OK County Tax Billing Contract

County Shows New Interest In Effort

Commission Hopes Move Will Update Operations

County commissioners voted unanimously Monday to take a step aimed at updating operations in the county tax office by turning over to a Hereford firm the task of maintaining tax rolls and preparing annual tax billings.

The move highlighted a day-long session which also saw the commission once again study the future of the county's two "Bull Barns."

Climaxing a study of several months duration, the commission stamped official approval on the bid submitted by Electro Data Service of Hereford to handle tax billing operations for the county.

This action capped a study — initiated by commissioners several months ago — into means available for speeding up the ever-increasing number of bookkeeping and billing operations required in the county tax office.

Via Monday's vote, the commission rejected previous proposals to install an electronic bookkeeping system in the tax office.

The nod went to Electro Data Service, the Hereford firm which uses a battery of IBM data processing equipment to handle such operations.

ACTION came after commissioners had been told recently by tax assessor-collector Nell Miller that the task of preparing tax rolls and computing bills had grown to the point where "... something has to be done."

Since then, the commission had investigated the feasibility of acquiring machines for the tax office to handle the job.

BUT COST would run some $12,000, commissioners were told by representatives of various manufacturers of equipment which would meet the requirements.

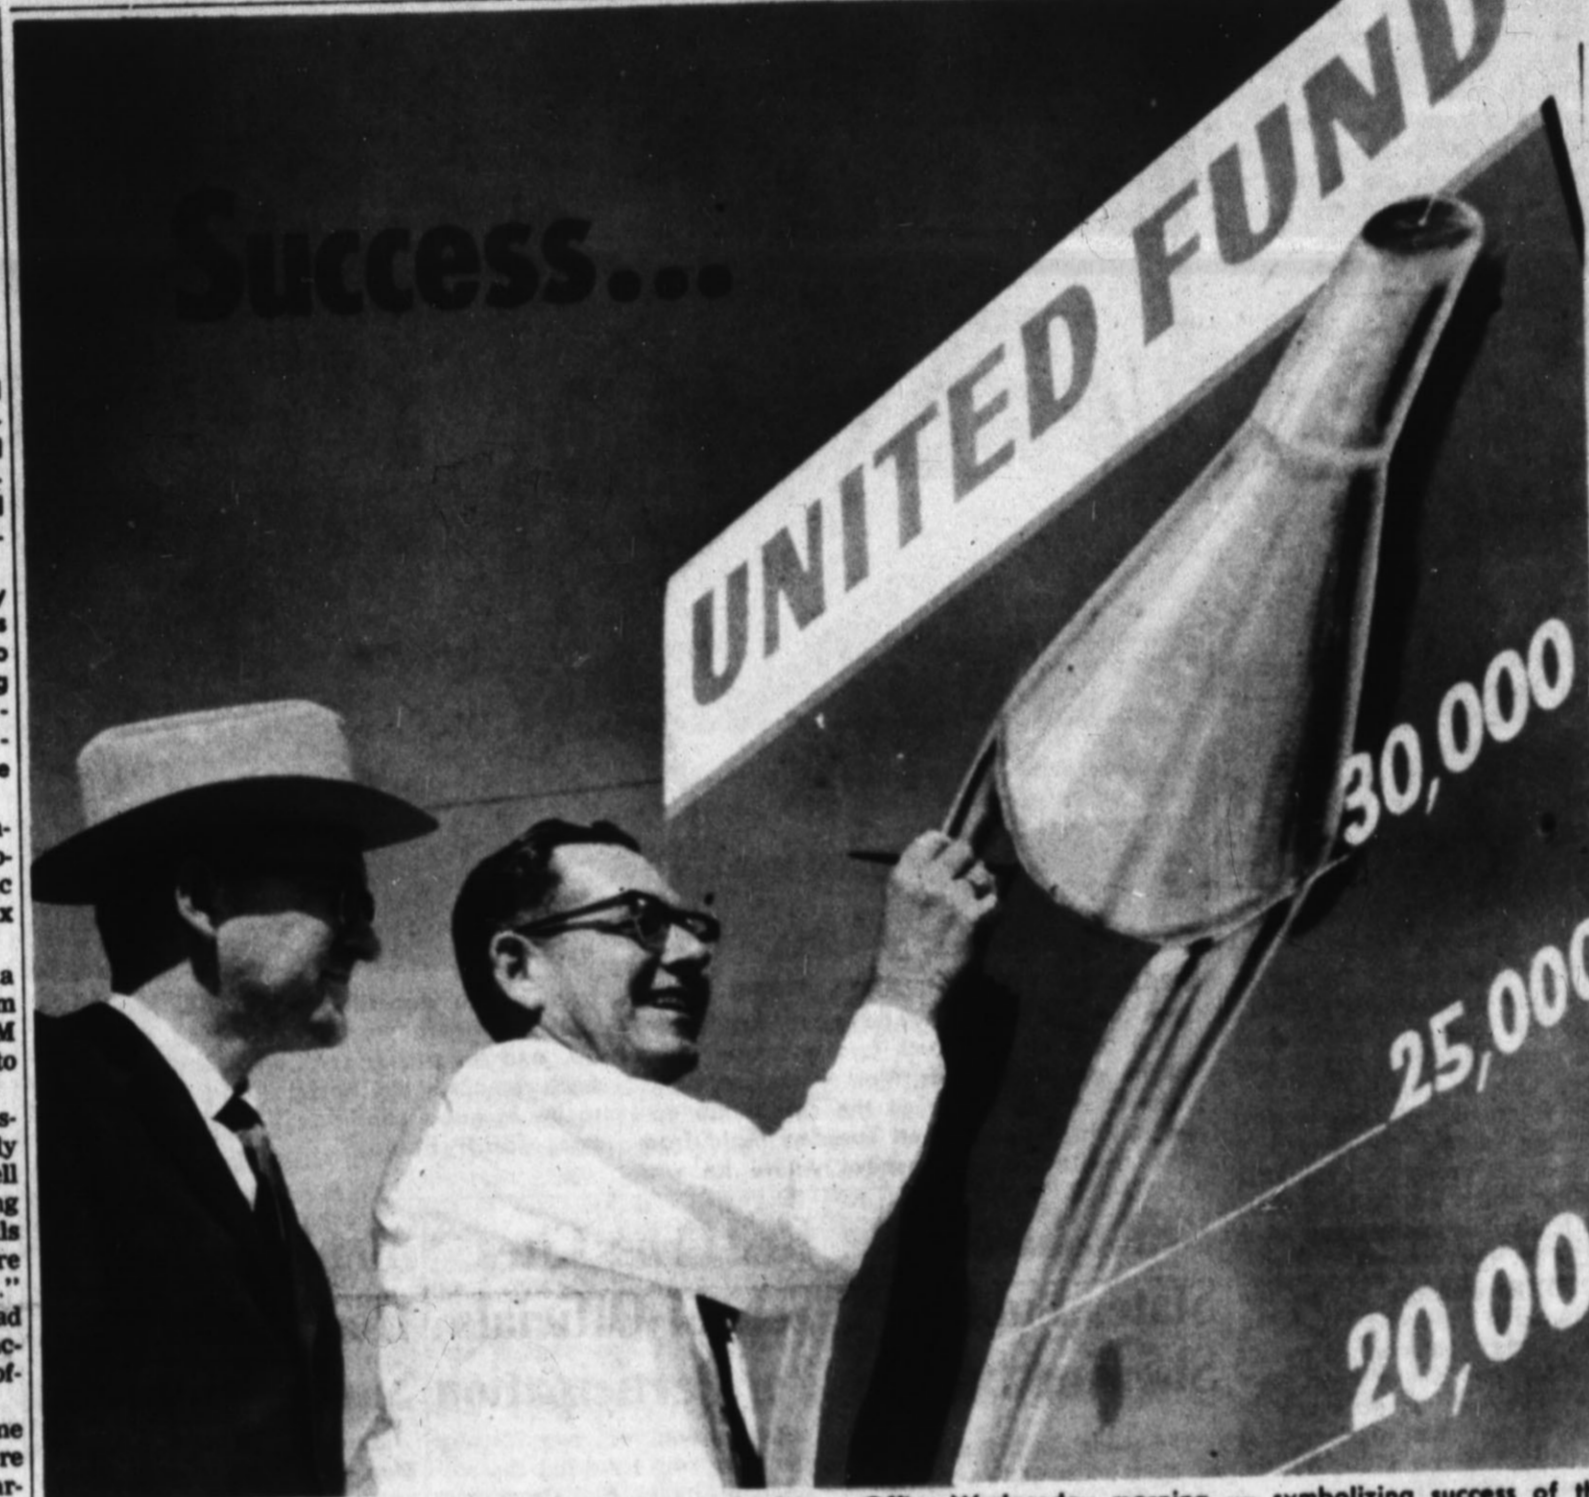

The commission expressed the opinion that this is too much money to invest in such equipment at the present — the 8,000 or so billing operations required annually would keep the machine busy only two weeks out of the year.

Morris Easley, owner of Electro Data, said that his firm could perform the same operations at a reduced cost.

The commission approved his offer for a two-year period, saying that by then it would become more evident whether the workload could warrant the expenditure for the equipment proposed for the tax office.

Mrs. Miller explained that, at present, it requires six weeks to prepare tax billings annually, using all full-time employees in the office, plus two part-time helpers hired just for the project.

FINISHING TOUCH — United Fund drive chairman Ed Skypola applied the final stroke of paint to the space capsule orbit path on the United Fund billboard in front of the Post Office Wednesday morning — symbolizing success of the 1965 United Fund Drive. Looking on was UF president Clint Formby. (Staff Photo)

Deaf Smith County's United Fund reached its goal Tuesday for the first time in four years as contributions passed by $68 the $30,160 mark.

The 1965 UF drive — which does not end until Saturday noon — became the fourth in nine years to reach the goal.

Officials expressed thanks to the county's citizens for pushing the drive "over the top" and pointed out that the accomplishment stops a three-year downward trend in local United Fund support.

Announcement that the drive had reached its goal came in a board meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Contributions to the nine participating United Fund agencies reached $30,228.97 at 2:45 p.m. Tuesday, putting the effort in the "success" bracket in just 39 days.

Solicitors will continue to seek contributions until Saturday "in order to give all county residents an opportunity to participate in this successful drive," according to United Fund president Clint Formby.

Formby explained that UF workers have yet to contact some residents of the county and that all contributions in excess of the goal will be used to help cover deficits from previous drives.

"THE BUDGET this year for the nine agencies was cut to a bare minimum and we can assure people that any money contributed in excess of the goal is not in excess of the needs of the United Fund and its agencies," Formby said.

The effort failed to reach its goal during the past three drives, creating deficits which can be repayed with funds collected this year.

The county's United Fund originated in 1957 and made its goal in '57 and '58, Formby pointed out.

But it was not until 1961 that the UF goal was met again.

SINCE that year, support of the UF had slackened until this year.

The goal was missed by three percent in 1962, ten percent in 1963, and some 12 percent in 1964.

"BUT THIS year there has been unusual cooperation from both contributors and workers," Formby said.

"They are certainly to be commended," he continued.

"The attitude of the community this year towards the United Fund has been wonderful."

"WE THANK the citizens of the county for making this success a reality," he emphasized.

Deaf Smith County became the 14th United Fund in the state of Texas to reach its 1965 drive goal, a release from the Texas United Fund said.

Concerning the 1965 drive, Formby praised workers for untiring efforts.

FIFTH STRAIGHT YEAR

Band Earns Top Rating

By WAIN MILLER Staff Writer

Hereford High School's Marching Band has done it again.

The band earned the coveted first division award for its performance at the Region I University Interscholastic League Marching Contest, held Tuesday in Buffalo Bowl in Canyon.

And what a performance it was.

CONTEST judges wrote little but praise on "criticism sheets" concerning the band's exhibition and acclaimed Hereford's 105-member delegation as perhaps the top band of the day in the contest which saw 18 other bands from throughout the Panhandle perform.

It was the fifth straight year for Hereford High bands to achieve the number one rating.

AND IT marked what director Ben Gollehon termed a "peak" performance for the band — which has shown steady improvement in contest ratings during recent years.

Gollehon, who has directed the Hereford band for six years, termed Tuesday's performance the best he has seen from the HHS band since coming here. Contest judges apparently agreed.

Frank Piersol, director of bands for Iowa State University, climaxed his comments as a judge with "... a most exciting performance. Well conceived and well executed. Congratulations on a terrific show."

SAID contest judge Pete Long of Ponca City, Okla.: "Band has a unique character and has done one of the best jobs of maintaining military bearing and the military dignity that I have seen from a 22-in-stride band."

"Congratulations on an outstanding performance," echoed judge Norville Howell of Clovis, N. M.

Canyon, Levelland, Tullia, and Muleshoe high school bands also earned "I" ratings in class AAAA competition at Tuesday's event.

Dunbar of Lubbock, Littlefield, Dumas, and Perryton also competed in the AAAA contest.

In class AAAA, Plainview, Monterey of Lubbock, and Palo Duro, Caprock, and Tascosa high schools of Amarillo earned top ratings.

THE "I" in marching is the first of three steps towards a hoped-for Sweepstakes Trophy for the Hereford High Band.

Hereford bands have won sweepstakes for the past three years.

In order to do so, bands must earn "I's" in marching, concert, and sight-reading performances.

The director pointed to the overall band program in Hereford schools as making this year's prize-winning band possible.

THERE ARE 185 members in the present varsity band. The junior high band — which consists of Stanton Junior High School eighth graders and high school freshmen — numbers 110.

The seventh grade beginner band has 80 members.

Junior high director Clyde Wilson and Gollehon work together on instruction for all three bands.

IN ADDITION to UIL contests, the band for the past several years has competed in the Buccaneer Music Festival at Corpus Christi — which is limited to top-ranking bands from throughout the state.

This year, instead, the band hopes to participate in the Six Flags of Texas Invitational Band Contest, to be held at Six Flags in May.

THE HHS band has been invited to participate after earning sweepstakes honors in UIL events for the past three years.

Funds are currently being sought to make the trip possible.

Industry Group To Meet Today

A meeting of the industrial development committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce will be held today at 10 a. m. at the chamber of commerce office.

The agenda includes a discussion of a program to recognize and encourage local industry. The need for and means of presenting industrial property in the Hereford area with a firm price and with an adequate description of the property will also be discussed.

The committee will discuss the need for a public relations program. See INDUSTRY Page 2

Two of the injured — Kenneth Harper, 28, of 112 Greenwood, and Curtis L. Measles, 29, of Tullia — remained in the hospital Wednesday for treatment of facial lacerations and bruises.

James S. Corbett, 19, was released Tuesday night following treatment for facial and chest lacerations.

Harper was listed by investigating highway patrol men as the driver of the late model pickup which collided with an auto driven by Corbett. Measles was a passenger in the pickup.

The vehicles collided in the westbound lane of traffic near the entrance to West Park Cemetery.

Force of the impact almost flattened the front of both vehicles, which spun from the point of impact.

The Corbett auto, which had been travelling west, skidded into the ditch on the right side of the westbound lane. Harper's pickup careened around, coming to a stop facing west in the westbound lane.

Debris from the demolished vehicles was scattered over a wide area, although a heavy piece of farm equipment remained in the bed of the pickup.

Investigators said citations were pending in connection with the mishap.

School Board Names George Principal At New Jr. High

APPROVES AUDIT REPORT

Hereford school board members Tuesday night took an initial look at needs for the staff of La Plata Junior High School — slated for completion prior to September, 1966 — and named the principal for the school in northwest Hereford.

The board appointed Jerry Don George to head the staff of the city's new junior high.

George, who is 29, has served as assistant principal at Stanton Junior High School for the past four years.

HE CAME to the Hereford school system in September, 1960, as high school baseball coach and football mentor, then joined the coaching staff at Stanton the following year.

His appointment came without discussion following recommendation from Hereford schools superintendent Johnny Clark Jr.

Board members termed George a capable man for the job and the vote of approval was unanimous.

GEORGE, who received his bachelors degree in social studies from Texas Tech, completed his masters degree in administrative education in 1964 at West Texas State University.

Following his appointment, the board took an initial look at the needs for the staff at the new junior high school and instructed administrators to commence seeking personnel.

In connection with the discussion, Clark commented concerning his policy of recommending personnel.

HE SAID that his policy was to look within the system for personnel whenever possible, but not at the expense of the success of the program.

"If there is someone who better fills the bill, I think it is our responsibility to consider individual qualifications rather than mere seniority or limiting a choice to personnel within the system," Clark commented.

BOARD members endorsed his views.

It was pointed out that the new junior high will require an ad-

Clayton Cites Need For 'Doers' At 4-H Banquet

Goals and work to achieve them are ingredients in a successful life as well as in 4-H Club contests, State Rep. Bill Clayton told Deaf Smith County 4-H Club members and their parents at the annual awards banquet Saturday evening in Community Center.

The 91st District legislator in a brief talk mixed humor with advice to the young club members, advising them to use their 4H Club training as a gateway to choosing lifetime goals and reaching them.

"BE DOERS," he urged. "Set your goals and then be willing to work and sacrifice for them. Serve God and country, honor your parents and be satisfied with no less than your best."

Award presentations in 31 categories were made by the county agents and representatives of firms which donated the prizes. They went to 57 girls and boys and were climaxed with designation of Maura McAndrews and Gerald Witkowski as County Gold Star Girl and Boy for this year.

THEME of the banquet was 4-H in Our Modern World emphasized in decorations of flags and national colors of some of the 76 nations in which 4-H Clubs or similar youth organizations operate. Backing the speakers' table were cutout emblems of these organizations and on the front of the table was a United States map and flags.

Joyce Beizer was mistress of ceremonies. County Agent Justin McBride prefaced the award presentations with an explanation of this phase of 4-H training, saying that county awards are the first step toward national contests in which scholarships are given yearly. Mrs. Tom Draper, Home Demonstration Agent introduced Clayton.

Serving on the banquet committee with Dorothy Marsell, chairman, were Deborah Jesko, Ellen McGown and Rodney Herr. Adult advisors were Mmes. A. J. Beizer, Paul Engler and Leo Witkowski.

the departments.

"We're looking at an additional $100,000 expense to the district for faculty pay 'alone next year,'" Clark pointed out.

It was also pointed out that increased tax values in the county probably will not make up for the added expense of the new plant.

AT ONE point, a board member wondered what would be the feasibility of combining certain levels of such departments as athletics and band between the two junior highs.

Clark replied that "this would kill the school spirit ... and nullify the value of having two junior high schools."

He explained that educators favor splitting schools in order to allow increased participation in student body activities — "You have twice as many class presidents, twice as many football players ... twice as many bandmen."

IN OTHER business, the board approved the July 31 audit of the school district's finances, which showed no major discrepancies.

The board also praised the Hereford High School Marching Band for its performance Tuesday in the University Interscholastic League Marching Contest.

Board president Bill Gentry and Clark were among those on hand to watch the performance.

The board reviewed judges' comments concerning the band and then voiced compliments of the district's overall band program and its directors.

AS REQUIRED by law, a textbook committee was appointed to study books for adoption by the local district.

Clark, who is chairman of the committee, recommended Earl Keese, Virgil Young, Joe Smith, Bettye Jean Mercer, Don Stephens, Irene Young, Joe Wilson, Naomi Hopson, Opal Walker, and Shirley Paris as members of the committee. The board approved the list.

The committee submits recommendations concerning textbooks adopted by the local schools.

IT SELECTS from books approved by the state school board. Law requires that members of the local committee be school personnel. Citizens interested in texts adopted by the district may voice views to the committee, whose recommendations are submitted to the school board.

Enrollment in the Hereford schools now-stands at 4,299 students, as compared to 4,251 a month ago and 3,922 at this time last year.

Average daily attendance has been 4,069, as compared to 3,690 for the first six weeks in 1964, Clark noted.

Board members heard a report from high school principal Bill Michaels concerning the school's curriculum, in which the principal outlined course offerings and pointed to possible needs for course changes.

Credit Union Sets Date For Dual Celebration

During the week of July 28, Mrs. Dylithia Benson announced the expansion plans for the Hereford Texas Federal Credit Union office, located at 330 Schley.

This week, completion is nearing on the almost $27,000 project, with plans for open house set for the week of Nov. 15-20.

The credit union which now has a membership of nearly 4,000 members, is planning to hold its anniversary and expansion opening during the same week.

Officers of the credit union are Mrs. Benson, Manager-Treasurer; Mrs. Pauline Howard, assistant treasurer; Robert L. Thompson, president; A. J. Schroeter, vice president; and directors, O. L. Bybee and Charles Nowlan.

The new addition includes a committee room, several new offices, a store room, and kitchen, along with a large community room.

Mrs. Benson noted that this is a real accomplishment for this business, as it has grown from a one drawer operation to its present status, which now requires seven employees.

job of preparing the tax roll in the fall of 1966.

NOT ONLY will the arrangement relieve the work load in the tax office, officials pointed out, but it will also serve to provide additional service to taxpayers.

Tax bills prepared by the firm will bear on them the actual amount due after discounts for early payment of taxes. The county grants a three percent discount for tax payment in October, a two percent cut for November, and one percent off in December.)

It will also allow assessors additional time each year to update assessments by cutting the time required for billing.

At the present, assessments are some six weeks out of date when bills are mailed.

In additional, officials pointed out, the margin for error will be reduced greatly, as the IBM system which will be used automatically double-checks each entry on tax records.

OTHER business before the commission Monday included canvassing results of last week's constitutional amendment election, okaying advertising for bids for two road graders, and discussion of the future of the county's two bull barns.

Concerning the latter, the commission talked of current plans to remodel the Bull Barn in a project being supported by the Hereford Lions Club.

NO ACTION was taken, pending action of the Lions.

Commissioners also were faced with a request that the Hereford Migrant Ministry be allowed to use the Little Bull Barn two nights weekly to conduct an athletic program for Latin Americans.

Action on this was also tabled, pending a study of the feasibility of the plan.

Concerning the continuation of the drive through noon Saturday, Formby pointed out that the residents of the county now have an opportunity to put operations of the United Fund "on a business basis."

HE SAID that drive volunteers this year and in the past have been forced to use money from their own pockets for such things as postage stamps, long distance phone calls, and other expenses which seem small until viewed in the light of the vastness of the job.

Red Cross Cites School Officials For Participation

Recognition of two faculty members who have led the outstanding Junior Red Cross program in Stanton Junior High school in the past decade was given at the close of the annual student talent program Wednesday, which marked the close of a membership drive.

Mrs. Lottie Wertenberger, faculty sponsor of the Junior Red Cross, was presented a five-year service pin and Principal W. C. Quattlebaum was given a certificate citing him for promotion and support of the first aid program and Junior Red Cross Council, and his concern for the handicapped.

THE AWARDS were presented by Mrs. Michael Hicks-Beach of Amerillo, consultant for the office of volunteers in the combined service territory which includes Deaf Smith and other Panhandle counties. She was introduced by Mrs. Justin McBride, Stanton School representative from Deaf Smith Red Cross Chapter.

Proceeds of the membership drive, a check for $321.25, was presented by the school principal to Mrs. Clint Formby, youth chairman of the county chapter.

Students from 12 home rooms presented the special talent show at the Wednesday assembly. Each group entertained with a humorous skit which was written and staged by the pupils with aid of home room teachers.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

We have heard a lot about states' rights and civil rights these last few years. The United State is like a family. Big Brother and Junior and Sis all have or should have certain rights, but if they get the idea like the little boy that said Papa is boss over Ma and Ma is boss over me, then there needs to be some adjustments made.

Well, they all have their individual rights as long as they don't take advantage or mistreat someone else, but when Junior and Sis start slapping each other or pulling hair, their mother needs to take a hand to straighten things out.

But if Big Brother starts kicking Junior and Sis around and mother can't control the situation, then it is time for Dad to take over.

My mother was having some trouble making me behave and said she was going to tell Dad. I was pretty small but thought I was big so I said Dad won't do anything. My dad was a good hearted and easy-going man, but he knew what to do when justice and correction were needed and what he did with the razor strap convinced me that

Two Sailors Jailed Second Time For AWOL

Local law enforcement officials are today wondering just what there is about our area that attracts two young Navy men to leave their ship, and return here — without leave.

Late Tuesday night, a deputy sheriff stopped four youths and found that they were drinking. After placing the four under arrest, and in the process of brooking them into the Deaf Smith County Jail, he found that two of the youths had been arrested in July for desertion from the navy.

After again questioning the two, he found that they had been released from a Navy brig on Nov. 2.

Alvin Price, home listed as Corsicana, and Paul Bean, Millerton, Okla. were both arrested here July 6, and returned to Naval authorities on desertion charges.

The two sailors were picked up Wednesday morning by the air police from Amarillo Air Force Base, to be returned to their ship, the U. S. S. Yorktown, stationed at San Diego, Calif.

Before being released, the pair was fined $20.00 each, along with what he could do was plenty. I learned to respect my dad and I believe I have learned to respect other people's rights as long as they don't use that authority to mistreat other people and show respect for other races and nationalities.

In talking about states' rights and civil rights and federal rights, we are all just a big family. When States get to where they abuse and misuse some of their citizens and five others special advantages, then it is time for Federal interference.

In the past there have been quite a few times that some organizations have marched or gone in a large bunch to demonstrate their desires or demands to Washington or to the state capitol or to wherever the authority over certain questions of rights could be given consideration.

Those demonstrations have been carried out without hindrance or violence, but when the colored folks started their demonstrations to ask for their rights, then the white folks started trouble and violence.

I have even been told that they ought to turn a machine gun on the demonstrators and mow them down and use a bulldozer to make a trench to shove them into. Now when the Ku Klux Klan made their demonstration to march to Austin, they were allowed to go with no interference, and when one of their members in another state (according to the newspapers) drove up along side another car during a civil rights demonstration and shot in cold blood murder one of the occupants of that other car, he was acquitted by the jury of white folks. But if a colored man had done the same thing, what would have happened?

When individual states' government gets as rotten as that, I think it is time for the Federal Dad to take over.

Yours truly,
Ole T. Larsen.

Young Mothers Club Hears Guest Speaker

Education of exceptional children as conducted in Hereford schools was discussed by one of the instructors, Mrs. Otto Garlitz of the Central Elementary faculty, on a program of the Young Mothers Study Club Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Ray Simpson and Mrs. Nick Shyne were hostesses at First National Community Room After the program club members voted to make a cash contribution to assist the special education program in Hereford Schools, as well as to donate to the United Fund.

Mrs. Garlitz told how children in special education classes are trained to accomplish the tasks of daily living. She said a major problem is for parents to accept the fact that a child is mentally retarded and needs special help, and that this fact is no cause for shame.

She described the program of the state school for mentally retarded which she has visited recently. After her talk, numerous questions from club members indicated the interest she roused.

Mrs. Al Huner presided for business. Initial plans for a style show early in December, which the Young Mothers Club will join Velez Cub in sponsoring, were discussed.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

It was with a great deal of regret that I read in the Sunday Brand, Nov. 7, that the Veterans of Foreign Wars had voted not to release part of "Veterans Park" to the City of Hereford for development of a city park. I understand that approval was given last week by the American Legion for such action.

As a resident of Hereford for seven years, I looked with longing at the tremendous undeveloped expanse of Veterans Park and tried to envision what it might become either under city or county sponsorship. As a new resident of Fritch, I am working diligently to secure a city park site, since we do not have a single municipal park area. Even with all the developing recreational areas around Lake Meredith, we do not have a single location that can compare with your Veterans Park for convenience, expanse of area or natural scenic beauty.

I do not presume to criticize the VFW for its decision, since I do not know all of the factors which must have been discussed. What does concern me is that apparently nothing is to be done by anyone to develop Veterans Park into an attractive area that would encourage use by tourist, visitors and local residents.

As I recall my research into Veterans Park transactions, it was sold to the American Legion and VFW immediately after World War II with the understanding that it would be developed into a complete park area for public use. Other than a few benches and tables, I can recall little in the way of park development. Some of the land has been sold off, other parts

ONE MINUTE, PLEASE

"The ox instinctively knows his owner, and the donkey his master's crib; but Israel does not know or recognize Me (as Lord). My people do not consider or understand." Isa. 1:3 (AOT).

After Israel of the Old Testament had been delivered from bondage in Egypt by the hand of the All Mighty, and received as a gift of God's grace the promised land that flowed with milk and honey, she became prosperous and grew rich in material things. But Israel forgot God, His blessings, and His rich gift. Proudly the nation said, "Look, what we have done with our own hands."

When things were going well with her, Israel wanted to take all the credit for her well being and ignore or deny the God who gave her richly all things to enjoy. This ungrateful attitude resulted in the downfall of this mighty nation.

During the dark ages our forefathers were in spiritual slavery and labored under the iron hand of the overlords of Europe. Our merciful God heard the cries and the prayers of our forefathers and gave them the beautiful and bountiful land of America. We, who are their children, have grown rich and powerful in the 20th century. Will we forget God, His grace and His rich gifts, bragging that all of this is the work of our own hands?

This is it! Friday night the rugged Herd will play a very important game against the Tulia Hornets. Let's be sure and give the Herd all of our support.

THIS HAS been a great year for the team and they have made it a year for all of us to remember. They have given us something to really be proud of so let's not let them down. We're backing you all of the way fellows, so bring home a Victory!

Wednesday afternoon cheerleaders attended the pep rally at Stanton Junior HIGH. Their purpose was to gain support among the students at junior high for the game Friday night. Gwyn Cargo, junior cheerleader, said that they really raised the roof and that it's great to see so much spirit among them for the Herd. Let's show them we have even more spirit Friday in pep rally and lift that roof off of the gym. O. K.?

TODAY is D. E. Radio Day. Take time to listen and you may be surprised to hear the voice of many of your friends. The D. E. classes have put in hours of work to make this successful and worthwhile. They ought to have a hand of applause for all of their hard work.

Friday, Nov. 12, is the last day to get in your order for a yearbook. Just think how terrible not to get an Annual! You may pay $2, $3, $4, or $5 to any of the members of Annual Staff. Don't forget and come up next spring without an Annual.

REMEMBER the kitten that was found in a locker? I thought the episode ended when the kitten was put out by one of the Counselor's Assistants but apparently it didn't. Johnny Clark Jr. told me that the poor little thing showed up out at the Band Hall and he, Linda Price, and Carole Coffey fed it milk and donuts. It just goes to show how kind hearted the students of H.H.S. can be.

With determination and the student body backing them there is no alternative but for the Whitefaces to defeat Tulia Friday night. Support them and show your appreciation for their efforts no matter what the outcome of the game.

To yield to the stronger is valor's second prize.

Guest Gives First Aid Advice On Program Of Lone Star Club

Knowledge of first aid measures can be a literal life saver in an emergency, John Gilliland, guest speaker to Lone Star Study Club, stressed on a program in the home of Mrs. Jim Bookout Tuesday afternoon.

He warned that first aid means only immediate and temporary care of a patient until a doctor arrives, and that it is more dangerous to do the wrong thing than nothing at all for a critically ill or injured person. He gave basic instructions on action to take in case of a heart attack and some other common emergencies.

Mrs. C. D. Kelton introduced Gilliland after Mrs. Vivian Majors had opened the program by reading a poem, God Has Promised. Plans were made in the business session for an annual Christmas project of the club, filling a basket for a needy family.

Mrs. S. S. Williams, who presided, also assisted Mrs. Bookout as hostess. Members present included Mmes. Robert Thompson, Ray Suit, C. O. Phillips, G. W. Newsom, Norman Moore, John Jacobsen Jr., Jim Higgins, Mildred Elliott, J. J. Durham, Thelma Chisum, Olan Caviness and R. G. Blue.

TOOK HIM FOR A RIDE

JOHANNESBURG (P)—Johannesburg used car dealers are nothing if not imaginative. One told a prospective customer why a car advertised or sale was so cheap — and swore the story was true.

He called at a house where the car was advertised in road-worthy condition for $14. "It's in the back," said the woman who answered the door. He came back after a few minutes and told the woman: "There's no mistake," said

The only car in the back is worth every cent of $2,800.

"There's no mistake," said the woman. "It's my husband's. Last week he ran off with another woman. He wrote and told me to sell the car and send him the money."

Veleda Club Sees How Gifts Used

Added interest in the talk and pictures presented by a guest of Veleda Study Club Tuesday evening was felt by members because they concerned the major club project of this season, contributions to the state hospital for retarded children at Abilene.

Mrs. Dale Wisdom of Lockney, associated with the High Plains Council for the Mentally Retarded, told how the school operates, and of its program of training retarded children to use their abilities to the maximum.

She also explained the need for contributions of clothing and money to aid many of the children who are from families which can give them little financial support, and showed a series of slides picturing the admission of children to the school.

Veleda Club members have filled boxes with clothing, for children of various ages, which are being shipped to the school this week.

Mrs. Armon Lauderback, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Wisdom, who is her sister.

Plans for a fashion show which the club is to sponsor the first week in December were discussed in the business period, with Mrs. J. R. Oglesby presiding. Mrs. Alvin Smith was welcomed as a guest, with the speaker. The meeting was in the home of Mrs. L. J. Clark, who served refreshments.

Other members present were Mmes. Robert Willmot, George Ritter, Dale Scott, Glenn Watts, Billy Wayne Sisson, Hugh Clearman, Ronald Harpster, Charles Hoover, Johnny Clark, Gid Brownd, Bill Bradley, Don Baugous and Dale Barkley.

PROTECTIVE COLORATION SANAA, Yemen (P)—Yemeni women of today have something in common with their American Red Indian sisters of a century ago — they cover their face with paint to prevent sunburn.

Toiling all day in the scorching fields of the plains or the unsheltered highlands, the average Yemeni woman paints her face yellow, blue or red.

The colors are those of pigments which are smeared over the face and brows to protect the skin underneath from the sun rays.

Red Indian women on the American plains in the days of the Wild West also covered their faces with paint to protect themselves from sunburn.

Today is Veteran's Day. Armistice Day to the thousands of World War I veterans.

But whatever you call it, it is the day set aside in remembrance of the millions who have left their comfortable homes to take up arms so that we might continue to live as a free people in a free nation.

It is a day to honor the fallen heroes of the World Wars, the Koreans, the Vietnams. Unfortunately, it is also a day that has been all but forgotten by too many people, including veterans.

At 11 a. m. today, the American Legion Auxiliary will stage a dedication ceremony for a flag pole recently erected at the Hereford Community Center. Why not be on hand for the dedication. It will be worth your time.

Ivan Block's 78 year old mother is an avid fisherman. . . .

Last Monday morning, Mrs. Block arose earlier than usual, loaded her fishing gear into the Chrysler Imperial parked in the garage (her fishing wagon) and headed for Buffalo Lake. . . .

Thinking that she had driven too close to the water, and had become stuck in the sand, Mrs. Block left the automobile to investigate the situation. That was her first mistake. The second was in leaving the automobile in gear. It promptly took off — straight for the water line. It continued. . . .

The divers hooked lines to the car, and a few hours later the automobile was recovered. And so was the fishing gear.

Mrs. Block? Well, the accident hasn't dampened her enthusiasm for fishing. But she plans to be a little more careful concerning automobiles.

And we're in trouble again. First of all, we made the statement in a recent column that Mrs. Opal Elliston was not related to Byrle Elliston, which got us into trouble with Byrle. Opal's husband, Victor, is a cousin to Byrle. So, we stand corrected, and promise not to make another mistake for at least 15 minutes.

Also, we're apparently in the dog-house over the small amount of publicity given a recent award won by the Hereford Brand.

The Brand has recently been awarded a National Award of Merit from the National Federation of Music Clubs. . . .

Anyhow, Audrey Thompson, who made the presentation, tells us that we should have put the story and picture on the front page.

Well, about the only answer we can give, is that we're modest — which she doesn't believe.

Besides, the Award should have gone to the music club for their efforts in keeping us informed. It's easy to give good coverage on a convention when you have such nice people as Audrey Thompson keeping you up to date on all the happenings. And Miss Carma Thomas, who was handling women's news for the Brand at that time, should have a great deal of credit. She did an excellent job of working with the music clubs during the convention.

The United Fund has gone over the top.

Congratulations to UF president Clint Formby and Fund Director Ed Skypala, and all the others who have had a hand in putting the 1965 United Drive over. Everyone connected did a magnificent job and that's what it takes to put a drive over.

That doesn't mean however, that if you haven't made your contribution yet that you shouldn't. We need every dollar we can get for a little buffer. Just in case dollars are hard to come by next year.

Student Picked For Conference Trip To London

Accepted as a delegate to the Student Conference of the United Nations Association of the USA, to be held in London Dec. 27-Jan. 5, Miss Margaret Orleans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Orleans, 117 Juniper, is one of 106 high school students in the nation chosen for the trip.

She is a senior student in St. Joseph's Convent High School in Colorado Springs, where the family lived before a move to Hereford last July. Two younger sisters of 17-year-old Margaret also attend that school, Carolyn as a freshman and Marie a sophomore. Her father is senior assistant superintendent at the Holly Sugar Corp. plant here.

Her choice as a delegate was based on scholastic records and recommendations of her teachers. The association sponsoring the conference is a non-partisan, privately supported research and educational organization which describes its purpose "to study and promote fundamental bases of peace with justice, and the international organizations necessary for their development."

Art Show Sale Timed For Gifts

Sale of paintings, to be conducted at the Art Show which Hereford Art Guild will sponsor Nov. 18-21, is timed for purchase of pictures intended as Christmas gifts. The show will be open to the public each afternoon, Thursday through Sunday, in the Norton Building at 228 N. Main.

Members of the Art Guild are to exhibit paintings, and entries are also invited from non-members, who may exhibit three pictures for a one-dollar entry fee. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Ruby Lee Hickman, show chairman; Mrs. E. W. Young, show publicity chairman; Mrs. Bess Werner, Guild president, or other Guild members.

bit of comment. Someone wanted to know if that was a sugar beet or a carrot.

Well, the way we grow carrots in this country, it very well could be.

However, owner Dick Barnard assures us that it is indeed a sugar beet. But he really doesn't care what you call it, just as long as you keep coming in the front door.

Looks like the Red Carpet Inn is about completed, and we understand the Hereford Texas Federal Credit Union will have open house November 15 through 20 at their new addition. Hereford is still growing!

Incidentally, November 15 has been designated as the day for the city wide sale of fruit cakes by the Band-Aids, the local band parents organization.

That's Monday night, so get ready. You'll need to order several for gifts.

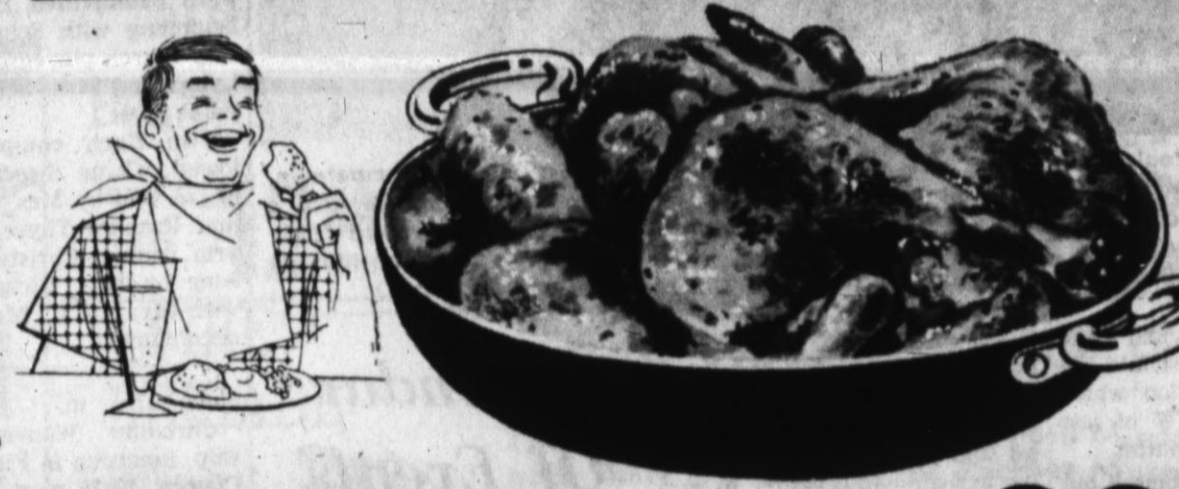

A husband, according to Grit, is a man who wishes he had as much fun when he gets out as his wife thinks he does.

FIRE'S OUT—Hereford firemen were called to the Deep Rock Truck Stop on West Highway 60 Tuesday morning after a gasoline pump was pulled over by a truck, causing a small fire. Service station attendants said a truck pulled away from the pump while a hose was still in the truck's gasoline tank, pulling loose the hose and causing the fire. By-standers extinguished the blaze with a water hose and by smothering flames with a sheet before firemen arrived. (Staff Photo)

Mrs. Raymond Bean unusual harvest

Celery for Thanksgiving Dinner Is Harvested From City Backyard

Celery, not a common crop in this area, has flourished in the backyard garden at the Raymond Bean home on Country Club drive this year, and is being harvested in time for meals of the Thanksgiving season.

It is not the only unusual product of the garden, which is planted to provide a variety of vegetables through the year. Even in winter the Beans get potatoes and carrots from the garden; these vegetables are left in the ground, heaped over with cotton burrs. And a patch of greens will withstand considerable cold.

After an experiment two years ago which produced some celery, Mrs. Bean got an earlier start this year and has a better crop. Seed was planted in cold frames, then the small plants set in a row. To bleach the stalks Mrs. Bean found gallon-size tin cans, cut out at both ends, convenient and effective. Another unusual plant is celery, grown in a similar manner. It produces its fruit, which has a nutlike flavor, underground. Mrs. Bean grates or shreds it for salads. She also cans the scarlet pimientos which she grows.

The Beans moved six years ago to their home "on a bare caliche hill", as she describes it. They worked fertilizer and cotton burrs into the soil and now have a lush lawn, flower beds and a thriving young orchard as well as the garden. Currently, they are harvesting some Tokay grapes after the earlier varieties have already been gathered.

An oddity in the flower beds at present is a clump of iris blooming in early spring style. The plants were given her by a friend, Mrs. Bean says, and they had always put up their purple blossoms at the proper season for iris. But after transplanting they have bloomed each fall.

"Maybe they got mixed up in moving", is the only explanation she can offer.

West Hereford Club Gets Tips About Candy

One of the tips on candy making given to West Hereford Home Demonstration Club members at a meeting Tuesday, was to give the boiling syrup plenty of room with an adequate utensil. Mrs. Argen Draper, County H. D. Agent, was the speaker at Pioneer Gas Flame Room.

She suggested using a two-quart kettle for making the usual amount of candy, and emphasized that candy making is an art requiring first of all a dependable recipe. Proper temperature was another point in her demonstration.

Plans were completed for the club's Thanksgiving supper for families Nov. 18 in the County Bull Barn. The next meeting will be in the Flame Room on Nov. 23, when Mrs. N. L. Wesson will be hostess.

A visitor from Oklahoma, M. Wall, was a guest. Other members at the meeting were Mmes. Vern Witherspoon, John Jacobson, Blanche Hardin, Duncan, Blanche Mosley, Alice Cox, Lola Manasco, Boyd Collins, V. V. Pierce, Jewell Autrey, Pearl Yoes and Miss Evelyn Bell.

Music Club At Dawn Initiates Convention Fund

Chosen as hostess club for the 1966 convention of District I, Texas Federation of Music Clubs, the Dawn Music Club has started a fund for entertaining other Panhandle clubs next fall, and gave its meeting time this week to a fund-raising project.

Members served a luncheon to 65 persons Tuesday, an appreciation gesture from Taylor-Evans Company for its customers. This activity replaced the October program of the music club.

Mrs. Steve Bavousett, president, served on the decorations committee with Mmes. Paul Engler and H. E. Miller Jr. They used a maize motif on the tables, using grain with miniature farm implements.

Herd Faces Year's Toughest Tiff

District Chances Ride On Skirmish

The Hereford Whitefaces began preparing this week for what will be one of the top games in the state this weekend.

Hereford will clash with the Tulia Hornets Friday in Tulia at 7:30 p.m. in a game which promises to be the roughest thus far in the season.

Although the Hornets sport only a 1-2 conference record and are no longer in the contention for the district crown, they are probably one of the toughest clubs in the conference and could knock the Herd out of district contention by winning the game.

TULIA went into conference play undefeated and dropped its first conference game to Perryton 15-12, beat Muleshoe 28-0, then dropped their second game Friday to the mighty Dumas Demons delegation by 14-0.

The Hornets led the Rangers all through the game and were in control at all times until the final few minutes when Perryton jumped ahead two points.

Coach Bill Spann of Dumas described Tulia's tactics as "aggressive" and "quick".

HEREFORD coach Jack Meredith said "They have a real good club with outstanding boys, they show a good team effort every week."

The Hornets were successful in several pass attempts against the Demons Friday.

TULIA's quarterback Dennis Hardee is good at throwing the ball and likes to scramble, he is fast and is shifty in the backfield.

Probably the two best receivers for Tulia, according to Hornet coach Jimmy Keeling, are Larry Berry, left end, and Fred Howell, right halfback.

Berry is also an excellent offensive blocker. Howell has good speed and is a hard runner with the ball.

GARY GRUHEN, left guard, is one of Tulia's top linemen. He is agile and is a good blocker carrying out assignments very well for the Hornets.

Coach Keeling said that although Dumas hit his men hard none of them had sustained any serious injuries other than the normal bumps and bruises.

"All of our men will be in good shape for the game," Keeling said.

Meredith said, "Our defense will have to be extremely alert and vicious to win this game."

Starting for the Hornets on the line will be Robert Cannon and Berry or Ricky Howard, ends; Tommy Bates and Larry Cole, tackles; Gruhen and Eddie Barber, guards, and Fred Heflay, center.

In the Hornet backfield will be Hardee, quarterback; Tommy Sheperd and Howell, halfbacks; and Derrel Smith, fullback.

3 Contenders Vie For Title Friday Night

The 1-AAA crown is far from being in the hands of any one team, but this Friday's play may very well narrow the field.

AT THIS time three teams are in contention for the crown — Hereford, Perryton and Dumas.

Dumas will clash with the Perryton Rangers this weekend and if Perryton defeats Dumas and Hereford defeats Tulia — Perryton and Hereford will be tied for first place in the district.

IF DUMAS defeats Perryton and Hereford defeats Tulia, Dumas will still lead the district, but Hereford will have a clear second place, one-half game behind the Demons.

If Tulia defeats Hereford and Dumas defeats Perryton then Dumas will be the clear leader in the district.

The mighty Dumas Demons lead the 1-AAA conference with an unblemished 8-0 season record and a 3-0 conference record.

Perryton and Hereford are tied for second in the conference in district play with a 2-0-1 record. The Rangers have scored 48 points against their opponents and have allowed their opponents 34 points in conference play.

HEREFORD has allowed only 33 points while scoring 79 points during the conference play.

The Whitefaces are second in the district in season play with a 6-1-1 record. Hereford has allowed only 76 points while scoring 197 during the season.

The Demons have scored 89 points in conference play while limiting their opponents to seven points. Muleshoe is the only conference opponent thus far to score against the Demons.

Dumas has scored 200 points for the season while allowing only 44 points from their opponents.

ECTOR of Odessa now leads in district 2-AAA after defeating Fort Stockton Friday 27-0. Ector possesses a 4-0 conference record with Kermit and Andrews tied for second place with 3-1 records.

SWEEPS AROUND END—Whiteface quarterback Steve Hodges sweeps around the end Friday in the third conference of the season against the Muleshoe Mules. The Whitefaces took a 44-20 victory to give them a 2-0-1 conference record. (Staff Photo)

FOLLOWING A 48-9 VICTORY

Red Raiders Eye Conference Title

Texas Tech, already attractive to bowl selection committees, hopes to keep in the running for the Southwest Conference championship in its game with Baylor at Lubbock Saturday afternoon.

Coach J. T. King's Red Raiders have posted a 7-1 mark, with

Bees Clash With Chiefs Today On Friona Field

The Hereford Whiteface B-team will face the Friona Chiefs today in Friona for their next to last ball game of the season.

THIS will be the first meeting for two teams other than a pre-season scrimmage in which the 'Faces scored two touchdowns and kept the Chiefs from scoring.

Ronnie Henderson will be playing for Gary Goodin at halfback position for the last two games since Goodin injured a shoulder muscle.

JIM CHILDERS will be back in action for this game following a short injury.

Coach Don Dorman said he expects the Friona ball club to be a tough one to play against — much tougher than when the two teams scrimmaged.

The B-team defeated the Muleshoe Mules 22-0 Saturday morning with Sid Shaw and Lenny Petree leading the offensive attack with Shaw completing 17 passes.

HEREFORD gained 16 first downs and limited Muleshoe to 13.

After the Friona game the B-team will travel to Tulia for the last game of the season.

DURING WINNING SEASON

Jim Haney Sparks Tech Defense Unit

When fans look at Texas Tech's accomplishments this season — notably winning three successive games in the closing moments — they're inclined to call the Red Raiders a poised, veteran outfit.

Tain't necessarily so. SEVEN sophomores are likely to be in the starting offensive lineup, and three first-year men in the starting defensive platoon against Baylor here Saturday afternoon.

Frosh To Meet Friona Today

Whiteface Freshmen will clash with the Friona Chiefs today in Friona.

COACH Harold Sides said he expects the Friona team to be tough, although the locals defeated Canyon and Tulia by more points than the Chiefs.

THIS will be the next to last game for the Frosh with the last game scheduled at Tulia next Thursday.

The Frosh romped over the Muleshoe Mules Saturday 14-8. JIM SCOTT started the scoring for the Herd when he caught a 24-yard pass from Bill Cole.

Ollie Williams finished up the scoring for the Whitefaces when he ran 46 yards to paydirt.

HEREFORD only managed five first downs while allowing the Mules 19.

The Mules also led in yards rushing with 182 while limiting the locals to 128.

Hereford led in passing, gaining 49 to Muleshoe's 6.

Will Travel To Tulia-Hereford Clash Friday

Members of the Hereford Whiteface Booster Club are planning for one of the largest caravans this season to attend the Tulia-Hereford game in Tulia Friday.

Calvin Goodin, club president said Tuesday, because of the importance of the game the club is encouraging as many people as possible to attend.

THE GAME will determine whether or not Hereford remains in contention for the District crown.

Goodin said the club expects more than 100 cars for the Tulia caravan.

Stan Sigman and Jim Tucker will begin lining the cars up at 5:30 p.m. in front of the Case Power and Equipment Company on south Hwy. 205 with the caravan leaving at 6 p.m.

THE CARAVAN will be led by Deaf Smith County Sheriff Lowell Sharp.

Other activities of the club prior to this Friday's clash with the Hornets includes making posters which will be displayed in merchant's windows downtown — backing the Whitefaces.

CLUB members are also encouraging as many people as possible to attend the pep rally Friday afternoon at 2:15 in the high school auditorium.

In the past the caravans to Plainview and Dimmitt were termed successful by booster club members with more than 70 automobiles in each caravan, but it is expected that the interest will cause more persons to travel to Tulia.

FOR WEST TEXAS STATE

Top Offensive Play Gets Good Season

It took the best offensive showing since the third game of 1963, but the West Texas State Buffaloes are assured of their first winning season since 1962 after a 26-14 win over Drake in last Saturday's home finale.

THE BUFFS, now 4-2 with two games to play, rolled up 435 yards in total offense against the Bulldogs, 260 of which came on the ground. Don "Preacher" Dennis had nearly half of that total with 132 yards in 17 trips for a 7.77 average.

Dennis was easily the outstanding back in the game. The Dallas Lincoln grad scored twice on a 34-yard run and a 69-yard kickoff return. He returned one other kickoff for 26 yards, brought three punts back 33 yards, caught two passes for 33 yards, one of which ate up more than half the distance in the winning drive and blocked well for others. In all, he handled the ball 24 times and gained 331 yards.

Obviously, the offensive line played one of its better games led by giant George Allen, 250-pounder from Longview.

THIS WEEK, the Buffaloes travel to Beaumont for the first meeting ever with Lamar Tech. The Cardinals own a 5-3 record for the season, but lead the southland Conference with a perfect 3-0 mark and are assured of a least a tie for the crown.

Offensive leader for Tech is quarterback Phillip Primm, a former teammate of WTSU's Rick Barrett at Pasadena High. With Primm doing the quarterbacking, the Cardinals have averaged 22.5 points per game. Without the junior signal caller, their average is just six. He's missed two games and returned to the lineup only last week.

Vernon MacMann, the linebacker, and Jake David, safety, are rated among the best in the state at their positions. MacMann has been averaging 20 stops per game and David has picked off six enemy serials.

A GLANCE at comparative scores shows the game to be a tossup. Each lost to New Mexico State, Tech by 21-20 and the Buffs by 19-3. Each beat Trinity. WTSU made it 24-4 and Lamar Tech recorded a 21-3 win over the Tigers last weekend. So you pay your money and take your chances. The Buffs have lost two defensive starters since the Trinity fracas so Lamar Tech could be rated a slight favorite because of the home field advantage.

The only sure thing is that both teams will throw the football. The Buffaloes have put 22 in the air 214 times in eight games while the Cardinals have averaged 15 attempts.

TAKES THIRD PLACE

One Local Places In Brand Football Contest

Only one local placed in the Hereford Brand Football Contest this week winning third place.

Bob Adams won the third place position guessing 17 correctly and was 68 points off in the tie breaker.

ROY GOSNELL of Amarillo took first place correctly marking 17 winners and was 55 points off in the tie breaker.

Bill Bennett of Dimmitt was second also guessing 17 and was off 67 in the tie breaker.

The lopsided victories of Hereford and Texas Tech caused the three winners to be so far off in the tie breakers.

Hereford defeated the Mules 44-20 and Tech downed New Mexico State 48-9 in last week's action.

THIS WAS the first week in three that upsets on the gridiron didn't cause many of the entrants to have unusually low scores.

None of the three winners this week had been previous winners in the contest this year.

Zula Arney took the lead for the Cotton Bowl tickets guessing 17 correctly during the contest.

NONE OF THE four have ever had exceptionally high scores, but they have had consistently good weeks at guessing.

Following is a listing of entrants:

Dogies ...

Pittman both scored once in the game and Robert Holmes was responsible for one of the successful conversion runs. Canyon managed to score again in the last few minutes of the game. THIS was the second loss for the seventh grade Dogies-to the Canyon Eagles. The Eagles scored in every quarter and kept the seventh grade defense baffled. Coach Privett said he was well pleased with the effort of the eight grade team and said he was "not satisfied" with the show of the seventh grade.

Haney ...

Haney did well there and also showed possibilities of playing defensive end. BUT, especially with Gill sidelined, Tech's coaches are glad they groomed him for line-backing duties. Haney is majoring in accounting, and if he keeps piling up tackles Tech may have to hire an accountant to keep up with his defensive statistics. So far he has amassed a total of 94 tackles. That puts him behind only Gill, who has 94; John Carrell, who has 73; and guard James Henkel, with 62. Gill and Carrell are seniors and Henkel is a junior starting for the second year. "Wait until next year" is both a threat and a promise in the case of Haney, who's having quite a 1965.

Mr. and Mrs. David Carl Sundahl are at home in Colorado Springs, Colo. after a trip which followed their October marriage in First Lutheran Church there. The bride was Miss Diane Yeates, a former Hereford resident and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Yeates of Hillsdale, Okla.

the bride's father gave her in marriage.

Her empire gown was of silk peau de soie with lace appliques and a Watteau train attached at the waistline with a pearlized cabbage rose. Her attendants wore floor length dresses with floating back panels, of crepe in two shades of green. Their headpieces were Dior bows and they carried cascades of Cymbidium orchids with ivy.

Mr. and Mrs. Yeates were reception hosts in the parish house. Assisting were Mrs. McCauley, Miss Nell Spradley, Mrs. Clyde Cave and Mrs. Doc Carter of Hereford.

Others from Hereford who were wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Crump, Mr. and Mrs. Carl McCaslin, Vance Robinson and Doc Carter. On a visit here shortly before her marriage, Miss Yeates was complimented with a party at the Country Club.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN Women's Editor

Bare branches are showing more and more through the yellowing leaves, but the cottonwoods along Tierra Blanca Creek are still putting on a good show. And anyone who has a pear tree in his yard is probably deciding that its red leaves now are really more beautiful than its blooms last spring, although he may change his mind next spring.

It can't be long before a freeze, but meantime the rose bushes around town are trying to out-bloom the chrysanthemums, and a few other summer flowers are stretching the season.

Some yards-full of color are at 500 Park Ave., where mums have been blooming for weeks; just across the creek on South Main, where a terraced yard is banked with more mums in fuschia and yellow; and at the left as you drive past Westhaven on Centre, a delightful mixture of flower varieties.

FOR A FEW days the presence of so many birds hopping about on my street, North Lee, was puzzling; then I figured that grain must have dropped from trucks passing that route, and lodged in crevices of the pavement.

It seems to be a free feast for hundreds of sparrows, which flutter out of the way as a car passes and then return to peck about the street again. In one block, near the Presbyterian Church, a flock of pigeons works alongside the sparrows.

They have not announced rules barring up and pop artists; that ilk would simply have to apply and take their chances.

ALMOST anything tastes good to a hungry bunch at a newspaper office, but some pumpkin cake baked by staffer David Butler's wife, Pat, was sampled recently with special gusto. Because it is so appropriate to this season we asked her for the recipe.

It has a distinctive pumpkin flavor with a spicy tang and is a nice change from the pumpkin pie which appears so frequently at Thanksgiving time. Pat says her mother-in-law supplied the recipe for the unusual cake, and here it is:

- PUMPKIN CAKE
1 1/2 sticks margarine
2 cups sugar
3 eggs
1 can pumpkin
Dash of salt
2 tsp. pumpkin pie spice or mix to your own taste)
1/4 tsp soda
1/4 tsp baking powder
1 tsp. vanilla
3 cups flour
Cream margarine and sugar, eggs and beat well, then add pumpkin. Sift all dry ingredients together, stir them in and add

Thanksgiving dinner will be served by women of Messenger Home Demonstration Club, with their families as guests, on Nov. 12 at Walcott School, they decided at a meeting Monday in the home of Mrs. S. N. Thweatt. Mrs. N. A. Brown presided for the business discussion.

Also in the Thanksgiving theme, a game of scrambled words was won by Mrs. Bill Page, a club guest. The floating prize went to Miss Barbara Brown. Mmes. Eldred Brown and R. V. Tackitt were other special guests.

The program was presented by Mrs. Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent, who gave rules for making candy and demonstrated the confection called Texas millionaires. She said that use of a small amount of an acid will prevent graining in candies.

Other members present were Mmes. John Jones, G. E. Pinkerton, Elmer Northcutt and J. E. Sorrells.
