Chamber Warns Of False Pest Spray Salesmen

Area wheat farmers may find themselves victimized by unethical or inexperienced aerial applicators during the current green bug infestation, Bill Thompson, manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce warned Wednesday.

"There have been reported a rash of fly-by-night operations in the area selling farmers a bill of goods," Thompson explained.

The Chamber manager visited with farmers and local aerial applicators and found these facts: Long years of experience have shown that with cool nights and low humidity effective control of green bugs can be obtained with ½ pound of technical material per acre using methyl parathion. It is also necessary to use three gallons of water per acre to get effective coverage.

Storm Siren Blasts

When a spine-chilling blast lets go with its eerie sound next Monday afternoon at 1:30, don't run to the storm cellar or crawl under the solid oak chiffonobe. The blast won't be for real.

Fire Marshall Clay Angelo is going to let people in Hereford know what it will sound like when the City gets wind of an approaching storm.

"This is the storm season," he explained, "and we want to let people know what sound to expect in case — only we hope it doesn't happen — a tornado gets brewing out this way. There are lots of new people in Hereford who have not heard the special warning siren, and we think it's a good idea to let them know what the signal is like."

Angelo said the test-alert has been set for 1:30 Monday afternoon. The signal will last for three minutes, starting with a solid blast that will then change to oscillating screams up and down the scale, mostly in minor keys.

The siren is located atop City Hall, and has "an entirely different sound" than the fire alarm system.

After Monday's dry-run, any time the special siren lets go it will mean the real McCoy. An

Fire-Fighting Costs to County Drop Slightly

Deaf Smith county and the City of Hereford, using the same fire department facilities, divide expenses on a pro-rata basis, and last year's figures came out to 82 percent of the fires occurring in the city limits to 38 percent in the county.

This was the report given to the county commissioners at their meeting this week.

Total number of fires occurring outside the city limits dropped slightly during 1963, the report showed, as compared with the previous year. The county pays its bill monthly, but a year behind, it was pointed out. The 1962 county portion was $6086.76, while the 1963 share was $5260.82.

This meant the 1962 monthly payment was $507.23 as compared

Rogers Seeks To Boost Domestic Sugar Market

Congressman Walter Rogers of Texas has introduced a bill to provide substantial increases to American farmers in the amount of domestic beet sugar and mainland cane sugar which may be marketed in the next three years.

Congressman Rogers said his bill was designed to restore to American beet sugar and cane producers a substantial share of the U.S. market now dominated by foreign sugar imports.

The Congressman's proposal would increase quotas for domestic sugar producing areas by 500,000 short tons, raw value, for the 1964 calendar year, and by 1,500,000 tons for calendar years 1965 and 1966. Meanwhile, Congressman Rogers today sent a letter to President Lyndon Johnson urging that the Administration recommend an increase of at least 750,000 tons in the basic domestic beet sugar marketing quota. In addition to Congressman Rogers, signers of the letter included about 50 other Members of the House of Representatives, Democrats and Republicans.

The letter to the President stated: "Such an upward revision in the beet sugar marketing quota, in our view, is in the national interest. World sugar stocks this year are even lower than last year, when the sugar crisis mentioned in your Message on Agriculture occurred. Some of the foreign countries supplying this market are of doubtful reliability because of present or potential political instability."

The letter continued, "An increase of at least 750,000 tons in the basic beet sugar quota will help materially to assure ample supplies of sugar for American consumers at reasonable prices. Moreover, reducing our nation's dependence on foreign sugar supplies will reduce the number of dollars we send abroad and therefore will help to alleviate our nation's balance (Continued on page 8) of payments problem." Legislation to amend quotas established under the Sugar Act of 1948 will be considered soon by the House Committee on Agriculture. Similar legislation has been introduced in the Senate. The matter must be decided this year because quotas established in 1962 will expire Dec. 31.

The 1962 amendments to the Sugar Act made allocations of the 3 million tons of sugar imported from Cuba before trade was cut off. Of that 3 million tons, the 1962 Sugar Act amendments established quotas assigning about half to friendly sugar-producing countries and the other half was assigned to all friendly sugar-producing nations wishing to export to the United States on a first-come, first-served basis.
"Not one pound of the former Cuban supply was allotted to American farmers," Congressman Rogers said. "I will do my best to see that the situation is corrected this year. It is indeed in the best interests of the United States to produce the major portion of our sugar within the United States and possessions."

from the Rio Grande Valley and from other high humidity areas, are offering farmers a "bargain" and undermining public confidence in the aerial applicators established in the area. They then use lesser amount of technical material and often less than half enough water. With lesser amounts of water in our low humidity, the moisture often evaporates out before reaching the ground giving very poor coverage. "Many of these operators are well intentioned and may be ethical in their own areas of experience but just do not have the necessary experience to do an effective job in this area," Thompson stated.

"Farmers should consider the fact that established local operators have to live with their customers; that unless the job they do is effective they cannot expect to continue in business here. Most will do an ineffective job over. A fly-by-nighter takes your money and is far out of the country before you can determine that you still have your greenbug problem and then you have to pay an original price to have the job done over again the right way". Bargains are not always what they appear to be—in farming service operations or in any other field. Investigate—before you invest!

JIM LANGDON—A WINNER!

Railroad Commissioner Jim Langdon is a 49-year-old native Texan with a winning record in public office. When John Connally appointed him to the Railroad Commission, the Governor said:
"I have for several weeks been attempting to find a man I consider to have outstanding ability, integrity and honor... I am happy we have found that man — Judge Jim C. Langdon."
Jim Langdon has fully lived up to Governor Connally's expectations. He has conducted his office in the spirit of Governor Jim Hogg, who had the Commission set up in 1891 to look after the public interest in railroad and freight rates. It now regulates also truck and bus rates and the production of oil and gas. Judge Langdon will continue to keep transportation rates in line and see to it that our oil reserves are protected against waste and greed. This will help keep down Texas gasoline prices, already among the lowest in the nation.
Jim Langdon was elected District Judge twice and re-elected Chief Justice of the El Paso Court of Civil Appeals.

Sandi Says...

By Sandi Thomas

Hi! to all of you newsmakers! Where have you been hiding? At the track meet last Saturday night, Hereford came through with flying colors. The football boys participated and gave Hereford something to be pretty proud of. In the low hurdles, Larry Duncan placed second; Butch Drummond, third; and Charlie Barnard, fourth. Manuel Pacheco placed first in the mile run. In the discus throwing, Neal Lueb placed first; high jump, Robert Strange, first; 100 yard dash, Kenny Justice, first; shot put, Eddie Johnson, first. The relay team, composed of Jay Carter, Wynn Buck, Kenny Justice, and Jim Haney, placed second with a time of 45.2, the fastest time recorded by a Hereford team in 8 years. I'm sorry I didn't get all the placings, but you know how it is. By the way, Dick Lookingbill, how was it to run the mile for the first time? Last Friday the baseball team went to Nazareth to defeat them by a score of 19 to 8. Nice going boys! Congratulations to the band for making sweepstakes at contest Wednesday, April 8. Have fun at Enid! I would also like to congratulate the girls chosen as '64-'65 cheerleaders. They are Cynthia Leasure, Gayle Newell, Peggy Neff, Brenda Shelton, Barbara Langley, and Sharon Tinnin. Janice, Ruth Ann, Kathy, and Ronda, we won't forget the high standard you set for coming cheerleaders to go by. A job well done!

Some of the students of Mr. Keese gathered at his home for a surprise birthday party in the honor of their teacher. Hostesses of the party were Judy Crume and Mrs. Keese. Those enjoying the blowout last Friday night were John Perrin, Sammy Curtsinger, Penny Jones, Peggy Allred, and Bill Nelson. The cake was decorated with a geometry problem.

Last Friday night, the Avenue Baptist Church Youth Department held a hayride and hamburger fry. Those enjoying the fun were Johnny Brownlow, Merle Carmichael, Jenni Hagar, Joe Self, Becky Duncan, Dwayne Gresham, Mary Lynn Gibson, Carolyn and Barbara Dearing, Bill Corbett, Jo Ann McDowell, Rommy Houston, Lucille Self, Billy Joe Wall, and Jerry Blackburn.

Last Sunday, the day noted for the dirt blow, Rider's Club went to Amarillo for their first playday of the year. However, most of the group returned home partly because of the dirt and partly due to the fact that there was no unloading chute. Some of those brave souls who hauled their own horses stayed to stick it out and bring home 23 points for Hereford. Among those there, Edward Allison placed fourth in the pole bend-

Well, that about makes it final for this week. Try to get things stirred up so I'll have something to say next time.

The dinner was postponed from last February when snow blocked highways in this area. Members are considering changing the date permanently in order to avoid frequent bad weather in February.

The cicada's grating "song" is produced only by the male of the species. This once prompted the ancient Greek Xeharchus to quip: "Happy are cicadas' lives, for they all have silent wives."

Parish Council Members Hear Exchange Students

American Field Service students Christa Holz and Sergio Bravo Soto presented the program for the April 9 meeting of Saint Anthony's Parish Council in the school auditorium.

Christa, dressed in her native attire, showed slides of her country, Austria. She then explained that the Austrian form of government is based on the United States system and discussed the effect of the Marshall Plan on her country after World War II. Russia, she continued, was the only country to demand payment of their war debt. She also compared home life and the educational system in Austria with that of the United States.

A desire that the exchange student program might help bring world peace was expressed by Sergio. He then explained the class system in his country, Chile, and spoke of United States aid. About 30 per cent of the students finish high school, and only a few go on to college, he continued. He said that he plans to return to Chile and study medicine.

Mrs. Edward Paetzold was presiding officer for the business meeting. It was announced that Bishop Lawrence DeFalco of Amarillo will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation in St. Anthony's Church Sunday, April 19. ## Legion, Auxiliary Announce Names Of Boys, Girls State Delegates Sharon Tinnin, Becky Duncan and Gary Stagner will represent the Hereford American Legion Post 192 at the annual Boys' and Girls' State, according to an announcement by Benjie Womble, post commander and Mrs. Ira Ott, president of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tinnin, Becky, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Duncan and Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stagner. Gary will leave for Boys State June 4 and will remain there through June 11. The annual event is held on the campus of the University of Texas.

Sharon and Becky will travel to Austin June 16 and will return to Hereford on June 27. Glenda Flescher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Flescher, Patsy Stoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Stoy and Gordon Golden, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Z. Golden are the alternates to the delegates.

Gordon will be allowed to attend the event there is a shortage of enrollment.

The delegates were chosen by members of the faculty, student council and the final decision was made by the local American Legion Post and Auxiliary.

"The delegates are chosen on leadership, character, courage, honesty, scholarship, cooperativeness and physical fitness," Mrs. Ott concluded.

These traits are rated in that order," Mrs. Ott said.

The project was organized in 1941 and the local organization has participated in the program every year since.

"The purpose of Boys and Girls State is to provide citizenship training for girls and boys of high school age in every constituent department of the American Legion to afford them an opportunity to live together as self-governing citizens; to inform them about the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities of American Citizenship, in order that they may understand and participate in the functioning of their government and to help them grasp the meaning of some of the responsibilities which they must assume when they become adults," Mrs. Ott concluded.

Bouzouki - It's Greece's Answer To Rock 'n Roll

ATHENS, Greece (U) — More and more foreigners are getting the hang of Greece's Bouzouki beat.

Bouzouki is the Greek answer to Rock 'n Roll. The difference is it has been around 500 years longer, it is half as loud but twice as sensual and the Greeks like it better.

So do a lot of foreigners. Anthony Quinn is a new fan. In Greece to play the lead in the film "Zorba the Greek," Quinn recently got an earful of Bouzouki thump and twang at an Athens club.

Like a man mesmerized, Quinn rose to his feet, shuffled to the dance floor and executed a deft belly dance.

That's what Bouzouki does to people. It's been doing it ever since the Turks brought the music to Greece in the 15th Century. The Greeks hated the Turks but loved their Bouzouki, which is half mandolin and half guitar.

Latinos Blast Lid Off Season, Nip Friona 33-4

The Hereford Latinos opened their 1964 baseball season by defeating the Friona Tigers 33 to 4. The Latinos, who finished the 1963 season with 19 wins against three losses, scored five runs in the first inning after Joe Hernandez grounded out to third, Al Salinas was walked, Jake Suarez got on base after an error on the throw, and then Joe Rodriguez got the first hit of the season scored Salinas and Suarez. Rodriguez, Paul Torres and Goose Thomas also scored later in the inning and from that point Hereford was in command of the game. With one out and two runners on base in the fourth inning Julio Valdez hit a long fly ball over the left field fence for the game's only home run. Friona threatened to score in the bottom of the fourth. Valdez walked the first batter and an error by Torrez on third left runners on first and third, but the runner on third was picked off by Torrez. The next batter hit a hard grounder to first baseman Tirso Cuellar who executed a double play. The Tigers did score in the fifth and sixth inning errors by Thomas, Torrez, Salinas and Rodriguez, but the four runs were all the Latinos would allow. Julio Valdez went all the way for Hereford allowing four runs on five hits and walked only two men. Valdez struck out seven men. Joe Garza started for Friona and was tagged for the loss. Friona pitchers gave up 29 hits, 33 runs, walked eight men and struck out six. Paul Torrez, Al Salinas, Goose Thomas and Joe Rodriguez collected five hits each. The Latinos will travel to Amarillo Sunday for their second game.

Ancient Palestine's port of Ascalon shipped onions to markets of the Mediterranean and gave us the word "scallion."

Bouzouki...

Bouzouki music is usually the guitar plus drums, tambourines, and in the really posh joints, an accordion.

While Greeks have been savoring Bouzouki for many years, the sound of Bouzouki only began to make an impression on outsiders with the film "Never on Sunday."

That was the picture that made Melina Mercouri a star. It also showed what well played Bouzouki was like.

Now the average tourist who turns up in Athens tends to be as interested in sampling Bouzouki as in seeing the Acropolis.

Stars Not Teenagers A top Bouzouki star is rated as high here as the Beatles and the Presleys elsewhere.

The biggest Bouzouki star of the moment is Gregoris Bithikotis, a middle aged man with a mustache and a head of black wavy hair.

He croons in a reedy voice as he plinks away at his Bouzouki. And when Bithikotis plucks and wails it is something to hear. It is no accident that Bithikotis isn't a teen-ager. There's not a Bouzouki star going who is.

For the Greeks good Bouzouki is like good wine. It takes some aging to produce the best.

maintained a 92-93 percent collection record, which dropped last year to 85 percent.

Commissioners, fighting the ever present 80c statutory tax rate limit, have been using every method at their disposal to hold the budget in line and preventing the raising of property evaluations.

Hospital interest and Sinking Fund, plus the jail and Court-house Interest and Sinking Fund, now account for 23c of the 80c limit (80c per $100.00 valuation) leaving only 57c for running the county.

The present tight squeeze will continue, commissioners said, until some of the outstanding bonds have been retired.

"The increase in non-collectible charity cases at the hospital this year has aggravated an already difficult situation," pointed out T. E. Seigler Jr. Seigler, with hospital Board member Wayne E. Thomas met briefly with the commissioners as they wrestled with the knotty problem.

No action was taken on the proposal to replace the 2 cent budget allocation however, pending further study of the situation.

In other action the Precinct Commissioners reviewed monthly bills and approved payment of same; approved crossing of county roads with gas lines; approved the opening of one county road; granted permission to Shamrock Oil and Gas Corp. to place Liquefied Petroleum storage tanks within 100 feet of a county road; purchased a new Dodge automobile for the Sheriff's Department; gave tentative approval for the purchase of a used two-way radio to be used by the deputy sheriff stationed at the labor camp; and approved payment of the county's share of the cost of operating the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department.

Two road easements were granted; one to LB Ranch for the crossing of a county road with a gas line, and another to Chester Wiggins for the same purpose.

Opening of one mile of county road located 10 miles west of Hereford and four miles north was approved by the court. Walter Kuper who farms in the area, requested the road opening, and had secured right-of-way easements from the adjoining land owners. Work on the new road will start as soon as possible.

Four bids were submitted to the court for the purchase of a new patrol unit for the sheriff's department, and commissioners accepted the low bid of $1259.16 submitted by the Hiway Auto Sales, local Dodge dealers.

Other bids submitted were: Orsborn Chevrolet-Olds, 1964 Chevrolet, $1688.30; Stephens-Hudson Motor Co., 1964 Ford, $1435.83; McCullough Motor Co., 1964 Plymouth, $1643.00. All autos were to be similarly equipped.

Sheriff Lowell Sharp was also given the go-ahead on his efforts to locate a used two-way radio to be placed in the pick-up of Domingo Pesina, Deputy Sheriff stationed at the labor camp.

Also approved by the commissioners was the request of Shamrock Oil and Gas, Corp. that they be allowed to place an LPG storage tank in less than 100feet of the county road. Current regulations of the Railroad Commission specify that any storage tank placed nearer than 100 feet from a public road must be approved by the commissioners court. The tank cannot be placed nearer than 50 ft. to the road.

Tabled by the commissioners pending legislative action, was a request from District Judge Harry Schultz that the District Judge's salary be supplemented by county funds, bringing it in line with other District Judges throughout the state who are now drawing as much as $4,500, supplement from the counties they serve.

The $12,000 yearly salary for the District Judge is now set and paid by the state. This has not been changed for a number of years, and approximately 130 districts are now supplementing the official's salary from county funds.

However, legislation is now pending in Austin to raise the salary schedule for judgeships. If the legislation passes, then there would be no need for the county participation.

The request was tabled pending the outcome of the state legislation.

Mickey Mantle Sets Own Schedule, Hopes for 10 More Years' Playing

By Frank Eck
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor
FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla.
— Mickey Mantle hopes to play baseball for 10 more years.

Block...

cial near mid-term when L. B. Russell resigned to enter private business.

New teachers hired were Joy Golden and Betty Sue Robinson, both of whom are receiving degrees before the opening of school here next Autumn, and Betty Mercer, who is returning to the staff after a leave of absence. The first two will be assigned to elementary schools, Mrs. Mercer to senior high.

Superintendent Paul Stevens told the board that enrollment figures continued to climb, explaining that the expected middle-of-the-year customary slump had failed to materialize this year. In fact, enrollment, the superintendent said, is larger at this time than it was a month ago.

That's what the $100,000-a-year switch-hitting center fielder for the New York Yankees told this writer.

This gem came forth from Mickey in a normal conversation. It was towel drying time following a two-hour workout and since Mickey doesn't put dry clothes on a wet body this seemed an opportune time to start a conversation about his health and his future.

You remember last summer when he broke a bone in his left foot, the one that became entangled in Baltimore's out-field fence?

He played only 65 games and many he missed were the result of that crash which also left him with a bad cartilage in his good knee — his left. Soon after the season the Yankees ordered an operation.

The three-inch scar following surgery was a handsome reminder. It was a bright purple.

"All the others were purple, too," said the leader of the American League champions. "These three on my right knee were purple but now you can hardly notice that I've been cut at all."

Mantle was reminded that the game's winningest southpaw pitcher, Warren Spahn of Milwaukee had cartilage operations on both knees, and he's still going strong.

"How old is he?" Mantle asked.

Forty-three on April 23, the record books say.

"I'd give a lot of money if I could be sure I'd be playing 10 years from now," Mantle said with desire.

"How old was Stan Musial when he quit last year?"

Musial turned 43 last Nov. 31, Mickey was informed.

"Musial and Spahn," 32-year-old Mickey said in wonderment, "they are a lot alike. Don't they remind you of each other? They are like brothers as far as I'm concerned."

"I never knew how two people could enjoy their work like they do. Musial may have quit as a player but I see he still works on."

"I think the doc (Dr. Sidney S. Gaynor, Yankee team surgeon) did a wonderful job on me. He sure must know his business."

"Just running out there the first day of spring practice I could never tell I had an operation. Clint Houy, the Dallas Cowboys' trainer, worked with me all winter in Dallas."

"He called me at home and got me to lift weights with my leg. I think it helped my knee a lot. At first I couldn't lift 15 pounds. Then I got to where I could lift 60 pounds with no trouble at all."

Yogi Berra, the new manager of the Yankees, is thrilled over Mantle's thoughts of having a longer career than anyone has a right to expect because he has been injury prone ever since his right knee caved in as a rookie during the 1951 World Series.

"Mickey's great and he means too much to the team," Yogi has said. "I'll never play him when he's hurt. That would only shorten his career. I hope he's around a long time. He could make my job a lot easier. Every body on the team looks up to him."

There are only two American League hitters with career batting averages above .305. One is Al Kaline, Detroit's complete ball player. The other is Mantle. Both enter the new season with .309 lifetime marks. Kaline has put in 11 years, Mantle 13.

Mantle, 33 next Oct. 20, is the big bat the Yankees must sell this season, the first year of the New York World's Fair and the rival Mets' new Shea Stadium.

Most managers say the Yankees put Yogi at the helm to offset the drawing appeal created by Case Stengel's public relations-wise ways for newspaper space.

The Yankees have denied this yet co-owner Dan Topping has told Larry MacPhail, a former associate, he is worried about attendance at Yankee Stadium. However, while the Mets have Stengel and a lot of glamour for a last place team they have no crowd-appealing player of the Mickey Mantle type.

Even Stengel admits "Mantle is the greatest cripple who ever played baseball." The Switcher once had a bone disease known as osteomyelitis but you would never suspect anything was ever wrong.

He also is a member of the U-vaide United Fund organization, of the Texas Easter Seal Society, and is listed in Who's Who in American Education.

During the 14 years he has served as school superintendent, schools he has headed have completed "more than $2 million in school construction."

In his formal statement to the board, he said his philosophy of education is this:

"It is my belief that a school program should be dedicated to our children. The board of education, administration and faculty should make it their responsibility to provide the maximum mental, spiritual and physical growth of each child.

"Through a program of civic, social and vocational guidance, our schools share the responsibility with the home and church of improving the standards of living in the community.

"Classrooms should be laboratories in which the ideals of democracy are strengthened. Our schools should preserve the rich cultural and historical heritage of the past, promote the realization of the present and provide inspiration for the future."

Last chance folks. Today is the last day to buy tickets for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet. Mainly because tonight is the big night.

In the years past, Hereford has been able to boast one of the largest Chamber of Commerce banquets in this part of the country, and probably the nation for that matter. No-where else in the country do we know of a Chamber banquet that attracts so many people.

Naturally, we're hoping that 1964 will be no exception in spite of the fact that the affair has been once postponed due to inclement weather.

Chamber of Commerce manager Bill Thompson, and the directors, figure they will have all future banquets at approximately this same time each year to get away from the threat of snow storms, but we're wondering what happens if we have a dirt storm such as the one Sunday. Which would hurt the attendance the most?

Actually, we're looking for a big turn-out again in 1964. And if you haven't picked up tickets for the affair, better call the Chamber office now. That phone number is EM 4-3335.

The political situation is beginning to pick up momentum, and we're looking for some real "hot" races to develop between now and May 2. Both Democratic and Republican primaries have a host of candidates running for many of the state and national offices. A few will not have opponents in the primary, but will battle it out in November.

Which reminds us of a remark made recently by Bill Clayton, candidate for re-election to the state legislature, concerning his opposition.

"I have no opponent", says Bill, "but probably plenty of opposition".

But then, that's politics for you.

Mrs. Ruby Stone, our Frio correspondent contributed the following:
"Four hundred years ago when the Indians were running the country, there were no taxes, no national debt, no foreign entanglements—and the women did all the work. What I don't understand is how the white man thought he could improve on a system like that."

Someone once said that "Texas has the richest men, the most renowned scholars and the biggest liars."

This choice remark must have been made during an election year. It seems to be customary these days to build your candidate up as one of the original "whiz kids"; and his opponent as a modern day Jesse James ..... while the whole kaboodle apparently have forgotten what the truth is .... If, in fact, they ever knew.

It was in the Pacific during World War II. A young Marine lieutenant assembled what was left of his platoon and said, "Men, we are entirely surrounded by the enemy. Don't let any of them get away".
Man, that's determination.

Don't forget the Chamber of Commerce banquet tonight. Let's have a big turn-out.

Whitefaces Again Smash Nazareth

Hereford erupted to defeat the Nazareth Swifts in the final non-conference game of the season Tuesday.

The Herd tromped the Swifts 12-6 after they exploded in the second inning and chalked up seven runs.

Three of the runs came in when Eugene Green drove in three runs with a double.

Green lifted up his runs batted in average as he got a home run in the fourth inning with the bases loaded.

Hereford opens the District 1-AAA season tomorrow at Dumas. The Herd's season record stands at 9-7.

Nazareth stands at 0-4 for the season and will host Bovina in its loop opener April 21.

BUILT-IN 'ERROR'
NEW YORK — At first glance it looks like a mistake. The two 890-foot steel towers that hold up the Verrazano Narrows Bridge connecting Brooklyn with Staten Island are 1 5/8 inches farther apart at the top than at the bottom.

But according to Steel Facts, published by American Iron and Steel Institute, this is deliberate. It was done to compensate for the curvature of the earth. Each tower to be truly vertical must have its axis point to the center of the earth.

Candidate Bush Says U. S. Needs Stronger Policies

"Our foreign policy must be based on strength, not an attempt to buy friends through foreign aid. It should be used to help our friends to help themselves, not appease our enemies and the neutrals," George Bush, candidate in the Republican Primary for the United States Senate told a meeting of the Hereford Jaycees and the Deaf Smith County Republican Women at luncheons yesterday.

The conservative message is not one of fear, retreat or suspicion. It is a positive message to extend freedom, to promote peace through strength and to guarantee prosperity through featuring the free enterprise system," Bush continued.

Separation of powers between the federal and state governments will also be a key issue," Bush continued.

"Corruption in the government will also be a major issue and Ralph Yarborough is going to have to answer to the people of Texas for his financial involvement with Billie Sol Estes," Bush concluded.

Bush was introduced at the meeting by Ken Rudd, former chairman of the Deaf Smith County Republican Party.

"I believe the key issue of the campaign for the U.S. Senate is the establishment of fiscal responsibility and a balanced budget so that the savings of our people, especially the elderly, would not be eroded away by the cruelest tax of all, inflation.

and manage them properly. Did you know that the average homemaker spends about a third of her time in planning, preparing, and serving meals?" begins the bulletin, "Quick Meals," written by extension foods and nutrition specialists at Texas A&M and published by Texas A&M and the United States Department of Agriculture.

The bulletin then gives a series of suggestions for better management of time and energy, such as:

Set a time and place for menu planning. Have the tools handy that are needed — paper, pencil, recipes; use copies of menus that you have found to be time-savers as well as family favorites.

Prepare larger portions of foods to be fixed in a different way later. Some foods that can be prepared ahead without losing quality are meat roasts, gelatin desserts and salads, dried beans and peas, potatoes with jackets and hard-cooked eggs.

Prepare a double quantity of foods that freeze well and freeze half for use another day.

Cook entire meal in the oven or deep well. When heating the oven for meat, plan to have several dishes cooking at the same time which might be used in the same meal or for future meals.

Several complete menus are suggested for the oven, top of the range, and broiler or as one-dish or pressure pan meals. The recipes which follow are for the oven.

KITES, KITES, KITES — It's spring and kite-flying and kite-making time, so art students in Mrs. O. Wertenberger's class have been making kites, but not just ordinary kites. With Gary Haseloff, West Texas State University student teacher, the pupils not only have made kites, but have learned the history of kites as part of a "practical crafts" class in 7th and 8th grades. Note "dragon" kite at top, a series of discs. The kite Mrs. Wertenberger and Haseloff are holding is made of hand-painted imported silk. (Brand Staff Photo)

REP. ROGERS WRITES

Bills On Imports Of Meat, Sugar Top Farm Legislation

Passage of the Wheat-Cotton Bill this week leaves two important agricultural matters to be settled in the halls of Congress before the end of this Session. Both have to do with the level of imports of two vital foodstuffs — sugar and meat. At the heart of the issue is this question: How much sugar and how much of the meat consumed by Americans is going to be supplied by American farmers and ranchers?

To sell abroad we must buy abroad. Trade is not a one-way street. We cannot export unless we import. But we must not cripple domestic industries by permitting such a high level of imports that our own produce or manufacturers are driven from our own marketplaces. In addition, we must continue to provide opportunity for the expansion of domestic agricultural and industrial production.

Hearings are expected to begin soon before the House Agriculture Committee on production quota allocations under the Sugar Act. A number of bills have been introduced to increase the tonnage quota permitted to American farmers, producers of cane and beet sugar alike, during the calendar years 1964, 1965, and 1966. This week I introduced a bill to increase the quotas for our domestic sugar producing areas by 1,500,000 tons in 1965 and 1966 and by 500,000 tons for this year. Together with some 50 other Members of the House of Representatives, I sent a letter Thursday to President Lyndon Johnson asking that the Administration back a domestic sugar beet marketing quota increase of "at least 750,000 tons." The signers of the letter, both Democrats and Republicans, advised the President of their conviction that such an increase "is in the national interest."

The letter stated: "World sugar stocks this year are even lower than last year, when the sugar crisis mentioned in your Message on Agriculture occurred. Some of the foreign countries supplying the market are doubtful reliability because of present or potential political instability. "An increase of at least 750,000 tons in the basic beet sugar quota will help materially to assure ample supplies of sugar for American consumers at reasonable prices. Moreover, reducing our nation's dependence on foreign sugar supplies will reduce the number of dollars we send abroad and therefore will help to alleviate our Nation's balance of payments problem." The fight is going to be a tough one. The "off shore" sugar interests are indeed a strongly entrenched power. Along with other Members of Congress of both parties, I will do my best to see that the fight is won this year. The second important problem — that involving beef and other meat — poses equally difficult problems. Several weeks ago, I observed in this newsletter that legislative efforts would be made to correct the depressed economy of our domestic cattle industry as a result of an excessively high level of imports reaching the United States from foreign countries. A number of bills — again with bipartisan support — have been introduced in the House and Senate. I am the author of one of these bills designed to lower the import level to the point that our own cattlemen can be assured of a market in their own country, and a market that permits them to remain in business. With the fate of these legislative proposals remaining to be determined, Agriculture Secretary Freeman this week announced that the governments of Australia and New Zealand have voluntarily agreed to reduce their beef and meat exports to the United States this year by 22 percent, or 226 million pounds, below their exports in 1963 — and below the level established in the recent (and, in my view, unsatisfactory) agreement negotiated among the three countries. However encouraging this news may be, the reduction is still not sufficient to avert the threatened ruin now facing many U. S. cattlemen. The United States exports a larger quantity of agricultural and manufactured products than it imports. In the last crop year for which figures are available, we, in the 18th Congressional District of Texas (the 28-county area) exported $66.4 million worth of products — $62.1 million in field crops, $4 million in livestock and livestock products, $241,000 in vegetables, and $5,000 in fruits and nuts. In the same period, agricultural imports received in the 18th Congressional District totaled a value of $9.3 million. WALTER ROGERS MEMBER OF CONGRESS 18TH DISTRICT OF TEXAS

Land Treatment Needed in Areas Of Playa Lakes

With 37,000 playa lakes dotting the High Plains and sloping land leading into every one of them, the need for land management in the area is evident, and Jim Valliant, water engineer at the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway is concerned with the problem.

He estimates that at least 50 per cent of this sloping land, especially in Hale, Floyd, Swisher, Castro and Lamb counties, needs some form of land management.

At the Foundation farm at Halfway, Valliant has taken the land around one of the playa lakes on the 310-acre tract and subjected it to an extensive program of bench leveling to determine the value of land management in terms of dollars in the farmer's pocket.

Portions of the land around the lake have been cut to 8, 12, and 16 row benches and the remainder left in its natural, unshaped state.

Cotton and grain sorghum were planted in both areas and tests conducted to compare water use and yield, the factors which control net income. Since no facilities for measuring erosion were available, no studies were conducted on the amount of topsoil displaced.

Results of the tests have been significant. Based on a four-year average, the net income from cotton and grain sorghum produced on the benches was $20 per acre per year higher than that from the unshaped areas.

In addition to the increased yield realized on the benches, Valliant found that 30-40 per cent less water was required for grain sorghum and required 10 per cent less for cotton.

He also cites such things as less erosion, better utilization of rainfall, better utilization of supplemental water and a buildup of organic matter and a fertility of the soil as hidden benefits realized in the bench leveling program.

"I'm getting a definite, stabilized yield on the benches and a declining yield on the unshaped ground," Valliant says, "this bears out the fact that crops grown on the slope require more nutrients, indicating a breakdown in the soil."

Valliant has experimented with 8, 12 and 16 row benches at the farm and has settled on a maximum length of 800 feet. The current experiments will be extended another year to arrive at a solid, 5-year average, and soybean benches will be added to the program.

The addition of 504 more acres to the research program may enable further research in bench leveling and terracing. Two lakes are on the new farm 10 miles southwest of Halfway, providing ample sloping land to be incorporated in the program.

REALISTIC CASTING
LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — When the University of Nebraska laboratory theater needed someone to play the part of a Nigerian student in the play, "A Raisin in the Sun," it found a real life Nigerian student, available and willing.

The role went to David Abifarin, 29-year-old agronomy graduate student from Nigeria.

The play identifies the student (Asagai) as a member of the Yoruba tribe. Abifarin is a member to go back to Nigeria as a good agronomist do sorghum research and help teach his people better methods of farming.

By Jimmie Davis
The '63-'64 cheerleaders of HHS said good-bye to their office Friday, April 10, when the new cheerleaders of '64-'65 were announced in the high school assembly.

Cheerleaders of this school year, Brenda Shelton, Ronda Neff, Peggy Neff, Janice Hagans, Kathy Boston, and Ruth Ann Allison, announced the next school year's cheerleaders who are: Barbara Langley, Sharon Tinnin, Gayle Newell, Cynthia Leasure, and again for next year, Peggy Neff and Brenda Shelton.

Upon being told of their office, Cynthia said: "I just hope we measure up to the cheerleaders of this year." Sharon said, "It was a complete surprise and I feel very honored. Having such a great honor makes me want to support the team and represent my school well."

Gayle said that she could not believe that she was chosen and Brenda hoped they would do a good job and hoped that they could get along well together. Peggy said, "I was just as thrilled to get this, this year as last year and hope to do as well as this year, if not better."

The staff was not able to get a statement from Barbara as she had left to go on a trip before we reached her.

Arvell Williams Wins 1st In FFA Speaking Contest

"FFA to you and me these letters are symbolic of the future of our country and even the world. Our country is an agricultural country, dependent upon its farmers. The United States of America is considered the world's leading nation. As the farmers are the backbone of any agricultural country, they control the economy of the country. Thus we can conclude that the farmers control the economy of the world."

This is the opening of the speech that won first place for senior Arvell Williams in public speaking at Boys' Ranch Monday, April 6.

His speech continued, "One of our purposes in FFA is to learn how to become the farmers and ranchers of tomorrow. We learn new techniques and how to employ them in farming and ranching. This search for knowledge on the part of our fore-fathers has led us to be the nation we are today. It will continue to be the factor that will make nations rise and fall.

"So, again we refer to the agricultural program of the FFA. The training, whether good or bad, which is given to us as bonus is going to affect to a great extent the farming and ranching industries in all of the countries where there is an organization. This is the reason that the primary aim of the FFA is to develop agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship."

Another senior, Gary Royal, received the district nomination to be candidate for state FFA president.

Now that Gary has won the district nomination he will continue in his position as candidate for state officer at the area meeting in Lubbock May 9. If he then wins the area nomination he will continue by running for officer at the state meeting in San Antonio July 17-19.

Gary also received the FFA Crop Foundation Award. Jackie Andrews was honored as he won the FFA Livestock Foundation Award.

To qualify for these awards these two senior FFA boys kept complete financial records of their crop and livestock projects. David Block, Jackie Andrews, Carl Myers, and Billy Johnson received their district check on their application for state farmers degrees.

They are now eligible to enter their application, which are fi- (Continued on Page 4)

Biology Students Must Learn Location of 44 Bones in Body

By Keith Blanton

"The ankle bone's connected to the leg bone; the leg bone's connected to the hip bone; the hip bone's connected to the backbone; the backbone's connected to the neck bone; the neck bone's connected to the head bone; now hear the word of de Lord."

Yes, "dem bones, dem bones dem dry bones," aren't really dry at all but made of "hard and spongy material and have-son canals. Of course along with these canals are red and yellow bone marrow to complete the internal structure of the bone," according to Mr. Charles Holt, biology teacher.

His class, along with the other biology classes were studying the complete skeletal system.

When Mr. Holt handed out a sheet with 44 bones and where they were located groans went up from the class mainly because all these bones had to be memorized before the six-weeks' final.

Bones ranged in names from the Xiphoid process to the Azygomatic arch; and from the Sphenoid bone to the Coccyx.

All bones were carefully pointed out on a fine specimen of a skeleton colored with hues of red and blue and fastened together with fine springs.

All teeth were intact and all joints were movable.

So the familiar song should now go: the calcaneus is connected to the fibula and tibia; the fibula and tibia are connected to the Ischium; the Ischium's connected to the lumbar; the lumbar's connected to the cervical; the cervical's connected to the cranium; now hear the word of the professor.

Entire Cast In 'Boor' Makes All-Star Cast

By Vickie Inman

Hereford's presentation of the one-act play, "The Boor" by Anton Chekhov took second place honors at an interscholastic league one-act contest at West Texas University April 3.

"The second place trophy is always presented first in order," said Mr. Tye Hilger, director of the one-act play, "and we were all hoping that the name (Hereford) wouldn't be called to receive second place."

The general feeling of disappointment for not receiving first, and happiness for receiving second prevailed the members of the Hereford team. "I was very pleased and proud, but we still wish it could have been first," said La Reece Askew, play member.

First place winner was "The Brute" by Anton Chekhov, which was presented by Duman High School. "The Brute and 'The Boor' are essentially the same stories," "The Brute," said Mr. Hilger, "is set in England while 'The Boor' is set in Russia. Less pretense is displayed by the leading characters in 'The Boor.'"

The play is about a man trying to collect a debt from a widow who makes a great show of sorrow for her deceased husband.

The three actors in "The Boor", La Reece Askew, senior; John Pavilek, senior; and Ruzi Rush, junior, won places on the all-star cast. "It isn't very often all three cast members can be on the all-star cast," commented Ruzi.

John said that he was surprised mainly because he had never had any hopes for being selected.

In respect to La Reece's acting the part of a manservant, Mr. Hilger said that the judge said that she did better than the boy from Dumas who played the same role. "The most necessary element in acting is to study 'life,'" said Mr. Hilger. "La Reece is alert to life around her, and has a great ability to assume almost any part. She deserved to be on the all-star cast. We were hoping that she might get best actor."

"The Boor" has many long and difficult passages. Roziland Rush and John Pavilek did an excellent job within the short time we had for rehearsals on (Continued on Page 4)

James Combs' Project Wins 1st In Division

By Mike Clark

"How to Kill an Echo" was the theme for James Combs' Texas Panhandle Science Fair project, which concerns a radar principal called, Automatic Zero Beating. The project won first place in the sophomore division.

The idea for the project dawned on James while he was trying to figure a way to make a speedometer which threw out radar waves and bounced them off passing telephone poles.

At the fair, an Air Force General was one of the judges. When the general got to James' project, he shook his head and said "Oh no!" The general asked James where he got the plans for the project and if anybody in the service gave him the plans, as it was still a government project.

James has entered the science fair every year since seventh grade. In the seventh grade his project was on radar, in the eighth grade his project was in the chemical field. In the ninth grade James won first place in physics and the best overall junior project. His project showed how the government could replace multivibrator circuits in rockets and satellites with the use of Colpitts circuit.

James has made the papers before. In the second grade the teachers considered James a "Budding Genius," the title of an article which appeared in the Hereford Brand in 1956, when he wrote a school play. Now, James is in full bloom, a result of his science project, and his years work on it.

As his sponsor, Mr. Virgil Young (chemistry teacher), said, "Other than signing my name to James' application, I gave him no help. He never asked for any. I think the whole project was his work from the beginning and he deserves a lot of credit for his accomplishment."

FHA Election Is Held Monday In HHS Auditorium

By Lou Ann Witkowski

Monday, April 6, the Future Homemakers of America held their regular meeting, highlighting the election of officers, in the HHS auditorium.

The two outgoing presidents, Linda Tooley, Chapter I, and Carolyn Aven, Royal Rose Chapter, conducted the meeting. They explained to the members that the Hereford Chapters would elect officers on the same basis as the Area does. This will organize the work of the chapters and it will also help us to understand the operation of our Area program, explained the presidents.

The FHA presidents serving for the school year of 1964-1965 are Cindy Loerwald, Chapter I, and Carolyn Boynton, Royal Rose Chapter.

Scouts Planning Camping Series For This Summer

Hereford Scout Troops are preparing for a full summer of Scouting Adventure and summer camping. Several troops will attend the Council Camp Don Harrington during the camp's seven weeks of operation. Troop 50, Nolan Grady Scoutmaster, sponsored by the Lions Club, Troop 52, Frank Ford Scoutmaster, sponsored by the First Methodist Church, and Troop 151, Dr. Dale Wynn, Scoutmaster, sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church, have already made reservations for summer camp. Troops 54, Paul Ablos Scoutmaster, sponsored by St. Paul's Methodist Mission; Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints, and Troop 123, Alvin Jansen, Scoutmaster, sponsored by the Immanuel Lutheran Church, also expect to have boys attending summer camp at Don Harrington. More than 100 boys from Hereford are expected to attend camp this summer.

Last year 760 boys attended summer camp from throughout the council area. This year to date, there are reservations for more than 1000 boys from the council area. In all, the council camp will operate for nine weeks.

Seven weeks will see emphasis on the scouting skills, such as swimming, signaling, compass, pioneering, cooking, camping, archery, marksmanship, soil and water conservation, wildlife management, fishing, and life saving. During the last two weeks of camp an aquatic school will be conducted with emphasis on swimming, lifesaving, rowing and canoeing.

The council has recently finished dredging a portion of the creek above the dam at camp and purchased several rowboats, and canoes as part of its capital improvement campaign. Funds for the project came from a capital fund campaign conducted throughout the council area in 1961.

The first week of summer camp will begin June 14 and end June 20, with each week thereafter being a complete camping session until July 26 when the first week of aquatic school will start. The second aquatic school will start on Aug. 2 and end Aug. 8. Cost of one week of summer camp is $14.50 and of one week of aquatic school is $17. Boys who have not yet made reservations to attend camp should contact their Scoutmasters, according to Ed Skypala, camping and activities chairman for the Tierra Blanca District.

Course To Stress Making Of Salads

By Argen Draper

One of the best programs of the year will be given Friday in the Hereford High School Auditorium. The time is 2:30 p.m. and it is hoped that all will take advantage of this outstanding program.

The program is salad toss-up. It is rare to have so many well qualified persons on one program. Dr. Mina Lamb, Mrs. Marilyn Prickett, and Miss Earnestine Gary will be on the program. 1001 seats — you be the ONE. Door prizes will be given by the merchants.

Salads are becoming more popular all the time. Many men like all kinds of salads. It is hoped that the men can attend our Salad Toss-Up. The committee wanted to set the program at night but couldn't make the arrangements.

Hereford is prominent again. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hanna are both district officers. Sunday at Childress Mrs. Hanna was re-elected as District President of the Legion Auxiliary and Mr. Hanna was elected as District Commander. They will enjoy serving together. Mrs. Hanna has done an outstanding job as district officer this past year.

Mrs. Ira Ott made the report at Childress for the Hereford Legion Auxiliary. She gave a very good report and it seemed that she set the pace for the other groups. There were many compliments on the work of the Hereford group.

The meeting at Perryton of the Texas Home Demonstration Association was attended by 271 persons. Fifteen of the persons from here stayed at the Great Plains Motel. This is operated by Clifford and Lois Stewart, who used to live at Dawn. They say they are getting along well and that their business is good.

Mary Bomar, Mrs. Virgil Bomar, was at the Perryton meeting. She was a delegate from Dallam County. They are living at Texline.

The Older American. Nearly 18 million people in the United States are 65 years of age or older. Who are these senior citizens? A report from the President's Council on Aging shows that — Nearly one and a half million live on farms.

Almost 2 million work full time.

Over 2.3 million are war veterans.

Over 12.5 million get social security benefits.

More than 3 million came originally from Europe.

More than 10,000 people are over 100 years old.

It seems to me that this report on the older American is so amazing. Those full time workers. It has been my opinion that retiring persons, simply because of age, is quite a mistake in waste of intelligency and experience.

Did you know that vegetables cooked one day then reheated and served the next lose some of their nutrients? Vitamin C losses are particularly noticeable. The vegetables will have only three-fourths as much vitamin C after one day in the refrigerator as when freshly Both best actor and actress awards were taken by Dumas students, Royce Chandler and Mary Anne Engram.

Rozzi said that the girl who played her part was "excellent." "She deserved the best actress award. The boy that played John's part talked much too loudly and didn't have the masculine voice that John does." John agrees that the leading lady in "The Brute" was great, but believes that the lead male could have acted more in the fashion that the play implied.

La Reece plans to go to Southwest Texas State College her freshman year. "I definitely intend to try out for parts in any of their productions. I may major in drama, but it is not definite."

John plans to go to the University of Dallas and major in advertising. "As of now, there are no plans for my continuing my 'acting'."

Rozzi plans to attend the University of Texas speech workshop this summer. "After that, in college, I don't know — I may major in drama or pre-med."

Members of the all-star cast besides Rozzi, John, and La Reece were Gil Mize of Perryton, Jim Balch of Levelland, Jimmy Hollified of Dumas, Billie Cook of Littlefield, and Carolyn McNabb of Perryton.

The plays were staged in the Branding Iron Theater of the Fine Arts Building.

FHA Hosts Salad Supper Thursday

By Christine Skypala

The Future Homemakers of America of HHS held a salad supper Thursday evening, April 9, at 6:45 in the High School Cafeteria.

The FHA girls from Friona, Dimmitt, and Bovina attended this supper. The purpose of inviting these girls was to maintain friendly relations with other FHA organizations and also to talk with some of the girls and find out what their organizations are doing and what projects they are working on.

Linda Tooley, president of Chapter I at HHS gave the introduction and welcomed the girls from the other towns. Linda Lemons led the girls in singing the FHA prayer song before supper was served.

After eating, the girls were shown a film strip entitled "A Very Important Profession." This film told about the various fields of home economics. Kaki Barnard was in charge of narrating the film.

Approximately one hundred out-of-town FHA girls and sponsors were present for the supper. The sponsors of the organizations in the other towns and also those from HHS were introduced to the girls.
