Insurance Agent Files For Council

Charles Bell, 37, local insurance agent for Southwestern Life Insurance Company, filed for Place 1 on the Hereford city commission Tuesday. The deadline is 5 p.m. Friday.

Bell filed for the position now held by W. L. (Bill) Davis Jr., who has indicated he will not seek another term.

Dr. Gale J. Page, 408 Ave. J; Steve Clements, 298 Sunset Dr., and L. B. Russell, 211 Park Ave., filed Wednesday afternoon for the school board race.

Ray Cowser announced he would seek a third term.

Barnard filed for the post being vacated by Gid Brown who is not expected to seek reelection.

The deadline for filing in the school trustee election was at 5 p.m. Wednesday and at noon

Councilmen Will Study Application

CITY commissioners, told by a young Hereford promoter that cable television is "the coming thing," took under advisement Monday night an application for a franchise to install and operate an extensive system here.

The council displayed interest in the proposal. But they requested additional time to study the ramifications of vesting franchise powers in such a company.

"This is such a new thing," said Mayor Ray Cowser. "As far as I am concerned I'd have to give it quite a bit of study."

MAKING THE presentation was Mike Wilson, 22, a real estate salesman, who said he is being joined in the enterprise by two out-of-town residents — an Amarillo man and a McLean cable television system owner.

The Amarillo participant, Wally Grogan, was present Monday night to describe some of the technical aspects of the system, which would locate a 440-foot tower here and provide active reception — or so Wilson claims — on all 13 channels "in the near future."

The other partner was named as Dale Greenhouse, who operates cable television systems at McLean and Sheridan, Neb.

WILSON SAID such a system would "pipe" the three Amarillo tv channels into local homes plus the two channels from Lubbock. The high tower would be required to pick up the two South Plains stations.

In addition, he said three F-M radio stations would be available plus a weather channel. He described the weather station as the continuous telecast of a set of meteorological instruments located here which are endlessly shown by means of a revolving mirror-camera arrangement.

The young businessman talked enthusiastically of the approach from the west of a cable arrangement, which, he predicts, within two years will make available to subscribers television programs from independent West Coast stations.

"FOR THE FIVE local channels, I think we can improve the service that we are getting right now," he asserted.

Grogan tempered this claim somewhat, noting that "a lot of people are not experiencing trouble now from Amarillo" with black and white reception. But he said the distance has

This pastoral scene bursts into view on a rustic road winding through the J. S. Bridwell Ranch in northwest Deaf Smith County.

Ashen white, stripped of their bark, empty to knock and dry to touch, the limbs of these old cottonwoods starkly contrast with the velvet blue sky.

The trunk is showing its age, too, with long, gaping lines cutting through an all but barkless surface.

But out on the very end, so tiny you have to squint to notice them at all, are young shoots, tender and green, indications that come spring there may be life in the old cottonwood after all.

Man Hurt In Farm Accident

A young farmer who lives 18 miles northwest of Hereford remained in good condition in Deaf Smith County Hospital Wednesday after he was rushed to the Hereford hospital Saturday afternoon with anhydrous ammonia burns.

Kenneth Artho was admitted to the hospital shortly after 4:30 p.m. Saturday with burns over a large portion of his body.

ARTH'S WIFE telephoned Hereford police at 3:55 p.m. Saturday and told them the car

ABOUT .15 OF INCH HERE

Snowfall Produces Some Moisture, Highways Icy

A NOTHER snowstorm slipped into the Hereford area before dawn Monday, but it was minus much of the piercing wind that characterized the one a week before.

This one appeared to leave more moisture, too.

A measurement of .15 of an inch was reported in Hereford which received about an inch of snow — a wet type that quickly melted on paved surfaces.

At Vega, the sheriff's dispatcher said about two inches of snow was received and much of it was still on the ground after a day of sunshine Tuesday.

"The courtyard (at the courthouse) is still pretty well covered," she said at mid-afternoon.

TO THE WEST, the snow apparently was thinner. Tom Collins, principal at Walcott School west of Hereford, said they received only enough snow to cover the ground in places. It stopped about noon, he said, and blew slightly during the afternoon.

Temperatures dropped slowly during the day Monday and remained cold Tuesday.

The Texas Highway Department here was plagued by icy roads throughout the night Monday, a spokesman said.

CREWS WERE kept busy keeping the main highways open during the day. By the time they were able to get to the farm-to-market roads, the moisture had frozen. Snow plows would not cut through it.

"We were out most of the night," the spokesman said. "I think the last truck came in about 4 a.m."

Some of the back roads still had icy spots Tuesday night because of thawing during the day.

DUE AT PLAINVIEW

J. R. Allison of Hereford will participate Thursday in the semi-annual session of the board of trustees at Wayland Baptist College, Plainview. On the agenda will be the adoption of the 1965-66 budget and approval of plans for new construction on campus.

A weed control conference will be held from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday at the Bull Barn. It will be sponsored by the crops sub-committee of the Deaf Smith County Program Building Committee. Speakers will be from Bushland, Amarillo, Floydada and Hereford. Subjects will include herbicide residues, control districts, sugar beet weed problems and calibration of weed control equipment.

Deaf Smith County's 157 retail establishments had $27.3 million in sales in 1963, a release electronically prepared by the U. S. Census Bureau says. This was an increase of 26 per cent from 1958, when the last census of business was taken. Retail trade in the county meant jobs for 738 employees and yearly payroll of $2.5 million.

Members of the Palo Duro Chapter, Amarillo, of the National Secretaries Association will be in Hereford at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Hospitality Room of the First National Bank to discuss the forming of a chapter here. Invitations have been sent to secretaries in both Dim-

FOR HIGHWAYS

Amarillo Firm Gets Contracts

The Amarillo firm of Ivan De-ment, Inc., has been awarded contracts for two highway widening jobs within the city limits of Hereford. They total 3.4 miles of construction.

Work is expected to begin in the near future. Part of the costs of the projects — on U. S. Hwy. 60 and F-M 1058 — will be paid by property owners under an assessment plan.

CITY MANAGER Dudley Bayne said he received cost breakdowns on the two projects Tuesday. The next step will be the compilation of a property owners' roll and the calling of a public hearing.

The U. S. Hwy. 60 project runs 3 of a mile southwest from the intersection of Hwys. 60 and 395. Range of the F-M 1058 project is from F-M 2854 to the junction with U. S. 385.

W. V. York, resident engineer at Canyon, will be in active charge of the projects while under construction. They are expected to require about 150 days.

WATER HEATER EXPLODES
Firemen answered an alarm about 3 p.m. Wednesday at 1011 Grand Ave. where a water heater burst. There was little damage otherwise.

'THE XIT PAPERS'

Vast Collection Brings Big Ranch Back To Life

By DUDLEY LYNCH
News Editor

CANYON — Though participants in the saga of the XIT Ranch have dwindled to a handful, the legacy of this vital period of Texas Panhandle history has been preserved by an amazing collection of documents.

They are the XIT papers. Accounts... balance books... bank books... herd records... land records... letters both received and sent... meteorological records... newspaper clippings... receipts... annual reports... supply lists...

THESE ARE SOME of the articles contained in the archives of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum here in what has been called "in all probability the greatest single collection of documents concerning the ranching industry in the United States."

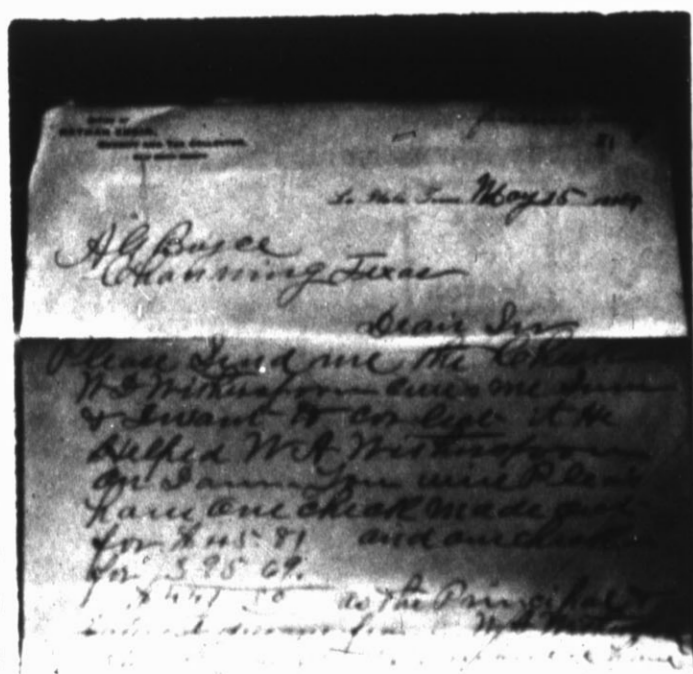

Stored in a honeycomb of filing cabinets, bound in fading, musty bindings, jammed haphazardly into torn folders, this plethora of documentary evidence is — without a doubt — the most prodigious record of a single historical ranching adventure in existence.

It was donated to the Mussum long years ago by the Capitol Reservation Lands of Chicago, a real estate firm whose progenitor was the Capitol Land Syndicate, the English-backed and Chicago-controlled group that owned the enormous, three-million-acre XIT.

J. EVETTS Haley, the articulate Canyon rancher who branched out recently with a captious paperback on Lyndon Johnson, used the records for his primer: "The XIT Ranch of Texas." Students of history, education and other fields have

FOREMAN'S LETTER — Jim McLaren, once foreman of the XIT Ranch's Escarbada Division wrote this letter on May 15, 1894. It is one of about 50,000 XIT-associated letters contained in the archives of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum at Canyon. (Staff Photo)

Local Resident Involved With Cable TV Plans

WILSON SAID the firm hopes to negotiate the use of utility poles already up. He said preliminary talks already have been held with Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. Where new developments are placing all utilities underground, the cable television company would "be more than happy" to do the same, he added.

Mayor Cowser wryly noted that "we've got nearly enough poles." Wilson assured him that they would meet any specifications set up by the city.

The maximum monthly charge per customer would be $6.50, Wilson revealed.

CITY ATTY. Earnest Langley called attention to a clause added to a "model" franchise agreement handed to the commissioners by Wilson.

It stipulates that construction must begin within a year after a franchise is awarded. Langley said this was to prevent the possible repetition of a situation which occurred in another High Plains community. A franchise was secured apparently solely for speculation and was disposed of for more than $50,000.

Grogan winced and noted: "That sure gave the cable television industry a black eye."

Personal Traits Of XIT Men Emerge In Letters

By and large, the priceless library of irreplaceable facts and figures sits unattended and catalogued only superficially in the filing cabinets of the Museum archives.

The XIT papers consist of approximately 50,000 letters (contained in 90 letter press copy books and over 150 large-manilla envelopes), approximately 5,000 documents (contained in 100 file boxes), about 5,000 additional documents (contained in manilla envelopes) and over 100 bound ledgers, journals and special books.

SUCH A MASS OF materials, some of it in the virtually non-legible script of bewhiskered frontiersmen more interested in cattle than calligraphy, almost defies comprehension when examined.

Large amounts of the collection are dull and dreary, repetitive records and laud descriptions that would spark interest only in the scholar who has launched an exhaustive study.

But hidden among the letters, like diamonds sprinkled in the dandelions, are gems that provide insight into and magnify the prosaic day-to-day, year-to-year existence of the men of the XIT. Some excerpts are humorous. Others depict the pathos of events, unforeseen and uncontrolled, that molded the lives of the hearty, high-strung, unpredictable breed of men.

THE PURE JOY of discovery awaits the individual who sits down, with no set pattern in mind, to wander through the materials.

Character traits emerge, like the "no-nonsense" attitude of Abner Taylor, one of the originators of the Capitol Land Syndicate, seen in this letter (copied verbatim), written to Col. A. G. Boyce, general manager, on Sept. 24, 1896:

"I have information from a reliable source from a ranchman in New Mexico — that there is an organized gang of persons who have been discharged from our Ranch — who are engaged in stealing cattle from me in large numbers — if this is so it can only be done by collusion with men who are still in our employ — please look into this and see if there is any foundation for this story and if so stop it."

IN AN EARLIER letter Taylor wrote Walter de S. Maud, an Englishman managing the northern half of the ranch, on Jan. 26, 1896:

"Mr. Hogg informs us that you are building an addition to the Store House for an office, and also building a carpenter shop. We do not think this is necessary; because it will not be permanent and it will be just more expense. We are holding you responsible for all money spent."

(Taylor continued to "ride" Maud and eventually succeeded in getting his resignation. The Englishman went home and years later became a British World War I hero, getting — as well — citations from Lawrence of Arabia for development of desert pipe lines in the Middle East.)

IT IS INTERESTING to follow the machinations of Col. Boyce, the manager with the flowing beard, as he tried to manipulate elections in 1894. In a letter to J. V. Good of the Fort Worth and Denver Railroad on Sept. 30, Boyce wrote:

"Please pardon me for making the following request. I wish that you would please not allow Starts of Twist and Newman of Goodnight to change sections until after the election and also don't let Newman have a layoff to come to the poles. Consider this confidential and if you can comply with my request you will greatly oblige."

On Oct. 25 of the same year, he scratched out this note to John D. Moore, another railroad representative:

"MR. MOORE CAN'T you as good arrange to have a pretended wreck on the road below here and call the section men from Hartley . . . and hold them until after the election. I am afraid if they are permitted to stay and vote they will cause us to lose the election and you know what that means."

(Boyce's polking did particularly well that year. He was able to report that his candidate for sheriff in Castro County, Ira Aiken, who was to become — in a few months — foreman of the XIT's Escarbada Division, had

Judge Williams Sentences 3 In County Court

Three persons appeared before Deaf Smith County Judge H. C. (Hank) Williams this week.

Paul E. Hubbard, 18, Rt. 2 of Hereford, was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail and ordered to pay court costs after he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

HUBBARD AND a companion were arrested by police Saturday night after they led officers on a chase, finally wrecking their car.

Officers found the two boys and a 16-year old girl in the car. The officer testified all of the youths had been drinking. The young girl was referred to juvenile court.

NORMAN J. EDWARDS, 17, Rt. 3 Hereford, was sentenced to one day in the county jail and ordered to pay court costs after he entered a plea of guilty before Judge Williams to a charge of driving with license suspended.

In the final case heard by Williams, Buddy D. Ledford, 30, of Canyon entered a plea of guilty to a swindling with worthless check charge and was sentenced to one day in the county jail and ordered to pay $1 and court costs.

Leo Witkowski At Vernon Meet

Leo Witkowski, president of the Texas Wheat Growers Association, was the guest speaker Friday at a meeting of wheat growers from a 11-county district surrounding Vernon.

Witkowski told the group of the problems faced by Texas wheat growers this year and possible solutions.

Bill Cortinger, executive secretary of the Great Plains Wheat, Garden City, Kan., spoke on the world wheat market.

Sen. Jack Hightower of Vernon was also there, telling of the legislative angles that were assisting the wheat growers at the Texas capital.

The Texas Wheat Growers' Association had a directors' meeting Saturday in Amarillo, with Witkowski, president of the state wide organization, presiding.

WITKOWSKI SAID the meeting was to discuss present business and legislation proposed by the organization. Andrew Kershen of Hereford

FOR INSTANCE, the annual report for 1894, pulled at random from the files, shows that the Escarbada division had on hand on Dec. 31 — among other items — 20 tons of Johnson grass, a box of matches and 50 pounds of coffee. Practically every item on the ranch was listed, down to the last horse collar.

The cumbersome bookkeeping was a source of continual trouble for a cowpuncher-foreman with a limited education.

Jim McLaren — poor fellow! — was forever writing notes to Channing like this one:

"You will please send me duplicate of the statement of the First Fence work that W. A. Witherspoon did it amounted to $60.00 as well as I remember. I kept copy of it I have got it misplaced some way."

He could rest assured, though, that the XIT bookkeepers had a copy of it. The chances are that it is still around today, resting in a folder at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

The Hallmark of Circulation Integrity

In the same way that STERLING on silver signifies a standard of known value, so is this A.B.C. emblem a symbol of FACTS about the circulation of newspapers and periodicals. It is the emblem of membership in the Audit Bureau of Circulations* and is assurance to advertisers that the circulations of member publications are measured, audited and reported in accordance with the rigid standards that have been mutually approved and adopted by advertisers and publishers. Here's why our membership in the A.B.C. is important to our advertisers and cives: At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough inspection and audit of our circulation records. The results of this exacting audit show: how much circulation we have; where it goes; how it was obtained; and many other FACTS that advertisers need as a sound basis for their advertising investments. This audited information is published by the Bureau in easy-to-read A.B.C. reports which are available to our advertisers on request.

The Audit Bureau of Circulations, of which this newspaper is a member, is a cooperative, nonprofit association of nearly 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers. Organized in 1914, A.B.C. brought order out of advertising chaos by establishing a definition for paid circulation, rules and standards for auditing and reporting the circulations of newspapers and periodicals.

Pete Progress

speaking for the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce

By BILL THOMPSON
Chamber Manager

Don't know when I have seen Pete in such a serious mood — but he seemed to be pretty well informed on his subject so I just let him talk. He, like many other Americans, was concerned with the problem of Presidential succession as he expounded on the subject. "During the 1787, while members were discussing who should carry on the work of the President if he should become disabled, John Dickinson, of Delaware, asked two penetrating questions: 'What is the extent of the term 'Disability' and who is to be the judge of it?'"

"SOME 177 YEARS have elapsed since that time, but the questions have never been answered satisfactorily."

"Part of the reason for this failure to face up to these and similar questions, undoubtedly, can be traced to the fact that the American people, collectively, have behaved somewhat like the man who owned the house with the leaky roof. According to the often-told story, he did not need to fix the roof when it was not raining, and he could not fix it when it was."

"At the same time, it is only fair to point out that the analogy must be carried a step further if it is to be entirely fair. Failure to reach adequate answers to many knotty problems of Presidential succession is traceable not only to lack of motivation, but to the lack of any clear consensus on how to act. A natural tendency to let things drift has been reinforced by so much conflicting advice that we have been unable to reach a decision as to what kind of repairs should be made."

"THE PROBLEM is complicated, moreover, by the fact that we have not one, but two, leaky roof problems."

"One is the problem of Presidential inability, which could occur when a President was mentally or physically incapable of carrying on his duties."

"The other is the problem of filling the position of Vice President when it becomes vacant during his elected term."

"The two problems are closely related, and yet they require somewhat different solutions. So far agreement on achieved, although a variety of piece-meal approaches have been adopted either by informal agreement or by legislation."

"This year, public interest in the whole question of Presidential succession has intensified. The Senate Constitutional Amendments Subcommittee, under the chairmanship of Sen. Birch Bayh (D-Ind.) held hearings; and the American Bar Association, after a Conference and a forum reached a consensus of views. Numerous articles and newspaper stories and editorials have discussed the subject, and public leaders, such as President Eisenhower, have called on Congress to act."

"ON AUGUST 12, the Senate Committee on the Judiciary reported S. J. Resolution 139."

"Some of the present difficulty can be traced back to 1841, when the practice of the Vice President taking over the office of President when the President died was established."

"On April 4, 1841, President Henry Harrison died in office. For the first time, the Nation was faced with the question as to whether the Vice President became, in fact, the President or was merely an acting President."

"Some Congressmen and Senators as well as various newspapers held that the Vice President remained the Vice President and should continue to be so addressed."

"TYLER DISAGREED. He said he was entitled to the office and title of President, and, accordingly took the Presidential oath, gave an inaugural address, and served as President for the remainder of Harrison's term."

"A majority of the Congress agreed, and the Tyler precedent assumed the force of law, as seven other Presidents succeeded to the Presidency in that manner."

"Ironically enough, this now well-accepted principle created major problems during the Garfield and Wilson administrations."

proposing an amendment to the Constitution covering both succession to the Presidency and Vice Presidency and procedures to be followed in cases where the President is unable to discharge his duties.

"While it is uncertain whether Congress may act further on the measure during this session, it closely follows the recommendations of the Bar Association and is probably the nearest thing to a consensus that has yet been reached."

"S. J. Res. 139 is certain to remain a Congressional issue. To understand its provisions, however, it is helpful to look briefly at some history to see how the problems they are designed to solve have arisen."

"Article II, Section 1, Clause 5 of the Constitution provides that:

"In case of the Removal of the President from office, or at his Death, Resignation, or Inability to discharge the Powers and Duties of the said Office, the same shall devolve on the Vice President, and the Congress may by Law provide for the Case of Removal, Death, Resignation or Inability, both of the President and Vice President, and such Officer shall act accordingly, until the Disability be removed, or a President shall be elected."

"From the standpoint of inability, three major points have been raised by this Article:

"First: Does the 'Office of the President' or only the powers and duties of the said office devolve upon the Vice President?"

"Second: Who has the authority to determine what inability is, when it commences, and when it terminates?"

"THIRD: CAN Congress deal with these questions through legislation or is a Constitutional amendment necessary?"

"Some of the present difficulty can be traced back to 1841, when the practice of the Vice President taking over the office of President when the President died was established."

"On April 4, 1841, President Henry Harrison died in office. For the first time, the Nation was faced with the question as to whether the Vice President became, in fact, the President or was merely an acting President."

"Some Congressmen and Senators as well as various newspapers held that the Vice President remained the Vice President and should continue to be so addressed."

"TYLER DISAGREED. He said he was entitled to the office and title of President, and, accordingly took the Presidential oath, gave an inaugural address, and served as President for the remainder of Harrison's term."

"A majority of the Congress agreed, and the Tyler precedent assumed the force of law, as seven other Presidents succeeded to the Presidency in that manner."

"Ironically enough, this now well-accepted principle created major problems during the Garfield and Wilson administrations."

"By this time I could see that Pete was just getting wound up on the subject so asked that he come back next week and continue this informative and interesting discussion, to which he agreed."

RIISING TREND CONTINUES

Police Activity Up For February

The Hereford Police Department's monthly report was submitted this week by Police Chief Marshall Padgett to City Manager Dudley Bayne.

As has been the trend in recent months, most aspects of the department's activities were up over the past month.

During the month of February, 186 citations were issued by officers for moving violations, 19 for parking in a no parking zone and 345 for overparking.

THE PATROLMEN drove some 11,486 miles during the month, with 1,695 entries being made in the log of the department.

In the animal control facet of the department, 23 animals were disposed of and one was released.

Thirty-one criminal arrests were made by the department during the month on charges of drunk, drunk in control of a motor vehicle, illegal consumption, simple assault, aggravated assault, disturbance, affray, contributing to the delinquency of a minor and traffic arrests.

Criminal offenses reported in the month totaled $3 with more than $1,474.40 in property reported stolen or damaged.

SEVEN OF THESE cases were cleared and $310 of the stolen property was recovered. This left 26 cases outstanding and $1,164.40 of the property remained missing. The department arrested 31 adults and 15 juveniles during the month.

Accidents were down somewhat over recent months as only 31 were investigated with financial loss estimated at $6,565 by officers investigating the accidents.

Four persons were injured in the accidents. During the month, 82 minor complaints were made to the department, all of which were investigated by officers and a report made.

Senior Citizens Visit Arizona

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Awtry Sr. and Mrs. E. T. Ward, sister of Mrs. Awtry, returned Saturday from a four-day trip to Greens Valley, Ariz., which is 19 miles south of Tucson.

Joe Berg, vice-president of the Farmers' Union in the Panhandle of Texas, organized this trip for the senior citizens to see the new retirement-homes there. The development was started 18 months ago.

Mrs. Awtry said, "They have a beautiful place there with recreation of golf, shuffle board, swimming and hobby shops for both men and women."

Farmers' Union provided the transportation and meals and Mrs. Awtry related that there were 33 persons on the bus trip from Lubbock to Greens Valley. They also included a trip to Nougalles, N. M.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The ranks of America's wooden Indian population, once totalling 100,000, have continued to shrink until today the small number of cigar store Indians left are all collectors' items.

At auctions in recent years, three Wooden Indians were sold for $2,050, $1,300 and $725 respectively at the Parke-Bernet Galleries in New York City, reports "Tobacco News," published here by The Tobacco Institute, Inc.

PRICE DOWN, WORDAGE UP LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — An item which appeared recently in the Arkansas Statesman informed the public:

"The creation of the world is told in Genesis in 40 words. The Ten Commandments have 297 words and the Declaration of Independence has 1,821 words. But a government pamphlet required 2,500 words to announce a reduction in the price of cabbage seed."

The Appalachian Mountains reach from Canada's Gaspé Peninsula and New Brunswick 1,500 miles southwestward to Central Alabama. The vast chain includes such ranges as the Alleghenies, running from Pennsylvania to southwest Virginia; the Catskills of New York State; and the Shickshocks of Quebec. The White Mountains of New Hampshire become, in Vermont, the Green Mountains. The Blue Ridge Mountains, running from Pennsylvania to Georgia, have a spur in western North Carolina known as the Black Mountains. The Great Smokies, on the North Carolina-Tennessee border also belong to this range.

New Gas Line To Cross County

A natural gas pipeline company has indicated to the Deaf Smith County Gas Users Association that it will cross the eastern end of the county shortly with a transmission line to Chicago.

The firm is the Natural Gas Co. of America.

Tommy Carnahan, president of the local group, said the new company is checking its easements presently with farmers located along its prospective right-of-way.

GAS USERS officials have offered this explanation to farmers contacted by the company. Some pipe line companies have extracted easements from farmers without allowing them the right to tap on the line for their individual use.

Carnahan said if farmers would require a tap as a prerequisite to an easement, they probably will have access to gas for their irrigation wells.

THE SITUATION was discussed Friday night at a meeting of the association, attended by 16 officers and directors.

Bill Waldrep reported that nothing definite had come of their meeting with Governor John Connally in Austin recently. The group has been attempting to get legislation passed putting gas for irrigation use under the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission for rate purposes.

We have now joined the ranks of those nervous and frustrated parents who have a teen-ager learning to drive.
The old family bus will never be the same.
Nor will father.
And we understand that the situation grows progressively worse as time goes on.

One harassed father recently told us that he too had run the gauntlet, and had barely made it through all stages.

That is — the learning, and the driving afterwards.
"I finally bought my daughter a car," he said, "but just in self defense."
"She had wrecked three of mine while learning."
We've come to the conclusion that Hereford should have a Society for Nervous Parents with Teen-Agers Learning to Drive. That's SNPTALD.

We could lease an old building — preferably an abandoned garage — and hold weekly meetings and work sessions devoted to straightening of bent fenders and soothing frayed nerves.
We believe it would eventually grow to the largest club in town.

HB
Teaching a youngster to herd a two-ton monster down the street is bad enough, but when they start correcting you on your own bad driving habits — formed through many years of doing it wrong — then that's the last straw.

HB
But what are we worried about? We have only two children.

How about fellows like C. E. Coleman Jr., the father of six. Now there's an old boy who ought to be a prime prospect for the club.

We're going to work on that project. That is, if we get through the next two weeks without having a nervous breakdown.

Hundreds of parents this week made the annual trip to one of the many schools in observance of Texas Public Schools Week.

In spite of the inclement weather, the crowds during the early part of the week were excellent.

But it isn't over yet. Aikman Elementary will hold an open house tonight, to wind-up the program for the week.

HB
There should be a few potatoes planted in the county this coming week, according to one vegetable processor. And we understand that some farmers have planted a few sugar beets.

These are the early crops, but it won't be long before, the farms will be buzzing with activity as farmers begin readying ground for the planting season.

Most of them however, would be happy to hold off awhile if they could get a little rain.

Apparently there isn't much chance.

REP. ROGERS REPORTS

Here's One Solon Who Still Backs The Farmer

By WALTER ROGERS
U. S. Representative

"Don't let them sell us out!" a Panhandle farmer wrote to me recently. Like many of our people, he senses a developing crisis in American agriculture. The crisis is developing because more and more non-farm Americans apparently are becoming convinced that the United States can get along very well without farmers.

We are told that farmers as we have known them are not needed, that flesh-and-blood farmers, farmers with families and farm houses and mortgaged tractors, are inefficient, unproductive, a drain on the American taxpayer. We hear increasing talk that the solution to what these "experts" term the "farm mess" is to promote CORPORATE farming.

They say, in effect, that all of our farm problems could be solved if agricultural production were handled by corporate farms of vast acreage, their policies set by absentee boards of directors, their operations directed with cold and scientific efficiency by hired managers over-seeing crews of specialists.

THEY PRESCRIBE the doom of rural America — not only of family farms and family farmers but also of the cities and towns which now serve primarily as the distribution and trade center for the Nation's farming areas.

The exodus from the farms of America has been going on for a generation. In 1940, there were 6,350,000 farms in our country. Now there are 3,500,000 farms. In ten years, the number of agricultural workers employed and the number of farms in the U. S. have declined by almost a third, and the decline in farm numbers has been mostly in small farms. In the past decade, well over half of all rural counties experienced a net loss of population. We all have seen this trend in our own Panhandle.

Should it continue at this pace, encouraged and accelerated by a combination of economic punishment and unwise government policy, the depopulation of rural America would be completed, as would the corporate takeover of American agriculture, in the lifetimes of boys now busy in 4-H and FFA activities. Now, today, only one of every ten boys growing up on American farms can expect to earn his living as a farm operator.

THE CHALLENGE is to preserve and develop economic opportunity in rural America. The challenge is to enable people who want to stay on the farm and in their home communities in rural America to make a decent living there. Farm programs enacted by Congress have been designed to this end, in recognition of the fact that before a hungry world America's agriculture is our greatest success story, and in recognition also of the fact that our free enterprise system is best exemplified by the family farm.

Congress has NOT enacted farm programs as a handout, as welfare programs. The purpose has been to assist that segment of our economy most vulnerable to the abuses of industrialized segments to attain and maintain fair levels of income. And yet, each passing election returns to the House and Senate fewer and fewer members with real comprehension of the meaning, worth, and problems faced by our farmers.

The shift of population has shifted representation to the cities and suburbs and away from rural America. In this 89th Congress, fewer than one-third of my colleagues in the House of Representatives speak for districts in which more than half the population is classed as "rural."

THE FARMERS, and the folks who supply their goods in nearby cities and towns, are suffering a loss of voice in Congress and in their State Legislature. Recent Supreme Court rulings on legislative apportionment hasten this trend. As I have in the past, I urge all of my friends in agriculture to be well aware of these shifts and to recognize that fights on behalf of the farmer are becoming more and more difficult to win in Congress.

The days of the famous Congressional "farm bloc" of the 1930's are dead and gone — and Congress is now dominated by the "big city bloc" with little sympathy or understanding for our rural people.

Thomas Jefferson called farmers "the chosen people of God." I wish that more of our fellow Americans could see farmers in that light, could appreciate the wonderful bounty in food they provide, could help preserve strength, stability, and opportunity in rural America.

MEDICAL CARE OR "MEDICARE" WHICH DO YOU WANT?

TEXAS today has one of the nation's finest, most comprehensive programs of medical care for the aged. These programs—the Texas approach, we call it—include medical benefits to Old Age Assistance recipients and extensive health cost protection through the use of special insurance plans for the aged. The Texas legislature is also expected to implement a medical care plan for those who are not on Old Age Assistance but who do need help in meeting medical expenses.

Consider these facts:

- 229,000 needy aged, representing 30 per cent of Texas' entire aged population, now have a Blue Cross-Blue Shield health insurance policy paid for by the State.
- This State program provides hospital, medical, surgical, x-ray, and nursing home benefits.
- 72% of the aged in Texas now have one or more health insurance policies.
- Through the "Texas 65 Health Insurance Plan," Blue Cross' "Senior Texan Service," and other special programs offered to the aged by private companies, health insurance is available to all who want it at a reasonable cost.
- Studies by Belden Associates indicate that only a small percentage of the aged actually still need and want help in paying health costs (these aged would be covered by the program now being considered by the Texas Legislature).

In view of these facts, the national "medicare" tax proposal (the King-Anderson bill, H.R. 1) is not needed. "Medicare" benefits are very limited, covering about one quarter (25%) of the total yearly health care costs of the average aged person. "Medicare" would not cover physicians' services or surgical charges, nor would it cover the cost of drugs outside of institutional care.

The "medicare" proposal is an extremely expensive one. While we all are starting to enjoy a reduction in federal income taxes as a result of action by Congress last year, the "medicare" program would cost an estimated $1.7 billion dollars in additional taxes the first year. "Medicare" would increase payroll taxes to cover everyone over 65—even the wealthy. The employee who now pays a maximum tax of $174 annually would find the amount for Social Security benefits and "medicare" increased to $291 by 1971. Employers would pay a similar increase for each employee, thus resulting in higher prices for goods and services.

The Texas approach of providing medical, surgical and hospital care to those who need it is a more comprehensive, more economical program than "medicare," and it provides more benefits. If you object to paying higher payroll taxes for an undesirable, unneeded program, write your Congressman today. Ask him to oppose the "medicare" tax proposal, mentioning the programs for the aged now available in Texas. Ask him to support the Herlong-Curtis Elder Care Bill (H.R. 3727), which would make possible the broadening of the existing Texas program to provide medical, hospital and nursing home care for those few remaining aged who are still in need of help.

City Annexes Developments After Zoning Is Approved

Three commercial developments in north Hereford were annexed Monday night by the city council after zoning requests — in all but one instance — were approved.

The one zoning application, which would have left the way open on 15th St. for an eventual neighborhood business development, that was turned down concerned the Williams Subdivision. That request was made by I.D. Rhodes who contended the questioned property was only limited possibilities commercially.

OTHER AREAS dealt with Monday night include the Bluebonnet addition, Unit II, and the Northridge addition.

In other action, the council heard a proposal from Morris Easley, who is putting in an IBM processing center here, to service the city's payroll, water and sewer accounts and tax statements.

Called a municipal election on April 6 and appointed election judges and clerks.

Authorized the installation of street lights in the 300 block of Ave. A.

Reviewed the yearly fire department report.

IN MUSING OVER the Rhodes request that a 10-lot strip across his property between 14th and 15th Streets and just west of North Park zoned a D business district, the commissioners noted such action would be "spot" zoning, a practice frowned on by zoning authorities.

The request was turned down by the zoning commission, although an accompanying application that the rest of the seven-acre plot be zoned as a B-duplex district was approved.

Rhodes said the area was some district from a shopping location and he hoped to eventually induce a grocery store, laundry and other small businesses to locate there. A "7-11" grocery store already had indicated an interest, he said.

"The area is just across from that Little League ball park and you are not going to be able to get anybody to build a home in there," he asserted. "If this request isn't approved about the only thing I can do is build more duplexes."

COMMISSIONER Lloyd Sharp moved to uphold the zoning commission's recommendation and Gid Brown seconded the motion. Mayor Ray Cowser, voting in the absence of Albert Maxwell, joined them in okaying the action. Commissioner W.L. Davis Jr. abstained.

The commission then approved the annexation of the remainder of the Williams subdivision property as a B-duplex zoned district.

About 70 acres, including the Bluebonnet Elementary School property, was involved in the request submitted by John D. Pitman, developer.

Property fronting U. S. Hwy. 385 was brought in as an E-business district, the school property and the block to the west as a B-duplex district and the remainder as A-residential.

THE NORTHDRIDGE property, involving about eight acres in an application submitted by H. L. Higgins, is located between 13th and 14th streets east of U. S. 385. Some of this property was zoned as C-multi family and the rest as A-residential.

Easley, explaining his IBM operation which is currently being installed, said "My idea here in Hereford is that we don't have any businesses here that are big enough to put in their own equipment."

Yet there are several who are planning to use his service on a fee basis, he said.

HE QUOTED the city a figure of $6,154 for processing and billing the water, tax and payroll accounts for the first year and $5,404 plus the increase in customers for the second year and thereafter.

(The city took bids last month on a new billing machine for these purposes but deferred action until commissioners could examine machines offered by the Burroughs Co. and National Cash Register.)

Mayor Cowser said the Easley proposal would be taken under advisement.

Named as election judges were Don Zimmerman an W. B. Wilson and as clerks Mrs. Walter Seed, Mrs. Garland Solomon and Mrs. Clinton Jackson.

PLY LARGE MAIL TRADE

Land 'Bonanzas', Song 'Sharks' Are Suspect

This is another in a series of articles prepared by the Hereford Postmaster on the dangers of mail fraud.

By means of attractive brochures sent through the mail in addition to newspaper advertisements, unscrupulous promoters peddle nearly worthless land and hold it forth as suitable for home site, retirement, or investment purposes.

The inducement to buy is usually an apparent low price. Buyers are seldom near enough to the property to personally inspect it without spending more for transportation than the price of the land warrants. This, coupled with the "bargain instinct," is part of the scheme.

Frequently such land is peddled at fairs and other similar public events at which the land is usually disposed of by so-called "free drawings" in which practically everyone who registers is a "winner" and is asked to pay only the so-called "closing costs" which actually represent far more than the land is worth.

The Post Office Department's experience in numerous promotions of this type has shown that the purchase of land by mail is highly speculative, to say the least, and should be entered into cautiously. Persons considering such a purchase are urged to inspect the exact parcel of land under consideration and to determine that a good and clear title will be conveyed by the seller and that the property can legally be used for the purpose for which it is being purchased.

PROMOTERS IN California sold worthless building lots in the desert for a total of $3,000,000 before any victim realized the mails were used for promotional literature, bringing this major swindle within range of Postal Inspectors. The promoters have been successfully prosecuted.

Anyone who feels he may have been swindled should be advised to consider the possibility the mails were used, even to the clearing of a check, in which case the matter should be brought to the attention of the Postal Inspectors.

Keep in mind also that magazines and newspapers containing advertising which may be part of a fraudulent enterprise also go through the mails, bringing the scheme within the fraud statute.

The Post Office Department has no authority to recover your money or property or take any action to adjust an unsatisfactory transaction, but where there is evidence of a violation of the postal laws, the matter is presented to a United States Attorney for consideration of criminal prosecution or to the General Counsel for consideration of fraud order action.

MUSIC IS ONE of the largest industries in the United States. A fabulous amount of money is spent each year for musical instruments, sheet music, and phonograph records. Millions of people enjoy writing song lyrics or music as a hobby. This field has been invaded by the "song shark" who finds it easy to swindle many persons who would like to have their lyrics or music published.

The song shark poses as a legitimate music publisher, or as a musician especially qualified to help arrange words and music so that music publishers will consider buying the finished song. Impressive advertisements offering to criticize lyrics or music appear in magazines. Whatever material is sent, even the simplest poem of a child, the "song shark" will praise it and assure the sender that with a moderate fee the company will be glad to collaborate.

After the money is sent no service of any value is rendered. The amateur song writer has thrown his money away. The same is true of those who offer for a fee, to publish your literary efforts. A genuine publisher will tell you the truth about the value of your writing and will assume all costs for publishing and you should suspect anyone who offers any such proposition.

One fraudulent operator who collected $453,000 in "fees" from thousands of amateur songwriters from coast to coast was recently convicted of mail fraud, placed on probation for five years, and prohibited from any further solicitation or sale by mail. He had followed in the footsteps of his father who had bilked the public of at least $1,000,000 before being sentenced to

Infant Buried Here Monday

Graveside services were held here at 9:30 a.m. Monday for Jeffrey Lynn Carter, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Carter of Artesia, N. M.

The child, who was the grandson of Mrs. T. J. Carter of Hereford, was born and died on Feb. 25.

Rites were conducted by the Rev. Herschel Thurston, pastor of the First Methodist Church and burial was in West Park Cemetery.

Other survivors include a brother, Thomas Jr., and a sister, Susan Bruce.

serve 18 months in prison plus probation for three years and a $4,500 fine.

PAY STUDENTS MORE THAN ADULTS?

Connally Questions Labor Dept. Directive

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — Gov. John Connally served notice on the U. S. Labor Department he doesn't like its directives that unskilled high school students in War on Poverty program jobs must be paid more than some of their parents make.

Connally, needed by an unnamed Labor Department official, indignantly denied he is scuttling the new Neighborhood Youth Corps job project. But he made clear he won't approve application of some 23 local school districts for participation in the program until he is sure they know what they are getting into.

NYC offers part-time jobs (10-15 hours a week) around schools and public agencies to youngsters 16-21 who are on the verge of becoming high school dropouts because of financial difficulties. Federal government pay 90 per cent of the cost and local participating units 10 per cent. But next year the cost will be shared 50-50.

CONNALLY SPOKE out against the Labor Department ruling that students must be paid $1.25 per hour, the federal minimum wage.

The 23 districts, before ruling was announced, proposed to pay rates ranging from 60 cents to $1.20 an hour. Originally, Labor Department had notified the districts wages "should be a little below the prevailing entry rates for inexperienced workers in similar occupations."

The $1.25 order came out after applications were filed.

"This action," protested Connally, "would place local school districts in the awkward and unrealistic position of paying inexperienced school age students of underprivileged families a rate of pay for casual chores that in many cases would exceed that of adult employees working in the same facility, the average earnings of their own parents, and the wages he himself might reasonably expect to earn in the days immediately following school."

Furthermore, Connally noted, a directly parallel program for potential dropouts among college students administered by Department of Health, Education and Welfare pays 75 cents an hour upward.

House of Representatives applauded Connally's stand but specified it did not intend to criticize the President or his War on Poverty program.

COORDINATING BOARD APPROVED — Governor Connally's number one project of the session — creation of a powerful 18 member coordinating board to supervise all aspects of higher education in Texas — swept through both houses of the Legislature with the speed of a blue norther.

Legislators who opposed it — and there were only a few — had as much chance of stopping it as they would of forestalling a gathering storm.

After being guided through the House by Rep. Dick Corey of Victoria, the bill was picked up by Sen. Bill Moore of Bryan in Senate, where it went through without an amendment and was passed on to the governor for signing.

Connally has until September 1 to choose the 18 members of the board. They will replace the Texas Commission on Higher Education and will take on the task of directing all higher education institutions from junior colleges through the university systems.

Board will decide what courses are to be offered by each institution. It was given the most far-reaching authority granted by the Legislature since the Railroad Commission was authorized to grant railroad permits. Present college boards of regents will continue to serve. But they will be responsible to the new overall coordinating board.

Another of the governor's education plans, to replace 12 separate boards of regents which govern the 22 state colleges and universities with three boards of university systems, had not yet been introduced when the coordinating board plan was adopted.

Some legislators feel that the system board plan may have served to lessen the opposition to the coordinating board particularly among representatives from the colleges whose board would be abolished.

PESTICIDE PROTESTED — A cheap poison used against roaches and rats in many homes and in grain storage bins and warehouses can cause loss of hair and mental disturbances, physicians testified in a House committee hearing. In heavy doses, it can kill a person or leave him mentally incompetent, they said.

Doctors appeared at a public health committee hearing on a bill which would outlaw the sale, use or possession of poisons based on thallium compounds.

That said the poison can take effect upon even very brief exposure and that its symptoms are hard to diagnose. Some persons have been interned in mental hospitals before the real reason for their illness was discovered, they said. At present there is no known antidote to the poison except time.

MEDICAL AID PLANNED — Strategy designed to quickly pass a medical assistance bill as soon as Congress passes its expected new legislation has been announced by Rep. Charles Wilson of Lufkin. He is sponsor of a House bill to extend Kerr-Mills payments to elderly persons not on old-age pensions.

Wilson asked a House committee to report out his bill quickly so it could be passed on the floor and sent to the Senate. A Senate bill will not be considered until the federal legislation is enacted, he said. In this way, the Senate version can authorize participation in the new federal plans and the details can be worked out to the satisfaction of House members in a conference committee.

Old-age pensioners already are eligible for help on their medical bills through the federal-state program.

LIQUOR, RACING BILL HEARING SET — Horse racing and "small bottles" liquor bills are expected to turn out some of the biggest crowds at legislative hearings this month.

Bill by Rep. Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville to legalize pari-mutuel betting on horse races will be heard by House State Af-airs Committee on March 29. Edinburg Sen. Jim Bates' bill to permit sale of two-ounce bottles of liquor by restaurants will get hearing before Senate jurisprudence committee on March 16.

San Antonio Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry has introduced a proposed constitutional amendment of his own to legalize horse racing on a local option basis in Bexar, Cameron, Dallas, Hidalgo, Harris, Galveston, Midland, Tarrant and Webb counties.

Only teacher pay raises attract more mail to lawmakers than parimutuel wagering and liquor-by-the-drink legislation. This year, there's strong support on, as well as opposition to, both propositions.

"SPENDING" RULE ROW FLARES — Tightening of a joint House-Senate rule banning consideration of single-purpose spending measures ahead of the general appropriations bill may mean the difference in the type of pay raise teachers get this year.

Senators adopted 22-9 a "compromise" version making the provisions of a stricter House-passed Joint Rule 9-A effective only during the first 120 days of the session. The House is expected to agree.

Opponents say the rule still will prevent even a committee hearing of teacher pay bills until last 20 days of the session — or until the budget is adopted and certified by the comptroller.

Teachers fear the delay will be used to gain support for Connally's long range, graduated pay bill, which they claim gives them far less than their own raise proposal.

CITIES ASK SALES TAX — Spokesmen for cities urged a legislative committee to recommend that cities be given authority to levy local sales tax up to one per cent if citizens vote approval in special elections.

They said they have gone about as far as they can with raising property taxes and need additional sources of revenue to provide necessary services.

Union representatives argued there still is plenty of mileage left in property tax. Also a local sales tax would hit little people harder and lighten the load on those most able to pay.

In House revenue and tax committee hearing at same time, tobacco industry spokesmen said a bill to raise the cigarette tax a penny a pack would be a serious blow to them.

Both bills went to sub-committee.

REDISTRICTING — Legislators got a sampling of public views on congressional and legislative redistricting during a four-hour public hearing before the House District Committee.

As expected, they didn't get much help, since every plan advanced met opposition from some quarter.

House committee members heard lengthy testimony on four proposals and two bills to realign the State House of Representatives.

Eight more measures remain to be heard. Chairman Gus Mutscher of Brenham said he hopes to set all of them next week and get the job into the hands of sub-committees as the Senate districts committee already has done.

In the Senate, Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall is interviewing individual senators on how congressional lines should be redrawn. House sub-committees are moving into their second week of similar contracts with the 150 representatives.

SHORT SNORTS — Top bill to oil and gas industry — forced lease pooling — already has approval of both houses and is on the governor's desk.

A bill assuring Lower Rio Grande Valley users that they will continue to receive water under a present court order until a pending suit is finally decided was enacted.

Bills to create a navigation district which would open the Sabine to barge traffic from Longview to the deep water port at Orange got a friendly reception in committee.

Governor Connally has proclaimed May as Senior Citizens Month.

The governor, as chairman of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, will testify before the Secretary of Interior on March 10 and 11 on the entire oil imports situation.

Hal Woodward, Coleman attorney, was sworn in for a second six-year term on the Texas State Highway Commission.

Deer and barbary sheep in Palo Duro Canyon southeast of Amarillo are being counted by Park and Wildlife Department personnel using a helicopter.

Senate passed bill to set up new tuberculosis eradication program under State Health Department to start in South, South Central Texas and along the Mexican border.

Speaking of Sports...

by PHIL DUNCAN
BRAND SPORTS EDITOR

Things are still popping on the local sports scene, with something new coming up every day.

We have had more news in the past several days than we have been able to cover, but by some method, we managed to pack it all in this section of the Brand.

The HHS track team traveled to Ft. Stockton last weekend, and considering the competition at the meet, the local boys fared very well.

Although no points were made by the local team, Walter Williams did qualify for the finals in the 440 and placed seventh in the overall meet.

The team will travel to Brownfield this weekend to the Brownfield Relays, and will go to Denver City the following week.

Robert Strange finished the season with a 15.2 point per game.

Robert has looked great through the entire season and has been a consistent high scorer.

Robert was high point man in 14 games and scored 25 points in four games and over 20 points in five games.

He was in the double figures in 17 games for the season. Strange was hitting 75 per cent of his free throws at mid-season but fell off to 66.7 percent after district play was finished.

The HHS gridders are continuing their track and weight program, according to Jack Meredith, head football mentor.

Several of the boys seem to be putting on weight, but it is all muscle and no fat.

They should really be in good shape for the coming season if they continue their hard work.

Several local sports enthusiasts are planning a trip to Houston to the opening of their new Astrodome.

It should really be a sight to see, according to releases received here this week.

The multi-million dollar stadium is owned by Harris County and has many, many firsts.

A few of them are: —First domed structure of over 400 feet clear span (it is 642 feet).

—First time single space of this volume has ever been air conditioned.

ASTROS' DIAMOND — This is the diamond the Houston Astros will play on this season in Harris County. The giant building will seat more than 66,000 persons.

Bob Baker Attends School In Dallas

Bob Baker, professional at John Pitman Municipal Golf Course, was in Dallas Feb. 22-27 attending the National Professional Golf Association's Business School.

Five-Day School
Baker left Friday, Feb. 19, for the school and attended many lectures in the six-day seminar, instructing in new methods of golf course management.

"I think I picked up some real good ideas while attending this school," Baker said, "and I am sure it will help the overall management of the local course."

The local pro attended lectures on Golf Club Repair Service, Instruction of Junior Golfers, Golf Cart Operations, Teaching the Beginner, Procedures on Club Tournaments and Group Instruct-

Lectures Helpful
Baker said the group instruc-

—Largest convention facility.

If this isn't doing things the Texas way, I don't know what is.

I had planned to do a story on fishing this week, but as you might have figured for this Panhandle weather, a big snow hit Monday and spoiled that so I guess you will see the story next Thursday, providing it doesn't snow.

Herd Cagers Finish 4th Winning 11, Losing 11

Strange Ends Play With 15.2 Average

Robert Strange finished out the cage season leading the Herd in the scoring department as he racked up a total of 334 points for an average of 15.2 per game, being the only Whiteface to hit an average in the double figures.

Strange made 116 field goals of 253 attempts for an average of 45.8 percent. He made 102 of 153 free throws for an average of 66.7 percent, leading the top scorers in this department.

Childers Second
Joe Childers placed second in the scoring department for the Herd as he hit 202 points in the season for a total of 9.6 points per game.

Childers had 74 field goals of 150 attempts for an average of 49.3 percent. He hit 54 of 87 free throws for a 62.1 percent of completions.

Childers led the Herd in the field goal percentage department, being paced by Kenny Justice, who hit 46.5 of his field goals.

Lemons Hits 178
Robbie Lemons had a total of 178 points for the season, hitting an average of 8.1 points per game.

He hit 60 of 165 field goals

Clinic At WT

CANYON — Sid Gillman, head coach of the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League, will be the principal lecturer at the third annual West Texas State Coaching Clinic scheduled for March 12 and 13 at the Buffalo Fieldhouse on the WTSU campus.

Finishes 30th Year
Gillman has just finished his thirtieth season of coaching, twenty of which he has been a head coach. He held the head coaching positions at Miami of Ohio, Cincinnati and Los Angeles of the National Football League before taking over the Chargers five years ago. Gillman also served Ohio State, Denison, Miami and West Point as an assistant.

Some of Gillman's proteges are Ara Parseghian (Notre Dame), Paul Dietzel (Army), Nate Harlan (Saint Thomas), John Pont (Indiana), Bones Taylor (Houston Oilers), Norm Van Brocklin (Minnesota Vikings) and Al Davis (Oakland Raiders).

Has Good Record
Gillman's overall won-lost record is one of the best — 155 wins, 78 losses and four ties for a winning percentage of .665. He's won five divisional championships and one league title in pro football.

In his 30 years as head coach, the 53-year old coach has had just three losing seasons. At Miami, Sid won 31, lost six and tied one in four years; he finished a six-year tour at Cincinnati with a 50-13-1 record. His record with Los Angeles of the National Football League was 28-32-1, but he gave the Rams their only divisional title in the past 14 seasons. Gillman has won the divisional title every year but one with the Chargers and won the League's championship in 1963. His record with the Chargers is 46-27-1.

Plans Lectures
As might be expected, Gillman's lectures are titled "The Passing Game" and "The Charger Offense."

The clinic will start Friday morning, March 12, and wind up with the annual Varsity-Alumni game Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. Several door prizes will be given and a barbecue sponsored by two local sporting goods companies will highlight the off hours.

Pollet will coach the Houston Oilers next season, Benson will alternate as a Yankee third base coach with Frank Crosetti, and Hemus will be back coaching Cleveland.

For years Houston was a farm team in the St. Louis chain. Pollet is a local resident. So is ex-Card manager Johnny Keane, new Yankee manager.

for an average of 36.4. Lemons hit 58 of 105 free throws for an average of 55.2.

He was third in scoring for the Herd.

Steve Hodges hit 165 points during the season for the Herd, averaging 7.5 points per game. He made 55 of 94 free throws for averages of 35.5 and 65.5 percent respectively.

Hodges was second in the free throw department behind Robert Strange.

Gene Duvall hit 134 points during the season to place fifth in scoring for the Herd as he averaged 6.1 points per game.

Duvall Hit 134
Duvall hit 55 of 154 field goals during the season for an average of 35.7 percent. He hit 24 of 42 free throws for an average of 57.1 percent.

Roger Owen placed sixth in scoring for the season as he scored a total of 131 points for an average of 6.0 points per game.

Owen hit 54 of 128 field goals for an average of 42.2 percent. He hit 23 of 39 free throws for an average of 59.0 percent.

Kenny Justice was the last player of the 1964-65 squad to hit over 100 points in the season as he scored 112 for the season at an average of 5.1 points per game.

Justice hit 46 of 99 field goals for a 46.3 percent of completions, which ranked as second best among the leading scorers.

Justice Is Second
He hit 20 of 36 free throws for an average of 55.6 percent.

Other persons scoring for the Herd during the past season were Charlie Moreno, 45; Oscar Holmes, 26; Gary Payne, 21; Greg Richards, 14; Randy Tool-ey, 4 and other, 31.

Joe Childers was charged with more fouls than any other player as he was called on for 72 fouls.

Kenny Justice and Roger Owen both got the least number in the top scorers with 40 each.

Gene Duvall had 41, Steve Hodges had 48, Robbie Lemons had 62 and Robert Strange had 61.

Hereford Whiteface cagers finished out their 1964-65 season boasting a 11-11 won-loss record for the season and posting a 6-4 record in District 1-AAA action. The Herd placed fourth in 1-AAA as the district ended in a three-way tie, with Dumas winning the playoff.

The Herd outscored their district opponents as they racked up 676 points to their nearest competitors' 595, which was made by Tulia.

However, the Herd had 598 points scored on them, and only hapless Canyon and Muleshoe allowed more points than this to be scored.

Hereford's opponents over the entire season scored 1399 points in 22 games, while Hereford scored 1397 in the same games.

The opponents averaged 63.6, while Hereford was averaging 63.5 points per game.

Hereford's worse loss of the season was dealt by Monterey of Lubbock, who defeated Hereford in the Caprock Tourney, 101-48.

The high point of the season for the Herd was in their 110-72 defeat of the winless Muleshoe Mules.

The Herd also exhibited great style in knocking off the Dumas Demons from a cinch district crown as they defeated the Demons here in the final game of the season, 50-44.

Hereford made 361 of 606 free throws attempts in the 22 games for a 59.6 percentage of completions.

Their opponents made 397 of 624 free throws for a 63.6 percentage of completions in the same number of games.

In the field goal department, the Herd made 518 out of 1252 for a 41.4 percentage, while their opponents were making 501 out of 1168 for a 42.9 percentage of completions.

The Herd's opponents were charged with 446 personal fouls, while the Herd was charged with 454 for the season.

Six of the defeats for the season came at the hands of powerful AAAA schools, while they were participating in double headers at Amarillo, Lubbock and Seminole.

'Redshirt' System Studied By All

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The professional football leagues have passed a rule, with teeth in it, barring the signing of college players until they have completed their eligibility, including bowl games. But they have left the signing of red-shirts — the five-yearman — partially open.

Now if a redshirt starts his final year he will not be bothered. But the pros have decided that if a redshirt drops out of school on his own for personal reasons and does not register for his fifth year, he may be signed.

New Ruling

In other words, the pros could talk the redshirt into not taking the final year. But if he does take his final year the pros signing during the season, secret or otherwise, and the red-shirt can play in a bowl game won't sign him until he finishes his eligibility — there will be no before his eligibility is declared at an end.

There is considerable opposition to the redshirt program, accentuated by the recent controversy over George Sauer, the Texas end who quit college football with plans of signing a pro contract.

It now appears that the action taken by the pros might have more effect on getting rid of this program than the opposition among the college people.

Program Senseless

The colleges may take the view that it would be senseless to have a redshirt program since the pro clubs might talk the five-year men into signing before

BROWNWOOD ADVANCES TO STATE FINALS

Dumas Edged Out By Lions In Bi-District Scramble

(Special To The Brand)
LUBBOCK — District 1-AAA champion Dumas Demons fought a bitter battle to the end Friday afternoon in Lubbock's Municipal Coliseum, but failed to come out on top in the AAA bi-district clash.
 Battling back from a nine-point deficit early in the third quarter, Dumas cut the margin to two points, only to see the Brownwood Lions hold on in the fourth quarter for a 40-38 victory in an opening-round Class AAA regional basketball tournament game.
 Brownwood advanced into the state finals at 4 p.m. Saturday, defeating Seminole at Lubbock. A five-minute, 27 second scoring drought, which started in the first quarter and extended well into the second, was the key factor in Dumas' defeat.
 Dennis Cothren canned a free throw with 1:30 remaining in the first quarter to cut the Brownwood margin to 9-8. No Demon was able to tally a point until the 6-5 Cothren hit a jumper with 4:07 left in the second quarter.
 By the time Dumas was able to break the drought, the Demons were behind, 16-8. Although Dumas was able to cut that margin to two points several times, it never was able to even the count.
 By halftime, Brownwood had increased its lead to seven points, 25-18. C. E. Carmichael canned a driving layup 1:05 deep in the third quarter to give his team the widest margin of the game, 27-18.

 Ronnie Stephenson drilled a pair of long jump shots to cut the lead to five points 27-22.
 James Harris, 5-11 Brownwood jumping jack, scored on a drive to make it 29-22 before Cothren hit a hot streak. The lanky Dumas cager tallied five straight points to make it 29-27. Carmichael twisted through Demon defenders for another one of his driving scores with 3:37 remaining in the third quarter.
 Cothren scored again to cut it to 31-29, but Harris tallied a free shot with six seconds remaining in the quarter.
 At the start of the fourth quarter, Brownwood coach Pete Murray sent his charges into a delay game. It proved effective as the Lions pulled to a 40-33 margin with 3:01 remaining in the game.
 Dumas reserve Tim Galloway sneaked in for a layup to make the score 40-35. Another reserve, Ricky Price, drilled a free throw with 47 seconds left.
 Carmichael lost the ball near midcourt, and Norman Bonner dribbled in for an uncontested layup with 23 seconds left in the game for the final score.
 The smooth working Lions maintained possession for the final seconds to take the victory. Neither team was able to hit for a high percentage of shots.

The Demons canned 16 of 44 efforts for 36.4 percent, while Brownwood had 15 of 41 for 36.6.
 The Lions won at the free throw line, despite 50 percent effort, 10 of 20, Dumas connected on six of nine free pitches.
 Carmichael paced the victors with 15 points and Harris had 13. The spring-legged Harris pulled down eight rebounds.
 Cothren tallied 15 points for Dumas and totaled nine rebounds. Hulon Kirkland was below his normal scoring punch but maintained his effectiveness as a rebounder with 13. The 6-4 Dumas senior had only six points.
 The Demons of coach Jerry Hale ended their season with a 12-13 record. They tied Perryton and Tulia for the District 1-AAA title and won the play-off.

'Redshirt' Rule Started Many Years Ago For A Good Purpose

 they decided to take their last season.
 There are strong arguments on both sides regarding the red-shirts. Whether the good over-balances the bad is what is causing all the talk.
 The Southwest Conference has had a redshirt program for at least 30 years. It was inaugurated with some very worthwhile objectives.
 It was designed to help the boy who might be injured and lost a season, give the boy who ran into scholastic difficulties a chance to make it up and still have his four years of college competition, aid the boy who might have to stay out of school for personal reasons and to help the junior college transfer.
 The boy who came from a junior college was guaranteed four years of college competition. The one-year junior college boy got four years at a senior college to get in three (he had to stay out his first year just like the regular freshman). The junior college graduate's eligibility started as soon as he reached senior college and he had three years to obtain two varsity seasons.
Rule Used
 But the rule has been used in other ways. The coaches would hold a boy out his sophomore season if he seemed to need development or if the team was well-stocked with players at his position. In some instances, the boys were held out in their junior seasons.
Trull Was Redshirt
 Prominent redshirts in the Southwest Conference the past few years have included Don Trull, the great passer at Baylor; Fred Marshall, star of Arkansas' undefeated, untied team that claimed the national title when it won the Cotton Bowl; Donny Anderson, Texas Tech's All-American halfback; Eddie McKaughan, ace quarterback of Texas A&M; Steve Garmon, TCU's all-conference guard; Marvin Kristynik, Texas quarterback; John Hughes, SMU's great guard.

 However, Anderson couldn't be considered a true redshirt but a five-year man. Anderson was scholastically ineligible his sophomore year.
COVERS MUCH GROUND
 LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — College basketball fans in Kentucky will have a hard time this winter keeping up with conference races.
 With the University of Louisville now competing in the Missouri Valley Conference, teams from the Bluegrass state will be playing in six leagues.
 There are Kentucky teams also in the southeastern Ohio Valley, Kentucky Intercollegiate and College Athletic Conferences and the Midwestern Athletic Association.
RARE RIDING FEAT
 BALTIMORE (AP) — Albert Johnson is the only jockey ever to win the Pimlico Futurity three times in two years.
 He won with Morvich in the 1921 inaugural and took both divisions of the 1922 event, winning the Blossom Time and Sally's Alley.

 Larry Champ was the leading scorer for the Junior Varsity as he racked up 211 points for a 9.6 point per game average.
 The Junior Varsity scored 1047 points in the season for an average of 47.6 per game, while their opponents were scoring 1055 for a 48.0 point per game average.
 Their worst defeat of the season came at the hands of the Tulia Junior Varsity as they were dropped 66-46. They beat the Hornets in a return match here, 53-51.
 Their widest margin of the season was when they beat Littlefield 67-38 at Littlefield.
 The Freshman team was the only group to finish with a record on the plus side as they had 10 wins against eight losses for the season.
 They scored 943 points in the 18 games for a total of 52.4 points per game, while their opponents were scoring 811 for a total of 45.1 points per game.
 The Freshmen hit 401 field goals, while their opponents hit only 290.

Adrian Tops Channing For 3-B Champion

(Special To The Brand)
HARTLEY — Adrian played the spoilers' role Saturday night, upsetting the favored Channing Eagles for the District 3-B Basketball championship 60-56.
 The one game sudden death playoff was necessary as Channing, winner of the round robin, failed to win the district tournament-Adrian upset Channing again Friday night 73-65 in the tourney finals.
Had 31-2 Record
 Channing went into Saturday's game with a 31-2 record, losses being to Adrian, one in non-conference play and one in the district tourney.
 Channing defeated Adrian twice in district round robin play.
 For the Matadors of Coach Davis Brown, it was a Cinderella finish.
 They advanced into title contention after surviving a sudden death playoff with Vega, and then two upset victories over the favored Eagles.
 Channing's Randy Sherrrod, Leiland Vandiver and Jerry Muney took the fight to Adrian early, enjoying a lead of 21-10 in the first quarter.
Adrian Fought Back
 Adrian fought back with outstanding play by Clinton Brown on the defensive board and Billy Perry on the offensive efforts. Channing led 21-10 at the end of the first quarter, and left for halftime intermission still leading 40-26.
 Coach Roy Young's Eagles blew cold for a spell in the third quarter, scoring nine points, while Adrian hit 17, closing the period with Adrian still down, 49-43. Billy Perry, Rick Gruhkey and Mike Horation hit important goals in the final period to tie the score, 56-48 with 45 seconds remaining in the game.
 Gruhkey hit a pair of free throws and a layup to ice the game for the Matadors, sending them directly to the Class B Regional tourney.

19 BOYS ENTERED

'Thinclads' Prepare For Brownfield Meet Saturday

Seven boys traveled to Fort Stockton last Saturday to enter the Comanche Relays, with only one speedster making the finals in the meet which was attended by more than 90 AAA and AAAA schools.

Walter Williams ran a 52.4 second 440 in the preliminaries to make the finals where he ran a 53 flat 440 and finished seventh place.

No Points Scored
"Although we did not score any points in the meet," Coach Jesse Geron commented, "I was real satisfied with the boys' efforts and felt it was their best showing thus far in the year."
This week, the track team will travel to Brownfield where 19

the mile relay.
Davis in Mile Relay
Mike Davis also ran a leg on the mile relay, while George Malouf ran the mile.
Geron is figuring his quarter-mile strong for the district contention.

He also expressed hope that Ricky Fangman would get some distance on the discus and be in possible contention.

"We have a lot of kids to pick from," Geron said, "and although none of them have blind speed, we know they are working hard and we are well pleased with them."

Strange in Contention
Geron also figured Robert Strange to be high in district contention in the high jump event.

Teams participating in the Brownfield meet will include Brownfield, Denver City, Kermit, Snyder, Seminole, Fort Stockton and many other AAA schools.

The boys will travel to Denver City the following weekend.

NO CROWDING: BY ORDER

KLERKSDORP, South Africa — Plans are afoot in this small gold mining town to silence crowing roosters, traditional heralds of the dawn.

The local fowl population has grown too large and residents complained bitterly of being kept awake by the early morning vocal exercises of the roosters. Pestered by public complaints, town councillors decided it was time to do something about preserving the peace and quietness of Klerksdorp. Their first step was to declare the proud male birds a "common nuisance."

"After all, this is not a farm — it is a town," said one ruffled councillor.

WHAT HE WAS TRYING TO AVOID

FLINT, Mich. — A truck hit a patch of ice on the U. S. 23 Freeway, skidded and overturned. The truck driver wasn't hurt. But he was embarrassed. The Genesee County truck was spreading salt to eliminate slick spots.

What's Your Story?

... what? You haven't written one? Then you'll be surprised to know that you write a line every day. God laid clean white pages before you and challenged you to give an accounting of your days on earth... one by one. What you write may embarrass you or it may make for happiness. One fact is sure. It becomes a permanent record. Every day comes from God. He offers us new opportunities with the dawn of each new day... opportunities to write with integrity and trust and genuine goodness. What will you write today? Were you a blessing to another? Did you attend church this week? Have you helped the poor? What are you writing? What's Your Story???

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Cook's Triumph: Homemade Noodles For Lent

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

HERE IT comes — a great meatless dish!

Designed for cooks who get real satisfaction when they cook from scratch, this homemade noodle recipe is so thoroughly tested and clearly explained that even a novice in the kitchen should be able to make it successfully.

After the noodles are cooked, we suggest giving them a partner: a can of the delightful small early peas that nowadays are widely available.

And one suggestion: at our house we made up the noodle dough one day, cut it in strips and let the strips dry thoroughly overnight. Next day it was easy to cook the noodles and add the peas for a delicious main dish.

HOMEMADE NOODLES WITH PEAS

- 2 eggs
- 1 1/2 tablespoons cold water
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

- 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 1 can (17 ounces) small early peas, drained
- 1 egg yolk, well beaten
- 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- Salt and pepper to taste

In a medium mixing bowl beat together the eggs, cold water and salt until the eggs are thickened and lemon colored. Stir in the flour to form a stiff dough; if necessary add more flour, kneading lightly to work it in. Divide dough in half. Using a prepared pastry cloth and stockinet-covered rolling pin, roll out one half of the dough so it is very thin and about 12 inches square; repeat with second half of dough. Place the dough between dish towels to dry partially (dough should still be soft enough to roll up). Roll up each portion of the dough in jelly roll fashion; cut into 1/2-inch wide strips; spread out between towels to dry thoroughly before cooking.

To cook the noodles, gradually add them to 6 cups of rapidly boiling water and 1 1/2 teaspoons salt. Boil uncovered, stirring occasionally, until just tender — about 10 minutes. While noodles are cooking, in a small saucepan melt the butter. Add drained canned peas and keep warm over very low heat. When noodles are done, remove from heat and add a small amount of cold water to stop the cooking process. Drain thoroughly and place on a large serving platter. Toss with beaten egg yolk. Add peas with melted butter, tossing lightly to mix and coat noodles. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese, salt and pepper. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

CRISP CHOCOLATE COOKIES

  - 1 cup sugar
  - 3 squares (2 ounces) semi-sweet chocolate melted
  - 3/4 cup unsifted flour
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1/3 cup thinly sliced walnuts
- With the electric mixer, in a small bowl, beat the egg until thick and ivory color. Without washing beater, in a medium bowl, cream the butter and sugar, add beaten egg; beat to combine. Stir in melted chocolate to blend. Add flour and salt; stir to combine. Fold in walnuts. Drop by level tablespoonfuls, 2 inches apart, onto lightly greased cookie sheets. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven for 20 minutes. With a wide spatula, remove to wire racks to cool. Store in a tightly covered container. Makes 3 dozen.

- 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- Salt and freshly ground pepper

Drop pouch of peas into enough boiling water (about 3 cups) to cover. Bring to a boil; boil, uncovered, for 14 minutes, turning several times. Meanwhile, cook noodles according to package directions; drain; toss with egg yolk. Remove peas from cooking water; open pouch and pour peas over noodles, tossing lightly to mix. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese, salt and pepper to taste. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Activities Slated For 'Red Cross Month'

Melvin Jayroe, chairman of the Deaf Smith County Chapter of the American Red Cross, has scheduled several activities in accordance with the Proclamation by the President of the United States designating this as Red Cross Month. The President's radio and TV salute was made at 8 p.m. Sunday.

During the first week of March the area director of nursing services will hold classes in Amarillo on how to teach aid to the sick and injured through TV class work.

Mrs. Leroy Aven, newly appointed Red Cross Youth chairman, will attend the third session of the organization of the Panhandle Red Cross Youth Council Saturday in Amarillo. Mrs. Millard Nobles is co-chairman of this group and representatives from the High School Council who plan to attend are Jane Messick and Fanelida Williams.

Nine Gray Ladies will complete their basic training this month and according to Corinne Neely, this will bring the chapter's unit to an all-time high of 22 active adult members. There are six Junior Gray Ladies who are in school at the present time but assist during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kester, Rossi Simpson, Florence Robinson, Connie Brumley and Mark Walker are scheduled to complete the first part of 18 hours for Water Safety instructors course, Part I. They spend three hours each of six weeks in class work at the present time.

Six two-hour sessions of the "Mother and Baby Care" adult class is scheduled for completion. This is taught in the high school at evening session under the direction of Mrs. Earl Springer and Mrs. Fred Stindt.

Slated for March 23 is a visit from the field representative, Dick Strayer of Amarillo, with a session planned with the three-county consultant group which Hereford centers. Scheduled for this same day is a meeting with the Jaycees who form the core of the disaster plan. The subject of this program will center around the month on the Northwest Flood Disaster during December and January.

Committees will meet to carry out the plans for the month and also plan for up-coming events for April. One of the activities to be discussed is for the Deaf Smith County Chapter to be host to the Panhandle Red Cross Chapters for both Texas and Oklahoma. The chapter's annual meeting is also scheduled for April as well as the election of new board members.

Jayroe said there is currently a need at the Amarillo Air Force Base Hospital for long-play records and the chapter here will accept them in this office and deliver them to the base.

A Western saying goes, "A brand on a steer is like a lock on a door."
