'They Said It Couldn't Be Done'

Farmer's Dream Becomes Reality As Dam Is Successful

By Melvin Young
When Andrew Kershen rose to his feet last October 17, and addressed a gathering of Deaf Smith County farmers and business men, few people thought that within a year, Kershen's

"dream" would become a reality, on his own farm at least.

"We have asked the government to build a dam on the creek, and it was turned down," Kershen told the group. "We still need the dam, but we do not need the government to build it. People are worried about the water Hereford will need, and that Holly Sugar Corporation will need. We are letting enough water run past our back door to take care of our needs. If the people are willing to build the dam, it would be a big help to our City and community in getting industry to come here. We could even have wells to get the water back into the ground."

Those were the words of a "forward-looking" Deaf Smith County farmer who believed in backing up his thinking with direct action. And that's exactly what Andrew Kershen did.

With the help of his sons, Kershen started out to plan the damming of Tierra Blanca Creek which winds its way over one and one-half miles of the Kershen farm. "I've been thinking about this for a number of years," Kershen said, and with the plan in mind, he had saved some heavy gauge wire to be used in the construction of the home-made dam. The project was completed this year and now the three concrete dams have impounded many acre feet of water.

A lot of planning went into the project according to Kershen, including a visit with the Bureau of Reclamation people for advice. "We've been told we could not stop Tierra Blanca Creek," Kershen said, "but we believe that we can". Many people feel that the flood waters following heavy rains in the county would wash out any dam constructed on the creek.

Kershen's three dams, located something over one-fourth miles apart, are constructed of concrete and reinforced with heavy wire. They seem to be holding up well under the strain of the backed-up creek water.

One dam, the last one, located between the Kershen farm and that of his neighbor, W. E. Uesilton, has given a little trouble, and Kershen was out this week making the minor repairs to the structure. "However," said Kershen, "it's the one dam of the three that we did not use heavy gauge wire in construction." He felt that this fact probably accounted for the damage to the dam.

When asked how many acre feet of water were impounded behind the dams, Kershen didn't know. "But that creek is, on the average, about 40 feet wide," he said, "and as you can see, it's about six feet deep." The creek also covers approximately one and one-half miles in length, including the many crooks and turns.

Kershen told the Brand Thursday that the creek almost always has running water due to the amount of irrigation run-off water that drains into it.

Some 10 years ago, he placed a windmill in his pasture to water the cattle. Soon after the well was in operation, a wind storm damaged the wheel and, "I've never bothered to replace it". He pointed out that there had always been sufficient water in the creek, and in one farm pond, to keep the cattle watered.

School Board To Open Bids On First Project In Vast Expansion Program

Central, Stanton Projects Top List

Hereford School board Tuesday morning will move to activate the first part of its $1.4 million school expansion program when first contracts are let.

Superintendent Paul Stevens said Saturday that the contract letting Tuesday "will be just a drop in the bucket as compared with the total long-range program, but it's a start. The other phases of the big problem will fall into line as needed."

The first contracts will be for a new heating system for Central Elementary school, and for a new boiler and other repairs at Stanton Junior High.

Bids were called for June 10 with a deadline of 6 a.m. Tuesday. The bids will be reviewed at a called meeting of the board, the superintendent explained.

Specifically the call asked for "renovation of steam heating system at Central Elementary school, and remodeling work at Central Elementary and at Stanton Junior High Schools." Bids are to be submitted to the board president, Ivan Block, or to the schools' architects, Brasher & Goyette, Lubbock.

The board will also elect "several" teachers at its Tuesday morning session, the superintendent said. As of Saturday, nine vacancies exist in the school system for the 1964-65 term. Several senior high teachers and "two or three" elementary teachers are yet to be named for the next school term.

Among places to be filled are successors for Mr. and Mrs. Jim Balch who resigned recently to teach in Peru. Balch was driver education teacher in senior high school and Mrs. Balch taught English in Stanton Junior High.

The board also is expected to discuss temporary housing problems at its Tuesday morning session. Some 10 classrooms are to be arranged for in present buildings and in city churches. Probably five of these will be located in a Hereford church this school year. A new elementary building is to be erected before the start of the 1965-66 school term.

Furniture for the new classrooms, including those to be located in temporary quarters was bought at the June 9 meeting of the board, when four school supplies' salesmen met with the board and submitted bids. Also bought at that time were 575 operator-type chairs to go in the junior high school auditorium due for a general overhauling soon. America Desk Co. was awarded the contracts for all the desks and chairs bought.

The board will also go further into the purchase of land for future buildings, probably close to the deal on at least one additional tract at its Tuesday morning session. At the regular meeting earlier this month, consideration was given to a 16.8-acre tract north of the present Northwest School which probably will be bought for an additional building. The land is owned by C.M. Stapp.

The overall program calls for an additional elementary school and for a new junior high school. However, the program is to be spread over several years' time and money for each project will be provided by bonds sold as the projects are scheduled, thus saving taxpayers a considerable sum in interest cost.

Road Worker Crushed Under 10-Ton Roller

A 22-year old construction worker died Friday night after local surgeons tried in a desperate six-hour operation to save his life after he was crushed under the wheels of a 10-ton road rolling machine.

The dead man was identified as Cipriano Salas, San Marcos, Tex. He died at 8:05 p.m. in the Deaf Smith County Hospital. Salas was driving a rolling machine on a resurfacing project on Farm to Market road 1259, four miles southeast of Hereford.

Deputies of the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department said Salas and another man, Bill Richie, were operating the big rolling machines on the resurfacing site at the time of the accident.

Salas stopped his machine to get a drink, and Richie, traveling behind Salas, halted his machine a short distance behind. As Salas prepared to get back aboard his roller, Richie's machine jumped into gear. The front roller of the 10-ton machine passed over Salas, crushing him from the waist down.

Salas was rushed to Deaf Smith County Hospital in a Gilliland Ambulance, where he underwent surgery from noon until 8 p.m.

Both men were employees of the J. H. Strain and Son Construction Co. of Abilene, contractors for the resurfacing project.

Salas' body was taken to the Gilliland Funeral Home pending funeral arrangements.

New School Superintendent, Family Arrive In Hereford

Hereford schools' new chief, Darrell Williams, who takes over the reins here July 1, has arrived in Hereford with his family, but they will take a "quick vacation" in Fort Worth between now and the time he assumes his new duties.

The family has established a home at 201 West Grand.

He said Saturday he is "looking forward to working in Hereford," adding that "plenty of work faces" the new chief of the growing school system. It will be his job to direct an elaborate long-range building program, approved by voters earlier this spring. Involved is a $1.4 million building and renovation program.

Williams comes to Hereford from Uvalde where he served as superintendent for the past year. He has had 17 years' experience as a school superintendent, serving in four Texas schools.

Williams received his bachelor of science degree from Howard Payne College, Brownwood, in 1947, and his master of science degree in 1952 from East Texas Baptist College, Marshall. He had done work toward his doctorate at the University of Houston and at North Texas State University, Denton. He also holds a certificate of graduation from the Air Force Technical Institute's school, Sheppard Field.

The new superintendent here has majors in administrative education, specializing in public relations and school finance, and in psychology. He holds minors in physical education and social studies.

In addition to his 17 years experience as school superintendent, he also served for a year as an elementary principal, two years as a coach and three years as a high school principal.

From 1950 until 1956, he served as superintendent of schools at Elysian Fields, and from 1956

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following story concerns dental surgery performed on a 16-year old Adrian girl last week by a local dentist. Due to the "code of ethics" of the Dental profession, the name of the dentist, or the clinic with which he is associated cannot be used in this story. The dentist will be referred to hereafter as "a local dentist".) (See pictures on page 2)

Several months ago, Ina Sue Ferguson, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ferguson of Adrian came to a local dentist to have her teeth checked.

Immediately it became apparent that the lower first molars were decayed and were beyond saving. The dentist suggested the possibility of transplanting a tooth where the first molar is located.

At first the Ferguson's were a bit skeptical but after the process was explained to them they were "sold" on the idea. The first transplant took place three months ago, and the tooth which was moved has completely "tightened up" and Ina Sue can tell no difference in the transplanted tooth on that side.

The dentist explained, that at a first glance even another dentist would not notice the transplant that had been done on Ina Sue.

The tooth was ground and fits as perfectly in the position as the tooth which was taken out.

The second transplant was done Tuesday afternoon and took less than 70 minutes from the time the anesthetic was administered until the tooth was completely transplanted.

"When the wisdom tooth is impacted, it usually is one of the healthiest teeth in the entire set," the dentist explained. "It is never exposed to decay and there is a small chance of it not being a perfect tooth."

"This idea of transplanting," he continued, "is relatively new as very few dentists practice it and it is not a thing that is taught in medical school."

Hereford Jaycees will join in other area Jaycee clubs in sponsoring a Region I-C junior golf tourney next Thursday, Wendell Maloney, Hereford, announced Saturday. The meet will be held at the Hupsley Hills course in Canyon and green fees will be waived for the event.

The meet is open to any boy who will not be 18 before Aug. 15, Maloney explained, with golfers from Hereford, Tulla, Muleshoe, Farwell, Dimmitt, Memphis, Friona and Happy taking part. Play will start at 9 a.m.

First and second place winners in each division will receive trophies, and the top four players will go to Harlingen for the state tournament July 18-19-20.

Among those who are expected to take part are Dickie Dyer, Dimmitt, who has played in two state tournaments; Dwight Whitaker, Roger Owens, Frank Cain and David Stevens are among the boys who are expected to take part. The last three, above, are from Hereford.

"We appreciate very much the opportunity of playing for free on this outstanding course," Maloney said. "The Hunsley course is recognized as one of the finest in West Texas."

should place small concrete dams on the Tierra Blanca. Not only would the creek furnish water for many cattle pastured along the creek, but it could feasibly be used for minor irrigation. "The dams can be constructed for less than a windmill and water tank will cost," said Kershen, stating that he had less than $1100 invested in the three dams. A little less than $400, each. One of the dams actually cost less than $300 according to Kershen, but the larger dam at the property line caused the average to be higher.

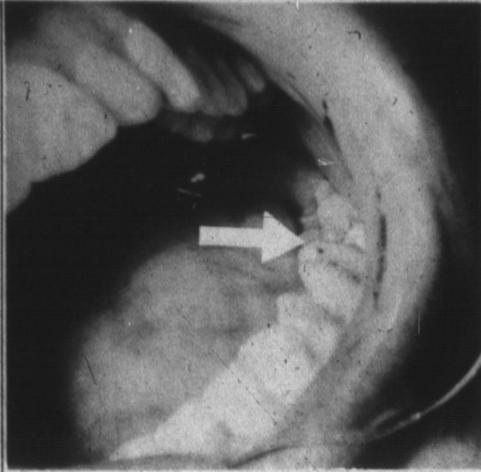

Kershen's interest in the dam runs back many years. He told the Brand Thursday that past efforts to get the Army Engineers to build the dam failed because the county apparently had no "flood hazard" problem.

"People out in this country do not build along the creek," Kershen said, "consequently, there is little or no property loss due to flooding". The Bureau of Reclamation and the Soil Conservation Service however, is interested in the project and have given some help and a lot of advice.

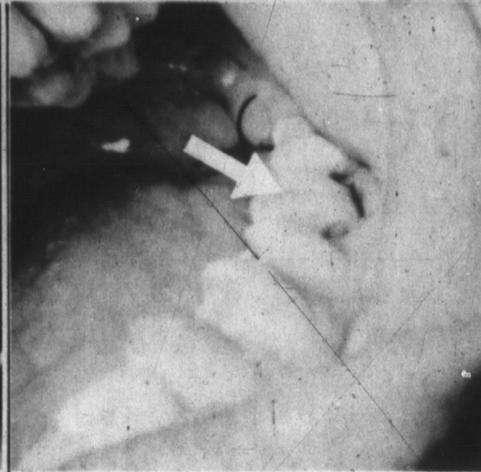

"I believe we should have a dam in Veteran's Park too," Kershen said. "It would make a nice recreation area for the City of Hereford and also, the more dams we have along the creek, the easier it will be to hold the water and keep the dams intact."

Kershen doesn't believe that damming the creek will hurt Buffalo Lake in the least. Water is now running over all three of Kershen's dams, going on down the creek and eventually into Buffalo. The overflow is apparently coming from drainage of irrigation tail-water into the creek, after recent rains filled the stream behind the dams.

He also indicated that water level on some irrigation wells drilled near the Tierra Blanca has risen rather than lowered as has been the trend in other parts of the county. Ker-when feels strongly that water is our salvation, and that as much as possible should be impounded.

We didn't try to figure the number of acre feet that Kershen has impounded behind the three dams, but a casual glance up and down the creek indicates there's a lot of water in the ditch.

'Texas Is So BIG' Says Frenchman Here On Visit

By Mrs. Merla Kaul
Mr. and Mrs. Irving Willoughby went to Lubbock Sunday where they spent the day with their daughter Doris. She is employed at Methodist Hospital as a registered nurse.

The two men became acquainted in July, 1963 in Amsterdam, Holland, when Tabourot was there on a holiday as was Willoughby, who was stationed in Germany with the Army.

After meeting in a Dutch "guest house" Tabourot invited Carroll to drive back to Paris with him and see the countryside. His new friend then extended an invitation for him to visit on his return home. Tabourot had studied English for six years so the language was no barrier. The two became fast friends, have kept up a correspondence, and Carroll invited him to come to the States.

He came last week to spend a month's vacation in the U.S., his first trip to this country. He arrived Thursday following, a 13-hour flight by jet from Paris to Houston. After that, however, he was two days reaching San Angelo from Houston. This delay was the result of his misunderstanding the letters T-TA and the difference between a.m. and p.m. Because of his lack of knowledge of American "alphabet soup" as he called it, he appeared at Houston railroad station in the afternoon instead of at the airport in the morning.

"Everything is so strange and new in the United States — never have I seen such tall buildings, even in Paris," he reported. He has found Americans "so helpful" in many ways that he is thinking seriously of coming to Texas to live.

Last weekend Carroll took his friend to San Antonio on other points of interest, and he has been interviewed several times. "It's such a big place, Texas" he laughed.

His father operates a tavern near an American Air Base in France which is visited by many GIs.

After June 24 he must be back on his job as chief dispatcher for a French railroad in Chaumont which is a mountainous town just east of Paris.

Carroll Willoughby graduated from Hereford High School in 1958. He attended Eastern New Mexico University and McMurry College. During his military service he was stationed in Germany 20 months. After his return he went to work at once with Paul's Shoe Store, a job he had in Lubbock before he entered service.

Wheat, Barley Being Cut In Frio Area

Mrs. Owen Andrews and Mrs. Charles Sell

Some of the early wheat and barley is being cut and other farmers keep sampling the crops to be ready to start at the earliest possible moment. However, there is not lack of work to be done as the rains have brought up a bountiful crop of weeds everywhere. The farmers skill and patience is challenged at this critical time for removing the weeds from among the cotton and feed plants, by machine. Hand hoeing is being done to complete the job. The latest rain was Saturday night bringing about 1.3 inches, and making a total for last week of two to three inches.

The Rev. Jack Moore, Littlefield, preached at Frio at both morning and evening services. The Rev. and Mrs. Fine, Ronnie and Roxie, were away on a vacation trip to Yellowstone National Park and other points of interest. They returned home Wednesday and left again Thursday to visit a few days in the Oklahoma City area. They were accompanied by his mother, Mrs. George Fine, Maple.

On Wednesday evening, Leon Hokett, Hughes, Springs, brought the evening message. He was accompanied here by Mrs. Hokett and their sons, David, and Joe Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Hokett also sang a duet during the services. They were on their way home after a visit in Oklahoma.

Hokett has been song director in three revival meetings at Frio during the past few years. The Hoketts spent Wednesday night and Thursday visiting the Olin Parris home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Benson accompanied by his brothers, Joe Benson, Dimmitt, and D.O. Benson, Hereford, and their sister, Mrs. O. E. Sparks, Hereford, recently spent several days on a trip to Sheppardsville, Mo., to visit a sister, Mrs. Ben Malone and family.

Mr. and Mrs. La Verne Benson and family, Cypress, Calif., were visiting in the H. F. Benson home Tuesday night. Other relatives who came during the evening to visit the group were Mrs. T. L. Sparkman Jr., Darlene Sparkman, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Benson and Susan, Dimmitt, Mrs. C. E. Sparks, Sylvia Sparks, Darrell Sparks, Mrs. Deanne Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hacker and children and Miss Alma Andrews. La Verne Benson is a nephew of H. F. and Joe Benson and Mrs. Sparks.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer West and Linda and Donna went to Sayre, Okla., Sunday, to visit Homers mother, Mrs. Bill Maddox, and other relatives. The girls remained to visit their grandmother and the others this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ed Andrews and Elizabeth visited her parents at Abilene Monday and Tuesday. They brought home Mrs. Andrews' piano from her parents house as they returned.

Sunday visitors in the Owen Andrews home were Mr. and Mrs. Herb Bruns and Harlan and Brun's father, Harry Bruns of Vernon and his sister, Mrs. Bob Schubert and children, Jill and Jerrel, of Albany, Ga. Mrs. Schubert and the children are spending several weeks with her father at Vernon and with her other relatives while her husband is spending the time on a mission with the Air force in a foreign country.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Dobbins and granddaughters, Ediana, Sammie and Carleta Vinson were fishing at Buffalo Lake, Monday. On Tuesday, Dobbins and Ediana Vinson went back to the lake to spend the day fishing.

Mrs. Carlton Dobbins accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dobbins and children to Amarillo, Tuesday for Robert to visit an optometrist.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Vinson and Ediana, Sammie, Carleta and Pam went to Belton Friday and spent the night with Edgar's cousin, Mrs. Grady Tendell and family. Saturday they visited the cemetery at Rosebud, where Edgar's parents and brother are buried, and went on to Waco to attend a Vinson family reunion. More than 100 relatives, descendants of Edgar's grandparents, the T. W. Vinsons, attended the gathering. At Dallas, the Vinsons and his brother, H. C. Vinson and family visited the Six Flags Over Texas exhibition on Sunday.

Edgar Vinson was called to Rosebud, Friday by the death of an uncle, Claude Jenkins. Funeral services were planned for Saturday morning at Rosebud.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lindley attended a family reunion at Oklahoma City last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bush accompanied by her mother, Mrs. S. J. Greeson, attended the Tennessee Reunion, in Amarillo, last Sunday.

Attending the Warrick family reunion at Kilgore, last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Elza Warrick, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Odum and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Warrick and boys. Sue and Sandy Buckmaster, of Ogden, Utah, are spending several weeks visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bush. They returned home with Mrs. Bush after her recent visit in the Buckmaster home.

Olin Parris flew David Yandell his mother, Mrs. A. N. Yandell and Johnnie Robinson to Durant, Okla., Sunday to visit Mrs. Yandell's sister, Mrs. O. N. Yandell, who was critically ill. Mrs.

Yandell remained for a longer stay with her sister, who was improving according to late reports. Tolbert Sparkman, Burkett (Continued on Page 9)

PAUL ABALOS
During the month of May Paul Abalos received 676 pieces of mail in a contest to determine listeners to various Latin American programs in this entire area. Letters were received from Hereford, Frio, Bovina, Dimmitt, Plainview, Tulia, Farwell, Littlefield, Lubbock, Slaton, Amarillo, Pampa, Tucumcari, Clovis and Portales.
Paul easily received more mail than his challenger, a well established Latin American announcer on the south Plains.
We're proud of Paul and his program and the information he provides for Latin American listeners in Deaf Smith County and the entire area. Paul liberally mixes music, commercial announcements, public service announcement, health and safety spots, introduces special religious programs and even tells a corny story or two to provide one of the largest audiences in west Texas.

NEW NOTES FOR B&PW — Symphony of business activities for Hereford's Business and Professional Women's Club during 1964-65 will be harmonized by the new slate of officers shown above. Installing Officer Belle Hromas presents each with a miniature musical instrument as symbol of her new duties. Here, at left, she gives the baton of leadership to Ruby Lee Hickman, new president, who is followed by Kathleen Baker, Margaret Ann Durham, C. Ora Cockrell, Lucille Park, and Mattie Fern Martin. Not pictured are Mary Helen Askew and Bruce Rose.

B&PW Club Installs Officers

Mrs. Ruby Lee Hickman will head the slate of new officers for Business and Professional Women's Club in the forthcoming year. Belle Hromas, honorary club member, served as installing officer at the club's meeting in the Community Center Monday evening.

Induction into office with Mrs. Hickman were Kathleen Baker first vice-president; Margaret Ann Durham, second vice-president; Lucille Park, recording secretary; C. Ora Cockrell, corresponding secretary; Mattie Fern Martin, treasurer; Mary Helen Askew, parliamentarian; and Bruce Rose, reporter.

Setting the mood for the installation ceremony, Mrs. Ursalee Jacobsen presented a piano solo, Lange's "Flower Song."

Comparing the business organization of the club to a symphony and its director, Mrs. Hromas reminded each new officer of her duties and presented a miniature instrument as a symbol to each one. To President Hickman she gave a baton representing leaders; to Vice-president Baker, a miniature piano to lend perfect rhythm and harmony to the total work and theme of the club; to vice-president Durham, a clarinet to carry the melody alone or working with all others in the organization.

To Recording Secretary Park went a toy drum for the mood and intensity measuring activities, giving perfect cues to other club members, and keeping perfect club records. Given Corresponding Secretary Cockrell was a violin to symbolize opportunity to reach the full membership of the club, locally and in the state.

To Treasurer Martin went a tiny saxophone, signifying rhythm, harmony, balance, to the club's monetary activities. The little trumpet to Reporter Bruce Rose would herald proclamations and warnings, also distinct, prompt keeping of club records through publication, Parliamentarian Mary Helen Askew received a bracelet holding a combination of chain instruments, each to be used to assure proper procedures in club work.

Miss Park as retiring president, presented her gavel to the new president, Mrs. Hickman. As appreciation for her services, Mrs. Hromas was given a special gift.

New chairman of committees was appointed, Bea Barrett will share world affairs; Sophie Snare, legislation; Ursalee Jacobsen, finance; Margaret Ann Durham, personal development; Teddy Alexander, civic participation, Marie Sears, membership, Della Stagner, public relations.

New editor of "Short Wave," bi-weekly bulletin of the local club, will be Della Stagner, with Lucille Park as her assistant.

Included on the evening's agenda were reports from Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Cockrell on B & P W's State Convention in Fort Worth which they attended June 5-7.

Covered with natural line table was centered with an arrangement of pink roses and chartreuse snapdragons in footed milkglass tbow. Pale green twisted candles in low milk-glass candleholders lighted the serving area, presided over by Mrs. Durham and Mrs. Askew, the hostesses.

Guests present were Mrs. Hromas, installation officer, Miss Mildred Crawford, and Miss Irma Thomas.

Members attending the installation were Mrs. Hickman, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Cockrell, Miss Park, Mrs. Martin, Miss Rose, Mrs. Marie Sears, Miss Iva Conanougher, Mrs. Jacobsen, Mrs. Eunice Petersen, Miss Della Stagner, Miss Mary Bourne, Mrs. Durham, and Mrs. Askew.

Here and There

with Mrs. Merlin Kaul

The museum recently set up at the barn on the George Turrentine farm continues to grow. Several folk have contributed articles to be put on permanent exhibit. A professional photographer has visited the museum with the hopes that the story will reach some of the leading magazines.

One of the features of the museum is the bedroom suit which Mrs. Werner has had in use in her house. This bed is the exact replica of the bed in which Dwight Eisenhower was born. The quilts on the bed were made by some one in the Turrentine family more than 100 years ago. Mrs. Werner made the pillow cases which are more than 50 years old.

The Ridgeway Bible is more than 100 years old, the brass candlestick on display was hand turned and is very old. Patti Turrentine loves the doll which belonged to her aunt Mrs. Mary Turrentine Roach who now teaches in El Paso. Individual displays are scheduled to begin soon. The museum will be open each Sunday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock this summer with a small admission charge. Pony rides are also scheduled during the open hours of the museum.

A story in the Canyon News recently featured Don Rice, 27-year-old industrial arts major at West Texas University. Don has built a machine which, the article stated "he hopes may solve many problems confronting the Plains irrigation farmer."

Don Rice

A working model of Don's machine was on display at the University's Industrial Art Show the latter part of May. His machine is designed to save tall water and make operation of an irrigation farm a less confining task for the farmer.

Don, son of Mrs. Betty Rice of Austin Road and the late W. S. Rice, farmed at Hereford for some time and came face to face with some of the exasperating problems which he set about to solve.

He worked out a system whereby tall water from irrigation goes into a pump and is automatically returned to the head irrigation pipe. The system can be used for both underground and sprinkler systems.

Don has also designed a circuit for irrigation wells which will reset and restart a well motor as soon as current is resumed, after the motor has for some reason been shut down. This would be particularly useful where electric wells are often shut down by lightning flashes.

Don is now working on a humidistat, a device which will automatically stop an irrigation well when an attached rain gauge is filled to any given capacity.

Don is a junior at the University where besides going to school he works as an electrician. His wife, Sara, is also a junior and is majoring in music. The couple has three children. Rhonda, Danny, and Dawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyd have returned home after a vacation trip to points in the southern part of the United States.

Their trip began with a visit to her sister, Mrs. E. J. Duncan, in Norman, Okla., they visited son Frank and family. Frank is working on a master's degree in electrical engineering at the Oklahoma University. In Oklahoma City, they were guests of Mr. Maude Mead, sister of and he and his bride will live there.

Mrs. C. B. Emerick, Guthrie, Okla., was a guest the first of the week here in the home of her daughter, Mrs. John D. Pittman. She was accompanied by a friend, Mrs. LaMoine Peterson, Cushing, Okla., who was also a guest of the Pittmans.

Mrs. J. M. Nichols, Burkburnett, has been a guest this week in the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. L. Bryant. Mrs. Bryant is a teacher in the Shirley School.

Mrs. Irene Boardman and daughters Linda, Debbie, and Debbie are attending a DFO Camp in Tunkáwa, Okla. this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Curder Hendricks and grandchildren, Dallas, were guests of Mrs. Betty Rice one day last week. They were enroute to Denver, for a vacation. Corder is a nephew of the late W. S. Rice. He attended school at Westway when his family lived in this area.

Mrs. Ralph McCullough went to Clovis Thursday where she spent the day in the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Killian. The Killians have recently been transferred to Clovis from Amarillo.

Mrs. Gladys Van Neste, Sabetha, Kan. is guest this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bateman on D. Street. The Batemans lived in Sabetha for several years where they worked for A. F. Roberts. The A. F. Roberts Construction Co. of Sabetha has built grain elevators all over the southwest, when in Sabetha and they became close friends. Bateman is (Continued on page 11)

Development Pool To Open; First Homes Near Completion

Climaxing several months of planning and hard work, Reuben Asland announced this week that completion is near on at least two homes of Hereford Development's Green Acres Estates addition, plus the near completion of the modern swimming pool that will serve the area.

Asland, more enthusiastic than ever, told the Brand Friday that the pool will be operated as a non-profit corporation, and will be directed by a Board of Directors made up of members. The pool will be ready to open by next weekend, Asland said, and urged those interested in memberships to contact the offices of Hereford Development Co. immediately.

"Purchase of a lot or home in the addition will automatically give you membership in the pool," Asland said.

Initial membership fee in the organization will be $150, plus $35 yearly dues. He also pointed out that outsiders, those not now owning property in Green Acres Estates, could apply for membership in the pool by paying their $150 membership fee. This fee, can be later applied to the purchase price of a lot, according to the developer, if the party so chooses, and they may be transferred upon the approval of the Membership Committee.

Brochures are now available for those interested in getting additional information, and can be had by writing to the company at Box 328. The pool, will be 30 ft. x 60 ft. in size, plus a sizable kiddie pool located at the South end. It will be completely surrounded by an 8 ft. Crowe-Guide Castle-Wall fence for the sake of privacy, and will have a slide at either end of the pool, plus diving boards, etc.

"In fact," says Asland, "we encourage you to have your own contractor build your home here." He pointed out that lots were available to reliable contractors and to individuals, but asserted again that homes built in the area would have to meet deed restrictions and be "constructed to stay".

This area will also be the first in Hereford to include a complete network of underground utilities. "If we could find a way to put TV antennas underground, we'd do it," Asland said. However, the absence of electrical utility poles will be "something new" for Hereford.

Parties interested in purchasing lots in the sub-division for future use, or those wanting to construct homes now are urged to contact Reuben Asland for details.

"Lots will be sold on installment plan to those qualifying as well as the swimming pool membership fee," Asland said. "We feel that there are a number of people who would like to become members of the pool corporation, but prefer not to pay the entire $150 in a lump sum. This membership fee is a capital investment, since it may be applied to purchase of a lot at a future date, plus the fact that it is transferable."

Please send additional information on available memberships, without obligation to me.

Harvesting of the annual wheat crop should be well under way by the end of the week if the weather remains fair.

gone by the wayside, with only a few scattered patches surviving. Potatoes too, should be about ready to harvest, and so far the market has been good.

Onions, on the other hand, have apparently suffered on the market, with the prices of the goods barely covering the processing and shipping tab.

onions will be clipped this week we understand, with harvest getting into full swing in a couple of weeks.

Milo, the No. 1 crop of the High Plains Area, is getting off to a good start, although the weed problem is giving farmers a little trouble.

Meanwhile, the vacationers continue making preparations for their summer trips. Heading for their annual outing in the mountains of Colorado, July 3, will be Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. D. Fluitt, Mr. and Mrs. Woody Wilson all of Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. George Grogan and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Birkmeyer from Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sultemeyer from Santa Fe, N. M.

The group travels yearly to fish on the Rio Grande between Creed and Lake City, Colorado. They will be gone a week.

The Denton Park addition Grand Opening will be held this Sunday, June 21, to 5 p.m. This completely planned community is located just north of Alkman School.

The show home is located at 16th and Blevins. The addition features, among other things, a swimming pool for use of the residents. The pool has been completed and is ready to go, according to Tony Ravizza, builder. C. A. Denton is the developer of the area.

Announcement was made this week of the sale of the Lucky U Motel to Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hale and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Howell, daughter and son-in-law of the Hales.

The name of the motel will be changed to Holiday Motor Hotel and the new owners are now in the process of remodeling the front and making some changes on the grounds.

The motel contains 50 units and is completely air conditioned. And another sizable sale of real estate was announced this week as Hereford Real Estate sold of selling the Villa Park Apartments, owned by Charlie Seeds to Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Wilkins. The Wilkins have moved to Hereford from Amarillo, and own considerable ranching interests in the Amarillo area.

Guy Lawrence has made another contribution to the Deaf Smith County museum. When and if we get one. The latest is a bottle, made before the Civil War.

Lawrence got the bottle from among relics belonging to his grandmother back in Tennessee. The bottle was used many years ago from asafetida.

And if you can remember when they used to wear asafetida around the neck in a little sack to ward off all sorts of maladies, you don't have to worry about the draft.

And, we might add, if you smell of the bottle too long, you won't need to worry about the draft either.

We also received a note this week from Jess H. Dillard, one of the area pioneers, wanting us to give his regards to all the Pioneers who gathered here May 30. Mr. Dillard was not able to attend due to the fact that he MOVES TO HEREFORD — Kenneth Seales, a native of Bailey County, has joined the field force of the High Plains Underground Water District. He will work out of the Deaf Smith County office. Seales' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Seales, live at Route 5, Muleshoe, and have been engaged in farming for more than 30 years. Seales is married and has one son, Paul, five months old. Before coming to work for the Water District, he was employed with the Lubbock Police Department as a patrolman. He is a member of the Mackenzie Masonic Lodge and the Baptist Church. tightened up and has all the appearance of a perfectly healthy tooth, but how long will it take to determine if the operation was a success? Will it have to last five years, ten or a lifetime to make it worthwhile?

"I would personally be inclined to think that if the tooth lasted five years it would prove its ability to function as a normal tooth, and there is no reason the tooth should not last forever."

He explained that if the body looked upon the tooth as a foreign object it could dissolve the roots and the tooth would fall out or it could expel the tooth. He said this sometimes happens, even with a healthy tooth.

It is highly possible that was recuperating from surgery. Dillard now resides in Los Angeles, California.

According to the Canyon News, some forty-six newspapers, publications and wire service representatives are expected to visit Canyon this fall under sponsorship of the Texas Tourist Development Agency.

The visiting newsmen will visit the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in Canyon as well as making a visit to Palo Duro Canyon.

Also on the agenda will be a visit in the Panhandle Heritage Foundation amphitheatre in the canyon. Backers of the foundation hope to stage a historical drama there next summer, portraying the conquest and settling of the Panhandle.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Skypala and Carol, John Willoughby, and Fred Henry returned home Thursday from vacation trip to Red River in New Mexico and points of interest in Colorado. The group had a camper trailer with them but report that they used it very little — it was just too cold in Colorado. John Willoughby is on a two weeks vacation from his work with American National Bank in Amarillo. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Willoughby.

County Agent Lefty Thomas, Karroll Higgins, Deborah, Dan, and Sandi Thomas attended a meeting of the Junior Hereford Breeders at Holiday Inn West in Amarillo last Tuesday. Mary Ann Edlin, Channing, president of the group, presided at the business meeting. Dan Thomas is vice-president, Sandi Thomas is secretary, and Deborah Thomas is reporter for the organization. At the meeting Tuesday final plans were made for a field day to be held in August at the Jake Hess Ranch at McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Severance and daughter Carol are moving soon to Fort Collins, Colo. to make their home. Joe will travel for the company which is manufacturing his new invention for plows. Carol will attend Colorado State College this autumn. Her brother-in-law is already a student there where he is studying on a scholarship.

Mrs. John D. Pitman took Marsha, Jamie and Kirk to Branson, Mo. last week to attend summer camp for the next five weeks. Marsh and Kirk will be in Camp Kanakuk and Jamie will be in the camp for the girls Camp Kanakomo. Only "Clay-Baby" 4 1/2 years old is home now to keep things lively around the Pitman household.

Fathers are for Girls...

Father's Day, June 21, has as its 1964 theme "Juvenile Integrity Starts in the Home."

Shown on this page are typical Hereford fathers who truly illustrate this year's theme in their daily activities and companionship with their children.

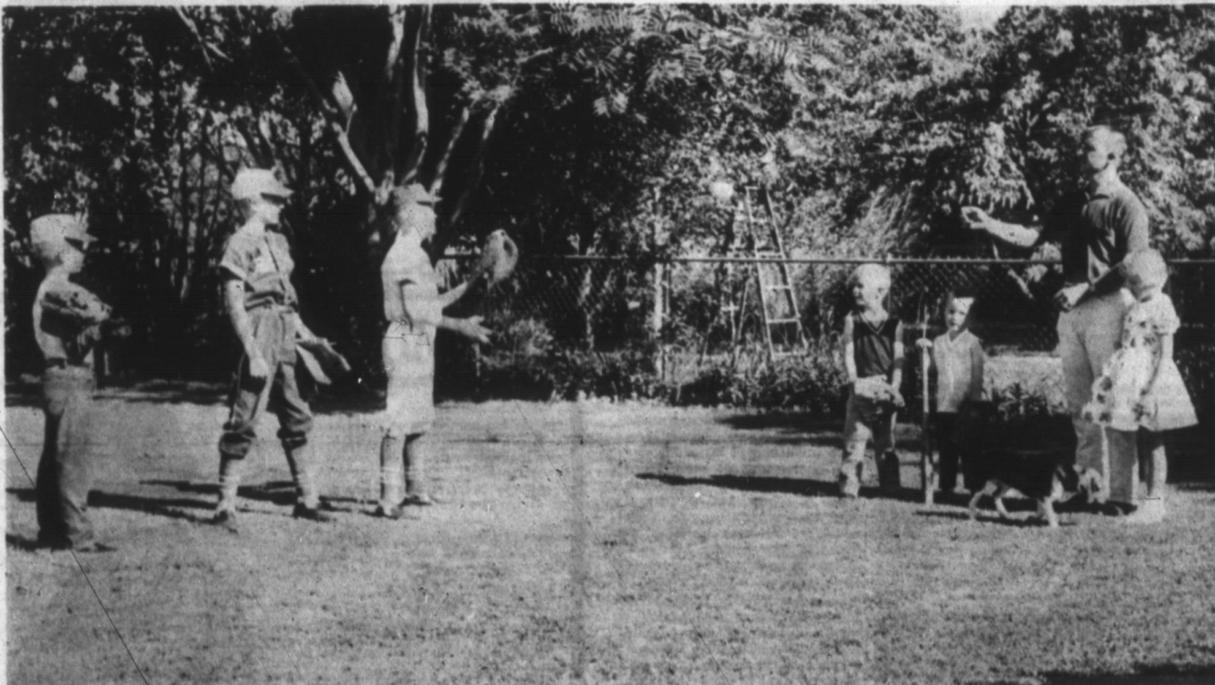

It's a good thing to see father, mother, and children exemplifying this truth—the year round as they face problems, make adjustments to family needs, accept responsibilities, and grow into a fuller life — for their home, for their community, for their nation, for their Maker.

So today is just a day of remembrance — a day of special thanks for father and his constant efforts on behalf of his family. For Father's Day — like Mother's Day — lasts all year long.

FATHER'S A MASTER — To his home quartet, J. Nolan Grady, Hereford Postmaster, is a real past-master at sharing time with his family — Mrs. Grady included, of course. Shown here at home, 116 Ave. J, playing a game of "Life" are Paula (7), Donna (8), Grady, Robert (13), and Joan (10). "He helps them in every way," says Mrs. Grady — with homework, his son in scouting (Grady is a Scoutmaster), all of the children in enjoying outdoor games, from baseball to croquet. They think he is a master cook, too, at their frequent home cook-outs.

HERRING LITTLE LEAGUE — "Dad is the best coach," declare the Herring team: (left to right) Marc (9), Greg (13), Cliff (10), Kent (4), and Reid (3). Dad, Dean Herring, gives pointers to his own Little League at practice in their back yard, 220 Star St., with the help of Manica (7) as umpire and

Boys

ming. Busy attorney, Langley enjoys every day as Father's Day when he leads his music-centered family in enjoyment of fine music — symphonies, concerts, operas, musical comedies presented in this area, and at home in stereo-listening and family sessions around the piano. As musicians, his all-girl team could make a piano quartet. (Brand Staff Photo)

IN THE SWIM — Father's Day is all year long to J. O. Paorch, shown here with his family swimming team, five strong, ready for a plunge in the pool of their neighbors, the Jack Bradleys, on Harrison Highway. Sitting with his father and thinking of scuba diving is Kim (8), while Craig (12) below reaches for a kick-off; and Doug (10) keeps his head above water as Randy (13) and Jerry (15) watch from poolside. Other sports the family enjoy are horseback riding, tennis, fishing, and cookouts. "In everything," Paorch says, "all follow their Boss, the only girl in the family — their mother." All the boys are interested in his work as contractor, Paorch explains, each helping on hours, from cleaning and pick up to running concrete. At home, all share in yard work and keeping up the place. Paorch believes that along with family fun his boys will achieve discipline and learn respect for the other fellow, for other people. (Brand Staff Photo)

Four 4-H Youths In Europe On 'People-To-People' Tour

Four Deaf Smith county 4-H club members are due in New York today for a couple of days of sightseeing, but Tuesday they will fly out of New York bound for northern Europe on a 21-day "people-to-people" mission.

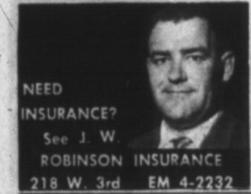

The youths, three girls and a boy, are part of a 27 member goodwill tour from Texas.

Dick Plank

Maura McAndrews

Jana Cole

Last night they were given a sendoff-banquet at the Adolphus Hotel, and are to leave the Dallas airport this afternoon for New York.

County Agent Lefty Thomas and Assistant Home Demonstration Agent Jean Beene, said the youths were not picked for a trip on a "contest" basis. However, all are leaders in 4-H work. The boys and girls pay their own expenses.

Making the trip are Dick Plank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Plank; Jane Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cole; Maura McAndrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. McAndrews, and Caroline Brumley, daughter of Homer Brumley.

Dick will be a sophomore at Texas Tech next autumn. He is one of the delegates from Texas to the National 4-H Conference in Washington in April and also has been a delegate to the National 4-H congress in Chicago, 1963, he won the state grain marketing award and attended the grain marketing clinic as a guest of the Chicago board of trade.

Dick has been active in his local 4-H club, Dawn, and has served as chairman of the county and district 4-H council. In 1962 he was vice-chairman of the state 4-H council. In Hereford high school he was president of the sophomore class and was band "king", a member of the Thespian club and played football. He also was a member of the mixed choir. Dick is active in his church, serving as president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship. He holds a pilot's license.

Jana Cole is a member of the Frio Jolly Workers and is a junior in Hereford High School. She has been active in 4-H work for several years, and has attended the 4-H electric camp, the Round-Up and the Share-the-Fun camp this year. She has served as secretary-treasurer of the county 4-H council for four years. Jana belongs to the FHA, the Tri-Hi-Y, the Student Council, the G.A.'s in church. She plays the piano and organ.

Maura McAndrews also is a junior in Hereford High School,

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Raymond Hunter, Washington, D.C., have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Hunter, to Vern Eldon Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verle Darwin Powell, 100 Elm Street.

The Naval Chapel in Washington will be the setting of the August 15 wedding. Miss Hunter was graduated from the University of Texas, Austin, in June. She is a Provisional Member of the Junior League of Washington, D.C. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. John Wise Morse, Washington, D.C., and her paternal grandmother is Mrs. Robert Phanstiel Hunter, Sherman.

A graduate of Hereford High School, Powell was included in the 1950 Round-up Favorites. At Texas Technological College, Lubbock, he had more than two years of pre-med work and two years of R.O.T.C. After four years' service with the United States Air Force during World War II, he attended the University of Texas, from which he was graduated with a B.A. in Psychology and the LL.B. Degree from the School of Law.

He is now associated with the firm of Gordon L. Hollan, Boerne, in the practice of law and also with the Kendall County Abstract Company.

After the wedding, the young couple will be at home in Boerne.

and has been active in 4-H for some time. She won first in the county public speaking contest and third in the district events. In 4-H she has served many offices, including the county council.

She belongs to St. Anthony's youth club, the debate team, the Thespians, the Windbreak and Lands Committee and the Hereford Athletic club. In swimming she won first in diving at Frio and first in breast stroke in Hereford.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor: If the enthusiasm of young people could make a dream a reality, a group of fifth grade students would soon be laying the foundation for the Deaf Smith County Museum. The students, representing Central School, made a field trip to visit Mr. Elliston's home and to see his fine collection of historical interest. They listened enraptured as he told them of the "early days" and made his trips in search of these treasures come truly to life for them.

When our bus returned us to school, they were bubbling over with memories of Mr. Elliston's fine humor and his keen desire to see his exhibits, along with those of others, put on permanent display for all to see. They could realize that knowing about our fine pioneer heritages is indeed an important part of their total education.

It is particularly heartwarming to see a man so full of rich memories pouring them out for young students to soak up, each in his own way. The graciousness of Mrs. Elliston, thinking not of 50 people trooping through her home but of the knowledge that each might gain by coming, also made a lasting impression.

It seems that our immediate responsibility is to realize that these fine sources of information will not always be available, and that we must take advantage of their willingness to share, both material and memory riches, with us all.

One boy remarked as we talked about our trip, "I'll surely do all I can!" As the enthusiasm of youth has proved so many times, it can be done. If we here in Hereford want to treasure our memories of the past with these fine collections, it can be done. The children of our public project, and two classes of fifth graders say, "What can we do?" Give them a job and see what may result. Mrs. Charles Bell

Shower Honors Recent Bride

A luncheon and personal shower honored Mrs. Herman Jesko, Austin, the former Nancy Edwards, Saturday, June 13.

Setting of this courtesy for the recent bride was the home of Mrs. Clinton, West, 222-B. Avenue. The luncheon table was laid in white lace over pink and centered with a bouquet of pink and white spring flowers. Rose-shaped mint cups in shades of pink further carried out the bride's colors.

Guests present were Mrs. Jesko, the honoree, Miss Maribeth Gilliland, Miss Brenda Beasley, Miss Kay Lemons, Miss Sharon Hill, and the hostesses: Miss Suzanne Langley, and Miss Shari Prowell.

ROBERTS APPLIANCE — Hereford

Carol Elaine Alston, George R. Jowell Wed

Miss Carol Elaine Alston, 306 Western, became the bride of George R. Jowell IV in a Saturday afternoon ceremony, June 13, in Hereford First Christian Church. The Rev. Eugene K. Brink officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John H. Alston, 3906 East 15th St., Amarillo. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. George R. Jowell III, 800 East Third Street.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Richard L. Alston, Amarillo. She wore a floor-length gown of white re-embroidered lace over bridal taffeta, fashioned with scalloped portrait neckline on a fitted bodice. The bouffant-skirt ending in a chapel train was nipped in at the waist by a taffeta sash terminating in a flat bow at the back. She carried a bouquet of cascading white Ellfie roses and white mystic gardenias.

The bride's shoulder-length veil of illusion was caught to a crown of white satin and seed pearls. Her jewelry was a pearl droplet.

Matron of Honor was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Richard L. Alston, Amarillo. She wore a gown of lavender silk organza in colonial style and carried Ellfie roses. George R. Jowell III served his son as best man.

Traditional organ wedding music was presented, furnishing background melody for the ceremony.

Following the wedding an informal reception was held in the church parlors. In the reception line were the bride and groom, her mother, and the groom's parents.

Miss Dianne London, niece of the bride, presided at the guest register. Mrs. Baxter London, sister of the bride, poured punch and Mrs. Walter Kirkland, sister of the groom, served the cake.

The service table was covered with white lace over damask and centered with an arrangement of flowers in the bride's colors of white and lavender. The tiered bridal cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Table appointments were in crystal and silver.

For her going away costume the bride chose a double-breasted coat dress of turquoise linen, with pillbox hat of the same material. Her accessories were white and her corsage was the gardenias lifted from the bridal bouquet.

After a wedding trip to points in New Mexico, the young couple will be at home at 407-B Ross Avenue, Hereford.

The bride and groom are graduates of Hereford High School. She attended Amarillo College and is now employed by Brown, Graham, and Glover, Hereford. Jowell attended West Texas State University, Canyon, and is presently employed by Hereford Texas Federal Credit Union. Out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bride's mother, Mrs. John H. Alston, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Alston, David, Danny, and Steve Alston — all of Amarillo. Also Mr. and Mrs. Max Johnson, Brice, Texas.

College-Type Schedules Solve High School Housing Problems

BEEVILLE, 18 (AP) — Educators and townfolk have cautiously pinned a "success" tag on perhaps revolutionary college-type schedule of classes at A.C. Jones High School.

Students, too, entrusted with more responsibility, are happy after two years under the operation.

Basically, the Jones High setup involves an eight-period school day allowing students not in class to either leave the campus or go wherever they choose on the school grounds.

"Added classroom space has made it possible for students to schedule six or seven subjects, instead of the usual five, and a surprising number have done it with excellent results."

School administrators laid considerable groundwork before launching the new program in the autumn of 1962.

The plan began three years earlier when school trustees foresaw skyrocketing war-baby school populations and rising building costs.

Principal Lester McCoy suggested starting on eight-period school day set up college style, with students deciding how they would spend their off-class time.

The board planned carefully how to get maximum use from its plant.

During the preparatory period, explanatory talks were made to parents, civic organizations, Parent-Teacher Associations and students as well, outlining the proposal.

Among the immediate benefits was the increase in students to 1,650.

"I think we can safely say the program represents a saving to the school district of $500,000 or more on our present enrollment," Supt. Archie Roberts says.

The cost was $30,000, spent in remodeling three existing classrooms into an informal study lounge, and building four classrooms.

In the beginning, students were told they were being offered more freedom, but that it was their responsibility to see the privilege was not abused.

Students with free periods had to remain out of hallways in classroom areas. They could go to the library, or even to a nearby drive-in cafe.

During the first two weeks, the number of times students skipped classes jumped, but settled back to a minimum. This year few left the campus.

"They prefer their own world of school," one teacher explains. "You couldn't drive them away with a stick."

A student who misused his time would be confined to the campus, or assigned to the formal study hall.

Roberts says the result has been fewer disciplinary problems in school.

A teacher explained it this way:

Under the old lockstep system, when students built up a little head pressure they had no inhibitions against pulling the rip cord and letting go in the classroom. Now they have the opportunity to blow off steam during their free periods, and apparently are ready to settle down to work when they come to class."

Carter says the secondary reason for the college-type schedule — to develop self-responsibility, discipline and reliance — has become of far greater value than the financial savings.

Students accustomed to the Jones High program also have found less trouble making the transition from high school to college.

"We don't have a teacher standing over us all the time," said one student. "We're on our honor."

Faculty members say the more responsibility pupils exhibit a strong discipline on the more carefree minority. But the Jones system, they add, is no cure for all the ills of a school program.

"It's working for us, but we are afraid that some other

George Heard, Miss Ramstad Wed In Austin

Former Hereford resident, George Edmund Heard, Pasadena, and Miss Ruth Evelyn Ramstad, Guymon, Okla., were married Sunday afternoon, May 31, in the Little Chapel of University Methodist Church, Austin. Only members of the immediate families were present at the wedding.

The bride's honor attendant was her sister, Miss Joan Ramstad, Guymon. Serving as best man was George G. Heard, father of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white brocade suit and hat. Her corsage was of red roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramstad, Guymon. She was graduated May 30 from University of Texas with honors, receiving a B. A. Degree in English.

The groom is the son of Mr. & Mrs. George Gordon Heard, 12-28 Lamar St., Amarillo. He is the grandson of Dr. G. W. Heard, former Hereford dentist, who also now lives in Amarillo. Young Heard attended Hereford High School three years and played on the Whiteface team. In 1961 he was graduated from Texas Technological College, Lubbock, with a B.S. Degree in Chemical Engineering. He is now associated with Rhone and Haas Chemical Co., Pasadena.

Lutherans Have Closing Exercises

Immanuel Lutheran Church conducted closing exercises of its vacation Bible School to a full house of parents and children Friday night in spite of heavy rains and a power failure.

Children who participated in the Bible school demonstrated their knowledge of songs and memory verses they had learned, and they also conducted several dramatizations of what they learned in the course titled "God, My Country, and I". The course taught the principles of citizenship.

The vacation Bible school had an average daily attendance of 80 children, with 18 teachers and helpers making up the staff.

"One of our worst problems is having to explain to parents that when a student is not scheduled for class, he is their responsibility, not ours," Hatcher added. "Parents who have been used to dumping their offspring at school aren't enthusiastic when they learn we expect them to keep up with their children's schedule," he said.

As far as teachers can determine, academic progress is at least as good or better than it was two years ago.

And the program seems to have provided a partial solution for dropouts.

Students who must have jobs to continue their schooling are able, through scheduling, to leave the campus early.

GUEST EDITORIAL

'Get Tough' The Answer?

Editor's Note: The following is a guest editorial submitted by the Honorable H. C. (Hank) Williams, Judge of Deaf Smith County. These are the opinions of the Judge, who considers the work of the Juvenile Court as his most important undertaking as County Judge.

By Judge H. C. Williams

During the 10 year period from 1950-1960, the serious crime rate in this country has doubled, increasing some 98% whereas the population growth has taken only an 18 percent rise. This means then, that the crime rate in the United States has increased 5 times faster than the population. An alarming situation, certainly.

The judiciary and law enforcement officers of this nation have tried almost everything with uniformly disappointing results. The rise continues.

Paroles have been tried, with the end result of a parolee committing more serious crime . . . one that cannot be ignored by society.

The idea of a country club type reformatory with no walls, big swimming pools and movies each night has been tried, and still the "hoods," if we may use that term, multiply.

While the majority of the kids in this nation are born straight and remain that way, it is with the minority who do not with which we must deal. Reports show that 20 percent of the American youngsters between the ages of 10 and 17 now have juvenile records — one out of five! Why?

J. Edgar Hoover has been described as being an advocate of a "get tough" policy with respect to young offenders. This he does not deny, and goes on to state "of course I do not propose harsh treatment for perpetrators of minor offenses."

I believe that a more stern policy in ALL juvenile courts would help to keep minor offenses from someday turning into major crimes for which all society must suffer.

Frankly I am discouraged by the misguided sentimentalists who want to pamper and excuse teenagers. This leads only to disrespect and contempt for law and order. As long as we have people who insist the tender age is an excuse for any and all misdeeds, we will have young men and women going astray, thinking they can get away with anything and everything.

When they realize, however, that they will be held strictly accountable for their misdeeds and crimes, many of them will be deterred from committing misdeeds and crimes.

Here again, we might point out that the majority of our young people still walk the straight and narrow, and they certainly should be commended for their good deeds, just as the other percentage must be reprimanded for their misdeeds.

Our nation is only as strong as the moral fiber of its people, regardless of economic or military might. If we are to leave this country in good hands, we must strengthen the moral fiber of its inheritors — the youth of America. And certainly, in doing this, we should scrutinize ourselves, to see that we are worthy of the task that we face.

Perhaps one of our troubles today arises from the fact that a certain number of "do-gooders" have drifted into juvenile work and many of these sincere but misguided individuals simply cannot comprehend the psychology of evil. They insist that "there's no such thing as a bad boy" and they keep trying to tie the can of crime to the tail of "society" while the young punks smirk and hone their switch blades.

We will go along with this philosophy to a certain degree. We believe that there is no such thing as a boy who was, as the old saying goes, "born bad," but we do believe that without proper guidance, many "good" boys and girls become liabilities of society, and we also believe that a firm hand can, at the proper time, help to straighten the youngsters and keep them traveling the path to useful and productive citizenship.

But what type punishment is best in these situations? Certainly, no one knows for sure. But when all else fails, we wonder if clipping of duck-tail cuts and humiliation might not be the order of the day. We believe that the glamour should be taken out of misdeeds and crimes when brought to the attention of the court. We also believe that in some cases, the rules of secrecy should be junked, allowing the press to name names. In short, the courtroom doors should be open to the public, and parent of wild youngsters suffer the humiliation of being identified with the misdeed and crime. This, of course, only as a last resort, and in those cases that cannot be corrected by other methods.

When giving a juvenile one more chance . . . and we most always do . . . as Judge of Deaf Smith County's Juvenile Court, I do not give the youngsters a speech about the Flag and George Washington. I have a shorter one. "The next time you appear before me, a more drastic measure will be used." They generally get the message.

Of course, most delinquents are referred to the Juvenile Court by law enforcement officers and other officials, but there are cases when an alleged delinquent child is referred to the Court by parent, who very frankly admits that he or she is unable to exercise the proper discipline and demand the respect for authority from the child. You may feel that this is admission of failure on the part of the parent if they have to resort to the court for help, but it is my contention that, if parents are capable of recognizing their ineffectiveness in exercising authority and are will to seek the help of the Juvenile Court, then a real basis can be formed for helping correct the behavior problems of the child.

Cases of this type are brought into court, and after the court hears all the evidence and facts, the court finds that there might not be a "serious" delinquency problem, and in this type of case it will usually serve for the best interests of the child if some type of probation can be instituted. The court is more or less taking preventative steps in trying to avoid this child's advancing to the point where some serious type delinquency will develop.

I would say to the parents of Deaf Smith County as well as all other parents. Know where your children are and what they are doing. It is your moral responsibility. You may avoid and get away with the rules of society, but in the hereafter, you will have to answer. Jesus once told a group of people, when speaking of little children. "It is better that you tie a mill stone around your neck and cast yourself into the sea than to cause one of these little ones to go astray."

The following was clipped from one of our major newspapers, and we feel that it is worth repeating at this time:

DEAR READER: The Houston Police Department prepared Ten Easy Rules for Raising a Delinquent. And here they are:

1. Begin at infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way he will grow up to believe the world owes him a living.
2. When he picks up bad words, laugh at him. This will make him think he's cute.
3. Never give him any spiritual training. Wait until he is 21, and then let him "decide for himself."
4. Pick up everything he leaves lying around — books, shoes, clothes. DO everything for him so that he will be experienced in throwing all responsibility on others.
5. Quarrel frequently in his presence. In this way he will not be too shocked when the home is broken later.
6. Give a child all the spending money he wants. Never let him earn his own. Why should he have things as tough as you had them?
7. Satisfy his every craving for food, drink and comfort. Denial may lead to harmful frustrations.
8. Take his part against neighbors, teachers, policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.
9. When he gets into real trouble, apologize for yourself by saying "I never could do anything with him."
10. Prepare for a life of grief. You are bound to have it.

TEXAN IN WASHINGTON

Fisher Claims Population Gain Is Cause Of Poverty

BY TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Birth Control is a subject many congressmen shy away from as political dynamite, but not Rep. Clark Fisher of West Texas.

Fisher contends that dissemination of birth control information would be the most lethal weapon possible in the war against poverty. He elaborated and expanded on his views during House debate on the foreign aid bill.

"Mr. Speaker," he told his colleagues, "the pending foreign aid bill and the antipovertry legislation serve to remind us that these proposed expenditures will be but an exercise in futility unless more is done to curb the booming rate of population increase.

"This would be a good time to review this problem, both at home and world wide.

"Let us think in terms of the cause of our problems, rather than just floundering about in attempting to treat the symptoms."

The quiet-speaking Texan, who is 60 but doesn't look it, and has four grandchildren, then set forth some sobering statistics:

At the present rate of population growth there will be 200 million people in this country in just three years, some 260 million by 1980 and more than 700 million by 2050 — just 35 years hence, if the present rate continues.

The world population is gaining at the rate of 50 million a year, and the rate is increasing because of science. In Ceylon, for example, the mortality rate was slashed 40 per cent in one year by spraying DDT in an antimalarial drive.

If the present rate of growth is continued for 600 years, this would leave every inhabitant of the world with only one square yard to live on.

"It took untold thousands of years to reach the first billion in world population, which was achieved in 1850," Fisher said.

"But look what has happened since, then. The second billion was recorded by 1930; and the third billion required only 30 years. And the fourth billion will require only 15 years."

"Mr. Speaker, it is sheer folly for our government to send foreign aid to underdeveloped countries, ostensibly for the purpose of helping raise the living standards of the poor, unless such aid is accompanied by a program of dissemination of birth control information.

"Otherwise the effort is futile and indeed borders on stupidity."

Panhandle Paragraphs

It seems Muleshoe and Bailey County are at the very bottom of the totem pole so far as completion of the proposed, modern four-lane Highway 84 is concerned. The Muleshoe Journal learned this week that the state highway department does not even expect to let contracts for the work in Bailey county for at least two and one-half years. According to the state highway supervisor for this area, the department today doesn't even have the money to construct that section of the highway running through Bailey County . . . the money was available two years ago when the state first approached the county commissioners with the proposal, but it has been spent in other areas where things moved along a bit faster.

—The Muleshoe Journal

This week has been a week of thrilling adventure for the young — and for all ages it has been a fascinating and enjoyable period of celebration. There is a possibility that some day the Dogie Days will be formulated in story and picture as a part of Dumas and the North Plains history. We who live in the North Plains today are hardly conscious of the fact that history is being made, but every thing that is recorded in the pages of time is a part of history. The splendor of the Golden West as it is embellished in programs, in song and in writings will never die.

Gollehan, and Rene Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brooks, was second runner-up.

—The Castro County News (Dimmitt)

My paragraph about the long-range maps being wrong in saying June would be wetter and cooler than normal was correct at the time. It was written for we had just completed five days of record-breaking heat; but it was entirely incorrect by the time the people on the rural routes received their papers. It started raining Wednesday night and now the whole area is wet. Farmers are hoping for some dry weather so they can get after the weeds which have been growing at a phenomenal rate. One patch of silage sorghum on my place near Fresno has grown a foot.

—Deskins Wells in Wellington Leader

More and more, the average businessman tried to do his job these days in frantic spurts between and around conferences and meetings. The endless pow-wows not only are hard on those who have to attend, but also are murder for those who try to reach the people who are always meeting. It wouldn't be so bad, perhaps, if the conferees could meet, do what they have to do and go back to work. But this is practically impossible for the simple reason that at every meeting there is at least one person who obviously hates to return to work.

—Berle in Denver City Sunday Press

One thing that will make a man forget a passing fancy is something fancier.

THE BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Bindweed farm apparently has heard about the computer machines the television industry is using, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

As I understand it, a lot of people are complaining because the television companies' computer machines are now announcing the results of elections before the elections are over.

They say this is unfair, that a man starting to the polls late in the afternoon and hearing that somebody has already been declared the winner, will stay at home, although I doubt this, as he knows good and well there won't be anything else on television that evening anyway except more election returns.

None the less, some Congressmen want to pass a law prohibiting the machines from announcing their verdict until the polls have closed.

This is an issue which I find it hard to get involved with. I just don't have any feelings toward machines, one way or another. I'm just not emotionally involved, although I'll admit I've said a few unkind things about my tractor when it wouldn't start, which is offset by the fact there have been times when it suited me even better because it wouldn't start. I've never been one to consider a piece of machinery or a human being useless just because neither was out burning up the miles. A man and a machine both ought to be allowed to refuse to budge for no reason at all if the mood strikes.

But back to the election computers. If the television industry's machine can accurately and without fail predict the outcome of an election, just by looking at a few isolated votes, why can't the newspapers perfect a machine that'll predict what the television machine will say?

Then of course television can counter with one that'll predict what the newspaper machine will predict about what the television machine will predict, an so-on, back and forth, until you can be informed how an election will come out five years before it's held.

Obviously, with elections thus pre-determined and pre-announced, there'd be no need for campaign speeches on television and a man could turn on his set and get Wagon Train when Wagon Train is supposed to be on. Or if somebody feels he has to deliver a speech, hook him up to the computer and let him deliver it to it.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Tax-Deductible Clothes Asked By Career Girls

NEW YORK (AP) — A plank sure to win the vote of career girls this election year is one advocating a tax write-off for the stylish wardrobe essential to maintaining their image and therefore their jobs.

Every now and then some smart Congressman wins wild applause from lady constituents with this popular proposal, pointing out that a social hostess' collection of beaded dinner gowns is just as necessary in her work as overalls are to the plumber.

Meanwhile Uncle Sam's tax boys continue to risk the wrath of the distaff side by interpreting the current law as they see it. Recently singer Peggy Lee marched into her regional tax office and plunked a pair of beaded pumps on a collector's desk.

"How could I possibly wear these anywhere but on the stage?" she demanded. But no dice. The shoes were not tax deductible, the performer was told. Nor were her two diaphanous coats with the white fox trim around the bottom.

"Our rule is that if the garment can be worn on the street it is not deductible," explains a spokesman from the New York office. But he admits that the definition of streetwear may differ with the individual tax auditor.

What of starlets who need glamorous garments in which to be seen and photographed in all the best places as a part of a glamorous personality build up?

Most theatrical personalities have two wardrobes, one a working wardrobe for just such purposes, and another for ordinary wear, says the tax representative. Many Hollywood studios provide these "for-show" clothes for stars. The use of each article paid for by the wearers themselves must be substantiated to come off the tax bill.

"It boils down to common sense," the tax man claims. "It is about the same thing as a Wall Street businessman who

Club At Bippus Hears Agent

Mrs. Jean Beene brought the program on frozen foods for the Bippus Home Demonstration Club in their June 16 meeting in the home of Mrs. Charlie F. Burk. In her discussion Mrs. Beene stressed the preparation of home frozen foods and the care of both commercial and home-frozen foods.

Members answered roll call by telling why they liked frozen foods — their simple, easy preparation; the convenience in having a supply on hand quick meals.

Mrs. Jim Bradley presided at the business meeting and presented a report of the last council meeting.

Visitors present were Mary, Charlene, ND Joe Don Weaver; Beverly, Helen and Jeff Bradley.

Members attending this meeting were Mrs. Jack Fortenberry, Mrs. John Hill, Mrs. Jack Weaver, Mrs. Beene, guest-speaker, Mrs. Bradley, and Mrs. Burk, the hostess.

Mrs. Elmo Hall will be hostess at the next meeting, June 24.

wears a derby and a gaudy blazer for publicity purposes instead of his usual conservative pin stripe suit. It's obvious he wouldn't wear that thing all the time, so the matter of tax deduction is no problem."

Still, some society editors, fashion coordinators, and social hostesses fail to understand why their necessarily more elaborate wardrobes do not fall under the heading of legitimate business expense simply because they look like anything any chic woman would wear anyway.

But ladies always are hard to convince. The New York tax office remembers fondly the adamant wife who took her case to the Supreme Court before she was satisfied that her husband's long Johns, worn under his policeman's uniform, were not tax deductible even though he might have frozen to death without them.

The justices ruled that what, if anything, is worn under the working uniform is a purely personal matter.

Nova 6-Passenger Station Wagon

CHEVY II by Chevrolet

If you thought Chevy II was thrifty before, you should see your Chevrolet dealer now

You couldn't pick a better time to buy one! Wagons, Sedans, Sporty Sport Coupes. Take your pick. They're all tightwads.

The Nova wagon for instance, like all the Chevy II's, adjusts its own brakes. It's got a Delco-tron generator to lengthen a battery's life. The engines are real gas scoogers. And the rocker panels take in rain water to flush themselves free of rust-causing elements.

FOR THE GREAT HIGHWAY PERFORMERS

Inside the Nova wagon, where you can seat six anglers with tackle boxes, there's deep-tuft carpeting surrounded by vinyl that's as washable as tile. Behind that, a storage area with as much room as the insides of seven good-sized refrigerators.

Your Chevrolet dealer has many more details that may interest you. Why don't you two get together and make some vacation plans.

24-Hour Patrol Ordered By DPS For Route 66

In a summer program to benefit the increased number of motorists traveling Highway 66 during the summer months, Captain J. W. Blackwell, of the Texas Highway Patrol, has announced inauguration of 24-hour patrol service for this transcontinental highway.

State police and engineering departments of seven states are cooperating in the joint enforcement and engineering study during the months of June, July and August.

In addition to the enforcement and engineering study that will be made to arrive at a formula to determine the number of police required to adequately patrol four lane interstate highways, the program is primarily designed as an aid to motorists, not only affecting highway safety, but making their trips more pleasant. Patrol cars will be equipped with all facilities to handle most emergency situations, Captain Blackwell has emphasized.

In each of the states of California, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Missouri and Illinois as well as Texas, a special detail of select patrolmen has received specialized training to carry out the details of the program which has been designated "Project 66." The state's efforts will be coordinated by the Federal Bureau of Public Roads and the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

An extra effort will be directed toward thorough investigation of an ever-increasing number of one-vehicle accidents. Patrolmen assigned to the "Project 66" study will complete a more comprehensive than usual investigation form which organizes information in suitable fashion for transcribing on punch cards. Records will also be kept as to what type of trouble motorists in distress have in order to prevent future breakdown.

Tests Proving Newer Varieties Of Wheat Best

COLLEGE STATION, — Important contributions are being made to stabilize wheat production and farm income by the outstanding test weight of new varieties of wheat. These varieties have been developed by the small Grain Section of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Crockett, Tascosa and Caddo wheat varieties have produced an average test weight ranging from 2 to 4 pounds per bushel greater than varieties grown 10 to 20 years ago. This has resulted in the grower receiving No. 1 wheat prices most seasons. Normally No. 1 wheat sells from 3 to 10 cents more than No. 2 wheat which means an additional return of $3.00 each 100 bushels.

Comparative tests in Texas over an 8-year period gave an average test weight of 61.5 for Caddo, Tascosa and Crockett while Comanche, Tenmarq and Turkey averaged 58.5 pounds per bushel in the same tests.

The Tascosa and Caddo varieties have also proved desirable due to their nonshattering characteristic. Tascosa has repeatedly withstood severe hail storms with less damage than other commercial varieties. Thus it has been widely adopted in the Southern High Plains where some counties seed more than 75 percent of their acreage to this variety.

Tascosa was developed by I. M. Atkins and J. B. Porter, TAES researchers, and released as recently as 1958. It was grown on more than 300,000 acres in 1963.

Flower Judge's Name In Error

A correction in the list of National Flower Show Judges from Amarillo serving at the recent Hereford Garden Club Flower Show is announced by Mrs. A. L. Manjeot, club publicity chairman.

Mrs. G. T. Holliday, instead of Mrs. Guy Owens, should be named with the Amarillo flower judges who rated exhibits.

In 1964, New York state received $24,159,296 from harness racing at Yonkers Raceway. The city of Yonkers received $1,960,834.

These Prices Good Thru Wed., June 24th In Hereford, Texas

See for yourself why you get so much more!

- 1 Note the large proportion of lean meat to fat and bone. We never "rob" a chuck roast of lean meat (as some do) to be sold as boneless beef at a higher price.
- 2 There's bone, of course, but it's carefully trimmed. Grandma tells us that the juices which flow through the meat from the bone help give pot roasts their perfect flavor.
- 3 Just enough fat is left on a Safeway chuck roast to make sure it will cook tender, flavorful and juicy and have that rich brown color you want in your pot roasts.
- 4 It's cut from USDA Choice Beef. Only beef judged by expert U.S. government graders to be of fine-eating quality is awarded this high grade.
