NCO Held In Girl's Death

TOKYO, Saturday (AP) — The Army said today a U.S. sergeant had confessed to the strangulation slaying of 9-year-old Susan Rothschild last Saturday.

The announcement identified him as Sgt. Maurice L. Schick, 29, chief ward master of the U.S. Army Hospital at Camp Zama.

The hospital is near the Sagami-hara housing area where Susan's body, a gag stuffed in her mouth, was found in a drainage ditch by her Army colonel father.

Army officials said Schick told them he had no intention of raping the girl and did not plan the murder before meeting her in a lightly populated area only two blocks from the home of her parents, Col. and Mrs. Jacques Rothschild.

The brief Army announcement said Schick confessed late last night.

Schick's home town and other details of his statement were not available immediately.

Army officials and Japanese police have been working around the clock on the case since the pretty little red-haired girl was found dead Saturday evening.

Her father began searching for her when she did not come home after leaving the home of friends where she had been playing during the afternoon.

An autopsy that she had been strangled only a few minutes before her father found her lying face down in a few inches of water in the drainage ditch. She had not been raped.

The text of the Army announcement:

"M-Sgt. Maurice L. Schick, 29, of the 8169 Au. U.S. Army Hospital at Camp Zama confessed to the brutal strangulation murder of young Susan Rothschild late last night.

"Schick, the chief ward master of the hospital, stated to Army authorities that he had no intention of rape and did not plan the murder prior to meeting the slain girl in the wooded area in the Sagami-hara housing area.

"After intensive questioning the sergeant volunteered to make a confession and did so in the presence of the same military police criminal investigators who have been investigating every facet of the brutal slaying since minutes after the body of the young girl was found by her father. The body was partially submerged in a moat in the housing area.

"Schick's motive and factual recollection of the events leading up to and after the murder were not released by Army authorities pending further use in finalizing the case.

"Schick is married and his wife and two small Japanese girls, who were adopted by the young couple, live in the same housing area in which the murder was committed.

"Finalization of the investigation is expected within the next few days."

No Injuries Are Reported In Two Highway Accidents

Apparently no injuries resulted from two highway accidents which occurred just east of Big Spring Thursday evening.

Two Odessa cars were involved in a collision about a half mile east of the city limits on Highway 80, Sheriff Jess Slaughter reported. A trailer house overturned approximately a mile east of the city in the other mishap.

Slaughter said Jack Mobley and D. R. Holt, both of Odessa, were drivers of automobiles which were in collision. The sheriff reported a third car cut in front of Mobley, causing him to apply his brakes suddenly. Holt's car struck the rear of the Mobley machine, causing considerable damage.

A house trailer owned by Roy Moore of Big Spring overturned on a grade just east of the Earl Flew Service Station about 5:45 p.m. No injuries were reported, but damage to the trailer amounted to about $500, said Johnny Griffin Wrecker Service which was called to the scene.

Highway Patrol officers investigated, but they could not be contacted this morning.

Love Of Couple Missing So Long Rallies Friends

ORANGE, Tex. (AP)—Tom Buntin and Betty McCuddy said today they would continue their life as if it had never been interrupted by splashing headlines that shattered their 22-year secret.

"The boys have had their inning—let them have it," the Nashville socialite, who disappeared with his secretary in 1931, to be found in Orange 22 years later, said.

"I'm willing to talk about the weather, football, duck hunting or anything else—except our life.

"The enduring love that brought six children, even one grandchild now, and happiness to the two who had shed a past life so completely rallied friends and neighbors to their side.

Their home was filled with flowers.

"Is there anything I can do to help?" asked B. L. Burton, the father-in-law of one of their daughters, who dropped by.

The youngest child, Mary Helen, 9, looked closely at a newspaper picture of Betty McCuddy as she was 22 years ago.

"I've never seen that picture of mother before," the child said, and everyone in the room just smiled.

Tom and Betty, who both work in Beaumont, stayed home today. Tom works at an appliance store and Betty is a court stenographer.

Back in 1931, insurance man Thomas C. Buntin of Nashville, Tenn., called an alcoholic incapable of earning a living outside his wealthy family's business—disappeared. Six weeks later, after Buntin's will had been mailed from St. Louis, the pretty Russellville, Ky., girl who had been his secretary vanished, too.

The cost to the lovelorn pair: a wife, three sons, family prestige and a thriving business to him; her family and a share in a million dollar estate for unmarried Betty.

Only rumor and speculation ever connected the two disappearances. As much of the story as anybody knows began in Brownsville, Tex., weeks after the disappearances when Tom and Betty decided to let their love flower in the lush Rio Grande Valley. Their plane to New Orleans was grounded there by bad weather. They moved here from Brownsville about five years ago.

Tom, 28, proved not to be the ne'er-do-well a Tennessee Supreme Court branded him. He and 23-year-old Betty stayed in Texas and some where along the years assumed the names of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Palmer.

Yesterday, their love—after 22 years of happiness and six children was splashed across the nation's front pages. The Nashville Tennessee broke the story in a copy-righted dispatch.

Today, dazed by the quick developments, the tall, thin man and the motherly woman with gray in her hair waited to tell their love story to children rushing to their home here.

Neighbors dropped by to chat last night as Tom and Betty, four of their children with them, ate a belated Thanksgiving dinner. Silent and miserable, almost bitter earlier in the day, they took on a more cheerful manner as their old friends rallied around.

"They're among the finest people I know," a prominent Orange resident told the Associated Press.

"Everybody in the neighborhood thinks the world of them," a neighbor told reporters.

"We were in love," Betty told Nashville Tennessee reporter John Seigenthaler. "Money didn't matter."

Hurt Czech To Be Sent To Red Zone

INCHON, Korea (AP)—A Communist Czech officer who was shot and wounded here will be sent to a Red hospital near Panmunjom in the neutral zone tomorrow, the U. N. Command said tonight.

The officer, a member of a Neutral Nations Truce Inspection team is working here, was shot in the head early yesterday. His condition is listed as serious.

The Czech, Lt. Col. Vojtech Bagda, was taken aboard the U.S. hospital ship Consolation shortly after the shooting. He will be flown from the ship to Panmunjom by a U.N. helicopter.

Other Czech team members did not allow American officers to question the wounded man. They reported he was shot accidentally when a pistol he was packing in a bag went off.

American officers said Bagda should not have brought a loaded gun on his South Korean inspection trip, but indicated they would make no protest.

They also indicated they believed the accidental shooting theory. "It was just a minor incident," one officer said.

Doctors aboard the Consolation reported the bullet entered the tail, blond Czech's head at an unlikely angle for a suicide attempt.

The Czech had reportedly been scheduled to return to North Korea yesterday for treatment of a tonsil infection.

Russian Note On Big 4 Gathering Eyed Warily

Red Note May Be Propaganda Aimed At French

LONDON (AP)—The British Foreign Office cautioned today that Russia's willingness to talk things over with the West does not necessarily mean a basic change in the Soviet attitude to world problems.

A foreign office spokesman said a Soviet note expressing such willingness emphasized also the Russians would press at Big Four talks for a wider conference to include Communist China.

The Russians, the spokesman added, gave no indication what level they sought for any five-power meeting.

The British spokesman said he wasn't ready to comment directly on the Soviet note itself until London consulted with Washington and Paris.

Western diplomats in London regarded the Soviet acceptance of an invitation to Big Four talks as a carefully timed propaganda move aimed at undermining the French government rather than a change in Kremlin attitude.

The Western Powers gave indications they would come back with an answer right away. The British Foreign Office spokesman said:

"The note is being studied here and will be the subject of consultations" between the British French and American governments, and "we hope a reply will be dispatched without undue delay."

"If and when such a conference does assemble we shall certainly do our best to make positive progress on the formidable and difficult problems which will have to be discussed."

The French Foreign Office, in its commentary, said the Russian note was essentially concerned with German rearmament and "on that it appears that the Soviet position has not changed. It still opposed German rearmament, which the government of France feels is necessary to the security of Western Europe."

CARPENTERS' HELP SOUGHT

An appeal for carpenters who will participate in a neighborhood project was voiced Friday by Floyd Jones, secretary for the Carpenters' local.

"The Carpenters' local," he said, "requests floor layers who will give one hour or as much time possible, on Saturday to help lay floor at the YMCA."

No meeting was held Thursday so there was no way to get word to all members about the appeal. Jones asked that those who could help any at all to report at the YMCA starting at 8 a.m.

State Department Sees No Red Change

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States today branded Russia's latest note on a Big Four meeting as an obvious effort to gain progress on the development of a "greater European unity and strength."

A statement released at the State Department also described the note as "a tactical retreat" by Russia in the sense that it is an effort "to gloss over the uncompromising nature of Soviet policy" toward the West.

The real substance of the Soviet note shows that Russia has not in any sense changed its basic positions on world issues and from this standpoint, therefore, "the note is disappointing," the department said.

The statement forecast that the Russian message, which was delivered only last night and called for a four-power foreign ministers meeting at Berlin, would be discussed at the Bermuda conference of the government chiefs and foreign ministers of the United States, the United Kingdom and France beginning in a week.

Evidence that the note was a thrust at European unity and strength, the State Department said, was found in the fact it was timed to coincide with the foreign policy debate in the French Parliament on the European Defense Community which would mean West German rearmament.

The statement called that "one of the most significant and obvious aspects" of the note and added that it "would appear therefore, to represent another Soviet effort to impede progress on EDC ratification and other steps toward greater European unity and strength."

A digest of the note Russia sent last night to the United States, Britain and France became available in Paris. It indicated that if a Big Four meeting of foreign ministers were held, the Soviets would immediately press for a broader, follow-up meeting including Communist China.

Informed observers here said the result might be that instead of further postponing a four-power meeting by dispatching repeated notes on the Chinese question, the Russians conceivably might allow the meeting to assemble, and then all discussion of European problems while the Chinese issue was worked over again.

In any case, the Russian note was under intensive study today by Secretary of State Dulles and his principal policy advisers to determine whether it was a serious step toward easing world tensions or a clever stab at the unity of the West.

Available information in Washington and Paris was that the note laid down no preconditions for a Big Four meeting but gave clear evidence of Russia's continuing preoccupation with the status of Red China; that it proposed a meeting without previous consultation on agenda, suggested Berlin as the meeting place and left the date open.

But there was immediate speculation here, in the British press and elsewhere abroad that the Russians might really be trying to maneuver the downfall of French Premier Laniel's government and cripple the Western Big Three conference opening in Bermuda a week from today.

The timing of the Russian announcement, and the thing it didn't say, fed this speculation.

French Cabinet Wins Approval

PARIS (AP)—Unofficial talks today indicated that Premier Joseph Laniel had received a vote of confidence in the National Assembly. The unofficial figures gave Laniel a majority of about 17 votes.

The vote came at the end of a session charged day in the National Assembly's debate on French foreign policy. The vote reflected reluctance to throw Laniel out of office on the eve of the Bermuda conference and just after Russia had offered to meet the Western Big Three to discuss world tensions.

Early in the day it seemed Laniel would have difficulty in getting approval from the deputies of his policy on European unity. Then at one point Foreign Minister Georges Bidault threatened to resign because he felt he had been slighted by the premier.

At the afternoon session, however, the personal animosities faded as the deputies sought to give the outward appearance of harmony.

Laniel pleaded for the life of his wobbly government just eight days before a scheduled Big Three conference in Bermuda and the possibility of a Big Four conference with Russia.

"I do not want a government with reduced powers and limited responsibilities," he declared gravely at a showdown debate on foreign policy.

The situation was thrown into further confusion by Russia's sudden offer to attend a Big Four meeting, which came in notes to the Western Allies last night.

Some observers thought the Soviet agreement to a foreign ministers meeting in Berlin would pull the props out from under the Laniel government. Others thought it would strengthen the regime.

Laniel himself told the Assembly the Russian agreement could improve the international climate.

"Such news, far from surprising or shocking us, may constitute the prelude to an improvement in the international climate, for

Jamaicans Watch Duke Play Polo

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP)—Thousands of holidaying Jamaicans turned out early today to watch tropical Philip of Edinburgh in a contest with this island colony's best polo players.

The early-morning match launched the final strenuous round of the three-day visit by Queen Elizabeth II and her husband. They sail late this afternoon on the liner Gothic for the Panama Canal and the rest of their round-the-world tour.

Gov. Sir Hugh Foot headed the team opposing the Duke's four at polo. Philip's two-goal international handicap, equivalent to about seven in local ratings, was exceeded only by that of Jamaica's best player, Leslie Mais, a local eight-goaler.

The royal couple's final program also included a visit to the University College of the West Indies to open a new building, an informal luncheon at King's House, the governor's official residence, and a visit to Port Royal, Jamaica's fortress capital in pirate days.

The social climax of the royal visit came last night when some 2,500 Jamaicans attended a huge reception on the floodlit gardens and lawns of King's House.

Thirteen Known Dead In Texas Holiday Violence

The Thanksgiving Holiday period ended in violent death for at least 13, possibly 14, persons in Texas.

As the state returned thanks in a spirit of good will:

A man wanted for rape was shot to death in a pistol duel with a sheriff near Sanger.

A barber who was host to 22 guests for a Thanksgiving feast at his Houston home was fatally stabbed during an argument with two guests.

Three duck hunters drowned when wind-whipped waters capsized their boats.

The decomposed body of an unidentified woman—bound tightly with tire chains—was pulled out of a lake.

Four persons died in car wrecks. Two were electrocuted, and another died of gunshot wounds.

Cook County Sheriff O. E. Whisman killed Henry Perry Denison, 36, with one slug through the forehead during a gunfight on railroad tracks just outside of Sanger. Denison was wanted for the rape of a Fort Worth housewife. Whisman said he fired from a distance of about 35 feet after Denison shot at him with a .32 automatic. The bullet grazed the sheriff's neck, leaving a red welt.

William J. Harrison, 28, was stabbed three times in the left chest during an argument following his Thanksgiving dinner. Thirteen adult guests and nine children had just finished eating when the altercation started in the living room, moved into the front yard and finally into the street, where the stabbing occurred.

John Paul Higginbotham, 40, was charged with murder. A second man was arrested for questioning. Deputy Sheriff Jack Middleton said he was unable to learn what the argument was about, but that witnesses indicated it was over a trivium.

An advertising salesman for the San Angelo Standard-Times and his son, a carrier for the paper, drowned in North Concho Lake on the San Angelo outskirts. It was believed Ray Orrick, 45, and Ray Orrick Jr., 16, toppled into the water when choppy water overturned their boat as they hunted ducks. Orrick's widow, Ethel, works in the Standard-Times photographic department.

Another small boat overturned in rough Lake Daniel, the Breckenridge City reservoir, and a duck hunter from Dallas, W. Ray Potts was drowned.

The body of a white woman, tightly bound at the neck, waist and knees with tire chains, was found near the west shore of Benbrook Lake near Fort Worth. Peace Justice N. M. Nicholson of White Settlement, said foul play apparently figured in the unidentified woman's death.

A Guadalupe County father and son were electrocuted in a freak accident as they fixed water pump lines in preparation for Thanksgiving dinner. Casimiro Espinosa Sr., 62, and Casimiro Jr., 25, were killed on their farm at Marion when pipes they were lifting from a water pump brushed a high tension wire.

Two women were killed when a car missed a curve and overturned just north of Garland. They were Mrs. Tracie Pearl Cathey, 30, and her husband's stepmother, Mrs. Ruby Cathey, 48, both of Garland. The driver, Jesse M. Cathey, husband of Mrs. Tracie Pearl Cathey, was injured.

Joseph Harold Manning, 28, a Garland salesman, was killed when his station wagon struck an underpass support on Dallas' Northwest Highway.

Charles W. Whitley, 54, Angleton was crushed to death when his automobile overturned at Houston Thursday.

Robert Ring Jr., 38, died of shooting Thursday at Houston and Justice Tom Maes returned an inquest verdict of suicide.

William Clifford Mitchell, 29, of Karnack was believed drowned in Lake Cherokee near Longview Thursday after he fell from his boat. His body had not been found.

NO GOUZENKO ACTION Jenner Has Hiss, Pals Under Study

By WARREN ROGERS JR. WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.) today left the issue of questioning Igor Gouzenko up to Canadian and U. S. diplomats and pressed forward on other fronts in his Communist-in-government probe.

He issued a statement which said the internal security subcommittee which he heads has nine former government employees, including Alger Hiss, "now under special scrutiny."

"The subcommittee is trying to determine who was responsible for their continued employment, which in most cases, involved promotions in most cases, increased access to government secrets, and increases in pay," the statement said last night.

It was thus apparent Jenner plans no further steps until there is a fresh exchange of views between Secretary of State Dulles and Canadian Foreign Minister Lester B. Pearson.

Jenner's subcommittee has asked and been rejected, then asked again for Canadian permission to question Gouzenko. The one-time Russian embassy code clerk, who put the finger on a big Canadian spy ring at Ottawa in 1945, is now a Canadian citizen living in police-guarded obscurity. Canada has agreed to the Jenner subcommittee's second request provided (1) Gouzenko is willing to be interviewed, (2) the interview is confidential and under Canadian auspices and (3) the decision as to making public the information gleaned is left to Canada.

Jenner objected to the last condition, saying his committee could not promise it would keep from Congress—and hence the public—any "evidence vital to the security of the United States." He asked Dulles to try for a different arrangement.

Gouzenko, when he tipped off Canadian authorities in 1945, said the Red spy ring in Canada had contacts in the United States. The Canadian government says the United States has been kept fully informed and Gouzenko has nothing more to tell. Gouzenko says he might have some useful advice for the Jenner subcommittee.

One of the men named by Gouzenko, Fred Rose, has gone behind the Iron Curtain, leaving his wife and daughter in Canada. Rose, a naturalized Canadian born in Poland, served a five-year jail term for his part in the spying.

His wife said yesterday he has gone to Czechoslovakia on business and for his health.

The Jenner subcommittee turned

CIO Members Asked To Decide On Union Reds

AUSTIN (AP)—Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd called on members of Fort Arthur's CIO unions today to decide for themselves whether the Distributive, Processing and Office Workers of America is a Communist-dominated union.

Shepperd made the request in a telegram to L. L. Roberts of Fort Arthur, president of the Sabine Area Council, (CIO).

The attorney general said he understood CIO members in Fort Arthur would be attending a mass meeting tonight at which two national CIO officers are to speak.

He suggested a number of "appropriate" questions could be asked in determining whether the union has a Communist background and Communist leaders, as he has charged.

A statement also was anticipated sometime today from G. W. Shivers, whom Shepperd conferred with yesterday regarding possible legal steps against the Distributive, Processing and Office Workers of America.

Shepperd's office said yesterday the contemplated steps of action by the governor and any announcement about it would have to come from Shivers.

A meeting which Shepperd originally had sought for today with leaders of the DPOWA, which he has termed Communist dominated, was delayed after the national secretary-treasurer, David Livingston, asked more time to study questions posed by the attorney general.

The questions—402 in all—were directed at four of the union's national officers in what Shepperd called an effort to give the people of Texas the whole truth about the DPOWA.

The union is one of three which Shepperd has said are combined in "what appears to be a mastermind plot to infiltrate the unions of Texas."

The DPOWA is picketing 22 Fort Arthur firms, and Shepperd said that city is the testing ground of a Communist plot to take over the oil industry and principal Texas Gulf ports. The other unions he has attacked are the Mine, Mill and Smelters Workers Union and the Fur and Leather Workers Union.

To Seek Direct Route To Lake

Chamber of Commerce members from Scurry, Mitchell, Ector and Howard counties unanimously endorsed a plan in a gathering here Wednesday evening to open a more direct route to Lake J. B. Thomas from the Big Spring-Snyder highway.

A joint committee was appointed to head up the campaign for the new road. Pat Bullock of Colorado City and R. A. Schooling of Snyder will be co-chairmen of the committee.

Representatives at the meeting voted to present their plans to the State Highway Department if their individual Chambers of Commerce agree. District Highway Engineer Jake Roberts will be contacted at Abilene and then a meeting will possibly be scheduled with the highway commission in Austin.

Those present voted to let Scurry and Mitchell counties lead in the project, with Howard and Ector counties in support. It was agreed at the meeting that both Scurry and Mitchell counties are already on record in Austin as wanting a farm-to-market road in the vicinity of the planned route.

E. V. Spence of the Colorado River Municipal Water District was at the meeting and told delegates that a 100 foot right-of-way for the road has already been pledged free of charge by property owners.

The road, if it materializes, will be 6 1/2 miles long and will join the Big Spring-Snyder artery about 2 1/2 miles east of the Howard County line in Mitchell County. About one third of the proposed road is in Mitchell county and two-thirds in Scurry. It will lead to the lake dam as now planned.

Twenty men were present for the conference, which was held at the Wagon Wheel Cafe.

JENNER

to Gouzenko after Atty. Gen. Brownell's sensational charges Nov. 6 that the Truman administration was "incredibly" lax to avoid rooting Reds out of key government positions.

Brownell cited the case of Harry Dexter White, who he said was promoted by Truman from assistant Treasury secretary to U. S. representative on the International Monetary Fund despite FBI reports linking him to espionage. Truman replied he did this to keep White and others similarly suspected under surveillance. But FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover told the Jenner group he disapproved of this arrangement, which he said hampered FBI checks on Red suspects.

Jenner's statement yesterday said White, Hiss and seven other former government workers are now the subcommittee's primary concern. White died in 1948 and Hiss is serving a five-year perjury sentence for denying under oath that he gave state secrets to a Communist agent.

Jenner announced the subcommittee has printed for public distribution the testimony taken at a public hearing in Washington last June 25 from J. Anthony Panuch.

Panuch, a New York lawyer who worked under Hiss at the State Department, testified he was instrumental in blocking a plan which would have given Hiss greater influence at the United Nations.

He said he wrote a memorandum March 7, 1946, that killed the proposed reorganization "deader than a door nail."

In another development yesterday, Sen. Malone (R-Nev) accused White of having "phoned up" estimates of America's strategic mineral reserves in trying to promote a big postwar loan to Russia.

Malone, a supporter of the mining industry in the Western states, is conducting an inquiry into the strategic materials situation.

He said that, while the multi-billion loan to Russia never went through, White "deliberately underestimated" United States mineral and petroleum reserves to make the transaction look like a wise one.

Years of Research Rewarded The medical profession has long recognized the need for a safe "corrective type" product that could be depended upon to curb the wide use of rapid-acting, habit-forming laxatives, vitamin-robbing pills, irritating salts and, indigestible fibrous-type bulkatives that can cause jejunopathy. They were in a pickup truck which crashed into the curbing at 11th and Main Street at 11:30 a.m. Mrs. Crump said the brakes went out on the vehicle.

Fine, Jail Term Are Assessed Here

Fine of $175 and costs and a three-day jail term were assessed in County Court this morning against Omaha Chester Lunaford.

Lunaford pleaded guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated. He was arrested Thursday afternoon by Policemen Cecil Cooley and L. C. Waits in the 1300 block of Gregg Street, and police filed the complaint.

Gregorio Villa pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while his license was suspended and was fined $25 and costs. He also was charged by police.

RED NOTE

Community Treaty, Russia is bitterly hostile to this pact, under which half a million Germans would be put in uniforms as part of a Western European army.

Laniel, who supports EDC, will be France's representative at the Bermuda meeting with President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Churchill. Laniel is still in office. If he loses the vote of confidence expected late today, his government must resign. In such a case, France presumably would be represented at Bermuda by a spokesman for a caretaker government with little power to make binding decisions.

Eisenhower withheld comment on the Russian announcement. A spokesman at his vacation headquarters in Augusta, Ga., said, "The President knows no more about it than has appeared in the press dispatches."

The Soviet note was received at the State Department last night after being handed to the American, British and French embassies in Moscow. Earlier, Moscow radio had announced simply that Foreign Minister Molotov had dispatched the note "expressing the Soviet government's consent to take part in a conference of the representatives of the four powers." The broadcast said the text would be published Saturday.

The announcement could have been designed so that the first impact of the news would be made without any word of conditions being given. If that was deliberate it would seem to be calculated for maximum effect on the French political situation. The information made public did not include Moscow's proposals, if any, for submission to be discussed, nor any indication whether a meeting of chiefs of state, or only senior officials, was contemplated.

Officials who began studying the eight page document here last night said that further consideration would be necessary before there could be formal reaction. But it was learned that there were at least implied conditions which made the next American step uncertain. It was possible, no reply would be made until after the Bermuda conference.

Bids On Lighting Project Are Asked

Bids will be received by the purchasing and contracting office at Webb AFB until 2 p.m. Dec. 4 for lighting the airfield apron at Webb.

Proposals will be for furnishing materials for the lighting project, plus installation of some materials to be furnished otherwise. Information may be had from the purchasing and contracting office regarding the project.

Judge's Bench To Be Rearranged

County officials, District Judge Charlie Sullivan and District Attorney Elton Gilliland this morning were discussing with Architect Olen Puckett possibility of re-arranging Judge's bench, witness stand and clerk's desk in the district courtroom of the new courthouse.

Officials feared that present arrangement would make it impossible for attorneys to see a witness from the counsel table. The district clerk also would be unable to view proceedings, they said.

Puckett said he believed the condition could be corrected by moving the bench back and the witness chair and desk forward. All three units are built into one courtroom fixture.

County officials asked the architect to determine cost and time needed to make the alterations.

County Judge R. H. Weaver also reported today that water softening equipment for the new courthouse is due to arrive here next week and that installation of the units probably will be completed late in the week. All work on the new building is expected to be completed during December.

Library Applicant Will Be Interviewed

County commissioners were to interview an applicant for the position of county librarian today.

Judge R. H. Weaver said an applicant with a degree in library science and with experience in library work was to meet with the court. He reported the interview might result in employment of a librarian.

Yard Decoration Contest Planned

The Big Spring Garden Club is sponsoring a home and yard decoration contest for Christmas. Mrs. J. E. Hogan, chairman of the project, said every resident of Big Spring is eligible to compete.

Participants will enter three fields, she said. Prizes are to be given for the best yard decoration, the best window decorations, and the best decorations for the entire front of the house.

A total of $50 in prizes will be given. First place in each category will be $10 and second prizes are to be $5. Mrs. Hogan will be joined by Mrs. Robert Stripling and Mrs. Clyde Angel on Dec. 22 to judge the entries.

Half of the money for prizes will be donated by the Chamber of Commerce and half by the Garden Club. Those wishing to enter the competition should contact either Mrs. Hogan or the Chamber.

Piggy Bank Found, But Money Is Gone

A piggy bank reported stolen Monday has been recovered, but when found it contained but five cents of approximately $18 it held when stolen.

A. E. Long, county juvenile officer, said the bank was found on a vacant lot in the 200 block of East 15th Street. The bank was taken from the home of Mrs. John M. Cooper, 113 E. 15th, Monday afternoon. It contained 13 silver dollars and other change amounting to about $5.

The Missus Keeps Posted

Ever since our secretly was cut off last year on account of me forgetting to mail in the payment, the Missus has been sort of leery about giving me letters to mail.

At first she'd ask if I mailed them, then double-check my coat pocket at night. She stopped that, and I figured she was convinced I'd learned my lesson.

Then yesterday, I got a postcard at the office in a familiar handwriting. I turned it over and by golly it was from the Missus herself! It read: "Thanks, Joe, for mailing my letters." Well!

Looks like she figured I still needed some checking-up and slipped that postcard in the last batch of letters.

From where I sit, an occasional check-up is a good thing. Check-ups on just how tolerant we are of other people's preferences and tastes, for example, I like a glass of beer with supper, you may prefer cider—but if I ever try to switch you to my choice, simply "address" me with a reminder of your rights.

Western Diplomats Skeptical Of Vishinsky A-Weapons Claim

By MAX HARRELSON
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Western diplomats were skeptical today of a hint by Andrei Y. Vishinsky that Russia may have types of atomic and other weapons that the West hasn't.

His remark to distract attention from his defeat, which he could foresee, it was agreed his speech got more attention than the vote. The Vishinsky peace package called for a ban on all atomic and hydrogen weapons, a one-third reduction in the armed forces of the big powers, the abandonment of all foreign bases and the elimination of propaganda of a hostile nature.

Just what Vishinsky said about Russia's new weapons was still being disputed today. He spoke in Russian and U. N. translators turned out two versions. The version relayed to the delegates as Vishinsky spoke said that the Western Powers "do not have everything in this field of atomic and other weapons that the Soviet Union already has."

in atomic and hydrogen weapons. "It is not correct to say that we are weaker in this field of endeavor," he declared. U. S. military authorities have repeatedly denied that the Russians are anywhere close to the United States in either atomic or hydrogen bomb production. The Political Committee's rejection of the Soviet "peace" resolution cleared the deck for a final round of debate on Burma's demands for the withdrawal to Formosa of Chinese Nationalist irregulars from Burmese territory. A limited withdrawal, which is expected to remove about 2,000 of the 12,000 troops involved, began early this month and the debate was recessed to see how the operation progressed. So far about 900 of the Chinese have been removed from Burma. World-touring U. S. Vice President Richard Nixon told newsmen in Rangoon yesterday that a speedup in the operation was "urgent" and that the United States must take the lead in prodding Chiang Kai-shek's government.

13 Texas Congressmen To Participate In Program

FORT WORTH (SpI) — Thirteen Texas congressmen have accepted invitations to participate in the third annual Congressional Forum this year, and sponsors are expecting acceptance from others.

Godfrey is chairman of the National Affairs Committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce which, with the East Texas and Fort Worth Chambers of Commerce sponsors the event.

The forum will be presented at 2:30 p. m., Dec. 11, in the Crystal Ballroom of Fort Worth's Texas Hotel.

Termed a "good example of democracy in action," the program brings together all Texas congressmen who agree to participate in an afternoon of direct questioning by the public.

After a brief keynote address by Paul Carrington, Dallas attorney, the question-and-answer period will be opened by the moderator, Ed Gossett, former congressman from Wichita Falls.

Last year, following R. B. Anderson's keynote speech, more than 1,500 persons fired questions at 13 congressmen on subjects of national and international affairs, ranging from tidelands to taxes, from congressional committee investigations to farm parity.

It is to the credit of the congressman in both previous forums that although some of the questions have been of the "hot-potato" variety, frank answers with a minimum of sidestepping have been the general pattern. Congressmen who thus far have notified the sponsors that they expect to participate in this year's forum are:

Jack B. Brooks of Beaumont, District 2; Olin E. Teague of College Station, District 6; John Dowdy of Athens, District 7; W. R. Poage of Waco, District 11; Wingate Lucas of Grapevine, District 12; Frank Ikard of Wichita Falls, District 13; John E. Lyle Jr. of Corpus Christi, District 14; Lloyd M. Bentsen Jr. of McAllen, District 15; Ken Reagan of Midland, District 16; Omar Burleson of Anson, District 17; O. Clark Fisher of San Angelo, District 21; Walter E. Rogers of Pampa, District 18; and J. Frank Wilson of Dallas, District 5.

Mansfield Criticizes Indochina Point Four

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont), reporting on his impressions of Point Four administration in the Far East, has high praise for the work in Nepal but criticism for that in Indochina.

In a report to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday, Mansfield said technical assistance personnel were doing a "remarkable" job in Nepal.

But he said he found on his study tour that Indochina's mission has been a target for "widespread" charges of incompetence. He urged an investigation.

Ike Hopes Juvenile Probe To Alert U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has expressed hope that a Senate investigation of juvenile delinquency will "alert our community leaders and all of our parents to the responsibility that is theirs."

Sen. Hendrickson (R-N.J.), chairman of the Senate Judiciary subcommittee conducting the investigation, released today a letter dated Nov. 19 from the President, who is holidaying in Augusta, Ga.

Aides of Hendrickson said the letter will be made part of the official group's record when hearings resume early next month.

Juvenile delinquency "is one of the most complex social problems facing the nation today," the President wrote. He called it "a problem filled with heartbreak."

"I know you share with me the fervent hope that your deliberations will result in suggestions for action which will reduce substantially the incalculable unhappiness which juvenile delinquency now causes our children, their parents, pastors, educators, and all who are concerned with the problem," the President said. He promised assistance of executive agencies, including the Children's Bureau of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. He approved the group's proposal for hearings in various cities, and observed: "Although it is a problem of national importance, and one in which the federal government properly takes a keen interest, juvenile delinquency does vary from community to community in its nature and extent."

Manipulation Of Tungsten Buying Drive Charged

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign manipulation of U. S. tungsten purchases at the expense of the American government was charged today by a House Government Operations subcommittee.

Announcing hearings for Monday, Chairman Brownson (R-Ind.) asserted: "Not only have these shenanigans cost the American government over one million dollars, but someone in the emergency procurement services must have known what was going on and encouraged it."

Tungsten is a strategic metal most commonly used for alloying steel and for electric-light filaments and electrical contacts.

Brownson said investigation by his subcommittee appeared to have substantiated charges first made by the State Department last May in connection with tungsten contracts with four Thailand mining companies.

The contracts were negotiated by the Emergency Procurement Services of the General Services Administration (GSA) in 1951 and 1952. They called for the purchase of 3,500 tons of tungsten concentrates for the strategic materials stockpile at an outlay of some 18 million dollars.

According to subcommittee inquiry, the contracts were based on the then current market price of $65 per unit of concentrate.

Brownson said, however, that when the market price rose to $78, the companies ignored delivery schedules and sold their ore on the open market "at the expense of deliveries to the U. S."

In June 1952, he continued, the world market dropped to $45 and the Thailand companies immediately stepped up delivery to the United States at the $65 contract price.

Brownson said, "Evidence discloses that ores being supplied were obtained on the open market from sources not specified in the contracts and shipped to the U. S. at the higher price."

In May 1953 the State Department investigated and recommended an overhauling of the contracts by the Emergency Procurement Services. Several months later, at the insistence of the State Department, the deliveries were suspended pending further investigation.

Brownson mentioned no names and did not elaborate on his statement that "someone" in the procurement agency must have been aware of the operation.

Rice-Baylor Battle Decides Bowl Team

By ORLO ROBERTSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Tradition-laden games just about wrap up the 1953 college football season tomorrow but only one of them will have any effect on the lineup for the Jan. 1 bowl contests.

The schedule lists such rivalries as Army-Navy, Notre Dame-Southern California, Alabama-Auburn, Georgia-Georgia Tech and Oklahoma-Oklahoma A&M, but it's the Rice-Baylor game at Houston that will determine the host team in the Cotton Bowl.

Texas clinched at least a tie for the Southwest Conference title and remained in the running for a Cotton Bowl spot by defeating the Texas Aggies, 21-12, yesterday. Now if Baylor defeats Rice, the Longhorns will go into the Bowl at Dallas Jan. 1 against an unnamed opponent. But if Rice wins, it'll be the Owls since they defeated Texas during the regular season.

Thanksgiving Day games also produced the undisputed winners of the Ivy League crown in Cornell, who defeated Pennsylvania, 7-7. Penn already had conceded the title to Cornell since it played only one league rival but the tie erased any possibility of an argument. The game marked the end of George Munger's 16-year career as head coach at Penn.

The year's largest crowd, 102,000, will sit in on the colorful Army-Navy game in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium. It is the nationally televised game of the day. The Middies will be out to make it four straight over the Cadets but Army is favored on the basis of a better record against common opponents this year.

Sugar Bowl-bound Georgia Tech likewise is the choice to whip its state rival and go into the postseason game against West Virginia at New Orleans with an 8-3-1 record. Notre Dame, seeking to get back on the victory trail after being tied by Iowa last week and shoved out of first place in the Associated Press poll, figures to whip Southern California.

The Alabama-Auburn game could well produce the team to oppose the Southwest Conference champs in the Cotton Bowl. Auburn has lost only to Georgia Tech and been tied by Mississippi State while winning seven games. Alabama has a 5-3-3 record. One of the defeats was by Maryland, the nation's No. 1 ranking team.

Oklahoma, headed for the Orange Bowl as Maryland's opponent, finishes its regular season against the Oklahoma Aggies. The Sooners figure to win but, like most traditional games, the book can be thrown out the window in this case.

Other games include Mississippi-Mississippi State, Villanova-Fordham, North Carolina-Duke, North Carolina State-Florida State, Tulane-LSU, Vanderbilt-Tennessee, Tulsa-Arkansas, Colorado-Colo. A&M, Florida-Miami, Boston University-William & Mary and Arizona-Arizona State.

In the top Thanksgiving games, Colgate and Brown played a 7-7 tie, Detroit beat Wichita, 26-6, for a share in the Missouri Valley Conference title, Wake Forest surprised South Carolina 19-13, Virginia Military downed Virginia Tech 26-13, Mississippi Southern beat Chattanooga 23-19, Denver and Wyoming tied 13-13, College of the Pacific turned back Utah State 20-14, and favored Utah just managed to defeat Brigham Young 23-22 in the NCAA's nationally televised game.

FOR MVP AWARD

Rosen Gets Solid Backing In Vote

NEW YORK (AP)—Al Rosen, Cleveland's slugging third baseman, was named Most Valuable Player of the American League today by an unprecedented unanimous vote.

All 24 members of the committee of the Baseball Writers Assn. threw 170 m each A m e r i c a n League city, named Rosen first. Thus the 28-year-old infielder won the award in a landslide with a maximum 336 points.

The highest previous total was run up by Lou Boudreau with 324 points in 1948, the year he led Cleveland to the world championship. Best score in National League history was Stan Musial's 319 in 1945.

To touch off this demonstration of solid support, Rosen led the league in home runs with 43, runs batted in with 145 and just missed nipping Washington's Mickey Vernon for the batting championship. Vernon finished with an unofficial .357 to Rosen's .336.

This was Rosen's fourth full season in the majors although he also appeared briefly in 1947, 1948 and 1949. It was by far his most impressive performance. When Rosen first came to the majors his fielding led much to be desired but he worked hard to improve himself to move out of the "chest fielder" category.

Yogi Berra, the New York Yankee catcher, and 1951 winner, finished second to Rosen with 167 points, and Vernon was third with 165. Actually Vernon polled 120 seconds to only five for Berra but the votes for third, fourth and so on gave Berra more points.

Kilgore Defeats Texarkana, 13-7

By The Associated Press
The state playoff bracket in Class AAA has been completed and 12 teams are in the second round of Classes AA and A in Texas schoolboy football.

Riding a wave of smashing upsets Kilgore tumbled the No. 1 ranking Class AAA team last night when it beat Texarkana, 13-7, to win the District 4 championship.

In another upset—this one in Class AAAA—Paschal knocked North Side out of the Fort Worth district championship race. Poly can win the title Friday night if it beats Arlington Heights.

And some of the teams that already had clinched playoff berths went down in their final games.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Friends of Big Spring football who found it hard to accept defeat Thursday should, perhaps, look at it this way: The resident Longhorns are the only 3-AAA team that can and will resume workouts Monday, because they're the only team which qualified for the playoffs. They took care of that little matter the night of Nov. 13, when they beat Snyder.

Upsets of teams which had already clinched berths in the playoffs or who had been favored to enter bi-district play seemed to be the rule rather than the exception Thursday (e. g., Texarkana).

Cocher Carl Coleman probably could have gambled yesterday and fired his team up to the point where it could have won. He could also have played his cripples. But, why take the chance? If the boys seemed cautious and a bit listless Thursday, it is understandable. Brownwood is the big objective now, and it has been for a long time.

Coleman said he was proud of the boys and the manner in which they performed Thursday. This corner feels exactly as he does. The boys played a fine ball game, despite the fact that they got beat.

And, one other thing, a team oftentimes learned things in defeat it cannot learn in victory. Two defeats in a row made the Steers a hungry ball club back in October. It could make them the same kind of ball club a week from tomorrow.

I do know that Slim Warren, the Brownwood coach who was watching the proceedings yesterday, would have preferred that Big Spring won. He realizes a club stung by defeat will be much harder to contain. He wanted complacency to be on his side, and it is not unlikely the Steers would have been a bit complacent had they handled Sweetwater. The decks have been cleared for the real donkeybrook, now. I feel the boys are going to be ready for it.

Brownwood is newer at this playoff business than is Big Spring. Fact is, the Lions are in the playoffs for the first time. In the past, they've been in the same district with Breckenridge and the Buckies have always ruled the roost.

Incidentally, the Lions used a new Spryad T formation in beating Cleburne last week and Ray Masters say he really goes for it. "It gave us just what we needed to make all our other stuff click," said Masters.

Against Big Spring back in October, Brownwood used six different types of attack, so the local mentors are expecting anything when the Lions and the Steers have at it a week from tomorrow.

Masters carried the ball 16 times for 112 yards in gains against Cleburne. He's still the workhorse in the Brownwood offense, because the other Lion backs gained a combined total of 39 yards.

Masters also passed 21 times, completed 16 of them for 137 paces and one touchdown.

Big Ray has scored 122 points this season. Probably the only game in which he was blanked was that outing with Big Spring. Olen Franks, Brownwood's second best offensive back (who suffered a wrenched knee in the game), has scored 79 points.

Against Big Spring here in October, the Lions picked up 48 yards rushing (against 264 for the Steers) and 69 yards passing (against 49 for Big Spring).

Masters himself gained 18 paces in seven carries into the line, averaging 2 1/2 yards a try. He threw 10 passes, completing seven for all the Brownwood yardage.

J. C. Armistead alone bruised for 134 yards rushing against Brownwood. Billy Martin and Frosty Robison were also effective rushers against the Lions in that game.

Lohn Ousts Forsan Bisons In Bi-District, 56 To 0

BRADY (SC) — Forsan's football season came to an abrupt halt here Thursday afternoon when the Lohn Eagles routed the Buffs, 56-0, in a bi-district six-man football game.

The twice-beaten War Birds will now meet Klondike of Dawson County in the Regional finals at a site yet to be determined.

Raiders Could Be 'Down' For Game

By The Associated Press
The disappointed Red Raiders of Texas Tech may be ripe for an upset Saturday when they meet the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys for the Border Conference football championship.

Their hopes for a berth in the Sugar Bowl shattered by selection of the teams this week, the Raiders could be down for a team which more than once has spotted an otherwise fine Tech season.

On the other hand, the fact that they were passed up for the big New Year's Day contest may make the Raiders mad enough to break through a traditional inability to defeat the Cowboys by more than 13 points.

Regardless of how they feel, the Raiders will be favored.

The closest the Buffs got to the Lohn goal was in the fourth, when they drove to the Eagles' three, where they jolted the ball on a fumble.

In the second, Charles Moore dashed 21 yards for a third Lohn tally.

Claude Russell picked up six points on successful kicks for conversions in the first half and Lohn led at half time, 24-0.

In the third, Gayl Doyal scored from the one for Lohn. Holland got another on a 28-yard scamper.

Doyal went over for the seventh touchdown following interception of a Forsan pass. A pass from Moore to Ronnie Watkins, which covered 68 yards, resulted in the final score.

Back Harold Hicks played a fine half game for the Buffs.

Plainview Buries Snyder Under 34-6 TD Barrage

PLAINVIEW (SC) — Plainview manhandled Snyder as no other District 1-AAA team has this season when they won a 34-6 verdict here Thursday afternoon.

The triumph enabled Plainview to tie Sweetwater for third place in the standings.

Dale Stone carried over from the one for Plainview's initial touchdown in the first period. He then converted.

Snyder climbed back in the ball game in the second when Joe Bakter counted from 11 yards out.

Plainview came right back to get

It's WHERE you buy a used car that counts!

When you can trust the dealer who sold you a used car, you can trust the car.

The next question, then, is: Who can you trust most? We Ford Dealers are established business men with large investments at stake. Our business reputation depends on every business transaction—whether it is a new car sale, a used car sale or a service operation.

We want your used car business, and some day we hope to sell you a new car or another used car. And we want your service business, too!

"But," you say, "granted that you Ford Dealers have reputations to uphold, granted that your mechanics and service facilities make it easier to put your used cars in good shape—how do you compare in price?"

Let us give you some facts and the answer will be obvious. Ford Dealers handle used cars and trucks as a service to customers who trade them for new cars. When we get overloaded with trade-ins, our capital is tied up. Like everyone else, we have to pay our bills. So we must always offer used cars at rock-bottom prices to keep things moving.

We don't have to make much of a profit on used cars, but we do have to keep moving them out to make room for more trade-ins on '53 Fords.

These are the plain facts . . . and when you see the wide selection of fine makes and models we are taking in trade, you're bound to agree that the best place to buy a used car and truck is at your Ford Dealer's.

You can trust your FORD DEALER'S USED CARS and TRUCKS

... Distinguished career in psychology.

VISITING PSYCHOLOGIST

Exceptional Children
Are Her Main Interest

Setting up standards by which the development of handicapped and exceptional children can be measured is the special project of Dr. Willie Verniaud, a clinical psychologist and a recent visitor here. She explained that with normal children you can expect certain reactions at specific age levels and she believes that the same kind of knowledge should and can be made available about the child who is above or below the average. Dr. Verniaud was here yesterday visiting her mother, Mrs. R. L. Kennedy and her sister, Mrs. Dalton Conway. She left for Dallas to attend the Texas Council for Exceptional Children which is meeting today. She is retiring president of the organization. Her full time job is that of director of psychological services, Southwestern Polio Respiratory Center in Houston. There she worked with adults and children, most of whom have been in an iron lung at one time or another. Dr. Verniaud began her psychology training at George Washington University in Washington, D. C. She took her master's degree at the University of Minnesota. She was awarded her doctorate from the University of Houston and is still on the faculty of the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston. In Houston she has served as acting director of special classes in the Houston Public Schools. Her husband is a writer on the Houston Post and she says he is a better practical psychologist than she. "The thing we are lagging in today," she says, "is human relations and that is what the psychologists are working on." Dr. Verniaud is very anxious for public school teachers to become interested in the psychological problems of exceptional children and pointed out that the International Council for Exceptional Children will hold a regional conference in Houston at the Shamrock Hotel Dec. 27-30. The conference will have different sections on the various special problems of such children.

B&PW Club Puts Spotlight
On Equal Rights Amendment

Members of the B&PW prepared to wage war on the Hayden Rider to the proposed Equal Rights Amendment when they met Tuesday night at the Settles Hotel. Mrs. Jimmie Freeman, public affairs committee chairman, was in charge of a discussion on the proposed amendment to the constitution, jury service for women and income tax laws. Mrs. Lorene Williams gave the content of the Equal Rights Amendment, which says that equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged on account of sex. She told how the Hayden Rider contradicts the proposal. The rider, attached to the bill before passage, reads as follows: the provisions of this article shall not be construed to impair any rights, benefits, or exemptions now or hereafter conferred by law upon persons of the female sex.

B&PW Clubs throughout the country are planning to talk to congressmen about the proposal. Mrs. Audie Mae Smith discussed what the United Nations has done in the field of equal rights for women. Mrs. Georgia Johnson discussed what has already been achieved in securing equal rights in the United States and what the organization's goals are.

Bert Lane pointed out how income tax laws discriminate against women. Mrs. Ina McGowan, discussing jury service for women, pointed out that serving on juries is not so much a privilege as a duty we owe to our country's future.

We are all enjoying the right to a trial by jury, Mrs. McGowan said. Should we not be willing to accept our responsibility in meeting out justice? An interclub meeting was set for Jan. 12. Christine Tipton, district director, will speak. Club members from Denver City, Midland and Lamesa will attend.

Mrs. Rainwater At Teachers' Seminar Mrs. Champ Rainwater has returned from Dallas where she spent a week attending a Hammond Organ seminar for teachers. The seminar was conducted by the Sherwood School of Music of Chicago.

Etiquette Quiz

To keep the rough edges smoothed off your dating technique, an etiquette quiz comes in mighty handy once in a while. Maybe you know all the answers, but if you don't now's the time to learn. Many a girl and boy has been "tried and found wanting" by a neat crowd who knows how the ball bounces. Do you? Don't be shunned or left out of anything because of something as easy to correct as etiquette ignorance. How do you stack up in the following quiz?

1. After taking your girl to the movie you meet her girl friend who lives near-by and offer to give her a ride home. Should you:
A. Stop in front of her house just long enough to let her out?
B. Wait until she's safely in before driving off?
C. Leave your date in the car while you escort the girl to her front door?
2. You're double dating and you're driving your father's car. Should you:
A. Take your girl home first?
B. Take your date's girl home first?
C. Take your buddy home first?

3. You've been invited to your boy friend's house for Sunday dinner. Should you:
A. Rise when his mother or grandmother enters the room?
B. Remain seated because women do not rise for women?
C. Make a motion to rise without actually doing it?
4. You've received an invitation to a party. Should you:
A. Bring a boy you date regularly?
B. Ask your hostess if you may bring him, first?
C. Don't mention it, but go alone or stay home?
Now let's see how geared to the times you are. C is the answer to the first one. She may not be your date, but she's still a girl and you're still a boy. B is right for number 2. The other boy's date is taken home first, then your buddy, and last of all, your own girl. For number three A is the answer. Women do not normally rise for women, except out of respect to one who is older. -And of course C is right for number 4. An invitation, unless otherwise stated, does not extend to you the right to invite others or seek invitations in their behalf. If you got all four, your score is real pure. If not, better get your nose in an etiquette book or you'll find yourself dating solo one of these days. (Want to be more popular? Write to Beverly Brandow in care of The Herald and she'll send you her "Popularity Booklet" free of charge.)

This Looks Like Championship Year In More Than One Respect

This looks like a championship year for Big Spring High School, unless we miss our guess. We're off to a mighty fine start with our football team with a chance to go far toward a state title. This is, of course a mighty fine tribute to the coaches and to the players individually and as a team. Perseverance and hard work have paid off, for top football teams are the products of years of effort.

The same can be said for other activities, quite removed from athletic prowess. For instance, the first public appearance of the high school choir this season stamps this organization as one of championship calibre. Not so many years ago, we did not have a choir as such, merely a few young women comprising a glee club. In the space of little more than three years a minor miracle has been wrought—there are greater numbers of the girls participating, and a good depth of male voices, too, including some belonging to football stars. The net result is that this year's choir follows in the pattern of being progressively better, with more poise and spirit.

Russia Wants To Be A 'Neutral' So As Not To Be Bound By Pact

U. S. and U. N. interests seem to be in good hands at Panmunjom, where Arthur Dean, the U. S. envoy, is in charge of negotiations with the Chinese and North Korean Reds in trying to work out details of a Korean peace conference. Dean began his work in an optimistic frame of mind—at least outwardly. As the weeks wear on and results fail to show his patience gets a little thinner.

reached at this political conference and (B) you wish to use as a threat at the conference the possible non-aggression of the USSR or its noncompliance with the agreements reached? The chief Chinese delegate replied with the usual hogwash, accusing the U. S. of war atrocities and bad treatment of prisoners. Dean replied that "we'd make progress if you'd cut out these stump speeches."

Tito Is Harsh With Enemies, But Not With His Own People

VENICE — Seen from Belgrad and Trieste, which I visited last week, it was clear to me that the boundary line between Italy and Yugoslavia is not the crucial problem. The line that we proposed on Oct. 8, or a modification of it which would exchange Slovene communes in the hinterland of Zone A for Italian communes on the coast of Zone B, would be found in the end to be a workable solution of the territorial dispute.

pelled the impression in Yugoslavia, and perhaps too in the neighboring countries, that having ceased in 1948 to be a Soviet satellite, Tito was now an Anglo-American satellite. Objective observers say that immediately after Oct. 8 this impression was so strong that it reached very high levels within the regime.

Teachers See Double

BALDWIN, Miss. (AP)—At Wheeler School there are nine sets of twins among the 575 pupils. One teacher, Miss Gladys Milton, has four sets in her first grade. "It's quite confusing," she sighed.

I must make it clear that while I had talks in Belgrad with Marshal Tito and with some of his principal lieutenants, what I have said above is not a report, much less an authorized statement, of their views. It is merely my own inference from a variety of impressions.

Teachers See Double

BALDWIN, Miss. (AP)—At Wheeler School there are nine sets of twins among the 575 pupils. One teacher, Miss Gladys Milton, has four sets in her first grade. "It's quite confusing," she sighed.

Whether a Communist economic system can be made to work without the fanaticism and the compulsion which Stalin employed in forcing Russia to industrialize is a question. It is being tested by Tito in Yugoslavia.

Dean Acheson Yanked Back Into News Again By Sen. Jenner's Subcommittee

WASHINGTON (AP)—When former Secretary of State Dean Acheson went out of office last Jan. 20 with the rest of the Truman administration, he probably hoped for unbroken quiet in private life. His years in the State Department had been anything but quiet. He had been in the news in a double role: as secretary of state conducting foreign affairs and as a target for Republican complaints about officials allowing employment of Reds in government.

This Is No Time For Talking Turkey, But Roses Fit Nicely

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald—Editor's Note.

This is not exactly the season of the year when people think of flowers, etc., except for football "mums," but most any non-seasonal subject catches our fancy right now—something to take our mind off of the turkey, of which we consumed too much, as usual.

Now, after some three or four years first, it apparently is playing second fiddle, or maybe it's even down in the flute section somewhere.

CIO Puts Responsibility Of Economy Upon Administration

The CIO is preaching a provocative doctrine. Depressions are man made. Therefore, we can stop depressions. If we have a business slump, it will be because President Eisenhower and his advisers lack "wise judgment and broad social vision." It will be because "a small group of the population refuses to believe full employment and economic expansion can be indefinitely sustained."

New 1953 models have been offered at big discounts. Car-buyers can get any make and any model at almost any time. So they're not anxious.

Eisenhowers Enjoy Thanksgiving Feast

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower sat down to Thanksgiving dinner with his family last night, expressed deep gratitude for his son's safe return from Korea and voiced the fervent hope that American boys never have to go to war again.

"We are very, very thankful," the President said happily.

The dinner scene with a 16-pound turkey on the table was the trophy room of the Augusta National Golf Club.

With the President, carving knife in hand, were the First Lady; their son and daughter-in-law, Maj. and Mrs. John Eisenhower; and the three grandchildren — David, 5, Barbara, 4, and Susan, 2. Eisenhower wore the green jacket which denotes membership in the golf club, and a bright yellow tie with the club emblem—a map of the United States and a golf flag marking Augusta.

News cameramen present reported the President spoke with deep feeling in declaring at the dinner table:

"America has countless things to be thankful for on this Nov. 26. But I think most important is this: For the first Thanksgiving in the last four we sit down to the traditional Thanksgiving feast without the fear of the casualty list hanging over us.

"We no longer have to worry about the killing in Korea.

"Now, my wife and I are just exactly like many thousands of other families in America tonight.

"We have home our son (who returned from Korea late last summer)—and what is more important than that is that our grandchildren have home their daddy, our Barbie (John's wife) has her husband home.

"We are very, very thankful—and I am certain I speak for thousands and thousands of other families in America when I say: May we never again have to have our loved ones go off to war."

After the President's remarks the family was joined for dinner by a few old friends.

Besides turkey, the menu included oyster dressing, cranberry sauce, fruit cup, a salad, green vegetables and pumpkin pie.

John Eisenhower arrived during the afternoon from Ft. Benning, Ga., where he had an earlier turkey dinner with his troops. He commands the 1st Battalion of the 30th Infantry Regiment.

The President already had played 18 holes of golf, but he joined his son outside the clubhouse for a few practice shots at dusk.

Father and son plan a full-scale match today.

The President, the First Lady and John's wife attended Thanksgiving services yesterday morning in the Sunday school chapel of the Reid Memorial Presbyterian Church.

The President plans to return to Washington Sunday night.

"If that statement was made," he continued, "it is not true."

Aikin said Shivers had been desired, could have cut down the bill in 1949 when Shivers was president of the Senate and "held what is probably the most powerful office in Texas as far as shaping legislation is concerned."

Aikin said he would be willing to study a proposal to include school building costs in the program, with the state paying 20 per cent of building programs and 80 per cent of educational costs.

"I'll consider anything that doesn't cost local boards more money," he said.

Since 1949, he said Texas teacher pay has gone down from 16th in the nation to 26th. "Something," he told agreeing teachers in his audience, "must be done."

Two general sessions were scheduled by the teachers today. U.S. Senator Lyndon B. Johnson was to address tonight's session while the daytime session was to hear Dr. Lyman V. Ginger, of the University of Kentucky, and Jeff Williams, humorist of Chickasha, Okla.

Aikin, chairman of the State Senate Committee on Education, said Shivers in a recent speech before the Texas Association of School Boards, criticized the talk by saying some persons accused him (Shivers) of trying to tear down the Gilmer-Aikin Laws.

Japanese Teacher

Mrs. Ramon Holliman, former Japanese school teacher now living at Orange, Tex., chats with Dr. Lee Wilborn of Austin, associate commissioner of education for instruction. The two met in Orange when Mrs. Holliman toured the school while Dr. Wilborn was there as observer. Mrs. Holliman was Hisae Iimori of Nagasaki and saw the world's third atomic bomb explosion that killed 30,000. She married Ramon Holliman, a sailor from Frankston, Tex., and taught school in post-war Japan. (AP Photo)

Japanese Girl Says U. S. Is Not Forgiven For Nagasaki

ORANGE (AP) — Beth Holliman saw an atom bomb smash her home in 1945.

Her name then was Hisae Iimori, and she was pretty and 19.

As she gazed in horror at the explosion that crushed Nagasaki and killed 30,000, Hisae's hatred and fear of Americans almost overwhelmed her.

Then she met Ramon Holliman of Frankston, Tex. She married him and changed her name to Beth.

Beth was the first Japanese girl the Texas sailor ever saw. He met her at Sasebo in a souvenir shop.

Both said it was love at first sight. There were difficulties. He spoke no Japanese, she no English. Her parents opposed the marriage at first.

They were married in a Shinto ceremony three years ago. Two other marriages followed, one by a U. S. consular official and one by a Presbyterian minister.

When Holliman was discharged from the Navy, they came to Texas a month ago.

During the post-war era in Japan, Mrs. Holliman taught folk music and dancing in Sasebo. One of the first things she wanted to do on reaching Orange was to visit in the schools. She found them "very, very different."

"No formality here," she said. "Teachers sit instead of stand all the time. The children don't wear uniforms and they don't bow each time they speak."

As an American, she said, she has nothing to forgive her adopted people. But, she adds, there is one thing the Japanese people have not forgiven the Americans. That is Nagasaki.

She said Japan held no ill will against the United States for the A-bomb that fell on Hiroshima. "That was war," she said.

But of the Nagasaki bomb, she said, "We were already defeated. They didn't need to drop that one. My people cannot forgive the Americans for that."

$500,000 Damage Estimated In Fire At Lumber Plant

CORRIGAN (AP)—A fire caused damage estimated at $500,000 to the Edens - Birch Lumber Co. plant just west of the Corrigan business district last night.

Fire equipment from Lufkin, Livingston, Chester and Woodville aided the Corrigan firemen.

The fire still was burning at midnight but under control.

Plant officials said a planer, valued at $125,000, and a flooring plant valued at $300,000 were destroyed. Several storage sheds and several million board-feet of lumber and a nearby frame residence also were burned up.

The lumber mill was destroyed by fire in July, 1952, but rebuilt and re-opened last January.

Both said it was love at first sight. There were difficulties. He spoke no Japanese, she no English. Her parents opposed the marriage at first.

They were married in a Shinto ceremony three years ago. Two other marriages followed, one by a U. S. consular official and one by a Presbyterian minister.

Negro Sought In Rape Dies In Gun Battle

FORT WORTH (AP)—Police here will never know for certain whether Henry Perry Denson, Negro yardman, opened the grave of his common-law wife last Monday.

Denson, 36, charged in his wife's death and also charged with the rape and robbery of a Fort Worth white woman, was killed yesterday near Sanger, Tex., when a sharp-shooting sheriff out-duelled him in a two-shot gun battle.

The ex-convict became the object of a wide search Monday after the white woman told police he raped, slugged and robbed her in the garage of her home in the Texas Christian University area.

That night, police said, the manhunt took a macabre turn when the grave of Ona May Washington, 36, was found open—the body's face showing—after Denson had been reported seen in the vicinity.

Cooke County Sheriff O. E. Whisnand killed Denson with a fast shot through the forehead yesterday after the Negro, refusing arrest, had grazed the officer's neck with a shot from a .32 automatic.

"I just made a quick shot and a lucky one," said Whisnand.

He had been put on Denson's trail by a telephone call from a farmer who reported seeing the Negro walking south on a railroad near his farm, two miles south of Valley View in the Gainesville vicinity.

The shooting ended a manhunt which police yesterday admitted caused near-hysteria in Tarrant County. A crowd of 1,500 citizens joined police at one time near Birdville, when a Negro answering Denson's description was seen.

But why the grave of Ona May

Washington, 34, was opened may never be known, officers here say, although they feel sure Denson opened it.

The Negro was free on $5,000 bond after being charged with murder in her death last May. Police said he struck the woman as she fell and her head hit a rock.

Her grave was entered the night after the Fort Worth woman was raped, severely beaten with a hammer, and robbed of her car and $20.

The rape victim's condition was termed satisfactory yesterday at the hospital where she has been since the attack.

Service Is A Trademark Of Nalley Concern

Vigilance, combined with helpfulness and good service, has served to keep the Nalley Funeral Home, located at 906 Gregg Street, a going and growing concern in Big Spring.

The vigilance is, of course, required of such a concern because a 24-hour alert must be maintained by some of its personnel. Emergencies can, and often do, happen at any time of the day or night.

The faculty for helping others, for which personnel of the Nalley Funeral Home is famous, comes into sharp focus at a time it is needed most, in times of distress.

Good service, of course, is and always has been a trademark of the establishment.

Coy Nalley, owner and manager of the concern, has been in business in Big Spring since 1938.

He is one of two licensed morticians and funeral directors with the concern. The other is Joe Bunch, associated with the business since 1949. Bunch graduated from the Landis College of Mortuary Science in Houston in 1948.

It requires a great deal of working-hours on the part of more than a few people to keep such a business operating at peak efficiency.

Others in the employ of Nalley's Funeral Home are Mrs. Coy Nalley, who concerns herself with working with bereaved families after tragedy strikes; Mrs. Joe Bunch, bookkeeper; and Marvin Cooper, ambulance driver.

Nalley's Funeral Home maintains a fleet of ambulances, including two Pontiacs, a Cadillac and a Buick.

In addition, the concern has a chapel, equipped with an organ.

Remodelling Work Is Builder's Specialty

Chances are that if you are planning to do any major repair or remodelling work on your home or business, the man to see is Charles Campbell.

For Campbell, a local contractor, deals with phases of construction and beautification that concerns both the outside and inside of buildings. He will tackle "face-lifting" jobs or start from the beginning, whichever the customer desires.

Concrete, plaster, stucco and stone work are all within the realm of Campbell's operations.

A veteran contractor, Campbell has been operating in the Big Spring area for the past 17 years. He has maintained his own business for the past 11 years and points with pride at his various work accomplishments.

A good percentage of Campbell's time now is devoted to his new stone facings. He handles both brick and murl stone in the Howard County building area, and is kept quite busy by people adding stone facings to their frame structures.

A recent job of Campbell's in which brick facing was used can be viewed at 8th and Main Streets on the northwest corner, present offices of Dr. H. M. Jarratt. Although laid in stone slabs, the finished product looks just like brick.

The murl stone is a stucco product which resembles Austin stone, and Campbell says it is becoming more and more popular. Stone facings can be laid much quicker than individual bricks or Austin stone blocks, he said.

Specialty of Campbell is concrete work. He lays slab flooring in garages, driveways and similar projects. Foundation work is also contracted, and any color desired can be added to the concrete.

Plaster and stucco work is done by skilled labor, and the finished product is made to please whoever is having the work done. Long years of experience are behind all of Campbell's employes.

Listed in the phone book simply as Charles Campbell, contractor, his services can be obtained by calling 4-2407 or visiting 400 Abrams. Free estimates are gladly given.

Johnson Calls For Early Consideration Of Farm Proposals

Sen. Lyndon Johnson had a call out Monday for early congressional consideration of farm legislation to stall off what he called "troubles ahead."

Johnson said in a broadcast Sunday night farmers have always been the first to be caught in the "wringer" of falling income and rising prices.

"What is happening to the farmer is just the first economic red light telling us of troubles ahead," he said.

In a radio program sponsored by the Republican State Executive Committee, one of the few women members of Congress asked more Southern Democrats to join forces with the GOP.

Mrs. Katharine St. George (R-NY) said it would be a great thing for the Republican party "if we can get more Southern conservative Democrats to come along with us."

Mrs. St. George, a relative of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt but opposed to many of his political beliefs, said her visit convinced her that big strides had been made toward making Texas a two-party state.

She had high praise for women's organizations which she said had done more for the Republican party than any other one thing.

French Police Catch Fugitive Red Leader

PARIS (AP)—French police have finally arrested Benoit Franchon, secretary general of the big Communist-dominated General Labor Confederation (CGT) and a fugitive since last March.

The 40-year-old metal worker was nabbed yesterday as he left a meeting hall where, in defiance of the eight-month-old warrant, he presided over a union meeting.

He is charged with endangering the security of the state. His arrest was ordered March 24 after police raids on Red offices and the arrest of several other CGT officials.

Coal Mine Flooded

FUKUOKA, Japan (AP)—Eight coal miners are presumed to have died when a mine near here flooded yesterday.

Tax Office Cuts Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—House tax fraud investigators, tacitly admitting they expect political opposition, have recommended eliminating some of the 64 federal district tax collection offices.

The House Ways and Means subcommittee, in a third of a series of reports yesterday, said the recent reorganization of the Internal Revenue Service was "a major accomplishment."

But it said the plan, submitted by then President Truman in 1951 when tax scandals shook the bureau, was "evidently drafted in haste." As a result there were imperfections, it said, adding: "There is little need for 64 such offices."

Insects Are A Nuisance, But They Can Be Repelled

Nothing dampens a woman's spirit more than the sight of cockroaches swarming about her kitchen.

For so many years, they've asked, "Can't something be done to rid us of these repulsive pests?"

Something could be—and was—done about it. An amazing new product called Johnson's No-Roach now kills these crawling pests in any home, easily, effortlessly, in a matter of hours. Roaches and ants, pests that they are, are usually found near food and cooking utensils where you should not use bombs or sprays. And no need to either, when you can brush Johnson's No-Roach just where you want it—around cabinets, sinks, baseboards, or wherever these bugs are found.

Johnson's No-Roach is colorless, odorless, and stainless. Insects that walk across the invisible coating become paralyzed and die within three hours. Then the coating still remains effective for months to prevent re-infestation.

If you brush Johnson's No-Roach across window sills and door sills, ants will not cross it. You may also control silverfish, spiders, and the big black bugs in your basement with No-Roach. You can keep your home free of crawling insects all season long.

And for reducing fly and mosquito population, apply No-Roach to outside portions of residence such as around windows, doors, and screens.

One important point to remember, however, No-Roach is a unique formula, made only by Johnson. It cannot be duplicated.

No-Roach is available in Big Spring at Safeway, Furr Food Store, Piggly Wiggly, Red & White Stores, Cunningham & Phillips, Collins Brothers Drugs and Big Spring Drug.
