Political Ring Is Crowded With Filing Deadline Near

Texas' political ring is getting mighty cluttered up with Stetsons tossed into it by political aspirants. Activity in Deaf Smith County has been as feverish as any with some last-minute entries expected.

Deadline for filing will be 5 p.m. Monday, Feb. 5. Nor will political parties be able to fill in vacancies on the ticket after that time. That maneuver was killed during a last-second action of the special legislative session in Austin Thursday night.

Four county offices are contested, including one commission race that has three candidates. There also is a contest for the representative's post for this area, but no contests at the district level.

Then, of course, there is the crowded slate of office-seekers on the state level and opposition to the only national race in this area.

In addition, voters here will be voting soon for two city commissioners and for two Hereford school trustees.

Deadline for filing for city commissioner is March 3 with the election slated for April 3. Last day to file for school trustee is March 6, with that election also scheduled in April. Most crowded field on the state level is that group seeking the governor's chair. Six Democrats and one Republican had paid their filing fees by Saturday morning.

On the county level, most offices have only one or two persons running. The race for Commissioner of Precinct Two, however, now lists three candidates. Running as Democrats are Marcus Latham and Austin Rose Jr. with Robert Betzen running as a Republican. Incumbent Otto Massie has announced that he will not seek.

A problem termed as serious has developed in ing off a herd may have passed with the Old West, but missing cattle are a continuing problem even in Deaf Smith County today.

A problem termed as serious has developed in the county as farmers, ranchers and feed lot operators filed reports with the Sheriff's Office stating that 32 head of cattle were missing during January.

Of the total, 12 were found to have strayed from the main herd and two others were recovered elsewhere. According to information available at the office, 18 are still unaccounted for.

Justice Precinct Lines Adjusted

A re-alignment of Justice precinct lines occupied County Commissioners during a special meeting Thursday morning. They established a single Justice precinct that includes all but three sections of the county.

Commissioners emphasized that the lines were changed only for the purpose of establishing a single large precinct for the purpose of allowing more people to vote for Justice of the Peace.

For years, only a portion of the county residents have been allowed to vote for the Justice of Peace in Precinct One. Although it would have been permissible, no one ever filed for Justice of the Peace in any of the other precincts.

Under the new alignment, all residents of the county will be permitted to vote for the Justice of Peace in Precinct One. Only exception would be residents who might live in one of the three sections in the northwestern part of the county.

Section 29, which is in the northwest corner of the county, adjoining Oldham County and New Mexico, is now designated as Justice Precinct Two. The section immediately east of this, Section 30, is labeled Justice Precinct Three. Justice Precinct Four now is in Section 31, which lines south.

Bulletin

Hereford Volunteer Firemen were called to what could have been a bad fire — but wasn't — Saturday afternoon. Leland Burns reported the blaze about 1:15 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

While filling one tractor with butane on his farm 25 miles northwest of Hereford, the fuel ignited when a nearby tractor was started, Burns stated.

Fire threatened a nearby overhead gasoline tank and butane tank as flames shot some 40 feet in the air, according to Burns. Firemen arrived on the scene only 25 minutes after the fire had been reported.

One tractor was termed a total loss, while the other received extensive damage.

Trio Of Crucial Games Face Herd In Cage Action

Three more games remain in the season for the Hereford Whiteface cagers. Three more times the Herd must win in order to have a chance at a share of the District 1-AAA basketball crown.

In the first of these crucial battles, the Whitefaces will travel to take on the Littlefield Wildcats Tuesday night. The Cats have been hapless in district play thus far this season, and posted just five victories in non-conference action.

In his first year at the Littlefield coaching helm, Harold Green has led the Littlefield quintet to a season record of five wins and 15 losses.

During the first clash between the two squads this year, the Whitefaces chalked up an 84-41 win in the Whiteface gym. Littlefield also suffered an 84-27 blow at the hands of the league.

Chamber Banquet Tickets On Sale To Public Monday

Tickets to the annual Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce will go on sale to the general public Monday. About 250 tickets are available at the Chamber office.

Remainder of the 850 tickets were snapped up by Chamber members, who have first choice.

Ticket sales will close Tuesday afternoon. Slated for Thursday, Feb. 8, the mammoth affair is expected to be sold out before serving starts at 7:30 p.m.

Twin highlights of the evening will be the announcement of the outstanding citizen of the year and a speech by Cajun humorist Justin Wilson.

Master of ceremonies will be Clint Formby, new president of the Chamber.

Caterer for the meal again this year will be Walter Jettison of Fort Worth. Mrs. John T. Sims will provide organ dinner music. Invocation will be given by the Rev. H. L. Thurston, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Hereford.

Musical entertainment will be given by The Deaf Smiths.

Brief remarks will be made by C. Palmer Norton, immediate past president, just before Formby presents plaques to the outgoing directors.

Mrs. Dyalitha Benson will present the nine top winners in the sixth annual National Thrift Essay contest, sponsored locally by the four financial institutions.

Clee Meharg then will announce the recipient of the 1961 Citizen of the Year award, given annually by the Hereford Lions Club.

Around Town

There are 26 major items on the check list for the annual Deaf Smith County Chamber's banquet. Each is important to a smooth affair, such as flowers for wives of those seated at the head table. But Chamber president Clint Formby says, "We've tried so hard to remember everything and get the timing down ... and we probably forgot something important, like getting the hall."

Maybe something did get overlooked, but if the banquet goes off in less than two hours, like it is planned, a minor slip would be forgiven.

We have heard several people comment on Justin Wilson's ability as a humorist, having heard him in other places at conventions and meetings. All we know of the man comes from having heard some of his recordings. If he can be just half as humorous as he is on records, he will be a tremendous hit. If you haven't gotten your tickets yet, you'd better hurry. They will be on sale Monday and Tuesday at the Chamber office.

Aikman School PTA will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 6, in the school auditorium. Program will be given by the first grade and sixth grade music classes. It is almost superfluous to mention that this should be the organization's largest meeting of the year.

Deaf Smith County Singers will be harmonizing at the Grace Gospel Church here on Sunday, Feb. 4, starting at 4 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend. The church is located on Ave. K.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Fortenberry will honor the couple on their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 11. The reception will be held in the Bippus Community House, 14 miles north and 25 miles west of Hereford, from 1-4:30 p.m. All friends of the Fortenberrys are invited to attend.

Betzen Runs For Commission Post In Precinct Two

Robert Betzen Saturday authorized the Brand to announce his candidacy for the post of County Commissioner, Precinct Two. He filed as a candidate of the Republican party.

He said, "I am running in this race as a conservative. I believe that the Commissioner's office is one of the most important posts in the county because it handles a great deal of the public's money. In the past, I don't believe that county finances have been handled as well as they might have been."

A farmer-stockman, Betzen lived six miles northwest of Hereford. He came here with

Study Committees Report On Monday

An intensive, two-month study of Hereford public schools will be concluded Monday, Feb. 5, with a report from four special committees.

Denzil Pulliam, chairman of the special study group, announced that reports would be made at the meeting, which is set for 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

The reports will be consolidated and submitted to the Hereford Rural High School board of trustees during their regular meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 13.

A call by the school board to various clubs in the county resulted in the formation of the committees on Nov. 28. The group returned for further information and organization on Dec. 4.

Mrs. W. H. London Jr. is acting as secretary for the group. During the second meeting, Pulliam outlined a two-part program for each of the committees. First part was to consist of a thorough investigation of curriculum, extra-curricular activities, physical plant and finances.

Second part will be submission of written reports to the school board and various organizations represented on the committees.

During the organizational phase, Pulliam said, "We do not intend to dictate to the school board. It is their decision. I hope that you are not serving to gain some special goal or because of some particular peevishness with a school official. What you will do will affect the life of every citizen in the county and the destiny of their children."

Chairman of the elementary school committee is the Rev. Gilbert Davis, with Mrs. John Douglas Pitman serving as secretary. Raymond White is chairman of the committee which has studied the junior high school. Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr. is secretary.

Chairman of the high school study group is Clee Meharg. Mrs. Ed Wilson is vice chairman and Mrs. Jay Boston the secretary.

Co-chairmen of the Latin-American study group are Mr. and Mrs. Abe Davis with Mrs. Ralph McCullough the secretary. School board president Tom Robinson told the committee members during their first meeting, "We want you to find out what our school system needs, both in physical plant and curriculum. Then we want you to recommend what action the board should take. Ultimately, it is the board's responsibility, but we want your help."

Fighters Find No Luck During Amarillo Gloves

Hereford boxers had little luck in the Amarillo Golden Gloves last week, as none of the four fighters reached the finals.

Heavyweight Roy Rogers lost a split decision to Gary Welsh of Plainville in the semi-finals Friday night. Rogers, who weighed in at 225 pounds in the open division, lost to the 200-pound Plainville fighter, but planted some murderous blows during the match.

Roy Rodriguez, a 95-pounder, lost a decision to Robert Cameron of Amarillo in the second round of the Gloves Wednesday night.

Andrew Rodriguez of Hereford was TKO'd after 43 seconds of the second round in a grueling match the opening night. Jesse Rodela, of Levelland, outclassed the young fighter in a 105-pound bout.

Amarillo boxer George Arrendondo won by a TKO over Albert Rodriguez of Hereford after the local boxer did not answer the second round bell. Rodriguez weighed in at 165 in the high school division.

Donna Rogers In All-State Choir

Donna Rogers, Hereford High School senior, was one of 230 vocalists in the Texas All-State Choir which performed at the annual Texas Music Educators Convention held in Dallas Thursday through Saturday.

Miss Rogers was named a member of the all-state choir during recent tryouts in the all-regional choral group. Also attending the Music Educators high school choir director, Ben Golehon, high school band director, and Wesley Hopp, junior high band director.

Miss Rogers was one of 15 vocalists from the Panhandle area who sang in the honorary choir.

City Budget Hearing Slated Monday With Public Invited

A proposed city budget calling for an increase in spending of $32,000 is slated for a public hearing at the regular session of the City Commission to be held Monday in the City Hall at 7:30 p.m.

The budget calls for the expenditure of $535,140 during the fiscal year from May 1 to April 30, 1963. No tax increase is anticipated to raise the necessary funds.

However, when tax bond requirements for this fiscal year and the surplus are added to the 1961-62 budget and bond requirements to the proposed budget, the difference is only slightly more than $10,000. Total expenditures during the present year are expected to total $588,988 with $599,140 predicted in the proposed budget for the next fiscal year.

Major items in the proposed budget are capital improvements for the city, a pay raise for city employees and an operating reserve.

These expenditures exclude payment of principal and interest on the retirement of outstanding tax and revenue bonds. This payment amounts to $100,000 of the proposed $600,000 budget.

The greatest expenditure for capital improvements will be made in the proposed budget for the Water and Sewage Department. The major request is for the spending of $20,400 for a new sewer line from Benefield Corner to the Disposal Plant.

Ditching and pipe for the upcoming project was estimated at one dollar a foot for a total of $6,000.

The new line is called the most important project of the city under the budget up for consideration by Dudley Bayne, city manager.

The line is to be installed to help handle the load from the northern sections of the city to the Disposal Plant, he explained. It will in reality, be a third gathering line for the city.

It will be needed definitely before the summer months when the peak loads are handled, he said.

A second major expenditure in the request for the next fiscal year and also under the proposal for a new water well and piping. The cost is estimated at $14,500.

The third major item called for under the capital improvements section of the budget is for a new street sweeper. Cost of the piece of equipment for the Street Department is estimated at $9,500, less trade-in.

Among the other expenditures is the purchase of new water lines for the city. The pipe, 6000 feet of four-inch line and 4000 feet of six-inch line plus 3000 feet of ditching, is estimated at $10,040.

Total expenditure for all capital improvements is expected to total $88,646, nearly double the amount set aside for the present year.

With the proposed salary increase, wages paid to city employees will climb from $189,947 for this fiscal year to a total of $199,193 in 1962-1963.

Raises are proposed for all city employees and department heads except Commission members, the city manager, attorney, health officer, sanitation

A GREEDY UNDERTAKER was on hand to take the measurements before the poor guy had kicked the bucket during Hereford High School's first annual Western Day. One of the most successful events ever staged at the school, all students and teachers came dressed in western attire Friday. Classes were carried on as usual, but the scenes around the school had many people confused. Inside Joe's Casino and Museum, Mike Ferguson "died" after sampling a little firewater. Joe Smith, left, offers a shot to principal L. B. Russell, while Mrs. Jean Williams takes a measurement. W. R. Phillips protests that the customer is not dead. (Staff Photo)

Community Social Slated Saturday

By MRS. HAROLD RUDD
The Community Social for this month will be on Saturday, Feb. 10, at 8 p.m. An interesting program is being planned. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. Bring cookies and come for the evening.

The weather this past week has been truly beautiful. The men have started their plowing

HERE And THERE

WITH MRS. MERLIN KAUL
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Evans of Lubbock were weekend guests in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Roberson are spending several weeks in Yuma, Arizona. They have a house near their son Donald and family, and are enjoying the warmth and sunshine of the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Roland of Littlefield were in town Saturday. They were en route to Canyon to visit their son, Gary, who is a sophomore at West Texas State. The Rolands moved from here to Artesia, New Mexico, and only recently moved to Littlefield where he is a lineman for the R.E.A.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stanford are visiting his sister in California.

Gary Tannahill spent the mid-semester vacation from Texas University with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tannahill. Nathan Wilson, a student at Baylor University, spent the mid-semester vacation with his parents Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ewing of Amarillo and Mrs. E. L. Ewing of Borger accompanied Mrs. Marvin Knox to Dallas Sunday they attended the funeral of Walter Colley. Mr. Colley was a brother of Mrs. Ewing and an uncle of Mrs. Knox. Funeral services were held on Monday at Macon — Halcomb Funeral Home in Dallas and interment was in Dallas. The group returned home Tuesday.

Guests in the Maurice Tannahill home Tuesday included her niece, Mrs. Warren Mathis and children D'Lynn and Mike of Plainview, a nephew, Teddy Carthel of Lockney, and on Thursday her mother, Mrs. Francis Carthel and Teddy Carthel of Lockney spent the day in the Tannahill home.

Mr. and Mrs. Cawthon Bryant and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parsons attended the basketball game at West Texas State at Canyon Tuesday night. They also visited John David Bryant and in the Don Parsons home. Don, who completed his requirements for a degree from West Texas at the end of the semester, is employed at Humphrey Highlands School in Amarillo where he teaches health and P. E. in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

Mrs. F. A. May and Mrs. Gless May went to Claude Wednesday where they spent several days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emzy May and family.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parsons hosted a dinner Sunday honoring their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Evans, who were visiting here from Lubbock. Guests present for the occasion included Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Morrison of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Durven Baker of Shallowater, Glenda Allison and Bill Dyess of West Texas State, Mary Dufur, Doris Parsons, and and other field work and the wheat and barley fields have started growing and taking on a green coat and making the countryside truly gorgeous. The women have also been industrious during this sunshine. They have been catching up with the family laundry and many green thumbs have been scratching around plants and making preparation to set out new ones.

Wednesday morning the committee making final plans for the Silver Tea to be given by the St. Anthony's Parish Council met in the home of Mrs. Joe Reinauer. The tea will be on Sunday, Feb. 11, from 3 to 5 p.m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Among those present for the meeting were Mrs. Jim Pavlicek, Mrs. Louise Witkowski, Mrs. Pauline Albracht, Mrs. Carol Engler, Mrs. Mary Seamon, Mrs. Maynard Buck, Mrs. George Turrentine, and the hostess. Others will be helping with the arrangements for the tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rudd, Colleen and Rebecca ate dinner with Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Vandever in Hereford Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Scott, Betty and Jan were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Dodson in Hereford on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Sawyer and Layton and Lugena Guinn of Hereford spent the weekend visiting relatives. First they visited Mrs. Sawyer's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cheek at Lamesa, and then they went to Abilene and visited a nephew, the hosts.

Mrs. Erna Schriener left Saturday from Amarillo by plane for New York City where she boarded a "jet" to return to her home in Weisbaden, Germany. She is a sister of Mrs. Ericka Durham and arrived in Hereford on Dec. 21 to spend Christmas with Mrs. Durham and her two small daughters, 7 year-old Betty and 2 year-old Jamie. This was her first trip to America and her first acquaintance with little Jamie.

While here she visited the museum at Canyon and several other points of interest. When asked how she liked this country—she didn't. Compared to her native land of forests, rivers, and hills, she said this country looked "like a desert." And "you can just see so far." And of course the weather man didn't cooperate much during her visit with sub-zero weather although they also have winter and snow in Weisbaden, which is in Western Germany. Her husband is a contractor and Mrs. Schriener says the houses in this area wouldn't pass inspection—that the houses there are built of brick and all re-enforced with steel. Most have basements with thick concrete top on which the foundation of the house is laid. Mrs. Schriener is associated with her husband in the business.

She enjoyed the friendliness of the American people, and made many friends while here; and despite the fact that she spoke no English said she encountered no difficulties in traveling. She was to meet a friend in New York and they would conclude the trip to Weisbaden together. Miss Madeline Bell, Mrs. Durham and the girls took Mrs. Schriener to the airport in Amarillo.

For centuries a portion of the east coast of the Federation of Malaya was called the Beach of the Fire Ants. An enterprising Malaya developed in into an amusement center and changed the name to Beach of Passionate Love.

In the past decade more than a million refugees have fled Communist China.

Garland Briley. From there they journeyed to Winters to visit his mother, Mrs. Lola Sawyer, his sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Guy, and a brother, Pat Sawyer.

Saturday morning Mrs. Homer Rudd attended the funeral of Mrs. N. C. Voegel in Hereford. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Head and Shirley spent Monday in Amarillo.

John Kalka took a load of cattle to Amarillo on Thursday.

Monday he and Mrs. Alice Cooper returned to Amarillo. Mrs. Cooper visited with her sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Hairgrove and Mrs. Ruth Walls of Pampa, while Kalka attended the cattle sale.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mitchell visited with her sisters, Mrs. J. A. Talburt, Mrs. Clyde Rhodes and Mrs. H. C. Carr in Littlefield recently.

Mrs. Bill Williams and Dina of Roswell, N. M., arrived Monday to visit her cousin, Rob Groves and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Odum and Jerry spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Odum, in Clarendon.

Mrs. Martha Sullivan and Holly visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomas and family Friday night.

Deborah Thomas won $10 for showmanship while showing her calf at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zinser

Jr. and family spent Saturday in Amarillo.

Mrs. R. W. Mitchell spent most of last week with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Willis, in Hereford while her husband was in Austin working on the gas legislation.

Sunday the Mitchells had dinner with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gerhart, in Amarillo.

Mrs. Paul Groves of Stinnett spent Saturday night here with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Groves and family.

Last Tuesday Mrs. J. B. Odum took her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross White, to their home in Hale Center. They had been visiting here with her a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Rudd visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Massie in Hereford Saturday evening. The couples attended the March of Dimes dance together.

Mrs. Paul Rudd, Mrs. Ken Rudd, Mrs. Homer Rudd, Mrs. W. W. Thomas, Mrs. Bess Werner, Mrs. Cliff Combs, Miss Ann Wagoner, Mrs. Emmitt Johnson, Mrs. Lincoln Bolin, Mrs. Joe Landers and Mrs. Joe Wagoner attended the pink and blue shower for Mrs. Bill Combs in the home of Mrs. A. N. Hopson in Hereford Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Wagoner was one of the hostesses.

Mrs. David Seal, Dennis and Vickie of Canyon spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wagoner. David was in Abilene with the basketball team from West Texas.

Ross Joe Landers left last Tuesday evening by bus to go to Stillwater, Okla. where he is enrolled for the spring semester at Oklahoma State University.

Last Sunday Mrs. Alice Cooper and Joyce and John Kalka ate dinner with Mr. and Mrs.

Sam Mazurek. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Rudd visited with Mrs. Jon Fraser in Hereford Sunday afternoon. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ford Jr.

Mrs. J. C. Morrison visited with Mrs. Lois Rutter in Hereford Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Kaul were hosts for a birthday supper honoring Cawthon Bryant of Hereford. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morrison and Judith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sowell, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamb, Mrs. Cawthon Bryant, honoree and hosts. Games of "42" were played after the evening meal.

Saturday Rites For Mrs. E. Dickinson

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Dickinson, 68, of El Monte, Cal., formerly of Amarillo, were held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Friona Baptist Church with the Rev. John Ferguson, pastor, officiating.

Mrs. Dickinson died on Monday, Jan. 29.

She was born on Jan. 24, 1894, in Breckenridge, and had moved to California from Amarillo in 1938.

Survivors are three sons, Jess Staples of San Diego, Cal., Melvin Staples of Spokane, Wash., R. V. Staples of El Monte, Cal.; three daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Neavil of El Monte, Cal., Mrs. Violet Gremstead of Fort Ord, Cal., Mrs. Donna Tracy of West Covina, Cal.; four sisters, Mrs. Dottie Williams of Hereford, Mrs. Nettie Bell and Miss Francie West of Memphis, Tenn., Mrs. Janie Fulks of Amarillo; one brother, James West of Washington, D. C.; and 18 grandchildren.

Burial was in the Bovina Cemetery under the direction of the Claborn Funeral Home of Friona.

leading Dumas Demons Friday night.

In other district action Tuesday, Dumas will play host to the Phillips Blackhawks. Leveland takes a night out of district competition to tangle with Dimmitt.

Dumas sits in the first-place berth in District I-AAA so far. The Demons have knocked off a record of five wins, and only one loss. Phillips currently holds the second-place title, with a record of four wins and two losses, beating Leveland, 52-33, Friday night.

Hereford, with a 3-2 mark, must win the remainder of its games in order to tie the Demons for a chance at the title. After the game at Littlefield Tuesday, the Herd will close out the season by playing host to Leveland Friday and to Dumas the following Tuesday.

Littlefield's Wildcats have had an ample share of problems in district play, the biggest of which might be the lack of support from the local sports fans.

The ineffective Wildcats have yet to win a district game this season. Losing by 18 points to both Dumas and Leveland was the closest the Wildcats have come. Playing on the home court and maddened by an 84-27 beating Friday, however, the Wildcats will be no pushover.

Wildcats have had both offensive and defensive problems. Junior Hodge, their leading scorer, is only 5-6, Grover Pigum, 5-9, also leads Wildcat scoring.

Defense has been the biggest headache for the small and inexperienced Littlefield quintet, however.

ately when the animal was missing and when and where it is found.

This would help the Sheriff's Office determine if the animal had been stolen or had just strayed.

As he stressed the need for the reporting of missing cattle, he told of an area farmer finding two strays in his pasture about a year ago.

Everything possible was done to find the owner, he commented, but no description fitting the two strays was turned into the office.

"We would also like to have reports on strange cars and pickups plus license numbers seen in the rural sections of the county," Sharp said. "These vehicles can be used to spot or as decoys."

"We can check and find out who they are and what they were doing in the area," he explained. "They may only be a neighbor's hired hand, but there is no embarrassment in checking."

As he discussed the problem, Sharp also brought out the fact that he and his two regular deputies must serve an area approximately 30 miles by 60 miles.

The officers do patrol rural areas at night, said Sharp.

"Law enforcement is only as good as the people make it," he commented. "By the reporting of strange vehicles, we may find someone who has no business in the area."

In the county as well as the city, he stated, the public cooperation is necessary for good law enforcement.

Grandmother Of Local Resident Buried Jan. 31

Funeral services for Mrs. Amanda Isabel Arnold, 93, were held at 2 p.m., Jan. 31, in the First Baptist Church of Clarendon, with the Rev. W. R. Lawrence, pastor, officiating.

He was assisted by the Rev. V. W. Allen of San Jon, N. M., and the Rev. L. T. Fields of Forrest, N. M.

Burial was in the Citizens Cemetery in Clarendon.

Mrs. Arnold died Tuesday, Jan. 30, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Carl Naylor. She had made her home in Forrest the last 17 years and had formerly lived in Donley County.

She was born Dec. 18, 1868, in Oregon County, Mo., and was a member of the First Baptist Church of Forrest.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Carl Hall of Melrose, N. M., Mrs. Carl Naylor of Clarendon and Mrs. Jim Baker of Alvarado; three sons, A. D. and Arthur, both of Silverton, and the Rev. Porter Arnold of Bellview, N. M.; 21 grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband and three sons.

Mrs. Arnold was the grandmother of Clifford Arnold of Hereford.

re-election.

For the post of County Commissioner from Precinct Four, incumbent R. Donald Hicks is opposed by Glenn B. Allied.

Present County Treasurer Velma Hodges is opposed by aspirant Lois Rutter. And C. B. (Berry) Miles, the present Justice of the Peace for Precinct One, is opposed by Jim Neil.

State Representative Jesse Osborn of Muleshoe recently announced that he would not seek another term, which opened up a race in the 91st Congressional District. Republican J. Frank Ford Jr. of Deaf Smith County and Democrat Bill Clayton of Springlake now are the only candidates, although at least one more person is expected to announce. This district includes Deaf Smith, Castro, Farmer, Bailey and Lamb Counties.

Incumbents locally seeking re-election without opposition include: H. C. "Hank" Williams, county judge; B. F. Cain, county clerk; A. J. "Major" Schroeter, county surveyor; and Lucille Posey, district clerk.

On the city political scene, there are two commission posts to be filled. Incumbents Troy Moore and Dr. R. R. Wills have not announced, nor have any others filed for the posts.

There are also two trustees posts for the Hereford Rural High School District up for election this year. Both persons filling the posts now, Dr. L. B. Barnett and Ivan Block, have announced they will be candidates for re-election.

After three years in the U.S. Army as a construction engineer, he returned to Deaf Smith County to farm. Currently serving as vice president of the Deaf Smith County Farm Bureau, he has been on that group's board of directors for the past two and one-half years.

Betzen and his wife, Agnes, have six children: Marian, 7; James, 6; Raymond, 5; Linda, 4; Francis, 2; and Jerry, six months.

"I advocate a return to conservative county government and careful spending of our public funds and tax monies. To this end, I would solicit your support during this campaign and coming election," he stated.

If you want to get into a real head-scratching puzzle, try to figure out all the possibilities of who will place where in the race for Governor of Texas. We tried it over coffee the other morning and finally had to give up. There are too many factors to be considered in order to even guess intelligently who will end up on top. For years there were just a couple or three candidates for each race. Now you can end up with half a dozen with no trouble.

Chamber...

Formby, who will introduce the guest speaker, said the banquet would not last more than two hours this year.

Born in the small town of Amite City, La., Justin Wilson is the son of the late Harry D. Wilson, Louisiana's Commissioner of Agriculture and Immigration for 32 years.

He has been in safety work for more than 20 years and is a safety consultant for private concerns in Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi, Alabama, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Illinois.

A graduate of Louisiana State University, he is a senior member of the firm of Justin Wilson and Associates of Baton Rouge, La.

As columnist John Bustin of Austin reported, "As a performer, humorist Justin Wilson is probably unique on at least two counts. Not only is he the sole practicing purveyor of Cajun humor, but he's also that rare entertainer who literally got drafted into show business."

The "Ole Cajun", as his fans know him, has been doubling for 28 years as an after-dinner speaker as well as a safety consultant.

Although he's now averaging about 200 shows a year, Wilson still considers himself primarily in the safety business and still registers some surprise at the success he's found in what he apparently regards as a sideline endeavor.

All his stories originate in the back-country provinces of Louisiana and most of them Wilson had heard all of his life. Some are true, while others are exaggerations on the truth.

The cane-carrying, mustachioed Cajun story-teller is puzzled about the public's acceptance of his quaint brand of humor. Teenagers, particularly, have picked up his trademark phrase, "I gawr-on-tee", and are using it widely.

John Bustin summarized Wilson's fame by commenting, "All of which would indicate that if Wilson is unique as an entertainer, he probably is even more unique as a safety consultant."

The pay increase is not a major raise for employees and equals only a five percent increase in pay. Pay raises proposed in the budget are in reality a cost of living increase.

Revenues for the city during in 1962-63 fiscal year are estimated at close to $600,000, most of it coming from taxes and water revenue.

An increase is expected in revenues from these two sources

Total poll taxes sold climbed to 2,773 before the deadline, according to county tax office employees. This doesn't include some 60 exemptions that were issued or the other exemptions which don't have to be renewed. That puts county voting strength at about 3,000.

The county tax office has jumped from one busy season right into another. They finished selling poll taxes on Wednesday and started selling 1962 license plates on Thursday. You have until the end of March to buy licenses and are reminded to be sure to bring along your title and 1961 license receipt in addition to money.

during the fiscal year with smaller increases predicted in most of the other revenue sources.

Revenue from taxes is expected to total $220,800 with $159,000 coming from water revenue. Tax bond requirements of the city call for a payment of $64,000 from tax revenues.

Disbursements by the city are estimated at $599,140 including tax bond retirements. The biggest single item in the expected budget calls for the expenditure of $177,646 in the Water and Sewer Department.

Disbursements for the Street and Police Departments are the next greatest expenditure of the city, but figures are below the $100,000 cost figure. Street Department expenditures are tabbed at $60,359 with $73,982 for the Police Department.

A total expenditure of $51,764 is predicted for the Health Department with approximately $43,700 estimated for both the administrative branch and the Park Department.

The proposed budget predicts an expenditure of $16,199 for the Fire Department and $6,948 at the Hereford Airport.

The operating reserve of the city during the next fiscal year is expected to be $40,776. Capital improvements slated for the city are carried in the departmental budgets.

Miss McArthur Reluctantly Declines Duke's Invitation

By H. A. TUCK
BRAND NEWS EDITOR
A Scottish schoolgirl has reluctantly turned down an invitation to attend a reception being given by a Prince Charming-come-to-life.

Gillian McArthur, an exchange student at Hereford High School this year, sent her regrets that she would be unable to attend a reception being given by the Duke of Edinburgh in London on Saturday, Feb. 17. "I just couldn't get there and back without missing some classes here," she sighed. "Besides, there was the usual small matter of money." Miss McArthur was among a group of British youngsters who are recipients of gold awards given by Queen Elizabeth's royal consort for outstanding achievement. All recipients have been asked to attend a reception, dinner and dance which is hosted by the Town Council and Lord Mayor of London.

The Awards program was instituted in 1956 for boys 14 to 19 in the British Commonwealth. Administered by Sir John Hunt, a renowned leader of the successful Mount Everest expedition, it provided three stages of awards for individual achievement.

It later was expanded to provide similar awards for girls. After a four-year pilot period, the boys' program was made permanent and a pilot program for girls was started. This has also been made permanent. The Awards program is designed to provide challenges for youth in non-competitive activities.

Those entering may adopt a three year program with increased standards each year or they may do all the achievements in a single year, as Gillian chose to do. In increasing importance, the awards are Bronze, Silver and Gold.

"There are three major accomplishments in each of four divisions," Gillian explained. They are designed to broaden interest and provide varied experiences for those who participate.

For girls, the first division is "Design For Living". Gillian learned cookery, clothing and floral art. Second division is "Interests" for which she did music, badminton and postcard collecting.

Under the "Adventure" division were three different expeditions. First was a day's tour of at least eight miles on foot or 15 miles by bicycle, canoe or other non-motorized vehicle. One meal had to be prepared in the open.

Second phase was for a week-end expedition, with the same minimum requirements and all meals prepared in the open.

Final phase was a week-long trip of at least 50 miles on foot or 150 miles by any other means. Again all meals had to be cooked outdoors.

For "Service to Community" Gillian trained in first aid and Women's Volunteer Service, after which she served through the WVS in an Air Cadet canteen each week.

Requirements for boys is much the same, except the crafts are exploratory periods in different vocational fields and the travel requirements are much higher. There are also minimum standards in such athletic feats as running and jumping for the boys to achieve each of the three award levels.

On June 27, 1961, Miss McArthur was one of 18 girls and 150 boys who received their Gold Awards from the Duke of Edinburgh. The ceremony was held at the Palace of Holyrood House, the Queen's official residence in Scotland at Edinburgh. Only four Scottish schoolgirls received the Gold Award on that day, Gillian recalled.

And Gillian also remembered that the day following that wonderful experience, she was notified that she had been selected as an exchange student by the American Field Service and would come to Hereford, Texas.

"It was about the two best days of my life," she smiled. So Gillian may be forgiven if she seems a bit wistful in the next few days — she probably will be thinking about that reception in London.

TWO TRACTORS were gobbled up in flames Saturday afternoon when butane caught on fire while one of the tractors was being refueled. The mishap occurred at the Leland Burns farm, about 25 miles northwest of Hereford.

However, flames did not ignite the butane tank nor the overhead gasoline tank that were nearby. One of the tractors was destroyed and another badly damaged. (Staff Photo)

Counselors Tell Of Local Program

The counseling and guidance programs at Hereford High School and Stanton Junior High were discussed by Robert Thompson and the Rev. D. H. Baldwin at the Wednesday noon meeting of the Hereford Lions Club.

During the discussion, it was explained that the programs are designed for more than just testing and guiding the students. The counselors are not acting as "people planners."

The programs, Thompson pointed out, are designed to help the students define their own interests. The counselors are very careful not to make up the student's mind, but to give him the facts and let him make up his own mind. The problems facing young people can be classified into two groups — educational planning and vocational planning. Yet, the personal problems of a young person cannot be separated from either of these, Thompson stated.

Effective counseling encourages the client — the student — to talk about his problems, said Thompson. In exploring the problems, the student is taught to think for himself and find the

Theft Of Tools From Truck Nets Over $50 Here

A tool box and the tools it contained were reported taken from a pickup truck by the owner, Douglas Bartlett, 103 Elm. Value placed on the tools totaled between $50 and $60.

The theft occurred between 9 and 11 p.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 31, as the truck was parked at the bowling alley, according to a Hereford Police Department report.

side them with information they may need. The major task this year, explained the Rev. Baldwin, is to find an effective means in dealing with the fallow problems. Reports from the teacher are made explaining why the student failed as well as one from the student, he commented. A questionnaire is also filled out by the parents.

The program is designed to give the school administration information to make plans more effectively, provide information to parents and get to know them better, he stated. An extra service is given to teachers to pro-

"With the three reports, we try to work out with the student a better schedule for him to follow," he said. It is too early to tell how effective the program is, the Rev. Baldwin said.

Theft Over $50 Reported Here

A theft reported to have taken place sometime between Jan. 15 and Jan. 25 at a local hotel is reported to have netted three Indian blankets, two watches and $19 in cash.

A report filed with the Hereford Police Department said the theft was discovered by a maid at the hotel who noticed the blankets missing.

The watches belonged to Amador Munoz, 131 Main, and had a total value of $75. Value of the blankets was placed at approximately $12.

The Old Masters used raw eggs in mixing their paints.

POINTING OUT HOSPITAL ADDITIONS is T. E. Seigler, Deaf Smith County Hospital administrator. Seigler spoke at the noon meeting of the Kiwanis Club here Thursday and was introduced by Mike Justice. The proposed addition is designed to end two of the major problems now facing the hospital. (Staff Photo)

Seigler Outlines Hospital Addition

The two greatest needs of the Deaf Smith County hospital today are the need to control the traffic through the operating room corridors and the control of visiting hours, manager T. E. Seigler told the Hereford Kiwanis Club at their regular meeting Thursday.

The need for these controls was brought out in meetings with the medical staff of the hospital and is the reason for the planned additions to the hospital, he continued.

Faulty planning of additions to the hospital in past years was blamed for the serious problem of traffic around the operating room.

With visitors entering the back door of the hospital and the present location of the emergency room, traffic is continually contaminating the corridors, he said.

The visiting problem is also serious since persons are in the hospital at odd hours, he commented.

One ruling that is followed is the rule that children under 14 years old are not allowed in the hospital, he said. A danger exists to the child as well as the patients.

In discussing the new addition to the hospital, he told the club members that the addition to the hospital would be small and described it as a 'stop gap' measure.

The addition will consist of a new entrance way, lobby, and waiting room, an administration office, business office plus record room, a fracture equipment room, doctor's library, operation waiting room and parking area which includes sidewalks, curb, gutters and paving.

In the proposed remodeling, the present emergency room will be a minor operation room, he stated.

Cost of the program will be $60,000 with $30,000 coming from the hospital operational fund. The commissioners' court has agreed to match funds supplied by the hospital for the addition up to $30,000, Seigler said.

Seigler predicted that the Deaf Smith County Hospital would eventually have to come to the public asking for money to build additional bed space.

He said that he did not know when it would be necessary to ask for additional funds, but would come when "we get to the point that we cannot take care of the medical problems of the community."

Hospital services in Hereford will be only as good as the people want it to be, he commented.

In closing, he urged the people to study the hospital situation and acquaint themselves with the problems.

The "old city" section of Jerusalem belongs to Jordan. It is a third of a square mile in area.

evening services scheduled to begin at 7 p.m., announced the Rev. V. W. Marcontell, pastor. The Rev. Michael is field representative for Revivaltime, a national radio broadcast of the Assemblies of God. The program, originating in Springfield, Mo., represents the 8,233 Assembly churches throughout the United States. Broadcasting the program are 369 stations including 47 releases outside of the U. S. The program is heard in Canada, Liberia, Nigeria, British West Indies, Philippine Islands, British Guiana, Brazil, Dutch Guiana, Central America, New Zealand and Australia.

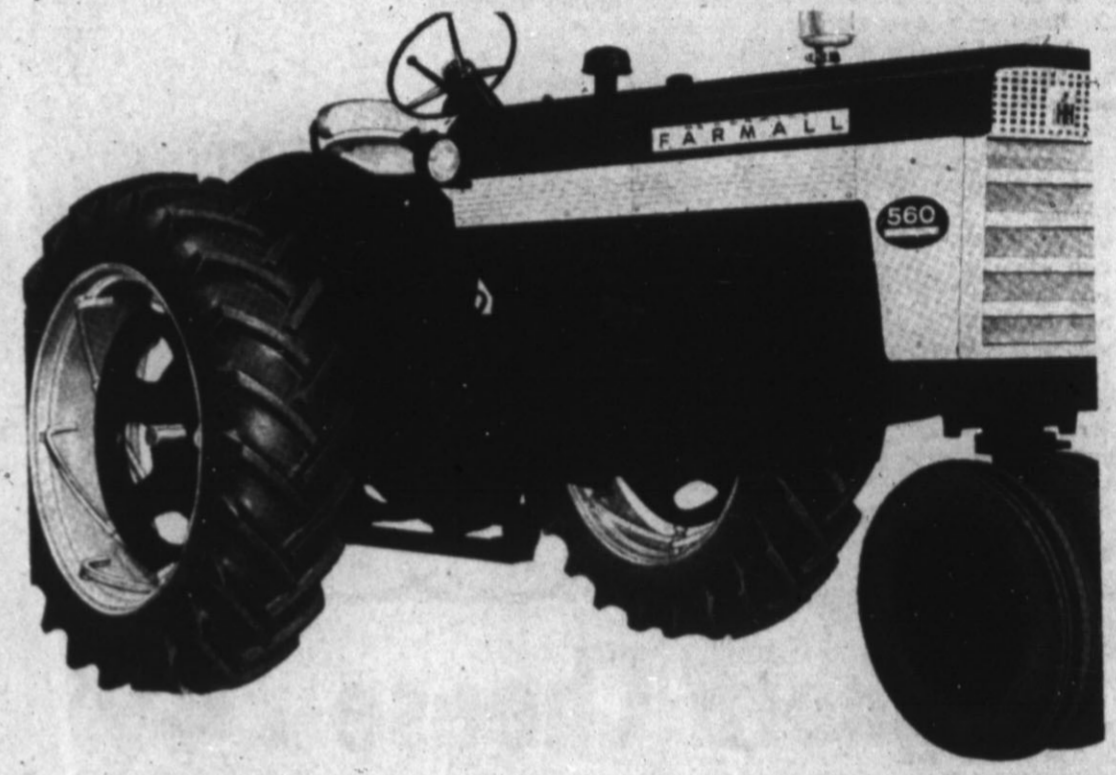

In April, 1955, the Rev. Michael became promotion director of Revivaltime. With the growth of the department, he was named as field representative. Before accepting his present duties, the Rev. Michael served as assistant pastor in Houston and as pastor of the Assembly of God in Donna, Tex. As Revivaltime field representative, he has traveled to all parts of the country as guest speaker at rallies, conventions and other meetings. The public is invited to attend the services at the local Assembly of God to hear him speak, according to the Rev. Marcontell.

Castro County Man Returned To Face Charge

A Castro County man was returned to Hereford recently to face a grand jury indictment for the theft of a pickup truck. Indicted for felony theft is Hollis Edward Johnson, 38. He is alleged to have taken a truck belonging to J. A. McAndrews. It is said the man abandoned the truck in California. The man was located in Portland, Ore., and returned to stand trial by Sheriff Lowell Sharp.

The Sunday Brand, Hereford, Texas, Sunday, Feb. 4, 1962

By JIMMIE GILLENTE
If the ground didn't se his shadow Friday, he must be either blind or fairly indifferent. This, according to Panhandle tradition, adds up to six more weeks of winter — and that's what I have been saying all of the time. Even Lee Kent has come to the point where he doesn't argue with me anymore, about the weather that is. Roy Smith still puts up a squawk once in a while, and nobody can tell Dub Reeves anything. All in all, though, most people still have their overcoats handy. Also, be sure to remember that March will be a windy month. More so than usual this year.

Jack Allmon got his flying license this week and is proud as a peacock. He tells me that so many people are taking lessons that Jerry Cady had to bring in a second instructor. Things seem to be really booming around the airport. I hear that Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sharp are among some of the latest enthusiasts, although Lloyd has owned a license for some years.

I was also quite surprised the other day to learn that B. M. Nelson, the liberal-thinking "editor" of the Castro County News at Dimmitt is likely going to be a candidate for the Texas House of Representatives from this district. Time was when editors all over the country ran for office, but they finally got busy at home and pretty well turned the office holding over to the lawyers. Anyway, I figure Mr. Nelson has a lot of intestinal fortitude. Judging from some of the things that folks say about me from day to day, I sure would hate to stick my neck out and invite any more comment than necessary.

I don't mind too much when folks don't tell the truth about me, but I really hate it when they sit down and prove the things they are saying.

This Representative race will probably line up with two definite sides: Conservative Vs.

Liberal. I understand that Bill Clayton of Springlake considers himself a conservative, and I feel sure that Mr. Nelson will go on the liberal ticket. The winner, of course, will still face Frank Ford, GOP candidate from here, in the general elections. The two-party system is a good thing — but not so convenient for the candidates as when Demo nomination was tantamount to election.

The kids observed Western Day at school Friday, and everyone had a ball. I hear that Jennie Holt hurt her leg last week and, because she had a limp, decided to go as "Chester". What's more, she won a prize. It was lucky for her they did the judging Friday; after wearing boots — mostly borrowed — all day, every kid in school was limping around and imitating Chester Saturday and Sunday.

Sec. of State Dean Rusk says the U. S. is still buying $4 million a month in goods from Cuba who, in turn, buys around $1 million a month from us. Rusk says they are using our dollars to promote Red subversion. He also wonders if we might not declare an embargo on Castro's regime, which brings his thinking pretty well in line with that of the average American.

I notice where the annual C-C banquet is scheduled to set new attendance records Thursday when Justin Wilson does his Cajun talk. This is based on advance sales, but I have not heard too much conversation centering around the affair. A few people are speculating about the "Citizen of the Year" — and everyone seems to have a different idea. Personally, I will go along with the full house prediction. For more than 25 years the Hereford C-C banquet has been an outstanding affair, and this year should be no exception. Many other towns around the country are falling in line with good banquet attendance these days, due in a large measure to publicity accorded the Hereford attendance, which frequently tops Amarillo, Lubbock and other cities of much greater size.

HOSPITAL PATIENT
Mrs. Ann Dougherty of Hereford is a patient in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo.

Charley Bell, minstrel director, is lining up "end men" these days — and says it is not too difficult to find plenty of them in the Lions Club.

I always get a bang out of Irving Alexander just before he goes to his hometown of New York City. Invariably he acts indifferent to the junket, but he just cannot keep a little of his excitement from slipping through the veneer. They'll be going up on business in a few days, and I hope they have a swell time.

Jim Clark, pioneer pharmacist, retired again this week — and his friends are making bets as to how long it will last. Jim has sold stores and retired several times before, but always turns up on the job within a few months. This time, he says, it is for keeps — and he just might make it stick.

Monday is Dollar Day again, and it looks as if the occasion will be a townwide event with a few more stores than usual jumping in with specials. Glancing over some of the ad proofs, it sure looks like another big one.

Robert Calvert, the state comptroller, admitted difficulties created by the state sales tax in a recent talk when he told about his wife's part in a bake sale. Mrs. Calvert was on her way to the sale with a cake, when she encountered a friend who wanted to know the price and forthwith purchased the cake. Mrs. Calvert was quite happy with herself as she strode into headquarters, waving three $1 bills and reporting: "I baked mine, and sold it, too."

"That's fine," announced the companion who took her money, "but where's the six cents in sales tax?"

The wife of the chief collector, a little bit flustered, dug into her purse and came up with a nickel and a penny.

I was most happy to see Gov. Daniel pop into the race for governor, and likewise Gen. Walker. Daniel is pretty well motivated by over-ego, while Walker is suffering from a case of ill-advice — and there is nothing like a good sound drubbing to get a fellow over either condition. Daniel spent several hundred thousand dollars of our tax money to impress us with his special session before he announced, which should pretty well rule him out.

It will be interesting to talk with some of the farmers who were in Austin on the ill-fated gas rate bill. The ywere on the scene while this last-minute panorama was unfolding — and I expect it had considerable influence on their proposal.

Meanwhile, I flat cannot see why Gen. Walker didn't go on the Republican ticket instead of the Democratic unless, perhaps, he figured the G. O. P. is not strong enough to carry Texas on a state level.

DOG GONE COSTLY
NEW YORK (AP) — A dog's life is getting more and more expensive. Including overhead, it takes $500 a month to maintain a laboratory dog and $50 a month for a single rat, reports a publication of American Cyanamid Company.

CRUISER IN HEATED POOL
ST. LOUIS (AP) — The heated waters of a motel swimming pool provide a snug winter berth for Norman Sherman's 25-foot cabin cruiser.

The motel borrowed it for use as a Christmas decoration and then decided, along with Sherman, it would be mutually beneficial to leave it there until summer. Sherman won't have to worry about ice damage to the hull. And the motel plans to offer it on a charter basis for cocktail parties.

LITTLE ONE NEEDS A HOME
SAN DIEGO (AP) — A sign on the windshield of a small foreign-made automobile read: "For sale or adoption."

TALENTED DADDY
SAN DIEGO (AP) — On the way to the country to show his two small sons, some real, live cows, Harry Ragen, an attorney, did some educational mooing. After he's a ring the real thing, Denny, 4, observed, "Daddy, you moo better than the cows do."

WHERE THERE'S A WILL
SAN DIEGO (AP) — Traffic was so congested that Dr. David Sayles couldn't get to the parking area at Municipal Airport in his car.

The medical radiologist, also a licensed pilot, drove to the other side of the field, borrowed a plane and taxied it to the airport terminal building. He picked up a package of air freight and taxied it away.

METER IS FOR PARKING
MOUNT VERNON, Wash. — Hank Morgan has an unusual use for a parking meter.

Morgan, a Skagit Valley College student, trains hawks for hunters. They are taught to hunt other birds, or rabbits.

He does much training nights. On coming into town for coffee or a snack, he often parks the bird on a meter.

In battle, a wolf will not slay another wolf that offers its neck in a gesture of submission. But a dove, legendary harbinger of peace, will ruthlessly peck to death a helpless opponent.

Phyllis Wimberley And Lewis Newell United In Formal Service Saturday

Miss Phyllis Ann Wimberley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberley of Dawn, and Lewis Newell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Newell of Big Spring, exchanged wedding vows on Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, Feb. 3, in the Joseph A. Hill Chapel, West Texas State College in Canyon.

The Rev. James T. Bolting, assistant pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lubbock, read the double ring, candle-light ceremony before an altar made of white mums and candles. The chapel pews were marked with white mums and candles.

Mrs. Aubrey Wimberley of Amarillo, aunt of the bride, was the organist, playing traditional wedding selections before the ceremony. Ed Roundtree of Pampa, vocalist, sang "O Perfect Love" and "My Own Has Come To Me," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Aubrey Wimberley. "The Bridal March" by Lohengrin was played as the bride party entered the chapel. "The Lord's Prayer" was presented during the ceremony. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was played as the bride party left the chapel.

The bride's attendants were Misses Martha Sansing of Spearman, Doris Ward of Amarillo, and Polly Connitt of Amarillo. They wore street length dresses of gold crystal peau de soie, fashioned with fitted bodices, cap sleeves and bouffant skirts, trimmed with large bows. Their small pill box hats had matching scalloped veils of maline. They carried baskets of small white mums.

Truett Newell of Big Spring, brother of the groom, served as best man. Pat Tinley of Denver City, Bob Chester of Canyon Buddy Newell of Big Spring, brother of the groom, and Ted Wimberley of Dawn, brother of the bride, served as ushers and groomsmen.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a formal wedding gown of delustered satin and chantilly lace, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a very full skirt, princess style. The sculptured lace bodice was styled with a scalloped neckline and long fitted sleeves, tapering to points over her hands. A wattleau bow, caught at the waistline, fell into a graceful chapel length train. Her tiered veil of scalloped French illusion was elbow length, attached to a queens crown of seed pearls and sequins. The bridal bouquet of white roses was carried on a white Bible.

Mrs. Carl Wimberley, mother of the bride wore a beige wool jersey sheath dress with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a black two-piece suit with matching black accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents hosted a reception at the Baptist Student Union Building. Parents of the couple and members of the bridal party formed the receiving line.

The bride's table was laid with a white crocheted cloth over gold. The bridal bouquet formed the centerpiece and was flanked with white tapers. The white wedding cake was made in a three-tiered column. Mrs. William Wimberley, of Dawn, aunt of the bride, and Miss Pat Ashton of Canyon presided at the serving table. Miss Judy Wilson of Canyon provided piano music during the reception. Miss Rosalie Hurt of El Paso registered the guests.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to points in Texas, the bride was attired in a two-piece outfit of blue wool crepe, small white pill box hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of roses, lifted from the bridal bouquet. After Feb. 10, the couple will be at home in Big Spring.

The bride is a graduate of Hereford High School and West Texas State College in Canyon, where she was a member of Delta Zeta Social Sorority and Phi Gamma Nu Business Sorority. She also attended Texas Women's University in Denton.

Newell is a graduate of Big Spring High School and West Texas State College in Canyon, where he was a Student Senator, a member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and member of Lambda Chi Alpha Social Fraternity. He also attended Howard County Junior College. He is associated with the Southwestern Investment Company in Big Spring.

Members of the house party included Mrs. W. H. Gentry of Hereford, Mrs. W. T. Beavers of Dawn, and Misses Carolyn Collard, Georgia Mandis and Susan Be'n'n of Canyon.

live" in Madrid where he was Court organist. He wrote some 250 compositions." Mrs. Carl Wimberley followed this talk with the piano selection, "Sevilla," by Albeniz.

"America Enters," a chapter from the study course book, "How Music Grew," was discussed by Mrs. Jim McCabe. She related how the Pilgrims and the Puritans disapproved of music, allowing only five religious tunes to be sung. She said, "The progress of music in America went through the hymns, in which Lowell Mason was called the 'Father of Church Music'; through the 'Folk Music' in which Stephen F. Foster was most prominent;

"Contemporary Music" Is Studied By Club Members

The Dawn Music Club met on Jan. 18 in the home of Mrs. W. H. Gentry for a program on "Contemporary International Music." Mrs. Ted Richardson was the assistant hostess. Phyllis Ann Wimberley was the special guest pianist.

The meeting began with the story and music of the Hymn of the Month, "God of Our Life Through All the Circling Years," by Purday.

Mrs. H. V. McCabe discussed the life of Albeniz, saying, "He was an international contemporary composer of Spanish nationality who will probably go down in musical history as one of the better modern composers. Albeniz studied in Paris and later and the 'Jazz Age', which featured the compositions of Irving Berlin and George Gershwin." Wilhelm Gade, a composer from Copenhagen, Denmark, was the subject of discussion by Mrs. Gentry. She said, "Gade studied the violin, principally, and wrote many compositions for this instrument. He was a friend of Mendelssohn, and was the chief conductor of Copenhagen music." One of his most familiar compositions, "Jalousie," was played by Mrs. Carl Wimberley.

Miss Phyllis Ann Wimberley finished the program with the piano selections: "Tango in D," by Albeniz; "Premiere Balade"; and "Berceuse", Op. 57, by Chopin.

La Madre Mia Members Have Program On Beauty

The La Madre Mia Study Club met on Thursday evening, Jan. 25, at 8 p.m. in the Friendship Room of the Hereford State Bank with Mrs. Dean Herring serving as hostess.

Mrs. Harlan Voyles presented the program titled, "Beauty Comes From Within", using material from a magazine article called, "Beyond The Looking Glass" by Berniece Peck. Mrs. Voyles said, "Being able to recognize oneself is essential to the whole beautiful being". Self criticism about personal appearance was one topic discussed. She continued, "Take your own response to other people and apply it to yourself. When we take the balance of the bad and the good, it often turns out that there is more good than bad." During the business meeting, a Valentine party for the club members and their husbands was planned for the evening of Feb. 17 in the Community Room of the First National Bank. Participation in the "Mothers March" for the March of Dimes was planned with 10 volunteers from the club. Mrs. Bill Lankford was introduced as a new member.

Members present were Mesdames Joe Brooks, James Brownlow, Charles Frye, Dean Herring, Gerald Martin, Harold Morton, Bill Lankford, Bobby Owen, John Smith, Eugene Sparks, Harlan Voyles, Joe Hacker and John Beasley.

Members present were Mesdames Mary Bodkin, Tony Hoffman, R. A. Fullwood, Aubyn Hodges, Mary Gooch, O. L. Williams, Gaylon Bryan, Otto Olson, Clinton Ward, Dolce Nivens, Allen Klein, Harold Finch, A. A. Hare, W. C. Davis, Martin Wagner and Miss Roberta Campbell. Doris Seward was a visitor.

The club members honored Mrs. Clinton Ward with a surprise baby shower following the meeting.

Those attending were Mesdames Mary Bodkin, Tony Hoffman, R. A. Fullwood, Aubyn Hodges, Mary Gooch, O. L. Williams, Gaylon Bryan, Otto Olson, Clinton Ward, Dolce Nivens, Allen Klein, Harold Finch, A. A. Hare, W. C. Davis, Martin Wagner and Miss Roberta Campbell. Doris Seward was a visitor.

HD Council Studies Future Projects At The County Meeting

The Home Demonstration Council met recently in the county courtroom for a meeting. The council chairman, Mrs. George Turrentine, was the presiding officer.

The chairman called the meeting to order. Mrs. Joe Wagoner led the group in an amusing "recipe exchange" for the opening exercise. Mrs. E. C. Hammett called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. Special committee recommendations for the coming year were presented. Chairmen giving committee recommendations were Mrs. Bess Werner, education; Mrs. J. G. Gandy, finance; Mrs. E. C. Hammett, 4-H; Mrs. Kenneth DeHart, marketing; Mrs. C. F. Newsom, recreation; Mrs. Roy Evans, reporters; Mrs. A. E. Hodges, yearbook; and Mrs. Taft McGee, chorus.

The treasurer's report was heard. The committee preparing for the District 1 Home Demonstration Association training meeting and luncheon, gave a report. A blood bank project was discussed. A committee was appointed to investigate the possibility of the clubs entering a "Safety Theme Contest". An "HD Woman of the Year" will be chosen as in the past.

The nine clubs represented 100 per cent at the meeting were Westway, North Hereford, Young Homemakers, Progressive, Cultural, West Hereford, Dawn, Ford and Wyche.

Those present were Mesdames George Turrentine, A. E. Hodges, E. C. Hammett, O. L. Williams, J. G. Gandy, Taft McGee, Roy Evans, Argen Draper, Bess Werner, Joe Wagoner, Clinton Ward, A. A. Hare, Richard Clark, Kenneth DeHart, P. L. Carmichael, Grady Parsons, Carlos Vaughn, Carl Schroeder, J. B. Caraway, H. D. Fowler, Bill Gilleland, Raymond Smith, Charles Packard and C. F. Newsom. Guests present were Mrs. W. J. Frost and Mrs. Glyn Persons.

'Watching Grocery Dollars' Topic For HD Meeting

The North Hereford Home Demonstration Club members met recently in the home of Mrs. Martin Wagner for the regular meeting.

The program chairman, Mrs. Wagner, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Aubyn Hodges. Her program subject was "Watch That Grocery Dollar!"

"Many of our grocery dollars are spent on non-grocery items such as tobacco, soaps, beauty aids and paper products in the order of their importance. Men usually spend more at the grocery store than women. When to shop; 61 per cent of the women were found to have learned after marriage, 18 per cent were taught by their mothers, 16 per cent had had formal training and a large number used the trail and error method. Most women were interested in having some training, preferably on TV."

Mrs. Clinton Ward was the presiding officer for the business session. A civil defense report was given about the radioactivity report included in the weather forecasts. An alternate council delegate was elected — Mrs. Allen Klein. Mrs. O. L. Williams was chosen as the club nominee for county THDA chairman. Mrs. Gaylon Bryan was elected as delegate to the district meeting. Miss Roberta Campbell and Mrs. A. A. Hare were appointed to read and revise the club constitution. The club policies were read, amended and approved. After playing a game of "Know Your Nursery Rhymes", the meeting was adjourned.

Guild Members Have Fun Night

A meeting of St. Anthony's Guild members was held on Thursday evening, Jan. 25, in St. Anthony's School Auditorium. Hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames Arnold Betzen, Herman Hollenstein, G. W. Hund and Miss Hilda Straufus.

Carolee Haskell To Wed Vivian Larsen Feb. 23

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Haskell of Monte Vista, Colo., are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carolee, to Vivian Larsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Larsen of Hereford. The wedding will be solemnized in the Manti Temple in Manti, Utah, on Feb. 23.

Carolee is a graduate of Monte Vista High School, class of 1955. She is a 1958 graduate of the Beth-El School of Nursing in Colorado Springs, Colo. She has been employed for the past two years at the Long Beach Memorial Hospital in Long Beach, Calif. Until recently, she was a graduate registered nurse student at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah.

Larsen is a graduate of Hereford High School, class of 1956. He served for three years in the United States Army and is presently a student at Brigham Young University.

Humorous Program Given At Veleda Study Club

The members of Veleda Study Club met on Tuesday evening at 8 p.m., Jan. 23, in the Community Room of the First National Bank with Mrs. Kenneth Malone serving as hostess.

A planning discussion for the Feb. 13 Valentine party for husbands of the club members was held. Mrs. Dale Barkley was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Don Baugous was elected as vice president. The club voted to help with the "Mothers March" for the March of Dimes campaign.

Roll call was answered with "a special party theme that I remember". One of the answers given included a "guess-who party", where no one knew who the hostess was. Everyone attending the party put their names in a jar at the door, receiving a duty for the evening in return. The hostesses were revealed at the close of the evening's festivities.

The program was presented by Mrs. Hugh Clearman on "How To Give Successful Parties". She said, "There are several stages to giving a party: 1. When you go to a party, you become so enthused that you decide to have a party yourself;

2. Complacency — you decide on all the things or obligations you can fulfill with one party; 3. Appraisal — you look at your home and think to yourself that all of your friends will look at everything and why in the world did I decide to go ahead and have a party? 4. Preparation — you clean house frantically, changing the shelf paper that looked good yesterday but looks terrible today! 5. Party — 15 minutes before party time, you wish you could back out, but after the party begins you suddenly realize you are enjoying it thoroughly and immediately begin planning another party."

She continued with some serious thoughts for giving a successful party, stressing these points: planning the party well, preparing well, and then relaxing. If this is done, good parties will just seem to happen.

Members present were Mesdames Don Baugous, Bill Bradley, Gid Brown, Wendell Burdine, Hugh Clearman, Charles Hoover, Kenneth Malone, Gerald McCaskill, Gwynne Owen, George Ritter, Jess Robinson, Robert Strain, Don Johnson, Gene Matthews, John Sevier and Dale Barkley.

Dr. Tom Dooley's Books Reviewed At B & PW Club

Members of the Hereford Business and Professional Women's Club met recently in the Friendship Room of the Hereford State Bank for the regularly scheduled meeting.

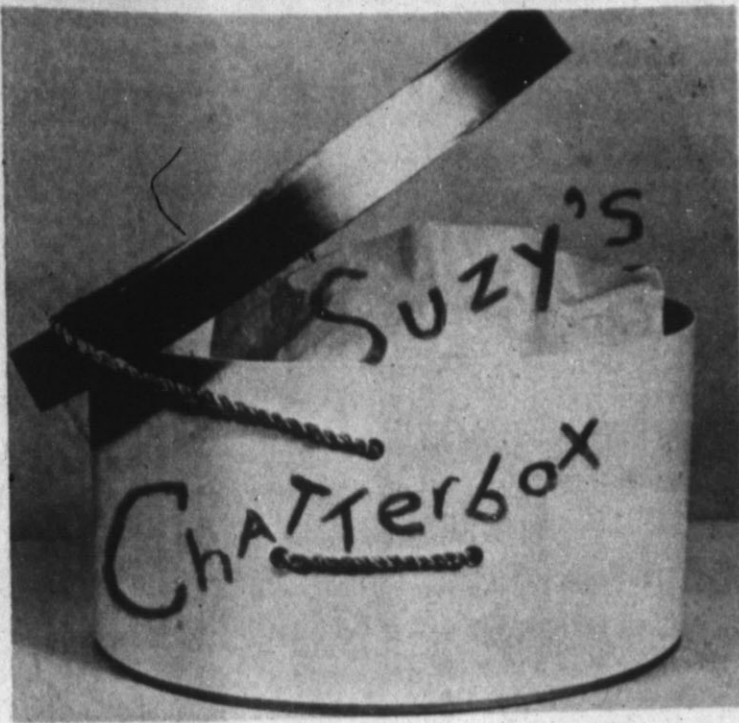

Mrs. Eloise McDougal reviewed the three books of Dr. Tom Dooley: Deliver Us From Evil, Edge Of Tomorrow, and The Night They Burned The Mountains. She said, "Tom Dooley, the young doctor who became a living legend, tells how he and five other Americans traveled, on their own and without pay, to a remote part of the world in order to combat two great evils: disease and Communism. At the tip of Southeast Asia in a village five miles from the border of Red China they built a small bamboo hospital on stilts. There they fought age-old diseases with modern medicines, worked with their hearts and their hands to aid the brotherhood of man, demonstrating democracy in action." That is the story of The Edge Of Tomorrow.

"The Night They Burned The Mountains is another story of Dr. Dooley, a young American doctor who gave his heart and his hands to the care of the world's poor and sick. There, in his own words, is the story of the Medico clinic he and two Texan assistants set up in the village of Muong Sing in the northwest corner of Laos, six miles from Communist China. This, too, is the story of the losing battle he fought against the cancer that was to kill him at the age of thirty-four."

"Deliver Us From Evil is a true first-hand narrative of a twenty-seven-year-old Navy doctor who found himself suddenly ordered to Indo-China, just after the tragic fall of Dien Bien Phu. In a small international compound within the totally Communist-consumed North Viet Nam, he built huge refugee camps to care for the hundreds of thousands of escapees seeking passage to freedom. Through his own ingenuity and with touching humor, he managed to feed, clothe, and treat these leftovers of an eight-year war. Dr. Dooley 'processed' over 600,000 refugees down river and out to sea on small craft, where they were transferred to U. S. Navy ships to be carried to the free areas of Saigon."

The Hereford Community Center has not seemingly been getting the best of support from local teenagers. I think perhaps if everyone knew more about the activities there and the hours the center is open, it might improve.

The Community Center is open each week day, except Wednesday, 2-9 p.m. It is also open on Sunday afternoon from 2-5 p.m. During this time, teenagers can play ping-pong, chess, checkers, or many other games. Visitors can also dance or study.

Club meetings and parties are also welcomed at the Community Center. There are machines for soft drinks, candy, or milk, for refreshments, as well as kitchen facilities.

Bridge lessons are currently being held each Monday night from 7:30 until 9 p.m., and each Tuesday afternoon 4-5:30. These lessons are open to anyone in high school and are free.

REMEMBER WHEN?
By CHARLIE SEEDS
It began on a Thursday morning in October. For several days before, there had been heavy selling and severe losses in the stock market. But on the morning of October 24th, the bottom dropped out of the market.

Panicky crowds gathered outside of the dignified Stock Exchange Building in New York, on famed Wall Street, that morning. The big bankers of the nation came to the rescue of the market that day, and the avalanche of selling was temporarily stopped.

Over the weekend there was frantic debate, a mixture of fear and the hope that the nation's financial giants would be able to lead the market to recovery. On Tuesday morning, all hope died. This was the day of the great liquidation, the famous 16-million share day. On this day the October "bear market" came to its disastrous climax. This was the beginning of an era which America will never forget.

Remember the year? A lot of Americans gambled that year — and lost. But strangely enough, when a man bought a car in those days, he figured he couldn't afford to gamble. He shopped for the car that was the best buy — and the dealer who would give him greater savings.

The year was 1929. A lot of Americans this year have discovered that the new FORD is today's best buy, for beauty, value and performance. And you'll discover your "best buy" on a new FORD when you check our deal, at CHARLIE SEEDS MOTOR CO., INC. W. Hwy. 60 at Miles. Phone EM4-2727.

Vega Private Participates In Army Exercise

Army PFC Douglas W. Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cook, Vega, is participating with other personnel from the 4th Infantry Division in Exercise Long Thrust II in Germany. The exercise is scheduled to end Feb. 12.

Three battle groups and their supporting units, numbering more than 6,000 troops, were flown to Europe in one of the Army's largest peacetime deployments overseas. The 4th, which is regularly located at Fort Lewis, Wash., is a major Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) unit. This exercise was designed to provide the participating units with long range mobility training and to test their combat readiness.

Cook, an ammunition bearer in Company D of the division's 22nd Infantry, entered the Army in Jan., 1959.

Safety Belts Discussed For Cultural HD Club Members

The Cultural Home Demonstration Club's first meeting of the year was held recently in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

The meeting was called to order at 2:30 p.m. by the president, Mrs. J. G. Gandy. Roll call was answered by 14 members with "What I need to know about safety belts" or "An incident that was not a tragedy."

During the business meeting, recommendations were read by the yearbook chairman, Mrs. Pat Robinson; finance committee chairman, Mrs. Art Lewis; and the education committee chairman, Mrs. Earl DeHart. All committee recommendations were accepted. Mrs. J. G. Gandy was selected as the club nominee for the county THDA chairman.

Mrs. Pat Robinson, program leader, introduced Mrs. Grady Parsons who presented the program on "Safety Belts." "Smart drivers use seat belts because of the feeling of security given in normal everyday driving".

stated Mrs. Parsons. "Seat belts contribute to driving comfort and pleasure; saves lives and reduce injuries in more than one-third."

"Most traffic deaths 75 per cent in fact, occur within 25 miles of home. Therefore, whenever the car is in motion, whether to the corner grocery, to the neighbors down the road, on vacation or a business trip, the seat belt should be used."

"Proper installation of seat belts minimizes discomfort and reduces possible injuries from fast stops. Driving will be far more enjoyable when the everyday 'stop and go' and quick turn problems do not plague the driver and the passenger. Features of seat belts are appreciated when they help you and your passengers hold your seats under unexpected road hazards."

"Seat belts can make you a better driver. When all occupants in the car are belted in their seats, you will feel free to apply the brakes as hard as necessary to avoid a collision. You can give undivided attention to driving, with greater peace of mind. In minor collisions you can control your car, since you are not knocked away from the wheel or brake. Your daily safety reminder could be the buckling of your belt, admitting to yourself that you could be involved in an accident."

"Safety belts can keep you more alert, because fatigue, caused by a slouching position, hinders proper breathing. Muscular activity, needed to maintain equilibrium, is reduced. Proper sitting posture prevents backaches. An upright position for better viewing of the road is easier to maintain, as well as maintaining a comfortable position on bumpy and twisted roads. You can relax and enjoy driving with greater comfort, confidence and security during the time you are using a seat belt."

"Furthermore," stated Mrs. Parsons, "seat belts furnish protection in numerous ways. They hold passengers inside vehicles, preventing ejections; they help lessen injury from the inside, since they reduce chances of being thrown around inside the car. They help to spread the impact force evenly over a large area of the body which reduces greatly the force on any one point. Stopping distance is extended, thereby lowering the impact force, by increasing the time it takes."

"Safety belts absorb part of the force when the energy is directed against a padded instrument panel or deep dish wheel. The value of seat belts has been proven in crash tests, on the highways, in aviation accidents and Air Force tests."

"The airlines and the Air Force have used safety belts for years. Race and test drivers wear them, and many truck drivers wear them. Not just for safety but to reduce fatigue. Workers in police or governmental agencies that use safety belts in fleet cars usually have them in their private cars also."

"For maximum effectiveness, seat belts must be worn properly. They must fit comfortably, positioned low over the hips for nominal bending of the body. The belt should fit snugly, but you will find yourself pulling it tighter on longer drives. Only one person per belt — snap it on as soon as the doors are closed."

"Proper adjustment of the belt is necessary to assure easier wear and prevent wrinkled or rumpled clothing. The belt length should be adequate for the largest person using it, but no longer. The buckle end is installed toward the inside of the car — the other end must be short enough so that it can not be caught in the door."

Her answer was, "First by using them ourselves, each and every time we drive or ride in the automobile. Children will use them conscientiously if we set a good example. Young children can be conditioned by using seat belts to hold them in their high chairs, strollers and kiddie seats. Any child three years old or more should be able to fasten, adjust and operate a seat belt."

"Driver education cars, used in our school training program, should be equipped with safety belts. Belts are habit forming, but it takes time to acquire the habit. Once the student acquires the habit, he will feel uneasy without the belt. Students wearing belts, while in the driver education car, have been found to be more alert for the driving lesson at hand. They can be classed as forerunners to other good driving habits."

To conclude, Mrs. Parsons said, "Seat belts can help prevent injuries and deaths, but they are only a part of the traffic safety picture. The number one aim is to prevent accidents. Continued improvement of all drivers through education and enforcement, is vital. A better highway system with more adequate controls is another requirement."

"Statistics show that one in every four vehicles on the road this year will be involved in an accident. The installation of seat belts in your car can bring about a humane reduction of traffic casualties, a new comfort and peace of mind to the millions of Americans who have accepted the automobile as a way of life." Those present were Mesdames J. G. Gandy, Pat Robinson, Ted Royal, George S. Parker, Grady Parsons, J. D. Love, P. M.

Houser, Louie Olson, Art Lewis, M. W. Sumner, Clinton Jackson, R. A. Packard, C. E. Johnson, Jan and Janie, and the hostess, Mrs. Earl DeHart.

Music Club Gives Fine Arts Program

The Harmony Music Club of Hereford sponsored a fine arts program on Jan. 22 at 8 p.m. in the sanctuary of the Temple Baptist Church for the general public.

A musical prelude was provided by Mesdames Sam Long and Albert Ricketts. Mrs. Sam Long gave the welcome. The response and introduction of guests was given by Mrs. Henry Turner, club president.

Ben R. Gollehon, the featured guest on the program, was accompanied by Mrs. Joe Hacker. The evening's program included "Appari Tut" from Martha, by Flotow; "Se La Giurata Fede" from Tosca, by Puccini; "Quanto e' Bella-Quanto e' Cara" from L'ollisir d' Amore, by Donizetti; "Lensek's Aria" from Eugene On'egin, by Tchaikovsky; and "The Lord's Prayer" arranged by Mallotte.

Gollehon received a standing ovation from those present. A reception was held in the social room of the church following the program. Mrs. Sam Long and Mrs. Albert Ricketts were hostesses for the reception.

Bermuda includes more than 150 islands, only 20 of which are inhabited.

Supper Honors Mrs. Goulter

Mrs. W. E. Dameron was hostess to the members of the World Outreach Committee of the First Christian Church on Sunday evening, Jan. 28, for a salad supper, honoring Mrs. O. J. Goulter, a former missionary to China, who was the guest speaker at the Sunday services at the church.

Those present were Mrs. O. J. Goulter, the Rev. and Mrs. Gilbert Davis Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter London Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Fish, the Rev. and Mrs. Herschel Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Nelson, Misses Linda London, Charlotte Williams and Suzy Woodford, and Mrs. W. E. Dameron, the hostess.

After the supper was served, a visiting session was held with Mrs. Goulter answering many questions about her life and experiences in 30 years of missionary service in China.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH AMERICA?

It Really Is Tough To Find A Gift For 'The Man Who Has Everything'

Sometimes we get a feeling that Deaf Smith County, the State of Texas, and the whole United States of America is plagued most by the tremendous problem of prosperity. To say the least, the outlook of the average American is far different from that during the "depression" years of the '30's.

Never before have so many people had it so good anywhere in the world. We enjoy ample food, short work weeks, lavish entertainment, and the opportunity to still improve our collective and individual conditions. Greatest of all, we enjoy the elusive pursuit of FREEDOM.

Never before in history has a people been so abundantly showered with the fruits of education, success and prosperity. And how do we react? Sometimes, it seems to us that our nation pretty well follows the pattern of a spoiled child in the midst of a highly successful family. We quarrel among ourselves, envy our neighbors and even get the idea that the world owes us a living.

The liberals say that the conservatives are playing into the hands of the communists, and the conservatives declare that the liberals are maybe even worse. Labor would jerk farm supports from under the farmers, and the farmers think is high time that labor went to work on a bit more than a 20-hour week. After this sort of exchange goes on for a while, the average person gets to the point where he might well believe some of the propaganda — and never stop to realize that he, of all people who ever lived on this universe, "has the world by the tail on a downhill drag."

Things are actually so tough in the United States today that it is honestly hard to choose Christmas presents for our friends and relatives without duplicating something they already have. Last Yuletide, in fact, there were hundreds of ads labeled, "For the Man Who Has Everything." So many people have so much time that they are literally ruining all of the "fishing holes," and the government has been forced to build and expand recreation facilities. Grandma, who used to walk two miles to the mail box, now gets upset if the postman is five minutes late in making his rounds.

Right now America has three great problems: (1) How to lose weight, (2) Where to park the car, and (3) How to enjoy prosperity?

These problems really are serious, but they are also a long way from the days when cave men based every effort on physical survival. Getting enough to eat and a place to sleep has become so simple in our present civilization that it is pretty well taken for granted. Instead, our banks are bulging at the seams with record high savings and deposits all over the country, and the country now pays more to psychiatrists than it could once afford for the

Junior Colleges Are On The Way

While the school trustees think they have plenty of trouble and appear currently to be grooming the public for another bond issue, it seems to us that the time has come to at least consider expansion into the junior college field.

If the things we hear are true concerning college enrollment, there seems little doubt that the nation will face a crisis in this field during the next four to six years. In addition to eliminating the mis-fits, thousands of qualified youngsters will definitely be denied a college education — and this will be more emphatic in the lower income groups from which we consistently draw many of our leaders. Already, a lack of money keeps many students from attending college.

Hockley County has some three or four years of this type schooling at the present time, and we understand that reports for the project are favorable. In the East, where high costs and crowded conditions struck first, there has been an outbreak of smaller type community colleges. Quite a few of these institutions, we understand, are operated through public school administration.

In an area of sufficient size to maintain a 300 to 500 enrollment, the saving in board and room rent is naturally sizeable, along with numerous other excellent features of such a plan.

Sooner or later, we feel sure, such a plan will be developed in Texas. Right now it is a matter of whether we want to maintain a spirit of leadership in the field of education, or whether we would prefer to wait and follow the example of other communities. Hereford has always been progressive, and the idea is definitely worth thinking about.

entire medical profession.

Just as it is difficult for a fellow who worked hard all of his life to retire, it is difficult for an individual or a nation to learn overnight how to enjoy prosperity. Too often, it turns against his best interest and against the welfare of future generations but, we notice, very few people are willing to pass up the opportunity to give it a try when the occasion presents itself.

Compared with famine and starvation, however, the problem should not be too rough, and when the time comes, Americans have always tightened their belts a couple of notches and thoroughly enjoyed any challenge along the way.

Right now, there is nothing wrong with America that a little hard work and few challenges will not cure. We are suffering from an overdose of prosperity — and discovering that perhaps the "idle rich" didn't have it so easy after all.

Red Tape Vs. Common Sense

Even as the government emerges with a plan to cut mounting farm surpluses in Congress, a group of government sponsored scientists are quietly at work in an effort to produce more corn and cotton on fewer acres.

Even nearer home, almost every county in Texas boasts a county agent whose sole duty is to increase production — and these men are partially paid by the federal government which, on the other hand, is primarily interested in cutting surplus farm products.

Without doubt, the situation is impossible from the standpoint of economics and common sense. On the other hand, some emergency might arise, such as World War II, which demands extra production, and we could be most proud of our ability to produce as a nation.

The answer, it seems to us, lies in the production of new crops instead of those which we now hold in abundance; crops, for instance, which we import. One of these crops, of course, is sugar — and everyone in Deaf Smith County is closely associated with the story of this area's long fight to secure acreage for exactly this purpose.

Why should we waste manpower, natural resources and limited water in the production of crops we do not need or want, when there are others in constant demand? There is no satisfactory answer, of course, and until one comes along, we will have to chalk the situation off as "more red tape."

GUEST EDITORIAL

Comments On Farm Program

The big-city press continues to be filled with editorials berating the government's farm program and the government's role in the field of agricultural economics. In most cases, the editorialists oversimplify the problem (they preach government withdrawal of a farm program; and don't mention the difficulties in finding a solution.)

Few people comprehend the magnitude of the technological revolution occurring in agriculture. In addition to the problems this revolution is creating, it is well to recognize the benefits. This nation is being fed better, more efficiently and more cheaply than any other country in the world.

Even though many farmers are moving out of agriculture, production continues to increase. There are two methods of solving the problem. One is to let prices and production take their course. The other is for government to control production and prices.

Free prices have been abandoned in many sectors of agriculture primarily because this is one place in which they do not perform their function satisfactorily. Lower farm prices which follow an increase in supply or a reduction in demand generally do not succeed in bringing supply and demand back into balance without a serious deterioration of the market and hardships for all producers. It has been shown time and again that lower farm prices are not an acceptable cure for general farm surpluses.

So when the attempts of government to reduce agricultural production are not successful, just remember that "no farm program" offers an even less palatable solution.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

An abiding sense of the innate dignity of man has guided Branch Rickey throughout his career, and at 80 he mirrors the belief that each man is a cathedral. Even before he could read, the "father of modern baseball" passed many a boyhood hour absorbed in the pages of a picture Bible. In his more than 50 years in baseball—as player, coach and executive—it was Rickey's conviction that a man's ability should be the only criterion for his advancement. He struck down the racial barrier by bringing in Jackie Robinson as a major league player. Rickey served his country under President Eisenhower as an adviser on employment policy, and at 74 was a co-founder of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. To Branch Rickey, sportsmanship and Christianity go hand in hand.

Ranger Captain Hickman Typified Changing West

BY MRS. E. L. CRISWELL
The old West disappeared, and in its place came a newer west that was almost as rough and tough as in Indian days. It was the oil boom towns that grew overnight from a small shack to a town of tents and almost any mode of dwelling one could speak of, its people searching and fighting for "Black Gold." In time it too passed on as the old west did and one of the men that helped to tame quite a few of these oil boom towns has also gone.

He died on Monday, January 29, 1962, at the age of 75. Captain Tom Hickman of Company B, of the Texas Rangers. Captain Hickman spoke of Borger as being one of the worst oil boom towns. He said "Borger was the roughest town ever created by an oil boom," and there are old timers there that will tell you he was right.

Captain Hickman and Captain Hamer of the Ranger Force helped to tame Borger with many arrests and with martial law. Many men were killed, more peace officers were killed in holdups, than one likes to think about. This was true of other boom towns as well.

Hickman often told of using an abandoned church as a jail and a Bible stand for fingerprinting, while working in Kilgore.

He was one of the Rangers that helped capture the men in the Santa Claus bank robbery in Cisco. This I well remember as people were warned by radio to be wary of taking in a stranger looking for food or help in the surrounding towns and counties. We lived near Throckmorton at the time and for a while it was the "talk of the town" and folk were especially incensed that the robbers had used the costume of Good St. Nick to hide their identity while committing such a crime. All four of the robbers were caught and punished: was one hung, one killed by a bullet, one electrocuted and the other given a life sentence. Long ago? Only 1937.

All Rangers and cowboys have one thing in common and that is a love of horses and generally cattle and rodeos. Captain Hickman attended many rodeos as a judge. I met him at the all-amateer rodeo held yearly in Stamford since the early '30's.

He was a quiet man, showed his love for cattlemen and the great outdoors by camping out in the enclosure set aside for the cowboys of the many different ranches that attended, bringing along their chuckwagons and bedrolls as if it was all in the days work.

Cowboys as well as Rangers love practical jokes and usually take them in good fun, hoping to catch the fellow that played the joke in one, just a little more surprising. If they could get a greenhorn to go snipe hunting they were wild with delight. Some times the guy that held the bag for the snipes was a hunter and very well versed in the art of shooting, but if he had never heard of snipe hunting with a bag he was joyfully initiated. He was taken to a point several miles from camp and after much debate as to who was going to hold the bag the man who knew nothing of the game was awarded this great honor with "great" reluctance. So a candle was lit and set upon the ground to attract the snipes, and the bag must be held open just behind the candle for the man to see how to get into the bag. Many and specific instructions were given the bag holder as to how the bag should be held open at such and such an angle for the best results. The men then scattered to drive the snipes to the light and into the open bag. Did they look for snipes? They hightailed it as fast as possible to camp where they howled in glee, betting on how long the victim would hold the bag

LAST DEED SIGNED

The last deed has been signed for right-of-way for Highway 70 west from Floydada to the Hale County line. This news comes in the announcement Tuesday from the office of County Judge J. D. McBrien that Santa Fe officials have signed the deed to the property in south Lockney held by the railway company and indicated to be needed for the new road. An earlier deed, signed weeks ago, had been found to have a technical fault. The new deed was signed in Chicago, officials from the general office of the Santa Fe in Amarillo, telephoned Judge McBrien. —THE FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN (Floydada)

NEW HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT NAMED

Mrs. Sybil Stringer, presently home demonstration agent at Dimmitt in Castro County, has been hired as the new Carson County home demonstration agent, replacing Mrs. Janie Fletcher who is a candidate for the Peace Corps. Mrs. Stringer will assume her duties here March 16. The new Carson County HDA has served in her present job for the past eight years. She has previously been home demonstration agent in Wheeler, Hemphill and Swisher counties. —PANHANDLE HERALD

CITY TO FILE TAX SUITS

City Attorney T. G. Hull, Jr. told City Commissioners Monday night he would begin delinquent tax suits against ten property owners shortly after Feb. 1. Hull explained to the Commission that seven of the ten property owners are delinquent with their taxes with the county and nine of them are delinquent with their taxes with the school. He went on to tell the City Dads about a state law requiring all governmental agencies to file tax suits at the same time. He said he would contact the other agencies and file after Feb. 1. The Commission praised Hull for his fine work in removing approximately 90 from the delinquent rolls by letters and personal contacts. —THE CANYON NEWS

RECORD COTTON CROP GINNED

Bailey County's 1961 cotton crop soared over the 100,000 bale mark it was revealed today, out-stripping all estimates and setting a new all-time record in the process. A telephone survey Wednesday afternoon supplemented by figures from the Bailey County Electric Co. operative, showed that the county's 22 gins had processed a total of 103,006 bales, and were just about through for the season. Many of the gins have finished up, while several report that they will gin "a few more" bales yet. The survey, while not 100 per cent accurate since some cotton comes in from out of county, should be a good index, since a like amount of cotton could be expected to go outside the county for ginning. —THE MULESHOE JOURNAL

COUNCIL ACCEPTS BIDS

Three contracts totaling $331,600 were awarded Thursday during regular session of Brownfield City Council. The contracts provide for work that will begin in the near future on a 500,000 gallon overhead water storage tank, drilling of two city water wells, other water-sewer improvements. Projects will be financed by $450,000 in revenue bonds approved last August by city voters. Several other sewage improvements are scheduled later this year. Councilmen let the contract to Hemphill Contracting Co. of Lubbock for water works improvements and sewer sanitation. —BROWNFIELD NEWS

THE BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm discusses foreign policy this week, or cold weather, it's hard to tell which.

Dear editor:

People are always talking about the United States' foreign policy, especially when they can't figure out the answers to all our domestic problems, but as far as I'm concerned the country with the worst policy on earth is Canada.

It's those Canadian cold fronts Canada is always pushing down on the United States, that's what I'm talking about.

When the forecast announces a Canadian front is heading this way, you can expect the worst. I know we can produce some cold spells on our own, a low can develop in one part of the country and sweep cold air down on another, or however it works, but when it comes to the really jolting cold waves, Canada has us beat. There's a weather gap between our cold and Canada's that makes the missile gap look tame.

In fact, so many cold fronts have been coming out of Canada this winter you'd think we'd been sending foreign aid up there and missed our December installment.

Speaking of foreign policy, non-weather variety, there's one thing that has been puzzling me for a long time. Washington experts are always worrying about how a course of action will affect some foreign country. "What will they think of us in Latin America if we do this or that?" they ask. Or, "How will this affect South Africa's opinion of us? We can't afford to make them mad at us."

Well, this is all fine and good, but what I'd like to know is: does any other country on earth ever stop to ask how its course of action will affect the United States? How is it that we can't afford to make them mad, but they can afford to make us mad? Isn't there just one country in the world which occasionally sits down and ponders how it's getting along with us? You mean to say friendship between the United States and the rest of the world is 100 percent one-sided?

I wish you'd use your influence if you haven't mislaid it somewhere on your desk to start a world-wide search for just one country which wakes up some mornings wondering how it's getting along with the United States. If you find one, let me know, and we'll take up a collection to send somebody there to get acquainted. Meanwhile, I won't hold up my farm work while waiting. I have plenty of other reasons for holding that up.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

A CURIOUS, CRAZY, mixed up carrot was grown in the garden of Mrs. Chub Pinckert, 119 S. Ave. K. The carrot, being held by her husband, did not behave like ordinary carrots. Instead of one long root system, the vegetable seemed to have gotten mixed up and grew twelve. Anyway, just one carrot like this is enough for one meal. (Staff Photo)

Ceramic Art Club Studies Bending Of Glass At Meet

Members of the Ceramic Art Club met on Thursday, Jan. 25, at the Hereford Community Center in the Art Room. Mrs. W. H. Awtrey Sr. was hostess for the afternoon meeting.

The constitution and by-laws were read by the secretary, Mrs. Belle Hromas.

A program on "Glass Bending" was presented by Mrs. Nell Culpepper.

Those present for the meeting were Mesdames Elsie Boardman, Alice Swigart, Belle Hromas, Mable Vaughn, Nell Culpepper, W. H. Awtrey Sr. and a new member, Mrs. Roy Calvert.

The next meeting will be on Feb. 22 at 3 p.m. in the Art Room of the Hereford Community Center. Mrs. Mary Denton will present the program on gold and silver brocadeing, embossing and stenciling.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the doctors, the nurses of both the clinic and the hospital, the Rebecas, ladies of the First Christian Church, neighbors and friends for all of the food, flowers, prayers and other kindnesses extended to us during the illness and passing of our loved one. Model T's Drub Cotton Center Cagers, 79-40

Just about doubling their opponents' score, the Charlie Seeds Model T's drubbed Cotton Center Monday night, 79-40.

Four players hit in double figures for the Model T's, Hereford's independent basketball league entry. Bobby Shelton whipped in 22 points. Also hitting for high honors were Jim Arney with 14, Chick Hicks with 12 and Ray Sefcik with 10. Hereford led at all quarters: 11-6, 36-17, and 55-27.

Tops for Cotton Center were Jan White with 12 and Jess Masters with 11.

The victory gave Hereford a 4-3 record and second place in the league. Cotton Center dropped to third with a 3-4 mark.

THE CRITIC WAS ARMED

GUAYMAS, Sonora, Mexico (AP) — Carlos Soto, 20, of Guaymas, Mexico, walked into a restaurant, plunked a nickel into the jukebox, and began a rock 'n' roll routine.

A restaurant employe, Rangel Martinez, 18, picked up a pistol and shot Soto in the leg.

When questioned by police, Martinez said, "This Soto wasn't dancing the real rock 'n' roll."

Ranger...

It was to don a Ranger that he got roped into such a hunt and after he had stayed and starved in a mosquito-ridden swamp for a couple of hours started for home. In the dark he fell over a bed of ants. He promptly captured a couple of quarts of them and when he staggered into camp the men that had started the joke asked him "Did you catch many snipe?" "Sure I did," cried the victim, going straight to his bed and emptying the sack over his head. "Take a look at how many I caught." He had returned the joke with a vengeance as the ants were of a vicious type, biting as well as stinging and few of the jokers got any sleep the rest of the night.

Of such were the men of the old west and the newer west were made, they loved jokes but not of the sadistic kind that would hurt or injure anyone, but for good humorous loud laughter they would do most anything that came to mind. But at the drop of a hat their laughter would change to concern and they would give their last dime to help anyone in trouble.

Tom Hickman did his part in making Texas law-abiding. Many towns have much to thank him for, especially Borger, Burk Burnett, Kilgore, Wink and others, will remember him with nostalgia for the days that used to be. They will probably remember him with nostalgia for the days that used to be. They will probably remember him with nostalgia for the days that used to be.

Students Begin Classroom Part About Driving

First, third and sixth period ninth grade P. E. students are learning the fundamentals of driving. The qualified teachers are Alex Glass and Harlan Voyles. Every pupil in the classes has tested his reaction time. (Reaction time is the time it takes one to reach the necessary pedal when one sees the need to do so).

Chief of Police Henry Aycock gave a talk to all the classes Monday about traffic laws.

Several pupils took driver's education last summer and have gotten licenses. The people taking drivers ed now will either get their licenses this summer or next fall.

Students completing both the classroom phase and the driving phase of the course receive a ten per cent discount on automobile insurance.

Male Quartet Members Work On Appearances

By Vinita Pitt

Two members of the mixed choir are Bruce Miller and Tim Hoffman. They are also in a male quartet along with two sophomores. The quartet has been formed for two years. They practice on Monday evenings with Wesley Hopp. They sang last year at the all school play, and they plan to sing in the contest at Amarillo this year.

Tim, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hoffman, was born Sept. 17. Some of his favorites include: tea cher, Mr. Jones; subject—choir, and color—blue. Rough Road To Glory is his favorite book and the song is "Thunder Road." Tim's pet peeve is bad shows.

Bruce, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce L. Miller, says, "My pet peeve is people who put on a front, though they still talk in class. (People who aren't afraid of the tea cher)." His favorite teacher is Mr. Martin, subject—algebra, color—blue, and food—steak and peppermint ice cream. "Let There Be Drums" is his favorite song and book—Mysterious Island, and pastime, swimming. Bruce said that his most embarrassing moment was singing in front of the audience in Miss Cockrell's homeroom play in 1959.

F. H. A. News

By Dorothy Frerich

The F. H. A. served at the T.S.T.A. dinner on Jan. 22 in the Junior-Senior high school cafeteria. The girls made the decorations and decorated the cafeteria. Those who helped were Gail Witherspoon, Fanella Williams, Judy Crume, Dorothy Frerich, Barbara Neff, Linda London, Nancy Gripp, Barbara Clements, Marilyn Tice, Diane Jack, Linda Pulliam, Debbie Beene, Sharon Tinnin, Linda Loerwald, Vickie Inman, Cheryl Parker, Brenda Shelton, Barbara Langley, Sherri Schulte, Ann Braddy, Camelia Anderson and Vinita Pitts.

AMONG THE TEACHERS at Stanton Junior High School are, from the left, Mrs. Lottie Wertenberger, Mrs. Gladys Legg, Mrs. Joel Hodges and Harlan Voyles. Voyles is a physical education teacher as well as drivers education and first aid instructor. Mrs. Hodges is the seventh grade reading teacher while Mrs. Legg teaches math. Mrs. Wertenberger is in charge of the arts and crafts department as well as sponsor of the Junior Red Cross chapter. (Brand Staff Photo)

School Spirit Is Viewed

HAVE YOU GOT THAT SPIRIT?
By ANN ATCHLEY

Lately here at Stanton, pep assemblies have been a voluntary thing, those not wanting to attend must go to the library. Is our school spirit at such a low ebb that we must permit and allow students not wanting to attend pep rallies to go to the library and study?

Well, that is getting pretty low. Stanton librarian, Mrs. Fred Mercer, tells us that during the first such voluntary rally only about 20 students reported to the library, where they planned to talk. They found that they were expected to study. During the second pep rally 60-65 students reported to the library. Are these assemblies like this bad? If they are, let's do something about it. The last one shows that only about 20 students were not present at the pep rally.

What can we do about this? Maybe some people would use the excuse that they didn't know the yell. It is because they have not paid attention; this is a bum excuse. I say let's get those yells written down in black and white and learn them.

For a while, before these voluntary rallies began, our spirit seemed to be soaring. Then the bottom dropped out. The last compulsory assembly sounded about like a mouse next to a lion. You could have heard a pin drop right in the middle of "Dogie".

If that's an example of Stanton Junior High spirit, I don't want it.

SCHOOL SPIRIT
By LINDA LONDON

School spirit is something a school can't be without. There are several ways of demonstrating school spirit such as: 1. yelling at pep rallies, 2. acting properly in assembly, 3. coming to games, and 4. acting correctly on school trips. The way you act reflects on your school as well as on your home and church.

Why have school spirit? What good does it do? If we didn't have it, the school would be dead. Some of the freshmen especially, do not have the school spirit that they had last year or even at the first of this year. I believe that some of us do not care whether our school "goes to pot" or not.

We think, "Well, we should be in high school anyway and why should we be so childish as to yell at a pep rally or obey a teacher?" This, I think, is one of the faults of Stanton Junior High and it should be corrected. So, next time we have a game or a pep rally, go and yell. It will make our school a lot more pleasant, and besides, it will be fun, too!

Fodder Box

By Judy Crume

Well, mid-term is over and if you plan better grades you had better start now or you might take the same courses next year. Mid-term tests were given Jan. 11-12. Many students changed classes at mid-term, but now everything is running smoothly again.

As many of you know, the junior high faculty played the high school faculty and beat them by two points in overtime. The game was played Jan. 18 in the high school gym and was a very close one indeed. The score was 37-39. The teachers who played for junior high were Coach Jerry Don George, Coach Alex Glass, Coach Harlan Voyles, Ben Gollehon, Tom Templeton, Ray Hennigh, Coach Archie Souter, Roy Hartman, Jerry Murphy and Bob Williams. Don Martin was the coach.

Charlotte Williams, what kind of games do you play at your parties?

Gwen Bainum, what do you keep in your wastebasket?

Lynn Sowell, do you always write notes in Mr. Jones' English classes?

Mr. Hopp, do you make a regular practice of sending a whole section out into the hall?

Gail Witherspoon, and Judy Crume, what is this about you two trying to confuse everyone by dragging clothes into first period class?

Merle C. do you always wear two kinds of shoes on the same day?

Teach Classes In First Aid

The freshman boys and girls P. E. classes have as a part of their study this year, a first aid program that is under the auspices of the American Red Cross. Students have various reactions to this program.

John Newton enjoys Red Cross very much, because it's an easy course and is very educational. He also said he enjoyed the tests the most. Other students have said that they enjoy the course because it is different. Most of the students enjoy learning the various bandages. They advise everyone to take the course who has the opportunity.

Upon completion of the course, the students will all receive certificates.

Irrigation Grass Topic For Meet Slated Tuesday

"Irrigated Grasses - their establishment and management" will be the topic of a meeting to be conducted by the Soil Conservation Service on Tuesday, Feb. 6. The meeting will begin at 2 p.m. in the Hereford Community Center. All farmers who have planted or will be planting irrigated grasses for livestock grazing are urged to attend.

Irrigated grasses have an unlimited potential for livestock grazing under proper management, according to Don Newman of the local SCS office. However, unless farmers exercise careful management these irrigated grasses may not give the results that are expected and will cause disappointments, he said.

Jack Douglas, of Amarillo, an SCS agronomist, will give a talk on establishing and managing irrigated grasses and will show a group of slides illustrating the importance of proper irrigated pasture management. All interested farmers and businessmen are invited to attend.

Semester Brings Schedule Change

The saying: "Its darkest just before the dawn" is especially true of the ending and beginning of a semester here at Stanton. The dark part is of course semester examinations. The dawn is the beginning of new courses.

Seventh graders take up science, P. E., art and crafts. Eighth graders may begin the study of speech, shop, home-making, P. E. and shop. In addition, some eighth graders get to work in the office or the library. Ninth graders have fewer changes. Their changes consist of taking drivers ed, and first aid.

'Martha's Bar' Is Faculty's Hangout

The common name for homeroom 105-A, as known by its occupants, is "Martha's Bar". As the students may know, some of the teachers come in for coffee every morning before first period. A little further explanation: 105-A or Mrs. Martha Sullivan's homeroom; is the home-making lab. Mrs. Sullivan fixes coffee every morning in the kitchen.

Mr. Martin, the freshman algebra teacher, is one of the "Usuals." While he is drinking his coffee, he sometimes helps, or confuses, the students in understanding the day's assignment.

Two of our science scholars, Mr. Mercer and Mr. Templeton, usually have the day's weather,

Stanton Teachers Have Many Interests Outside Classes

One of our newer teachers in Stanton is Harlan Voyles. Mr. Voyles teaches a variety of subjects. He teaches boys' physical education, drivers' education, and first aid.

Mr. Voyles was born in Childress, Tex. He attended school at Childress, where they tried hard to educate him. He received his Bachelor's degree at West Texas State College.

Mr. Voyles, who is married and has one son, says that his hobby is all sports.

Mrs. Joel Hodges is our seventh grade reading teacher here at Stanton. She was born in McAllen, Tex. and received her Bachelor's degree from North Texas State College. Mrs. Hodges has a son who is 14 and a daughter who is 9. Mrs. Hodges says that she enjoys teaching junior high students because of the satisfaction of helping each individual.

As a child, Mrs. Gladys Legg always liked school very much, which was why she became a teacher. She received her degree from West Texas State. She has been teaching for 32 years, 14 of those years here in Hereford.

Mrs. Legg, who, is qualified to teach English and math, but wants to stick to math, says that she enjoys teaching on the junior high level. She says that she likes to teach our football boys very much because they are good workers and good students.

Mrs. Legg says that in her spare time she likes to cook and to sew. Her most embarrassing moment was one morning this winter when it was -7 and her car wouldn't start. She had to get out on the highway and "thumb a ride" to school.

Mrs. Lottie Wertenberger is the arts and crafts teacher of Stanton Junior High School. She is also a sponsor for the Junior Red Cross. She has been teaching in Hereford schools for nine years. Before she came to Hereford, she had a gift shop in Hartsville, Ohio. She also taught school in Canton. (Continued on page 7)

Cagers Receive Tournery Honors

By Gene Duval
Jimmy Allison, Bill Watts and Larry Noland have all received gold basketballs for their outstanding playing on the seventh grade Dogie team in the various tournaments which they have entered. Gary Paine and Steve Hodges are the eighth graders who have been similarly honored. Robert Strange and Johnny Mac Dowd have been singled out for honor. They have been singled out for honor.

Twirlers Agree On Hard Work

By JUDY CRUME
This month instead of picking one person from the junior high band to be band personality, we have chosen a special group from the band. The twirlers consist of three eighth graders and two freshmen. One of the eighth graders is Patty Roach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis O. Roach of Route 3. She plays an E-Flat Alto saxophone and sits fourth chair in the Dogie band. Patty likes tennis and swimming. She has been twirling for five years. Her advice to young band members is, "Work hard, it's worth it."

Kay Dirks is another eighth grade twirler. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Dirks of Route 2. Kay also sits sixth chair flute and has been twirling for five years. She enjoys twirling and horseback riding. Her advice is "Join the band, it's fun, and Ben Gollehon is a wonderful director."

The last eighth grader is Ann Mercer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Mercer of 112 Aspen. Ann sits fourth chair flute and has been twirling for four years. Ann likes to play the piano and flute. Her advice to young band members is, "Work hard, it's worth it, and it's a lot of fun."

One of the freshman twirlers is Merle Carmichael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Carmichael of 148 North Texas. Merle plays the only oboe in the band and has twirled six years. She is the head twirler. She enjoys playing the piano. Her advice to young band members is stick to it; you'll really be glad that you did.

The other freshman twirler is Beverly Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Roberts of 239 Star. Beverly sits seventh chair flute. She has twirled for four years. Beverly likes water skiing. Her advice to young band members is to work hard.

Stanton Students Active In Many Livestock Events

By DAN THOMAS

Many Stanton students have had 4-H or F.F.A. projects. Hereford had its annual show Jan. 18-20. The students that had beef cattle projects are Sandy Thomas, who had two steers that she exhibited in Hereford and in Amarillo. In Hereford, Sandy placed sixth in the heavyweight and sixth in the middleweight division. In Amarillo, she placed tenth with her heavyweight steer.

Larry Minks has done outstanding work this year with his steers. Back in October he won the Dallas Fair with one of his steers. Then he went to Denver and had Grand Champion of the junior show. He came back to Hereford where he placed one calf as reserve champion and a second calf placed twelfth. He is planning to go to San Antonio with his reserve champion steer.

Dale Minor exhibited two steers in the Hereford show. He placed fourteenth in the heavyweight division.

Dan Thomas showed two steers in Hereford and Amarillo. He placed third with his heavyweight steer. In the middleweight class he placed eighth. Dan took his heavyweight steer on to Amarillo and stood fifth in his class. His plans are to take his heavyweight steer on to El Paso.

Becky Higgins had two steers. She failed to place at Hereford. She tried her luck at Amarillo and placed 24th in the lightweight division.

The boys that had pigs were Johnny Dowd, Dick Rogers, Robert Caraway, James Daniels, Tim Gearm, Ted McWhorter and David Nafzger.

Science Observer's Club Has Election

By GARY PAYNE

At the last meeting of the Science Observers Club officers were elected as follows: John Lesly, president; Steve Hodges, vice president; and Cynthia Leasure, secretary - treasurer. There were not enough people present to elect a chairman to each of the six divisions, which are chemistry, biology, physics, astronomy, geology and meteorology.

Fred Mercer, club sponsor, said that we might take a field trip to Palo Duro Canyon in April and possibly other field trips to other places.

Jimmy Northcutt Is Wed In Germany

Specialist 5/Jimmy H. Northcutt and Miss Ingleborg Peyer were recently united in marriage at the Army Chapel in Berchtesgaden, Germany.

Only close friends and relatives of the couple were present for the wedding.

The bride is employed as secretary with the United Council of Churches in Salzburg, Austria.

Northcutt is serving with the 43rd Medical Detachment Army in Germany and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burnie Northcutt of Hereford.

Composer Stephen Foster immortalized Florida's wide, winding Suwanee River without even seeing it. He spent most of his life in Pittsburgh, Pa.

'WE NEED REPEAL'

ATLANTIC GA. (AP) - A speaker at an anti-Communism seminar in Atlanta has provided his own unusual formula for a capitalistic victory.

"We need to repeal the age of the 'gool-off'," says Dr. Frank R. Barnett, program director of the Institute for American Strategy.

BARBER PROVIDES RAZOR

ALTON, ILL. (AP) - Shaves are free in the one-man barber shop of John C. Lawlis, but you must do it yourself. He provides two electric razors for that purpose. Lawlis explained he quit shaving customers five years ago when the price of shaves got too high and business dropped off.

PAMPERED PUP

BUCKEYE, Ariz. (AP) - Gail Taylor of Buckeye was mighty fond of his dog. The pooch wouldn't sleep anywhere but in the cab of his master's pickup truck.

When winter approached, Taylor bought an electric pad for the dog. Electricity is run by extension cord through a bedroom window to the seat of the vehicle.

THE STARLING VS. TVA

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — The starling, a familiar pest to cities and parks, has taken a dangerous fancy to Tennessee Valley Authority high power lines.

TVA's troubles came when starlings, perching only inches apart on wires, caused "flash-over" danger. Foreign objects on wire insulators may cause a circuit to ground, permitting an uncontrolled surge of power which can damage equipment and cause power interruptions.

Borrowing a technique developed at Pennsylvania State College and used successfully in Nashville, agency officials tape-recorded starling distress cries and amplified them from a portable loudspeaker about starling bedtime. The startled starlings fled their roosts within a half-mile radius. A few repeated performances and they stayed away for good.

How do you get a distress call on tape? "It's simple," said Dr. George Mayfield, Nashville ornithologist, "once you've caught a starling, just turn him upside down."

'New Hope For The Ill' Discussed At Meeting

The Lone Star Study Club met on Tuesday evening, Jan. 23, for the regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Guy Newsom.

The Club Collect was repeated in unison by all the club members.

Mrs. A. T. Frye opened the program with a devotional. Mrs. Vivian Major presented the program called, "New Hope For The Ill".

She named some new drugs and new methods used in the treatment of various illnesses. Mention was made of the new medical discoveries used in the treatment of heart disease, cancer and arthritis. Mrs. Major gave some details of the new theory of the possibility of polio vaccine being used to treat arthritis and alleviate its accompanying pain. The progress that has been made in cancer research was discussed to conclude the program.

Residents Attended Baptist Conference Held In Dallas

BY MRS. OWEN ANDREWS
Among those attending the Texas Baptist Evangelistic Conference in Dallas this week were the Rev. and Mrs. B. H. Baldwin and Bill Williams of the Frio Baptist Church. They left Monday morning and returned home on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Stephan, Jill and Rhonda, visited Weldon's aunts, Miss Amanda Stephan and Mrs. Charley Jones at Waco, during the weekend. They attended the Evangelistic Conference at Dallas Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Frio Homemakers Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. David Hutchins. The program, a discussion on "Voting," was presented by Frank Robbins who is election judge of the Frio box. He talked about "who is eligible to vote and where to vote" and some common mistakes in marking ballots making them invalid.

New yearbooks were distributed. One visitor, Mrs. Sonja Godfrey, attended. Members present were Mrs. James Dobbs, president, Mrs. Harlan Barber, Mrs. Bill Williams, Mrs. Clark Andrews, Mrs. Henry Dobbs, Mrs. E. F. Vogler, Mrs. Richard Price, Mrs. Glenn Andrews, Mrs. J. D. Stringer, Mrs. Buster Thomason, Mrs. Ernest Harder, Mrs. Owen Andrews, Mrs. Joe Autry, Mrs. Frank Robbins and the hostess. The next meeting will be on Feb. 13 at the First National Bank at 2:30 p.m. with Mrs. Mark Shadden as hostess. A planned.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Andrews attended funeral services for A. G. Rogers at Lubbock on Tuesday. Mr. Rogers, who died on Sunday, was the father-in-law of Mrs. Faye Andrews Rogers, a niece of W. H. Andrews. She lives in Santa Anna, Calif., and her husband, Leonard, is in the

OPINIONS VOLUNTEERED
ST. LOUIS (AP) — The conversation on a radio program featuring answers to telephoned inquiries centered on a strike of city garbage collectors who protested working in sub-zero temperatures.

One caller, critical of the strikers, noted postmen worked in cold weather. The next caller had a solution to the problem: Mail your garbage to the city incinerators.

Navy stationed in Japan. He flew to California and the couple came by automobile to Lubbock for the funeral.

The W. H. Andrews also visited Walter Cohen, formerly of Hereford, and who is seriously ill in the Hale Center hospital. Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Sudduth of Mansfield, located near Ft.

MILLION-MILE CELEBRATION
SEATTLE (AP) — The millionth mile for old city bus No. 907 was quite a trip — free rides, flowers for the women passengers and an accordionist playing "The Trolley Song."

Mrs. Dominick Lombardo got special attention when she said she was on her way downtown to get a hair-do for her 31st wedding anniversary. Old 907 has been in service 21 years and 5 months, and carried an estimated 3,750,000 passengers. It has been washed 2,228 times. It has worn out 24 new front tires and 98 recaps on the rear wheels.

Mrs. Hattie Hoffman, informed the trip was on the house, said: "Wouldn't you know? I had a transfer."

IN TUNE WITH RETIREMENT
OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — Retiring Washington State Supreme Court Judge Joseph A. Mallory, a fiddler since he was 14, now plans to study music. "I want to go back to school to learn what I've been missing—harmony, and how to read music," Judge Mallory said.

He was the justice who dropped the baton on the American Song Publishers (ASCAP) back in 1948. He wrote the majority opinion in a state case in which it was said America's music lovers might be shocked to learn that ASCAP was "asserting a right to royalties from Bethoven's 'Minuet'."

Looking ahead to less-busy days, Judge Mallory said he might compose some—melodies he has had in mind since boyhood but did not know how to put down in a musical score.

Western Indians believed the grizzly bear had supernatural powers because of its unusual ability to recover from wounds.

Worth, were recent visitors in the community and attended church services in Frio during their brief stay. The Sudduths moved away about a year ago and spent several weeks in Arizona before moving to the Frio area last spring.

Larry Dobbs moved to Borger last week and is presently employed with an oil company at Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dobbins and Carla Sue went to Oklahoma City on Sunday where Carla Sue received a medical check up. They report that her allergy is definitely improved. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin of

BOY HELPS FARMERS
WILLIAMSON, N.Y. (AP) — W. John Knapp is an inventor at 14, and the State Agriculture Department says he's licked a problem which has bothered farmers for years.

Farmers spraying their fields have a tough time telling what part they've sprayed and what part they've missed.

John filled a cylinder with chalk and attached it, by means of a special rod, to a farmer's spray rig. Every time a wheel of the spray rig turned, a measured amount of chalk dropped out of the cylinder, marking the field to show where it has been sprayed.

The agriculture department tested the device and said it saved them more than $500 in labor costs in 27 days of spraying.

Vending machines on the streets of West Berlin are marvels of politeness. To the purchases of cigarettes, fresh fruit, handkerchiefs and other items, a woman's tape-recorded voice murmurs, "Vielen Dank," or "Many thanks."

Abernathy, Mr. and Mrs. Iris Touchstone of Dimmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Dobbins went to Clovis together Saturday night for a Mexican supper. On Sunday they met in Hereford after church and ate at a local restaurant. During the afternoon they visited in the Dobbins home. Others visiting Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Belew, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cearley, and Mrs. Jim England, all of Hale Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Shadden, Mark and Kenny, visited Mrs. Guln at Levelland on Sunday. David Hutchins and Raymond Willey of Summerfield, and Bob Watson, Hale Center, went fishing at Sugar Lake in Mexico last week. They returned on Friday, reporting a good time and good fishing.

Mrs. Hutchins visited her relatives at Sudan part of the time David was away. Several from this community attended the livestock show in Amarillo last week. Bill Cole placed fourth in the lightweight division with his Hereford calf.

Recent visitors in the Floyd Cole home were the D. N. Gambblins of Sunray. The Gambblins formerly lived in this community.

Mrs. H. M. Mobley and Mrs. D. C. Miller visited Mrs. Floyd Cole on Thursday. Mrs. Miller has recovered sufficiently from her recent operation and she expects to return to her work at the Deaf Smith County tax office next week on a part-time basis.

The Frank Robbins took Sunday dinner with her parents, the F. Y. Moremans, who live east of Hereford. Carl Robbins was ill with flu and Jerry Robbins also was ill part of the week.

The Frio Intermediate G. A. s were entertained with a slumber party at the home of one of their sponsors, Mrs. Buck Stringer, on Saturday night. The other sponsor, Mrs. Charles Self, also was present. The girls brought salads and Mrs. Stringer and Mrs. Self provided fried chicken for their supper. They studied a mission book, "Victories in the Land", during the evening. Those attending were Carol Robbins, Jana Cole, Judy Glenn, Sheila Sheppard and Nancy Axe.

Carl Miller, N. T. S. freshman, was home last week for semester vacation. He spent Saturday night with the Joe Andrews and the remainder of the week end with his parents, the D. C. Millers. Carl came home from Denton with Jim Musick, also a N. T. S. student, and spent part of the time at Tulla at Jim's home.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joe Andrews Sunday evening were Kenneth Frye, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fellers and Randy and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Axe. The Fellers have recently moved a large, new, trailer house to the Charles Holt farm, north of Summerfield. Dick will farm there this year. The Axes were home from college at A. C. C. for the semester vacation. Edwin is a junior student there.

Several people from the Frio Baptist Church attended the Association Youth Rally at Oklahoma Lane on Thursday night. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. J.

'Alcoholism As A Disease' Is Topic For Guild Meeting

The Wesleyan Guild of the First Methodist Church met on Tuesday evening, Jan. 23, in the church parsonage with Ona Hammer and Hilda Havens serving as hostesses.

A short business meeting was held. Mrs. Louella Durham gave the devotional. Dr. Clarence E. Hicks spoke to the group on the subject, "Alcoholism As A Disease". Many informative points were brought out in the talk concerning the progress being made in this field and method of treating alcoholism as a disease instead of a social problem.

Present were the guest speaker, Dr. Hicks, and Avis Brown, Atha Melver, Opal Bookout, Jean Dowell, Margaret Ann Durham, Carrie Mae Doak, Gladys Willoughby, Louise Waddill, Ona Hammer and Rosalee Saul.

D. Stringer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Self, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rogers, and young people attending were Kent and Judy Glenn, Jana Cole, Gerald and Norman Harder, Walker Farris, Joe Shultz, Lee Roy Williams and Jerry Sheppard. Farris is Associational Youth Song Director.

Visiting Cheryl and Beverly Cole Sunday were Sammie Vinson and Jill Stephan. Jack Thomas of Hereford spent the weekend with Bill Cole while his parents were visiting in Fort Worth.

Floyd Cole went to Dallas Sunday after Antonio Barrera, who has recently undergone spinal surgery in a Dallas hospital. They expected to return on Monday. Barrera is employed at the Cole farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Jones and Cecil of Dimmitt visited the B. H. Baldwins Sunday afternoon.

Veradelle Andrews, Loreta Fowler and Mrs. Tom Draper went to Denton Friday afternoon on school business. Mrs. Draper and Loreta had been in Lubbock to meetings Thursday and Friday. Veradelle picked them up there. Loreta and Veradelle

Mr. Deeward Taylor, L. D., Kenny and Robin of Friona spent Saturday with Mrs. Taylor's parents, the Jim Brooks. Kenny remained to spend the night and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks took him home on Sunday.

Scarborough In Winter Exercise

Army Specialist Four Jerry C. Scarborough, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Scarborough, 407 Cleveland Ave., Friona, is participating in the 3rd Armored Division's month-long winter training exercises in Grafenwohr, Germany, which will end Feb. 7.

High point of the Spearhead division's annual training cycle, the training includes day and night tactical exercises emphasizing cold weather training, mobility and chemical, biological and radiological warfare. An essential part of the training is range firing of individual and team-served weapons including the Army's new M-60 machine-gun and the 105 and 120-millimeter tank guns.

The 3rd, a major element of NATO forces in Europe, plays an essential role in maintaining world peace.

A mechanic in Headquarters Company of the division's 32nd Armor in Friedberg, Specialist Scarborough entered the Army in Jan. 1959 and was stationed at Fort Devens, Mass., before arriving overseas in Oct. 1960. He is a 1956 graduate of Friona High School and attended Texas Tech Technical College. His wife, Mary, is with him in Germany.

Bridal Shower-Tea Honors Bride-Elect

Miss Phyllis Wimberley, bride-elect of Lewis Newell of Big Spring, was honored at a shower-tea on Friday afternoon, Jan. 26, in the home of Mrs. Edgar Lemons of Dawn.

The honoree's chosen colors of white and gold were carried out in the decorations. The serving table was laid with white over gold, featuring a centerpiece of gold mums. Mrs. Wade Crist and Mrs. Glenn Tueck presided at the serving table. Miss Dortha Stewart registered the guests.

Those who attended were Mesdames Jessie Sisco and M. W. Wilcox of Bovina, W. T. Beavens, Lester English, Jim McCabe, H. V. McCabe, William Wimberley, Robert Strain, Edgar Sowell, R. A. Frye and Carl Wimberley of Dawn, L. B. Drake and H. E. Miller of Hereford, Carroll Vaughn and James Murphy White and Krista of Canyon, Misses Lucy Beth Miller, Bertha Frye, Ann Gentry, Linda Lemons, Beverly Lemons, Peggy Jean Lemons and Sandra Lemons, all of Dawn, and the honoree.

Hostesses for the shower-tea were Mesdames Alfred Smith, W. H. Gentry, Charles Davenport, Wade Crist, Walter Lemons, C. C. Stewart, Ray Polan, Lois Miller, H. H. Miller, Edgar Lemons and Mrs. Frank Connert of Wildorado.

OUTFIELD FOR SHELLS DOVER, N. J. (AP) —

Engineers at Picatinny Arsenal, the Army's research center for ammunition and special weapons, are able to catch artillery shells on the fly. The feat is achieved by synchronizing the firing of a 155 mm gun and the launching of a rocket sled, traveling in the same direction as the shell. The shell, which moves at a speed of 1,625 feet per second, pops undamaged into a padded box on the sled, which rockets along at 1,450 feet per second. The method was developed to enable engineers to study initial firing effects on shells.

a good appearance in the office. Another short course on charm is scheduled for the near future.

Eighty Attend Charm Clinic

A "Charm Clinic", sponsored by the trade promotions committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, was attended by approximately 80 women on Monday evening, Jan. 29, in the Hereford Community Center. Mrs. Mickey McDonald of Amarillo conducted the clinic.

The course was designed primarily for business women. It consisted of pointers for good posture, walking, sitting, how to sit, and how to rise from a chair. The improvement of daily, weekly and monthly habits was urged. A portion of the clinic included highlights on how to be pleasant and how to make

BLONDIE by CHIC YOUNG

I BROUGHT THE BOSS HOME TO CHEER HIM UP... HE HAS THE BLUES

WHEN A WOMAN HAS THE BLUES, SHE GOES TO THE BEAUTY PARLOR AND GETS A COMPLETE GOING-OVER

OKAY, WE'LL GO ABOUT THIS THE WAY WOMEN DO

GIVE HIM THE WORKS-- EVERYTHING

I STILL FEEL MIGHTY LOW, DAGWOOD

WE'LL TALK IT OVER WITH BLONDIE AGAIN-- WOMEN ARE SMART

ANOTHER TRICK WOMEN USE IS TO BUY A COMPLETE NEW WARDROBE-- NEW HAT, NEW DRESS-- EVERYTHING

COME ON, MR. DITHERS-- A WHOLE NEW OUTFIT FOR YOU

THIS SUIT WILL NEED VERY FEW ALTERATIONS

NEXT WE'LL GET YOU A NEW HAT AND NEW SHOES AND TIE

STAND STILL-- I CAN'T FIT YOU

YOU'RE KILLING ME

ALL THIS TORTURE, AND I STILL FEEL TERRIBLE

WE'LL GET MORE SUGGESTIONS FROM BLONDIE

STOP IT-- I'VE HAD ALL I CAN TAKE

NO, MR. DITHERS-- YOU NEED MORE THERAPY

CRASH BAM

OH, MY GOODNESS-- IT SOUNDS LIKE THE HOUSE IS COMING DOWN

BLONDIE-- I FEEL GREAT! I'M A NEW MAN

WONDERFUL-- HOW DID YOU SHAKE YOUR BLUES, MR. DITHERS?

DAGWOOD AND I JUST HAD THE NICEST FIGHT

MANDRAKE THE MAGICIAN BY LEE FALK & PHIL DAVIS

SPEAK UP, MEN. WHAT DO YOU WANT? I'M BUSY.

UPSTAIRS-- THE RAPHAEL PAINTING-- WE SAW-- WE SAW--

WE SAW-- WE BOTH SAW--

YOU SAW-- WHAT?

A KNIFE-- IN THE AIR-- CUT THE PAINTING OUT-- AND DISAPPEAR--

YOU SAW A KNIFE IN THE AIR-- CUT OUT THE PAINTING?

YES-- THEN IT JUST DISAPPEARED-- INTO NOWHERE!

THEN-- THOSE BEADS-- CAME FROM NOWHERE-- AND FLOATED-- TO THERE!

THOSE BEADS AGAIN? WHEN WAS THIS?

ONE MINUTE AGO!

THIS IS RIDICULOUS! CHIEF--?

ANOTHER MILLION-DOLLAR PAINTING GONE! THEY DID IT! PART OF THE GANG! I'M LOCKING THEM UP!

WAIT--!

THERE'S A CHANCE THE THIEF'S STILL IN THE MUSEUM! RING THE ALARM! LOCK EVERY DOOR-- BAR EVERY WINDOW!

THIRTY SECONDS-- GOOD! IF WE'RE LUCKY--

EVERYTHING'S LOCKED. NO ONE CAN GET IN OR OUT!

WHAT'S YOUR IDEA, MANDRAKE? I SAY THOSE TWO DID IT!

IF CORRECT-- MY IDEA'S TOO FANTASTIC TO BE BELIEVED. NOW-- GET ALL THE GUARDS HERE-- WITH BROOMS.

TIM TYLER'S LUCK

by Lyman Young and Tom Massey

YES, THAT IS BATOOMA LEADING HIS NAMBA WARRIORS, SPUD!

THEY'RE ON THE WARPATH TO WIPE OUT CHIEF NAGANA AND HIS TRIBESMEN!

THOSE RIFLES WERE BOUGHT FROM THE GUN-RUNNERS, TIM!

UNLESS WE CAN ACT QUICKLY, THERE'LL BE A MASSACRE VERY SOON!

BUT, TIM—HOW CAN ONLY THE TWO OF US PREVENT IT?

BY HAVING A 'FRIENDLY' VISIT WITH THAT CHIEF, SPUD! LET'S GO!

YOU COME FROM SOUTH? YOU SEE CHIEF NAGANA AND HIS TRIBESMEN? WE HUNT THEM—NO FIND!

WE KNOW WHERE THEY ARE TO BE FOUND, CHIEF BATOOMA!

YOU LEAD ME AND MY WARRIORS TO ENEMY CAMP—ME MAKE YOU RICH REWARD!

FIRST YOU MUST GIVE US FOOD AND LET US MAKE CAMP WITH YOU HERE TONIGHT—IT IS NEARLY DARK!

HM—WE'LL BE LUCKY IF WE'RE ALIVE TOMORROW MORNING!

The Little Woman

by DON TORBIN

YOU PROMISED WE COULD HAVE THE HOUSE PAINTED THIS MONTH.

O.K. GET SOME ESTIMATES, AND WE'LL PICK THE LOWEST BID.

I'D SAY ABOUT $900.

INCLUDING TWO COATS ON THE TRIM IT COMES TO $950.60.

$800.

GET NICE AND COMFORTABLE, AND I'LL SHOW YOU ALL THE ESTIMATES.

I WAS AFRAID OF THAT.

WELL—DID YOU DECIDE WHO'S GOING TO PAINT YOUR HOUSE?

YES.

WE GAVE IT TO THE LOWEST BIDDER!

I'M TIRED OF BEIN' PUSHED AROUND BY MAGGIE! WHEN I GIT HOME I'M GOIN' TO TELL HER OFF... IN FACT I'LL DO IT RIGHT NOW—

--YOU HEARD ME --- AND DON'T INTERRUPT-- I SAID I WILL GIVE THE ORDERS IN OUR HOUSE FROM NOW ON --- AND THAT'S THAT!

MY, MR. JIGGS WAS ANGRY! I COULDN'T EVEN INTERRUPT HIM LONG ENOUGH TO TELL HIM I WASN'T MRS. JIGGS ---

I'LL BET MAGGIE WILL BE BLAZIN' MAD --BUT I'M GOIN' TO STICK TO MY GUNS ---

MOTHER, DID YOU KNOW THAT DADDY FIRED THREE OF HIS VICE-PRESIDENTS? HE TOLD THEM THEY WERE COMPLETELY INCOMPETENT --- REALLY?!

DARLING, I'M PROUD OF YOU... YOU SHOULD HAVE SPOKEN UP LONG AGO-- YOU'VE BEEN TOO PATIENT ALL THESE YEARS...

I WUZ AMAZED SHE TOOK IT IN THAT SPIRIT... I GUESS IT'S TRUE THAT WOMEN LIKE MASTERFUL MEN--

INSECT!! HOW DARE YOU SPILL YOUR AGHES ON THE RUG? AND TAKE YOUR FEET OFF THE COFFEE TABLE!

SHE'S THE MOST UNPREDICTABLE WOMAN I EVER MET IN MY LIFE!!

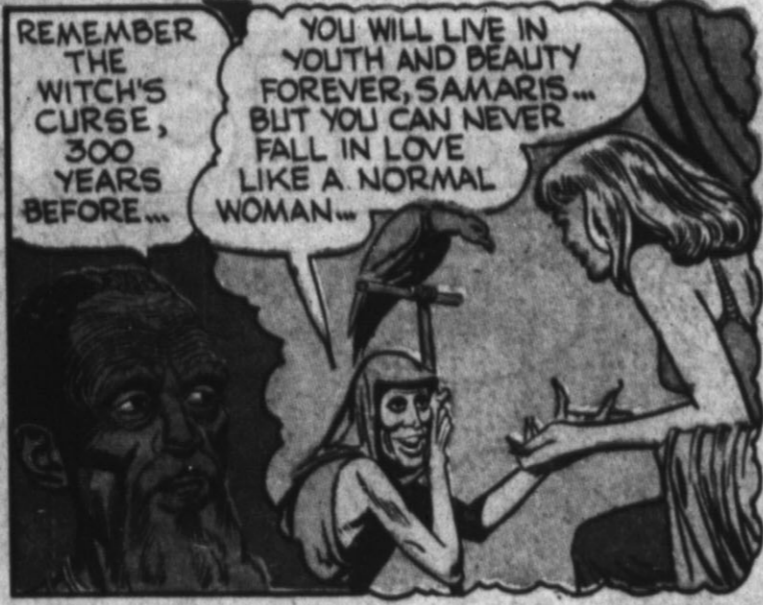

The PHANTOM

By Lee Falk

WHY ARE WE LOOKING FOR THAT MASKED MAN, CAPTAIN?

HE MADE A FOOL OF THE QUEEN. SHE WON'T REST UNTIL SHE HANGS HIM!

REMEMBER THE WITCH'S CURSE, 300 YEARS BEFORE...

YOU WILL LIVE IN YOUTH AND BEAUTY FOREVER, SAMARIS... BUT YOU CAN NEVER FALL IN LOVE LIKE A NORMAL WOMAN...

HOW MANY SO-CALLED HUSBANDS HAVE I BURIED IN 300 YEARS? 11...12? IT'S TIME TO GO THRU THE FARCE AGAIN...

ANOTHER MARRIAGE... THEN A LONG HONEYMOON ABROAD...

...THEN A REPORTED BABY GIRL WHO IS LEFT ABROAD FOR EDUCATION... 20 YEARS LATER I GO TO SEE HER...

I "DIE" THERE... ANOTHER EMPTY COFFIN...

...AND I RETURN AS MY DAUGHTER... SAMARIS IS TH... WONDER IF THIS ONE'S UNLUCKY...

I'VE BEEN MARRIED TO KINGS, PRINCES, DUKES...

...A MASKED JUNGLE RULER MIGHT BE AN AMUSING CHANGE...

THE CAPTAIN WAS WRONG. THE QUEEN DIDN'T WANT TO HANG THE PHANTOM... SHE WANTED TO...
