

The Lake By The Caliche Cliffs

UMBARGER

Water hasn't sluiced down the broad-beamed spillway in 14 years, but that doesn't stop a half-million ducks, in the winter, and a half-million people, in the summer, from flocking to Buffalo Lake.

Surrounded by eroded caliche cliffs, a nondescript network of unsettling roads and trails and a ragged pattern of cottonwoods, the 27-year-old reservoir area draws its denizens all the way from Northern Canada.

For the Panhandle's recreation-starved residents, the boomerang-shaped lake is a watery haven where they can fish, boat, swim, water ski, cook over a campfire, turn the kids loose in the stark bluffs or snooze under a penetrating sun.

For the ducks — and a much smaller visitation of noisy geese — Randall County's answer to Lake Mead offers an enticing water supply, one kerplow in the middle of the finest eating grounds this side of Manitoba.

Actually, Buffalo Lake has been, since 1958, considered an important link in a

Mr. Governor

Ardent And 'Prejudiced', Lions Club's New District Head Is Sold On Group

When the more than 470 delegates from 27-1 of Lions International met in Dalhart last week, they elected a prejudiced man to office.

Named governor of District 27-1 was J. W. Robinson Jr., Hereford insurance man.

Robinson warned delegates beforehand that he was biased, however.

He said flatly that he believes Lions International is one of the most beneficial service organizations around.

BUT ROBINSON'S election

wasn't based entirely on his feelings about the organization. Mostly, the voting delegates favored his 14 years of service to the Hereford Lions Club.

He didn't mention it in an interview with the Brand, but Robinson has a perfect attendance record dating back for 15 years. And during those years he has served in numerous offices — including president — with the local club, and has twice served as a deputy governor for the district.

Why is he so devoted to See LION Page 3

County Okays Extra Deputy

Opposition By Hicks

An additional deputy for the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's department was approved Monday by a divided vote of the commissioner's court. The action, which will enlarge the department to four full time deputies, came on a 3-1 vote.

Commissioner Donald Hicks disputed the move on several fronts, contending that no allowance had been made in the budget for a new deputy and that an additional aide was hired last year.

"I don't believe the additional deputy sheriff is justified," he said.

SHERIFF LOWELL R. Sharp was only recently turned down by the commissioners in his bid to get salary raises for his deputies, one of whom was computed that they were making little better than common laborer wages on an hourly basis.

This time, Sharp said that the additional work load in the department made the need for a new deputy necessary. The department would not need, however, an additional automobile at this time, he said.

The sheriff said he had planned to request the extra deputy for some time but waited until the salary raise issue was settled before making his design known.

IN VOICING his opposition, Hicks also pointed out that a full-time dispatcher had been hired for the department this year.

Bill Gentry Is Named School Board President

School trustees, having sworn in a re-elected and a new board member, named W. H. (Bill) Gentry Tuesday night as their new president.

Gentry, a farmer serving his second term as a trustee, replaces Ivan Block, whose term expired. Block did not seek re-election.

THE HEREFORD board, formalities aside, discussed the school's insurance situation at length and hired a number of new teachers.

In other business, the board also discussed out-of-district trips for both students and school personnel, and visited with N. D. Bartlett Jr. and W. R. (Dub) Hair concerning the opening of a street on school property.

Hair owns property north of the Junior High site and plans to sub-divide the acreage soon.

L. B. (SCAT) Russell, former high school principal, and Dr. A. T. Mims, who was re-elected to the board, were sworn by County Clerk B. F. Cain. Labry E. Ballard, was named vice-president, and Hugh Clearman, secretary.

Yielding the president's post and retiring from the board was Block, who has served on the board for six years.

Don Baugous, representing Hereford Insurance Agency, met with the board in an effort to explain delays in receiving the insurance policies for the school See BOARD Page 3

RECREATION AND WILDLIFE FACILITIES WOULD BE EXPANDED

Master Lake Plan Seeks $739,000 For Improvements

national network of wildlife refuges. They dot the Great Plains from the far north to the Gulf Coast, the corridor of the Central migratory waterfowl flyway.

But its dual purpose — serving as both recreation area and wildlife habitat — existed from the beginning.

Manager Robert Brown of the refuge sees the lake, located 7½ miles south of Umbarger and about 20 miles northeast of Hereford, reaching for its potential provided there are federal funds in its immediate future.

Brown, 32, a native Texan who has lived at the lake with his wife and four boys for more than two years, enthusiastically predicts the approval shortly by Washington Fish and Wildlife Service officials of a $739,000 master plan for the lake.

But when the Congress will provide the funds is anyone's guess.

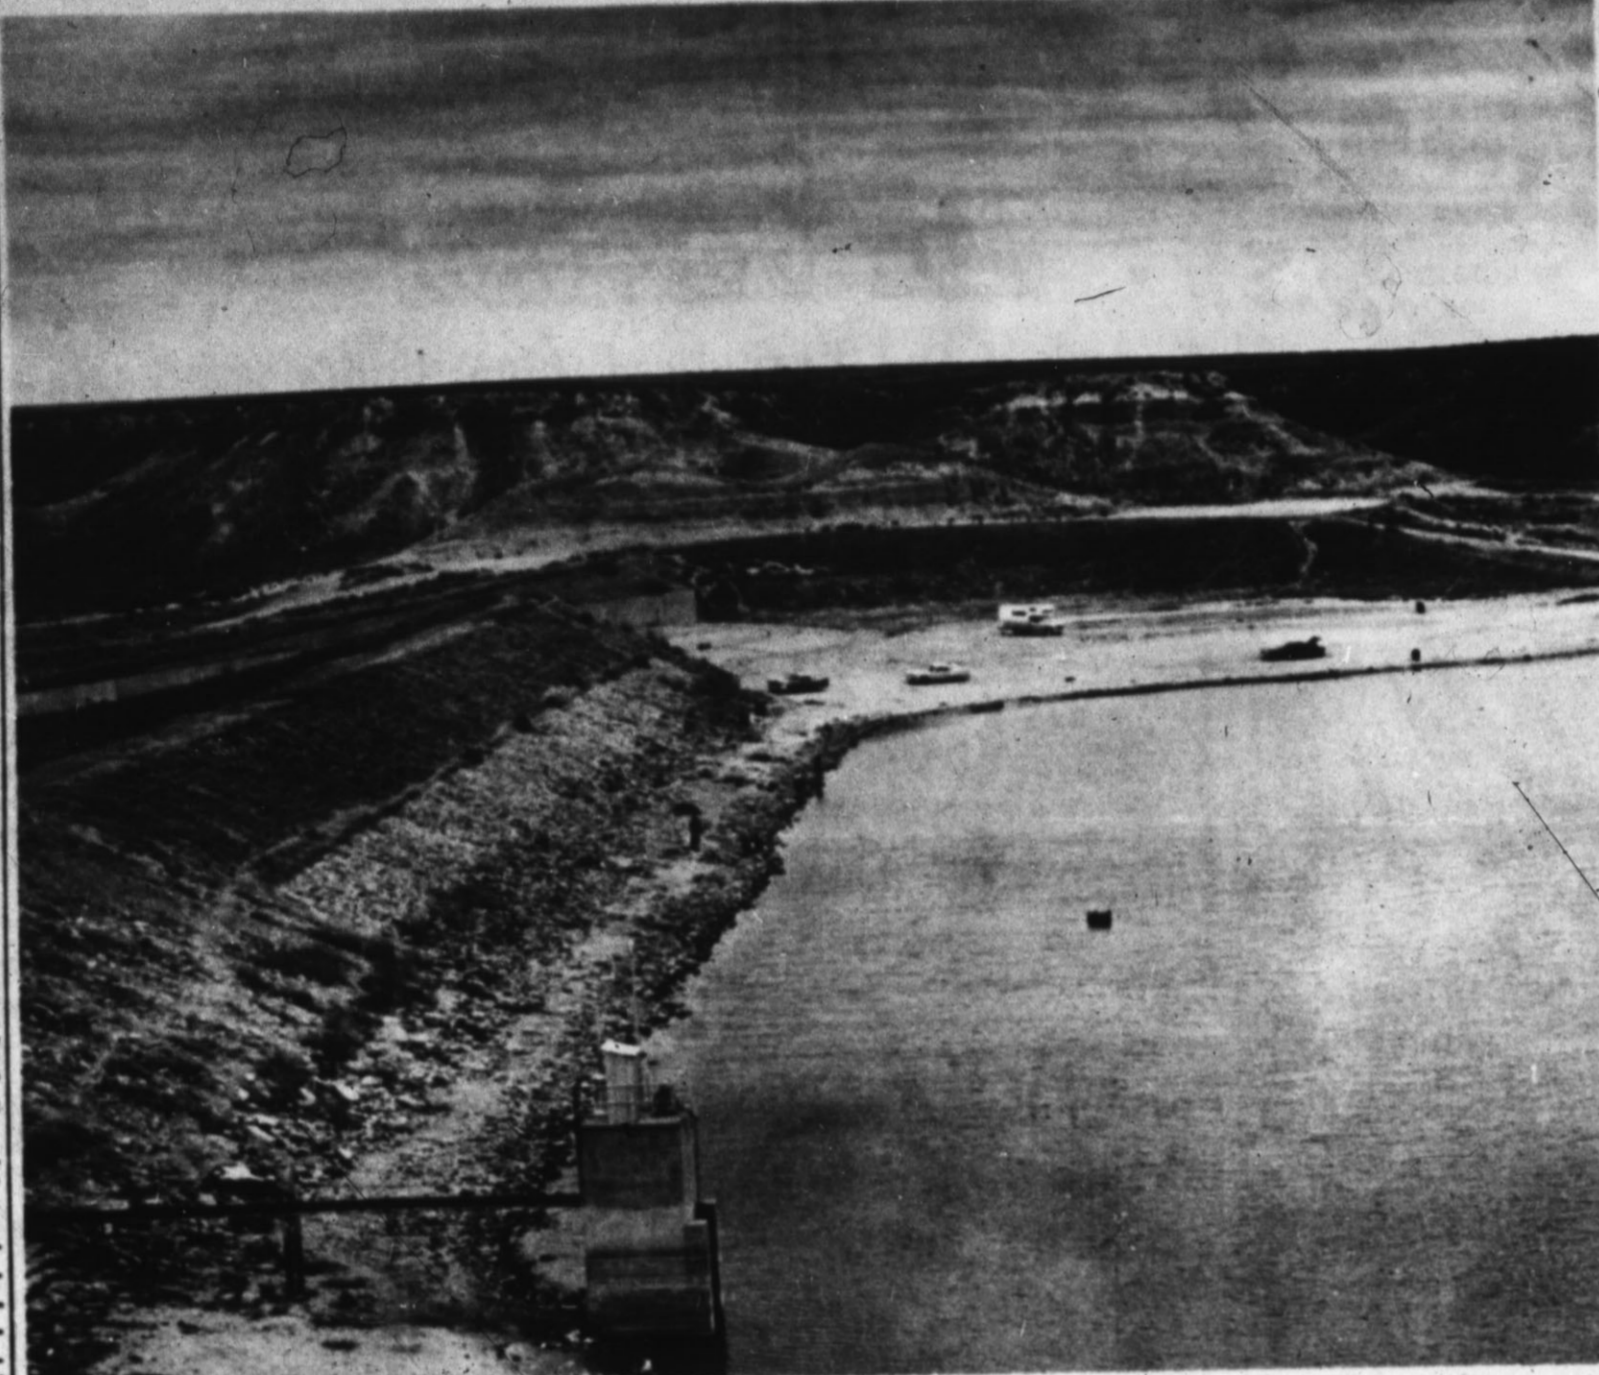

THE PLAN, to be implemented in three one-year steps, calls for a visitor center, erection of picnic shelters, a new network of roads, development of a headquarters site and an additional residence for refuge personnel and biological development of water and food supplies to handle the expected increase in water-fowl population.

"We hope to have some development funds by July of 1966," says Brown hopefully.

He finds the sometimes divided devotions of President Johnson toward both economy in public spending and the development of recreation facilities puzzling and unpredictable. But if influential Congressmen get aboard the recreation bandwagon, "boom," says Brown, "we might have a couple of hundred thousand dollars to start something with."

THE EARTH-FILL dam, built in 1938 across Tierra Blanca Creek as a Soil Conservation project, normally impounds a 2,300-acre reservoir.

But the meandering little creek is notoriously non-productive except during rare flood stages.

THE TELL-TALE POINT — The 27-year-old Buffalo Lake earth-fill dam depicts at its most graphic the low water level of the lake. Water is now 11 feet below the spillway, over which the lake has not flowed in 14 years and only twice in its existence. The dam was built in 1938 as a Soil Conservation project. (Staff Photo)

The lake's replenishment prospects, then, are always slim. Extreme conservation practices are prudently followed.

Presently, Buffalo Lake is about two feet lower at the spillway than normal. The lake, says Brown, has only gone over its concrete spillway twice since the dam's erection. In 1941 and 1951. But low tide is not expected to deter nor dampen the enthusiasm of the high tide of summer visitors — an influx which will provide most of the lake's about 400,000 annual users.

MORE DUCKS than people will use the lake, but Brown grins and says: "Ducks are the least of our problems."

The virtual swamping of lake facilities and recreation areas during the summer weekends has forced Brown to inaugurate weekend patrols to police the five to 10,000 visitors. (In the master plan, a fulltime police force of a shore and a water patrolman is contemplated).

Facilities at the lake are limited. The only concession is operated on a 20-year lease, and the proprietor provides a cafe, boat dock and fishing tackle store.

Brown said five concrete picnic tables and benches are being poured presently to augment a limited supply. And the Texas Highway Department, using funds from boat licensing fees, should complete in April a new concrete boat ramp with asphalt access roads.

THE LAKE area, surrounded by the 7,677-acre refuge, is cleaner now than ever before, Brown says. Refuge crews have been attacking the encroaching advance of willows and salt cedars with herbicides and bulldozers. Cottonwoods, a few of which line parts of the lake shore, are being transplanted in their place.

The vigorous use of the lake's recreation offerings will be useful, Brown believes, in convincing Congress and Fish and Wildlife Service officials that the area is deserving of speedy at-ention. He does see, however, some mitigating effects from the nearing completion of recreation facilities at Lake Meredith, the reservoir behind the Canadian

River Project's Sanford Dam northeast of Amarillo.

"We hope that it reduces our number considerably," he said. "If Lake Meredith pulls about half of our use off, then our facilities will last much longer and we'll be able to keep them cleaner."

DURING THE winter months, Brown and his permanent three-man staff turn their attentions to the waterfowl. Peak periods are in December and January, months when more than two-thirds of the lake is banned to human use.

The duck season just past was an odd one. Because of "an exceptionally mild winter," many of the playa lakes in the Panhandle did not freeze over. The lakes, close to farms and feeding areas, made fine "duck motels," and virtually every playa lake was host to a couple of hundred or more mallards.

As a result, Buffalo Lake's population was down, totalling about 650,000 where it has been as high as 900,000.

GEESE population was the reverse. Brown said the lake sheltered about 35,000 Canada geese, a black and gray marked bird ranging from just larger than a mallard duck up to eight pounds. A flock of about 20,000 is considered normal, Brown said.

The refuge manager sees the increase as the result of several factors: the planting of 200 acres of winter wheat as an enticement, the receipt of some birds that have been hazed out of downstate wintering areas and the closing off of the lower two-thirds of the lake from November 1 to March 1.

Ducks and geese are not the lake's only regular patrons, however. One hundred ninety species of birds are normally found here.

UNDER THE refuge master plan, the Buffalo Lake area would be equipped to handle about a million ducks and 30,000 geese each year. A key project would be the diversion of the Tierra Creek channel and the partitioning of mudflats at the refuge's southern end so feeding areas could be provided.

This would hold many of the birds during the deprecation period of early spring when the fowl find succulent appeal in the pre-watering and planting operations of Panhandle farmers.

If they had the tri-pronged attraction of water, shelter and food at the lake, the birds "could eat, play around and be perfectly content," Brown says.

AND THE farmers, who occasionally call Brown to register a fuming protest, would be more content also, Brown suggests.

Recently, the refuge has been mentioned as a possible site for one of six national refuges slated to have a National Job Corps

Camp. Brown estimates the camp would put about $200,000 into the economy of the neighboring communities and, indirectly, aid recreational development at the lake.

No decision has been announced.

Brown finds the Buffalo Lake post quite a change from the mountain-surrounded refuge at Monte Vista, Colo., where he worked previously. He said, being a native Texan, he was happy to get back among the people of the Lone Star State.

But to do his fishing, he and his family pack up each year and return to Colorado.

"I don't care too much for fishing in that muddy water," he laughed as he drove along the lake shore.

Bridge Session Slated Saturday

A one-session bridge tournament sponsored by the Hereford Duplicate Bridge Club is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the Community Center.

All interested bridge players are invited to attend. Anyone needing a partner may call Mrs. Frances Hill at EM 4-1706, or Mrs. Dick Gholson, EM 4-0007. Trophies will be awarded winners.

Pottery making in some parts of Africa is a rather exclusive craft practiced by a small group of potters who tend to function like a medieval guild. They pass their skills from one generation to the next.

PORTENT OF THINGS TO COME — This lone boat, photographed Monday on Buffalo Lake, has the lake to itself. This scene will be reversed in a few weeks as Panhandle residents swarm to the lake south of Umbarger. Summer weekends find five to 10,000 persons around the lake shores. (Staff Photo)

ASSURES POLICIES ON WAY

Board Closely Questions Agency Spokesman On Insurance Delays

(Continued from Page 1) district. The local agency secured the insurance business this year on a low bid basis but delays in receiving the policy had board members concerned.

BAUGOUS ASSURED the board that the insurance policies had been issued and were on the way and would arrive in Hereford not later than Friday afternoon. In the meantime, he told the board, the school district has been covered by a binder.

Also attending the board meeting were representatives of two other insurance agencies. Lloyd Sharp and Ken Rogers, representing Lone Star Agency, and Stan Sigman and Lloyd Pool, representing Pool-Sigman Agency were on hand.

County To Aid With Curb Cost Along Cemetery

In other action, the court: —Approved the payment of $1,000 from the right-of-way fund to help defray costs of curb and gutter on the east side of Hereford's West Park Cemetery.

—TRANSFERRED $5,919.41 from the right-of-way fund to the Hospital Building Fund.

—Refused a request by a Latin-American group to use the Knights of Columbus building for a dance.

—Approved the sale of surplus property at the hospital.

—Approved the sending of two men from each precinct to a civil defense training school.

—Reviewed tax rate structure on automobiles.

—Authorized expenditures of 4-H boys and girls for the state 4-H Roundup trip to College Station.

—Raised the yearly retainer for McMorries & Co. from $1,000 to $1,200.

EZRA NORTON and J. Claud Ricketts, representing the Hereford Cemetery Association, appeared before the court requesting help on paving and curb and gutter costs for the east side of the West Park Cemetery. The court voted to pay $1,000 of the cost from the right-of-way fund.

The court authorized the transfer of $5,919.41 from the right-of-way fund to the hospital building fund and approved the increase of $200 per year on the fee paid to McMorries and Co., a tax consultant firm working with the county.

that the school district swap footage from the west end of the proposed junior high building site for a like amount of property on the north side. Purpose of the trade would be to allow Stadium Drive to be extended through the school property to 16th St.

THE BOARD turned down the proposal, noting that "plans have already been made for the use of the property and a change now would not be desirable to the district."

Out-of-district trips were approved for:

—Twenty three students to attend the Interscholastic League contests to be held at Odessa, April 23-24.

—Six Vocational Agriculture boys to attend the state judging contest at Texas A&M, April 29-May 2.

—Twelve FHA girls to attend the State FHA Convention in Dallas April 22-25. Three instructors will also accompany the group.

—The High School golf team to compete in the regional meet at Odessa, April 22-23.

—Tax Assessor - Collector Orpha Click to attend a school for tax men, April 25 through April 28. The meeting will be held in Midland.

—Dorothy Mercer to attend a convention of secretaries at Ft. Worth April 30-May 2.

THE BOARD also discussed the band-choir trip to spring contests at Corpus Christi. The trip was approved at an earlier meeting with the two groups sharing expenses with the school district.

One year teaching contracts were awarded Mrs. Patricia Hager, Mrs. Bobbie Combest, Mrs. Reatha Pyeatt and Mrs. Earlene Jones — Shirley Elementary School;

Mrs. Phyllis Blankenship — Northwest Elementary School; Mrs. Dianne Burney, Mrs. Marilyn Hardwick and Thomas Milligan — Central Elementary School;

Mrs. Rebecca Ann Arnold, James (Rosie) Bates, (Special Education) and Ray Don King (coach) at Stanton Junior High School;

Mrs. Laverne Bates — Aikman Elementary School.

One year contracts were also awarded to Judith Kay McLarty, Frankie Lee Coy and Mrs. Nancy Ritchie who will teach music in the five elementary schools, and Jessie Gerron was awarded a one-year contract as assistant principal at Hereford High School.

28 COUNTIES

Lions District Has 60 Clubs

LIONISM? THE NEWLY-ELECTED district governor didn't pause before answering that one: "Lions Club is strictly a service organization... the best of its kind, I personally think."

"I like the policy Lions have of raising money and spending it on the local level for the betterment of the community."

"And when the Lions here approached me to seek the district office, I saw an opportunity to repay Lions International for the benefits I have received from the organization."

AS DISTRICT governor, Robinson will co-ordinate activities of some 60 clubs in 28 Panhandle counties. The Lions District 2T-1 corresponds roughly with the 18th Congressional District, Robinson said. There are 15 Lion's districts in Texas.

Born in Hereford, Robinson may again display some prejudice when he visits Lions Clubs in the districts.

"I'll never pass up the chance to put in a good word for the Hereford Lions Club and the town as a whole," Robinson admitted. "They're both hard to beat."

HE SAID THAT the service record of the local Lions Club in comparison with others in the region puts the Hereford Lions on a second-to-none basis.

"The things which the local Lions undertake would be hard to list in one sitting," Robinson asserted. "But they all have the same goal: betterment of the community, and that's why I'm for them."

In addition, the Lion's state and international projects of aiding the blind, providing care and recreation for crippled children, and the eye-bank programs merit high praise from Robinson.

"BUT I DON'T mean to leave the impression that Lions set themselves apart from other groups," Robinson said. "We are always wanting to help other organizations with their projects."

Like many Lions, J. W. could be classed as a "joiner" — but his record in other organizations indicates that he does more than join.

He is active in the Amarillo

Life Underwriters' Association, the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Hereford Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite, and Khiva Temple.

He is a member of the First Christian Church and the Chamber of Commerce. Robinson served as president of Deaf Smith County's United Fund the one year it met its quota in the last five, and for two years was secretary-treasurer of the Hereford Little League.

STRIKE-CALLERS HAVE CAUCUS

Did Dale Carnegie Ever Umpire In Little League?

By WAIN MILLER
Staff Writer

When youngsters take to the baseball diamond... well, you might as well be prepared for anything.

That was the word to the wise offered by a man who has been umpiring Little League baseball games for almost seven years.

And to be honest about the matter, the things which come to question when Little Leaguers are in action just aren't all covered in the official rules and regulations, he said.

"TO MAKE A long story short, it takes more than a knowledge of baseball rules to work with Little League," asserted Jack Powell of Dumas, district umpire-in-chief for Little League, Inc.

Powell was explaining some of the finer points of Little League rulings to about 40 coaches, managers, and umpires who convened in the Community Center here Monday night to prepare for the upcoming summer baseball program.

"After all, you're working with boys ranging from eight to 12 years of age," Powell reminded, "and at that age, kids will be kids."

"BUT THE THING which we hope that everyone realizes is that Little League baseball shouldn't be conducted on a win-or-lose basis."

Powell complimented officials of the Hereford Little League for the program carried out here and the facilities available for the young ballplayers.

"You know," he continued, "it takes something which borders on sheer courage to embark on a program where you try to make about 300 to 400 boys — and their parents — happy at the same time."

Powell's talk was aimed at explaining solutions to problems which pop up during Little League action, with particular emphasis upon the umpire's role in the proceedings.

SUMMING UP his seven years behind the plate — plus lessons learned at the official Little League school last year in Williamsport, Pa., headquarters for the youth organization — Powell put it bluntly:

"The ump — who generally gets blamed, but seldom praised — is the proverbial goat."

"In general, you get response not from your good decisions, but from the questionable ones," Powell stated in a serious tone.

"People often forget that you are just a volunteer whose sole motive is to try to help their little Johnny have an enjoyable summer."

"AND MOST OF the time little Johnny finds fewer qualms with the ump than do his parents... but then there are times when it's the other way around."

"Sometimes those youngsters can surprise you with their shrewd tactics," he admitted.

"About the only defense I can suggest to prospective ump's is a thorough knowledge of the rules, an open mind, and a good supply of deep-rooted moral character and common sense," said Powell.

Then he embarked on a two-hour discussion of rules governing Little League field action.

And after it was over, he averred that he hadn't begun to scratch the surface.

"YOU CAN'T BEGIN to comprehend all of the predicaments a bunch of youngsters can get into on a baseball diamond until you've watched them a few years."

"But I guess that's the idea of it all anyway... to provide them something to do which not only entertains them, but teaches them some of the basic facts of life about sportsmanship."

Introducing Powell was Gene Loerwald, president of the Hereford Little League.

Loerwald said that tryouts for the leagues are slated for April 23-24.

BOYS FROM eight-to-twelve years of age are eligible for Little League.

This year there will be eight major league teams (limited to 15 players each) and eight minor league squads, which will field about 25 players each.

This means more than 300 youngsters will participate in the Little League program this summer.

And what does it take for these boys to play?

Well, mostly, work on the part of about 100 men who will be needed to coach teams, umpire games, and maintain the league's two ballparks.

Loerwald urged men — especially those who will have youngsters in the program — to help in a clean-up session at the two ballparks this weekend. League officials will be at the park all day Saturday and Sunday in attempt to prepare the grounds for the season, which gets underway May 18.

WILL BACK TSTA PLAN

Chamber Board To Oppose Vote Measure Backed By President

In a jam-packed two-hour session Wednesday the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors acted upon a number of items of importance to the Chamber and to the community.

The board accepted the recommendation of the government affairs committee relative to matters of legislation.

In its recommendations that committee suggested "the chamber of commerce take whatever measures it deems necessary and appropriate to register the opposition of this chamber of commerce to House Bill 6400 now before the Congress of the United States and to further cause the chamber membership and the public at large to be made aware of the content and dangers inherent in this legislation."

This is the voting bill advocated by President Johnson and which would, in some instances, interfere with local registration. The government affairs committee also recommended "that the chamber of commerce support the teacher pay raise plan incorporated in House Bill 5 — Senate Bill 4 (the teacher association plan) and that the chamber of commerce make a concerted effort to publicize its stand and encourage the general public to express its support of this bill to its elected representatives."

The chamber also adopted the recommendation of its tourist and convention committee that the chamber recommend to the Deaf Smith County commissioners court that remodeling of the "Bull Barn" be considered. A general purpose building for the holding of agricultural exhibits, livestock shows, commercial and industrial exhibits, conventions, community meetings, banquets and other affairs is contemplated.

The Board of Fire Underwriters will be extended an invitation to conduct inspection of buildings in Hereford for fire hazards. These inspections, conducted by experienced fire underwriters, will be for the purpose of assisting building owners and businessmen as well as government and school buildings to recognize fire hazards.

Wheeler Sears brought to the board the recommendations of the Christmas decorations committee relative to a complete community decorations package.

Because all figures were not complete the board adopted only the part providing for the immediate modification of the three four-armed chandeliers into six-armed chandeliers. Final approval along with a financing plan will be considered further at the next meeting.

President Wayne Thomas reported to the directors on a meeting held with a representative of the Rogers Company, Fostoria, Ohio, relative to the production of a 75th anniversary historical pageant. No action was taken or requested of the board at this time.

Expenses of the president and the manager were approved to attend the annual meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to be held in Abilene April 28-29-30. Labry Ballard, chairman of the annual banquet committee, requested direction from the board as to the type of speaker to be sought, the location of the banquet, the food service or other details. He was instructed to continue the banquet in the format used this year.

Tide Products, Miller Poultry Farm and Hereford Amusement Center were voted into membership; Kendall Williams, M&W Pottery, Hereford Meat Market and Lockwood Graders were dropped from the membership rolls.

Hereford Sugar Plant Featured In Magazine

Holly Sugar Corporation's Merrill E. Shoup plant west of Hereford is featured in the April issue of Texas Parade, a monthly publication of a state-wide distribution that touches on subjects from highways to history.

TITLED "SWEET Success on the High Plains," the article was written by an Amarillo woman, Mrs. Lewis Nordyke. Three pictures taken at the plant, one of them during dedication ceremonies last September, were taken by Bill Bradley, local photographer.

The article covers three pages. Mrs. Nordyke writes:

"HEREFORD HAS long been famous as the 'town without a toothache.' Elements in the soil and water are credited with making molars that defy cavities. Will those elements penetrate the sugar beets and give this Texas sugar produced at the big Holly plant qualities no other sugar contains?"

"That question none of the 10,000 citizens of Hereford has answered definitely — yet. But there is no question in their minds about the benefits of the location of Holly's sugar mill."

Pastures Need Irrigation Now

Now is the time for an application of water and fertilizer on irrigated pastures, according to Ed Blackwell of the Soil Conservation Service.

While such grasses as midland bermuda and switchgrass are still dormant, an application of nitrogen and phosphorus should be used.

The farmer should check with his local fertilizer dealer for recommended amounts, Blackwell said. Watering should be completed immediately after application of fertilizer, he added.

He recommends several applications of nitrogen throughout the grazing season, if rotation is practiced and adequate water is available.

Plant appearance is a poor indicator of the proper time to irrigate, Blackwell said, so plans should be made to water the grass before it shows symptoms of soil moisture deficiency.

In estimating how much water to apply, the soil profile should be examined before irrigating, Blackwell suggests, with a check to the full depth from which grass roots draw moisture.

OHIO FIRM INVOLVED

Citizens Group Ponders 75th Anniversary Fete

About 25 of Hereford's leading citizens cautiously agreed Tuesday afternoon to have an Ohio historical pageant production company make a survey of the potential success of a 75th Deaf Smith County anniversary spectacular here.

The birthday of the legal founding of the county is due in October.

Representatives of city and county government, churches, civic clubs, chamber of commerce and other community groups made the decision after hearing the sales pitch of Samuel J. Grogg, vice president of the Rogers Company, Fostoria, Ohio.

GROSS SAID the survey would take about two days, and he would return "shortly after Easter" to review data from chamber of commerce, industrial survey and other sources.

It was stressed, both by Grogg and Chamber Manager Bill Thompson, that the group had obligated itself in no way by requesting a presentation by the company.

Grogg said his company has been active in designing and directing community anniversary historical pageants for 61 years and has produced more than 4,000 — 90 per cent of which were financially solvent.

HE SAID THE celebrations, of which the pageant is the main event, are valuable for five reasons: (1) creating new civic awareness among citizens (2) uncovering new civic leaders (3) stimulating the local economy (4) honoring the area's heritage and (5) focusing attention on the future.

"There is a certain magic about an anniversary date as it relates to the human element of your community," Grogg said. Grogg said his company provides a resident director, all of the costumes, props, electrical and sound equipment and the promotional and production skills and experience built up in their 61 years.

HE NAMED A number of Texas and New Mexico cities where the Rogers Company has been employed.

He suggested that the recommended procedure would be the setting up of a non-profit corporation to handle the pageant with directors comprised of interested townspeople. In a private session, it was agreed that a number of safety precautions should be taken, if this route is followed, to protect the corporation's directors from liability for losses that might accrue from a pageant failure financially.

Office On 385 Is Burglarized

A burglar or burglars with unusual tastes broke into the Hamby Real Estate office, located on South U.S. Hwy. 385, sometime Monday night.

Noted missing as a result of the burglar's visit were three pair of dress slacks, a "sunburst" design clock, and a typewriter.

Sheriff's deputies who investigated the complaint said entry was gained by breaking a rear window of the building.

ORDER AND NOTICE OF ELECTION

THE STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF Deaf Smith

WHEREAS on the 8 day of March, 1965, there was presented to the Commissioners' Court of Deaf Smith County, Texas, the petition of 21 freeholders and qualified voters of said Precinct 3 requesting that an election be ordered in said Precinct 3 to determine whether or not the following classes of animals to-wit: horses, mules, jacks, jennets, donkeys, hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in said Precinct 3; and WHEREAS on the 10 day of March, 1965, the Commissioners' Court of said county ordered that said election be held in said Precinct 3 on the 24 day of April, 1965, and NOW, THEREFORE, I H. C. Williams, in my capacity as

Legal Notice

County Judge of Deaf Smith County, Texas, do hereby order that an election be held in said Precinct 3 on the 24 day of April, 1965, which date is not less than 30 days from the date of this order, at which election, in accordance with said petition, the following proposition shall be submitted to the freeholders and qualified voters of said Precinct 3 for their action thereupon:

PROPOSITION

To determine whether or not the following classes of animals to-wit: horses, mules, jacks, jennets, donkeys, hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in said Precinct 3.

That said election shall be held at the following places in said Precinct 3.

(1) Election Precinct No. 3 in Herbert Schmidt Residence Building, in Deaf Smith County, Texas.

(2) Election Precinct No. 8 in Walcott School Building, in Deaf Smith County, Texas.

All qualified voters and freeholders wishing to vote in person in said election shall do so at the office of the County Clerk in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Election Code.

The manner of holding said election shall be governed as near as may be by the Election Code of this State, and none but freeholders and qualified voters of said county shall be allowed to vote at said election.

A copy of this order shall serve as notice of said election, and said notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation published in this county, the date of the first publication being at least 30 days before the date of said election and continue in each successive issue of said newspaper for at least 30 days.

DATED this 10 day of March, 1965.

Sandi Says...

By Sandi Thomas
Band Correspondent

Hi, gang! Just think - only five more weeks and one day until summer vacation! Then we will scatter for summer visits, trips, conventions, and whatever else we can think of. Those of you who are seniors will feel bad for the way you treated your teachers and underclassmen. And from what I've heard, some of you aren't looking too forward to college.

Congratulations to the band kids - are certainly on hand. They raked up their third sweepstakes in a row at contest last week. This means they will get to go to Corpus Christi April 22.

Last Friday Hereford lost to Plainview by a score of 3-0. I might add that Hereford beat them 15-12 the first time they played. That sounds like a football score instead of baseball, so Plainview was really a tough team to play!

Hereford raked up 63 points to put them in third place at the district track meet in Amarillo last Saturday. Twelve boys from HHS will be able to participate in regional contests April 24. Kenny Justice set a new district record for the 100-yard dash - 9.7 seconds. David Kelley placed fifth in the 800; Roger Suttle, fourth, pole vault; Ricky Fangman, second, discus throwing; Mark Hicks, second, high jump; Steve Perrin, sixth and Gary Goodin, first, low hurdles; Walter Williams, second, 440.

The 440 relay team, composed of Greg Richards, Walter Williams, Keith Henderson and Kenny Justice, placed second. The mile relay team also placed second. This team is composed of Sammy Cursinger, Walter Williams, Steve Perin and Larry Champ.

I simply can't forget the golf boys through another column! They're doing extremely well and need to be commended for it. They earned a trip to regional contests when they placed second in the district meet last Friday. Their combined team score was 478. Golfers going to Muleshoe were Roger Owen, Jimmy Young, Andy Channer and Gordon Golden, making the team score. Bob Reinauer and Steve Hendon also entered.

You know, you can learn something new every day - just read the papers. Having hardly glanced at a paper before I was made a firm believer in reading the newspaper last Monday. It really is interesting! For instance, a dog was reported to be in critical condition Monday after a man had bitten him!! The Hereford Rider's Club got off to a windy start last Sunday when they attended their first playday of the year. Teens going were Karen and Kim Blackwell; Jo, Lynne, and Candy Poarch; Jimmy and Pat Cooper; Sabra Traweek; Toni Beauchamp; James Lee and Ronald Ott. Karen, Kim, and Candy won the high point plaque in their respective divisions.

Karen placed first in pole bending, wagon race, flag race, potato race, and fourth in the barrel race. Kim placed second in pole bending, flagrace, baton race, key hole; third in the barrel race; and fourth in the ring spearing. Candy won first in the barrel racing, wagon race, baton relay; second in the pole bending and ring spearing; and third in the potato race.

Jo won first in the barrel and wagon racing; fourth in the pole bending; and fifth in the baton relay. Lynne won second in the wagon race and fourth in the baton relay and key hole. Sabra placed first in the potato race, key hole, ring spearing, and baton relay.

Pat ran first in the pole bending, baton relay; second in the barrel racing and wagon race; fourth in the flag race and ring spearing. Jimmy placed second in the pole bending and ring spearing; third in the barrel race, and fourth in the key hole and baton relay. Ronald Ott placed first in the wagon race.

I have a correction to make concerning last week's column. Monte Gripp, instead of Monte Rowland, was the winner of the Public Speaking contest. Sorry, both you Montes!!

Tuesday the FFA Grass Judging team entered district competition. April 24 all teams will go to Texas Tech in Lubbock for a big blowout down there.

About 25 boys went to the Key Club State Convention in Fort Worth last weekend. From what I hear, it must have been exciting!

For a Rainbow Charity project Carole Coffey has planned a car wash to be held tomorrow at the Park-A car wash. The girls are having a slumber party at Denise King's tonight, so the wash should prove to be interesting. Price for washing the car and cleaning out the inside is $1.50.

Maybe you didn't know that only 45 people turned out for the TRIO of one-act plays April 3, but it's true! We (myself included) should support these kids a little more, since they worked so hard on these plays. They are giving us another chance, though May 7, when they will present "Exit the Body." The cast is composed of Randy Hopson, Kathy Pool, Gerald Witkowski, Barbara Langley, Maura McAndrews, Jerry Leatherman, John Lesly, Razi Rush, Steve Hoffman, and Rene Batard. Kenneth Eastman is the assistant director.

The mixed choir kids received their jackets and sweaters last Monday. They are (and should be) really proud of them.

Mr. Irresistible of HHS is Jimmy Bayne, according to the announcement made last Friday. Jimmy won this "coveted" honor by managing to lure the most FHA girls into talking to him. Last week was National FHA week and this was one of the events the girls sponsored.

Cowboys, cowgirls, Indians, pioneers, villains, (and a few fudes) decked the HHS halls for Western Day yesterday. This event is sponsored annually by the Student Council.

Also yesterday, the choir members had a clinic in order to improve their songs for up-coming contest. Gene McKinney from Texas Tech came up to iron out the group's rough spots. Good luck in contest!

A hearty congratulations to Lindsa Pulliam and Loerwald and Cindy Loerwald on winning the highest FHA award possible - the State Degree.

While on the subject of FHA, the girls are presenting an Easter program tonight at King's Manor.

Ann Braddy entered the district Lions Club Sweetheart contest held last Saturday in Dalhart. The convention lasted a rip-roaring three days.

Birthday greetings go out to Cheryl Edmonson (to further embarrass her). She was honored guest at a birthday party at the Western Wheel Inn last Monday night. Girls there were Peggy Neff, Shera Harris, Hedy Bailey, Debbie Beene, Judy McCarver and Donna Williams.

The Freshman band wiped up a Sweepstakes at their contest in Canyon Tuesday, April 6. It was one of the three bands who did this.

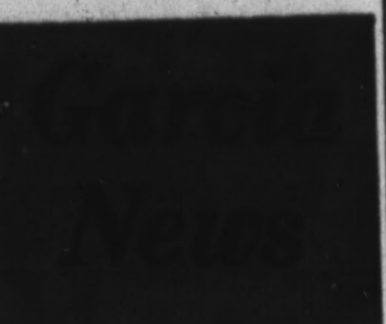

For those of you who are rodeo fans, there will be an AJRA show in Sweetwater this weekend.

My apologies for not having any junior high news this week, but I just couldn't seem to round any up!

Don't forget the Hereford-Nazareth baseball game tomorrow afternoon!

RETURNS HOME

Debbs Knox, 133 Ave. B, was scheduled to be released from Deaf Smith County Hospital Wednesday, where he had been a patient for several weeks as a result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

By MRS. S. N. THWEATT
Band Correspondent

Weather is the big factor in the community. Will it ever rain? Wheat seems to be turning brown however some are still grazing cattle. Cut worms, flea and green bugs are biting in some fields.

Mrs. Clyde Shadix and son visited her sisters, Maxine and Billie Brown, Friday. Grady N. M. FTA boys won first at state in Dairy Judging. They will go to Water Lou, Iowa in the fall. Tom Northcutt is a member on the team.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones spent a week vacationing in Fort Worth, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Columbus, Georgia. While in Fort Worth they visited a son and brother. In Columbus they visited a son and brother. In Columbus they visited a son and his family, W. O. Jones who is in the Army. They also toured the battle ground of the Confederate Army at Vicksburg. The Jones were in Louisiana just after the civil rights march.

Mrs. N. A. Brown, Eldred and their grand-daughter visited Roy Potts Sunday evening in the Panier Hospital. They also visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Block.

Mrs. Elton Sorrells made a trip to Amarillo Monday where she visited her brother in the hospital. He had recently undergone surgery on an arm that was broken in a wreck some weeks ago.

Mrs. S. N. Thweatt and Mrs. Eldred Brown made a business trip to Canyon Monday. On their way home they visited Mrs. Loyd Battey in Hereford.

H. D. Buse of Boot Leg sold a load of hogs recently and one weighed 890 lbs. Buse says when you grow them, do a good job.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Northcutt visited and had supper with Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Hortman recently.

Mrs. Hobert Mate and Mrs. Ralph Burnett of Broadview visited with Mrs. Elmer Northcutt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Guinn plan on having all of their children and their families for Easter. They will attend church in Hereford. Expected are 25 guests.

Mrs. Elton Sorrells was given a surprise birthday party Friday evening by her daughter Linda. Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCullar and girls, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Northcutt all attended the party. Games of "42" and "88" were played.

Mrs. Elton Sorrells was hostess to the Messenger H. D. Club Friday. All members were present. Mrs. Floyd Brown was a visitor and Mrs. Tom Draper, the home demonstration agent, gave the program on knits.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt made a business trip to Junction last weekend. Everything was pretty. Flowers were blooming, the grass was green, and people reported that they were in better shape at that time of year than they had been in years. Mrs. Busby of Lubbock was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Coleman Sunday.

POT-LUCK SUPPER

Mrs. Emmett Johnson has announced that there will be a meeting in the Community House, 7 p.m. tomorrow evening for the Westway Community. Dan True of KFDD-TV will bring the program and also present films for viewing. A pot-luck supper will follow the program.

INSTRUCTED COMMUNION

Donald Farmer will narrate for an instructed communion service this evening, 7:30 p. m. in St. Thomas' Episcopal Church. The Rev. Joel Treadwell will conduct the communion service. Mrs. Abe Davis will be the soloist.

What Lutherans Teach

By Fred Beversdorf, Pastor

"If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins." 1 Cor. 15, 17.

If Jesus Christ was not raised from the dead, He was a liar. He said, "I have power to lay down my life, and I have power to take it up again." John 10, 18. He also said the resurrection would be the only real sign He would give the world. It was a sign comparable to Jonah, in which Jesus would be dead and in the earth for three days and three nights, and then as Jonah was thrown out of the fish, so Jesus would come out of the tomb. Matt. 12, 39-40.

The Bible also indicates that the Father and the Spirit cooperated in His resurrection. The Father was satisfied with the work and death of His Son, and when He paid the full penalty for our sins, He was raised from the dead. If He had not come out of the tomb, we would have no Christianity. Our sins would be still upon us.

There's a simple way for you to find out if He rose from the dead or not. Just go by yourself and ask God in a simple prayer to show you whether or not this is true. If it is true, ask Him to come into your heart. Then you will really know.

Two men once set out to disprove the resurrection from the Bible itself. Before they finished, they were believers in it. So can you find out, but be honest and give it an honest try. Rom. 10, 9.

Come worship with us this Easter morn. If you want more information on the resurrection, write us or call on us.

A Dilemma For The Sanhedrin

EDITOR'S NOTE — After the Crucifixion, believers in Christ became an outlaw sect, specially prohibited from spreading word of His Resurrection, propagating faith in Him or even mentioning His name. Following is the second part of a three-part Easter series about that period, dealing with one of the many early trials of the Apostles.

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

Associated Press Religion Writer

An unexampled species, these Nazarenes. Rabban Gamaliel eyed them perplexedly. They had brazenly flouted a state edict. Yet for all his erudition, he could not come to any clear judgement about them.

Their conduct mystified him. Their hymns, their "holy kisses," their sharing of goods, the much-making over a common gourd of wine, their constant smiles and indiscriminate attachment for one another all seemed harmless enough.

Yet their 12 leaders, arrested and arraigned before the council for the third time of late, were unquestionably lawbreakers. And the dominant clique of the Sanhedrin, in league with Rome, had decided in advance that they must die.

A LOFTY-MINDED teacher, Gamaliel was master of the famed school of Hillel, and the first of the great rabbis to be honored with the title, "rabban," an arch-scholar. But his status had waned in the Rome-dominated statecraft.

He saw little hope for these culprits. Not that he held any brief for their bizarre "good news," equating God's awaited ruler with a crucified victim. But he preferred to let their claim fall of its own baselessness.

He sat in silence, his sagacious old eyes wearily disenchanted, as the summary hearing went on. Caiaphas, the high priest, fumed at the prisoners: "We strictly charged you not to teach in this name. Yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring the man's blood upon us."

Twice before, since crucifixion of their Galilean inciter, they had been jailed and warned "not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus." Once they had escaped, apparently through collusion of cell guards.

And they persisted in their insubordination with unmitigated zeal.

They would not be let off lightly a third time. Lined up before the semicircular balustrade in the stone court chamber, the 12 exchanged stubborn looks and their ringleader, Peter, spoke in his mariner's growl:

"We must obey God, rather than men."

IT WAS SHEER insolence, Gamaliel sighed resignedly as indignant exclamations broke out among the lawyers and ruling Sadducees. Caiaphas purpled as lividly as his long embroidered meir. "Marad! Rebellious!"

Opposing his Rome-upheld faction seemed useless. Yet Gamaliel, an inveterate old battler for principle, knew he must try. He counted several fellow Pharisees present who supported his doctrine of moderation, as against the severe school of Shamai.

He had personally observed the conduct of the accused sect, noticing that its member continued in daily attendance at the Temple. They had not foresworn their ancestral faith, albeit they brought strange admixtures to it.

MANY WERE of the poor, the ebyonim, dwelling in the musty passages of the old eastern wall. Others were well off. But by their extraordinary charitableness, no Nazarene had an unfilled need.

Yet they certainly had become a disturbance to the prevailing pattern of things. They created popular ferment, engendering reports of miraculous cures and supernatural intercessions. They attracted swarms of the afflicted.

And their numbers grew. At first, at that dumfounding rampage at the Pentecost-festival a year or so ago, 3,000 had joined the sect, but many of these were pilgrims, now scattered to many regions.

Yet those who remained had increased until they now numbered 5,000 in Jerusalem alone, a small fragment in a city 20 times that, but with a sizable force in these unstable times.

ALREADY, ROME'S troops had stepped in repeatedly to stifle dissidence, often with massive slaughter, and the puppet Sadducees were under strictures to keep down disorders to lose their religious prerogatives.

Under this pressure, the Nazarenes had been banned as a conspiracy. And now, the hot-head Peter went on with his brash effrontery:

"The God of our Fathers raised up Jesus whom you killed by hanging Him on a tree. God exalted Him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey Him." At a signal from a Temple sagban, a guard slashed his whip across the fisherman's face, ordering silence. "Hosah! Hosah!" A paroxysm of rage seized the council. Gamaliel's pale hand tightened on his staff.

HE LUNGED to his feet, rapping his staff on the floor. "Remove these men!" he commanded. "Return them to the dungeon! Let us reason calmly what must be done."

Gamaliel waited, his thoughts racing. Certainly he could not dispute the civil disobedience of these men. Nevertheless, as a liberal Pharisee, he also knew that God's loftiest concepts often sprang from ridiculed nonconformists.

"Men of Israel," he said, "take care what you do with these men."

He hesitated, hemmed around by the glowering faces, by these power-jealous councillors straining to hang on to their shaky offices under the lash of Rome. Suddenly he saw their vulnerability. He knew hot to beat them. They were afraid.

He nodded imperceptibly to himself. "These days," he went on, "the land trembles with contentions and alarms. The one titled our protector is even now called to account for scattering and slaying the Samaritan multitude on Mt. Gerizim. It is said the Eagle screams in Rome itself."

HE PAUSED, noting the uneasy reaction. They knew that the governor, Pontius Pilate, had been rebuked by the Emperor Tiberius for the Samaritan massacre, as well as for other brutal suppressions. Inevitably, trouble for Pilate bode trouble for Caiaphas.

The high priest squirmed, twisting his ring, as Gamaliel continued, suggesting the prudence of leaving the Nazarene sect to its own fate, like many others before it.

Then, amid the unsettled anxiety permeating the chamber, he warned soberly, "So in the present case, I tell you, keep away from these men, and let them alone."

HE SAW THE blanched, shaken reaction and heaped on a theological omen. "If this plan or this undertaking is of men, it will fail; but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them."

"You might even be found opposing God!"

He sat down, eased of a burden. The court capitulated hastily, uncomfortably. For appearance sake, it charged the group to speak no more "in the name of Jesus," had them flogged and let them go.

Gamaliel, the learned, idealistic Pharisee, a teacher of Saul of Tarsus, and possibly also of bar-Nabas, had raised a bold protest to save the Apostles. And they went on teaching in the forbidden name of Jesus.

So did Saul, after a career of another kind.

Good Friday, Other Special Rites Are Slated As Easter Observances

An interdenominational community Good Friday service at St. Thomas' Episcopal Church is scheduled from noon through 3 p.m. tomorrow with the Rev. Joel Treadwell in charge of the six services.

Beginning at noon, the topic "The First Word, Father Forgive Them For They Know Not What They Do," will be dealt with by the Rev. K. Dwight Southworth, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene.

"Today Thou Shall Be With Me In Paradise, the Second Word," will be discussed by the Rev. Ronald Harpster of the Avenue Baptist Church at 12:30 p.m.

"THE THIRD Word, Woman Behold Thy Son," is scheduled for 1 p.m. by the Rev. Eugene Brink of the First Christian Church.

"Fourth Word, My God, Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me," will be discussed by the Rev. Gilbert Diaz of the San Pablo Methodist Church at 1:30 p.m.

"The Fifth and Sixth Word, My Thirst, and It Is Finished" will be given at 2 p.m. by the Rev. V. W. Marcontell of the Assembly of God Church.

At 2:30, "The Seventh Word, Father Into Thy Hands I commend My Spirit," is to be presented by the Rev. C. W. Allen, St. John's Baptist Church.

Soloist for all services will be Mrs. R. C. Godwin. Don Baugous will be the organist for the first three services and Mrs. Joe Hacker will be the organist for the final three services.

SUNRISE services are planned for 6:30 a.m. Easter morning at the First Christian Church and will be led by the Christian Youth Fellowship group. A breakfast in the church will follow. There will be special Easter music by the choir for the morning and evening worship services.

A choral service communion and a special Easter message is planned for the 11 a.m. service in St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, and beginning at 3 p.m. there will be a special children's service with an Easter egg hunt to follow at the church.

Sunrise service is planned for 6 a.m. in St. Paul's Methodist the close of the revival services at the Avenue Baptist Church and services for Sunday will include special revival music, according to the Rev. Harpster.

The Rev. H. D. Whitten of the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church said they will be presenting a special Easter play during the morning worship service.

Mrs. Elmer Kimball will direct the Cherub and Carol Chorus for special Easter music at the First Methodist Church. With Mrs. Raymond Higginbotham accompanying at the piano, the cherub choir processional will be singing "Praise to Jesus" and their anthem is "Bells on Easter Day." "Alleluia" is the Carol Choir processional and their anthem is "Lift Your Voices Now and Sing." Charles Bell will be directing the Chancel Choir for special music at both the morning and evening services.

Worship services at other churches will be the regularly scheduled services.

Hereford Sends Strong Delegation To Regional

Justice, Williams And Goodin Spark District Action

'Faces Post Best Team Total Since Becoming AAA School

Hereford High School sends its largest delegation in the past decade to regional track and field competition after a record-breaking day at the district level in Amarillo Saturday. Whitefaces topped the field in two events while setting one new district record and claiming five second-place honors at the District 1-AAA meet in windblown Dick Bivins Stadium.

Twelve Herdsmen — including one freshman — qualified for regional events slated for April 24 in Odessa.

In so doing, Hereford thinclads posted their highest team total since the school entered 1-AAA, earning 83 points.

Highest previous total for the Whitefaces in 1-AAA was 41 1/2 points in 1962.

But Hereford was relegated to the third rung on the team total bracket, as Dumas handily claimed first honors with a 160 total.

Perryton posted 108, while Canyon had 75; Muleshoe, 51; and Tulla, 21.

Also competing at regional will be the Hereford High golfers, who copped second place at the district tourney last week at Muleshoe.

The Regional 1-AAA golf event is set for April 22-23 at Odessa Country Club.

KENNY JUSTICE, Walter Williams, and a freshman by the name of Gary Goodin sparked the Herd's performance at district.

Justice established a new district record for the 100-yard dash with a time of 9.7, a tenth of a second faster than the previous mark written in 1963 by Floyd Burk of Palo Duro.

His time was the best posted at Amarillo Saturday among the three divisions competing — 3-AAAA, 1-AAA, and 1-AA.

He bettered all runners at Amarillo Saturday by a full tenth of a second. Norman Bonner of Dumas was timed at 9.8 for second place in the 1-AAA division. Amarillo Tascosa's highly-publicized Billy Hobbs won the 3-AAAA bracket with a 9.8 time.

WILLIAMS QUALIFIED for regional in three events. The Hereford speedster ran second in the 440 with a time of 51.4 behind Johnny Collier of Dumas, 50.9.

Earlier, Williams had clocked a 50.4 for his leg of the mile relay, which also placed second for the Whitefaces. And he was a member of the second-place 440-relay squad which qualified.

Only first and second winners in district competition are allowed to enter the regional clash.

THE SURPRISE of the day came when Hereford's Gary Goodin, a ninth grader, outdistanced the field in the 180-yard low hurdles.

Goodin clocked a 20.7 for the course to take first, running ahead of Perryton senior Bob Pearson, who was timed at 20.9.

HEREFORD'S SPRINT relay team was nosed into second place behind Dumas.

The squad — comprised of Gregg Richards, Keith Henderson, Justice, and Williams — ran a 43.9, but Dumas won with a 43.8.

Like many events at Saturday's clash, the sprint relay was hampered by wind gusts up to Hereford athletes take advantage of the Easter holidays for a rest — for the most part — this week.

High school tracksters who qualified for regional competition may compete in a tourney Saturday although none had been scheduled definitely, according to coach Joe Brooks.

On the baseball diamond . . . the Whitefaces are slated to meet Nazareth for a return match Thursday at 4 p.m. at the Swift's park. Hereford hosts Farwell next Tuesday at 4 p.m.

The Amarillo Sonics open their season against Tulsa this weekend with a two-game series. Opener will be at 7:30 p.m. Friday, with another set for Saturday night at the same time.

45 miles per hour. A steady breeze of about 20-25 miles per hour curtailed times in most events, with the exception of the hundred.

WHITEFACE MILE-RELAYERS also earned a ticket to regional with a time of 3:45.5.

Comprising the squad, which placed second behind Dumas, are Steve Perrin, Sammy Curt-singer, Larry Champ, and Williams.

In field events, Hereford had its best marks of the season as two sophomores qualified.

Mark Hicks — who has been increasing his high jump success at the rate of almost two inches per week during the season — cleared 5 feet 6 inches for second place in that event.

Ricky Fangman tossed 126 feet, 4 1/2 inches for second in discuss competition.

His 'throw was some three inches off his usual pace this year as wind hindered the effort.

IN ADDITION to the above — who all qualified for regional — Hereford also collected points in other events at the district meet.

Steve Perrin won a preliminary heat of the low hurdles, but was limited to sixth place in finals.

Freshman David Kelly ran fifth in the half-mile run in competition with juniors and seniors.

Roger Suttle cleared 10 feet for fourth place in the pole vault.

Track coach Joe Brooks said that although all times were not as good as had been posted earlier in the season, the Whiteface thinclads gave their smoothest performances of the year, especially in the relay events.

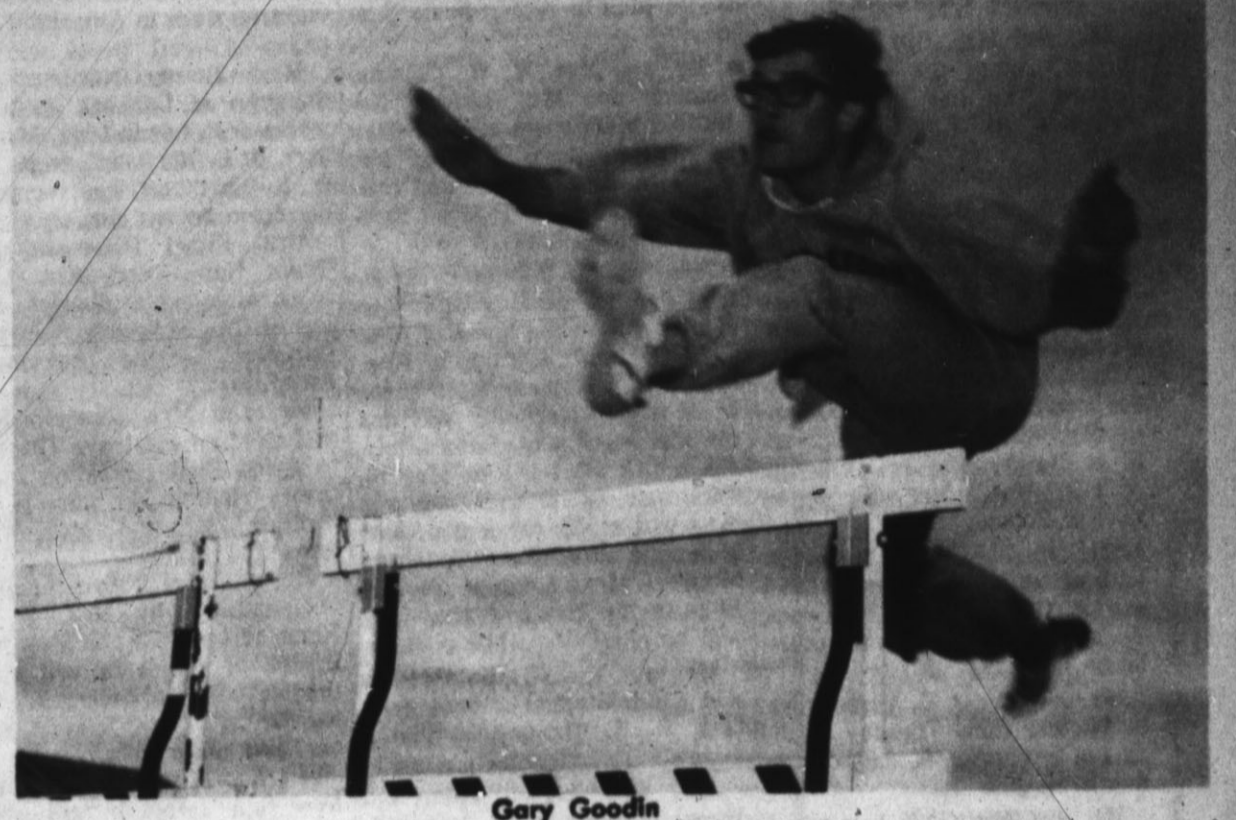

The United States Lawn Tennis Association will sponsor "National Play Tennis Week" starting May 2.

MIMS HURLS 3-HITTER

Whitefaces Down Nazareth With Two Home Runs, 3-2

Three home runs and Ed Mims' fast ball told the story as the Hereford Whitefaces decisively defeated the Nazareth Swifts 3-2 here Tuesday.

Steve Hodges boomed his fourth round-tripper of the year in the second inning, then Lynn Cook tagged one over the center field fence with one on to give the Herd its margin in the third inning.

In the same inning, Marvin Hoeltling came up with a two-run homer . . . and that was the end of the scoring as the Whitefaces copped their fifth win of the year.

Ed Mims hurled a three-hitter on Hereford's behalf, striking out 12.

Mims gave up only two runs

STAUBACH SET 6 RECORDS

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — The U. S. Naval Academy will remember quarterback Roger Staubach of Cincinnati for a long time to come. Last season he broke four school records and tied two others.

His records were: Most pass completions for one game with 25 against Maryland.

Most completions in one season with 119.

Most yards in one game, 308 against Duke.

Most passes thrown in one season, 204.

He tied the one-game record by throwing 39 passes against Maryland and tied the record for touchdown passes in one game by tossing three, also against Maryland.

In 1963, Staubach set a Navy total offense season record with 1,892 yards. He also set a yards gained record by passing for 1,474 yards. Staubach will be graduated in June.

off three hits and walked four. For Nazareth, Jimmy Hoeltling surrendered three runs on five hits, walking one and striking out two.

The Whitefaces are slated for a rematch with the Swifts Thursday at 4 p.m. at Nazareth.

RED BIRDS IN A PARADE

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — This city will go all out when the world champion St. Louis Cardinals officially open their 1965 spring training season on March 3.

The team will be paraded downtown and will be tendered a dinner at night.

E. C. (Robbie) Robinson, chairman of the St. Petersburg Chamber of Commerce baseball committee, is handling arrangements.

One important man will be missing from the celebration. He is Johnny Keane who led the Cardinals to their first World Series victory since 1946. Johnny will be busy that day at Fort Lauderdale, managing the New York Yankees. Keane quit the Cardinals the day after the series.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Have Easter Lamb Cake Ready

By CECILY BROWNSTONE Associated Press Food Editor

Take down that lamb mold from the shelf. Or buy, beg, or borrow a mold. Then bake a lamb cake and put it in your freezer.

At Eastertime, cover the cake with fluffy white frosting and coconut and tie a bell — attached to a licorice string — around the pretty little lamb's throat. You'll delight young and old.

If your lamb mold answers the specifications in the following recipe, make our cake in it. If not, follow the directions for cake-baking that came with the mold.

But however you bake the cake, you'll be interested in our newly tested directions for the frosting because this recipe takes into consideration the type of rotary beater — hand or electric — you use.

EASTER LAMB CAKE

- 2 cups sifted flour
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs
3/4 cup milk
Fluffy white frosting
Flaked Coconut

Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter, sugar and vanilla. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition. Stir in just until smooth the sifted dry ingredients, in three additions, alternately with milk. Pour into the face half of a greased and floured lamb mold (1/2 of the mold should hold 3 1/2 cups water). Cover with other half of mold that has small vent holes. Place on cookie sheet. Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven for 40 to 45 minutes or until cake tester inserted in a vent hole in the mold comes out clean. Allow to cool 10 min. Remove from mold. Cool. Spread with Fluffy White Frosting. Lightly press coconut into frosting. Use raisins for eyes and candied cherry mouth. Hang a bell on a licorice string around the lamb's neck. To Freeze: Cake may be baked for freezer storage. To store, wrap unfrosted cake in moisture-vaporproof wrapping material and place in a carton; freeze. (The carton will keep the cake from damage.) Before serving, remove cake from freezer, unwrap at once and frost while still frozen. Allow to stand enough for the cake to thaw. Frosting the cake when it is still frozen is easier than frosting when it is thawed.

FLUFFY WHITE FROSTING

- 2 egg whites
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1/8 teaspoon vanilla

In the top of a double boiler, beat together with a sturdy hand rotary beater, the egg whites, sugar, corn syrup and salt until they are partly mixed. Place over rapidly boiling water and cook, beating constantly with the rotary beater, until the frosting stands in peaks — 6 1/2 minutes. Remove from heat and continue beating until frosting reaches the swirl stage — about 1 minute. Thoroughly beat in the vanilla. Makes enough to cover the lamb cake generously.

Note: If a portable electric beater is used, it will take only 3 to 3 1/2 minutes at high speed to bring the frosting to the peak stage.

EVENING GET-TOGETHER

- Dips and Munches
Paula Peck's Princess Cake Beverage

PAULA PECK'S PRINCESS CAKE

- 1 cup butter
2 2/3 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon vanilla
8 egg whites
pinch of salt
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
1 2/3 cups sugar

Set oven at 350 degrees. Grease and dust with flour a 10-inch tube pan. Cream butter and half of the flour until light and fluffy. Add vanilla. Beat egg whites with salt and cream of tartar until they hold soft peaks. Add sugar, a tablespoon at a time, beating well after each addition. Beat whites at least 5 minutes, or until they are firm. Fold 1/4 of the stiffly beaten egg whites thoroughly into creamed butter-flour mixture. Pour mixture back over remaining flour. Be careful not to overmix. Pour into prepared pan. Bake about 1 hour, or until the cake is golden brown and pulls away from sides of pan.

WEEKDAY BRUNCH

- Poached Eggs Creamed Fish
Big Wheat Germ Biscuits
BIG WHEAT GERM BISCUITS
2 cups unsifted flour
5 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup toasted unsweetened wheat germ
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup (about) milk

Thoroughly stir together the flour, baking powder and salt; stir in wheat germ. With a pastry blender, cut in shortening until particles are fine. With a fork, stir in enough milk to make a soft dough. Using a prepared pastry cloth and stockinet-covered rolling pin, roll out dough to 3/4-inch thickness. With a round 2 1/2- to 3-inch cutter, cut out biscuits. Counting those made from rolled-out tag ends of dough, there should be 12 biscuits. Bake a few inches apart, on an ungreased cookie sheet in a hot (425 degrees) oven until lightly browned — about 12 minutes.

FRIDAY FARE

- This salad dressing gives zip to a fish meal.
Fish Fillets Potatoes
Carrots Bread Tray
Tossed Salad with Blue Dressing

BLUE DRESSING

- 2/3 cup firmly packed blue cheese, soft
1/2 cup commercial sour cream
1/3 cup mayonnaise
1/4 cup milk
Seasoning salt, black pepper

With a fork or spoon, gradually blend sour cream into cheese, then mayonnaise and milk. Add seasoning salt and pepper to taste. Cover tightly and chill at least 2 hours so flavors will blend and texture will thicken slightly. Makes about 1 1/4 cups. Store leftover dressing in refrigerator.

SATURDAY SUPPER

- Chicken is boiled in the Chinese manner.
Boiled Chicken with Caper Sauce
Steamed Rice Green Peas
Strawberry Shortcake

BOILED CHICKEN

- 3 pounds (ready-to-cook) whole roasting chicken
1 quart water
1 rib celery with leaves
1 pared carrot and 1 small peeled onion
1 teaspoon salt

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sowell, Denni and Danny took her mother, Mrs. Key Williams, to Floydada Sunday. They were met there by Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Williams of Ballinger.

CAPTIVE CROWD

MT. VERNON, Ky. (AP) — The late Alben W. Barkley, former Vice President and U. S. Senator from Kentucky, once made a campaign speech in the courthouse at Mt. Vernon.

He was elated to find the courtroom overflowing with people.

"Don't get excited, Alben, these people aren't here to hear you talk," Judge Roscoe Tartar told Barkley. "They're witnesses I've subpoenaed for a moonshine case I'm going to hear as soon as you finish."

Spray Propazine to control weeds and grasses in sorghum.

One spray of Propazine® 80W herbicide controls most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses in sorghum for the entire season. This can reduce or even eliminate the need for cultivating because Propazine takes care of problem weeds for you. Propazine is particularly effective on carelesweed (pigweed) and annual morning glory.

Sprayed before weeds and sorghum are up and activated by moisture, Propazine gives your crop an entire season without weed competition for moisture and soil nutrients. The result? Higher yields and more profit for you.

Contact your local supplier now for Propazine.

Budget Presses State Lawmakers

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN. — Biggest job of the $3,000,000,000 biennial budget for state government — was being quietly wrapped up in conference committee this week.

Conferees were playing a game of "beat-the-clock" to wind up before Easter holidays. If they fail to make it, such important issues as teachers' pay raises and balancing tax measures would be postponed until dangerously late in the session.

BOTH LT. GOV. Preston Smith and House Speaker Ben Barnes urged committee chairmen to turn on the speed.

Rep. Bill Healy of Peducah, chairman of the House group, doubted the task could be completed by April 15, previous deadline set by Barnes. But Healy said 15 solid hours of work would do the trick — if conferees can find the time between busy floor sessions.

Completing the 59th legislative meeting by the end-of-May cut-off time may depend on whether the conferees find that 15 hours for showdown decisions on vital money matters.

NOW OR NEVER — Subcommittee chairmen of the House redistricting committee huddled this week to compare notes on how legislative and congressional districts should be carved up under court order.

Senate already has passed two versions of a plan to increase its membership from 31 to 39 to help the work along.

Indications are that the House plans to give big counties the minimum representation allowable. This to make the painful task of reapportionment as easy as possible on rural areas which must yield representation any way you look at it.

State lawmakers are hopeful congress soon will pass a bill authorizing a 15 per cent variation above and below the mathematical average population per district. Speaker Barnes, on advice of Texas Congressmen, predicts U. S. Supreme Court would yield that far in its one-man-one-vote edict.

PROJECT APPROVED — First federal grant for a Neighborhood Youth Corps project in Texas has approval.

Governor Connally announced clearance of all state preliminaries to grant of $135,570 from U. S. Labor Department for Corpus Christi Independent School District. Program will enable 675 youths from low-income families to stay in school. They will be employed on part-time basis a $1.00 an hour — or 85 cents, considering required hours of counseling and vocational guidance.

Wage is an exception from regulation requiring federal minimum wage to be paid on corps projects. Such exceptions, Connally noted, can be made on presentation of "convincing evidence."

LOANS APPROVED — State-financed college loan plan has for submission to Texas voters.

If statewide election carries an $85,000,000 bond program will be established, enabling students from junior college to graduate and medical school level to borrow needed funds to complete their higher education.

Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, author of the proposed constitutional amendment, estimates up to $32,000,000 will be borrowed in next two years.

FACILITIES REVAMPED — A bill calling for massive reshuffling of all state facilities and programs for mental health and retardation has been signed into law.

Legislation brings services under new Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. It anticipates gradual shift in next decade from institutional care in state mental hospitals and special schools to "community care" in or near homes of patients.

Governor already has signed bill to place tuberculosis control and eradication facilities in State Health Department. These two bills in effect abolish the present Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools which has administered mental hospitals, special schools and hospitals.

WACO A & M UNIT ASKED — Governor Connally called on the Legislature to authorize establishment of a vocational-technical training institute at Waco's Connally Air Force Base, to be administered by Texas A & M University. Base is scheduled for deactivation in 1966.

Bills to carry out Connally's request promptly were introduced by Rep. David Haines of Bryan and Sens. Murray Watson of Mart and Bill Moore of Bryan.

Governor asked appropriation of $1,100,000 to prepare base for first classes in September, 1966.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED — Carlos Cadena, a law professor and former city attorney of San Antonio, was named associate justice of the South Texas 4th Court of Civil Appeals by Governor Connally.

Governor named Jimmie L. Norman of Mesquite and re-appointed Walter E. Wilkins of Corpus Christi as trustees of System.

Robert Pesek and James Bozka of Hallettsville were re-appointed to board of directors of Lavaca County Flood Control District No. 3; and Donald C. Webb of Port Arthur was picked as a member of the pilot commissioners for the Sabine Bar, Pass and Tributaries.

Dr. Everett D. Wilson of Huntsville was appointed and Dr. Paul C. Witt of Abilene was reappointed to State Board of Examiners in Basic Sciences for six-year terms.

FLOOD CLEARS WEED — When flood gates broke at Corpus Christi, near Mathis, thousands of acre feet were lost and the lake level dropped drastically. However, not everything was damaged, says a Parks and Wildlife Department biologist.

Dropped level left high and dry thousands of hyacinths, which the department had been trying to eradicate for years. A nuisance to fishermen, the plants had been almost impossible to control.

GOVERNOR VISITS — Gov.

Praxedis Balboa of the neighboring Mexican state of Tamaulipas (which borders on Texas from about Laredo to Brownsville) got a big reception on his visit to the capitol last week.

He and Governor Connally said they will ask federal officials to begin working on development of standard laws and regulations for Lake Falcon and the lake to be impounded by Amistad Dam upstream from Del Rio. By having standard regulations, fishermen and sportsmen from either nation can use the facilities of the lake without worrying about violating the law when they inadvertently cross into waters of the other country.

Balboa said that, thanks to the cooperation from Texas and the U. S. government, the screw-worm has been virtually eradicated in his state. He said the pest has been done away with in a zone 90 miles from the border, is being finished in the next 90 miles and the work is progressing satisfactorily in a third 90-mile zone.

"65" INSURANCE REOPENED — Governor Connally has declared April as Texas 65 Month in recognition of the third open enrollment period of Texas 65 Health Insurance Association, scheduled for April 15-30.

During these two weeks, all Texans 65 years old and over again are eligible to enroll in the insurance program, regardless of age or health condition. Three plans are available ranging from premiums of $9 to $19 monthly.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has held that the commissioners Court of Sherman County may recognize the existence of a vacancy in the office of County Attorney and may appoint someone to fill the office.

District Attorney William Hunter of the 69th Judicial District had requested the opinion as a result of balloting in November's general election.

In that election, the incumbent County Attorney was defeated by a write-in candidate. However, the write-in candidate had not yet taken his bar examination. He was admitted to the bar prior to January 1, 1965. Subsequently the District Court ruled that no eligible candidate had received a majority or plurality of the votes cast. But court did not rule on whether a vacancy existed as of January 1st.

Carr also has held constitutional a bill to make it unlawful for anyone to sell liquor to any person under 21. Bill deletes word "knowingly" from presently law.

SHORT SNORTS — House criminal jurisprudence committee sent the bill to wipe out capital punishment to sub-committee after members raised the

REP. ROGERS REPORTS

House Tries 'End Run' On Obscenity Mailings

By WALTER ROGERS
U. S. Representative

The House of Representatives acted April 5 to protect American families from the forced intrusion into their homes of morally objectionable material. On your order, under the terms of this bill, the Postmaster General all must require the sender to halt his mailings to you or your children of any mail matter you believe to be obscene, indecent, or vile.

You make the determination of what is obscene, under the provisions of this bill, and mailers must respect your decision or face a contempt charge.

UNDER EXISTING statutes aimed at smut peddlers, defining what is and what is not obscene is a question often tangled in courtroom controversy. On the same day the House passed the bill to help you control your own mail, the Supreme Court agreed to hear the appeal of one Ralph Ginzburg, who in December, 1963, was sentenced to five years in Federal prison and fined $28,000 upon his conviction for sending obscene material through the mails.

The Federal judge who tried Ginzburg termed his publications "dirty for dirt's sake and dirt for money's sake." It remains to be seen whether the Ginzburg conviction, and the crucial point at issue will be the definition of obscenity.

THE BILL JUST passed by the House makes an end run around the problem of defining obscenity. Each person who receives mail is free to apply his own definition. If he feels that unsolicited mail addressed to him — or to his children — is obscene, he may return such mail to the Postmaster General and require him to notify the sender not to send additional such mail. The Postmaster General so advises the sender — who, if he fails to comply, can be haled into Federal court and punished for contempt.

Enactment of this bill will go along way to help curb the vile traffic in pornography. The mass mailers of filth will find that millions of American parents have suddenly come into the possession of a means to curtail their operations.

ITS ENACTMENT would be one more blow aimed at what some have called the "pornography industry" — a business web "earning" its unscrupulous practitioners millions, perhaps billions, of dollars each year. Last year, according to Post Office Department estimates, more than a million American school children were sent material soliciting their purchase of smut disguised as "art," or "literature," or "culture," or "education."

Ginzburg's publications, for which he was convicted in Philadelphia, were being sent to teenage children. When this came to my attention I immediately embarked upon a course to help put a stop to this entire venture.

The offensive magazine was Eros Magazine, Inc. It was only after a heated exchange of correspondence that I was able to find out that this corporation(?) was nothing more than a protective front. It had been incorporated by Ginzburg, his wife Susan, and a Mrs. Celia Abelson. ALL of the stock was owned by Ginzburg.

IN HIS OWN words, he wrote, "I am the only stockholder in Eros Magazine and the Board of Directors consists of myself, my wife Susan and Mrs. Celia Abelson." The people of this country can draw their own conclusions as to why these peddlers of filth think they need some kind of semi-false front behind which to hide. It might be well to remember that their first defense is always, "My Constitutional rights of freedom of speech and freedom of the press."

It has been my opinion for many years that the entire procedure is nothing more than a sinister attempt to create legal entanglements that will defeat the very purpose of the laws and the Constitution behind which they are trying to hide. The Communists have been using this method for a long time—

Texas Farmers Use Soil Tests More Than Ever

COLLEGE STATION, (Special) — Texas farmers are going to the state's soil testing laboratories in ever-increasing numbers for answers to how much and what kinds of fertilizers to use.

Extension Soil Chemist C. D. Welch at Texas A&M University reports that 13,922 soil samples were submitted to the three Texas A & M Laboratories and those at Stephen F. Austin State College and Wharton Junior College during January and February.

THE LUBBOCK facility received 6,175 samples for the period, a new record, Welch said. The College Station lab received 4,447 samples; the Baylor County lab at Seymour handled 429; the S. F. A. lab 1,562 and the Wharton lab 1,309 samples.

Welch listed the top six counties from the standpoint of samples tested as Castro, 1,071; Lamb 921; Hale 888; Colorado 622; Floyd 504 and Harris 459. Out-of-state samples were tested from Arizona, Colorado, Missouri, New Mexico, Nevada, Louisiana and one came from Mexico, he said. The chemist noted that only a few of the state's 254 range counties, most were strictly range counties, failed to be represented in the totals.

WELCH SAID the amount of fertilizer moving into consumer channels during the six months from July-December 1964 was 50 per cent higher than for the same period in 1963. Also that for the first two months of 1965, fertilizer tonnages purchased were slightly higher than for the same months in 1964.

He said numerous factors contributed to these increases but perhaps the most significant was the realization by more farmers and ranchers that adequate fertilization is an important key to efficient production. The potential for improved profits through proper fertilization is still far below that possible in most regions, he said. However, he pointed out, for fertilization to be a profitable investment, it is necessary to carry out and often improve other production practices.

Mrs. Argen Draper Is Up-Coming Speaker For Local H.D. Club

Mrs. Mildred Lewis gave the opening exercise for the Cultural Home Demonstration Club when they met Friday in her home. Mrs. Lewis read the poem entitled "I'm Fine."

Roll call was answered with "Trying to be a good citizen." Mrs. J. D. Love was the presiding officer and Mrs. DeHart announced that the club made 1224 sandwiches at Taylors and Sons March 27th.

It was planned that they would again make sandwiches at the same location April 24th. Three members attended the district meeting in Canyon recently and May 24th there will be a drivers test given on TV.

Mrs. Williams was elected nominee to the State Meeting and Mrs. Olin Caviness was welcomed as a new member. Also during the meeting the members gave favorite recipes using hamburger meat.

Mrs. Argen Draper will be the guest speaker for the April 23rd program which is scheduled to be in the home of Mrs. J. D. Love, 417 Star.

Members attending were Mrs. J. D. Love, Mrs. Earl DeHart, Mrs. J. G. Gandy, Mrs. Olin Caviness, Mrs. Viola Williams, Mrs. Roy Thompson, Mrs. Grady Parsons, Mrs. P. M. Houser, Mrs. Louie Olson, Mrs. Paul Corbett and Mrs. Mildred Lewis, the hostess.

DAUGHTER DAD'S BOSS
Dayton, Ohio — Dr. Edward A. Huth is going to work for his daughter.

Next September, Dr. Huth will turn over his duties as chairman of the sociology department at the University of Dayton to his daughter, Dr. Mary Josephine Huth. Then he'll continue as a teacher in her department.

"We've always gotten along very well," said the 66-year-old Dr. Huth. "I don't anticipate any trouble."
His daughter, an honor student at Dayton in 1950 who took classes under her father, agreed. "I don't think that being head of a department means you have to boss people around," she said.

Mary Jo has been on the Dayton faculty since 1962. Her father has been here since 1939.

Easter Morning

Christ the Lord is risen today. Hallelujah! The Rugged Cross and the dark tomb have both been snatched from their association with death. Christmas is sanctified in Easter. Christ is risen! Heavenly love turned Dark Friday into Good Friday... an event packed with all the drama of human emotion and Divine sacrifice. He lives and we, too, shall live, in the measure in which we learn to kiss the Cross... our cross as well as His. His promise, "Three days and I shall build this temple again," has been fulfilled. It is the time for beginning again... time to start anew. Golgotha and Crucifixion take on radiant beauty when they are seen through the fragrant glory of the Easter lily. That is where the spirit was triumphant over death. So. Raise your joys and triumphs high. Hallelujah!

It is Easter!

Scenic Wonders Viewed

EL PASO — A railroad that took nearly a century to build is proving that the iron horse can still be an empire builder and a tourist attraction even in the age of space travel.

The railroad is the Chihuahua Al Pacifico Railroad which cuts across the northern part of Mexico from the Texas border to the Pacific to open up heretofore little-known and little-traveled lands.

As early as 1871 a Mexican-American company organized by Albert Kinsey Owen began plans to build a railroad that would connect a socialist colony formed by Owen at the Bay of Oguira in Mexico, with the central-eastern United States.

OWEN WAS GRANTED a concession by the President of Mexico in 1880, but through failure of his colony to prosper and dissension within the colony, the company failed.

Since then many companies tried to make Owen's dream come true, and in 1961 all the links were completed and his dream was a reality. The Chihuahua Al Pacifico opened rail service from Presidio, or El Paso, Tex., to the west coast of Mexico.

The Ferrocarril de Chihuahua al Pacifico was finally formed by the merging of the Kansas City-Mexico y Oriente, the Ferrocarril del Rio Mayo and the Mexican Northwestern Railway Co. The existence of this new railroad line has brought about tremendous changes in the sociological and economical fields.

Population has increased far above the national trend. New market outlets have stimulated great increases in agriculture and ranching and increased manufacturing. The resultant effect is increased educational levels and a greater prosperity. Accessibility into the previously unreachable portions of the Sierra Madre Mountains will expand the mining activities of an area that is rich in minerals, as well as stimulate the tourist industry.

UNTIL THE RAILROAD was opened, the grandeur of Mexico's Sierra Madre Occidental, the mother mountains of the west, could be experienced only by explorers well equipped for travel in some of the world's most rugged country.

Now the magnificent vistas of this primitive country are accessible to travelers from the comfort of a railroad passenger car.

The scenic wonders are different from those encountered long any other rail line on the continent, and are considered more interesting by many.

The railroad passes through a variety of climates from semitropical to high mountain regions, and offers magnificent vistas of canyons rivaling the Grand Canyon in size and splendor. Rushing mountain streams and waterfalls, some 900 feet high, add their beauty to the area.

A CENTER FOR mining activities in the nearby mountains, Chihuahua is a quiet substantial city, just awakening to the economic implications of tourist interest. Fine hotels and motels are located in the city, which is near good fishing lakes. Several historical points of interest are well preserved, including the home of Pancho Villa, the aqueduct built in Spanish colonial days, a cathedral built in 1783, and many sites which were important in the revolutionary period.

The railroad from Chihuahua to the Pacific passes through country rich in timber and mineral resources and important in Mexico's cattle industry. This area possesses 46 per cent of the nation's cattle.

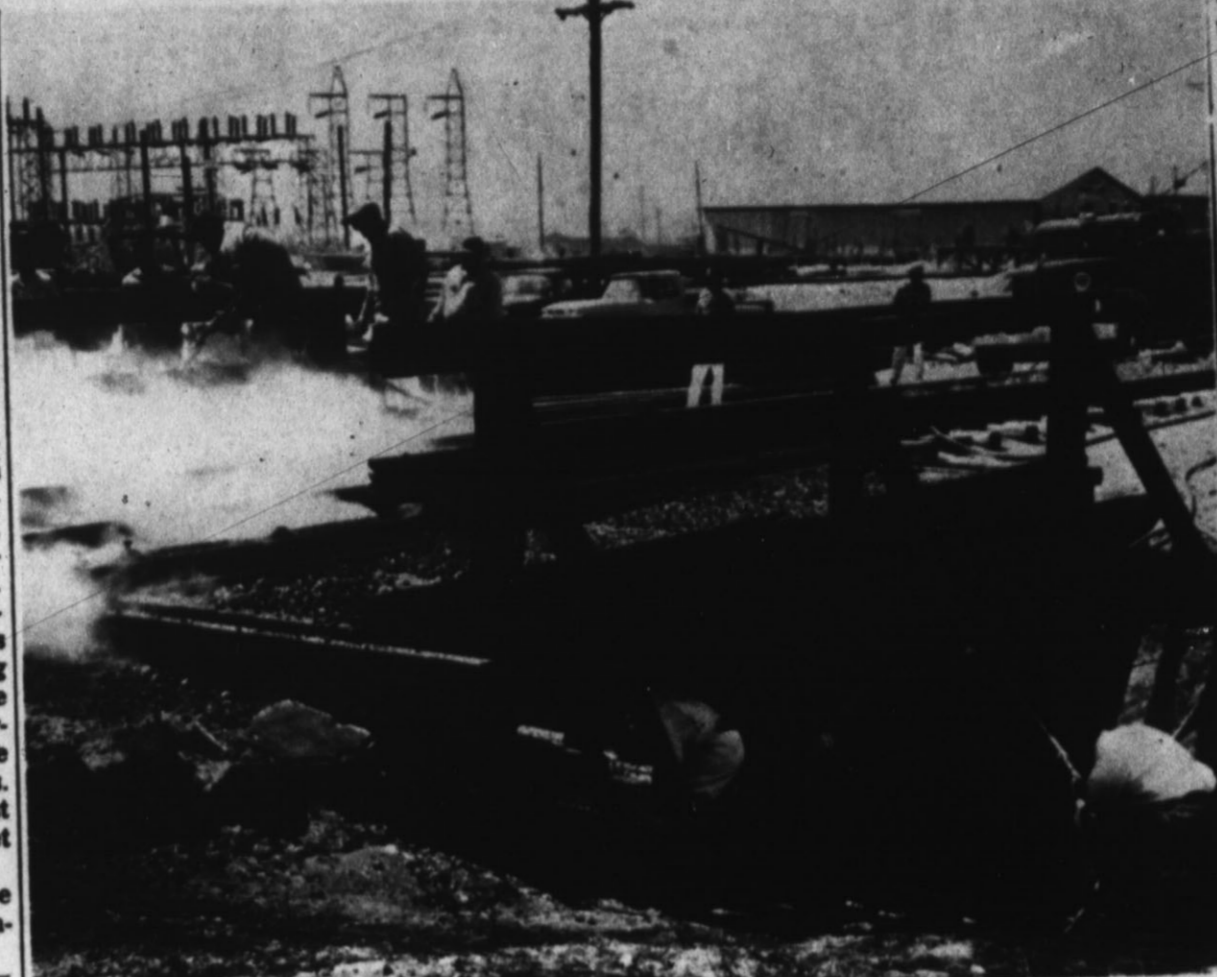

About 18 miles west of Creel, Chihuahua, Mexico, the splendor of this region and the engineering of the railroad both become most evident. This is where the railroad reaches its highest point, about 8,500 feet.

DEEP GORGES open on both sides of the railroad and tunnels and bridges become more frequent as the railroad passes along the sides of and through mountains, and crosses many deep passes. At one point the railroad line makes a complete loop and passes over itself on a stone bridge where the lower section enters a tunnel.

As the train continues westward, the terrain becomes a mountain wonderland of towering peaks, forest covered slopes, rushing streams and deep canyons. Tunnels become longer. Just before reaching the Chichual Basin, the train passes through a tunnel 2,543 feet long under the Temoris Falls. The highest bridge of the route carries the train 300 feet above the waters of the Rio Chinipas. This is followed by the longest tunnel, El Descanso, 5,928 feet long.

Crossing the Rio Fuerte, the train enters the lush, flat farmland of the coastal region.

TRESTLE DAMAGED BY FIRE — A trestle on a railroad siding adjacent to the Santa Fe's main line was heavily damaged by fire Saturday morning. Firemen were at the scene for more than an hour as fires continued to smoulder among the chemically treated timbers which support the small span. (Staff Photo)

Cancer Diagnosis Utilizes Radiology

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Alfred M. Popma, the American Cancer Society's president in 1954, has written his explanation of the role of radiology in diagnosing cancer and in treating it. Dr. Popma is head of the Department of Radiology at St. Luke's Hospital, Boise, Idaho. It is the fourth article in a series of six.

DR. ALFRED M. POPMA

By ALFRED M. POPMA, M.D.
Written for The Associated Press

DURING the past two decades many advances have been made in the field of radiology which have been of great benefit in the control of cancer. These advances are reflected both in diagnostic and in treatment procedures.

The development of new techniques in the X-ray examination of patients, as well as the refinement of old and established methods, have combined to make case finding more accurate.

BETTER EQUIPMENT has made possible the conduct of examinations and procedures which were not possible two decades ago.

The utilization of the X-ray for the early detection of cancer in the female breast has, during the past five years, become an almost standardized procedure in most hospitals and clinics, as well as many physician's offices.

The use of new contrast material to visualize organs deep within the body has opened up many new avenues for X-ray exploration in areas hitherto inaccessible to accurate and meaningful X-ray studies.

In the treatment of cancer, various forms of radiant energy, such as X-rays, radium, cobalt and other radioactive isotopes have been developed to a very high degree.

NEW EQUIPMENT and the refinement of techniques now offer to cancer patients more opportunities for the cure of their disease, as well as relief of symptoms and prolongation of life.

The outstanding accomplishments in the past 20 years have been in the fields of radioactive isotopes and supervoltage irradiation. Since many patients referred for these methods have advanced or incurable cancer, no spectacular group of cures can be cited but in many patients worth while palliation has been obtained.

The development of the specialty of radiology under the direction of radiologists primarily interested in the treatment of cancer has elevated the standards of treatment and brought about increased patient care and improvement in methods.

Basic and continuing education programs help make professional and technical personnel ever more proficient in this therapeutic field, as well as in the diagnostic aspects.

THE VAST AMOUNT of basic and clinical research being conducted today is indicative of new methods, techniques and equipment which will become available in the near future.

While the hope of all is for the discovery of a single cause, and subsequently a simple curative agent or effective preventive, the daily problem is still the many patients who present themselves to their physicians for treatment.

For many of these, radiation therapy is still the treatment of choice. Dedicated radiologists are continuing to attack these problems, and at the same time evolving new and better methods of using their skills.

GO EASY AT FIRST

Gardening's Fine, But Follow Safety Pointers

(Summer gardening has its merits, but there are some precautions, too, as noted in this release from the Texas State Department of Health.)

Home gardeners by the hundreds and thousands emerge with the coming of warm spring weather to spade beds, plant seed, spread fertilizer, mow grass — and the other countless minor tasks attendant to keeping the lawn neat and attractive.

And gardening is excellent therapy for both mind and body.

For those who enjoy digging in the dirt, gardening offers good exercise, fresh air and sunshine after a winter of being cooped up indoors.

REMEMBER, though, to follow a few safety pointers and precautions and your gardening will be a healthier, happier experience.

First, don't let your enthusiasm carry you away your first time out. Take it easy, at least for the first few sessions. Don't try to work a 10-hour day at hard manual labor on the first warm weekend. Take frequent rest breaks and work at a pace that isn't too tiring. As the season advances, your muscles will limber up and toughen, and you will be able to do more with less discomfort.

Cuts, scratches and bruises are the fate of most gardeners. Clean minor cuts with warm water and soap and cover with a light bandage.

TETANUS lurks in the soil. If your immunizations are up-to-date, see your doctor about a booster shot of tetanus toxoid at the beginning of the gardening season.

Stop and think about safety before handling garden tools, especially power equipment such as lawn mowers. Always turn off the mower when you leave it, even if it is only for a few seconds. Always turn off the mower, saw or whatever when you add gasoline to the tank.

Never use electric equipment in wet or damp grass. And always read the safety instructions that usually accompany power tools.

PESTICIDES CAN be a gardener's best friend if he uses them wisely, but careless use and storage of pesticides can cause serious accidents. Always read the instructions on the package carefully and obey their safety warnings. Pesticides are safe, if properly used and kept away from children.

Don't let carelessness rob you of the enjoyment gardening can bring you this spring.
