

By MELVIN YOUNG
Politics, it seems, is in the air... even before Christmas. Congressman Jim Wright of Ft. Worth, will go before the television cameras tonight for a statewide broadcast which most observers feel will be to enter the race for the Democratic nomination in the 1966 senatorial election.

Attorney General Waggoner Carr has already announced for the spot, which should give us a pretty interesting battle in the primary.

It is generally conceded that incumbent Senator John Tower will fill the spot for the Republicans.

On the local scene, four incumbents have announced for reelection and one newcomer to the political field has entered the race for county judge.

L. B. Russell, long time resident of this county and former school principal has announced for the judgeship, a position that his father held many years ago.

Announcing for reelection to this office will be County Judge H. C. (Hank) Williams, who has served one full term and a portion of another. Williams was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Don Zimmerman, and then won reelection for one full term.

Also announcing for reelection is County Clerk B. F. Cain, and Commissioners Marcus Latham and Donald Hicks.

To date, the above three do not have opponents. Deadline for filing in the Demo primary is February 7.

And speaking of deadlines, you'd better get your contribution to 'Project Christmas Card' in soon. Deadline for this is Saturday, December 18, according to Mrs. Joe Whitley, president of the local Medical Auxiliary.

Anyone wishing to contribute should leave their gift at either the First National or Hereford State Banks, or give it to any member of the Medical Auxiliary.

The advertisement listing all the names of donors will be included in the Thursday, December 23 edition of the Hereford Brand.

The folks at Cyanamid Farm Supply will be holding open house this Saturday. Everyone interested is invited to attend. This business, which has been in Hereford slightly over one year, is located just east of Hereford Grain Corp.

Into the world of modern technology have come the "Squeak-Rattle and Leak Man," the "Kiss Setter," and the "Mud Man."

To explain what these and 36,000 other job titles mean, the Department of Labor has issued a new "Dictionary of Occupational Titles," no rival to "Gone with the Wind," to be sure, but a best seller in books of this nature.

It contains 6,000 job titles not listed in previous editions, most of them in the aircraft and guided missile industries, electronics, and atomic energy.

The two-volume dictionary lists and describes what a worker does in each job, how he does it, and the level of skill required to perform the job efficiently. Most of the 6,000 new occupations have titles of technical jargon such as "Nuclear Medical Technician," "Gamma Facilities Operator," "Radiation Monitor," and "Assembler-Rocket Engine."

Then there are the picturesque, like that "Squeak-Rattle and Leak Man." What does he do? He is an auto mechanic specializing in test runs. The "Kiss Setter" merely shapes candy kisses by hand and the "Mud Man" reclaims rubber particles from sludge in the rubber industry. The dictionary contains 23,000 occupational categories and will be used nationwide in the 1,900 State Employment Service offices to plan training projects under the Manpower Development and Training Act and in the job placement process for matching workers and jobs.

The current edition of this book we understand, as 15 years in the making. We'd bet it has some interesting titles, and some interesting information, however useless.

Only eight shopping days until Christmas. This being the case, it seems that we should get started with our own Christmas shopping. But then, it's never too late until the stores close Christmas Eve.

And according to Philnews, a person who brings you into contact with the spirit world is known as a "bartender."

Firemen Answer 18 Fire Calls

Hereford Volunteer Firemen answered 18 alarms during the month of November, their monthly report presented Monday. The county commission said.

Ten of the calls were to property within the city, six were in rural areas in the county, and two were out-of-county runs. The city of Hereford and Deaf Smith County pay fire department costs prorated on the number of calls within the environs of each.

Calls were to Summerfield on Nov. 1, nine miles northwest of town on Nov. 3; Deep Rock Service Station, 401 Blevins, and two miles west of Summerfield on Nov. 9; 235 Ave. B, Nov. 12; Mothers' Park and to a car fire eight miles east on U. S. 60, Nov. 13; Sugarland Mall and six miles west of town, Nov. 15; Milburn Motor Co., Nov. 17; grass fire a mile east of Hereford, Nov. 18; East Highway 60 Shamrock, Nov. 19; 145 Sunset, Nov. 20; six miles northwest and South Main, Nov. 21; Mother's Park, Nov. 24; and Holiday Motor Inn, Nov. 30.

ONE MINUTE, PLEASE

"Blessed are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth," Matt. 5:5.

This third beatitude gives hope to the meek. Do not confuse the meek with the timid spineless individual. The meek are those people who have a submissive spirit to the proper authority, who are interested in doing the Lord's will, not their own. They are not the rebellious, arrogant, wild ones.

Meekness is associated with lowliness, a quiet spirit, gentleness. A spirited horse running wild across the prairie is not meek. But when that same horse has been broken to ride, and obeys the gentle rein of his rider, he has become meek.

Jesus described himself as "meek and lowly" (Matt. 11:29). He came, not to do His own will, but the will of the Father. "Though He was a Son, yet learned He obedience by the things which He suffered;" (Heb. 5:8).

Those of us who cease to be wild and rebellious and "obey from the heart" the teachings of our heavenly Father, are the meek who shall inherit the earth.

By TOM WINGO
Staff Writer

An estimated 250 Lions and their guests met Saturday night to watch as Roy Botkin, Easter Lions Club President, accepted the charter for the Easter Club from District Governor J. W. Robinson.

The charter recognized the Easter Lions Club as one of the many clubs around the world in a group of men that are not only interested in the betterment of their community, but their country and nation as a whole.

THE CLUB has grown from two men getting together in September to a group of 61 members at the time of the charters banquet.

Fourth-one men were named as charter members of the newly-organized club sponsored by the Hereford Lions Club.

Guest speaker for the event was Tom Kirkham, state Lions secretary, from Austin.

Kirkham told of a project held in his hometown by the Lions Club that now only helped a small crippled child, to walk on the bottom of her feet, but later in life be able to enter a beauty contest.

"AT HER coming out party," Kirkham continued, "The small three-year-old girl walked down the long row of tables, and at the end, stopped, turned and spoke the words, 'Thank you,' which touched the hearts of all attending."

"Thank-you," Kirkham added soon became the most valued words in the Lions Club in that small Oklahoma town.

"FOR a person to smile, and tell some one thank you, is the richest blessing that a man or woman can receive, whether it comes from the timid mouth of a young three-year-old, or an aging senior citizen, or just a person walking down the street," Kirkham concluded.

Visiting Lions from area towns came with various gifts that will be used by the new club.

Officers for the Easter Lions were introduced along with the entire membership and guests by Don Zimmerman, Pat District Governor.

BAR STOOL BLISS
HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Charles Turnbull and Marian Bolton picked a tavern for their wedding because "it was very appropriate to our good times together here." On top of that, no one had to go very far when it was announced that drinks were on the house after the "I do's" were exchanged.

Hereford High-Jinks

Brrr! Winter has finally arrived in Hereford. It took its time getting here, but is fast making up for it. The time to pull out those heavy coats is now.

The Hereford Ag. (or should I say F. F. A.?) was in Huntsville last weekend competing in the State contests. Out of some 900 teams we placed second in the state. That's really something to be proud of. Congratulations to you, fellas.

Thursday night the F. F. A. boys and their sweetheart, Carmen Betzen, will be in Berger for a banquet. That's pretty bad, one girl for all of those boys.

TUESDAY night, December 21 at 7:30 the "Messiah" will be presented by the Hereford High school A Capella and Freshman Chorus accompanied by an orchestra featuring local and guest talent. Also in the program will be the selected Girl's Chorus presenting the "Ceremony of Carols". This will be a highlight to the Christmas season so don't miss it. Tickets are $1 per person.

Parties are getting into full swing now that Christmas is approaching. For awhile it seemed that everyone was at a stand still, but the mood for partying is settling over the members of H. H. S.

CONGRATULATIONS are extended to Connie Watson and the Senior class of 1966. Connie was crowned Annual Queen at Stunt Night last Saturday. All of the classes and organizations put out a lot of hard work but the Seniors were able to pull into the top position. Keep up the good work, Seniors!

This is the month for Koo-braey Assembly. Rumor has it that it will probably be next Wednesday. For any Freshmen who might not understand, Koo-braey is yearbook spelled backwards and this is the assembly when yearbook awards will be given.

THIS WEEKEND is Hereford's turn to host a basketball tournament. The Hereford Double-Header will give us a chance to show visitors the good sportsmanship and welcome that I understand has been so evidently extended to us. So back the team and give any visitors, friend or foe, a warm greeting this week-end.

Well, Santa made it to Hereford Tuesday night. I thought I saw one or two students from high school whispering in his ear. The combined choirs from H. H. S. sang before his arrival, in spite of cold and predicted snow. The Christmas spirit was really in the air, Tuesday evening.

The Key Club put up and decorated a tree in the first floor hall at H. H. S. Along with decorations in the exhibit windows, the office, and the library even school is looking a little merrier. Don't forget to get your letters in to Santa.

The test of a man or woman's breeding is how they behave in a quarrel.

YEARBOOK QUEEN—Miss Connie Watson was crowned Yearbook Queen in ceremonies that followed a wide variety of stunts presented by various school organizations at the annual high school Stunt Night Saturday. The Key Club won first place in the stunt contest for its performance of "Ugliest Man in Key Club". Greg Banner served as escort for the new queen. (Staff Photo by Tyler Vance)

High Schoolers Learn Home Nurse Technique

STORY AND PHOTOS
By SUE COLEMAN
Boys in Hereford High School may be rough on the athletic field but they are gentle in bathing a baby, in a Red Cross unit on baby care which is part of a course for senior boys in third-year homemaking.

Girls from second year homemaking classes are completing a related unit on care of the sick and injured. Both are standard Red Cross courses. THE BOYS will be presented certificates Friday by Donald Zimmerman, board member of the Deaf Smith County Red Cross Chapter, in a program which is part of a homemaking department open house for mothers of students.

TEMPERATURE NORMAL?—Girls in a standard Red Cross home nursing course on care of the sick and injured, a part of their homemaking study in Hereford High School, learn to take temperatures and read thermometers. Glynda Landers, seated left, is sterilizing her thermometer as Rita Anderson prepares to slip hers under her tongue according to instructions from the teacher, Mrs. Margaret Ann Durham, and Janis Elliott, standing, is checking a temperature reading.

Mrs. Ester Springer, school nurse, is instructor for the course on mother and baby care for the boys. She will be teacher of the same course, to be conducted for adults and open to all interested county residents next month.

Instructor of the the three girls' classes in home nursing is Mrs. Margaret Ann Durham, high school homemaking teacher.

THE HOMEMAKING class for boys, now in its sixth year here, includes training in some basics of foods and nutrition, simple meal preparation and meat cookery; sewing, use and adjustment of a sewing machine, making chefs' aprons; manners and grooming, meal service, care of clothing, ironing and folding shirts; household economics, money management, budgeting and insurance.

In addition, there is study of personal development and adjustment, and preparation for family life, which includes the Red Cross course. A field trip is made to the hospital, and in one session a panel including a lawyer, doctor, minister and parents answers questions which the students have submitted.

VARIOUS classes in the high school homemaking department will have a part in entertaining mothers of students who are invited to visit Friday.

Foods classes are preparing refreshments; first year students are in charge of decorating tables and girls in clothing classes will show garments they have made.

BATHS WITHOUT TEARS—The babies who give practice to a group of senior boys at Hereford High School, who are completing a Red Cross course in mother and child care, add nothing to the problems of the bath hour by kicking and crying. They are life-size dolls, and cooperate beautifully as the boys learn proper technique of bathing and dressing infants, Thomas Adams, left, is inserting a safety pin expertly as Junior Hodges holds the talcum can, while Robert Galley and Paul Arnpriester etam up to hold the model child upright in the tub and wash his face.

IN BLUEBONNET

Nazarene Church Has New Building

Members of the Hereford Church of the Nazarene will hold services Sunday morning for the first time in their newly constructed $55,000 physical plant.

The new building includes a sanctuary and educational building.

Sunday will mark the first service in the new building for the some 20 members, with dedication services to be held next spring when the landscaping is complete.

THE CHURCH was first established in 1945 by the Rev. Pat Patterson who was also instrumental in constructing the first church for the group.

From the first building the members then moved to their present building at 4th and Jackson where they worshiped until the building at 18th and Blackfoot in the Bluebonnet Addition was finished early this week.

Class Feted At Holiday Dinner

Dinner was served to members of the King's Daughters Class of First Baptist Sunday School in First National Community Room Monday evening, from tables decorated with greenery and candles in Christmas motif.

Contributions were made to a class Christmas project, assistance to a missionary near Manila in the Philippines where the Rev. B. L. Davis, First Baptist pastor, visited on an evangelistic trip to the Orient.

Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr., a guest presented the devotional message titled The Home discussing the relation of parents and children as exemplified in the Old Testament story of Isaac and Rebekah.

Mrs. Dillie Kelly, class president, and Mrs. Erica Durham decorated the room and tables for the Christmas party.

The sanctuary will seat 120 persons with overflow sections and adult classrooms which will seat an additional 40 persons.

EDUCATIONAL facilities include a pastor's study, other church offices, kitchen area, nursery, rest room facilities and classrooms for children and youth.

Sanctuary fixtures include pews with maroon padding and maroon carpet. Walls in the sanctuary are paneled with ash wood which is finished to match the pews.

Laminated arches grace the lines of the ceiling of the church. The front of the sanctuary is also graced by a laminated wood en cross which is lighted by indirect lighting.

A new piano will furnish music for the congregation to sing, with long range plans including an organ for the building.

Rev. K. Dwight Southworth said long-range plans include a new building which will be constructed next to the present educational building and the third future step will be another educational unit which will be in an "L" shape just west of the newer sanctuary.

Members of the building committee are Melvin Jayroe, Virgie Slentz, Gene Houghtling, Vivian Houghtling and Donald Douglas.

IN HOLIDAY TRAFFIC

Predict 110 Deaths

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, — About 110 persons will be killed in Texas traffic accidents during the 10-day Christmas-New Year holiday. That's the prediction of Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

In addition, the DPS chief says statistics indicate there will be 43 homicides and suicides. Also 42 deaths from accidents other than traffic. This means a total violent death toll of 195 if Garrison's predictions come true.

HE APPEALED again to drivers to make an all-out effort to reduce the traffic toll by observing traffic laws and rules of safety.

Every available highway patrolman will be on duty throughout the holiday period, Garrison said. Several other organizations and state agencies are cooperating to focus attention on the need for safe-driving practices. The annual Operation Deathwatch will begin at 12:01 a. m. Dec. 24, and will continue through 11:59 p. m. Jan. 2, to remind motorists of the dangers of holiday travel.

HIGHWAY BUILDING SOARS
Texas Highway Department expects to close out the year with total construction running more than $329,000,000. It's the second highest year for road building in Texas' history. Last year's expenditure for highways was more than $340,000,000 — a record.

At contract lettings last week the State Highway Commission tabulated low bids of $23,300,000 on 38 projects. About $4,100,000 will go to develop or improve 125 Farm-to-Market roads.

INCLUDED were the following:

Construction of a west frontage road on Interstate 35 from Laredo to near U. S. Highway 83 in Webb County, with an estimated cost of $1,070,000.

Surfacing on a 19-mile section of Interstate 20 near Monahans in Ward County at an estimated $962,000 cost.

Construction of a street type section of Farm-to-Market Road 105 in Vidor in Orange County, including grading, structures and surfacing.

Grading, structures and surfacing, estimated at 1,600,000 aimed at making a complete expressway facility of a 1.6 mile section of Interstate 35 near Elm Mott in McLennan County.

An estimated $120,000 will go for embankments along U. S. Highway 59 in Fort Bend County near Sharpstown.

Commission heard a variety of new project proposals including a Padre Island road and causeway from Port Mansfield; ramps and overpasses on U. S. Highway 75 to aid industrial development in the Sherman area; construction of U. S. 59 through Montgomery County, a multi-lane divided U. S. 87 from San Antonio's east city limits to the Wilson County line; and expansion of highway routes in Del Rio.

BOARD ACCEPTS

PAYMENT
State Veterans Land Board accepted overdue payment of $11,490 from Irving millionaire C. D. Wyche on his land purchase of 1,109 acres in Dimmitt County and gave him 30 days to settle back taxes.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler said Wyche now has paid $37,000 on his $191,000 purchase. Sadler says the state will get all its money from the tract which once was involved in the veterans land scandals of a decade ago.

NEW RULES PROPOSED
Strong objectives to new rules proposed by the State Board of Insurance have come under a lot of fire by representatives of burial associations and other mutual associations.

Rules would require deficiency funds — those showing the gap between actual reserves to pay claims and the total amount of possible claims — to be inked down in bookkeeping.

Purpose is to find out what type of insurance has more policies out than there are dollars to pay, should these policies all come due.

APPOINTMENTS
Gov. John Connally has made four appointments to the State Advisory Hospital Council. IT assists the State Health Department in administering the Hill-Burton hospital construction aid program.

Named were Joe Albritton of Houston, Ray Hurst of Austin, Frank Oltorf of Marlin, and Sister Elizabeth of Dallas. Hurst is a reappointment.

Hill Baggett of Lubbock was sworn in as a member of the Board for Lease of State Parks Land following his appointment by Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr.

LEASES TOTAL MILLIONS
Board of Lease for University lands leased 45,471 acres for $8,500,000 or an average of $188 per acre. This was the most profitable oil-and-gas-lease sale by the agency in years.

Humble Oil Company bid $2,800,000 on a drilling block in Ward County. There a single tract brought $338,000 and another $336,000.

These receipts boosted the University permanent fund to over $459,271,680. Of this sum $35,700,000 was added in 1965. Next lease sale is set for June 23, 1966, in Austin.

COURTS SPEAK
State Supreme Court gave the City of San Antonio another chance to argue its case for water from Canyon Dam. This dam is located on the Guadalupe River near Braunfels.

Court granted application for writ of error sought by the city in its longstanding fight with the Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority over Canyon waters. Hearing was set for February 23.

San Antonio is challenging the Old Texas Water Commission's order which awarded the river authority 50,000-acre-feet of water per year from the reservoir. San Antonio challenges the lower court rulings that the Commission is authorized to allow G-BRA to make releases to cities downstream on the Guadalupe.

High court, in ruling on a case on vending machines at Fort Hood near Killeen, said the state cannot tax property on military reservations ceded to the federal government.

Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the death penalty assessed Calvin Sellars in the torture robbery of Mr. and Mrs. Mair J. Schepps, wealthy Houstonites.

ELEVEN NEW SENATORS
It looks like Texas is going to have at least 11 new Senators after 1966 elections, and the redistricting of the state into 31 new districts.

Ambition for higher office, as well as redistricting, will contribute to the turnover, but the redistricting will account for most of it.

The new districts will pit some of the giants of the Senate against each other, as the once separate districts now are fused into one, and the Senators of the old districts must compete against one another under the new plan.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

In three separate opinions, Attorney General Carr interpreted provisions of the controversial new Code of Criminal Procedure which becomes effective January 1.

Carr held that:

1) A prisoner arrested at night does not have to be taken before a magistrate until regular daylight office hours.

2) Examining trials must be made a matter of record, but the record can be prepared by a magistrate or anyone the magistrate appoints for the purpose.

3) AFTER January 1, State Mental Hospital heads cannot furlough, transfer or discharge patients committed on jury finding of insanity. When hospital chief finds a patient sane, he must thereafter notify the court which ordered commitment and await jury determination.

Carr, in answering a question raised by Comptroller Robert S. Calvert, concluded that the State Parks and Wildlife Commission can buy and fly a new $72,700 twin-engine aircraft for official use.

He also ruled that an election judge who delivers returns to authorities within 24 hours after polls close is entitled to a $5 fee.

Also that probation cannot be granted in drivers-license suspensions.

INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION PICKED

Governor Connally designated the Texas Industrial Commission as state coordinator for the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965.

Act authorizes $500,000 in funds nationwide for encouraging public works, industrial and commercial expansion, and technical assistance and research, mainly for distressed areas.

Commission will advise the regional office of EDA whether fund requests fit reasonably into the overall economic development plans for the state.

HBA PROJECT APPROVED
Texas Highway Commission has approved the first landscape planting project under the Highway Beautification Act.

It will be on Interstate 45 adjacent to the downtown business district of Houston. The 5.6 mile section will extend from Houston's Airline Drive to West Dallas Avenue, including North Loop Interchange.

Project will cost about $90,000, and is to be financed under the 1967 Highway Beautification Program.

DRAFT SLIGHTLY DOWN
Col. Morris S. Schwartz, Selective Service director for Texas, says a total of 1,475 men are to be drafted into the armed forces in January. Draft will include single and childless married men ages 19-25.

December's call was for 1,523 men and November's 1,456. According to Schwartz, no married man with children is in danger during the January call.

A total of 9,575 men will be called for the draft physical and mental exam.

SHORT SNORTS

Twenty-five cities are moving to set up community mental health and retardation centers under a $1,350,000 program authorized by the Legislature.

A group of businessmen at Aldine, in Harris County, is applying for a state bank charter.

State Department of Public Safety now has a "pop-up" radar antenna, buried 23 feet underground to resist nuclear blast, yet capable of forcing its way through debris to the height of a 10-story building.

City of Kountze received the first check from the Texas Aeronautics Commission under the airport program. It was $5,340 installment on a $7,500 grant.

Ogden Phipps' Buckpasser, crack 2-year-old colt, was meant to be a champion thoroughbred. He is the son of Tom Fool and his dam, Busanda, defeated males in the 1951 Suburban Handicap.

Advent Wreath Story Told For Veleda Club

Symbolism of the Advent wreath, a Christmastime custom in many homes as well as in churches, was explained to Veleda Club members at their December meeting Tuesday evening. Mrs. George Ritter was hostess in her home.

Mrs. Glenn Watts was the speaker. Each member showed a favorite Christmas decoration from her home in response to roll call. Mrs. Watts told the meaning of candles burned on the wreath to foretell coming of the Christ child.

Gifts to be sent to children in the state school for mentally retarded at Abilene were brought to the meeting, and members have also contributed books of trading stamps to purchase a bicycle for the school.

Mrs. J. R. Oglesby presided

World-Wide Christmas Is Subject

How We Keep Christmas was the subject of a talk by Mrs. Jim Bookout at the meeting of Lone Star Study Club Tuesday in the home of Mrs. S. A. McCathern. Social committee members, Meses. Ray Suits, Jim Higgins and V. E. Dodson, were hostesses.

Mrs. Bookout spoke of Christmas customs in various countries and was assisted by a guest, Mrs. Joe Hamilton, who sang Christmas songs from several periods in history. She sang a group of carols, inviting club members to join her in those familiar to them.

The Christmas message of beauty, gaiety and love was stressed by Mrs. Bookout, who said that this is "a time to dwell on the great mystery of God's gift."

A box of gifts for a needy family here was planned, and the club will also present a Christmas gift to Teresita Parba, exchange student here from the Philippines.

Other members present were Meses. H. E. Henslee, John Jacobsen Jr., C. D. Kelton, Vivian Major, C. O. Phillips, S. S. Williams, Baker Womble, Hardy Benson, Melvin Cordray, R. G. Blue, Olan Caviness, Floyd Dunavant, Thelma Chisum, J. J. Durham and Mildred Elliott.

Mon Amis Party Given For Guests

A supper for members and their husbands was the Christmas party of Mon Amis Club. Meses. David Hutchins, Jerry Terrell and Jack White were hostesses in the Community Room of First National Bank Tuesday.

A gift exchange was held, then games of progressive 42 occupied the evening. In a brief business discussion, members planned to serve dinner at a farm sale in January, to raise funds for a club project.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Christie were guests. Members and their husbands present were Meses. Bill Cotton, Kenneth Christie, Roy Botkins, Billy Bell, Billy Baker, D. L. Thomason, Raymond Wiley, Cliff Almon, Terrell and Hutchins.

Man Injured In Wednesday Night Wreck

A Hereford man, identified as Pete Encinias, was injured in a mishap a mile west of Hereford on U. S. Hwy. 60 about 8:45 p.m. Wednesday when the pickup he was driving went out of control and overturned.

A report of the accident said the pickup went out of control while attempting to pass a car, slid into a ditch, overturned, and pinned the driver underneath.

He was not believed to be in serious condition, according to first reports at the hospital, where he was expected to remain last night.

ASSIGNED FOR STUDY. Maj. Lloyd Howton Manjeot, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Manjeot, 111 Westhaven, has recently been assigned to a special study in directorate of the logistics division, U. S. Army, at Ft. Belvoir, Va. The Hereford officer returned to the United States earlier this year after serving a year as supply officer for an Army group in Viet Nam. His family is living at Ft. Lee, Va.

for business. The club has accepted the responsibility of acting as chairman for the annual funds campaign of the American Cancer Society here next April.

Refreshments in holiday colors were served to Meses. Don Baugous, L. J. Clark, Charles Hoover, Billy Wayne Sisson, Robert Willmot, Watts and Oglesby.

Capitol Library Big Attraction In Washington

The Library of Congress has in effect become the national library for the United States, although its first responsibility still remains service to Congress.

Established in 1800 with an appropriation of $5,000 "for the purchase of such books as may be necessary for the use of Congress," the Library's range of service has steadily enlarged to include not only the House and Senate but also the entire Government and the public at large.

THE LIBRARY is one of the main tourist attractions on Capitol Hill. It's a world-famous gathering place for U. S. and foreign scholars who come to Washington to make use of the Library's collection of more than 43 million items, including the most comprehensive collections of Chinese, Japanese, and Russian books outside the Orient and the Soviet Union.

Recently the main reading room in the Library's main building was reopened after having been closed for more than a year for extensive renovation. Among other projects, the walls, domed ceiling, and fixtures in the huge room were cleaned, and sooty, time-darkened sculpture was restored to its original luster.

THE BRANCH of the Library of Congress providing principal assistance to Members of Congress is the "Legislative Reference Service," which provides not only information gathered from the Library's collection of materials but also takes a very active role in providing staff assistance in the legislative process.

Members of the House and Senate turn to the "LRS" for preparation of background reports on public and legislative issues; for pro and con analyses of bills; for surveys of court decisions; for spot factual information; for histories of legislation indicating the original intent of Congress; for tabulation of statistics; for assistance in answering inquiries from constituents; and for a variety of other services.

It is possible that expansion of professional services to Congress — a goal of some Congressional critics — will come through expansion of the Legislative Reference Service. As an example of the type of broadened responsibility undertaken by the LRS (with prior Congressional approval), a "Science Policy Research Division" was established in 1964 to bolster the scientific staffing of House and Senate committees.

AMONG reasons for forming the unit was growing concern in Congress over the $15 billion being spent annually by government departments for research and development activities, which continue to spiral upward, and the need for improved information to permit Congress to monitor the activities of no less than 42 agencies engaged in technical activities.

Another problem with which the new unit is dealing concerns overlapping activities by government agencies in such fields as water resources development. The new service, it is hoped, will help give Congress greater strength in dealing with scientific and technical experts from the Executive Branch who testify before Congress in behalf of appropriations for programs.

IT IS difficult to believe, because it has come to pass in a relatively short time, but two out of three professional employees of the Executive Branch are scientists, engineers, or physicians.

As was pointed out in a recent television documentary, Congress too often must rely upon the testimony of witnesses who speak in behalf of Executive programs and activities in which they are employed. It is too much to expect that these people be completely objective.

ON 1966 FEED GRAIN PROGRAM

Grain Sorghum Producers President Chalanges USDA

The widely circulated views of Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman that the 1966 Feed Grain Program Provisions as announced by USDA recently "maintain farm income of participants," was, challenged this week by Elbert Harp, Hale County Texas farmer and President of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association. The Association, headquartered in Amarillo, nationally represents, next to corn, the principal feed grain affected by the program. In a prepared statement Harp said:

"This past Congress, with urging from grain sorghum and other feed grain producers, in the Food and Agriculture Act of 1965, included a Feed Grain Section designed to continue provisions of the emergency Feed Grain Program which had been effective in improving farm income since 1961."

"DUE TO rapid changing world situations which could affect the need for grains, Congress gave wide authority for administering the Program to the Secretary of Agriculture as long as it met several stated objectives, one of which was 'to maintain farm income.'"

Since U. S. D. A. announced the Feed Grain Program Provisions November 19, and as detailed instructions have been received by local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees, GSPA staff and officers have studied and evaluated them as to possible effects on grain sorghum.

AT NO level of minimum or maximum participation in the Program or even non-participation, figured by GSPA, will 1966 farm income of the grain sorghum producer be up to the level received in 1965.

Initial figures indicate that the typical sorghum producer in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska faces an average loss in total gross income of about $3.00 per base acre. Some farmers with high "proven yields" may lose up to $10.00 per acre as may non-participants in the program in such areas as those with new irrigation with no allotted feed grain base, if the market price of grain follows the downward trend set by the government loan rate.

Officers of the GSPA have appointments today and throughout the entire week in Washington with USDA officials and leaders of the three major National general farm organizations there, in an attempt to alleviate the specific problems of grain sorghum producers' income.

Corn producers, though in the same program, apparently are not so adversely affected principally due to a 24 per cent increase in 1966 'projected yield' over the old 'Normal yield' used in 1965 as compared to a 14 per cent yield increase 'projected' for grain sorghum.

Briscoe County farmer and GSPA Vice President, Pat Northcutt of Silverton and Association Agricultural Economist and Executive Vice President, Bill Nelson of Amarillo are representing the Association in Washington with strong support from the local sorghum producers in the states mentioned and where GSPA is organized.

AT THIS point, our problem is one of 'Administrative Decision'. We hope we can solve it in USDA. If not, however, efforts are already being made and ground work laid to seed a solution 'Legislatively' even for the 1966 crop as soon as the new Congress convenes."

The Feed Grain Program to which Harp refers continues the principles of past programs of providing farmers, who agree to idle 20% to 50% of their grain sorghum acres, with a system of diversion payments, price support loans and price support payments. In 1966 producers will receive no diversion payments on the first 20% diversion and a maximum of price support payments on only 50% of the base acres.

THE PRICE support loan has been lowered by Freeman, from a $1.65 per hundred on sorghum in 1965 to a $1.52 in 1966. The price support payment has been increased from 35 cents per hundred on sorghum to 53 cents. The combination of these changes resulted in the expected net income loss to producers, according to Harp.

Even while taking issue with the administration of the feed grain program, Harp and GSPA hasten to remind producers that organized efforts by farmers have been effective, for before the present Feed Grain Program in 1960, grain sorghum price support loan was then too down to the current $1.52 national average level — except then there was no direct price support payment of 53 cents per hundred as in 1966.

Deadline Nears For Export Cotton Acreage

Frank J. Bezner, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said today that producers who want to participate in the export market acreage part of the 1966 upland cotton program may apply for a share of the export market acreage reserve any time through Jan. 3, 1966.

A national reserve of 250,000 acres was established for 1966-crop upland cotton. A farmer is eligible to apply for a share of the reserve if he is operating the same farm in 1966 as in 1965 and if his farm had a 1965 cotton allotment.

By requesting and receiving a share of the export market acreage reserve, a producer may plant more than his allotment without being subject to marketing quota penalties.

ALL OF the farms cotton production, however, is required to be exported, and no price support will be available for cotton produced on that farm or on any other farm in which the operator with export market reserve acreage has a substantial or controlling interest, as determined by the Secretary.

The Chairman explains that, if applications for export acreage exceed the 250,000-acre export market reserve for 1966, the acreage will be prorated on a national basis to the growers who have applied. After export acreage has been allotted to growers, they may reject the acreage within a 15-day period by reporting their decision to the ASCS county office.

Growers who apply for and receive a part of the national cotton export market acreage reserve will have a total cotton acreage for their farm consisting of the farm's effective farm allotment plus the export market acreage.

EXCEEDING the farm's total cotton acreage would make the producer subject to a marketing quota penalty on the cotton produced on the acreage in excess of the effective farm allotment.

Payment of the penalty would not remove the grower's obligation to export the farm's total cotton production.

When a grower gets approval for export cotton acreage, he will post a bond to guarantee that all his cotton production will be moved into export. Failure to export the cotton would make the producer subject to liquidated damages at the rate of 50 percent of the parity price for the amount of cotton not exported.

J.L. Henderson Dies Tuesday

Jackie Lynn Henderson, 28, died Tuesday in a local hospital after a long illness. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Henderson, 301 East Sixth, and had lived here since June, 1963, when the family moved from Vernon.

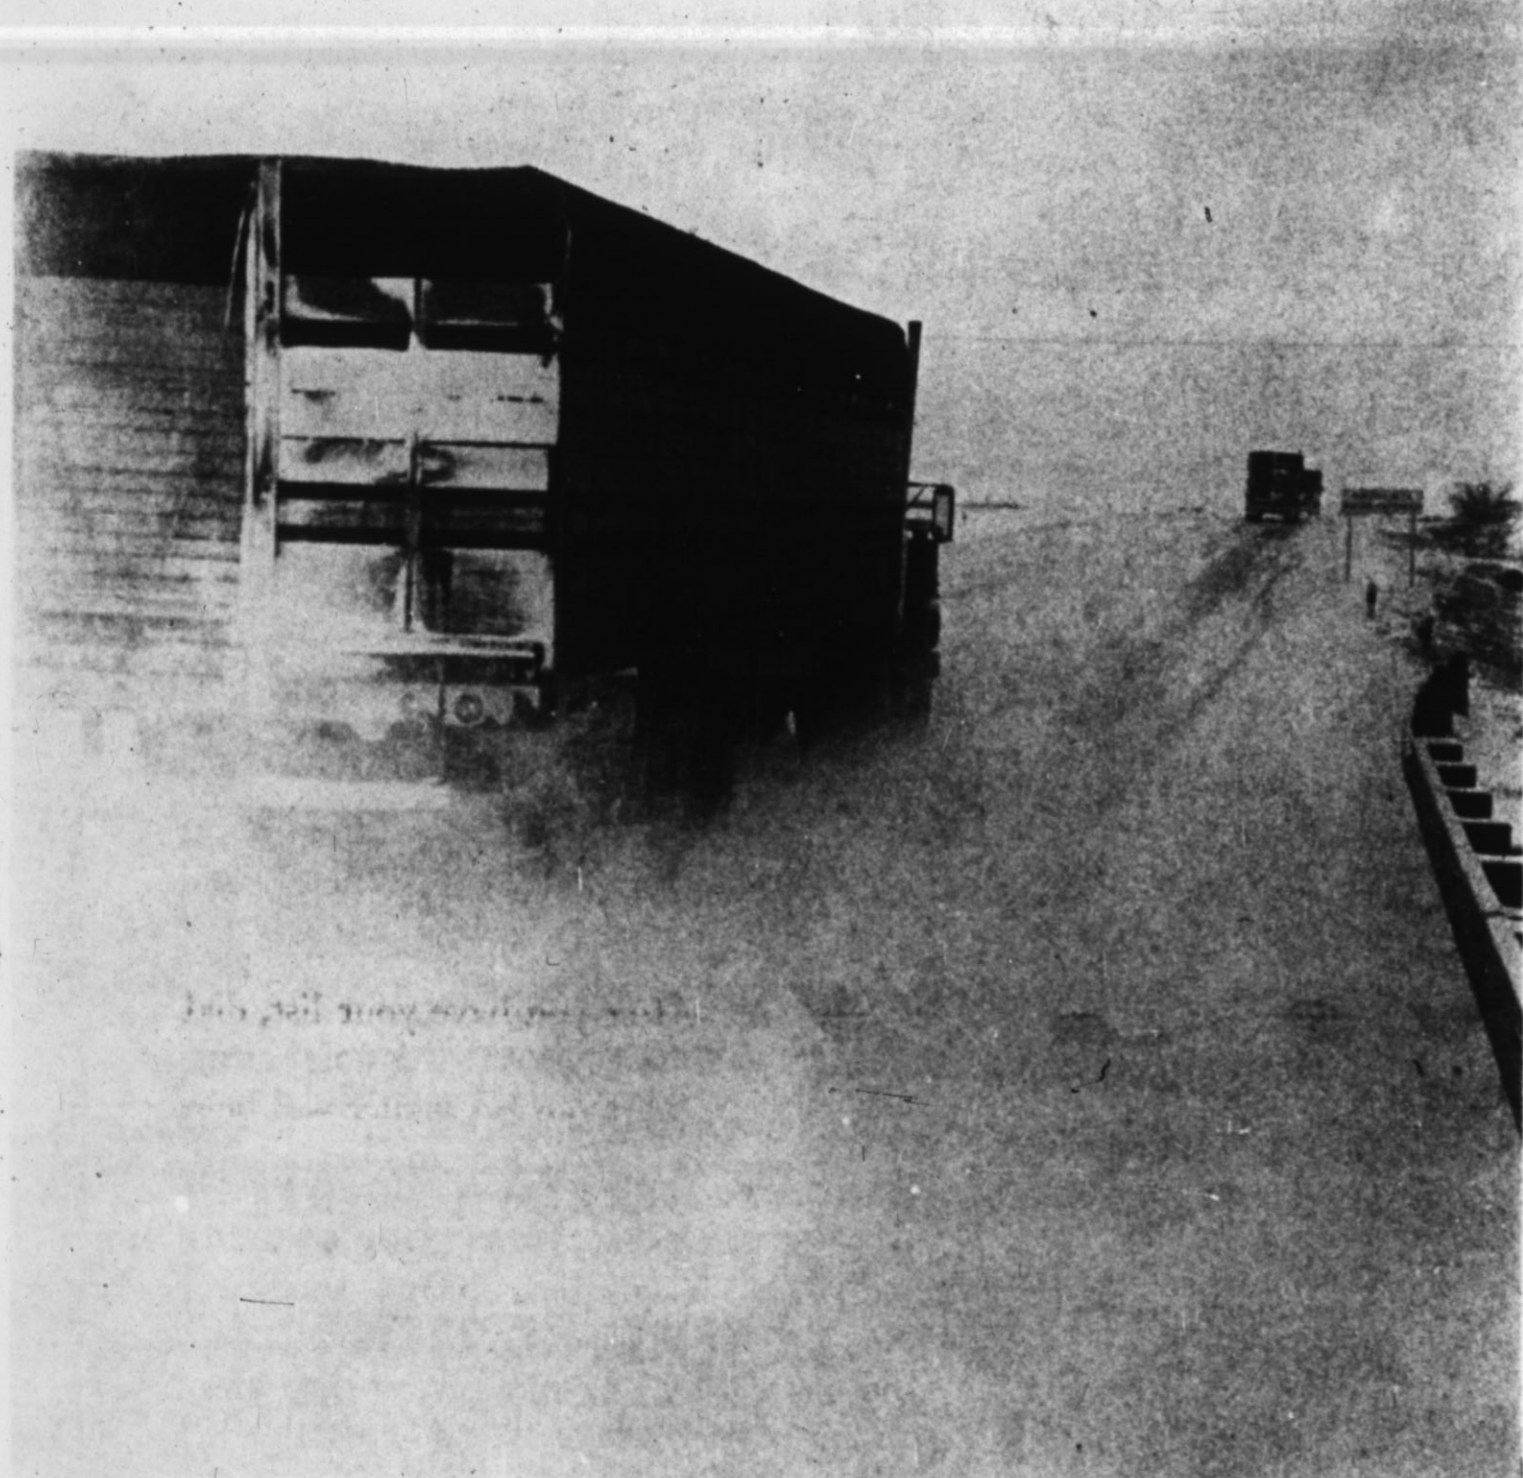

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday morning in the First Baptist Church by the Rev. B. L. Davis, pastor, and the Rev. Kenneth Irwin, pastor of Fellowship Baptist Church. Gililand Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements here.

Burial was at Vernon Wednesday afternoon.

Survivors, in addition to the parents, include his grandfather R. C. Lindley.

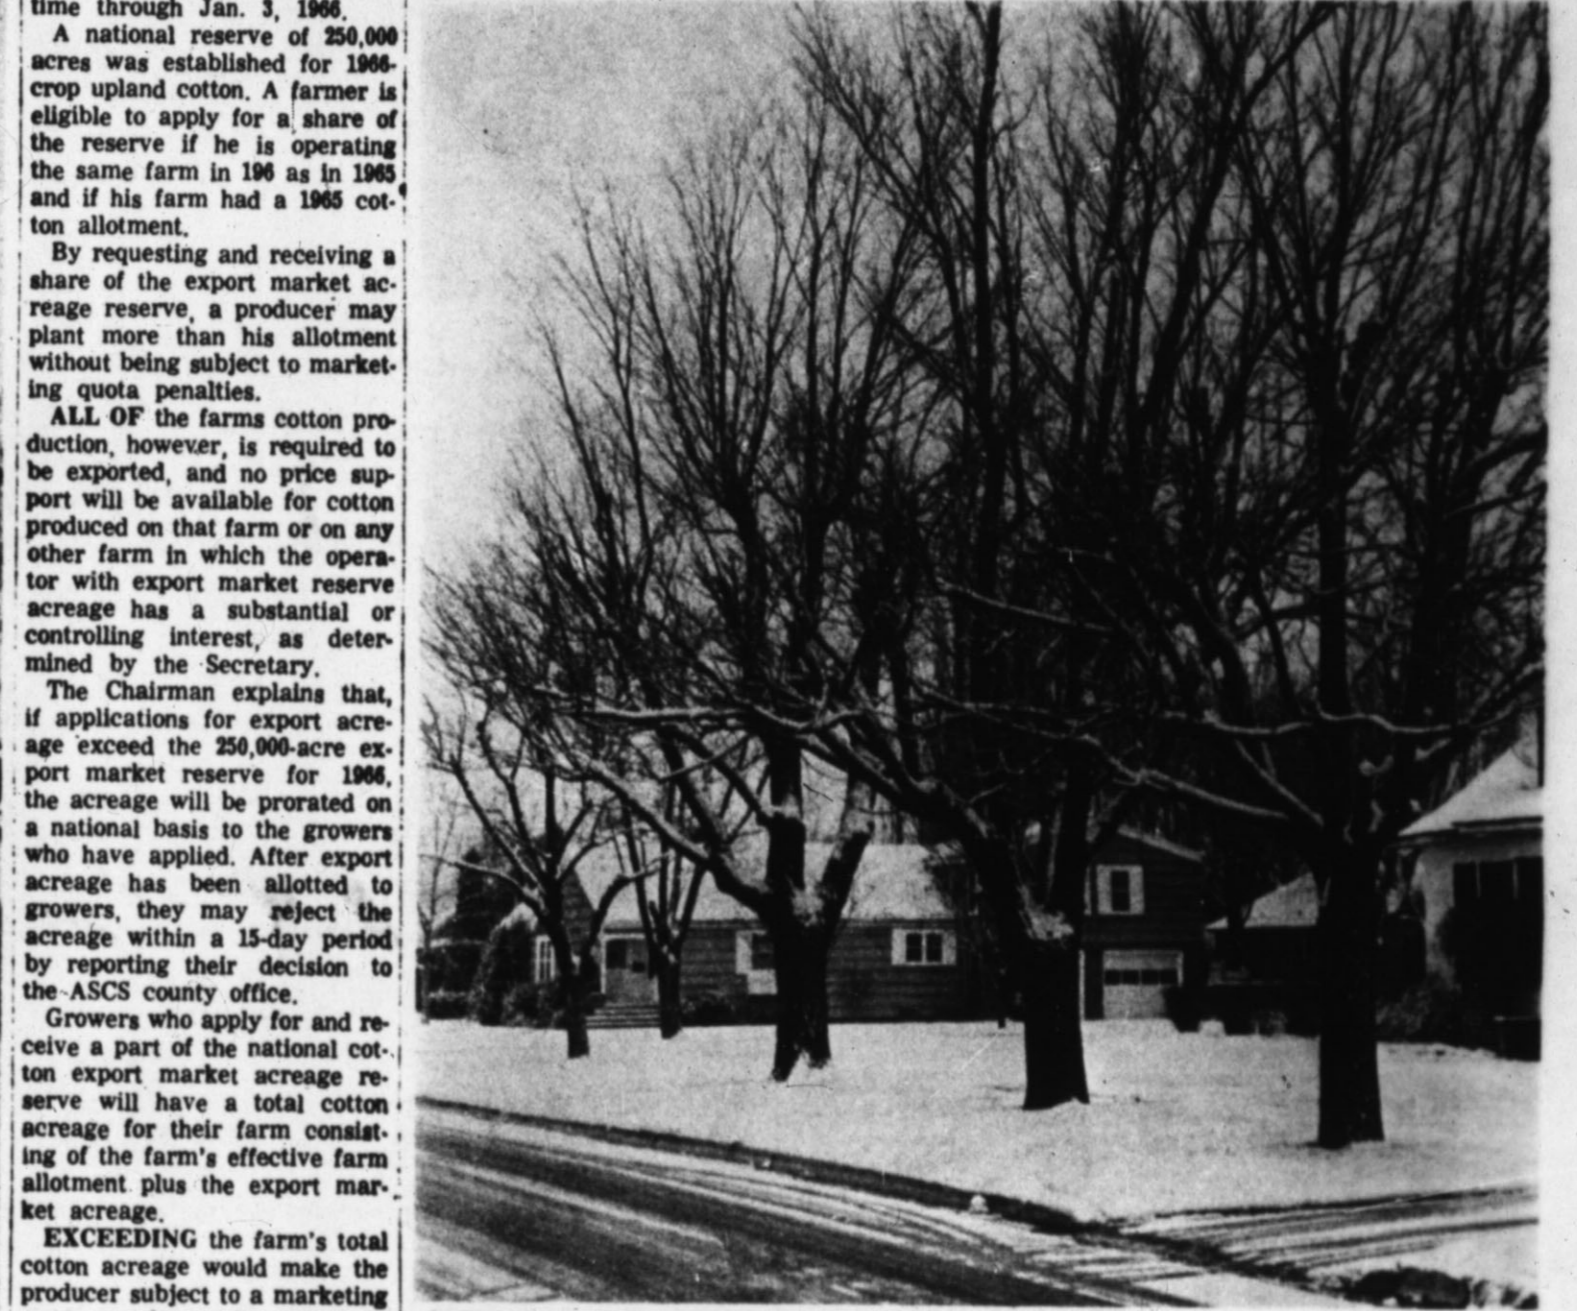

VISITS SANTA CLAUS—Many youngsters came to downtown Hereford Tuesday evening in the cold to visit with Santa Claus. The Hereford High School Choir added to the festive setting by singing Christmas Carols on Main Street. (Staff Photo)

HAZARD TO DRIVERS—Early morning traffic was stalled almost to a stand still as icy pavement made driving hazardous in Hereford. Here a large cattle truck tries to get enough traction to climb the small hill just south of Hereford on Hwy. 385. (Staff Photo by David Butler)

GOLFERS EXCHANGE GIFTS—At the Christmas luncheon of the Women's Golf Association in Hereford Country Club, gifts were exchanged from this stock around the white and red tree. Mrs. Meredith Ireland is testing on of the packages at its contents, as Mrs. Ross Cooley, left, Mrs. Ben Hill and Mrs. Joe Easley wait around the tree. Mrs. Easley, Association president, and Mrs. Cooley were hostesses for the December luncheon and an afternoon of cards. Mrs. Hill was winner of the golf prize in November and Mrs. Ireland in October. Golf games were canceled this week by the weather.

EARLY MORNING BEAUTY—Hereford residents who were up early Wednesday morning saw the beauty of the freshly fallen snow which is long overdue. The half-inch snow came with the third cold spell for the city. (Staff Photo by David Butler)

HEREFORD'S FIRST SNOWFALL—As silently as a sunset or sunrise, Hereford's first snowfall came in the early hours of Wednesday morning and quit before most residents arose. This scene is typical of many throughout the city Wednesday morning as snow continued to fall during the afternoon and evening. The snow came after a mass of cold air and moisture moved into the Hereford area. (Staff Photo by David Butler)

Doubleheaders To Start Friday

SECOND TIME IN SEASON

Whitefaces Take Road Victory Over Levelland

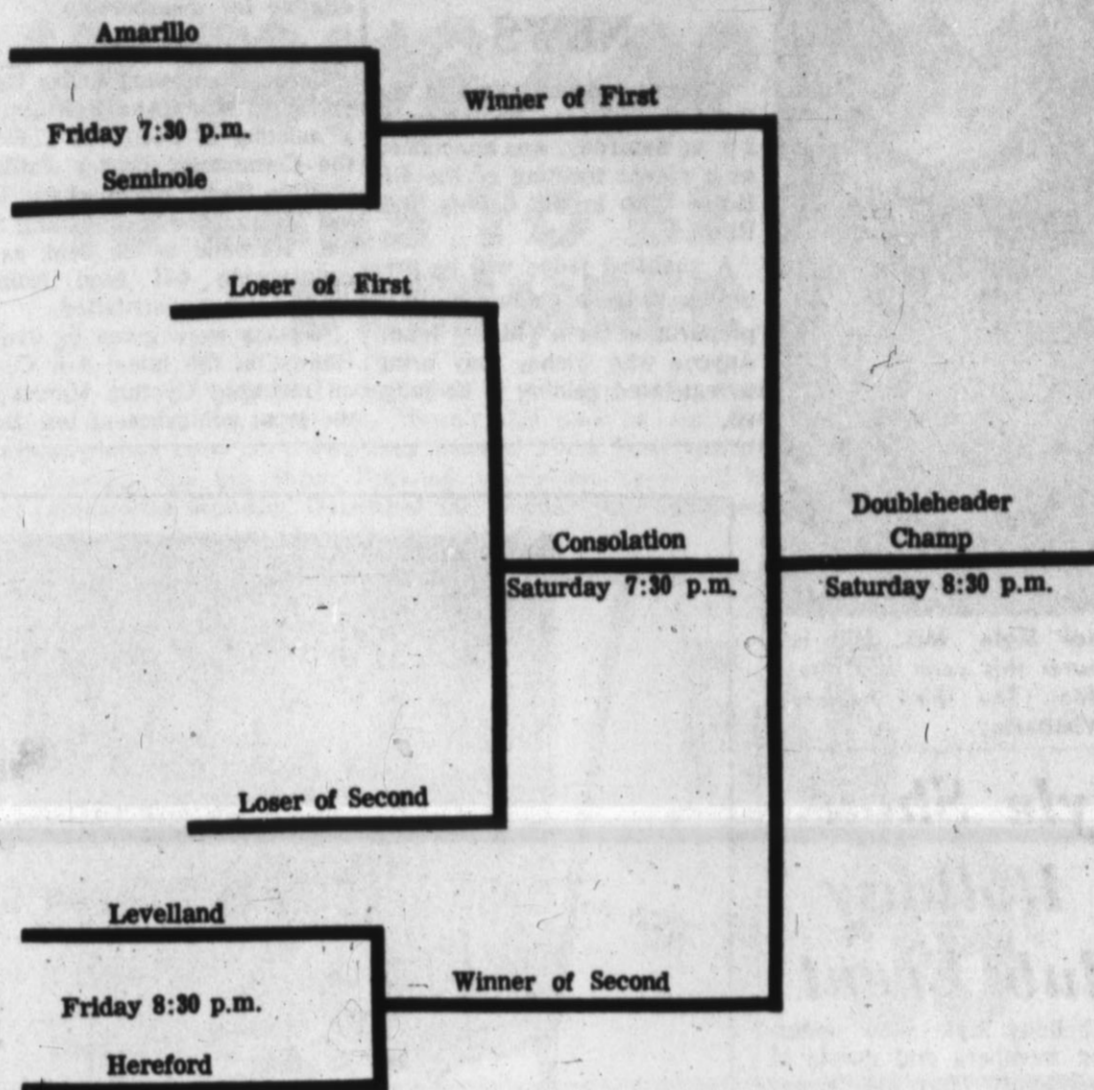

The Hereford Whitefaces took their fifth win Tuesday night in Levelland when they downed the Lobos 55-50. B-team members were not so lucky when they dropped their game by a 50-49 upset.

led 33-24 and by the end of the third stanza the Herd was ahead 43-36. LEVELLAND was never much of a threat to the Whitefaces until the final few seconds of the game when the Herd was ahead and trying to stall, but the "Faces" managed to hold the lead. Robby Lemons was high man for the game with 22 points and Oscar Holmes was second high man with only eight points. Steve Hodges scored seven points and Gary Payne and Gene Duvall scored six points each in the game. Clay Kreguer was high man for the Levelland Lobos scoring 28 points.

COACH CUBY Kitchens said he was pleased with the men's efforts. He said they "worked the ball better" in the Levelland game than in past games. Whiteface B-teamers lead the ball game till the final seconds when the Lobos sneaked up on them and passed them on the scoreboard.

Hereford led the bullgame with only four seconds remaining, but was unable to hold the lead till the final buzzer went off. THE WHITEFACES were as much as seven to 12 points ahead of the Lobos at times. Larry Noland was high man for the Bees scoring 12 points in the game. Hereford will see action again Friday when they clash with the Levelland Lobos for the third time this season in the Hereford Doubleheaders, at 8:30 p. m.

Amarillo High School will be matched against Seminole in the first game of the event, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Friday.

Four Teams Set For Play In Annual Event

Hereford High School will kick off its first annual Hereford Doubleheader Friday evening at 7:30. Four teams will participate in the event. Amarillo High School, Seminole and Levelland will be matched in the event. Friday at 7:30 p. m., Amarillo will be matched against the Seminole Indians and at 8:30 p. m. Hereford will be matched against Levelland.

Faces Drop Second To Demons, 64-55

The Hereford High School quintet dropped its second consecutive game in the Andrews Tournament Saturday evening against Dumas, 64-55. Hereford players won the first of the series when they downed Monahans by a score of 63-50. IN THE second round of play Saturday afternoon the Whitefaces were defeated by a rough team from Fort Stockton by a 69-66 score. The Dumas Demons fell to Andrews in the second round of play 49-30. For the third time this season Gene Duvall was not the high man for the Whitefaces. OSCAR Holmes led the team in scoring hitting 13 points in the game.

This will be the third clash for Hereford and Levelland. The Whitefaces clash with Levelland for their fourth game of the season and again Tuesday in Levelland.

THIS is the first year of the Hereford Double and officials hope to make it an annual event. Saturday will see the two losers matched against each other at 7:30 and the winners will battle at 8:30 p. m. Hereford will be entering the record. tournament with a 5-4 season. THE WHITEFACES added their fifth win Tuesday when they defeated the Levelland-Lobos for the second time by a 55-50 score. Hereford, earlier in the season, defeated Dimmitt, Plainview, Levelland and Monahans. In activity last weekend the Whitefaces defeated Monahans in their first game and then lost Saturday to Fort Stockton in the first game and then lost to Dumas in the second game of the evening.

HEREFORD dropped another game earlier in the season to the Phillips Blackhawks. Amarillo is the only AAAA school entered in the Doubleheaders, both Seminole and Levelland are members of AAA districts.

Both Eminole and Levelland were district champions last year with Levelland losing their first game in regional play. Seminole defeated Levelland, but was defeated in the second round of regional play.

LEVELLAND has two returning starters on their team this season. Admission to the games will be the same as to regular Whiteface games, 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

In his 14 years as head football coach at Auburn, Ralph Jordan has won 97 games, lost 39 and tied four. In 1957, he won the national championship.

Ralph Jordan, football coach at Auburn, got his nickname of "Shug" because in his youth, he loved to chew on sugarcane. John W. Heisman was the first head coach at Georgia Tech, serving from 1904 to 1919.

TURKEYS, WATCH GIVEN Wrestling Slated For Earlier Start

Big Time Wrestling will begin 15 minutes earlier in Hereford at 8:30 p. m. Saturday in the Bull Barn. Saturday will be the Christmas feature with four lucky spectators winning one of three turkeys or a lady's or man's 17 jewel watch.

Ricky Romero battled Tokyo Tom to a draw in a 15 minute round. Admission to the matches is $1.50 for ringside seats, $1 for general admission and 50 cents for children. The weekly event is sponsored by the Hereford Lions Club.

Frosh Drop Two On Road

Hereford Frosh dropped two road games last week—one to Plainview Estacado, 43-35, the other to Clovis Gattas, 60-30. IN BOTH games the frosh failed to get started in the first half making only one field goal in the first stanza against the Clovis team, and three in the second quarter. At the end of the half Clovis had the locals down 34-8.

The second half at Clovis was a different story with Hereford scoring 24 points during the final two stanzas. HEREFORD was also hurt by bad shooting at the free throw line according to coach Harold Sides, with the team hitting only about 30 percent of their shots at the charity lines. In the Estacado game Jim Scott was high man scoring 11 points. Dusty Duncan and Jerry Russell were close behind with Duncan scoring nine and Russell scoring six. High man in the Clovis game was Allen Caark with 11 points. Mike Whaley was high man for Clovis scoring 18 points in the game. The Frosh will have their first game of the season Monday when they clash with Muleshoe in the Stanton Junior High School Gym.

Bufs Hit Road For 5 Games, Set For NTSU

Following three straight losses at home, West Texas State will show its wares in five consecutive games, the first of which is a return engagement with North Texas State at Denton on Wednesday, December 15. The Buffaloes play at Tulsa on Friday, December 17, at Southern Colorado State on Monday, December 20, before taking a holiday break. Following the layoff, the Bufs travel to Columbus for a December 31 fray against Ohio State and continue on to Detroit to play the University of Detroit on January 3. Not until January 9 does the Maroon and White return to the Canyon maples. THE THREE teams on the first swing have a combined record of 10-3 going into Monday night's action. North Texas State which plays Hardin-Simmons on Monday, is 4-0 including a 73-71 win over the Buffaloes in Canyon. Tulsa sports a 3-1 record with a Monday game against Loyola of New Orleans and Southern Colorado is 3-2 going into a Thursday encounter with Weber State. North Texas' outstanding win was a 75-60 conquest of Baylor at Waco. Tulsa outlasted Kansas State 70-63 at Manhattan and Southern Colorado owns a 92 points-per game scoring average against top Rocky Mountain small college competition. Although the Buffaloes are 0-3, they show a mere 14-point deficit in scoring having lost 62-52 to Abilene Christian, 74-72 to Eastern New Mexico and 73-71 to North Texas State. Highlight of the loss to the Eagles was the return to form of Buff guard Gail Simpson who had fallen on hard times mostly due to a pre-season illness. Simpson scored 18 points against the Eagles, 16 in the last half and very nearly guided the Buffaloes to an upset over the Missouri Valley team. ALTHOUGH their field goal percentage is still relatively low, the Bufs have been pounding the offensive board with regularity to get the second and third shots which have kept them in contention. In the previous two years of coach Jimmy Viramontes regime, poor shooting has spelled a 20-point plus defeat due to a lack of offensive rebounding. In the first three games, Viramontes started lettermen Mickey Fitts (6-5) at forward, Cal Taylor (6-7) at center and Joe McWilliams (5-9) at guard. Simpson started the first two games but was replaced by transfer Rod Teague against NTSU. Two other transfers, 6-5 Bill Reeves and 6-5 Ron Gardner, have alternated at the other forward ward slot. As of the moment, however, it looks as though it may be Fitts and Gardner at forwards, Taylor at center and Simpson and Teague outside, a lineup which averages just a shade under 6-4 in height. Fitts is leading scorer with 41 points while Teague shows a fine .692 field goal percentage on nine of 13. McWilliams and Taylor have 18 rebounds each for the top mark.

Herd Leads District 1-AAA Football Honor Team List

The Hereford Whitefaces topped the 1-AAA district in All-District players with 11 members of the Herd taking 13 places on the four teams. HEREFORD placed the only sophomore on any of the teams this year. Lineman Tony Malouf placed on the first team defense. The list came following the Dumas loss to Brownwood in the bi-district playoffs. Members of the teams cannot be released until all teams in the district are finished playing.

Hereford wound up their best season in the past four years. THE Whitefaces finished fourth in the district behind Dumas, Perryton and Tullia. On the first team defense Dumas led with five players making the team. Perryton placed three, Tullia placed two and Hereford, Muleshoe and Canyon all placed one each. Hereford led the second team defense, placing six players on that team. Tullia placed four, Dumas three and Muleshoe and Perryton placed one each. HEREFORD and Tullia both led the second team offense, placing four players on each. Dumas placed three players on the team and Muleshoe each on the team. The Perryton Rangers led the second team offense, placing five men on that team. Hereford, Dumas and Canyon all placed two players each on the team and Tullia placed one on the team. PERRYTON was second in the district on the team with 12 players placed. Dumas and Tullia each placed 10 players on the teams. Muleshoe placed eight players and Canyon placed one. Those placing on the team from Hereford were Steve Hodges, Roger Owen, Ed Mims, Ricky Fangman, Charles Brewton, Gary Tucker, Gene Drummond, Wayne Miller, Greg Richards, Mike Davis and Malouf.

Whiteface track coach, Joe Brooks, said he has scheduled four meets for the Herd this spring and hopes he can work in some others. Brooks said the team will start working out following the Christmas break. Coach Cyde Coleman said he has scheduled the Hereford B-team for two tournaments coming up in the next few weeks. THE TEAM will travel to Farewell Dec. 28-31 for a tourney there and then Jan. 8 they will travel to Tullia for a sophomore tournament. During the remainder of the season the B-team will have nearly the same schedule as the varsity cagers. Calvin Goodin, Hereford Whiteface Booster Club president, reminded all of the local fans that the club meets each Monday evening at 8 in the Community center. EACH WEEK those attending hear reports on each of Hereford's teams from their coaches. The general response around the Hereford coffee shops about Coach Darrel Royal's decision to stay with the Longhorns seems to indicate that most Herefordites don't agree with him. Most people feel the Longhorns' showing in last season's play indicates Royal should leave while he is ahead. We don't know what prompted his decision, but $32,000 a year plus "benefits" would be tempting to us. Maybe he knows something we don't. Or maybe the decision shows that Royal is not a "quitter" — he has the internal fortitude to stick out another season with the Longhorns and hope he can make some improvements.

Now that basketball season is well underway the big thing in Hereford this weekend will be the Hereford Doubleheaders at the high school. BY THE END of the event Hereford and Levelland players should be on first name basis with each other. If they are speaking, since they will have clashed three times in three weeks, twice in four days. Coach Cuby Kitchens, head basketball coach, said he hopes fans will support the weekend event so that it can become an annual affair at Hereford. The tourney should provide some good ball playing with four teams scheduled for the event — Amarillo High, Seminole, Levelland and the locals. We think the event merits the local fan's support and will provide two nights of good entertainment. Coach Jack Meredith said that the special physical education class held at the field house every afternoon is showing some successful results with many of the boys in the class showing some impressive improvement since it started. THE CLASS is especially designed to improve the men's agility and timing. It will help all those taking it improve their techniques whether or not they are participating in high school sports. Hereford fans should be very proud of their football team this year, with the Whitefaces taking 13 positions on the all-district slate, the most of any of the six teams in the conference. THE Whitefaces were the only team in the district to place a sophomore on any of the teams — lineman Tony Malouf. ALTHOUGH Hereford placed fourth on the district list this year, the figures are somewhat deceitful. It seems Hereford just barely dropped the big games and none were lost by a large score. Hereford baseball coach Don

A horse judging clinic at the Holly Feed Yards, beginning at 2 p. m. Saturday, was announced at a recent meeting of the 4-H Horse Club in the County Bull Barn.

A qualified judge will be present to judge a gelding class in preparation for a judging team. Anyone who wishes may bring a registered gelding to be judged.

A demonstration on safety in handling horses was given by Jim Cooper, club president. A film, Youth and the Quarter Horse, was shown. The meeting was the first for the club since its organization last month. Bud Burgess is the adult leader and any 4-H Club member interested in horses is eligible for membership.

Cantata Set At Morning Service

A Christmas cantata, The Day Star, will be presented at the morning service of First Christian Church Sunday, one of the numerous musical programs being heard in churches of the city during the weeks celebrating the birth of Christ.

Ben Gollehon will direct the church choir in this presentation of Noble Cain's cantata, with Mrs. Joe Hacker as organist. Mrs. Bob Lohr will be the soloist. The public is invited to this service of worship in song, the Rev. Eugene Brink, minister, announces.

Poems, Songs On Pioneer Program

Christmas stories in verse were read by Mrs. Ralph McCullough, and music of the season was presented by two guests for Pioneer Study Club at a luncheon in the Caison House Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Jamie Clearman played organ solos and accompanied Gene Streun as he sang solos, I Heard the Bells and Silver Bells. Then they led the group in singing the beloved Christmas hymn, Silent Night.

Mrs. A. L. Manjeet presented the meditation, How To Spell Christmas, and introduced Mrs. McCullough, who told the Legend of the Poinsettia and read the rhymed nativity stories. A gift exchange completed the program.

Presiding for a business period, Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Sr. announced that the club's guest day is scheduled Jan. 11 when Mrs. Earl Humphrey of Lubbock will be the speaker.

Mrs. W. C. Hromas and Mrs. Ralph McCullough of the community improvement committee, reported that dozens of blubs and irises have been planted in a city park. Members were reminded to contribute candy or cookies for Christmas gifts to Boy Scout groups.

Style Show Is Holiday Club Event

A holiday style show entertained members and guests of Veleda Study Club and Young Mothers Club Friday evening. Fashions from Gaston's Store, suitable for gifts or for wearing during the gala days of early winter, were paraded in the women's department at the store.

Mrs. Glen Al Hunter, president greeted guests who filled the showroom. Models walked down the stairs from the French Room and between the rows of chairs, wearing costumes for girls and women.

Mrs. Irving Alexander served as narrator for the style parade, commenting on the clothes for all occasions, day and night. She and Mr. Alexander were producers of the fashion revue.

Holiday confections and coffee were served after the show from a table covered with lace over a green cloth and centered with a huge green candle rising from a mass of greenery studded with gilded ornaments. Mrs. Don Baugous and Mrs. Hunter poured.

Guests registered at a table decorated in red and green, with a tall stylized tree holding tiny red birds on its branches.

Families Guests Of Wyche Club

The annual holiday supper for families of Wyche Home Demonstration Club members was held in First National Community Room recently. Games of 42 entertained the group after supper.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Draper and Mrs. Nona Duncan.

Also present were the Carrol Newson, Chales Packard, L. C. Worthan, Norman Hodges, G. W. Duncan and Leroy Bodkin families, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ott, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Axe.

Mrs. Delmar Sigle, Mrs. William Wimberley and Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. were hostesses. A standing wreath of cedar and poinsettia blooms centered the head table, while side tables were decorated with a Santa Claus figure and a group of candles.

Mrs. R. J. Smith was a guest. Members present included Mm Mmes. Mary Seigler, P. B. Sowell, Bess Werner, R. L. Wilson, William Wimberley, Frank Ball, Ted Panciera, John Patton, H. E. Miller, Wirt Phillips, Ray L. Johnson, Henry Hastings, J. M. Gilliland, N. E. Gass, Buri France, Allen Bell and Fred Barrett.

Dawn Club Hears Music Of Yuletide

Sacred music was featured on the Christmas program of Dawn Music Club Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Carl Wimberley. Mrs. Ray Polan was co-hostess.

Familiar Christmas carols were sung by the members preceding a gift exchange. Mrs. Wimberley played as an organ solo Schubert's Ave Maria and Mrs. R. T. Stewart played Silent Night. Mrs. Edgar Sowell read the Clement Moore verses, The Night Before Christmas.

Holiday decorations were evident in the rooms and refreshments of fruit cake and coffee continued the seasonal motif.

Other members present were Mmes. Eldon Owens, Alfred Smith, Robert Strain, L. W. Tooley, Steve Bavousett, Clarence Betzen, J. B. Caraway, Leo Criddle, R. E. Curtsinger, Paul dde, R. E. Curtsinger, Paul Engler, H. E. Miller Jr., William Wimberley, H. V. McCabe and Miss Bertha Frye.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Exotic Food Not Tricky

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Exotic dishes from the Orient are just ordinary food to Mrs. Gene Parsley, 948 Beach, who was born in Rangoon, Burma, and grew up in a British family in India.

She still enjoys the food she learned to like as a child, and is sorry that American cooks so often think the Indian cuisine is too complicated for the housewife to attempt.

"CURRIES," she says, "need not be difficult to prepare, and they are a wonderful way to use left-overs!"

"It is fascinating to watch an Indian cook mixing spices to a paste, grinding them, pounding and rolling them on a flat stone, sprinkling them with water and rolling some more — taking more time than you or I would spend. But I buy the same spices at the store, already ground and ready to use."

Other steps in the cooking process can be simplified also, Mrs. Parsley declares, and adapted to available materials. The necessary spices can all be found readily, but it isn't always possible to find fresh coconut milk, for instance.

THAT PROBLEM is easily solved by the pretty Hereford housewife. She says a cupful of coconut milk with the right flavor for the curry sauce can be obtained by pouring about 1 1/2 cups of water over 1/2 cup shredded coconut and boiling it until the water is white, then squeezing the liquid out.

Her recipe for a curry which is "certainly no harder to make than Swedish meat balls" is taken from a cookbook sent to her by her mother, who lives in London.

It is called Curries of India and Mrs. Parsley likes it because it translates oriental ingredients into materials and measurements which are familiar to cooks in England or America.

Mrs. Parsley has met the writer, Harvey Day, a native of Pakistan, and appreciates his attempt to make Indian cookery more widely known. Here is a recipe from his book for a dish which he calls a universal favorite in India and Pakistan, with parenthetical comments from Mrs. Parsley:

KOFTAH CURRY

1 medium onion, chopped finely

4 cloves garlic, finely minced (garlic powder is as good and doesn't scent your hands)

A pinch each of black pepper, cinnamon, cloves, cardamom.

2 green chilis, finely chopped (if you want them)

2 medium potatoes, cooked and mashed (about one cup left-over potatoes)

1 tsp. salt

1 egg.

BLEND WELL, and with lightly floured hands made balls the size of a walnut. Fry to a light brown in cooking oil, drain.

Using some of the fat drained off, fry 1 large onion, chopped, 3 tomatoes, chopped (or 1 can, drained). Add ground spices: 1 tsp. coriander, 1/2 tsp. each of tumeric, cumin, ginger and chilis (chili powder.)

Cook these ingredients at a simmer, covered, for five minutes. (If you add a little water you can be sure it won't scorch.)

Add 1 cup thin coconut milk (from a fresh coconut or made as detailed above) and a generous squeeze of lemon juice.

Cook a little, then add meat balls and simmer gently a half-hour. If meat balls stick to bottom of pan, loosen them. (To make gravy and at the same time prevent sticking, add about 1 cup hot water.)

THIS CURRY should be served Indian style with rice and Mrs. Parsley says she prefers to cook regular rice, the long-grain type, rather than use quick-cook rice which some housewives like. She prepares a large quantity of rice and uses the left-over for fried rice and in other dishes.

To assure that the rice grains will be separated and fluffy, Mrs. Parsley puts 1 cup raw rice in 2 cups cold water, brings it to a boil, then puts a tight lid on the utensil and does not lift it for 14 minutes.

Experience has taught her that this method works, and that lifting the lid for even a peek spoils the effect. She says rice may be prepared this way some time before serving, and will remain fluffy if it is left covered.

OTHER MEAT, including left-over roast, fish, shrimp, eggs or chicken may be substituted for the ground meat in this recipe with equally delicious results, she adds.

Mrs. Parsley's route from her birthplace in Burma to her pleasant ranch-style house in north-west Hereford took her through some years in London, where she met Parsley when he was stationed there in U. S. Navy service.

She had already determined to come to the United States, and applied for visas, so when her papers were in order she came to this country but kept up a correspondence with her future husband.

When they decided to be married, the English girl had to go from America back to England. They lived in London seven months before his military service was over and they went to California. He joined the Holy Sugar Corp. in that state and was transferred here when the firm's Shoup Plant opened.

The Parsleys have a nine-year old daughter, Jane, and a son, Steven, three.

Ever split and fill tiny cupcakes for a party? The filling will be delicious and festive if you flavor chocolate frosting with rum; use the same concoction for covering the cakes and garnish with nuts.

Annual Christmas Party Given By H. D. Council

Five awards for perfect attendance through 1965 were presented at the annual Christmas party of Deaf Smith Home Demonstration Council Monday afternoon at Community Center.

A book review and carols featured the program. Mrs. Jimmy Bradley, Viola Williams, Paul Hoff, Bess Werner and J. D. Gilbert Jr. each received a gift in recognition of attendance at all Council meetings of the year, and Mrs. Wesner accepted also the scrapbook award won by the Westway Club of which she is a member.

Presentations included a gift to Mrs. Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent. Mrs. H. L. Hershey expressed appreciation of the Council for Mrs. Draper's work as she gave the package.

Mrs. Charles Packard, recreation chairman, introduced members on program. Mrs. A. E. Hodges reviewed a book of humorous childhood recollection, "Ye Jigs and Juleps, after carols led by Mrs. J. B. Caraway with Mrs. T. J. Parsons at the piano. The opening prayer was by Mrs. Alice Cox.

Mrs. T. J. Frost poured coffee and Mrs. Hoff served punch in the refreshment period. An attractive assortment of sandwiches and Christmas candies were served from a table covered with a cloth patterned in holly and red bows. The centerpiece was a large red candle surrounded by green branches.

Atop the piano, an arrangement of colored lights, gleaming balls and greenery was set between small Christmas trees made of rows of brightly-wrapped candy. Handsome scrapbooks entered in the contest were displayed on a table centered with a Santa Claus boot filled with candy canes.

Officers Named For Auxiliary Of WW I Vets

Returning Mrs. B. F. Markham to the presidency, the Ladies Auxiliary of World War I Veterans elected officers at a recent meeting in Community Center.

The 1966 officers were installed immediately after election in a ceremony conducted by Mrs. Corena Wyatt of Amarillo. A social period followed, and refreshments were served.

Chosen to serve with Mrs. Markham for the coming term were Mrs. Charles Hood and Mrs. John Hamby, vice presidents; Mrs. J. E. Young, secretary; Mrs. F. S. Smith, chaplain, and Mrs. Ross Stark, conductress.

Old-Time Christmas Party Given

Evoking some of the Christmas joys of their own childhood, members of Ford Home Demonstration club entertained their families and other guests at an old-fashioned Christmas tree and party in Ford Community Building Saturday evening.

The decorated tree held packages for everyone present for distribution as the highlight of the evening. Judy Hollingsworth led the singing of carols and the guests enjoyed informal visiting.

Christmas sweets were served with coffee and punch from tables gay with greenery and candles. Other seasonal decorations brightened the rooms.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Dean, who have lived in the Ford Community since 1919 and recall the Christmas programs which were held at the building when it was used as a school; Mr. and Mrs. Don Hicks and Mrs. Kathryn Humphrey.

Members' families present, totaling 23 adults and 26 children, were those of the Alton Hollingsworths, James H. Jamersons, A. J. Jamersons, Raymond Smiths, J. R. Flores, C. R. Stokesberry, Frank Brormans, Harry Brormans, C. Gossetts and Leroy Edwards.

Open Door Class Is Entertained

The annual Christmas dinner of the Open Door Class of First Methodist Sunday School was held Saturday evening in the home of Mrs. Charles Bell, teacher. Mrs. T. J. Parsons and Mrs. Bryant Powell of the social committee were hostesses with Mrs. Bell.

Evergreens and Christmas symbols decorated the living room and den where guests were seated at tables centered with pictured Santa faces. Favors were miniature Santas holding candy.

After the turkey dinner, the group sang carols with Mrs. Merlin Kaul at the piano. Mrs. Bell read the nativity story from Luke's Gospel and Mrs. Powell read a Christmas poem, L. D. McCauley, vice president of the class, presented a gift from members to Mrs. Bell. The remainder of the evening was spent in games of dominoes.

TEXAS AUTO INSURANCE IS STILL A NATIONAL BARGAIN

Even though the rates have been increased (effective August 1, 1965) your Texas automobile insurance is still one of the best buys in the United States.

Texas Ranks 1st in miles of highways
3rd in number of automobiles
5th in population
6th in number of licensed drivers

but only . . .

36th in average cost of auto insurance

What's more while the nation's highest rate is 101% higher than Texas', the nation's lowest is only 34% lower than Texas.

Price increases of any kind are never popular; but your Independent Insurance Agents ask you to remember three things:

1. People and their driving performance actually set auto insurance rates. When there are more accidents, more people killed and injured, high repair costs, and increased medical expenses, it is inevitable that rates must go up.
2. You still pay less for your protection than do most American drivers.
3. For the best insurance and service, see your INDEPENDENT INSURANCE AGENT.

GOOD MUSIC

... the common language of all people. It takes skilled musicians to blend an orchestra into the perfect ensemble... to make good music. Just as surely as it requires more discords than concords to make good music, so does it take more disappointment, sorrow and trouble to sweeten up a life... to make a good Christian. The orchestra spends a lot of time just tuning up. And so does a life if it is to count for God. One must go to Sunday School, attend church and learn of Him, if his music, his life is to be worthy to be used by God to warm the hearts of men. They learn well and play true.

Touring Dramatists To Present Play In Church

A nationally-known dramatic group, the Bishop's Company of Burbank, Calif., will present one of Henry Ibsen's famous plays, An Enemy of the People in a vesper service at First Methodist Church Sunday beginning at 5 p. m.

The vesper hour was chosen for this program, explains the Rev. Herschel L. Thurston, pastor, so members of other churches may see the play and then attend evening services at their own churches.

Organized to present drama with a religious note or a significant message, the Bishop's Company has made 24 national tours in the past 12 years, staging more than 6,000 productions.

The play to be presented here is among the best known by Ibsen, a Norwegian dramatist who gained fame in the early years of this century as one of the first dramatists to base his plots on controversial issues.

Theme of An Enemy of the People is the conflict of a man and his conscience. Set in a small Norwegian village looking forward to prosperity through development of its hot springs as a health resort, the principal character is a man who discovers that the spring has been contaminated, and who finds his principles opposed to the town's financial interest.

After the hour-and-25-minute play, church members will meet in the fellowship hall for a covered-dish family supper. Songs by all choirs and music by the hand bell choir are on program, then everyone will be invited to join in trimming an old-fashioned Christmas tree.

Holiday Party For Pupils Set

Volunteers to assist with Christmas parties for pupils of St. Anthony's and St. Joseph's schools were enlisted at a recent meeting of St. Anthony's Parish Council in the school auditorium.

The parties will be held on Dec. 23, just before pupils are dismissed for the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Warner Koehler presided for the Council business meeting when plans were announced.

A short message from the Very Rev. Angelus Delahant, praising work of the lay apostolates at St. Joseph's Mission, preceded the program discussion by the Rev. Alexander Benoit. Ecumenism was defined as a world-wide attempt to create greater understanding and full unity among churches.

Hostesses were Misses Bill Stengel, Charles Vasek and A. C. Stengel, who served refreshments to 29 other members.

Mrs. Smithers Honoree At Bridal Shower-Tea

A shower-tea honored Mrs. Jimmy Smithers, who before her marriage was Miss Truby Sue Benefield, in the home of Mrs. Alvin Smith Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Smithers are at home at 335 George after being married here Nov. 24.

The bride received guests with her mother, Mrs. Troy Benefield, her husband's mother, Mrs. Clyde Smithers, and Mrs. Smith. At the register were Misses Levenie and Donnell Benefield, sisters of the honoree, and Miss Norma Jean Smithers, the bridegroom's sister.

The bride's table was laid with white cutwork over red with a center piece of red and white flowers in seasonal theme. A three-tiered wedding cake decorated with sugar roses was featured, topped with a miniature bridal pair standing beneath a wedding bell.

Presiding at the table were Misses Peggy Neff, Cynthia Knox, Donna Johnson and Nancy Smith.

Hostesses with Mrs. Smith were Misses Ernest Neff, Alton Hollingsworth, A. R. Dillard, Alvis Jolly, Chester Wiggins, Wilburn Axe, Dale Young, Elmer Patterson, Harold Wester, Willodyne Brooks and T. L. Bryant, also Mrs. Oscar Wylie of Dimmitt.

Signing the guest register were Mesdames Layton Sawyer, Jack Beach, H. E. Wester, N. R. Jones, R. E. Drager, Ray Brittain, Don Robinson, Bill Williams, Gaiher Vanderveer Jr., Johnny Patterson, Joe Shollenbarger, Hilrey Aven, E. W. Johnson, J. C. Reese, Wayne B. Stark, Al Lee, Raymond Dement and E. A. Guinn, and Mrs. James McBride of Plainview.

Also Misses Pat Beach, Sandra Huckabee, Betty Drager, Janice Brittain, Anna Johnson, Patricia Neff and Donita McDermitt.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Fragments of conversation always interest me, the kind you hear when you're passing people on the street, or that drift over when there is a lull in a crowded room. I don't mean listening to other people's conversations, which might be even more fascinating but is not a socially acceptable practice.

RATHER, I mean the little bits of talk that may express a universal truth even out of context, or else make you wonder just what the subject of that conversation could be. Here are a few heard lately: "Somebody said the 18th but I didn't know the 18th of what." "... but they didn't have enough brick. So we said no."

"There was eight of them to come in there right at supper time..." "... and I'd just finished packing nine shoeboxes full of candy."

FRIENDS IN HEREFORD as well as in several other area cities have been invited to a morning party in Mrs. Ray Polan's home at Dawn today, another on the list of holiday hospitalities. Incidentally, the party is a birthday compliment to Mrs. Lea May, who lived at Dawn before she moved to a new home on Westhaven here a year or so ago.

IF YOU CAN'T move it, decorate it. That was the solution used by the committee which arranged staging for the Candy Circus at the County Bull Barn yesterday. The obstacle was the wrestling ring. Decorating something as big as the Bull Barn is no simple matter anyhow, but committee members were spreading circus color lavishly when they ran up against the ring. The first decision was to move it, but when they found how much work that would entail, they changed their minds.

Making a wrestling ring look like something else is quite a problem, but the ladies just used it as a background, with the sides draped and hung with big candy cane cutouts, and it looked as though it were intended to be part of the setting.

RESPONSE TO A request for a good spiced tea recipe, lately relayed here, came from Abbie Crume, who said her method was a time-tested one, which her mother used. Passed on to the person who asked for the recipe, it was tried and approved, and from the sample served to me, my recommendation is added.

If somebody else would like the recipe, here it is: Boil for 10 minutes, 2 cups sugar and 4 cups of cold water with a spice bag containing 1 tsp each of cinnamon, cloves and allspice. Remove from heat, take out the spice bag and add a bag containing 1/3 cup tea. Let steep 5 to 10 minutes, until strong enough to suit taste. Add 1 small can of orange juice, 2/3 cup lemon juice and 2 quarts boiling water.

For the spice bag, my acquaintance emptied a tea bag, put in the ground spices and then stitched up the opened end of the bag. It worked perfectly.

Westway Club Officers Installed At Coffee

Installation of 1966 officers was a feature of Westway Home Demonstration Club's Christmas coffee in the home of Mrs. Paul Rudd Monday morning. The hostess, retiring president, conducted the ceremony using a theme of Harmony symbolized by orchestra instruments.

She presented the leader's baton to Mrs. Homer Rudd, new president; likened Mrs. Roland Hairgrove's work as vice president to that of the pianist, Mrs. Kenneth Rudd's as secretary to the drummer's, and Mrs. Jimmy Thomas' as reporter to the trumpet player's.

Mrs. George Turrentine, treasurer, and Mrs. Donald Douglas, Council delegate, are the other officers. Carol singing led by Mrs.

The family-sized tea bags may be used for the brew. Mrs. Crume suggests that the spice bag be set aside after it is removed from the syrup, in case you like your tea spicier and wish to put it back for added stepping. And if you prefer a tart drink, decrease the sugar by about half a cupful.

IF YOU HAVEN'T seen the display of Christmas art from Hereford grade schools, which covers a wall in the First National Bank, it is worth a trip for a look. I'm told it's an annual custom to hang these efforts of pupils in the first grade grades. They certainly shed a Christmas-y atmosphere in the bank.
