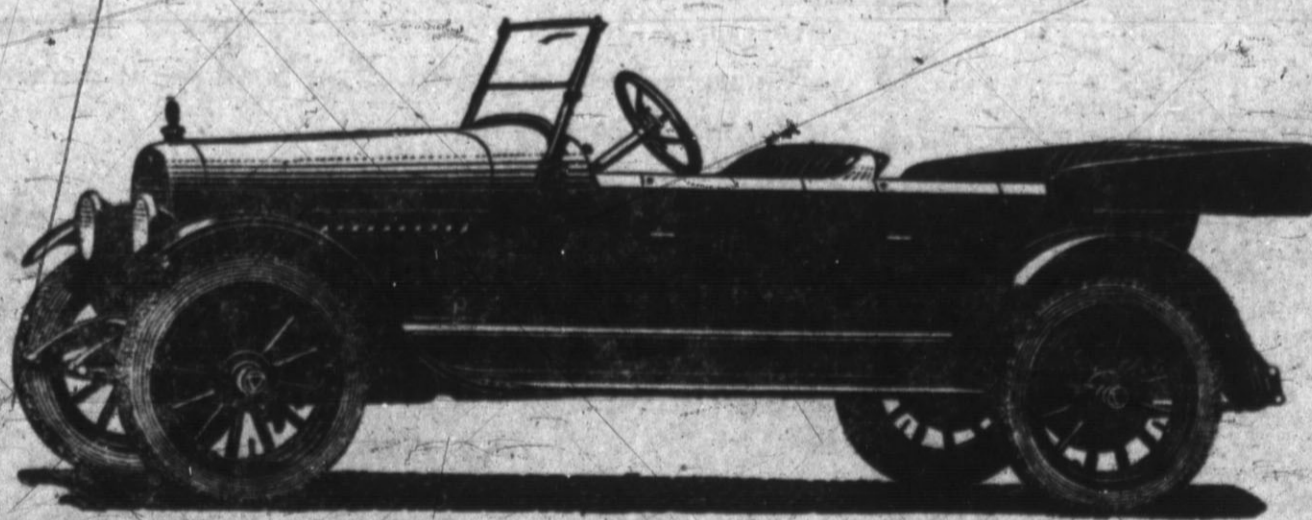

We find it a very common practice for persons when fuses are burned out to put pennies in behind the old fuses and in that way get light. When a fuse burns out there is something wrong that should be corrected before trying to get light again.

Fuses are for protection—they are intended to burn out before the wiring in the house gets overheated—they are the safety valves that protect the house. Fuses should not be of too great capacity—use as small a fuse as will carry the amount of current that is used. Don't under any circumstances put coins behind both fuses as in that case you have no protection. A coin can be put behind one fuse temporarily—till you can get another fuse—but never behind both.

Ramey—Howard

(Delayed from last week)

The many friends of Mr. Joe Howard were quite pleasantly surprised when he returned from east Texas with his bride. Mr. Howard got his bride at Gordon and returned to Dimmitt about noon on July 7, having left a few days before the 4th.

The news of their return spread rapidly and a little after dusk his many friends gathered at the new home and with a band composed chiefly of tin pan drums, a horn and shotgun, woke the heavy slumberers.

After some time spent in merry making the bride and groom opened the packages which were heaped upon the dining table.

Mr. Howard is the proprietor of the City Barber Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard are at home to their friends at the Methodist parsonage.

The Hereford Real Estate Board

Is a New Organization In Hereford

The following firms comprise its membership: Byrd & Hill, Smith & Guinn, L. Baskin, J. A. Wear, French Thurmond, E. F. Connell, R. H. Barnett, L. Gough, A. H. Elliston, J. H. Pitman and A. A. Ott. The bringing of new farmers and the upbuilding of Hereford, are two of the main objects for which the members are working.

By patronizing any of the above firms, you are assured of honest, fair treatment and a square deal in every case.

HEREFORD'S BUSINESS MEN AMONG MOST PROGRESSIVE IN THE TEXAS PANHANDLE

(By Ray B. McCorkle)

The Hereford Real Estate Board is the newest organization in Deaf Smith county, and at this time it gives promise of being one of the most far reaching and influential, so far as the welfare of the community is concerned.

The Board was organized May 15, with twelve members, all of them real estate dealers of this city. J. E. Hill is president and L. Baskin secretary-treasurer. Other members include: E. F. Connell, J. A. Wear, L. Gough, A. A. Ott, J. H. Pitman, French Thurmond, R. H. Barnett, Smith & Guinn, A. H. Elliston and S. C. Byrd.

The local body will affiliate with the state and national bodies in the near future, according to the secretary.

Members feel that such an organization has been needed for years, as concerted action is just what is needed to bring about conditions which have been planned by the many individuals. With such an organization in existence local realty dealers feel that their work will be more effective, and that in the long run not only the members of the board, but various other citizens will be benefited.

It is an undisputed fact that Hereford is one of the most progressive communities in the Panhandle. Her farmers are prosperous and every year they grow more so. They appreciate the fact that diversified farming pays, and many Deaf Smith county farmers are growing wealthy. Chickens, hogs, alfalfa and the like create wealth. As a matter of fact there is approximately one car of fat hogs shipped from this city every twenty-four hours, and the good part is that all the money derived from the sales remains in the county.

Hereford real estate dealers appreciate the fact that they have a rich field in which to work and they are going to do their best to see that outsiders learn the truth concerning this section.

E. W. Harrison

E. W. Harrison is one of Hereford's oldest and most highly respected citizens, and his friends may be numbered with his acquaintances.

Mr. Harrison has conducted a grain business in this city for a number of years, and is still on the job bidding for business in this line. All during the year he offers farmers of this section a good market for their grain, and his fair dealings have made him popular. He also handles feed of all kinds. His elevator is one of the largest in the Panhandle and his facilities for handling and storing grain are unsurpassed. As a matter of fact he has one of the most modern plants in this section, and despite the fact that he is now giving excellent service, he is planning even better service in the future.

It makes no difference whether you want to buy or sell, Mr. Harrison is in position to care for your wants.

Magnolia Petroleum Company

The Magnolia Petroleum Company has been doing business in this city for a period of ten years, and during that time a very profitable business has been established. W. D. Kellehor, the present local agent, has been connected with the firm for seven years. He is an experienced oil man and is very popular with those with whom he deals.

At this time the Magnolia people have one of the most modern filling stations in the Panhandle. Everything is arranged for convenience, and convenience means that good service is possible. Their ladies' rest-room would do credit to a city many times the size of Hereford.

The wholesale house is located South of the railroad. From this point oils are distributed over a territory of two counties. The retail store is on the square. Free air and water service make it one of the most popular filling stations in the city. A complete stock of Magnoline motor oils will always be found on hand. Tourists may obtain information from competent and courteous clerks.

Mr. Kellehor is well pleased with conditions at present, and is optimistic in his conversations concerning the future.

Great West Mill and Elevator

The Great West Mill and Elevator Company is one of the largest business institutions in the Texas Panhandle. Wheat, the great crop of the Plains, must be moved promptly in order to avoid freight congestions. Since these people opened their Panhandle elevators, conditions have greatly improved.

The Main office at Amarillo, is under the direct management of Ed R. Humphreys, an experienced grain and elevator man. There are nine smaller elevators in as many Panhandle towns. The Hereford Branch is managed by

B. R. Dixon, a young, but experienced grain man.

Farmers will always find a ready market for their grain here, and they may rest assured that top prices will be paid.

The company's mill at Amarillo is one of the largest in the state, and the best flour that can be bought anywhere is made. Each of the branch houses distribute the mill's products.

The Great West Mill and Elevator company is strictly a Panhandle institution, and one worthy of the public's confidence.

Texas Market

B. G. Harper, owner of the Texas Market, has the distinction of being the one man in Hereford without competition. The Texas Market is the only market. In some instances this might be unsatisfactory so far as customers are concerned, but in this case there is no room for complaint. Mr. Harper's prices are very reasonable—just the same as they would be had he three or four competitors. He believes in a fair profit and no more. His motto, "My Aim is to Please," is carried out to the letter.

Mr. Harper has been a resident in this city for some three years, and has been engaged in the fresh meat business for about two and one half years.

Only home killed meats are handled, and customers are protected against inferior grades which are sometimes sold by markets where meat is ordered. Although pure lard is not so popular now as a few years ago people who demand pure hog lard may get just what they want at this market.

And it is a place where your patronage is appreciated.

Orr's Tailor and Barber Shop

Walter F. Orr, owner of Orr's Tailor Shop and Barber Shop is well known in this city and throughout the entire country, he having spent a large portion of his life in this section of the state.

Mr. Orr looks after the detailed work of the tailor shop, while Pack London is manager of the barber shop. Both these men are experienced in their line. Mr. Orr is a first class tailor and barber, and while he is not actively engaged in either of the departments, he is always on hand to see that customers are satisfied.

The barber shop is modern in every respect—a five chair shop, with hot and cold baths in connection. None other than expert workmen are employed, and customers who patronize this shop are assured of first class formal work.

The tailor shop is well regulated and equipped in every respect. Such companies as Rose & Co., Edward Rose and Detmer are represented. It makes no difference what kind of suit or coat you want, you will find just what you want in their samples. Cleaning, pressing and repairing—the kind that pleases—is also done. This department is equipped with the very best dry cleaning machinery—that assures absolutely no odor left in clothes. Just call the tailor shop and your suit will be picked up and delivered.

Generally speaking, Mr. Orr's combined business is one worthy of the public's patronage.

MR. OUSLEY'S QUALIFICATIONS

Those who have heard or read the speeches of Clarence Ousley in the Senate campaign admit that they are the clearest, most succinct discussions of the present issues made by any of the candidates.

He avoids the adroitness of some of those who seem to be more intent upon tickling the ears of their hearers than in dealing with informative and enlightening matters. He likewise eschews the rather common trick of making the boasts of his political strength. He wastes no time in telling his hearers that he was a friend of Woodrow Wilson or that he is opposed to the Republican theory of protective tariff, or that he voted for some certain man for Governor of Texas twenty or thirty years ago, although he rendered service in a minor position in the Wilson administration during the war and so far as The Tribune has observed his orthodoxy from a party standpoint has not been attacked.

This may or may not be a wise method of campaigning. Some people are of the opinion that the best way to win the votes of the people is to appeal to their vanity and prejudice rather than to their thinking powers.

But The Tribune believes that most of the people appreciate an exposition of a candidate's views on public questions and that perhaps as never before, at least in recent years, the people are giving serious thought to the problems that confront us. It is at least to be hoped that the kind of political bunk that has swept so many clever talkers into office in the past few years has had its day and that the people will make their choices on weightier issues.

By training and experience there is not a better equipped man in the race for the Senate than Mr. Ousley. He has not been a professional politician. Whatever of political activity he has engaged in during the past few years has been in the capacity of a private citizen, without, so far as The Tribune knows, any purpose in mind of shaping things to his own advantage.

Texas is a great agricultural and live stock empire. Her chief resources are the raw materials which come from the farm and the ranch. Mr. Ousley's work as the editor of farm publications and his more recent connection with the United States Department of Agriculture and the Texas A. and M. College has brought him intimately in touch with these basic industries of the State.

He is also a ripe scholar, a brilliant linguist and trips to Europe on Government missions have equipped him in a peculiar way to deal with the problems that must be dealt with in the next few years. Perhaps not another one of the candidates for the senatorship knows Texas so thoroughly as does Mr. Ousley. He journeyed into all parts of the State in his work, before he ever thought of becoming a candidate for office. He therefore knows Texas intimately and the knowledge has been garnered from association with farmers, ranchers and business men rather than from the politicians.

many years of active usefulness before him. Yet he is mature enough not to be swept off his balance by any of the new political and economic theories that are so popular just at this time.

Viewed from any angle, there is not a better equipped man now seeking the senatorial nomination, and if Mr. Ousley should be elected Texas would have a Senator who would be the peer intellectually of any of his colleagues.

The rapid gain in strength of Mr. Ousley's candidacy is an indication that the people are beginning to appreciate these facts. It is now pretty generally admitted that Mr. Ousley will in all probability go into the second primary. Amarillo Tribune.

To The Voters

For a candidate for political preferment to break into print is always more or less dangerous and self-exploitation a doubtful expedient, so it is with some hesitancy that I take this means of addressing the voters of Deaf Smith County in the interest of my candidacy for the office of sheriff. However, I feel that there can be no inappropriety in a simple statement of facts as will make my claims worthy of consideration, especially when these facts can be easily verified.

It is often true upon the eve of an election that reports detrimental to the interests of a candidate are circulated sometimes through design but more often through thoughtlessness of those who do not stop to consider the injustice done, and my case is no exception. It is being circulated that I am hasty, excitable, rash and cruel to those whom it becomes my duty to arrest. In answer to this, I wish to say that I have served as deputy sheriff six years in another state and have served two years in this county; I have also served as constable of this county two years and am now serving my second year as special night police. During these years I have dealt, of course, with many rough characters and there has never been a complaint from any one of them nor from the public, nor have I ever used more force than has been necessary. Neglect of my duties as night police has also been charged. Is it not reasonable to suppose that if my services were unsatisfactory they would be discontinued, especially since my salary is paid largely by the Chamber of Commerce through personal subscription?

Again, another charge is that my personal life and habits are of doubtful propriety. In reply, I will say that if reliable, disinterested parties can be found to bear witness that they even believe such to be true, or that I have ever been guilty of conduct unbecoming an officer or a respectable citizen, I will withdraw from the race before the election.

I have tried to conduct my campaign in a fair and dignified manner and expect to continue in that way to election or defeat. My only claim to special fitness for the office is my seven or eight years service as peace officer which has given me valuable experience. I promise, if elected, a faithful, conscientious effort to discharge the duties of the office, realizing the importance of these duties in maintaining and promoting good citizenship. I promise to use my influence at all times for right—for the upholding of law and order. I further promise to do my very best to make Deaf Smith County an unpopular place for violators of the law, whether they be petty thieves or high-toned gamblers.

Asking a fair and candid consideration of my qualifications, and assuring you I will do my dead level best to make a good sheriff, I am

Your for law enforcement,
Omer Baker.

There are Six Candidates for the United States Senate, to be voted on next Saturday. The intelligent voter, deeply interested in the men who make the laws for the United States of America, will carefully consider the History, Training, Mental Equipment, Vision and views on current public questions of each man before casting his vote for this highly important office.

Your careful consideration is asked of the candidacy of

of Fort Worth, Texas

one of the six candidates. Unbiased students of political government the state over are a unit in admitting that Mr. Ousley's is the best rounded, the clearest, the most understandable view of pending governmental problems that has yet been presented to the people.

for this high office is the best of any of the candidates, as he has been a consistent student of political thought all his life, has served his country in many high places, is easily the best platform man of them all, is well poised, mentally alert and thoroughly informed on public questions of the hour.

VISION

is broad and unhampered by petty political broils and entanglements—a man with constructive principles and the ability and courage to carry them through to a successful conclusion.

If you want to vote to put a man in the Senate of the United States who will handle the job

with the dignity, intelligence and courage that will bring honor and credit upon the great State of Texas, then you are asked to think twice before you scratch the name of Clarence Ousley next Saturday.

and don't overlook this point

The Cattlemen and progressive farmers, the state over are rallying to Mr. Ousley's support in this campaign because they KNOW that he is the best informed of all the candidates on the real needs of the cowmen and farmers of Texas, and furthermore KNOWS WHAT TO DO ABOUT IT WHEN HE GETS TO WASHINGTON.

Poem by Uncle John

HOT DAYS—HERE AND THERE

We sizzle in the livin' room, an' smother on the porch. Old Sol is mighty reckless with his pesky little torch! But soon we'll roll from under, an' there'll be the twilight breeze till we set around an' wonder if there's better days than these. . . . A feller ort to think about the everlastin' flame, in the pit that's so infernal, that I hate to write its name. . . . But they tell us it is real, an' we got to run the chance of payin' fer our meanness, where they wear asbestos pants! It's foolishness to grumble when the sun's a little hot, with nothin' wuss to bother, than to hunt a cooler spot—while we face a possibility that's likely to occur, of sweatin' on, forever, in the place we're headed fer. . . . So—we better be contented with the tan that's on our hide,—it beats the conflagration where they serve a feller—fried! An' I had ruther linger where the weather's apt to change, than to settle down fer ages, to a deathless cookin'-range!

Mrs. Parker's Social
Early Friday, while morning zephyrs fanned sweet fragrance from dew-kissed flowers, and all nature was in harmony, Mrs. G. A. F. Parker, at her home, presented her music pupils in recital that was a symphony of absolute fitness.
Class mothers and only a few friends constituted the favored audience, to which Mrs. Parker presented Misses Frances Oberthier, Josephine Stocking and Marie Lou Harrison, who in turn introduced by character delineation, the master composers, whose compositions they most creditably rendered.
Various numbers were presented in a manner bespeaking talent and close application on the part of the pupils and applied interest and proficiency for teacher.
A piano solo by Miss Anne F. Parker lent charm to the program.
And last, but not least, the hostess, assisted by the girls, served a delicious ice, with cookie so rare as to suggest rivalry between the culinary art, and the art of music in the Parker home.
The guests departed, each feeling that it was indeed good to have been there.

A Guest.

Men and Women:

Is your mail of sufficient importance to you for you to make an effort to lock your boxes, each day, after getting your mail? We can put your letters in the boxes for you, but we can not guarantee they will stay there, unless you take enough interest to lock our boxes.

Aside from this phase of the matter, there is the fact that an inquisitive child will be tempted to open any box near his own, if no locked, unless he is carefully drilled at home that it is wrong to open a mail box and meddle with the contents as it would be to go into a neighbors house and take what he likes there.

This may sound like a lecture to some of you. But if it were your child who was concerned you might feel that the lecture is not inappropriate, or if it were our letters that were scattered and torn, you might think it wise to lock your mail box each day. I urge

To the Voters of Deaf Smith Co.
The primary is near at hand, I have endeavored to see each voter personally, but the county is too large to make a house to house canvass and meet the people as I would liked to have done. I am taking this method of soliciting the votes of those whom I have not been able to see. I will appreciate your vote and beg of you to give me a fair consideration and your support on the 22nd.

To those whom I have had the pleasure to meet, I ask of you to keep me in mind and assist by speaking a good word in favor of me to your neighbors and friends.

I certainly appreciate the encouragement given and the hospitality shown me by the good people of the County during my canvass.

W. W. Bennett.

Another Goodyear Masterpiece

Like the All-Weather Tread Cord which leads in quality and value, the new Cross-Rib Cord perfected by Goodyear embodies features which make it another Masterpiece giving to the public again the greatest value in its price class.

This new Cross-Rib Cord has a long-wearing semi-flat tread—with the tread rubber extending from bead to bead.

The carcass is made of long staple Arizona and Egyptian cotton built up on the exclusive Goodyear "Group-Ply" principle.

The Cross-Rib Cord is cured on air—reducing to a minimum chances of hidden defects.

We have these new tires in all popular sizes at these prices which are unusually low for a standard recognized brand.
