Historic Church Is Being Moved

Old St. Anthony's Will See Service Again at Mission

Old St. Anthony's Church at Fourth and Sampson is being moved to the San Jose Mission at the Labor Camp, one and one-half miles southwest of Hereford.

Long a landmark in Deaf Smith County, the building is to be lengthened by 24 feet, making it 40 feet wide by 97 feet long, to accommodate a growing congregation and to replace a small frame building now being used by the Rev. Raymond Gillis, S.A., who is in charge of the mission in the Labor Camp.

Extensively remodeled in 1921-22 by The Society of the Atonement, a Catholic order with headquarters at Graymoor, Garrison, N.Y., the building had originally been erected at La Plata in central Deaf Smith County in the summer of 1891 to serve as the first county courthouse. It was moved to Hereford in 1898, being completely torn down and rebuilt.

Became Church in 1910. Catholic services were begun in the courthouse in November, 1910. Father J. A. Campbell conducted the first services in the building after purchasing the building. The church continued to flourish and in 1920 Father Salvador Di Giazanni, S.A., arrived here and began plans for rebuilding the church building. It was dedicated on June 13, 1922. The original dome was maintained but $22,000 was spent in converting the old courthouse into a church of mission design.

been unused for the past several years. Three years ago, church members discussed moving the stucco and frame building from Hereford to Vega, then last year debated moving it to Friona to house congregations in those two towns.

Scout Sunday Is Observed

Today is Scout Sunday, part of the observance of Scout Week in Hereford. All churches are participating in honoring the scouts today.

Occasion for this Scout Week is the 47th anniversary of scouting. Scout Week began Wednesday and will end Tuesday, Hereford merchants are cooperating by showing window displays made by the various troops and packs in town.

Hereford. All churches are par-boy Scouts, four packs of Cub Scouts and one Explorer Scout post. Total membership is 371. A Scout Court of Honor will be held here Monday night. A banquet for Eagle and ex-Eagle Scouts is scheduled Tuesday night in Amarillo. Hereford troops and packs are selling tickets to a scout exposition to be held in Amarillo Feb. 22-23. The scouts get to keep 50 per cent of the ticket sale money.

Layman Volunteers. Then, with the arrival here of Rev. Michael Sugrue, S.A., pastor of St. Anthony's Parish, of which San Jose is a mission, it was decided to move the building to the Labor Camp. The difficulties of transporting the building again stumped church leaders until layman Leo Gallagher volunteered his services in contracting the work.

He contacted the H. I. Stevenson Co. in Amarillo, a firm whose activities he had noted while operating a garage there before moving to this county to farm. Stevenson agreed to undertake the moving job at a rate well below the regular price for such a project.

Will Divide Building. N.D. Bartlett, Hereford contractor, agreed to supervise the laying of the foundation and setting the new church in place without charge. The foundation work was completed several days before Stevenson and his moving crew arrived to start the moving job last Monday. The church is being divided into two parts to simplify the job of hauling it from Fourth to Schley (Continued on Page 2)

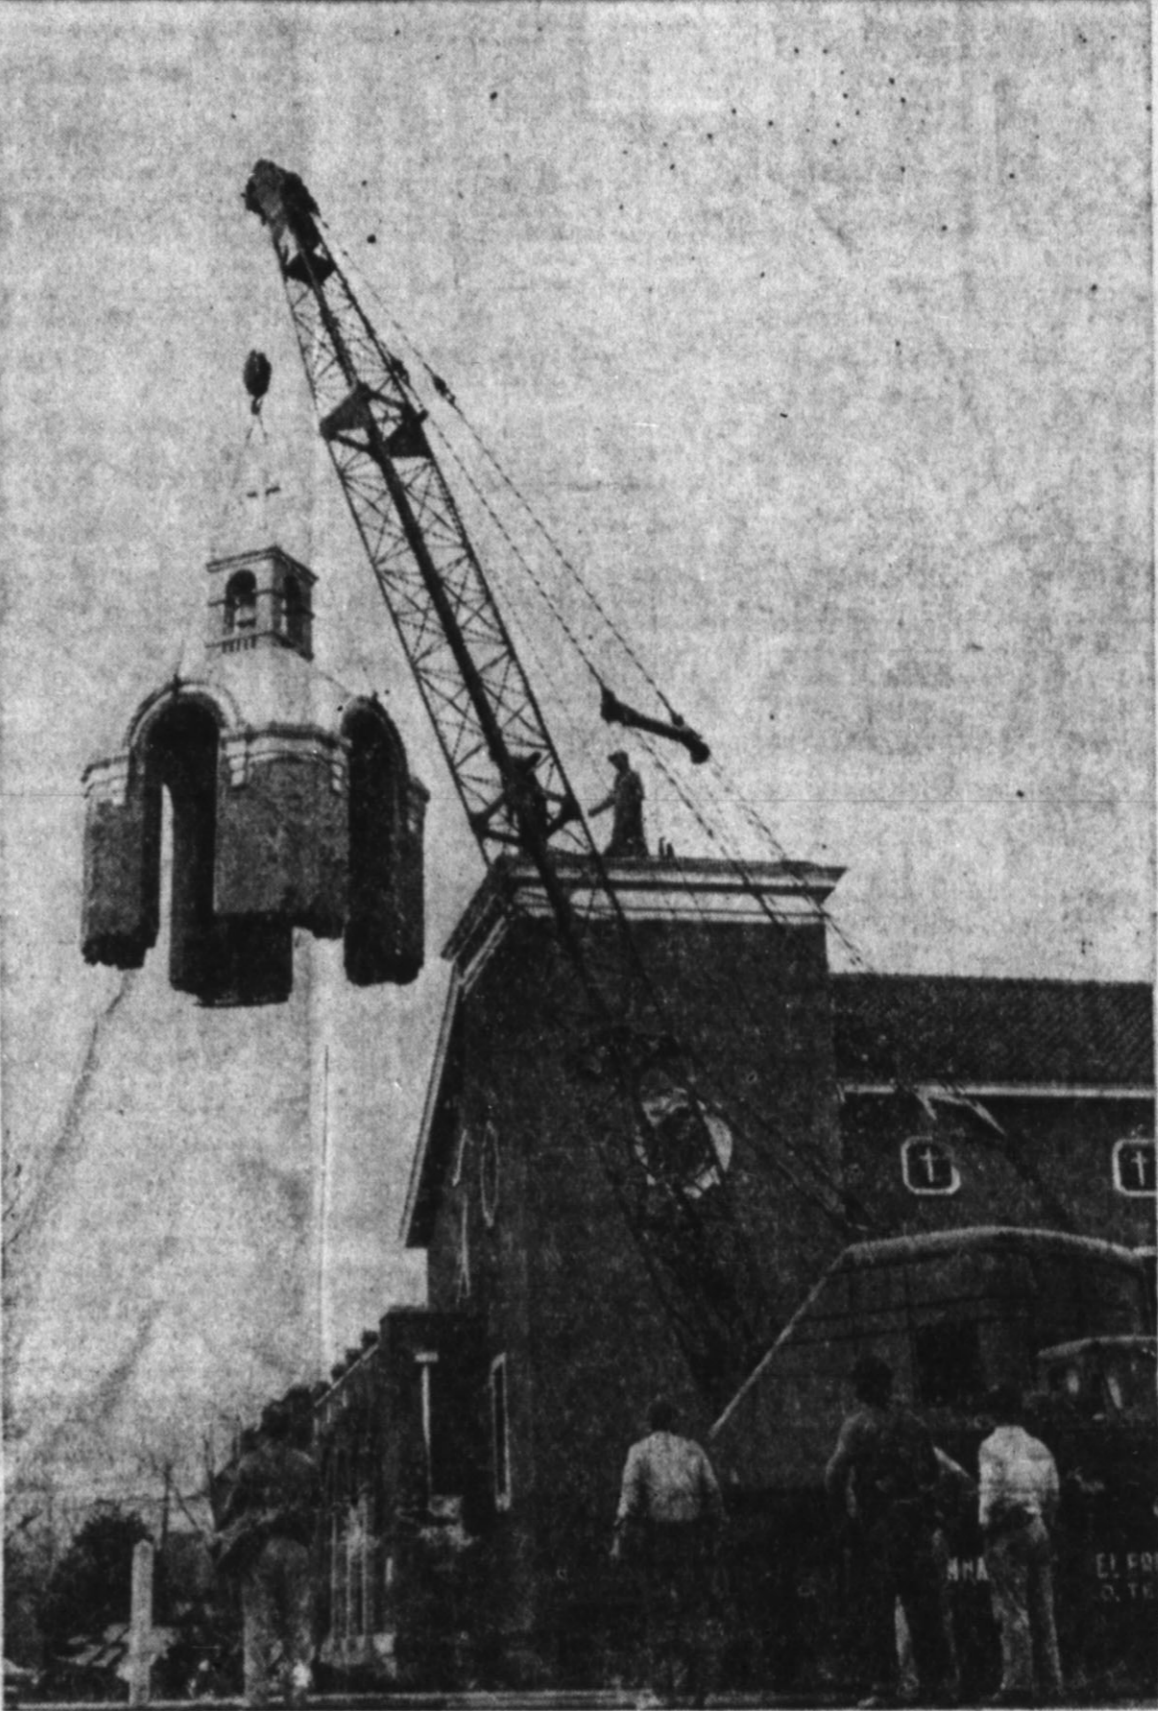

Henry Benson Now City Tax Assessor

Henry Benson was named city tax assessor on Thursday, to take over duties formerly handled by the city engineer. As a city official, Benson will also fill a second post as corporation court judge.

Benson will begin his duties as judge in the city court on Monday, succeeding Dave Alexander in that position.

The expansion of the tax assessor job to near-full-time status was debated in the last City Commission meeting and won approval from the commissioners. They indicated no change in tax structure or assessment methods is planned, but that more attention will be given to tax problems in order to keep records and valuations current.

Benson was recommended for the position by Alexander, the commissioners learned, when the retiring judge was requested to take over the dual-position. A resident of Hereford since 1941, Benson, now 54, was in the vegetable packing business until 1956. He was manager of the Dawn Co-op grain elevator for several months last year. He resides with his wife, Mrs. Dyalitha Benson, at 116 Center St. Active in civic affairs, Benson is Rotary Club president. He is a Presbyterian church member.

DOWN COMES THE STEEPLE—Movers preparing to transport the old St. Anthony's Catholic Church from its location at Fourth and Sampson to San Jose Mission at the Labor Camp removed the bell tower from its perch atop the structure with the aid of a 60-foot crane late Friday. The tower was built in 1891 and stood then atop the county's first courthouse at La Plata. The building proper is to be moved in two sections to its new location by H. I. Stevenson Co. of Amarillo. Merchants Agree Credit Education Program Needed

Members of the Hereford Merchants Assn., meeting jointly with part of the board of directors of the Hereford Credit Assn., decided, in a general manner, to begin a customer credit education program. The when and how of the program have not been definitely decided.

The 30 members present at the Friday meeting did vote definitely to 1) report all past due accounts to the credit association; 2) report all repossessions; 3) report all charged-off credit losses each January; 4) put a "thank you for your business" note in each bill to each customer and state credit terms in the note; 5) every merchant have credit application blanks in a convenient place. Table Two Proposals. Two other proposals were tabled for the time being during the meeting.

One proposal called for two entries on all credit bills. The first entry would state that 10 per cent interest or one per cent of the unpaid balance would be charged on overdue accounts. The second entry would be a statement of the merchant's membership in the Hereford Credit Assn., and national credit bureaus. Clothiers' Position. Both were blocked when Dub Reeves, representing the clothing dealers committee of the credit association, said his group would not go along.

"We're not trying to cut out on this," Reeves said. "We think the public should be educated about credit first and then we could go into the collection end of it."

"You can't stuff things down people's throats. When we (the merchants association) get the education program on a sound basis, then we can go into collection. But not now," he added. Favor Advertising Aims. Reeves said his group was in favor of advertising credit policies of the groups for six months before enforcing collection. Reeves is chairman of the credit association in addition to heading the clothing committee. Oliver Streu said he went along with Reeves, but a policy must be set before the advertising will be effective. Neil Cooper said the two proposals which were blocked seemed to be in accord with Reeves' ideas, but the approaches were different. Cooper suggested a six-month (Continued on Page 2)

PHILLIPS HAS LEAD

Levelland Smashes Herd Title Hopes

By BILL KNOX

The Levelland Lobos vanquished Hereford Whiteface championship aspirations with an upstart 47-44 victory Friday night at Levelland. The Lobos haven't lost a conference game on their home court this year. At home they have now defeated Phillips, Hereford, and Littlefield and meet Dumas Tuesday. Littlefield is the only team they won away from home.

In Hereford, the Whitefaces shellacked the Lobos, 82-66, and Phillips conquered them, 80-63, at Phillips. Dumas won by a 15-point margin at Dumas. It was a rockem-sockem type game all the way, probably the roughest the Herd has played all year. Eleven fouls were called on Levelland the entire game and 17 on Hereford. Jim Curtisinger and Bill Callaway fouled out of the game. At Hereford a total of 54 fouls was called — 28 on Hereford and 26 on Levelland.

Phillips in Front. The Levelland victory leaves Phillips in front of the unpredictable 1-AAA race. Phillips finished its regular season with a 73-25 victory over Littlefield. Dumas now has its back to the wall. It must defeat Levelland at Dumas.

OUR MISTAKE

The Brand erroneously stated Thursday that the Hereford Whitefaces were in a three-way tie for first place in District 1-AAA. At that time Phillips was leading the race with a 5-2 record while Hereford and Dumas were tied for second with identical 4-3 marks. Levelland, and that hasn't been done by a 1-AAA team, including Phillips, this year. Then the Demons must defeat Hereford at Dumas Tuesday. Dumas has a 4-2 record. Hereford now stands 4-3. It was a tough way for the Whitefaces to lose. They were in complete command for the first two quarters, but at half Levelland began to click. The Lobos manipulated (Continued on Page 2)

Funeral Services Monday Afternoon for Mr. Boardman

Funeral services for H. H. Boardman, 87, who died Saturday morning, will be held at 2:30 p.m. Monday in the First Presbyterian Church. Mr. Boardman was one of Deaf Smith County's early settlers, coming here in 1908. He died at 7 a.m. Saturday in his home two miles southeast of Hereford. He had been ill for several years. A retired farmer, he was born in Webberville, Mich., Oct. 23, 1869. He was married to Florence Lash Oct. 4, 1898 at Bennington, Kan. Mrs. Boardman died in 1950. The couple moved to Texas from Kansas in 1907 and came to this county from Chesterville the next year. The Rev. Russell Wingert, pastor, will officiate at the funeral services. Burial will be in West Park Cemetery under direction of Callaway Funeral Home. Survivors include two sons, Herbert and Glenn, both of Hereford; two daughters, Mrs. Richard Renz and Mrs. L. D. Gray, both of St. Louis, Mo.; a sister, Mrs. Olive Merrill of Pasadena, Calif.; 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

19 Indictments Are Returned by New Grand Jury

The new Deaf Smith County Grand Jury Tuesday returned 19 indictments and six no-bills. Going into session Monday at 10 a.m., the jury returned its last indictment at 6 p.m. Tuesday. Seven persons were indicted for child desertion, five for hot checks, two for driving while intoxicated (second offense), one for theft over $50, two for removal of mortgaged property, one for forgery and one for disposal of mortgaged property. Three of the persons indicted are not in custody. Charged with child desertion are Harold Kenneth Geeslin, Louis Labrecque, Wills A. Underwood, Willis Harrison Gurley, Roy Riley, Felipe Lopez and one man not yet in custody. J. R. Ryan, Joseph Dale Trujillo and three others were indicted for hot checks. One man is wanted on both hot check and child desertion counts. Loyd Allen Ragland and Torbio Gaitan were indicted for second offense driving while intoxicated, a felony. Amadeo Antonio Madrid was indicted for theft over $50. Indicted for removal of mortgaged property were John Alvarez and Edward Hubbard. The grand jury billed Travis Castleberry for disposal of mortgaged property. Members of the grand jury, selected Monday morning, are Frank Watson, W. J. Albracht, Donald T. Guseman, C. L. McBroom, Mrs. Phil Barkley, Mrs. Robert Veigel, Mrs. Urlin Streu, Don T. Martin, Mrs. A. J. Schroeter, Mrs. Ralph McCullough and Mrs. R. G. Blue. Sylvester Slagle is serving as foreman. Judge Harry A. Schultz will be in Hereford Feb. 14 for any cases to be tried. The grand jury will convene again April 4.

WILLIPUTIAN CAGER—Keith Kitchens, just out of diapers, has amazed and amused basketball fans at the Hereford gymnasium with his ability to dribble the big ball while running at top speed. Keith, 2-years-old and 3 foot 1 inch tall, finds it easy to dribble between the legs of 6 foot 4 inch Jim Curtisinger, but when the young fellow looks up at the basket, he realizes he has a long way to grow. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cuby Kitchens—his father is coach of the Hereford High School basketball team. (Staff Photo)

Senatorial Candidate Expresses Views Here

Judge James P. Hart, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, stopped briefly in Hereford Thursday to make a campaign speech. He spoke to a group of 18 in the chamber of commerce conference room. He was accompanied by his wife. The talk, followed by informal chat, lasted about 20 minutes. The candidate outlined his platform. He said he believes the federal government must help on the water problem, since the problem is national and sometimes international.

Hart said the federal government is better equipped for planning and research on the problem than are the states. "I am for a sound and firm foreign policy," he stated. He also said, as regards state's rights, that the government closest to the people can serve the people best. Hart said his first concern as a senator would be the welfare of the country. He said he favors full parity for farmers and crop controls to avoid surplus.

"I don't know the ultimate solution to the farm problems," he added. The candidate said he is neither liberal nor conservative, but would consider legislation on its own merit.

JAMES P. HART. Hart lives in Austin. Now 51, he is a former Texas supreme court justice and former chancellor of the University of Texas. He has served as district attorney and special district judge in Travis County.

Egg Grading Law Backed by Bureau

WACO — Texas housewives can be assured of buying quality eggs if a proposed grading and labeling law is passed by the Legislature, according to J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

"Also," Hammond said, "the egg producers of the state would be protected from unfair competition by low-grade, culled eggs from other states if the pending egg legislation is enacted."

The bill would regulate the handling and sale of eggs in this state by establishing standards of size and quality and providing for grading and labeling regulations.

Hammond said that producers selling from their own flocks would be exempt from regulations as long as they did not claim a grade for their eggs.

He declared the proposed law would benefit the jobbers, wholesalers and retailers by establishing their reputation as handlers of quality eggs. He said it would encourage flock-owners to produce quality eggs. In addition, such a law would establish a definite channel for "cracks and rejects," eliminating them from the fresh, edible egg market, he said.

"Texas which imports 40 per cent of the eggs consumed in the state, is the only state in the nation which does not have an egg grading and labeling law," Hammond said. "Consequently, the state has become the dumping ground for low-grade, culled eggs from other states."

lated a third quarter lead and stalled for most of the fourth quarter.

Fast Start
Hereford had been red-hot at the start of the game.

Riding the accurate shooting arms of Bill Dufur, Fred Lookingbill, and Jim Curtisinger, the Whitefaces at one time led by 17-5 in the first quarter.

The pace slackened in the second quarter, and Leveland began to slowly narrow the margin. At one point in the second period Hereford held a 25-10 lead but the gap was narrowed to nine points at halftime.

Lead Disappears
Leveland had gained the lead before Hereford scored a point in the second half.

The Whitefaces saw their 30-21 halftime lead go down the drain when Jesse Sudderuth sank a field goal to give the Lobos a 31-30 lead. Leveland lost it once after that but gained it back and kept it.

Hereford led at the first two quarter points by 21-8 and 30-21. Leveland led, 41-36 at the third quarter's end.

Big Thomas Cowan and Berl Ralley led Leveland scoring with 11 points apiece. Bill Dufur paced Hereford with 15 points. Jim Curtisinger had 12.

"We had our backs to the wall all the way. The pressure's off now, but I wish it was on," said Coach Coby Kitchens.

The picture wasn't altogether gloomy Friday night. The Hereford "B" team whipped the Leveland "B" team 61-29. Bobby Shelton and Milner Duvall shared high point honors with 16 apiece.

St. then south across the Santa Fe tracks and Tierra Blanca Creek, which will be forded before the movers turn west for the trek to the new location.

Remove Dome
Salvaging the old courthouse dome, which has graced the building since its days at La Plata, was a job that called for specialists.

The movers decreed that it be removed to prevent damage during the overland haul.

The dome towered just over 50 feet into the air before its removal late Friday afternoon. Panhandle Steel Erectors of Amarillo handled the job of setting the dome from church to a trailer bed for the move. A 60-foot crane handled the big, heavy piece of structure without difficulty.

Gallagher Commended
Movement of the largest portion of the church building is expected to start sometime this week.

The work of Leo Gallagher, farmer-turned moving supervisor, has been warmly praised during the past few days by both Father Michael and Father Raymond. "We would never have been able to start this job without the determination and will to work that Leo has displayed," said the mission priest.

And not content with merely handling "arrangements," Gallagher has been working beside the movers, wielding the heavy tools of their trade. He's a hard man to hold down for an interview while engrossed in the moving job; one minute he's in the church basement, the next on top of the building and displays the agility of a curious young cat despite graying hair that indicates Leo is no youngster.

Property to be Sold
The cost of moving the church is estimated at $1,300, which includes $630 for wire cutting and bridging the wires over the intersections crossed. The church building proper, even with the dome and cross removed, is about three feet too high to pass under the electrical wires.

Father Michael said that the property on the courthouse square where the old church has stood will be leveled and cleaned up and sold along with the school that remains there.

Father Michael is pastor of the only parish in the Western United States served by Graymorn priests. He has assistants, Fathers Cletus McGorry, Nathaniel Madden and Raymond.

The building now used as a church at the Labor Camp mission is to be incorporated in the mission school which is under the direction of the Franciscan Sisters, whose mother-house is in Amarillo.

plans to move into the location on Third Street now occupied by Rose and Barber.

Things are also moving along on the new Cowser and Bybee building under construction south of the Hereford Credit Union on Schley. Understand that the law firm plans to move between March 15 and April 1. They will have some 2,300 feet of floor space; strictly modern, of course.

At the risk of being accused of running around as much as Carl McCaslin, I reluctantly admit having been in Tucson the past weekend. Tucson, they estimate, is now some 200,000 population — and there is a heavy emphasis on shopping center growth. It rained and drizzled all of the time I was there. Folks kept telling me that the weather was unusual, but I have said that so often about our own country that they were wasting their time on me. However, it is quite unique to see such a city rising out of the desert. You literally jump from a land of cactus and waste into a city of orange trees and palms. I was real careful while driving in Cochise County, because I had already seen on TV what kind of sheriff they have out there.

Over the 640 mile route, I saw nothing to compare with this area, however. Faust Collier was telling me about a fellow from Lubbock who recently settled here. The man said he had travelled some 4,000 miles and he came back here because the Hereford area had more life, more growth, more activity and more future than anything he saw during the 4,000 mile trip. This is the truth. The further you go, the better you will think of things here at home. Even Bill Lenderman will agree.

F. A. Tucker says he got the surprise of his life this past week while visiting his daughter in Midland. He walked into a big super market and there, prominently displayed on the shelves, were hundreds and hundreds of half-gallon jugs of Hereford water. Tucker says the price was 19 cents — and that quite a few shoppers were dropping the jugs into their market carts.

One of the best things Hereford has come up with in a long time is the new Savings and Loan Assn. I have only one complaint. It is 10 years too late. It is a good deal, though, and should do unusually well. I guess it also proves something about population, since the minimum state charter requirement on such associations is a town with 7,500 population.

What we need now are some candidates for City Commissioner and Mayor. There is plenty of time for filing, but everyone seems to be holding back. This is peculiar in view of the fact that the city is in good shape, has money in the bank and no particularly serious problems. If things were really rough, there would probably be 10 or 15 candidates already out. I guess people just naturally like trouble.

Another peculiar thing about Hereford is the fact that such a dry country would boast so many boats. There are maybe more pleasure boats per capita than anywhere else in the country. Blue Turpin, Mark Benefield and Ross Latham all have new rigs during the past few days. Ray McCulough got back from the gulf coast recently, where he used his outfit for surf fishing. Someone should start a boat club so we could find out just how many there really are.

Boxing seems to be another coming sport in the area. You hear lots of talk since the Golden Gloves. Understand that Rev. Lester Jones and Melvin Young, a couple of old Marine fighters, are working out some dozen or so hopefuls these days. I wouldn't be surprised to see increasing interest in boxing during the next year or so.

Removal of the old Catholic Church from the corner of Fourth and Sampson marks the passing of a landmark. Vern Witherspoon once told me that the spire on this church was from the old LaPlata Courthouse. In addition, the building was one of the most photogenic ever to be located in the community. For some reason, pictures have always been exceptionally good. I especially remember one Emma Jane Brown took for the paper several years back when the trees were covered with ice. It was made from the top of Hotel Jim Hill and will no doubt be remembered by many other people.

Meanwhile, those store windows not displaying Boy Scout propaganda took on an atmosphere of Spring. Pick Harman blossomed out with pink umbrellas and roses, while Irving Alexander came up with a nice stand of tulips. Everyone who passed their way immediately predicted "Snow and Ice."

Dr. Nobles Gives Heart Fund Aims; Campaign Begins

The Heart Fund campaign for funds was launched here during the past week by members of the Deaf Smith County Chapter, according to Francis Hardwick, coordinating chairman. Money raised through the campaign will be used to continue the fight against the nation's number one killer-disease. Plastic cards will be distributed through the business district to accept individual contributions, and a house-to-house canvass is planned for Sunday, Feb. 24. Dick Barnard and Gerald McCaskill of the Rotary Club will direct the house-to-house work. "No quota has been established for the campaign," said Hardwick. Chapter Leaders association chapter include Dr. M. W. Nobles, president; Mrs. Ira Ott, publicity chairman; Bob Land, speaker and education program chairman, and Hardwick, Barnard and McCaskill.

The problems that the American Heart Association seeks to solve through research and the magnitude of the heart-disease threat were discussed by Dr. Nobles last week when he appeared as guest speaker during the Rotary Club meeting. "Heart-disease," Dr. Nobles declared, "is a very major problem. There were 800,000 deaths attributed to heart-disease in the United States last year. That total represents over half of all the deaths in the nation during the year. Ten Million Victims

"There were, by comparison, 240,000 deaths attributed to cancer and 91,000 to accidents. Today, there are 10 million persons, in-

Water Problems Are Discussed by Bay View Club

A panel discussion on "Water—The Number One Problem" made up the program at the Bay View Study Club session held with Mrs. J. C. McCracken Thursday afternoon.

Presented on the program were Mrs. Leo Forrest, who talked on Texas water law background; Mrs. R. B. Miller, who outlined Texas water resources and Miss Frances Turrentine, who discussed water uses and water problems. Mrs. Francis Hardwick, told of possible solutions to water problems.

Mrs. Phillip Barkley, second vice president, presided over the business session. Announcement was cluding 500,000 children in the nation that are suffering from heart disease. Folio," he noted, "accounts for a negligible percentage of deaths."

Of the total funds contributed to the campaign here, 20 per cent will remain in the local chapter treasury, while the district and state associations each will receive 40 per cent. The work of the national association is financed by contributions from the state groups' funds. Twenty million dollars has been expended by the American Heart Association for research since 1949, Dr. Nobles said.

Principal Types
He described the principal heart-disease troubles as hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure and rheumatic fever.

Developments that are helping to curb the death toll claimed by the various heart troubles include developments of dietary standards, medicines that generally lower blood pressure and new surgical techniques.

The extended life of persons in this community who have recovered from heart attacks and now lead normal or near-normal lives was cited by the local chapter president as a result of continuing research into the heart-disease problem.

made that the next meeting on Feb. 21 will be held in the Friendship Room at the Hereford State Bank.

Members attending were Mesdames Paul Mathers, Phillip Barkley, H. L. Benefield, Colby Conkright, Leo Forrest, W. J. Gilliland, Jimmie Gillentine, Francis Hardwick, E. W. Harrison, A. M. Jones, J. W. Kirby, Ansel McDowell, R. B. Miller, J. W. Spradley, James W. Witherspoon, Miss Francis Turrentine and the hostess.

2 from Hereford at Ministers Meet

Hereford Methodists were represented at the 22nd Annual Ministers Week held on the Southern Methodist University campus last week. Ministers from throughout the South Central Methodist Jurisdiction, an eight state area, participated in the event which is said to be one of the largest of its kind in Protestantism.

Three churchmen — one of them SMU Chancellor Umphrey Lee — delivered a series of lectures during the four-day theological get-together, which is designed to help produce a better trained ministry. Other two speakers were Dr. James Mullenburg, professor of Hebrew and Cognate languages at Union Theological seminary in New York City, and Dr. Theodore F. Adams, pastor of First Baptist Church in Richmond, Va., and president of the Baptist World Alliance.

Registered from Hereford were the Rev. Alby J. Cockrell and Bernard F. Seay.

PAY ON $40 RATE
Soil Bank Plan
for '57 Cotton
To Be Announced

Soil bank cotton acreage reserve contracts may be signed now at the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office. The county payment rate will be $40 per acre, but there is considerable variation between individual dryland and irrigated farms, said Faust Collier, ASC manager.

Notices as to the payment rate per acre will be mailed to all county cotton growers on Monday, but information will be available to interested persons at the ASC office.

The deadline for signing the acreage reserve agreements for cotton is March 1. The one-year soil bank program for cotton did not attract great interest in Deaf Smith County last year, although extensive wheat acreage went into the "bank."

Chairman R. G. Schrauner, of the state ASC committee, has explained that the acreage reserve programs are one part of the Soil Bank, which is now entering its first year of full operation. The other part is the conservation reserve, which is a longer-range plan, offering farmers financial help in changing their use of general cropland from harvested crops to conservation uses.

The acreage reserve, on the other hand, gives farmers an opportunity to attack directly the accumulated surpluses of basic crops by diverting allotment acreage from basic-crop production.

"Farmers may not fully realize all the advantages of participating in the acreage reserve programs," Schrauner stated. "For one thing, participating farmers will earn special payments to protect their current income while land is in the reserve and out of crop production; they will receive the program payments for the reserve acres, even if they run into a bad growing season; they may rest the reserve acres, or improve them with cover crops which may qualify for regular Agricultural Conservation Program assistance; they will be in position to reduce their overall investment in the year's farm operations; and finally, by cooperating with other pro-

VALENTINE'S DAY IS FOR THE YOUNG IN HEART

Many quaint and delightful customs from various nations surround this most romantic of all holidays, but none so beautiful as the young girl smiling her love to her young man as he presents her a token of his love, or the couple who are privileged to look back upon many years filled with fond recollections and rich memories. Today's pictures are a true reflection of the American way of life and the meaning which St. Valentine's Day has for the young, and for the young-in-heart.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allred Mark Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allred are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary today from 3 to 5 p.m. at an open house held in the home of their son, Jimmie Allred, 129 Ave. D.

Mrs. Allred was Della McClain whose father, the late W. R. McClain, a well-known rancher of McGregor, moved to the Panhandle-Plains in 1902, purchasing the old Dick Ellis Ranch.

Mr. Allred was born near Ft. Worth and when eight years old, moved with his parents the late Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Allred, to a ranch between Chillicothe and Vernon.

In 1900, the family decided to move westward. J. C. previously had scouted this area for grass, making three round trips from Vernon on horseback. The family made the drive through in a covered wagon. After getting the family settled on the ranch, which was near the present site of Wildorado, J. C. and his brother went back after the 185 head of cattle.

It took them 30 days to make the trip following the trail by the Quitaque post office, and on through Silverton and Canyon. When they reached the Bock pasture below Canyon, the owners refused to let them pass through because they came from below the quarantine line. They camped just below the pasture and waited until nightfall to start moving the cattle through, for to go around this pasture would mean an additional 25 miles.

The worst experience of the trip was an electrical storm that came up when they were about halfway through the pasture. Each man stayed under his horse and watched the balls of fire play around the horses and on the fences for about two hours. They circled the herd the rest of the night and early the next morning pushed on to the creek below. While they ate breakfast, the cattle grazed on the spot where West Texas State College now stands.

"It was a great country even then," Allred recalls. The wind blew so hard a man could hardly stay on his horse, but it rained more then, and you could count the antelope by the hundreds."

Mrs. Allred said she thought the country was beautiful when she arrived. The ground was covered with snow and it didn't take her long to get used to the bitter cold. Marry in 1907

There wasn't much for people to do but go to church and everybody did. That was where the couple met. Allred said he didn't know you could court a girl except on Sundays, and on Sunday afternoons there were antelope chases where the boys really showed their stuff and the girls made up the delighted audience. A Fourth of July picnic was the only week-day date they ever had.

They were married in the bride's ranch home by the only available minister, a missionary, who hadn't married a couple before and was more frightened than they.

For a time he worked on various ranches in the neighborhood and then moved to Amarillo where he was employed in a furniture and undertaking establishment. He considered becoming an undertaker, but Mrs. Allred finally persuaded him to return to the ranch. He bought his own acreage and helped develop the Palo Duro Community.

Life on a ranch in those days was never dull, Mrs. Allred says. "There was always plenty to do, carrying water, washing clothes on a rub board and boiling the clothes in a big iron pot in the yard, ironing with a flat iron, sewing, cooking and acting as nurse and doctor for the entire family. What a change electricity has made in ranch life."

Both agree that those were the happiest days of their lives.

"You see, we started out as a Christian family and the Lord was with us all of the time. We began having a family altar every night and still do, and our greatest happiness has come from doing the work of the Lord," he recalls. If they have any advice to offer young couples starting out today, it would be "Begin your married life with the Lord and find something of His work to do right away."

In 1901, Allred was instrumental in organizing the Palo Duro Baptist Church, first rural church in Deaf Smith County, and was one of its eight charter members. He has been an ordained deacon in the Baptist Church for 48 years and served as superintendent of the Palo Duro Sunday School for 21 years.

The couple moved to Hereford in 1930 and built the home now occupied by Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Wilks. They returned to the ranch in 1937 but sold their holdings and moved back to Hereford when he became associated with his son, Jimmie, in the Allred Oil Co. and Hereford Butane Gas Co. He retired in 1953. Their present home is at 204 Lawton.

Both have been active in the work of the First Baptist Church here. He has served as teacher of the Older Men's Class for the past 13 years.

The couple has five living children, one daughter, Maymie, died in 1928 at the age of 17. The children are Cecil of Amarillo, Mrs. D. W. Henry (Sadie) of Plainview, Jimmie, Mrs. R. C. Anderson (Lottie) of Hereford and Mrs. Garland Mayo (Ethel) of Seattle, Wash. There are nine grandchildren.

Reception To Honor Couple

Children of the couple will serve as hosts at an open house this afternoon in the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Allred, 129 Ave. D from 3 to 5 p.m.

Golden tones will be emphasized throughout the house in decoration. The anniversary table will be laid with a white linen and lace cloth over gold and the center attraction will be a gold satin arch tied at the top with tiny wedding bells and encircling the numerals "50" done in gold glitter.

Flanking the arch will be a miniature bridal couple on one side and miniature grandparents on the other, framed in gold. Golden chrysanthemums will highlight the setting. White satin streamers will bear the inscription in gold "Della McClain — 1907 — 57 — J. C. Allred".

Daughters and daughters-in-law of the couple will assist with the hospitalities.

Marriage Rites Announced Here

In a double-ring ceremony which took place on the evening of Jan. 31, at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Lorraine McIntosh became the bride of David Marion Hix. The Rev. H. V. Fields was the officiant.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Leland Flesher who wore a pink linen frock, and Evelyn Lee who wore a navy suit.

Attending the bridegroom were Leland Flesher and John Hix.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Milburn Observe Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Milburn observed their silver wedding anniversary Monday. The couple was married on Feb. 4, 1932 in Chickasha, Okla.

In March they moved to Hereford and he owned and operated the Milburn Service Station for 15 years. For the past 10 years he has operated the Milburn Motor Co.

Mrs. Milburn, the former Miss Laura Scroggin, is the daughter of Mrs. Cornelia Scroggin who has recently moved to Hereford from Oklahoma. Mr. Milburn's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Milburn of Nocona.

Both are members of the Presbyterian Church where he has served as an elder for the past several years and she has been active in the women's organizations. He is a member of the Rotary Club and Mrs. Milburn is a member of the Calliopean Study Club.

They have one son, Nick, who is nine years old.

Allred - Cronin Marriage Scheduled for Thursday, April 18

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Allred have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Marlene, to James Thomas Cronin, son of Mrs. J. D. Bruner.

The wedding will take place on April 18 in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Howard Scott officiating.

Announcement of the nuptials was made at an informal tea given in the Allred home Sunday, Feb. 3, when approximately 100 guests called between 2:30 and 5 p.m.

The table carried out the colors chosen for the wedding with a white linen and lace cloth with underlay of cornflower blue. Centering the table was an arch of styrofoam decorated with tiny wedding bells and twin wedding bands. Pencil-thin tapers burned at either side, highlighting the blue of the carnations and ribbon puffs at the base.

White satin ribbon streamered the arrangement, telling the story of the romance in glittered letters "J. T. and Marlene — April 18." Silver appointments completed the setting.

Marlene Gilliland, Marlene Legg, Sammy McLallen and Mary Nell

McCollum, classmates of the honoree at Hardin-Simmons University, presided at the coffee and tea services.

The receiving line was made up of Mrs. Allred, the bride-elect, Clydene Allred, who will be her sister's maid of honor, Mrs. J. D. Bruner, the prospective bridegroom's mother, Rosemary Cronin, his sister, and Wylagene Quattlebaum, who will serve as bridesmaid in the wedding.

Carol Snead and Beth Scott presided at the guest book of names, and Mary Ann Young and Betty Snead provided informal piano music during the afternoon.

Assisting with the hospitalities were Mesdames D. C. Kinsey, B. E. Roberson, J. B. Snead, H. E. Miller, R. C. Anderson, Owen Stagner, Lynn Kester, Jim Burks, Howard Scott, Jack Kirksey and Cecil Allred of Amarillo.

Both young people are graduates of Hereford High School. Miss Allred is a freshman student at Hardin-Simmons University and Mr. Cronin will receive his degree at the Abilene school in June. After graduation he plans to enter medical school.

Heart Cake for Valentine's

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

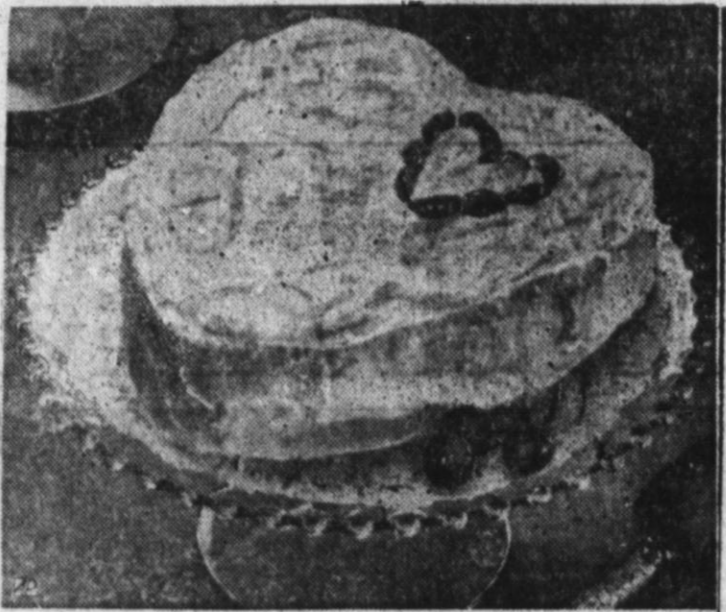

If a heart-shaped cake is your fancy for a Valentine party, here's your recipe. It's a tender cake, made with four egg whites and bits of maraschino cherries to add Cupid's color.

We used the four egg yolks left over from the cake for a generous amount of filling — the sort everyone likes in Boston Cream Cake. Cover your heart cake with a white or pink-tinted frosting and decorate with another heart made of cherries.

The frosting may, of course, be homemade or one of the fluffy varieties that now come in a packaged mix all ready to be made up. The heart-shaped pans this cake is baked in are widely available because they are now marketed by three manufacturers. But if you haven't heart pans on hand, you can bake the cake in two regular 8-inch round layer-cake pans.

SWEETHEART CAKE
Ingredients: 2 cups sifted cake flour, 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2/3 cup butter or margarine, 3/4 cup sugar, 2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract, 1/3 cup milk, 1/3 cup water, 4 egg whites, 1/4 cup suar, 1/4 cup (about 10) finely chopped well-drained maraschino cherries.

Method: Sift together the cake flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter, 3/4 cup sugar and vanilla. Beat in gently the sifted dry ingredients, alternately with the milk and water, in four additions. Beat only until smooth. Beat egg whites until foamy; beat in 1/4 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time; continue to beat if necessary until stiff straight-up peaks can be formed when beater is slowly withdrawn. Fold meringue and drained chopped cherries into flour mixture. Turn into two prepared 8-inch heart or round layer-cake pans. (To prepare pans, grease bottom; line bottom with waxed paper; grease paper.) Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 30 minutes or until cake tester inserts ed in center comes out clean. Turn out on racks; turn right side up so tops of cakes won't stick to racks. Cool. Fill with Sweetheart Filling. Frost as desired with pink or white icing; garnish with slivered maraschino cherries arranged in a heart shape. Be sure to dry cherry slivers on a paper towel before using as a garnish so they won't run.

SWEETHEART FILLING
Ingredients: 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 cups milk, 4 egg yolks, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract.

Method: Mix together thoroughly the sugar, cornstarch, flour and salt in a medium-sized saucepan. Add 1/2 cup of the milk and stir until smooth; stir in remaining milk. Cook and stir constantly over low heat until thickened and boiling; this may take about 20 minutes. Make sure mixture is very thick. Beat the egg yolks slightly; gradually beat a little of the hot mixture into them; beat back into mixture in saucepan. Cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat about 5 minutes. If mixture is not very thick, increase heat and stir constantly, let boil for several minutes. Remove from heat. Stir in butter and vanilla. Strain; cover and chill. Use as filling for the Sweetheart Cake.

2 Boys Caught with Stolen Automobile

By JUDY GRETCHEN PINNELL
Tuesday at 10 a.m. two boys, ages 15 and 17, abandoned a pickup truck they were driving east of town and walked into Adrian. Mrs. Grady Pridmore drove her car up to the home of Mrs. Frankie Shaw and left the motor of her car running while she went in to see Mrs. Shaw. The boys saw her car and drove it away. Sheriff Day Thompson was notified and he overtook the boys three miles east of Vega. The boys were taken to Memphis, where they were wanted for a crime committed the previous night.

The 4-H Fun night in the Hereford High School Auditorium attracted many from the Caprock 4-H Monday night. The girls' stunt featured a style show. The MC was Marlene Williams. Those in the style line were Paula Creitz, Coralie Fortenberry, Linda Pinnell, Vickie Burns, Doris Horton, Joleen Betts, Marsha Burns. Kathleen Kromer was campaign manager for Glenda Homfeld, club candidate for 4-H queen. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Homfeld of Bippus. She has been an outstanding winner in the county for the past three years. Parents attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Horton, and Mike, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Burns and Chris, Mrs. Horace Betts and Sammy, Mrs. Jake Fortenberry, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Homfeld and Jerry, and Mrs. R. L. Pinnell. All reported a very successful event.

Injury Improving
Ninnette Pounds returned to the doctor Friday and she reported her injured knee is improving. Mrs. Annie Vickrey returned to school this week. Everyone was very glad to see her back. Mrs. Jim Cavin spent two days in Amarillo, last week where she attended the funeral of a child of a very close friend. Tuesday night, the Matadors returned from Happy with a loss and a victory. The boys emerged with a victory. The girls lost. Friday night on home court we saw two very exciting games. The girls had a very close game of 58 to 56. The boys wound up with a final score of 85 to 55. The opposing team was Nazareth. Coach and Mrs. Joe Cullender and family visited in the R. L. Pinnell home Saturday night.

Here for Visit
Mrs. Albert Palk arrived Friday morning from Tulsa, Okla., for several days visit with her brother and family Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Tomlinson.

Freddie Harris, John Powers and Pee Wee Burks visited with Pee Wee's family in Arlington. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Burks and family over the weekend. His brother, Jerry, underwent the last test before heart surgery. The date for the operation has not been set. Mrs. Loren Creitz, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jacobson attended the lecture by Dr. Frank Charles Lawboch, president of World Neighbor and Literacy Inc., in the Amarillo College Auditorium Monday night.

Dinner Guests
Mrs. Laura Williams and Pat and Mrs. Bessie Shipp were dinner guests of Mrs. Chilton Monday evening. Mrs. Earl Brown and her mother Mrs. Pat Maupin returned from Wellington this week where she has been visiting with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tarver and family. Mr. Tarver has just had a severe heart attack and is still seriously ill.

Wayne Pinnell returned from the Northwest Texas Hospital Sunday morning. His leg is in a cast and it will remain for six weeks. He and his wife, Joan are staying in the E. K. Pinnell home at the present. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pinnell and family visited with them Sunday.

Has everyone seen that new car of the Rev. and Mrs. Johnnie Williams? Rev. and Mrs. Williams visited with their daughter, Glenda, in Abilene Monday and Tuesday and with other relatives in Fort Worth until Thursday. While away, Marlene stayed with Paula Creitz. They returned sporting their new car.

Jack Fincher accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frank left on Thursday with a load of prize bulls of C. C. Wimberley farm to be delivered to Orlando, Fla.

BUILT-IN GAS RANGE

BURNER with a BRAIN

Who says cooking's a chore? What woman wishes she were a better cook? Where's the housewife who would like to improve the appearance of her kitchen?

If you fall into any one of these categories, then a built-in GAS range is the perfect solution to your problem.

Cooking actually becomes fun it's so easy. Your kitchen becomes more spacious, with a sleek new look you're proud to show off.

And now, even the most difficult recipes become a snap — with automatic controls including the "Burner with a Brain" that completely frees you from pot watching.

Remarkably sensitive, this new burner "feels" the temperature of a pot or pan, raising or lowering the flame to maintain the precise cooking temperature called for. Result: no boil-overs, no burning, no scorching — ever! And it makes possible a greater variety of range top cooking than ever before. So, to make the most out of your kitchen, and your cooking plan, now, to install a glamorous, built-in GAS range.

(You can boss this Buick Special for little more than the price of a smaller car!)

ONE LOOK at that price figure and you'll know that — again in 1957 — if you can afford a new car you can afford a Buick.

And look what you get for so little extra money. You get the most completely new Buick in years. Not just brand new in styling and brand new in body design.

But new in features that make this the dream car of the year to drive.

You get brand-new performance because the engine is literally new from the crankshaft up.

You get a brand-new instant response because we engineered brand-new torque into Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

And to give you the new sure-footed safety of a lower center of gravity — we built a brand-new frame — which lowers the car, but keeps the headroom, legroom and footroom that a big car should have.

Fact is, there are more than 150 other chassis changes in this '57 Buick — waiting for you to try them. Do that soon — at your Buick dealer's.

Minneapolis Symphony Leader Favors Small City Music Life

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Arts Editor
NEW YORK (AP) — Antal Dorati, Minneapolis Symphony conductor, comes to New York often — he has just talked to me here, and conducts his orchestra here tomorrow in Carnegie Hall — but he claims there's a lot to be said for the musical life in America outside this city.

SMALL CITY BOY—Antal Dorati, Minneapolis symphony conductor, is a booster of small city musical life. "We're prouder of our orchestra than you are of yours," he tells New Yorkers.

A tall, attractive fellow, with a musicianly kink to his hair, of which he has more than most of his confreres, he is accustomed to the musical metropolises: Budapest, his birthplace, and Paris, Vienna and London. But he's a booster for the small place.

"In my city, Minneapolis," he argues, to begin with, "we're prouder of our orchestra than you are of yours."

"New York has less interest in its Philharmonic than Minneapolis in its symphony. Like other Americans, we have a feeling for our community, and part of that is a feeling for the music we ourselves make."

Fund Raising Easier
Minneapolis, along with St. Paul has perhaps a million population, or an eighth of New York's, and yet, he continued:

"We collect 2½ times as much money for our symphony as New York does for its. We collect almost $300,000. It is partly because we have to. In New York the orchestra earns more money on records and a longer season. We make both ends meet by means of a quiet fund-raising campaign."

Go on, I begged, tell me more reasons why a music lover might be better off in a small place than in this monster city.

"My players are fresher," he answered. "They are not tired out playing for recordings, or radio, they come to the hall alert and prepared. And sometimes they arrive two full hours early to go over their parts. Just as the community is prouder, the players are, too, and feel a greater responsibility toward their orchestra."

More Rehearsals
Dorati also claimed some advantages for the conductor: "I get five rehearsals a week, usually three hours each, thus I can prepare more new music. And since my audiences are interested in the orchestra itself, I don't have to pay so much for costly soloists.

"Furthermore, it's one-man rule—and what conductor wouldn't like that! I am left alone. My board asks only that I succeed. I provide the orchestra music for an area half the size of Europe. There is not much audience reaction to contend with, either. People don't write in. When I conducted in Dallas, Tex., I once played some Debussy, and a man wrote swearing to get me, partner, with two six shooters if I ever did that again."

Happy Refugee
However, he told of one man deliriously happy to go there recently—a Hungarian refugee, Zoltan Rozsnyai who, said Dorati, owed it to an Associated Press dispatch that he got into the United States and onto the podium in Minneapolis.

The Minneapolis Tribune called Dorati to tell him of The Associated Press report of the escape of Rozsnyai to Vienna. Working through Minnesota's Senator Thye, Dorati got State Department permission for his colleague to enter the country. By then, however, the State Department couldn't find him, and the AP lost him. But the AP ran him down in Zurich. He arrived here, conducted, and left, carrying, not the briefcase with which he had entered the country, but half a dozen suitcases packed with the riches he found on the counters in stores everywhere.

Dorati's orchestra tours widely. Currently, it has visited Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania. Its concert here, the first all-Bartok program ever in Carnegie Hall, he says, is a Hungarian benefit. In September and October the Minneapolis will tour the Mediterranean countries, from Spain to Beirut and Damascus and on to New Delhi, under ANTA auspices.

Dinner Given for FHA Candidates

Members of the high school FHA chapters who are working toward state degrees met in the home of Mrs. Joel Hodges recently for a covered-dish supper.

The purpose of the meeting was for the girls and the sponsors, Mrs. Hodges and Mrs. J. J. Durham, to get together to compare the work that is being done on the FHA State Degrees. Each girl who meets successfully the standards and requirements for her degree will be able to attend the state FHA meeting in Dallas in April.

Those attending were Susie Loeberwald, Dolly Paetzold, Peggy Bumpass, Sue Springer, Margaret Griffith, Carlynn Williams, and Donna Sue Guseman.

BASS FISHING

Fort Worth Man Is Favored in Tourney

WACO (AP)—The second annual State Bass Tournament is just four months away and at least one Waco fisherman figures the man to beat in the individual running could be U. J. Puckett, Fort Worth.

Puckett entered the tournament in its bow on Lake Whitney last year, but at the last moment had to return to Fort Worth. He had joined Whitney's Bill Lawson to give the meet one of its biggest-name teams.

Jack Campbell, a promising Waco angler who has come with a rush since taking up the sport of angling for bass with artificial lures two years ago, wouldn't be a bit surprised to see Puckett finish high in the final standings this year, providing the Cowtown man enters.

String of Bass
"He's the fellow who showed me the best string of bass I've ever seen," said Campbell during the past week, during a talk with several fishing buddies.

"It was last April, and I was fishing alone up around B Bluffs on Whitney. I saw this fellow plugging, found out it was Puckett, and he showed me a string of bass the likes of which I haven't seen before or since. Puckett had 15 bass on that string, and they weighed between three and five pounds each.

"Not only that, but he'd caught around 30 that day. He threw 15 back. "He was in a little 12-foot boat, and he would sit right up on the front of it, and cast in next to the big banks."

Short Casts
"Funny thing, too, but Puckett wasn't going for long casts. In fact I watched him for awhile and he would make very short casts every time. But he really covered the water."

"He was using a yellow and black Hell Bender, and he knew how to use it."

The first state tournament was held last May. It attracted 378 Texas anglers from 47 cities.

This year's tourney will be held May 2-5, again on Lake Whitney. Fishermen will again fish by teams, two men to a boat. The first three days will be for qualifying, and each team must fish during one, and only one, of the first three. Then the finalists will be back for another round Sunday, May 5.

Last year's champions were Ray Creel of Keene, the individual champion; Creel and Herman Find-

Future Teachers Attend Meeting

Eight members of the local chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma and 15 members of the high school Future Teachers of America chapter were guests of the Amarillo Pi Chapter at a special meeting there Saturday at 7:30 p.m. The Amarillo group extended invitations to five surrounding chapters and FTA members to hear an address by Mrs. Una Holden of Austin, national executive secretary of the honorary society.

Mrs. Holden is a former president of the teachers' sorority and is well-known for her work on selective recruitment of teachers, according to Mrs. Eloise McDougal, president of the local chapter.

New Officers Are Installed in Formal Rainbow Ceremony

In formal installation ceremonies Saturday night at the Masonic Hall Sandra Caraway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Caraway, became worthy advisor of Hereford Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Conducting the services were Myrna Darden, of Lorenzo, past grand representative from West Virginia to Texas, installing officer; Mary Darden of Lorenzo, marshal; Monta Kay Gragg, outgoing worthy advisor, chaplain; Sue Shewmake, cousin of the new worthy advisor and line officer of the Brownfield Assembly, recorder; Barbara Rogers, musician; grand representative from Vermont to Texas.

Miss Caraway was installed by her father and as she was presented in the East, her sister Carolyn sang "Love Sends a Gift of Roses," and presented her with an arm bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. Carl Mountz served as accompanist. The incoming worthy advisor announced her theme as "Love" and her colors as pink and white. She introduced her parents who presented her with a piece of sterling in her chosen pattern. Sandra presented Monta Kay Gragg and Mrs. Deward Roberson with past worthy advisor and mother advisor pins and she also presented a gift to Deward Roberson, Rainbow Dad.

Inducted with the new advisor were Worthy associate advisor, Elaine Wagoner; charity, Joan Brown; hope, Ann Reeves; faith, Martha Bookout; recorder, Bette Noland; treasurer, Beth Lemon; chaplain, Gayle Wagoner; drill leader, Judy McGee; musician, Gladys Lee; choir director, Marilyn Sigle; outer observer, Linda Hair; confidential observer, Judy Bradley; color stations, Rita Latham, Jane Pool, Janie Bookout, Kay Simms, Nina Mae Gragg, Colleen Reeves and Ann Smith, mother advisor, Mrs. Deward Roberson.

Decorations for the Assembly room featured a large white satin heart edged in white net, with the word L-O-V-E spelled out in pink rose buds across the top.

A social hour was held following the program. The refreshment table was covered with a pink net cloth and centered with a pink net heart encircling an arrangement of white rosebuds. Appointments were in silver. Mrs. Jimmie Mercer, aunt of the new worthy advisor, presided, assisted by Mrs. Robert Wagoner and Mrs. Ray Suit. Approximately 100 persons attended, including Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gandy of Lorenzo, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Woods of Dimmitt and the installing officers.

FHA Sweetheart Entrants Named

Four candidates for FHA sweetheart were chosen at the regular meeting of FHA on Monday during activity period. Selected were Jane Newsom, Sue Springer, Mary Lou McCullough, and Susie Loerwald.

Donna Sue Guseman, chairman of the nominating committee, explained to the members what to consider in voting for the outstanding girl of FHA. Twyla Springer, Sheryl Patterson, and Molly Price helped with the secret ballot which was conducted.

Votes are to be counted by a disinterested person, and the winner will be recognized at the Sweetheart and Beau Party at the coliseum on Feb. 15. An outstanding boy will be chosen from FHA in the same manner and will be presented as FHA Beau at the same time.

During the business meeting, which was conducted by Susie Loerwald, reports were heard from committees planning the party. Chapter members were asked to help with the campaign for two local members who are running for Area I offices. Susie Loerwald is running for president and corresponding secretary, and Donna Sue Guseman is running for public relations officer and recording secretary.

The next regularly scheduled meeting will be held on Feb. 18.

LA PLATA STUDY CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL GUEST-NIGHT AFFAIR

The annual guest-night program was held by members of LaPlata Study Club in the home of Mrs. Liston Wilson Tuesday evening. Hostesses with Mrs. Wilson were Mesdames F. L. Alexander and Johnny Blocker.

Mrs. Clint Formby presented the program, giving a reading of "The White Cliffs," by Alice Duer Miller.

This is the story of a great love and great tragedies that came to an American girl who married an English soldier during World War I. "The historical significance of the emotional and educational bonds between England and the United States is revealed as she faced the loss of her husband in the first World War, and the loss of her son in the second," Mrs. Formby said in description of the narative. During the social hour, refreshments were served from a table centered with white carnations. The dainty finger-tip delicacies carried out the pink and white theme.

Special guests included Miss Della Stagner, and Mesdames Mark Woodall, Stanley Sigman, Jimmie Gillentine, W. T. Carmichael, J. T. Gilbreath Jr., Seale Stevens, Jennie Clark, Bill Edelman, F. W. Lookingbill and J. R. Allison.

Members attending were Mesdames M. C. Adams, Leroy Aven, Jay Boston, Homer Brumley, S.S. Dodson, Clint Formby, J. R. Johnson, Claude McDougal, Ansel McDowell, Elmer Patterson, Frank Prowell, A. J. Schroeter, T. E. Seigler Jr., Urlin Streu, Raymond White, Louis Woodford, Chris Clark, Alby Coekrell, Joel Hodges and the hostesses.

Woodrow Benton Family Moves to Community

By MRS. T. L. COLLINS
A new family moved to Walcott this week from Texline. They are Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Benton and children. The children are Wayne, 16, a sophomore; Shirley, 11, in the fifth grade; Carolyn, 8, in the second grade; Roger, 6, and the baby, Laneta Sue. The family is living in the house vacated by the Leroy Cuppell family.

The school census shows 106 students in the Walcott School district. Eight of the children will enroll next fall for the first time.

Jimmy and Ray Northcutt went to Amarillo to watch Wayland and Woodrow fight in the Golden Gloves.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shelton spent the weekend at their home in Amarillo.

In Piano Recital
Dianne Jack was presented in a piano recital Sunday in the First Baptist Church in Hereford.

Dianne played "A Little French Doll" and "At the Soda Fountain."

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Miller and children from Floydada came to visit the Bertram Jacks Saturday. They stayed until Sunday to attend Dianne's recital.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jack and Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Childs and David of near Friona also heard the recital.

Bruce Collins and Don Bomar attended a Sunday School class outing in Hereford Wednesday night.

A. L. Shelton and T. L. Collins attended an Interscholastic League meeting of District 3-B directors at Hereford High School Thursday night. Representatives from Vega, Adrian, Walcott, Lazbuddie, Bovina, Nazareth and Happy attended. Plans were made for the district literary and track and field competition to be held March 29-30.

Baseball instead of softball will be played in the meet this year.

5 Students in All-State Band, Choir Program

Five Hereford High School students and their directors are scheduled to leave Wednesday morning for Dallas, where they will participate in the all-state band and choirs in connection with the annual meeting of the Texas Music Educators Assn.

Phyllis Goettach, trombonist, will be a member and Joan Brown, clarinet player, is an alternate to the all-state band. They will be accompanied by their teacher, Charles Bell.

Those who will be members of the all-state choir are Molly Price, alto, and Taylor Sims and Carroll Willoughby, tenors. Don Moore, choir director, will go to Dallas with them.

inspected Walcott students' teeth Tuesday afternoon.

Next regular P-TA meeting will be held Friday, Feb. 14 at 8 p.m. The seventh and eighth grades will present a one-act comedy, "Wildcat Willie Gets Girl Trouble" - refreshments will be served after the play.

Z. D. Jackson of Dallas, a relative of H. D. Buse, visited the Buse family last weekend.

Jimmie Northcutt went back to Lubbock Sunday to enroll at Texas Tech for the spring semester.

Steve Patton was honored on his 11th birthday Sunday. The party was given by his mother, Mrs. Cliff Patton. Attending were Kathryn, Elizabeth and James Burrus, Carl, Lee and Alice Myers. Mr. and Mrs. Emory Gray and children of Amarillo visited in the Patton home over the weekend.

Visiting Here
Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Williams of Los Angeles, Calif., are here visiting her brother, W. R. Williams and family.

Walcott teachers and students saw a film, "The American Road" Wednesday morning. The movie showed the automotive progress made in the past 50 years.

Kelly Tyler has chicken pox. Walcott's basketball game this week with Hereford's juniors has been called off. Plans now call for the game to be played Tuesday afternoon. The girls will play volleyball the same afternoon.

Valentine's parties will be held in each of Walcott School's classrooms Thursday.

The American jumping mouse can leap, and maintain perfect balance in flight, for a distance of about 10 feet.

Soil Bank Builds Demand For Grass Seed Plantings

By MAX K. SCHRADER

Attending the National Association of Soil Conservation District Supervisors this week in St. Louis is Sam Singleton, a farmer from Dalhart. And when the district supervisors get together to take over their problems, the Dalhart man will have a ready answer for those who ask about dust bowls on the High Plains.

Singleton declares that progress in soil conservation has prevented a return to the dust bowl days of the mid-thirties.

Farmers here in the Tierra Blanca SCD are keeping pace with last year's progress in installing pipelines for irrigation.

Underground lines have been installed since the first of the year by E. T. Allred, Thompson Bros., R. L. Thompson, W. B. Renfro, Dick Ellis, W. W. Wimberley, Ed Paetzold, D. E. Magee, Fred Barrett, Fred H. Miller, Albert Zinsler, Howard Gault, Reinauer Bros., Byron Gist, R. D. Durrett, A. N. Hopson, Jack Vincent, C. S. Barclay, Griffin & Brand, W. C. Neel, Harry Bennett, D. W. Finlan, J.D. Gilbert, W. F. Ponder and Frank Zinsler Jr.

Some of these same farmers have begun to build pipelines under the 1957 ASC program.

Concrete or plastic pipelines are intended for use in reorganizing irrigation systems to get more efficient use of irrigation water. The pipelines provide a means of laying out systems to get the advantage of more desirable slopes, soil types, row direction and length. This results in a savings of water, soil and in manpower needed to handle the system. We have also received a number of referrals concerning ditches with concrete as a means of controlling soil and water losses.

Preparations for grass planting are getting under way in the district. Ted Hardwick is planning to plant about 130 acres to sideoats gramma and other grass species. Ted is putting land back to grass that has not produced very well in the past. Most of it has a serious erosion hazard because of the slope and shallow soils. This land has been difficult to water and farm effectively. The fields will be left permanently in grass according to Ted, for production of forage and seed.

Farmers looking for another cash crop would do well to look into the production of grass seed. Irrigated land low in production or difficult to handle would benefit from being in grass. Grass will not only improve the condition and fertility of the soil, but will also provide a good cash income.

Government programs pointing toward returning submarginal land to grass in the Great Plains area include the soil bank conservation reserve program. With over 50,000 acres in Deaf Smith County placed in the reserve just this year, it appears that the demand for grass seed is going to be greater next year.

The supply of grass seed is short now.

If you plan to put dryland back to grass make sure you plant in a good feed crop as cover. The successful grass seeding operations on the Plains have all had this cover. You may have to wait for a year or so to get the cover, but it is necessary to successfully grow a stand of grass on dryland.

J. B. Thompson, Charles Hoover and Donald Hicks plan to plant sorghum alnum grass this spring. An import from New Zealand, sorghum alnum is a very heavy producing tall grass. From what we know of it at present, however, it should only be grown as a tame pasture grass under irrigation. We wouldn't recommend it for dryland planting.

Sorghum alnum is a natural cross between Johnson grass and the sorghums. What this grass will actually do can't be accurately predicted at the present time.

BUT NOT CATTLE, SHEEP

Hog Prices Due To Go Up This Year

COLLEGE STATION — Hog prices in 1957 will be well above early 1956 lows and will probably continue higher than last year's prices, except for seasonal fluctuations, predicts John G. McHaney, Extension Economist. Little hope is held for any major uptrend in either cattle or sheep prices.

Swine prices for the first half of 1957 will get their biggest boost from decreased slaughter because a smaller 1956 pig crop will supply slaughter animals until August of this year. It looks like the 1957 spring pig crop might equal that of 1956, due to lower corn prices and improved profit opportunities, McHaney says.

Total cattle numbers and prices will depend largely on 1957 moisture conditions. Although prices will probably be above the depressed figures of early 1956 no real gain is forecast for 1957, declares McHaney, because indications for cattle and calf slaughter in 1957 appear as large as 1956.

Sheep and lamb prices after the middle of 1957 may be below 1956 figures, while prices during the first half of the year will tend to be above those of a year ago, McHaney explains. Prolonged Southwestern drought is the main drawback against expansion in sheep production although encouragement comes from the wool incentive program and currently higher lamb prices. No reduction in sheep slaughter and no great increase in prices is likely until farmers and ranchers hold back more ewes for breeding.

Summarizing the meat animal outlook, McHaney predicts a year of large meat supplies only slightly under the 1956 record volume.

Mrs. Doc Carter New Member of Les Meres Club

Mrs. Doc Carter was welcomed as a new member of Les Meres Study Club at the regular meeting held Tuesday evening with Mrs. Ervin Robinson. Mrs. Dick Gholson was co-hostess.

A two-part program was presented by Mesdames Roy Boyer and Glenn Watts.

Mrs. Boyer took her program from an article in Parents Magazine on the question "Do Your Children Know You Love Them?" She quoted the author who warned parents not to fail to show love for their children and urged them to give attention and sympathy to their wants. "Actions of love mean so much more than words to a child," she said.

Mrs. Watts reviewed an article, "How to Survive a Normal Child." She said in part, "Don't over-react to a child's misdemeanors and don't pile up past incidents in your reuke. Look beneath the surface for the cause of his action. Don't squish their rebellion before hearing their side and try to look ahead for the answer instead of back at your own childhood to your answer."

Those in attendance were Mesdames Roy Boyer, Doc Carter, Ed Brisendine, Everett Brooks, Joe Deavenport, Howard Gore, George Olson, Nelson Reiger, Larry Summers, Glenn Watts, Delmo Williams, and the hostesses.

TRAILER TROUBLES

COVINGTON, Ky. — Marion Dixon shook his head in wonderment when the top of his trailer truck was sheared off as he drove beneath an underpass.

He had driven beneath it in the past without trouble. What was the matter?

Then he realized the trailer was lightly loaded and riding higher on its springs than it usually did. On previous trips the load was heavy enough to permit the trailer to pass without scraping.

HEREFORD, TEXAS

Mrs. Messick says, "The dryer saves ironing and even those things which do need ironing can be dried to correct dampness for proper ironing." No need for extra sprinkling.

Mrs. Messick stresses the savings with her electric appliances saying, "Savings in time and money are the foremost benefits we receive from our electric appliances." She finds that by the fast drying time an electric clothes dryer gives, she needs fewer clothes for the children. "Since children 'grow out' of clothes so quickly these savings become important," she adds.

DISC DATA

BROADWAY SHOWS: A Columbia release (OL5090) offers My Fair Lady, the musical based on G. B. Shaw's play, Pygmalion. Original cast recording, featuring Rex Harrison and Julie Andrews. This recording is limited to songs from the production, which is moving toward its second year on Broadway. Naturally, without the dialogue, the story is not always apparent. The penetrating wit of GBS oft escapes the listener but humor is in the tunes. Some of the numbers — With a Little Bit of Luck, I could Have Danced All Night, Get Me to the Church on Time — are right good. Some of these have managed to hit the disc jockey shows and hit parade, if that means anything. Listenable, and it helps to read the dust jacket notes and get the story line.

Morton Gould has orchestrated a couple of Rodgers and Hammerstein shows. The album is called Oklahoma! Carousel Suites, and suites they are. Instruments have replaced voices and movements are there instead of scenes. Pleasant, perhaps, but sounds contrived. Sort of symphonic but hasn't the meat for a symphony. A mixing of two forms that just doesn't seem to come off. Tunes like Beau-

ODD BITS OF USELESS INFORMATION: The top five best sellers in Britain last week were Garden of Eden, Singing the Blues, (Mitchell), Friendly Persuasion, St. Theresa of the Rose, Singing the Blues (Steele). Sale of Party Doll has calmed down. Big need among Hereford youngsters is Teen-Age Crush by Tommy Sands. Sequel to ELVIS, called Strictly Elvis, is in both shops. Presley sales also lagging a bit. The end in sight?

TOP FIVE POPS: (According to Billboard) 1. Young Love, 2. Don't Forget Me, 3. Singing the Blues, 4. Banana Boat Song, 5. Too Much. —ESH.

We shall be forever grateful for the many kindnesses shown us during the illness and death of our loved one.
To Dr. Nobles who stood by so faithfully, for the beautiful flowers and food, we were very appreciative.

A star will be lighted for each of you that shared in our sorrow. May God bless each of you will always be our prayer.
The family of Leonard Latham.

In Malaya, monkeys are trained to climb trees and harvest coconuts.

tiful Morning, Surrey with the Fringe on Top, and Oklahoma! are bled into each other. Result: Loss of vitality. Anyhow, it's on RCA LM 1884.

CLASSIC: The late Arturo Toscanini conducts Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite, Waldteufel's The Skater's Waltz and Rossini's William Tell Overture. This in hi-fi on RCA's LM 1886. The orchestra is the NBC Symphony. Standard stuff, perhaps, but great in this instance.

JAZZ: This is Teagarden! And it is. Jack Teagarden sings and plays his trombone. Standard items such as Beale Street Blues, Peg O' My Heart, I'm Coming Virginia and After You've Gone. Offbeats like unto Aunt Hagar's Children Blues and Old Pigeon Toed Joad. Teagarden has worked with Bessie Smith, Bix Beiderbecke, Red Nichols, Ben Pollack, Paul Whiteman and Louis Armstrong. Been in the business many years and these two sides provide a sampling of his talent. Available on Capitol 7721.

Fair Lady and Teagarden to be had at Venables and Streu's has Nutcracker Suite and Oklahoma! Carousel Suites.

La Madre Mia Club Studies Child Growth

Mrs. Cuby Kitchens gave a discussion of the question, "Will My Child Be Ready for the First Grade?" at the regular meeting of La Madre Mia Study Club held with Mrs. Eugene Sparks Tuesday night. Mrs. Bobby Owen was co-hostess.

"The personality of the child is the first thing to be considered, and how well he is adjusted to the idea of a whole new life away from his mother," she said. Mrs. Kitchens named ways of helping him get ready for his first big step. "Listen when he talks, look at books with him, read to him, and see that he learns how to be fair with his playmates. Help him to meet new situations in the home and avoid criticism of mistakes," Mrs. Kitchens said.

During the business session, the members voted to contribute to the local Red Cross Drive and Mrs. Marshall Wilson was welcomed as a new member.

Those attending were Mesdames Don Fudge, Calvin Goodin, Dean Herring, Glenn Hopson, Cuby Kitchens, Dennis Lomas, Troys Riddle, Donald Shipley, Arthur Tinsley, Glenn Wilson, John Poindexter, Marshal Wilson and the hostesses.

Beta Sigma Phi Hears Program Given on Art

Kappa Iota Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority met in the Jaycee Clubhouse Tuesday night with Mesdames Ann Woodward, Robert Brotherton and T. M. Cox Jr., serving as hostesses.

THE MODERN BUILDING UNIT HAYDITE BLOC
LIGHTWEIGHT Year-Round Insulation

CROWE-GULDE HAYDITE BLOC have 10 Bonus Building Advantages no other block can equal:

- LIGHTER WEIGHT—Makes possible reduction in dead load without sacrificing strength. Easy to handle—quick to lay.
- STRENGTH IN EXCESS of normal requirements and local building codes. An average HAYDITE Bloc can support the weight of a loaded railway freight car weighing 72 tons.
- FIRE RESISTANCE—Will withstand temperatures well in excess of 2,000 degrees F.
- UNIFORMITY—Permits pattern work of unvarying accuracy and beauty.
- MORE PAINTABLE—HAYDITE Blocs take paint perfectly with no possibility of rusting or other blemishes bleeding through.
- MORE ATTRACTIVE—Pleasing texture and natural gray color blend in beautifully for either modern or traditional architecture.
- INSULATES ACOUSTICALLY—The unusual cellular structure absorbs noise to such a high degree that other sound insulating materials are usually unnecessary.
- AVAILABLE—You can nail right into a HAYDITE Concrete Block to save real time and money on many jobs.
- DURABLE—HAYDITE Blocs are concrete and multitude of tiny air cells in HAYDITE Blocs are excellent insulators in summer and winter.
- DURABLE—HAYDITE Blocs are concrete and naturally are impervious to rodents, termites, rot and corrosion.

For details before you build, call or write for brochure.

* Remember—No Other Concrete Block Gives You All of These Bonus Advantages
