(EDITOR'S NOTE: The 75th anniversary of Deaf Smith County occurs in October. At the prompting of the John B. Rogers Co. of Ohio, a group of Hereford's more active citizens are contemplating a gala anniversary celebration, including an extensive historical pageant. Samuel Grogg, Rogers vice president, is to return to Hereford Wednesday to make his company's proposal. Grogg also handled the preliminaries for Tulla, which plans a similar series of events in July. A Swisher County insurance man gives his reaction to the project.)

(Special To The Brand)
TULLA — Swisher County residents have drawn up a total budget of about $27,000 for their July 12-17 celebration of the county's 75th birthday.
Harry Reeves, Tulla insurance man who heads local planning of the celebration, says this is the amount of money expected to flow through the hands of a non-profit corporation handling the business end.

About one-fourth of the amount, or $6,700, will go the John B. Rogers Co. of Fostoria, Ohio, which is serving as a technical aide to the whole celebration and furnishing a resident manager and props and equipment for a four-day pageant.
BIG CELEBRATIONS are nothing new to Tulla, Reeves said. Last year, the county celebrated Birthday No. 74 with an $18,000 blowout which headlined the Blue Angels, the U.S. Navy precision flying team.
"We have had, for 75 years, a celebration of some kind," said Reeves.

But never has the county contemplated a celebration on such a scale as that drawn up by the Rogers Co. Reeves enthusiastically endorses the company's celebration outline so far. "They have suggested things that we would never think of, that have never been heard of down here," he says.
A NON-PROFIT corporation was already in existence for community activities — the Swisher County Activities Association — and it is the legal vehicle being used to stage the event. Normally, it handles county-wide picnics, fatstock shows and county fairs.
Reeves, though only a member of the association and not an officer, agreed to chairman the July celebration.
He is under no illusions about the time it will require.
"It is going to take some effort from a lot of people," he said. "The seven division chairmen will probably have the roughest job. One of the letters of recommendation said that it is nearly a full-time job for these seven people for the last six weeks."

REEVES SAID the Tulla residents wrote about 15 other towns where the Rogers Co. had worked, ranging from Crosbyton and Fort Stockton in Texas into Wyoming. "Without exception every one of the letters that I got back said it would work, it would make money if you did exactly what they told you," said Reeves.
Three hundred persons will be involved in the pageant, which Reeves says is a minor part, actually, of the celebration. He said the Rogers people claim the pageant will require only about six hours of rehearsal per person over a six-week period. It will be staged at the high school football field.

MONEY TO underwrite the celebration will be subscribed by the sales of "membership shares," Reeves said, a system which has been used, apparently without legal repercussions, by other Texas communities.

Signs That Spring Has Sprung!

Can Mother Nature read the calendar... or is she the calendar? Such questions are merely so much scientific rhetoric when the lilacs burst out in purple rage, the days grow longer and the young of the animal world spread four spindly legs and give the world a test. Myra Botkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Botkin of Frio, took a deep breath Tuesday and surmised that, yes, indeed, a new season is in flower. (Staff Photos by Larry Fuhrmann and Wain Miller)

For Gun Range City May Relent On Airport Use

Alternate Site Eyed Off US 60

By DUDLEY LYNCH
News Editor

A potential crack appeared Monday night in the city's previously firm stance against leasing unused fringes of the airport property to non-aviation enterprises.
The issue, involving a request from the Hereford Gun Club for a trap shooting range, is still to be settled.
FOUR COMMISSIONERS, including two new members, toured the suggested location on the west side of the airport Tuesday morning.
The U.S. Hwy. 60 lease application by the gun club, an organization of about 40 members formed in November, drew outright opposition from commissioner Lloyd Sharp, a hold-over council member, at one point during the three-hour meeting Monday.
Commissioner Albert Maxwell, also a hold-over member, concurred in Sharp's comments.
"This is a hard decision for us to make," Sharp told a three-man delegation from the club.
"IN THE PAST there have been a few requests turned down to put things on the airport. And if we pass this we are going to have to give equal consideration to other uses if we are going to be fair about it. Now I sure hate to have to express that view, but that is the way I feel about it."
Mayor Ray Cowser then suggested he would "be more receptive" to locating the trap shooting range on the west side.
"I'm sure the boys would go along with that west side location if it met with the approval of the city," answered Delbert Bainum, one of the club representatives.
THE COMMISSION appeared more favorable to the request from this point.
Other highlights of the meeting:
● Low bids for a six-plane "T"-hangar, to be built with twin-engine craft especially in mind, a water well and four police cruisers were accepted. A decision on a utility tractor for ash removal at the new city incinerator was delayed.
● City Manager Dudley Bayne recommended — and the commission endorsed his view with a declaration of intent — that the city annex about 90 acres of property on Hereford's north side. Roughly, the area would include all property between Ave. K and U.S. Hwy. 385 south of 15th St. and some isolated tracts north of 15th St. near Ave. K.
● Bayne revealed that the city's campaign to collect past due taxes has resulted in $10,363.57 in revenues since November. Still out and considered collectible are some $18,000 to $20,000 in laggard assessments. City Atty. Earnest Langley is expected to file several suits shortly.

OPENS FRIDAY 2-Day Highway Meet Scheduled

The International Parks Highway Association, the booster club for U. S. Hwy. 385 and others, will stage its annual convention here Friday and Saturday.

GROUP'S BIRTH Lawrence Made 1st Trip In '51

In 1951, Guy Lawrence traveled several thousand miles with a group of similarly progressive-minded residents of towns along a relatively straight but profusely marked route from Mexico to Canada.
They went by chartered bus, starting in the Big Bend's arid expanses in deep West Texas. Pushing northward, they traversed the whole of the nation's Great Plains country, ending their travels in Regina, Saskatchewan.
"We stopped in each town, talked to newspaper, chambers of commerce, anyone that was interested in what we wanted to do," says Lawrence, a service station operator here.
"THAT WAS THE start of getting our (U.S. Hwy.) 385."
For the past five years, Lawrence has served as first vice president of the organization formed to champion a single number for an international highway system across the Great Plains.
With that original goal largely (but not wholly) accomplished, the International Parks Highway Association now is grandly but still vaguely thinking of a "385" system from the equator to the Arctic Circle.
THE PRESENT obstacle, says Lawrence, is a two-state segment marked U.S. Hwy. 85 that picks up where U.S. 385 ends in mid-South Dakota and runs to the Canadian border. Otherwise, See IPHA'S Page 2

Residents of more than 70 communities located along the highway network from Big Bend National Park to deep into Saskatchewan are members of the association.
Chamber of commerce officials here dropped their estimate of anticipated visitors from 100 to 75 early this week, however, because of a lag in reservations.
HEADQUARTERS will be the Hotel Jim Hill.
Hereford was host to the convention in 1960, a three-day affair with a side trip to Palo Duro Canyon and other attractions. This year's convention schedule is more subdued at the request of the association's membership.
The April date of the convention also is a change; previously meetings have been held in the summer. The switch was made because the summer dates usually found association members in the midst of the tourist season.

SATURDAY Election Slated On Herd Laws For Precinct 3

Qualified voters in Precinct 3 go to the polls Saturday to determine the fate of a proposed herd law which would ban loose livestock.
Actually, two proposals are involved. The first would determine whether cattle would be permitted to run at large in the precinct. The second is a catch-all involving horses, mules, jacks, jennets, donkeys, hogs, sheep and goats.
THE OTHER THREE precincts in the county have laws prohibiting uncontrolled livestock. The laws place responsibility upon owners of stock to keep them off public and private property of individuals other than the animals' owner.
BALLOTING will be at the Walcott School and at the Herbert Schmidt residence. Polls See TWO, Page 2

Migrant Health Problems Aired

Applicants for a $27,000 U. S. Public Health Service grant for a migrant health center here were told Monday night that the request would have to be approved by the County Medical Society before it would be considered.
The information came out of a joint session with four public health officials, representatives of St. Joseph's Hospital, two physicians of the Hereford Clinic and the Castro County health officer.
It was St. Joseph's Hospital, a facility at the labor camp, and Dr. Lena Edwards, who is the hospital's only doctor, that requested the funds to set up a three-county health center to meet medical care, disease prevention and sanitation needs for migrants.
THE HEALTH officials here for Monday night's meeting were Dr. J. Robert Lindsay, chief, migrant health branch of the PHS, Washington, D.C.; Dr. Clarence Brumback, director, West Palm Beach County Health Department, Fla.; Dr. Charles Scotino of the Texas Department of Health, migrant health project, and Willard G. Olsen, regional migrant health representative of the PHS, Dallas.
The other two Hereford physicians that conferred with the visitors were Dr. C. E. Rush, county medical officer, and Dr. Roy J. Grubbs.
"Dr. Rush said the meeting "cleared the air somewhat of some of the things that we may have had some reservations on" and brought agreement "that we do need to have something to See CONFEREES Page 2

WELCOME INTERNATIONAL PARKS HIGHWAY ASSOCIATION

CITY TO ANNEX 90 ACRES ON NORTH SIDE

Lloyd Sharp Named Mayor Pro Tem

Sharp, an insurance agency owner, was elected mayor pro tem by unanimous vote of the commission.

An ordinance was ordered drawn which would prohibit driving on city parks and the John Pitman golf course. The move was aimed specifically at stopping indiscriminate motoring around the edges of the golf course.

The most time-consuming topic during the meeting, one of the commission's longer ones in the last six months, was the gun club application.

Again speaking for the club were Joe Lyons, Delbert Bainum and James Higgins, the three that first approached the commission on April 5.

THEN, THEY presented drawings of a trap shooting layout, comprising shooting pads, restrooms and traps — the nucleus of what they outlined as a project which would eventually include a clubhouse and storage areas.

The location they sought was just to the northeast of the airport access road off U.S. Hwy. 80.

In again approaching the issue Monday night, Mayor Cowsert said the biggest objection he had would be the location of buildings close to the highway, an area which the city wished to keep clear.

"Isn't there some other place you guys can put it?" the mayor asked.

BAINUM ANSWERED that the northwest corner of the airport would be feasible — perhaps even preferable, he added.

It was then that Sharp made his comment, noting that the city has turned down a number of requests for use of airport property. (These have included go-kart, model car and drag racing, cattle feeding, restaurants and locations for signs.)

The mayor then commented he would be more receptive to the west side location. Maxwell said he would, too, Sharp added, "It looks like it would be a better spot."

JOE EASLEY, attending his first commission meeting as a member (as was R. P. Barnard), said he is an active shooter and would consider the club an asset. He said he had checked with Olin Parris of Whiteface Aviation, which operates the airport on lease from the city. "He was quite receptive to it," Easley said.

The commission then closely questioned the trio on equipment, charges, reasons for wanting to leave their present location and on methods of supervision.

Bayne asked for more details on the type of restrooms planned. Lyons, upon questioning, admitted they would be outdoor privies but said they would be attractively built, similar to those used at Buffalo Lake.

THE CITY MANAGER smiled and remarked they would still be "an architect's outhouse."

Cowsert suggested the commission view the proposed location Tuesday morning. Commissioner Sharp said he had toured the area Monday afternoon and declined to go Tuesday.

Bayne said, in making his annexation proposals, that the move would give the city zoning control over the property which is being surrounded by housing developments, most of which are in the $10,000 to $18,000 range.

The city has extrajurisdictional jurisdiction over property abutting the city only in matters considered a threat to health, such as odors, smoke pollution and sanitation.

ANNEXATION OF the scattered 90 acres will be carried out under state law which allows a municipality to involuntarily take in during a year up to 10 per cent of its area as of January 1.

Getting the construction job for the airport hangar was Pearch Bros. of Hereford. The firm quoted an $11,724 price for a pipe frame building, a type on which only one other of the six participating companies bid. The other five also listed bids on a prefabricated building.

Bayne recommended that the city collect all rental fees from the hangar. (Under the airport contract renewed for a year at the last meeting rental fees from the current hangar facilities go to Whiteface Aviation.) Fees will be used to defray the hangar's construction costs.

The commission agreed. BUT NO DECISION was reached on the level of rental charges for the hangar, although a monthly twin fee of $40 and a $25 fee for single engine planes were suggested by Bayne.

City Atty. Langley noted that the new hangar will be an open type. The present hangars are enclosed. Charging the same $25 fee for an open hangar might cost the city rentals, Langley suggested, whereas a $5 reduction could induce some owners to use the city-administrated hangar.

Barnard countered that this would, in effect, put the city in competition with Whiteface Aviation.

Mayor Cowsert suggested that the question be tabled for further study.

Stephens-Hudson Motor Co.

was awarded the contract for four 1965 four-door Ford sedans on a low bid of $3,969.72. Other bidders were Dishman-Hale, Plymouths, $4,990; and Orsborn Chevrolet, Biscaynes, $4,144.20.

REDELL WATER Well Service got the contract for a water well at the city dump ground with a bid of $1,514.29. Walco Drilling Co.'s quotation was $1,565.

Four Hereford firms submitted bids on the utility tractor, but the requirement of a shuttle transmission (a simple back-forward shift that eliminates searching for positions) led to the postponement of a decision.

The low bid was that of H&W Implement ($2,675.35) but Bayne said the tractor, because it lacked a shuttle transmission, did not meet specifications.

THE APPARENT low bidder meeting the city's requirements was Hays Implement with a figure of $2,739.18. Other bidders were Wes-Tex Equipment, $3,834.36; and Kemp Tractors, $2,787.93.

Thirty one errors in the city tax roll were corrected by action of the commission.

Two members of veterans organizations appeared to request use of parking meter poles for about 15 occasions during the year when they put up flags on downtown streets. They will have to set up the poles, however, since parking meters have been taken out.

Bayne said this would be permissible.

In other action, the commission agreed to the transfer of all city prisoners for more than one day to the county jail, to the installation of intersection street lights on 14 blocks of Thirteenth St., and to a counterproposal by Reinauer and Sons packing company to pay half of a $1,725 bill for dredging Tierra Blanca Creek behind their property.

Political Remapping May Hurt Acreage Prospects

DR. GOHLKE SAID that the foundation is also conducting extensive research on leaf spot and cercospora, a leaf parasite; however, the dry conditions which prevailed last year prevent conclusive findings.

Witherspoon, who serves the association as secretary and attorney, warned that congressional reapportionment on the state and national levels "may hurt our chances for expanded beet acreage for this area."

HE EXPLAINED: "I am afraid that the redistricting of state and national legislators will mean that we will have less influence in our capitals."

"Therefore, it behoves us as sugar beet growers to have a strong and active organization . . . and it is important that we always be ready to join forces with other groups which share our interests."

The Hereford attorney pointed out that most other beet producing areas in the nation increased their acreage in 1963 to counteract the high sugar costs of 1962.

"We find ourselves with a one-year supply of sugar in storage at the present time," he said.

AS A RESULT, he continued, all growing areas with the exception of the Holly Sugar Co. district here must cut their acreage by 12 per cent this year and another 12 per cent in 1966. He said that the 24,700-acre base total for the district (including Deaf Smith, Parmer and Castro counties in Texas, and Curry County, N. M.) would not be changed through 1966.

"But after that, we may have to participate with the other growers in the nation in a cut-back," Witherspoon commented.

AND AT THE same time, the processing facility here has a capacity which can handle half again as many beets as were produced last year, he reminded.

Therefore, it is important that growers continue their efforts to expand beet production, both by increased acreage and higher efficiency, he said.

Both Witherspoon and Marsh urged continued efforts by beet growers to stimulate sale of Holly Sugar in the area. This would reduce freight and storage costs "and put more money in your pockets," Witherspoon asserted.

NEXT, MEMBERS of the board of directors discussed current activities and goals of the group. The board is comprised of Raymond Higginbotham, Jay Boston, S. L. Garrison, Daniel Larsen, H. C. (Hank) Williams, Austin Rose Jr., all of the Hereford area; and Pete Davis of Clovis.

Boston reported on activities of a meeting held recently in San Antonio, where federal officials discussed fair labor prices for migrant farm workers included in the Sugar Act.

"There could be a problem here this year," Boston said, "but there may not be."

HE EXPLAINED that apparent consensus at the meeting which saw testimony from both migrant labor representatives and farmers — indicated that higher wages may be ordered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Boston added that shortage of housing may cause some crews to decide against returning here this summer. "Last year we had more laborers than we needed," he reminded, "but this year could be a problem along that line."

district which would separate the state from other sugar beet areas in labor regulations. "Our problems here are different and the cost of the living for the migrant workers is lower than in other parts of the nation."

IN A QUESTION-and-answer period which followed the meeting, farmers took the opportunity to make some suggestions concerning harvesting and delivering beets to the Merrill E. Shoup plant here.

The board members assured farmers that they would take suggestions to company officials.

In answer to a question, Witherspoon hinted at the possibility that additional beet acreage might be made available "if we can continue to produce outstanding yields and sugar content as we did last year."

He explained that Holly officials might consider transferring acreage from older producing areas to Hereford in view of efficiency achieved by local farmers.

2 Bands Slate Concerts Today

Hereford's junior and senior high bands will stage a "Sweepstakes Concert" at 7:30 p.m. today in the high school auditorium.

The two 90-member bands, still fresh from their "Sweepstakes" performances at University Interscholastic League events recently, will present an hour-and-a-half program of music ranging from classical to jazz.

PROCEEDS FROM the concert will be used to help pay expenses for the Hereford High School Band's upcoming trip to the Buccaneer Music Festival in Corpus Christi.

Tickets may be obtained at the box office, according to Ben Golehon, high school band director. Soloists and ensembles from both the high school and Stanton Junior High School bands will be spotlighted in the program.

The bands will present their award-winning renditions of numbers performed at the UIL contests.

FEATURED SOLOIST with the high school band will be Jerry McCathern, who will present a trumpet solo with full band accompaniment. Also featured on the program will be a clarinet solo by Charles Bell, former high school band director, with accompaniment from the band.

A trumpet trio comprised of Don Maxwell, Bryan Knox, and David Brink — all members of the Stanton Junior High Band — is also included in the variety program.

THE JUNIOR high band, directed by Clyde Wilson, will present several pop selections in addition to its contest numbers. The high school band and the high school mixed choir will participate in the Buccaneer Music Festival at Del Mar College in Corpus Christi.

The groups will leave Hereford next Wednesday aboard chartered buses, returning Sunday.

Only the top 100 or so bands and choirs in the state are invited to compete in the highly-rated contests.

Rummage Sale Set For Choir

A rummage sale with proceeds aimed at helping to finance the Hereford High School Mixed Choir's trip to Corpus Christi next week has been set for Friday and Saturday.

Mothers of choir members will direct the sale, which is billed as offering good used clothes and other items.

The sale will be conducted at 232 North Main, in the former Hereford Parts and Supply building. Hours will be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on both Friday and Saturday.

IPHA's Theme: Promote 385, Says City Man

(Continued from Page 1) the "385" markers span the whole of the highway network within the U.S. — a massive accomplishment when it is considered that 18 different highway route numbers were involved in the merger.

Why hasn't the association been able to get the U.S. 85 route changed?

"Politics," snaps Lawrence, sitting in his Texaco station on E. First St., a site from which Lawrence has done business for 20 years.

ASKED WHAT THE prospects are for overcoming the parochial balk, he replies: "Your guess is as good as mine. That's one of our major projects."

Lawrence, a resident of Hereford since 1928, says that the government of Saskatchewan has officially approved the designation "385" from the border northward to Regina as soon as the U.S. routes U.S. 385 to Fortuna, N.D., the northern U.S. terminal of the highway.

Moreover, Lawrence continues, the Saskatchewan highway people have given "favorable answers" to putting the "385" tag on the rest of the northward route from Regina to the road's end at Churchill River in far north Saskatchewan.

"BUT THERE IS no reason to pursue that until the other part of the route is changed," Lawrence said.

The membership totals of the association are hard to determine, the Hereford man says, because some communities, like Hereford, with more than one major highway, combine their participation in the promotional associations into a package deal.

But, Lawrence added, pointing to a mileage chart drawn up by the association, there are 73 towns between Big Bend and Missinipee, Saskatchewan, that have businessmen-members.

One of the route's biggest bottlenecks has been eliminated, he proudly points out, the final touches being added in the last few days. The problem was a narrow bridge, located across the Beaver River in Oklahoma.

A NEW BRIDGE with a load limit commensurate with the highway's needs was opened last week, he said.

Only a tortuous, in-city route through one of the Texas communities on the highway remains as a major travel obstacle, he asserts.

Lawrence, who says he has motored over virtually the whole highway system served by the association four times and traveled major segments of it numerous other times, speaks with enthusiasm of the sights along the way.

"There are more parks on 385 than any other road in the U.S.," he says unabashedly. "Largest herd of buffalo is right on this road. Mt. Rushmore. Have you ever been to Mt. Rushmore? If you were to drive up there blind-folded and didn't see anything but Mt. Rushmore the trip would be well worth your while."

He has averaged about 15 to 20 days per year serying as the association's second ranking officer and, though he dismisses the subject as inconsequential, has been backed repeatedly for president.

But he privately indicates that he feels the president should be from a community closer to the Dakotas until the issue of U.S. 85 is settled.

Conferees Agree Migrant Health Program Needed

BUT THE LIMITED support — confined largely to St. Joseph's board of directors — that the current application mustered is not sufficient to satisfy either the Public Health Service or the Deaf Smith County Medical Society, he said.

It was agreed Monday night, Dr. Rush continued, that "the whole community" should be made aware of the need for another approach to migrant health care and that the other doctors of the medical society should be informed of the plans for such care.

"I believe it would be a good idea to rework the application," Dr. Rush said. "If this was done with the collaboration of the county medical society and that of a larger representation of organizations, both religious and secular, and individuals, then the county's doctors might look favorably at it, he said."

Dr. Rush said the public health visitors briefed the Hereford and Dimmitt group on other migrant health approaches tried around the nation as well as in Texas.

MOST OF THOSE in Texas, the doctor said, have been built around a county health officer who works full-time at that function. In this area, the need has not been sufficient to justify a full-time health officer. Nor is there a doctor here that could take such a job because of other duties, he said.

The public health visitors were told that the county society would frown on federal controls. But, as Dr. Rush explained, the migrant problem has been recognized as one in which no one local community should be made totally responsible because of the transitory nature of the workers.

Students Here To FHA Meeting

Eleven students and three sponsors leave today for a two-day convention of Future Homemakers of America in Dallas.

Two of the students, Linda Loerwald and Linda Pulliam, will be recipients of state degrees to be presented Friday afternoon.

Others making the trip will be Jana Cole and Retha Kelley, incoming presidents; Claudia Loerwald and Ann Mercer, high point girls; Susan Bradley and Mary Ruth Weaver, high point girls from the Little Sister Chapter; Carolyn Boynton, area officer and Rene Batard and Michlyo Wakal, exchange students.

Sponsors are Mrs. J. J. Durham, Mrs. Frank Prowell and Mrs. Joe Bradley, homemaking teachers.

One-Car Mishaps Place 3 Persons In Hospital

A joy ride by a group of youngsters, a driver who apparently went to sleep at the wheel, and a flat tire resulted in three separate one-car accidents here this week.

Three persons were hospitalized. An Amarillo man escaped injury about 10:30 a.m. Wednesday when a flat on the right rear of his pickup caused him to lose control of the vehicle.

HIGHWAY PATROLMEN said Kenneth Dale Smith, 21, of Amarillo, lost control of the pickup, which was towing a trailer, when a tire went flat and then another tire blew out as a result of the strain.

The pickup and trailer swerved from the westbound lane, crossed the median, and came to rest on the eastbound traffic lane, facing west. It did not turn over, but an estimated $250 in vehicle damage resulted. Smith, who was alone, was not injured.

The mishap occurred about seven miles east of Hereford. One man was hospitalized early Tuesday morning when his pickup ran into a ditch near Summerfield.

Treated for severe head lacerations and other injuries was James Buford Ackley, 29, of Panhandle.

HE WAS TO BE RELEASED Wednesday from Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Investigating Highway Patrolman Charles Moore said the pickup driven by Ackley left the right side of the roadway as it was traveling east.

It crossed over FM Road 1867

at its intersection with U.S. Hwy. 69 and slammed into the embankment on the east side of 1867. The pickup did not overturn, but swapped ends after hitting the embankment, Moore said.

Ackley, who was not wearing a seat belt, apparently hit his head against the roof of the cab, Moore added, causing the lacerations.

THE INVESTIGATOR said Ackley apparently went to sleep at the wheel.

A 14-year-old girl and an 11-year-old boy were hospitalized following another one-car mishap, which occurred shortly after 8 p.m. Saturday at the city limits east of Hereford near U.S. Hwy. 69.

Investigating Highway Patrolman Joe Waggoner said the crash climaxed an excursion by six youngsters.

DRIVER OF THE 1964 Dodge

was Penny Young, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Young of 106 Ave. I. She suffered the loss of three teeth and was also treated for lacerations.

Also injured was Charles Cogdell, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cogdell of 915 Park Ave. Cogdell was treated at Deaf Smith County Hospital and then taken to an Amarillo hospital for surgery in connection with a skull fracture.

The accident occurred as the auto failed to make a turn from Forrest St. onto Progressive Road, investigators said. The auto traveled across the road and slammed into a tree.

Miss Young was released Monday. The Cogdell youth remained in St. Anthony's Hospital, Amarillo, Wednesday. He was listed in good condition.

Three other youngsters in the car sustained only minor lacerations, investigators said.

ment on the day of the shooting because the buildings were being sold.

MRS. PETREE is survived by her son, Leroy Aldridge of Lufkin; a sister, Mrs. John Vines of Hereford; and three brothers, Welch Hanna of Amarillo, Maccon Hanna of Turkey, and Guy Hanna of Memphis.

Petree is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Levada Brownfield of Okmulgee, Okla.; Mrs. Magdalena Hancock of Camel, Okla.; Mrs. Deana Euton of Broken Arrow, Okla.; and Mrs. George Kroot and a sister of Indianapolis, Ind.; a son, William V. Petree of Okmulgee; seven brothers, two sisters, and 16 grandchildren.

Officiating at services was the Rev. Ronald Harpster, pastor of the Avenue Baptist Church. Burial was in Restlawn Cemetery under direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

THE SIRENS would be used to warn of approaching tornadoes or other disaster dangers.

Because the area's tornado season — April, May, and June — has arrived, officials reminded residents what signals to listen for in case danger threatens.

A three-minute continuous blast of the sirens would mean that the city has been placed under a tornado alert, meaning that funnels or tornadoes have been spotted in the Hereford area.

THE "TAKE COVER" signal would be a oscillating wail of the sirens — an on-and-off wail varying in pitch and loudness. It would last for some three minutes and mean that a tornado is about to strike the city.

When it sounds, residents should take shelter in storm cellars or other protected places immediately, officials said.

In Monday morning's tests, persons in houses in the outlying areas of the city reported difficulty in hearing the sirens.

This was particularly true in the areas near Northwest School, Aikman School, and the area south of the golf course, officials said.

Funeral Rites Held Tuesday For Two Victims In Ave. B Shooting

Funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. William E. Petree of 117 Ave. B, who died Saturday of gunshot wounds, were conducted Tuesday in the Avenue Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Petree were found shot about 3:20 p.m. Saturday in the apartment building which they had managed for the past nine years.

Mrs. Petree, 62, was found on the porch of the apartment building. She had been shot three times and died some two hours later in Deaf Smith County Hospital.

PETREE, 61, WAS found by police in the living room of the home, dead of a gunshot wound. A pistol was at his feet.

Justice of the Peace C. B. Miles ruled the deaths were apparently a case of murder-suicide.

The couple, who were said to have been in ill health, were to have moved from the apart-

CD Sirens Prove Anemic In Some Sections Of City During Trials

A few weak spots were noted in a test of the city's two Civil Defense sirens Monday morning.

City officials said that residents in the northwestern, northeastern, and southern portions of the city were not able to hear the two sirens, which are located atop City Hall and a block north of Park Ave. between H and I streets.

Four Sentenced On DWI Counts

County Judge H. C. (Hank) Williams passed sentence on four men who pleaded guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated last week.

ALSO SENTENCED to three days in jail and fined $100 and costs was Allen Anderson Walker, 57, of Amarillo. He was charged by city police.

The three persons charged with swindling with worthless check were each fined $1 and ordered to pay court costs and make restitution.

By MELVIN YOUNG

It doesn't seem possible, but there is less than five weeks remaining until the end of the school year.

And we're betting both teachers and students will welcome the change.

The City of Hereford has started the ball rolling on the Variety Park project by removing the parking meters from downtown Hereford. The move has been met with a great deal of enthusiasm from both merchants and shoppers.

Work on the main phase of the project should start soon. No protest had been filed by Tuesday midnight (deadline), according to City Manager Dudley Bayne.

City fathers had hoped to get the Hereford project underway before Littlefield since the same contractor will be doing both jobs. A suit had been filed in Littlefield, but apparently differences were resolved and we presume they'll get rolling right away.

Meanwhile work is continuing on the Sugarland Center north of Hereford, and D. W. Finlan has cleared the property at Grand and 385 where his proposed Grand Avenue Shopping Center will be located.

The new Safeway building, located in the Park Avenue Shopping Center is also progressing nicely and should be completed in the near future.

Wayne Stark, local insurance agent, will probably be a little more careful in the future about putting on license plates.

Wayne purchased plates for his car and pickup at the same time, and gave them to his sons to put on the vehicles.

They did. The pickup plates on the car and the car license on the pickup.

Wayne didn't realize what had happened to him. But he does now. After the puzzled policeman brought it to his attention.

And it looks like the state safety inspection law is going to get a little stiffer. HB 52 to amend the Motor Vehicle Inspection law has passed the state house steering wheels to the law and setting the new fee at $2 per inspection with the local station receiving $1.05 while the state pockets 95 cents. The 95 cents is to be used for driver training in the state.

Local inspection station operators seem to think the bill, (if enacted into law) will require damaged windshields to be replaced.

A. U. S. income-tax law was passed by Congress in 1894. But the Supreme Court ruled it unconstitutional, and we didn't start paying till the 16th Amendment was passed in 1913.

That year the government collected $28 million from 357,000 taxpayers, or an average of $79. Fifty years later Washington was getting $54 billion from 64 million taxpayers, or $850 apiece.

Jaycees Promote TSTA Positions

Sixteen Hereford Jaycees are attending the state convention of that organization Wednesday through Saturday at El Paso and will be introducing a resolution backing the teachers' stand on the pay raise issue.

Mike Wilson, club officer, said the Hereford group hoped to gain state-wide Jaycee approval for the Texas State Teachers' Association stand.

"Our aim is to get each club to write their representatives and express their opinions on the pay raise issue," he said.

Getting the 250-odd Texas Jaycee clubs to get aboard the TSTA bandwagon would be an uphill battle for the Hereford delegation, he asserted.

Membership Changes Proposed For County Program Building Group

Numerous changes in the membership of the Deaf Smith County Program Building Committee were contemplated by members of the group at a session here Monday.

Although no binding action was possible since a quorum was not present — only seven attended — the replacement of many inactive members will be recommended to the executive panel.

Members present at the Community Center session agreed that it was time something be done "to bring new and more active persons" into the workings of the organization.

INCLUDED IN THE proposed changes would be an almost complete rebuilding of the crops, livestock, and vegetable subcommittees.

In addition, the group hoped to enlarge membership of the overall County Program Building Committee to include active representatives from all organized groups within the county, including civic clubs.

SAM MORGAN, chairman of the county program building committee, said that the proposed changes would be presented to the executive panel, which does have authority to take official action on such matters.

A letter of resignation from Mrs. Earl Plank was read. Secretary of the committee for the past two years, she is moving from the county.

Present for Monday's meeting were Mrs. Bess Werner, Mrs. Argen Draper, Justin McBride, Frank A. Bezner, Faust Collier, James Gouddy and Morgan.

Chemical Company Applies Scout Motto To Hurricane Precautions

FREERPORT — Hurricanes like Carla happen only once in 800 years at the same spot, but Dow Chemical Co. is getting set in case the mathematical odds change.

It would be possible for such hurricanes to occur one year after another, and then none hit for 1,600 years, under the mathematical calculations.

At any rate, the Texas division located here is planning to keep operating as long as possible under hurricane conditions.

THE PLAN WAS announced by Dr. Earle B. Barnes, general manager of the Texas division.

All Dow plants were shut down at Freerport during Carla, the vicious 1961 storm that caused 30 deaths in Texas although an estimated half million persons fled inland from the Gulf of Mexico coast. Financial loss was estimated at a half billion dollars.

Dr. Barnes, addressing a superintendents' meeting, said, "We've got 25 years of history behind us, and in this time all of us have built up valuable hurricane experience. We should utilize this knowledge."

DOW OFFICIALS moved swiftly after Carla in making surveys and studies of ways to improve protection for its employees and plants during the hurricane season.

All levee and structure elevations are now at a level that would comfortably protect against a hurricane of Carla's proportion.

In addition to Dow's work in the area, the Corps of Engineers has improved protection for the entire Brazosport area on a scale similar to Dow's.

BARNES TOLD the superintendents: "Other industries, some related to ours and some not, are finding that they can operate safely under adverse conditions."

The Louisiana Division of Dow, for instance, stayed in operation during last year's hurricane and maintained a good level of production, even though the eye of the storm passed right over the plant.

"We visited there right after the storm and picked up some pointers."

"What I'm saying is that we've sought and secured information from all fronts. We've studied it, and adapted it to fit our own operations."

Two Texas Government Leaders Headline WTCC Annual Meeting

ABILENE (Special) — The West Texas Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual meeting in Abilene, April 29-May 1, with two well-known Texas governmental leaders heading a list of speakers — Texas Railroad Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey and Representative W. B. Poague of Waco, District 11 member of Congress since 1936.

Ramsey served 11 years as lieutenant governor of the state. He has been a member of the Railroad Commission since 1961 and has been chairman since 1963. He was elected to a new six-year term on the RRC last year.

A BATTERY of other experts in industrial development, water, economic development, and business-government relations will appear on the three-day program, WTCC President Beeman Fisher of Fort Worth has announced. They will include Dr. John R. Stockton, director of the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas; Hank Avery, mayor of Midland and president of the Texas Municipal League; Dr. Stephen M. Sutherland of the Department of Geography of the University of Oklahoma; and Tom McFarland of Lubbock, general manager of the High Plains Underground Water District.

The Executive Committee of the WTCC will meet during the afternoon of April 29, and the Board of Directors is to meet at 9 a.m. on April 30.

SEVERAL HUNDRED persons are expected to attend the convention in Abilene, Fisher said. Headquarters will be the Windsor Hotel, and the Abilene Chamber of Commerce will be host chamber.

In addition to the speakers who will appear, the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors will take action on a number of business and policy matters submitted by the various WTCC committees; a budget and program of work will be adopted for 1965-66; and officers and directors will be selected for the new operational year.

Herd Evens Season Mark With Win Here

Hereford scored four runs in the fourth inning then coasted to win over Farwell here Tuesday afternoon to even their season record to 7-7-1.

Larry Minks granted five hits to Farwell hitters, but scattered them throughout the game to give the Whitefaces easy control after the third inning for a 6-1 win.

But the first two innings saw Hereford going three-up, three down, as Farwell's Johnny Ackinson started out with deadly aim.

Hereford plays at Bovina Friday, then travels to Clovis for a rematch with Farwell on Tuesday.

The Whitefaces collected six hits here Tuesday, with Lynn Cook booming a double. Charlie Moreno's Texas League looper to right center field brought in two Hereford runs in the fourth inning.

Farwell took a 1-0 lead in the third inning to open scoring, but Hereford quickly countered with two runs in their half of the inning.

Services Today For Mrs. Anna Marie Witkowski

Services for Mrs. Anna Marie Witkowski, 73, 117 Ave. C, are scheduled at 10 a.m. today in St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

Mrs. Witkowski died Tuesday morning in Deaf Smith County Hospital following an illness.

Officiating at services will be Father Angelus. Interment will be in Rest Lawn Cemetery under direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

Born in Nebraska, she married Frank Witkowski at Wichita, Kan., in 1911. The couple moved to Hereford in 1949.

Survivors include her sons, Leo of Hereford and Vernon of Plainview; a daughter, Mrs. M. L. Haven Jr. of Texhoma; two brothers, one sister, eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Friemels To Be Honored On Their Golden Anniversary, Celebration In Umbarger

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Friemel, Umbarger, will honor them with an open house Sunday at St. Mary's Parish Hall in Umbarger from 2 to 4 p.m. This will mark their 50th wedding anniversary.

All the children will be on hand for the open house and be together for the first time in several years.

There will also be a celebration to honor their daughter's 25th jubilee as a Sister of Mercy. She is Sister Mary Madaleva of Slaton.

Friemel has lived in Umbarger since 1901 when he was 11 years old. He was married there in 1915 and he and his wife have lived there since that time, where he farms.

They have seven children: George Friemel, Hawthorne, California; Mrs. Dale Boite, Umbarger; Sister Madaleva, the former Gertrude Friemel; Elmer Friemel, Waco; A. R. Friemel, Umbarger; Mrs. J. W. O'Dell of Borger; and Mrs. Bernard Wilhelm, Umbarger.

Drugs Produce Cautious Hope Against Cancer

EDITOR'S NOTE: This article, about the treatment of cancer with drugs and chemicals, is by Dr. Lowell T. Coggshall, Frederick H. Rawson professor of medicine of the University of Chicago. It is fifth in a six-part series written by past presidents of the American Cancer Society, to coincide with the society's current Cancer Crusade. Dr. Coggshall was ACS president in 1958.

By LOWELL T. COGGSHALL, M.D.
Written for The Associated Press

Of the great advances in medicine during the past three decades, chemotherapy probably has been the most important.

Many new compounds now make it possible to control some of the major killers of the past and, by practically eliminating secondary infection, a whole new competence in medicine and surgery has developed.

At present there are about 35 drugs in physicians' hands which are used for about 40 different kinds of cancer. Possible 200 more are in the advanced stages of testing in human patients on an experimental basis in 150 hospitals. Over 50,000 chemicals are being tested routinely in various types of experimental cancers in animals, particularly in mice, with many varieties exhibiting some anticancer effect.

THE MOST COMMONLY used drugs were classified by the American Cancer Society in 1961 as:

1. Polyfunctional alkylating agents. These compounds prevent the normal function of a cell, thus inhibiting the growth of the cancer. Nitrogen mustard and quinaacrine, an antimalarial compound, are two good examples.

2. The antimetabolites. These are essentially poisons performing as vitamins, amino acids or other essential cellular chemicals, which in essence, entice the cell to absorb it as one of its normal constituents. Methotrexate, for example, is a counterfeit Vitamin B.

3. Isotopes. Touted because of the extraordinary success in the treatment of thyroid cancer with radioactive iodine, which electively goes to that tissue. Attempts to induce other cancerous tissues to selectively absorb lethal radioactive materials have not been so successful.

4. STEROID hormones. A large, ever-expanding group of natural biological substances produced by the endocrine glands, principally sex glands and adrenals, which have been quite useful in slowing down the cancerous process, in some instances for many years.

5. Finally, there is a list of nonrelated compounds which include a plant extract, colchicine, urethane, an anesthetic, arsenic and some of the antibiotics.

Unlike the crash program in nuclear fission which led to the development of atomic energy, there is no specific avenue to follow in cancer chemotherapy which is blocked only by time and funds.

BASIC RESEARCH of a high order of excellence has revealed much about drug action on normal and neoplastic cells. Yet, whether the favorable effects are exerted on the host, the cancer cell, the combination of a variety of variables remains unknown.

If one looks to the future of chemotherapy there are many reasons for conservative optimism.

First and foremost are the enormous contributions of our fund of knowledge about the fundamental aspects of the development and metabolism of the cell. Probably the most important advance in this area is an understanding of the genetic code; this, together with the newer knowledge about the biochemistry and the dynamic processes of cell growth, will make it possible eventually to understand how and perhaps why cancer arises and possibly to discover the right compound that can prevent its occurrence, or uproot it once established.

NEXT, SOME of today's best scientific minds in the country are intensively exploring cancer chemotherapy. Two or three decades ago, relatively speak-

Trailer Burns, Firemen Collide

An unoccupied house trailer on the Frank Day farm, about four miles southeast of Hereford, was destroyed by fire Wednesday morning.

Hereford Volunteer Firemen said the trailer was destroyed before trucks reached the scene. One fireman was slightly injured when his auto hit the rear of a fire truck en route to the fire.

Witnesses said the mishap occurred as the truck, driven by Kenny Wilson, slowed to turn from FM Road 1259 about a half mile southeast of Hereford.

Water which slouched from the truck made the pavement slick, allowing the late-model station wagon driven by Max Stipe, assistant fire chief, to slide into the rear of the truck.

Negligible damage resulted to the fire truck, but damage to the front of the Stipe auto was extensive, according to investigating Highway Patrolman Charles Moore.

Stipe, who was wearing seat belts, suffered only a cup lip from the mishap.

Mrs. M. L. Hardy Dies Wednesday

Services were held Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Mary Hardy, 82, of 330 Ave. B, who died early Tuesday in Deaf Smith County Hospital following a long illness.

She married M. L. Hardy in 1909 in Lubbock. The couple moved to Deaf Smith County 17 years ago from Castro County.

Survivors include her husband, a son, Murphy Hardy of Dimmitt; three daughters, Mrs. Josephine Wood of Muleshoe, and Mrs. Kathleen Butler and Mrs. Johnny Booth, both of Dimmitt; eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Officiating at services was the Rev. H. L. Thurston, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Interment was in Rest Lawn Cemetery. Services were held in Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral Home.

ing, there was little or no research in this field.

Finally, observations are accumulating that anticancer activity is being discovered in a variety of unrelated chemicals and other substances. This in itself leads one to expect that more effective compounds remain to be discovered.

The expectation that a chemical compound will selectively destroy a cancer cell in the midst of normal tissue is no more unreasonable than to have expected that a synthesized compound would be able to destroy a virulent bacterium in the human body or an obnoxious weed in a beautiful lawn.

County Reserves Big Generator

A 70 kilowatt generator has been reserved by county officials at the Texas Surplus Property Agency, Lubbock, until engineers can determine if it is adequate to serve as an emergency power source for the courthouse.

Sheriff Lowell R. Sharp and civil defense director Bill Thompson put a seven-day hold on it Monday.

Thompson said the generator probably cost about $35,000 new but could now be purchased for $250. The courthouse has no emergency power source to keep sheriff's department radios in service if normal power supplies failed.

The Hereford men also purchased 75 mattresses and 15 cots for use in the county jail. Thompson said the materials, bought through Civil Defense channels, saved the county about $225.

INTERESTING HORS D'OEUVRE — An un- roll pan and filled with a creamy liver, sweetened sponge roll is baked in a jelly- spread. (AP Photo)

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Hors D'Oeuvre To Fascinate Cooks

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Once in a while a fascinating recipe that hasn't been worn threadbare comes our way. This unsweetened sponge roll, to be served as an hors d'oeuvre or as a main-course luncheon dish, belongs in this category.

The directions for the roll looked interesting; when we tried it, it proved to be just that. In addition, we found the roll easy to bake and fill even though it has such a professional appearance. If, after its first chilling and serving, some of the roll is leftover, it will stand up well in the refrigerator for several days.

This hors d'oeuvre makes a dozen servings — it's for party fare.

SPONGE ROLL WITH CREAMY LIVER SPREAD

5 large eggs, separated
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon dried crushed thyme
3 tablespoons flour
Creamy Liver Spread
Grease the bottom of a jelly roll pan (15 by 10 by 1 inch); line bottom with wax paper; grease paper. Beat the egg yolks until thickened and a pale yellow color; then beat in salt, thyme and flour until blended. Beat egg whites until they hold stiff straight peaks; fold in. Turn into prepared pan. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until firm to the touch — about 12 minutes. Turn out onto a sheet of wax paper; peel off paper from sponge roll; from the short end, roll up sponge roll in paper; cool. Unroll; spread with Creamy Liver Spread; re-roll; chill thoroughly, preferably overnight. Garnish as desired and slice at serving time. Makes 12 servings.

CREAMY LIVER SPREAD

2 cans (4 3/4 ounces each) liver spread
1 carton (8 ounces) whipped cream cheese
1 can (3 ounces) chopped mushrooms, well drained
2 tablespoons brandy, if desired
Turn the liver spread and whipped cream cheese into a mixing bowl; with a wooden spoon, blend together until completely combined and a uniform color. Stir in the drained mushrooms and, if used, the brandy. Use as a filling for Sponge Roll.

FRIDAY LUNCH

Raw grated carrot combines surprisingly well with sardines. Cream of Spinach Soup
Open Sardine Sandwiches
Applesauce and Gingerbread

OPEN SARDINE SANDWICHES

1 can (3 3/4 ounces) brisling sardines
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
1 scallion, minced (green part included)
Finely grated carrot
8 thin slices whole-wheat bread, buttered
Lift sardines from their oil into a bowl; mash with mayonnaise and scallion; stir in 1/4 cup grated carrot. Spread all the slices of the bread with the mixture; sprinkle with grated carrot. Makes 4 servings — 2 slices per portion.

WEEKDAY LUNCH

BROCCOLI AND POTATO SOUP

1 can (10 1/2 ounces) frozen condensed cream of potato soup
1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup cooked broccoli buds, tightly packed
1/2 cup thinly sliced cooked broccoli stems, tightly packed

Into a medium saucepan, turn the soup just as it comes from the can; gradually stir in 1 cup of the milk. In an electric blender, blend until pureed the remaining 1/2 cup milk with the broccoli buds; add to soup with the sliced broccoli stems. Heat according to directions on soup can. If soup is thicker than you wish, add more milk. Makes 4 servings.

New Date Pudding Beverage

NEW DATE PUDDING

1 1/4 cups unsifted regular flour
1/4 teaspoon baking powder

1/4 teaspoon salt

1 container (10 ounces) diced dextrose-coated dates
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 cup boiling water
1/4 cup butter or margarine
2 large eggs
1 cup coarsely broken walnuts

Grease the bottom of a baking pan (9 by 9 by 1 1/2 inches); line bottom with wax paper; grease paper. On wax paper, stir together the flour, baking powder and salt. Turn dates into a mixing bowl; sprinkle them with the baking soda; add boiling water. Cream butter and sugar; beat in eggs thoroughly, one at a time. Stir in flour mixture, then date mixture and walnuts. Turn into prepared pan. Bake in a slow (300 degrees) oven 1 hour — pudding should shrink from sides of pan. Turn out; remove paper; turn right side up. Serve warm with whipped cream.

NEW YORK — Coeds are forbidden to wear hair curlers and hair clips — "whether or not covered by scarf" — under new dress regulations for campus and classrooms at Queensborough Community College.
Girls attending the institution in Queens also are banned from appearing on campus or in class "wearing shorts, tedor pants, blue jeans, denims, dungarees or slacks — whether or not covered by a coat."

There are dress regulations for male students, too.
Dumont F. Kenny, the college president, said students who come to school in attire that violates the regulations will not be barred from class but their instructors will turn their names over to the student government for action.

REP. ROGERS REPORTS

Hopes Succession Move Meets With Rejection

By WALTER ROGERS
U. S. Representative

The Constitution, article II, section 1, clause 5, reads as follows: "In Case of the removal of the President from Office, or at his Death, Resignation, or Inability to discharge the powers and Duties of the said Office, the same shall devolve on the Vice President, and the Congress may by Law provide for the Case of Removal, Death, Resignation, or Inability, both of the President and Vice President, declaring what Officer shall then act as President, and such Officer shall act accordingly, until the Disability be removed, or a President shall be elected."

THIS IS THE language of the Construction as it was adopted by the Constitutional Convention. It will be noted that the proviso provides no replacement procedure when a vacancy occurs in the office of the Vice President. For many years there has been a continuing debate with regard to the line of succession to the Presidency as to whether or not provision should be made for a Vice President when the elected Vice President becomes President, and on the touchy issue of the meaning of the term "disability," and who is to make the determination. The Congress has undertaken to settle this debate. The Senate has passed a Resolution calling for a Constitutional amendment, and the House passed another one. The vote in the Senate was 72 to nothing. The vote in the house was 368 to 29. I cast my vote with the 29. Needless to say, I was queried endlessly as to my reasons. Here they are:

IN THE FIRST instance, I have great hesitancy in tampering with this document, although struck by the hand of man, was undoubtedly the work of God. Unless there is clear justification beyond any reasonable doubt for tampering with this document, it should not be amended. In the present case, the Congress of the United States is playing with political dynamite. The proof of the bedrock stability of the provisions as they now stand is unchallenged.

On only two occasions in the history of the United States has there been a serious need for the answer to the question of disability. The first of these cases arose in 1881 when President Garfield fell victim of an assassin's bullet and lingered for some 80 days. The other was when President Woodrow Wilson suffered a severe stroke in 1919. On both of these occasions there was much talk and serious questions of action.

HOWEVER, IN BOTH cases no action was taken although it could have been. And it might be well to point out that the Country survived and grew stronger. During the Eisenhower Administrations, an informal agreement was made between the President and the Vice President concerning the duties of the President assuming the duties of the President and standing in a position of Acting president. This, in my opinion, is a rather dangerous proceeding. A President of the United States is elected by the people, as is a Vice President. Neither has the right or the power to traffic in the duties or responsibilities of those offices. In all three cases above mentioned had an extreme emergency situation been created, the Congress of the United States could have acted quickly and decisively without endangering the basic concepts of government "of the people, by the people, and for the people."

THE PRESENT Presidential line of succession is, in my opinion, completely sound. The President and the Vice President are both elected by the people of the entire Country. The next man in line of succession is the Speaker of the House of Representatives who is elected by the people of a Congressional District and in turn elected to the Speakership by the other Members who have been elected in their respective Districts by all of the people of this Country, on a population basis, for 2 years and intended to be Members of the House of Representatives, the body of the Congress closest to the people.

The next man in line of succession is the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, who is elected by all of the people of one of the States and in turn elected by other Senators who have been likewise elected by each State. The line of succession then moves into the area of those previously appointed by the President and holding Cabinet status. If we in this country change this and amend the Constitution as proposed in the Resolution adopted by the House of Representatives, we could very well be opening the door for the creation of a 20th Century Rasputin for constant schemes and plans for power grabs not in keeping with the best interests of our form of government. I hope the legislatures of this great United States will not ratify this amendment.

Parents' Part Is Vital In Child's Good Health

(The parents role in a child's good health? That is the topic of this release from the Texas Department of Health.)

What parent wouldn't insure his child good health for life if he could?

Although no parent can guarantee his child good health always, a parent plays an important role in the health of a child. A parent can teach his child the basic principles of good health. Certain fundamentals, learned early and continued through life, can do a great deal towards promoting the health of the child.

GOOD HEALTH can become a habit. And this is where the parent comes in: teaching his child good health habits early in life.

A habit is an action you've done so often you don't even think about it, you just do it. Help your child develop good health habits.

Hand washing is a fundamental in disease prevention. Teach your child to wash his hands after he visits the toilet. Teach him to wash his hands before he eats.

Little hands — or big ones for that matter — go many places. They may carry out the garbage, handle a fly-swatter, or touch many potential germ sources.

HOT SOAPY water can wash many disease-causing germs off the hands before they enter the mouth and body where they can grow and cause the most harm. Teach your child to make hand washing a habit.

Tooth brushing after meals is important to good dental health. Otherwise, bits of food lodge on and between teeth allowing bacteria to grow and eventually cause decay. Teach your child to rinse his mouth with water if he can't brush his teeth right after eating.

A DAILY BATH and clean clothes are important, too. Hair should be washed often, and combed with your own comb. Head lice are no respecters of persons and can easily travel from person to person on a "borrowed comb."

Borrowing towels, lipstick, or sharing food or drinking glasses is a good way to borrow trouble — or other people's germs.

True, you may neglect to wash your hands one time, or you may skip a bath one day. But remember to teach your children the good health habit.

SOME DIFFERENCE

Futures Trading In Cattle Has Surprising Momentum

COLLEGE STATION (Special) — Futures trading in beef cattle is rocking along with surprising momentum after only four months of operation. The system, regarded by many members of the beef industry as a new marketing tool, started with more trade volume than any other new futures commodity in history. Activity has gone way beyond anticipated levels and is still increasing.

TRADES ARE currently being negotiated at a rate of 30 to 100 per day, averaging more than 100 contracts each day.

Trading volume will probably increase even further after April 29, the first delivery month. These observations come from Texas A & M University, where economists and livestock specialists are studying futures developments with the same enthusiasm that rocketeers watch launchings at Cape Kennedy.

THEIR OPINIONS range from a cautious "sounds good" to the biggest thing that had happened to the cattle business "in 150 years."

In the complex world of marketing, a futures market of futures trading is a system of buying and selling contracts for deferred delivery of a product. A futures contract calls for delivery of a commodity in a stated future month. It is an agreement to deliver or receive a specified amount and quality of the commodity at a price agreed upon by buyer and seller.

Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist and assistant professor in the A & M Agricultural Economics and Sociology Department, likes to explain it this way:

TO SELL A futures means you contract to deliver. To buy a futures means you contract to receive.

While deliveries are provided for in the contract, very few will actually be made. The bulk of the contracts will be liquidated by purchases or sale of another contract. So the actual cattle need not be delivered or received, but the protection against price fluctuations remains. A contract to deliver can be offset by buying. A contract to receive can be offset by selling.

Uvacek believes that the price protection device is an especially valuable tool, since it has a market stabilizing effect.

HE SAID THE speculator is an essential part of successful futures trading—the man who puts up his money and hopes to make a profit. The hedger is simply trying to cut price risk. Call it "price insurance."

Many ranchers are "looking at cattle futures trading mightily carefully" but with great interest, says the specialist. At present, feeders are the most frequent users of futures.

Over in the A & M Animal Science Department, opinion is generally favorable.

"It sounds good to me," F. I. Dahlberg, animal husbandry professor, said. "If handled right, futures trading is an opportunity to hedge on feeding operations, which can fit in with grain futures. Everyone around here seems to think it will be successful."

THE BIG TEST, he added, will come with the first deliveries in April.

Agricultural economists at A & M view futures trading as progressive. They believe it will lessen price risks, level fluctuations, and benefit the overall market structure.

Uvacek said some economists and private operators, however, are having orientation troubles with beef futures. Very often, if these individuals know a lot about futures in other fields, they don't know much about livestock. Or if they know livestock, they don't know the mechanics of futures.

"Believe me, there is a lot of studying going on," the specialist said.

What's the future of futures in beef?

In addition to opening new doors to the whole beef industry, it fits into the modern specification buying techniques that are becoming common practice in today's industry, Uvacek believes. He looks for cattle contracts to become one of the most important futures trading commodities.

MORE FEEDERS will use the tool as they learn more about it. Financial institutions will encourage futures participation because of price risk protection. Feeders will remain more interested in the system than cow-calf operators who produce and grow feeders, because hedging opportunities are more apparent to the feeder.

A recent development in carcass trading in futures, although action is slow so far. Delivery months are different than for live cattle so that price protection can be obtained all year long.

Uvacek says feeders may gradually move into carcass trading. Action also will probably increase when more packers enter the market.

THE MARKETING specialist figures that futures trading in beef cattle will help maintain a free market in the beef industry. "Whether we agree with the concept of futures trading or not, it seems ironic that the first real attempt for the industry to help themselves is regarded by some control," Uvacek said. "Futures are not necessarily the answer to all problems in the beef business, nor do they claim to be. But they will provide opportunity for hedging against severe price fluctuations common in the industry."

He added that he does not believe that futures are a fore-runner of price supports. Besides, contracts have been available for a long time on pork bellies, shrimp, frozen turkeys, hides and eggs without supports. Fact is, cotton futures are in trouble because of supports. "In my opinion, futures trading is the hottest thing that has happened to the cattle business in 150 years," Uvacek said.

Official Outlines Loans Available Through FHA

L. J. Cappelman, State Director of the Farmers Home Administration, announced that 247 loans to individual families have been made in Texas under the provisions of the Economic Opportunities Act of 1964, which is one of the powerful weapons of the United States Department of Agriculture being used in President Johnson's all-out war on Poverty Program.

These loans were made to individual farmers and rural residents in most sections of Texas. A rural resident is classified as one living in a town of not more than 2,500 population.

Economic Opportunity Loans to farmers may be made to improve their farming operations; to buy more land, livestock, machinery and equipment; construct needed farm buildings; and to pay annual operating expenses for feed, seed, and fertilizer.

These loans may be obtained by farm and rural families to finance rural-based, but non-agricultural enterprises. Funds may be used to purchase land, construct buildings, buy and install equipment and pay normal operating expenses of a variety of non-agricultural enterprises.

Economic Opportunity Loans are for the purpose of helping low-income rural families raise their income level. Rural families who need a small amount of capital to improve their incomes may borrow up to $2,500 for 15 years at 4-1/8 percent interest.

These loans are secured by a promissory note by the borrower and a loan agreement scheduled in accordance with his ability to repay.

Families and single individuals with incomes which are too low to cover basic needs, and who, with the assistance of the Farmers Home Administration county supervisor, are successful in developing a plan of operation which will provide a reasonable prospect of increasing their earnings through a small amount of credit from a farming operation or other non-agricultural enterprise, and who are unable to obtain credit on reasonable terms elsewhere, are eligible to receive the loans.

Cappelman also advises that Economic Opportunity Loans may be made to finance processing, marketing, purchasing and service type cooperatives which directly benefit low-income families living in rural areas. These loans may be scheduled for repayment over periods up to 30 years at an interest rate of 4-1/8 per cent. The cooperative must pledge as security for the loan a property lien and pledge of revenue.

Some examples of cooperatives which might receive a loan are those packing, selling and shipping products grown on members' farms; marketing items constructed in home workshops of members, such as handicraft items; processing farm products; providing custom farm work for members; and wholesale buying of essential farm operating items such as machinery, seed, and fertilizer.

These loans may be made to established or newly formed cooperative associations made up of a membership 2/3 of whom are low-income rural families, and serving predominantly families in this group.

Cappelman stated that additional information concerning this program may be obtained from county Farmers Home Administration personnel, County Agents, Vocational Agriculture teachers, Soil Conservation Service and Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service representatives, and other United States Department of Agriculture Agencies as well as state agencies.

Applications may be filed in any local Farmers Home Administration County office in the State. There are 133 County Offices servicing every county in Texas. Applications are usually filed in the county in which the farm family or rural resident resides.

HEART PALPITATES FOR FLYING
LORAIN, Ohio (P) — William H. (Bill) Long was bounced out of Army flying because of a "palpitating heart." But he's still flying.
Long, now 80, has logged about 8,000 hours — nearly a year — of flying time and still manages to fly his 1947 light plane up to six days a week. The Army turned him down as a flyer, though, in World War I.

Long now owns the Lorain City Airport.
CAN'T USE NEHRU IN ADS NEW DELHI (P) — The Indian government says it will prosecute anyone using pictures of Jawaharlal Nehru in advertising. Numerous firms had been using photos of the beloved late prime minister for eye-catching purposes in ads.

Indian Arrow Head Is Named

POST (P) — Garza County has given its name to a distinctive arrow point, more than 450 of which have been recorded here by Frank A. Runkles, camp ranger at C. W. Post Boy Scout Camp and a member of the South Plains Archeological Society.

Designation of the type as the "Garza point" by the Texas Archeological Society comes five years after 13 of the points with a centrally-placed basal notch were excavated at a small archeological site in Garza County 16 miles south of Post.

The majority of the points exhibit fine workmanship. One of the 13 points found at the excavation site is of obsidian.

Runkles said more than 200 of the approximately 450 Garza points recorded here have been catalogued in Garza County alone.

The known extent of the Garza type arrow point is believed bounded on the north by Lamb and Bailey counties, on the east by southern Floyd and Taylor counties, on the southwest by Crane County and on the west by El Paso County.

Runkles said archeologists have dated the Garza points prior to 1500 A.D., probably around 1400 A.D.

new size new toughness new Dodge old low price

Pipe fittings or potatoes, this new 128" wheelbase Dodge D100 Sweetline can take it. It has new double-wall construction. When heavy-handed Henry tosses in the pipe fittings, Dodge Truck toughness takes it easily. Check the rear axle. Inside, it has a new heavier flanged shaft with new tapered roller bearings — the toughest axle design in the business. What does it get you? Toughness to go up that hill, with a heavy payload, more times than you ever could in the past. But like the rest of us, Henry's human, too, and that handsome new interior styling is a delight to his heart. And don't forget to look at that new center-latch tailgate. One hand opens it. Siam, it's closed. Fast. Tough. Dodge. The only thing old is the low price. Still right down with Ford and Chevy. Dodge Truck toughness does not cost any more. Why settle for less?

Excuse Accepted

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—An African store man at Uganda's Murchison Falls game park in East Africa was late for work.
 "Sorry, sir," he told Warden Roger Wheeler who wanted to know why he was late on duty. Then he explained: "I was cycling home last night when I saw a cow elephant with a very young calf on the track ahead. I got off and began to push my bicycle through the bush to go around them, but I pushed it into a rhino.
 "I dropped the bicycle and ran for the nearest tree, but after I'd climbed it I saw two lions below in the grass.
 "So I thought it would be better to stay there for the night until the lions went away—and I'm sorry I'm late for work."
 He was forgiven.

State Has New Governor-For-Day

Foreign Trade Participation By Business, Industry Will Be Studied

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — A new governor moved into the chief executive's office in the capitol this week — but only for a day.

Following tradition, Gov. John Connally and Lt. Gov. Preston Smith left the state Tuesday — clearing the way for Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells, Senate president pro tempore, to take a 24-hour turn as governor. Creighton invited homefolks from Callahan, Clay, Denton, Eastland, Jack, Montague, Palo Pinto, Parker, Stephens and Wise counties to his "inauguration."

He also turned out the usual volume of proclamations and commissions — and received praises of his colleagues.

Creighton, 36, an attorney, brought along his pretty wife, Sue, and three children to the governor's mansion.

SCHOOL VETOED — Governor Connally vetoed the bill authorizing Texas Tech to establish a medical school in Lubbock.

Connally said that not enough study had been given to the idea and that he preferred that his recently created college coordinating board be the supreme authority in new college programs.

Veto drew critical attacks from West Texas proponents of the school, including Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Sen. H. J. Blanchard, both of Lubbock.

NEARS PASSAGE — After a two-week delay, the Senate was ready to take final action on the bill to create a "Little Hoover Commission" to cull waste and inefficiency from state offices and agencies. Bill is sponsored by Rep. Dick Cory of Victoria and Sen. Bill Patman of Ganado. An amendment which Patman considers crippling was tacked on by Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo. Amendment makes the lieutenant governor and the speaker chairman and vice chairman of the commission, replacing a provision that the members would elect the commission leaders.

GUIDELINES SET — Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham says the House Districts Committee aims to get a congressional reapportionment measure to the floor by May 1. Mutscher is chairman of the committee.

Three optional plans for state House of Representatives redistricting also are due from subcommittees by May 1.

Committee has adopted these tentative legislature redistricting guidelines:

Population variance between districts should be held to a maximum of 15 per cent over and below the mean average; "At least one attempt" will be made to eliminate "floterial" districts;

Small counties without population sufficient to justify a representative of their own will not be divided;

Two or more representatives will not be allowed to run at large in two or more counties.

Committee also approved Senate-passed bill to permit up to 15 per cent population variance in forming legislative districts.

House Speaker Ben Barnes is optimistic that the Legislature can solve the thorny redistricting problem without need for a special session.

GET PRIORITY — State representatives returned from their brief Easter vacations to find two proposed constitutional amendments high on their work assignment list.

Governor Connally finally got the balky House Amendments Committee to clear for debate measure to increase terms of governor and other officials elected statewide from two to four years.

Committee also approved redistricting pain-easer calling for increase of State Senate membership from 31 to 39, but stripped from it provision to lengthen upper house terms to six years.

Pressure for submission of both measures to Texas voters in November and August 7 elections, respectively) were intense.

NEW LAWS ADOPTED — Dozens of bills have been given final passage in one house and sent to the other for further action.

Two bills by Rep. Dick Cory would authorize commissioners courts in all but the largest counties of the state to give county officers raises of up to 20 per cent.

Sen. Don Kennard's bill to create a North Central Texas Airport Authority in Tarrant County, which is opposed by Dallas, was passed in the Senate, but the House version ran into a filibuster by Dallas delegation members in the committee hearing.

Bill by Sen. W. T. Moore would authorize Texas A&M to accept James Connally Air Force Base for the state and establish a technical institute.

POLL TAX REPEAL — Proposed constitutional amendment to abolish the poll tax fell four votes short of getting the necessary two-thirds in the House of Representatives. But measure was kept alive by a parliamentary maneuver.

Rep. Travis Peeler of Corpus Christi is sponsor of the bill.

TOUGHER THAN EVER — Appropriations bill conferees failed to make the April 15 deadline set by House Speaker Ben Barnes for completion of their work.

Despite any sharp differences between House and Senate bills, the budget-writing job in general is tougher than ever this year. That's because of creation of new state agencies and transfers of duties — particularly in hospital and water fields — plus impact of federal programs just being evolved on state finances.

LOAN BILL ADVANCED — Legislation which opponents charge would mean the highest interest rates on loans in the nation for Texas received tentative Senate approval 16-14.

Measure by Sen. Jim Bates of Edinburg would allow annual interest rates on installment loans of $9 per $100 up to $4,500. An amendment, finally accepted after strong objection, exempted small loan companies from terms of the bill. Another amendment exempted mortgage loans on real estate.

AID PROPOSED — Proposed constitutional amendment to make old age assistance to non-citizens who have lived in the U.S. for at least 25 years received heavy support in a House committee hearing.

Rep. Joe J. Bernal of San Antonio, sponsor of the bill, said only three other states require citizenship for such assistance. Many thousand long-time Texas residents, who have not qualified for citizenship for such assistance due to language or other barriers, have no income at all today, Bernal told the committee.

FEDERAL FUNDS — With $11,200,000 presently allotted for distribution in federal grants for college construction in Texas, the Texas Commission on Higher Education already has requests from 24 more colleges and eligibility established for 12 junior colleges.

Applications received amount to an additional $12,500,000 of construction requests under the 1964 Higher Educational Facilities Act. Grants pay for 40 per cent of the actual cost of new construction for approved college facilities.

RAIN-MAKING — John T. Carr Jr., weatherman with the Texas Water Commission, says long-range experiments in weather modification should be undertaken in Texas, even though at present conditions do not seem favorable and existing methods are expensive.

Carr says that ideal conditions for rain-making are infrequent in Texas. However, experiments have shown there are effective methods to bring about rain where it would not have fallen naturally and to increase the yield of rain clouds.

SHORT SHORTS — Bill to authorize the Texas Water Development Board to issue $100,000,000 more in Texas Water Development Bonds was heard by the House Conservation and Reclamation Committee and assigned to sub-committee. . . . George W. Hill, executive director of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee, has resigned effective July 1 to become president of the Southern Heritage Foundation. . . . Governor signed into law these bills: raising compulsory school attendance age one year to 17; renewal of foreign
