HIGHWAY COMMISSION GRANTS PETITION FOR ROAD THROUGH COUNTY

Congressman Marvin Jones Offers Pointers Relative to Wheat Legislative Move

I have been asked by a number of people for an explanation of the plans that have been laid out for wheat under the new farm act. While conditions may cause some changes to be made, according to the present plans of the Wheat Administration the following program has been agreed upon:

The general funds made available for the wheat program will be apportioned among the wheat-producing states, on the basis of the five year average production of the years 1928 to 1932 inclusive.

The state's portion of these funds will be allocated to each wheat-producing county in the state, on the basis of such county's average annual production for the same five years.

The county funds will then be allocated to individual farmers as a definite payment per bushel on the average annual production of such individual farmer for the years 1930, 1931 and 1932 inclusive. The payment will be made only on the percentage of that production which is domestically consumed.

The amount of such fund has not yet been definitely determined, but it will probably be about 30 cents per bushel. Two-thirds of the amount will be paid to the individual farmer on or before September 15, 1933, and the other one-third will be paid to him after the planting season has been definitely passed and he is able to show that he has complied with the requirement that his wheat acreage be reduced for the year 1934 in such amount (not to exceed 20 per cent) as may be fixed by the Administrator. It may be necessary for him to sign a second year contract, but in that event he will receive additional payments for 1934.

To illustrate: If a farmer produced 2000 bushels in 1930, 3000 bushels in 1931 and 1000 bushels in 1932 his average annual production would be 2000 bushels.

Assuming that 60 per cent of the wheat produced in America is needed for domestic consumption, then this farmer's domestic percentage of his average production would be 60 per cent of 2000 bushels, or a total of 1200 bushels.

On this 1200 bushels he would receive his definite per bushel allotment, which, if 30 cents per bushel, would amount to $360. He would be given a check for $240 on or before September 15, and would be given a check at a later time for $120.

This would not interfere in any way with the regular marketing of his current crop. He would sell what wheat he raises in the regular way and secure the returns thereon. The $360 would be paid him as a sum in addition to whatever he might receive for his wheat in selling the same in the open market. The regular markets would not be interfered with in any way.

The funds will be replenished by means of a processing fee.

Farmer Needs No Aid to Fill Out Loan Papers

"No wheat grower who intends to participate in the program for adjusting wheat production and to receive compensation payments for his cooperation, needs to pay anybody for helping him make out the necessary forms, statements, and agreement," Chester C. Davis, director of crop production for the Agricultural Adjustment Administration of the Department of Agriculture, stated recently.

Reports have reached the Department of Agriculture that in one of the wheat states certain persons have been offering to "make out the papers" for farmers who intend to enter the agreement and have demanded in return 10 per cent of the cash payments that the farmer is to receive.

"All necessary papers, forms and agreements will be presented to the wheat growers by duly authorized agents of the Secretary of Agriculture," said Mr. Davis. "In some cases the county extension agent will represent the Secretary of Agriculture. In other cases special agents will be employed. They will give cooperating farmers all the information and assistance necessary, and without cost to the farmer."

Further information will be furnished through the columns of the Brand from time to time.

Local Talent to Stage Play, 'Outward Bound'

"Outward Bound," a play by Sutton Vane, will be produced by Hereford Theatians. A cast is to be chosen soon and rehearsals are to start immediately, according to Director Marvin Gilliland, who states that the date of production will be about August 7. The play will be staged under the auspices of the Junior Pioneer club.

The same group successfully produced Robert Louis Stevenson's "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" on June 2, which was also directed by Mr. Gilliland.

Junior Band Concert Tomorrow Evening

The Junior Band will play a concert Friday night of this week at 8:30 o'clock on the corner of Main and First Streets.

Director Ralph Smith also requests the Brand to announce that the newly organized municipal band meets each Thursday night at 8:30 at the city hall for rehearsal, and states that the municipal organization will likely play a concert a week from Friday night, July 21, at 8:30, playing at Main and First Streets. This new organization invites all musicians to join them in their rehearsals.

Hereford Masons Install Officers Monday Night

Book Circulation High for First Six Months

The circulation of books and magazines of the Deaf Smith county library was not so large in June this year as in June, 1932, but in May it was so much larger than in the corresponding month last year that the average is still much above last year's. This is the busy season for the farmer and the housewife and they do not have time or energy for much reading. Even at that the circulation for June was over 4500, or an average of almost 5000 per month for the first six months in 1933.

Many books and magazines have been received lately. Those making gifts were: Mr. Cloyd, Jimmie Clark, Mrs. J. B. Jones, N. M. Bartley, Dale Bodkin, Mrs. Effie Brown, Mr. Cloyd, Mrs. Carl Coker, Haley Donner, Sidney Fuller, Jimmie Clark, Bill Hawkins, Joe Huckert, Mrs. J. B. Jones, Mrs. Clyde Kibbe, Mrs. Hubert McEntire, Mrs. Johnnie Orr, Mrs. Walter Orr, Mrs. Lyndell Mitchell, Mrs. Lynn Powelson, Mrs. C. R. Smith, Mrs. W. F. Weems, Earl W. Wilson, Mrs. Bob Wilson, Mrs. Henry Wilson, Mrs. E. J. Williams, E. O. West and Karl Wilson Shirley.

Among these gifts were several sets of classics and many single books of popular fiction.

There is such a demand for the more popular authors, B. M. Bowler, Zane Grey, Kathleen Norris, Temple Bailey, Harold Bell Wright and others that we especially appreciate gifts that will replace our worn-out copies.

The story hour has had a good attendance, but owing to the extreme heat there has not been so many as when the weather was cooler.

The interest shown in philosophical and economical subjects seems to have increased instead of diminished during the hot weather. This is due largely to the fact that so many things are happening that it keeps one reading diligently to keep abreast of the times.

Feed and Seed Loan Man Here Monday

W. H. Fendley, of the Farm Credit Administration Crop Production Loan office at Dallas, was in Hereford Monday afternoon to confer with officials of the local chamber of commerce. His mission was for the purpose of approving R. F. C. feed and seed loans now under consideration.

Mr. Fendley approves only those loans which are approved and recommended by the local R. F. C. committee, which is composed of A. H. Streu, C. H. Day and Geo. Muse.

Mr. Fendley stated that he had approved a total of 334 wheat loans, this completing that phase of the farm loans up to June 17. He is a direct field representative of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Milo Reno, Speaks In Plainview July 26th

Dr. C. T. Kibbe has requested the Brand to announce that Milo Reno, national president of the Farmers Holiday Association, will deliver an address on the general farm situation, in Plainview on Thursday, July 26.

Mr. Reno is a speaker of national repute, according to Dr. Kibbe, and is endeavoring to get as many interested here to make the trip to Plainview on the 26th as will go. Dr. Kibbe is a director of the Texas branch of the Farmers Holiday Association.

The Brattons were enroute to Marshall, Texas, where they will visit relatives several days.

One that knows no creed or dogma and teaches the Bible without fear or favor or apology to any one. He has organized two Bible Colleges, and at present owns the Metropolitan Correspondence Bible College of St. Louis, Michigan. Not only is he noted for his great preaching or evangelistic work and Bible teaching, but is numbered among our leading authors, he having written many books and at present is the editor of a monthly magazine known as The Bible Expositor.

Mrs. W. J. Gilliland Returns from France

Mrs. W. J. Gilliland returned home last Monday from a trip to France, where she visited the American Cemetery near Paris, in which her son, John Richard Gilliland is buried. Mr. Gilliland fell in action on September 20, 1918. While there she was presented a large wreath of native flowers and had her photograph taken near the grave. Joe Owen, another Hereford boy who lost his life in France, was buried near the grave of Mr. Gilliland.

Mrs. Gilliland left here early in June for New York City, where the trip really began. She there joined 100 Gold Star Mothers and Widows. They were given a sight-seeing trip in New York City, and on June 7, the party boarded the S. S. Washington for France, arriving at Havre, France, June 14. From there they went by rail to Paris and from that time on it was a sight-seeing trip through the northern portion of France, where the great conflicts were fought from 1914 to 1918. Mrs. Gilliland described her trip as being a wonderful experience, with the most careful and loving attention paid them. The itinerary on French soil took in the American Church at Quai d'Orsay, Verdun, Meaux, Chalons-sur-Marne, Montfaucon, Chateau Thierry, Meuse-Argonne, Napoleon and Lafayette's tombs, Eiffel Tower, Chamber of Deputies, Invalides Railroad station and many other historic scenes too numerous to mention. They returned on the S. S. Harding, and enroute made brief stops at a port in England and one in Ireland.

Deaf Smith County Allowed Freight Cut

Deaf Smith county has been included in eight Panhandle counties recently granted freight rate reductions on feed for livestock to drought-stricken counties.

This reduction, as explained in a circular issued by T. B. Gallagher, general freight and passenger agent with offices in Amarillo, is for the purpose of relieving farmers and stockmen who may be short of feed and pasture.

The extension of this rate reduction went into effect last Saturday, and carries a reduction of one-half of the tariff rates on about 60 varieties of feed stuffs. Rate reductions will be explained to shippers of livestock to points on the Santa Fe system by local officials.

Star Theatre Improves Front of Show House

The foyer of the Star Theatre was redecorated last week and new velvet draperies hung at the luner entrance. This work was done in white and blue, the curtains matching the draperies, and the Star is now "all dolled-up."

J. C. Parker, manager and owner of the theatre, is continually making improvements for the comfort of his patrons.

New Credits Allowed Local High School

Announcement has just been received that the high school has been granted two additional credits by the State Department of Education. One full credit was allowed in world history and a half credit each in third year foods and third year clothing. The history was taught by Miss Fern Carlisle and the home economics by Miss Thalia Parker. These teachers and the students concerned are to be commended for doing a high standard of work that merited recognition by the accrediting agency.

With the granting of affiliation in this work the high school now has full affiliation in all subjects offered or a total of 28 units after credit is voluntarily given up in solid geometry and trigonometry. The demand for these courses has not been sufficient to justify their being offered under present conditions. Latin was given up a few years ago for the same reason, and physical geography may not be offered again. If a subject is not offered for two years, the school loses the credit.

It has not been the policy of this school to offer a large number of courses and alternate courses so that it would be listed with a large number of units merely for the sake of having them. The purpose has been to offer as wide a range of electives as could be offered economically. Each subject must make an appeal to a considerable number of students or it is dropped. Many credits have been voluntarily surrendered, but not a single credit has been taken away because of poor work. Many credits have been gained at the same time in an effort to improve the curriculum offered. This has been done without increasing the total beyond reason.

The subjects now accredited are English 4 units, history 4 units, civics and economics 1/2 each, mathematics 3 1/2, science 4 1/2, agriculture 4, home economics 3, public speaking 1, occupations and commercial law 1/2 unit each, Spanish 2 units. Solid geometry is not included in the above list though credit will be automatically retained in that subject for another year.

At the meeting of the State Highway Commission in Austin Tuesday, and was granted 13 Panhandle counties in extending and building new highway projects. Deaf Smith county was one of the counties included, and is to receive approximately $111,000, which is to be spent on State Highway 33, or National Highway No. 66, from Hereford to the Randall county line.

Approximately 375 miles of the region's important highways in 13 counties were affected by the commission's action in which the Panhandle received more liberal approvals than any other area in the state.

County Judge C. W. Humble and Paul Corbett left here last Sunday morning for Austin, where they met with the Texas Highway Commission and placed their petitions before that body. Judge Humble states that Senator Clint Small of this Senatorial district, aided greatly in the projects placed before the Highway Commission for drought-stricken counties in the Texas Panhandle.

On their return trip Messrs. Humble and Corbett visited former Deaf Smith county agent R. O. Dunkle and family at Throckmorton.

Central Kitchen To Be Used for Charity Canning

The community kitchen got under way the first of the week, with headquarters in the Central school building. The equipment at the school, used as a kitchen where lunches are prepared throughout the school months for school children, and other equipment furnished by the R. F. C. committee, necessary for canning vegetables will be used this summer for the purpose of canning all kinds of vegetables raised in local community gardens. This new project will afford considerable labor for women who desire to work short weeks similar to the plan now in vogue where men are at work on street and other projects at low wages.

Mrs. Pink Gilliland will supervise the Central school canning plant. She has had wide experience in the canning of nearly everything raised on the farm for table consumption. Tin cans and modern sealers will be used in the new project.

Legion and Auxiliary to Have Joint Meeting

The local American Legion and Auxiliary will soon be located in their new quarters on the second floor of the city hall.

The Auxiliary will occupy a room in the southwest part of the second floor, while the Legion boys will have quarters in the northeast part of the building.

Some remodeling and refurbishing will be necessary before the two organizations can move into their new homes.

The Legion and Auxiliary members requested the Brand to express their deep appreciation to the mayor and commissioners for their generous offer of space to be used for their new quarters.

Hereford Truck Figures In Fatal Accident

A truck, driven by Frank Huckert, of Hereford, an employe of the Farmers Oil Company, hurled Claude Davis, 28, of Turkey, to the pavement at White Deer early Tuesday afternoon as he attempted to get aboard the moving truck.

Eye witnesses told officers that when Davis attempted to catch the cab of the truck he was thrown beneath the wheels, which passed over his body. The impact with the pavement resulted in a fractured skull, resulting in almost instant death.

Mr. Huckert was in no way responsible for the accident and officers stated that the accident was unavoidable.

Lions Take Second Place In City League By Plastering Smoke-Eating Firemen 13-6

(BY HOMER FOX)

Looked like the Firemen's day Wednesday afternoon until the third inning, then these old Lions broke loose. Roaring, they started coming out of the brush from all sides, and never ceased roaring until the last Fireman was out.

The Firemen scored one run in the second frame, and two more in the third, when Sowell singled, A. Russell tripled and scored on a high throw at home on Angelo's fielder's choice, giving them a lead of 3 to 0.

Then the Lions really started something, with the help of the Firemen's errors, and made a total of five in one inning. One walk and two singles, and the king of beasts wound up with four tallies and never were behind again.

In the fourth frame they scored 3 more runs, with three singles, and really went wild in the fifth, scoring six more. The Firemen used about everything they had in the box and looked like they were going to have to call on the umpire, for help. Hop started it off by getting on when second smeared up an easy out, but Hop was forced by Allison, and then, believe it or not, Tubby Robinson sneaked up and got his first hit in four games and five innings. His ball dropped over second base and center let it get through him for three bases. McCracken made it to first, thanks to the short, but was out trying to steal second, then old Bag-Eye Downs busted one to the same place that Tubby did, center field did the same thing on the ball, and Chief wound up on third. Posey walked, then the big parade of Firemen into the pitcher's box started. Smith finally found one he liked and singled. J. Russell followed with a double, Close singled, and Hop wound up for the second time this inning, hit an easy one to second for the third out. Looked like the Firemen were going to have to forget the game because they couldn't get 'em out—and we still think Hop made the last one to help the boys out.

The Firemen scored one in the fourth when Rountree tripped and got home some way, and in the seventh Sowell, first man up, singled; A. Russell flew out to left and L. Russell, substitute for Angelo, walked up and smacked the old apple on the nose for a perfect home run, scoring two ahead of him, and that's the way us Midgits play ball all the time.

Believe it or not, Posey led with the stick for the Lions, with one for one. Smith, J. Russell and Close followed with two for four. Sowell for the Firemen hit two for three, and the only man to get over one single off Allison's offerings. The Firemen garnered seven hits, six runs and made 11 errors. The Lions got 10 hits, 18 runs and one error.

Monday, July 17, the Lions and Odd Fellows meet, and Wednesday, July 19, the Midgits and Firemen lock horns.

Summerfield Vs. Adrian

Saw a league ball game last Sunday between Summerfield and Adrian at Summerfield. Adrian won by two or three scores. Saw a lot of good plays and some bad ones. Looked like a cinch for Summerfield in the first inning when Adrian made 8 errors and gave the boys four runs, but Adrian had an old-timer in on the mound and he wasn't a bit bothered over that—he just kept pegging away and held the Summerfield boys to five hits and his team mates finally settled down and helped him win a ball game.

This game saw two old friends at the head of the two teams, both fighting hard to win. Curley Morgan was the pilot for Adrian, and Al Lookingbill for Summerfield. We didn't know any of the Adrian boys, but they had some fair players, and one of the nicest little third basemen we have seen this year. But the Summerfield bunch looked like old-times, with Preach and Bill Adliem, Harry Cannon, Hawkins, Clark, Roberson, Troy and Pete Carmichael, Madden and Pleas Baker of the Mighty Midgits, on short.

Understand that they will have a real game out there Sunday, with Black, Friona or some place—anyway, Henson of Friona will oppose

Ten Tons of Ice Daily Not Enough for City

An ice shortage occurred last week in the local Texas Utilities ice plant. This shortage was supplied by the Canyon branch of the same company, with a 1200 pound shipment of 300 pound blocks.

This is the second shortage in the past three years. The local plant has a capacity of ten tons per day, according to Fred Oberthier, manager, who states the plant is being operated to capacity every day.

A LONG TIME AGO IN HEREFORD

(From The Hereford Brand, July 18, 1902.)

Hereford baseball nine had "nosed out" an Amarillo team, 13 to 3. The queer part of this game was that the editor stated "the Amarillo boys played a good game and proved themselves gentlemen in every respect, no wrangling being indulged in on either side."

The Brand was short of its usual size and patronage that week, the editor explaining that a rush of job work and the failure of a printer to show up had made it difficult to get out a paper of any kind.

At the Canyon Reunion, another ball game was indulged in by Amarillo and Hereford teams, but this was no parlor game and politeness and gentlemanly courtesy were forgotten, and as a result Love, Hereford catcher, was in the wrong place and was hit by a base runner, the collision breaking Catcher Love's left leg.

B. H. Bounds had sold his interest in the telephone company to B. W. Miller, consideration $1500.

A story was published relating to the carelessness of a certain congressman in signing papers of any and all kinds without reading them over. On a bet, his secretary wrote out the congressman's resignation, took it to him for his signature, and the congressman signed it without batting an eye.

(From the Hereford Brand, July 12, 1912.)

An extensive story on the first page of the Brand pointed out the disappointing experience of waiting for rain which never came in time, and advocated the sinking of more irrigation wells, pointing to the fact that for an expenditure of 25 cents for fuel, a farmer could "conjure up" a four inch "rain" when needed.

W. J. Chapman was farming in the northwest part of the county. He was different from most farmers in that he kept an itemized account of all expenditures and receipts.

Several from Black attended the ball game at Summerfield Sunday.

Jim and Bud Barnett were business visitors in Frio Saturday.

R. E. Barnett, Dave Galloway, Henry McLean, F. E. McMurry and Clyde Hays attended a meeting of farmers in Frio one day last week in regard to the reduction of cotton acreage in this community. They reported that Farmer county has one of the highest averages on the cotton report.

Fern Barnett and Claburn Carr are reported to have good stands of cotton. If the cotton reduction plan is put over, these men will receive $17 per acre for all of the cotton that they plow up.

Most of the harvesting in this community is almost over. Bill Eddlemon, who lives four miles north of Black, still has a large acreage to cut, but at the present it is too green for harvesting.

W. R. Schelagen, who lives near Hereford is in this community harvesting his wheat crop. He states that his crop is yielding about the average bushels per acre.

Mrs. George Wyly and Mrs. Clarence Carr were Hereford visitors Wednesday.

Inogene Phillips is on the sick list this week.

Several from Black attended the choral services at Frio Sunday evening.

A. C. Hays, Clyde and Jim, were Hereford visitors Saturday.

Mrs. V. M. Cloyd and two sons, James and Virgil, left last Sunday for Winters, Texas, where they will visit her parents. Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Quindlen. The Cloyds were called to Winters by the illness of Mrs. Quindlen.

"It saved his life," the doctor said

A Texas farmer was chopping wood one morning. The ax glanced off a hickory log and deeply gashed his foot.

His wife telephoned the doctor—"Come as fast as you can!"

"Tie a cord tightly around his leg below the knee. I'll be there at once," a voice flashed back along the wires.

Later, the doctor said: "Those brief directions by telephone saved that man's life. Even then, he was very weak when I arrived."

Your telephone is ready day or night for emergencies, just as it is for business, or for friendly visits in the afternoon. It may be worth a nickel today, a quarter tomorrow, a thousand dollars next week.

You can buy few things which cost so little and are worth so much.

Seen On the Screen at the Star

Paramount's new musical comedy hit, "International House," one of the most lavish, most tuneful, most amusing productions ever to leave Hollywood, opens at the Star Theatre Sunday, July 16, matinee and night at 9:30, and Monday and Tuesday nights.
 In its enormous all-star cast of stage, screen and radio favorites are Peggy Hopkins Joyce, W. C. Fields, Rudy Vallee, Stuart Erwin, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Bart Maritza, Colonel Stoopnagle and Budd, Cab Calloway and his orchestra, Baby Rose Marie, Bela Lugosi, Lona Andre, Sterling Holloway, Franklin Pangborn, Edmund Breese and Lumsden Hare. A comedy group of chorines known as the Girls in Celophane present the dance numbers.

"International House" has a genuine plot in addition to its musical and spectacular qualities. Its action takes place at a hotel in a Chinese city, where representatives of big business from all over the world are assembled to see and hear upon a marvelous new invention, a device which can see and hear anything anywhere.

The complications result from the activities of Bela Lugosi, a villainous character who is trying to keep the American representative from bidding. Erwin, the American, develops a rash, and Lugosi insists that he be quarantined. The scheme works too well; the whole hotel is quarantined while Lugosi is outside. The latter's consternation becomes even greater when he sees from across the street that Peggy Joyce, who has once been his wife, is now "on the make" for another man. The man is W. C. Fields, an aviator who had mistaken Wu-Hu for Kansas City and has landed on the roof of the hotel. Matters in the hotel go from crazy to crazier—Burns and Allen and Col Stoopnagle and Budd wise-crack; Rudy Vallee, Cab Calloway and Baby Rose Marie sing and play; Erwin makes timid love to Sari Maritza.

The events work up to a frenzied climax.
 Rev. V. M. Cloyd and son, James, will leave next Monday for Fruitvale, where Rev. Cloyd will conduct a revival in the Baptist church for the next two weeks or more. While in that vicinity James will manage his grand father's store in Edgewood, near Fruitvale.

RALPH SMITH AND FAMILY ATTEND STAMFORD REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith and children returned home Saturday from Stamford where he assisted the Fireman's band of the city with his cornet in a three day engagement at a cowboy's annual reunion and rodeo held there July 3-4-5. He stated that 45,000 visitors were present during the three days of cowboy stunts and music. Before returning they visited Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. White, at Stamford.

PRESENT TIRE PRICES STILL BELOW 1926

"Since 1926 the trend of tire prices has been steadily downward and they are still 55 per cent below the point at which they were nine years ago, even with the two recent increases this year, said R. H. Beavers of Ireland-Beavers Motor Co., local Goodyear dealer.
 "But with the upward movement of general commodity prices, raw material prices, especially cotton and crude rubber which have shown sharp increases since April, tires may go higher.
 "At any rate, tire prices are about the same level they were a year ago, and my advice to those who are in the market is to buy now before prices go up again."

since it is a foregone conclusion, in my opinion, that the present low point of 55 per cent below 1926 figures will not continue long on a steadily rising commodity price market.
 Further explaining his contention Mr. Beavers said that crude rubber was selling at three cents per pound in April, while early in June it reached 6 1/2 cents per pound, or more than double.
 Cotton, on the other hand, has climbed from 7 1/2 cents to nearly 11 cents per pound early in June, an increase of 46 per cent.
 "I give you these figures," Mr. Beavers told the Brand, "not because I want to scare people into buying tires; but because I see the possibility of increased prices as a natural sequence of what will certainly follow with the return of better business conditions.
 "The business at the Ireland-Beavers Motor Co. has shown a steady improvement in the past several weeks, reflecting the effect of the national administration's New Deal."

Mrs. L. G. Gatlin and son of Plano visited in the home of her sister, Mrs. J. P. Gatlin, south of Hereford about three miles. Mrs. Gatlin was accompanied here by Raymond Wright who visited his brother, Luther Wright, who is employed on the Gatlin farm.

G. M. Hudson and Family On Vacation This Week

G. M. Hudson, principal of the Hereford high school, and family and Miss Wilma Jo Jones left Monday morning for a vacation trip, during which they will visit East Texas, Louisiana and the Texas Gulf Coast, stopping in Weatherford, Fort Worth, Honey Grove, New Orleans, Galveston, Austin and San Antonio. The vacationists expect to return home about August 10.

The party will visit Mrs. Hudson's mother, Mrs. Annis McMahon, in Weatherford, where they will be joined on the trip by Mrs. Hudson's sister, who will also return to Hereford with them. Mr. Hudson's father and sisters reside at Honey Grove where a part of their vacation will be spent.
I. V. Flowers made a business trip to Amarillo Monday.

Hereford Has Chance For Fair Exhibit

Hereford has an opportunity, through the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, to have direct representation at A Century of Progress with literature, a miniature exhibit, and its name on a large relief map of West Texas—all at a very nominal cost.
S. P. Bosson, local WTCC director, has received from Spencer A. Wells, vice president of the regional chamber, the details of the offer to the affiliated towns, and has been urged to get Hereford's subscription to the plan at once.
The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has secured space in the Texas exhibit for a West Texas display provided a sufficient number of cities cooperate in the plan which calls for the regional chamber putting up half the cost of the exhibit and literature, affiliated towns putting up the other half. An immediate answer is necessary if the regional chamber is to proceed with its plan.
Wells points out that towns affiliated with the regional chamber are the only towns in Texas that will be given direct representation in the Texas exhibit, and that it is available at a ridiculously low price. He is urging directors to secure immediately the necessary funds either from the local chambers of commerce or from direct solicitation and send them in so that the West Texas exhibit may be ready to go when the Texas exhibit opens July 25. He must hear from all towns before July 20.
For $40 an affiliated town will get a quarter page write-up in the 150,000 West Texas booklets to be distributed at the fair, and will have its name prominently shown on the 13 foot square relief map of West Texas which will form the main part of the West Texas display. For an additional sum the towns may have individual folders distributed at the exhibit. For $100 additional, the towns may have individual miniature exhibits on display. Towns may purchase more than a quarter page of space in the West Texas folder at proportionately higher rates. All subscribing towns will receive a supply of West Texas poster stamps for their local use.
The big relief map has been constructed by students in the engineering department of Texas Technological College, and it is the first of its kind ever made. It shows the exact topography of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico, the production of the various sections and the location of affiliated towns. Over 1200 working hours were consumed in its construction. Following its display at Chicago, it will become a permanent exhibit of the organization and be on display at the annual conventions and other places.
M. C. (Red) Alston of Abilene was here the first of this week on business matters. Mr. Alston reported to the Brand the arrival of a son in their home on April 26, who has been named Garry Anderson Alston. Mr. Alston will likely be here all this week.

Jas. W. Witherspoon Sues for Salary

James W. Witherspoon, district attorney of the 69th judicial district, went to Austin last week to file in the Texas Supreme Court a mandamus suit of state wide interest. This suit concerns the compensation of district attorneys of Texas, and will be closely followed by other district attorneys, over the state as well as by many private citizens.
The statute providing for the compensation of district attorneys in districts composed of two or more counties was amended by the legislature in 1929. The amendment provided that such attorneys receive $10 a day for the first 350 days in the year in addition to the $500 provided for in the Constitution, to be paid monthly, and that the Comptroller each month should issue a warrant for one-twelfth of the amount. The Attorney General of Texas immediately preceding the convening of the Legislature in 1933 wrote an opinion holding that the statute was unconstitutional. The State Comptroller, basing his opinion on that ruling, refused to issue the warrants.
Mr. Witherspoon has filed in the Supreme Court at Austin a mandamus suit to compel the State Comptroller to issue the warrants under the statute. If the Supreme Court holds the law unconstitutional, as contended by the Attorney General, it will refuse to mandamus the Comptroller, but if it holds the law constitutional, as Mr. Witherspoon contends, then it will grant a mandamus compelling the Comptroller to issue the warrants.
Mr. Witherspoon is one of the 52 district attorneys who will be affected by the decision of the Supreme Court on this suit, but his is the only suit that has been filed.
Accompanying Mr. Witherspoon to Austin were W. W. Halcomb of Dumas, formerly editor of the Moore County News, and J. C. Gilliland, University of Texas law student, and son of the senior partner of the law firm with which Mr. Witherspoon is connected.

Chevrolet Production Shows Good Increase

Production of new Chevrolet cars and trucks in June shore than doubled the output for the corresponding month last year and was the largest single month's production in two years, W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company, announced today.
With a total output of 81,573 units in June, compares with 38,142 in June last year, and with 68,538 in May this year, previously the best month since June, 1931, Mr. Knudsen said.
He emphasized that the high June total was made possible only by the splendid morale and cooperation extended by the more than 36,000 employees now on the company payroll. Mr. Knudsen said he hoped, through the share-the-work plan practiced by his company in recent years, to hold the employment curve better this summer than has been possible in past seasons.
Every effort has been made thru the depression, he pointed out, to provide for the regular Chevrolet workers. Through regulating the hours of work per week to retail demand, and by building up parts stocks in lean seasons, it has been possible for 11 months of each year since 1929 to hold Chevrolet payrolls to within ten per cent of the average of 32,500 men, Mr. Knudsen stated.
June production exceeding May is unusual in his company's experience, Mr. Knudsen said, since either April or May are normally peak months of the year.

FIRE DESTROYS J. A. FOX BARN EARLY WEDNESDAY

DEBORAH

Judg. 4:4-10; 13-15; 5:1-3.

Judg. 4:4. Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, she judged Israel at that time.

5. And she dwelt under the palm-trees of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill-country of Ephraim; and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6. And she sent and called Barak the son of binuam out of Kedeshnappatai and said unto him, Hath not Jehovah, the God of Israel commanded, saying, Go and draw unto Mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

7. And I will draw unto thee, to the river Kishon, Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thy hand.

8. And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go; but if thou wilt not go with me, I will not go.

9. And she said, I will surely go with thee; notwithstanding, the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honor, for Jehovah will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10. And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh, and there went up ten thousand men at his feet; and Deborah went up with him.

13. And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentile, unto the river Kishon.

14. And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which Jehovah hath delivered Sisera into thy hand; is not Jehovah gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15. And Jehovah discomfited Sisera and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

Judg. 5:1. Then sang Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam on that day, saying,

2. For that the leaders took the lead in Israel, for that the people offered themselves willingly, Bless ye Jehovah.

3. Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O ye princesses; I, even I, will sing unto Jehovah; I will sing praise to Jehovah, the God of Israel.

Golden Text: God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.—Psalm 45:1.

Time: About B. C. 1351 (Beecher).

Place: Deborah's home between Ramah and Bethel, Mount Tabor, the Plain of Esdraelon, and the River Kishon.

Introduction.

The Book of Judges is the account of the long period after the death of Joshua and before the rise of Eli and Samuel, when the Israelites had no truly national leader, when they were harassed at various times by the heathen tribes left unsubdued on the north, south east, and west, when affairs were in a chaotic condition, and when the people were saved from destruction by the rise at different emergencies of military leaders who forced back the foreign invaders, and gave the land peace for a longer or shorter time. These leaders appeared in "different degrees of ability and of moral worth. There is no comparing Gideon, for example, with Ehud. But they all had important work to do and accomplished it with the aid of God. These leaders were called Judges, and their period extended through about two and a half centuries.

The frequent lapses of the Israelites into the horrible defilement of heathen idolatry show how slight a hold their national religion had upon them, and how great was the need of the prophets who were to come. Each of these lapses was punished by God with a heathen foray upon the weakened people. The entire Book of Judges is a long, strikingly illustrated sermon on the misery which sin brings in its train, and the blessedness which attends the merciful providences of God.

Jabin and Sisera.

After the victory of Ehud over the Moabites, the land of Canaan was at peace 80 years. After Ehud's death the Israelites again fell under the ever-present temptations of idolatry, and the Lord "sold them into the hand of another oppressor. The "purchaser" this time was a Canaanite king, Jabin, and a powerful general named Sisera. A large part of Sisera's power consisted in his possession of nine hundred "chariots of iron." These may have been war chariots armed with scythes protruding from the sides, which moved down the ranks of the foe when driven by swift horses; but more likely they were ordinary war chariots, open behind, containing a driver, a warrior with bow, spear and sword, and the fighter's shield-bearer.—chariots fitted strongly with iron. The Israelites, whose territory was so hilly, fought on foot, and were unfamiliar with war chariots, which they greatly dreaded.

"Deborah, a Prophetess," vs. 4, 5. Deborah was a woman through whom God revealed his will, as he revealed it through the prophets. Miriam, sister of Moses, was the most distinguished of the prophetesses. Huldah, who lived during the reign of King Josiah, was another of these holy women. It is recorded of the four virgin daughters of Philip the evangelist that they prophesied. Anna, who for many years visited the temple daily and who recognized the infant Jesus as the Messiah, was another prophetess. "She judged Israel at that time." At the time when Jabin and Sisera were harrying the people to the north of her, carrying off their harvests and cattle, pillaging their houses, and working unmeasured distress throughout that region, Deborah had a heart of sympathy for all suffering and she was a true patriot. This was on characteristic which put her in touch with the heart of God, and made her a prophetess, one through whom God could speak. "And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah." The palm, which once grew abundantly in Palestine but now has nearly disappeared, was the date palm, from 60 to 80 feet high, having a single straight trunk with a great bunch of feathery leaves at the top, always green, and about six feet long.

Deborah and Barak vs. 6-9. "And she sent and called Barak." His name means "Lightning"—a good name for a soldier. Deborah must have known him as a skilled and spirited warrior before she summoned him. "And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go." Barak was less heroic than Deborah; for thought the general would not go to the battle without the prophetess, Deborah, we may be sure, would have gone to battle without Barak, if necessary. "But if thou wilt not go with me, I will not go." Barak's refusal to go without Deborah may reasonably be attributed rather to piety than to fear. Especially as we read of no hesitation in coming at the first call of Deborah.

And she said, "I will surely go with thee." No hesitation here no doubt, no cowardly conditions. Deborah might have said, "I will go, if first you will raise an army of a hundred thousand men." But Deborah simply said, right off, "I will surely go with thee." "Notwithstanding, the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honor; for Jehovah will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." "Since thou wilt not go except a woman go with thee, the Lord will deliver thine adversary into the hand of a woman, and her name and not thine shall be handed down to future generations as the delivered of her people."—Mrs. S. T. Martyn.

Sisera's Great Army. "And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron." It was a formidable array for those days, and must have presented a terrible appearance to the hastily gathered forces under Barak. "And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which Jehovah hath delivered Sisera into thy hand." Her words sound like the peal of a trumpet. She was the real commander-in-chief. "Is not Jehovah gone out before thee?" That was the real confidence, the true omen of success. Any battle is already won by the army, however small, that has God on its side, confronted by however large a host.

Sisera's Defeat, vs. 15. "And Jehovah discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak." The plain of Esdraelon has in all ages been the battlefield of Palestine. Here fought Thothmes III., Rameses II., and Rameses III.; here Pharaoh Necho won that sad battle of Megiddo, in which King Josiah was slain, amid a slaughter so terrible that the great conflict of the Apocalypse is called, from it, the battle of Armageddon—the hill of Megiddo. Here have fought in turn the armies of Assyria, of the Crusaders, and of Bonaparte and it was on the mountains of Gilboa, at its east end, that Saul and Jonathan perished.—Cunningham Geikie. "And Sisera alighted from his chariot, and fled away on his feet." The course of the battle we are left to draw from Deborah's ode of triumph. Judges 5:1-31.

Sisera's Death, Judg. 4:18-22. Trust to his own feet and, hard bested, jaded and exhausted, he arrives at the tent of Heber the Kenite. Jael the wife of Heber comes forth to meet him, invites him hospitably into her tent and provides him with food and a couch. He falls asleep, imagining himself safe from his enemies. Then Jael, taking one of the pins of the tent, drives it with a hammer into the temples of the sleeping man, and he lies slain after all his valor and distinction, by the hand of a woman. Opinions have been divided as to the character of Jael's act. Did she avenge the wrongs of her country and so take her place beside such women as Joan of Arc, Charlotte Corday, and others whose patriotism none can doubt? Deborah, whose magnificent song of triumph runs the entire gamut of melody, said that Jehoi was blessed above all women. Deborah voiced the sentiment of the time. The stars in their courses had fought against Sisera, and it was his destiny to perish in the way that he would most have hated.—Margaret E. Sangster. "Would to God we had some Deborah or Joan of Arc to arouse the people of God today, and lift this old world out of its moral, social, and religious chaos. Something like that is going to whip the army of intemperance."—Rev. Len G. Broughton.

The recent capture of Milton Furr of Wichita Falls, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, brings to a climax one of the most sensational gun battles in recent years. Furr is thought to be the slayer of C. S. Carlisle of Wichita Falls, a brother of Miss Fern Carlisle, local high school teacher for the past five years. Miss Carlisle is spending the summer with her parents in Dallas.

Mrs. McKirgen, a sister of Mrs. John Haber, and her daughter arrived here the latter part of last week from Los Angeles where they had been visiting with relatives for the past year. They left Monday morning for their home in Des Moines, Iowa.

hear this man of God, as he believes him to be in a class to himself when it comes to teaching the Word of the Living God.

REV. M. J. JOHNSON

Rev. M. J. Johnson is well known in Hereford, he having formerly been pastor of the First Christian Church in Hereford. He founded the Bible Class while pastor here and naturally feels responsible for its continued success, and has had a very keen interest in it since leaving Hereford. He is now making his home in Erick, Oklahoma, where he is pastor of the Christian church in that city.

The Community Bible Class extends a welcome to all people to sit with us at the feet of one of the world's greatest Bible teachers.

Brother Tyndall and his wife and Mr. Johnson and wife will arrive in Hereford Monday, July 17, and will begin the series of meetings that night in the district court room in the county court house.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dillehay and two children returned home last Thursday from a visit of several weeks in Decatur and Dallas. Their daughter, Virginia Ann, who was operated on several weeks ago in Dallas, is improving rapidly.

them in the box. This is the boy who had the nice write-up in the Amarillo paper not so very long ago, and should be worth any bugs time to go out and see this chap work.

Odd Fellows Queer Midgets.

Yep, they done it again—something is always happening to help those smiling, good-natured, hard-hitting sons-o-guns beat us Midgets. This big-footed, flat-headed Ted Young was the main thing that happened Monday afternoon. He stood out there on the slab (no, he pulled the slab up after a grounder bounced off it and hit him in the eye), anyway, he held these kids to three little hits, scraped up two singles and one triple for three times at bat, scored two runs and drove in two, and if that is not enough to win a ball game we don't want a cent.

The Odd Fellows scored three runs in the first inning, with three hits, two errors, four boneheads, and a lot of other stuff that the score keeper could think of but couldn't write down.

The kids scored in the third when D. Baker was safe on an error, Speegle walked, P. Baker was safe on an error, and Brock singled over second to score two runs; and in the fourth the kids tied the score, making one run on two errors and a single by Speegle, but it was just three up and three down for the kids the rest of the game, and the same for the Odd Fellows until the sixth, when Foster flew out to left, Cockrell making a beautiful catch. Then that fellow Ted walked up and smacked the first one over for three bases. London was out, short to first, but B. just couldn't get one by Dean and he singled over short, scoring Ted and winning a ball game.

Russell did a nice job on the mound, holding the Odd Fellows to six hits, three by Ted, two by Dean. Speegle got two of the three hits for the Midgets, one being a double, and Brock socked the other one.

This game was still faster than
