Outside World Thinks Brand Stacks Up Well

The Brand comes from the press from week to week, rain or shine, much or little business, and it is made as readable as its contributors can make it. The staff is generally content if there is no complaint over shortcomings, never expecting and always surprised if some one takes the trouble to pen a compliment.
Since the Brand is so much a part of every citizen of Deaf Smith county, it may be of interest to local readers to know what kind of an impression their hometown paper is making on the outside world.
Gets Quite a Kick.
"Inclosed find personal check for one year's subscription to the Brand," writes J. S. Warner, resident agent for Firemen's Underwriters, Santa Ana, California.
"I enjoy reading your paper and am proud to say I get quite a kick out of it, to note your healthy growth from year to year. More power to you."
Mr. Warner formerly lived in Hereford and was in the real estate business. He was also a clarinet player in the band.
Likes Tone of Paper.
"I like your paper, and I believe it must have a good influence on the community it reaches," states Geo. A. Howe, Hollywood, California, in mailing in subscription price to the Brand.
"Our newspapers can be of great power for good," Mr. Howe adds, "and it behooves people to help along all the good influences in order to combat the bad. I inclose check and wish you every success."

Dairy Judging Team Took 2nd Place In Meet

The dairy judging team of the vocational agriculture department of the high school held highest position in judging Holsteins and took second place in the dairy judging contest at Lubbock Monday, in the annual judging competition conducted by Texas Tech for vocational agriculture students of high school in Texas.
This team was composed of Edwin Holland, Marvel Upton, Rollie Orr and Paul Coneway. There were 30 teams entered in this division. Dublin, in Central Texas, won first. The Hereford boys, under B. H. Hopkins, instructor, led the entire Panhandle and West Texas.
The poultry judging team which made the trip was made up of Jack Cartwright, Claddell Sikes, G. C. Hartman and Spaulding Bartley. Full report on this department had not been released Tuesday. G. C. Hartman placed third in the standard perfection examination. In the dairy division Edwin Holland was second high point man in judging Holsteins.
Over 400 boys took part in the competition, covering the entire work. There were over 100 in the dairy judging and about 80 in the poultry judging.

THIS WOMAN IN 4 WEEKS LOST 17 POUNDS OF FAT

Here's a letter written October 21, 1929, by Mrs. Fred Barringer of Lewistown, Montana, that ought to be read by every overweight woman in America:
Gentlemen: I started taking Kruschen every morning as directed as I was very much overweight and wanted to reduce.
I had tried going on a diet but would get so hungry that my diet would not last long, so I decided to give "Kruschen Salts" a fair trial. The day I started to take them I weighed 256 pounds and at present, which has been just four weeks, I weigh 239 pounds. And I must say, I feel better in every way, besides looking much better.

May all large people, both men and women, who want to reduce in an easy way, give Kruschen Salts a fair trial. I am sure it will convince anyone.
A bottle of Kruschen Salts that lasts four weeks costs but 85c at the City Drug Store or any drug store in America. Take one half teaspoon in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning. To help reduce swiftly cut out pastry and fatty meats and go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar.
The Kruschen way is the safe way to reduce—Try one bottle and if not joyfully satisfied, money back.

Community Play At Westway Has Everybody In It

The Westway community puts its heart and soul into its events, whether they be work or play, as evidenced by the great crowd that attended their Parent-Teacher association social at the school house Friday night, under direction of Miss Gilliland and Mrs. Beauford Luttrell, assisted by others of the community.

This community play was staged as result of the dramatic training school at Canyon recently when four people were selected for that community to handle such an affair. They were Mrs. Beauford Luttrell, Miss Loretta Sikes, Pink Gilliland and Ulla Pierce, and they have demonstrated a few of the things learned at the short course under auspices of the extension service, with the national recreational association of New York supplying trainers in dramatics, songs, folk dances and games.

Before dark cars came streaming along Harrison highway bringing people to Westway. Old, young and middle-aged played together, laughed and had a good time. Close to 200 people took part in the community recreation.

"The large turn-out at Westway proves," says Miss Emma Gunter, "that the American farm family needs a program of socialized recreation under trained leadership. Today leaders are needed more than ever in history. Farm families require rest and relief from their own family behavior and customs.

"We certainly recommend a recreational program as a necessity to balance the work program of the modern farmer. It must be under organized and supervised leadership and this is the start Westway has. We hope to view their progress in a recreational way for the year."

Other communities will be in the recreational association when perfected by R. D. Dunkle and Miss Gunter this coming month. Each community is entitled to join and get a delegate in for the monthly meetings for special instruction and guidance. Further information will be carried in the Brand.

Jesus the World's Saviour; Preparation and Population.

Isaiah 35:5-10

5. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

6. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall be loosed; for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

7. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

8. And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called the way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those; the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

9. No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon; it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there; and the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

10. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

6. Jesus the World's Teacher. Luke 6:27-42. Golden text: As ye would that man should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.—Luke 6:31.

7. Jesus the Friend of Sinners. Luke 7:36-50. Golden text: Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.—I Timothy 1:15.

8. Jesus Bearing the Good Tidings. Luke 8:1-15. Golden text: He went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good tidings of the kingdom of God.—Luke 8:1.

9. Jesus Sending Forth Missionaries. Luke 9:1 to 10:24. Golden text: The harvest indeed is plentiful, but the laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that he send forth laborers into his harvest.—Luke 10:2.

10. The Good Samaritan. Luke 10:25-37. Golden text: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.—Leviticus 19:18.

11. Jesus Among Friends and Friends. Luke 10:38 to 11:54. Golden text: Ye are my friends if ye do the things which I command you.—John 15:15.

12. The Use and Abuse of God's Gifts. Luke 12:16-21, 41-48. Golden text: Be not drunken with wine, wherein is riot, but be filled with the Spirit.—Ephesians 5:18.

All of the twelve lessons of the quarter are taken from the first twelve chapters of the Gospel of Luke. As a historian, Luke gives an inspired record of the life of Christ in more definite chronological order than any other writer of the New Testament. However, in common with Matthew and Mark, he omits all reference to Christ's Judean ministry, which occupies a large part of the first year immediately following his baptism and temptation. Only in the Gospel of John do we find any record of this important part of Christ's life. Among the interesting events there recorded, and found nowhere else, we find the first miracle ever performed by Jesus, the changing of water to wine at the marriage feast in Cana of Galilee, John 2:1-11; the first cleansing of the temple, John 2:13-17; the well known interview with Nicodemus, John 3:1-9, and his conversation with the woman of Samaria when she came to Jacob's well to draw water and found Jesus sitting there wearied by his journey, John 4:5-26.

In the first lesson of this quarter, we studied about the birth of John the Baptist, the forerunner of the Messiah, whose coming and mission were prophesied four hundred years before his birth. Mal. 3:1 and 4:5. In the second lesson we learn of the circumstances connected with the miraculous birth of Jesus; the appearance of the angels to the shepherds and the announcement of the "good tidings of great joy"; their hasty visit to Bethlehem where they found the virgin Mary and the divinely born child; the meeting of Mary and the child with the aged Simeon and Anna in the temple when Jesus was forty days old, and the visit of Jesus with his parents to Jerusalem when he was twelve years old, Luke 2:10-52.

Then we had the account of the baptism of Jesus by John in the river Jordan, the descent of the Spirit in the form of a dove and the voice from heaven saying, "Thou art my beloved Son." Soon after the baptism by John, "Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness", and there, after fasting forty days, he was tempted of the devil. Unlike the first Adam, Jesus, the second Adam, successfully resisted the devil's enticements and overcame his threefold temptations.

In subsequent lessons, we saw Jesus, the Great Physician, who performed many miracles of healing, giving sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, cleansing to the leper, freedom to those possessed of devils, and bringing the dead to life. Also we see Jesus, the world's Great Teacher, who spoke as no other man ever spoke. We studied a brief extract from the greatest sermon ever preached, the Sermon on the Mount.—Luke 6:20-49. A more extended report of the same sermon is found in Matt. 5, 6 and 7.

We studied some of the wise teachings of Jesus in parables, as, for instance, the Parable of the Sower, telling of the four kinds of soil and the four classes of hearers, and the four different results of the seed sowing. Probably the best known and the most interesting of all the parables is that of the Good Samaritan, the story of the man on the "Jerusalem to Jericho" road, who fell among the thieves, who beat him, robbed him and left him half dead. Being found in that condition by his countrymen, they passed him by in neglect; but a Samaritan, a foreigner, finding the man in distress, tenderly cared for him at the expense of time, labor and money, and even at the risk of being made the victim himself of robbers. In this parable, Jesus gives us a concrete illustration of how we should act towards the needy and distressed; that our "neighbor" is any one that needs our help. We should imitate the example of Jesus himself as set forth in today's Golden Text:—"Who went about doing good". Let us obey the Saviour's injunction which gives point to this parable, "Go thou and do likewise".
