

Deputies seek assistance in naming victim

Area law enforcement officers are still searching for clues in the identification of a body found west of Hereford on Saturday.

The burned body was found on Saturday afternoon in a deserted farmhouse. Deaf Smith County Deputy Sheriff Robin Ruland said this morning that there was no identification found on or near the body, and are pursuing leads on who the victim might be. Authorities are treating the case as a homicide.

Officials believe the body was that of a Hispanic boy in his mid-teens.

An autopsy is being performed by Dr. Ralph Erdmann, an Amarillo pathologist. Ruland said it would take "four or five days" to get the report back from Erdmann on the cause of death.

Several persons known to frequent the area have been questioned, and authorities are searching for other persons who may have information about the victim or the crime. Persons with information are urged to call the Deaf Smith County Crimestoppers Clue Line at 364-2583. Callers may remain anonymous by using a code name or number.

Storm dumps rain, lightning

Hereford received .77 of an inch of rain in a thunderstorm that hit the city Monday night.

Hereford officially received .77 of an inch of rain. Reports in the county were less. The storm moved from north to south, and seemed to build over the city when it hit, shortly before 8 p.m.

The heavy rain was accompanied by thunder, lightning and some pea-sized hail. The lightning caused brief power outages in several parts of the city. Electricity was lost for a time at Deaf Smith General Hospital, which had to use back-up generators for several minutes.

Other reports included .20 of an inch at Northwest Grain and at Easter Grain, and .10 of an inch at Farmers Elevator at Dawn. At Bootleg, Bobby Hammock said it did not rain there last night, but he picked up a half-inch on Friday night, when Hereford received .11 of an inch.

Hammock said there was some heavier rain Monday night along the Texas-New Mexico state line, about six miles north of the Harrison Highway.

The forecast is calling for a 20 percent chance of more storms tonight.

County accepts bids for car, fuel

BY DANEE' WILSON
Staff Writer

The Deaf Smith County Commissioners' Court accepted the low bid for a new patrol car at the court's meeting Monday in Hereford.

The commissioners accepted Whiteface Ford's low bid of $12,717 for a Crown Victoria S.

Fuel bids were also opened and a bid of 2.25 cents per gallon over refinery price plus transportation for gasoline and diesel fuel submitted by Conway Oil Company was approved by the commissioners.

The fuel bid was a quarter of a percent under the price paid last year for the same services.

Sheriff Joe Brown requested a civil fee increase for his office. Brown asked the commissioners to increase 25 fees by $5 each.

Such fees include issuing of citations, writs, notice of sales, subpoenas and other related items.

In keeping with the fees in surrounding counties, a $5 increase in fees was approved by the commissioners.

In other business, the commissioners voted to pay bills and approve reports and approved the minutes with one modification in clarity to the minutes. Commissioner Johnny Latham expressed concern over the rising medical expenses of the inmates in the Deaf Smith County jail. The commissioners discussed the matter, but no action was taken.

The commissioners set the date for the county auction for Nov. 3.

Commissioner Austin Rose presided over the meeting in the absence of County Judge Tom Simons, who was out of town.

Commissioners Latham, John Stribling Jr. and Troy Don Moore were also present.

The next meeting of the commissioners' court is set for Sept. 24 at 9 a.m.

Japan will offer aid

By DAVID BEARD
Associated Press Writer

Japan said today that it was considering giving $2 billion in aid to Egypt, Jordan and Turkey, an infusion aimed at strengthening the resolve of nations most severely affected by the U.N. embargo on trade with Iraq.

The announcement came a day after Iraq's Saddam Hussein sought to puncture the embargo by offering free oil to developing nations. The White House called the move an act of desperation and the Philippines today rejected the offer.

But Cuba and Romania have struck oil deals with Iraq and companies elsewhere are trying to continue trade with Baghdad, a State Department report says. The report, made available to The Associated Press, says some Eastern European countries also are trying to maintain their military sales to Iraq.

The U.N. Security Council ordered the embargo after Iraq's Aug. 2 invasion of Kuwait, and a U.S.-led multinational force is in the Persian Gulf region enforcing the blockade. The United States has sent an estimated 100,000 troops to Saudi Arabia to deter a possible Iraqi attack.

Secretary of State James A. Baker III met in Moscow today with Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard Shevardnadze, the Soviet news agency Tass said. The talks follow a weekend U.S.-Soviet summit in Helsinki that produced a strongly worded statement demanding Iraq's withdrawal from Kuwait.

Baker asked NATO members in Brussels on Wednesday to send ground troops to the gulf region - even as a symbolic presence. There were no immediate offers. Baker also announced that he would visit Syria to coordinate opposition to Iraq with President Hafez Assad. The United States and Syria have longstanding differences over human rights and terrorism, but the Iraqi threat has brought them together.

Syria, Egypt and Morocco are among Arab countries that have sent troops to Saudi Arabia at the desert kingdom's request.

The invasion has shattered the facade of Arab unity. On Monday, 12 of the Arab League's 21 members ignored Iraq protests and voted to move the league's headquarters to Cairo. Eight members backed Iraq and boycotted the meeting in the Egyptian capital.

Acknowledging criticism about its slow action in aiding multinational efforts against Iraq, the Japanese government today announced that it was considering the $2 billion in aid to Egypt, Jordan and Turkey.

Tokyo is also considering chartering foreign airplanes to send provisions for the multinational force "as soon as possible," possibly next week, said Hiroyasu Hono, an official with the Ministry of International Trade and Industry.

"The pressure from abroad is getting so strong," Hono said.

Japan earlier this month promised a $1 billion aid package for the multinational force, including food, water, vehicles and prefabricated housing for non-military uses.

Critics in the United States have complained that Japan should be doing more, since its economy is heavily dependent on gulf oil.

In other developments:

Britain's Foreign Office today said a British diplomat in Baghdad is expected to fly to Kuwait to oversee the evacuation of about 100 women and children. Saddam has allowed hundreds of Westerners - mostly women and children - to leave Iraq and Kuwait, but the husbands and fathers of many of these evacuees are among scores of foreigners held by the Iraqis at strategic locations to discourage a military strike.

Bush to speak tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Bush will tell Congress tonight that the Persian Gulf crisis has forged "a new world order" in which the superpower adversaries of the Cold War now stand united to reverse Iraq's conquest of Kuwait.

Bush, fresh from his one-day summit with Soviet President Mikhail S. Gorbachev in Helsinki, will go before a joint session of the House and Senate with a nationally broadcast address at 9 p.m. EDT.

Aides said the president would seek the nation's support for his decision to send more than 100,000 troops to the gulf region to put pressure on Iraqi President Saddam Hussein and deter a possible invasion of oil-rich Saudi Arabia.

"He's going to be very candid with them about exactly what we're doing there and why and what our purposes are," said White House press secretary Marlin Fitzwater. "It's going to require a commitment of resources and time and energy by the American people."

The address marks the third time that Bush has addressed lawmakers during his 20 months in the White House. While Congress has been largely supportive of his gulf policy, many of its leaders have urged him to go before the nation with a speech spelling out U.S. objectives and the risks in protecting the region's vast supplies of oil.

The occasion presents Bush with an opportunity to prod lawmakers to conclude a long-stalled agreement with the White House to cut the budget deficit by slashing spending and raising taxes.

Fitzwater told reporters the gulf crisis "points up the need to put our domestic house in order and reach a budget agreement, on defense as well as other domestic issues."

"We're going to need all our strength to see us through in the Persian Gulf," he said.

Bush, in the last two weeks, has been promoting the thesis that the United States and Soviet Union have moved even closer together because of their joint opposition to Iraq's aggression. Fitzwater said the president would expand on that theme tonight.

BUSH

Budget negotiators frustrated

ANDREWS AIR FORCE BASE, Md. (AP) - Bush administration and congressional budget bargainers were deadlocked and frustrated today as their self-imposed deadline for carving out a deficit-reduction deal passed.

The negotiators worked into the early hours of today, past the Monday target that participants had set for reaching a budget deal. The bargainers had said completion by then was necessary to give Congress time to enact the package by Oct. 1, the start of the 1991 fiscal year.

But one source, asking to not be identified, described a standoff late Monday in which Democrats made what they considered a dramatically more attractive offer of tax increases and spending cuts, only to have Republicans reject it.

"We're being stonewalled," the Democratic official said. "There is some question about whether they really want something."

Similarly dejected statements were issued from all sides.

"We're still hopeful, but it's looking less and less optimistic" for an agreement, White House spokesman Marlin Fitzwater said earlier.

Some participants hoped their work could still be completed in time for President Bush to hail the agreement during his address tonight to a joint session of Congress.

But others were clearly trying to diminish expectations. House Speaker Thomas S. Foley, D-Wash., conceded that progress was slower than hoped for and predicted a deal by month's end.

The two sides are trying to agree to $50 billion in spending cuts and new taxes for fiscal 1991 and $500 billion over the next five years. Without action, next year's shortfall could surpass $250 billion, which would be the highest ever, and the Gramm-Rudman law would impose severe spending cuts on most federal programs.

Monday was the fourth day of talks at Andrews Air Force Base, just outside Washington. The base was supposed to provide the bargainers with a sanctuary from reporters and other distractions and be a catalyst for a budget deal that has eluded the two sides all year.

Republicans had been optimistic Monday that Democrats would accept a three-year freeze on domestic programs. But the proposal was rejected.

Democrats came back with a plan of their own that an official described as "a massive move in the Republicans' direction."

It contained $100 billion in cuts in domestic programs over five years, compared with $41.5 billion in increases offered initially. It also included $200 billion in military cuts over five years - $60 billion less than Democrats first offered. And it called for $130 billion in new taxes and fees, $70 billion less than their first proposal.

Republicans replied that the offer was inadequate, the source said. Since the talks began, Democrats have emphasized new taxes and military cuts as the best way to eliminate the budget gap.

Republicans have called for deeper cuts in benefit programs such as Medicare and other domestic efforts. Democrats have sought to actually increase spending on some domestic programs, including environmental protection, space and road-building.

The two sides agreed that new taxes and fees should comprise about half of the savings for the package's first year. But Democrats focused their revenue proposals on higher levies on the rich, which Republicans resisted, and energy taxes.

GOP bargainers advanced Bush's plan to cut the tax rate on capital gains, the profits on sales of investments.

Injuries avoided in accident

A Deaf Smith County man avoided injury Monday morning when the pickup he was driving was just nipped by a Santa Fe freight train near Dawn.

Gerald Parker was crossing the Santa Fe tracks a mile west of Dawn when the engine just nipped the back bumper of Parker's pickup. About half of the bumper was cut off, and the tailgate was knocked loose.

The train had slowed and was pulling onto a siding that crosses the intersection. The intersection was blocked for over an hour as the accident was investigated. There was no damage to the train, but Santa Fe officials checked the train and track thoroughly before the train was permitted to proceed.

Ranchers lost most of their cattle, and La Plata lost more than half of its citizens. The railroad promised by the syndicated missed La Plata by 26 miles.

Baptists catch flack over feuds

PLAINVIEW, Texas (AP) - Southern Baptists are becoming more well known for their in-fighting than for the good they have done, a former president of the Southern Baptist Convention and leader of the moderate-liberal faction says.

The Rev. Jimmy Allen, interim pastor of the First Baptist Church of Amarillo and director of Faith and Family Ministries in Fort Worth, told students, faculty and other Baptists Monday at Wayland Baptist University that the internal feuding is obscuring the mission of the nation's largest protestant denomination.

"For the past several years the trouble has been the headline on most of the news stories coming out about our fellowship," he said. "It is a sad day when we are not known for the fact that we love each other and we are not known for the fact that we are on a mission to confront every person in the world with the gospel by the year 2000."

"We are not known for all these strengths we have and we are known for the fact that every time we get together we are fussing and fighting," Allen said.

Allen, who recently helped form the Baptist Cooperative Missions Program to circumvent the conservative-fundamentalist-controlled executive committee of the SBC, blamed the controversy on "secular political methods" he claims were introduced by conservative-fundamentalists seeking a "takeover" of the denomination.

"Southern Baptists were basically a family," Allen said, speaking of the denomination prior to when the controversy began in 1979. "When secular political methods were introduced into our family by some folks who had anxiety about whether or not we were being faithful to the Bible, they introduced a virus into the family that caused it to be dysfunctional."

"Because we no longer have a family, we have a precinct convention-type arrangement," Allen said.

The pastor claims conservative-fundamentalists have fanned distrust in order to motivate their people.

"They work to get their votes to a particular session because they think they are saving us from not believing the Bible," he said. "The Bible is not the issue in the process. It has never been the issue in the process in my judgement."

But conservative-fundamentalists say Biblical inerrancy is the issue. Questioned about the inerrancy issue after his address, Allen admitted the issue sparked the original power struggle almost 12 years ago.

"The Bible has not been the issue for years. Periodically it has to be revived in some way to get their votes there," he said.

But now moderate-liberals are fighting back. At a meeting chaired by Allen last month, the faction formed the Baptist Cooperative Mission Program. While stopping short of forming a new denomination, the program is a mechanism for financially bypassing the executive committee of the SBC.

The implications of the Atlanta meeting and subsequent formation of the Baptist Cooperative Missions Program are still not all defined, Allen said.

"Something deep and profound is happening," he said. "I'm delighted to be a part of that."

The daughter and granddaughter of Mrs. Leona Kimball of Hereford are winners of the 1990 Texas Mother/Daughter Pageant. Sharon (Hill) Knibbe and daughter Shannon were crowned the winners of mother/daughter teams from all over Texas. The pageant was recently held in San Antonio.

During preliminary competition Shannon received the Congeniality Award which was voted on by all the contestants. Sharon received the Community Service Award given by the judges.

The unique beauty contest teams mothers and daughters in a multi-part contest which includes swimsuit, evening gown and personal interview.

Shannon, a 1988 Smithson Valley High School graduate, is currently enrolled at Texas Tech University in Lubbock where she is a junior.

Sharon and her husband, Chuck own a stock brokerage firm, Knibbe Financial Group in New Braunfels and San Antonio. They have a son, Chad, who is a junior at Smithson Valley High School. Sharon is a graduate of Hereford High School.

The mother/daughter team will go on to the national pageant which will be held in California in 1991. A special televised show of the Texas pageant is being aired over a Lubbock station during September.

The Knibbe's are from Spring Branch, a small community north of San Antonio.

September is national honey month

What does your average bear have in common with Hippocrates, Ancient Egyptians, and Nigerian surgeons? Honey.

Throughout civilization, honey has been used for a multitude of purposes--often several in the same culture.

Ancient Egyptians treasured the golden liquid, using it in religious rites and to pay taxes. In addition, they included honey in the marriage contract, requiring the bridegroom to supply his bride with 32 pounds of it per year.

Ancient Babylonians declared mead (fermented honey and water) the official wedding drink. The bride's parents were required keep the bridegroom supplied with plenty of the "wine of the bee" for the month following the wedding. Hence the term "honeymoon."

In ancient Greece, Hippocrates used a mixture of honey and milk to treat kidney trouble in his patients, while Euripides and Aristophanes enjoyed honey in a way more common in today's Greece: to sweeten their cheesecake.

Romans went all out and sweetened even their savory snacks with honey, using it as a dip for such items as radishes, garlic and sauerkraut.

Hundreds of years later, Medieval Germans used honey for yet another unexpected purpose: to sweeten their beer.

Colonial Americans used honey as hair curling gel, lip balm, perfume, handpaste and toothpaste--in addition to baking with it.

In modern times, surgeons in Nigeria have successfully used honey to treat wounds and ulcers which would not respond to antibiotic treatment--there are antibacterial factors in honey which accelerate the body's healing process.

Today many Americans enjoy honey as an alternative to sugar. Other major uses today are as an ingredient in baked goods and meat dishes; as a topping or spread on cereals and breads; and in home remedies for various illnesses. After all, every grandmother knows a great cold soother is tea with honey, and lemon.

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) - Chilean author Jose Donoso, a member of Latin America's literary "boom" generation, has won the National Literature Prize.

A seven-member jury unanimously awarded the distinction to the author of such best sellers as "The Obscene Bird of the Night" and "This Sunday."

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: More and more doctors and parents agree that early intervention is the key to controlling or correcting physical challenges, such as cerebral palsy. To assure early intervention, parents must know what warning signs to look for. Many of your readers have babies or young children, and you can help them by printing this information.

The Pathways Awareness Foundation in Chicago publishes a brochure for parents with babies. This is a brochure that enables parents to detect a physically challenging condition early in a child's life, so the condition can be treated as soon as possible. It includes pictures that show the difference between a normally developing child and one with physical difficulties, making it easy for parents to spot a problem and consult with their doctors.

Parents who frequently notice the following signs in their infants should consult their pediatricians at once:

- Inability to lift head or push up on arms by 3 months of age
- Stiff or rigid legs
- Pushing back or away with the head
- Flabby or limp body posture
- Stiff, crossed legs at 6 months
- Inability to sit up without support at 8 months
- Using only one side of the body or only the arms to crawl
- When physical problems appear, the following behavioral problems may be additional warning signs:
 - Extreme irritability

Failure to smile by 3 months
Feeding difficulties

Persistent gagging or choking when fed

After 6 months, tongue pushes soft food out of mouth

Children with physical challenges can lead more independent, more productive lives when treatment is sought early. That's why the Pathways Awareness Foundation brochure and knowing the signs to look for are so important.

If you wish more information on this subject, get a free copy of the Pathways brochure. Send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Pathways Awareness Foundation, 123 N. Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill. 60606. -- H. Garry Gardner, M.D., president, Illinois Chapter, American Academy of Pediatrics

DEAR READERS: I have seen this brochure and it is excellent. All parents should send for a copy. If you notice that your child has some of the symptoms listed in this column, please see your pediatrician and get the help you need.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Usually your advice is right on, but I almost swallowed my gum when I read your reply to the woman who put the kids' aging hamster in the freezer because she thought it was the best way to "put it to sleep." You suggested that she take it to the Humane Society to be euthanized.

Please, Ann, don't advise you vast reading audience to dump their pets on us for this purpose. Most Humane Societies are staffed with volunteers who operate on a shoestring. We simply can't take these charity cases.

Thanks for clearing this up soonest. -- A Volunteer in New Hampshire

DEAR VOLUNTEER: Yours was one of the gentler clobbers that I received from around the country. I apologize for that blunder. Forget I mentioned it, folks. Your local Humane Society needs donations not more charity cases.

Is that Ann Landers column you clipped years ago yellow with age? For a copy of her most frequently requested poems and essays, send a self-addressed, long, business-size envelope and a check or money order for $4.85 (this includes postage and handling) to: Gems, c/o Ann Landers, P.O. YOUR FEET DR. GRANT E. CETTIE - PODIATRIST

INGROWING NAILS

If you are afflicted with a painful ingrowing nail condition that's causing unrelieved and chronic foot discomfort, you may want to consider surgical removal.

Ingrowing nails result when the nail plate curves into the toe rather than growing straight outward. The deformed nail along with pressure from shoes or trauma causes the skin around the nail to be red, swollen, and tender. It is this swelling and inflammation of the skin around and underneath the nail, that may cause intense pain, often leading to an infection. Surgery to remove the offending portion of the nail permanently may solve the ingrowing nail problem.

A podiatrist has unique skills and equipment to perform all kinds of foot surgery in his office. Podiatrists have developed new techniques for the correction of painful ingrowing nails as well as other foot ailments. This is usually done with a local anesthetic and a minimum of discomfort. It is our slogan "The patient who can walk into our office can walk out after surgery."

Rebels blank Herd, 14-0 Spikers claim San Angelo tourney crown

By SAM WALLER
Sports Editor

The Amarillo Tascosa Rebels broke into the win column for the first time Saturday against the Hereford Whitefaces, dumping the Herd 14-0 at Dick Bivins Stadium in the season opener for both teams.

The win was the first ever for the Rebels (1-0) in nine games against Hereford (0-1). The game marked the first time since 1980 that the Herd has opened with a loss and was only the fourth season-opening loss in Herd coach Don Cumpston's career.

Tascosa shut down the Herd attack all afternoon, allowing Hereford 202 total yards, including a mere 54 yards rushing. The Rebels limited tailback Matt Bromlow to 65 yards on 19 carries, the lowest rushing total of his career. Bromlow had only on run of more than 10 yards when he went for 12 on his first carry of the day.

"Their defensive line just lined up and whipped us," Cumpston said of the Herd's offensive showing. "I don't think there's any doubt about it. We struggled with them. They did a good job."

"I didn't feel like we executed real well, but Tascosa had a lot to do with it. We made a lot of mistakes and turned the ball over, first-game stuff. But I give Tascosa a lot of credit. They played well and deserved to win. We didn't play well enough and we didn't deserve to win."

The teams fought to a scoreless draw through the first half. Hereford had the upper hand in yards, outgaining Tascosa by more than two-to-one in the half, but was never able to come up with the big play at the right time.

The Herd threatened on its second possession of the game when starting quarterback T.J. Head found a wide-open Louis Mungia for a 52-yard gain down to the Tascosa 22-yard line. But the Herd could manage only one more yard in the drive and turned the ball over when Head's fourth-down pass fell incomplete.

Chris Blair took over the Herd offense in the second quarter and directed a 13-play drive to the Rebel 35. Hereford lost the ball on downs again when Bromlow was thrown for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-two.

While the Herd sputtered on offense, Tascosa never got into gear in the first half. The Herd defense forced the Rebels to punt on all four possessions in the first two quarters. Tascosa's deepest penetration of the half was the Herd 38.

"I thought we controlled the ball pretty good in the first half," Cumpston said. "If we could've got anything in the endzone it would've been a different ball game. We got it down there and didn't execute and didn't get it in the endzone."

The second half started out on the same note as the Rebels gained one first down following the kickoff before punting again.

The game turned around in a hurry when Blair fumbled the snap on the first play after the punt to set Tascosa up at the Herd 28.

The Rebels needed only two plays to score the winning points as Max Pearson found James Mitchell for 26 yards setting up Mitchell's 2-yard scoring run.

"That killed us," Cumpston said. "That was a big turning point because it gave them a lot of momentum."

Linebacker Mark Daniel kept the score at 6-0 when he broke through to block the point after kick.

The Herd spent the rest of the quarter going three downs and out behind three different quarterbacks. Head, Blair and sophomore Richard Sanderson each took a turn at calling the signals, but the Herd totaled only four yards on the three possessions.

Tascosa put together its only sustained drive of the day following the third Hereford punt, marching 48 yards in seven plays at the start of the fourth quarter and scoring on Stephen McQueen's 6-yard run. Pearson passed for all but the final six yards on the drive, hitting Kevin Wiley for 18 on a third-and-10 and Mitchell for 23 to set up the touchdown. Pearson and Mitchell hooked up again on the two-point conversion attempt.

Pearson-to-Mitchell was a major part of the Rebel attack. Pearson was five-of-10 for 86 yards with Mitchell hauling in four for 68 yards. Mitchell also carried the ball nine times for 75 yards to lead all rushers.

The Hereford Lady Whitefaces picked up their first tournament championship ever Saturday by winning the title at the San Angelo Invitational Tournament.

The Herd literally swept through the field during the weekend, winning all six pool-play games on Friday and taking all three Saturday matches in two games to run its season record to 8-3.

"We really came together as a team during this tournament," Coach Brenda Reeh said. "We really seemed to jell out there. Everyone was a lot more comfortable on the floor and we were used to playing next to each other. There wasn't as much hesitation."

Hereford opened the tourney by whipping San Angelo Central 15-8, 15-9 before downing Brownwood 15-11, 15-10 and the San Angelo Lake View junior varsity 15-5, 15-5 to win Pool A.

The Herd continued their hot streak by beating Lubbock Monterey 15-5, 15-1 to start Saturday, then eliminated Bronte 15-9, 15-11. The Lady Whitefaces faced Odessa Permian, who they had swept as a pool opponent a week earlier at the Amarillo Invitational, and repeated the result to claim the trophy with a 15-8, 15-5 decision.

"The thing about this weekend was someone came through for us every game," Reeh said. "It wasn't always the same person and it was different types of plays that got the job done. If we can carry that over into our next few matches, we'll be in good shape."

Herd vs. SA Central
Shantel Cornelius served up seven points and Brek Binder added five as Hereford opened the tourney by sweeping the host team.

Cornelius sparked the Herd attack with seven kills. Lori Sanders and Teresa Baker both passed five service receptions to setter while Binder had six digs and Sanders four.

Herd vs. Brownwood
The Herd overcame 21 unforced errors for their second sweep of the day behind 10 service points from Binder. Robin White, Cornelius, Sanders and Baker served three points apiece as Hereford never made a full rotation in the match.

Cornelius had five of the team's 11 kills in the match. White led the defense with five digs with Sanders and Cornelius adding three each.

Herd vs. SA Lake View JV
The Lady Whitefaces wrapped up the first phase of the weekend by allowing Lake View's junior varsity only one point each game.

White tallied 11 points on serve and Baker added eight as the Herd breezed through the final match of the day. Cornelius had half the team's 12 kills to pace the attack.

The defense was allowed to take a break as Lake View attempted only seven serves in the match.

Herd vs. Lubbock Monterey
The Lady Whitefaces picked up Saturday morning where they left off Friday, thrashing Lubbock Monterey in the quarterfinals.

Sanders served for 14 points in the match and recorded 12 kills seven digs to lead the team. Jayme Moore added five service points while Binder had four digs.

Herd vs. Bronte
Hereford got its toughest test of the tournament from Class A power Bronte in the semifinals.

Binder led the team with 11 points on serve with Cornelius serving eight and White five.

The Herd recorded 32 kills in the match, led by Cornelius with 10 while Jennifer Hicks had six and Brooke Siewer, White and Sanders had five apiece.

Sanders passed seven serves to setter on the defensive side while Binder led the team with 14 digs. Cornelius, Sanders and Baker each added seven digs.

Herd vs. Odessa Permian
The Herd finished off its clean sweep of the tournament by stopping the Lady Panthers in two games for the championship.

Binder served for 14 points with Cornelius adding eight. Cornelius led in kills with eight as White and Binder had five each. Sanders led the team with nine service receptions passed to setter while White had eight. White also had seven digs to lead the defense.

COWBOYS WIN!!!!

(and we were there to see it!!!)

By JOHN BROOKS
Managing Editor

It has been said a few dozen times that you can't enjoy a professional football game in person the way you can at home on television.

Unless it was the San Diego vs. Dallas game Sunday at Texas Stadium.

Yeah, you have to stand on line for things necessary and unnecessary; exiting from parking areas is a nightmare; all cooked food tastes as if it were prepared three days before the event (I swear the wiener in my hot dog would have bounced back to me, 34 rows up, if I had thrown it at the official who made those two terrible calls).

But the taste of the Cowboys' 17-14 win over the Chargers was much more savory in person.

Speedy Nieman, Rick Castaneda, Sam Waller and I sat 34 rows above the Texas Stadium turf on Sunday. They were really prime seats: It was less than 100 steps to the restroom, and less than 200 to a refreshment center. As it turned out, we were also sitting directly along the goal line the Cowboys crossed on both touchdowns, and where one of the worst pass interference calls in Cowboys history was called.

We were there to watch the once-proud Cowboys take their lumps against the Chargers. Whodda thought the Cowboys would actually win?

One thing about being there in person: you can voice your emotions, vent your frustrations, do whatever you want, in person. If you're sitting at home and yell at some stupid back judge for blowing a call on a punt that was batted back into the field by a player in the end zone, that guy will never hear you.

Even if you're sitting 34 rows up and 100 yards away from the call, there's a chance your voice will carry above the other 48,000 booing fans. Who knows, that guy may consider your personal comparison of his pass interference call to a prime waste product manufactured in Hereford-area feedlots and actually change the call. That will never happen, of course, but there's a first time for everything.

That call on the punt, which pinned the Cowboys at their own 1, was not the worst call of the game.

The Chargers led the Cowboys, 14-10, late in the fourth quarter. San Diego had the ball near midfield, and it was fourth-and-short. Coach Dan Henning, who will likely soon be referred to as former coach, called for the fake.

the ball was snapped to an up back, one of the people in there to block for the punter. The guy ran over the last of the Cowboys folk heroes, Bill Bates. Bates collapsed on the guy, whose knee hit the turf short of the line to gain for a first down.

The Cowboys were led down the path to glory by Troy Aikman, who has the ability to make Roger Staubach the Cowboys' second-best ever quarterback.

Zip, zip. Two passes down the field. Fourth-and-two, gotta go for it. Tommie Agee, son of the Mets old World Series hero of the same name, picks up that yardage and about 10 more. Zip. Pass to Kelvin Martin to the one. On second down, with 1:58 to play, Aikman sneaks in for the winning touchdown.

The Chargers had one last stand, and Henning finally had the sense to play former Texas Tech Red Raider Billy Joe Tolliver.

It would have been nice to have seen Tolliver play more. Tolliver grew up in Boyd, less than an hour from Texas Stadium. He played pretty well in the pre-season.

Henning thought Mark Vlasic had played better in the pre-season; however, with less than two minutes to play, Henning, and Vlasic, were in a pickle. Tolliver was unable to get the Chargers anywhere, the Cowboys were winners, and euphoria ran rampant through Texas Stadium.

Castillo wins in Berger CC; girls place 8th, boys 9th

Hereford's Teresa Castillo started the 1990 cross country season off on the right foot Saturday, winning the varsity girls individual title at the Berger Invitational Meet.

Castillo, the defending District 1-4A champion, covered the two-mile course in 13 minutes, three seconds to win the race.

"Teresa ran a very good race for the first time out this season," Coach Martha Emerson said.

Castillo paced the Lady Whitefaces to an eighth-place finish in the team standings at the meet. Hereford finished with 208 points.

Following Castillo for the Lady Whitefaces were Belinda Murillo in 14:48 for 39th place, Brandie Webb (15:09, 46th place), Lisa Zepeda (15:22, 55th), Minerva Salazar (15:43, 67th), Renee Banner (15:45, 68th) and Jill Dutton (15:55, 75th).

"Belinda is a freshman and she did a real good job," Emerson said. "And, for the first meet, Brandie ran well also."

"As a team the girls did not run well. We are capable of a lot more. Perhaps we needed this and can get prepared for the meet this Saturday in Plainview."

In the varsity boys division, Hereford finished ninth at 254 points. Armando Garza paced the Herd with a time of 20:34 over three miles for 34th place. Jack Borden ran 21:06 for 42nd followed by Raymon Lopez (21:26, 47th), Jerry Gallegos (22:38, 65th), Chris Hart (22:41, 66th) and Eric Davis (26:17, 87th).

In the junior varsity girls division, seven Hereford runners teamed to finish fifth in the standings while six others ran as individuals.

Permian coaches confident of being cleared of violations

BIG SPRING, Texas (AP) - Football coaches at Class 5A state champion Odessa Permian High School say they believe they'll be exonerated of a finding that the school violated University Interscholastic League rules.

The District 4-5A executive committee found Monday that the team broke UIL rules during its summer workouts, said UIL spokesman Peter Contreras in Austin. Contreras said the alleged violations involve the improper supervision of drills and instruction by Permian coaches this summer. He said the UIL state executive committee now will pick up the case.

Possible penalties range from a public reprimand to disqualification from district honors, he said.

JERRY TAYLOR

"To our knowledge, we still don't think they violated any UIL rules," Permian head coach Tim Hollingshead said of the coaches who assisted junior varsity players in August workouts.

"We feel confident that we can present our case to the UIL and still be exonerated," Hollingshead told the Odessa American.

District 4-5A officials began their investigation of the Permian program following allegations made by Odessa High School Coach Jerry Taylor.

Taylor, in an Aug. 17 letter, claimed at least three Permian assistants were observed supervising football players at Permian High School and at Odessa junior high.

The district executive committee is made up of superintendents from the San Angelo, Abilene, Midland and Ector County school districts.

Bill Graves, the San Angelo superintendent acting as chairman of the committee, said the panel could have assessed penalties against the program but was limited in those it could assess against individual coaches.

"We felt a penalty stronger than a private reprimand was necessary," he said.

The incident is the third of the year involving accusations against Odessa's football programs.

Odessa and Odessa Permian each were handed in-house reprimands for incidents regarding rules violations during the spring, said Gene Buinger, superintendent of the Ector County Independent School District.

Groveton sweeps 2A voting, Munday takes over top in A

By The Associated Press

The Groveton Indians aren't looking back on their successes in the 1980s when they won two state titles.

They started the 1990s with a 37-13 victory over Class 3A Coldspring and earned all 20 first place votes cast in The Associated Press Schoolboy Football Poll.

Aldine in 5A, A&M Consolidated in 4A and Vernon in 3A all maintained their No. 1 rankings after the first week but Class A defending champion Thorndale lost to Class 2A Franklin 22-15 and Munday moved up to the No. 1 spot.

Groveton compiled a 115-20-3 record in the decade of the 1980s and won titles in 1984 and 1989 and reached the finals in 1983 and 1985.

Groveton's 17-game winning streak is the longest in the state.

Pilot Point remained in second place in 2A but Grand Saline dropped from third to fourth and Schulenburg moved up from fourth to third.

Refugio dropped from fifth to No. 9 after a 7-7 tie with Sinton and Malakoff fell from No. 6 to No. 10 after a 12-6 loss to Bullard.

The Aldine Mustangs defeated Houston Madison 31-7 on Saturday and got 15 first place votes to maintain its No. 1 spot in 5A.

No. 2 Converse Judson beat San Antonio Holmes 35-15 and beat out

Sugar Land Willowridge in a tight battle for second place. Willowridge, which beat Houston Stratford 27-6, remained No. 3.

Marshall lost to Monroe, La., 21-14 and dropped from No. 5 to No. 9. Last week's No. 9 team, San Antonio Marshall lost to San Antonio MacArthur 21-7 and fell from the top 10.

Cypress Creek, which beat Houston Lamar 30-22, moved into the No. 10 spot.

A&M Consolidated received 18 of the 20 first place votes and acquired a new challenger for its No. 1 rank in 4A.

Defending champion Chapel Hill lost to No. 8 Henderson 19-7 and dropped to No. 8 while Lubbock Estacado moved into the runnerup position.

No. 3 West Orange Stark and No. 6 Austin Westlake also were first week losers. Stark dropped to No. 9 and Westlak was replaced at No. 10 by Kerrville Tivy.

The Munday Moguls beat Haskell 64-19 and took advantage of Thorndale's loss to take over the top spot in Class A.

Munday got 16 first place votes and Italy moved up from third to second with three first place votes. Thorndale fell to No. 3.

Tech looking for improvement in Thursday date with Houston

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Texas Tech coach Spike Dykes read somewhere in a book about coaching that a football team improves most between the first and second game of the season.

He hopes that's true because the Red Raiders only have four days to prepare for a Thursday night battle with the explosive Houston Cougars after a narrow 17-10 loss at No. 18 Ohio State on Saturday.

"We can't mope around," Dykes said. "We've got Russia coming here Thursday. We held Ohio State to 94 yards in the first half. Shoot, that's just one possession's worth for Houston."

Tech (0-1) will host the run-and-shoot Cougars to open the Southwest Conference schedule in a game televised nationally by ESPN. Kickoff is 7:07 p.m.

Dykes told his weekly press conference Monday the key to beating No. 24 Houston will be stopping the Cougars wide open offense, which features five receivers on every play and averaged over 500 yards passing per game last year.

Houston defeated Nevada-Las Vegas Saturday, 37-9.

"Houston gets it going in a hurry," Dykes said. "They don't huddle and when they line up under that center they are gone like a covey of quail."

Dykes said the defense can't give up any big plays and must contain the Cougars on third down.

"Houston lights up the scoreboard, so naturally that worries you," he said. "But I think it is going to be an exciting game."

Dykes praised his defense, which forced five turnovers and held Ohio State scoreless in the first half of Saturday's game.

"It was probably one of the better defensive efforts this team has ever played," Dykes said. "(Ohio State) had four possessions 33 yards or closer to our goal line and didn't get any points out of it. That's a real mark to the defense, especially against a team that physical."

Dykes said the Red Raiders' near upset of Ohio State proved they could play with the country's best.

"The Ohio State game was like having a blind date with Miss America and letting her get away without getting her phone number," Dykes said. "You had better take advantage of the opportunity, and we just didn't quite do it."

Tech was plagued Saturday by weak punting, which led to the Buckeyes' winning touchdown.

"The kicking game was a big worry before the game and it's still a worry," Dykes said. "We did not play the kicking game very well."

A 50-yard punt return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter by Ohio State's speedy Jeff Graham was the margin of victory.

"You don't fault the coverage on a play like that," Dykes said after the game. "You can't kick a line-drive punt to a guy like Graham."

Tech, a 10-point underdog against the Buckeyes, still had a chance to win the game with time running out.

But with 1:08 left, Tech quarterback Jamie Gill threw a bomb from the 50 on 4th-and-1, thinking it was only second down. The pass fell incomplete and Ohio State ran the clock out.

"Jamie really thought it was second down," Dykes said. "But we probably had as good a chance of winning with that pass as we would have any other way. It was one of those things where if it had worked it would have been great."

SPIKERS

In other Hereford volleyball action over the weekend, the Lady Whiteface junior varsity competed in the Amarillo JV Tournament while the Herd freshmen played at the Borger JV Tournament.

The JV exited from Amarillo with losses to Amarillo High (15-7, 15-6 Friday) and Amarillo Palo Duro (15-7, 15-3 Saturday).

The frosh finished second at Borger, knocking off Amarillo River Road 15-3, 15-7 to open. The freshmen then topped Amarillo San Jacinto 15-6, 15-10 in the semifinals before losing to Borger 15-4, 15-5 for the championship.

The Lady Whiteface varsity will find out just how good it is over the next four matches leading into the District 1-4A schedule.

The Herd visits Amarillo High at 6 p.m. today before hosting Lubbock High on Saturday and Amarillo Tascosa on Sept. 18.

Hereford then opens district play on Sept. 22 by playing host to two-time defending state champion Dumas.

INDIVIDUAL STATISTICS

RUSHING-Hereford: Matt Bromlow, 19-65; Greg Urbanczyk, 7-12; Steven Banner, 2-4; T.J. Head, 4(-5); Richard Sanderson 3(-22). Tascosa: James Mitchell, 9-75; Stephen McQueen, 19-54; Max Pearson, 5-20; Kevin Wiley, 3-3; Simmie Callahan, 1-0; Troy Munkledove, 1(-3).

PASSING-Hereford: Sanderson, 6-14-0-75; Head, 1-4-0-52; Blair, 2-4-1-21. Tascosa: Pearson, 5-10-0-86.

RECEIVING-Hereford: Art Allemand, 4-58; Chad Brummett, 3-26; Louis Mungia, 1-52; Jason Patzold, 1-12. Tascosa: Mitchell, 4-68; Wiley, 1-18.

Both Tascosa coach Duane Huey and Cumpton said that except for a couple of plays, the game could have gone either way.

"We had a couple of big plays to get us down close," Huey said, "and fortunately we were able to get it in. For the most part we didn't move the ball consistently at all. Hereford played pretty good defense. We were pleased to get the scores we got."

"I thought defensively we played pretty good," Cumpton said. "We gave up a couple of big plays that were really the difference in the game. The two big plays were the two that set up the touchdowns."

Hereford came out throwing with Sanderson following the score and the sophomore connected on four of his first six for 56 yards as the Herd came as close to the endzone as it would get all day. A 4-yard run by Bromlow on fourth-and-2 gave the Herd first down at the Tascosa 7, but Pearson sacked Sanderson for a 9-yard loss. Three straight incomplete passes ended the threat.

"I put Richard in there hoping he could spark us," Cumpton said of playing Sanderson the entire fourth quarter. "And he did. We were able to move the ball a little bit, we just couldn't put it in the endzone."

The Herd got close one more time in the game when a pass interference penalty and an unsportsman-like conduct call against Tascosa on the same play put the ball at the Rebel 13. A third-down sack pushed the herd back to the 21 and Sanderson's fourth-down pass for Bromlow landed in the endzone.

What Is A Town?
A town is a group of people.

*It is schools.
It is museums.
It is churches.
It is industry and jobs.
It is retail businesses.*

They all have to work together. All must have the support of the people. Or there is no town.

Give your local businessman a chance to work with you on your business. You shouldn't spend your hard earned money with him unless his selection is adequate and his price competitive. But give him the first opportunity to make the sale.

The local businessman pays the highest percentage of local taxes. He most often is the civic leader who dedicates his time and talents to his town. He is contacted first for contributions to charitable projects. He provides jobs. Without his business firm you have no town.

Pirates, Mets keep pace in NL East

By The Associated Press

After a bad road show, the New York Mets had to come home to stop losing. Meanwhile, the Pittsburgh Pirates won't stop winning - home or away.

"We showed another part of this club tonight - we can win by manufacturing runs as well as with home runs," Wally Backman said after the Pirates beat Philadelphia 3-2 Monday night to maintain their 3 1/2-game lead over the Mets in the National League East.

The victory was the eighth in 10 games for the Pirates, who were just a half-game in front of New York before the Mets went into a recent swoon on the road.

The Mets returned home from a 2-6 road trip, including a three-game sweep by the Pirates that had dropped them 3 1/2 games behind Pittsburgh, and beat St. Louis 10-1 Monday night at Shea Stadium.

In other games Monday night, it was San Francisco 7, Atlanta 6 in 10 innings; San Diego 5, Los Angeles 2, and Montreal 7, Chicago 4.

Bobby Bonilla's ninth-inning sacrifice fly lifted Pittsburgh over Philadelphia.

Backman walked leading off the ninth as a pinch-hitter, advanced to second on Jay Bell's 34th sacrifice of the season and moved to third on an infield single by Jeff King before scoring the Pirates' winning run.

The Phillies had a chance to go ahead in the eighth when they loaded the bases. But Pirates reliever Stan Belinda (3-4) stemmed the tide when he got pinch-hitter Rod Booker on a forceout at the plate on an attempted squeeze play and retired Darren Daulton on a fly ball.

Joe Boever (3-6), who walked Backman to start the Pirates' ninth, took the defeat.

Barry Bonds' 27th homer in the sixth, the Pirates' second of the game, tied the score at 2-2.

Darryl Strawberry hit his 32nd homer and knocked in three runs and Frank Viola won his 18th game for New York.

Right-hander Jose DeLeon was on the mound and the Mets broke loose as they won their eighth straight at home.

Strawberry connected for an RBI single in the first inning and two-run homer in the fourth.

Giants 7, Braves 6
Robby Thompson's pinch-hit bunt single with the bases loaded scored the winning run in the 10th inning.

Thompson's bunt single off losing pitcher Kent Mercker (4-5) came an inning after the Giants tied the game.

With two out in the ninth, Greg Litton singled off reliever Jeff Parrett. With Mercker pitching, a passed ball by catcher Ernie Whitt sent pinch-runner Rick Parker to second. Brett

Butler reached on an infield single to second baseman Jeff Treadway, but Parker took a wide turn at third and Treadway threw behind him, starting a rundown.

But as third baseman Jim Presley threw to Whitt at the plate, Parker came barreling in and knocked the ball loose, scoring the tying run as Whitt was charged with an error.

Steve Bedrosian (8-8) pitched the 10th to pick up the victory.

Padres 5, Dodgers 2
Garry Templeton went 4-for-4 and Phil Stephenson drove in the game-winning run with a fielder's-choice grounder in the seventh.

The Dodgers lost despite a pair of solo homers by Juan Samuel. Samuel homered in both the third and fourth innings off Padres starter Dennis Rasmussen (10-13). Greg Harris pitched the final two innings to earn his seventh save.

Expos 7, Cubs 4
Tim Wallach had two hits and two RBIs and rookie Chris Nabholz won for the fifth time in his last six starts.

Nabholz (5-0) pitched five innings and gave up four runs on seven hits. He struck out four and walked four before getting relief help from Dale Mahorric. Tim Burke got the last out for his 18th save.

Montreal broke a 4-4 tie in the fifth with two runs off loser Bill Long (6-1) on an RBI single by Wallach and RBI triple by Larry Walker.

Blue Jays creep closer to Red Sox

By The Associated Press

The Toronto Blue Jays played only one game, but pitcher David Wells played a doubleheader.

When there's a pennant race in September, playing scoreboard becomes the national pastime, and Wells played it to perfection Monday night.

The left-hander held Kansas City to four hits in eight innings as the Blue Jays beat the Royals 6-1. And when he wasn't on the mound, he kept ducking into the clubhouse to see how the Boston Red Sox were doing.

They were doing so-so in splitting a doubleheader with Milwaukee, winning the opener 5-4 and dropping the nightcap 6-1.

"I had a job to do, and I was really trying to shut everything else out of my mind," said Wells (11-4). "But I kept checking what was going on with the Red Sox. I think we're going to win this thing."

"It appears they're never going to lose again," Boston's Mike Marshall said.

The Oakland Athletics, who have virtually wrapped up the AL West, lost to Seattle 5-2 and had their lead reduced to nine games over Chicago, which split a doubleheader with Cleveland, losing the opener 3-2 and taking the nightcap 6-2.

Elsewhere, it was Detroit 8, Baltimore 0; Texas 1, New York 0 in 11 innings, and California 3, Minnesota 1.

Kelly Gruber drove in four runs for Toronto. Wells retired 16 consecutive batters before giving way to John Candelaria in the ninth inning.

Gruber had a sacrifice fly in the first, a two-run double in the fifth and a run-scoring single in the seventh. Hector Wagner lost his major league debut.

Red Sox 5, Brewers 4

Brewers 6, Red Sox 1

Milwaukee's Dave Parker hit his 21st home run in the nightcap and Robin Yount continued his climb on the all-time hit list.

The Red Sox won the opener as Luis Rivera keyed a four-run fourth inning with a two-run double.

Yount went 3-for-4 in the first game, breaking a tie with Lou Gehrig for 38th place among baseball's all-time hit leaders. Yount went 2-for-3 in the nightcap for 2,726 career hits.

Mariners 5, Athletics 2

Seattle became the first team to beat 23-game winner Bob Welch twice this season as Erik Hanson (14-9) pitched a six-hitter and Ken Griffey Sr. hit a three-run homer.

Welch, who has beaten Seattle once this season, was lifted with two out in the seventh. He gave up eight hits and five runs.

Hanson (14-9) struck out 10 and retired 16 batters in a row between the first and sixth innings.

Indians 3, White Sox 2

White Sox 6, Indians 2

Eric King got his first win since June 27 and Bobby Thigpen extended his major-league record to 49 saves. Cleveland won the opener 3-2 when pinch-hitter Carlos Baerga drew a bases-loaded walk from reliever Barry Jones (11-2) with one out in the ninth inning. Doug Jones (5-5) got the victory.

Chicago's Carlton Fisk had a home run in each game.

In the nightcap, King (9-4) gave up two runs and five hits in six-plus innings. Thigpen worked 2 2-3 innings.

Tigers 8, Orioles 0

Frank Tanana allowed three hits over seven innings and Lou Whitaker broke an 0-for-25 slump with a homer and three RBIs.

Tanana (7-7) struck out five and did not allow a runner past first base. Mike Henneman and Jerry Don Gleaton worked one inning apiece.

Rangers 1, Yankees 0

Rafael Palmeiro singled home the only run with two out in the 11th inning following an intentional walk to Julio Franco.

Steve Bucchele opened the 11th with a single off Lee Guetterman (9-6), New York's second pitcher. Jeff Huson sacrificed and pinch-hitter John Russell grounded out before Franco was intentionally walked.

Palmeiro's bouncing single up the middle hit made a winner of Kenny Rogers (8-5), the third of five Texas pitchers.

Angels 3, Twins 1

Dave Winfield and Lee Stevens hit consecutive RBI singles in the third inning and Jim Abbott (10-12) held the Twins scoreless until rookie Scott Leius' first major league homer in the seventh.

Abbott went 7 2-3 innings in defeating right-handed namesake Paul Abbott (0-3), who gave up three runs and 10 hits in six innings. Bryan Harvey went 1 2-3 innings for his 21st save.

Our Best Friends Are Cutting Us To Pieces.

Our best friends don't always give us the best treatment. Typically, they invite us into their homes, read us like a book, take what they need from us, and put us aside to use again at their convenience.

It's a tough existence, but we don't mind. In fact, we like it. The news, editorials, and advertising coupons clipped from our pages provide our readers with knowledge, enlightenment, even an occasional 30¢ off on breakfast cereal. We're kind of flattered that people enjoy hanging onto bits and pieces of us - sometimes for years. That's something no other local advertising medium can offer.

So, although our friends keep cutting us to pieces, we'll keep showing up at their homes. Our only request: sharp scissors and a steady hand.

THERE'S MORE Hereford IN THE BRAND.

Educating children about diets prevents obesity

Why is it important to be strong and healthy?

"So that you can eat and live and so you don't grow up wimpy and stuff," says Jennifer, 9, of Aurora, Colo.

"Cause you don't need a whole bunch of cholesterol and heart attacks and stuff like that," adds Katie, 10, of Memphis.

Children's opinions were sought by Rainbo Bread for publicizing its IronKids Program, designed to help youngsters learn about nutrition, exercise and health. The company's program includes a series of regional triathlons for youngsters, a "Path to Health and Fitness" lesson plan offered free to teachers, and an IronKids Club, which entitles its 15,000 members to newsletters with advice about food, athletics and other issues, along with jacket patches, posters, and membership cards.

The program's advisory board cites the prevalence of childhood obesity - one in four, or 11 million - that put children at risk for heart disease, diabetes, and hypertension. "Inactivity influences all facets of their health and well-being," says Dr. Liz Applegate of the University of California at Davis, a board member.

Or as Ivy, 12, of Dallas puts it: "Well, be sure and eat at least some healthy foods and try not to get into the habit of smoking. And exercise. Try not to get too stressed out. It's really hard on your heart."

Another program aimed at children is the Washington Apple Commission's "Healthy Choices for Kids," a health education project available to teachers all over the country. The program encourages classroom discussion of nutrition issues and helps guide youngsters in their food choices.

A handful or two of raw almonds in your diet every day may help you regulate your level of serum cholesterol, says the Almond Board of California. The group points to a study by Dr. Gene A. Spiller, director of Health Research and Studies Center in Los Altos, Calif., which indicates that monounsaturated fatty acids like those found in almonds can control or lower cholesterol levels when substituted for saturated fatty acids in the diet. The board recommends that the nuts be included in a balanced, low-fat diet.

Collect losses on landscape

Trees, shrubs, and other landscape plants are valuable assets to your residential property, says the American Association of Nurserymen. So much so, the group stresses, that damage or destruction of these landscape materials can represent a substantial financial loss, which you may be able to recapture in one of several ways: The plants may be covered by your homeowner's insurance; you may be able to deduct their value from your federal income tax; and sometimes you can recover the value through a civil court action.

According to some estimates, trees may boost the sale price of a home by as much as 27 percent. Trees as well as shrubs also reduce heating and air conditioning costs. And they help to abate noise and shield the house as well as its inhabitants from wind. In fact, all the plant materials of a residential landscape have a dollar value of their own apart from the dwelling structure of the property as a whole.

As important, trees, shrubs, and other plants create an atmosphere of beauty. So when plants suffer damage or destruction, the homeowner loses aesthetic quality as well as money.

Insurance policies usually cover casualty losses (casualty means an identifiable event of a sudden, expected or unusual nature) due to such problems as fire, lightning, explosion, riot, civic commotion, and vandalism. Many states have set $500 maximums for reimbursement of a single tree, shrub or plant.

An income tax deduction can be useful in case the insurance company doesn't cover all or part of your claim. For nonbusiness casualty losses, the Internal Revenue Service allows deductions in cases where each casualty is more than $100 and the aggregate amount of these losses is higher than 10 percent of the homeowner's adjusted gross income.

As for civil court actions-attorneys report settling many of these cases out of court, as judges almost always uphold claims once they have all the facts.

No matter how homeowners choose to handle the recovery, right after the damage has taken place they should secure the advice of a professional. This professional will be able to tell whether the plant item can be replaced or repaired. He or she will also know how, if possible, to preserve the item and ways to proceed in recapturing financial losses.
