Wheeler's Bond Is $5,000 In Mike Huckert Stabbing

Last Rites For Huckert Today

Graveside services for Mike George Huckert, 46, who died late Thursday night as the result of stab wounds received during an argument with Melvin O. Wheeler, 31, Hereford welder, will be held at 1:30 o'clock today at the Catholic Cemetery with Father Bartholomew Paytas, pastor of St. Anthony's Catholic Church, officiating. Huckert died in a Gilliland Funeral Home ambulance while enroute to Deaf Smith County Hospital.

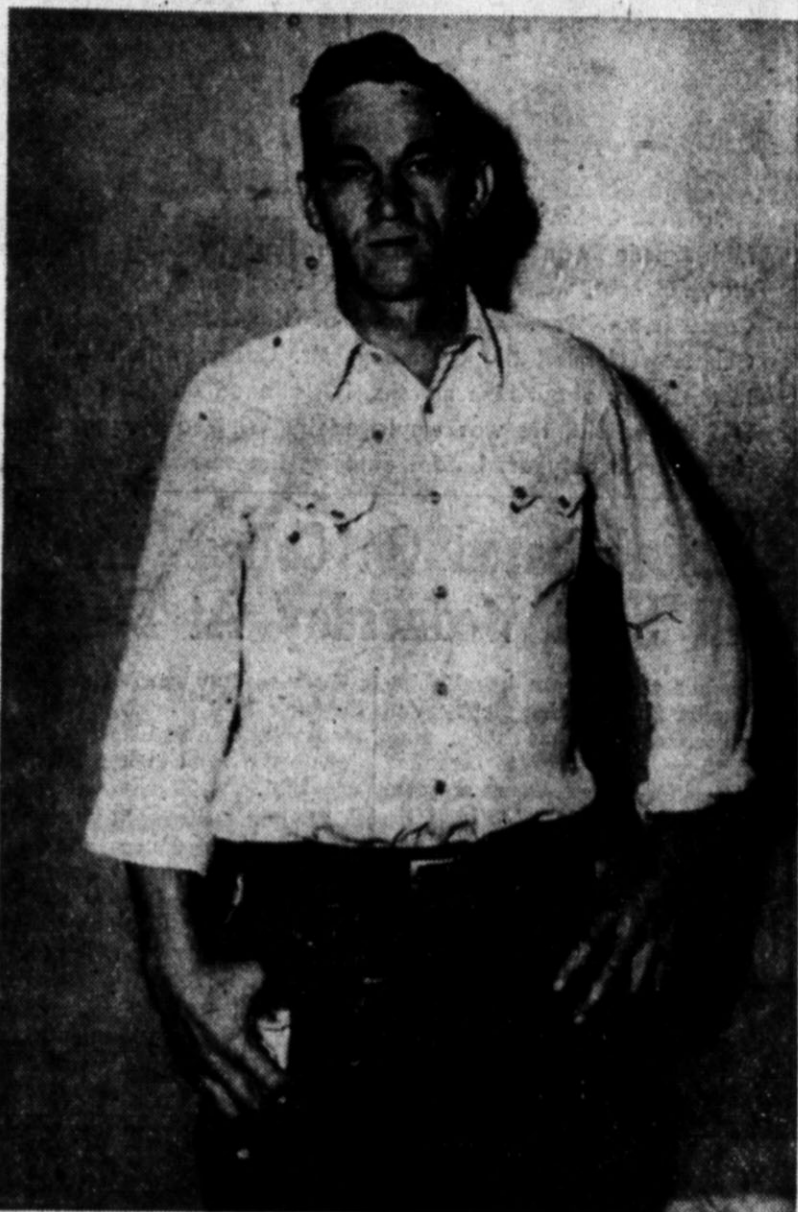

Born In France

Born September 29, 1907 in Grendelbruck, France, Huckert came to Texas when his parents moved to the United States in September, 1908.

A bachelor, Huckert lived in Hereford but had, for a number of years, operated a farm south of Summerfield for his mother, Mrs. Ludwig Huckert.

Survivors include his mother, who lives in Hereford; two brothers, Charles Huckert of Lubbock and Louis Huckert of Bakersfield, Calif.; and two sisters, Mrs. Earnestine Sanders of Hereford and Mrs. John Heiselman of Vega.

Gilliland Funeral Home has charge of the arrangements.

MELVIN O. WHEELER

Trouble Thursday Night Blamed On Argument Over Family Matters

Friends of Melvin O. Wheeler, 31, Hereford welder charged with "murder with malice" in the death of Mike Huckert, 46, Thursday night, had still failed to put up a $5,000 bond by Saturday afternoon to get Wheeler released from the Deaf Smith County Jail.

Huckert, Hereford man who farmed south of Summerfield, died a few minutes after he was stabbed three times Thursday night in the backyard of the O. L. McKee home, 134 Ave. 1, where Wheeler's estranged wife was staying with her mother and stepfather.

Only One Serious

Only one of the three wounds was serious, according to an autopsy report made by two Amarillo physicians. The other two hit ribs or other bones and made only flesh wounds. The other stab punctured the heart, causing death within a short time. A spring-bladed knife has been identified as the weapon used in the stabbing.

The murder charge was filed against Wheeler early Friday morning by Sheriff Lowell Sharp. At a hearing before Justice of the Peace A. L. Thomas Friday afternoon, Wheeler waived an examining trial and had his bond set at $5,000. Several persons whom he tried to contact about going on his bond were not available, he told the sheriff Saturday morning. He then called relatives and asked members of his family to come to Hereford, without telling them the trouble he is in. His voice broke slightly as he talked to a brother by long-distance telephone.

Family Troubles

The fatal argument Thursday night was apparently the result of family troubles, the sheriff said. Wheeler and his wife have been estranged for about 10 days. Thursday night Wheeler and Huckert were together looking for Mrs.

Wheeler, as Wheeler seemed to think that Huckert knew where she was. They were seen together some time before the stabbing getting something to eat at one of the local cafes.

Finally, they went to the McKee's home, which is only a block from where the sheriff lives. Wheeler started to make trouble when he was not admitted to the house, and Mrs. McKee called Sheriff Sharp. When the sheriff arrived at the scene, Huckert was lying on the ground near the back of the house, and Wheeler was just coming out of the house, the sheriff said.

Doctor, Ambulance Called

Handcuffing Wheeler, the sheriff took him out to the car, and set out for him in the car when Deputy Sheriff Neal Young called for a doctor and an ambulance, but it did not arrive before he reached the hospital. He had been stabbed once on the right side of the chest, once on the left side, and once under the left shoulder blade.

Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Wheeler had been at the sheriff's home Thursday afternoon and said they were expecting trouble from Wheeler, but did not sign a complaint, the sheriff said.

Last Rites Today For Fred J. Axe

Funeral services for Frank J. Axe, 75, a retired farmer and rancher who lived on a farm in Castro County, will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church with Rev. Russell Wingert, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Axe died Friday afternoon in the Deaf Smith County Hospital after an illness of several months. He was born July 26, 1878 in New Orleans, La. In 1901 he married Permia Ricketts at Itasca. They moved to Castro County in July, 1903, from Itasca.

Fallbearers will be Press Dyer, Earl Springer, J. E. Andrews, E. T. Brooks, H. C. Baird, and Reed Williams.

Survivors include his wife; four sons, Lynn Axe, Fred Axe, Wilbur Axe, and Anderson Axe, all of Hereford; and 14 grandchildren.

Burial will be in West Park Cemetery, Gilliland Funeral Home has charge of the arrangements.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, Beauford Luttrell of Dallas and Benton Luttrell of Friona; four grandchildren, and eight grand-children.

A county-wide Farm Bureau meeting and barbecue has been scheduled for October 24. At that time, Farm Bureau members will vote on the resolutions they wish to have presented at the state meeting in November.

The date was set at a meeting Wednesday night in Hotel Jim Hill. This was the last of a series of community meetings which have been held during the past month.

Faust Collier explained to the group, programs which come under his office in the P.M.A. The proposed farm program based on a two-price system was discussed by Hugh Coerman, also the Drought Feed Program.

Recommendations discussed Recommendations which were made at the other community meetings were brought up for discussion. Maurice Howell explained a chart showing the course recommendations have to take before becoming law.

Most discussed of the recommendations was the eradication of Johnson grass and bindweed. Virgil Dodson pointed out that thousands of dollars are lost each year by the farmers of this county due to these weeds. Members present agreed that both local and state (Continued on Page 2)

Collision Causes $350 Damage To Two Cars

Damages totalling $350 occurred in a two-car collision here Wednesday night at the intersection of Park Avenue and B street.

Roy Dale Manning, was driving a 1948 Mercury club coupe, was going east on Park Ave. at approximately 30 miles per hour and was approaching the intersection of Park Avenue and B when Miss Sheron Burk, driving a 1936 Ford pickup, turned in front of him on Park Avenue on to Avenue B.

Car skidded — Manning's car skidded about 50 feet and then hit the right front fender and right rear fender of the Burk car, according to police reports.

Miss Burk stated she did not see the car coming and went ahead and turned in front of him.

Miss Burk was charged with failure to grant the right-of-way and driving without an operator's license.

Damages were estimated at $200 to the Mercury and $150 to the pickup.

Herd Tromples Chiefs 40-6 Friday At Friona

A game, but completely out-classed, Friona Chieftans football team fought a full four quarters as the Whitefaces rolled up a 40-7 victory Friday night on the Friona field.

Taking a three-touchdown lead in the first quarter, Hereford was still ahead 21-7 at the half, and came back in the third period to score three more times.

Even with the three co-captains of the Hereford team sitting on the bench during much of the game, the Class B Chieftans were no match for their ancient rivals, who have beaten them so many times that most people have a hard time remembering when Friona has won over Hereford.

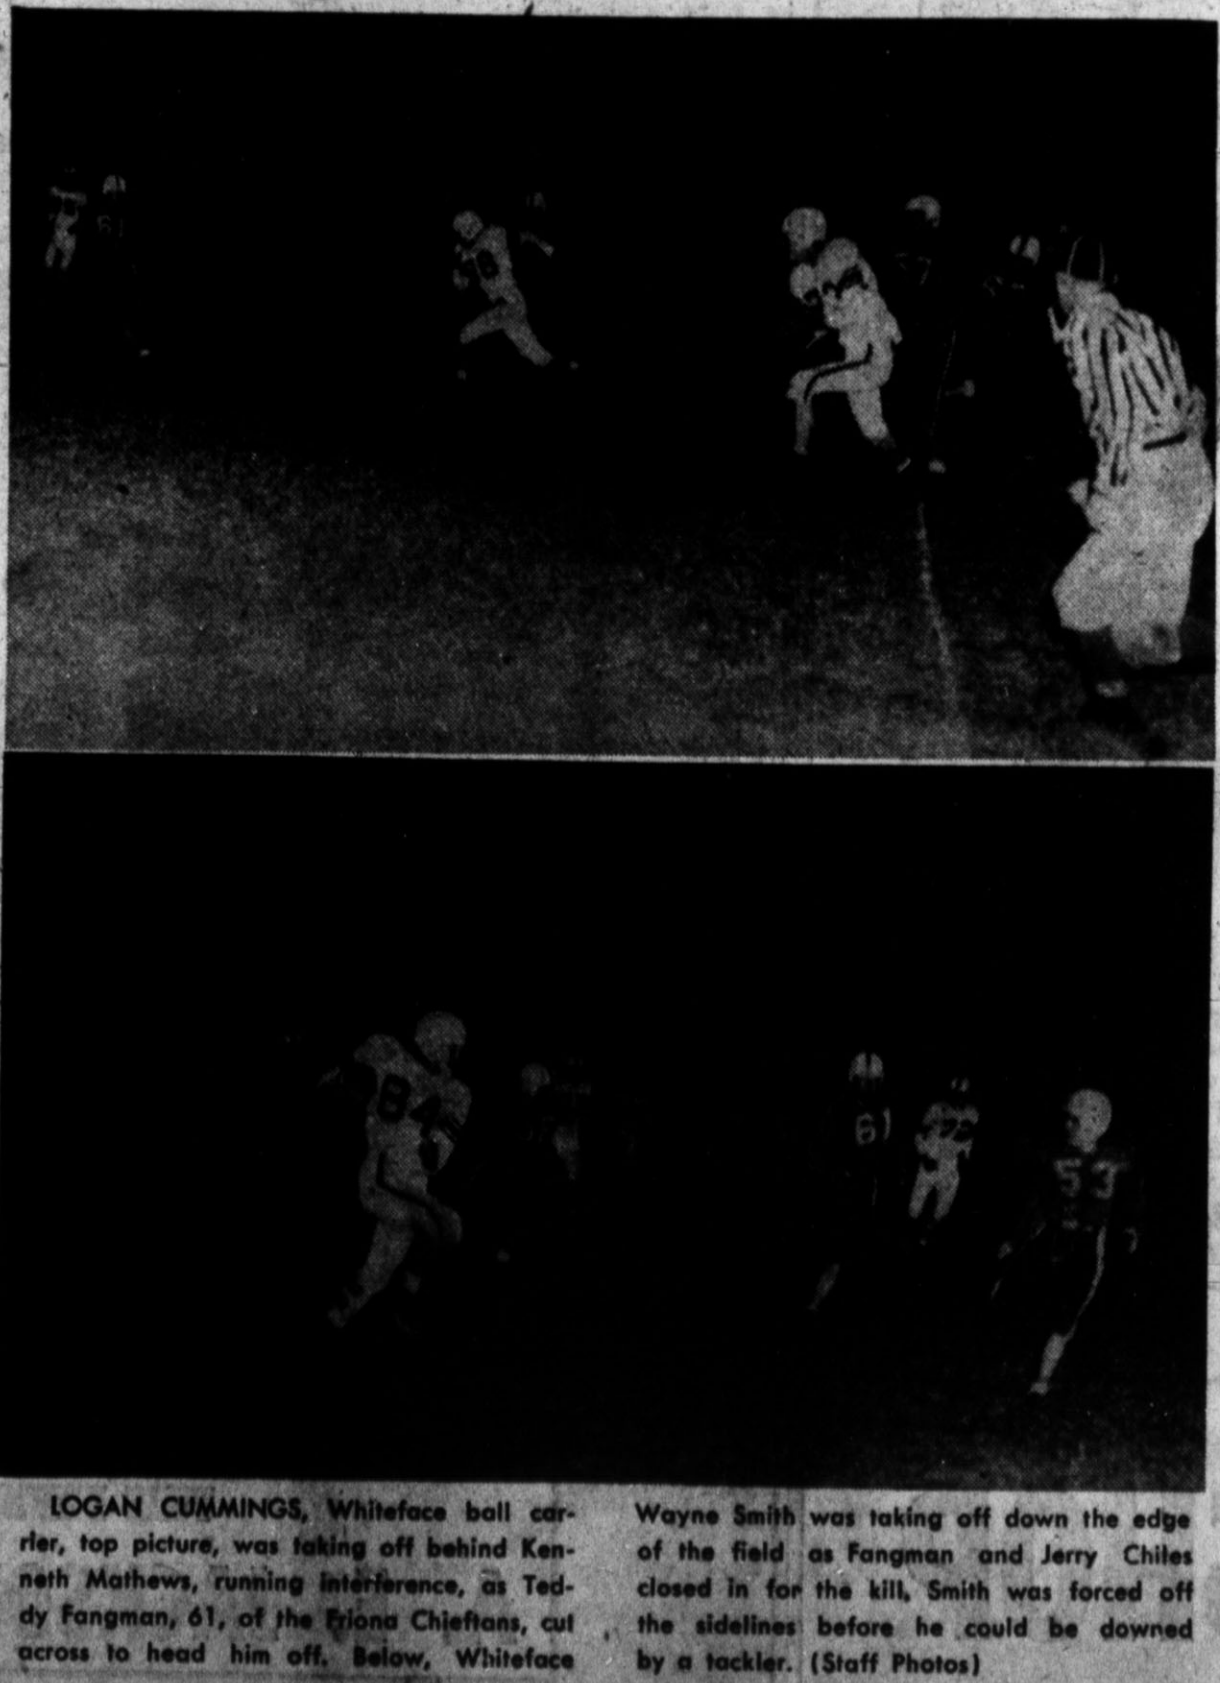

Inauspicious Start The game did not start auspiciously, though, when Merritt fumbled on the first play after Hereford received the kickoff, and Friona recovered.

However, Friona was forced to punt, and G. C. Merritt took it on his own 15 yard line. Three plays later Duwayne Wallace went through left tackle, found an opening cleared by Whiteface linemen, and took off for a 95-yard gallop that took him across the goal line. Francis Boyd kicked the extra point.

Friona, leader in first downs all through the game, made two first downs while they had the ball, but lost it on Hereford's 31.

Second Long Run A short time later back Wayne Smith went through the right tackle position for the second long run of the game, going 58 yards for another touchdown as Whiteface teammates helped by taking opposing tacklers out of the play where it was needed. A pass from Buddy Godfrey to Boyd was good for the extra point.

Hereford's third score came when guard Billy Parker punted for the Chieftans from their own 23, and Wallace returned it to the 15 yard line. Carrying the ball down to the nine, the Whitefaces flipped the ball back to Godfrey, who started to pass, then ran instead, going through right tackle for another goal. Boyd kicked the (Continued on Page 2)

GOLD LEAF DOME

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—It takes a lot of gold leaf to cover a dome. Workmen recently covered the 60-foot copper dome atop New Jersey's State Capitol Building with 24-carat gold leaf. The job required about 240 troy ounces of the leaf which cost some $8,500, three coats of lead paint and a coat of sizing.

Musical Based On College Life Will Start Wednesday At Star

When a zany team like Debbie Reynolds and dancing Bobby Van hit a college campus it's a sure sign there isn't going to be much book learning done. There are complications in "Affairs of Debbie Gilis" when Debbie, who has been taught that college is for learning, learning, learning, meets with Bobby Van who is there for the fun of life and plans to major in Campusology.

Van finds his dream girl in Debbie and sets out to win her, but Debbie is more interested in books—at least at first. Complications set in when Barbara Ruick, Debbie's best friend, sets her cap for Bobby Van and throws all caution to the wind in her attempt to win him.

Singing Dancing Romancing Debbie sings, dances and romances her way right into the hearts of the audience as well as Bobby Van. Van has a chance to really show his ability as a dancer and actor in this romantic comedy.

Another bright spot in this whirl of fun and gaiety is the new singing star Barbara Ruick, who falls in step with Debbie and Van and adds considerably to the picture.

"Children In Changing World" Program Given By Mrs. Lindsey At El Nino Club

"Children in a Changing World" was the theme of the program at a meeting of El Nino Study Club Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Sam Nunnally. Mrs. Robert Lindsey was in charge of the program.

After discussing days in which parents can help a growing child in a changing world, Mrs. Lindsey listed six rules for the young mother to follow: 1—Be sure the child gets enough affection to satisfy his emotional needs. 2—See that he succeeds in some tasks which will lead to self confidence. 3—Teach him direct and honest expressions of feeling. 4—See that he develops an interest as he becomes acquainted with the world. 5—Cultivate his creative ability. 6—Help him discover the technique of co-operation.

New Member Mrs. Darrell Blanton, president, directed a short business session during which Mrs. Vernell Young was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. Jim Bookout and Mrs. T. J. Clay were appointed on a committee to work with a Bluebird Camp Fire group which will be sponsored by the club.

Thief Gets Medals For Safe Cracking

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A thief here got some medals for his skill in safe-cracking.

He spent some time and effort to open a safe at the Love Chemical Co. The medals? About two dozen track medals belonging to the company president's son. No money.

And he wasn't so skillful after all. He could have opened the safe with a single turn of the handle. It was unlocked.

County...

Leo Gallagher and Ed Dziuk brought out the fact that more should be done about farm roads. M. G. Caywood stated that only 9 more miles of farm-to-market road can be built in the county with state up-keep.

Deep Water Problems Pete Carmichael, Earl Plank, Darrell Harkins, and Horace Vaughn discussed the deep water problems as they pertain to the farmers of this area. Joe Ballenger was asked about percentage or flat fees for vegetable brokers. Vegetable farmers feel they should really push this issue on a local level.

Question was also raised as to whether the farmer wants to continue the present farm program or adopt a new one. If so, what is the most feasible plan. Dodson explained a new program that is being discussed in farm bureau groups. As yet it hasn't been given a name.

Plans were adopted to proceed immediately with the proposed Farm Bureau building which will

Chieftan Touchdown

In the second quarter, Friona began a strong offensive with Jimmy Robason, Jerry Chiles and Don Reeve carrying the ball. Aided by a 15 yard penalty against Hereford, they got down to the one-yard line, where Robason made the touchdown and Chiles carried the ball through the line for the extra point.

Early in the second half, Jerry Houlette was forced to kick out for the Chieftans. Going through right tackle again, Smith took off as though he were the rabbit in a game of hare and hounds and scored again. The try for extra point was not successful.

Taking the kick, the Chieftans were unable to gain, and kicked out once more, only to see G. C. Merritt take the ball on his own 45 and run it all the way back across the Chieftan goal line.

Last Score

The Whitefaces last score came when Lee Drake took the ball for the first play after Hereford had covered another Friona kick, and went 75 yards for another touchdown. The point was good.

During the remainder of the game, Coach Russell was letting all of the normal benchwarmers play, and was letting offensive men try defense positions, and vice-versa, rather than trying to add extra points to the already high score.

Friona played hard to the last, holding the Whitefaces to small gains during the last quarter, while they showed surprising ability to carry the ball through the line for steady gains, but unable to complete passes which might have done them more good from a scoring standpoint.

NOTICE! MILO HARVESTERS

Due to the extreme difficulty experienced in harvesting Milo infested with "Honey-Dew", some of you have been using diesel fuel, kerosene, or other petroleum products to aid in cleaning "honey-dew" accumulations from your combines.

As a result, a petroleum odor is present in the grain causing it to be graded SAMPLE GRADE by Federal Grain Inspectors.

SAMPLE GRADE Milo is not eligible for government loan, and is subject to heavy discount if sold on the market.

We recognize the difficulties you are experiencing with "honey-dew" and will cooperate with you in anyway possible. It is suggested that CLEANER NAPHTHA may be as effective in cleaning machines as other petroleum products and may be used without affecting the grade of grain harvested.

MR. AND MRS. DWAIN SMITH

Miss Gwendolyn Riddle Weds Dwain Smith Of Hale Center

Miss Gwendolyn Riddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Riddle, became the bride of Dwain Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Hale Center, in a ceremony held in the First Baptist Church Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. Thomas Riddle, a ministerial student at the Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, and uncle of the bride, read the service.

Decorations at the altar included baskets of white gladioli, tinted daisies and lighted tapers. Wedding music was provided by Miss Dorothy Cole of Abilene who sang "Always" and "Through The Years" with organ accompaniment by Mrs. Johnny Haynes of McLean. Mrs. Haynes also played the traditional wedding marches.

Miss Eddie Morrison, serving as maid-of-honor, wore a two-piece dress in autumn brown with a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums. Jess Parker of Olton, uncle of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Tony Riddle and Eddie Smith.

Bride Given By Father
The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of winter white faille made with fitted bodice, full skirt and bracelet length sleeves. Her small hat matched her dress. Other accessories were in benedictine brown. She carried a Bible that had been in the bridegroom's family for over 75 years, and was topped with a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Reception at Church
Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall. The bride's table was laid with a lace-cloth over pink satin. The tiered wedding cake was decorated with tiny orchid blossoms. Mrs. Edwin Morrison, Mrs. Ruel Smith of McLean, and Mrs. Ralph Caldwell of Borger presided at the refreshment table.

Trip To New Mexico
When the couple left on a trip to Ruidoso and other places in New Mexico, the bride was wearing a red and black suit with black patent bag and shoes.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith are graduates of Hale Center High school. The bride moved to Hereford from Hale Center last January. After the honeymoon trip the couple will make their home in Hale Center, where he is engaged in farming.

Boiled Icing Is Demonstrated By Mrs. Draper At Wyche HD

"Getting the syrup mixture boiled just right is the main trick in making boiled icing", said Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent, as she began her demonstration on icing a cake at the Wyche Home Demonstration Club when it met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. E. C. Hewett.

"The syrup mixture should be boiled until it spins a thread of 18 inches long," she added. "Ice, top of the bottom layer first, then side, and top of cake last, using one stroke per spatula of icing."

Seven pieces of cake containing fat were brought and scored. They were judged according to appearance, color, moisture content, texture, lightness, and flavor.

Duties Of Chairman
The recreational chairman, Mrs. W. T. Carmichael, directed the opening exercises. Mrs. Ira Ott gave a report on the duties of the THDA chairman.

A demonstration on making angel food cakes will be given in the home of Mrs. Charles Packard Thursday, October 8, at 2:30 o'clock.

Members present were: Mesdames Wayne Newsom, C. C. Ellis, C. R. Damron, H. L. Ward, W. P. Axe, Charles Packard, W. T. Awtry, a new member, Mrs. N. L. Dewett and visitors Mrs. Walter Paetzold and Mrs. O. B. Summers.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Elmer Reinart, October 15.

"Yardometer" Designed To Check On Golf Drives

HUNTINGTON W. Va. — We have odometers for automobiles, so why not a "yardometer" for golfers?

Arnold Browning, "Mr. Golf" at Huntington's Guyan Country Club, has come up with an ingenious device. It consists of a stick on a wheel and it fastens onto the back of your belt.

You hit a drive then start walking, with the "yardometer" tagging along behind you. When you reach the ball, you lift the stick and lock at the meter to get the distance.

The Welfare Ministry estimates there now are 1500,000 addicts of "philocon," the trade name for phenyl dimethyl aminopropane. After the war university students used the drug to keep awake during examinations after a sleepless night of cramming. Then the addiction spread rapidly. Three recent murders were committed by youths under the influence of the drug.

Program On Democracy Given At Summerfield Study Club Meet

"Challenge to Democracy" was the subject of the program presented for the Summerfield Study Club at a meeting hursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. R. Euler. Mrs. Mack Noland was co-hostess.

Mrs. Ray Johnson, program leader, discussed "Democracy Against Communism" pointing out that many American citizens take the American way of life for granted at a time when democracy faces its greatest challenge.

"Communism is the antithesis of democracy and of christianity and in an effort to combat Communism the General Federation of Women's Clubs is urging the American people to return to the basic principles of our representative form of government and to the virtues of hard work for success. America needs to promote increased integrity in the individual, increased pride in our country and a greater faith in God", the speaker concluded.

Pledge Concludes Program
Mrs. J. B. Noland led the group in repeating the Pledge of Allegiance to conclude the program. A short business meeting was held. Plans were made for the annual Hallowe'en party to be held at the Community House on October 24.

Among those attending were: Mesdames L. L. Cannon L. J. Councilman, Guy Walser, Lee Curry, A. F. Blakemore, L. B. Lookingbill, K. W. Neill, and D. C. Walser.

Office Of Social Security Troubled By Wrong Numbers
 The Social Security Administration encounters two major problems in posting the individual wage record accounts of more than 60 million employees each calendar quarter, according to J. R. Sanderson, Manager of the Social Security Field Office in Amarillo. One of these is the receipt of tax returns with missing social security numbers; the other is tax returns bearing incorrect numbers. Most of the incorrect numbers result, probably, from failure of female employees to notify the Social Security Administration of a change of name due to marriage or divorce.

Name Change
 In case of a name change, the worker should ask the local field office to issue a duplicate social security card, showing the new name and the same old number. Until this is done, any wages earned should be reported under the old name.

Persons desiring a social security card because of a change in name should address their request to the Amarillo office, enclosing their old card. Inclusion of the old card will enable the field office to give return-mail service to such requests, Sanderson said.

If the employee allows each new employer to copy his name and number directly from his card, both problems of incorrect and missing numbers will be solved.

Many of the most civilized countries of the world have death rates of around 10 per thousand per year but are expected to have slowly rising death rates in the years to come as death takes an increasing toll in the aging populations.

6 WEEK OLD LITTER AVERAGES 27 1/2 LBS. PER PIG.

Lawrence Kendall, pictured above has 5 sows and 20 gilts. Five sows and 8 gilts have already farrowed, averaging 8 pigs per litter. These pigs averaged 2 3/4 lbs. at birth. The oldest litter in the group is now 6 weeks old and average 27 1/2 pounds per pig. Lawrence says "Purina has already done the research for me, and don't have to experiment with my own feeds, just follow the Purina Hog Program, for best results." All pigs will be sold at weaning time.

Of course you don't feed Purina Pig Startena this way, but the result is just about the same. Pig Startena was developed to give pigs the nutritional boost to put 'em on the profit road! It contains miracle growth factors which give pigs a market shove... it builds pork fast and cheap. Come in to our store next time you're in town and see our pigs... Your pigs will "GIT UP" and "GIT ON" Purina Pig Startena, too.

By Kent Snare
The first newspaper polls of the year have hit the black and white and they contain some disconcerting info for the precasters, although it's a mite early to count the votes. . . UP had them in this numerically rated order: Notre Dame, Michigan State, UCLA, Ohio State, Southern Cal Maryland, Michigan Oklahoma, Baylor and Georgia Tech. . . AP lined 'em up thusly: Notre Dame, Michigan State, Maryland, Michigan, UCLA Ohio State, Southern California, Oklahoma, Georgia Tech and Baylor. . . Same linedowns, different rotation.

Conspicuous by their absence on these initial lists are Alabama, with a loss and a tie, out of 2 getaways; Florida with a like tab and Duke with 2 victories and no consideration, to now. . . Surprising, it is, to see Oklahoma with a loss in their only try and Georgia

Fancy and Plain

Tech with a hurricane whetted standoff in both lists of the top 10. That Oklahoma-Notre Dame tussle were a dilly and two phases of it have not been commented on, at least I haven't rested my eye bones on 'em. . . One being, how very clean and fast the game was played considering the heat and the pressure of prestige appended thereto. . .

The second should bring a low bow in the direction of Mr. Wilkinson and his coaching associates, for withholding the injured Roger Nelson, their top tackle. . . It must have been quite a temptation to insert him, what with the blue chips stacked tall and the young man himself, putting in a personal plea as young footballers are wont to do, and ardently. . . Rather than risk a lasting injury they kept him out and that took foresight and some backbone.

The thinly manned first rate teams are beginning to suffer. Baylor lost their regular right tackle with a knee injury for how long, who knows, but I'm sure the Baylor tutoring corps are well aware of the loss. They shouldn't have too much concern over the green Miami team but again, as the small boy tad says, "Who's to know 'cept Mr. Big."

How's about an item or three in the personal yackie department? First off, from here, another bleat against the black and whites picking a high school player of the week in the various divisions. If qualified to do so how do they arrive at the selection??? Above and beyond that question, my big beef is regarding the effect it has on the individual selected and the reaction of the balance of the ball club. I can imagine how much a back, big-headed by the praise, gets done the ensuing weeks with the 10 man support of rest of the team. . . Secondly I notice the bigwig weekly football pickers, blithely, fatten their picking averages by calmly disregarding ties. That's dandy for their computations but it isn't cricket, as any coach will aver who has his record all muddled up with a Mexican stand-off or more.

The American League owners adroitly disposed of Mr. Bill Veeck, once and for all this week, as far as AL baseball is concerned. They slapped him flat with a NO in a league vote on his moving his St. Louis Brown baseball franchise to Baltimore. Thus they forced the sale of the Brownies to a Baltimore Syndicate formed for the purpose, and again slapped Mr. Veeck vehemently, by promptly accepting that syndicate's proposal to move the purchased Browns to Baltimore. Mr. Veeck with his cheesecake his clowning ideas, his midgits, his treatment of Hornsby and his reducing the Browns to an unreasonable facsimile of a major league ball club riled too many club owners on too many occasions. Mr. Veeck should oughta get him a circus for the majors are sorry enough without introducing calculated clowning. . .

Tipsy Horseman Leaves While Policeman Ponders

IRONON Ohio (AP)—Can a man be accused of drunk driving when he's on horseback? A police car chased a tipsy driver and his steed the other night. Just as the officer cornered his quarry with the time-honored, "Pull over to the curb," the thought occurred to him: "What can I charge the guy with?"

And, while he pondered, the frisky horse cantered off, his rider bobbing in the saddle.

Let's Cook Something

There is a wide variety of meat dishes for autumn menus which includes various cuts that are again reasonably priced. A thrifty measure for October is to make frequent use of ground beef which has dropped in price during the last two months to levels lower than those for the past two years. Ground beef can be combined with so many other foods and can be dressed-up in so many delectable ways that it isn't hard to find ways of preparing it that the family really goes for.

Pin Wheel Meat Roll
1 egg
6 tablespoons bread crumbs
2 tablespoons milk
¼ teaspoon sage or thyme
½ teaspoon salt
1 small onion
1 pound ground or chopped beef or ¾ pound beef and ¼ pound pork
Beat egg and add crumbs. Add remaining ingredients in order given. Mix thoroughly, then flatten mixture in oblong shape on bread board covered with waxed paper. Cover with another sheet of waxed paper and roll to ¼ inch thickness with rolling pin. Remove top paper and spread with carrot filling and roll like jelly roll, starting with narrow edge. Bake in uncovered pan in moderate oven (350-F) for one hour. Serves four generously.

Carrot Filling
Mince one onion and cook in 2 tablespoons fat or salad oil until soft but not brown. Add 1½ cups grated cooked carrots and ½ teaspoon salt. Mix well before spreading on meat roll.

Ground Beef Ring With Spanish Sauce
Pre-heat oven 375-F degrees before baking.

Chop up a few celery leaves, several sprigs of parsley, 1 medium sized onion. Break 1½ slices of bread into crumbs and mix all together with 1½ pounds ground

Scientists estimate there is about twice as much nickel in the earth's crust as copper zinc and lead combined.

The first pure nickel coin is believed to have been a 20 centime piece issued in Switzerland in 1881.

Things are picking up—and fast. Grain sorghum, this area's big money crop for the past five years, is beginning to roll. Lots and lots of wonderful yields are being reported this year, mostly from the irrigated areas. The hail did considerable damage, but the overall picture is looking good. Lettuce is also getting into its stride. The early prices are holding nice and firm. Could be another big year for the lettuce farmers, but you never know until it's all over. From here on the lettuce outcome is contingent on the market—and the weather. The big-time buyers are already coming in droves and the handlers are shifting into high.

Quite a few grain sorghum farmers (referred to as "producers" by PMA) are complaining about "bug juice" troubles. Early bug infestation, it seems, is resulting in combined difficulties. Once around in some of the fields and they have to stop for a clean-up job. This is quite a handicap. However according to the scuttlbut, a good stiff freeze will cure the troubles and the grain will harvest right along. On the other hand, a good substantial freeze is the last thing the lettuce boys want. There are several ways to look at the situation, depending on whether you have lettuce or grain sorghums. If you have neither—or if you still have two points of view. You can figure that it is impossible to win, or you can figure that it is impossible to lose.

Meanwhile, politics is rapidly creeping into the picture. Lewis Nordick, former political editor for the Amarillo News and currently editor of considerable note in the Day Evening Post and other magazines, visited here this week. Lewis gets around a lot over the Panhandle, and said that he hears lots and lots of talk, especially among farmers and cattlemen. Jokes are beginning to circulate already. The whole thing boils down to the fact that conditions are tightening up all over the country and right or wrong, people are taking it out on the administration. Here are a couple of samples. Both centered around dogs.

Dave Alexander tells one about a farmer who bought three new hounds, named "Farmer", "Banker" and "Cattelman". A neighbor hearing of the purchase went over to inquire regarding their ability. "Well, so-so," replied the owner. "I let 'em out the other day and right off 'Farmer' caught a rabbit but pretty quick 'Banker' took it away from him. Ole 'cattelman', he just set there on his tail and howled."

Sylvester Slagle was telling another one about a coon hound, also purchased by a farmer. The hound got after a coon, which ran up the hollow trunk of a tree. In desperation, the farmer finally followed up the hollow trunk and got stuck. Unable to free himself he finally decided he was stuck so fast that he would probably die in the tree trunk, so he got to thinking about his past life. The review wasn't too bad, either. "I've always lived a good clean Christian life," he recalled—and voted a straight Democratic ticket—except for Eisenhower.

"Well Sir, he got to thinking about his vote last fall," says Sylvester and finally he felt so little about it that he slipped right down the tree trunk—and emerged a free man."

E. S. Ireland has one about cats. He heard it over the radio and credits its origin to Abe Lincoln. Abe had been nominated for president and the party bigwigs advised him to sit at home and not worry. "The Democrats are fighting among themselves—and the party is split," they told him. Lincoln looked them square in the eye and said in substance, "Don't be fooled, boys. Those Democrats are like cats. You hear them fighting and you see them fighting and you think they are split—but they always wind up with more Democrats."

Jokes of this type are floating around everywhere. Jokes are not to be taken lightly when it comes to politics. They are the way the American people let off steam. They made Henry Ford a millionaire. They put Hadaool in practically every medicine cabinet in the land. They helped put Mr. Truman back on the farm in Missouri. They are definitely a barometer in politics. If the jokes keep floating around, you can look for Democratic control in Congress after the 1954 elections.

Here's an ad slogan quiz sent out by the Texas Press Association to prove that firms have to keep advertising—or people will cease to remember (and buy) their products. What happened to Sapolio and the Gold Dust Twins? Now folks buy Tide and Oxydol. Anyway, I could answer only a few of them—and I wonder how many the public can answer.

Just to make it interesting, I am going to offer a Sunday dinner to the immediate family of the person who sends in the most correct answers. Just fill the slogan name of the product which fits the blank line provided. In case of a tie, the first form to arrive will be given the dinner. No entries post-dated later than Wednesday will be accepted and the winner will be notified Saturday. Here is the quiz:

Beta Sigma Pledges Entertained With Hobo Party Monday Night

Members present were: Betty Sigma Phi, entertained pledges at a hobo party at the home of Mrs. Catherine Moore Monday night.

The back yard at the Moore home, arranged in a "jungle" effect, provided an ideal setting for a hobo-hide-out. Pledges and members gathered around a camp fire then were divided into three groups for a house-to-house canvass, each group peddling white elephant packages. Dressed to suit the theme of the party, their needs were so plainly evidenced that many of the hobos were offered handouts.

Ann Line, Jama Pool, Bessie Prickett, Helen Langley, Eleanor Cramer and Margaret Witherspoon received prizes for receiving the most cash for their white elephants.

Sack Supper
After the group returned to the hobo hide-out they participated in games and stunts. A sack supper concluded the party with all members of the group being blindfolded before selecting their sacks.

Pledges attending were Helen Nelson, Jean Yarbro and Helen Langley. Babione, Barbara Cooper, Eleanor Cramer, Byrdie Fellers, Geneva King, Mary Anna Laing, Ann Line, Mary Ann Massey, Catherine Bessie Prickett, Emma Suits Betty Whitaker and Margaret Witherspoon.

Films Of Hawaii Shown To Bay View Study Club

Films of "picturesque Hawaii" were viewed by Bay View Study Club members at the first study program of the season, held in the home of Mrs. H. G. Conkright Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Will S. Kerr, leader of the program, told something about Hawaii, and introduced Mrs. G. W. Newsom and her son Wayne who showed pictures taken on a recent trip made by the Newsoms to Hawaii. Mrs. Carroll Newsom, who spent nearly three years in Hawaii, served as narrator.

"Statehood For Hawaii"
Mrs. J. W. Spradley discussed the "Pros and Cons of Statehood for Hawaii." The desire for statehood dates back to 1876 when U.S. secured the protective waters of

- A sensible Cigarette
- The Gold Bar with the Clean Odor

Even if you can't get them all send in your blank anyway. Probably no one else can get them all either. Remember, no postmarks after than Wednesday, October 7. I hope some lady with a reasonable sized family wins. Some lady who especially hates to cook Sunday dinner and wash dishes.

Cultural HD Club Entertained By 4-H

The Workers 4-H Club entertained their mothers and members of the Cultural Home Demonstration Club with a tea in the home of Mrs. John Hunter Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock.

The color scheme of brown and yellow was carried out on the refreshment table. The table was laid in brown lace with yellow daisies for the center piece. Brown napkins with "Workers 4-H Club" printed on the corner were given for each guest. Yellow punch and brown cake also adorned the refreshment table. The tea was sponsored by Mrs. M. W. Sumner who is the club sponsor.

Club members and mothers attending were Mesdames Earl DeHart, Marvis Southward, Louie Olson R. C. Childers M. G. Caywood Paul Corbett and Miss Loyce Avant. Girls attending were: Sheila and Sheron Owens, Phyllis Sumner, Patsy Caywood; Stella Marie and Evelyn Hunter, Paula Beth Corbett; and Freda and Dora Ruth Inman Mrs. Hunter and the club sponsor, Mrs. Sumner.

SINGS FOR BRASS

FAIRFIELD, Conn. (AP)—Opera Tenor James Melton gave an open air concert here for 13,500 persons recently, and his only fee was a repair job on one brass lamp.

Those attending the concert were employees of the Bridgeport Brass Company, members of their families and their guests. Melton sang to show his gratitude to the company for repairing a brass headlight that fell off his 1907 Rolls Royce, one of his extensive collection of antique automobiles.

Pearl Harbor in the Reciprocity Treaty. It became a territorial annex in 1900 and since 1903 eighteen attempts to become a state have been made." Mrs. Spradley related. She told what statehood would mean to the people of the island, both economically and politically, and listed the disadvantages named by the opposition.

In conclusion, Mrs. Spradley described the bill which was presented to Congress last March and told of its being shelved, and quoted President Eisenhower, who considers the bill a must for the next session of Congress.

Letters Read
Following the program, Mrs. Lee Benefield, president, conducted a short business session during which committee reports were made and letters of recommendation for state officers were read.

Members attending the meeting were: Mesdames D. H. Alexander Lee Benefield, Colby Conkright, C. J. Crump, Howard Gault Jimmie Gilentine, Francis Hardwick, E. W. Harrison, George Heard, W. S. Kerr, J. W. Kirby, Paul Mathers, John McLean, R. E. Miller, J. W. Cpradley and Miss Frances Turrentine.

Protection Asked For Few Remaining Whooping Cranes

AUSTIN, Sept. — The pending fall parade of the majestic Whooping Crane prompted the Executive protection by Texans.

The Whoopers shortly will begin their annual fall migration from the Hudson Bay country in the far north to their wintering grounds on the Aransas National Wildlife Coast.

The extraordinary appeal for protection was made because only twenty-one of these giant birds remain. Their number was reduced by two last fall when two were killed by hunters.

The whooping crane is sometimes mistaken for a snow goose, white pelican, American egret, or whistling swan. Gunners therefore, are urged to refrain from shooting at any large white bird and to report the sighting of birds that might be whooping cranes to the local game warden.

Free World Is Dazzled by a Rash of Conferences

Red Basic Goals Bar a Real Peace

By J. M. ROBERTS JR. Associated Press News Analyst

THE world is on a conference jag. Some are under way, some are in prospect, and some are merely proposed.

The big arguments centered around Allied-Russian negotiations over whether to confer about Germany, what form a conference about Korea should take, whether Red China should be invited to a world peace conference, or whether there should be a conference by the Big Four chiefs of state.

One conference, having arrived at an agreement for American military bases in Spain, had fair to turn into dozens of conferences over implementation.

Another put the smoothing iron on the British-Egyptian battle for Suez. Iran's government began to prepare the people for the return of foreign technicians to re-open the oil wells and Abadan refinery.

Increasing numbers of Americans, chaperoning a growing stream of war supplies, conferred with French and local officials in Indochina on how to win both the military and political.

After the latest Russian note, despite its vagueness and introduction of extraneous matters, the odds went up on an eventual four-power meeting on Germany.

As to the odds on any concrete results from either type of meeting, they remained unchanged—very short.

But if a conference over Germany fails, all Europe will be putting on the pressure for last ditch efforts at the highest levels to correct what undoubtedly will be a deteriorating situation.

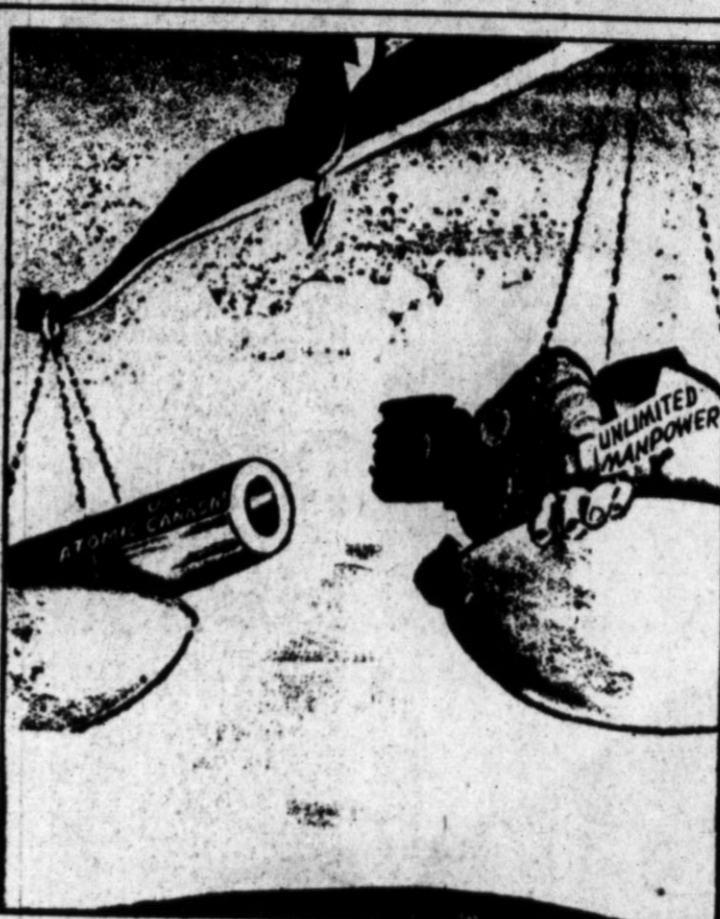

In an America which had become the world's largest creditor, which exercised world leadership on the basis of allies which must be economically strong if they are to be valuable, conferences had begun on what was both a great national and international issue—tariffs.

Unrealistic Approach. Insofar as the proposed conferences on East-West issues were concerned, the discussion went on against a fantastically academic backdrop.

That change could be made only through a tremendous Russian internal upheaval or through a great war. Conferences would remain merely forums for expressions of antagonistic viewpoints.

AT THE LITTLE END OF THE HORN

SCALES OVER EUROPE

NO TRAUBEL AT THE METROPOLITAN

Stirred Discord. The New York Metropolitan Opera and its top Wagnerian soprano, Helen Traubel, parted last week on a long sustained high note of disension.

Miss Traubel, who recently made her night club debut at the Chez Fage in Chicago, said the "snobbish" attitude on art of the Met's manager Rudolf Bing made it impossible for her to work for him.

"I love the songs of Gerhart, Hardy, Keats, Rodgers, Berlin and other great American composers. I am glad to sing them and to bring to them my training and equipment as a singer."

Washington's National Symphony Orchestra asked Miss Traubel to sing modern American music at one of the orchestra's concerts this season.

Her departure ranks as a second major defection from the Met's cast of Wagnerian stars.

Atomic Secrets. Congress may be asked next year to approve the furnishing of secret atomic information to America's allies to bring about an effective western defense buildup. The question has been under study since before the Eisenhower administration took over last January.

The United States already is shipping tactical atomic weapons to Europe. Last week the first units of 280-millimeter cannon shells for Europe.

Weather Observers. Because of U.S. security bars against release of American atomic information to other nations, American observers have not been invited to the British-Australian atomic tests scheduled later this month on the Woomera range in south Australia.

Brush, Brother, Brush! There is no definite proof that toothpaste materially decreases tooth decay, agreed six dental scientists at the annual meeting of the American Dental Assn. in Cleveland.

Advocate of Sterilization. Sterilization for "problem families" was recommended by a British medical officer as a way of cutting public housing expenses.

In the bad old days, he said, "a process of survival of the fittest eliminated many of the bad stock of these problem families, but under present conditions state and local aid enable them to exist and increase."

In Boston, police hunted a nervous thief who took a $587 mink stole of the shoulders of a dummy in a department store window at midday and walked out with it.

Nation's Economy Is Riding High

By SIGRID ARNE Associated Press News Analyst

FOR the time being, at least, we Americans are living in a sort of Utopia which economists have dreamed about for years.

Only 1,200,000 are jobless. Part of those are just between jobs, and some have just knocked off for fishing. The average factory worker who was making $47.50 a week at the end of World War II (which we thought was high) is now making $71.69 and working an average 40 1/2 hours a week.

Savings are high. Federal Reserve's latest survey on that was last December. Then individuals had $162,200,000,000 put away in various types of savings accounts and government bonds.

As individuals we owe, on short term debt, about one-sixth of our savings; $27,700,000,000. That's the sort of debt which must be paid off comparatively soon; like debts for autos, air conditioners, furniture, and the like.

For our homes, as a nation, we also owe about $5 billion dollars. That is the kind of debt which is stretched out over 10 or 20 years.

Record High Levels. The Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that all of us are buying at record high levels. That means factories can go on employing workers to turn out the things we want.

That is the over-all national picture which government economists try to keep in focus. It is the sort of picture which they have always dreamed about; a time in which almost everyone was at work, and all of us together had enough money to buy what the factories and farms turn out.

Breadwinner Worries. The gripes you know. You make them. Like the gripe that prices are too high. Taxes are too high. We didn't get that raise in June. The real estate company wants too much for a down payment on the house.

Then there are the clouds. Ewan Clague, chief of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, cites lay-offs in some industries; such as in shoes and textiles in New England and the Carolinas; in autos and farm machines in Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Ohio; and in coal mining in Pennsylvania.

Businessmen who have to buy up big stocks of goods so that we find them on the shelves when we want them, have turned a little cautious. They are buying for a shorter time ahead. That makes it more difficult for the manufacturer to plan ahead for the men he hires and the raw materials he buys.

Wall Street has seen a slow slide downward in the value of stocks this summer. Nothing spectacular, but still a downward slide.

Those three facts—partial layoffs in some industries, more cautious buying by businessmen, and some lost stock values—could all mean people will have more trouble finding new jobs.

But Washington is not as unprepared for that as it was in 1929. Clague points out that there is a "cushion" in both the payments made to people just out of jobs (unemployment compensation), and in the payments made to people getting Old Age Insurance.

Money

Interest Rates Down

There is fresh evidence the cost of borrowing money, including higher for the past two years, may be heading down again.

On Thursday the U.S. Treasury issued a new series of "savings notes."

The last time the Treasury put out a new issue of savings notes the interest rate was sharply higher. That was last spring. Now the interest rate is being cut—a development causing something of a stir in business and financial circles.

This week's action by the federal government's monetary experts is of concern not only to the multi-million dollar corporations that buy the Treasury notes but also to millions of everyday folk who buy automobiles, furniture and appliances on the cuff, finance home purchases with mortgages or borrow money for vacations.

It may point the way to greater availability of credit and lower interest rates at the consumer level.

The move is being widely interpreted as a symptom of a return to "easier" conditions in the money market. There have been other symptoms recently. For the last three weeks, prices of long-term government bonds have been climbing higher and higher—normally a pretty fair indication that interest rates are easing off.

When money and credit get too plentiful, the economy tends toward inflation and the purchasing power of your dollar is weakened. With money and credit too tight, you have "deflation" and business activity slows down.

The Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board have devices at their disposal for nudging the economy either way. For the past two years the tendency has been to keep inflationary pressures pinned down. Now the pendulum may be swinging slowly in the opposite direction.

Secretary of Defense Wilson: "We must realistically face the problem that the Russians, too, are making progress in atomic and thermo-nuclear weapons. We must face the reality—if not at the moment, very shortly—they (the Russians) will be able to make bombs of any size also."

Mrs. D. Leigh Colvin, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union: "Dr. Frank H. Hanan, assistant secretary of Defense, was talking through his brass hat" when he said liquor interests were "using" the W.C.T.U. in opposing liquor sales in the Army. "The W.C.T.U. is fighting sale of that stuff in the Army and anywhere else."

BEING ADOPTED BY A DOZEN women might not appeal to some men, but to George Strange it has meant many nice things that probably would not have come his way otherwise. Members of the Jolly Twelve Club, sewing group, adopted Strange, who has been partially paralyzed since he broke his back in a fall from a windmill. Their latest idea was to buy him a television set. A box supper was held and donations solicited to help raise the needed funds. Sunday afternoon the set was taken to the Strange home, and set up. Members of the Club shown with Strange are, from left, Mrs. D. W. Allmon, president; Mrs. L. J. Dormitory Named For Three States

A faculty residence named the "Colorado - Wyoming - Utah House" has been completed on the campus of the International Christian University in Japan with funds raised by church people in these states. It is reported by Bishop Glenn R. Phillips, of Denver, chairman of the campaign to raise funds for the enterprise.

More than the original goal of $12,000 was raised in Colorado, Wyoming, and Utah for the construction of the house. The extra amount will be used for furnishings and upkeep. The first occupants of the "Colorado - Wyoming - Utah House" are Dr. and Mrs. Emil Brunner of Switzerland. Dr. Brunner is a world-famous theologian and author, who joined the staff of the International Christian University as professor of Christianity.

Q. How can I remove shoe polish stains from clothing?
A. Most of the time, ordinary cleaning fluid will work. Or, on washable whites, let the polish dry and then brush most of it off. After that wet it and let it dry again so you can brush again.

Q. How can I treat whiteheads on my skin?
A. Try applying a thick paste of fuller's earth and witch hazel, wrapping some gauze over this to keep it in place. After a time, wash it off with cool, then cold water.

THE FIRST CARLOAD of lettuce to be vacuum-cooled in Texas was prepared in Hereford September 26th and shipped out the same day. Cardboard boxes which hold two dozen heads of lettuce, rather than four dozen, as with standard wooden crates and ice pack, are used, which makes for easier handling of the packages. Inspecting the packages as they go up an endless belt into the freight car are Angelo

Lucido, left, president of Consolidated Cooling Corporation, and Dave Rogers of the Rio Grande Box Company. The Lettuce was chilled by a process which first sucked heat out with a vacuum, then pumped cold in around the cartons of lettuce. The process has been used in California for some time. Fire Inspection
During National Fire Prevention Week, October 4-10, Texas housewives are urged to inspect their homes and remove hazards.

Norris W. Parker, manager of the Texas Insurance Advisory Association, said the state's deaths by fire could be reduced by half if proper precautions were taken.

Last year 542 Texans died in fires, and at least 350 of them were trapped in their homes. More than 150 of the victims were children.

Some precautions recommended by Parker: every bedroom should have two means of exit; the house should be well ventilated at all times; children and old people should never be left alone in the home; open heaters should be protected by screen guards; gas lines and appliances should be inspected annually by an expert; gasoline should never be used except as a fuel; kerosene should be stored outside the house in approved containers.

Employ The Handicapped
Another observance for the same period is National Employ the Physically Handicapped week. Governor Shivers signed a proclamation asking Texans to participate.

Consistently since the organization was formed, shortly after World War II, Texas has ranked near the top among states in placement of physically handicapped persons in gainful employment. Texas high school students have been frequent winners in the annual essay contests conducted by the President's Committee on Em-employment of the Physically Handicapped.

Local committees throughout the state have been organized to wage a campaign among employers. Admiral Ross T. McIntire, chairman of the president's committee, will speak at Dallas and Houston.

Harry Benge Crozier of Austin is chairman of the Governor's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped.

Newspaper Week
Two cartoons by Texans, Jack Hamm of Waco and John Knott of Dallas, will appear in publications all over the U. S. during the celebration of National Newspaper Week, October 1-5.

Both the National Broadcasting Company and the Columbia System will feature special programs during the week.

In a special memorandum, Governor Shivers urged that "all citizens give thoughtful attention to the importance of newsmanship in the lives of our people, our communities, our state, and our nation."

Turnpike Authority Meets
Texas Turnpike Authority held its first meeting in Austin.

Building and operating toll expressways will be supervised by this agency, which has six members appointed by the governor plus the members of the state highway commission. Toll expressways, according to a law passed by the last Legislature, will be paid for out of revenue bonds, and when the bonds are retired the roads will become part of the state's free highway system.

Eventually, toll roads will connect Houston, San Antonio, Dallas, Fort Worth and Wichita Falls. The Texas toll roads will link with other expressways to Oklahoma, Missouri, and the East.

"White Witch Doctor" Features Adventure In African Jungle

"White Witch Doctor" an adventure story set in the little known region of the Bakuba Country, Africa, brings to the screen one of the most thrilling and spectacular stories to hit the screen this year. Filmed in regions that have never before been presented to motion picture audiences this picture brings to life the thrilling mysteries of the jungle, with its dramatic tribal dances and strange customs. To this back ground is added the pulsating romance of the White Witch Doctor and the White Lady portrayed by Susan Hayward and Robert Mitchum.

Love—And Fight For Life
Susan Hayward, a registered nurse, is assigned to a hospital post in a region inhabited by the warlike Bakuba tribe. Robert Mitchum and his partner Walter S. Pritchard play Hayward as a pawn to the Bakuba territory where they believe rich gold deposits lie. En route Mitchum and Hayward fall in love. Their love plus their fight for life against the Bakubas make a thrilling and spectacular adventure.

Two top stars plus a supporting cast of thousands make this one of the most exciting, pulse-stirring dramas to emerge from the depths of the Congo.

"White Witch Doctor" begins a three day run at the Star Theatre today.
