SCHOOL LANDMARK HOTEL DEPOT — ALL ARE GONE

Cost Of Progress High At Dawn

By DUDLEY LYNCH
News Editor

DAWN — Progress hasn't eviscerated the community of Dawn but it hasn't done a whole lot of good.

The widening of U.S. Hwy. 60, which runs in divided, four-lane fashion through this county-line crossroads 13 miles northeast of Hereford, carved away several residences and eliminated the village's one, big landmark: The hotel.

In June of 1963, the Hereford Independent School District board — worried as costs of Dawn's two-teacher facility soared while the quality of education seemingly dropped — discontinued classes here.

Once Had Depot
Dawn used to be a railroad town, so to speak. It had a depot and a pumping station 50 years ago and was a favorite on the Amarillo-to-Clovis run for train crews who liked the home-styled cooking at the Dawn hotel.

But what has progress done? The depot is gone. The pumping station is gone. The hotel is gone. And now the Post Office has put a new sectional center mail pickup plan into operation and the San Francisco Chief — a rather exciting link with the outside — doesn't deliver mail to Dawn any more.

Incongruously, however, the population of Dawn is at its highest peak and one of the village's longest inhabitants, who amusingly watches land prices rise in the larger area towns, wonders if "there may be a few more residences built."

Bought First House
R. A. (Dick) Frye, 75, an amiable, suspender-wearing retired farmer, saw Dawn's first house built. He eventually lived in it for awhile. Now he lives a few feet north of the miniature Dawn Post Office, where Mrs. Frye is postmistress — a position she's held for eight years.

The Dawn oldtimer — who quit the lush, green farmlands of southern Illinois back in 1908 to catch a train for the Texas Panhandle — finds his life is inextricably intertwined with the lethargic little community.

He helped build the community's first one-room-and-one-teacher schoolhouse back about 1916. "We were very proud of that 24 by 30 foot room and of our teachers right from the start," he recounts.

Loaded For Year
Returning from World War I action in France, he says, with a guilty glance down at his heavy, high-topped shoes, he "loaded around for a year" and then purchased a 1927 Case tractor. "I think I broke up more of this soil during the 20s than anybody else around."

Then Frye added as an afterthought:

"And when those black northerners came in during the 30s, we wished we had left it in grass. I don't guess many people remember those black northerners, but I can swear to it that it

The Elevator Town

County Enacts Policy Change On Retirement

County commissioners enacted a compulsory retirement regulation Monday which will affect five employees, including the Deaf Smith County librarian and two sheriff's department personnel.

The American Legion Auxiliary business meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Rock-club House. Program leader, Mrs. Grant Hanna, will conduct initiation ceremonies for new members, refreshments will be served, and new and old members are urged to attend.

Mothers of high school youths participating in sports activities have been invited to a meeting at 4 p.m. at the Community Center where a sports banquet will be planned. The affair is set for March 20th in the high school cafeteria.

Ninety-four shareholders were present last week at the annual shareholders meeting of the Hereford County Club. Elected to the board of directors were W. L. Davis Jr., Earnest Langley, Bruce Burney, Kenny Gears and John Sims. New officers are Ben Chivers, president; W. J. Reeves, vice-president, and John Sims, secretary-treasurer.

Regular meetings have resumed at the local Kingdom Hall, 319 Ave. I, following the attending of a three-day convention in Hobbs, N.M., by the Hereford congregation. While there, they heard H. A. Fetzik, district overseer from New York, speak on "Our Divided World — Is It Here To Stay?"

PLANS SEVEN-YEAR PREACHING TOUR

Minister To Jamaica

A 25-year-old Hereford minister, a native of the Deep South with a yen to preach in foreign mission fields, will leave the Texas Panhandle at the end of February for the lush, tropical greenery of the Isle of Jamaica. Marvin A. Crowson, who ends 1 1/2 years as associate minister of the Central Church of Christ Sunday, will culminate five years of planning when he and his wife set foot on the Caribbean nation.

They plan to stay in Jamaica as long as it takes to plant the brand of "New Testament Christianity" which the Churches of Christ espouse, Crowson said. Eventually he hopes to have 12 other co-workers. But he and an Oklahoma minister are the vanguard.

1-Year Project
"I won't be back in the states permanently within seven years," the young preacher said. "Our goal is to establish the church so firmly in seven years that we can cut off American support and have the church there self-propagating."

Crowson, an affable 1962 graduate of Harding College (Ark.), laid the foundation for his missionary plans quite unsuspect-

The plan, approved unanimously although an objection was voiced by commissioner Bruce Coleman who will have one employe affected in his precinct 3, was put into effect retroactive to Jan. 1.

The commissioners also: — Tabled a request by Sheriff Lowell Sharp for a $25 a month raise for his three deputies.

— Accepted a low bid on a new tractor.

— Approved travel expenses for several county officials to various meetings around the state.

Discussed 3 Years
Mandatory retirement for county employes has been discussed intermittently for the last three years.

The new policy will end the employment of all county personnel over 65 years old as soon "as a suitable replacement of any such employe can reasonably be found."

Due for replacement under the terms of the new policy are Wallace C. Cox, who is 65 on Oct. 7, 1964, and Ernest R. Wade, who will be 65 on March 6, in the sheriff's department; Mrs. J. J. Boydston, who is 65 on Nov. 2, 1964, librarian; Mrs. Doyle Rose, who is 65 on June 21, 1964, secretary in the county

Williams Resigns — 'Unexpectedly'

Here Six Months, He Accepts Houston Job

Darrell Williams, superintendent of the Hereford school system for the past six months, submitted his resignation to the trustees Wednesday in a move that caught board members by surprise.

Williams asked that he be released from his contract effective March 1. The board did not immediately accept the resignation but was expected to do so shortly. Williams took over the reins of the Hereford schools on July 1, 1964, under a three-year contract.

Board President Ivan Block said Wednesday the board would begin accepting applications immediately. They were still negotiating, however, with Williams concerning the remainder of the school year.

Going To Houston

"We would like for Mr. Williams to remain until the end of the present school year," Block said, "since it is extremely hard to replace a man in the middle of the school year, particularly with a building program in progress."

Williams, in asking that he be released from his present contract, told the board that he had been offered a better position with Northeast Houston School system.

The 45-year-old superintendent came to Hereford last year from Uvalde where he had been superintendent for one year. He has had 17 years experience as a school superintendent, serving in four Texas schools.

MEETING SET

Board Wants To Keep UF

United Fund board members met Tuesday morning and discussed at length the possible abandonment of the organization in the face of repeated failures to meet the minimum goal needed to support the seven participating agencies.

The board wants to retain the UF, said President Dean House. But the final decision will not be made until the annual UF meeting, required by corporation laws, which has been set for Feb. 9th.

Engineer Starts Work On Main St. Project

An engineer from the city's Amarillo engineering consultant firm was in Hereford Tuesday making measurements of the four-block downtown area which is the target of a proposed joint city-merchant "rejuvenation" plan.

Bill McMorries of McMorries and Associates will be working closely with a committee of merchants and City Manager Dudley Bayne in outlining details of the project, which was publicly announced last Friday.

To Adopt Resolution
A preliminary estimate of possible costs of the plan — which would widen Main St. from U.S. Hwy. 60 to Fifth St., eliminate parking meters, move traffic signals to corner poles and install canopies, benches and planter boxes — was $75,000.

City Manager Bayne said work could start on the project "in 45 days."

Bayne said the city commission, which meets Monday night, will probably approve a resolution to adopt an assessment program aimed at paying about 75 per cent of the costs. Property would get so black during the daytime you had to turn on the lights. You couldn't see the house across the street."

Dawn's first grain elevator was constructed in 1919, Frye says. The community now has several which cluster on the southeast side of the tracks. Ten years later, Frye helped build the second storage facility, the Farmers Association Elevator, and then served as its manager for 15 years.

Proud of School

As is often the case with a small, country community, the school was the pride and joy—and the cement which largely held the relationships and spirit of the area together.

"I don't know how long it was," Frye recollected, "but after a while they decided that the one-room schoolhouse was adequate. So they consulted with the Askren district about five or six miles west of here. It was sitting in the corner of the old Troy Womble farm. We built a two-teacherage school first. That is the eastern part of the building. Later we had four teachers—the west two rooms were built then."

It wasn't until June 11, 1963, that the community of Dawn was to be denied its school.

Costs Were High

The story had been oft repeated. Per capita costs were sky-high and required—in effect—a subsidy from other taxpayers in the Hereford school district. Tests administered to Dawn students showed the average and below-average pupil apparently sustained permanent educational damage from the lack of more complete teaching facilities.

On June 11, after a give-and-take hearing before the school board, Dawn residents were told that the school would not reopen that fall.

Its 20 or so elementary stuowners fronting Main St. would be assessed. The city would pay about 25 per cent of the expense.

No Opposition

Bayne said none of the property owners contacted by the merchant's committee, and independent group organized solely to chart a remodeling plan for downtown Main St., have voiced opposition to the project, although one has indicated he does not favor the plan but will not oppose it.

Bayne, expressing some puzzlement, said he has become aware of a segment of opposition to the removal of parking meters—something he said he felt most downtown shoppers would be in favor of.

He again reiterated that the parking spaces would be patrolled on a two-hour-parking policy by a meter patrolman who would mark the tires of the parked cars and check them periodically.

There have been no recent authenticated sightings of ivory-billed woodpeckers in the United States.

Other bids submitted were: Case Power and Equipment, $585 for tractor, back hoe and loader (also with shuttle transmission); Texas Power and Equipment Co., $6631.76 (The Amarillo firm could not meet specifications, but bid on the nearest comparable equipment); Hays Implement Co. of Hereford, $4422.15 (without front loader); and Tom W. Carpenter Equipment Co. of Amarillo, $6412.00 for an Allis-Chalmers tractor with the equipment.

Used Jointly

The tractor and back hoe will be used jointly by Precincts 1 and 2.

The court approved travel expenses for:

County Attorney Bruce Miller to attend the Texas District and County Attorney's conference in Austin, February 3 through 6; W. T. (Bill) Thompson, Deaf Smith County Civil Defense chief, to attend a Civil Defense conference in Austin Feb. 15-16; and Mrs. Elmer Patterson to attend the State Historical meeting also to be held in Austin. The meeting is scheduled for March 16.

The court quickly approved bonds for public weighers Charlie Stone of Her-Tex Mill and Paul Engler of Hereford Feed Yards, a routine matter that must be disposed of yearly, and approved the purchase of Solax glass for the west side of the courthouse. The glass, to be installed by Pittsburgh Plate Glass of Amarillo, will cost $200 and is designed to keep out excessive sun rays. Principal beneficiary of the new glass will be the county tax office located on the second floor.

Also meeting with the court were members of the Deaf Smith County Historical Survey Committee who outlined current plans concerning the proposed Deaf Smith County museum and received the commission's approval.

Representing the historical survey group were Mrs. Elmer Patterson, chairman; Mrs. Henry Sears, Mrs. Lee Newman, Bill Thompson and A. J. Schroeter.

Under Social Security

County employees were placed under social security several years ago, but will draw no pension benefits as such from the county.

Commissioner Coleman, who voiced the only opposition, said, "I feel like it is just a mandatory termination of employment rather than a retirement plan."

In tabling the sheriff's request for additional deputy salaries, the commission refused to make a decision on the proposal for the third time since approval of the 1965 budget in August.

Two of the deputies are now drawing a salary of $400 monthly while the third receives $375.

The court also discussed the merits of several competing brands of tractors but settled on a low bid submitted by Kemp Tractor and Motors, Ford dealer. Kemp submitted a bid of $4905.50 for a Ford tractor equipped with back hoe and front end loader, plus an additional $271.00 for "shuttle" transmission.

Other bids submitted were: Case Power and Equipment, $585 for tractor, back hoe and loader (also with shuttle transmission); Texas Power and Equipment Co., $6631.76 (The Amarillo firm could not meet specifications, but bid on the nearest comparable equipment); Hays Implement Co. of Hereford, $4422.15 (without front loader); and Tom W. Funeral services for W. E. Foster of Fort Worth, brother of Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr., 801 N. Main, were held at the Travis Ave. Baptist Church there. He died at his home Sunday afternoon following a heart attack.

The West Texas Vegetable Growers Conference will be from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. today at the Alceve Restaurant in Plainview. A number of agricultural scientists and industry representatives will discuss weed control and other vegetable growing topics.

Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs luncheon will be held in the Community Center at 12:30 tomorrow. Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr., president, extends a welcome to all women interested in attending this meeting.

Some of the more prominent citizens of Hereford will be arrested, tried and jailed Saturday afternoon in a fund-raising attempt by the March of Dimes. Carl Carlisle, chairman of the project, said the residents will be held in a downtown jail, not yet located Wednesday. Persons wishing to contribute to the March of Dimes may help the confines "bail" their way out, Carlisle said. Sheriff's deputies will be on hand to do the arresting.

Firemen extinguished a fire shortly after 11 a.m. Wednesday in a clothes dryer at the Corbett Cleaning Co., 414 N. Jackson. Damage was confined to the dryer and its contents.

Students of Hereford High School will be available for odd jobs around town Saturday. Teen-Age Director Patty any odd job to be done around the house may call EM4-1835 and a student will be sent to the address and do the job for a contribution to the March of Dimes.

rested in going to Jamaica as a group," Crowson recalled. "He asked if I would go too."

He did, spending 28 days in the West Indies country in August and September of 1962, arriving only a week after the little island gained its independence from Britain. He decided that the island held possibilities worth the difficult years that it normally takes to gain a missionary foothold.

Crowson and his companions plan to aim their efforts toward the middle class of Jamaica, a cosmopolitan mixture which includes some whites but largely the "gold-skinned" people that centuries of inter-racial marrying have produced.

"These are largely your doctors, lawyers and office working type," he explains.

During the first year or two, Crowson and his wife, Judy, 24, will be supported by individual Churches of Christ in the U.S. "Eventually we would like, since both Judy and I have our teaching certificates on the secondary level, to find self-supporting jobs in a college or university," Crowson reveals.

Before moving to Hereford, Crowson was the fulltime minister of the Eufaula, Okla., Church of Christ for 13 months. His residence here has been at 802 Blevins.

Favorite Ukrainian foods are borsch, fruit soups, holubtsi (cabbage leaves stuffed with meat, rice and buckwheat grits) and nalsynnyk (cheese or fruit-filled dessert crepes).

Fete 12 Seniors

Twelve Hereford High School seniors were honored Monday night with a banquet at the Community Center sponsored by the Lubbock Christian College Associates, a group that serves as a "booster club" for the young junior college.

Joe Godfrey, choral director at Stanton Junior High School, and Marvin Crowson, associate minister of Central Church of Christ, were the speakers.

Those honored were Debra Lee, Sharon John, Peggy Neff, Linda Pulliam, Sandra Green, Joe Don Edelman, Jerry Leatherman, Earnest Flood Jr., Martha Hudson, Billy Johnson, Vinita Pitts and Cynthia Ellerd.

"We don't want to abandon it," House said. "That would be the easy way out. And it would give Hereford a black eye."

House said the board had received a letter from the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce indicating, as was announced a few days ago by the chamber, that they favor retention of the UF.

Down 16 Per Cent

The Hereford UF is 16 percent below its 1964 goal and now has $24,559.45. House said the participating agencies have agreed "to live with it" for another year by cutting off a part of their activities.

The UF board Tuesday also named a seven-member nominating committee which will select the names of six persons for three-year terms on the board. On the committee are Melvin Young, chairman; Melvin Jayroe, H. A. Tuck, Woodrow (Woody) Wilson, Mrs. John D. Pitman, Lowell Sharp and Frank Ford.

Local Couples Attend Meeting in Fort Worth

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Boyer, 213 Elm, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Summers have returned to Hereford after spending Jan. 22 through 24th in Fort Worth to attend the Optimist District Board Meeting.

While in Fort Worth the Summers joined to help the Boyers celebrate their 19th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Boyer also had the opportunity to visit with two of her brothers and their families who were former Hereford residents.

He received his bachelor of science degree from Howard Payne College, Brownwood, in 1947, and his master of science degree in 1952 from East Texas Baptist College, Marshall. He was hired last year to replace Paul Stevens who had been with the Hereford system for four years.

Members of the board admitted they were unaware Williams was considering another position. The board felt he had served the school district well during the past six months. "We felt that everything was going along fine," said Bill Gentry, board member.

to 35 years in the state penitentiary at Huntsville.

Testimony is Trisler's trial was expected to begin early today as soon as the jury was impaneled.

The state is represented by District Attorney Bill Hunter.

A jury panel of 180 persons was summoned for the proceedings, with the first 12 persons being impaneled to decide if Trisler was sane and ready for trial.

Stares At Floor

Only three persons were chosen in a day-long session Tuesday, which began at 10 a.m. and lasted until nearly 8 p.m.

Many of the prospective jurors were disqualified, having discussed the case with persons involved in the event or having already formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Trisler.

About 55 prospective jurors were questioned in the proceedings Tuesday and Wednesday, pulling a handkerchief from his back pocket to wipe perspiration from his face every few minutes.

He apparently became ill Tuesday morning and was carried to Hereford Clinic, where he was given treatment and returned to the courtroom.

Beet Sign-Up Total Higher This Year — Deadline Near

Farmers wanting to grow sugar beets in Deaf Smith County in 1965 have until 5 p.m. Friday to go to the Hereford ASOS office and sign-up for acreage, Faust Collier, local office manager, said Wednesday.

"Some of the old growers have the mistaken idea that if they grew beets in 1964, they are automatically included in the list for 1965. This is not true," Collier said. "Everyone must sign up for acreage to be eligible to grow beets in 1965."

More than 280 farmers had signed up for acreage in Deaf Smith County, Collier said, and several more were expected before the deadline.

"Only 189 farmers signed up last year, so this represents quite an increase in persons interested in growing beets over last year."

Will Schedule Meet
"After the sign-up is completed, the representative of the state ASOS committee will come to Hereford and meet with Holly officials, and the company and state officials will allot acreage for the county," Collier said.

The entire 29,500 acres, which will be grown in the four-county area serving the new $21.4 million sugar refinery, will be allotted to growers in the four-county area, with Deaf Smith, Castro and Farmer receiving the majority of the acreage. Curry County, in New Mexico, will have some acreage as they did last year.

Officials of Holly Sugar Corp. indicated there will possibly be more growers than last year, due to the increase of nearly 2,500 acres and the ruling which provides that no grower may be allotted more than 75 acres of new acreage.

'Cuts To Be Small'
"However, the growers will receive a large percentage of their past history, so the cuts in most cases will be relatively small," an official said.

"There will be certain cases where growers will receive increases and other growers will have their acreage adjusted, in some cases, cutting their 1964 acreage slightly," he said.

"We hope to be contracting by the middle of February," the official continued.

The local plant was contracting near Feb. 1 last year, but the deadline for the sign-up was scheduled earlier than the Jan. 29 date for this year.

"We hope to have the list from Holly around Feb. 1, after they have met with the state committee, and will be able to notify the farmers who will receive acreage for the 1965 crop," Collier said.

At that time farmers will be notified whether they will receive any sugar beet acreage for 1965 and possibly the notice will include the amount of the acreage.

J. B. Elliston was special guest of WaCunYa Camp Fire group recently, when he reviewed the hardships and joys of the first settlers in this area. ANNUAL REPORT SHOWS

Employment Office Here Has Increased Activity

An increase of about 50 per cent was recorded over 1963 in the number of new applications for employment filed in 1964 with the Hereford office of the Texas Employment Commission, it was revealed Tuesday.

Joe Bradley, office manager, said the rise reflected a general increase in most of the commission's service categories. New applications, which are taken only once during the first contact with a person seeking employment, totaled 1,889 in 1964, compared with 1963's figure of 1,215.

Placed 6,750 Persons
The Hereford office placed 6,750 persons in jobs in the three-county area which it serves — most of them, 5,220, in the agricultural field. The total placement figure was about two-thirds of the number of referrals made.

In non-agricultural environs,

Bradley said 1,530 persons were placed after 1,990 referrals were made.

Another interesting figure, Bradley pointed out, is that over 400 of the 735 farms which the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce says exist were represented in orders for employees placed with the commission.

Got Extra Man
Bradley recalled that additional help was received in the Hereford office in October, when a farm placement officer Jim Walker arrived. But the office manager said the termination of Public Law No. 78 (bracero act) has again swamped employment officials.

"We still have more applications for farm jobs than we have orders," Bradley conceded, "but this is an off-period during the year, and in 60 days the situation could be greatly changed."

The Hereford office is staffing "farm labor days" in three other towns now in an effort to get the farmer and the job applicant together. A two-day-a-week operation was begun Jan. 18 at Bovina. The other two programs of one day each week are at Friona and Dimmitt.

Bradley says he has received no further word on the practical workings of the U.S. Dept. of Labor's plans to recruit American laborers to replace the Mexican nationals.

Mrs. Hodges To Head THDA Training Meet

Six representatives from Hereford will attend the district THDA training meeting Friday in the First Baptist Church in Amarillo.

Mrs. A. E. Hodges who is the District I Director will conduct this meeting when tentative plans will be made for the coming district meeting to be in Canyon April 8th.

Attending the Amarillo meeting will be Mrs. Hodges, Mrs. Tom Draper, Mrs. Orval Galley, Mrs. E. C. Hammett, Mrs. H. L. Hershey and Mrs. T. J. Parsons. The meeting will include representation from 19 counties.

Speaking of Sports...

by PHIL DUNCAN
BRAND SPORTS EDITOR

Boy, what a week for sports coverage. It has been one hectic moment after another trying to get the standings straightened out where everyone could tell exactly where the District 1-AAA cagers stand at the moment.

After the Canyon-Herford game was over, this writer came to the Brand office and wrote the story on the game in an attempt to beat the deadline on sports news early Wednesday morning.

Upon finishing the story, I called the sports department of the Amarillo Daily News to find out the scores of the Perryton-Dumas and Tulla-Muleshoe games.

The friendly sports reporter was only too happy to assist me and said the score of the Tulla-Muleshoe encounter was 71-61 in Tulla's favor, and the score of the Perryton-Dumas battle was 65-45 in Perryton's favor.

I felt sure this must have been an upset, so I asked the reporter if he were certain that Perryton won and he responded with a big "yes".

So the following day our District 1-AAA standings had Tulla in first place and Herford and Perryton tied for second place with Dumas in third.

The standings should have had a tie between Dumas and Herford for second place and Perryton in third place, though, because Dumas actually defeated Perryton.

After finding out my mistake in the Thursday paper, I decided to wait until the paper came out.

Well, Saturday morning as soon as the Amarillo Daily News could be unfolded, the process of figuring out the new district standings was started.

Starting out by making the correction on the Perryton-Dumas game early in the week, I began finding the scores of the games on the night before.

I knew of course, the score of the Herford-Muleshoe game the night before, when the Herd trounced Muleshoe 110-72. This was certain.

Then I glanced further down the column and found where the Amarillo paper had listed Dumas as the winner over Canyon 50-49, as I had predicted in this column last Thursday.

This gave Tulla, Dumas and Herford all 3-1 won-loss records before Tuesday's games, which pitted Tulla against Canyon at Canyon and Herford against Dumas at Dumas.

Before these games, these top three were tied for first place, while Perryton had a 2-2 record, Canyon had a 1-3 and Muleshoe had an 0-4.

A corrected District 1-AAA standings appears to the right of this column on this page. It is right. It has been checked, rechecked and double-checked.

In an effort to bring better, and more accurate sports coverage, we are making long dis-

Dumas Slaughters Herd on Rebounds

By PHIL DUNCAN
Brand Sports Editor

DUMAS — A rowdy band of Dumas Demons, tearing the Herford Whitefaces up on the backboards, stormed to an eight point lead with two minutes left in the ball game and held it until the final buzzer Tuesday night and walked off the court with a 68-60 win and an undisputed first place for first half play in district 1-AAA.

The one bright spot in the game was the sparkling play of Robert Strange, who unleashed an attack on the Demons, drawing eight fouls and making three field goals for a total of 19 points to lead the Herd.

Oscar Holmes played his second game of the season as a starter, and performed as he did in the Muleshoe game, chalking up 100 percent of his four field goals and being the only bright spot in the Herd's rebounding department.

Holmes, the only Whiteface with any height to speak of, was constantly under the basket, fighting off the Demons for possession of the ball, which he gained in many instances.

Joe Childers was not playing in the game, which hurt the Herd in the scoring department, as the 6-4 cager has been averaging nearly 10 points.

The Demons jumped ahead nearly 10 points, in the opening minutes of the game, but held only a 15-10 lead at the end of the first quarter after the Herd recovered from their slow start at the first of the game.

Shortly after the opening minute of the first quarter, the Whitefaces battled back to a point where they were only trailing by a two point margin 23-21, but the Demons opened up again and shattered the near tieing point of the Whitefaces as they surged ahead once again racking up a 30-23 lead before the Whitefaces knew what had happened.

With 35 seconds left in the half, Charlie Moreno sent a perfect jump shot sailing, but this still left the Demons with a 32-26 lead.

With only the 35 seconds left, the Demons started to their end of the court and sacked up two more points for a 34-26 lead, with only scant seconds left in the first half.

The Whitefaces began working the ball in and Kenny Justice sacked up another jump shot just before the buzzer sounded, giving the demons at 34-28 half-time edge.

The Demons returned after the half and jumped up to a 40-28 lead, their widest margin of the game and then they were completely shut off by the Herd until the score was almost even at 39-40.

The Demons stole the ball and made an easy layup, but the Herd returned the ball to their own territory and routinely made a lay up which was credited to Robert Strange.

Steve Hodges stole the ball from the Demons and made an easy layup tying up the ball game at 42-42 for the first time of the evening.

The Demons quickly countered with a field goal, but the Whitefaces were not to be outdone as Strange made another set show tying the game up at 44-44.

The Demons came back again and proved their accuracy as Hurl Kirkland, the mammoth star for the Demons, sacked up another one of his five field goals for the evening as he sank an easy layup to lead the Herd at 46-44.

Again the Herd was not to be out done as the lead battled nip and tuck, with the Demons having a 50-48 edge at the end of the third stanza.

The added height of the Demons, nearly six inches per man, began to tell on the Herd in the waning minutes of the game as they could seemingly reach the ball as it came to the basket and would work the ball to the end of the court and set up a play, in most instances scoring.

The fourth quarter was not all bad news for the Herd as they kept the score close until the final minutes.

The Demons scored first in the fourth quarter giving them a 52-48 edge as they stole the ball and scored immediately.

The Herd recovered quickly from their slow start came back for four more points and the Demons only had a 54-52 lead.

Oscar Holmes began leading the attack of the Whitefaces and captured the ball on a rebound and the Demons became nervous and called time.

The Demons hooked up after the time out and began edging away from the Herd as they posted a 62-56 lead with only 2:27 left in the game.

The Herd began fouling frequently and finally managed to score again with the score 64-58 and only 1:49 left in the game.

HERD TIED FOR SECOND

Dumas Leader In 1-AAA First Half

The mighty Demons of Dumas ended up their first half play Tuesday evening by defeating the Herford Whitefaces and taking an undisputed claim to first place in first half action as the Tulla Hornets were upset 54-48 by the hapless Canyon Eagles.

The Herford Whitefaces and Tulla Hornets are tied for second place with a 3-2 record, while the Perryton Rangers have a 2-2 record to bring up third place.

Tulla started out like a ball of fire, but simmered down a bit as they were upset in their first two outings.

They opened the season by beating the powerful Herford Whitefaces 68-67 in an overtime at Tulla.

They hosted Dumas the following week and beat the Demons 48-45 on their home court.

Hornets Beat Mules On their first encounter away from home, the Hornets clobbered Muleshoe 71-61, but then returned to their home courts and were upset by the Perryton Rangers, 50-49 in a hot battle.

The following game they traveled to Canyon and were put down by the high flying, sporadic Canyon Eagles 54-48.

Herford lost their opener to Tulla in the overtime at Tulla, but traveled to Perryton the following week and beat the defending champions of District 1-AAA 56-47.

The Canyon Eagles then visited in Herford and were thoroughly walloped by the Herd cagers 87-64 for one of the better games of the season.

Muleshoe suffered their worst defeat of the season as the Herd trounced them into the courts by a 110-72 margin, for the Herd's third straight victory.

Then the Herd lost to the Demons and finished the first half with a 3-2 record.

Perryton had a good start, beating Canyon 68-56 in the opening game of the season at Canyon, but hosted Herford the following game and lost to the local cagers.

The Rangers then traveled to Dumas the following game and lost to the Demons, virtually seeming out the district title hopes after winning the district last year.

Rangers Upset Tulla Then the Rangers traveled to Tulla, where they were certain losers and upset the Hornets 50-49 at Tulla.

Muleshoe and Perryton still have a game to play before first half action is complete.

If the Rangers beat the Mules, they will be tied with Tulla and Herford for second place.

Herford will open second half play against Tulla Friday evening.

Dumas will host Muleshoe in an almost certain win.

The first half game scores are as follows:

Herford 60	Dumas 68
Herford 67	Tulla 69
Herford 110	Muleshoe 72
Herford 87	Canyon 64
Herford 56	Perryton 47
Dumas 48	Tulla 45
Dumas 65	Perryton 45
Dumas 50	Canyon 48
Dumas 72	Muleshoe 42

tance telephone calls to each of the district towns every morning after a basketball game. This is our method of assuring our readers accurate sports coverage, as it seems nearly impossible to get it elsewhere.

Coach Cuby Kitchens, said he did not know who to believe. The Amarillo paper came out last Thursday naming Dumas the winner of the Perryton-Dumas game and the Hereford Brand had Perryton as the winner.

The following Saturday morning, Kitchens read the Amarillo paper and saw where Tullia had trounced Perryton by a wide margin, but sat by the Tullia coach at a West Texas University ball game Saturday evening and the Tullia mentor just swore up and down he had been beaten the night before by only one point.

Cuby was real mixed up of course, but he thought he had it straightened out, when he opened up his Sunday Brand the next morning and saw where Tullia beat Perryton 77-46.

"I just didn't know who to believe. Everybody was saying something different, but I felt reasonably sure the Tullia coach knew the outcome of the game," Kitchens said.

Well this is something that we hope will be avoided in the future by the phone calls to the area towns.

Well here we go into the second half play of District 1-AAA cage action. Dumas is leading at the moment and will probably maintain that lead for the first couple weeks as they host Muleshoe and Tullia at Dumas, which should be two wins for the Demons.

Hereford hosts Tullia here this weekend in a bitter battle. Hereford lost to Tullia in the opening game of the season at Tullia in an overtime. I think they will defeat the Hornets here Friday, but it will be a hard fought battle.

I will go even further and stick my neck out, hoping it does not get chopped off — I will take the Herd to win the District 1-AAA title. This is not just useless talk, but rather a careful study of the remaining schedule.

It will take the effort extended in the past few games, plus a little more, but it can be done. Hereford can beat Tullia here Friday. They should also beat Canyon and Muleshoe as they leave home the only two times in the second half.

This would mean a clean sweep for the Herd in the final half's action, but it will be a long hard battle for them. I feel Dumas will easily defeat Muleshoe and Tullia at home.

and will probably beat Perryton as they play away from home. Hereford and Canyon can beat the powerful Demons on their home courts if they extend the effort.

This would give the Demons a 6-4 record and the Herd would have an 8-2 record, assuming I am anywhere near right on these predictions.

In any event, it will be a long hard pull for the Whitefaces and there will be no letting down midway in the game if this goal is to be reached. They must take all five games in the second half. They will have the three powers at home and play teams they have already beaten by 23 points and 39 points on their own courts.

It is really something that this team should have any aspirations of winning the district.

I say this not because of the way they look on the court, but rather the way they look off the court.

They have so little height, but little players like Robert Strange, Kenny Justice, Roger Owen, Gene Duvall, Greg Richards, Steve Hodges and Charlie Moreno get up and tangle with the 6-5 plus players in the other teams and usually come out on top.

It is this type of spirit that will get them the district championship this year.

Another winning factor for the Herd is their coaching. I would be willing to bet if you interviewed every coach in the Panhandle as to what basketball coach was able to get the most out of his material year after year after year, it would be nearly unanimous for Cuby Kitchens.

This man is a great in basketball coaching. He has made this short group of boys into the best basketball team in the district in my opinion. They started out the season in a double header in Amarillo and were clobbered by a weak Palo Duro of Amarillo team, which Perryton handily put down, but they improved before district play started and defeated the Rangers on their home court.

Whether or not they win the district championship, they have accomplished a great deal this season and indeed a great part of the credit goes to the coaching.

The Men's City Championship Tournament will be held Jan. 30 and 31 and Feb. 6 and 7 at the Sunset Lanes. All Hereford League bowlers are urged to enter now. To enter the tournament call Fred Beversdorf or Allen Duroy at the Bowling Alley for information.

The Women's City Championship Tournament will be held Feb. 13-14 and Feb. 20-21 at Sunset Lanes. Entries close Feb. 8. You can pick-up blanks at the lanes or call tournament secretary Betty Kelley at EM4-2012.

Cheerful Character Explains Australian Money

KC MUSEUM STORY 35 Years Ago, Nelson 'Hadn't An Etching'

KANSAS CITY (AP) — William Rockhill Nelson came to Kansas City in 1880 and found it common-place and ugly. "I decided if I were to live here, the town must be made over," he said. In the remaining 35 years of his life, Nelson fought through his successful and powerful newspaper, Kansas City Star — to bring grace and beauty to the city. And when he died, his fortune was willed for the purchase of fine art "to contribute to the decoration and the enjoyment of the public generally." His legacy is now the Nelson Gallery of Art, the youngest major museum in the country and one of the best. "We started without an etching in 1930," says director Laurence Sickman. "Now we have 10,000 to 12,000 highly selected objects in all fields." Discerning in his purchases, striving for quality rather than completeness, the gallery has achieved amazing strength and diversity for an institution far removed from the so-called strongholds of culture. One of the finest collections of Oriental art anywhere... the most comprehensive collection of English pottery... one of English, continental and American miniatures... and a small, but strong, collection of sculpture particularly fine in the Renaissance period — all these are within its walls. One of the gallery's proudest acquisitions is Caravaggio's brooding St. John the Baptist. Caravaggio was the violent-tempered, short-lived 17th Century Italian whose innovations in spotlighting and opaque shadows affected European painting until the late 19th Century. "This is the sort of painting we seek constantly," says Ralph T. Coe, the museum's young curator of paintings and sculpture. "We feel it is more important to have objects that are truly representative of the artist and the history of art than to have a hodge-podge without trend or meaning." Most recently the gallery acquired the portrait of Jean deCarondelet by the 15th Century Flemish painter Jan Gossaert. It also bought a painted wood sculpture of Narcissus by an 18th Century Italian, probably Perodi; a rare Gothic drawing of the 13th Century; a major Chinese handscroll of the 13th or early 14th Century in the tradition of Ma Yuan; two Indian bronzes and a fine version of a celebrated Japanese Buddhist paradise composition known as the "Taima Mandara." "In certain areas we are scraping up the last great things," says Coe. "Nowadays, you can't buy a Titian any-

SYDNEY (AP) — A new cartoon character, Dollar Bill, promises to become one of Australia's best-known comic strips. He is the brainchild of the Decimal Currency Board, which has the mammoth task of changing Australia's currency to the decimal system. Decimal currency will not be introduced until February 1966, but the job of educating Australians in the intricacies of dollars and cents has already begun. Now Dollar Bill has joined in the campaign. He is making his debut in newspaper strips, screens, in crossword puzzles and on school brochures and posters in a way designed to make it easier for everyone to understand the changeover. But — just as the choice of names and designs for the new coins and notes started a nationwide controversy — Dollar Bill has brought down the wrath of graphic designers. They say the whole concept of the cartoon character is childish and an insult to the intelligence. They say that Dollar Bill's face, with dots representing the eyes between the bars of the dollar sign, will confuse people. They also say one bar would be better than two because it would be more distinctive from the American symbol. The Decimal Currency Board is interested to bring a covered dish and attend this luncheon meeting. She also pointed out that women's clubs that are not affiliated with the federation may become individual members. Sickman, the director, says Nelson probably felt he could insure the purchase of recognized works and that contemporary art could be bought by the community. "The concentration now is on collections, Sickman says, is but "It is also our obligation to bring as many loan exhibitions as possible to the museum." Last year the traveling Van Gogh collection attracted more than 60,000 persons and helped raise the year's attendance to a record 327,000 — an increase of 13,000 over 1962. One result of the museum's program, Sickman says, is that more Kansas City people are buying art for themselves than ever before. "A good museum enriches the whole cultural life of the community," he says. Ironically, having an affluent angel like Nelson stunted public contributions for a long time. In 1935, a group called "Friends of Art" formed to buy contemporary work and to date has contributed about 140 art objects. Last year the gallery received gifts of art objects and money totaling $207,000. It received $500,000 from the Nelson trust. The museum forms the nucleus of one of the most open, delightful sections of the city and is — as in an inscription on its walls "Serene through time and season."

Post Office Records 'Breakthrough' With Electronic 'ZIP Code' Reader

Postmaster Nolan Grady has received word from Postmaster General John A. Gronouski in Washington, D.C. that a big "breakthrough" has now been made on electronic machines to "read" ZIP-coded addresses on mail.

The Postmaster General said he expects to begin installing these sophisticated new machines in major post offices starting in about a year, the postmaster explained.

Grady said each machine will be able to sort, as well as read, at the rate of 35,000 letters an hour.

'Significant Effects'

The offices to get the address readers have not been announced, but Grady said they will have significant effects on the mail in and out of each community regardless of whether it gets the new machines.

This is because they will speed incoming mail to smaller offices from major cities and step up the dispatch of mail deposited in smaller communities but which must be processed enroute at major mailing points.

The postmaster emphasized, however, introduction of the "seeing eye" device next year does not mean ZIP Code isn't useful already.

"Zip code," he explained, "is important in mail handling under the system of mail processing already in use which will continue to be in use as the basic system at most points. These machines will be just another step — in conjunction with the mechanical mail sorting machines we have developed — to help keep pace with the growing mail volumes. Neither will the machines endanger jobs—they will only help us meet expansion with minimum manpower expansion."

Use The ZIP Code!

Grady urges all patrons to include their ZIP Code in their return address. Business firms in particular should include the ZIP Code in their letterheads, envelopes, company forms, shipping labels and anything on which the company address appears.

The Post Office Department will "ZIP Code" mailing lists free of charge, said Grady. "Simply print out your address records on individual cards, such as an index card, with your return address in the upper left-hand corner and bring the cards to the post office," he said. "We will add the applicable ZIP Code for each address and return to you for your files or address books."

Comb In Wallet Protects Money From Pickpockets

By EDWARD S. KEYOR

CHICAGO — A pickpocket can pick your pocket quickly wherever a crowd may gather.

This is the word from Ricki Dunn who learned his trade from a former New York cop.

Dunn's deft pickpocket technique provides him with a livelihood on the night club circuit. He makes an honest living stealing thousands of dollars worth of watches, belts, wallets and jewelry. But he gives it all back to the victims who become part of his act.

"I do it for laughs," he says. He has many tricks at his fingertips to make the public aware of what can happen at the hands of a pickpocket.

At 35, Dunn says he has been working as a pickpocket for 17 years. He diverts attention with card tricks and a steady flow of chatter.

He's borrowed $100 bills and "burned" them only to let the lender discover his money is safely tucked in his own pocket.

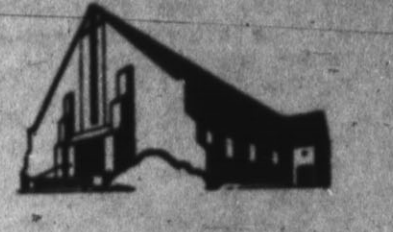

Dunn says the way a man can protect his wallet is to refrain from tipping off where he keeps his funds on his person. Another way is to put a pocket comb in the fold of the wallet and secure it with a strong rubber band. Place it in the hip or coat pocket so that the teeth of the comb are horizontal and pointed up. The pickpocket will find it difficult to slip the purse from a pocket.

Because pickpockets are superstitious, they usually return the purse by mail, minus the money of course.

Most pickpockets work in groups of three, Dunn says. Each has a special job. The "stall" stops you or blows you down. The "shade" distracts you. And the actual lifting is done by the light-fingered "cannon."

Most of them work under the guise of doing something else. The newspaper is a convenient device to cover the theft as the pickpocket slips the wallet from the inside coat pocket.

The newspaper not only screens the theft, it also serves as a wrapper to hide the wallet as it is passed to the confederate. Dunn says it's a good idea not to carry all your money in one pocket. Carry some of it in an inside jacket pocket. Carry loose money with a big rubber band around it so it will stick to your pocket.

What Lutherans Teach

By Fred Beverdorf, Pastor

"By grace are ye saved." Ephesians 2, 8

"According to His mercy He saved us." Titus 3, 5

Last week we spoke of the three main doctrines that underlie all the teachings of the Lutheran Church.

The first of these is that man is saved by God's grace, and His grace alone. This is taught in contrast to man deserving to be saved by something he has done or does.

Man does not deserve to be saved. Because of the things he does, he deserves punishment. Perhaps this sounds harsh at first but it's true.

Why is it true? Because man sins. You sin. I sin. What's going to be done with them? Can you make atonement for them. You can do acts of penance. You can make restitution. You can say you are sorry. But you cannot make atonement.

Just look at a sin of a child against his parent for an example. The child will say it's sorry. It may be even punished. But finally the parent still simply has to forgive child.

The parent forgives because it loves, not because of the other things which the child does. So it shows grace.

So it is with our Heavenly Father. He saw we were sinners, unable to save ourselves. So from within Him sprang the virtue and drive to extend mercy of grace to us, totally under serving as we were. He sent Jesus Christ and thru Him forgives us. That's all there is to grace. And we are saved by that grace. Christ is that grace to us.

Another illustration might help. A sentry of Napoleon's army was caught asleep on duty. He was sentenced to die. His mother walked many miles to plead for her son's life. She pleaded that mercy (or grace) be shown: Napoleon roared back, "What? He deserves no mercy." The mother replied, "That's right. Mercy would no longer be mercy if it were deserved."

That's what God showed to us in saving us — Mercy or grace.

A friend of ours once said "If you have plenty of time — fly". We never fully realized what he meant until we took a recent trip to Austin via the big bird.

With all due respects to a very fine airline, we were beset with misfortune from the beginning. And as fate would have it, we happened to run into an old friend at the airport who made matters worse by relating his recent experiences with the same flight.

"Oh no, not THAT one", said Bill Dye, regional representative for Generalgas. "I've just returned from a trip to Victoria and I thought I'd never get there".

But Bill soon departed — on his way back to Hereford — and we forgot the remarks concerning the flight. That is, until time to hit the air lanes. After a delay of some minutes, the hostess informed us that they were changing a tire on the plane. And then Bill's remarks flashed back. "Oh no, not THAT one".

But things didn't look too gloomy — at this point at least. We were delayed slightly, but after a few minutes we were on the way to Dallas. Frankly, we've never had a finer ride than the Amarillo to Dallas leg of the trip.

Upon arriving at Dallas however, they switched us over to a Convair, with just two engines, and that didn't go over too big with this old country boy who generally prefers to keep both feet on the ground. Raining cats and dogs too.

We taxied out to the runway for the take-off, and promptly taxied right back to the passenger gate.

Just a little problem of "no landing lights" on that side. The repairs took about thirty minutes. Then we try it again, but the tower wouldn't give us clearance for the take-off. "The area is saturated", the pilot said, and we took this to mean that it was raining so darn hard those two engines wouldn't lift us off the ground. We got to looking for a seaplane, but didn't find one in sight.

And all this time we're thinking that the one thing we did right all day long was to wire the hotel to hold our reservations — without a doubt we were going to be late.

After an hour delay, we were finally given the go-ahead from the control tower and left Dallas. We were soon wishing however, that we were still sitting on good old tierra-firma, no matter how soggy, in Dallas. That was the roughest ride we've ever experienced without a saddle. And after arriving in Austin — you guessed it — we had to circle the field for more than thirty minutes before we were given clearance to land.

Again we thought about Bill Dye and his remarks concerning the afternoon flight to Austin. But then, it would be nice to get up to the hotel and crawl into a nice warm bed. And we were only three hours late. . . the airlines had fed us well. . . and we still had that hotel reservation.

Jim Sparks, an Austin wholesale furniture salesman who calls on H & H Furniture in Hereford, was kind enough to give us a ride to the hotel after we finally landed. After all, with our normal luck, it would have taken an hour to get a cab.

Upon arriving at the hotel however, the final shock of the evening came. You guessed it again. . . no reservations. All cancelled. Too much business we suppose, but the bird behind the counter wasn't even kind when he told us where to go. And we would have gone there too, considering how cold we were at the moment, but figured the rain had already put out the fires.

After much telephoning, we were fortunate to secure a room at the Driskill, Austin's historic hotel built in the early 1880's. Old as it was, the accommodations were sufficient and the people civil.

HB. We learned later that the City of Austin had been besieged on this particular week end with an unusual number of conventions, the Texas Press Association being one of the smaller ones. We registered almost 300 people at this mid-winter event. Besides the conventions, the state highway department was in the process of awarding bids on some very expensive highway work and contractors and suppliers by the score had converged on Austin for the "lettings". In fact, they had taken over the Stephen F. Austin hotel and had spilled over into the Driskill and that other place, name withheld because we would rather forget it.

But the trip as a whole was enjoyable. We once heard it said that the best place to make contacts with VIP's is at airports, and after this round-trip flight to our capitol city, we're more convinced than ever that the statement is absolutely true.

We ran into a half dozen Hereford people before we even boarded the plane, including Neil Cooper, Wayne Thomas, Bill Dye, Jimmy and Elizabeth Witherspoon. Cooper and Thomas were there to pick up the ColC speaker, Shelran Elebaah of Selma, Ala., and the Witherspoons were on their way to New Orleans for a business meeting. Dye had just returned from a business trip to South Texas.

After boarding the plane we visited with Stanley Crowe Jr. of Amarillo. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Patterson of Amarillo were also aboard the plane.

On the return flight we were seated next to Jim Barton of Dallas, whose mother is a resident of Kings Manor. Jim was coming to Hereford for a short visit and was met at the airport by Carl Perrin, a friend of many years.

Crowe, incidentally, got quite a delight out of our concern over the twin engine Convair, but we have always felt a certain security in numbers whether it be dollars, troops or engines and, frankly, the more the better.

Crowe is a pilot by the way, having owned his own plane for many years. The whole thing was pretty routine for him.

Actually, we have flown in the past, and will continue to do so in the future whenever the need arises, but we will always remember the "Comedy of Errors" encountered on our flight to Austin.

HB. It's a toss up these days, as to which Gaylor Newell will talk about first. His grandchildren or his new office at the store.

For years Gaylor occupied a little office above the meat market about big enough for a termite — and Gaylor is a little bigger than that. Subsequent remodelings pushed him out completely and he just didn't have one. But he's fixed now. Complete with bright colored carpeting. And he's pretty quick to give you the cook's tour of the whole place if you happen to be interested, but more especially, the new office.

HB. It looks like everyone is getting carpet these days, except Judge Williams, that is.

HB. There was a tourist in New York City who walked up to a hepcat on the street and asked, "How do I get to Carnegie Hall?" The hepcat looked the visitor up and down, and with a happy grin replied, "Practice man, practice!"

HB. We've heard it said: "Natural gas was discovered long ago by the pompous and the arrogant."

Warning Issued On Street Visits

Drivers who stop in the middle of the street to visit with people in other vehicles are going to pay a price for their conversation, Corporation Court Judge Jim Neill has warned.

"This stopping and visiting in the middle of a street has been overlooked in recent months by city patrolmen," Neill said, "but as of now, anyone given a ticket for such an offense will receive a fine in corporation court."

In the past several months, officers have merely warned drivers to move on and hold their conversations elsewhere.

Those who have been issued tickets have had them dismissed. "A person is violating several ordinances when they stop in this manner," Neill said, "and the minimum fine from now on will be $25."

ENLISTS IN ARMY

Roberto Chavez, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Chavez of Hereford, recently departed for a three-year tour of duty with the United States Army. Roberto, who attended Hereford High School, will depart for supply training following eight weeks of basic training at Fort Polk, La., and a brief leave.

Tsetse flies frequent wooded places, often along rivers where people and animals go for water.

PLANS STARTED LAST SPRING Wayland College's New Museum Builds Up West Texas Collection

PLAINVIEW (Special) - "Something old, something new" could be the description of the newly established museum at Wayland Baptist College.

Ron Reynolds, instructor in art, heads the museum committee which has set up a first floor exhibit room in Gates Hall, Room 154.

Materials of West Texas and the Southwest began to come in last spring when the first tentative announcement of plans for the museum were made, with most gifts and loans coming from Plainview and nearby communities, though a man from California has made a donation. Frank Schmidt, San Diego, read about the Schreier Rock Collection, while stopping overnight in Plainview, and called Dean Maurice J. Sharp to offer ore samples from Borax mines which he has collected through his years with the Borax Corporation.

Get Branding Iron

Heading the list of donors is Carroll Johnston, Plainview, former Wayland student. Many items given by Johnston were acquired at an auction of the possessions of a Silverton man who had offered the same articles to the college several years ago, before a museum was even anticipated.

Clyde Meredith, Plainview, has presented an old branding iron, bearing the Bar X brand, which has been added to the Johnston collection of spurs, single tree and bits.

Recently Mrs. Mildred Matlock, Plainview, has presented a portion of a huge ivory tusk, believed to be that of a mastodon band that didn't fit. Mrs. A. E. Hodges was named club nominee for 'Woman of the Year'.

Those attending were Mrs. Otto Olson, Mrs. Mary Bodkin, Mrs. C. L. Whitehead, Mrs. R. A. Fullwood, Mrs. A. E. Hodges, Mrs. O. C. Williams, Mrs. Paul M. Hoff and Mrs. Clyde Smithers.

This was found in a caliche pit near Benjamin, who gave it to the late Sheriff Ted Andrews who in turn gave it to Mrs. Matlock.

Blanket On Loan

Items on loan from the J. A.

Peret family include a Navajo bed blanket, purchased in 1958 from Indians near Kerrville, and two mounted buffalo horns purchased about the same time at the Buckhorn Saloon, long time San Antonio landmark and curio shop.

In addition to the exhibit room, which will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, the museum committee has a suite of rooms on third floor of Gates Hall where much time is spent cleaning and preparing items for display. They are also finding it somewhat difficult to trace origins and learn ages of some items now being brought to the museum. One such item is a small stone head about three and one-half inches long, which is part of the Johnston gifts. The head is a mystery at the moment but Reynolds reports that they are following leads.

The Arizona Indians smoked hollow reeds full of tobacco as early as 1200 A.D.

REP. ROGERS REPORTS

Gist Of President's Speech: U. S. Armed Might 'Is Supreme'

By WALTER ROGERS
U. S. Representative

In the fast pace of headline-catching events during Inaugural Week, many Americans may have missed the substance of President Johnson's message to Congress on the current state of our Nation's defenses.

For friend and foe alike, the message was clear: Our military forces are supreme and unparalleled and we mean to keep them that way. "I am able to report to you that the United States today is stronger militarily than at any other time in our peacetime history. . . . The President declared. "For the past 4 years, the focus of our national effort has been upon assuring an indisputable margin of superiority for our defenses. I can report today that effort has succeeded."

Lists of Accomplishments

In four years, Americans can note these milestones of progress — and our enemies abroad, who might be contemplating new adventures in a jet of arms, also can give them sober study: Our strategic nuclear power on alert has increased threefold; our tactical nuclear power has been greatly expanded; our special forces, trained for the undeclared, twilight wars of today, have been expanded eightfold; our combat-ready Army divisions have been increased by 45 percent; our Marine Corps has been increased by 15,000 men; our airlift capacity to move these troops anywhere in the world has been doubled; our tactical Air Force firepower to support these divisions in the field has increased 100 percent. Remember: This strength has been developed to support our basic military strategy, a strategy of strength and readiness, capable of countering aggression with appropriate force from ballistic missiles to guerrilla bands.

Half Of Taxes Supporting our defenses at this level of preparedness costs approximately half of all the money we Americans pay in taxes. But Congress and the country know that our security and continued sovereignty depend on vast military expenditures — and will for the foreseeable future. As the President said, "We — and free men everywhere — have proved preparedness to be the most effectual means of preserving peace."

Our defense dollars are to be spent, according to the President's plan for the next fiscal year, on further increases in missile strengths well as further technological improvements and research and development. Major new developments to begin include these: A new missile system, the Poseidon (with double the payload of the Polaris); to increase the striking power of our nuclear submarines; new payloads for strategic missiles; a new short-range attack missile, the SRAM; improved ability to concentrate U.S. military power rapidly, by expanding airlift and sealift capability and increase the amount of prepositioned equipment; stepped-up efforts to protect our people, cities, and industry should a war be forced upon us; and continued research and development into systems providing protection against missile and bomber attacks.

Other Areas Tested

We all know that the United States is the leader of the Free World forces arrayed against a treacherous enemy. International Communism may be deterred from overt aggression by the knowledge of America's military might, but despite serious problems created by ideological differences, the Red-dominated nations are bent on World conquest by whatever means they determine will succeed. Thus, the struggle involves more than military might. The moral and economic vitality of Freedom will continue to be tested.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING! Chicken, Dumplings Come of Age

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

HOW COOKS do enjoy giving their recipes catchy names! A friend kept telling us about her "Jet Age Chicken Stew."

When we looked puzzled, she said, "You know, the speedier-than-speed kind of chicken and dumpling dish that women nowadays like to cook."

Then the light dawned. Good-by to the tough old-fashioned hen that took hours to simmer, farewell to the dumplings made from scratch. Hello to the quick-cooking broiler-fryer, howdy to the dumplings concocted from ready-prepared biscuits.

When we finally tried the recipe, we found it very good indeed. Speedy? Yes!

If you make this Jet Age Stew you won't have any onions to peel or carrots to pare. This up-to-the-minute rule calls for instant minced onion plus a couple of packages of frozen mixed vegetables. Don't skimp and use just one package. You'll find the two called for are just right.

JET AGE CHICKEN STEW

- 1 broiler-fryer, cut up
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine
- 1/2 cups water
- 1 tablespoon instant minced onion
- 1 teaspoon leaf thyme
- 2 packages (10 ounces each) frozen mixed vegetables
- 1 package (8 ounces) refrigerated buttermilk biscuits

Sprinkle chicken pieces on both sides with 1 teaspoon of the salt; the monosodium glutamate and paprika. Heat butter in a large skillet; add chicken and brown on both sides. Add water, onion, and thyme; simmer, covered, for 15 to 25 minutes or until chicken is almost tender. Add vegetables and remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt; bring to a boil. Top with biscuits and simmer, uncovered, for 10 minutes. Cover and simmer 10 minutes longer, until chicken is tender and biscuit "dumplings" are cooked. Remove dumplings and chicken pieces to serving dish; keep warm. Mix flour (amount will depend on how thick you like your gravy) with a little cold water, keeping smooth; stir into vegetable mixture in skillet; cook and stir gently until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Pour vegetable gravy over chicken and dumplings. Makes 5 to 6 servings.

NEIGHBORLY LUNCH

- 8 slices bacon at room temperature
- 1 pound ground beef
- 1 teaspoon salt

recipe!

- Fish Fillets
- Mashed Potatoes
- Broccoli
- Bread Tray
- Bananas a la Irene Beverage
- BANANAS A LA IRENE
- 2 large bananas
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind
- 1/4 cup orange juice
- 2 tablespoons caramelized sugar
- Pinch of mace
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- Parsley sprigs

Take 1 slice of bacon around another so there is a single knot in the center; straighten ends. Make similar bowknots of the other 6 bacon slices so that there are 4 bowknots in all. Arrange on a broiler rack. Mix beef with salt and pepper; shape into 4 patties; reserve. Broil bacon until crisp, turning and straightening ends to brown evenly; remove carefully to brown paper to drain; keep warm. Brush the beef patties with some of the bacon drippings and broil rapidly, turning to brown both sides, to desired doneness. Garnish hamburgers with parsley and serve with bacon.

DINNER FOR TWO

A generous hostess served us this dessert and handed us the cut bananas in half crosswise. Melt the butter in a skillet; add bananas and heat gently, turning to coat with butter. Add the grated orange rind, orange juice, caramelized sugar and mace; continue heating. Remove from heat and stir in the vanilla. Serve hot; garnish with whipped cream if desired. Makes 2 servings.

COMPANY DINNER

A new flaming version of an old recipe!

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Store's Practice Of Sunday Sales Meets Objection From Family Man

Dear Editor:

On March the 7th two years ago, I got one of my eyes damaged which will never be of much use to me for making a living. My wife was forced to go to work to help pay the hospital and doctor bills plus all monthly bills that came in, as I had no insurance, nor did the firm I worked for. What I am beefing about is that my wife is working at a firm that stays open on Sundays. She worked a few Sundays. Then she decided she wouldn't work any more, as we have two small children at home, and Sunday is the only day she could be with them.

Instead they told her they would have to fire her or she quit. All of the people that work at these firms don't like it any better than we do. They are afraid to say anything for fear of losing their jobs. We know that they have the Sunday Blue law, but we can't find out why it isn't enforced. It isn't the managers of the firms that manage these stores. It is the higher officials that make the rules for them to follow. Now as for these small businesses that are run by husbands and wives, that is their only source of making a living, at least they are not making anyone else work on their day off.

I have worked a few Sundays myself and I sure don't like it. Usually when we work on Sundays we laid off on Monday and Tuesday or break down. So you will make just as much by closing your door on Sunday.

There are a few people that want to circulate a petition, but they too are afraid of losing their jobs. It looks like if some towns and chambers of commerce could keep their towns from doing things like this, that others could. Now if it was important, it would be different, but these firms stay open every night, till 8 and 9 o'clock. That gives anyone time to get whatever they need. People that go to church on Sunday and then come and do their shopping are just as guilty as these firms. They are making these people work for them, too. These firms are fine places to shop, so I think they could keep every customer they have and gain new business; if they could close on Sunday and let their help rest. (Name Withheld on request)

GEHL MIX-ALL

Same Uniform Feedmaking Plus 13 New Features

This is a good time for a Mix-All demonstration! There are 13 new features to show you. Come on in. You'll see the new auger feeder drive that loads ingredients at hundreds of speeds. See the high-speed unloading transmission that empties 2 tons of feed in 5 minutes. Then, there's the new concentrate hopper at the rear, the calibrated tank, and 9 other new and useful features.

GRINDS, MIXES, DELIVERS RATIONS

ONE THING GEHL HASN'T CHANGED, though. The Mix-All still grinds and mixes with uniform precision. In the mill, 66 thin, reversible steel hammers cut (not pound) ingredients on a big 507 sq. in. grinding surface. The ration is thoroughly mixed in the 2-ton hopper.

We'd like to prove all this with a demonstration. Why not ask us?

Americanism

Liberty, as proclaimed by law and constitutions, can never have full meaning without the added ingredients of Fraternity and Brotherhood; without the spirit of friendliness and unselfishness... love for one's fellows. Those powerful qualifying attributes help spell out what Americanism is.

When one sees a family unit, parents and children, with Bibles in hand, attending church to worship as they please... then one is witnessing Liberty in its finest and most fullsome forms; for that, too, is American. Freedom of religious worship is equally important, along with economic freedom and freedom from oppression, in America. Then worship God as you please but be sure to worship... that is Americanism.

BY EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES

Want Ad Deluge Seen In Farm Labor Hunt

The following release has been issued by the U.S. Dept. of Labor explaining some of its procedures with which it intends to recruit American farm workers.

The Editor

WASHINGTON — "WANTED: Men and women to work on a farm. Must be physically strong and willing to tackle any task at hand. Mechanical ability helpful. Long hours; fair pay. Suitable living quarters available."

This is an imaginary ad — but the kind which may soon appear in newspapers and magazines, on bulletin boards, and on radio and TV broadcasts throughout the United States.

Such ads are an anticipated part of Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz's recruitment plan to secure American farm workers for seasonal agricultural jobs.

To Replace Bracers

This, the most extensive recruitment ever made for American agricultural employees, came about following the termination on December 31 of Public Law 78. Under that law, thousands of Mexican nationals came to the U. S. every year to work on farms.

The Secretary of Labor also recently set wage levels and working conditions which farmers must meet if they want to import foreign workers for temporary agricultural jobs.

The wages to be paid vary from state to state between $1.15 per hour and $1.40 per hour.

The law provides that before a grower will be permitted to bring in foreign labor, he must offer the new specified rates to domestic workers.

Generally, here's how the agricultural recruitment program for domestic workers operates:

Task Force Planned

Secretary Wirtz has made Labor Department personnel available to assist state employment agencies in the recruitment program. National and state employment service personnel will organize into eight-man emergency task force teams.

The teams will go into major agricultural areas where they will contact all individuals and associations expected to need farm workers.

Following discussion between farms and task force members, all information concerning proposed wages, living, and working conditions becomes part of an official job order or recruitment form.

And this is where ads and other forms of advertising will be used — in an intense drive to attract and recruit not only every possible local worker but those available in surrounding states.

Stakes Are High

Where are the prospective agricultural employees? Anywhere there are people. Likely recruits include experienced under-employed agricultural workers; former agricultural workers who have moved to the city and are now unemployed; or under-employed; those who have lost their jobs as the result of automation; and workers on vacation from their regular occupations.

Eight-man mobile teams have arrived in California, Florida, and Arizona where crop-gathering is underway. Plans are for 12 such teams, with four in California, four in Florida, three in Texas, and one in Arizona.

Calling for the cooperation of farmers and a network of more than 1,900 Federal and state employment service offices, Secretary Wirtz said: "The stakes here are high—tens of thousands of jobs for otherwise unemployed men and women, the survival of a great many business enterprises, and the winning of a fight for human decency."

REPLACES MORE FORMAL INAUGURATIONS

Folksy Flavor Pervades Austin

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — A goodly share of the 3,000 Texans who went to Washington for President Lyndon Johnson's inauguration went through the same sort of celebration — on a much smaller scale — in Austin Monday and Tuesday.

Following Monday's early-afternoon State Democratic Executive Meeting, the round of State Inaugural parties began. One of the best-attended was a reception in the Gaudier Hotel for House Speaker Ben Barnes of DeLeon and Dan Blocker (the "Boss Cartwright" of Bonanza fame).

"Boss" was a headliner, along with TV celebrity Edie Adams, at the $25-per-plate Democratic Victory Dinner, honoring Gov. John Connally, U. S. Gov. Preston Smith and other party winners.

Greet Visitors
Following the solemn ceremony of the swearing-in of Connally and Smith on Tuesday, another round of luncheons and receptions began. Gov. and Mrs. Connally received thousands of visitors at a reception in the Governor's Mansion, across the street from the Capitol.

Connally's kind of celebration, heavy of the folksy flavor, is a far cry from the former custom of a series of governor's balls on the eve of Inauguration.

BILL FILING BEGINS — First bill filed in the House of Representatives was one by Rep. Mead Isaacs of El Paso — only woman member in the House. It would allow youngsters 15½ years old to obtain drivers licenses if they pass approved drivers' education courses. It's designed also to abolish the special motor scooter and motor bike licenses.

DISTILLED SPIRITS BILL — A measure which sponsors say will raise $10,000,000 in tax money for the State, during the next two years, has hit the legislative hopper. It is not a liquor or the drink bill. But it would make available to people dining in Texas restaurants tiny, 2-oz. (or less) bottles of distilled spirits.

Bill calls for an annual license fee of $500 from each restaurant providing the service. Sponsors claim it will encourage tourism while at the same time will not permit open bars.

Measure was introduced in the upper house by Sen. Jim Bates of Edinburg and in the lower house by Rep. Willis Watley of Houston.

TEACHER BILL IN — A bill raising the salary of school teachers $45 a month for each month of the school year was assured of passing in the House. Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, who is sponsoring the measure, invited other House members to sign the bill as co-sponsors. He quickly got more than 80 signatures, a majority of the House members.

Bill probably will have easy sailing in the Senate, where it was introduced by Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris, joined by Sens. J. P. Word of Meridian, Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo, D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur and Jim Bates of Edinburg.

Another bill asked by the teachers, one providing for five days sick leave a year cumulative to 30 days, was introduced by Rep. Wayne Gibbens of Breckenridge. Both bills are being sponsored by the Texas State Teachers Association.

BEEF IMPORT MEASURE INTRODUCED — A plan to discourage the purchase of imported beef by Texans was laid out by Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo.

His proposal would make it illegal — subject to fines up to $500 and a jail sentence — to sell imported meat, unless the grocer displays a sign six by 12 inches large, with the words, "Imported Meat Sold Here," and labels packaged meat, "Product of _____" stating country of origin.

COUNTY SCHOOL SUPPORT — Texas Committee on State and Local Tax Policy recommended that the proportionate share of the Minimum Foundation Program which is borne by local taxing authorities in the Local Fund Assignment be increased by a total of some $19,000,000 over the next two years.

Committee stated that State government is providing $56 more per pupil for public school education than the national average, while local governments are providing $93 per pupil less than local governments of other states.

No recommendation was made regarding Governor Connally's proposal that the State ad valorem tax be abolished — one way county and city governments would have more tax leeway — but it is rumored that the committee made its recommendation with that in mind.

TIPRO POOLING BILL IN — Rep. Wayne Gibbens of Breckenridge is garnering support for the petroleum pooling bill — a product of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, which he is sponsoring in the House.

Gibbens said the bill "emphasizes safeguards to make sure pooling orders will be fair to all parties." It would allow forced pooling only after every effort to pool voluntarily on a fair basis had failed.

HOG CHOLERA ERADICATION — A bill has been introduced which would permit the Texas Animal Health Commission to cooperate with the Animal Disease Eradication branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in an effort to do away with hog cholera in the state.

If the bill by Rep. Grainger W. McIlhenny of Wheeler is passed, Texas would become the 48th state to join the nationwide program.

Authorized would be use of biologicals, quarantine of infected animals and slaughter of infected animals with payment to owners. This would not be done until incidence became low, according to the Texas Farm Bureau, one of the backers of the bill.

This would be the third major animal health campaign launched by Texas farmers and ranchers in recent years. The other two, against brucellosis and the screwworm, have been very successful.

POLL TAX FIGHT RE-NEWED — Bills which would put poll tax repeal on the Nov. 1966 ballot — via constitutional amendment — have been introduced in both houses of the Legislature.

A proposal by Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio also would try to extend the vote to all military personnel who qualified under residency requirements presently applicable to other Texas voters. House measure, co-sponsored by Dallas Representative James W. Stroud and Cooper Blankenship, specifies that military personnel could vote only in the county in which they resided at the time they entered the service.

COMMUNIST PERSUIT MORE DIFFICULT — Atty.-Gen. Waggoner Carr complained that U. S. Supreme Court is making it more difficult to enforce the state law regarding prosecution of communists.

Carr issued his statement after the high court had struck down a warrant under which he and Bexar County Dist. Atty. James Barlow seized some 2,000 books and pamphlets from San Antonian John Stanford.

Material was confiscated Dec. 27, 1963, after Stanford was ordered to register as a Communist by the Subversive Activities Control Board.

"Under each decision of the U. S. Supreme Court regarding state prosecution of Communists, it becomes more difficult to enforce our state laws, but we intend to continue our efforts as vigorously as possible," Carr said.

TFB HEAD OPPOSES CHARGE — C. H. DeVaney, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, told more than 70 legislators attending a bureau legislative conference in Austin that redistricting solely on the basis of population would seriously hurt state and national government.

DeVaney believes the Legislature should work toward an amendment to the U. S. Constitution which would override the Supreme Court decisions on reapportionment.

COURTS SPEAK — State Supreme Court held that Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr should approve the $48,500,000 interim bond issue of Trinity River Authority, for land purchase and construction of Livingston Reservoir, unless refusal is based on a lawsuit challenging the bonds.

Court, in a conditional order, upheld TRA's right to issue interim bonds while final bonds are in preparation. Carr objected to certain features of the bonds and cited a suit attacking the issue. He said bonds should not be approved until nine questions raised had been settled.

Supreme Court said it would not decide "questions raised by the nine objections," and directed its opinion to objections of Carr to the bonds themselves.

Court of Criminal Appeals held courts cannot decide whether state legislators from large counties should be elected county-wide or in small individual districts. Ruling that the matter is up to the Legislature upheld district court decision in a suit brought by Robert Hainsworth, Houston Negro, who claims county wide elections discriminate against Negroes.

Supreme Court will hear Port Arthur's suit against ex-directors of a Jefferson County water district growing out of purchase of a water system. Lower courts held statute of limitations for hearing the dispute had run out.

COLORED BRIDGES? — Texas bridges may take on an Easter egg hue.

Texas Highway Department announces it is considering painting overpasses and other structures in different colors. It already is trying out a few shades of gray.

Theory is that pastel shades will help relieve monotony for drivers, thus making travel safer and more pleasant.

K. K. Moore, supervising paint engineer of the TFD Materials and Tests Division, points out two problems. First agreeing on colors, and second, more rapid fading of brighter hues. He predicts some standard color will be used in another five years.

South Dakota, a jump ahead, already is planning to paint all its interstate overpass bridges in blue, pink, green, yellow, lavender and orange.

SHORT SNORTS — Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro was re-appointed by Governor Connally

In modern farms, cows are not confined to stanchions but roam freely in a large open shed called a loafing or lounging barn.

Guy de Maupassant urged Parisians to "smash this assemblage of iron ladders" referring to the Eiffel Tower.

MAKE WAY FOR PROGRESS — One of the landmarks of Hereford and one of the first two story houses built in this town is this home at 410 W. 6th which was built by A. P. Murchison at the turn of the century. Mrs. Tom J. Carter related that this may be the location of a commercial building in the future. She has received many calls from people who have been visitors and enjoyed many parties in this home in years past. (Staff Photo)

Feed Grain Supplies Decline Six Per Cent In Current Market Year

present marketing year are down six percent from last year; demand is expected to remain high and prices probably will average a little higher during the 1964-65 marketing year than for the year just passed, says John G. McHaney, Extension economist of Texas A&M University.

Supplies have dropped during three of the last four years and the carryover at the beginning of the 1965-66 marketing year is expected to be around the 58 million ton level. This compares with a carryover of 69 million tons at the start of the present marketing year and the record 85 million tons in 1961-62. The reduced carryover is the result of a 1964 feed grain crop estimated at 10-12 million tons below total disappearance.

Down Five Per Cent Feed grain acreage, according to the economist, was down 5 percent from 1963 and 21 percent below the 1959-60 average, the base period for the feed grain program. Fewer acres and lower yields in 1964 accounted for the 12 percent drop in total production.

Livestock feeding rates have been influenced by rising feed costs and declining prices for livestock and livestock products.

Domestic use of feed grains is expected to drop slightly during the present marketing year. Exports, on the other hand, are expected to equal or perhaps exceed last year's record of 18.7 million tons, says McHaney.

The economist believes prices will continue the general upward movement of the past three years. Prices received by farmers rose slightly in 1963-64 from the year before and were up about 10 percent above the post-war low of 1960-61.
